Over 2,000 attend trade show

By Lesley Cadham
News* editor

Members of the Alexandria and District Chamber of Commerce heaved a collective sigh of relief after what President Sheila Olson has coined as a "successful" trade show.

The event, held Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday, drew 60 exhibitors and 2,200 spectators, about 300 visitors less than organizers of the 1987 show counted.

But Mrs. Olson said she felt this year's show was well attended, adding that she does not feel the 1987 figures are accurate because the Chamber did not have any way of counting the number of visitors. This year, it sold admission tickets for $1; the ticket stub went toward a draw for a microwave oven and provided a rough head count.

But one thing is for sure, said Mrs. Olson: Holding the bi-annual trade show on Mother's Day weekend is not a mistake the Chamber will repeat. It was held on the same weekend last time: A traditionally busy time of year for most people.

The next show is planned to take place a week earlier and the Chamber will meet Thursday to discuss ways to improve the next event.

Attendance was high on Friday night, estimated to be around 1,200. The weather, which improved considerably and brought warmth to Glengarry on Friday and Saturday, was a drawing card.

And many of the entrepreneurs who exhibited their goods and services were pleased with the show.

The Hawkesbury firm of Total Security Systems was among the exhibitors to deliver laurels to the Chamber of Commerce.

Owner Don Calverley called the show "excellent" and said he would be back in two years.

"The management is far more impressive" than that of another trade show where he displayed his services recently. "It's well handled . . . there's a lot of stuff for the kids . . ." he said.

Several other business owners, such as Diane Trottier of Trottier Sales, Anne McRae MacGillivray of the Stormont-Glengarry Waste Management Public Liaison Committee and Andre Lefebvre of A&C Upholstery of Alexandria, said the trade show gave them exposure and attracted a lot of business.

For some entrepreneurs, the answer as to whether the trade show helped their businesses will lie in the future.

But some visitors acknowledged that they enjoyed the show because the admission price was low and there was very little on which to spend

Even youngsters found ways to enjoy themselves at well-attended Alexandria and District Chamber of Commerce Trade Show, held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. And Marc Gauthier, 10, of Alexandria was one of several young people who tried out the xylophones at the Centre Culturel booth, with the help of attendant Natalie Ranger. Marc is the son of Gilles and Nicole Gauthier. Inset, little Rod MacCrimmon entertained passers-by with his make-believe skills on Lawn-Boy yard tractors at the Robert's Rental booth. The three-year-old tried them all, under the watchful eye of parents Harold and Janet of Dunvegan.

Lochiel taxes to jump 16.6% due to education increases

Lochiel Township taxpayers will pay 16.6 per cent more in taxes this year, the township announced late yesterday (Tuesday).

Clerk/Treasurer Ray Charbonneau told The Glengarry News just before press time, that the enormous increase is due to the SD&G County Board of Education's tax hike of 17.2 per cent and the SD&G Roman Catholic School Board's 10.9 increase in taxes.

The news came about a week after the township announced a $57,868 surplus of funds at the end of 1988, despite more than $86,000 deficits from 1986 and 1987.

Mr. Charbonneau said the increase in 1989 levies would have been higher, but it is to be offset by last year's surplus. This will mean the property assessed at $5,000 will pay $834 annually in taxes.

Further information on the 1989 budget could not be obtained before press time.

But even though Lochiel paid off its debts, there's no relief for the township. Council is planning to purchase a grader for $150,000 to replace its 18-year-old machine and Mr. Charbonneau estimated last Tuesday it will take another two years of cutbacks to raise the money.

Council was faced with two years of debts — $42,405 in 1987 and $46,095 in 1986. Mr. Charbonneau said these debts were largely incurred by a $110,000 extension to the township garage in 1987.

Mr. Charbonneau said council made a concerted effort to tighten its belt when compiling the 1988 budget and cut $110,301 in planned roads work.

This included a roughly $30,000 cutback on gravel for roads and another $10,000 cut on calcium. Calcium is used as a dust suppressant.

"It was tight," Mr. Charbonneau said, "But I think the public (still) got the service that it paid for."

Council also picked up a few extra pennies through taxation and money management.

"Last year was a bumper year," Mr. Charbonneau said, referring to the $24,633 more than budget raised in taxes.

Many new buildings constructed, which automatically means a reassessment of property and an increase in taxes to bring them up to current prices.

Another $6,905 above the estimated budget was made by temporarily juggling available money into 30-day term deposits and reaping the interest.

