New I G A Store Opens Here Today

Winchester's brand new IGA super market, which has its grand opening to-day in the Lang Building at the corner of Main and St. Lawrence is owned and managed by a man of many talents with a keen sense of business. He is Mr. Harry J. Thomas, 44, of Ottawa.

A brief flash back on the life of Mr. Thomas shows that he was born in Toronto, Ontario, and at an early age moved to Ottawa where he was educated and where he has resided the better part of his life. He lived for ten years in the United States. The type of man who can turn his hand to most any job (an example of his handiness are the modern shelves he built for his new store), Mr. Thomas comes to Winchester with a wide experience in the business field. From 1933 to 1937 he was general manager of all A & P chain stores in the city of Ottawa. Poor health forced him to resign this posiion and compelled him to find outside work. For the next two years he was employed by the Canada Bread Company, with whom he was supervisor of all city bread routes. In 1939 he joined the Royal Canadian Air Force where he served until 1945 when he received a medical discharge. A master mechanic with the Air Force, Mr. Thomas met with a serious accident in the early forties when his spine was broken after being crushed beneath a new plane he was inspecting.

Following his Air Force stint, he returned to the grocery business and for about two years owned and operated the California Fruit Store on Bank Street in Otawa. Another nine months in the hospital, during which time he underwent a major operation on his spine, forced him to once again give up his own business.

From 1947 until just recently Harry Thomas was a civil employee with the Air Force and Navy where his respective duties were concerned with construction engineering and naval supplies. The latter position was an important one, in which Mr. Thomas served as Naval Supply Officer at Rockcliffe depot and later as personnel and education officer, with the same division at Naval Headquarters, Ottawa.

A yen to have his own grocery business and a liking for the smaller town are two factors that persuaded Mr. Thomas to open Winchester's first IGA super market.

A Mason, he belongs to the Prince of Wales Lodge in Ottawa, and a member of the Church of England, Harry Thomas is a widower and was formerly married (1933) to Miss Lillian Dyer, of Ottawa. Mrs. Thomas passed away last May after a long illness. He has four children, all school age: 8-year-old twins, a daughter, 14, and a 17-year-old son. With Mr. Thomas and his family when they move to Winchester will be Miss Janet Russett, an aid and governess to the family for the past several years.

A point of interest to local citizens is the fact that Mr. Thomas is a member of the well-known Montgomery Branch of the Canadian Legion, and was one of the originators of the Legion "Monster Night" in Ottawa.

Three New Stores

IGA, a relatively unknown name in this area wo years ago, has hit the area like a bombshell. Stores, all with modern, customer convenience interiors, are now located in Vernon (Porteous'), Williamsburg (Barclay's), and the Thomas store in Winchester.

Williamsburg May Form Hospital Auxiliary Unit

Mrs. R. D. Ledgerwood, president, presided over the December meeting of the Winchester District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, held in the Winchester Town Hall on December 3rd at 8.00 p.m. Eight units were represented by 37 members.

The financial report, given by Miss N. Elliott, showed a balance of $119.52 from November. $3600.00 had been retired from the working account and is to be used in the event of a nurses' residence. Balance on hand, December 3rd, 1953, was $1046.16. This was made up by memberships from eight units, various donations of money, and a rummage sale sponsored by the Winchester Unit.

Three representatives, Mrs. G. McIntosh, Miss J. Locke and Mrs. G. Strader, from Williamsburg, attended the meeting and announced their intentions to organize an auxiliary unit in their district.

The hospital report for November, 1953, given by Miss H. C. Wilson, Superintendent, showed an average number of patients of 36.3, compared with 36.4 for November, 1952. Twenty-three blood transfusions given during the month show why the Blood Donor Clinics are so important, as all blood must be replaced.

Miss Wilson asked all units to be prepared to help with sewing of drawing sheets and omelette sheets after the New Year. Also a call for donations of clean sheeted bags was made. There are many uses for them at the hospital.

Donations are as follows: W. C. T. U., food valued at $16.20; Inkerman Unit, food, $4.85; Winchester Springs, food, $6.65; Nation Valley, $6.00; Elma, $10.00; Vancamp, $38.65; Mrs. Crerar, 30 lbs. honey, $6.30; R. S. Allison, 1 case tomato juice; Mr. Harry Holmes and Mrs. Thos. Keyes, jams, fruit and relishes; Earl Campbell, for Vernon Unit, 2 bags cabbage; Bridge Club, cloak and hat rack, $12.95; Library books from Finch; Anonymous, $25.00 for Auxiliary.

Due to inadequate storage space for vegetables at the hospital, suitable space has been obtained in the Winchester United Church and Post Office building basements.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of the National Anthem.

Postmaster Requests Public Co-operation

With the Christmas mailing of cards and letters expected to reach an all-time high in this locality, the Post Office respectfully suggests the following to have the time of mailers at this busy season, and as a means of speeding up the delivery of your Christmas greetings and presents.

With the office opening at 8 a.m., there is always a slack time until the arrival of the first mail at approximately 8.45. May we suggest that this might be a good time to mail parcels and purchase stamps and orders, so as not to have to stand waiting while the heaviest mail of the day is being sorted from then until 10 o'clock or later. Mailing earlier in the day also insures the despatch of your cards, letters, etc., on the next train.

Will you please tie your cards in bundles, with all of the addresses facing the same way, or hand them in at the wicket when you have a lot of them. Please remember that the two-cent cards are only to convey a Christmas greeting, and if you do enclose any other message they must have four cents in postage.

We must again ask boxholders to carry their keyes during the Christmas season, as the clerks will just not have the time to get the mail from these boxes.

The Post Office staff and extra assistants appreciate the kindness and courtesy of the mailing public of Winchester and district during the years past, and we will try to do our part to make this Christmas a better one for all of us.—F. Erle Helmer, Postmaster.

Folk School Held at Mountain Home

On the evening of Friday, November 20th, the Fourth Annual Dundas County Folk School opened at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allen, Mountain. With ideal weather and good roads, the attendance at the various sessions left little cause for complaint.

The theme of the school "Canada To-day," was well introduced by Mr. Ed. Clford, of the staff of the Hallville High School. With the aid of a map of Canada, Mr. Clifford gave a general outline of recent developments in this country, pointing out especially how our vast Northland is rapidly opening up under the impetus of new mineral discoveries and the age of the aeroplane.

Mr. Clare Burt, Director of the Folk School, who was for several years Ontario secretary of the Farm Radio Forum, and is at present with the Services Department of the H. E. P. C. of Ontario, took charge of the recreational programme, which helped to develop the spirit of friendliness and co-operation typical of Folk School life.

Metcalfe Woman To Observe 100th Birthday

Messages of congratulations will be the order of the day next Tuesday, December 15th, for Miss Margaret Woods, of Metcalfe, who will observe her 100th birthday. Miss Woods is believed to be one of the oldest, if not the oldest citizen in this area.

A resident of the Metcalfe district since her birth in 1853, Miss Woods has seen a pioneering community become one of the most prospercus agricultural districts in the province. She has, in her century of life, seen Canada progress from a colony to a Dominion.

In her childhood she saw farmers using yoked oxen to pull their plows. The candle was the common method of illumination in Canadian homes, and people in farming communities had to be self-sustaining in every sense of the word to survive at all.

