McMillan, "The Pines," Grantley, was united in holy matrimony to Vernon Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Whaley, Moulinette. The church was a veritable "pinery" even the guest pews were decorated with white satin ribbons and sprigs of pine. Rev. H. M. The matron of honor wore ice blue satin. Miss Smith wore gold, Miss Daye apple green satin, each with full organza skirt. Each wore full-length gloves and from plumy headdresses fell shoulder length veils. The wee flower girl wore pink net over satin and was attended by the ringbearer, her brother, in full dress suit.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served to 65 guests at "The Pines". At the bridal table, a beautifully adorned wedding cake, tall tapers in pink and white, also pine cones in abundance were used. As a surprise to the bride, a gorgeous gift package of "Missionpak" fruits from her aunt in California was served to the guests.

Rev. Beach proposed, in gracious compliments, the toast to the bride compliments, the toast to the bride, and the groom ably responded. Rev. McMorin, Wales, spoke in glowing complimentary terms of the groom.

Then making the occasion a memorable one Rev. Beach baptized Grace Elayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Munroe, she being of the third generation in the old McMillan home. This ceremony was witnessed by the wee girlie's two nurses, Mrs. Glen McMillan and Miss Velma Daye.

IN MEMORIAM

CASSELMAN—In loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. Mahlon Casselman, who passed away October 30th, 1945.

Remembrance is a golden chain,
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love, and then to part,
To the greatest sorrow of one's heart
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.

CANADIANS BREED WORLD'S BEST HOLSTEINS

Speaking at the Brantford Championship Holstein Show, C. Alberto Lozano, Editor of Holando Argentino, South America's leading Holstein paper, published in Buenos Aires, said, "I have inspected the herds in the leading dairy countries of the world and I can tell you in all sincerity that Canadians are the best breeders of Holstein cattle in the world. Canadians are a very friendly people and I can assure you that on my return home I will be an ambassador of good-will between our two countries."

Some months ago Mr. Lozano visited Europe to inspect the Holstein herds in Holland and is currently touring Canada and the United States to inspect the Holsteins of this continent. He has visited the major breeding institutions in Canada and a number in the United States and has had an opportunity to study both United States and Canadian Holsteins at the leading shows of the two countries. On his return to Argentina he plans to publish a special issue of Holando Argentino describing by word and picture his visit here. In addtion he has taken extensive moving pictures which will be shown to agricultural audiences in Latin America.

HOTBEDS IN FALL PROFITABLE VENTURE

In making the necessary hotbed for the growth of tender plants in the spring, much labour and time will be saved by doing the excavation for the frame in the Fall before the ground becomes frozen. A hotbed can prove profitable wherever vegetables or flowers are produced. With a hotbed it is possible to mature several kinds of vegetables in Canada, which, if started in the open in the Spring, would be killed by frost. Few vegetables grow if the soil and air are cold, consequently most of them be started in warm soil and warm air such as are afforded by a hotbed and the plant not set out in the open until warm weather is established. Hotbeds also ensure large crops when without them the crops would be small.

Canadian grown crops of such vegetables as radish, lettuce, spinach, and carrots can be put on the markets much earlier through the use of hotbeds than they otherwise would have been if planted in the usual way. Cauliflowers can be grown to maturity in hotbeds, and in places in Canada where summer frosts or cool weather make it difficult to grow cucumbers and melons, a few plants in the hotbed will provide for the family.

In making a hotbed, choose a good situation on the south side of a building, or wall, or close-board fence where the north winds will be broken and all the sunshine possible obtained. The simplest frame is one made of two-inch planks, so constructed that it may be raised, if the plants are too close to the glass. The back of the frame should be about six inches higher than the front, so that the rain will run off readily and plants get the greatest sunshine. The frame should be about five feet, eight inches wide, to allow a six-foot sash to rest snugly on the edges of the frame. That is about all that can be done in the Fall. In the Spring the bed may be filled with the soil and the heating agent, of which horse manure is the most popular. Further information may be obtained from the nearest Dominion Experimental Farm or Station of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

County School Trustees and Ratepayers Association Planned

A meeting of ratepayers and trustees from various parts of Dundas County was held in the Assembly Hall of the Winchester Public School on Friday night to consider the proposition of organizing a County School Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Provincial organization of Trustees and Ratepayers. Mr. W. J. Stewart, county school inspector acted as chairman. He pointed out that most of Southern Ontario from Belleville west was organized into County units; but that Eastern Ontario had few such organizations. He thought it would be a good thing to see Dundas County organized on a county basis, and perhaps this county could show the way to other Eastern Ontario counties.

