Vesper Service At United Church Greatly Enjoyed

Visiting talent from Russell, Chesterville and Smiths Falls assisted members of Winchester United Church Choir in presenting their annual Autumn Vesper and Musical Service Sunday night following the regular service of worship. The inspiring, well arranged program was heard by a congregation of over two hundred people, and was sponsored by the Music Committee in support of the church organ fund.

The Rev. T. N. Mitchell was the narrator for the entertaining program of light classics, hymns and anthems, and the organist and choir leader was Mrs. Howard Fetterly. Those taking part and their various numbers were: Mr. Jack Rodney, soloist in Trinity United Church, Smiths Falls, who sang "The Blind Ploughman"; Mr. George Rodney, who is also a soloist in the same church,who sang "Lord Make Me Strong"; Messrs. Rodney also sang "Jesus Lover Of My Soul," as a duet. Russell's contribution to the program was Miss Aynslee Morrow who played as a piano solo "Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata" (first mov.) and Grainger's arrangement of Brahm's "Cradle Song." A trio, composed of three Chesterville women, Mesdames F. M. Cass, Allison Graham and Eric Casselman, sang "Crossing The Bar" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot." Besides the congregational singing, the choir also rendered the anthem, "Joyful and Triumphant," and several other choral numbers.

Eventide, with Rev. T. N. Mitchell narrating, and Mrs. F. M. Cass as soloist, climaxed the well executed program. The theme of the concluding Eventide presentation was in keeping with Christmas, and the hymn used was the well known carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Those taking part were served refreshments following the program.

Other officers elected were, secretary-treasurer, Harry Potter, Winchester; executive committee, C. A. Rath, Ottawa; J. W. Barber, Perth; Mrs. Robert Gamble, Russell; Hugh McMaster, Winchester, and Mrs. Talman Gray, of Lyn, Ont.

Mountain Township Man Fatally Injured When Struck By Car Here On Tuesday

A driving snowstorm and slippery pavement were believed to have contributed largely to the tragic death of Cecil Wylie, Mountain Township Road Superintendent, here early Tuesday evening, when he was struck by a car and instantly killed. Driver of the car was Howard Annable, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Annable, of Winchester.

According to Police Chief Gilbert Raistrick, the accident occurred about eight o'clock Tuesday evening on St. Lawrence Street (Highway 31) opposite the Public School campus and just north of the York-St. Lawrence intersection. Mr. Wylie, who had been to Ottawa on a regular business trip for the township which he represents, had just stepped off a south-bound Colonial Coach Lines bus which had stopped on the right hand side of the street, just north of the intersection. Earlier in the day Mr. Wylie had left his car at the Slater and McVey service station, directly opposite the school, and coming from behind the bus had started to cross the slippery thoroughfare when he was struck by the Annable car.

Young Annable, with two companions, Robert Levere and James Champion, had attended a Young People's meeting at the United Church, and at the time of the accident was delivering Christian calendars about the town. Proceeding north, the driver of the car was unable to bring his car to a halt on the hazardous highway, striking the victim with the right front of the vehicle. Mr. Wylie was rushed immediately to the District Memorial Hospital by the three boys, but was dead on arrival, according to Dr. W. M. Byers, the attending physician. Coroner Dr. C. A. Louden, of Morrisburg, pronounced the man dead, stating that he had suffered a fractured skull and multiple fractures of the legs and internal injuries.

Mr. Wylie, ten years road superintendent of Mountain Township, was born there 56 years ago, a son of the late Joseph Wylie and Margaret Baxter. Thirty-five years ago he married the former Annie Atchison, who survives. Also surviving are two sons, Roy and Earl, at home; one daughter, Mrs. Russell Torrence, of Oxford Mills; one brother, Clifford, of Mountain Township, and three sisters, Mrs. Ronald Carkner and Mrs. George Atchison, of Winchester, and Mrs. Carman Boyd, of St. Catharines.

Funeral services will be conducted from Inkerman United Church on Friday to Maple Ridge Cemetery, where interment will be made.

At the time of publication, it was not known whether an inquest would be held.

Russell Boy Wins Public Speaking Contest Here

(By F. Erle Helmer)

Jimmy Walker, 12-year-old son of Mrs. Milton Walker, of Russell, won first place in the Public Speaking Contest, which was held at Winchester on Saturday afternoon sponsored by the Trustees and Ratepayers Association of Eastern Ontario. The youthful orator spoke of "My Trip to Our Eastern Provinces," and for his impromptu, told of "A Fishing Experience." He will now represent this district in the Final All-Ontario contest, which is to be held in Toronto during the Easter recess. The McCaffrey Cup, donated by Mrs. Geo. McCaffrey, of Russell, for annual competition, and which will be held in the Russell School, of which Mrs. Louise Stearns is the teacher, for one year, was presented by the donor. He also received a replica of the trophy for himself.

The Brockville Rotary Cup, presented annually to the speaker placing second, was won by Nancy Woodburn, of Cyrville, which, with the replica, was presented by Gordon Young. Miss Woodburn's subjects were: "Dr. Charlotte Whitton" and "Late For School."

Edna Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dixon, of Mountain, was third, and spoke on "The Artful White Tailed Deer," and "How I Spent My Summer Holidays." She also received a cup, donated by Mrs. McCaffrey.

The other speakers and their subjects were: Robert McLeod, Finch, Fire Prevention," and "A Trip to the Fair"; Julia Dulmage, Smiths Falls, "Why Do I Love Canada," and "Going Shopping"; Katherine Woods, Pakenham, "The Penguin," and "Skiing"; Raymond Clow, Brockville, "Our 4H Club" and "An Accident."

In addition to the trophies, cash awards were made to all the contestants by the secretary-treasurer, Harry Potter, of Winchester, and gifts were presented to the judges by George Knobes, Inspector for Prescott and Russell, on behalf of the Association.

Mrs. George McCaffrey, who has been president of the Association for more than six years, and who is retiring this term, thanked the officers for the assistance they had given her, and said that the quality of the speeches had improved. At the beginning of the contest she told the judges that special attention should be given to those who might have made up their own speeches, as it was the intention of these contests to encourage students to think and speak for themselves, and not to merely commit the thoughts of others to memory.

Tribute to Mrs. McCaffrey for her leadership and thanks for the trophies she had donated was expressed by Gordon Young, of Brockville.

Violin solos were played by Bonnie Twiname, of Russell, and John Twiname led the singsong, with Mrs. Twiname at the piano.

Mrs. Harry Smith, of Iroquois, presented the decision of the judges. Others on the judging panel were Rev. T. N. Mitchell and Mrs. Lorne Isaac, of Winchester.

