Local Bowlers 1st & 2nd In Doubles Yesterday

Yesterday afternoon sixteen rinks battled in perfect weather on the greens of Chesterville Men's Bowling Club for supremacy in a doubles tournament, with local pairs, Hutt and Jarvis and Casselman and Hutton running one-two to carry off the handsome prizes for the occasion. Hutt and Jarvis with three wins and a total of 54 points. Casselman and Hutton were close on their heels with 50 points. Third prize went to Ed. Pye and his partner of Highland Park club, Ottawa.

Other skips in the play were Bradley, Ottawa; Perrault, Iroquois; McInnes, Cornwall; Wilson, Kemptville; Elliott, Prescott; Julyen, Cornwall; Webb, Prescott; George, Kemptville; Habbershaw, Highland Park; Black, Prescott; Naughton, Highland Park; Grills, Ottawa; McDonald, Cornwall.

TAKEN TO CIVIC HOSPITAL FOR EXAMINATION

Mrs. Norah Racine, who has been ill at her home in town, was taken to the Ottawa Civic Hospital, yesterday afternoon for examination and treatment.

HARVESTING FULL BLAST AS DRY WEATHER CONTINUES

Harvesting of grain is going at top speed throughout the countryside as the dry weather continues. A slight rain Friday night retarded operations some, but work was resumed Monday. The weather turned quite cool at the week-end, with a low of 44 reported Sunday and Monday nights, but temperatures have been rising gradually each day this week.

Yield of grain is still reported satisfactory, especially from early grain. Some seed was delayed by heavy spring rains and reports of yield from this crop run all the way from poor to good, depending on the height of land.

BUSY RE-SURFACING STREETS IN CHESTERVILLE

United Counties workmen have patched all paved streets in the village in preparation for resurfacing. Asphalt and stone chips are being used to patch holes which is expected to give a more lasting job than the gravel mulch employed last year. Resurfacing is now in progress.

NATIVE OF DUNBAR CELEBRATES 100TH BIRTHDAY

MRS. Malinda Ouderkirk, of Ogdensburg, August 7th, celebrated her 100th birthday at a hotel dinner party. The lively little lady, who still waltzes occasionally, weighs only ninety pounds, but, then, she says, "I never weighed more than ninety-eight." A native of Dunbar, Mrs. Ouderkirk has four of eight children living, ten grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

MacGREGOR—EDGERTON

At three o'clock on Saturday, August 3rd, a quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Edgerton, Chesterville, when their only daughter Alice Helena, became the bride of Donald Wesley MacGregor, son of Mrs. MacGregor and the late George MacGregor, of Morewood. Rev. W. E. Wright officiated.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Colin MacGregor, aunt of the groom and Miss Mona OShaughnessy of Ottawa, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin and lace with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her finger tip veil of silk net was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a hand bouquet of American Beauty roses and white gladioli.

Attending the bride was her cousin Miss Edith Ouderkirk, of Watertown, N.Y., who wore a floor-length gown of pink net over taffeta. She carried a hand bouquet of pink gladioli and small mauve flowers.

Mr. Glenn MacGregor, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Edgerton, mother of the bride, wore a two-piece dress of floral jersey and a corsage of white sweetpeas. Mrs. MacGregor, mother of the groom, wore a grey and mauve printed crepe dress and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served to 80 guests. The house was decorated with pink and white streamers, ferns and summer flowers.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake and adorned with pink clarkia and white bridal roses.

The couple left by motor to Portland, Maine, the bride travelling in an aqua suit with black accessories and wearing a corsage of peach gladioli. They will take up residence in Cornwall.

Montreal Youths Wreck Interior Osnabruck School

Wilfred McGee, 17, of 635 Lacasse street; Milton A. Nish, 16, of 4522 St. Anthony street, both of Montreal, and another Montreal youth of 15 years, Tuesday were remanded to jail in Cornwall for a week on charges of breaking, entering and theft. They were apprehended by Provincial Constable D. J. Brennan and a number of employees of the CNR, hiding under a culvert near Mille Roches. Police said the trio left Montreal in a car, believed to have been stolen, Friday night and set up a "camp" in a disused lane near Aultsville.

Their first act, police stated, was to enter the schoolhouse of SS No. 7, Osnabruck township, where police said they made a thorough job of wrecking the interior with damage amounting to about $500. Windows were kicked in and torn from their frames, the blackboards torn from the walls and stove overturned, and desks strewn about and damaged.

The trio are alleged by police to have ransacked a deserted farmhouse owned by G. S. Anderson of Aultsville and entered the service station of Winston Campbell, Woodland, and helped themselves to $35 and a quantity of cigarettes. An attempt was made to take a car owned by Edward Hart, the auto being run to the road from the garage and an attempt made to start the car by crossing the ignition wires, but it failed. Constable Brennan was advised of the presence of the youths in the neighbourhood with the result they were rounded up. He said the trio might face more charges.

AULTSVILLE SOFTBALLERS COMING MONDAY EVENING

Playing in Aultsville last evening, Chesterville was defeated in a softball game 8-7, and a return game has been arranged for Monday evening at the Fair Grounds.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES; FUNERAL OSNABRUCK CENTRE

Mrs. Edwin Ault, a former resident of Chesterville, died in the Cornwall General Hospital in her 80th year. The funeral was held from the home to Osnabruck Centre United Church. Surviving are her husband; three daughters, Mrs. A. Thompson, (Annie) of Ottawa, Mrs. Stanley Dillabough (Lillian) of Morewood, and Mrs. Walter Watson (Verna) of Colquhoun; three sons, Lyman P., Osnabruck Centre; Charles J., Aultsville, and Olin E. of Colquhoun.

HOUSE AND CONTENTS DESTROYED AT BERWICK

During the severe electrical storm which swept over the Berwick district on Friday night, the large stone house of Jerry Clement was struck by lightning and gutted by fire. Some of the contents of the home were lost along with the garage, and car. Two dogs were burnt to death in the blaze.

