Iroquois Council Holds Last Meeting of 1975

Man's Best Friend to Pay Up

The canine population of Iroquois won't be living a dog's life much longer if council carries through with a plan to crack down on unregistered dogs in the village. At Monday night's last regular meeting of the year, Council discussed the possibility of raising tag fees to cover the cost of increased patrol by the dog control officer.

The official records show well under 100 dogs registered in the village and Council felt that the number was only a small percentage of the actual number of dogs in Iroquois. It was decided to investigate the possibility of having the dog control officer go door to door, checking for dogs and selling tags and licenses on the spot. A report is to be made at the January meeting on this proposal.

Village works superintendent, Ray Delegarde reported to Council that work was proceeding on several water supply lines to homes in the village. These lines have frozen in past winters due to the lack of depth between the bottom of the roadside ditch and the pipe. This, coupled with poor installation in the first place. has caused several problems. A new techinque is now being used which involves the use of a sand base and vermiculite insulation to prevent freezing. It has been successful in the past and if the weather holds for a period, village crews will attempt to do several more homes.

Council also agreed with a suggestion by Reeve Lloyd Davis and Mr. Delegarde to run water and sewer pipes to the proposed washrooms in central park east from the site, to the lines that run south of Caldwell Drive, rather than go west to Victoria Street. Since a water line will have to be installed in that area for a new home next year, all those present agreed this would be a better solution than having to contend with the rock which lies in the direction of Victoria Street.

A period of discussion revolved around the Medical Centre, directed at the lighting of the parking and entrance areas and the continued problems with the east door. Ray Delegarde has experimented with placing lights at the front of the building, but they have been relatively ineffective in lighting the parking area. He suggested that his crew could erect cement poles at the north and south ends of the parking lot on which to mount lights. Councillor Jim Styles also suggested looking into the possibility of installing area lighting for the walkways, similar to the ones installed at the senior citizens apartments.

The sections of plywood where the paint was peeling have been repainted with a mixture of paint and linseed oil in an attempt to stop the peeling and it is hoped that this will prove satisfactory.

The east entrance door has been loosened in its frame from both continued use and wind damage, and after considerable discussion, it was decided to attempt to hire a man who could drill the door frame and anchor it to the blocks with some form of anchor bolts.

The following items of correspondence were dealt with: Prices were obtained from several firms on leasing of a 1/2 ton truck, but all involved felt that the prices, which ranged in the $300.00 per month area, were too expensive.

Council members and the Road Superintendent were invited to a seminar in Ottawa to find out more about the implementation of metric street signs. It was felt that the meeting would not be very beneficial to Iroquois since there are few speed signs within the village limits.

A letter was read from the South Dundas Planning Board requesting Iroquois to pay its portion of the fees involved in the final preparation of the Official Plan for the area. This was approved by Council.

A letter was received from the Good Companions senior citizens group thanking Council for allowing them to use the Civic Centre for their meetings.

A request was received to cancel business tax for the remainder of the year for Denzil Prunner since he has moved his business out of the village.

A request was received from the Recreation Committee for

Skates to be Awarded in Colouring Contest

Youngsters age seven and under will have a chance at a Christmas bonus this year as the Post offers two pairs of skates in a Christmas colouring contest. The contest which runs until Dec. 12, will be judged by Reeve George Cooper of Matilda and acting Reeve Frank Rooney of Iroquois. Any child, seven years old or younger may enter the contest with the the winners to be announced, in both a boys and girls category, in the Post the week of Dec. 21st.

The Post has purchased two pairs of skates from Charlies Sports Shop in Morrisburg and arrangements have been made for the winners to have their skates fitted and sharpened in time for Christmas.

The picture to be coloured appears in this week's Post and was also run in last week's paper. Hopeful winners may want to take a couple of tries and send in their best effort. Entries may be brought in to our office in the Iroquois Shopping Plaza or mailed to Box 400, Iroquois. As soon as the entries are received they will be displayed in our office or in another public location to be announced.

Children over the age of seven will have a chance to display their artistic talents during the Iroquois and district Winter Carnival '76 when a contest will be held for the best poster to publicize the event.

So, kids, get out your paints or crayons and try your hand at colouring and you could be on the ice on a new pair of skates by Christmas.

Tranquil mill pond at Upper Canada Village will become a skater's paradise as soon as the weather co-operates.

Unique Store Focal Point of Activities

Skating Newest Winter Feature at Village

Who would believe that there's still a place in the area where you can get a ten cent cup of coffee. Such a place does exist, and while you are there, you can browse through some of the finest hand-crafted items in North America. It's the Village Store located at the entrance to Upper Canada Village and it serves as the focal point for the activities offered during the winter by the St. Lawrence Parks Commission.

The store has been in existence since the Village opened in 1961, but the winter operation has been going for only two years. Attendance figures are rising steadily but as Bob Mott, Supervisor of Merchandising and Revenue Services said "You can't tell people for 10 or 12 years that you're closed all winter and then tell them you're open, and expect things to change overnight."

The Parks Commission offers a comprehensive winter recreational program with nature trails, cross country skiing trails, tobogganing, horse drawn sleigh rides, snowmobile trails, ice fishing and a maple sugar bush from mid-March to mid-April.

This year there will be something new added. The mill pond behind the Upper Canada Village Mill will be opened for skating, and it promises to hold all the charm and unique atmosphere that would have been available to skaters 100 years ago. The pond was drained earlier this fall and the pumps were sealed off, enabling it to be refilled in preparation for skating. As soon as the weather co-operates the ice will be cleared and flooded regularly for skating.

Here too, the store will serve as a focal point for the activity. Skaters will pay a small nominal fee to get on the ice and will have access to change rooms, and can come into a section of the store to get warm or to buy a hot drink. Boards will be placed over part of the floor to enable skaters to come inside without damaging their blades or the floor.

