DUNDAS ELECTION TRIAL.

Under this caption our contemporary indulged last week in another of his doleful wails. Reformers are "short-sighted" and "can not see an inch beyond their nose;" they have "every thing to lose and nothing to gain" by pressing the charges against Mr. Broder, and "the gallows, they have taken such trouble to erect for others, will be the means of their own destruction." As the result of the trial can neither lose the seat, nor unseat Mr. Cook, we do not see as we have quite so much to lose as Conservatives have, certainly, we have not everything to lose, and we may well exult if we entertain the opinion that we have something to gain. Disinterested on-lookers will, after reading Mr. Broder's evidence under examination, which we reproduce almost entire, come to the conclusion that Conservatives are much more likely to lose in this case than Reformers are. It will be seen that Mr. Broder admits having treated electors at the close of a public election meeting. It is all one whether the money passed from his hands through a second man's hands, and then to the landlord, or passed directly to the latter, the point is, Mr. Broder called for the treat, and his money paid for it. If he escapes the personal charges, and avoids being disqualified, it will be because he is much more fortunate, but not better, than some of his predecessors in election courts, who have been disqualified. That he will be unseated seems a foregone conclusion.

We do not feel inclined to follow the example of the Courier and kindred Journals, and taunt Conservatives with being thoroughly corrupt, and guilty of bribery, because some of them, leading men by influence and position, have acted improperly, nor do we believe it right to brand our opponents with foul names simply because they are our opponents. We condemn them so far, and only so far, as we find them upholding or defending wrong. Neither do we conceive it proper to vilify Mr. Broder. So far as his conduct as a public man is concerned, we believe we have a right to criticize his acts, and we shall try to exercise that right fairly, just as we would claim to have it exercised against ourselves.

It may seem perfectly the proper thing, to the Courier and its friends, to characterize those who have prosecuted the charges against Mr. Stock, Mr. Broder and others, on their side of politics, as actuated by the "venom of slith hounds," and at the same time regard those who followed the charges against Mr. Barber and others, on the other side of the boundary line, as incited only by motives of the highest morality and patriotism, but to us it seems more like a pharisaical conceit, that is totally blind to the failings of its own side.

Our stand point is this. The law aims at making elections pure, and imposes certain restrictions. If the provisions of the law are transgressed it must be through ignorance, or wilfulness. If the former, another election will probably remedy the matter, if the latter, it ought to. We are free to confess to some sympathy for those who, having done all in their power to comply with regulations, have been compromised by their agents, but the regulation making the agents responsible for costs in elections voided through their means will soon mend that difficulty.

If, as our contemporary says, the last election in this County was freer from corrupt practices than any before it, we shall rejoice at it, and hope the next may be better still. That corrupt acts were practised we can scarcely doubt, and probably the trial on next Monday will show where they existed.

THE COUNTIES' PRINTING.

We learn that the Counties' Clerk was instructed by the Council to advertise for Tenders for the printing in but one paper. Under such circumstances, we can find no fault with the Clerk for publishing it in the Freeholder, since having to select but one he had every right to please himself as to what one that should be. We do not believe the object proposed by the Council will be reached by the means adopted. We cannot help feeling, in common with the proprietors of the other newspapers in the Counties, that the chances of the Freeholder's getting this contract, are by all odds better than those of others, and we feel no disposition to beat down the price to a point at which nothing can be made. We do not believe there is any likelihood under the circumstances of any other office getting the contract, and we are above a spirit of enviousness that would try to spoil it for some one else. So if the Council can not devise some better plan, they had better give it to the Freeholder at a fair consideration, and have done with it. The rest can bid their time.

ADDRESS TO BISHOP CARMAN.

On Friday evening, during the week of the M. E. Conference, at Iroquois, a public Temperance Meeting was held, during the course of which the following address was presented to Bishop Carman by J. S. Ross Esq., Wm. Elliott Esq., W. A. Whitney M. A., Mr. J. N. Tuttle, and Jno. Doran Esq., on behalf of numerous old friends of the Bishop. The address was read by Mr. Whitney and replied to by the Bishop in a very happy and fitting speech.

To the Rev. A. Carman, D. D., Bishop of the M. E. Church in Canada:
On behalf of your old friends and admirers of this village and vicinity, we avail ourselves of this opportunity to approach you with an address of congratulation on your election to the high and holy office of Bishop, the highest in the gift of that branch of the Church to which you belong.

We feel proud to claim you as a native of old Matilda. We remember your boyhood among us, with its unblemished record; your career as a pupil in the Grammar School, with its example to other youths of noble self-reliance and earnestness; and we have a special remembrance of your faithful labors when Principal of our Grammar School. The high degree of efficiency to which you brought it by your untiring zeal and energy inspired us with great confidence in your future. Looking back to those early days, we are not surprised that your life, since leaving us, has been so successful, for you have verified the saying that "the child is the father of the man."

In the higher and more important position as President of Albert University you succeeded in making that institution a credit to our country, and a source of noble pride and usefulness to the religious body over which you preside. As the result of your success has reached us from time to time, our hearts have been cheered and our expectations regarding you have been amply fulfilled. Your elevation to the bishopric in one of the influential and evangelical branches of Christ's Church has now opened to you a wider field for your exalted talents and ripe scholarship. We are confident that you will continue to maintain to be a true and faithful overseer of his Church, and stoutly adhere to those broad principles of Christian character and liberality which have heretofore so fully characterized your life.

