Quest for Lock signage takes another turn

[IROQUOIS] - The quest to obtain highway signs promoting the Iroquois Lock as a tourist attraction has taken another turn as Lockview Gift Shop owner Chris Reid plans to write the Ministry of Transportation and Communications district office in Ottawa with a new request to buy road signs.

Mr. Reid contacted The Chieftain office last week over the installation of a road sign indicating the Caravan Camp Road near Morrisburg. Mr. Reid was incensed the MTC would install a sign for a private road and a private operation after it had repeatedly refused advances for signage for the lock. "It's incredible to me," he said.

However, after contacting the MTC office in Ottawa, The Chieftain was told by spokesman Tony Assim that the department was not aware of any requests for signage for the lock. "Whoever is involved should write to us," Mr. Assim said. "We'll take a look at it. We're always open to suggestions."

Concerning the sign for Caravan Camp, Mr. Assim said the camp owner applied to have the sign installed and met the necessary criteria that it be a licensed tourist operation and that it provide a minimum amount of accommodation. "They would have to qualify, naturally," Mr. Assim said.

After approval was granted, Mr. Assim said, a two-man crew with an auger truck was dispatched to the scene to erect signs on either side of Hwy. 2. He estimated the cost of the work to be about $700 including the four 4" x 4" posts and two 30 x 150 cm boards and noted that the Caravan Camp owner will be required to pay a $150 fee for installation plus an annual $50 maintenance fee.

"Really we'd rather not be in the sign business," Mr. Assim remarked, "It's too costly to maintain."

Mr. Reid said he is encouraged by Mr. Assim's remarks and added that he has nothing against the Caravan Camp road signs but wants to be treated fairly. "I didn't know you could buy the signs," he said. He added he will write to Mr. Assim soon to get more details.

Western theme for '83 Summer Festival

[IROQUOIS] - Watch out partner! This town ain't gonna be hardly big enough for us when all the folks start streamin' in for the 1983 Summer Festival. And with the western theme, everyone will be dressed in their finest dungarees and stetsons and its gonna be awful tough to tell the real cowboys from the city duds.

Kicking off the nine-day event in fine Country and Western fashion is the Prescott Brothers band which performs at the civic centre from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. on opening day, July 9. Earlier that day, the Iroquois Golf club sponsors the official opening event, a golf tournament.

On July 10 a community picnic will be held at 12 noon at Iroquois Point. Several events are planned and Summer Festival Committee spokesman Lorraine Fader said it will offer residents a chance to get out and have a good time while getting acquainted or re-acquainted with their neighbours.

Events include a pet show, three-legged race, tug-of-war for adults, an egg-carrying race for children and adults, a sack race, 100-yard dash and frog jumping contest. Categories for the foot racers are five years and under, six to eight years, nine to 12, 13 to 15 and 16 years and older.

Families are encouraged to take a picnic basket for supper and free ice cream will be given to all participating children courtesy of the Iroquois Merchants Association and Lockview Gift Shop.

A game of baseball is planned for mid-week although the date hasn't yet been selected. The Iroquois Pee Wee team has challenged the merchants to a baseball game. "This game will be good for a laugh," Mrs. Fader said, "because most of the merchants don't know which end of the bat to use." Victoria Street Park is the place to be and The Chieftain will publish the date of the game next week.

A lawn social will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, July 13 sponsored by the Iroquois United Church and held on church grounds. On July 14 the three-day sidewalk sale begins and will include sale of handicrafts in front of vacant stores in the shopping plaza.

The sales continue July 15 and a midway for children will set up behind the Iroma Apartments with rides and a concession stand operated by Great Shakes. Several events begin at 7 p.m. including a bake sale by the Order of the Eastern Star and in the mini-mall a bingo and crown and anchor by the Iroquois-Matilda Lions Club. In case of rain the Lions' events will be held in the civic centre.

From 7:30 to 9 p.m. the Harborites square dance club from Johnstown will perform in the shopping plaza and also that evening the Iroquois Legion branch 370 annual football tournament begins. Any persons interested in displaying and selling crafts are invited and may call Mrs. Fader at 652-4420 for information.

Also on July 15, the Cubs, Beavers and Scouts will have a street painting event at 2 p.m. near the Tourist Information Booth.

On July 16 at 9 a.m. the Iroquois Fire Department sponsors a soap box derby to be held on Elizabeth Drive. Interested persons should contact either Rick McKee or Pat DeBelleuille for more information.

A decorated bicycle contest will be held at 10 a.m. in the mini-mall and all bikes and drivers are welcome to ride in the Summer Festival Parade to be held later that day at 2 p.m. More parade information is available in another story in this week's paper.

A chicken barbecue and beer gardens will be added attraction to the ball tournament both Saturday and Sunday and other events such as the sidewalk sale and midway will also continue Saturday.

The annual Fly-in Breakfast will again take place this year at the airport on July 17 at 8 p.m. as will the Lawn Bowling tournament and completion of the ball tournament. The Summer Festival will close with an ecumenical service at Iroquois Point at 7 p.m.

Village receives $80,000 provincial ONIP grant

[TORONTO] - The village of Iroquois will receive an $80,000 grant under the Ontario Neighbourhood Program (ONIP), the lone area municipality to share in the $12 million program.

The announcement of the grant was received Tuesday from the office of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry MPP Osie Villeneuve on behalf of Municipal Affairs and Housing Minister Claude Bennett. In addition to Iroquois, 65 other provincial communities will benefit from the program.

Village council submitted application for the grant last winter and sought funds for two major projects, installing tie lines to connect underground water systems and renovations to the civic centre.

