Snow fun at Matilda

MATILDA — A forecast for rain later this week has Cindy Peters a bit worried.

But so far, everything has been great for the 20th anniversary of the Matilda Winter Carnival, says Peters, this year's chairperson — tons of snow, tons of people.

"It's been excellent. We had a really big crowd at the (carnival queen) pageant Saturday and 250 to 300 people at the brunch Sunday," she says, adding Sunday's Winter Family Fun day, with activities such as skating and games was also popular.

"It was snowing and blowing a bit but it was still nice out."

The carnival kicked off with the crowning of its queen Saturday night. Out of the seven contestants that entered, Jo-Anne Laroque, 18, was picked to preside over the week of events. The runner-up was Sherri Shaver, 16, while Tracy Lewis won Miss Congeniality. The other contestants included Vivian DeAlmeida, Vicki Zandbergen, Mandie Lafaver and Vicki Markell.

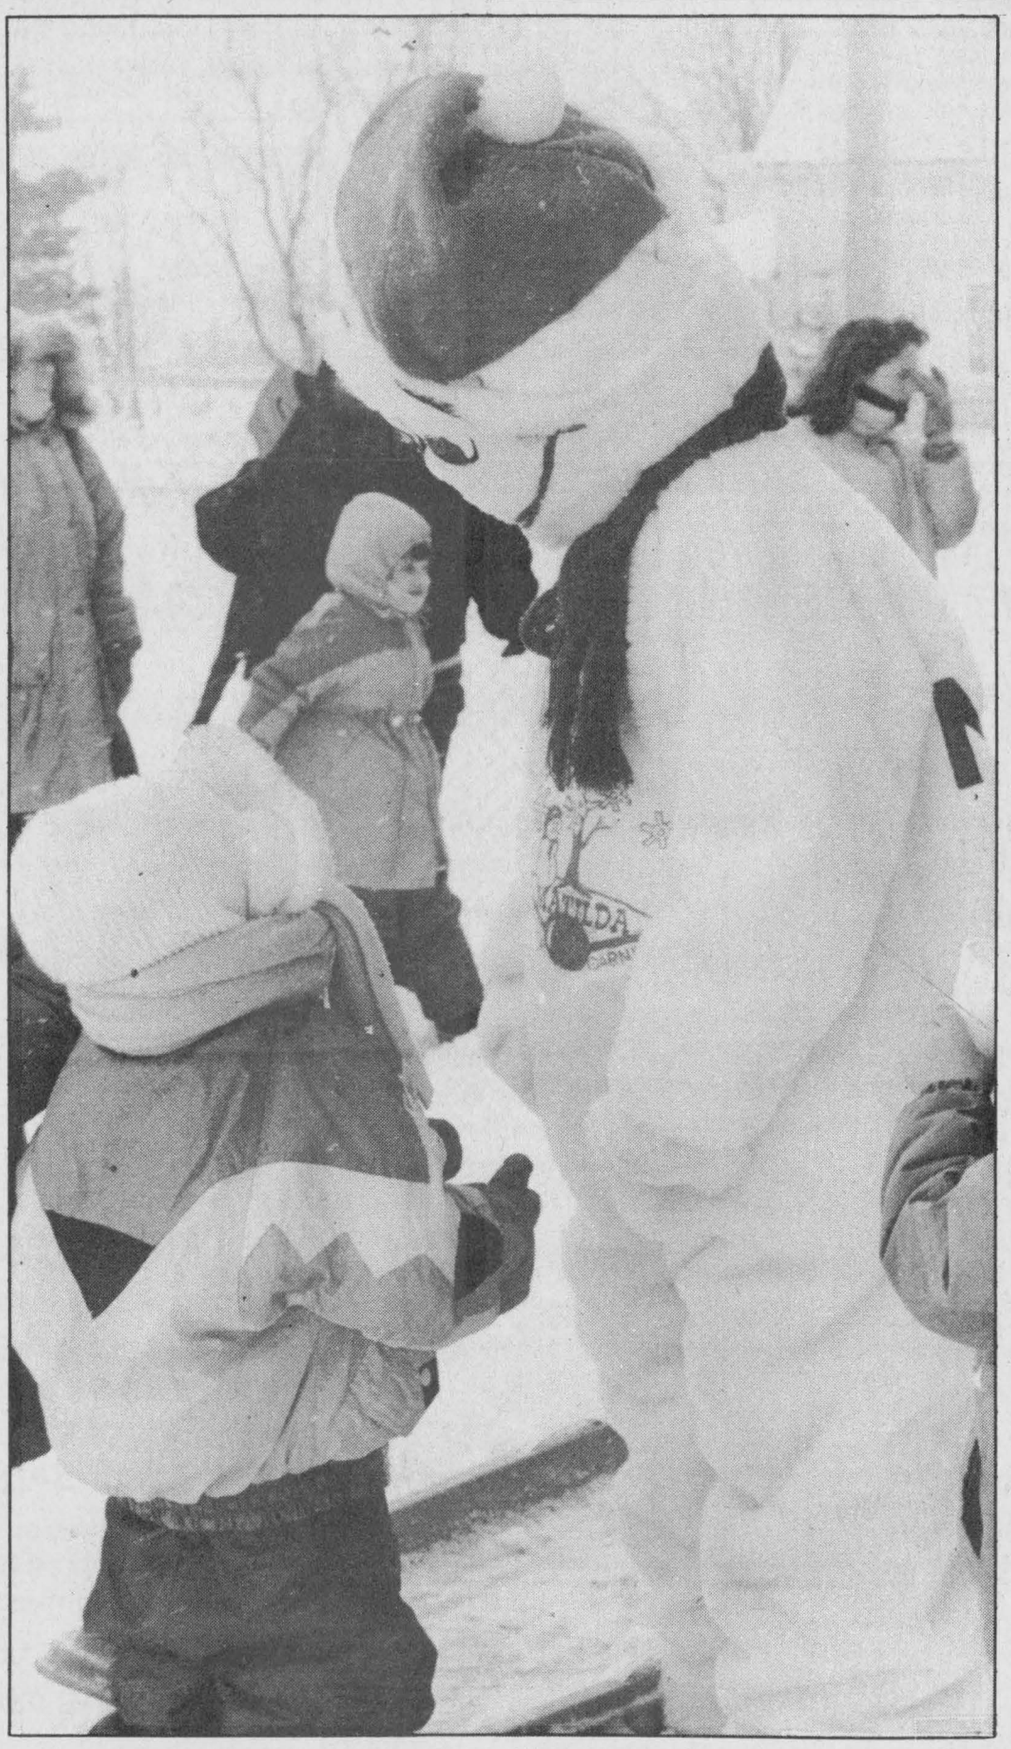

To celebrate the carnival's anniversary, 14 of the past carnival queens were honored with flowers at the pageant and each gave a brief explanation of what they were currently doing.

A Citizen of the Year award was presented to resident Ken Kirby, who's career in the field of jounalism included founding the Iroquois Chieftain.

Festivities continue today at Matilda Community Hall with an afternoon social and fashion show from 1:30pm to 3:30pm. Bingo with a $1,000 jackpot is scheduled for Thursday at 6pm. Youth will have a chance to dance Friday with a pre-teen dance from 6pm to 8:30pm and a teen dance from 9pm to 12pm.

A full slate of events are lined up for Saturday, starting with the Dr. Tom Maxwell Memorial Car and Snowmobile Rally. Registration is at 11am. From 2pm to 6pm, Mary Perry and Grenville County Country will entertain. A dinner will be held from 4pm to 6pm. The band Leaving Kentucky will play for a dance starting at 8pm until 1am.

The carnival will close Sunday with a family sleigh ride and weiner roast at 1pm to 3:30pm, a hymn sing at 7pm and an ecumenical church service at 7:30pm.