We offer our thanks to the Great Head of the Church that he has given you strength to endure your past labors, and we offer our prayers that you may even be more useful in the more sacred office than you have in the educational. May God's grace continue to cheer your heart and inspire your mind. May He endow you with His holy spirit to be a true and faithful overseer of his Church, and may you be able to exclaim, at last, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

EXAMINATION OF MR. BRODER.

(By our own Reporter.)

On Saturday last Mr. A. Broder, respondent in the Dundas Election Trial was examined before his Honor Judge Pringle, at his Chambers, Cornwall. A. F. McIntyre, Esq., of the firm of McIntyre and Carman, appeared on behalf of the Petitioner, and D. B. McLennan, Esq., of the firm of McLennan and McDonald, for the Respondent. Andrew Broder was sworn and testified as follows: I was returned as member of the Local Legislature of Ontario for the County of Dundas at the last general election. I was selected by nomination of my party about the 22nd of November last. I was the nominee of a general meeting at Winchester Springs which was advertised in the Morrisburg Courier by the editor at the suggestion of other persons. The purpose of the meeting was to select a candidate for member. I remember David Rae, Simon Johnson, George Malloy, (I think), Mr. Johnston, Mountain, Adam Harkness, Jas. Thompson, Fraser Bolton, — Connor, John S. Ross, Allen Melvin, Samuel Powell, James Parker, John Harkness, M. D., Dr. Hickey, H. C. Kennedy, William Broder, as being present. I am not certain about Capt. Farlinger. Think Joseph Hughes, of Mountain, was present but am not positive. John Rae, Winchester, Roland Shaver, Moreau, and Joseph Hyndman, Mountain, were also present. I am in doubt about some, as there were two meetings, and can not say at which I saw some. These persons were present as near as I can tell at the meeting which brought me out. John Graham, Jy Murray and James West, Junr., were also present. Do not know what "Genisse" Empey was there or if these men were not present as members of a Conservative Association. The meeting was called to select a candidate in opposition to the then member, and was a general one. I belong to the West Winchester Conservative Association. Some of those present at the meeting were members of a Conservative Association, but the meeting was not called as an association. Do not know the names of members of the Association in this County. Know the names some of the Associations, at S. Mountain, at West Winchester, at S. Mountain, at Hallville, at Inkerman, at Cherterville, at Morrisburg, at Cherterville. I suppose the Associations supported me at last election, but do not know how any of the things of the Associations or of the general Association, from the time my becoming a candidate. Was Secretary of the West Winchester Association at time of my selection and resigned at once, and did no business in connection therewith after that time. My resignation was accepted at the next meeting. Was not in communication with any of these societies during my candidacy, and received none from them. Make no distinction as to support between those electors who were members of these Associations and those of my supporters who were not members. Came out as a representative of the opposition element in the County. Do not think the fact of my being a member of that Association affected the support I received from the members. Any candidate would have received the same support I did, if he had not been a member of it. Canvassed mostly alone. I did canvass some with David Rae. Generally drove myself. William Broder drove me to Iroquois. He introduced me sometimes to people. So did Dr. Hickey, to persons whom he knew and I did not. Dr. Hickey drove with me once. Do not remember driving with any one else. Fraser Bolton drove with me one day to show me the road, a short road. I called a private meeting at my house. Those present did not attend as members of an Association. After the meeting a few remained to suggest persons for scrutineers. Wm. Faith, Reuben Robinson, Allen Melvin, and I think David Rae, were present. Alex. Meldrum, if I mistake not was also present. There may have been others, whose names I do not recollect. I was present at a meeting at Morrisburg held at my brother's office just previous to the commencement of my canvass. Members of the Association and others were present. Talked over the prospects of the contest. I was present there in order that they might get acquainted with me. I think no resolutions were passed. After the meeting was over, Voters' Lists were produced. William Broder, Dr. Hickey and Chas. Myers remained for looking over Lists. Was present myself. These men remained of their own accord. They were not appointed by the meeting and did not remain specially for that purpose. Occupied about an hour in going over the roll. Nothing was said as to particular parties canvassing certain voters. No other meetings that I know of were held for going over Voters' Lists. Held a meeting in conjunction with Mr. Cook at Dixon's Corners, on 1st June, the 8th January. Both parties had appointed a meeting there at the same hour. By arrangement between my friends and Mr. Cook's, it was agreed to hold the meeting jointly. The meeting had been appointed at Dixon's Hall, but it was adjourned to the Agricultural Hall. It was about 12 o'clock at night when the meeting broke up. I spent the night at Mr. Johnston's about a mile and a half from the Corners. I had my supper and horse fed at Dixon's Hotel, before the meeting. I was at Powell's Hotel about 6 o'clock, (after the meeting). Mr. Armstrong, Morrisburg, drove me from Dundela, where I had a meeting late afternoon, to Dixon's Corners. Had previously driven my brother William from Morrisburg to Dundela, to the election. I did not treat any persons at Dixon's Hotel. Did not treat any persons myself but I furnished money to treat persons at Powell's Hotel, among whom were electors. I gave the money to "Genisse" Empey. After the meeting at the Hall had dispersed, I went in to see Mr. Powell, by his request, knowing him to be a friend. Mr. Johnston told me Powell wished to see me. I stepped into the house and saw several parties from Mountain, old friends of mine. I may have taken something. Did not step to the bar, nor was anything further said at the time. I stepped across the room to speak to some one, knew, and Mr. Empey stood up and said, "Mr. Broder, is it safe for you to do this," or "does the law allow," or something to that effect. I replied that "I did not know as it was safe." He said, "I will do it." I told him I would not allow him to pay it. I handed him the money, I think four dollar bill. I stepped out of the room and was not present when the liquor was drunk. Do not know who drank, and used no personal influence to bring any person into the room. After a short time Empey returned me three dollars, leaving a balance of one dollar for the treat. — I did not furnish money to any one else for treating. Paid nothing else for refreshments to parties present on that occasion. Did not hear any persons present name their drinks. Suppose the landlord had the liquors on hand, from the fact of its being a hotel. I think there were from ten to fifteen persons present. I recognized the greater part of those present as acquaintances. All those whom I knew were friends except Wood. Mr. Johnston, (with whom I staid over night) Empey, Graham, Tom Bailey, and John Lock were present. Noble was present also I think. There were others whom I do not remember. I was in the sitting room about ten minutes after Empey's calling for the liquors before he brought me the change. I left the bar-room to avoid using any personal influence in connection with the drinks. Their having been so long in the cold hall was partly the reason of asking them if they hadn't better have something. Empey said that the landlord did not know at the time that I was the one who was treating. Landlord was engaged when I went in, and did not notice me. The room was small and full. Furnished no means for treating or any entertainment, before or after the meeting. Do not drink any strong drinks. Belonged during my candidacy and now belong to the Independent Order of Good Templars. The Conservative Associations of this County did not subscribe or contribute any funds towards my election expenses, so far as I know. At the time I was selected I said I would accept it, and that no money should be spent, either by myself or others for any other than legitimate expenses. No provision was spoken of for making good my expenses. Used to call often with Dr. Hickey, not so often with Capt. Farlinger as to the prospects of the election. Did not consider the latter so active a friend. Used often to converse with my brother William. Did not ask any of these parties to canvass for me. Capt. Farlinger attended my meeting at Bell's Corners. Could not say at whose suggestion. Met him on the road, and he told me that he would attend, and replied I would like it if he would. I was speaking when the Captain reached the meeting and I left before the meeting broke up. Mr. Rae was also at that meeting. Took Chas. Myers to be an active supporter of mine. Had frequent conversations with him. Never asked him to canvass for me. He belongs to the Morrisburg Conservative Association. I understood he was canvassing for me. I do not remember going over the voters' list with him alone, or on any other occasion than the one already referred to. May have done so with him in company with others. Think Geo. Holden was not present on the occasions of going over the lists. Think H. C. Kennedy was. Do not remember about Wm. Capell. Did not ask Dr. Hickey or William Broder to attend these meetings. Arrangements made by William Broder. He was my agent for election expenses. I know Dr. Stacey, South Mountain. Never went over Voters' Lists with him. He never canvassed with me. He was at my meeting at S. Mountain, a part of the time. Suppose him to have been an active supporter of mine. Did not give me to understand particularly that he was canvassing for me. I am not much acquainted with Thomas Carlyle. He never went over the list with me. I do not know certainly whether he was at the meeting at Powell's, but he may have been about scrutineers, or not. I held but one meeting at Cherterville. Know nothing about a subscription being taken up there. My personal election expenses were $10.35; total $121.80. The latter sum includes the former, and the former includes the latter. Powell's fine financial agent paid all but my personal expenses. I have paid no election bills myself, since the election. Lent no money during the election. Know John Sufel, Junr. He was a creditor of mine for a small amount, for butter shipped and lost, when I went into Insolvency, and he lent me the money. He accepted the composition at that time. Have not paid him up. Never promised to do so except as I promised others in the time, that if ever I was able I would make things all right. Did not tell any parties this at the time of the election, but I told some of the parties for produce which they had given me to sell, to others for money lent. Some of them had urged me to take their money. This I refused from the moment I began to foresee difficulty. I paid these parties first because I considered they had preferred the cash, having never made any profit out of me while my Montreal creditors had, through previous deal. As they had accepted the composition of one half I was not legally bound to pay anything further, but I thought it was but justice to them that I should when able pay them full. After the election my brother William took me in as his partner in respect to the West Winchester business. Our business having been a prosperous one, with his consent I began to pay those old claims, as per accompanying list.