The water lines were recommended to council by village foreman Ray Delegrande who noted that sections of the village are forced to go without water when a break occurs at certain points.

Renovations are planned for the auditorium of the civic centre including lowering the ceiling and making changes to the windows to conserve energy.

Clerk-treasurer Betty Marlin said the council now must pass a bylaw designating areas for ONIP redevelopment which must then be submitted to Mr. Bennett for approval. After approval is obtained, the council then has six months to come up with a redevelopment plan. "Then after that the funds start coming," Mrs. Marlin remarked.

The grant is spread over a period of four years, she noted, and the village is responsible for the annual amount. However, Mrs. Marlin commented, by utilizing present staff and labour, the costs to Iroquois could be kept below the $80,000 mark.

ONIP was launched in 1981 after the cancellation by the federal government of the Community Services Contribution Program. Since that time, the province has provided $23.8 million to 76 municipalities.

Under ONIP, the province contributes 50 percent to the cost of neighborhood improvement projects, including roads, sidewalks, parks, community centres and recreational facilities. Projects are to be completed over the next four years

Twenty five floats enter Parade

[IROQUOIS] - Plans are well underway for the summer festival parade which is being held on Saturday, July 16 at 2 p.m.

Brooke McNabb from CJOH-TV will lead the parade to the judges' stand in the plaza and then he will M.C. the rest of the parade from the judges' platform.

Four bands have been booked along with 25 floats. More floats are expected to be booked this week.

Anyone planning on putting a float in the parade and has not sent in their confirmation is asked to contact Rosemary Crawford at Box 189, Iroquois, KOE 1K0 or phone 652-2035 (store) 652-2087 (home) as soon as possible.

The parade line up will begin at 1 p.m. at the Iroquois Public School. The parade route is the same as last year, starting at the public school, going up Church Ave., Victoria St., Dundas St., around the shopping plaza to Beach Ave and down Charles St. ending up back at the school.

Cash prizes totaling $350 are being given away for Best Band, Best Float, and Best Horse Exhibit.

Par for the course

By John McAllister

Teams 2 and 3, each with six points, are leading in the race for the championship of the Ladies Twilight League.

The Mens' Twilight League is being led by Team 5 with ten points followed by Team 2 with eight points. All three Twilight Leagues continue to be well attended by members.

In spite of the numbers of golfers participating, I noticed that the Number 1 tee was free for play by 7 p.m. last week, leaving plenty of time for anyone to head off for a game of nine holes.

A morning conversation with Ed and Percy yielded the following information:

1. The old fairway tractor is due back any day after a well-earned, but costly, rest;

2. These gentlemen were authorized at a recent executive meeting to investigate the purchase of a new or used machine;

3. A Wintario application is under discussion at the moment for the purchase of same;

4. An airtor for the greens as well as an all-purpose bucket-loader for the tractor are two pieces of equipment of which they are in dire need;

5. Work has begun on improving the course. To date, a new trap has been installed at the right side of number 7 green and a new tee-off for the ladies has been constructed on the number 8 hole. This new tee-off has been sodded but Ed advises waiting a week or so before putting it to good use;

6. More work such as following is being considered: a new trap and tee-off on home number 5 is in the works. The trap on number nine will be modified and the trap on number one hole is to be raised. Number three trap is to be expanded as well as the trap on number eight.

The work is progressing slowly subject to the available finances and budget. It sure sounds as though a lot of good work is being done to improve the course.

The whole idea is to provide playable traps from which some of us can develop our skills with the sand wedge or whatever other tool one might use to get out of similar trouble. Judging by my handicap, the course is as challenging as I want it to get.

In spite of a small number of juniors who have registered for the instructional program, it has been decided to proceed for a one-week period at least. Mr. McIsaac will be contacting the applicants soon.

COMING EVENTS:

Tenth annual week-long fishing derby scheduled

[CARDINAL] - The Cardinal Fish and Game Club's tenth annual week-long derby is scheduled for July 9 to 16.

A record number of memberships in the club this year - 568 reported this week - will probably mean even more participants in this year's event. Frances Towsley, secretary for the club, said members come from as far away as Ottawa, Niagara Falls, Cornwall and the United States.

The club now boasts its highest membership since 1978. We attribute increased membership to improvements of the boat ramp, the efforts of all members to attract new members and the friendliness which exists within the club, said Mrs. Towsley.

One major change in the derby is that a person will be hired to be responsible for all weigh-ins, with the exception of the final weigh-ins in the senior and junior derbies, being run in conjunction with the senior event. Executive member John Robichaud will be in charge at those times.

Weigh-ins will be held every day from 12:30 to 1 p.m. and 4 to 4:30 p.m. and 8 to 9 p.m. On the final day of the junior derby, Friday, July 15 the last weigh-in will be 4:30 to 5 p.m. and on the last day of the senior derby the weigh-in will be from 3:30 to 4 p.m. All weigh-ins will be at the boat ramp in the park east of the Cardinal Legion.

Tickets for the derby are available from any executive member at $5 for members and $8 for non-members. Tickets must be purchased by midnight the day before the derby begins.

There will be early bird draws to encourage people to buy their tickets in advance.

There is over $2,500 in prizes awarded to the winners in the five categories of the senior derby - pike, muskie, pickerel, small mouth bass and large mouth bass.

Top prizes in the pike and small mouth bass competition will be Big John electric downriggers, while the fisherman with the biggest muskie will win a trolling rod and reel.

Derby rules are printed on the tickets.