We arrived at the Village shortly after the snow stopped last week. The experience was like stepping into a Christmas card. The surface of the pond was as smooth as glass and reflected the log cabins of the Village, their roofs covered with fresh white snow. All was perfectly silent with the exception of water trickling through the mill.

The ten cent cup of coffee is usually available on weekends when the snack bar is in operation, but the store is open every day with customers coming regularly from as far as Montreal, Ottawa, and Kingston. The Parks Com-

The Iroquois Lawn Bowling Club finished off a successful season with a pot luck supper on Saturday night in the Iroquois Civic Centre. Trophies and awards for the season were presented to the winners in several classes.

The Davis Trophy presented for mixed trebles, went to the team of Ross Jamieson (skip), Nelda Gilmer and Lloyd Casselman. Runners up were Ray Parmeter, Janet Davis and Brenda Loucks. Iroquois Reeve, Lloyd Davis was on hand to present the trophy to the happy winners.

The Keeler trophy also presented for mixed trebles went to the team of Harold Baldwin (skip), Louise Laframboise and Theresa Cougler. Jessie (Ma) Keeler was on hand to present the trophy on behalf of her family. 2 game high winners were: Mike Noakes, Nelda Gilmer, Larry Casselman (skip). 1 game high winners were: Lloyd Casselman, Janet Davis, Mike Laframboise (skip).

A first year bowler 12-year-old Jim McBain, teamed up with Ross Jamieson to win in the mens doubles. They were presented with the Hargreaves Shield, an award that is being given for the first time this year. Runners up were Larry Casselman and Ambert Brown (skip).

Ray and Gwen Parmeter were winners in the twins category (husband and wife teams) in play for the Hargreaves Trophy and were also 2 game high winners in the open mixed doubles competition. Overall winners were Dorothy Johnston and Harold Baldwin (skip). Runners up were Jane Graham with Larry Casselman (skip) and 1 game high winners were Sandra Cougler and Ross Jamieson (skip).

There was discussion concerning the entry by the club of a float in the forthcoming Santa Claus Parade and a committee was formed to work on the project.

The evening concluded with a bridge and euchre party.

The men's club recently held their annual general meeting and elected officers for the 1976 season. These are Ambert Brown Secretary-Treasurer; Lloyd Ashenhurst President and Mike Noakes Vice-President. Special thanks were extended to Harold Baldwin for his hard work as President of the club and Chairman of the Greens Committee during the 1975 season. Membership was increased substantially this year which was also a successful one financially. The club looks forward to even better results next year.

St. Cecilia's Hosts Evaluation Team

St. Cecilia's Seperate School played host last week to two people involved in a program to improve the quality of education within the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Seperate School Board. The staff and students at St. Cecilia's are involved in a program of cooperative evaluation for improvement and the guests were part of the evaluation team.

A couple of weeks ago we reported on a system of evaluation that is going through its final test stages at the Iroquois Public School and the program being carried out at St. Cecilia's although somewhat different is also in its experimental stages. Going under the formidable title of "Service for Co-operative Evaluation for School Systems" (SCESS) the program is offered by the ministry of Education in Toronto, in co-operation with local school boards, and is in its third year of operation.

It is offered to both Protestant and Catholic school boards and the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Board is the 8th board to be involved. Along with the Ottawa Board of Education, it is one of the two biggest boards to be evaluated. The two boards are also unique in the fact that they are both bilingual.

Unlike the evaluation at Iroquois Public, which is administered solely by the board, the one at St. Cecilia's has an input from the Ministry of Education. Each school has the option of participating or being excluded from the evaluation. While the S.D.&G. Protestant Board looks at each school on an individual basis, the Separate School Board, in co-operation with the Ministry, looks at the board as a whole and makes recommendations for improvements or changes within the system.

One aspect of the program that is essentially different is that it is carried out during two different school years. A program may start at almost any time in the calendar year and carry over for a year. In this way the evaluation can observe the effect of staff changes and can also notice differences as children go from class to class. In addition some principals or vice-principals receive their appointments during the term of the evaluation.

Two committees are formed for the purposes of the evaluation. There is internal committee composed of representatives from schools within the board. Doug Jarvis, Principal of St. Cecilia's was a member of the internal committee which was set up last year. The committee meets and looks at the board and the programs it offers as a whole, and comes up with recommendations in the areas of management and re-organization, and suggests how to make better use of human talent and resources.

An external committee is appointed by the Ministry of Education and it is made up of people who are unfamiliar with the area or the personnel involved. They visit all the schools under the administration of the board, and make their own recommendations for change or improvement.

The external team visiting the Stormont Dundas and Glengarry Separate School Board is composed of 16 people and two of them were visiting St. Cecilia's . Both are members of the Curriculum Services Branch of the Ministry of Education. Charlotte Lacroix is with the Professional Development Department and Jack Stennett is with Community Schools. They talk with teachers, students principals, and even caretakers, observing what goes on in each school, and preparing a report.

When both committees have prepared their reports, they get together and compare notes. From this, they can come up with suggestions for the board as a whole. No financial recommendations are made and none of the suggestions must be implemented. The final decision is left with the board.

The evaluation hopes only to point out both the strong and weak points within the board. No notation is made of individual teachers, but rather the report hopes to stress subject or managerial areas where the board, as a whole, is weak or strong. The attitudes and roles of the people involved, as well as the program offered by the board, are looked into.

The program offered by the Ministry is available to any school board which requests it and, as Mr. Stennett pointed out, can only help to improve the services of the schools within that board.

WILL THAT BE CASH OR INTEREST?

We've taken a few shots at the Post Office in the last few weeks and we feel they were pretty well justified. This week, we heard some news about our two financial big brothers Chargex and Master Charge, and it prompted us to turn our guns their way.