Prescott Man Heads Junior Hockey League

C. R. "Tip" Dunn, of Prescott, was elected president of the St. Lawrence Junior Hockey League at the annual meeting held in Locketon Lodge Hotel, Williamsburg, last Thursday evening. The secretary will be chosen by Mr. Dunn. He succeeds Carl Laushway, of Winchester,who has headed the league for the past two seasons. Retiring secretary-treasurer is Harry L. Flora, of Winchester.

All five teams were represented at the meeting including Jim O'Brien, of Cardinal; Ken. McLean, Prescott; Paul Claxton, Iroquois; Alex Barclay, Morrisburg, and Keith Carkner and Carl Laushway, Winchester. It was unanimously decided that a single schedule would be enforced if the league was composed of five teams. Under that number the St. Lawrence loop will operate on the usual double schedule. Entry fee was reduced to $5.00.

A verbal request by Woodroffe to enter the league was thoroughly discussed, and the eventual decision reached did not favour the admission of the Carleton County club. Distance was the main factor in refusing the admission.

Some uncertainty was expressed by Morrisburg and Prescott delegates as to their team's future this year. According to present plans, the league will open in Winchester on January 1st, New Year's afternoon, with Prescott and Winchester, last year's two top teams, meeting.

YOUNG BRIDE HONOURED AT SHOWER

The Misses Audrey Richmire, Betty Anderson, Jean Cumming, Betty O'Neil and Mrs. Norbert Hutt were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Gordon Kerr, at the home of Mrs. D. L. MacLean on Saturday evening.

As Mrs. Kerr entered the room, she was escorted to the bride's chair, which was decorated with pink and white streamers and bows. Miss Richmire then presented her with a corsage of pink carnations. As Mrs. Norbert Hutt read an appropriate address, which was enclosed in a dainty bride's book made in the form of a wedding cake and designed by Miss Helen Helmer, a presentation of a coffee table, electric iron toaster and several individual gifts of crystal and linen was made. Mrs. Kerr thanked her friends for their kindness and thoughtfulness. Candy was then served, while the Misses Judy and Dianne MacLean rendered a duet, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. MacLean.

Bill, following closely in his famous father's footsteps; is sportscasting junior hockey once again.

Results of Monday's Municipal Elections

In a light vote here on Monday, which saw only 375 out of 782 eligible voters, roughly forty-seven per cent., exercise their franchise, four Councillors were elected to office in the village's first election since 1950.

Robert Woods, hardware merchant,who entered municipal politics last year by acclamation to council, headed the polls with 307 ballots marked in his favour. Newcomer Gerald Helmer, popular Winchester barber, was a close second, piling up a total of 302 votes, only five short of the Woods' majority. Councillor Allan MacIntosh, restaurant owner, seeking re-election, polled 293 votes, and he was followed in the fourth slot by Councillor Max Boyd, fuel merchant, 291, who was also making a successful bid for another term. Out of the running was another newcomer, Harry J. Thomas, manager and owner of a local groceteria, who polled only 119 votes.

So close was the balloting for the first four positions in the five-candidate race that only 16 votes separated the top man, Robert Woods, from Councillor Max Boyd who placed fourth in the running.

Reeve John Fader, veteran member of municipal politics, was acclaimed for a second consecutive term. School trustees, Robert Vice, Arnold Duncan and Raymond Summers, also took of fice by acclamation.

Poll No. 1, located in the Council Chambers, was used for the convenience of electors living on the north side of Main Street. Poll No. 2, in the clerk's office, handled the voters residing south of the main thoroughfare.

Following are the results by polls:

Metcalfe Woman To Observe 101st Birthday December 15

The distinction of becoming a centenarian was realized by Miss Margaret Woods, of Metcalfe, last year. This year on Wednesday, December 15th, the same Miss Woods, still hale and hearty, enters the second year of her second century of livelihood, when she observes her 101st birthday.

Metcalfe's oldest and, by all means, most esteemed citizen, and certainly one of the province's few past centenarians, Miss Woods, according to close friends, is still enjoying relatively good health, and still retains a keen interest in community affairs. One of her favourite pastimes is visiting, of which she does as much as possible. Another is watching television, and most people will tell you that she's right up on all the programs, watching the TV set, sometimes, until the very late hours of the night and even the wee hours of the morning if the show is real good.

Those same eyes that watch the wonders of to-day's science saw many years ago a different but equally effective phenomenon in the clearing of trees and brush for the future towns, cities and villages that are modern communities today. Down the walk of life Miss Woods has lived in an era of wars, the United States Civil War, the Boer War, the first Great War, the second World conflict, the Korean campaign and many other minor hostilities. She has witnessed many developments, and has looked with interest at the introduction of the radio, wireless, automobile, aeroplane, plus countless other inventions and discoveries that have benefitted mankind. But she has taken all this hustle and bustle in her stride, and lives to-day to tell the amazing and factual story that most of us can only read about.

She looks proudly to her 101st birthday ,and it is with all sincerity that we, along with hundreds of other well wishers, extend to this fine, elderly citizen the heartiest of congratulations.

Santa Claus Will Be Here Saturday, Dec. 18

It's official now. The whiskered old gent who heads the popularity polls each December will be in Winchester on Saturday afternoon, December 18th. That's right, Santa Claus is coming to town.

Once again Saint Nick's pre-Christmas visit to the village is being made possible by Winchester business men who guarantee he will have a bag of treats and a big hug for every youngster who drops around to see him at the Town Hall. According to present plans, the North Pole hero will arrive on a new float, which is, at the moment, being rigged up by several of Santa's helpers about town. Appearance time has been set for two o'clock, and parents are asked to have their children there in plenty of time. Supervision of the huge line-up expected will be carried out by several adults. Whether the float will be on a sleigh, wagon or truck depends greatly on the amount of snow here next Saturday, December 18.

In any case, a huge turn out of 1000 kiddies from the town and surrounding district is anticipated, and store owners are taking on extra help to handle the rush on buying that usually accompanies Santa's visits. It shapes up as an opportune time to let the youngsters have a look at the man of their dreams, and to allow parents a few extra moments to get those last few gifts.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETING

The December meeting of the District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary was presided over by Mrs. Percy Roberts in the absence of the president, Mrs. R. D. Ledgerwood. The purchasing committee presented a list of requirements needed for the hospital office and kitchen, which were immediately taken care of by several units who accepted the responsibility of furnishing the required items.

Mrs. P. Roberts gave a splendid report of the Regional meeting held in Ottawa at the General Hospital. Four cases of ginger ale and coke will be sent to the hospital for the nurses' party, held in December.

Miss Wilson, Hospital Superintendent, gave her monthly report. Several individual food donations were received, and sewing done by the South Mountain unit, and mending by Miss McConnell, of Winchester.

In the absence of Miss Elliott, the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Archie Rice. This revealed every unit is busy canvassing for members.