By a show of hands the members present voted in favour of organizing the County; but after three trustees had been proposed for the position of president and all had declined the honour, it was moved, seconded and carried that the school inspector was to name a committee whose members would have the task of obtaining a president, vice-president, secretary, and one representative from each municipality, which would constitute the executive committee of the County organization.

After this matter had been completed, Mr. Stewart called upon Rev. J. L. Mills, Secretary of the Ontario Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association to address the meeting. He first outlined briefly the work carried on by the association, explaining that it consisted of the following departments: Urban, Rural, Separate School, County Council, Township School Area, and a number of delegates at large. Mr. Mills said the organization carried weight with the Department of Education, and through its various departments tried to sponsor the best in educational procedures. He also stated that there seems to be a desire for the formation of one association or federation of trustees for the whole province. He then demonstrated the use of one of the latest sound projectors equipped with microphone, so that it could be used when required as a public address system. He said the price of this machine to schools was $575.00. Many members from the audience seemed keenly interested in this machine, and asked several questions about its operation. Mr. Mills quoted the price of the School Journal, official publication of the provincial organization, to be $3.00 to individual school boards, which included membership and the privilege of sending one delegate to the Easter meeting in Toronto. For Township School Areas the price is $10.00, and the magazine is sent yearly to each member of the board. For urban schools the fee starts at $5.00.

As a result of the affirmative vote in favour of a County association being formed it now becomes the task of the local school inspector to get a committee together with the object of asking trustees in the various municipalities (one for each municipality) to act as members of the association, along with the president, vice-president, and secretary. The association when formed will have as its object to stimulate interest in educational progress locally, by such means as inviting Departmental officials to address local meetings, sponsoring public-speaking contests, perhaps sending a delegate to the Easter Convention in Toronto, and generally to encourage such educational practices as may be found most beneficial.

Burning Barn Threatens Avonmore Village

Residents of Avonmore of 300 population, turned out on Friday afternoon to fight a fire which for a time threatened the centre of the community.

The blaze, which broke out at 11.35 a.m. in a large barn in the middle of the village, was brought under contral early in the afternoon after it had destroyed the barn and extended to a small residence, some stables and a church.

Of undetermined origin, the fire started in the barn owned by Mrs. A. O. Miller. The building was used as a storage place for wood. The Avonmore volunteer fire department attempted to put out the blaze but sparks from the burning building caught on to a nearby house owned by Garfield Coughler.

By this time the smoke and flames had alarmed the community and all turned out to form bucket brigades to fight the outbreak.

When the fire seemed to be still spreading and threatening to destroy the heart of the village, an emergency call was sent to the Cornwall Fire Department.

After the house, a four-roomed one-storey frame building, caught fire the flames spread from there to some horse sheds behind St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The sheds were slightly damaged, firefighters managing to limit the progress of the fire.

A church close by, St. Michael's Anglican Church, was scorched, but did not fall prey to the flames.

In addition to the bucket brigades, he fire was fought with the aid of he village's automatic pumper, using hose and drawing water from wells.

SMITH—BECKSTEAD

Autumn flowers backed with ferns decorated Trinity United Church, Aultsville, for the wedding of Miss Mona Iris Beckstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin H. Beckstead, to Mr. Lyle Francis Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Smith, of Kingston, which took place on Saturday, October 11. Rev. W. A. Morrison, Dunbar, officiated at the ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Miss Lena MacLaren, with Miss Addie Campderros, of Ottawa, as soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white embossed nylon gown over taffeta, designed with a sweatheart neckline, fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, and a full skirt ending in a short train. Her embroidered tulle fingertip veil was arranged from a coronet headdress trimmed with lily-of-the-valley, and she carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Mavis Beckstead, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and Miss Ruth MacRae, of Ottawa, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. The best man was Mr. George Prophet, of Kingston, and the ushers were Mr. Wilson Beckstead, brother of the bride, and Mr. Bert Acres, of Ottawa.