MAKES FINE CATCH SMALL-MOUTHED BASS

F. W. "Bill" Barker, proprietor of The McCloskey House, made a fine catch of small-mouthed bass at Otter Lake, near Smiths Falls last week, where he operates a number of cottages, pulling in two specimens weighing four pounds, four ounces and four pounds. The larger fish measured 19 inches in length by 14 inches in girth. The other was half an inch less in length and girth.

RE-SURFACING PROGRESSING ON RIDGE, HIGHWAY 43

Re-surfacing of the Ridge Road, that portion of Highway 43 from Chesterville to the junction with No. 31, is underway, and spreading of the gravel mulch top was commenced this week after huge quantities had been drawn from Bert Fulton's pit and placed along the border of the road.

IN VETERANS' PAVILION CIVIC HOSPITAL, OTTAWA

P. S. Boyd, who has been confined to bed for a number of weeks with a heart condition, was taken to the Veterans' Pavilion, Civic Hospital, Ottawa, on Friday, for examination and treatment following an examination by Department of Veterans' Affairs physicians last Wednesday.

COMPLETED MODERN FRONT ON FULTON BROS.' STORE

Workmen from Hobbs Glass, Ottawa, have completed the modern front on Fulton Bros.' new store, placing black "Vitrolite" about the large display windows, and the name of the firm in 30-inch letters over the centre of the front. The work was scheduled for completion last spring but shortage of supplies held up the work.

RELATIVES ASKED PICK UP SCROLLS FOR VETERANS

RELATIVES are requested to call at the office of Reeve George H. Barkley at the corner of Main and Queen Streets, to pick up the framed, engraved scrolls for those veterans who were unable to attend the Civic Welcome Home held in the Community Hall on August 5th. One hundred and one scrolls were presented at the banquet, some have been distributed since, but a number are still awaiting their owners.

OUDERKIRK—MARCELLUS

A wedding of interest took place at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon in Trinity United Church, Chesterville, when Gladys Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Marcellus, became the bride of William Ralph Ouderkirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myles Ouderkirk. The bridegroom, who served overseas for five years with the R.C.A.F., holds the rank of Wing Commander.

Baskets of mixed flowers and ferns were used to decorate the church, and the guest pews were marked with white satin bowse with floral centres. Rev. W. E. Wright officiated. Mr. Hewitt played the wedding music and the soloist, Miss Mona O'Shaughnessy, sang, "Because".

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and attended by Mrs. W. Robinson, as matron of honor; Misses Eunice and Edith Ouderkirk, bridesmaids, and Miss Geraldine Dunnigan, flower girl. Mr. Carl Ouderkirk was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Russell Marcellus and Mr. D. MacGregor.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, designed with a net yoke and white sheer skirt. The skirt was very full, with a satin peplum from the side front, ending in a large satin bow in bustle effect at the back. Self-covered buttons were used from neck to waistline at the back and the long sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her white silk tulle veil extended beyond the hems of her gown, and she carried a full cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and gladioli. She wore a pearl necklace.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received in a navy ensemble with pink accessories and wearing a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a turquoise frock, with black accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses and the groom's grandmother wore black with a corsage of moss roses and sweet peas.

The young couple left later by motor for Niagara Falls, the bride wearing a powder blue gabardine suit with black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses. They will take up residence in Montreal on their return.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Frank Lewis, Galt; Mr. and Mrs. Morten Marcellus, Miss Eleanor Ouderkirk, Miss Greta Marcellus, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Faith, Misses Phyllis and Joan Faith, Mrs. R. Dupuis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dupuis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dunnigan, Miss Geraldine Dunnigan, Miss Rita Dunnigan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Major A. P. Williams, Lieut. and Mrs. Donald Fulton, Miss Mona O'Shaughnessy and Miss Betty Loucks, all of Ottawa; Miss Edith Ouderkirk, Watertown, N.Y., Miss Elsie White, Perth.

Dig Deeply in Local Archives For History of Old Drain

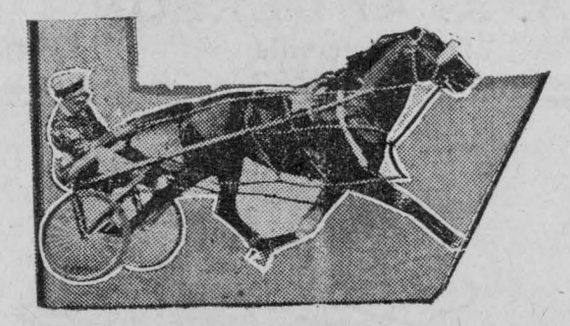

Following the presentation of a petition from the residents of Church street for a sewer, ancient papers of the village have been searched for positive evidence that the ditch along the street is an Award Ditch. It has always been known as an Award, but a thorough search has failed to reveal any identification as such. Some papers signed by Wm. Harrison and P. P. Coyne in 1902 indicated that Geo. L. Brown was to make an award on the drain, but, apparently nothing further came of it. The ditch question cropped up again in 1912 but an award could not be located, and since no special assessments for such an award appear on the collector's rolls of those or ensuing years, the conclusion has been made the Church Street Award Ditch is that in name only.

It is hoped legal steps will be completed shortly and then an engineer will be engaged to make the survey and present his specifications.

YOUNG BOY RECEIVES BAD GASH IN FOOT

Bert Liscumb, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Liscumb, received a gash on the bottom of his foot that required 12 stitches, when he caught his foot while jumping over a low wire fence at the Rotary playgrounds.

THE ENIGMA OF MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

The lot of a municipal councillor becomes an enigma once the tax slips reach the ratepayers. Each year, as perhaps is the case with other boards the members start out with wonderful plans what they are going to accomplish for the good of the municipality. And usually everything goes along swell—until they start to figure out what the ratepayers must be charged for these improvements. Then brows become furrowed, hair is apt to take on a little more grey, shoulders sag a bit, and the usual spry gait slackens.