News stories in the dailies report that when the strike is over, our bills will arrive bearing interest charges for any purchases since the strike started. They don't seem to be too certain of the procedure themselves since one night we read that interest will only be charged to those who do not usually pay their bills on time and another night we read that everybody will be charged interest. Then another night we read that it was possible to go to the bank and make a payment on the account but that Consumer and Corporate affairs had declared that we couldn't because it was a no-no to accept payment from people for a bill that they haven't even received. What is a man supposed to do?

We have only one thought on the subject of interest and that is best left out of print. It is very difficult to shed any tears for the banks who could quite easily have distributed the bills and collected from all of us.

Businesses like Simpsons and Bell Telephone have managed to get their bills to us and have been paid. The banks could very easily have placed newspaper or radio advertisements asking customers to pick up their bills at the branch of the bank where they normally deal. With the courier system the banks have, it would have been possible to get the bills to the individual branches and let them take it from there.

If someone was notified that his bill was waiting at the bank and could be paid there and did not pay it, it's fair enough to charge interest. But when the banks don't even make an effort, then we feel that they con whistle for their interest.

They will cry that the strike has cost them a lot of money in interest and that someone must absorb the cost. Our only reply is that the strike has cost all of us money and nobody is going to hand out payment to make up for it. This newspaper has lost money on account of the strike and there are probably few businesses which haven't experienced the same problems. We aren't about to start charging interest on accounts that were delayed because of the strike and we have no intention of paying interest to someone else for the same reason.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir

I just had 3 little kittens about 6 or 7 weeks old brought to my home, to feed and care for until we can find homes for them. They had been dropped along a country road near Cardinal. Surely these owners can find homes for them. Ask farmers with warm barns; after all cats are considered an asset to farmers in keeping down mice and rats from the storage bins etc.

There must be many people in our area who feel as I do about domestic animals being thrown out along our roads; they are left with no shelter, food etc.

How could a man or woman be so heartless. Last year a coworker and I picked up and found homes for 7 cats, one being a mother cat and 3 kittens. When we finally collected them all they were hungry, frightened and half starved. We had to keep returning to where we had seen them a number of times before we could catch them all. We successfully found homes for them all.

Why don't these people who drop off these unwanted animals not ask or run ads to find homes for them?

I'm sure they could.

Iroquois Women's Institute Hold Monthly Meeting

The Iroquois Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting on November 20th commencing at 7:30 with a business period. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. Mrs. Lottie Merkley presided at the piano.

Mrs. Vivian Seely, convenor for Canadian Family and Consumers Affairs" had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Muriel Robertson spoke on the motto, "Happiness in Life consists of something to love, something to do, and something to hope for." It was a very inspiring talk on how to live profitably and it gave us many ideas worth remembering. Thanks were extended to Mrs. Robertson by Mrs. Seely.

We answered the Roll Call by naming a "One Dish Meal for the family, including recipe.

Women from the Town Organizations attended as our guests.

Mrs. Leona McIntosh, our local Beauty Counsellor Representative, assisted by her manager, Mrs. Betty McIntosh of Chesterville, Mrs. Darlene Marchand of Cardinal and Mrs. Judy Corry of Iroquois , gave a demonstration of their Beauty Products. Some of the ladies acted as models. Thanks were extended by Mrs. Seely.

The "Salute to Vegetables", was presented by Mrs. Vivian Seely, Mrs. Gwen Parmeter and Miss Kay Morgatroyd. They went as delegates to a cooking course in Chesterville and they gave us a wonderful demonstration of a "Full course meal of vegetables."

Mrs. Gwen Parmeter introduced the demonstration and bulletins containing the recipes were distributed to everyone. The food was all very delectable and enjoyed by all.

Thanks were extended to the ladies for the good food display. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. L.C. Davis, Mrs. Jane Graham, Mrs. Muriel Robertson and Mrs. Calvin Serviss.

International Joint Commission

Public Notice

In the matter of the application of the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority to effect partial closure of a section of the St. Lawrence River between Toussaint Island and Presqu'ile near Iroquois, Ontario

Notice is hereby given that the International Joint Commission has received an Application from the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority to effect partial closure of a section in the St. Lawrence River between Toussaint Island and Presqu'ile situated entirely on the Canadian side of the international boundary immediately above Iroquois Locks near Iroquois, Ontario. The Application has been filed pursuant to Article III of the Boundary Waters Treaty of 1909.

The Applicant advises that an increasing number of accidents to downbound vessels entering Iroquois Locks has occurred during the last five yearas. Vessels involved in those accidents were affected by the cross currents from the Canadian Channel located between Toussaint Island and Presqu'ile. The Applicant further states that the requested partial closure will have no measurable effect on the level of water above Toussaint Island and that this closure of the Canadian Channel will increase velocities in the remaining cross-section of the River by not more than five percent.

Governments and interested persons, including municipalities, corporations, partnerships, associations and individuals may submit Statements in Response to the Application to the Commission prior to December 15, 1976, at either of the addresses noted below; such Statements in Response should set forth facts and arguments in opposition or support of the Application in whole or in part. If it is desired that conditional approval be granted, the Statement in Response should set forth the particular condition or conditions desired.

Copies of the Application are available on request from the Secretaries of the Commission and from the office of D. Witherspoon, Great Lakes - St. Lawrence Study Office, Environment Canada, Room 318, Federal Building, 45 Second St. East, Cornwall, Ontario.

The Commission will hold a public hearing early in the new year at which all persons interested will be entitled to be heard with respect thereto. Time and place of such hearing will be announced subsequently.

Seaway Services Hear Reports

A meeting of the Seaway Community Services was held Monday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Hall in Morrisburg. Mrs. John Corbett, president, chaired the meeting which was opened with prayer offered by the Reverend E. Earle Eaton, Public Relations representative and Camping Committee convener. The secretary's report was given by Geraldine MacKinnon, treasurer's report by Mrs. Reik Pepers.

Reports were given of the "Folk School" held recently, featuring leadership, personal and community development; on continuing education, through St. Lawrence College and government extension courses; on language and baby-sitting courses; on crafts projects, wells, "Co-operatives" and "Dug-out" sales room. Resources, consumers affairs, and community problems and needs were other matters dealt with.

