THE

RACE OF THE GOLDEN AGE

World.s Greatest Harness Horse Picture

Featuring the late Edward Franklin "Pop" Geers the Grand Old Man of America, the dean of the World's Harness Horse Drivers and his Champion Pacer Sanardo 1:59½

This picture was filmed at Toronto Exhibition Grounds in June, 1923, when "Pop" the most famous reinsman of all time, drove Sanardo 1:59½, a full mile over the Toronto track in 2:06¼, lowering the record made by Dan Patch over the same oval, almost twenty years ago. A high powered motor car was used in the taking, and "Pop" can be plainly seen driving his wonderful Sanardo at Top speed all the way, paced by a running horse hitched to a long shaft cart.

After the race, Gladys Robinson, the World's Champion Lady Skater, is shown presenting "Pop" the Grand Old Man of the Trotting Turf, with a beautiful floral tribute. The appearance together of these two champions is unique and full of pathos—the one an old man more than three score years and ten, the other a beautiful girl still in her teens.

At this very time the whole of the North America continent is draped in mourning for the Grand Old Man of the Trotting Turf, who within recent date met such an untimely end, and who was recognized the world over as one of the most beloved characters of all time.

So far as is known there is only one moving picture of the famous reinsman

COME AND SEE "THE GRAND OLD MAN."

Also showing the Big Race at Chesterville Sept .29th, .1921, .when Single G. 1:58½, the Greatest Harness Race Horse of all time was there.

The "Race of The Golden Age" has been pronounced by movie critics to be the best Harness Horse Picture ever produced.

IN ADDITION TO THE "RACE OF THE GOLDEN AGE" ONE OF HAROLD LIOYD'S BEST FIVE REEL COMEDIES WILL BE SHOWN.

Harold Lloyd is a real favorite with all theatre goers and the showing of these two pictures together will surely prove one of the grandest programme's presented this season in any Local Theatre.

THE LATE DR. MILES BROWN.

A feeling of sadness was cast over the community on Monday last when it was learned that Dr. Miles Brown had died on the previous evening.

The late Dr. Miles Brown was a son of the Rev. William Brown, and was born on June 8th, 1842. Receiving his early education at the Public and High schools he attended the Toronto Normal school from which institution he received a first class teacher's certificate and after teaching school for a number of years, he took up the study of medicine and in 1871 graduated from Victoria Medical School, Toronto.

He practised his profession at Lyn from 1872 to 1878 when he removed to Morrisburg to become Editor of the "Herald" a position he held until 1880 when he gave up journalism to return to the practice of his profession at Chesterville.

His sterling qualities and professional skill soon became known and resulted in his being called upon to endure all the hardships of a large and ever increasing country Medical practice.

Although of a modest and retiring disposition he was prevailed upon to become the first Reeve of the Village of Chesterville, and during the last thirty-four years of his active life he filled various positions of public usefulness always at the solicitation and with the approval of the village.

Great as has been his service to the community it will probably be by his many and unselfish acts of kindness that he will be best and most lovingly remembered. How wide his sympathies and how generously bestowed is made known only by those to whom they were extended, for it was not his nature to refer to any charitable or useful act in which he had taken part.

Early in the year 1920 the doctor contemplated removing from Chesterville, and the citizens took the opportunity of expressing to him the great admiration and esteem in which he was held.

It is gratifying to his friends to know that he so highly prized this esteem and affection that he changed his plans and spent the remainder of his life here where he had labored so long and to such good purpose.

His wife, whose life like his own was one of useful service died several years ago. Two sons, Dr. W.A. Brown of Chesterville, and Dr. E. L. Brown of Aultsville, and two daughters, Mrs. John Bolster of Vancouver, B. C. and Mrs. Edgar Forward of Ladysmith, B. C. survive, and to these The Record extends sincere sympathy.

The funeral held yesterday afternoon in Trinity Methodist church was very largely attended, citizens of all ranks and creeds filling the edifice to overflowing, extra seats having to be placed in the aisles. The pupils of the Public school reverently marched to the church in a body to pay their last respects to the one who ever had their welfare and comfort in mind. The funeral address was delivered by Rev. W. T. Brown of Montreal, formerly pastor of Trinity Methodist, assisted in the service by Rev. R. E. Pounder the present pastor and Rev. A. J. Sinclair of the Presbyterian church. Interment was afterwards made in Maple Ridge cemetery, the pall-bearers being Messrs. O. D. Casselman, Dr. S. H. Hutt, Ed. Gillard, Melvin Durant, Geo. Elliot, and A. E. Bolster, all past-masters of Chesterville Masonic lodge, of which Dr. Brown had been treasurer for many years.

HALL—DURANT

A very pretty event took place in the Lutheran church Williamsburg, on Wednesday morning Sept. 17th at 9 o'clock, when the Rev. Theo Isler united in marriage Ada M. youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Durant, Hoasic, and Isaac youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Glen Becker. The couple were attended by the bride's only sister, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reddick also of Glen Becker. After the ceremony the bridal pair left for a motor trip in Uncle Sam's domain, stopping in Gouverneur, Pleasant Lake and Hermon and many other points. Going away the bride wore a navy serge suit with grey shoes and stockings with hat to match. They carry the best of good wishes from their many friends to their new home in Glen Becker.