However, that condition doesn't last much longer than a couple of weeks following the mailing of the tax slips. The human memory is a fickle thing, especially in those people who have a hankering for improvements on their portion of the bailiwick. There's a drain that needs repairs, or a street requiring surfacing, or a definite lack of street lighting. Or perhaps it's the idea that this year's bill has been met, and they've decided to get the jump on their neighbours for the coming year.

Anyway, we heard of an illustration the other morning. It seems one taxpayer was complaining that municipal taxes were about equal to rent this year. He didn't know what was going to happen. First the assessments were equalized—which meant a general increase in assessed values. And the next year the tax rate slid down. Thank you, very much. But this year,—Oh, shades of the national debt! And before the air cleared another property owner, who had just paid the 1946 taxes, stepped up and, after inquiring politely if the abject person were a member of the Council and receiving an affimative answer, wanted to know what the chances were for more street lights, as it was positively dangerous on a particular stretch of street after nightfall.

Don't let it get you down, boys. It all goes with the honours.

FUTURE POLICING OF CHESTERVILLE

Following announcement in last week's issue of The Record of the designation of Chesterville, along with the three other villages of Dundas County, by the Police Commissioner of Ontario, as municipalities having an area and density of population to warrant a full-time police force, considerable discussion has been heard on the advisability of the village entering into an agreement with the Ontario Provincial Police for the employment of a full-time constable.

As we understand the regulations, the Act will become law when proclaimed. But Municipal Councils are given only until September 1st to make their representations to the Commissioner of Police for Ontario.

Information at hand puts the onus on councils of the municipalities. They must prove to the Commissioner that present police methods are adequate, or be compelled to take on employment of a full-time force.

The Police Act, 1946, provides in Section 39, sub-section 1, for the Commissioner to enter into an agreement with any municipality for the policing of an area by the Ontario Provincial Police. Such an agreement would provide a full-time man in Chesterville—a man trained in the provincial school. His duties include preserving the peace, preventing crime and other offences, including offences against the by-laws of the municipalities, and any other duties as specified under the agreement.

One feature we like is that referring to "including offences against the by-laws of the municipality." It would seem that by-laws are placed on the municipal books but under present arrangements there can be no adequate care that the provisions are carried out. Usually action is not taken until after an offence has been committed.

As satisfactory as the arrangement may appear, there is also the financial side to be considered. The municipality must pay $1750 per year per man, irrespective of rank, to the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Provincial Police. An office is required as well as a telephone and a typewriter. A car, equipped with three-way radio, is supplied by the Provincial Police, who take care of its maintenance. A mileage fee of six cents is charged the municipality, but the car may be used only for emergencies.

The minimum cost would appear to be in the neighbourhood of $2,000 a year, figuring only $250 for office and telephone. To offset this would be the present police salary of $365 a year and any fines which may result from infractions of the law within the municipality. The latter is something none of us like to see enlarge, and as well Inspector Cousens of Perth stressed to Council his force is a preventive one.

Bringing the cost down to the tax bill, it would require approximately 2.7 mills on the present assessment of $754,478, to pay $2,000.

Government is a condition by which one generation pays the last generation's debt by issuing bonds for the next generation to pay.

HARSH CRITICISM

Somewhere on the slope on the left the Germans were dug in, but quiet. On the right an Italian villa reflected the afternoon sun.

The Canadian artillery officer examined the villa critically and passed his binoculars to the infantry bloke at his elbow. "That is the most flamboyant piece of neo-Moorish architectural bad taste. The man who designed it was a disgrace to his profession."

"You're an architect?" the infanteer asked.

The O.P. officer nodded and spoke into his mike. "Uncle Target. Uncle Target. Uncle Target . . ."

Then occurred in the late Italian campaign that incident of deplorably harsh but effective criticism. Rarely in the history of criticism has a critic obtained such speedy results.

The shells of divisional artillery strummed the air and little puffs of white smoke blossomed on the hill side.

When the dust settled the ruins on the slope blended nicely into the background. At that distance they might have been mistaken for early Roman.

FLYING BACKWARDS AND SIDEWAYS

The newest product of Britain's aircraft construction, the Cierva W-9 helicopter, was recently given its first public demonstration at an air-pageant in Southampton. This helicopter which is driven by a single rotor, takes off and lands vertically, and moves sideways and backwards as easily as it moves forwards. The crowd admired the new aircraft's performance while experts saw clearly that this aircraft opened up entirely new possibilities.

IF YOU WERE

If you were busy being kind,
Before you knew it, you would find
You'd soon forget to think 'twas true
That some one was unkind to you.

If you were busy being glad,
And cheering people who are sad,
Although your heart might ache a bit
You'd soon forget to notice it.

If you were busy being good,
And doing just the best you could,
You'd not have time to blame some man
Who's doing just the best he can.

If you were busy being right,
You'd find yourself too busy quite
To criticize your neighbour long
Because he's busy being wrong.

WORLD'S BIGGEST SHIP READY TO PUT TO SEA

There is almost a touch of tragi-comedy in world affairs when one hears that the biggest and most luxurious ship in the world, in the first six years of its existence, did not follow its career. When the "Queen Elizabeth", was built by the Cunard White Star Line, this 85,000 tonner centres across Canada in the week was not only the world's biggest ship but more luxuriously fitted out than any other of her kind. Up till now, the "Queen Elizabeth" has, however, only seen war service and has done invaluable work as a transport. The giant is now being prepared for the purpose for which she was originally built. The "Queen Elizabeth" is now docked at Southampton and 1,100 workers are already busy getting the world's largest and finest ship ready to put to sea in September. Like the "Queen Mary" the "Queen Elizabeth" will be put into service on the North Atlantic route.