Reports on the summer camps focussed on the activities at Glen Becker, Noodlebush and Hallville. Representation at Rrual Learning Association conferences and Anti-Poverty Convention was discussed, and a committee named for the annual Christmas party. The meeting concluded with the serving of refreshments.

Morrisburg Man to be Ordained

Announcement has been made from the office of the Anglican Bishop of Ottawa, the Right Reverend W.J. Robinson, of an Ordination of Priests, on the Second Sunday in Advent, December 7th.

Among the candidates for the priesthood on this date will be the Reverend Brian Roy Gillard of Morrisburg. He is a graduate in Arts of Bishop's University at Lennoxville, P.Q., and last June was granted the Master of Divinity Degree by Trinity College of the University of Toronto. Since being admitted to the Order of Deacons, at Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa, on June 1st, he has been serving as Assistant Curate in the Parish of Smiths Falls. He will continue in that appointment.

The Ordination of Priests will be at St. Matthias' Church, Parkdale Avenue at the Queensway, Ottawa at 4:00 p.m. next Sunday afternoon.

In Memoriam

SULLIVAN - In loving memory of a Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Father-in-law, Fred Sullivan born October 9, 1925 and passed away in his 49th year, November 28, 1974.

The days have slipped into winter.
Month's into a year
But it seems like only yesterday when the Lord called you home.
So there won't be anymore suffering of pain and hard work to bear.
The silent tears we shed are plenty
The memories we hold will never fade of the man who was kind, loving and gentle.
The Lord put his arms around and took him in his care.
Sadly missed by his wife Kathleen, son Russell, daughter Thelma, six grandchildren, daughter-in-law and son-in-law. 24-lp

LEACH - In loving memory of our dear Charles Brian whom was accidentally killed at Brinston, December 3, 1959.
Sadly missed and ever remembered.

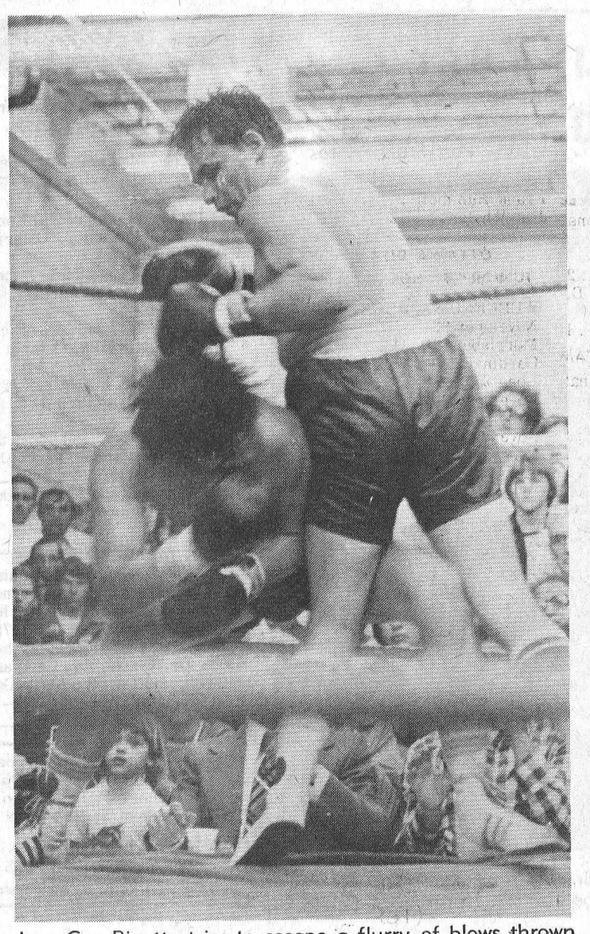
Hilton Boxing Card Draws Large Sunday Crowd



Jean-Guy Binette tries to escape a flurry of blows thrown by Hilton in their 10-round professional bout.

Dave Hilton Jr. and brother Alex staged an impressive exhibition bout to open the 9-bout card.

A boistrous crowd packed the basement of the Morrisburg Arena on Sunday afternoon to cheer on their favourites in a nine-bout boxing card sponsored by the Dave Hilton Boxing Club.

Nearly 400 fans jammed the tight enclosure normally used as the club's training facilities and headquarters for the Canadian and North American Jr. Middleweight Champion, Dave Hilton.

Thirty-three year old Hilton was featured in the 10-round main event which went nine of the 10 rounds but might have ended much sooner had Hilton pressed his early advantage. Hilton's opponent, 165 lb., Jean-Guy Binette from Quebec City proved to be a durable adversary although the champion's superiority was evident early in the match.

Hilton drew blood early in the fourth round with a solid blow which left Binette with a bleeding nose for the remainder of the fight. Binette appeared to regain his composure and rallied several times with good punches but was forced into a defensive stance by Hilton's aggressive style.

Binette was knocked partially out of the ring in the fifth round, again in the sixth and went down for a mandatory eight-count in the eighth.

The effect of Hilton's powerful blows took their toll in the ninth round when Binette was again partially knocked from the ring for an eight count but showed his perserverence by comming back to face the blow which won Hilton the match by a knock-out at 36 seconds into the ninth round.

The card started with a four-round exhibition, non-decision bout in the 75-lb. class. Dave Hilton Jr. and brother Alex, aged 11 and 10 respectivly, displayed considerable skill and surprising strength before an appreciative audience.

The second bout saw Morrisburg's Wayne Cornwall face Mike Morey of Massena in the 85-lb class. A referee's decision ended the bout in the second round when Morey was unable to continue.

As the weight class increased so did the action as Larry Carkner from Morrisburg defeated Peter O'Brian from Massena by a unanimous decision in the three round bout. O'Brian suffered from a bleeding nose in the final round of the 132 lb. class.