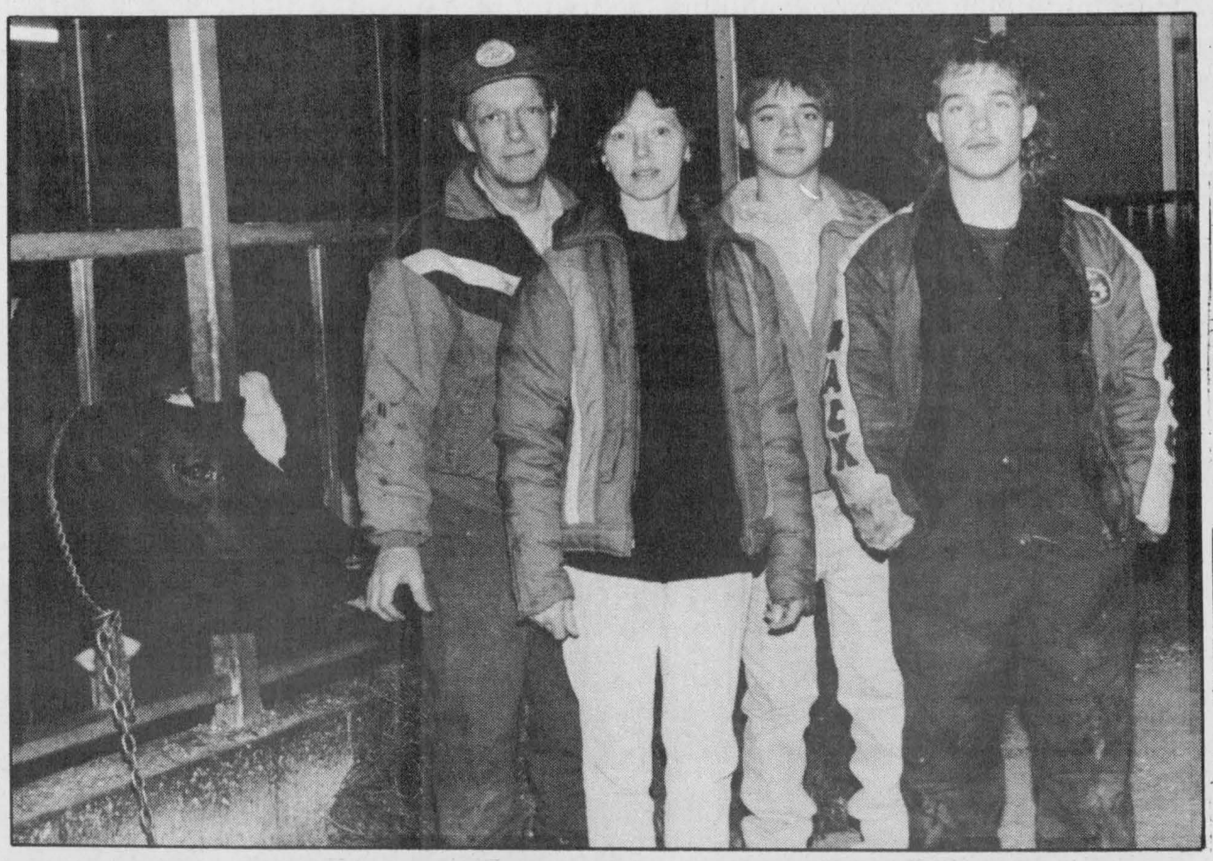

Carnival capers

Visitors welcomed

The Sears family of South Mountain welcomed visitors to an open house at their farm on Saturday to view their new free-stall barn and milking parlor. The family pictured left to right are: Carl, Marie, Shaun and Dave. Curtis was absent at the time of the photo; and pictured below, right: Dave demonstrates how to work the computerized milk metering system.

Family finds labor savings significant

SOUTH MOUNTAIN — The Sears family of Pleasant Valley Road outside of South Mountain showcased their new free-stall barn and milking parlor on the weekend.

Carl and Marie Sears and their three sons, Dave, Curtis and Shaun welcomed visitors to view the new structure at an open house, Saturday.

The Sears family currently has about 110 head of Holsteins at Wintergreen Farms, with approximately 60 cows milking. Up until recently, the family milked about 40 cows in their older tie- stall barn.

Carl says they decided to go with the free-stall and parlor system as a labor-saving measure. Since completion of the new barn earlier in the fall, he claims they save about three hours a day in barn work.

As well, Carl says he finds the milking parlor easier on the legs. With cows situated at eye level during milking, there is no bending to put on the milkers, he explained.

