THE LAST OF THE SWIMMERS AT THE ISLAND PARK—There were more than 300 swimmers taking lessons this summer and hundreds more enjoyed the beach facilities, but outlasting them all are the royal swans who still float around the chilly waters of the lake.

Armed robbery took place at Curry Hill Drive-In on weekend

An armed hold-up took place at the Curry Hill Drive-In theatre near the Quebec border early Monday morning and the robber made off with $669.

Alex Metcalfe, owner of the drive-in, and his brother Frank who was visiting here from Winnipeg were in the concession booth at 1:37 a.m. when they were accosted by a man with a stocking mask over his face who had entered through the rear door. He was armed with a pistol.

The money was handed over without argument and the man left in a car, travelling north on the Curry Hill sideroad.

Police found the car which had been abandoned after it crashed into the ditch on the sideroad. It had been stolen in Valleyfield.

To attend convention

The annual convention for the Ontario Association Rural Municipalities is being held in Cornwall starting this weekend. Members of Alexandria Town Council will be in attendance.

J. Liboiron died

Joseph Liboiron, well known proprietor of Lancaster Motors died on Monday following a heart attack. The funeral is being held today to St. Raphael's Church with service at 10:30 a.m.

Dates set

The Alexandria Richelieu Carnival will be held from January 31st to February 7th next winter.

There will be the usual run of events,—the crowning of the queen, dances for youth and adults, bingo, Las Vegas night, wine cellar, winter games and draw for $1,000.

Official opening of Outreach held Friday

"This Outreach office is unique in Canada because if is the only one on top of a police station," stated Richard Hickerson, of Cornwall, Special Projects Officer of Canada Manpower and Immigration, at the official opening ceremonies held here on Friday.

Mr. Hickerson went on to explain that "Outreach", a program devised by Canada Manpower only three years ago, was to service areas deprived of the benefits of the Ministry offices by reason of distance or cultural differences. "If a man has no job and no car and there is no bus service between here and Cornwall or his nearest office, this is his first obstacle in applying for work."

The Human Resource Centre is meant to work in a different way than the big Manpower offices; the atmosphere is much less formal and there is less red tape involved. The staff have more time to counsel applicants and try to fit them into jobs in the community. If there is no work here, the counsellors will try to upgrade workers or train them for work which is in demand in another area. There is all sorts of government assistance, for example, to move families if necessary, but some of the people who need this help are not aware of it. It is the job of the centre to co-operate with local agencies and employers to try to help these people find a worthwhile place in society.

All the benefits of Canada Manpower can be obtained through this office for those who cannot reach the main offices in the larger centres.

"This is an example of what volunteers can do," stated Chief Sylvio Cleroux, chairman of the Inter-Agency group who worked to bring the Outreach office to Alexandria.

"The $100 donation just received from Lochiel Township will help buy office furniture," announced Mrs. Prudence Malcomson of the Outreach committee, "and we are trying to get full mileage out of every dollar we have to work with."

Eugene Bergeron, another of the Outreach committee members was confident the project would be worthwhile and felt the staff was well suited to the job.

Mayor Massie thought the project would be a big asset to the Woman killed and two injured in crash north of Summerstown

One woman is dead and two people seriously injured following a crash that occurred on Tuesday at 5:25 p.m. at the junction of the South Branch and Summerstown Station Roads.

Mrs. Evelyn Beauvais, 33, died shortly after the accident and her 11-month-old baby is seriously injured. Additional details were not available at press time.

Driver of the other car, William MacMillan, 65, of Apple Hill is in serious condition in Ottawa Civic Hospital suffering from injuries to the head, shoulder and ribs.

Both cars were a complete loss.

Mrs Hay died at 88

An aged and well respected resident of the Lochiel area, Mrs. Thomas Hay died in Smith Clinic, Hawkesbury, on Saturday, October 11th. Aged 88, she had been in fairly good health but suffered a broken hip in a fall a few weeks ago and failed to recover.

Mrs. Hay was the former Christina Ross, the daughter of the late George Ross and his wife, Jane McDougall. She married Thomas Hay on November 3rd, 1915 and they lived their lifetime at Lochiel. He predeceased her in 1968.

She is survived by seven sons and four daughters: Alex, Edwin, Hubert, Kay, Thomas and George in the Lochiel area, Lance of Sylvan Lake, Alberta; Gertrude, Mrs. George Colvrais, California; Lillian, Mrs. Donald MacDonald, and Iris, Mrs. John Hugh Morrison, both of McCrimmon and Miss Jean Hay of Montreal.

The funeral was held on Tuesday, October 14th, to the Church on the Hill, Alexandria, where Rev. Lloyd Davies officiated at the service.

Pallbearers were Edwin MacDonald, Hugh John Kennedy, Lawrence Cameron, Pat Hammill, D. J. MacPhee and Carman MacMillan.

Six contestants at plow match

Only six contestants took part in the annual Glengarry Plowing Match held Wednesday, Oct. 8 on the farm of W. G. MacLeod and Son, Dominionville.

Howard Greer of North Gower, judged the plowing in four classes. Winners were:

2-furrow, open to 4-H boys or girls—Phyllis Colbran.

Class 5—Donald Vallance

3-furrow, tractor plows, open—Campbell MacLeod, Maxville; Richard Burton, Apple Hill; Donald Besner, Maxville.

Tractor plows, 4 or more furrows—James Vallance.

Winners of special prizes were:

Phyllis Colbran, best plowed ridge, best ins and outs.

Donald Vallance, best plowed ridge in junior class, Eaton trophy for best plowed land by a junior.

Campbell MacLeod—best plowed ridge by new competitor, best crown, best ridge.

Winners of grease guns were Donald Besner and Richard Burton. Donald Vallance won a case of grease.

A S MacDonald died in Ottawa

A native of North Lancaster who had resided in Ottawa over the past 30 years, Archibald S. Macdonald died at Riverside Hospital in Ottawa, Friday, Oct. 10th. Aged 68, he had been in hospital for two weeks prior to his death.

Archibald Stewart Macdonald was the son of Archie John Macdonald, Liberal Member of Parliament from Glengarry for several terms in the 30's, and his wife, Elizabeth MacDonald of North Lancaster. He had been associated with his father in the store business there and later was interested in the flax business during World War II. Since removing to Ottawa some 30 years ago he had been with the Post Office department until his retirement.

To mourn he leaves his wife, the former Evelyn Whyte of Lancaster and a sister, Dorothy, Mrs. Emmett Lyons of Toronto.

The funeral was held at 10 a.m. Monday at the Church of the Resurrection of Our Lord in Ottawa.

Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery at Lancaster, where many family friends were in attendance.

Area man accident victim

William Ewing, McCrimmon East, suffered a crushed chest and punctured lung in a two-car crash Saturday on Highway 17 near Carleton Place. Lothar Petkus, 43, of Vankleek Hill, driver of the car in which Mr. Ewing was a passenger, suffered leg fractures and other injuries. Both are undergoing treatment in Ottawa Civic Hospital.

The driver of the second car, Denis Levesque, 18, of Gatineau, Que., was pronounced dead on arrival at hospital.

Police said the victim lost control of his car around 5:10 p.m. Saturday, east of the bridge crossing the Mississippi River. His car veered into the eastbound lane.

Tough luck with trucks

Extensive damage was sustained by a 1975 dump truck belonging to I. M. Imbeault of Alexandria when it left the road and upset on Highway 34 just north of the Fourth of Kenyon last Thursday.

The owner who was driving the vehicle reported a tire blew on the left hand side and the front wheel locked against the frame, tilting the truck as it proceeded southward down the hill.

The driver was uninjured but the truck had about $3,000 damage. It had about 3,000 miles on it.

The previous day another truck with 8,000 miles registered was a complete loss when struck by a train in Alexandria.

Earlier in the summer another truck belonging to Mr. Imbeault was a complete write-off in a collision.

Youth lost life in train-truck crash

A young man lost his life tragically last Wednesday, when the truck he was driving was struck by a CNR passenger train at the Alexandria crossing at 2:25 p.m. The victim was taken to Glengarry Memorial Hospital, then to the Ottawa Civic where death ensued at 10:10 p.m.

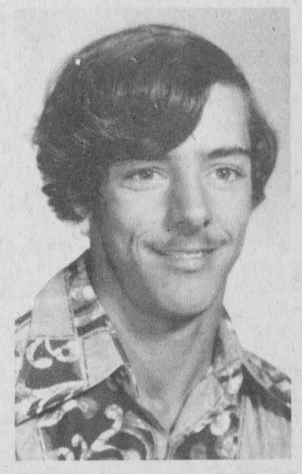
Dead is Sylvain Wathier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herve Wathier of McCormick Road. He was 19 on August 18th. Born in St. Isidore, he came here with his parents about nine years ago.

Driving a gravel truck owned by I. M. Imbeault of Alexandria, the young driver was proceeding north on Highway 34. According to a witness, the truck had come to a halt on the first rail of the crossing, then started and appeared to have stalled directly in the path of the oncoming passenger train which was travelling west.