The week-long derby will wind-up on Saturday, July 16 with the presentation of prizes at the Cardinal legion from 7 to 9 p.m. and dancing to Rhythm Incorporated from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

A special guest at this year's derby will be public television personality Bill Saiff, from WNPE-WNII in Watertown, host of the television program Rod and Reel.

Mr. Saiff will spend Friday, July 15 and Saturday, July 16 in the area doing some fishing and filming for his popular program. He will also be master of ceremonies at the award presentation.

The wind-up dance will be free to all derby ticket holders.

A special draw for a fisherman's dream, donated by Dineen Tackle will also be held during the awards presentation.

Following a meeting of the club, Mrs. Towsley announced the donation of a new trophy to the club. The Bill Douglas Memorial Trophy, donated by P and P Construction, will be awarded annually at the club's banquet to the person who catches the largest small mouth bass during the year.

Mr. Douglas, who died recently, was a long time member of the club and was well known for his catches of small mouth bass.

Iroquois ladies will again represent the district in the Provincials.

The team of Lois Roberts, Gwen Parmeter and Janet Davis won the first stage on June 14th in Smiths Falls. They will now go on to the second stage which will be played in Ottawa on July 19th.

This will be a round robin play of four districts with the winners going on to represent the area in Brantford.

On June 22nd, Donalda Banford, Gwen Parmeter and Janet Davis were three game high winners at a tournament in Perth.

Bookmobile Schedule

During the month of July, the bookmobile schedule will start Monday, July 18. The following communities in the three United Counties will be visited on the following schedule:

Mon. July 18: Riverside Heights (9:30 - 9:45); Stampville (10:15 - 10:45); Hainsville

(11:00 - 11:20); Elma (12:50 - 1:05); Dunbar (1:15 - 1:45); Grantley (2:00 - 2:15); Lunenburg (2:50 - 3:15); Fri. July 22: Berwick (9:15 - 9:30); Morewood (9:45 - 10:30); Ormond (10:40 - 11:00); Hallville (11:25 - 11:50); Mountain (1:05 - 1:40).

There's a recipe going around these days for a coffee cake that starts off like sourdough bread. This may not be earth-shaking news to many of the readers of this column, but we'll pass it along anyway as sort of a warning. We acquired a batch of the starter mixture a while ago and have already had a couple of the cakes. [They're not bad at all]. The idea is that you give a friend some of the starter, in much the same way that pioneers passed sourdough starter from friend to friend. One of the main rules is that when making the cake you have to do something to this dough every day for several days then on the last day, throw in the nuts and other goodies and bake it. If you forget to do your daily tricks things can get messy.

At our house, the chef missed her routine one day and we opened the refrigerator to find that the dough had erupted and burst out of its container and oozed down onto a few other items. No real harm done, but don't leave a batch in your fridge and go camping for a couple of weeks. The neighbours will notice it coming out your windows.

A friend of ours had another experience with the dough in his fridge and it will make him suspicious of snacks for some time to come. Like most of us, his wife uses old yogurt dishes to store all sorts of leftovers. He arrived home late one evening, and looking in the fridge for a snack, settled on what he thought was yogurt. He had just tied into a big dish of the stuff when his wife came into the kitchen. He asked her what flavour of yogurt she had bought because it was the strangest one he had ever eaten. It was strange all right, but not because it was yogurt. He had eaten half of the raw coffee cake dough mix.

I don't think I was ever cut out to be part of the royal family. It's not likely that I'll ever be asked to marry a future queen and because my own family tree isn't even in the same forest as theirs it's something that won't even be an issue. There aren't many of us, I'll guess, who could put up with the grind of a royal tour for long. Take for instance, having to be on tour and missing the first birthday of your only son. And what do they do instead to mark the day - cut the ribbon on a new police station in Ottawa. As police stations go, it's probably very nice but it must be hard to work up enthusiasm for such an event. And if the royal family doesn't eat steak at a barbecue, I'd definitely never make it. Neither Charles or Diana took advantage of the steaks that were being dished out at the Prime Minister's barbecue, choosing instead some corn on the cob that must have been imported from the U.S. Perhaps they couldn't face trying to cut a steak on a paper plate without losing the royal dignity. Even we commoners use a real plate when we have barbecued steak. Maybe next time they visit Canada they could bring the baby and all enjoy a riverside fish fry or corn roast.

The bottom line: Fun is like life insurance; the older you get, the more it costs.

Dear Sir:

It is another birthday for Canada. A strong and beautiful nation, it is blessed with fine land, good educational opportunities and an abundance of so many things.

We are so well cared for and most of the time seem free of bad storms, crime or pollution but it is not these things, along with money, power or industry that made this nation great. It was prayer, the Bible and a strong faith in God and fellow man. Let us continue in these things. They will only help us to be even greater.

Some of the warmest and most compassionate and understanding people live in Canada. We see race riots, heavy crime, war, famine and disaster in some many parts of the world today and yet we are fairly free of these things.

Let us continue, too, in caring for the poor, the dying, hospitalized and sorrowing and someone also may be suffering emotionally and seem impossible to deal with. They may offend and say things they do not mean, but that is when they need someone the most, no matter how hard it is to reach them.

Those in prisons, institutions and nursing homes need help too. Let us help one another, as our forefathers did and built one of the greatest countries in all the world through the hand of our God and continued support of people who care we can make it.

Joy, peace, happiness and prosperity can still prevail and new hope for an even better future. May everyone have the happiest Dominion Day they've ever had and enjoy many more to come.