"The boss says that when he was a boy on the farm they had a mule that was just like one of the family."

"Yes, and I know which one."

Morton Marcellus Explains Manufacture, Use of Plastics

Morton Mracellus, a Morewood boy now engaged as an engineer in the production of plastics and a member of the Society of Plastics Industries, gave members of the Rotary Club of Chesterville a very clear word-picture of the development and production of plastics, and also voiced a warning about revolutionary products promised by the "Sunday Supplements". Plastics have a definite place in new developments, he said, but many mistakes are being made in their misapplication which have caused great disappointments to the public.

Guests at the meeting were Jack Bremner, of Venturecroft Farm, and Gordon Lannin. Fred M. Cass read the auditors' report prepared by himself and Don Hutton, which indicated the club in a fair financial position, and Len Allan gave the monthly treasurer's statement.

Introduced by President Leon Marcellus and thanked by J. A. Morris, the speaker answered questions at the close of his talk which brought forth some very interesting information.

After explaining the method of moulding the "thermo setting" plastics which include bakelite and which cannot be reclaimed; and the thermo plastics, from which combs, novel jewellry, contact lenses, and a host of mercantile objects are made, and which can be reclaimed for remoulding, the speaker told of a display of plastics he had seen in New York. Ordinary sheep's wool treated by plastic could not be determined from genuine karakul and was just as hardy; men's suits that defied creasing except under a temperature of 300 degrees; tubes that would "pipe" light to wherever it was needed, and a cylinder 12 inches in diameter and seven feet long of plastic so transparent that a book placed at the opposite end could be read with ease.

Plastic Car Away In Future

"But the plastic house and the plastic car dreamed of by many are still a long way in the future", said Mr. Marcellus as he described the moulds and presses using tremendous pressure that are required for the manufacture of plastics. At present the size and cost are prohibitive for the making of large objects. One press, the largest in Canada, is a 2500-ton affair.

An interesting point in his description of the manufacture of moulds was the polishing technique to assure faithful reproduction. The process was discovered accidentally when electrodes were connected incorrectly while nickle-plating steel and the result has been a tremendous cut in the hours of polishing. One manufacturer is now using the process to polish the steel exterior trimmings of automobiles before chrome plating which will result in a finer, longer-lifed job.

The greatest misapplication of plastics has been in the manufacture of articles which must be subjected to heat. They will not stand extreme heat. He instanced a display of three-corner sink strainers he had seen in Ottawa. These will absolutely go into a jelly-like mass when boiling water is used on them, he said. Many had found that combs, 90 per cent of which are now made from plastic, curled into all sorts of shapes when dipped into boiling water for sterilizing purposes.

Plastic paint stood up the best of any protective coverings tested by the Bureau of Mines in Ottawa and is proving its worth. One plant manufacturing vinegar has switched to plastic piping and found it very satisfactory and since it is transparent a check can be kept on the flow the entire length. This tubing is the same size as copper tubing and can be worked with the same tools. Some milk plants had also installed plastic tubing for piping cold milk.

Two plants, one at Bayview Road and one at Gatineau Point, are working all-out on the production of plastic products.

A PRAYER

THE Industrial Accident Preventions have re-printed a prayer said to have been found in Lancashire, England, on the wall of an old inn. With the idea of encouraging co-operation, the Associations have sent copies to industry throughout Ontario.

Here is the prayer:

Give us, Lord, a bit of sun,
A bit o' work and a bit o' fun;
Give us all, in the struggle and splutter,
Our daily bread and bit o' butter;
Give us health, our keep to make,
An' a bit to spare for poor folks' sake.
Give us sense, for we're some of us duffers,
An' a heart to feel for all that suffers.
Give us, too, a bit of song,
An' a tale, and a book to help us along,
An' give us our share o' sorrow's lesson
That we may prove how grief's a blessin'.
Give us, Lord, a chance to be
Our goodly best, brave, wise and free
Our goodly best for ourselves and others,
Till all men learn to live as brothers.

THE STOLEN CHILDEN OF EUROPE

To help in tracing some of the "lost" children of Europe and in uniting others with their relatives the BBC, in agreement with UNRRA and the British Red Cross, is introducing a series of broadcasts in its Home Service.

Apart from the many children found in the Nazi camps, UNRRA workers last year heard persistent rumors that the Germans had been kidnapping Allied children and hiding them away, with the intention of Germanising the most robust. It has been ascertained that they took at least 10,000 in this way—from Poland, France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Norway and Czechoslovakia. Those with the poorest physique were sent to laboratories as specimens for experiment.

And about those children the Germans are lying still. In March of this year a thousand were found in the U.S. zone, despite the local Burgomeister's denial that there were any Allied children there.

Twenty Child Centres are tackling the work of restoration. Through the Tracing Bureau many children have been restored to their families, but others are still without known relatives. One group of special interest to the United Kingdom consists of fifty-seven homeless boys and girls who believe they have relatives in Great Britain. These orphans could give UNRRA little information but what they could give has been carefully investigated and sent to London.

In the broadcast the BBC is giving the names of relatives and their descriptions at a fixed time weekly, until a call has been made on behalf of each unclaimed child.

Sugar Ration Boosted Three Pounds Per Person

A three-pound increase in the sugar ration for domestic consumers, over the balance of 1946, with comparable increases for industrial and quota users was announced last week by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Although world sugar supplies remain below requirements, stocks have increased sufficiently to allow this increase the Board stated.

The increase to the householder will be made by declaring valid three additonal ration coupons, each good for one pound of sugar. Two coupons will be declared valid in September and the third one on about December 5.

It was felt that by announcing the increased ration at this time housewives might possibly increase their home canning knowing that they could replace the extra sugar used with the coupons becoming valid in September.

As a result of the additional ration, five sugar coupons will be declared valid by September 19, two in October, three in November and three in December.