The truck was struck directly behind the cab. The chassis landed 98 feet down the track, the box was carried another 420 feet west on the north side of the track and the rear wheels of the truck landed opposite on the south side. The victim was thrown out and landed on the north set of tracks between the rails.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by three brothers and one sister: Serge, RR 1, Alexandria and Daniel, Pierre and Colette, at home.

The funeral was held to Sacred



SYLVAIN WATHIER

Heart Church on Monday where the mass was offered by Rev. Lionel Joyal.

Pallbearers were: Alain, Yvon and Norman Wathier, Gaetan Lalonde, Alain and Marc Leblanc.

Burial was in St. Isidore Cemetery.

Meeting at GDHS to elect parents for school committee

A meeting will be held at Glengarry District High School on Wednesday, October 22nd for the organization of a parent committee.

Eight parents will be elected to form the parent committee,—two each from the townships of Lancaster, Kenyon and Lochiel and two from the Town of Alexandria. They will be nominated from the floor and elections will be held if necessary.

Four teachers to be elected by the teachers and four students to be elected by the students will form the remainder of the school committee. The principal will act as a resource person.

The aims and objectives of the committee are:

To encourage and develop more public participation in school planning and activities on an advisory basis; to expand some avenues of communication between the various sectors within the educational community, and to facilitate endeavors to that end; to expand and maintain communications between the Board and the general public.

The primary function of School Committees shall be: to develop ideas; to foster insights; and to put forth suggestions and requests which may be related to the programs of the school, and its other extra-curricula activities.

The School Committee may recommend programs or approaches to learning or organizations. This does not include the discussion to implement courses of studies or programs except through the office of the principal, however, School Committees may examine major curriculum change before Board approval.

Escaped injury truck rolled

Ronnie McCarthy, 19, of Alexandria suffered a broken arm in an accident last Friday at 4:45 p.m. when the truck he was driving went out of control, left the road and rolled over on County Road 20, a half mile north of Maxville.

A passenger in the truck, Houde St. Denis of Alexandria escaped with cuts and bruises.

The furniture truck owned by J. Clement Furniture of Alexandria was a complete loss.

Mr. McCarthy was taken to Glengarry Memorial Hospital, then to Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, where he was released on Tuesday following surgery.

TAKING THEIR MINDS OFF WATERGATE—Taking part in the U.S. bicentennial celebrations in Washington from October 13th to 26th are these local dancers who are currently entertaining there with instructor Mrs. Rae MacCulloch. They are also accompanied by Pipers John MacKenzie of Maxville and Don MacMillan from Finch. Seated in front is Brenda Kippen and standing is Lori MacGregor. On stairs from left to right: Patsy Campbell, Sally Laplante, Brenda Denovan, Marilyn MacMillan, Deborah MacCulloch and Janice MacKenzie. Missing from picture is Mary McDonell.

Have you met any converts to Christianity lately? I do not mean "paper christians" nor Sunday Christians, but authentic advocates.

I want to tell you the story of Bruce McLaren, a former student of mine, who visited us last weekend. These visits by former students are one of the intangible positives of teaching.

Bruce, the son of a minister, found that he was never able to make the Bible as he says "come alive" for him as it did for his parents. In addition, he was forced to attend church where he noticed many phoney Christians. In late adolescence when youth is sifting through adult values and its own in the process of maturity, Bruce said, "I just couldn't put life together; I had even contemplated suicide—there seemed to be no point to my existence."

Bruce left home, went west to Alberta to work as a cowboy on several ranches . . . something many Glengarrians did in an earlier time as a natural part of demonstrating adulthood and independence. Other adolescents years ago went to sea; both of these options are almost gone in our contemporary superspecialized society as routes to maturity for restless youths.

Out west Bruce worked hard, but he also had an opportunity to be on his own and to be alone most of the time. A closeness to nature taught him a love of animals, something every farmer has.

The details of his experiences out west are interesting, and humourous at times, but let me tell you of some of the things he did after his return home. Bruce got a job and began to live the hectic life of North American youth; late nights, drinking, girls, dancing, and cars. Bruce, however, pushed things to the extreme; handcuffs, arrest, jail became part of his life.

Bruce then says a change came about, a traumatic change. As he introspected, he discovered that everything he did centred on alcohol. No one in his group could do anything without a drink. Looking at the situation objectively, he decided such motivations for behaviour was silly, stupid, crazy.

At some point soon after that realization, he began to read the Bible and that's when "everything came together" Bruce said. His former friends (he no longer drank so he was out of that circle) accused him of being too good for them, of being a "Jesus freak". Bruce, however, sums up his feeling as "a warmth in my heart that is a love for God and fellow man".

Without any concern for time, Bruce had played his guitar as we all sat around the fireplace, we had sung children's songs, we had sung some old time favorites after the children had been put to bed, we had talked and listened to Bruce's most fascinating story. Suddenly, the night was over, 'twas even too late to rush down to Dunc's Atlantic to hear the Brigadoons.

Bruce, a young man with a purpose, an authentic individual, one who stands out above the crowd. My good wife, who is much more sensitive to reality than I, spotted something unusual about Bruce right away . . . 'twas his sincerity, his commitment, his humanity. I hope you all get the opportunity to meet and talk with such youth.

Duncan Macdonell was showing me some of the gifts he and the Mrs. received on their 25th anniversary. A plane trip to the Briar, silver wine goblets and a bottle of the best. Duncan told me how the Atlantic Liars Club in a very serious, official ceremony presented them with a bottle of Black Velvet. Dunc remarked, "Well I'll open it and we'll drink the thing right now." But when he opened the box 'twas not Black Velvet but . . . Red Ketchup "a bottle of the best". Liars president Archie O'Connor denies any knowledge of the whole affair. One of the mysteries is the whereabouts of the original whiskey which was in the box.

Farmer Donald Angus McCormick was enjoying the Brigadoons last Saturday according to my sources (a good looking blonde).

Rae MacCulloch and her dancers, like the Canada geese have flown south. However, unlike the geese, they will fly home from Washington in two weeks not five months, I hope and so does their new cook and bottlewasher (Sybil Cameron). The dancers will perform in the Kennedy Memorial Centre with its football field foyer (80 ft. ceilings, chandeliers and plush red carpet), the National Theatre, at several Canadian embassy functions and at the opening of a new shopping mall.

The flavor of Glengarry will be broadcast to the nation soon. CBC radio will do a show at eight p.m. some Sunday in October. CTV channel eight will telecast 'Heritage Scots' on October 28th.

Last Sunday at Dalhousie one could have seen a rare sight. 'Twas Sylvester MacDonald on one of his very few nights off from entertaining Glengarrians. And what was he doing? He was entertaining Glengarrians by singing with Brigadoons. A busman's holiday for Lyle McMillan, Jackie Smith and John Job who joined him as well. Good show!

This Saturday you should be off to Alexandria for a Breath of Scotland and thence to yon Bonnie Glen to dance yourself out of breath to Scottish tunes of the Brigadoons.

October 25th Andy Stewart comes to Blessed Sacrament with White Heather.

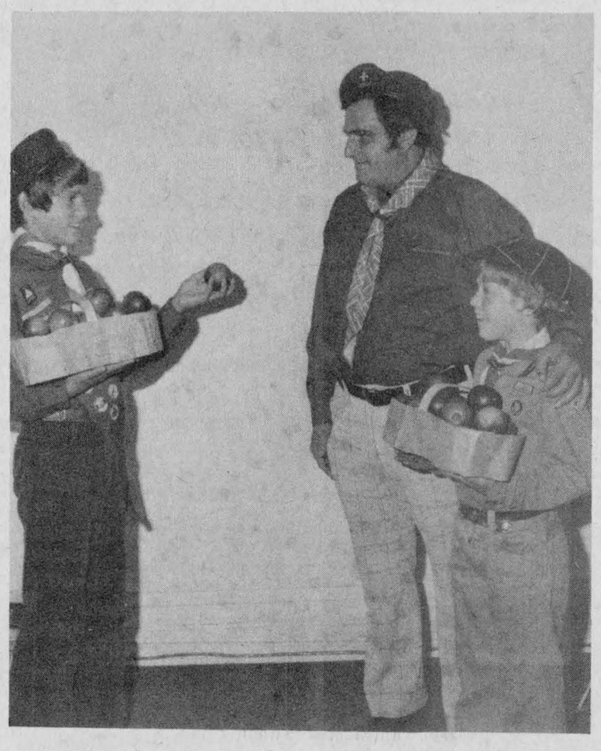
Our own Martintown recreation dance to celebrate St. Andrew's day will be November 21st at yon Bonnie Glen with yon bonnie Brigadoons.

Now who would have thought that farmers would get upset because people used 200 feet of their land when they agreed to use 60 feet, or because they did not replace fences or because they dug six feet ditches? That was a wonderful picture of Martintown's Gordon Ross fishing in the ditch for his other rubber boot.

Rae MacCulloch's classes in country dancing continue Monday, Oct. 20, 8:30 p.m. in Martintown public school gym. This fine lady's other classes carry on as well.

If you want to learn about meat cutting, wrapping and cooking, come to Jim MacGillivary's course at Char-Lan on Thursday nights.

Martintown Mac says prepare for winter by warming someone else's heart, today.