Construction on the 98 by 90-foot barn began May 1st and was completed in September. The parlor was finished about a month later. The free-stall area houses 124 stalls and was designed with a mow upstairs with room to store 8,000 bales. While Carl says a lot of free-stall barns are left open to the rafters, he wanted to make use of the area for hay storage. Building a mow above the free-stall area didn't increase the price of the structure and it gives much-needed space to store hay, he said.

As well, with hay chutes situated directly above the mangers, the mow makes it convenient to throw hay down to the cows. A TMR cart is wheeled around to provide the remainder of feed for the cattle.

For ventilation, inlets for air circulation were installed on the roof. Also the barn walls are lined with a row of fans.

With the slated floors, liquid manure runs to the south end of the barn where it is pumped into a pit. For comfort, mats filled with chopped rubber were installed in the stalls.

The adjoining milking parlor is a Boumatic Xpressway double six parallel with computerized milk metering. When a cow comes into the parlor for milking, the operator punches her leg band identification number into the computer to display her production information.

The barn was constructed by Roebuck Enterprises of Spencerville. Also working on the project were: Dundas Agri-Systems Inc. of Brinston; Glen Robinson and Sons, Chesterville (plumbing); Design Concrete Systems Ltd., Seaforth; Quintan Products Inc., Winchester; Frank Ault Excavating Ltd., Brinston; Plante Electric, Brinston; Harold Row and Sons Ltd. Ventilation Systems; Sieling Equipment, South Mountain; and Maynard Coons, South Mountain.

While the Sears family was used to the tie stall system in the old barn they say they like their new free-stall/parlor system.

Farmers' Week events cover agricultural spectrum

Dianne Fetterly
Agricultural editor

KEMPTVILLE — Farmers' Week and Trade Fair kicks off next week offering something for every type of farming operation.

Set for Jan. 20-28 at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology, the event provides information and exhibits on financial matters, ecology, goats, marketing, beef, dairy, lifestyles, crops, pork, sheep and market gardens.

Program co-ordinator John Madill of Kemptville College says organizers are looking forward to another good week again this year.

"Last year (the event) attracted about 1,200 and we're hoping for even more this year," said Madill.

The onlymajor change to this year's program is the addition of Marketing Day hosted by AMEO, he added.

Opening day, Friday (Jan. 20) is Money Matters/Computer Expo Day. Accountant Eric McAuley will give a farm tax update at 10am while computer specialist Luc Brunet will discuss what's new in computers at 11am. A review of farm insurance will take place at 11:30am.

After lunch, OMAFRA business management advisor, John MacDonald and accountant Kevin Box will discuss the $100,000 Capital Gains election. Registration fee is $15 including lunch.

Saturday (Jan. 21) is Ecological Day and Innovations in Agriculture. At 10:10am Ken McMullen will discuss new visions for agriculture and at 11am Hubert Earl will discuss reducing costs with rotational grazing. A panel discussion at 11:30am will look at marketing challenges.

Following lunch, two concurrent workshops will be held: one on rotational grazing and another on market gardening. Registration is $15.

Goat Day is also set for Jan. 21 in the Parish Building. At 10am keynote speakers Anita O'Brian of OMAFRA will discuss the goat industry, while Dr. Paula Menzies of University of Guelph will talk about the goat health survey.

At 1:30pm visitors have a choice of two workshops: one on commercial goat dairy operations and another on goat nutrition. At 2:45pm two more workshops take place on milking by machine and goat husbandry practices. Registration for Goat Day is $10 per person. Lunch is $6.75.

Marketing Day is Monday (Jan. 23). At 10:10am the Farm Fresh Marketing Association will tell how it can help the producer. As well, Women and Rural Economic Development will be featured at 10:40am. The Rural Loan Pool will be discussed at 10:55am. An AMEO update and plan for the future will be held at 11:10am.

After lunch, the program continues with consumer demographics and trends; the retail/wholesale food buyer; and marketing to restaurants. Cost is $12 and includes lunch.

Beef evening is also Monday beginning at 7:30pm. Bob Carson of Wiarton will discuss your calf to carcass — what's to be learned; and OMAFRA beef and dairy advisor Brian Bell will discuss forages in the beef industry. Cost for the evening is $5.