Soft drink manufacturers will also benefit by the increased ration. Their increase will be made in the third and fourth quarters of the year by increasing the allotment to 65 percent of their 1941 usage during the third quarter. They now receive 60 per cent of their 1941 usage.

Biscuit and Cereal manufacturers will have their sugar allotment increased to 70 percent during the third quarter and to 75 percent in the final quarter. They now operate on approximately 65 percent of their 1941 usage.

Bakers also receive five percent increases during the third and fourth quarters. This brings their allotment to 75 per cent of their 1941 usage.

The sugar increase to quota users —hotels, restaurants, lumber camps, etc., will be made in the fourth quarter and will be equivalent to the total increase allowed to industrial users in that quarter.

WE'RE WORKING AGAINST TIME ... in more ways than one

Every time you lift the receiver to place a call, it's a challenge to us to rush it through; we don't like to keep people waiting. But sometimes delays can't be avoided, even though every last piece of available telephone equipment is on the job, handling more traffic than it was ever built to carry.

... And that fact is directly related to our other battle against time—our big building program. Every addition to present facilities hastens the day when we will once again be able to handle every call as promptly as we would like. Construction and installation of additional telephone equipment are going ahead just as fast as the supply situation permits.

We've got it marked "Rush"!

David P. Collison, Wmsburg, Dies in His 78th Year

After being confined to his bed for the past four weeks suffering from the effects of a stroke, David L. Collison, a very highly esteemed resident of Williamsburg, passed away on Friday night at the home of his sisters-in-law, the Misses Almeda and Sarah A. Whittaker with whom he has resided for several years, in his 78th year.

He was a son of the late Allan Collison and his wife, Mary Ann Strader of Matilda Township. He was the last member of his family.

A public school teacher by profession, he was well liked and favourably known throughout the district.

His wife, the former Nathie Whittaker died in 1926. He is survived by one son Herman of Cleveland, Ohio, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral under the auspices of the IOOF Lodge, Williamsburg, was held on Sunday afternoon from his residence to St. Andrew's United Church, Williamsburg, of which deceased was a member, where service was conducted by Rev. George Innes, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg. During the service the church choir rendered an anthem, "In The Garden" and led in the singing of the hymns.

Interment was in the family plot in Williamsburg cemetery. At the close of the committal service, conducted by Rev. Geo. Innes, Williamsburg Lodge IOOF, Williamsburg, of which deceased was a member for many years, performed the last rites for a departed brother. The service at the grave was under the direction of Bro. Oscar Coughlar, P.D.D.G.M.

In addition to the Williamsburg Lodge there were a number of fellow members of Morrisburg Lodge present at the church service at which a large number attended in a body.

The pall bearers, all brother Oddfellows, were Grant Coughlar, Lyle O'Shaughnessy, John Wells, Charles Dewland and Harry Bowman.

WAR ECHO

Not the least of the virtues of the Salvation Army is its ubiquity. The blue and red of the Army's adherents are accorded a never-failing respect wherever they may be.

The other Saturday a Salvationist lassie was making her way through the men's beverage room of a large Toronto hotel, selling copies of the War Cry. In deference to the lady the sound of revelry decreased by several decibels. A young veteran of World War II handed the young lady a 50-cent piece and shrugged the magazine aside. "But your change, sir?" she asked. Pointing to his honorable discharge button the young man said quietly. "I've had my change from the Salvation Army."

Chesterville Defeats Prescott In Governor General's Game

Chesterville rinks won the first round of the Governor General's lawn bowling playoffs in the St. Lawrence League Friday night at Kemptville, defeating Prescott by a margin of seven shots. A sharp downpour of rain held up play for a time. Eric Casselman's rink defeated L. Eastern of Prescott 22 to 12, and R. Wallace of Prescott defeated Alf Jarvis' rink 18 to 15.

DAIRY CATTLE

For the year ended March 31, 1946, dairy cattle to the number of 51,683 were exported from Canada to the United States.

City people may recall that dairy cattle produce milk, from which butter is made. There has been a severe shortage of butter. Ceiling prices for butter in Canada have been substantially below butter prices in the United States.

WAR BRIDES' INVITATION

Brides of Canadian servicemen, newly arrived in Canada, are invited by the Department of National Health and Welfare, to write to their provincial health departments for free literature outlining the superior services which exist for preservation and advancement of health in this country. The Department feels that the war brides will want to know how Canada stands ready to conserve the health of all members of the family.

THE PROVINCE OF PROMISE . . .

Central ONTARIO'S rich pasture lands have, from the earliest days of settlement, sustained larger herds of dairy cattle than were necessary to the Province's own needs. In these 'earliest' days, which were not much more than a century ago, dairy production was exceedingly primitive, but the 1891 census disclosed the existence of 1,565 cheese factories in the Dominion, of which Ontario had 893. Today, this great showing is paralleled in every branch of Canada's dairying industry . . . Tomorrow, the Province's facilities will be more than equal to the demand for milk and its growing diversity of products.

Published by THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO)

A CORNER ON CONES

Nearly six billion pounds of milk are consumed or processed annually in Ontario; the yearly value of Ontario dairy products runs around $140,000,000; Ontario butter and cheese production is about 200,000,000 pounds a year. The chief credit for these fat figures, which are about one-third of the totals for the entire Dominion, goes to Ontario's 1,200,000 milk cows—themselves a third of Canada's dairy herds. The Province's 8,000,000 gallons of ice cream, however, amount annually to 50% of the nation's 'sundae-best'—which may explain the noticeable cone-consciousness of young Ontarians.

"Have you made friends with your snooty new neighbours yet?"

"No, but I'm making progress. Their cat invited our cat over for a musical last night."

Jimmy: "Daddy says there isn't another woman in the world like you, Momma."

Mother: "That's very flattering of him."

Jimmy: "And he says it's a good thing too."