ALL READY TO SELL—The boy scouts have been busy loading their baskets for Apple Day; scout Marc Lanthier left, and cub Neil Cameron show scout leader Claude Lanthier. They will be looking for your support on Saturday.

Native of area died at 95

On Sunday, September 21st, 1975, the death occurred in Bellingham, Washington, of Mrs. Katherine Hanson. The youngest of a family of ten, she was born at Glen Robertson, June 23rd, 1880, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McLeod.

In 1901, she moved to Conway, Washington, and she had been a resident of that state till her death. She married Oscar Hanson, who predeceased her several years ago.

To mourn her loss is one daughter, Hilda, Mrs. Elwood Johnson, and two granddaughters, Evelyn, Mrs. Dale Hill and Jennifer, Mrs. Marvin Eidinger. Several nephews and nieces, on the West Coast; in Glengarry and Montreal, include John K. MacLeod, Kirk Hill, Mrs. D. MacLeod and Norman Stewart, Laggan.

Possessed of a good memory and keen sense of humor, she is fondly remembered by many friends.

A Memorial Service was held on September 25th at Jones Funeral Home, Rev. J. V. Crane presiding. Cremation took place in Greenacres Memorial Park, Bellingham.

Plan clinic day

The Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Medical Secretaries Association is holding a Clinic Day on Saturday, October 18, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 205 Second Street East, Cornwall, registration at 8:30 a.m. Five local physicians in different specialties will speak on various subjects. Lunch will be served and there will be door prizes. All interested persons are welcome.

Apple day October 18th

This Saturday is Apple Day, an important day in the Boy Scout movement. It is one of the ways in which we raise funds to carry out our many Scout programs.

The Cornwall District has over 800 registered Scouts, comprising Beavers, Cubs, Scouts, Rovers and Venturers. The District is enlarging every year in the City of Cornwall as well as the outlying areas of Long Sault, Glen Walter, Ingleside, Maxville, Lancaster, Williamstown and Alexandria.

On behalf of all Scouts and Scouters in the District, the Cornwall District Council would ask the public to support the Scouts.

FIRE DANCE

The Maxville Volunteer Fire Department is planning a dance the middle of November . . . watch for more details later.

CWL STUDY PENANCE

The ladies of St. James Catholic Church held their monthly meeting on Oct. 8th. A film on penance unfortunately did not arrive in time for the meeting and instead a discussion on penance was held, and a Scripture was read on pardon.

Hobbies were displayed. Blocks were donated by a member for a quilt. The quilt is to be raffled at a bazaar on St. Patrick's Day. The meeting ended with prayers for our deceased and sick members of the parish by Father Denis Lefebvre. Coffee was served by Mrs. G. Leduc and Mrs. Edna Rolland.

LIONS HELPING STUDENTS

The guest speaker at the October meeting of the Maxville Lions Club was the District Deputy Governor, Lion Morley R. James. He was introduced by Lion Tony from Carleton Place. November's guest speaker will be Deputy District Governor Lion Peter Swank.

A program of instruction concerning volunteer-resident relationship is being presented on October 21st at 8 p.m., in Maxville Manor Auditorium in lieu of the regular meeting of the auxiliary. There will be a special guest speaker outlining possible programs for volunteers. Volunteers, friends, relatives and any interested persons are all welcome. Refreshments prepared by the residents and staff will be served.

Wrong price

We erred in listing the price of turkeys in last week's advertisement for Leo Lemieux's groceteria. The 45 cents a pound price should have read 85 cents per pound.

Renfrew family entertain at Glengarry fiddlers' concert

A wet, rainy evening deterred none of the Glengarry Old Time Fiddlers usual fans from filling the Maxville Community Hall to enjoy a concert featuring their own talents and Art Jamieson with his Ottawa Valley Ramblers from Renfrew. The fiddlers led off . . . Donald Besner, Allan MacPhail, Cyril MacDonell, Donnie MacLeod, Rene Trottier, Fred Leroux and his son Daniel, Bev MacQueen and Duncan MacDonald, with Ian D. MacLeod, drums, and Ron Clare, piano. Sam MacLeod of Martintown introduced the M.C. for the evening, Fraser Campbell, and reminisced entertainingly about their years together on the school board. Art Jamieson introduced his orchestra . . . the Bohart family . . . Douglas, bass guitar, Garry drums, Earl vocalist, and their father Gordon, violinist, all specialists in easy-to-listen-to country western music.

New to local audiences also was their guest star, Kevin Hickey of Deep River, a step-dancer of impressive speed and style. The familiar Highland dancing followed . . . with Deborah MacCulloch, Lori MacGregor, Patty Campbell and Janice MacKenzie. And a lively piping duet by Lynn Campbell and Beverley Blair, particularly enjoyed by the twenty or so residents of the Maxville Manor who are always welcomed by their friends the Fiddlers. The three Trottier sisters did a brisk and varied step dance, accompanied by their parents and Donnie MacLeod and Bev MacQueen. Allan MacPhail played a lovely old waltz, accompanied by Ron Clare, then there was a novelty item . . . the fiddlers Duncan MacDonald, Donnie MacLeod, and Ron Clare, with "Barren Rocks" and "Road to the Isles" with pipers Bev Blair and Lynn Campbell joining in intermittently in the background.

Art Jamieson, a lively pianist, and Gordon Bohart accompanied Deborah MacCulloch in her step-dance, then the whole group did a novelty "Pat Murphy's Wake". More songs by Earl Bohart, and another great dance by Kevin Hickey. Donald Besner had a violin solo, then Duncan MacDonald, giving the audience a chance to hear members of the fiddlers on their own, instead of always in the group.

The Old Time Fiddlers wound up the show, and Ron Clare expressed their thanks to Fraser Campbell for being such an entertaining M.C. . . . and the seats were cleared for dancing.

Do most Admiral color sets have 100% solid state chassis circuitry to give you reliable performance and consume less power? Naturally.
At the heart of Admiral 26" consoles is the proven "SS1000" M30 Solid State Chassis, delivering 30,000 volts of picture power, to give you brighter color, sharper detail. Yet the power consumption and potentially damaging heat are both far lower than a tubed chassis of just a few years ago. A constant voltage transformer helps "iron out" fluctuations in your power supply that can cause the picture to shrink or flutter annoyingly. "Instant Play" means you have picture and sound the moment you switch on.
20" and 18" portable models have the same ALL SOLID STATE benefits with the "SS1000" M10 Chassis, delivering from 23,000 to 27,500 volts picture power, depending on screen size.

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

A sincere thank you to the many who called with favorable comment ever since the last News issue hit Rue Principal carrying our plea to name the new arena Glengarry Gardens. The calls came from taxpayers and sports fans throughout the Glens, including Alexandria of course.

A Charlottenburgh caller said, "We have no financial interest, however, you are heading a wonderful cause. All Glengarry will agree."

An Alexandria taxpayer and hardly classed a sport fan said, "I read your letter from end to end, in fact twice. Your paragraph relating the founding of Glengarry Gardens by Mr. DaPrato was all news to me. Somewhere somebody committed a serious faux pas. If a poll is taken I hope I am canvassed because I'll certainly vote to restore the original name." Still another prominent Alexandria citizen, on a parking lot, "Congratulations. I have read your letter and rejoice. At last someone is trying to right a wrong to Alex DaPrato and also his associates that should never have happened. I'll vote for bringing back the name Glengarry Gardens and if my late husband (a very distinguished citizen) was alive, he, too, would be 100% behind you."

And again another Alexandria resident who said, "I am ashamed to think that my town was so disrespectful not only to Mr. DaPrato and Mr. Menard but our very fine Alexandria families, the Dr. Dolans, Bob Grahams, the Lemays, the Louis Shepherds and the Lloyd McHughs."

Callers from the townships had similar views. From Laggan, we were told the chief topic of conversation in the Laggan store at one time on Friday was your letter and not one person disagreed. A Lochiel taxpayer just before hanging up said, "If our (Lochiel) representatives on this board don't support an honorable name like Glengarry Gardens, then, you can bet they will hear about it."

Finally, a well known Alexandria taxpayer and noted sportsman had this to say, "I agree with all you have written. I, too, was shocked to see the original name removed. If an honest poll is taken you will win your bet." However, this writer brought out two points we wish to air. First, he thought some people might think I was not in favor of the rink project, and this might hurt the campaign. At no time did I mention the project. So don't put words in either ink or verbal that are not there. Did this writer ever oppose a worthwhile sport project in Glengarry County? I don't have to tell you the answer.

The caller's second point was, "I understand that when the directors sold the arena the name Glengarry Gardens couldn't be used. Lately I stumbled on to some such point." Immediately we checked this matter out with Alex DaPrato. Mr. DaPrato stated to me that at no time was there ever a word mentioned that the name Glengarry Gardens couldn't be used for all time. "Anyone who says differently is only looking for an excuse, a cover up." We then double checked with one of the directors. We told of the remark to us by a caller. "No sir, just never was that mentioned. Why should it be. Look at the City of Cornwall. They didn't change the name of Bob Turner Memorial Centre to obtain grants. Nonsense, all nonsense." "Keep harping, Angus, we are all behind you."

(When leaving, this director told us the whole project is just a grab. If a proper survey was made the present rink would be found o.k. for some time to come.) But that is another issue not to be confused with this one.