Two local boys faced each other in the 130 lb. class with Gary Hallington of Winchester defeating Morrisburg's David MacIntyre by a unanimous decision.

The fifth match on the afternoon's card saw an exciting match in the 135 lb. class. Mark Gardner from Massena and Larry King from Hogansburg squared off with solid blows, each fighter drawing blood early in the first round. King emerged victorious in the second with a TKO over Gardner.

The crowd roared their approval for the sixth bout as Morrisburg's Jimmy "Sudsy" Whelan stepped into the ring to face an obviously well conditioned opponent, 142 lb., Mike Grey from Hogansburg.

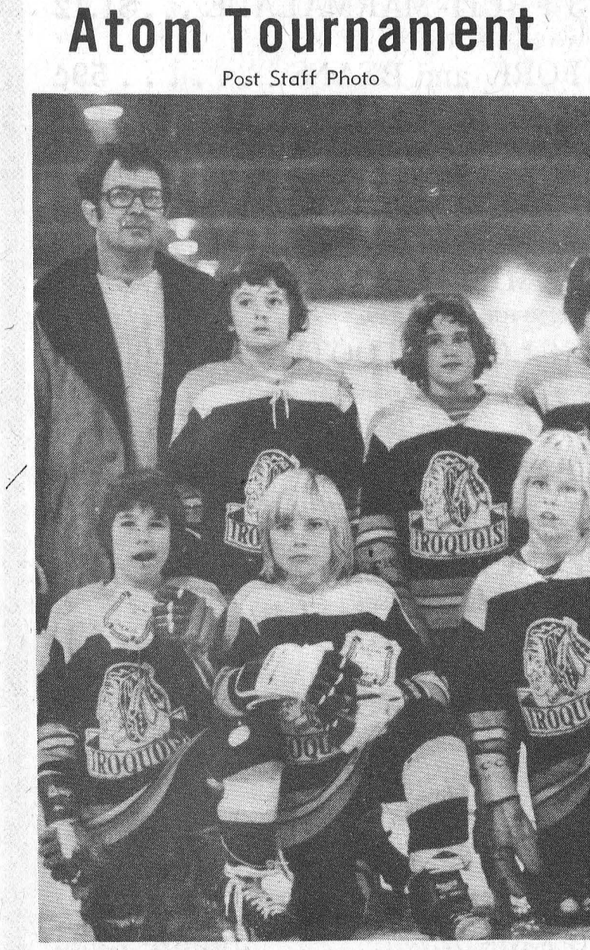
The three-round bout ended in a draw with each contestant displaying an aggressive style and providing considerable action.

Ivan Mailott from Massena and Henry Saurault from Alexandria provided the crowd with an excellent display of boxing skill in 152 lb class. Saurault won the bout by a split decision in a closely contested fight. Saurault was the more aggressive of the two fighters but was unable to inflict any serious blows as Mailott adopted a defensive stance and weathered several onslaughts unmarked.

The semi-final bout followed a short intermission with another Morrisburg favourite recieving loud encouragement from the partisan crowd who were rewarded with a unanimous decision in favour of Tom Dawley. The 165., class fighter faced Hogansburg's Stanly Francis in an exciting match which turned more and more in Dawley's favour as the fight progressed.

The Hilton Boxing Club was established in Morrisburg several months ago and has grown steadily. While the club's main objective is to train for competition many members work out simply to keep in shape.

The club is located in the basement of the Morrisburg arena where members along with Dave Hilton work out every evening.



Morrisburg's Jimmy Whelan sizes up opponent Mike Grey whom he fought to a draw.

Prescott and Iroquois Winners in Morrisburg Atom Tournament

Morrisburg hosted an eight-team Atom Tournament on Saturday with Prescott and Iroquois emerging as the 'A' and 'B' Champions, respectivly.

Iroquois faced off against Morrisburg in the opening game of the 10-game round-robin series with the home team emerging as victors in a closely fought contest. Morrisburg led by a score of 3-2 in the dying minutes of the third period when Iroquois pulled goalie Kevin Ault to gain a man advantage but lost the gamble as Morrisburg's Donald Black scored on the empty net to end the game with a 4-2 tally.

Cardinal and Brockville met in the second game. Cardinal held a 2-0 lead going into the second period and increased it to 3 0 during the period. Brockville's Dave Mallory led a comeback scoring his team's first goal in the second followed by another in the third Team mates Scott Garvin and Craig Cornell finished off with two more points to give Brockville a 4-3 victory.

Prescott walloped Athens 8-1 in the third game and Long Sault walked away from North Franklin 5-1 in the fourth game of the series.

Iroquois and Cardinal returned to the ice for an exciting fifth game which went into overtime to decide the winner. Iroquois opened the scoring in the first period on a goal by Frank Lee. Cardinal got on the scoreboard in the second when Hay slipped the puck past Kevin Ault to tie the score. With a scoreless third Iroquois started the overtime shorthanded. The team attacked quickly despite their handycap with Tony Peacock scoring the winning goal 15 seconds into the period.

Morrisburg lost to Brockville in the sixth game by a score of 4-2. Morrisburg outplayed the Brockville team but the outstanding goaltending of Rob Huskinson held the home-town team at bay.

In the seventh game North Franklin routed Athens 8-1. Long Sault was defeated in the eigth game by Prescott setting the stage for the final two games to decide the 'A' and 'B' Tournament Champions.

Iroquois faced North Franklin for the 'B' Championship and took the American team with a convincing 6-1 victory. North Franklin opened the scoring in the first period but the marker was quickly answered by Tony Picotte. Allen Burgess scored the winning goal in the second period

Iroquois exploded in the third slapping four unanswered goals past a busy North Franklin goalie. Frank Lee registered a hat trick, all in the third, with Bobby Kirker accounting for Iroquois' other goal.