The always-popular Dairy Day is Tues., Jan 24. Things get under way at 10am with practical ways to reduce feed costs by dairy cattle advisor Beth Wheeler. At 11am nutrition consultant Dr. Brian Perkins will discuss how to manage heifers for maximum profit.

At 1:15 Tuesday, University of Guelph professor, Dr. George Brinkman will discuss what makes a top manager. And at 2:15 a panel discussion on making more money on the farm is scheduled. Panel moderator will be Dundas County Ag rep Phyllis MacMaster. Registration for the day is $20, including lunch.

Accent on Living is slated for Wednesday (Jan. 25). The day kicks off with a fashion show featuring the work of Klaske Boersma of Russell and Carolyn Dey of Karaoke Designs in Morewood. A guide to growing heritage gardens will be presented by Diana Beresford- Kroeger at 10:35am.

Concurrent sessions on dried flower arranging, therapeutic journal and window treatments will be featured after lunch. Cost is $12 and includes lunch; $6 without lunch.

Crops Day is scheduled for Thurs., Jan. 26. KCAT lecturer John Madill will outline the college's soybean research at 10am, while Albert Tenuta of Ridgetown College of Agricultural Technology will discuss soybean diseases at 10:20am. Bill Woodley of Shur- Gain will tell how to maintain top forage quality from field to feed and at 11:30am Kerry Coleman of the MNR will discuss the Ontario Wetlands Policy.

Once again, the afternoon will feature concurrent sessions. At 1:30pm participants have a choice between monitoring forage quality or pre-harvest Roundup application; soil compaction or on-the-go yield monitoring at 2pm; annual grass control in cereals or canola production at 2:30pm. At 3pm Denis Rodet of Dupont will give an Ultim update. Cost for Crop Day, including lunch is $12.

Friday (Jan. 27) is Pork Day. At 10am Dr. Jim Morris of Ridgetown College will talk about keeping viable and competitive via research, followed by swine specialist Richard Smelski discussing the future of the pork industry.

At 1pm, OPPMB director Don Winslow talks about reinventing the pork industry to excel in the 21st century. At 2pm, swine advisor Christian Grothe discusses segregating early weaners — the concept; while agricultural engineer Yves Choiniere discusses nursery design. Cost for the day is $10 per person or $15 per couple, including lunch.

Things wrap up Sat., Jan. 28 with Sheep Day and Farmers' Market Day.

Farmers' Market Day gets under way at 9:30am in the F.J. Parish Building. The morning session includes an introduction to markets, customer relations and product presentation. A number of group sessions on everything from advertising and promotion to extending the growing season will be presented in the afternoon. Cost is $20.

Sheep Day is slated for the W.B. George Centre, Sat., Jan. 28. At 10am participants discuss carcass breakdown and at 11:15am pasture improvement is on the agenda. The Ontario Lamb Improvement Breeding Strategies will also be addressed during the morning session.

After lunch, a panel discussion on feeding systems will be held. The latest in rotational fencing will also be discussed. Cost for sheep day is $12.

Programs for Farmers' Week are organized by individual commodity groups and co-ordinated by the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology.

New Ault milk on shelves, temporary injunction denied

Dianne Fetterly
Agricultural editor

WINCHESTER — Earlier this week, Ault Foods Ltd., launched Lactantia PurFiltre milk in area stores.

Despite opposition from Beatrice Foods Inc., who tried to obtain a temporary court injunction to delay the milk's release, PurFiltre milk was on store shelves, Monday. In a decision made by the Ontario Court (General Division), Beatrice Foods Inc., was unsuccessful in its attempt to obtain the injunction.

Beatrice applied for the temporary injunction against Ault Foods Ltd. maintaining that Ault's claims about bacteria would cause loss of consumer confidence in the safety and value of Beatrice and other milk brands.

"We are pleased that the launch of Lactantia PurFiltre was not impeded by this action. Ault Foods is very committed to creating innovative and high quality dairy products for Canadian consumers," said Graham Freeman, president and CEO of Ault Foods.

Lactantia PurFiltre milk is a pure milk that tastes fresh and stays fresher longer, without the addition of preservatives. The milk has a shelf life of about 30 days.