Down through the years a few bricks have been tossed at this writer as well as flowers as a result of something we wrote. But never, just never, did we receive so much favorable comment. Thank you again folks.

"PADDY" IS NO MORE

Last Thursday we were among the thinning old guard standing beside the last resting place, in St. Mary's church cemetery, Williamstown, during the burial ritual of one of Glengarry and Canada's all time great hockey players—Dr. James A. "Paddy" Sullivan.

It was our good fortune to have known the likeable Paddy Sullivan, as he was affectionately called, for many years. His hockey career was unique in the era after World War One. He told us once how it all began. As a Williamstown high school student he was a high ranking player down along the Glengarry front and Cornwall.

Brockville were recruiting a strong Ontario Hockey Association team. They were keen on Paddy Sullivan. The club made a deal with Pat's father, Gerry Sullivan. Little money was involved, however he was to obey a strict curfew except on hockey nights. His living expenses to be paid and plus school costs. Getting his senior matriculation that June was a must.

Paddy had both an outstanding hockey season and school year. Thus he has to be the first Glengarry hockey player to graduate from high school on the skill of his hockey stick and pen. But this was only the beginning.

The Bank of Montreal came up with a reasonable paying job and lured Paddy to play with their club in the Bankers League. One season was enough as he didn't see much future as a banker.

Over in Pittsburg promoter Schooley was assembling what turned out to be the famous Yellow Jackets. Schooley recruited the great Roy Worters for goal. The immortal Lionel "Big Train" Connacher on defence and two young wingers from Ottawa, Harold Darragh, a brother of Senator's Jack, and Hib Milks. Like Brockville Schooley travelled to Williamstown seeking Paddy Sullivan to centre his Ottawa star wingers. Schooley found Paddy tougher to deal with than Brockville did Gerry Sullivan. The deal was a complete dental course at the University of Pittsburg plus living allowance plus a hockey salary comparable to the other signed players.

The Yellow Jackets became a great hockey club. Sometime you are visiting the Hockey Hall of Fame, Toronto, you will see their team photo in the picture gallery. Down in the left hand corner is a bushy haired, not unlike Busher Jackson, lightweight and the name beneath the circle is J.A.P. Sullivan.

The Yellow Jackets were one of the first expansion teams in the NHL. But they had to find another centre player because Paddy Sullivan had one more year to graduate in dentistry and become Dr. James Arthur Paddy Sullivan.

More money was to be made in the U.S. pro league than the NHL so Dr. Paddy played for a while with such later NHL stars as Cornwall's "Cy" Denneny, "Ching" Johnson, Nels Stewart, Babe Seibert and Taffy Abel. A Cleveland sports writer once tabbed Cy Denneny and Paddy Sullivan as the "million dollar players".

From his days skating on the Black River and Williamstown rink through high school and university, Paddy Sullivan combined his hockey ability with a keen desire to become a professional off the ice, too. He more than succeeded in the days of paltry hockey salaries. We trust our Glen's university students will always note that you can obtain both sport and academic rewards by self discipline and ambition to earn the sheepskin as Paddy Sullivan did.

It was good to have known Paddy Sullivan.

Glen Robertson wins top trophy in league

The Cinderella team Glen Robertson, defeated the first place championship Lochiel team (winners of the "Cosy Inn Trophy") 13 to 0 on Sunday, to take the series in two games. They win the "Paul Roy Florist Trophy" as the Glengarry Touch Football League play-off champions.

A lot of credit must go to their playing coach and quarterback Theo Oetelaar. He molded this team with players who did not have very much football experience.

Their success began with their victory over Alexandria in the last regular season game to get the third and final play-off position. They then defeated North Lancaster in the semi-finals and finished with their victory over Lochiel, who had lost only three games all season.

Glen Robertson will now go on to play Almonte in the Canadian play downs on Nov. 2nd in Almonte.

In Sunday's game Glen Robertson got two touchdowns in the first quarter on passing plays from Theo Oetelaar to Daniel Lalonde and Rene Leduc plus a convert by Maurice Gagne; to take a 13 to 0 lead. There was no further scoring as both defenses took over control of the game. It meant that Glen Robertson had shutout Lochiel for six consecutive quarters. The trophy presentations and dance will be held on Friday, Nov. 28th at the Green Valley Pavilion.

The league directors wish to thank the staff at the Glengarry News for the excellent coverage they gave us throughout the season.

CCVS Raiders won decisively over Gaels

by Angus H. McDonell

Cornwall Collegiate just steam-rollered for about one quarter, time wise, over Gaels last Friday in Cornwall 31-0. Raiders maintained their undefeated league lead. Cornwall Vanier Vikings, who have played one game less than CCVS, also are undefeated and in second place by virtue of their 34-6 win over their fellow townsmen, St. Lawrence Saints. Char-Lan are tied for third place with Tagwi, who had a bye, as the Williamstown students waffled, to quote former CFL coach Jim Trimble, La Citadelle Patriots 31-9 on the Char-Lan gridiron.

This writer has been a football buff ever since Alexandria-born Jim McCaffrey took over Ottawa Rough Riders in 1923, just 52 years ago. After all those football games our GDHS Gaels we find very perplexing.

Two weeks ago Gaels held a 2-0 lead over Vikings until a bit less than 10 minutes to go. Vikings, about centre field, had to gamble on third down and six to go to keep their drive alive. Right there they should have been stopped and this would have been Gaels' ball game. But Vikings moved the sticks by the length of the ball and the flood gates opened. Gaels lost 15-2, after controlling the game for at least 50 minutes.

Last Friday CCVS rolled almost the length of the field in their first sequence of plays. Not unusual in any league. Raiders were fired up. Cheering students three deep circling the field. Their school band playing. Their ground gaining drive was capped by Glenn Dick when he bulled his way through Gaels' line for a td. Norman Lee converted. The score, so quickly, 7-0. But again as so often happens the visiting defense jells, as Gaels did. During the next 20 minutes GDHS stood toe to toe and chin to chin with the Golden Raiders not yielding a yard of turf. Finally Gaels seemed to be gaining the upper hand as they sacked an end sweep run well behind the scrimmage line. But a flag was thrown. Instead of forcing CCVS to punt and receive in good field position, a silly piling on penalty was called and here we go again. The tight game is turned right around with two majors in a few minutes. One by Glenn Dick and the other by Garry MacDonald. Norman Lee, the China clipper, was good on both converts. With the first half minute flag waving, coach Stan Fraser sent in the ailing Johnny Charlebois. CCVS were alert. They double teamed Gaels' great scoring threat but he didn't have a chance as the ball was overthrown. First half over, CCVS 21, Gaels 0. And all the scoring in about five minutes or slightly more.

In the last half the defense again was reasonably sound. One td by Garry MacDonald was due to a Gael pass defender committing the cardinal sin of trying to intercept instead of batting the ball away. The convert was on target and then the same booter, Norman Lee, who is another J. T. Hay, kicked a field goal to raise the count to 31-0. That field goal by Raiders we thought was fine sportsmanship. It was third down and short yardage and obviously they could have picked it up through a tiring Gael defense and likely another major. But the bench signal was a field goal. We recall a game in Hamilton some years ago when Ticats were pummelling Riders in a similar fashion. Same circumstance. But Hamilton bucked for the yardage and on to a td. After the game coach Frank Clair said, "You didn't have to stone us". In apropros to that CCVS coaches Bill Metcalf and Don Kannon take a bow.

Tagwi are in our town tomorrow (Friday) and the Warriors are going to be tough because a CCVS and Viking defeat just might provide Tagwi and Char-Lan with a play-off shot. Gaels at home should be equally as tough so this could be one of the school highlight games of the season.

In Williamstown, Rick Forrester's offensive troops had too much artillery for La Citadelle as they shelled the Patriots 31-9. Jean Gagne set the Char-Lan winning pace with two td's. Ian Sandilands and Danny Brunet each scored a major and Randy Larocque was good on three of the four convert tries. Larocque added two singles via hefty booting and a safety two-pointer adds up to 31 Char-Lan points.

Reggie Pelletier carried over the Char-Lan goal line for Patriots only td that he also converted. Pelletier added two singles to make the final score Char-Lan 31, La Citadelle 9.

On Thursday, Tagwi spent their bye date in Hawkesbury where the Warriors scalped the Hawks 43-0. Coach Don Bond rested his star quarterback, Brian Kinnear, who graduates in '76 and gave young Brian Wensink a chance to do some signal calling.

Glens start practice this week first game in Maxville on 24th

by Gerry Simpson

Alexandria Jr. Glens had hoped to start their training camp on Tuesday night but due to minor repairs on the ice plant at the Maxville Arena the Glens will not get underway until tonight (Thursday at 8:00 p.m.). Arena manager Reikus Wensink and staff have been working overtime getting the arena in ship-shape.

Most of the boys trying out for the Glens have been running three and four miles every night, getting in shape. A few have already been skating, and a few are overweight and will find it hard to keep up with the younger rookies. All positions are open on the team.

We need our skating legs and can expect Roch and J.T. to really work the boys hard for the next week.

With playing out of Maxville this year and starting a week early we cannot wait for any late arrivals.