A confident Prescott team defeated Brockville 5-1 to emerge 'A' Champions. Tied at 1-1 till the middle of the third Prescott outskated thier opponents as they put the puck past Brockville's Rob Huskinson four times in the space of six minutes.

Morrisburg Lions Capture First Place

Morrisburg Lions took over sole possession of first place in the St. Lawrence division of the Ottawa District Junior 'B' Hockey League with 2 victories over the Alexandria Glens, outscoring them 22 to 7, and hope to stretch their lead when they meet Winchester twice this weekend before they meet Cardinal in Morrisburg on Wed-mission in their decision to offer winter recreation in addition to their summer program is counting on the support of area residents to make the idea work. The more use that is made of facilities now, the more that can be made available in years ahead.

The decision to open the store for the winter months came as a result of the need for a central point for activities during winter. A location for the sale of tickets to various attractions, as well as a snack bar were needed, so the store went into year-round service. There was also a full time staff of three people who were employed and could operate the store in addition to their regular winter duties of stock organization and preparation for the coming tourist season.

In keeping with the store's location in the village, an attempt is made to play down the commercial aspect of the operation. There are no neon signs, no "Made in Hong Kong" Mounties. In stead, the store carries a high quality line of gifts, hand-crafted items, and souvenirs.

All ten provinces of Canada are represented in the store's line of hand-made products, and few items are imported from outside the country. "We try to get what we want anywhere in Canada and if that fails, we try England," said Mr. Mott.

The store refrains from advertising campaigns and seasonal sales and instead, offers high quality merchandise year-round, relying on word-of-mouth advertising. Mr. Mott feels that the Village Store is a big factor in attracting people to the area and as a result other merchants benefit from the store's operation. The line of merchandise is somewhat unique and is not duplicated anywhere in the area. Shoppers would have to go at least as far as Ottawa to select from a range of items such as those offered at the store.

One of the most popular lines of merchandise is the Au Terroir selection of ladies wear, hand made material that is woven in individual homes in the St. Madleine area of Quebec. Hand operated looms are placed in the homes of residents of the area and the material they produce is fashioned into ladies clothing in a local shop. This "cottage craft" method of producing articles in smaller remote areas is responsible for several other lines of merchandise in the store.

The clothing section of the store also carries a variety of ties, ponchos, knee rugs, and sweaters. One type of sweater available in the store is particularly interesting because of its ability to shed water. Hand made by the Cowichan Indians of B.C., the wool used in the sweater has never been processed and spun into yarn in the conventional method. Because of this it has retained the natural lanolin which renders it shower proof. The sweaters are thick and heavy as a winter coat and according to Mr. Mott, are popular with residents of the north-west. Plans are being made now for a fashion show in the Spring to display the clothes that are available.

The store is the only outlet in the area offering a selection of soapstone carvings and whalebone sculpture. Because of his 11 year historyworking with the Hudson Bay Company in northern Canada, Mr. Mott has made connections that enable the store to obtain a good variety with prices ranging from $20 to $400 and upwards. The whalebone sculpture is created by natives of the Hudson Bay shoreline who use the dried out bones from a whale processing factory which long ago closed its doors.

There is also a selection of hand-made wooden toys, put together entirely without nails. The sturdy toys are made by the Adult Retraining Centre, a workshop in Oshawa, and are strong enough to become hand-me-downs.

The store also has a wide selection of good books, especially Canadian publications and those relating to antiques and historical architecture, along with art work by both local and Innuit people.

The store is the only Canadian dealer for a line of fine China from England - the Avon Scenes collection by Palissy. It comes to the Village Store directly from the factory and is noted as being among the best in the world. Owen Alguire, a Morrisburg native, is manager of the store and stresses the unique nature of the operation. While employing only 3 full time people in the winter, the store staff grows to 45 during the peak summer tourist season. More attempts are being made to increase the appeal of the store and the overall facilities that the St. Lawrence Parks Commission has to offer.

With this thought in mind the store will fill orders by mail as well as in person. Far from being just a souvenir shop, the store, says Mr. Alguire, is an all-occasion shop with gifts for birthdays and other occasions, all of them Canadian.

With winter beginning in earnest, things will soon start to happen around Upper Canada Village as the snowmobile and ski trails are groomed and the Mill pond cleared for skating. The sleigh will be hitched to a team of horses and once again the Parks will come alive with the sounds of winter. The store itself is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays, Sundays and most holidays. It's well worth a visit, even just to look around, and after 25 years the coffee is still only 10¢.

Siren But No Fire

Iroquois residents were startled last Sunday afternoon by the erratic wailing of the fire siren, but fortunately there was no fire. The problem was caused by a short circuit in a line to the fire phone in one of the firefighter's homes. According to Chief Mac Anderson the problem was rectified by Bell Canada and full service was restored.

O.P.P. Report

A fire of unkown origin on November 24th caused $16,000 damage to a tractor-trailer owned by United Van Lines. The truck was parked at the Texaco Service Centre on Highway 401, east of Morrisburg. The truck was loaded with furniture which was heavily damaged in the fire.

Last week's snowstorm resulted in several minor accidents as motorists felt their way along the snow-covered area roads. Police report that charges of careless driving were laid against a driver who was apprehended in the parking lot of the Iroquois Shopping Plaza. He was seen driving erratically in the new-fallen snow and OPP from the Morrisburg detachment were called to investigate.

The Joys of Winter

This Seaway High student couldn't resist toppling a freshly built snowman following last week's snowfall, but soon found himself the target of more snowballs than he could handle.

Safe Driving Week Dec. 1–7

"Is your car ready for winter?"

That's the question the Canada Safety Council is asking drivers during Safe Driving Week, 1975 (December 1st - 7th).

The question is closely followed by another one:

"Are you, the driver, ready for winter?"

Affirmative answers to both questions are necessary if Canadian drivers are going to survive '75, and also the winter months ahead.

Some basic hints offered regarding the vehicle are:

Don't take it for granted that your battery will get you through another winter. Have it checked before it can let you down.