A Concerned Canadian

Queen's Park report

THE HONOURABLE NORMAN STERLING, M.P.P.
CARLETON-GRENVILLE
Provincial Secretary for Justice
LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

A problem of great concern to wildlife management professionals in Ontario is rabies, the potentially fatal virus disease frequently passed from animals to humans.

Although foxes and skunks are the main carriers in the province, the disease affects all mammals, from cattle to weasels. More than 2,000 people, victims of rabid animal contact were treated last year, at a cost to the province of approximately $600 per individual vaccinated.

The Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources has been actively seeking a method of controlling rabies for many years, and most recently has been working on an oral vaccine program nicknamed Operation Meatball.

Plastic bags containing small portions of ground meat are thrown from a low flying aircraft over areas where rabies is particularly widespread. The meatballs contain rabies serum, and also a chemical which causes slight discoloration of the teeth, so that when trappers turn in carcasses to the ministry for inspection, biologists can determine whether an animal took the bait, and record the area in which the animal was found.

Although the program is presently in the experimental stages, the results have been encouraging, and indicate that animals are taking the bait at a rate of 74 per cent for foxes, and 60 per cent for skunks. The ministry hopes to be able to launch the program by the fall of 1984.

Because the rabies problem in Ontario has increased over the last few years, particularly in Carleton-Grenville which has a large fox and skunk population, the Ontario government, through the Provincial Lottery, has contributed $1.2 million per year since 1975 to rabies research.

Ministry of Natural Resources staff report that Ontario trappers have been extremely cooperative in helping to make the rabies control program effective. Because of their experience with wild animals, trappers can spot a rabid animal and turn in animal carcasses for testing.

Especially during the summer months, when they are more likely to walk or play in wooded areas, children should be warned against handling any animal which appears sick or injured. An animal which would normally avoid all contact with humans may wander into a camp or approach humans directly when it is suffering from rabies.

Since an animal in the early stages of the disease may not appear unusual, it is best to avoid any contact with strange animals. A call to the local police would be appreciated, if you suspect that an animal may be rabid. Remember to have your domestic animals vaccinated for rabies at least once a year.

Trappers who would like to become involved in the provincial rabies control program may contact Mr. Ian Watt, Rabies Research, Ministry of Natural Resources, Dufferin St., Maple, Ont., L0J 1E0 (416) 832-2761.

INVESTMENT MARKET

Investment reaction to budget

By S.V. Vecchio,
McLeod Young Weir

In the May edition of "Equity Guide" a monthly publication by McLeod Young Weir, Research Director Selwyn Kletz expressed the opinion that Mr. Lalonde's budget speech ranked as one of the more pleasant tunes heard for some time. The tone of the speech was unusually pro business, to the point where one begins to question whether we were witnessing a major shift in political philosophy. The inclination is to accept that government is obliged to turn to business on the basis that it recognizes that its previous policies have failed, and that a boost to industry, and hence the Canadian economy, remains the only solution to wrestling down the horrendously high rate of unemployment. In essence Kletz suggests that the leopard has not changed its spots, it simply recognizes a temporary need to wear wool.

Even prior to the announcement of the federal budget there appeared to be ample reason to be optimistic about the longer-term prospects of the Canadian economy, and therefore about the outlook for equity prices. It would appear that the North American economy has finally beaten down the rate of inflation to levels which are more conducive to good business. We do face a risk of a short-term burst in inflation rates during the latter part of 1983, but expect that this phenomenon will be temporary, and that a more sane economic climate will prevail thereafter.

Kletz does not preclude the possibility of a continued period of economic volatility, however feels that fluctuations in business conditions will display less amplitude than witnessed over the past three years, and investors are likely to be more gracious with their equity evaluations on the assumption that they are satisfied with the long-term prospects for the rate of inflation. The budget has merely added to our optimism, as it should provide impetus to capital spending during the next four years.

If you would like to receive a complimentary copy of McLeod Young Weir's May Equity Guide, which offers advice to investors on which company shares will benefit from this shift in political complexion, contact S.V. Vecchio, c/o McLeod Young Weir, Box 433, Toronto-Dominion Centre, Commercial Union Tower, Toronto, Ontario, M5K 1M2, or call toll-free 1-800-387-1834.

School's Out

It was the smiles that mattered most.

The ear-to-ear grins on the faces of the youngsters and, yes, the teachers as the final day of school approached and the formal announcement of graduation was made. The smiles said it all.

Whether it be a grade eight student leaving the elementary schoolmates behind or the grade six student moving on to higher education in a senior elementary school the fact remains it was a time of excitement, anticipation and reflection.

Now they have the summer ahead to prepare for the immediate future as they transfer from the role of senior to become once again a single face in a crowd of junior students struggling to find their way.

They shouldn't worry. The aplomb and sparkle with which they left the old will prepare them all well for the new. New friends, new situations, new challenges, new temptations.

But from whichever school they came, as evidenced by the dignified ceremonial exits, the experiences there will leave them in good measure to tender the new fields they enter.

Puppcorns play next Thursday

"The Puppcorns" puppet show will be at the Iroquois Public Library, Civic Centre, Dundas Street, Iroquois on Thursday, July 7 at 2 p.m.

This musical puppet show with Lois and Herb Walker will feature some of the Puppcorns most popular and familiar songs as well as the Canadian legend, "Star Maiden", the story of a young Ojibway boy who helps the Star Maiden in her search for a new earthly form.

Large masks, special effects and beautiful music combine to make this story as enchanting as it is exciting for children from five to ten years of age.

One of the most popular puppet Theatre troupes in Ontario, "The Puppcorns" aim to stimulate the creative imagination of children using unique, original puppet creations and a variety of story telling techniques.