"What happened after you were thrown out of the side exit on your face?"

"I told the fellow I belonged to a very important family."

"And then?"

He begged my pardon, asked me in again and threw me out of the front door."

"What about this 'ere universal disarmyment, Bill?"

"W'y, it's summat like me an' my old woman. When there's a bit of shindy brewin' the one wot proposes peace is the one wot ain't got 'old of the poker!"

St Lawrence Fruit Growers' Educational Tour

Members and families of the St. Lawrence Valley Fruit Growers' Association had a most successful tour of the Experimental Farm Orchards and the orchard of Mr. Gordon Byshe of Manotick on Tuesday, August 6th.

Arriving at the Central Experimental Farm at 10 a.m., Dr. W. E. Hopkins, Assistant Director, welcomed the growers. In a brief address he emphasized and outlined the experimental horticultural field as conducted at the farm. "Trends in fruit culture were changing rapidly which necessitated continuous experimental work" stated the speaker. Mr. Don Blair, Dr. Hill and Dr. Hunter of the Horticultural Branch were introduced by the Director. On behalf of the members of the fruit growers organization Mr. E. Robertson, past-president, extended the thanks and appreciation of all to the horticultural staff for their assistance at all times. The Secretary, Mr. H. W. Graham, called on Mr. Blair to outline the programme for the morning.

Under the guidance of Mr. Blair, Dr. Hill and Dr. Hunter explanations of all tyes of varietal tests, soil fertility work and general orchard practices were discussed as the members wended their way through the trees.

At 1 P.M. an enjoyable basket lunch, supplemented by tea served by the farm was enjoyed on the beautiful farm campus with the trees, shrubs and flowers vying with one another to make the setting ideal for a picnic.

The trip was resumed at 1.45 P.M. Slowly motoring along the Ottawa-Prescott Highway towards Manotick the members enjoyed the scenery of the Rideau River and series of locks which parallel the Highway on the south side. On the north side binders were humming in what appeared to be a heavy cutting of grain. Here and there large herds of fine dairy animals were grazing or lying in the shade of the numerous fine Elm and Maple trees with which every pasture field was well supplied. Crossing the river the group soon reached Rideau Fruit Farm which has a beautiful setting overlooking the river. Mr. and Mrs. Byshe and family gave a hearty welcome after which Mr. Byshe took charge of the programme. His staff were busy grading Crimson Beauty apples. This variety is a seedling found near Woodstock, New Brunswick, and known in the United States as Early Bird. Grading was going on to the accompaniment of music from a radio installed in the ceiling of the grading room. The farm being only thirteen miles from Ottawa is located favourably for a ready sale of apples. The proprietor's policy is to have a continuity of supply throughout the season. He, therefore, has made a study of varieties as to their hardiness and quality. After viewing some labour saving devices originated by Mr. Byshe the group proceeded to the orchard where your eye was at once attracted to the healthy, vigorous, well-sprayed trees bearing a very fine crop of fruit. Pickers were busy on the variety already mentioned with Melba to follow. An interesting cross between Crimson Beauty and Melba was viewed which was well loaded with a promising looking apple which it is hoped will fill in the slight gap between the parents. Methods of grafting were observed. One where the graft is made at the base of hardy trunks of older trees was favoured by the owner. His method is to make the graft and when about six years old to cut off the old trees. Some six year olds propogated by this method were already bearing fruit and looked very vigorous indeed. Artificial thinning has also been practised. Some varieties seem to be more suitable than others. On the whole, however, the spray system was quite successful.

Considering the warm day, which is nearly doubly warm in an orchard, the interesting things shown maintained the attention of all. Returning to the residence Mrs. Byshe served refreshments which were most acceptable and very daintily and generously served.

Mr. E. Robertson on behalf of all visitors, extended to the Byshe family their very deep appreciation and delight in having the oportunity of visiting such a successful commercial orchard and for all the knowledge gained by the visit.

The gathering broke up at 5.30 and all were loud in their praises of a very beneficial day.

HOUGH—HELMER

The United Church at Winchester, was the scene of a wedding on Saturday at 12.30 o'clock, when Miss Marion Estella Helmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Erle Helmer, became the bride of Mr. Lynden Sherman Hough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hough, of Newington. Rev. N. J. Thomas offiiciated at the ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Miss Doris Armstrong, with Mrs. Otha Hutt as soloist. The church was decorated with Summer flowers and ferns.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and attended by Miss Anne Canham, of Avonmore, as maid-of-honor, Miss Verla Derbyshire, of Crosby, as bridesmaid; Miss Marilyn Cross of Smiths Falls, as flower girl, and Master Hughie Helmer, Ottawa, as train-bearer. Mr. Clifford MacRae of Avonmore, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Gordon Helmer and Mr. Dean Hough.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor-length gown of white brocaded bridal sheer, fashioned with a sweetheart neck-line, long fitted bodice buttoned down the back, and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her long trailing veil was arranged from a halo of orange blossoms and net ruching, and she carried an arm bouquet of Bettertime roses. Her only ornament was a necklace set with emeralds, the gift of the bridegroom.

Following a reception, the couple left on a wedding trip to Old Orchard Beach, Me., and Boston, Mass. For going away Mrs. Hough wore a silver-grey tailored suit with a Cuba rose hat and blouse, black accessories and top-coat, and a shoulder-knot of roses. They will take up residence in Newington.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. L. N. Helmer, Capt. and Mrs. F. L. Duberville, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Helmer and Hughie, of Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, of Canton, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Blair, of Lisbon, N.Y.

How Important Is Color In the Diningroom

They tell a story in Chicago about the illuminating engineer who combined an experiment with a dinner party, broke up the party completely but proved his point. He did it with color alone.

The food was appetizing, tasty and good at the party. The guests were enjoying it. Then the lighting was changed mid-way through the meal, in such a way that the steaks looked gray, the celery pink, salads violet, milk red and coffee yellow. Some of the guests became violently ill within a few minutes, others were mildly nauseated—all had to stop eating.