We play our first game in Maxville on Friday, Oct. 24th at 8:30 p.m. against Metcalfe for our first win.

The Glens hope to have a bus going to Maxville for our home games (for fans).

The Winchester Hawks have shown interest in our goaler Dennis Delaney and have also been working on the Metcalfe club for players.

Our club policy is to give the boys "free hockey" and to play with the best Jr. "B" club in the Ottawa Valley for a town of our size and move him on to college or Jr. "A" hockey if he so wishes, not to give them away to another Jr. "B" club. Look out Winchester you will get your fingers rapped from the ODHA if you keep this up. (No Minor Hockey in Winchester?)

Roch will be behind the bench for the Glens first two games Oct. 24th and Oct. 26th.

We will have a really solid, fast team and can expect the Glens to be fighting it out for first place with Cardinal Broncos and Metcalfe Jets.

Jr. Glens will ask (ADMHA) president Ron Allison if they can look after the travelling midget club this year so that the boys can practice and play with the Glens this year.

One of our ex-Glens, player Andre (Bobbie Hull) Poirier is back in town (and will be asked to coach the midget Jr. Glens.)

ADMHA news

The arena is closed. Where does this leave 400 minor hockey players for the coming season?

This is the problem facing the Executive and it is a very bleak looking future to say the least. Because of the late date in learning of the closure, efforts to secure ice time in neighboring arenas have produced only four hours per week, this being on Saturday afternoons in Maxville. We have reserved these four hours and will accommodate as many players as possible with this limited ice time.

Registration will be held Saturday, October 18th, at $10.00 per player and, of course, the parents will have to provide transportation to and from Maxville. An advertisement in this paper explains it all.

Later in the season, depending on weather conditions and the availability of outdoor rinks, we will attempt to run a short schedule outdoors. Registration for this will be only one or two dollars per player.

SNOJET

The work horse of the SnoJet line is the Astro Jet 295 for '76. A simple, easy to handle snowmobile is ideal for a second family machine or the perfect sled for the first time buyer.

The next is the Astro SS 340 incorporating the performance chassis and nearly all the features of its high performance brother, the SST. Combined with a spirited Y-340 engine, the Astro SS is one of the best buys for snowmobilers looking for a family trail machine.

The performance sled for '76 is the SST 440 F C. The Multiflex '76 slide suspension, lightweight aluminum components like the pace-setting tapered tunnel, high performance clutching, and SnoJet's aggressive Positrack-Plus track are just highlights of the engineering package.

For the rider who demands the utmost in performance, SnoJet's SST F/A's with either 340 or 440 Yamaha SX engines will be available through the SnoJet dealers.

All the '76 Astro SS and SST models have SnoJet's new "Multiflex '76 slide suspension which features improvement in weight, weight transfer and durability. Wear has been reduced by free wheeling 6 inch idler wheels in the rear plus frontal wheels to take weight off slider shoes. Track clip guides reduce friction during cornering. The suspension, housed in a tapered aluminum tunnel designed for maximum traction in deep snow and hill climbing, is fully and easily adjustable to both rider's weight and running conditions.

The Astro SS and all models of the '76 SST feature SnoJet's exclusive "Sonic-Tuned" muffler and tuned air-intake silencer. This combination keeps them quietly within legal requirements without loss of power.

If you are employed and going to have a baby, you're entitled to pregnancy leave.

This is what Ontario is doing to make certain you receive it.

We have a law in Ontario which permits any pregnant woman, married or not, to take a 17-week unpaid leave of absence to have her baby. This law covers part-time as well as full-time employees, provided that they have been working for the same employer for at least 63 weeks before the expected date of birth.

When she returns to work, the new mother is guaranteed the right to her former position or to a comparable position with no loss of seniority or benefits.

Naturally, pregnancy does not prevent an employee from being dismissed for valid reasons not connected with pregnancy, but pregnancy alone cannot be the cause of dismissal where an employee is eligible for leave.

An expectant mother is required to give two weeks' notice in writing of the day she intends to leave. She is entitled to begin her leave any time within 11 weeks before the baby's birth but she must take at least six weeks of her leave afterwards. If the employer wishes the employee to begin her leave before she wants to do so, the employer must prove that she is unable to perform her normal duties adequately.

The employee is eligible for Unemployment Insurance benefits during her pregnancy leave (even if she does not intend to resume work when her leave expires) if she had at least 20 weeks of ensured employment during the year before the birth. At least ten of the 20 weeks should have fallen between the 30th and the 50th weeks before the birth.

If you would like more information about pregnancy leave or other labour legislation of interest to working women, write to:

Ontario 20,
Queen's Park,
Toronto, Ontario.

Following the opening exercises, 15 members of St. Lawrence answered the roll call by telling something they had done in the past month to improve their health.

Bainsville answered their roll call 'What would you like to do when you are older?'

Mrs. Copas commented on the motto "Good actions and kind thoughts improve health".

The St. Lawrence minutes were read by Mrs. Alex Lalonde and the Bainsville minutes by Mrs. Archie Robertson.

Resolutions were read and discussed. Delegates were advised how to vote on each of the 13 resolutions which will be presented at the Ottawa area convention. Mrs. Kay Hutchinson and Mrs. Anthony Wetering donated items for the area bazaar table.

Miss Bessie Cumming introduced the guest speaker, Home Economist, Miss Mary Michels, who spoke on the metric system. Miss Michels pointed out we should not get uptight about learning this new system. The easiest way is to think metric and not try to convert measures into the old system. Many helpful suggestions were given. Mrs. Jack Skues thanked Miss Michels for her most informative talk.

Rev. and Mrs. Skues showed some slides of Harrington Harbor, located in Eastern Quebec on the border of Labrador, and spoke of the work they had done there.

All members of St. Lawrence WI assisted with refreshments. Prizes were won by Mrs. Skues, Mrs. Dan Edwards, Mrs. Wm. MacLean and Mrs. James Sinnott.

On behalf of the Bainsville WI, member thanks was extended by President Mrs. C. T. Upton.

LALONDE—WILLIAMS

The marriage of Sheila Williams and Daniel Lalonde took place in St. Finnan's Cathedral on Saturday, August 30th at 4:30 p.m. Rev. Leo MacDonell officiated at the ceremony and organist St. Laurette Brodeur accompanied a group choir.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams of Carleton Place and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Roach of Alexandria with whom she resided for the past number of years. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Lalonde of Alexandria.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather. She wore a floor length gown of nylon sheer with lace overlay styled with short sleeves, and full skirt with train. Her lace trimmed veil extended into a train and she carried a cascade bouquet of American beauty roses and baby's breath.

She was attended by the groom's sisters, Mrs. Jeanette Ouimet of Cornwall as matron of honor and Miss Diane Lalonde as bridesmaid, and other bridesmaids were Kelly McSheffrey and Denise Legroulx. Her flower girl was Judy Roach.

Attending the groom as best man was Jimmy Pavoulinis and ushers were his brother, Bernard, Roland Legault and Michel Bellefeuille. Ring bearer was the bride's brother, Peter Williams.

Following the service, the reception was held in Green Valley Pavilion. For their wedding trip, the couple travelled in matching suits of white shirt and pants and blue sweater vests.

They are residing in Alexandria.

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Parents primarily to blame

Our town continues blessedly free of crime and violence and that is a good way to keep it. When our police chief warns that problems involving juveniles have increased by 150 per cent over recent months we should be concerned.

He instances shoplifting, loitering, and destruction of property among practises that are becoming more pronounced. Of these vandalism is perhaps the most grave and least understandable. It suggests more than an irresponsible attitude, rather a spirit of vengeance that may be channelled impersonally against private or public property.

The police have their part to play in controlling delinquency but the primary responsibility must remain with the parents, especially when youngsters of tender years are involved. Their presence on the street in numbers at night suggests a lack of parental supervision that once was the accepted thing, especially on school nights. If each household had its own curfew hour there need be no thought of re-imposing a community curfew.

These problems are common everywhere and probably are more serious in many other communities than we know them now. The fact that they are multiplying does suggest, though, a lack of parental supervision.

The cheques will be delivered

Social benefit cheques have been mailed out early from Ottawa in face of the threat of another postal strike and Postmaster-General Bryce Mackasey was reassuring Canadians last week that the cheques would get through. "Not a single Canadian entitled to social benefits traditionally delivered through the mails will suffer" he told a group of elderly protesters.

That may come as comfort to people dependent on government cheques if they don't recall that the same Mr. Mackasey has been quoted as saying he is ready to close down the entire postal service for three months if a strike develops. The next cheque could be slow in arriving under such circumstances.

The Ottawa politicians show more concern for the millions dependent on some form of government bounty than they do for the business world that generates the greater part of tax revenues. A complete shutdown of postal services for even a month could have a serious impact on many small businesses, some of them particularly dependent on the mails to generate business.

Publications must be numbered among those who would be hardest hit by a postal strike and we have been hoping for a meeting of minds that would avert another walkout. That threat will remain until some new approach to labor relations replaces the strike weapon in the public service.

Should a major confrontation close down all postal services we shall try to devise some means of getting this newspaper each week at least to readers in Glengarry.