She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Woods and she has a sister, (Caroline) Mrs. John Patterson.

Still Active

Miss Woods still lives a very active life. Her health is good, she looks after herself, washes the dishes and does other household tasks, and up until a month or so ago was able to knit.

She loves the radio, enjoys a car ride, and when invited to view television by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howes, and Miss E. Sully, she enjoyed the experience so much she was loath to go home. Mr. Howes, her nephew, said of the television experience, "She never missed a punch."

Miss Woods was an ardent church worker, a member of the Presbyterian Church, until her age compelled her to give up active participation in church affairs.

Injured In Fall

Lately, she spends much of her time at her window watching the flow of traffic, and is keenly interested in all she sees. About ten years ago she suffered a slight stroke that affected one arm, but she recovered sufficiently to knit, but gave this up two months ago when a fall injured her shoulder.

Miss Woods resides at the home of Mrs. David James, near Metcalfe, and a visitor there the other day found her engaged in reading and telling Christmas stories to Mrs. James' grandchildren.

At the local nomination meeting, held on November 27th, certain ratepayers voiced disapproval of discarding the Chemical Fire Engine. There is no reason why the chemical tanks couldn't be mounted on a light trailer and kept charged, to be used in cases of emergencies or small fires. We cannot have too much fire-fighting equipment. We can recall several instances where the chemical engine was used to a high point of efficiency. There is no reason, if properly cared for and operated right, it cannot continue to fill some useful purpose in fighting fires.

SPEND IT HERE AND MAKE MORE

December is the month for retail businessmen. For most of these people, the volume of business during the next two or three weeks will determine the difference in the profit and loss column for the entire winter.

Christmas is the stimulant to shopping now, with just about everyone getting in on the friendly spirit that exists at this season of good cheer.

So far, the weather has been against any unusual rush of buying. A lot of the potential buyers are waitiig for the snow, or rather, winter weather to come. Once here, the speed of trading will be more than doubled. In any event, there is bound to be the usual Christmas rush, whether there is snow, winter or mild weather.

This leads to a vital point as far as our own stores in Winchester are concerned. It seems that every year about this time there's a certain group of people who can't resist leaving the town and going to the city to do their shopping. What an attitude! We have often wondered if these out-of-town shoppers who live here have ever given the matter of doing their shopping at home any thought.

Many of them come up with the excuse each year that the local stores "haven't got what you want. Let's face it. Our business section is not large, but neither is the town. But what we have in our town is good, and varied, and there seems to be quite a display in all the stores.

Admittedly, there are bound to be a few items that cannot be purchased here. But before going elsewhere, make, at least, an attempt to see if the gift in question cannot be bought at home.

Would-be Christmas shoppers, and this applies the year round, should keep in mind that the amount spent here greatly determines the amount that can be spent.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST PICKPOCKETS

Christmas shopping can be turned into an unpleasant experience if the shopper is not on guard against the pickpocket. He is the little fellow, sometimes big, who makes a killing in crowded stores and on busy streets.

How the pickpockets ply their trade and how to guard against them are told in a December Reader's Digest article.

Pickpockets possess not only a remarkable dexterity but an unerring ability to know what the victim will do next. Choosing his prey in a crowd, the skilled pickpocket learns two vital facts at once: the exact position of the wallet he is after, and whether his intended victim has any suspicions.

On a cafeteria line a man will hesitate to drop a tray full of food to grab for his pocketbook. Among crowds at sporting events, particularly in a ninth-inning rally or the fiinish of a horse race, men momentarily forget their wallets in the excitement of the moment. In such places, cautions Reader's Digest, it is well to be more than usually alert.

Pickpockets at county fairs have been known to shout a warning to the crowd: "Look out for pickpockets." Immediately nearly every man will slap at his wallet to make sure it is safe, and the thieves then know where the money is.

Sometimes as many as five or six pickpockets, including a woman, will work together. Only one may do the actual stealing. The others act as decoys or have various supporting roles in plots cleverly conceived and executed.

The Digest article offers this general advice: "Carry only what money you need and don't flash it. If you're a woman, don't let your handbag dangle; hold the bag itself with your hand over the clasp. For a man, an inside pocket is safer than an outside one; a purse in a hip pocket is the easiest picking. Above all, be suspicious in crowds. Move instantly when jostled." And don't let a pickpocket ruin your Christmas.

THE COMMUNITY SPIRIT

For "impaired" driving five Ottawa men paid each of them $100 and costs in Hull police court on Monday morning.

This is a perfect demonstration of the community spirit of the Capital Area. By a bit of judicious management of their libations, these men could have arranged to catch the official attention of their own police, and they then would have paid their fines in Ottawa. Instead, they took thought of Hull as an integral part of the greater Ottawa, and let affairs so develop as to give point to their gesture of friendship and goodwill to the extent of $100 each.

It is in this cordial spirit of mutual aid and association thhat we march on together. Ottawa's impaired drivers go to Hull to be picked up; Hull's impaired drivers seek asylum on this side of the river. It's a beautiful sentiment.—Ottawa Journal.

LIFE'S SUNSET DAYS

The drama of life with its various scenes,
Its tears and its laughter, its hopes and its dreams
Has drifted away with the swift passing years
Till the gathering twilight of life's day appears;
So much we have known that is splendid and fine,
Where beauty and friendship and love all combine,
The glint of sunshine on dew-laden grass,
The colors and shading of flowers as we pass,
The bright fleecy clouds in the blue above,
And rainbows of promise all speak of God's love.

In all of life's pathway there's many a bend
Where memories precious can picture a friend,
What treasures of kindness, of help and good cheer
Have brightened our pathway, as year after year
True friends have extended a kind helping hand,
With hearts that so well could our need understand.
My heart thrills with gladness, and gratitude, too,
For all I have known of the good and the true.

I feel like a debtor who cannot repay,
Though I lived for a hundred long years and a day;
For the value of kindness can never be told,
Or counted in wealth such as silver and gold.
So the least I can do as I travel life's road
Is to help ease the burden of some other's load,
To pass on the kindness that's been mine to share,
And speak cheery words to drive away care;
In my eye keep a twinkle that's jolly and true—
And joy in my soul—with a smile shining through.

EDITORIAL NOTES

No wonder taxi fares have taken a jump in Ottawa. In the last two months three taxi drivers have been taken for a "ride" in their own cab and then robbed.

Santa Claus is coming to town on Saturday afternoon, December 19th, and an invitation is extended to all Winchester and district kiddies to be on had to get their bag of treats. It's also a good time for parents to finish up some of that last minute shopping.

This town can take no pride in its habitual turn-out at nomination meeings. Thirty-five this year! What a disgrace to a community that is supposed to be up and coming. Maybe a good old paternal kick in the pants is the solution after all.

With the old year departing three weeks from today, it looks as though Council's $1000 estimate for snow removal from November 15th to December 31st will be more than sufficient. So far, not a penny has been used, simply because there has been no snow to speak of. If the money is not used, though, it is likely the 1954 administration will find a place for it without too much difficulty.

At the recent Nomination Meeting, one of the Councillors, in making his annual report, came up with the suggestion that the 1954 estimates be made earlier in the year. We have been advocating this point for several years, and are in full accordance with the Councillor. As a rule, the current year estimates are not made until May or June in this town, while practically every neighbouring municipality has announced its budget in March or April at the latest. There is no reason why the same system cannot be adopted in this village.