JAIL AND FINES FOR BREACHES OF O.T.A.

In the police court at Cornwall Tuesday before Magistrate Cline, three men were sentenced for infringements of the O. T. A. at Chesterville during the week-end, all pleading guilty. Lorne Hutt, charged with selling, was given one month, $400 fine, and in default of payment, three additional months; William Allan, charged with buying, $50 and costs or two months; Edward Rupert, Finch, charged with having, $200 fine or three months. A fourth person, Dougald L. McMillan, charged with selling, has not yet been apprehended.

BARN AND CROP DESTROYED

Friday night last about eleven o'clock the large barns containing practically all this season's crop with the exception of a quantity of unthreshed grain stacked a little distance away, belonging to Harry Hummel, about a mile and a half east of Chesterville on the Finch road, were destroyed by fire. Fortunately the light wind which was blowing was away from the dwelling which was not damaged. The fire was first noticed by Mrs. Parnham Allison, the next neighbor, when happening to look out of the window before retiring saw the barn in flames with the fire having spread to all parts of the structure. The Hummel household had retired and was not aware that the barns were burning until awakened by others. So intense was the heat that nothing could be done to save any of the contents, fortunately all the stock and most of the machinery were not in the barn. A new silo had been completed but two days before the fire which was also destroyed. Considerable insurance was carried but the loss will still be very heavy.

TONS OF ADVERTISING

With the change of the seasons we very often hear the wail from small town merchants that the country has been flooded with a couple of tons of advertising from the mail order houses and consequently business with them is not quite up to the mark. The mail order houses have nothing on Chesterville merchants who are astute enought to see it. Every advertiser in The Record has his advertising go out fresh weekly to those who are likely to be his customers, in more than two tons of advertising in the course of a year. When all the dealers in a town realize that each carrying a few lines of different kinds of merchandise represent collectively, a stock equal to that of mail order houses, and advertise it intelligently, the bogey of the mail order drain on their businesses will disappear.

WHAT IS GOVERNMENT CONTROL

Many residents of Chesterville and vicinity remember seeing under the old open bar system of selling intoxicating liquor, dray loads of beer by the case and other liquors by the barrel, drawn away from the freight sheds here. That was simply supplying all that was called for. Government control, the proposed new system, is simply placing liquor for sale where any one can get all they want if able to pay for it. The supply will never run out as it will be sold to make money as it has always been sold.

PROMINENT PRESCOTT RESIDENT FOUND DEAD IN BED

F. J. French, K. C., one of Prescott's most prominent citizens, was found dead in bed last Thursday at his home, King Street west Prescott. He retired at night in his usual health and read for several hours, as was his custom. Not wishing to disturb him, members of his family did not go to his room until a late hour in the morning, when he was found to be dead. Born at Burritt's Rapids, Ont., in the year 1847, the late Mr. French was an outstanding figure in Grenville County. His family had much to do with the early history of that section, being of the old United Empire Loyalist stock. He has been a resident of Prescott practically all his life. Deceased was actively interested in politics and a staunch Conservative. He represented Grenville County as member of the Provincial Government for eleven years. He was one of the best read men in this section of the country and had written several articles of a historic nature, and was president of the Grenville Historical Society, in which he was keenly interested. He was an honored member of Central Lodge, No. 150, A.F. & A. M., and an ardent lover of nature. Surviving are his widow and three sons, Harry and Earl, of Prescott, and Grenville, of Montreal.

TOO HONEST

A straight line can't be too straight; a circle can't be too round; a square can't be too square, but, in the opinion of some people a man can be too "honest." When you find anyone sticking up for zig-zag honesty, put your pocket-book in a safe place, and do business with him on a spot cash basis. The man who is honest only when it suits his pocket does not need the jimmie or the sandbag to make him a first-class thug. These are the kind of people who think a man too honest when he deals as squarely with the innocent child or poor old darky who comes to his establishment as he does with the wide-awake, intelligent people who know what the market value of a dollar is. It is an awful comment upon society that men who are particular in regard to being honest with their fellows are often regarded as "peculiar". It is strange, too, that critics seldom realize the silent comment upon their own lives their estimates of these "cranks" may afford. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."—Solomon, in Shoe and Leather Journal.

WASHINGTON WINS ITS FIRST PENNANT

Washington on Monday clinched the first pennant it has since breaking into big league baseball, exactly 40 years ago, and as flag-bearer of the American League will fight it out with the New York Giants, four-time National League champions, in the world's series starting next Saturday at the capital city.

By defeating the Boston Red Sox Monday afternoon, the Senators brought to a climax one of the most spectacular diamond campaigns in the history of baseball and accomplished the downfall of the New York Yankees, once proud world's champions, who now repose irrevocably in second place.

Miller Huggins must step off the American League throne after a three-year reign, in favor of Stanley Harris, pilot of the Senators and the youngest manager who ever led a major league club to victory.

Washington's rise this year under the aggressive leadership of the 28-year-old Harris, a major leaguer only five years and experiencing his first managerial test, is one of the most dramatic achievements in baseball annals. The fighting youngster will meet one of the greatest strategists of the game when he takes the field against John McGraw, gray-haired "mastermind" of the Giants.