The troupe which brings many years of educational experience to its performances is the inspiration of Lois Walker, a certified teacher with a Masters Degree in Theatre Arts, and husband Herb, a former university professor with a background including children's literature and many years of musical training and keyboard performances.

Loading a trailer

Improper loading or overloading of trailers exposes travelers to needless hazards, states the Ontario Safety League. Weigh the trailer empty and again when loaded to make sure that the total weight is within the safe limits listed in the owner's manual. In loading, 60 percent of the weight should be placed in front of the axle, with the remaining 40 per cent toward the rear. This places an ideal 10 percent of the load weight on the hitch of the towing vehicle. Place the heaviest gear on the floor and slightly ahead of the axle to lower the centre of gravity and position it in the most stable location possible.

Well known Canadian radio and TV performers, The Puppcorns have also performed extensively in the United States over the past couple of years. All are invited to attend this free Puppcorns show presented by the Iroquois Public Library, and sponsored by the Eastern Ontario Regional Library System, Ontario Arts Council and "Outreach Ontario", Ministry of Citizenship and Culture.

Karl and Florence Bell, former residents near Dixon's Corners, marked their 50th wedding anniversary with a surprise party given by daughter, Thelma, and relatives Frances and Orville Bell, at the former Nation Valley School east of Cass Bridge near Winchester. The couple was presented with cards and lovely gifts and an anniversary cake. Mrs. Bell attended the school for seven years as a student and taught there for four years. Mr. Bell was a farmer before retiring and the couple moved to Morrisburg. The actual date of their anniversary is today, June 29.

GRADUATES

Brent A. Mattice, son of Lyle Mattice and Jean (Lindsay) Mattice, graduated June 17, 1983 from Fanshawe College at London, Ontario. Brent received a degree in Law and Security Administration - (Customs Major) and is presently employed by Canada Customs at Windsor, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Casselman celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 25.

Golden Anniversary celebrated Saturday

[CARDINAL] - Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Casselman, Dundas Street, Cardinal celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 25. Many friends and relatives, from Cardinal, Warren Michigan, Montreal, Syracuse, Morewood, Chal, River, Richmond Hill attended the open house at the Casselmans on Saturday, including Mrs. Maude Farlenger (Mrs. Casselman's sister) who was bridesmaid at the wedding. Arthur and Flo Casselman were married on June 29, 1933 in the United Church manse in Williamsburg, by the Rev. Alec

Russell. They have three children, Alice May of Mississauga, Arthur of East York, Toronto, and Linda of Pembroke.

The sandwiches and squares and the roast beef dinner for the open house was catered by the United Church Women of St. John's Church in Cardinal.

Reception held for couple

A reception was held in the Legion Hall, Iroquois on Saturday June 18th, 1983 to honor Roy and Edna Bebee on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The hall was attractively decorated in gold and pink with floral arrangements, the courtesy of Fader's Floral Designs, Iroquois.

The fiftieth anniversary celebration was planned by the couple's three daughters, their husbands and families - Enid Casselman of Iroquois, Shirley Patterson of New Jersey and Sheila Cornell of Brockville.

TRAILERING MOTORISTS
Trailer drivers have to adapt their driving to the added length they are pulling behind them. This usually means at least twice the normal distance is required to pass another vehicle and a much wider curve is required to negotiate sharp turns. The Ontario Safety League also reminds you to consider the effect of wind. A large boat or house trailer of any size has the effect of a 'sail'.

A delicious dinner was served by the members of Moonlight Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

The highlights of the evening were two lovely solos, "I love you truly" and "I'll walk beside you through the years" by Mrs. Florence English, accompanied by Mrs. Jane Graham at the piano; musical selections by Aletha Williams, sister of Edna, at the piano with Mr. Gordon Cooper, Kemptville, on the violin; and accordion music by Barry Casselman, Ottawa, grandson of Roy and Edna.

Tim Casselman, Brockville, oldest grandson, acted as Master of Ceremonies. He read a delightful poem, composed by Cooke Sisty, Iroquois which brought back many pleasant memories of the past fifty years.

Mrs. Aletha Williams read an appropriate address followed by the presentation of gifts - one being "The Lord's Prayer", crocheted by their daughter Shirley, and mounted in a frame. A treasure they will cherish among all their gifts.

Bird Notes

by
E. G. AVERY

A pair of Mourning Doves have now settled in, and we seem to be moving into our neighbourhood. All signs of building are evident: trip after trip from an earth pile to a well-shaded site in a big Maple, as one bird carries the materials while the other builds. The Mourning Dove apparently lays only two eggs to a clutch, but has several broods in a season.

One of these days we shall park near that tree in hope of hearing the distinctive cooing so many watchers have been talking about this year.

Our old cat, Pixie was sitting on the porch minding her own business one morning when she was suddenly dive-bombed by a Blackbird. She was not amused, nor even tempted, as she has long since retired from active hunting; she made a quick request to come inside.

Most of the Summerbirds have now settled in, and we have Cedar Waxwings, Catbirds, Thrashers, Kingbirds and a variety of Swallows. The only one which so far is a "no show" is the Kingfisher.

Returning home from a visit with friends in Smiths Falls one evening, we were treated to a special performance by the forces of Nature. There had been a thunderstorm, and along the horizon line, flashes of lightning made an interesting effect on the thick black clouds which lingered in the lower sky. Above the clouds the stars twinkled in the soft Blue. There is always that little extra surprise in the world of nature; this time it came as we passed through a dark stretch of the road, we found we had an escort of fireflies, their tiny lights flashing a welcome along the way.