Brakes must be faultless in winter driving. Any pulling to one side could result in a dangerous skid.

How are your tires? Still putting off changing to snow tires if such is your habit.

You'll probably be driving with windows closed more, so make sure that the exhaust system is not leaking dangerous carbon monoxide into the vehicle. If it sounds odd, have it checked, fast.

Snow, sleet and slush thrown on your windshield mean good wiper blades in sound repair are essential. This can be one of the least expensive things to fix, yet one of the most often neglected.

With those basic checks around the vehicle, and some adjustments to winter driving conditions by the driver, survival this winter should be less of a problem!

The star of the show this week was a Hairy Woodpecker. Most members of this species wear a striking costume of black and white, with a dash of bright red for accent!

The Hairy and the Downy are almost identical, except for size, the Hairy being larger, measuring about 7 1/2 inches. His personality seems to be consistent with his definite pattern of black and white; we watched as he methodically worked over the trees in a Chinese Elm hedge. Moving from North to South along the row, he began at the base and went around each one, pecking vigorously with his large bill and seemed to find insects or their eggs to his liking in the rough bark. The bird spent the better part of an hour at this activity, so there was plenty of time to admire the handsome plumage, complete with scarlet patch on the back of his head.

Wood peckers are permanent residents across Canada, and come in small, medium and large sizes. The bigger is the Pileated, which is 15 inches long.

The Tree Sparrows stayed just long enough to get their name in the paper, then took off to another part of town.

House Sparrows seem to have many casualties of one kind or another - the latest to come to the feeder is a little fellow with just one leg - he uses his wing to compensate for the lack of balance, and gets along quite well, Thank You.

For reliable every-day entertainment, the Blue Jays and Chickadees are all-time favourites. Both birds use the same method for opening sunflower seeds: the feet form a clamp to hold the seed, and the bill is used as a hammer. It seems to take quite a lot of effort to break the hard shell. The Grosbeaks, with their "heavy equipment," can open a seed with one crunch!

A word about new feeders: Birds are often very cautious about a new feeding station. They may take a week or so to decide that it is safe, and they will first explore it from all angles before trying a sample. It helps to scatter a few bread crumbs nearby; the Sparrows love them and where a flock of Sparrows are feeding, other birds will come to investigate.

A mixture of seeds, rather than Sunflowers alone will entice a greater variety of customers, but in view of the number of birds which prefer the "biggies", a few sunflowers will be a must for your feeder.

nesday, December 10th.

The Lions went on a scoring spree Friday night, with 7 of their goals scored on power plays. Kevin Wells, and brothers Doug and Bob McNairn each had a hat trick; a pair by Chuck Lawlor, with singles going to Tim Cassell, Bill Veley, David Cassell and Brian Moran. Lions led 2-1 after the first period, and 7-3 after the second.

The Glens received 16 minors, 3 majors and 1 game misconduct, while the Lions were assessed 7 minors, 3 majors and 1 game misconduct. Moran and Kevin Duvall assisted on 4 goals, while Felker assisted on 3. Hugh Cameron of Lakeland Auto Parts received $62.00 in the half & half draw with ticket no. 632432.

Sunday afternoon the Lions traveled to Maxville and came home with a 7-4 victory over the Glens Bob McNairn scored a hat trick to bring his weekend total to 6 goals. Singles were by Kevin Duvall, Doug McNairn, Chuck Lawlor and Bill Veley. Ken Blair, Yvon Desautels, Tom Ross and Rodney Shepherd scored for the Glens. Lions received 7 of the 15 minors handed out, plus a 10 munute misconduct.

Joggers Welcome On Seaway Track

Joggers in the area can make use of the track at Seaway District High School if they step forward and make themselves known. At a recent meeting of the School Committee at Seaway, the issue was discussed and it was agreed that the track would be available for amateur fitness but the method of entry to the field was not certain.

Unfortunately the school playing field must be kept locked due to the damage that has been caused to the track by bicycles and motor bikes. The committee is investigating the possibility of installing either a turnstile or a ladder over the fence, or giving a key to the lock to each jogger. In an effort to determine how many people would use the facility, the Post is co-operating with the School Committee to come up with a list of names.

It is doubtful that there are many who would use the track at this time of year, but those who would like to have access to the track when the weather warms up are asked to get in touch with either Seaway Principal Clifford Hart or leave your name and phone number at the Post. This will aid the committee in deciding how best to open the track.

A couple of joggers have shown interest in keeping fit during the winter by jogging through the halls at Seaway and Mr. Hart has indicated that there is no problem with this. He asks that those interested make arrangements with Physical Education teacher, Don Fairweather. Again we would suggest that you contact the school or leave your name and phone number with us at the Post and we will compile a list for the people at Seaway.

A Safer Tire

The automobile tire invented by J. Mukerjee of Toronto could save you a lot of trouble if you have a blowout on the road. Instead of the usual airchamber, the new tire has two chambers: a narrow outer ring and a large central one. If the outer chamber in contact with the road surface is damaged and deflates, the intact inner chamber will get you to the next service station. The new design will also make the car easier to control in case of a blowout.

Iroquois Council Meets

$500.00 to purchase new sweaters and protective goalie equipment for a Bantam hockey team. The Minor Hockey Association hopes to recover all but $166.00 of this money from Wintario grants but need the money as soon as possible to get the team outfitted. While council was in sympathy with the request, all members felt that if they advanced the money and paid for the sweaters, it would be setting a precedent for other amateur sports organizations in the village. No definite decision was arrived at and the matter will be discussed at a special meeting of Council later this week.

A suggestion has been made to both the reeves of Iroquois and Matilda that these municipalities would be better off if they joined the Counties Library Board. The prime reason for this is that the Counties Board is in need of money and the grant money that Iroquois and Matilda receive could help them out considerably. Both Iroquois and Matilda are very happy with the present library arrangement and have no intention of getting involved with the Counties Board at this time.