No complaint was made to me by John Sufel, Junr., because he had not been paid earlier. He did not ask for the amount, and I would have paid him sooner had I seen him sooner. Had not previously seen him to ask him to vote for me. He is in good circumstances. I have heard he voted for Mr. Cook, previously. Made no personal canvass of him, and sent no person to do so. Have paid no other parties than those in the Memorandum. Robert Robinson's name is not on the list. Offered him the money early in the summer, but he refused it, and said he would take it when he came down. Do not know the Stuart near Hyndman's. Went to see him but he was away from home. Offered him nothing. Did not canvass Michael Barclay. I know John Kerr. He got nothing from me for supporting me. Did not advance him pork. He got pork and paid for it at the time. He did not promise particularly to support me. Have not heard of any of my friends promising him anything for supporting me. Know Thomas Hamilton. Had conversation once or twice with him before election. Do not think he supported me. He spoke to me himself about acting as Deputy Returning Officer, and said he would like it. I said I wanted competent persons for the position. Said I would mention it to the Returning Officer. It was after he had conversed about election matters that he asked for the position of Deputy Returning Officer. I met the Returning Officer at South Mountain. He wanted to know who would make a good Deputy at Morewood. I told him Hamilton would, and he would trust to him, from his having been Secretary of the Agricultural Society. I sent Hamilton a copy of the Act relating to duties of Deputy Returning Officers, and on direction of the Returning Officer told him to be at Cherterville on a certain day to take the oath. The Returning Officer prevented himself from reaching the place and consequently some one else was appointed. Hamilton always has voted Reform, he did this time. My only reason for recommending him was because I thought he was a safe man. From what I know of him it would be useless to try and influence his vote by such promise or any other way. Know William Hamilton. Saw him on the road and spoke to him about the election. Did not say he would support me. Told me he did not think he would vote against me. Had no conversation at that time about butter, that I remember. Loaned him no money, nor gave any goods, except as usual trade. Nor did my friends so far as I know. Knew John Munroe, Revere. Did not canvass him only a joking way. Never expected him to support me. Never in banner offered him anything. Never offered him a buffalo-skin for his vote. Know B. Collison, Medical Student, Montreal. Did not write Collison asking him to vote for me. Do not know that he did vote for me. Heard something about his coming up from Montreal. Know Alex. Meldrum. Did not ask him for his vote. He voluntarily promised long before I became a candidate that he would vote for me if any of my friends used money or any valuable consideration in the election. Hired no teams, on polling day. Did not treat or give any entertainment on polling day. The night after polling was over my clerk brought some apples, cheese and crackers to the Hall at West Winchester, which I had caused to be kept warm. This was for the people who were waiting there for reports, and was about ten o'clock at night. No arrangement or promise to that effect had been previously made.