"It's a marvelous product... very consumer-friendly," said Jim Cullinane, general manager of Ault Foods, Winchester.

Andy's Food Town employee Sue Thorne (right) shows customer Joan Donaldson a carton of the new Lactantia PurFiltre milk which was available in stores Monday.

Press Photo — Fetterly

The PurFiltre process is based on new technology. By passing milk through an extremely fine filter, impurities in milk are removed prior to pasteurization, while all nutrients, such as protein, vitamins and calcium remain. Nutrients are not affected because nutrient molecules are much smaller than bacteria and flow through the filtering system.

Lactantia PurFiltre milk is identified by a farm scene depicted on the package and is available in homogenized, two per cent, one per cent and skim and in both cartons and bags.

In Memoriam

SMITH — In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Edward, who passed away Jan. 14, 1994.
Though his smile is gone forever
And his hand we cannot touch,
Still, we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much,
His memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part,
God has him in His keeping,
We have him in our hearts.
— Sadly remembered and forever loved, Dora, our children and grandchildren 41

McROBERTS — In memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Harry, who passed away Jan. 9, 1994.
As it dawns one year
God made a husband so loving and kind
And I had the honor of calling him mine.
The tears I shed will wipe away
But the ache in my heart will always stay.
To a beautiful life came a sudden end.
— We who love you, sadly missed you, wife Verna and the Family
41

MERKLEY — In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother, Leila, who passed away Jan. 15, 1989.
This day is remembered
And quietly kept.
No words are needed,
We shall never forget.
— Sadly missed, Lloyd and Family
41

SHAW — In loving memory of our dear mother, Helen, who passed away Jan. 10, 1994 and our father, Ralph, who passed away Jan. 3, 1988.
Time changes many things,
But not our cherished memories of you.
— James and Louise Shaw and Family and
Mary and Nick Zrymiak and Family
41

SMITH — Edward, Jan. 14, 1994.
People come and people go
This is something that we all know
Though you've been gone only a year
It seems to us so much longer
We hold your memories very near
In hopes that your love will make us stronger
With your memories we'll never part
You'll always be very close to our hearts.
— As written by his granddaughter, Cindy.

Village of Winchester Water Supply Expansion
Class Environmental Assessment Project
(O.C.W.A. Project No. 41-0379-02)

The Village of Winchester is in the process of completing a Class Environmental Assessment, Schedule C, regarding proposed expansion of the village's water supply.

A preliminary findings report was prepared in August, 1992 and a public information open house was held September 15, 1992. The outcome of the studies and the open house public consultation was a conclusion that the preferred alternative solution to the village's water supply shortage problem would be to construct a well or wells in the coarse gravel portion of the Morewood Esker aquifer formation, which is located to the northeast of the village in the Township of Winchester. A pipeline to the village would be required. The study also addressed the inadequacy of the village's water storage tank and concluded that additional elevated or underground storage tank capacity is required.

As a necessary step in completing the Class Environmental Assessment for this project, the village has obtained an option to purchase a six-acre parcel of land for a proposed well site located on Lot 15, Concession IX in the Township of Winchester.

The village's consultants have constructed a test well on this property and carried out a thirty-day pumping test at a rate of approximately 2,100 cubic metres per day (325 Imperial gallons per minute). The favorable results of the test indicate a well or wells at this location can provide a solution to the village's water supply shortfall over the next twenty years.

A Public Information
OPEN HOUSE
will be held Thursday, January 19, 1995
from 3:00 to 5:30pm and from 7:00 to 9:30pm in the Village of Winchester Municipal Building to update members of the public and interested review agencies on the progress of the water supply expansion project and to present the findings of the well pumping test. At this open house, written comments from the public will be solicited which will be addressed and incorporated into the study.

MDHS alumni plans for 25-year reunion

MOUNTAIN — Plans are continuing for the reunion of the former students, staff and friends of Mountain District High School which closed its doors in South Mountain 25 years ago.

Enthusiasm runs high, according to organizers, with those involved believing it will be a well attended event.

A general meeting was held on Dec. 8 at which time the agenda and format were confirmed. July 7-9 is the date for the reunion and the festivities are to be centred at the fairgrounds in South Mountain.