Mrs. P. Roberts thanked Miss Made Coons for her untiring efforts and splendid co-operation as convener of the purchasing committee. Mrs. B. Mulloy, Reg. N, of Inkerman, was appointed convener of this committee. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

A SMALL DONATION, A BIG CAUSE

Each year a few weeks before Christmas the St. Lawrence Tuberculosis Association sends out its customary letter containing two hundred Christmas seals, a friendly explanation and solicitation of support, and a return address envelope. The receiver simply places a dollar or two in the convenient envelope, and drops it in the nearest mail box.

It's as simple as that, yet last year in Winchester it must have been considered a bit of a task, for only 168 of nearly eight hundred letters containing seals, were returned. A mighty poor showing, and certainly a black mark for Winchester, a town that usually supports wholeheartedly such ventures. Why such a lapse occurred in 1953 is beyond explanation. We must now contend with the 815 letters sent to Winchester residents this year.

The question probably enters the picture concerning the worthiness of this cause, and where the money is used that is sent in to the Association in return for the Christmas seals. From this year's letter we quote in part:

"Tuberculosis is still one of our great problems. Much has been done, and is being done, to eradicate it. But to enable your local Association to pursue its endeavour in this direction, your personal interest and wholehearted support were never needed more than they are today.

"You might wonder where the money goes. It is used to enable your Association to maintain Diagnostic X-Ray Clinics throughout the United Counties and to assist in the rehabilitation of patients so that they may again become useful citizens amongst us. Government grants are not available for use in providing these services."

Winchester residents can more than redeem themselves this year by returning their remittance promptly. Two dollars buy two hundred handy Christmas seals, and go a long way toward the fight against tuberculosis. Let us all pull together in a united effort this year, and in the true spirit of this great festive season, send in our donation to the St. Lawrence Tuberculosis Association.

THOSE GUARANTEED ANNUAL WAGES

We don't believe for a minute that those labor leaders who are demanding guaranteed annual wages for all regular employees of industry are so blind as to believe that such wages could be paid without reducing the wage rates of all workers. Nor do we believe that these same leaders would dare suggest that their members accept a cut in their wage rates in order to make guaranteed annual wages possible.

What then have they in mind when they urge their followers to press such demands.

Our guess is that they think the employers, when confronted with such impossible demands, might be frightened into supporting the unions in pressing the government to assume the burden of paying the extra cost that guaranteed annual wages would involve.

This would be the longest step Canada has yet taken towards state socialism. If private industry allows itself to be inveigled into any such position as this, it will be sealing its own doom.—The Rural Scene.

NOT THE TIME OR THE PLACE

An amusing but foolish story of a wine drinking individual was related in a district newspaper recently. According to the report the above mentioned character wondered into Prescott police station while court was in progress, sat down, pulled out a bottle of wine—the cheap variety no doubt—and proceeded to enjoy life by nonchalantly taking the more than odd nip. His enjoyment was short lived, however, when police officers, recoverng from their astonishment, rushed over and confiscated the bottle, escorting the man to the cells below.

A few moments later the wine drinker was charged with possessing alcoholic liquor in a place other than his residence, fined fifteen dollars plus court costs, with the alternative of seven days in county jail.

Advised Magistrate F. M. Cass, "Next time choose the place (of drinking) a little more sensibly, you picked the wrong place and the wrong time."

And we might add, the wrong bar.

EDITORIAL NOTES!

In case you're interested, the Department of Highways last winter used on provincial roads 575,103 tons of sand and 91,024 tons of salt. And probably that's why Ontario motorists are not short in the grain.

Alcohol and gasoline never did mix. And especially at this time of year with heavy holiday traffic and the possibility of poor driving conditions, it is a poor time for the drinking motorist to turn chemist and start experimenting.

Winchester business men have once again made arrangements to have Santa Claus make his pre-Christmas visit to Winchester, this year on Saturday afternoon, December 18th. An excellent time, we suggest, for Junior to meet Santa and for Dad and Mom to get in some of that needed Christmas shopping at Winchester stores, where there are plenty of gifts to suit every taste.

Although we are sympathetic towards the Cobden Hotel owner who last week had over $14,000.00 stolen from her premises, we are also without imagination as to why anyone, in business or not, would have that much money laying around from day to day. Of course, there are some persons, through necessity, who must carry or keep on hand large amounts regularly. But the average business, including small hotel keepers, has no need for that much cash. Here is a prime example of the importance of to-day's banking facilities. At the bank the depositor can depend on his money being assured of safety. Too many people, through idiotic beliefs and plain ignorance of the facts, carry large sums on their person, or pack away their funds in an old sock or underneath the mattress. Practices like these are neither practical or sensible, and the sooner they are totally abolished the better.

OPEN SECRETS

(By Ambrose Hills)

At the request of a national magazine, I spent yesterday interviewing the executive vice president of a new oil company that has been opening service stations in Eastern Canada at a rate that makes your head swim. The editor wrote: "The petroleum industry was supposed to be so highly competitive that a newcomer in the field wouldn't have a chance. Yet this man organized a new company, found the money to finance it, and is obviously making a thumping success of it. Find out what kind of a man he is. Try to nail down his personal philosophy and give our readers a glimpse of his success secrets. If you have difficulty getting in to see him, wire me and I'll try to arrange it from here."

I had no difficulty getting in to see this man. I had him on the telephone personally within ten minutes. I read the letter from the editor to him. His exact words were: "Come on over, but you'll be disappointed—so will many of your readers. I have some secrets, but they're open secrets."

The first thing I discovered about this man was his blunt honesty. He says precisely what he means. In the course of the day, I asked him what he weighed. He said, "Well. now, it's quite a while since I weighed myself . . . but I usually run around 145 pounds."

Quick as a wink, a public relations man on his staff suggested, "You'd better make that 155 pounds—". He smiled. "The other sounds a bit small."

"Just a minute there," said the executive vice president. "If I weigh 145 pounds—that's what I weigh! And I see no special virtue in bulk!"

A slight thing to judge a man by? Maybe—but when you've interviewed as many men as I have you discover that it is on such areas that you are able to separate the phonies from the real men. This man was no phoney!

"About success secrets," he said. "I hate to rehash what everybody else says. But the fact is, most of the copy-book maxims are true. The man who stops merely paying lip service to these truths, and starts to act on them, is sure to succeed.

"Take the well-known saying that Canada is a land of opportunity. I was told, when I started this company, that it didn't have a chance—that the big fellows would squeeze us out. I didn't believe it. Not as long as we have freedom. In a free economy the newcomer always has a chance if he has faith in his freedom. Bigness carries its own discipline. The newcomer can act more quickly, often more efficiently. Everybody knows these secrets—too few have the faith to act on them!"

