Stormont County plowmen not slowed by wet weather

Dianne Fetterly
Agricultural editor

FINCH — Wet, windy weather Sat., Oct. 7 may have caused a few ruts at this year's Stormont County Plowing Match but it wasn't enough to postpone the event.

Weather conditions were miserable and a few tractors got stuck, says association president Jeff Waldroff. And while organizers considered delaying this year's match, they decided to go ahead with it despite the bad weather. Overall, the plowing went quite well, he added.

This year's match was held at the farm of Ian and Sandra MacMillan three miles east of Finch.

Approximately 50 to 100 spectators braved the rain to take in the event which featured classes of horse plowing, antique tractors and farm standard two and three furrow. There were 23 competitors.

Jeff Waldroff of Newington was this year's winner of the Bernard Beehler Trophy for best field plowed by a Stormont County plowman. He also had best finish.

The match's youngest plowman, Jason Hyland, 21, of Kars plowed best crown.

Placings in individual classes were as follows:

Class 1, horses: Ben Chambers, Kars;

Class 2, antique tractors: Howard Chant, Portland;

Class 3, farm standard: Bernard Grady, Berwick;

Class 4, competitive plowing, two-furrow: Jason Hyland, Kars;

Class 5, competitive plowing, three furrow: Brent Tipping, Crysler;

Eldest plowman: Glendon Smith, 71, Finch.

Weather hampers Agrifest attendance

Dianne Fetterly
Agricultural editor

OTTAWA — While sunny skies and warm temperatures last week made for perfect conditions for a fall fair, poor weather on the weekend resulted in slightly lower attendance for this year's Capital Agrifest.

"Rain Saturday and windy, cold weather Sunday hampered this year's attendance. About 80 per cent of the gate was before 2 o'clock Saturday," said Ottawa Winter Fair President Jack Graham.

Approximately 4,000 turned out for this year's fair, down only slightly from 1994's attendance of 4,200.

However, Graham says this year's organizers had an excellent program.

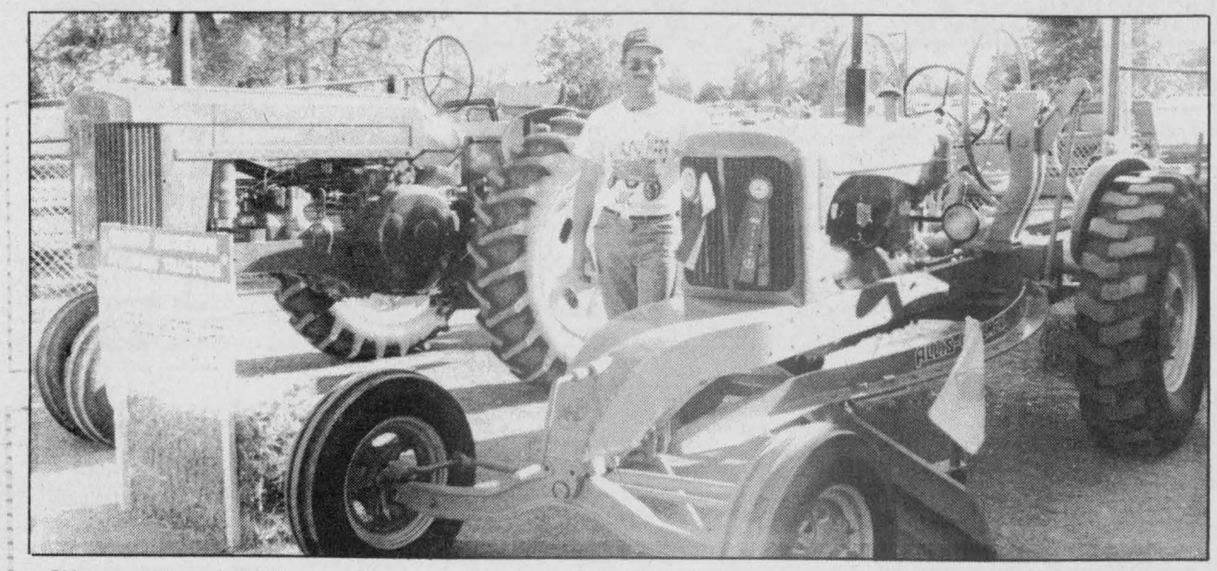

Hoping to bring back the excitement of the Ottawa Winter Fair's earlier days, organizers for the 1995 event went with a traditional program.

Livestock shows featuring dairy and beef cattle; sheep; poultry; light, heavy and western horses; a horsepull competition and 4-H took centre stage for this year's fair.

Evening entertainment, a produce market, homecraft displays and a midway were also featured.

"We had an excellent program this year — with top quality livestock shows. I was very pleased with participation and exhibitors," says Graham, who adds he's confident the show will continue.

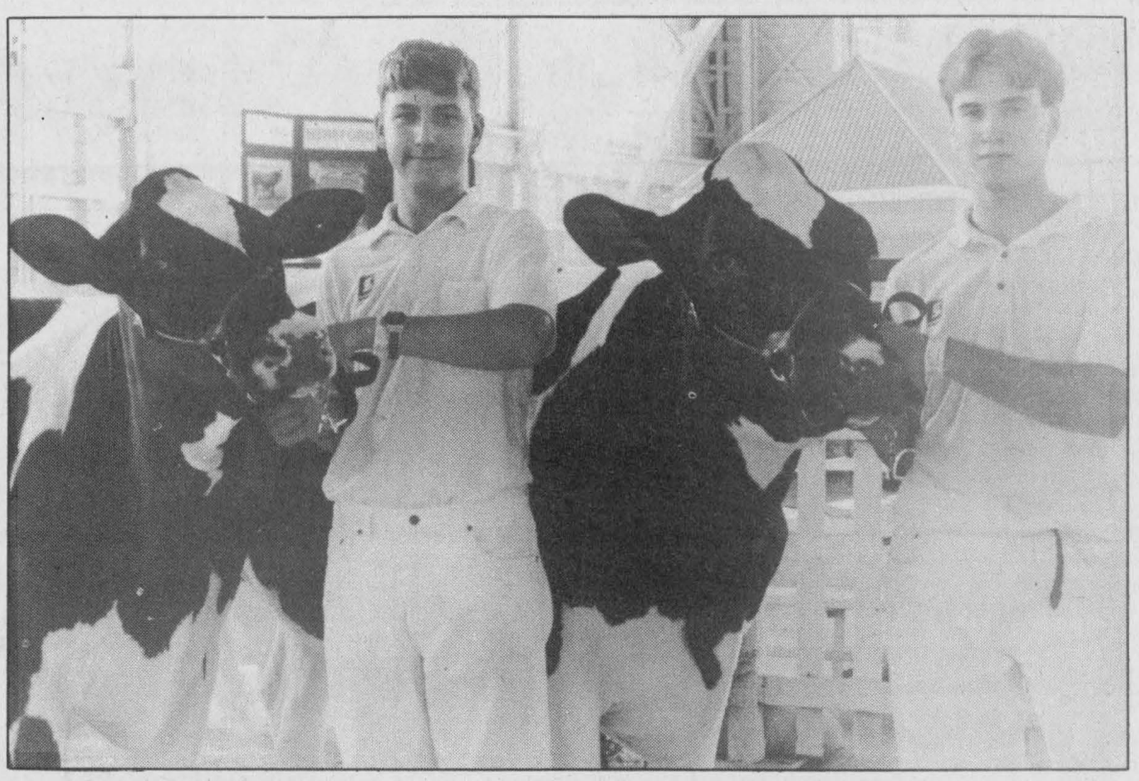

"We're on target...and within budget."

Classy exhibits

Grand and reserve champion tractors in the pre-1955 vintage farm tractor class of the Metcalfe Fair included an Allis-Chalmers exhibited by Frank Versteeg of Russell (grand champion) and a John Deere tractor (reserve) entered by Henry Doorwaard of Winchester. Versteeg is pictured with the winning entries.

Bluetop Stardust Sisi (right) and Sunspark Broker Doria (4-H calf of Jason and owned by AppleCrest Holsteins) received junior and reserve junior honors, respectively. Sunspark Broker Doria was also named reserve champion dairy heifer at this year's 4-H regional show held last Friday during Capital Agrifest. Darren received honorable mention for champion dairy showperson and his heifer placed second in the junior yearling class of the same show. Further results from last Friday's 4-H show will appear in next week's Press.

Plan beef marketing strategies

by Nancy Noecker

The first question to ask yourself when planning your beef marketing strategies is: Do I have one? In the cattle business this may be the year to start planning one. Predictions on all fronts are that calf and stocker prices will be way down this fall. How far down is anyone's guess, but it might be a good idea to do some calculations on 90 cent calves.

Couple this with dry weather, poor pasture, and the resultant light calves, and the profit picture may not be very pretty. So take some time now to consider what you can do to make your calves as marketable as possible this fall.

The following list certainly doesn't cover all the possibilities, and some may not apply to you, bit it's a start in the right direction:

- Follow the market at least every week (OCA #519-824-9161);
- Weigh your calves so you know what weights you have for sale;
- Are the steers castrated? (It's too late to dehorn but think of it next year);
- Would some creep feed help with weights? (Don't forget to calculate cost! Don't get the calves too greasy);
- Sort the calves into saleable groups. (Type and weight);
- Sell the heifers and steers separately (why let the heifers pull down the price of your good steers?);
- What vaccinations are in demand?;
- Consider INFO link cards;
- Consider selling at special stocker sales; competitive bidding versus one bid at the end of the lane;
- Find how who bought and how your calves did last year;
- Watch the sales this fall to help determine what next year's breeding decisions should be.

In Memoriam

BROWN — In memory of Wm. C. Brown, who passed away Oct. 18, 1970.
Memories can bring happiness,
When together we recall
Special moments shared as family,
So treasured by us all.
Memories can bring sadness,
With pain and sorrow too.
As we long for things to be the same
As when they were shared with you.
But the joy we shared together
Are the memories we hold dear,
And the love and happiness you gave us,
Keep you forever near.
— Always remembered and loved by wife Sadie, children Anna and Wytze, Lillian and Garnet, and grandchildren.