All of which indicates that color has quite an important bearing on our digestion; and that the color scheming of our dining rooms can play quite an important part in the enjoyment of our meals. Furthermore it costs no more to paint the dining room in suitable colors that to paint it in colors which are going to make us vaguely unhappy while eating.

Naturally, every housewife cherishes the desire to see that her family eats, drinks and stays merry, yet it's strange how many overlook the possibilities of making their dining rooms attractive. They fail to realize that a charming and restful room in which to eat not only aids digestion but also deepens the love of home in every member of the family by making each meal a pleasant event.

There are, of course, as many different types of dining rooms as there are people to eat in them. Some prefer formal, sedate rooms, others go for the mellow charm of informal Colonial furnishing; still others are captivated by streamlined modern pieces; while some find pleasure in creating a dining room around a specific idea rather than an era of furnishings.

Whatever your particular choice, the color scheme will play an important part in achieving the maximum effect. Just what the color scheme will be depends on a wide variety of factors such as available light, characteristics of the room, personal tastes, and whatnot. Nobody could lay down a sound color scheme for your particular dining room without taking all these factors into account.

A beautiful room may have painted walls of two tones of gray while cherry red is the dominant note in curtains and upholstery. Coolly simple is another room with walls of white bordered in green. The carpet is a softer dusty green and the furniture is painted dead white with emerald green seats. Drapes also are of emerald green.

The small modern dining room might well have yellow and gray as its dominant colors, with a contrasting note of blue. For instance, three walls could be painted canary yellow, while the fourth would be coated in the same gray as the woodwork. The Venetian blinds are yellow with gray tapes and the contrasting note of blue is furnished by the plain rug and the upholstery on the seats of the walnut chairs.

Strictly informal is the dining room with creamy buff painted walls blending with the warm tones of Colonial maple furniture. The hand-hooked rug combines all the colours of the room, the wall tone, the maple, the green of plants and the vivid notes introduced by colorful glass and pottery on the shelves.

If your dining room boasts niches, built in shelves or any similar modern feature, why not accentuate the fact by painting that particular part in a color which contrasts with the remainder of the wall surface? It can be highly effective—another little touch in making the meal-time place of the family attractive and delightful.

†—Looking Backward—†

20 Years Ago

†—From The Record Files—†

Thursday, August 12th, 1946

Residents of Dunbar district were shocked to learn of the unexpected passing of William Hodgson, who died early Wednesday morning shortly after the arrival of Dr. Brown who had been summoned when Mr. Hodgson complained at three o'clock of not feeling well.

The funeral was held in Morewood Presbyterian church on August 6th of Mrs. M. E. Hunter, nee Isabelle Carlyle, who was born at Dunbar, a daughter of the late George and Janet Carlyle in 1854. Left to mourn were the husband and seven children —Mr. Lyle and Miss Laura Moffatt of Morewood, Mrs. W. S. Feeley of Cannamore, Mrs. B. G. Main of Winnipeg, Mrs. W. C. McQuaig of Ottawa, Mrs. H. Burrows of North Bay and Miss Carrie of Ottawa.

Among Morewood people enjoying a re-union at Huntingdon, Que., were Emerson Faulkner, Hector Carruthers, Alex McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fetterly, Ernest Bainbridge, who were working on the re-building of the church at Huntingdon, who were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Dillabough, Mrs. Alex McConnell, Hume McConnell, Rev. Roy P. Stafford, and Mrs. Jas. Fetterly.

Thomas Crump passed away at his home in Chesterville on Saturday at the age of 81 years. The funeral was held in Morewood Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. Mr. Orak. Surviving were a son and two daughters: Wm. Crump of Chesterville; Mrs. Kinnard of Finch and Mrs. Geo. W. Crump of Little Falls, N.Y., and two brothers, Joseph of Morewood and James of Saskatchewan.

Morewood High School announced the addition of a third member to the teaching staff in order that more Upper School subjects might be covered. The girls' playground was being enlarged and improved.

Entrance pupils announced for S. S. No. 9, Winchester, were Ruth Bowman, Hon., and winner of the Campbell Medal; Mary Carroll, Mary Kirby, (Hon.), Evelyn Ouderkirk.

Offering courses of study 1926-27, Chesterville High School advertised full Upper School, and a Commercial Course including shorthand, bookkeeping and type-writing.

Harley Weegar passed entrance at S. S. No. 9, Williamsburg.

Williamsburg Township Council adopted the engineer's report on the Casselman-Dawley Drain. Tax collectors appointed were, Ora McIntosh, James Wallace, Murray Styles and Colin Carter.

Mrs. John Beehler passed away on August 3, in Water Street Hospital, after an illness of 10 days. Surviving were her husband, three daughters, Helen, Estella and Rose; two sons, Walter and Bernard; her mother, Mrs. Ellen McCadden and two brothers, James V. McCadden of Schumacher, and John McCadden of Berwick.

The friends of Mrs. John Casselman were grieved to learn of her death in Calgary, Alta., Sunday evening. Before moving to the West 15 years previously, she had lived in Chesterville and Morewood district.

Fertilizer For Fall Use In Ontario

The Fertilizers Administrator has approved several fertilizer mixtures for manufacture and sale throughout the Province of Ontario for the Fall season. These mixtures are as follows: 0-14-7; 2-12-6; 4-12-6; 4-8-10 and 4-24-12. With the exception of the latter, namely 4-24-12, these are all familiar to Ontario farmers and for their particular usefulness under specific conditions the new booklet published by the Ontario Fertilizer Advisory Board provides sound advice.

With respect to the 4-24-12, this is in reality a double strength 2-12-6, and since it contains double the amount need be applied as in the better known 2-12-6.