Sharing the glory of Washington's triumph with Harris are Walter Johnson, one of the greatest pitchers of all time, and Clark Griffith, now president and former manager of the club. In his eighteenth season, Johnson has been the mainstay of the team's twirling corps and will realize a lifelong ambition to pitch in a world's series. Griffith, the old fox" is credited with being the man behind the gun in the Senators' campaign and having had much to do with the club's successfule strategy.

Washington climbed slowly but surely to the top. From seventh place after a month of campaigning in May, they rose to fourth position the middle of June and to second on July 19. Shortly afterward they had a brief experience at setting the pace, only to have the Yankees sweep back to the top. The Senators clung to second position until August 28, when they dislidged the Yankees with a 11 to 6 victory over the Hugmen. Thereafter Washington was never headed.

That last series with New York in which Washington took three out of four games, proved the turning point of the race. It gave the Senators the added bit ofconfidence they needed for the final dash and took something of the edge off Yankee hopes.

PAIN IN THE HEART

An important thing to remember is that by no means every feeling of discomfort or pain in the left side of the chest is related to the heart. The stomach is often the real seat of the sensation; or the diaphragm, which is a muscle, may suffer as other muscles suffer from so-called rheumatic pains. So may also the muscles of the chest. Intercostal neuralgia, which affects the nerves that lead to the muscles metween the ribs, may also closely imitate pain in the heart. It is often a matter of considerable difficulty even for the physician to decide just what is the actual seat of the pain.

The most serious and distressing form of actual pain in the heart is angina pectoris. This occurrs in paroxysms, often of the most severe character; the pain is sometimes unendurable and does actually kill by its intensity, but in mild cases there may be no actual pain but only an intensety disagreeable feeling that cannot be precisely described in words. The attacks last from a few minutes to half an hour and may cease very suddenly, but usually a lame or sore feeling persiste for a time. The pain is not only felt over the heart but runs up into the left shoulder and sometimes down the arm. The cause of angina pectoris is usually a blocking of the arteries that feed the heart walls or some disease of the aorta.

Milder attacks of pain may be to pressure from a stomach distended with gas, to poisoning by tobacco or to autointoxication. A dull ache in the heart or even an occasional sharp twinge may be purely nervous, the result of fright, worry anxiety, grief, anger or any other psychic disturbance. The heart itself may be perfectly sound, but the intensity of the emotion may be so great as to stop its action momentarily. That is what occurrs when one dies of a "broken heart."

Another cause of pain is overexertion, which by tiring the heart can make it ache just like any other overexercised muscle. That ache can often be benefited by a small cup of hot coffee or by a hot application to the chest over the region of the heart, though in some cases an ice bag or a cloth wrung out of very cold water gives quicker relief.

But Many Males There.

Man (from overturned canoe)—"Hi! Hi! I'm drowning! Drop me a line!"

Fellow on Bridge—"What's the use? Ain't no postoffice where you're goin'."

CONSIDER THESE FACTS

Who are the liquor people? as we know them today.

The old-time hotel keepers?

Not at all as a whole. Many of them have openly said they prefer the O. T. A. to the licensed bar. Their trade of catering to the traveling public, is now as legitimate as that of the grocer, or any other merchant. Their families now enjoy a standing in the community denied them when their business was a demoralizing factor in its home life. The best elements of the old hotel fraternity, do not want a return of the beverage sale of liquor.

Liquor Party—Who?

Here is the line-up:

A—The Brewers and Distillers.

B—Many old-time bartenders and saloon men, who lived by the drinking habits of their customers.

C—The Bootleggers.

D—The tipplers, who think they "can stop whenever they like."

These are the "Wets".

Associated with them are some who have been befogged by the assurances of these interested parties, that "Liquor is flowing everywhere. Anyone can get all they want." Added to these are honest-intentioned people, whose liquor prejudices are not subject to revision, no matter what the new light or truth.

The foregoing comprise the present line-up of the liquor party.

Opposing Deputations

Keeping the above in mind, note the following:———

There have been, since 1894, five huge Temperance contests——Province-wide, battles-royal, over the drink traffic. (This does not include the great Petition Campaign of 1916).

Every one of these campaigns was asked for by the Temperance people. Months, sometimes years, were consumed in patient, persistent, determined effort to secure permission for these ballot-box decisions.

The liquor people opposed each of these appeals with monster deputations—ALWAYS HEADED BY THE BREWERS AND DISTILLERS.

Remarkable Change!

Now Listen!———

For the first time in the history of Ontario, the Liquor people—not the Temperance people—have appealed for a Vote!

Why!what folly! !—when there is more liquor drunk than ever before.

"They are interested in the temperance welfare of the people?"

In our over 100 years of struggle against the drink trade, they never before showed the faintest sign of such a thing; why credit them with that motive now?

Choose Your Company

You have right here, the strongest argument that could be used in favor of the O.T.A. The liquor people of this Province do not want it. They want Government Control.

Shall men and women who sincerely desire the welfare of the homes of Ontario, cast a ballot in favor of a policy with such backers?