By Mr. McLennan. The people were waiting for reports of the election. Had no expectation that Hamilton would support me. He would scorn any attempt to influence his vote. I paid those parties not by an advance, but in accordance with a previous resolve. The election had nothing to do with it. I do not think it would influence their votes. They looked on it as a matter of justice. Would have refrained from making the later payments, after nomination, had not some been made previously. There were no fixed organizations for carrying out the canvass. I did it personally, principally by meetings. The majority of the meeting at Agricultural Hall, Dixon's Corners, had dispersed about an hour before we went to Powell's. Some of the parties at Powell's staid all night. There was no committee meeting held there. Think there were 400 or 500 people at the Agricultural Hall. Knew most of the people at Powell's. Powell was a firm supporter of mine. Did not need to canvass him. Did not go canvassing anyone there. Did not suggest treating with the intention of influencing the votes of any persons there.

By Mr. McIntyre. Did not subscribe any money at the meeting at Cherterville. Was present at an Oyster Supper at Cherterville for Gillislie about first of December. Gave no money for treats, treated nobody, gave no money except to pay for my supper and that of the man who drove me. No subscription was taken up, no reference to election matters was made. I did not subscribe $2.00 for any purpose. The meeting at my brother's office was called over the name of the President of the Morrisburg Conservative Association. Did not consider it a meeting of the Association exclusively.

"The Polar and Tropical Worlds."

The following are a few out of the many recommendations of this valuable work.

His Excellency, the Earl of Dufferin, says that he has read with much pleasure the work on "The Polar and Tropical Worlds," by Dr. G. Hartwig.

H. C. FLETCHER,
Governor-General's Secretary.

"The Polar and Tropical Worlds" is a book of immense and interesting information.

JOHN JOSEPH LYNCH,
Arch-Bishop of Toronto.

St. Michael's Palace, Toronto, March 22nd, 1875.

J. W. Lyon, Esq., Publisher of "The Polar and Tropical Worlds," Guelph:—I have great pleasure in saying, that upwards of 800 pages of the book more than fulfil what is indicated by the title-page. The illustrations are indeed "true to nature," and beautiful. The mechanical execution, fine paper, and binding of the work, leaving nothing to be desired: the narratives are lively and entertaining, the descriptions graphic, and the style terse and elegant. I have read the contents and portions of the book, and intend, as I may be able, to come to the time, to peruse the whole of it. I had scarcely expected in my day to see so superb a work issued by a publisher in a provincial town in Canada. I congratulate you on your enterprise, and wish you complete success.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient Servant
E. RYERSON, L.L.D., D. D.
Education Office, Toronto, 20th June, 1874.

Dr. Hartwig's book on "The Polar and Tropical Worlds," certainly presents a vast amount of valuable information in a very attractive style; with it a man can sit in comfort in his home in these temperate climes, and shiver amid northern ice or at pleasure savor under southern heat. It takes us through lands hitherto unknown, and lays open the earth to our view. In these days of exploration this book must prove of interest and value to every mind.

A. CARMAN,
President of Albert College, Belleville, Ont.

The 12th of July in Brockville.