Following a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on a motor trip through the Adirondacks. For going away the bride wore a black moire suit under a matching shortie coat, with black and white accessories. Her shoulder-knot was formed of Talisman roses.

Farmers - Attention

Wanted: A number of progressive farmers in Eastern districts who would like to set out a commercial block of Red Raspberries, either for your local trade or for shipping to recommended city dealers. Recent Ontario-Quebec production figures, prices at 40-60c per quart and dealer reports would indicate short supplies everywhere.

To encourage a limited planting of new high yielding patches, a well known nursery is sending a special representative of many years experience in commercial production to personally interview and educate interested farmers in raspberry culture. This should result in higher unit yields, longer patch life, less hand labor and when translated into dollars at normal prices a relatively high ratio of profit is assured.

Because of the present shortageof good planting material, bookings can only be made for SPRING PLANTING 1948, limited to one acre.

If genuinely interested in berry growing as a sideline to farming, write Box 457, Campbellford, Ontario, on or before October 31st, giving location of your farm. Our specialist will call later and completely analyze the business, soil requirements and preparation, up-to-date cultural practices, home markets and surplus shipping, cost of planting, estimated yields and profits per acre. Late replies cannot be covered.

ONTARIO
IS ON PROSPERITY STREET

You can help Hydro keep her there – Save Electricity

Ontario has made giant strides since the war. Her output from factories, farms and other industries has expanded enormously. In fact, her progress has been phenomenal.

Here is the rub. Since industry in Ontario depends so heavily on Electricity, this wonderful expansion has resulted in insistent calls for more and more Hydro power.

What is the Answer? Just this: Hydro has many new power developments under way, but it takes several years to build new generating plants. In the meantime Hydro asks each of you good Ontario citizens...homemakers, workers, farmers, storekeepers, business men to do your part... to Save Electricity. It should be easy. All of us use it lavishly—more so than any other people on earth—because Hydro rates are so low.

Every saving, no matter how small, will be worth while. Don't burn lights needlessly, use your electric range with care. Turn off motors and appliances as soon as you are finished with them. Please do your part and save electricity, everywhere you can. It's needed during every daytime hour.

Every bit of Electric Power saved will be used to maintain employment, to make more jobs, to keep Ontario on Prosperity Street.

Save Electricity — Maintain Employment

CBC Farm Forum Resumes November 3

A public service feature, the CBC's "National Farm Radio Forum" returns on the air Monday, November 3, at 8.30 p.m. EST, over the CBC Trans-Canada network. Now in its eighth year the program provides opportunity for weekly broadcast discussions of farmers' problems by agricultural experts. It is presented in co-operation with the Canadian Federation of Agriculture and the Canadian Association for Adult Education. This year the program producers plan to place greater emphasis on youth and to include dramas about farm-family life.

"National Farm Radio Forum" listeners are invited to form their own discussion groups, meet to hear the broadcasts together, debate each week's topic, and write their conclusions to the CBC. Once a month a report on their letters will be broadcast.

The November 3 program, sub-titled "Youth on the Farm," will deal with the social, economic and educational conditions necessary to make farming as attractive to young people as jobs and professions in the cities. Members of the forum panel will be Helen Mathieson, of the Manitoba Federation of Agriculture Co-operatives; Lawrence Proudfoot, of the United Farmers of Alberta; and George Atkins, of the Junior Farmers of Ontario. Harold Black's Barm Destroyed Heavy Loss

Loss estimated at nearly $9,000 was caused by fire Friday night that totally destroyed a barn on the farm of Harold Black, about four miles west of Inkerman. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Believed started by spontaneous combustion in the hay mow, the fire broke out at 7.30 p.m. and the building was a mass of flames within minutes. The blaze threatened the Black farm home for a time but a volunteer bucket brigade managed to check the progress of the flames.

Helpers managed to rescue the farm machinery stored in the barn and the cattle and horses were led out to safety. Lost in addition to the Winter supply of oats, hay, and other feed were 50 hens and five pigs.

NOW IS THE TIME CLEAN UP GARDENS

At this season of the year many insects are looking around for suitable spots in which to spend the winter. Practically every garden offers many opportunities for the insects to hibernate. Garden plots should be made as uninteresting to hibernating insects as possible.