THE BLUSHING BRIDEGROOM

Just suppose they wrote up the bridegroom instead of the bride! Here's the way the wedding notice would read:

The wedding of Mr. Stuart Stewart only son of Mr. and Mrs. Sowerly Stewart, and nephew of the late Senator Sappington, of Arkansas to Miss Hepsy Dewberry, also of this city was solemnized at the 1st. Methodist Church at 8.30 o'clock Wednesday night. The regular pastor officiated. Preceeding the ceremony Mr. Algernon Stewart, cousin of the groom sang "You're the kind of a girl men forget." The groom wore a black swallow-tail coat of conventional design with satin lapels, a white vest cut very low to display a plain stiff-bosomed shirt, which was white with a dash of Scotch. The studs were of cut glass. A silk tie also of white was tied in a neat bow a little to one side of a winged collar. The trousers of the same material as the coat, were distinguished by a vertical stripe of braid down each side and a crease in front and in the back of each leg. The belt, which was visible only after a deep intaking of breath, was of black leather, with a silver initial buckle, the gift of the bride. Patent leather shoes with cloth tops and pearl buttons completed the very becoming costume. He wore his hair parted in the middle, drawn tightly back from the forehead and pomaded close to the scalp. The bride was dressed in the conventional white.

— Very Dry

Farmer—"You had a fire at the manse this morning. Any serious loss?"

Minister—"Yes; ten years' sermons completely burned."

Farmer (with a memory of many a weary Sunday morning—) "Mon, they made a gran' blaze; they were so dry, ye ken."

After The Honeymoon.

"I wish to complain," said the bride haughtily, "about the flour you sold me. It was tough."

"Tough, ma'am?" asked the grocer.

"Yes, tough. I made a pie with it, and my husband could hardly cut it."

PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY

A press despatch recently furnished the public with a thought-provokfessed slayer, Who, standing behind ing story. It told of a son, a conthe bars of his cell—heard his aged father publicly denounce him and refuse him 15 cents for cigarettes.

"When your mother and I begged you to give up your bad habits and be our boy again, what did you do?" the father is quoted as asking, "You laughed at us. Now you can suffer for it."

We do not know whether the parents of this youth may rightly be held responsible—in part or in whole for the son's downfall, but the sad incident should cause other parents and other sons and daughters to determine, if possible, whether or not they are properly fulfilling their respective duties and obligations to one another.—The Daily American Tribune.

COMMUNICATION

Morewood

Editor Record and all lovers of Christian Unity and Fairness:—

My attention has been drawn to the following resolution which speaks for itself.

"At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Presbyterian Church, Morewood, and held on the above date in the church, it was moved by William Hillis and seconded by John McLeod that we request Presbytery to reconsider their finding of your April meeting in Kemptville, as regards to financial condition of the congregation represented by those waiting on you in the matter.

"Your attention might be drawn to the fact that as regards the 44 young people who guaranteed to you $400, towards the minister's salary, only a small percentage of those have been contributing, and others who were fairly strong and regular contributors, refuse to give any further support under the existing circumstances, henceforth you see our position as a Board.

"We cordially extend an invitation to you to further advise us in this matter, and, if deemed advisable by you, would be pleased indeed, to have you send a commission to this Congregation to assist us in this matter."

Signed

Thos. Courthart, Chairman.
J. M. Marcellus, Secy.

Perhaps a few remarks re the above resolution may not prove fruitless at this time, and set some parties at least thinking and perhaps save the Brockville Presbytery from dealing with this already dealt with matter again for some time at least.

Surely the decision given on April 28th last, was clear and to the point and the whole trouble was well understood by the members of Presbytery present, and the finding was framed and prepared by his Honor Judge Dowsley, a christian gentleman not wholly in favor of the Church Union Bill. The above resolution is seemingly aimed at the 44 young people of the congregation who came forward bravely, when "The Board" proclaimed this much talked of "Dead Lock" and promised $400.00 per annum to help out. Now, four months had only passed when they were made a target of by this "Board" and held up to ridicule before the Brockville Presbytery, in place of having the brotherly advice and protection of what should be a christian body of men. $400 per annium would be, about $33.00 per month, and I understand that much or more has been contributed by these young people, and had this Board lent them the patronage and sympathy that they should of had at their July 4th social $100 more might easily have been paid in. The young people no doubt erred in making their social on July 4th, as some of our citizens celebrated that day with Uncle Sam, or at other local gatherings, which is no doubt of more moment to them than their much beloved church and young people. How many of this Board are not as far or perhaps farther behind in their obligations than these young people referred to?

Now, what became of this polished and finely worded resolution? It met its just doom. It apparently got to the Presbytery by an unknown source, nobody to speak on its behalf, had come in in an irregular way and was thrown out. This Board was told on April the 28th to carry on, and face their obligations, etc. Have they been doing so? If the members of this Board, that do not feel like attending their church, would also absent themselves from these Board meetings perhaps the difficulty would be overcome. Funds would be got as in former years and the minister would have had his salary as promised. This Board must know that the salary is guaranteed and that there is sufficient property here to pay 100 cents to the dollar should nobody pay any more. Now, in conclusion I would like to ask, who will be likely to move a resolution to employ counsel to defend a writ of summons, should this matter end up before his Honor Judge O'Relley, for salary due, or defamation of character, by any that may deem themselves injured or defamed.

Hoping that our young people may not be discouraged by the insult so ignorantly aimed at them, and as christians follow the example of our Saviour, who forgave his murderers, saying "they know not what they do." Shameful things have happened here of late which I shall not mention at present, but which sorely grieve all right thinking people. Come let us reason together.

R. Steven.

Pat and Mike were lying in bed in pitch darkness. Suddenly Pat got up. He lit a match, looked around, and then blew it out and lay down again.

"What did you do that for?" asked Mike.

"Oh," repliel Pat, "you see, I forgot if I blew the candle out or not, so I just looked to see."

C. P. R. AGENT LOSES LIFE ATTEMPTING TO SAVE PET

Attempting to save the life of the family dog "Carlo" his children's pet and to avoid any accident that might occurr if the train struck the dog, Harry Parks, for the last 12 years C.P.R. station agent at Walford, a lumbering centre west of North Bay, jumped in the path of an oncoming through freight train was struck and instantly killed about 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and four children. He was 44 years of age and had been in the employ of the Canadian Pacific Railway for almost 20 years.

ONTARIO AS A BAR-ROOM

The Buffalo Evening News says that Americans have made a bar-room of Quebec, and will make similar use of Ontario if this Province restores the liquor traffic. To quote:

"If Ontario adopts the system in vogue in Quebec, every city, village and hamlet of the Province across the border line from America will become a bar-room. Imagine what conditions would be like at Fort Erie, Bridgeburg and Niagara Falls, Ont. There would be a steady stream of tipplers from this side to Canada. The ferries would not be able to accommodate the thirsty horde. From every Ontario public house along the border, day and night, would come the loud, convival din of Americans in their cups.

"But that would not be all; there would be a steady movement of liquor across the Niagara and every other section of the border for inland delivery. It would be next to impossible for the authorities here to stem the flood. Their task would be like King Canute's."

Will our contemporary be surprised to hear that many enemies of prohibition in Ontario urge the repeal of the present law because it will have the results pictured by The News. They contend that it will increase the stream of tourist traffic from the United States—that Americans will pour into the province to pour liquor into their throats. They profess to rejoice in the prospect. They talk of the millions of money it will bring into the country. They want Ontario to be a bar-room and a bartender. Probably they will use the extract in The Buffalo Evening News as campaign literature.

RUN OVER BY FORD CAR

Mountain Herald—Mr. Milton Murdock met with a serious accident, last Thursday noon, when he was accidently knocked down and run over by a Ford car driven by Mrs. Frank Kirkwood of Oak Valley. Medical aid was immediately summoned and it was found two ribs had been broken and his back injured. He is doing nicely and able to be out again.

RECORD AS FRUIT EATER BY GUELPH DOG

Ald. H. J. McElroy of Guelph owns an English bull dog that holds the canine record in this section of the country as a fruit-eater. The other day one of the city fathers left a basket of plums which he had purchased on the market, on the floor while he attended to some necessary business. On his return he found "Don" had disposed of half the basket of fruit leaving the stones in a neat heap beside the receptacle. When disturbed by the indignant citizen, the dog was busily engaged in cleaning up the balance.

MOUNTAIN MAN ATTACKED BY BULL

When driving his big pure bred Ayrshire Bull to the fair here last Thursday, Mr. Samuel Thorpe of Hulbert, had a very narrow escape from being killed, when he was tackled by the animal, getting him down in the ditch and badly battering him about, and driving a horn through his right arm which required a number of stitches to close the wound. Mrs. Casselman who was coming to town, summoned help and the animal was driven away and Mr. Thorpe, who was in a critical condition, rushed to his home for treatment. At present Mr. Thorpe, is improving nicely and we hope he may soon be out around again.—Mountain Herald.

THE LAST STRAW

Nobody in Cedarville was more generous than Almira Hanson. "She-'ll give an' give, an' without regard to getting," her neighbors said of her. But Miss Hanson had her own ideas as to the proper limits for generosity, and in the case of the Cedarville Corner's Church Sociable she felt that those limits had been overstepped.

"I don't want to carp nor to criticize," she remarked to an interested listener; "their ways have never been my ways, but they've gone against my grain so much as they did last night.

"They asked me for a pot of beans for the supper, and I made 'em same as I do for all three of the churches.

"Now you understand me, I was glad to do it. I didn't begrudge 'em the beans, nor the time it took to do 'em, when I had company come unpected—three cousins and a woman I'd never set eyes on before.

"Nor I didn't begrudge carrying that heavy pot down there on a hot night and then paying twenty-five cents to eat some o' my own cooking.

"But when I was ready to come home, and begun to hunt round for that pot, and found Mis' Deacon Harling had sent her boy home with it, and said she knew I'd rather pay five cents to him for the church debt than to lug it myself, well—I didn't say anything, but thinks I, 'if this isn't the capsheaf I don't know what would be!"

MRS J. McGUAIG, FINCH

One of the best known and most highly respected residents of the village of Finch, Mrs. J. McQuaig, was released from earthly care and suffering and taken to her eternal rest on Monday, Sept. 15. The deceased had been a sufferer for many months, and by her patience and fortitude gave those left behind the assurance that she was a follower of the Lord. She was a woman of few words, the joy of the home of a very lovable disposition, and uniformly kind and considerate of all about her. Her maiden name was Elressa Countryman, being a daughter of the late Thomas and Melissa Countryman, Newington. She was born on August 21, 1860, and on November 7, 1888 she became the wife of J. McQuaig. To this union there were born four sons and two daughters—Wilbur, Earl, Clair and Fred and Leila and Jennie. She leaves besides her husband and the above family to mourn her loss two brothers, John and George Countryman of Newington; and five sisters—Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Helmer, Mrs. Duff and Miss Jennie Countryman. and Mrs. Wert of Avonmore. The funeral service was held in St. Luke's Presbyterian Church on Wednesday at two o'clock, by Rev. R. J. Wilson, and interment was made in the village cemetery.

