INTRODUCING...The New Kid on the Block

Hello — My name is Ben. I'm 3 1/2 years old and I've talked to you before. Don't you remember? My mommy and Dad tell me I have to work for a living. They didn't tell me this when I was born. Oh, well! I guess I'll have to!

My mom, Robin Shire and my uncle, Don Marshall, want me to introduce a brand new shopping experience in downtown Prescott — "The Alpine Village Complex"

In their stores they sell quality name brand, new appliances, electronics, furniture, wicker and don't forget the antique section.

In the complex they also have a hairstylist shop, Strands, owner Jennifer Jarvis. She has recently increased her staff.

They are setting up for Christmas now — "Right Now" with a brand new storefront and lots of Christmas lights, toys and great gifts for kids and adults.

Visit us at: The Alpine Village Complex

Grand Opening

Opened for public viewing on Saturday November 28

Prescott's newest apartment building. Located in historical downtown Prescott, on the corner opposite from the clock Tower. Your host will be Orren Louch.

In the 1920s the historical building was an active business known as R.M. Wallace Hardware. The Royal Bank was just west of the story and the Masonic Lodge occupied the third floor. Ralph Wallace proudly sold hardware in the 1600 square foot store with the decorative tin ceiling. This ceiling can still be seen in Little Luxuries, Gifts for All Occasions.

Today the building takes on a new chapter in its history. Louch Developments have been for the last year busy pulling down walls and ceilings, creating dust, hammering, nails, cutting lumber and congesting traffic in the street as it takes on supplies. Now it is done!

They have created 6 brand new apartments— four 1-bedroom and two 2-bedroom apartments. Features that can be found in the apartments are ceilings that extend upward to 14 feet. The extra height in the ceiling gives the apartment a unique grandeur of space. The high ceilings allowed for the installation of skylights in the bedrooms, to provide natural sunlight. Each bedroom is large and can accommodate a queen size bed.

As winter approaches many tenants are concerned with heating bills and the comfort of their apartment. Heating is INCLUDED! in the rental price so there are no surprises for the tenant. The units are well-insulated to provide heating and sound comfort of a new modern building.

Kitchens are custom-designed with white European cupboards with oak handles, and come with their own fridge and stove, and double sinks. The apartments are equipped with four-piece bathroom, with ceramic tile tub surround. All the faucets are single handle for ease of use and conservation of water. Even the toilets are water conservative, using only 6 litres. The building is secured with an electronic lock at the entrance door and deadbolt at each apartment.

Sign a year's lease and receive ONE MONTH FREE on the one bedroom apartments. The apartments start at $450. for further information see Andrea or Rod at Little Luxuries.

Congratulations