Many of the most injurious species of insects pass the winter adhering to plant on which they were feeding when cold weather overtook them. Others crawl beneath piles of plant refuse and hibernate at the base or in the centre of the piles. A few work their way down into the layer of dead organic matter. All such may be looked upon as a definite menace, because a large proportion of the insects will survive the winter to attack growing plants the following spring.

Therefore every effort should be made to discourage insects from hibernating in and around the garden. This can be done in a number of ways. All standing crop remnants should be pulled and burned. Crop refuse lying on the ground should be raked up and destroyed. It is advisable also, to burn over waste land surrounding the garden, and headlands in particular, to kill any eggs or hibernating insects.

It is sound practice to collect and burn all insect egg masses or cocoons. These are frequently found on shrubs and low trees, on fences, or garden furniture or even deposited on houses and outbuildings. Cleaning these up in the autumn will prevent them causing trouble next spring.

Where possible, plough or dig up the garden in the fall, so as to expose many of the insects in the soil to be killed by the severe cold in the winter.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN

Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! Purple and gold are predominant colors of the fall harvest festival. Just gaze upon the rich gold of the pumpkins and squash, the deep purple of egg plant and grapes, and you are aware of Mother Nature's artistry. Not only do these vegetables and fruits with their regal colourings attract the eye, they tempt appetites as well, deserving an honoured place on Canadian tables. Today our recipes pay special attention to the late harvest.

BAKED STUFFED EGG PLANT

1 medium-sized egg plant, 1 cup of raw mushrooms, 4 tbsps. bacon drippings or butter, ½ cup chopped onions, 1 cup minced ham, ¼ tsps. salt, ⅛ tsp. pepper.

Cut slice from top of eggplant or cut in halves lengthwise. Scoop out eggplant until within half inch of outer skin. Peel mushrooms and chop them along with scooped out eggplant coarsely. Do not grind. Sauté in bacon drippings or butter with onions for ten minutes. Add ham and seasonings. Fill eggplant shell, cover top with waxed paper and keep in refrigerator until ready to bake. Bake in hot oven, (400 degs.) until thourghly heated through and brown (about 20 to 30 mins.). Yield: Four servings.

SPICED RED CABBAGE

1 small head of red cabbage, 2 tart flavourful apples, 3 whole cloves, 1 tsp. caraway seeds, brown sugar to taste.

Cut a medium head of firm red cabbage into shreds; put in pot and add 2 tart flavourful apples, peeled and diced, 3 whole cloves, 1 teaspoon of caraway seeds, 3 tablespoons vinegar, 1 tablespoon brown sugar or enough to suit taste. Add very little boiling water. Cover closely and cook slowly until done, about ½ hr. Serve with roast pork.

PUMPKIN CHIFFON

¾ cup sugar, 1¼ cups pumpkin, cooked or canned, 2|3 cup milk, ½ tsp. salt, ½ tsp. ginger ½ tsp. nutmeg, ½ tsp. cinnamon 3 egg yolks, 1 tbsp. granulated gelatine, ¼ cup cold water, 3 egg whites, baked tart shells, chopped nuts.

Put ½ cup sugar, pumpkin, milk, and seasonings in top part of double boiler and cook until thick. Soak gelatine in cold water and add to thickened pumpkin mixture. Mix thoroughly and cool. When mixture begins to thicken, beat egg whites until stiff, beat in remaining sugar and fold into pumpkin mixture. Pour into tart shells and serve garnished with chopped nuts (if desired).

GRAPE AND CARROT JAM

2 cups coarsely grated carrots, 1½ cups water, 5 lbs slightly underripe Concord grapes, 4 cups sugar, ¼ tsp. salt

Combine carrots and water, cook until tender and most of the water has evaporated. Wash and stem grapes. Measure to make seven cups. Place in another saucepan, crush and add sugar and salt. Mix well then cook slowly until sugar dissolves and mixture boils, stirring freguently. Rub mixture through fine seive into a large saucepan and add carrots. Bring to a boil and cook for 10 minutes or until of desired consistency. Remove from heat and skim. Pour into clean, sterilized jars and seal.

NOTE: Our favourite jam.

THE QUESTION BOX

Cook beets until tender. Plunge into cold water and slip off skins. If the beets are small, leave whole. If large, slice in even slices or cut in quarters.

Pack beets in clean hot jars and pour over them the pickling syrup made as follows:
