Danny Cassell returns to claim the 1995 Anniversary crown

by Michael Bailey
Chieftain Staff Reporter

After winning eight tubie races, the all time tubie champ, "THE KING OF THE RIVER" Danny (Dutchie) Cassell, will be returning to the race of all races.

Winning four consecutive tubie races from 1980 to 1983, the Morrisburg Legend has his craft and crew ready for the 25th Anniversary.

And this year's race should be one to remember!

For the first four years of the great tubie race, a different team took the tubie championship.

Gary Hess and Gord Dillabough were the first to wear the crown, and in year two of the tubie championship, Bill and Ted Jarvis went on to win the gold.

In 1973 Fred Veley and Ron McLean sailed to victory at the beach in Morrisburg and in 1974, Dutchie made his first appearance in the winner's circle.

Veley and McLean returned to the race with a vengeance in '75 and in doing so, went on to create tubie history, winning an unprecedented three tubie crowns in a row.

In '78 and '79, Steve Casselman and Bill Dillabough paddled to the finish line first, but their chances of a three-peat ended with the return of Dutchie to the winner's circle.

Dutchie, back in the race with a new partner, Doug Hodgson, won in 1980, and went on to add another three consecutive wins, '81, '82, and '83, boosting the tubie consecutive win record to four in a row.

In '84 Lindsay Powell and Colin Campbell stopped Cassell and his crew from making it five in a row, but Dutchie was back in '85 for his "WE FIVE KINGS" victory.

Once again, in '86, Cassell and the "TUBIE BABIES" returned to the winner's circle, for Dutchie, his seventh win.

In 1987, Kevin Whitteker and company surprised the competition with a decisive win, but in '88, Cassell returned for his eighth and final victory.

Along with 1989 came Sean Boulerice and the Black boys to defeat the "KING OF THE RIVER", but Sean's win was not the beginning of a dynasty.

In 1990 Steve Cruickshank and crew captured the gold and went on to win the race in '91 and '92, only the second team in tubie history to complete three wins in a row.

Boulerice and the Black boys returned as champs in '93 and '94, giving themselves three wins, but to enter the annuals of history, and become immortalized in tubie folklore, they need to win in '95.

"Dutchie" returns for Anniversary

With eight Tubie Crowns to carry around, Danny "Dutchie" Cassell, has returned for the Silver Anniversary of the Tubie Race. Defending Champs, Sean Boulerice along with Donald and David Black aren't worried, but only time will tell who will win in '95. Chieftain photo by S.L. Baldwin.

Tubie or not Tubie that is the question

by Sean Delman
Chieftain Staff Reporter

In 1975 the 5th anniversary of Tubie weekend was held in Morrisburg, as usual, and according to the papers of that year it went over quite well. Now, most of the Tubie dances are usually held on Saturday night, although in 1975 it was held on a Friday night at the Morrisburg arena.

Those who attended were entertained by the George Watson Orchestra and were treated to a free smorgasbord. It was an evening that people wouldn't forget.

On Saturday, Tubies were paraded through the village, displaying all the craft that would be in the race the following day. The route went from the Morrisburg dock, down Meikle, and 5th Street, through the shopping centre, to finish at the arena.

Judges looked for the most original Tubie and this was guaranteed to be the most comical event.

On Sunday, the big race was on from Mariatown Bay to Morrisburg Beach Speedway. Trophies were awarded for the junior champ and the Powder Puff Race, as well as for Mr. Tube Champ of 1975. One race included all categories.

That evening, at 8:00 pm., wrestling was at the Morrisburg arena with the terror of the mat being a match between Tarzan 'The Boot' Tyler and Edward Carpenter.. a 5 bout match up!

TUBIE TRIVIA ANSWERS

1. Gary Hess and Gord Dillabough. 2. Allan Black. 3. Dutchie Cassell.

20th Anniversary

In 1990 as the 20th anniversary of Tubie weekend came in, spirits were high. The weekend kicked off with an amazing display of fireworks. Allan Black and John Schenk bubbled over with "Tubie Fever!" As the weekend drew nearer the fever became worse!

There was something for every age group: entertainment was ongoing for the young and the young at heart. As August 3rd was marked on everyone's calendar they hoped for the weather to hold out, but sure enough the weather changed. Those who competed did so in less than desirable weather. Drizzle and downpour cast a shadow over that year's tubie affair, as those daring souls again pitted themselves against others in race from Mariatown Bay to the Morrisburg Beach.

The St. Lawrence let its mighty presence be known, as waters were grey and white-capped, and let's just say a bit cooler. No complaints were reported, even with the bad weather, testifying to the true sport of the event. The success proves that there really is a disease called 'Tubie Fever' and that everyone welcomes the symptoms with open arms...community spirit and a little craziness.

Boulerice and the Black's, defending Tubie Champs will have lots of competition in '95

"Blades of Steel" Casselman, just a stroke or two away from winning in '91.

McGregor could be back?

With a great deal of tubie veterans returning for the 25th Anniversary of the race, Reeve Gord McGregor announced he could possibly be making a return.

In 1972, Gord and partner Ken Felker entered the race and did not win. "Over the years I've finally perfected my craft, all I need now is a crew," said the Reeve.

Gord would not confirm whether or not he will race, but he did warn, "If I'm in, I'm in to win!"

Businesses asked to sign up

by Michael Bailey
Chieftain Staff Reporter

All area businesses are being asked to sign up and enter a float in the 25th Anniversary Tubie Parade.

For the first time in the history of the race, the Morrisburg and District Chamber of Commerce, has taken over the parade organization, and businesses have been asked to participate.

"We're welcoming commercial floats this year and we'd like as many as possible," said Linda Bowers, President of the Chamber of Commerce.

With all of the hype surrounding this year's 25th Anniversary edition of the race, organizers have anticipated a record number of crafts and marching bands have already been signed for the parade.

Once again the Waddington Fire Department will be making the route, as well as many different old fashioned cars.

"The way it looks now," added Linda, "It could be the largest parade in tubie history."

Groups entering floats in the parade should keep in mind the tubie theme for this year, "Tubie 25 Forever".

All float entries are to show up at Waterfront Park early this year and the judging will be done by Mart Prost, Lyle Van Allen, Robert Melesky and Michael Bailey, at 1 p.m.

"We'll be looking at how well the floats conform to this year's theme as well as originality," said Melesky.

A little different from tubie parades of the past, this year projectile's will not be tolerated.

Over the years many forms of projectile water bombs were tolerated and expected to fly from the crafts on parade.

In recent years the spectators have used garden hoses, water canons and flying potatoes in retaliation.

Sadly, organizers have decided that there will be a zero tolerance order for any water (or potatoes) ejected, projected or otherwise released from any parade float or participant.

Crafts caught launching projectiles will be disqualified from the race.

Spectators will be expected to refrain from spraying and or dousing as well.

See You All At The Parade!

Three time Tubie champ, Sean Boulerice won't comment!

by Michael Bailey
Chieftain Staff Reporter

Sean Boulerice has won the coveted tubie trophy three times, once in 1989, and for the last two years.

Along with co-captains, Donald and David Black, Sean has predicted his wins in previous years, but this year, would not!

"We'll put it in the water, but I'm not going to say we'll win," said Sean.

With this being the silver anniversary year of the race, everyone and their second cousin has been taking about entering a craft, and Sean knows just how tough the race can be.

"With all of the people in the race (this year) the main thing is going to be navigation. Getting out of the bay... Anything can happen."

With rumours that the King of the River, eight time tubie champ Dutchie Cassell, is returning to the race, fear has begun to set in for some tubie teams.

Not Boulerice!

"Dutchie's the least of our worries," commented Sean.

In fact, Sean seemed more concerned with Rick Groves, Tim Hunt, Allan Black and the Swerdfeger group.

"They (Brian Swerdfeger) had a good lead on us last year, until their tubie sank and we blew by them," recalled Boulerice.

"And as far as I know, Allan Black is going to be a serious contender this year!"

One of the reasons Sean won't predict a three-peat in '95, is that some of his team members from Toronto won't be in town until this Friday evening.

"This year we won't even get a practice run in," said Sean.

According to Boulerice, he and his crew have been channelling their efforts towards winning the parade.

The last two years that Sean and team have won, they've spent upwards of 200 hours building their craft and practising, "This year we've spent about 155 working on the craft for the parade."

Steve Cruickshank has three Tubie Crowns and will be looking for a fourth!

It's Tubie time!

by Michael Bailey
Chieftain Staff Reporter

Welcome to Morrisburg and a 25 year tradition.

Tubie Weekend has been "THE" annual event in Morrisburg for quite some time. An old home week of sorts, families travel from miles around to take in the tubie race and this year's 25th Anniversary is one you won't want to miss!

It's the aroma of freshly barbecued chicken wafting from the grills at the Lions Club's annual barbecue, the parade of 100's circling the village, the music and bright lights of the dance Saturday night, and the "Main Event", the "Tubie Race" itself.

"What's a tubie," you ask?