Violent entertainment

Concerned about the acres of skin and the profusion of four-letter words that you get with all but the tamest of movies these days?

Well, there's no need to worry, suggests an editorial in the Port Perry Star. Seems nudity and pornography have become almost blase for today's audiences.

Moms and dads who worried that junior may catch a glimpse of a female breast can relax with the knowledge that films are back to that good old American crowd pleaser.

. . . violence.

Movie-makers, in an effort to cash in on the growing Sickie market, aren't even attempting to camouflage what they hope to attract their audiences with.

The nude, for example, has been replaced by an advertisement showing a gloved hand grasping a crosscut saw. "Torso" is the name of that one, and what the film promises to show you is made perfectly clear. Then, there's "The Chainsaw Massacre", the attraction being equally clear.

Not that the writer has seen either one. The very idea gives me the creeps. Not the film, mind you.

The audience.

Europeans drive them

Since last year's gasoline shortage there has been renewed interest in electric cars, steam-driven cars, diesel-powered cars . . . even cars that some day may be powered by solar or nuclear energy, notes an editorial in the Wingham Advance-Times.

Pieter Mol, president of Petrolane Europe BV, in the Netherlands, says American motorists could have a car today that won't pollute the air, that extends engine life, that virtually eliminates engine carbon and sludge, that uses less oil, that reduces wear on plugs and carburetors and that reduces engine maintenance.

Any manufacturer, says Mol, could make one because the engine is essentially the same as the one we're using now, but it requires a mechanical conversion. The difference lies with the fuel—propane. Propane is liquefied petroleum gas. Propane cars aren't as far-fetched as you might think. In the U.S. today thousands of trucks, buses, taxicabs, farm tractors, industrial lift trucks and some private passenger cars already are operating on this clean-burning fuel.

In Belgium, Denmark, Italy and the Netherlands cars equipped to use propane usually employ a dual fuel system, meaning that the car can operate on either propane or gasoline.

A car can be converted from gasoline to propane fuel for about $500 says the Dutch spokesman. It will get approximately the same mileage as a gasoline-powered car, but propane sells for less than gasoline and vehicle maintenance costs are lower.

It is rumored that Mercedes Benz and one of the Japanese car manufacturers are planning the introduction of new propane-powered automobiles.

Vote for quality

This fall, most Canadians are having to make some political decisions, suggests the Bowmanville Canadian Champion. In Ontario and Newfoundland, provincial elections were held recently. People are always asked to study the issues. We wonder how many really do and we wonder how many politicians really have answers?

These issues are myriad—housing, health, transportation, law and order, education, inflation, government itself—the list is endless.

But the issues must be faced, defined, analyzed and finally decided upon. Otherwise we continue to wallow in a morass of indecision, expediency and frustration.

By defining, first for ourselves and then for our leaders, where it is we want to go and how we want to live, then we can deal with the issues. But today, too often, events move so quickly and planning is so reactive, that we deal with the issues before we know how it is that we want to live.

The quality of our lives comes first, then the issues can be faced and dealt with.

With help from hamburger

(Renfrew Mercury)

The new Maclean's, that symbol of Canadian nationalism and corporate success, has appeared. And in its first issue, it led off with its own distinctly Canadian thing. It nicknamed the Canadian Minister of Finance after an American hamburger.

Right on the cover with a Time-like picture of himself was Donald S. Macdonald, or "Big Mac" to the Maclean's headline writer. You would think there were enough Macdonalds in our history for a Canadian illusion.

After giving up so much of our resource and manufacturing industries to Americans, it might be worth looking at the inroads Americans are making into our service industries, with restaurant chains, hotels, and so on. A noble project for our national magazine, but maybe it would not make headlines.

Don't think of it as fitness, think of it as funness.

APPROPRIATE NAME
Alexandria,

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

After reading Angus H. McDonell's enlightening history of the arena in The News of 9th October, it seems appropriate that the founding name "Glengarry Gardens" should be restored for the new building, thus eliminating any contest and saving $100 for the building fund.

SUCH DESECRATION!
Baie d'Urfe, Que.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

Driving along the South Branch road, west of Williamstown, yesterday, for the first time in some time, I was appalled by the sight I beheld. Former leafy lanes had disappeared under axe and saw as widening, straightening and levelling of this once-pleasant country stretch appears to be underway. I cannot think of one good reason that necessitates turning lovely South Branch road into just another speedway, for surely that is what will happen.

Surely the traffic doesn't warrant such an expenditure and with it, such a desecration. On this particular day, in the distance we drove, there was not another car on the road.

Yours sincerely,
T. R. Lee.

PLAN FOR WEIR
Martintown, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

The article in the Glengarry News by Cornelius Van Loon of Martintown was brought to my attention and on behalf of the Authority I would like to explain the situation.

The Authority is proposing to construct a removable weir at the location of the old mill dam in Martintown.

The preliminary engineering has been done and the Authority now is establishing the limit of the proposed reservoir. That is to say the land required for the dam and reservoir.

There is no way of knowing this without a contour survey to determine the land requirements and whether or not it will have any ill effects on any land owner.

It is the intention to hold the water level approximately two (2)

WITH OUR RAMBLING REPORTER
by Ed.

FOR WHICH WE GIVE THANKS

Some people seem to find it hard to find things for which to give thanks at Thanksgiving. We start right out by being thankful this is the last holiday weekend till Christmas. These Monday-off weeks can be particularly disruptive when you're trying to put out a paper with a Tuesday noon deadline and no Monday mail.

We could do with no holiday weekends but we realize they are a necessary evil and Thanksgiving is one of the easiest to take unless you're taking the bird's eye view of the turkey.

There's something for which one can give thanks—the fact that one was able to gobble friend gobbler at the Thanksgiving dinner.

It's the traditional time for giving thanks for a bountiful harvest and we expect most Glengarry farmers found this past summer more acceptable than others of recent memory. True the pastures burned up under a heat wave that reminded us of long gone summers when we were young. But crops were generally good and September brought plenty of rain to restore the grass and fill farm wells for winter.

That hot summer must have been relished by cottagers and campers. Even the nudists should have found it to their liking as mosquitoes were reduced to a minimum. It was a good summer for golf, too, but your Rambling Reporter might be more thankful if September hadn't been such a bust for cowpasture pool.

Grateful we are for many other blessings as no doubt are you and you and you. For which we hastened to give thanks before Monday's meeting of the politicians that could portend a belt-tightening future for all of us.

By and large, what $10 will buy isn't too large a grocery list these days.

PLENTY OF CHOICE

If the holiday weekend weather was not exactly choice there was plenty of choice for sports fans on the television screen. They could wallow in baseball, football and hockey in addition to various other sports spectacles if the women of the house would let them.

It was World Series time with Red Sox of Boston threatening to win all the marbles for the first time in almost 60 years over the Cincinnati Reds.

Baseball was about to bow out after some six months of play and it was being nudged off the scene by hockey. The NHL last week opened league play that will run into next May when a new baseball season will already be well underway.

Those two sports encompass the entire year but somehow the camera finds time to cover a fall full of football on every weekend. That's our favorite tv fare but we're not that enamored of the pigskin parade as to catch all the games thrown on the home screen. Our preference is the Canadian game and we'll follow those telecasts until Grey Cup day after which the NFL play takes on more lustre.

Did you ever stop to wonder how we put in the weekends before the boob tube was invented.

Those strikes thrown in the World Series are easier to take than the kind the posties threaten.

UNSIGHTLY CARCASSES

There's the promise that some day our countryside will be unblemished by the hideous carcasses of cars that now litter so many holdings in town and country. The Ministry of the Environment is taking its first faltering steps in a program we can hope will one day rid us of these automobile graveyards and fence from sight those horrible car part depositories.

Six Northern Ontario local municipalities are working with the Environment ministry to collect and recycle derelict motor vehicles back to primary steel industries, we read. The ministry underwrites all costs involved in establishing self-sustaining pro-

Bonnie Brennan speaker at CWL communications workshop

Using varied techniques, group discussion, question and answer, findings of how the media affects people, Miss Bonnie Brennan, guest of the Diocesan CWL at St. Columban's Centre, shared with her audience, her exceptional knowledge of the mass media.

Miss Brennan, at the office of the Canadian Catholic Conference in Ottawa, is responsible for releases sent out by our Canadian bishops.

The guest speaker stressed the fact that, whether we are conscious of it or not, we are dependent upon the media. Because of the media, more people today know more about more things. It creates opinions re everything and so we stand in the pit of reacting to that seeming situation very often, instead of the reality. Positively the media is a fast means of education for the public e.g. the Friday page of the local Standard Freeholder, the Bishop's letter on education in the Canadian Register. Therefore we should be learning more about and experimenting with the media e.g. Why not have cable TV there when you're holding a CWL convention?

Miss Brennan said, "Communication is the giving of ourselves in love. Be careful of your image remembering that you are vessels of Christ, pray always and above all, don't forget to thank."

Rev. Chas. MacDonald Diocesan Director, conducted a prayer service and in a brief message told the CWL to keep an open mind; do not go about as moral policemen passing judgment on everything, see the good, weigh and pray.