"He Read The Book"

Thirty years before, he had been one of the "bad men" in a small town in Arkansas, with no concern for or interest in things religious. While loitering about the local railroad station, a woman whom he knew passed by and handed him a New Testament and asked that he read it. Jones was not especially impressed, but he was curious, and finally began scanning the pages of the Book. It so happened that he was arrested in his reading by verses 10 and 11 of the 22nd chapter of Revelation. He could not escape their meaning and implication for him. After some days of sober thinking, he left the mill town for a larger urban centre taking the New Testament with him. Here he went to church, became converted, and a few years later was ordained a Baptist minister. "But for that New Testament," says the Rev. F. J. Jones, "I mgiht still be one of the bad men in that mill town."

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"Women can never be as successful as men . . . they don't have wives to advise them."

LITTLE BIT TOO NEAT

By Venus Inglish

LIEUTENANT BRICKARD straightened up from his examination of the body. This would be a quick one, he decided. Everything pointed to suicide. There was no note, of course, but there'd be a motive, and when they found that, the case would be cleaned up. The inquest would show that Raymond Richmond, prosperous, well-known bond broker, had taken his own life, and the Department could get along with other work.

He surveyed the scene. Elderly man slumped over a fine large polished desk, surrounded by the luxuries of the well-to-do, but he had that awful burned hole in the temple, and there had been the gun on the floor under his limp right hand, with no prints on it but those of the dead man. Obviously he had been working on his stamp collection. There was nothing on the table except the stamp book, some odds and ends of stamps scattered about, a small pair of scissors, a paste pot and the vase of flowers that he had apparently knocked over as he fell forward and his head hit the desk.

Suddenly Lt. Brickard snapped to attention. Something was wrong here. He stepped back so that he could see the floor at the side of the desk. The waxed surface beamed brightly.

The desk, too, was evenly polished and unmarred. He turned to the men still at work taking physical evidence in the room.

"Which one of you questioned these people?" he asked.

"I did, Sir," answered a sergeant stepping forward.

"Who keeps house here?"

"Who does the cleaning?"

"Oh. There's a housekeeper. She and her husband who is the yard man have an apartment over the garage."

"What time did she go to the apartment tonight?"

The sergeant consulted his notebook.

"Mrs. Richmond says she let them go right after the dinner work was done. She was going out to a lecture, and Mr. Richmond was going to be here all evening, so they turned in early. There's a buzzer in case they were wanted later in the house."

The lieutenant frowned. After dinner. It was after two o'clock now. Mrs. Richmond had discovered the body when she came in about midnight, and had called the police at once. Doc said Mr. Richmond had been dead since about ten.

Mrs. Richmond had been at a lecture, and there was nobody else in the house all evening, according to the people who were questioned.

Suddenly the lieutenant whirled and went out of the room. He inspected the half-bath downstairs first. Then he went into the kitchen. He felt of the dish cloths carefully, spread to dry. They hardly had a trace of dampness. The dish mop, too, had nearly dried out. On an impulse he opened the cabinet under the sink. There was a small sponge lying behind some cans of cleaning powder. He felt the top of it. Then he picked it up and turned it over. A trace of something green clung to the side, and the bottom was very wet.

One of the men had followed Lt. Brickard into the kitchen.

"What you got there?" he asked.

"Maybe the difference between suicide and murder," said the lieutenant. "I think we'd better have the boys go over things again and this time look for murder. Funny that vase of flowers could fall over and neither the desk nor the floor get wet or spotted from the water. There was water all right because some of the loose stamps are bulging away from their cover paper like they'd been wet and dried. Somebody who was neat just soaked it up with this sponge so that it wouldn't spot anything. Somebody around here is just a little bit too neat, and I'll bet it wasn't the corpse who did the mopping and then walked out here to hide the sponge."

As we approach the Festive Season, let us stop and consider the real significance of Christmas. It is the commemoration of the Birth of Christ—not a time to glorify the mythical figure of Santa Claus alone. That part of the Christmas celebration is fine, but too many people leave Christ out of Christmas entirely.

NEWLYWEDS HONOURED

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kerr, Mountain, on December 3rd when their friends and neighbours gathered to honour their grandson and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kerr, of Winchester.

The evening was spent congenially, playing cards, visiting, and singing, the bride accompanying at the piano.

Following this, Gordon and Marilyn were called to the floor and a well-worded address, enclosed in a daintily designed bride's book, was read by Mrs. S. B. Simms. A presentation of a blonde wood magazine end table and a pair of bronze book ends was made by Mr. Wm. McIntyre and Mrs. A. T. Workman.

Gordon replied very fittingly, thanking everyone for the gifts, and inviting all to visit them in their new home.

A bounteous lunch was served by the ladies of the community, assisted by their hostess, Mrs. Kerr.

FEED NEWS

DEMAND FOR CANADIAN GRAIN

From James Richardson & Sons' weekly market letter:

"The recent sharp expansion in the demand for Canadian feed grains, particularly barley, has come as somewhat of a surprise to the grain trade. A substantial demand was known to exist but just why importers should have become such eager buyers, particularly after a fairly sharp advance in the price of the grain itself and with ocean freight rates 50 per cent. higher than they were three months ago, seems to require some explanation.

One of the reasons for this demand may lie in the general prosperity, high industrial productivity, near full employment and increased wages which are now prevailing in most west European countries. Western Europe's gross natural product is growing at the rate of 10 per cent. a year, a faster rate of growth than that of the U. S. or Canada. Such a condition invariably brings about a marked change in the dietary habits of the people. With a higher standard of living they swing to a diet of meat and dairy products instead of bread and porridge.

We have no up-to-date figures as to the change in diet in Western Europe, but to show what a drastic change can take place, we have the figures for Canada in the post-war years, a period of industrial activity. Since 1935-39 the per capita consumption of meat in Canada has risen from 118 pounds to 140 pounds; per capita consumption of cheese has increased from 3.6 pounds to 5.3 pounds; per capita consumption of whole milk products has just about doubled; and consumption of ice cream has increased 2 1-2 times. Egg production has expanded and represents a 13½ per cent. increase in per capita consumption. The amount of grain required to feed the livestock needed for such a diet is very much larger than in the case where the population is living mostly on cereal products.

Importing countries are striving to build up their livestock population since supplies of meat, and to some extent other dairy products, from exporting countries are not too plentiful. In this connection the Soviet Union has become an active competitor. The Union has now become the world's second largest importer of butter. They are also active importers of meat and so far in 1954 have let contracts for over 240 million pounds of meat as compared with less than 20 million pounds during 1953. This makes the U.S.S.R. the third largest importer of meat in the world. All of these factors suggest that exporting countries would be well advised to give more attention to a larger production of feed grains as against production of wheat."

IN MEMORIAM

FRANCIS—In loving memory of John G. Francis, who left us December 10th, 1952.
—Ever remembered by his Wife.

DROPPO—In loving memory of our dear father, Andrew Droppo, who passed away very suddenly December 10th, 1953.