Here's a simple way to prove that there is a housing shortage in Winchester, and that advertising in this paper pays off in big dividends. Two weeks ago a local business man inserted a "House to Rent" advt. in the classified pages of this paper. The paper went in the mails on Thursday morning about 8.15 o'clock. By noon of the same day, or less than four hours after the edition had hit the streets, there were fifteen replies to that same advertisement. And this is only one instance of Press Advertisements paying off. With almost two thousand papers with a readership of over 8,000 being circulated every week, it's a sure bet that advertising in the Press will bring results.

Gospel Gleanings....

WHICH WAY HAVE YOU VOTED?

"Give diligence to make your calling and election sure."—II Pet. 2:10.

Another election is past, with all candidates leaving no stone unturned to win the approval of a vacillating public opinion. Whether it meant the verdict of victory or the dismay of defeat, it could be truly said of all aspirants to office, they gave diligence to make their calling and election sure. They sought a seat which provides a little of the world's short-lived power and prominence; but when we consider eternal values, its real worth can be measured only in the light of the inspired and infallable Word of God.

"I have seen all the works that are done under the sun, and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they have been before me. I had great possessions; I gathered me silver and gold; so I was great and increased more than all they that were before me. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do; and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun."—Eccl. 1-2.

A seat in the legislature may bring a fair share of the world's honour and distinctioon; but the election of which the scriptures speak involves the issues of life and death. To win it brings eternal gain and glory; to lose it eternal death and damnation. In this election every person who has heard the offer of free salvation through the work of Christ at Calvary is not only a candidate, but has the deciding vote in his or her own election. The darky preacher put it clearly when he said, "De Lawd voted for my salvation; de debble voted for my damnation; I voted with de Lawd, and we had a majority."

Christ and Satan each have a program for the government of your life, both here and hereafter. The decision is in your hands. Read Eph. chapter 2 and see that the acceptance of Christ and his program will mean a seat with Him in heavenly places, with the exceeding riches of His Grace at your disposal throughout all eternity. Read Matth. chapters 7 and 25 and see that the acceptance of Satan and his program will mean spending eternity in a place prepared for the devil and his angels.

Sad to say, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."—(Prov. 14:12). Satan is a demon of darkness who poses as an angel of light. With cunning deception he juggles the ballots so that multitudes vote for his program who think they are voting otherwise. He is the prince of this world and is pleased with all kinds of man-made schemes, with God left out, for making his world a better place to live in. He is happy when churches are filled to capacity with a congregation listening, as so often it does, to the man-made, Satan-inspired gospel-so-called, of salvation through self effort and social improvement.

You may never have realized that you can be right with your fellow men through the sufficiency of your character, but you can never be right with God except through the sacrifice of Christ, for "The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."—(Rom. 6:23); and that glorious gift does not come through man's imperfect attainments, but through Christ's perfect atonement.

Unless you have come to the foot of the Cross with the humble confession that you are a helpless, hopeless, hell-deserving sinner, you are still voting for Satan and his program, and will continue to do so till you see your need of salvation and receive and confess Christ as Saviour of your soul and Lord of your life.

"For there is none other Name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved."—Acts 4:12.)

"Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold—but with the Precious Blood of Christ."—(I Pet. 1:18-19).

that same thoughtful consideration on the part of the postal staffs. Too often, postmasters and their assistants forget that they are civil servants being paid out of public funds, to serve the public. In far too many cases, the post office has forgotten all about the meaning of service and efficiency, remarks an Exchange.

Speaking at a meeting of the American Dairy Association, B. E. Stallones, a director of the association, declared: "If the dairy farmers themselves would eat butter instead of oleo, half our surplus problem would be licked. A farmer who would eat oleo ought to get down on his knees and beg God to save his soul." Local merchants tell us that district farmers are their biggest margarine customers.

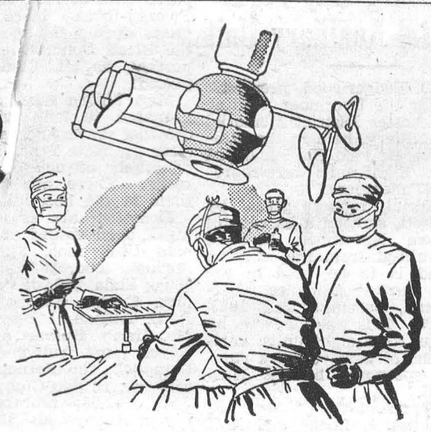
The Miracle of Electrical Power



In hospitals and laboratories where intricate electrical life-saving equipment is grasped by skilful hands, there are few to see the miracles wrought.

And too, there are few who realize that the heart-beats of electrical power, pulsating over many miles of wire arteries, are watched with such constant care in order that it may unfailingly serve the lives of folk in our neighbourhood.

When Hydro service extends a willing hand to the saving of life and assists in attaining a higher level of living, it kindles new hope in our hearts and minds. We are proud of the part we play in making available to (name of municipality) the miraculous service of electricity.

VICE & CRAIG
TELEPHONE NO. 13 Furniture Dealers Funeral Directors Ambulance Service WINCHESTER, ONT.

Hello Homemakers! There are more tasters than we need around the kitchen these cold days. They want "some" no matter what it is! When we suggested that Nancy say please, we were told: "My arm is longer than my tongue." To stir up interest in a project for children, mention candy. It's magic. So here is a helpful column for teenagers.

TAKE A TIP

1. Adequate utensils for candy making are a deep saucepan, wooden spoon, measuring cups and a candy thermometer.

2. If the recipe does not state the kind of sugar, always use fine granulated.

3. To test for syrup stages without a thermometer:

(a) Soft Ball Stage—when about 1-4 teaspoon of the syrup is dropped into a cup containing ice cold water, a soft ball is formed.

(b) Medium Ball Stage—when about 1-4 teaspoon is dropped into a cup containing a little cold water, a firm ball is formed—try pinching it.

(c) Hard Ball Stage—when syrup is dropped, long threads (about 3 inches) hang from edge of spoon.

4. Do not let sugar mixture boil until sugar has dissolved in the combined ingredients by stirring over low heat.

5. Fondant candies should be boiled without stirring. To prevent crystals from forming, dip wooden spoon in hot water then scrape sides of saucepan.

6. Fudge mixtures should be set aside to cool as soon as soft ball stage is reached. (Do not chill suddenly). When lukewarm, beat until mixture loses its gloss, then pour into a greased pan and spread with a hot knife.

Butter Fondant

2 cups sugar, 1-8 tsp. cream tartar, 2-3 cup milk, 2 tbsps. butter.

Put sugar, cream of tartar and milk in a saucepan over low heat and stir until sugar is dissolved. Boil without stirring to soft ball stage (326 degs.). Then stir in butter and turn out on warm buttered pie plate. Let stand until lukewarm then beat with a stiff knife until it changes color. Gather up quickly and knead 20 times. Store in a covered casserole overnight.

Orange Bon Bons—Add grated orange rind and 1-2 tsp. orange extract. If necessary, warm to shape into balls.

Coffee Bon Bons: Make fondant substituting strong coffee for the milk. When cool, shape into tiny mounds.