This is geared to be a reunion also of former students of North Mountain Consolidated and South Mountain Continuation Schools.

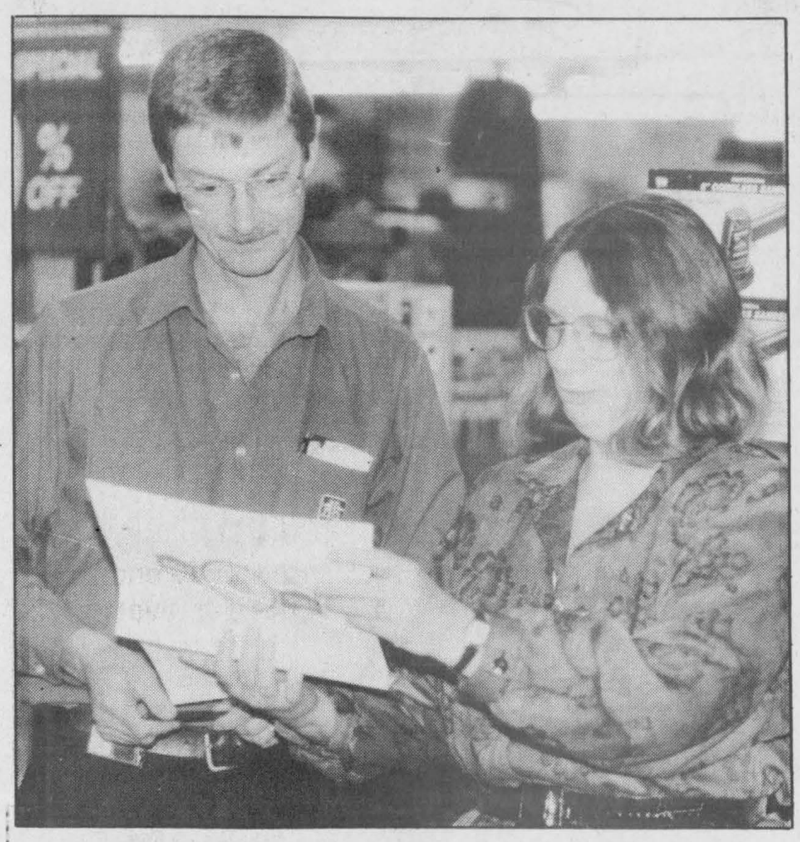

Bob Weagant and Richard Gilmer were nominated as co-chairmen of the event, Barb Stewart chosen as treasurer and Lin Murdock volunteered to be secretary. Several committees were structured and the contact committee called its first meeting for the following Sunday.

A list of former students does exist and several hours were spent reviewing the names with hopes to contact each person in the weeks to come. The committee needs the help of the residents of the area to inform relatives and friends who have an interest in the reunion.

There is lots of work to do between now and July. The chairmen invite anyone who is interested to come to the next meeting Feb. 10 at the ag hall in South Mountain.

A meeting is scheduled for the second Tuesday of each month till July: Come out, be part of it!

For further information, call Bob at 613-989-2823 or Richard at 613-989-5397.

Anniversary calendars

David Begg, left, of Geggie's Home Hardware in Winchester, accepts a commemorative calendar from Margaret Hendriks of the Eastern Ontario Health Unit. The free calendars, marking the health unit's 60th anniversary in 1995, are available exclusively at participating local Home Hardware stores.