He bade no one his last farewell,
He said good-bye to none,
The heavenly gates were opened,
A loving voice said "Come."
We often sit and think of you,
The things you used to say;
We wonder why you had to die
Without a chance to say goodbye.
Though out of sight you're ever
Still missed, still loved, still ours,
You will live with us in memory
Until the end of time.
—Always remembered by his loving Family. 29p

FRANCIS—In fond and loving memory of a dear father, John Francis, who passed away on December 10th, 1952.

Some day we hope to meet again,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
—Daughters, Ola, Inez and Dorothy. 29p

GRAY—In fond and loving memory of a dear husband and father, James Ernest Gray, who passed away December 7th, 1953.

"Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away."
29p —Wife and Family.

FAWCETT—In fond and loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Fraser A. Fawcett, who passed away December 9th, 1953.

The evening star shines on a grave
Of a father we loved, but could not save;
Long days and nights you bore your pain
To wait for cure, but all in vain.
'Tis God alone saw it was best,
And called you home with him to rest.
—Fred Fawcett and family. 29p

FAWCETT—In loving memory of a dear husband, Fraser Fawcett, who passed away December 9th, 1953.

We are lonesome here without you,
We miss you more each day,
Somehow life does not seem the same
Since you were called away.
Our hearts still ache with sadness,
Our eyes shed many a tear,
God alone knows how we miss you
At the end of this first sad year.
—Ever remembered by Wife.

MORE ABOUT MINERALS

QUESTION: "My whole family is inordinately fond of oysters. We eat them by the barrelful in season. I don't know anything about them from a point of view of nutrition. I don't imagine they do any harm, but do they do any good?"

ANSWER: Oysters are particularly valuable as a source of copper, iodine and zinc, all of which are essential to good health, surprising as it may sound. Copper is needed to assist iron in attaching itself to the hemoglobin in the blood. Lack of copper in the diet can produce anaemia just as surely as lack of iron. The iron will not go into the hemoglobin without the presence of copper. Other sources of copper besides oysters are liver, shrimp, lobster, cereal grains, leafy vegetables, mushrooms and bran.

Iodine, which concentrates in the thyroid gland, is necessary to prevent an unpleasant and unsightly disease called goitre. It is found in all salt water sea foods as well as in artificially iodized salt.

Zinc is essential for physical growth. Carbohydrates and proteins are absorbed through the walls of the intestinal tract much more quickly when zinc is present than when it is absent. It is also believed that zinc may be concerned with the storage and utilization of insulin. Zinc is always present in crystalline unsulin. Zinc content of a diabetic pancreas is about half that of a non-diabetic pancreas.

In addition to oysters, zinc is found in liver, green leaves, watercress, spinach, peas and fish.

Are You Prepared for the Coming Floods?

"And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the Floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.—Matt. 7.

"The day of the Lord cometh they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them . . . and they shall not escape.—I Thess. 5:2-3.

"Go your ways and pour out the vials of the Wrath of God upon the earth. And every island fled away; for the plague thereof was exceeding great." — Rev. 16.

R. H. HOGABOAM HONOURED AT FAREWELL PARTY

Prior to leaving for Three Rivers, Quebec, where he will reside in the future, Mr. R. H. Hogaboam was honoured at a farewell party by his many Inkerman friends. During the evening he was presented with a pipe, tobacco and a purse of money.

Following is the address which was read to Mr. Hogaboam while he received the gifts:

"We are met here on this, the eve of your departure, to extend to you our best wishes for your continued health, happiness and well-being in your new abode. May we assure you we have found you a good fellow and a good neighbour during the years of your residence in Inkerman, and that we regret the necessity of your departure. Believe us, it is our most sincere wish and prayer that for you and yours, the future will be blessed with a fair share of the good things of life.

So, on behalf of your friends and the families of Inkerman, we ask you to accept this memorial, and with it the assurance that the memory of you will always be in our hearts.

"Signed on behalf of the Village—A. R. Allison, Arlie McIntosh."

STICKY, squeaking drawers can be remedied by rubbing the sides or runners with paraffin wax. Line the drawers with plastic sheeting to make them snag proof.

If you want candles to burn longer and without smoking or dripping, coat them, excepting the wicks, with soapsuds. Place in the candle holders to dry before lighting.

If the holes in which you have screws or nails are too large, remove the nail or screw and dip it in plastic wood. Replace in the hole and the nail or screw will fit snugly.

When painting around windows, coat the panes of glass with soap paste. When painting is finished, this solution may be washed off with clear warm water along with any paint flecks.

Bamboo blinds which are a natural color can be painted the same color as your room so they will match the walls.

A coating of white wax such as is used to clean and protect your refrigerator or cabinets is excellent for Venetian blinds. It cleans and waxes them so they will not catch dust easily.

What's new with Chevrolet? Everything!

Great new V8 — two new 6's

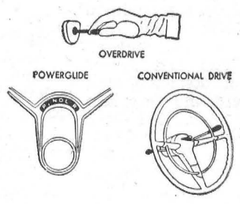
New "Turbo-Fire V8" delivers 162 h.p. with an ultra-high compression ratio of 8 to 1. There are two new 6's, too—the new "Blue-Flame 136" with Powerglide (optional at extra cost) and the new "Blue-Flame 123".

And look what you see from the driver's seat

Chevrolet's new Sweep-Sight Windshield gives you a wider view of the road ahead. And you can see all four fenders from the driver's seat!

New Outrigger Rear Springs

Rear springs are longer — and they're attached at the outside of the frame — spaced wider apart, outrigger-fashion, to give you greater stability in cornering.



Easier steering, stopping, clutching

The new Chevrolet steers with ball-bearing ease, thanks to new Ball-Race Steering. New Swing-Type Brake and Clutch Pedals operate with a light pressure of your toe.

A ventilating system that really works

Chevrolet's new High-Air Ventilating System takes in air at hood-high level, away from road heat, fumes and dust.

Wonderful new Glide-Ride Front Suspension

New spherical joints flex freely to cushion all road shocks. New Anti-Dive Braking Control assures level, "heads up" stops.

Three drives, including Overdrive

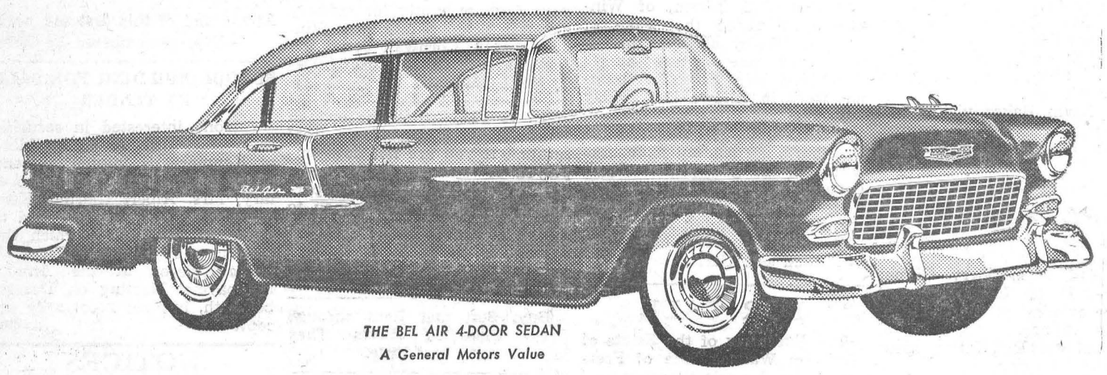
Take your choice. Powerglide teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 136". New Overdrive teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 123". (Powerglide and Overdrive are extra-cost options.) Or a new standard transmission offered with either the new V8 or the "Blue-Flame 123".