The anniversary of the battle of the Byrnie will be celebrated at Brockville this year by the Orangemen of Cornwall, Dundas, Winchester, Edwardsburgh, Spencerville, Kempsville, Meriville, Frankville, Farmersville, Delta, North Leeds, Gannaque, Landsdowne, Escott, Mallorytown, Lyn, New Dublin, Prescott, Maitland, North Augusta, Bell's Corners, Renfrew, Arnprior, Carleton Place, Perth, Smith's Falls, Irish Creek, Ogdensburg, N. Y., Havelton, N. Y., Flagnish, N. Y., Oak Point, Clayton and Redwood. It is expected that the brethren of Kingston, Ottawa, Montreal and Napanee, will also be present. The Napanee and Ottawa and Canada Central Railway will carry passengers for half fare; the St. Lawrence Railway both ways for one and a third fare. The Kingston and Gannaque brethren will charter three steamers to convey them to Brockville. Boats will leave Ogdensburg and Prescott at nine a. m. The Rev. Father Chiquinque and a number of grand officers are expected to address the meeting. Prof. Squires has been engaged to make an ascension in his new balloon, the "Atlantic." Several brass bands will be present, and all told; the demonstration promises to be one of the largest ever held in Central Canada.—Record.

Mr. Baker, the unseated member for Russell, will, it is stated, offer himself for re-election.

A Western paper says that Mr. Montith, M. P., for North Perth, has decided to admit bribery by agents. The trial begins to-day.

Cornwall.

(From the Gazette.)

A picnic, under the auspices of the ladies of St. Mary's Church, Williams-town, will take place at Williamsstown on Dominion Day. The R. C. Bishop of Kingston, and a number of other reverend gentlemen will be present. The proceeds will be added to the building fund of the new chapel being erected at Lancaster.

It seems an anomaly that the use of the seine and spearing are interdicted in the river above Cornwall, but the same may be used with impunity below. Complaints are made that the close season for bass extends to the 15th June, when it is well known that these fish have spawned in the tributary rivers by the end of May, and are now seeking the deep waters of the St. Lawrence.

Mr. Hanes, of Wales, whose hotel and out-buildings were burned down last week, was insured in the Etna, of Hartford, for $2000, and the British America for $2500, which will not cover one half his losses.

Three Cornwall lads—all Roberts—Blundon, McCutcheon, and Campbell, left last Saturday for Manitoba, en route to join the North West Mounted Police.

The Corporation has awarded the printing of its Abstract of Accounts to the Freeholder, which is just now on its good behavior, and has nothing but words of gentleness for our civic fathers. There was a time when— "but we forbear. It has, at last, realized the fact, "that hard words butter no parsnips"—in fact, that Billingsgate doesn't pay. We congratulate the Councilors on the cheaply wrought change.

The Hon. Edward Blake has been re-elected for South Bruce by acclamation, and after the proceedings were over he delivered a brief address to some electors who had assembled. He claimed credit for the Ministry for having passed the amended election law, and the insolvency law, and also the Supreme Court bill. He highly extolled their financial policy, and said that Mr. Cartwright's loan was in his opinion, the best financial transaction ever carried through by Canada, and that in this he was endorsed by Sir Francis Hincks. He quoted Dr. Tupper, who said that last year three millions of additional taxation had been imposed upon the people, and that they had never known it, which, he thought deserved of all objections to the new tariff imposed to provide for fulfilling the Pacific Railway obligations. The advantageous postal convention with the United States was also alluded to, and as to the one point on which he had not been in accord with the Government, the settlement with British Columbia, before he accepted office, negotiations had been entered into, which had resulted in a policy which was satisfactory to him, and which he believed would be to the people at large. It would be interesting to know if the negotiations were between Mr. Blake and the Government, or between the Government and the British Columbia authorities, but it is most probable that they were between the former parties. Mr. Blake has evidently not much idea that his utterances are to be restrained by acceptance of office, as he reiterated at his famous Aurora speech, and even promulgated some new opinions, such as one in favor of provision being made for changes in the federal constitution.—Montreal Witness.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Dominion.

Drowned.—Two young men, sons of John Campbell, Sandy Point, were drowned while out canoeing last Sunday. The one who was the cause of the disaster was repeatedly asked to desist from putting his feet over the sides of the canoe, his disregard of which caution resulted in his death and that of his brother.—Perth Courier.

The Weather and Crops.—For the past two weeks the weather has been all that could be desired, and the crops are looking splendid. Fall wheat promises to be an excellent crop, and the appearance of the meadows leaves nothing to grumble at. A fine rain on Saturday last came just in time to prevent the ground from getting too dry.—Ibid.

Fires are said to be damaging the timbered regions of the Upper Ottawa. Mr. Paxton, M. P. P., for North Ontario, Ministerialist, has been unseated by the election Court.

Cambellford, June 3.—To-day being twelve and one o'clock, while the factory hands of D. Morrice & Co. were at dinner, a young girl about seventeen, named Ellen Milton, daughter of John Milton, of this place, was fishing off one of the piers back of the factory, when she fell into the river and was drowned. The body has not yet been found. Much sympathy is felt for the afflicted parents.

The Conservatives of North York have met and selected Mr. Alfred Boulton as their candidate, but that gentleman has not yet decided to accept the nomination.

Barrie, June 3.—Last night about 10 o'clock, a single-mill situated on the Mill road, owned by a man named De-fresne was totally destroyed by fire. Insured for $800 in the Royal Canadian.

Retrenchment of expenses is being strictly carried out by the Grand Trunk Railway, in consequence of the dull times, traffic being very light. Clerks are being dismissed, fewer trains run, and economy practised generally.

The bonus to the Canada Central has been defeated in Ottawa by a majority of 716.