Loyalist Days start with canoe race

[PRESCOTT] - Billed as The Great International Canoe Race, this opening event of Loyalist Days in Prescott on Sunday afternoon, July 10, is in its fourth year and is sponsored by The Forwarders' Museum with the assistance of the Rotary Club of Prescott.

The race will start at the Municipal Dock, at the foot of Centre Street with paddlers racing to the U.S. Customs Dock at Ogdensburg, N.Y., and return.

The event is a money raising event for the museum, with entries sponsored by area businesses, industries, service clubs and other organizations. Private non-sponsored entries are also welcome.

Proceeds of the race will assist in the operation and maintenance of The Forwarders' Museum, a non-profit organization featuring early commercial shipping on the St. Lawrence River between Prescott and Montreal.

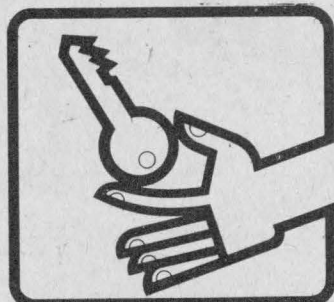

Categories of entrants include Mens, Ladies, Mixed, Sponsored and Non-Sponsored as well as a special prize for best heritage costume. Canoes must have two paddlers and be equipped with approved life jackets. Racing canoes and bent paddles are prohibited.

Notices to Shipping on the St. Lawrence Seaway will be issued to advise the race will be held, and volunteer patrol craft will be stationed along route to assist in emergencies.

The race was inaugurated in 1980 and has remained an annual Loyalist Days event. The week of celebrations begin on July 9 and climax with the two-day battle between the Brigade of the American Revolution and the Fort Wellington Garrison on Saturday, July 16 and 17.

Applications for entry forms, pledge sheets and rules may be secured from the Forwarders' Museum, 201 Water Street West, Prescott, Ontario, K0E 1T0.

Fort Henry Guard increased

[KINGSTON] - The Guard at Old Fort Henry in Kingston will be expanded from 111 men to 141 by 1984, Tourism and Recreation Minister Reuben C. Baetz announced to the Ontario Legislature on May 20.

A grant of $335,000 through the federal provincial Eastern Ontario Development Plan will permit a two-phase expansion of the Guard which is a re-creation of the First or Grenadier Regiment of Guards of 1853.

For 1983, the complement of Guard members will rise to 127 men, performing 90-minute military garrison parades twice weekly at the Fort. In 1984, expansion will be completed at 141 men, enabling three on-site performances weekly and formation of a permanent unit to conduct promotional military drills and manoeuvres away from Old Fort Henry.

"The increasing popularity of the Fort Henry Guard as a travelling drill unit both in Canada and abroad has made expansion of the Guard a priority," said Mr. Baetz.

"The Guard has proven to be extremely popular. In fact, our marketing surveys showed that tourism-related industries in the Kingston area benefitted markedly on the evenings of Guard exhibitions during 1982," Mr. Baetz added.

The Guard, composed of high school and university students from across the province, wear replica uniforms of the British infantry battalion which was stationed at the Fort to protect the city of Kingston and the Rideau Canal entrance.

Mr. Baetz said the grant will finance salaries of the added members plus new uniforms and equipment.

For 1983, the military ceremony demonstrated by the Guard will be presented twice per week.

The 90-minute parade, or ceremonial retreat, includes traditional military exercises and marching music as supplied by the Guard's own five-and-drum corps.

"We needed additional Guardsmen so the ceremonies can be performed more often, and at more places outside the Fort," said Bill Patterson, Superintendent of Historic Sites for The St. Lawrence Parks Commission. "Fort Henry is a popular regional attraction with an historical ambience."

"So when you think of how vital the tourism industry is to this part of the province, you realize how important it is to expand the Guard. We want all tourists to be able to see the Guard when they visit," said Mr. Patterson.

The Fort opened its doors to tourists in 1938 after being rebuilt and restored as a novel tourism experiment.

Since 1954, the Guard has participated in exchange visits with a U.S. Marine Corps in Washington, D.C.

SOCCER SCORES

The final preparations are underway as the Seaway Valley Spartans Soccer Club hold their first annual Soccer Spectacular on July 1st and 2nd in Morrisburg, Ontario. The tournament will see 32 men's and women's teams fighting it out for the top prizes. Among the team making the trip to Morrisburg for the weekend are:

St. Laurent of the Montreal Metropolitan League; Ottawa Santos of the Ottawa Senior League; Rockers United - Ottawa; Computing Devices - Ottawa; Ottawa Royals - Ottawa; Kingston Township - Kingston League; Liverpool - Kingston; Greenfield; Kingston Portuguese - Kingston, San Martino - Ottawa.

All these teams are first-class, top-flight teams and should provide plenty of soccer action for the weekend. Division One teams from the Cornwall league (of which the host team is a member) that will be putting up a strong challenge for the title will be: Cornwall City, Osnabruck Cosmos, St. Andrews Saints, North Dundas United and Char-Lan United.

Other teams for the Cornwall League (Division II) that will be making a challenge for the title are: Avonmore Pacers, CE Cornwall and the host Seaway Spartans Clubs.

Also representing soccer at the local level will be Morrisburg Magicians and Coon's Combines.

The Women's division is an equally impressive list of top flight teams from the Morrisburg, Kingston, Ottawa and Montreal areas.