Reeve Davis pointed out that, unfortunately, if 75% of the County representatives want a County system, we could be forced to go along, but all attempts will be made to resist this move for as many years as possible. Joining the Counties Board would definitely result in an increase in the mill rate for Matilda and a smaller one for Iroquois.

Under the present system, books are taken from the library in Iroquois and left for regular periods in Brinston and then exchanged for different ones. The local library is in excellent condition and has money in the bank and all council members were unanimous in their hopes to keep things that way.

Seaway High News

On Saturday, November 22, a group of students from Seaway went to see a Roger Whittaker Concert. Singing in both English and French, Whittaker's performance was so well received that it inspired the students to sing all the way home.

The afternoons of November 24 and 25 provided no school for the students of Seaway, but for the staff, it was no holiday. They were busy discussing the implementation of the Metric System in Ontario schools. Mr. Fred Pearen, consultant for the Department of Education, spoke on the matter. Tuesday afternoon was spent in department meetings discussing educational philosophy and objectives.

On Thursday, November 27, students were entertained at a lunch-hour Hot Chocolate House, sponsored by the Christian Fellowship group. Both students and teachers participated with guitars and song. We were surprised at all the hidden talent and look forward to the next Hot Chocolate House.

The Friday, November 28 Dance featured "Red Hot". Their music included selections from well known groups such as April Wine, Deep Purple, Beatles, B.T.O., and the Doobie Brothers. The next dance will be a semi-formal on December 19, featuring "Hot Smoke". Prices are $1.75 single and $2.75 couple.

TV RADIO NEWS

by Ross Mutton

The Ontario Spending Review Committee has proposed the elimination of all programming on TV Ontario which is not directly related to a school curriculum. This would basically wipe out all the prime time programming of the Ontario Educational Network. This brings up the question of what kind of programming the network should offer and exactly what is educational television?

At a recent C.R.T.C. hearing, the Canadian Association of Broadcasters criticized TV Ontario for running programs like "The Saturday Night Movie" and "The Goodies." However, the movies are presented as a history of the cinema, an examination of the prime art-form of the '30s and '40s. Elwy Yost also offers background information on the production of the films that are shown. What commercial network offers a similar service?

Education need not be boring. The program "Fall of Eagles" offers insight into the complicated political climate in Europe in the period preceeding the 1st World War. I only wish I had had access to such a program while I was struggling through high school history. I realize that the government should be concerned about spending in our inflationary economy, but I also think that TV Ontario should be given a chance to show an alternative new side to television's broadcasting.

Last week, I had the pleasure of meeting Lloyd Robertson. For the last five years he has delivered a report on the days events to Canadians, thirsty for such knowledge as a prelude to their nocturnal slumbers.

Lloyd has become known for his cool on-air presentation during space flights and political dissension even when the next five minutes can be as uncertain as the outcome of a western football game. Lloyd has been in the CBC's Public Affairs Department for the past 15 years. To keep up with current monthly news-oriented periodicals. He has found his career personally satisfying since he has had a chance to meet and talk with people that he would ordinarily never meet.

WHAT'S COMING

As we are now in the first week of December, the networks are bringing out the annual Christmas shows for another season. "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" appears on Channel 7 at 8 p.m. on Wednesday night.

At 8:30 Musicamera takes a look at three completely different Canadian singers. They are the operatic contralto, Maureen Forrester, the chanteuse Pauline Julienne, and folk singer, Sylvia Tyson. Program notes indicate that the pattern of lighting and camera work enhance the program. Past programs have very well produced and even though, you may not include each of the three singers as your favourite, I would recommend the program. It's on Channel 4.

If you missed the Bing Crosby, Fred Astaire special on Sunday night, it's repeated this Sunday night on Channel 7 at 9 p.m.

Herbert Von Karajan's fans can see him conducting the Berlin Philharmonic in Brahm's Fourth and Wagner's Overture to the Tannhauser. That's on Channel 18, also at 9 p.m.

On Thursday night, David Niven narrates the cartoon "The Remarkable Rocket". That's on Channel 13 at 7:30 p.m. and at 8, Channel 13 runs "How the Grinch Stole Christmas" one of the best Christmas specials.

On Friday at 9 p.m., on Global you can see a one-hour interview with Bill Cosby.

On Saturday night, Channel 24's double feature turns to crime. The first is a '47 drama "Kiss of Death" with Victor Mature as an ex-con turned informer. Richard Widmark plays the hoodlum. The second is "Scarface", a '32 movie with Paul Muni as a Chicago gangster.

On the late show scene, Channel 7 runs "Cool Hand Luke" at 11:10. Channel 11 presents a documentary film at 11:45 p.m. "Dream Girls of Hollywood". Joe Namath narrates more than 30 clips of actresses who become film stars.

On Sunday, CBC's "Performance" presents "The First Night of Pygmalion" with stars like William Hutton and Paxton Whitehead, it should be worth watching. That's on Channel 4 at 9 p.m.

At 10 Sunday on Channel 4, the Nature of Things has a special hour edition studying wild life on the islands in Canada's Arctic.

On Monday night, Jacques Cousteau's first special of the season is on Channel 13 at 8 p.m. "The Sea Birds of Isabella" documents our feathered friends on this island off the west coast of Mexico.

At 8:30, John Denver has a Christmas special on Channel 4. It was shot in and around Aspen, Colorado, and guests include Valerie Harper and Olivia Newton-John.

On Tuesday, there is a National Geographic Special "This Britain-Heritage of the Sea" on Channel 18. Locations include the Outer Hebrides, the Thames, and the Island of Sark.

And, to end on a bizarre note, next March, an Australian will fight a hungry shark to the death. The Aussie, or his estate, will receive a cool million for the escapade. It is expected to be carried around the world on live television. Four networks are currently interested in the spectacle. Over to you Evil Knievel.