Mr. Baker, M. P. P., for Russell, a Conservative, has been unseated by the Election Court. As in England, so here, judges are, on very similar evidence, giving different decisions. The testimony in favor of personally disqualifying Mr. Baker was about as strong as that on which Mr. Barber, of Hallow, was incapacitated from again being a candidate. It is to be hoped that all cases in which there is room for a difference of opinion will be appealed to a full Bench, for it would be most unfortunate if it should come to be considered that the results of a trial were influenced to any extent by the particular judge who had charge of the case.

Ottawa has refused by a decisive majority of 700 to grant a bonus of $100,000 to the Canada Central Railway to complete the connection between Renfrew, its terminus, and Donaglass, the eastern end of the subsidized Canada Pacific extension.

The Port Dover Independent says the Conservatives of South Norfolk intend holding a picnic on the 30th inst., at which Sir John Macdonald, Dr. Tupper, and other prominent men of that Party have promised to be present.

The Conservatives of Monck met on Saturday at Wellandport, and selected Mr. L. Macallum and Mr. George Secord as their candidates, in opposition to Mr. J. D. Edgar and Dr. Haney. Both Mr. Macallum and Dr. Haney are the late unseated members.

The Militia Department is making arrangements for the early distribution of money granted by Parliament last session to the veterans of 1812-15. It is probable that the payments will begin to be made about the 1st of July. There are nearly 3,000 applicants, but it is hardly likely that many of these will be able to establish their claims. It does not seem possible that there can be any such number now alive of the military force in active service sixty-three years ago.

A Large Sawmill at Ottawa which belonged to Gilmore & Co., and cost $145,000, has been destroyed by fire, supposed to be the work of an incendiary. It was insured for $75,000.

The petitions against Mr. John Kean, M. P. P., for East Simcoe, and against Mr. H. H. Cook, M. P. P. for North Simcoe have been withdrawn.

This morning when Simon S. Dillabough Esq., went out to see his stock he found that one of his cows had given birth to three beautiful heifer calves, and strange to say, they were found to weigh the same to an ounce, each 45 lbs. So unusual a circumstance is certainly worth recording.

Yours truly,

Sir.—Will you please to insert this question in your paper.
A person started on a journey and after travelling for two hours, he meets with an accident which detains him 20 minutes, after which he proceeds at $\frac{1}{2}$ of his former rate and arrives at his destination, 1 hour and 20 minutes late. Had he travelled 12 miles farther before he met with the accident, he would have arrived 12 minutes sooner than he did. Required his rate of travelling and distance travelled.

Kempville.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The verdict in the case of the late Wm. R. Anderson, was that the deceased came to his death by throwing himself, while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity, before the locomotive of a passing train, at a time when the train could not by any possibility be stopped. The railroad officials are completely exonerated from all blame. The funeral procession was one of the largest and most imposing ever witnessed in Kempville. The Kempville Division Sons of Temperance headed the procession, followed by the band; the Mount Zion Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; the hearse; the mourners; the general public. His family connections were present from all parts of the Province to witness the last rites.

The cells of "Scarlet Hall" were filled last Tuesday, in a novel manner. On Monday evening, a man arrived in the Village from Ottawa and gave the intelligence that his horse had been stolen. He telegraphed to Prescott and other places to have the thieves stopped. On Tuesday at noon, "Our Chester" arrested four men a short distance from the Village and took possession of the horse, carriage and harness. By this time the owner had proceeded to Oxford Station, and on being brought back, one of the men proved to be his own son, and the others neighboring farmers, who had clubbed together to take a trip through the country. They were accordingly released without further preliminaries.

The quarterly fair here on Wednesday, the 2nd inst., was the poorest one held here for a considerable time. The cattle exhibited were few in number, and very poor specimens of the cattle-growing industry of this section. A large number of people were in the village, but it seemed they came but to see others and go home again. However, our "Brave Chester" distinguished himself in maintaining the peace, but none had the pleasure of occupying the cells of "Scarlet Hall."

More about the Lawrence Townley Estate, in England.

John Lawrence and Mary Townley, his wife, and their son Jonathan, emigrated to America and located in what was called New Plymouth, in the State of Mass.

Richard Townley, the father of Mary Lawrence, died and his will was proved and recorded at Doctor's Commons, in London, Oct. 10th, 1735, leaving his widow surviving. The latter died in 1740, leaving her vast estate in land, jewels, plate and money in the Bank of England by will to her two daughters, Mary Lawrence and her heirs in America, and Dorothy Howard, of Corby Castle, England, and at their disposal. Dorothy Howard died in 1757 without issue, and willed her estates, both real and personal, to her sister, Mary Lawrence, in America, and to her heirs forever. These two estates for want of an heir in the name of Mary Townley Lawrence, were administered upon by the Government of England and all the landed estates are now held and rented by the Government; and the rents as well as the money, jewels and plate of Mary Lawrence, are deposited in the Bank of England drawing interest at three per cent a year on the money so deposited. The entire estate, both real and personal, is thus held subject to the recovery by the true heirs in the descent from John Lawrence and Mary Townley, his wife. By a failure of the male line of the brothers and their descendants in the death of Chas. Townley, in 1813, the estate of Townley Hall and other estates of Richard Townley, passed to Mary Townley, the wife of John Lawrence, in America, and her heirs, so that the proof of the one of the estates takes title to the several estates so willed to Mary Townley Lawrence and her heirs in America.