Chocolate Fudge

2 squares unsweetened chocolate, 3-4 cup milk, 2 cups sugar, few grains salt, 2 tbsps. butter, 1 tsp. vanilla.

Add chocolate to milk and cook until blended on low. Add sugar and salt and stir until mixture boils. Continue boiling without stirring until soft ball stage is reached. Mix in butter and vanilla. Cool to lukewarm, then beat until thick. Pour into greased pan immediately. When cold, cut in squares.

Coconut Fudge: Stir in 1 cup of coconut near end of beating of chocolate fudge. Roll in balls.

Turkish Delight

2 tbsps. gelatine, 1-2 cup cold water, 1-2 cup boiling water, 2 cups sugar, 1-2 cup orange juice, 1-4 cup lemon juice, grated rind of 1 orange.

Soak gelatine in cold water, 5 mins. Combine sugar and boiling water, stir, then heat until dissolved. Add gelatine, dissolve and bring to a boil. Simmer for 20 mins., remove from heat and add orange juice, lemon juice and grated rind. Pour into heat-proof casserole that has been rinsed in cold water. Have liquid about 3-4 inch deep. Chill in electric refrigerator. Cut with sharp knife.

Note: (t) Roll rectangles of Delight in icing sugar. (b) Add 1-2 cup diced, drained maraschino with orange. (c) Or strain after simmering and divide in two portions. Color one batch gree and the other red.

THE QUESTION BOX

Miss C. T. asks: How can we prevent melted chocolate bars from becoming too thick for coating bon bons?

Answer: If the smallest amount of steam gets into it, the chocolate bar will become too thick for coating bon bons but may be used for cooking. The pans of the double boiler should fit closely. When the pans are placed on the electric element, keep switch turned medium or low—never high.

Answer: Pour 1 lb. or 2 pkgs. of Dot chocolate chips into top of double boiler and cover pan. Insert over the lower part that contains 1 cup boiling water. Heat two minutes, then uncover and stir constantly down sides of pans and across the bottom to dissolve evenly. When it is a creamy consistency cover chocolate and remove from heat. Add cold water to lower part until temperature of water is lukewarm, then return chocolate over lower pan and stir constantly until it is lukewarm. Begin dipping at once. If it is neither too hot nor too cold the shape of candies and gloss will be perfect. Use a 2-tined fork to lower fondant balls into chocolate.

KIRK RIDGE FARM FORUM

The November 30th meeting of the Kirk Ridge Farm Forum was held at the home of Mr. Stan. Coleman in Hallville. The topic under discussion was "The Struggle For Men's Minds." In answer to the question, "What steps should Canada take to show Asiatic countries that our attitude to them is friendly and non-aggressive?", it was felt that they only see important officials of this country, and never have just ordinary people visit them. The Communists get through to the ordinary people by fair means or foul, we do not know. We suggest more scholarships to students of all countries. Canada could do more than the States or Britian. We could easily transfer the cost of one bomber into scholarships for 1,000 students. We should print more of our local information in their own languages in their own countries.

To convince others that the democratic way of life is better than the Communistic way, it was thought that there should be more education in various forms. Communists use the big lie and we should use the truth. We should try to convince them of the real unselfishness of democracy. Unfortunately, we have give them signs of our greed for financial gain.

Cards were enjoyed and a delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Coleman.

FEED NEWS

FEED MARKET TRENDS

It looks as if grain and feed of all kinds may have touched low point for the season.

The close of navigation on the lakes means at least $1.00 a ton increase in freight charges. Then as storage charges accumulate, the normal trend is to slightly higher laid down costs, even without any change in the Winnipeg market.

Also, the heavier feeding season increases demand at this time of year.

There is no sign of any great advance in grain markets but it would seem good business to keep a reasonable supply on hand at present lower prices.

WHEAT

Recently, we are getting better quality wheat and the price is lower than it was all summer. The Wheat Board has price and supply tied up tight and no one knows what it may do. Feed Wheat has been out of line with other grains for some time now.

OATS

According to reports, fairly large quantities of high grade Western Oats are being exported to the U. S.

Oats are costing a bit more. These Extra 1 Feeds are extra good value at present prices.

BARLEY

CORN

Corn has advanced sharply—more than any other grain. Ontario Corn is excellent quality this year.

MILLFEEDS

Wholesale prices are up a couple of dollars a ton—some mills $3.00 or $4.00 a ton. Due to limited export of flour, not too much millfeed is being offered.

OILCAKE AND SOYBEAN MEAL

Best brands of Oilcake are in short supply. Oilcake is coming in from the U. S. A. Prices are slightly higher.

CAR ACCIDENTS CAUSE OVER $400 DAMAGE

Bill Erratt, Melvin Motors employee, driving south on St. Lawrence Street near the C. P. R. station, was temporarily blinded by the lights of an approaching vehicle. He pulled the car to the right, catching the shoulder, and sending it careening down the roadside, shearing off a Hydro pole and narrowly missing two others, one of them carrying a 44,000-line. The accident occurred about 6.30 Tuesday evening of last week.

Damage to the car was estimated at over $200 and that to the pole and other property approximately $50.

Wednesday afternoon about 5.15 o'clock a 1950 Morris car, driven by Park Little, 66, was in collision with a 1934 Chehrolet, owned and operated by Lyle St. Pierre, 27. The accident occurred at the Caleb-St. Lawrence intersection, when the cars met head-on. Damage to the cars was estimated at $75.00. Constable G. B. Raistrick investigated both accidents.

ST. PAUL'S W. M. S.

The Women's Missionary Society of St. Paul's Church was held in the S. S. Rooms on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th, with the president, Mrs. R. D. Ledgerwood, presiding. The meeting opened with the call to worship, a hymn and prayer. Sixteen members answered roll call with a verse of Scripture containing the word "Joy." The offering was taken and dedicated.

During the reading of the correspondence a letter from Wm. Spinks in Cuba was read, asking for a bale of clothing. Cards are to be sent to the shut-ins at Christmas time. All the secretaries gave reports of the year's activities, which showed that all societies are busy, and the treasurer's report showed a goodly sum raised by all.

The programme part was taken by Mrs. Colin Hay and Miss Ida Knowland. A Christmas message was given by Mrs. Hay, followed with Scripture reading and prayer by Miss Knowland. The meeting closed with the Apostles' Creed and Jude Benediction, after which lunch was served.

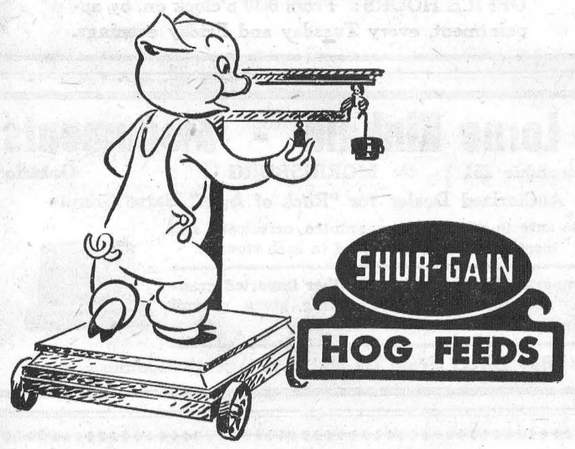
FOR ALL TO ENJOY!