New service for seniors

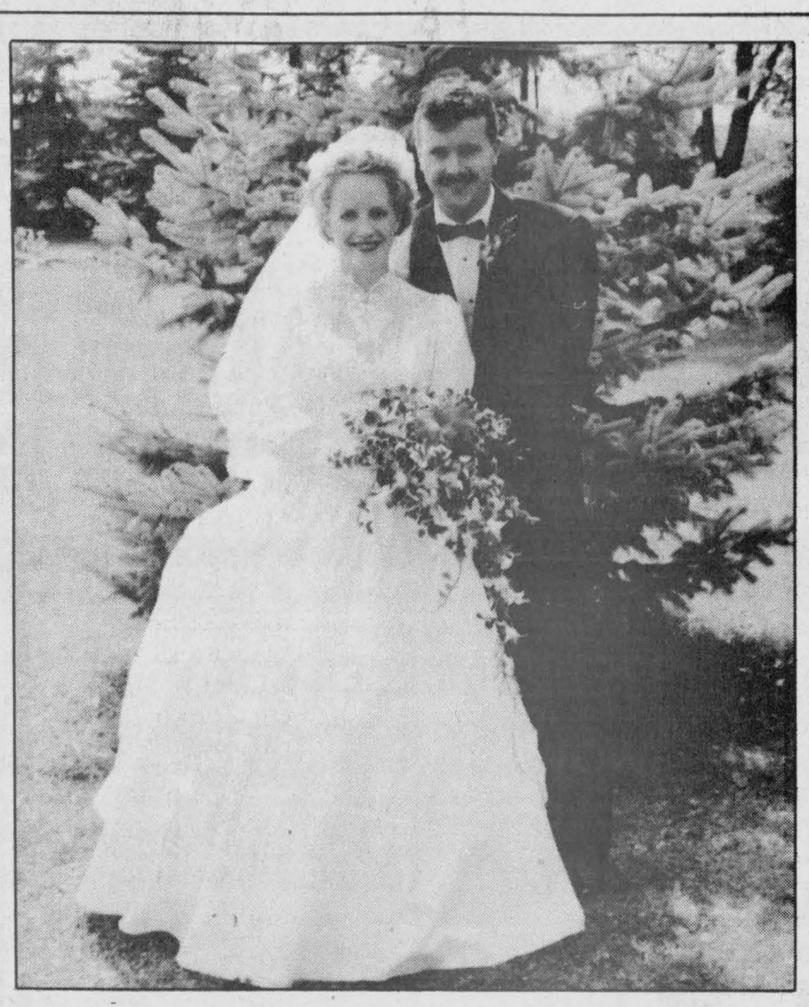

WILLIAMSBURG — Winter is here. Senior citizens may find it difficult to complete minor repair jobs around the house this time of year. They may not be sure who to call for help with small repair jobs.

This year Park Lane Seniors' Support Centre and Nor-Dun Seniors' Support Centre are offering a home maintenance program to assist the older adult and adults with disabilities. Through the "Section 25 Program" with the Canada Employment Centre, and the Three United Counties, Henry Lalonde has been hired to complete repair jobs in Dundas County.

Mr. Lalonde has just completed an Energy Efficiency Tune-up course. He has carpentry experience and his own tools available. He can paint a room, repair a porch, attach hand rails in bathrooms, etc. No job is too small.

There is no cost for the labor, but clients are required to purchase the necessary supplies and material. A donation to the seniors' centre is also appreciated.

Any senior citizen or disabled adult in Dundas County can contact Nancy Gibson at 774-6109 or Janet Levere at 535-2924.

DeVries — Devries

Rick and Tanya DeVries were united in marriage on Sept. 16, 1994 at Community Christian Reformed Church, Dixons Corners. Rick is the son of Frank and Edith DeVries, South Mountain, and Tanya is the daughter of Herman and Mary Devries, Toyes Hill. Rick and Tanya now reside in Ottawa.

Thank You

We the family of the late Tracy Robinson wish to express our sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks to family, friends and acquaintances for the many acts of kindness bestowed upon us.

First to the person who stopped right after the accident and covered Tracy with a blanket and talked to her. The Winchester Fire Department and jaws of life. Both land and air ambulances. All the medical professionals who gave their all to Tracy's health care at Winchester Memorial and Ottawa General. We are so very fortunate to have such health care facilities so close to home.

The outpouring of sympathy from Chesterville, Winchester and surrounding area has been overwhelming. To all people who sent food to our homes, the beautiful floral tributes, memorial donations and visitation to Daniels' Funeral Home.

Sincere appreciation to Jim & Mona Daniels for their professional and personal advice. We know it was difficult for all six pallbearers who were either business associates or close friends of Tracy's. To Sharon Adams and the choir for their comforting music. The lovely luncheon after the funeral prepared and served by the United Church Women was greatly appreciated.

Last but not least to Reverend Roy Harwood for all his prayers and advice. His three day vigil at Ottawa General was very comforting to us.

Special thanks to all our employees and their families for taking care of business.