The major sponsor of the tournament is Molson Breweries of Canada Limited and also many local businesses. Other events planned for the weekend include a Skills-competition, Canada Day Dance, and a softball tournament.

The price of admission for the tournament is $2.00 for which you will receive a Spartans button. This button will entitle you to participation in the skills competition and a discount at the door price of the Canadance, which features the Murray Reid Group of Renfrew, Ontario.

All members of the press will be admitted for free, upon showing proper identification, and are invited to participate in the other scheduled events. If you intend to send a representative from your staff, or for further information, please contact: Bill Ault, R.R. 2, Brinston, Ontario, K0E 1C0 or (613) 652-4858.

On June 12, the Seaway Spartans travelled to St. Lawrence High School in Cornwall to play the Hellenic Stars.

The teams both played well in the heat, and the resulting score was very close. In the first half of play, Seaway managed to score two goals. Hellenic scored first, was Seaway grabbing the lead before halftime. The first goal for Seaway was scored by Ben Norgaard 22 minutes into the game, assisted by David Cherry. The second goal for Seaway was scored 13 minutes later, on a shot by David Cherry. He was assisted by Perry Hart.

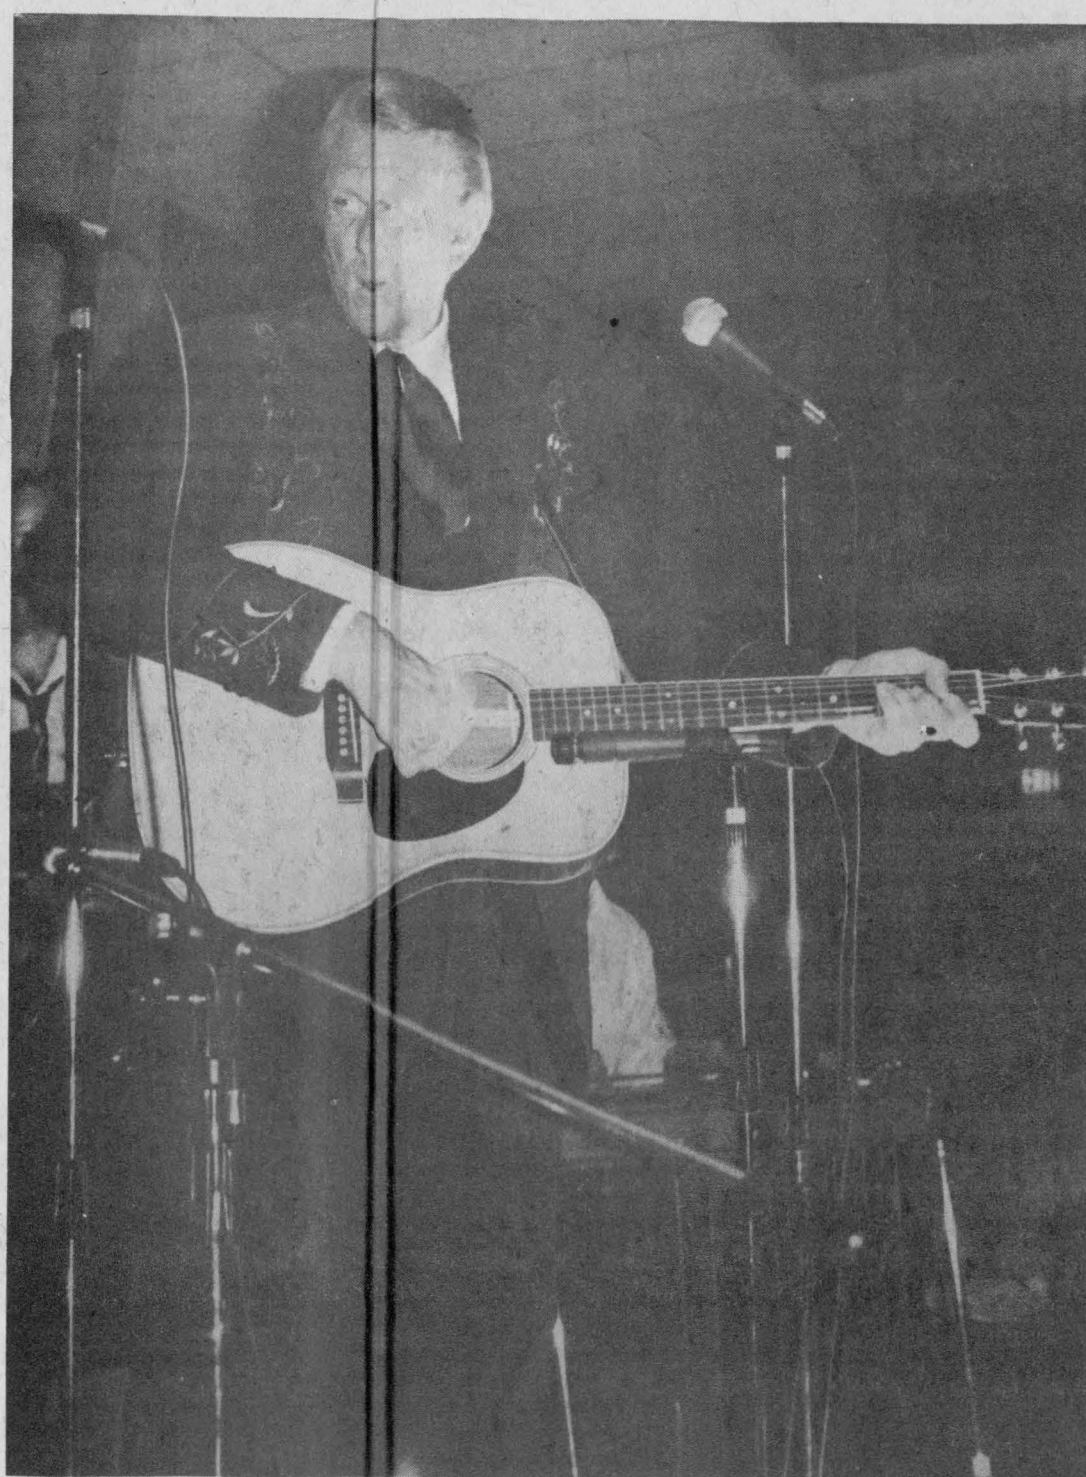

In the second half, the Stars scored twice more, bringing the score to 3-2 for Hellenic. Seaway's goal to tie the game was scored by Perry Hart, on an assist by John Johnston, at 50 minutes. The score was tied until 72 minutes, when Seaway got their winning goal on a shot by Jay Merkley, assisted by Bob Fowler. This winning goal brought the final score to 4-3 for Seaway, giving them their fourth straight win this season.

Their next game was on June 15 at 6:30, when they travelled to Massena to play the Massena Violis United.

Once again playing on a very hot day, both teams were tired easily. The game soon took on a few dirty tricks, resulting in three players (two Massena and one Seaway) being thrown out of the game, which means an immediate one game suspension. Seaway's Ben Norgaard was thrown out along with a Massena player, when the Massena player fouled and the two started arguing.

In the first half of the game, only one goal was scored, by Seaway's Brian Bennett, playing at the forward position for the first time. Brian scored at 30 minutes, assisted by Jay Merkley. No further goals were scored until the second half, when Jay Merkley scored at 69 minutes, assisted by David Cherry, and again at 73 minutes, on an assist by Bill Fowler. Massena had lost for the second time, giving Seaway a 5-0 standing. Keep up the good work.

The ladies half of the Spartans played their first league game on June 13 in Williamstown against Char-Lan II. Seaway played extremely well, and were the first to score, on a shot by Nancy Goupil. The Spartans held the score at 1-0 for the first half, but shortly into the second, Char-Lan managed to get two goals. With the score 2-1 for Char-Lan, the Seaway girls fought back harder than ever. Finally, about 10 minutes before the final whistle, Nancy Goupil scored once again to tie the score at 2-2. There were no other goals by either team, so Seaway managed to tie for their first game.