Mark it down on your "must" list! Here is one of the really fine family films of 1953. It tells of the fighting heart of a red-headed woman who turned a town's hate to love. From the company that gave the screen such great family pictures as "Stars In My Crown", "Father Of The Bride" and many more, here is a warm and wonderful story!

M-G-M presents
GREER GARSON • WALTER PIDGEON



Produce More Economical Gains!

You won't have the "weighty" problem of getting your Hogs off to market in short order if you BALANCE your grain with SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate.

Certainly grain alone will get your hogs to market but not as economically as it can and should be done. That is where SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate enters the picture, to balance your grain and put economy in your hog feeding program.

SHUR-GAIN Fed Hogs Score High On These Three Important Points:

(1) Reach market weight sooner. (2 or 3 months ahead of straight grain fed hogs.)

(2) Require less total feed (650 lbs. or less each of SHUR-GAIN BALANCED Hog Feed compared to about 1,100 lbs. each of straight grain.)

(3) Obtain better grades when marketed. (Earn more premiums.)

If you haven't already done so, try your next litter on the SHUR-GAIN program—and prove to yourself that SHUR-GAIN Hog Feeds have greater dollar earning capacity.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Perfume Stains

Perfume spots on furniture should be smeared with linseed oil or olive oil or camphorated oil immediately. Mop up and apply more oil on a woollen cloth.

Scuffed Shoes

When shoes become scuffed and peeled, rub them with the white of an egg. This will paste down the broken pieces, and eliminate that broken look.

Cocoa

Beating cocoa with an egg beater will prevent scum from forming on top. Cocoa cooked in the double boiler will not boil over and may be kept a long time.

Lamp Shades

Paper or parchment lamp shades that develop cracks or tears can be patched with Scotch tape, which will be almost invisible when applied on the inside of the shade.

Removing Whitewash

If you wish to remove whitewash, dissolve one pound of alum in one gallon of strong vinegar. Apply with a brush; let the mixture soak well in, then scrape and wash.

Metal Teapots

If metal teapots are not used for some time, they are likely to become musty. This can be prevented by dropping a lump of sugar into the pot before putting it away.

Clothes Shine

When a dress suit of dark serge becomes shiny with wear, sponge it with hot vinegar and press in the usual way. No odor of vinegar will remain, no stain, and the shine will be gone.

Scratched Silver

To remove scratches from silver, mix enough putty powder with a little olive oil to make a paste. Rub this paste on the silver with a soft cloth. Polish with chamois. The scratches should disappear.

Leather Books

Leather book bindings can be cleaned and freshened by application of equal parts of milk and white of egg, beaten together. Rub on gently with soft flannel and polish with an old silk handkerchief.

Invite Friends For Chowder Supper

Filled with warmth and goodness, a steaming tureen seems a symbol of hospitality. A welcome to your family and friends. Everyone gathers gladly around the dining table. Or they pick up their own chowder bowls from the buffet, then settle comfortably around the living room to feast and chat.

Grand makings for the chowder come right from your kitchen shelf. Creamy rich condensed mushroom soup or chicken soup as the base. Golden kernels of corn. Cubes of rosy ham or some leftover turkey to round out the chowder. How's that for a bowlful of goodness to savor with relishes (cranberry sauce and celery) and hot buttery cornbread! Wedges of pumpkin pie appear as dessert.

Mushroom Chowder

1 cup cooked ham, finely diced	1 can (1¼ cup) condensed cream of mushroom or chicken soup
1 tablespoon butter or margarine	1 soup can milk
½ cup finely chopped onion	1 can (2 cups) cream style corn

Brown ham in butter; add onion; cover and cook until limp. Blend in soup and milk; add corn. Heat but do not boil. Serve garnished with chopped green parsley.

Turkey Chowder: Cooked turkey may be used in the chowder instead of ham. Then add 1 cup turkey when adding corn. Use 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento for garnish instead of parsley.

SOUP SCOOPS

Steakburger With Gravy Graces Platter: Shape a tender steakburger from the plentiful ground beef now on the market; and you have something to grace your most handsome platter. Use a can of good beef gravy to put extra richness into the burger. First mix ½ cup gravy with 1 pound ground beef, 1 tablespoon minced onion, ¼ cup dry bread crumbs, salt and pepper. Form mixture into one large burger, about 1-inch thick. Broil until done and well browned. Also broil pineapple slices with the meat. Arrange burger on platter, pineapple around it. Spoon red currant jelly into center of each pineapple slice. Carry it forth to serve 4.

Bake Beans 'n' Sausage: Tempting oven dinner on a cold night is a juicy casserole of beans and pork topped with browned sausage. First brown 6 to 8 sausages in skillet; brown 2 slices of pineapple also. Meanwhile pour 2 cans of beans and pork into a casserole; place sausage and pineapple on top. Slide casserole into oven to bake at 350°F. about 30 minutes or until sausage is done.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN AND CONTENTS, LOSS $6,000

(Last Week's News)

The fruits of a year's labor were lost to Charles Gray last Friday when fire of unknown origin destroyed a large barn on his farm in the Nation Valley district.

Streams of water from the new fire pump of Chesterville Volunteer Fire Department and untiring efforts by neighbours failed to save the barn and the year's harvest it contained, but kept the fire from spreading to the house and other farm buildings. One calf was consumed in the blaze.

Total loss was estimated at more than $6,000. The owner made no statement regarding insurance.

Firemen using the new pump played streams of water on the Gray home and a chicken house just fifteen feet from the blazing barn. These buildings escaped damage.

The wife had made a real effort to balance her budget and check-book. Finally, she handed four sheets of figures with items and costs neatly typed to her husband.

He looked them over carefully: Electric bill, cleaners and so on. Everything was clear except for one item which read ESP, $24.50.

Warily he asked, "What does ESP mean?"

"Error some place," came the better-half's reply.

CANADA'S health

While vitamin D is necessary to a child from its birth to sixteen years of age, it is also essential to the health of the expectant mother. To help reduce Canada's infant mortality, the mother-to-be should have regular medical attention previous to the birth; this is available in prenatal clinics in most parts of Canada. After the baby arrives, it should be taken on periodic visits to the well-baby clinic in the area, for regular checkups on its general health, weight and growth.

MENU STANDBY

With a little experimentation salads can be an exceedingly versatile item on the daily menu. Most important, they are the source of necessary nutrients. Most vegetables are, through force of habit, boiled, often with too much water and for too long a time. By combining different kinds in their raw state, a new taste treat is produced. Grated or sliced, some of our vegetables such as carrots, turnips, asparagus and cabbage, are good additions to a salad.

AND MORE ECONOMICAL, TOO

With the coming of cooler weather, there's a great temptation to hop a streetcar or bus whenever possible. This is not conducive to that feeling of well-being that comes from open-air exercise. Walking home from work or school, even though only part of the way, will provide at least some of the daily outdoor exercise everyone needs for good health.

DRY LAND SWIMMER

The non-swimming vacationist who spent hot sunny days on the beach, watching others having fun diving and swimming, will probably have determined to remedy the matter before next summer. There are facilities for taking swimming lessons in many Canadian communities and these classes are usually available during the winter. Knowing how to take care of oneself in the water is not only a pleasant way of taking exercise—it is also the sort of knowledge that could save one's own life or another's. Once mastered, the skill lasts a lifetime.