. . . and Chevrolet's got that long, low "let's go" look

Longer looking — and lots lower, the new Chevrolet has the spirited look of a sports car. There's plenty of glamor inside, too.

Tubeless tires as standard equipment

Proved tubeless tires give you a greater protection against blowout . . . deflate more slowly when punctured . . . and are much more resistant to other causes of tire failure.



THE BEL AIR 4-DOOR SEDAN
A General Motors Value

Chevrolet and General Motors have started something — by taking a whole new look at the low-cost car. Here are young ideas that are all rolled up in the most glamorous package that ever wore anything like a Chevrolet price tag!

This is the car that began with a great idea — the idea that a low-priced car should be built that would have the style, the performance, the comfort and convenience features, and the fine quality "feel" of high-priced cars.

Lots of car buyers have dreamed about such a car. But until Chevrolet and General Motors sat down and tackled the job it couldn't be done. It took a long time but they designed and built a car to fit the dream . . . the motoramic Chevrolet for 1955.

When you think about it, it makes sense that only the world's largest motor car producer could have done it. Chevrolet and General Motors have what it takes — plus a desire to make your dreams come true.

Come in and meet the motoramic Chevrolet — more than a new car — a NEW CONCEPT of LOW-COST MOTORING.

SHUR-GAIN
FEED SERVICE

Your Home-Grown Grain Supply Can Last Longer

The grain you grow at home for feeding your livestock and poultry is a pretty important commodity. It has taken a lot of time and money to produce that grain crop and you don't want to waste any. You CAN waste a lot of grain if you don't feed it properly.

BEFORE you feed your grain.

BALANCE IT with SHUR-GAIN.

You see, grain supplies energy in a livestock or poultry feed but, it DOES NOT supply sufficient protein, minerals and vitamins to meet proper requirements... That's exactly why it takes about 1100 lbs. of straight grain to put a hog to market compared to just 600 to 700 lbs. of a mixture of grain and SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate.

DON'T WASTE GRAIN.

Come in and see us about a SHUR-GAIN custom mixing service that will SAVE YOUR GRAIN.

Home and School Association Meets At Mountain

The season's first meeting of the Home and School Association of Mountain District met at North Mountain Consolidated School on Tuesday, Nov. 30th. Last year's officers were retained with two exceptions. Mrs. John McCargar resigned and was replaced by Mrs. Leslie Simser, whose place on the committee was filled by Mrs. Lyall Allen. The officers now are: President, Melvin Christie; secretary, Mrs. Leslie Simser; executive committee: Mrs. Lyall Allen, Mrs. Trevor Thompson and Mr. Walter Roach, to serve for a two-year term.

The guest speaker, Miss Jean Kennedy, Health Nurse, was unable to be present owing to an accident, which was deeply regretted. A question box was used, and the questions submitted formed the basis for discussion. A lovely lunch was served.

An interesting highlight of the evening was the presentation of gifts from the Public School, and chocolates from the High School, to Mr. and Mrs. Sutton on the occasion of their 19th Wedding Anniversary.

ONTARIO HYDRO

ST. LAWRENCE POWER PROJECT

In pressing forward with the vital St. Lawrence power project, it is our desire to keep the public fully informed at all times regarding our plans and progress. Through these columns we shall publish information of particular interest to those most directly affected by the project—the residents of riverside and adjoining communities. In this way, it is our hope that families and business organizations in the immediate area will be kept up to date on those matters so important to them, such as community rehabilitation, relocation and other subjects related to our work.

At the outset we wish to express publicly our sincere thanks for the co-operation we have already received. In a program of this magnitude, it is natural that many problems will arise. We are confident that through mutual understanding and full co-operation, every problem can be successfully met and solved. It is our objective, in all of our activities, to protect and advance the best interests of the residents, the communities, and the Province as a whole. The wholehearted support we have already received from the general public, from the press and radio stations, and from Government and municipal officials has laid the ground work for effective co-operation in the years immediately ahead.

A great deal has happened since June 7 of this year, when we received the long-awaited "go ahead" signal on the power development. Working in close association with our partner in the great 2,200,000-horsepower project—the Power Authority of the State of New York—we have been able to make rapid strides on our construction work in the Cornwall area where the powerhouse will be situated. We have awarded contracts for the construction of our project office just west of Cornwall, and for the construction of two cofferdams in the powerhouse area. We are pleased to report that all phases of this work are progressing very favourably. The Power Authority, under the vigorous leadership of Chairman Robert Moses, has also awarded contracts for vital sections of the project on the American side.

Foremost attention, of course, has been directed to community planning proposals for those towns and villages to be affected by flooding for the power development. A number of meetings have been held in Toronto and in the individual municipalities involved, in an effort to arrive at a satisfactory solution to the many problems to be encountered. The Provincial Government, through the Department of Planning and Development, has been extremely co-operative in offering its advice and facilities to Hydro and the affected centres.

In our negotiations to date regarding rehabilitation and relocation, we have tried to work very closely with representatives of local municipal councils and planning boards. We have been deeply impressed by the zealous manner in which they guard the rights of those they represent and by their keen grasp of the problems at hand. We are confident that their enlightened approach to our common responsibilities will in the end work to the distinct advantage of all those affected.

When ground-breaking ceremonies on the St. Lawrence power project took place last August 10th, the event symbolized one of the most monumental undertakings in Canadian annals. Between now and the time when the new powerhouse delivers its first energy—in 1958—we shall have to meet a tremendous challenge. We cannot emphasize too strongly our desire and our determination to do an outstanding job in every area of our responsibility. With all-out co-operation, our success will be assured.

Easy For The Queasy

Travelers have been suffering from queasy feelings caused by motion sickness probably since the time that Noah launched his ark and Caesar rode through the streets of Rome in a chariot. Today, voyagers may still suffer from that ancient disease, as any methodical, rapid change in motion and speed—whether it be on a ship, plane, merry-go-round or even a camel—produces similar effects on the body.

Almost all of the trouble is due to the body's organ of balance, the inner ear, a structure about the size of a small key and reminiscent of a pretzel in shape. It reacts to abrupt changes by producing symptoms such as nausea, pallor and cold sweating.