The reason for including this more concentrated mixture is that the production of superphosphate from the raw rock has been reduced substantially because of difficulties in importing sufficient phosphate rock.

In order to cope with these emergency conditions, the Fertilizers Administrator has arranged for the shipment of the required tonnage of ammonium phosphate (11-48-0) from Trail, B.C. Upon arrival at the Eastern Canadian fertilizer plants it will be mixed with the required amount of potash to make up the 4-24-12. While this is not a new mixture, its use has been confined largely to farmers in Eastern Canada who do not possess fertilizer drills. In such cases the 11-48-0, or mixtures made from it, are mixed directly with the grain and sown along with it. Of course, it may also be used quite satisfactorily in any grain drill equipped with a fertilizer attachment, but the machine should be adjusted to sow about half the amount of ordinary mixtures.

There are some mixtures, employed before the war, which because of the fertilizer supply situation have not yet been placed back on the list. Some of these mixtures will be available for Spring use but until the supply situation is clarified, and fertilizer materials are safely in the plants of the various fertilizer manufacturers, it is deemed wise to be cautious in increasing the number of mixtures for Fall use.

Farmers who so desire may obtain the fertilizer ingredients and make up their own mixtures, provided they are in such amounts as will make up any of the approved analysis.

In cases where official soil tests show the need for special fertilizer treatments, and on the recommendation of the Fertilizers Administrator or his representative, quantities of fertilizer materials may be purchased in the amounts indicated as being required by the soil tests.

Further information regarding the fertilizer situation as it affects the farmer user may be had by communicating with the Regional Supervisor, 86 Collier Street, Toronto 5, Ontario.

HOW MUCH WATER DOES A COW NEED?

Veterinary authorities state that for the highest production of milk the importance of a continuous supply of drinking water for the cows cannot be over-estimated. Experiments in Canada, United States, Britain and other countries have shown that milk production was higher from cattle with water available to them throughout the day than from cattle which had access to water only once or twice a day.

It is estimated that the average cow needs from 10 to 15 gallons of water per day. High producing cattle, such as those producing, say, 10 gallons of milk per day, may consume up to 30 gallons of water per day. Where dry feed, such as hay or chaff and concentrates, is being fed, the cows would take 10 to 15 gallons of water as such. However, where the cows are on pasture and quantities up to 130 pounds are known to be eaten, water would be taken in smaller amounts. One hundred and thirty pounds of pasture would probably contain about nine or ten gallons of water. If silage were fed, 50 pounds of that material would probably contain about 3½ gallons of water.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN
Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! August and it's time to get rid of those prevalent pests! Flies and mosquitoes in particular combine to make life miserable for not only those on holidays but also for those who toil and sweat at home in the summer heat.

Some of the informative pamphlets issued by well-known manufacturers of insecticides point out the safe use of their products. The base of these new mixtures is a chemical with a long name we glibly call D.D.T.

There is a D.D.T. bomb on the market now, a petroleum mixture in a container, which if put in a closed room for 7 seconds will kill the insects immediately.

In powder form, the D.D.T. insecticide is very effective too. However, it takes time to act and is generally combined with pyrethrum or some other vehicle. This mixture should be put in cracks behind cupboards and places where the cat or other pets will not eat it.

The manufacturer of a paint insect killer recommends the product for 2 or 3 months. You spray it on surfaces or brush it on painted walls and screens.

These pest destroyers are not injurious to use. However, for the best effect do one room at a time. Cover any food, put the baby in another room, remove the house plants and the canary. Close the room for a minute after you've used the D.D.T. By the way, don't use the D.D.T. barn spray for the job in the house. It usually contains kerosene or an oil and may leave spots on fabrics.

Follow directions on the labels. Use an insecticide and you will enjoy more leisure hours having rid the house of pesky flies.

Do not encourage flies. Store food in closed containers in a cool place. Keep dishes washed after using. Keep doors closed and windows open and screened.

TAKE A TIP

1. Place stuffed peppers in a muffin tin while baking to keep them in shape.

2. Fresh peas stay green and will not shrink if a couple of lettuce leaves are put on top of them while cooking.

3. Meat loaf is cooked more quickly if you bake the mixture in a tube cake pan.

4. A piece of rayon thread is best for cutting angel food or sponge cake.

THE QUESTION BOX

Mrs. B. R. asks: Recipe for Meringue shells.

2 egg whites, ⅛ tsp. cream tartar, ½ cup sugar, ½ tsp. vanilla, dash of salt.

Beat egg whites, cream of tartar and salt until frothy but not dry. Continue beating while sugar is being added, about 1 tbsp. at a time. Beat until stiff. Fold in vanilla. Drop on baking sheet, covered with heavy ungreased paper, or press through pastry tube on to paper. Bake in 275 deg. electric oven 40-60 mins. Remove from paper at once. Makes 3 dozen small meringues. For colour variation: Before baking separate mixture into several parts and add different vegetable colourings.

Mrs. S. T. suggests:

Toasted Cheese Dreams

½ lb. sharp cheese, grated, 1½ tbsps. melted baking fat, 1 egg, beaten, 1½ tbsps. melted baking fat, 1 egg, beaten, 1½ tbsps. cream.

Combine the above ingredients and mix thoroughly. Remove crusts from one loaf of bread, and slice lengthwise. Spread slices with the mixture, and then roll and chill in electric refrigerator. When ready to serve, slice about ½" slices, place on rack and toast under broiler or if desired serve plain.

Cashew Cookies

3½ tbsps. shortening, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, well beaten, 2 tbsps. milk, Maraschino cherries, 1 cup sifted flour, 2 tbsps. baking powder, ¼ tsp. salt, ½ cup cooking cashews (chopped).

Cream shortening, add sugar and cream until fluffy. Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Add dry ingredients, milk and beaten egg. Add chopped nuts to dough. Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet, top with slice of cherry and bake in 350 degree electric oven 15-20 mins. Makes three dozen.