WHO SAYS "OH, WHAT'S THE USE?"

A young man ran for the Legislature of Illinois and was badly swamped.

He next entered business, failed and spent seventeen years of his life paying up debts of a worthless partner.

He was in love with a beautiful young woman, to whom he became engaged—then she died.

Entering politics again, he ran for Congress and was badly defeated. He then tried to get an appointment to the United States land office, but failed.

He became a candidate for the United States Senate and was badly defeated.

Then he became a candidate for the Vice-Presidency of the United States and was once more defeated.

One bad failure after another—bad failures—great setbacks.

Then he became one of the greatest men of America—Abraham Lincoln.

Who says, "Oh, What's the Use?"

Bath

It was a summer hotel, not exactly modern.

"Can I get a private bath?" asked a new arrival.

If you are an early riser," answered the clerk. "You won't find anybody in the ocean before seven.

BRIDGE IS PROJECTED ACROSS OTTAWA RIVER

A delegation of representative men from Argenteuil County was received in Montreal by Premier Taschereau to discuss the matter of building a bridge across the Ottawa River between Grenville, in Argenteuil County, and Hawksbury, Ontario. The cost of the bridge will run to $300,000, it is estimated. Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, and M. P. for Argenteuil, who headed the delegation, suggested that Quebec pay a share of the cost. Ottawa would be ready to pay one-half, it was said, and Ontario had intimated its readiness to do the same as Quebec.

Mr. Taschereau, in reply suggested neither province make a direct contribution, but that a company should be formed to build the bridge and operate it on toll basis. He believed the Province of Quebec would be willing to guarantee a quarter of the bonds floated to pay for the bridge.

DON'T BE A GRUMBLER

Did you ever hear of the word? Did you ever see a person to whom the term "grumbler" might be applied? Did you enjoy his company? Did you follow his career to see what progress he made himself and how much he helped others? Of course you did! We have all met this unpleasant individual, longed to lose his company and have also noted that he seemed to cherish such a displeasure towards everything and everybody that it is a marvel that he goes on living. Grumbling does not gain one friends, in fact it gains nothing but is rather a total loss. The grumbler stops the wheels of progress, becomes a pessimist, can only say disagreeable things, and destroys what few friendships he may have. Grumbling, like many other failings, becomes a habit, a decidedly unpleasant one that should be broken. While it may be hard to accomplish, it can be done, and the person who is addicted to this habit, should make some strong resolutions. When you get up in the morning be determined that you are going to make the day brighter. The first few hours will be the most difficult but if you can keep the complaints away until noon, the chances are the balance of the day will pass off well. Let us not forget that this world is too large and has too much to look after to give the grumbler much thought. It wants the optimist, the smiling face, the willing hand for these are the things which go to help the world. So if you want to be a likeable person, a helper, and the one who will get the most of this life and the life to come chuck the grumbling spirit overboard and sail into seas of sunshine and happiness.

The marching of the children was eagerly watched and their appearance as they marched in order from the School grounds to the Public road and out to the cross-road and return, presented a very pleasing sight. They were then united together and all sang "O Canada" and the National Anthem. The prizes were given —First to No. 7, Second to No. 12 and Third to No. 6. The entries were all well-filled and as far as could be ascertained were about equally divided among the sections. FIVE MEN WILL DIE APPEALS DISMISSED

The appeals of Louis Morel, Frank Gambino, Tony Frank, Giuseppe Serafini, Mike Valento and Leo Davis, under sentence of death for the murder of Henri Cleroux in connection with the Bank of Hochelaga collection car holdup, were dismissed in Montreal Tuesday afternoon by Court of Appeals, five judges, but in the case of Davis, Justices Lafontaine and Guerin dissented, this leaves it open to counsel on his behalf to enter a further appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada. It was announced immediately after the rendering of the judgment by counsel for the defence of Davis, that such an appeal would be entered immediately. In the case of the other five, the appeal was unanimously rejected, so that the portals of hope are closed for them, at least as far as recourse to courts of justice is concerned. They will hang on October 24 as originally ordered, according to the decision of the court.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE EXODUS

Driven to find some material to offset the figures showing the exodus to the United States, the King Government, though it says it cannot count those who leave the country, has since April, been announcing figures for those who have returned. It says that during the four months ending July, 18,870 Canadians have come back. Everyone is glad to know that Canadians are returning, for Canada cannot become the country she should be unless she retains her native born.

The inference drawn from these figures is that the movement of population from north to south has been completely stopped and that a movement from south to north has begun. It has never been contended by those who have criticized the Government on this matter that there was not a movement of population from the United States into Canada, but they have said that the King Tariff policy is crippling the industries of the country to such an extent that our people have to go south to get work.

Since the Government will not supply the figures showing the emigration from Canada, we have to rely on Washington. And what does it say? The figures for July are not available, but it says that during the months of April, May and June, when the King Government says that 13,700 Canadians returned, actually 54,000 persons went south. In June alone, when the King Government said that 5,127 persons came back, 19,177 went to the United States. Washington also says that during the first six months of the year 96,825 went south, as compared with 77,925 during the first six months of 1923, and 24,579 during the same months in 1922.

No wonder industry is languishing in this country. No wonder that merchants talk of reduced sales. What else can be expected in the face of figures such as these? Business cannot thrive if the bottom is shaken out of it every little while by mischievous tariff changes. In these days when the cost of living is high, men and women out of jobs will not stay around waiting for one in this country. Canada needs a policy which by insisting on the retention of our raw materials into finished products, will create jobs.

THE GREAT MYSTERY

The farmer says he isn't making his salt when he sells his steers, his lambs, his sheep, and his hogs. Losing money, in fact.

The packers take advertising space to tell the world how very little, how extremely infnitesmal, is their profit. They aren't even making yacht money, taking the year as a whole.

The railroads declare they just about operate at a loss lugging the live stock to market and delivering the meat products. Hardly enough surplus to buy new break beams.

The butcher's tears drop on the chopping block as he explains how pitifully small his margin is. Can't even buy a spare tire.

But John W. Consumer knows he pays a good stiff price for his sirloin, for his lamb chops and for his bacon for to-morrow's breakfast. If he goes coco and buys a whole ham at once he leaves a whole in his roll.

Yet nobody seems to be making any money on the various transactions. It is a great mystery.—Sudbury Star.

WEARS HIS COLORS

Smiths Falls Record-News—Mr. F. G. Neelin, collector of Customs at Seaforth was a welcome visitor at the Record-News office recently. He was on a visit to his neice, Mrs. Baird. Mr. Neelin was formerly editor of the Seaforth Sun, but was called to a more sublime occupation. He is also a lay-reader of the Anglican church. Mr. Neelin always wears a red tie of which an interesting story is told. Many years ago he was at a convention of editors and publishers, in the hottest part of the summer, and the meeting was presided over by the late Sir John A. Macdonald. At the time Mr. Neelin was the youngest editor present, and he was called forward by Sir John, who took off his tie which was red, and presented him with it, and he was told by the then premier that he should wear that shade always. Mr. Neelin has nearly always worn a tie of that shade since.

SUFFERS NO MORE WITH HEADACHES

"Fruit-a-tives" freed her from years of pain

The Fruit Treatment seems to be the only way of completely ridding the system of the cause of Headaches.

Miss Annie Ward, of 112 Hazen St., St. John, N.B., says: "I was a great sufferer for many years from Nervous Headaches and Constipation. I tried everything, but nothing seemed to help me until I tried "Fruit-a-tives".

After taking several boxes, I was completely relieved and have been well ever since".

Practically all Headaches come from poisoned blood—that is, the blood is laden with impurities which should be carried from the body by the kidneys and bowels.

"Fruit-a-tives"—made from the juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes—regulate the vital organs of the body—insure a pure blood supply—and completely relieve Headaches.

PREPARING THE SURPLUS COCKERELS FOR THE MARKET

(Experimental Farms Note.)

Repeated experiments conducted by the Poultry Division of the Dominion Experimental Farms, both at Ottawa and at the branch Farms throughout Canada, have demonstrated the fact that it is far more profitable to fatten cockerels before putting them on the market, than to sell them direct from range. The additional profit obtained thereby, is due not only to the increase in the weight, but more particularly to the improved quality of the flesh, which always commands a higher price.

Crate fattening involves a little more time and trouble than does fattening in pens or yards, but has proven to be the more satisfactory and gives greater returns. An experiment conducted at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, in 1921, showed that the average profit (over cost of feed) realized on birds fattened in crates was almost fifty per cent greater than on those fattened in yards.

No birds showing signs of constitutional weakness should be put in the fattening crates, as they will be unable to endure the confinment and forced feeding. Cockerels of the general purpose breeds fatten best in crates when they weigh from four to five pounds.. Before being placed in the crates they should be thoroughly treated for lice, and if necessary treated again during the fattening period.

Experiments hase also shown that a home-mixed fattening mash gives equally good results as a commercial mash and produces a cheaper gain. Such a mash may well be composed of equal parts by weight, of cornmeal, feed flour, and middlings, or equal parts of feed flour, cornmeal, barley meal and buckwheat meal. In fact a mixture of almost any finely ground grain will prove satisfactory. The mash should be mixed with buttermilk, but if this is not possible, skim-milk may be used, and 5 to 10 per cent. tankage added to the mash ingredients. The mixture should be about the consistency of porridge so that it can be poured from a pail. It is preferable to mix one feed ahead, so that it will be a little sour when fed. As a general rule two feeds per day are sufficient, and no more should be given than the birds can clear up in twenty minutes. All surplus feed should be removed after each feeding and the troughs kept thoroughly clean.