Canadian scientist R. L. Noble and other researchers investigated the extensive motion sickness problem during World War II and found remedies that gave partial aid to at least some travelers.

Recently, the chemical laboratories came up with some new harmless compounds that proved to be very effective during tests conducted by the U. S. Armed Forces. Of the drugs examined, the investigators were particularly impressed with one called Bonamine—the only drug that gave 24-hour protection against motion sickness with a single dose. As this drug is now available for civilian use, it will be very easy for the otherwise queasy traveler to enjoy the far-flung wonders of the world—without the ancient hazard of motion sickness.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Fresh Pear Betty

(Serves 6-8)

6 cups peeled, sliced fresh pears
¼ cup hot water
¼ cup dark brown sugar
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup dark brown sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground ginger
1½ cups soft bread crumbs
2 tablespoons butter

Parboil pears in hot water in covered saucepan 5 minutes over medium heat. Add the ¼ cup sugar, lemon rind and juice to pears. Pour half into a casserole. Mix remaining sugar, salt, ginger and bread crumbs. Sprinkle half over pears. Repeat with remaining ingredients. Bake 20 minutes or until pears are soft in a moderately hot (375°F.) oven.

Make a pretty dessert in no time at all. Pour instant vanilla pudding, made with chilled milk, into custard dishes, top with a peach half, then circle the fruit with chocolate chips.

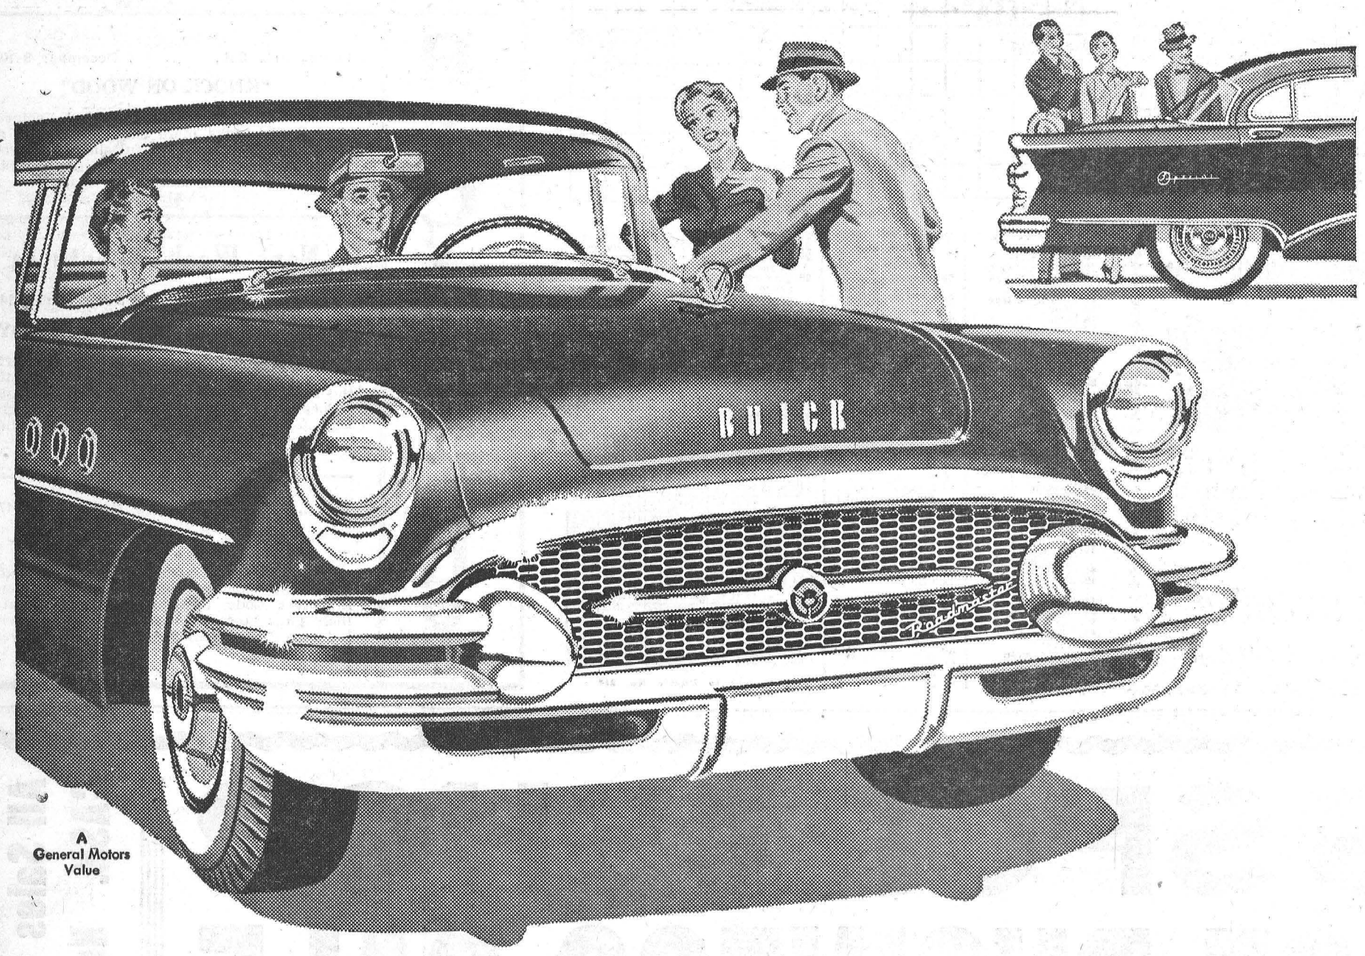
THE 1955 BUICK

New thriller in Style-Power-Performance



A General Motors Value

A BRIGHT NEW FRESHNESS greets your eyes and tells you: Buick's done it again.

You see it in the bold distinction of that gleaming Wide-Screen Grille. You see it in the rakish sweep of the rear-end contours. You see it in the whole fore-and-aft newness of fleet-lined grace that marks Buick the beauty thrill of 1955.

New horsepower—up to 236

You learn more when you get the power story. Up to new peaks go the horsepowers of every Buick V8 engine—a walloping 188 h.p. in the low-price SPECIAL—a mighty 236 h.p. in the CENTURY, SUPER and ROADMASTER.

And it's new, more responsive, far abler power you can literally feel as you go.

But even bigger Buick news for 1955 is something more than style and power. *It's what the "variable pitch propeller" now had done for Dynaflow Drive.

Up goes performance—and gas mileage too

When you find it necessary to push the pedal to the floor board, you do more than call on the greatest high-compression V8 power in Buick history.

You do what a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway.

You do in oil what he does in air—you cut down take-off time by using "variable pitch propellers."