MENTAL HEALTH

Canada, today, faces a mental health problem of considerable proportions. The most serious cases of mental illness occupy about 60,000 hospital beds, more than the number in use for all cases of physical illness. Even more prevalent are the less serious types of mental ill health. To help reduce this distressingly high number of cases, patients must be given help in the earliest stages of the ailment. As soon as any sign of mental disturbance is noticed, medical and psychiatric attention should be given so that, with modern methods of treatment, there will be every hope of a complete and early cure.

CANADA'S DIABETICS

In addition to the great number of known cases of diabetes, there are a great many who do not know they have the disease. Diabetes, in its earliest stages, may not be obvious to the sufferer who can easily regard the continual tiredness, hunger and thirst as unimportant symptoms and, by neglect, might allow the disease to become firmly established. Any person who is over fifty and overweight or with a history of diabetes in the family, should have periodic medical examinations to check up on any possibility of contracting the ailment. By following their doctor's orders as to treatment and general way of life, most of the cases under doctors' care are able to live almost normal lives.

FILLING THE LEISURE HOURS

Older retired people who have no occupation to keep them busy, often spend hours worrying over their health, magnifying aches and pains to serious proportions, imagining them to be symptoms of major diseases. Older people should not expect inevitable poor health—eating and exercising wisely should help them to live normally, albeit a little more slowly than in earlier years. Periodic medical checkups will prevent any chance of disease becoming established unsuspected. An interesting and absorbing hobby will also help, by taking the mind off worrying over the health.

APPENDICITIS

To date, no one has found any specific use for that tiny organ, the appendix, which can cause a great deal of trouble in the human body or can remain unnoticed and harmless all through life. When inflammation of the appendix occurs, it means that there is a blockage of the organ where germs collect and set up an infection. Pain in the abdomen, with nauseating or vomiting, may be a sign of appendicitis, and this requires immediate medical attention. No laxative or other home remedy should be given; the doctor should be called at once. Until he arrives, the patient should rest quietly, taking no food or drink except water. Neglect of appendicitis may cost a life.

EVER PRESENT ENEMY

Everyone, unless he lives in a sterile glass case, is subjected to the danger of germs picked up from articles handled, food eaten and air breathed. But although each day brings its baggage of new millions of germs, most people live healthily despite the contact. Tuberculosis germs, for instance, may be inhaled directly from street dust but everyone who breathes them does not contract the disease. Immunity is often due, in part, to a sound defence built up by general health care, including a balanced diet and proper rest.

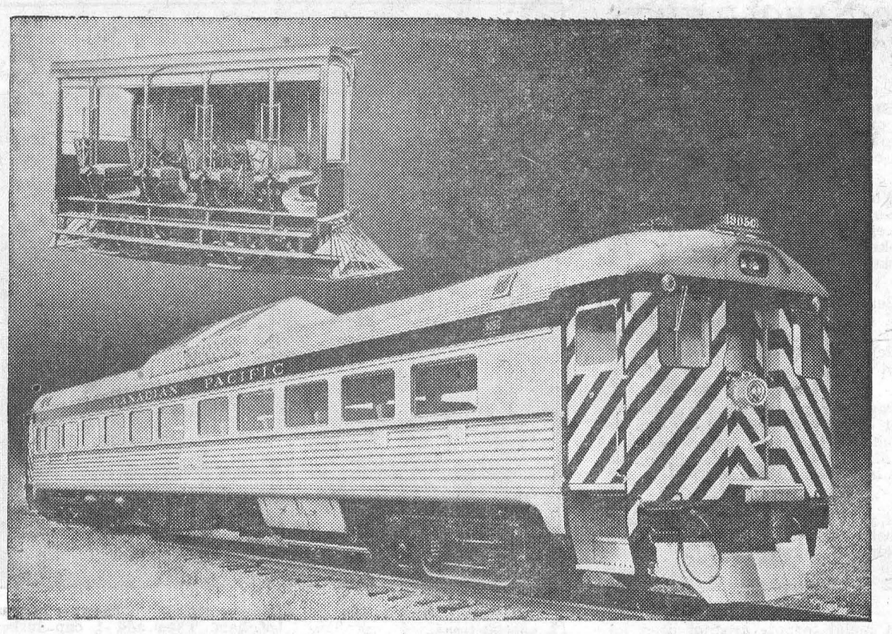
DRY STEPS

Wet or snowy days are not so far ahead and it is not too early to consider the overshoe situation. Cold damp feet often lead to chills. Rubbers protect the feet from damp and help to keep them warm; during bad weather they should be worn, especially by children, who always enjoy splashing through puddles. Rubbers may not be the prettiest of foot coverings but a cold doesn't do much for the appearance, either.

A WORD TO THE DIET WISE

At least one serving of potatoes and two servings of other vegetables, preferably the green, yellow, or leafy kinds, should be included in the daily menu. It is best to serve some of the vegetables raw. By grating or shredding carrots, turnips, celery or cabbage, tasty changes can be made in salads. It is a good idea to experiment with various vegetables in their raw form, to add novelty to the salad or as an additional treat in the lunch box. Many vegetables are even more nutritious in their raw form than when cooked.

True, loafing adds years to one's life, but does it make one well bred? asks Contrib. O.C.G. "By the way," he goes on, "why is a loaf of bread like the sun?" "Because it rises in the yeast and goes down in the vest!" says he.—Toronto Star.



TRANSITION: A little more than 50 years ago, the Canadian Pacific Railway introduced to Canadians their first internal combustion self-propelled rail car (inset). This month (November) the C. P. R. is placing in service four of the very latest in self-propelled cars—the Budd RDC's. Patterned along "Toonerville Trolley" lines, the old gasoline-powered, single truck rail car was 13 feet long and carried 14 passengers. Today's 90-foot Budd car carries 89 persons and is air-conditioned. Old 502, the first of the breed in Canada, was also air-conditioned, but in a primitive sort of way—she had open sides. Unimpressive as the old car was, she can still lay claim to being the forerunner of the modern, stainless steel, streamlined rail diesel cars which today are providing service between Montreal and Mont Laurier, Toronto and Detroit and North Bay and Angliers. The original rail car, built in 1902, operated from Montreal's old place Viger Station to Ste. Therese.

PULLETS STARTED EARLY ARE GREATEST PROFIT MAKERS

An analysis of U. S. government records shows that pullet flocks which are started as early as January and no later than early March earn substantially more egg profits than flocks started later.

Flockowners can figure on $20 to $40 extra profit per 100 pullets by starting chicks early, simply by taking advantage of peaks in seasonal market trends.

Figures issued by the U. S. government show that egg prices have consistently averaged higher in September, October, November and December than they have during the next four winter months. Year after year, this early price difference over the country averages about 12 cents per dozen, and in some areas the difference is as high as 15 to 20 cents.

Chicks started in February should each lay at least 20 more early fall eggs than April started chicks, which is a gain of 20 cents per bird or $20 per 100 pullets. January chicks should lay about 40 more eggs during the high priced months than would April chicks, which represents a 40 cents per bird increase.

The U. S. government report of average prices for the past five years shows October and November to be the best egg months, each having a 52 cents per dozen average. December is next with a 51 cents average, and September is close behind at 49 cents.

The report shows that egg prices drop sharply after December to 42 cents per dozen average in January, and 38 cents in February, March and April.