More detailed information on this subject, including a complete description of fattening crates, is contained in Exhibition Circular No. 70, "Crate Feeding," which can be obtained free of charge from the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

FREAKISH AND ABNORMAL VEGETABLES

Mr. Wm. Kinnard, River street, has left with The Reporter a carrot of unique formation. The vegetable is about five inches long and has a band of bone slightly below the centre. As the seed germinated and the tendrils shot downwards they passed through a marrow bone, and the carrot developed below the ring as well as above it. The punster of the office refers to it as a good example of a one-carrot ring.. Keeping company with the carrot is an ear of corn of the Longfellow variety from the farm of Mr. M. Shortall, Brewer's Mills. The ear is fifteen inches long, and contoins 480 kernels. There was also another ear on the same stalk, not quite so large, but from one kernel of seed the yield could be easily estimated at well over 700. Mr. Shortall would like to know if anyone can beat this record. —Gananoque Reporter.

Progress or Reaction

Ontario Electors Must Choose

THE issue of the Plebiscite of October 23rd is: Shall the sale of intoxicating liquor as a beverage continue to be prohibited, or the traffic be re-established and conducted by the Government? ¶ Since September 16th, 1916, the legalized sale of liquor for beverage purposes has been prohibited. During eight years The Ontario Temperance Act has wrought a moral, social and economic transformation, gradual but real. ¶ A new generation knows nothing of the evils of the liquor traffic before the O. T. A. came into force. Older generations may have forgotten. ¶ Think of it! There is not a man or woman 29 years of age who has legally seen the inside of a bar-room or liquor shop in the Province of Ontario. ¶ Booze is banned! It is a discredited and dishonored outlaw. Now, it wants to come back. It seeks not only re-instatement, but that the Government itself shall be an active partner.

Do You Remember?

The old-time Bar-Room and Liquor Shop, with their disgusting sights and sounds and smells;

The staggering, cursing, drunken men who jostled us on the streets and on the cars—particularly on holidays or at public demonstrations—and who filled our jails;

The poor, battered, bedraggled hulks of men and women—God's children, our brothers and sisters, every one of them;

The destitution, misery, wretchedness, squalor, filth and disorder in many hovels that might, and should, have been homes;

The vice, the immorality, the crime, the debauchery, incited by liquor, that appalled good citizens.

The O.T.A. Has Made Good

Contrast those conditions with the situation today. The Ontario Temperance Act has brought immeasurable improvement. Drunkenness has decreased. Crime has been lessened. Homes are happier. Children have been given a better chance. Savings Bank deposits have increased. All down the line, PROGRESS has been written into the history of Old Ontario!

OFFICIAL RECORDS PROVE ALL THIS!

The following table shows that, in Ontario under the O. T. A., there has been a substantial decrease in the offences that are usually associated with drink:

	1914	1922
Assaults	1,627	756
Cruelty to Animals	1,172	256
Vagrancy	4,703	1,507
Keeping and Frequenting Bawdy Houses	802	352
Loose, Idle and Disorderly	6,411	1,736
Drunkenness	17,703	10,063

NOTE THE OPINION OF OUR MANUFACTURERS:

"Does Prohibition, under the O. T. A., result in more comfortable homes and better supplies of food and clothing for wives and children?"

When this question was asked of leading Ontario manufacturers by the Ontario Board of License Commissioners, 1,165, or 82 per cent., answered "Yes", while only 239, or 17 per cent., said "No".

All Systems of Government Sales Have Failed

So-called "Government Control" has proven a dismal failure wherever tried. Drinking, drunkenness and bootlegging have reached appalling proportions. Every Canadian Province that has tried any form of "Government Sale" has already learned a hard lesson.

Take BRITISH COLUMBIA: Hon. H. H. Stevens, M.P., in a public address in Vancouver recently, declared:

"Never, in the history of the country, was bootlegging comparable in magnitude and murderous results to what it is today."

Or, MANITOBA: Figures furnished by the Chief of Police of Winnipeg show an increase of 45 per cent. in the number of drunk and disorderly cases in the first five months under Government Sale, as compared with the corresponding five months of the previous year under Prohibition.

And, finally, QUEBEC: The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Presbytery of Montreal, April 15th, 1924:

"That we regard it to be a patriotic duty to make it known that the drug traffic flourishes here as never before and is on the increase, bootlegging flourishes in and from this Province as never before, that drunkenness is on the increase and that the Quebec system of Government Control is socially injurious and not a success."

For the Honor of Old Ontario mark Your Ballot thus:

1	Are you in favour of the continuance of The Ontario Temperance Act?	X
2	Are you in favour of the sale as a beverage of beer and spirituous liquor in sealed packages under Government control?

Ontario Must Hold the Line

If a majority vote for "continuance", it means that we will have a better law more effectively enforced, with correspondingly improved results. The Government, through the Prime Minister, has definitely pledged itself to "strengthen" the Act and "give it active and vigorous enforcement".

If a majority vote for "Sale", it means the re-establishment of the old, discredited Liquor Traffic, in the guise of respectability under a system that makes the Government the bartender and every citizen a partner, acting as sales agent for the brewers and distillers and making profit for them out of the destruction of life and happiness.

The Ontario Plebiscite Committee, uniting the temperance forces of Ontario, calls upon all who love their Province and wish its continued and increasing prosperity and the happiness of its people to VOTE FOR THE LAW that has accomplished immeasurable good, and not for a return of the traffic that has wrought such havoc in the past, and would do it again.