In this case, the propeller blades are inside the Dynaflow unit. But they're engineered to swivel or change their "pitch" just like plane propellers—and with the same result: one pitch for getaway, another pitch for gas-saving fuel efficiency. And what you get in the way of instantaneous safety-surge with absolute smoothness, you can only believe when you feel it.

This you have to try

Of course, we want you to come and see the trend-setting new Buicks—look into the betterments in gasoline mileage that add new thrift to these spectacular cars.

But this year, "seeing" is only the beginning. So—join the crowds viewing the new Buicks, and make a date to get behind the wheel as soon as we can have a demonstrator available. We promise you the thrill of the year.

Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.*

South Mountain Rink Association Holds Meeting

A very representative meeting of the Rink Association of South Mountain was held on Tuesday, November 30th. The following items of business were transacted: The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and adopted, and the present financial statement was read. The present cash balance is a little over $600, and of this amount, something over $400 was passed to be paid for the lumber bill for the new building, leaving a balance of under $200.

A motion of thanks was passed to the people around South Mountain who very generously contributed to the Rink Fund.

An election of officers for the ensuing year was held, and the following officers were elected and installed, namely: Dr. Clarence Stirtan, president; Mrs. Roy Graham, secretary; Mr. Earl Francis, 1st vice president; Mr. Henry Wilson, 2nd vice president; Mr. Ivan Keays, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shaver, Booth Keeper; Mr. Jim Downham, Rink Manager; Mr. Charles Murdock, Key Keeper.

Some pertinent remarks were passed by the president after he was installed, regarding the set-up of the Rink Association, and particularly regarding the use of the rink house. The situation is construed to be as follows:

The rink and the rink house, together with the Association which runs it, is purely a community organization. In fact, it is for all the people who use South Mountain as a trading centre, or who may come here to visit. In the same way, all the people in this community have an equal say as to how the Association is run, for the reason that all they need to do to have their voices heard is to come to the meetings, the notices of which are put up in the Post Office. The rink house is also given free of charge to any legitimate Association or group of people who wish to use it, provided the ordinary rules are adhered to.

It is also hoped that now, since a suitable building is available for the purpose, and is given free of charge, that certain associations might be organized, such as a Board of Trade or an "Open Forum." It may be noted that at the present time there are no such organizations in this community, except, perhaps, The Women's Institute. In fact, it may be said that, at the present time, the people of South Mountain have about as much influence on the activities of the Body Politic as they have on the doings at the inner councils of Mae-Tse-Tung. While many larger and more bellicose centres but yet less desirable places in which to spend one's existence, have plenty to say, South Mountain at present holds a very small place on the map of Eastern Ontario. To be sure, every few years a politician will drive into the village, take the political temperature and smell the party aroma, and then hastily drive off. Apart from this gesture, the people of this village appear to be of very little importance. It might even happen that some Charlotte Whitton, still in an embronic stage, may yet come to the front around South Mountain.

Since the financial condition of the Association is not very good at the present time, since an extraordinary large amount has to be expended this year, resolutions were passed, asking that certain organizations be asked to contribute to the rink fund.

It appears that a sizeable amount of money has been gathered up with the objective of installing lights for the ball team. This money was made at Bingos, and such efforts, while some money was, apparently, contributed by private subscriptions. However it was obtained, it represents a community effort, since no one normally buys a bingo ticket except as a donation of sorts. Since the meeting held the other night was a representative community meeting, it was felt that a free vote passed at such a meeting should bear some weight as to how this money should be used. It was felt that there would be no point in having this money lying unused for an indefinite period. However, since it was contributed to the ball team, it was felt that this Association should have the money back if it was required. A motion was then passed that the Ball Association be asked to transfer the sum of $200 to the Rink fund, with the stipulation that the money be transferred back when, and if, it were required.

Motions were also passed requesting the Village of South Mountain to grant the sum of $100 to the Rink fund. At the same time, another motion was passed that the Township of Mountain be asked to contribute another $50 to the Rink fund, in addition to what it has already contributed, namely, $50.00. It was to be further stipulated that the additional sum asked from these bodies was for extraordinary expenditure for this year only, namely,the building of the rink house, and the giving of this larger amount would in no way be considered as a precedent, and that they would not be asked to contribute so large an amount in any ensuing year.

While the contributions from the people around South Mountain have been most generous, yet there is a large section of the community who have given nothing whatever up to the present time. The rink fund is to be considered as a sort of memorial to the people who are living in this community at the present time, and will form a permanent record of the people living here during the year 1954. Therefore, all their names will be placed in a permanent setting in the rink house. There are very few people who cannot spare $1, even if they cannot spare $5, but even smaller contributions will be gladly accepted. The money is, moreover, urgently required.

It is, therefore, urgently requested that everyone who has not yet contributed to the rink fund, and who finds himself in South Mountain for any purpose, will kindly remove the loose change from his pocket, or better yet, a bill of small denomination, and hand it to Mr. Keays at the bank to go to the rink fund. Provided the bank is not open, or for other reasons, the contribution will be received by Mr. Henry Wilson or the president, Dr. Stirtan. Dr. Stirtan (the kindest of men) will be glad to do the necessary, if painful, extraction operation, either in Weagant's store, in the post office, or on any available street corner on the main street. It is hoped that everyone who enters South Mountain will see fit to have his name entered in the book for future generations to gaze upon. —Contributed.

W. H. S. Notice

The North Dundas District High School Board announces that Adult Night Classes in Sewing, Woodworking and Typing will be offered in the Winchester High School throughout January, February and March, 1955, provided that sufficient numbers apply to justify the introduction of these courses.

A major portion of the cost of operation of the Night School will be paid by the Department of Education through departmental grants.

The subjects above will be taught one night per week from 7.30 to 9.30 by qualified teachers. Each applicant will pay a tuition fee of $2.00. The cost of materials and books will be paid by the night school students.

Those interested in taking one of these Courses will register the Principal, J. H. Willard, in the Winchester High School, on Monday, December 21st, between 7.00 and 9.00 p.m.

In order that the Board may know the wishes of the people concerning subjects other than those listed above, it is requested that they come to the school the same evening and state the courses they would like to take, so that, if feasible, the night school may be extended to include other subjects according to the popularity of the requests.

A similar programme is being set up in the Chesterville High School.

The name of Mrs. Flossie Findlayson, of Toronto, was omitted in the survivors of her late sister, Mrs. Mabel Hulse, of Toronto, whose obituary appeared in last week's Press.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Brooks, of Sudbury, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Sheila Margaret, to William Allen Timmins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Timmins, of Inkerman. The wedding will take place on Tuesday, December 28th, at four o'clock in St. Andrew's United Church, Sudbury.

Omitted.

Principal Howard Willard, of Winchester High School, has asked the Press to draw the public's attention to an unintentional omission in the W. H. S. Commencement Program for Friday night. The omission at the bottom of page 3 on this program occurs under the heading "Other Alumni," where the name of Earl Johnston MacDonald, College, should have been included.