For the last 29 years, this combined estate, monies, &c., has been sought after with a considerable expenditure of effort as well as time and money in the many different claims worked up and presented; and parties having their records looked up have issued and sold Bonds on the same to a considerable amount. One in form, purporting to be the issue of Jasiel Lawrence, of Troy, (now dead) is in my possession at the time of writing. Later a Wm. T. claiming to be the son of a Libbens Lawrence, has been getting up bonds and would be willing to sell any amount at a very low price, claiming to want to use the same in the prosecution of his rights. For the year past I have made it my business to inquire into and examine minutely as means in reach have allowed, and find an account of there being so many Lawrence's in America and Canada. It is said there are 25,000 or over by a careful record now looked up. It is generally understood there were three brothers—John, Thomas, and David. John married Mary Townley. The records thereof, time and place are obtained, together with their departure from England and landing at New Bedford, Mass., and death at New Bedford. Further, their family record is pretty generally looked up. I would have state D. B. Carver, mentioned in the above statement, is the one that addressed the meeting of Lawrence's at the American House, Toronto.

LOCAL.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—Several communications unavoidably laid over.

SR. ALEXANDRA.—About twenty passengers got on board this favorite Steamer at Morrisburg on Tuesday. The trip down the Lawrence is a popular one this season.

SALE OF PEWS.—The new Pews in the R. C. Church in this Village were all taken up last Sunday at rates that covered the outlay for constructing and painting them, and left a surplus of $40.00.

DOMINION DAY.—As we go to press, we learn that North Williamsburg intends to celebrate Dominion Day in style. All sorts of games and amusements are promised. Good for Bell's Corners, we say.

DUST! DUST!—The Corporations of Morrisburg and Iroquois would merit the hearty thanks of the community if they would make provision for having the streets watered this summer. The clouds of dust are already almost intolerable. A prudent regard for cleanliness, which is next to godliness, and for health, calls for godliness in this direction.

ASSESSMENT REVISION.—The revision of the assessment Roll in the Township of Williamsburg was begun last Saturday, and will be concluded next Saturday. Only eleven or twelve cases came up for adjustment. The Winchester Court of Revision was concluded on Tuesday. Not much interest was manifested in the proceedings.

ANOTHER MORRISBURG BOY.—Mr. Adam Johnson, Morrisburg, has taken no less than three Scholarships at the recent examination of Toronto University, one in Classics, (treble), one in Modern Languages, and one for General Proficiency. These were obtained in the 2nd year examinations. We congratulate Mr. Johnson's friends on the credit this reflects both on him and them.

CIRCUIT AND MENAGERIE.—The Ecclesiastical Circuit gives two of their entertainments at Iroquois, on Saturday 12th inst., afternoon and evening, at 2 and 8 o'clock. The press of the Province speak well of them when they have exhibited. This being the first show of the season, in this vicinity, we have no doubt they will have large and appreciative audiences. Sam "Trickney," the renowned Clown, and Jester, accompanies this Show. Admission 50 cents, Children 25 cts.

MORE DUNKIN BILL.—Mr. Geo. Ross,

Hotel keeper, Morrisburg, was fined $20 and costs, last week, for selling liquor without license. The complaint was taken under the Temperance Act of 1874. Messrs. A. G. MacDonell, and F. Bradford were the convicting Magistrates.

OVER THE SEA.—We learn from the Perth Courier that our esteemed friend, P. C. McGregor, Esq., M. A., Head Master of the Almonte High School, starts shortly on a trip to the Old Country for the benefit of his health. We hope he may benefit by the voyage to the full extent of his desires.

COUNTIES' COUNCIL.—This body meets next Tuesday. The new Clerk's instructions must be very narrow, or by his own views not very broad. We have already heretofore received notice to advertise the meeting of the Council, but, although we notice the Advertisement in the Courier, none has been sent to this office. Perhaps most of the people of this County are not interested in Council matters.

METHODIST.—The Montreal Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada meets in the City of Kingston on Wednesday next, 16th inst. The Stationing Committee meets on Friday 11th, (to-morrow). The Rev. E. Robson, of Morrisburg, is the delegate elected to represent the Brockville District in the above Committee. During his absence, on Sabbath next, the pulpit of the Methodist Church in this Village will be occupied by the Rev. J. B. Saunders, who will officiate morning and evening. The hour of the evening service has been changed to 7 o'clock during the summer months.

"THE POLAR AND TROPICAL WORLDS."—The Messrs. Ferguson, of Guelph, have just commenced their canvass of this County for subscribers to this very valuable and deeply interesting work. It is a volume of about 900 pages, on very fine paper, and handsomely and strongly bound, so that whether as to appearance or contents, the work will grace any library where it may find a place. It would be superfluous for us to give a description of the contents of the work, this has been done by able pens, and the Messrs. Ferguson will show testimonials from Doctors and Divines, and from people of rank and position from Lord Dufferin, down, hundreds testifying to the intrinsic value of the work.