Flockowners who plan their operations to get maximum volume of eggs to market during the early good market months should start their chicks in January or February.

INKERMAN W. A. MEETING

The December meeting of the Women's Association of Inkerman United Church was held Tuesday evening, December 1st, at the home of Mrs. Rae Brown.

Mrs. Harold Baldwin and Mrs. Rae Brown were in charge of the programme. The meeting opened with the singing of Christmas Carols. The beloved "Christmas Story" was read from the Bible by Mrs. Rae Brown, and two inspiring readings entitled "Room on Calvary but none in Bethlehem" and a "Christian Christmas" were read by Mrs. H. Baldwin and Mrs. R. Brown. Mrs. Wallace Crowder and Miss Hazel MacDonald rendered a very fitting Christmas duet, "Just From Paradise," which was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Ralph Allison read a poem, "The Prince of Peace," and the meeting closed with Christmas Carols.

Mrs. Rae Brown was in charge of the business programme. The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given. The nominating committee gave its report. In accepting the presidency for another term, Mrs. Rae Brown stated that, without meaning to boast, the W. A. had accomplished much during the past five years that she had been president, and had much to be thankful for. She said that she counted it a privilege and a pleasure to serve as president for 1954, and asked for the continued co-operation, fellowship and friendliness that the members had given her during her past terms of office.

A delightful lunch was served by the hostess, and her daughters, the Misses June and Betty Brown. The cake for this month's luncheon was baked by Mrs. Wm. R. Patterson. A social hour was much enjoyed, bringing the evening's activities to a close.

PURE BRED HOLSTEIN GIVES BIRTH TO QUINTUPLETS—ALL DIE

An unusual bovine birth, believed to be the first of its kind in the area, and one of the few cases on record anywhere, occurred on the farm of Norman Goldberg, two miles south of Kemptville, when a pure bred Holstein gave birth to quintuplets. The calves, four heifers and a bull, were alive at birth, but died within a few minutes.

Dr. F. G. Coleman, attending veterinarian, said the chances of a cow having quintuplets were as remote as a human having them.

The cow that gave birth to the five is "Prousedale Mae Pauline," and was purchased in Western Ontario.

W. H. S. NEWS NOTES

(By Beverley Hunt)

The Winchester High School Glee Club made its radio debut on Friday evening, December 4th. Both Senior and Junior Glee Clubs had recordings made of a fifteen minute program. These are to be broadcast on Wednesdays, December 9th and 16th, over CFRA, Ottawa. Be sure and listen, folks!

The Christmas parties in the Home Economics section are under way, accompanied by the usual sights, sounds and fragrances of Christmas. Through the door of the Home Economics room occasional glimpses may be had of a tall, sparkling spruce tree. Already, the fragrances of spruce needles, spicy cookies and mouth-watering candies are beginning to permeat throughout the halls. Now and then a few strains of "Joy to the World" or "Silent Night" are heard by the hard-working students, who are not participants in all of this Christmas festivity.

This joy and gaiety cannot last for long, however, as exams begin next Monday. Perhaps the students are using the parties to try and forget this fact, for a while at least. There may be some consolation in the fact, though, that with the completion of these exams, there are only two more sets to study for, and more than a third of the school year is finished.

MIGRAINES—THE BIG HEADACHE

In The Star Weekly December 12 issue, feature writer George Bryant tells us that with the growth of civilization there has been a sharp increase in the number of victims of tension headaches. A clinic in the Bronx, making striking advances in the treatment with physcherapy and drugs, attributes the major cause to emotional stresses. George Bryant's exclusive article, "Migraines are the Big Headache," may give you the caution you need.

Folk School Held at Mountain Home

Agriculture should head—to full production for the domestic market. The two-price system was explained, with a special reference to the recent sale of cheese to Britain.

Mr. McClelland, acting chief engineer of the Dept. of Mines and Technical Surveys, brought two films, "A Mile Below the Wheat," and "Science At Your Service," to illustrate his talk on what is going on in the development of Canada's natural resources. With a geological map to show where minerals are located in Canada, Mr. McClelland pointed out that the production of minerals in this country is second only to agriculture, and had increased twenty times in the last fifty years. The present value of mineral output is $1,278 millions annually. He also pointed out that for every man engaged in mining, ten other people are kept busy. Every province was mentioned as producing one or more of at least twenty-five minerals listed by Mr. McClelland. Some of these minerals are produced in large quantities—others, such as cobalt, on which jet engines are dependent, are often by-products of the smelting of other metals.

From this stimulating vision of our Canadian heritage, Mr. Wm. Cameron, Reeve of Mountain Township, brought the school back to local problems. Among the subjects he discussed were, assessment, administration of justice, Children's Aid, and roads. Mr. Cameron explained that the burden of expense for criminal trials, under our present system of administration, is borne by the county in which the crime is committed, often entailing great expense to a district not in any way connected with the participants in the crime. Another subject raised by Mr. Cameron was the problem of high urban wages versus low farm income. There are too many abandoned farms in the United Counties. The younger people are leaving for city jobs, and the average age of the remaining farmers is estimated to be 61 years.

In the evening, Mr. Montgrain, of the Building Products Division of the Aluminum Company of Canada Ltd., showed an excellent film on the new aluminum development in Kitimat, B. C., and once again made those present realize that Canadian planners and engineers are capable of handling problems as large as any known to-day. In his discussion on aluminum, Mr. Montgrain pointed out that alumina is one of the commonest of elements and could be produced from common clay. At present it is found more economical to bring bauxite, the richest known source of alumina, from Jamaica and British Guiana to Canada for processing, where Canadian engineering skill has been able to produce, at a relatively low cost, the necessary quantities of electric power from our abundant water supply. Another interesting point stressed by Mr. Montgrain was the work being done by the Aluminum Co. to aid in the agricultural development of Jamaica and British Guiana.

The evening's relaxation took the form of four skits put on with only a few minutes to prepare them. The dramatic results showed an unusual degree of talent and caused a great deal of merriment.

On Sunday afternoon a discussion on "Religion in the Family Life of Canada To-day" brought out diverse opinions. Some thought that the increase in material well-being had lessened the sense of dependence on God, while others felt that any apparent decrease in church attendance was due to the loss of those who had used the church for purely social reasons. The statement that religion is a negative force caused considerable discussion. The general concensus of opinion was that, in spite of a diversity of religious beliefs in the world and of denominational practices in Canada, the acceptance of a belief in God is still of vital importance to the growth of individual and family life.

A discussion on "Modern Trends in Education," centred around the question of whether education should prepare students to earn a living or to learn to live.

After supper on Sunday evening Mr. Clare Burt once again opened the eyes of all present to the miracles of modern construction when he showed a series of slides on the new tunnel being built at Niagara Falls to divert more water for the manufacture of electric power.

During the evaluation period it was generally agreed that the Folk School had achieved its purpose of teaching us what is going on in our country today. Thanks were expressed to all who helped achieve the success of the school, with an special thank-you going to Mr. and Mrs. Allen whose home had proved ideal, and hospitality unbounded.