Several parish council directors and representatives of FFCF and the Daughters of Isabella, joined with the CWL for the workshop.

Mrs. Art Anderson on behalf of the Diocese and Miss Edna Lawson, for the hostess council, welcomed the group. Miss Alice MacGillis, diocesan Communications Convenor, introduced Miss Brennan and Mrs. Hilda Fox extended gratitude and presented the guest with a gift.

4-H learning to make rolls

The fourth meeting of the Dalkeith Dough Doughs was held at the home of our leader Mrs. MacDonald, on Sept. 29th. Phyllis MacGillivray as president opened the meeting with the 4-H pledge. Eight members answered the roll call.

Mrs. Howes and Mrs. MacDonald discussed the goodness of bread, notes on the food guide, sweet dough for rolls and buns and sourdough bread. All of the girls worked in pairs and made the following rolls: Parkerhouse Rolls, Cloverleafs, Snails and Fantans.

Harriet Fraser adjourned the meeting. The rolls turned out very nice. Everyone sampled them when they were cooked.

All of the girls made sourdough bread the following Saturday to bring to the next meeting.

feet above the front face of the old dam during low flow period. The weir will be removed in the fall and replaced again after the spring freshette has passed. There will be flash boards which can be removed and also a small gate which will permit some flow regulation.

In the event of an emergency there has to be a buffer strip between the level at which the water is to be maintained and the reserve level.

The only way for the Authority to ascertain this information is through surveying.

The Authority did announce and held a public meeting to discuss their proposal. It is regrettable that everybody either involved or interested was not present at that meeting as there might not be any misunderstandings at this time.

I trust that this explains the situation and that you will see fit to clarify it to the public, I remain

SCOTS TV PROGRAM

Goderich, Ontario

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

It may interest many of your readers to know that on the evening of Oct. 28 (Tuesday) CTV will carry a program called "Heritage: The Scots". Time of presentation may vary from station to station across the network so anyone interested should consult their local TV program guide, but it will be a network feature across Canada on Oct. 28th.

I became aware that this program was in preparation late last winter when CTV phoned me from Toronto and asked if I would give them some assistance. I immediately asked two questions —(Who had told them to get in touch with me and their satisfactory answer was Miss Jean Cameron, Secretary of the SD&G Historical Society. (2) Was this proposed program to be a replica of the CBC's "Crossroads Dunvegan". If it was I wanted no part of it. But they assured me that what they were going to try to do was a straight forward presentation of our Canadian Scots from the time they left their homeland 200 years ago to the present, with emphasis on how they lived, earned their living and maintained their culture.

In the light of that I had no hesitation recommending some persons in Glengarry that they should meet. They met some of them and talked to them and a camera crew got some very nice shots. Also the camera crew went to Scotland and the weather in the Highlands and Islands of our homeland was unusual—the sun shone so there is some fine photography from there. One of the production team came to Goderich and spent some hours going through my 2,000 odd pictures of Glengarry and selected a few for possible use in their film.

Of course we Glengarry folk are not the only Scots in Canada but on the night of Oct. 28th we should see some of our friends, neighbors and relatives on the screen.

I know the CTV folks have worked hard to make this show interesting, informative and accurate—it should be worth watching.

grams that are administered by the municipality.

It locates hulks and obtains releases for them, is responsible for the collection of the car carcasses and provides a site where they are gathered for sale to a scrap dealer. Money collected for the scrap will be retained by the municipalities and used to sustain the program.

Pilot projects at Englehart and New Liskeard have resulted in the collection of more than 1500 hulks. How many thousands are littering the Glengarry landscape and calling for just such a program here?

Use this calculator to measure the efficiency of your oil or gas furnace. The book explains everything that you and your serviceman should do to save fuel and money. Both free when you send in the coupon below.

How much of your heating dollar is going up in smoke?

Get your furnace in shape for winter—so you can be both warm and a little richer. You'll cut your fuel bill by as much as 25%, and help to conserve Canada's fast-dwindling energy reserves:

AS A NATION we waste more energy than some countries consume in total. We're on an energy binge that we can no longer afford. Modest cut-backs now will be easier to face than shortages and even higher prices in a few years time.

For every $100 you spend on energy at home, more than half of it goes into heating. So your furnace is a great place to start saving.

Check the efficiency of your oil furnace.

Is your oil furnace working at top efficiency? Find out:

Look for a dirty flame. Lift the flap that covers the small hole on the front of your furnace. If you see black smoke coming from the tip of the flame, your burner needs adjustment. Call the serviceman.

Inspect for soot. Shut the furnace off and poke a flashlight inside the box. An accumulation of soot means it's time for a service call.

Check the barometric damper. This valve between the furnace and chimney bumps open and shut as the wind blows and as the furnace cuts in and out. If it sticks in any position, you're wasting energy.

Put your serviceman to work twice a year.

A thorough oil furnace check-up in summer and mid-winter can cut as much as 25% from your fuel bill. (If you have a gas furnace it should be checked once a year.)

Remember, it will take your serviceman about two hours to do a good job on an oil furnace (somewhat less on gas).

He should remove soot from the firepot, heat exchanger and pipes; check the stack temperature: perhaps try an oil nozzle 10% to 20% smaller (or the lowest firing rate recommended for your furnace).

If you're paying for a complete check of the furnace and heating system, make sure you get it. Start by reading The Billpayer's Guide to Furnace Servicing.

This free book explains everything that you and your serviceman should do to save fuel and money. (See coupon below.) It has a complete oil and gas furnace checklist, and a calculator for determining overall furnace efficiency.

Lower your thermostat.

Dropping your setting from 72 to 68°F will save about 10%. If each of us saves 10%, Canada will conserve 8 million barrels of oil and 24 million cubic feet of natural gas each year.

It's time to pay the piper.

We can't live in the future as we do now. The resources simply won't be available. Here are two facts to ponder:

- If we continue to consume at our present rate of increase, Canada will need twice as much energy in 12 years.
- The capital costs of developing new sources of energy will soar to $110 billion over the next 10 years—an investment of about $20,000 for each Canadian family.

It's no longer a matter of choice. We must save energy to save ourselves.

Free information to help us all.

TWO FREE BOOKS: The Billpayer's Guide to Furnace Servicing shows you how to save fuel by proper furnace servicing. It explains what you can do, and what your serviceman should do. Free when you send in the coupon.

100 Ways to Save Energy and Money in the Home has 160 pages—80 of them to help you get the most heating efficiency at the lowest cost.

Hear talk on arthritis prior to local canvass

There is no definite cure for arthritis but treatment for different types of the disease, rheumatologist Dr. Egils Mierins, assistant professor of medicine at Ottawa University told Knights of Columbus and area residents at the October meeting of the K of C.

Rheumatics respond best when treatment is started in the early stages but in-hospital care is at a minimum because patients with the "killer" diseases—cancer, heart, etc., are more immediate and get priority.

Since the disease is related to the weather and barometric pressure, patients have spells that are recurrently worse than others. This is a drawback when new treatment is being tested as it is difficult to tell whether a remedy is being successful or whether the malady is naturally subsiding, explained the doctor.

Many in the audience suffering from different types of the disease asked questions about different treatments and drugs, which the doctor answered in detail.

Earlier in the evening, Gordon Bell, regional representative from CARS presented a film showing how physiotherapy treatments and operations performed helped severely crippled patients become mobile again.

There are now 142 rheumatologists in Canada, 87 of whom are working within the rheumatic disease program Mr. Bell reported. This is made possible through $1,000,000 in research grants. It is only in the past 25 years that progress has been made in rheumatic research. Each year the K of C allocates $25,000 from state funds for the drive.

The local branch can help most by educating the public, Mr. Bell advised.

The local drive for funds will take place from October 18th to 25th when the area will be canvassed. Donations can also be made at the Royal Bank.

President of golf club Gordon Gallant died suddenly

President of the Glengarry Golf and Country Club, P. Gordon Gallant, died of a heart attack Saturday morning, Oct. 11th, at his cottage, MacLachlan's Point, East Front, Lancaster. A resident of Lachine, Mr. Gallant had spent his summers at Lancaster for several years and had been active in the local golf club.

P. Gordon Gallant was born in Charlottetown, PEI, May 4, 1919, a son of Emmet Gallant and Anna MacDonald. He entered service with the CNR in 1940 and had served at Charlottetown, Halifax, Campbellton and Moncton before being transferred to Montreal in May, 1960.

At the time of his death Mr. Gallant was General Rates Officer on the panel dealing with the Canadian Transport Commission, Ottawa, and the Inter-state Commerce Commission, Washington. He had attended the CNR Staff College at Lennoxville during the summer of 1958.

To mourn his sudden passing he leaves his wife, the former Blanche Griffith, three sons, Wayne of Dollard des Ormeaux, Brian and Douglas of Ottawa, as well as four grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday to Resurrection of Our Lord Church in Lachine where the mass was concelebrated by Rev. Kevin Griffin and Rev. Frank Hayley.

Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery, Lancaster.

The pallbearers were: Ray MacMaster, George Donald, Walter Spencer, John Nantes, Cliff Rae and Lloyd McHugh.