WADDINGTON LODGE, I. O. G. T. paid a visit to Morrisburg Lodge on Tuesday evening last. There was a large company of them, coming and returning on the "Kendrick." The exercises of the evening were highly interesting. The pressure on our space this week prevents our given more than a synopsis of them. Bro. Thompson W. C. T. of Waddington Temple presided. He gave a thrilling declamation on the "Influence of Women in the Temperance Cause." Rev. Bro. Robson followed in a very humorous address, and Bro. Porteous gave a song in fine spirit, entitled "Our Grandfathers, days." Bro. Reddington then addressed the Lodge and referred to the good feeling between the two nations, between the Lodges, and referred to the progress of the Waddington Temple. Sister Kellogg sang "My Dear Old Mother," and Bro. DeCastle gave a short telling and interesting address. Bro. Smith sang and played "Lottie Lee," and being vociferously encouraged gave the "Golden Stairs." Bro. Smith is a new member and an acquisition. Bro. Carlyle closed with a few appropriate remarks, thanking the Waddington Lodge for the pleasure afforded us by their visit.

A FEW STUDENTS can be instructed in telegraphing at the Dominion Telegraph Office, Morrisburg. 37-47

DON'T KNOW HIM.—We have heard of a man who owned a horse which had been for a long time afflicted with a chronic cough, and was otherwise in a poor condition; he at length resolved to sell him, and did so for a very trifling sum. Some 5 or 6 weeks afterwards, he met the person to whom he had sold him driving a beautiful horse, full of life, and concluded he had either exchanged him for this or purchased another; but judge of his surprise on learning that the horse was the same that he previously owned and considered of so little value. On enquiry as to what had effected so great a change, he was told that "Darley's Condition Powder" and Arabian Heave Remedy had done it. This preparation has effected some remarkable cures. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hunt & Co. is on each package. Northrup & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

The story had been told to me by the lady in question, who had known for many years, and at my request she gave it me in writing.

Here is the story, as published in Pettand.

"Among the many pets that I have loved and lost, few have endeared themselves more to me than my butterflies, two of which I once kept for the space of a year and a half.

They came into my possession when in their chrysalis state, and I, not knowing anything of entomology, shut them up for safety in a cabinet having glass doors. The cabinet stood near a small window in my bedroom. I was very unwell that winter, and therefore a fire was kept up in my room night and day. Therefore the room was very warm, and I suppose that the little butterflies were deceived thereby, and thought or dreamed that summer smiled upon the earth: for a few days after Christmas, to my astonishment and delight, a little yellow butterfly was seen fluttering feebly within the cabinet.

My attention was at first diverted to the cabinet by the playful gambols of a pet pussy, who had mounted on a chair, and stood upon its hind-legs pawing at the little creature through the glass. I soon sent puss away, opened the cabinet, and tried to induce the butterfly to alight on my hand. But it was either dazzled or bewildered at finding itself in its new and extended sphere of existence or had already learned the fear of man: for, at the approach of my hand, it flew wildly about and finally settled down as if exhausted.

I now became most anxious to feed the little thing; but how the thing was to be achieved I had not the slightest idea, nor could any one in the house advise or help me in this important matter. Moreover, I was loudly ridiculed for the bare idea of trying to tame and feed butterflies.

However, I remembered that the poets all agreed in saying that butterflies sipped nectar from the opening flowers, and therefore turned my attention to the manufacture of a substitute for nectar; so having obtained some honey, which I diluted with rose-water, I put one drop into the centre of the open blossoms of a fairy rose, and placed the little plant in the cabinet. I soon had the joy of seeing the little thing flutter around the rose, and finally settle upon it.

Whether it really drank or not I can not say, I thought that it must have done so, as it appeared to grow strong and more lively every day. I fed it in this manner for more than a fortnight; and by the end of that time it became so tame that it would stay on the flower or any thing else on which it might be standing, and appear quite happy and at rest upon my hand.

It also appeared to understand that I wished it to come to me when I called it by the name of 'Psyche,' that being the name which I had given to the insect.

About three weeks after the advent of 'Psyche,' we were gladdened by the addition of another butterfly to our establishment—a peacock. He was strong and vigorous from the first, and flitted swiftly about, like a beam of prismatic light. I used to fancy that they talked to each other, as he at once fell into the ways and habits of the other; and when I called Psyche he too would come. I gave him another name, but he never seemed to understand that it belonged to him.

They lived in this way until the earth had donned her glowing summer robe of lilacs and roses, when I was told that their life power could only extend over a month or two, and that it was cruel to keep them as happy prisoners. I was therefore induced to give them their liberty. The cabinet was placed with the open door near the window.

It was many days before the butterflies ventured to leave the window-sill, and this much to my joy, for I thought that it might be affection for me that held them back. However, one day, with many bitter tears, I saw them depart and join some wild companions, but at night we found them again in the cabinet.

On the following morning they left us and came not back again until the cold and stormy September weather set in.

Yet, when in the garden, they would come if I called them, and rest for a short time on my hair or hands. At length, on a cold windy day in September, we saw them on the window-sill, and, on our opening the window they came in and resumed their old quarters, and abode there for the winter.

It is true, they were but poor looking objects to what they were when they went forth. The world seemed to have used them rather roughly, for the sheen had gone from the rich wings of the peacock butterfly, and the soft yellow from Psyche's plumage. Nevertheless they were welcome guests; and though ragged and way-worn, were none the less loved.

The great bell, (Kaiser glocke, or Emperor Bell) for Cologne Cathedral has been cast for the third time in Berlin. Its final preparation and cooking must have been a tremendous business. The furnace wherein the French guns of which the bell is made were cooked consumed 200 cwt. of coal, and burned furiously for twelve hours, melting down and artistically stewing 22 captured cannon, some of which were field pieces of the Louis XIV. period, and were taken from the French royal forces during their campaign in the