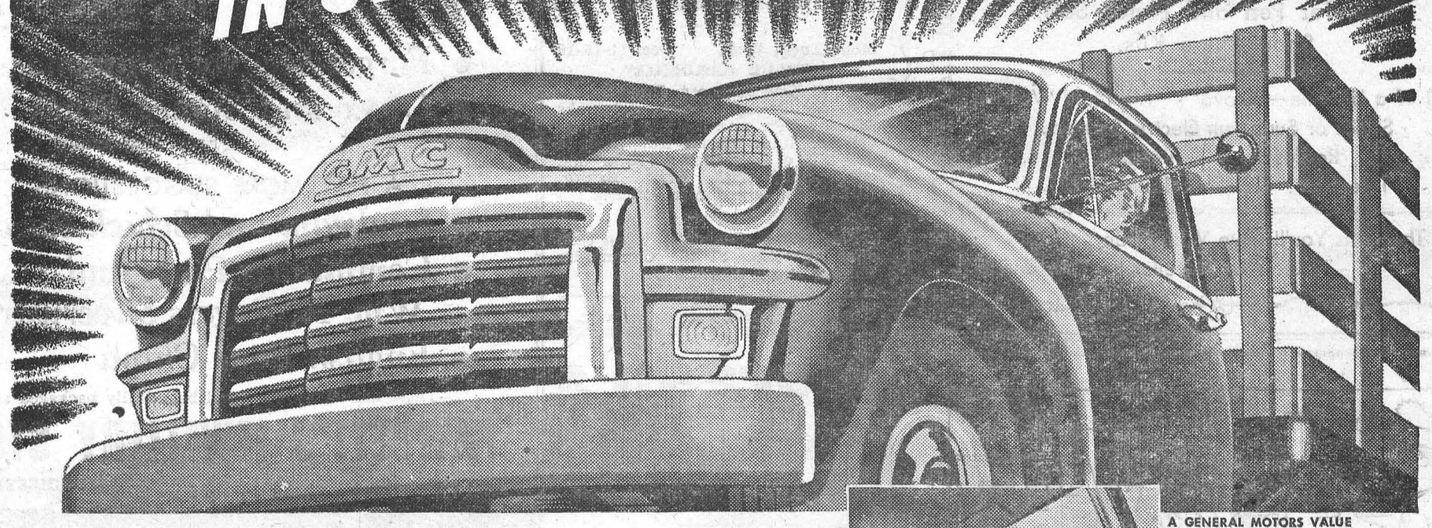
READY TO GO!

NEW 1954 GMC

WITH OVER 70 NEW FEATURES!

IN OVER 50 NEW MODELS!



Yes, the new GMC is ready to go—ready to bring you new heights in pulling power, carrying power, and staying power. It's handsomer too with its massive redesigned front end, new headlight spacing and driver-planned cabs.

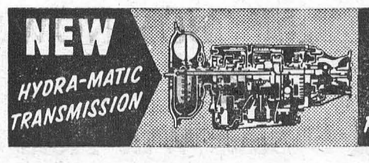
But this year the GMC story is truly a power story. In over 50 models you can choose from the widest range of engines, transmissions and axles on the market. From this brilliant range of power units you can get the exact combination to haul your specific loads with the highest efficiency.

And though new efficient power is a big feature it is just one of the many which makes GMC outstanding. There's over 70 new features in all—and every last one is designed to give higher performance, greater profit, greater comfort and convenience. Nothing has been overlooked in the forward march to bring you a truck that's filled with power, that's built to take the heaviest loads over the roughest going and come back for more. Ask your dealer to explain the brilliant, new advances that can be yours in 1954. You'll see immediately how they'll mean great new benefits to you in your business. Then choose the one model in 50 that's exactly right for your requirements and be ready to go for more profits in any trucking job.

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

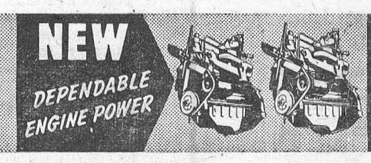
NEW CAB COMFORT

These all-new cabs offer greater comfort, vision and convenience than ever before . . . plus a new high in appearance. They have such features as one piece "Panoramic" windshield, redesigned instrument panels with soft light gauges, and beautiful two tone interiors. In addition, as optional equipment there are Cab Rear Corner Windows and Shade-Lite Glass. These and many more features put GMC cabs far ahead in '54.



Here's the feature you've been waiting for. The 9300 and 9400 series now have a new Hydra-Matic transmission which eliminates clutch and gear shifting. It also selects the right gear for any load and any condition.

Now you can carry sand or grain loose in the pick-up box with no leakage. And the boxes are deeper this year, giving a lower loading height. Even the tailgate is stronger with new safety catch that eliminates rattles.



You get a wide choice of GMC engines. And all are of the valve-in-head design which has won fame over the years. The Thriftmaster and Loadmaster engines have been increased from 108 to 112 horsepower.

With this amazing optional feature, the driver floats over bumps with no harsh jouncing. And for extra comfort, the seat is fully adjustable so the driver can select the best driving position.

BEER STORE ROBBERY SUSPECTS BEING HELD AT CORNWALL

Three Toronto men are being held in connection with the Beer Store robbery and assault of two attendants and a customer, last Friday night at Morrisburg.

Arrested Sunday, after two of the young men had asked for lodging in the Kingston Jail Saturday night, are Charles Edwin Caprenter, 20, Donald James Low, 17, and Robert E. Payne, 26, all of Toronto. Carpenter was arrested at Gananoque after all three had posed as transients.

The three men entered the Morrisburg Retail Store just before closing time last Friday night, took the day's receipts of over $230, and another $365 from Manager William Prime and Clerk Ted Smith. They fled after slugging two of the attendants and Harry Tindal, a customer in the store at the time of the robbery.

The three men are in Cornwall Jail awaiting formal arraignment this week.

GERMAN IMMIGRANT INJURED WHEN CAR STRIKES TREE

Alfred Siewert, 36, who came to this country from Germany only four months ago, was seriously injured on Sunday when his 1938 model car left the road, plunged over a culvert and struck a tree. The accident occurred on Sunday afternoon near the home of Willard Baker, three miles north-east of Winchester. He is employed by Mr. Stewart Fisher, of Metcalfe.

Mr. Siewert was discovered in a semi-conscious condition by Willard Baker, and taken to the District Memorial Hospital after being given first aid by Dr. W. M. Byers. Because of the seriousness of his injuries, he was later removed to the Ottawa Civic Hospital by Vice & Craig Ambulance.

WHITE MOUSE BECOMES PET, SMOTHERED BY PILLOW

Catching mice isn't exactly the pastime of Beverley Jackson, South Mountain. But when the little creatures are mostly white, trimmed with grey and black, a further inspection is necessary.

Six weeks ago Beverley Jackson saw a mouse of the above description wandering across one of his fields. He caught it (he didn't say how) and since that time had kept it alive in a box at his home, where the mouse had become quite a pet. Towards the last the mouse would eat from the master's hand, and had a particular yen for the flavour of raisins, not to mention cheese.

A few days ago the tame little white and grey mouse got out. Mrs. Jackson tried to catch it, and like most members of the fairer sex, hesitated to pick up the harmless little fellow—in her bare hands. Instead, she grabbed a cushion and plummeted it down atop the little pet. When the pillow was lifted, there lay the mouse—dead. It apparently had died from asphyxiation while under the pillow.

Funeral service was held day before yesterday from the old cheese box to the back forty where interment was made.