SCHOLASTIC AWARD—Karen Ripley was one of the students elected as a recipient of a Saskatchewan General Proficiency Award given to Grade XII students for scholastic achievement. She is now attending Kelsey Institute of Technology in Saskatoon. Karen is the daughter of Gil and Nancy Ripley, CFB Moose Jaw and the granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Smith of the Fourth of Kenyon.

Births

BAXTER—Jim and Brenda Baxter (MacDonald) are delighted to announce the arrival of their son, Graham James Douglas, on Friday, October 10, 1975, at Cornwall General Hospital.

SAMSON—Mr. and Mrs. Rosaire Samson (Micheline Theoret) are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Marie Josie, at Hotel Dieu, 9 lbs. 9 oz. Marie Josie is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Theoret.

Cards of thanks

LALONDE—I wish to thank the OPP, Lancaster, and Long Sault detachment for the promptness, alertness and kindness, and for their assistance when my wife was seriously injured in an accident on our farm, Sept. 4th. I wish to thank them once again, on behalf of my wife for their kindness and moral support. Also special thanks to neighbors and friends for their very appreciated kind assistance.
—Fernand Lalonde,
Alexandria. 42-1p

DaPRATO—I would like to thank all those who sent cards and called while I was a patient in the Hotel Dieu, Cornwall.
—Alexander DaPrato. 42-1p

WATHIER—Our sincere thanks to everyone for flowers, masses, expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness at the time of the death of our dear son, Sylvain. This was all deeply appreciated.
—Mr. and Mrs. Herve Wathier and family,
Alexandria. 42-1p

Cards of thanks

THAUVETTE—I would like to thank Dr. Roman, nurses and staff, also Mr. Filion, Social Worker, while I was a patient in the Glengarry Memorial Hospital.
—Achille Thauvette. 42-1p

In Memoriam

LALONDE—In loving memory of a dear father George Lalonde, who passed away Oct. 18, 1950.
He is gone but not forgotten,
And as dawns another year,
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near,
Days of sadness will come o'er us,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow,
That lies within our hearts concealed.
—Always remembered by daughter, son-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Menard, Alexandria. 42-1p

MacDONALD—In loving memory of my dear husband, James Ranald, who passed away on October 17, 1971.
"Time slips by, but memories last".
—His wife, May MacDonald. 42-1p

MacDONELL—In loving memory of a dear mother, grandmother and great grandmother, Mae MacDonell, who passed away Oct. 20, 1974.
Her memory is our keepsake
From which we'll never part
God has her in his keeping
We have her in our hearts.
—Always remembered by Ella and Donald and family. 42-1c

MacGREGOR—In loving memory of my dear dad—Fred MacGregor who was called home Oct. 16th, 1974.
Ever remembered.
—Gordon. 42-1c

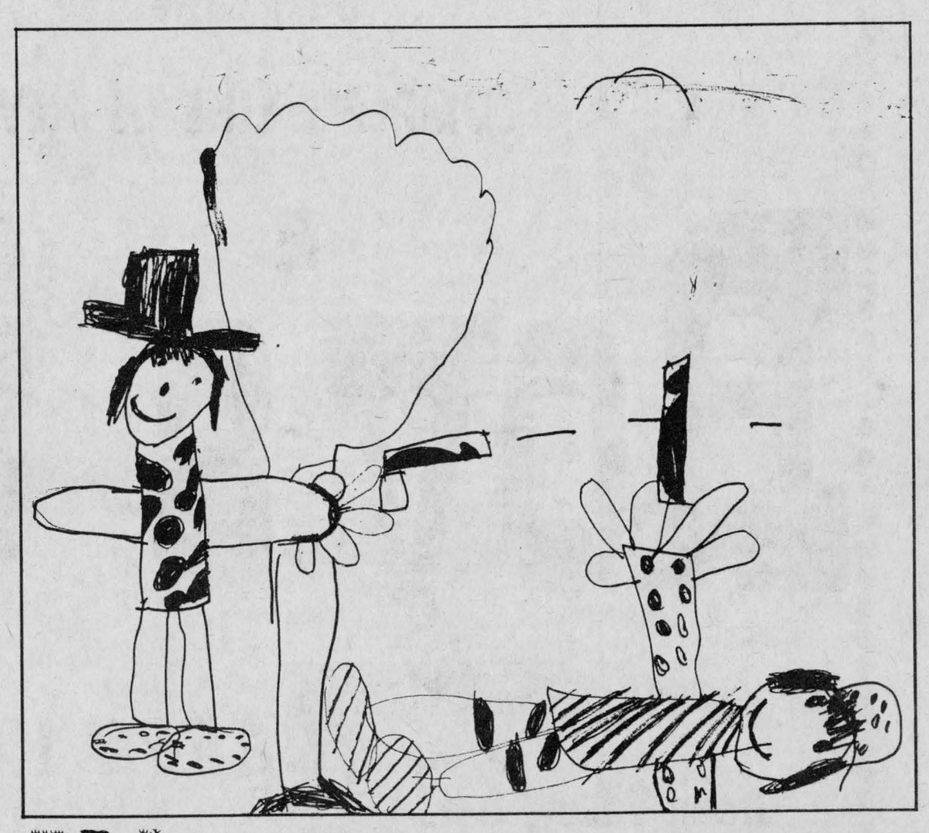
"Bang. Bang. You're dead."



Some say the violence in our media makes us–and our children–react to the world in a violent way.

If that's true, we're in trouble. There's been very little research in Canada, and none about all the media. The Royal Commission on Violence in the Communications Industry is trying to find an answer.

What does violence mean? Does it reflect the real world? Or can it create a different, more violent world in which we all have to live?

What is the Commission doing? We're reviewing the current research. Holding public hearings for everyone. And we'll be recommending appropriate action to all levels of government, to the industry and to the public.

What can you do? You can start by thinking about the effect that violence in the media has–good or bad–on your life. Your family. And that includes violence in radio, TV, comic books, newspapers, popular music, movies, books–even rock concerts.

Then, tell us what you think. Send us your ideas. Come to the hearings. And when the time comes to make recommendations, there'll be things you can do. In your own home, your own neighbourhood. With your own children.

It's important for all of us to know more about media violence and how it affects us. We will, if you help.

Strike victims strike back

By KENNETH McDONALD

A Quebec court has ordered the Canadian Union of Postal Workers to pay $1,000 to Santana Inc. of Sherbrooke, Que., for damages arising out of the 16-day illegal postal strike in April, 1974. The company uses a mail order system and the strike cost it almost $100,000 in lost sales.

• • •

Borrowing from the bank to finance day-to-day operations, using costly courier, telephone and telegraph services to replace the non-existent mail -- small business people across Canada know the story too well.

After the strike, the Canadian Federation of Independent Business launched a $100 million class action suit against the federal government on behalf of its members to recover damages similar to Santana's. Although the action was dismissed, the public outcry that arose from it persuaded the government to announce a "get tough" policy with public servants who engage in illegal strikes.

Since April, 1974, actions have been taken by the government against more than 1,500 employees who have taken part in illegal strikes. Assuming the Santana ruling stands on appeal, and assuming the same principle can be applied in other provinces, the innocent victims of illegal strikes will in future have recourse to the law. The possibility of legal action and of liability for damages caused by illegal strikes should act as a powerful deterrent.

• • •

However, not many small business people can afford to launch costly lawsuits against militant groups bent on destroying what was once, and can be again, one of the world's best postal systems. Nor should they have to. The mail is vital. Moreover, the mailman is a friend. All except a tiny minority of post office employees want to make the service work the way it's supposed to.

The Post Office has been dogged by poor management, high turnover, antiquated facilities, technological change, union rivalry and, in many instances, irresponsible union leadership. Worse, the key post of postmaster general has been used as a stepping stone for ambitious politicians, so that until recently it has been deprived, at the top, of concerned, consistent political leadership.

Now Postmaster General Bryce Mackasey is doing his best to remedy these past failures. His strongest ally is the public to which he owes his duty. He deserves our support.

Considering licensing of boarding houses

The United Counties may take action to license boarding houses.

The committee of social services, in discussing the possibility, was told by chairman Ewart Simms that there is not, at present, any regulation or licensing authority over boarding houses. The counties are involved because in many cases people who have no home, and are elderly but not in need of nursing home care, are placed in such homes for their maintenance.

In some cases, Mr. Simms noted, these people are quite old and not likely to complain, many having no alternative but to stay where they are sent.

In such cases if a licensing authority were set up, the licence could be revoked if proper accommodation is not offered. The Ontario act provides for such licensing by local municipalities, and the county council decided to look into the matter further.

Council expressed approval of a dental inspection program in schools carried out by the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Valley Health Unit.

A report shows a significant decline in both the number of cases requiring dental attention and the number of cases specified as neglect of dental care.

In remarking on the matter, Warden John Whitteker said the counties have now started a program of dental care for welfare recipients. But this program seemed to him to have basic faults.

It separates the people into three classes, he suggested; those who have their dental costs paid by the public purse, those who can afford proper dental care themselves, and a cross section of people in between who can scarcely afford current costs.

"It's dividing society into three classes in this connection," Mr. Whitteker remarked. "I think there should be a dental care program brought in under OHIP (Ontario Hospital Insurance Program) or something similar."