It is a water craft designed and constructed to be raced along the waters of the mighty St. Lawrence River from Mariatown to Morrisburg on the Sunday of the Civic Holiday Weekend in August.

However, this brief description does not entail the true spirit, or even come close to describing what a tubie really is...

Teams of tubie enthusiast begin (often early in June), meeting secretly in garages inside and outside of town, brainstorming to put together the ultimate tubie craft.

For the most part, a wooden frame is built from scratch, and innertubes from vehicle tires are filled with air and attached to the bottom of the craft.

Again, most of the entrants in the race rely on paddle power, however, craft designs utilizing old bicycles revamped to elaborate paddle wheel systems complete with rudders, have been popular additions to races past.

Building a tubie craft however, is only half the fun!

All entrants to the great race must take part in the Tubie Parade.

Beginning at 2 p.m. on the Saturday before the race, the parade leaves the Waterfront Park and travels through the streets of Morrisburg to the Mall and then back to the Waterfront Park.

One mega party all weekend long, there is something for everyone and if you've never experienced Tubie Weekend, then this silver anniversary is the year to check it out!

In the "Hunt" for Tubie gold, Tim and his fearless group will be back in '95

Brinston Queen sank

by Michael Bailey
Chieftain Staff Reporter

Although it's held in Morrisburg, Tubie Weekend is somewhat of an area event.

Tubie Teams travel from across Ontario to participate, but it is the local flavour that makes it such a memorable time.

In 1986, a year that saw Danny Cassell's Playpen entry, The Jigger's entry of Misty Whiskey and Frank Hummell's Starship Enterprise, high hopes for winning the tubie hardware were put on The Brinston Queen.

The Ault entry from Brinston was the pride of the community. Even today, oldtimers remark on what could have been.

Designed from scratch, The Brinston Queen and her fearless crew embarked on a mission to include the small community just north of Iroquois, in the annals of tubie history.

Hoping for a huge win, no one aboard could have foreseen the disaster that would claim The Brinston Queen.

"I wasn't on it," remembered one of the oldtimers as he sat at the Brinston General Store Round Table, "But I remember seeing it."

According to the oldtimer, the craft almost made it around the point at Mariatown before it went down in the murky waters of the mighty St. Lawrence, never to be seen again.

"All I really remember is an explosion and lots of rubber," he said.

Apparently, rumour has it that The Brinston Queen II, a remake of the famed model, might be returning to the race.

THE VILLAGE OF MORRISBURG

Morrisburg's premier event is Tubie weekend

by Michael Bailey
Chieftain Staff Reporter

Tubie Weekend in Morrisburg draws between 12,000 and 15,000 people, making it, the Village's premier event of the summer.

Five years ago, the organization of the weekend was taken over by the local Junior B Hockey Club and the one time two day event has been transformed into a weekend of fun for the whole family.

"We see this as a family weekend first," said one of the organizers, Mike Waddell. "We look at this as an opportunity for everyone to promote themselves and the village."

For years, the under 19 crowd was more or less left out of the evening entertainment festivities, but for the last few years, the Lions Hockey Club has held a non alcoholic dance on the Friday evening.

"The first year we started the non alcoholic dance, we had a British rock band," recalled Mike. "In the past, we've had some local talent (Theatre of Soul) and a D.J."

Trying something new this year, the Lions have hired Much Music for a Video Dance Party.

"From everything we've heard and seen, Much Music do an excellent job and they cater to all age groups."

Over the last four years, the Friday night party at the arena has been considered a teen dance, but Mr. Waddell pointed out that it is open to everyone.

"It's not just for the teens," said Mike, "Much Music has a wide selection of music and videos, from country to rock, and they'll play whatever you request."

This year's Tubie Parade on Saturday promises to be the biggest and best ever.

Because the weekend has grown in size over the last few years, the Lions asked the local Chamber of Commerce to take over the parade.

"We expect to have 20 to 25 race entrants and a number of commercial entries in the parade as well," commented Mike.

Plus, all of the usual parade entries have signed up.

Saturday night, the Tubie Dance kicks off in the arena with "The Clichez's" and if you want to get a seat, get there early.

Following the big race on Sunday, the Lions will be hosting an afternoon of country music at the ball diamonds.

"We started the outdoor concerts on Sunday afternoon four years ago and they've become quite popular," said Mike.

Unfortunately this year the local Lions Club will not be holding a barbecue, but Mike noted that there would be food served.

"We're trying to find a group to hold a barbecue, but even if we don't, there will be food served."

This weekend in Morrisburg will undoubtedly be one to remember, so come out and have a good time.

"That's what it's all about," finished Mike.