About 280 persons attended the Tommy Hunter Show at Matilda Township Hall in Dixon's Corners last Saturday night and heard a fine show performed by the popular Canadian country and western singer, his backup band and special guests Dona and Leroy. Mr. Hunter began the show at 8:30 p.m. and played about two hours before giving way to the band. However, he reappeared for other numbers through the night and also showed his prowess on the fiddle. The amicable singer peppered his show with jokes and relaxed conversation, poking gentle fun at Matilda Township politicians and well-known personalities. A mixed crowd enjoyed the show and besieged Mr. Hunter and other performers for pictures and autographs.

The girls were not so lucky in their second game, on June 19, at 6:30 when they played in Williamstown once again, this time against Char-Lan United. The Spartans tried hard, but they lost drastically by a score of 10-0. The girls would like some moral support, so please come on out and cheer them on.

The men's team had an exhibition game on Sunday in Morrisburg against the Morrisburg Magicians. This team is made up of men from the surrounding area who put the team together to play in the Spartans tournament July 1 and 2nd. They are playing some other area teams to get practiced up for the tournament. During this game, the Spartans defeated the Magicians by a score of 3-0, with goals being scored by Jay Merkley, Perry Hart and Brian Bennett.

The next game for the men's team was on June 22 in Williamstown when they played Char-Lan II.

The team played to score, at 10 minutes, on a shot by David Cherry. David was assisted by Perry Hart. The next goal came at 33 minutes, when John Johnson assisted Chuck Saddle-mire, to give Chuck his third goal of the season, on his way to his first hat trick.

In the second half, Scott Campbell assisted David Cherry at 57 minutes to bring David one step closer to another hat trick, his third in five games. Brian Bennet followed at 62 minutes, assisted by Andy Brown. Seaway's sixth goal was scored by Jay Merkley at 75 minutes, with an assist from John Johnson. At 77 minutes, Chuck Saddle-mire scored his third goal of the game, assisted by Andy Brown, giving Chuck his first hat trick of the season. At 84 minutes, John Johnson assisted Perry Hart to score for Seaway once again. Two minutes after that goal, David Cherry was unassisted when he scored his third goal, which meant he got his third hat trick. Three minutes after David's goal, Perry Hart, also unassisted, scored his second goal of the game, bringing the final score to 10-1, giving Seaway their sixth straight victory.

On Sunday, June 26, the Spartan girls played the Cornwall Classics at 12:30 in Morrisburg.

The girls could not work together, and so they lost once again, by a score of 5-0. The Classics scored four of their five goals in the first half and in the second half, when Seaway finally started to get their act together, and prevented Cornwall from scoring more than one goal. The team is showing some improvement and since the girls automatically make the play-offs we have all summer to practice. The girls will be playing in the tournament this Friday at 11:00 and 2:00 and on Saturday at 10:00. The guys team will be playing at 9:00, 12:00 and 4:00 on Friday and at 11:00 on Saturday. There will be a skills competition at 12:00 on Saturday, and all persons paying their $2.00 fee for the weekend are eligible to try their skills. The men's finals are at 3:00, and the final for the women are at 4:00.

There will be a dance on July