The township would have fallen into an even bigger deficit had it not been for its reserve fund.

The fund, which receives contributions every year, currently contains about $235,000, according to Mr. Charbonneau. It was used to offset $314,000 in unpaid taxes that had to be covered by the township in 1988.

A similar tax bill is covered by the council every year, Mr. Charbonneau said.

Council also has $74,429 left from a building fund it had set up for a new town office that was made redundant by renovations to the existing one. Mr. Charbonneau says this money is being saved as a cushion.

Despite the money saved, Lochiel did make less and spend more money than last year, in some areas.

Federal grants were down $17,926 from 1987 because of government cutbacks, said Mr. Charbonneau.

These grants were even $7,100 below the budget estimate.

However, provincial grants for transportation services were up, although this was balanced by special township projects, such as the reconstruction of Sandfield Road, which received $70,000 in funding. Lochiel spent an additional $40,000 of its own money.

Another $170,000 was granted to upgrade McCormick Road (Power Dam).

Lochiel's revenue from licences, such as raffle licences, was down $55,014, to $8,125, but Mr. Charbonneau says last year's figure $63,139 was unusually high.

Robbery suspect to be tried this week

A Glen Robertson man facing two charges of conspiracy in connection with robberies appeared in Cornwall District Court Monday on the first day of an expected week-long trial.

Richard Gordon Pizzardi, 38, pleaded not guilty Monday to conspiracy charges in connection with the robbery of a Glen Robertson home.

Mr. Pizzardi is not in the custody of police.

On March 20, 1988, Carleton Rickerd's home was broken into and $3,000 in cash was stolen. Mr. Rickerd was physically beaten.

Allan Dodd, 30, and Martin Pellerin, 21, both of unfixed addresses, pleaded guilty to the robbery at the Rickerd home and were sentenced to 33 months and 27 months imprisonment, respectively.

Three weeks after the beating, Mr. Rickard died of natural causes.

Mr. Pizzardi was also charged by Hawkesbury OPP in February of 1989 with conspiracy in connection with a 1982 robbery. He will undergo a preliminary hearing in L'Orignal Provincial Court in October, in connection with this charge.

The two robbers involved in that case, Josh Hogan, 32, and Pierre Corbin, 33, both of Montreal, have been convicted of armed robbery and sentenced to imprisonment.

Cattlemen say no to beef marketing system

By Bruce Myers
News* reporter

Ontario cattlemen who participated in a province-wide referendum on the future of their marketing system voted a resounding "no" to the idea of marketing board, results released by the Farm Products Marketing Commission indicated last week.

According to a press release from the Ontario Cattlemen's Association (OCA), 72 per cent of those who exercised their franchise voted against the proposal that would establish a beef marketing commission, which would regulate all sales of cattle within the province. The remaining 28 per cent opposed the status quo, which allows producers to privately sell their livestock through whatever means they choose.

The Ministry of Agriculture and Food did not break down results to the county level.

But figures from the OCA indicate that only 56 per cent of those eligible to vote in the mail-in election sent in their ballots; a reaction that has disappointed both sides in the dispute.

"You can't make it much easier for them (the producers)," said OCA county Director Thomas VanStokkon, a beef producer from the Alexandria area. Because the vote was by mail "farmers didn't even have to go out their door" to vote. He believes that one of the reasons behind poor voter response may have been the way the three-question ballot was designed. Some farmers found the document confusing and this resulted in the invalidation of 800 ballots across Ontario.

A local supporter of the Beef Producers for Change (BPFC) is also discouraged by the lower-than-expected response.

Sue Wilson, a Vankleek Hill area farmer blames it more on the information meetings set up for voters by the Ministry of Agriculture and Food.

"I don't think a lot of people understood," claimed Mrs. Wilson in an interview with The News Tuesday afternoon. "A lot of questions were left unanswered at those meetings."

She also feels they were held too late for the information provided to be of any practical use to the farmers.

Kenyon surplus gobbled up by two-year old deficit, taxes to rise 6.1%

Kenyon Township ratepayers may face a tax hike of 6.1 per cent this year, due to a $75,083 deficit incurred by the township last year.

Kenyon Clerk Mary McCuaig estimates township taxes will increase, adding about $40 to $50 for the average home assessed at $4,000.

But though Kenyon's 1988 financial report "looks bad . . . it's good," said Mrs. McCuaig, Friday.

"The township spent more money than it budgeted for, but it did not increase the deficit. It even reduced it," she said.

Kenyon began 1988 with a deficit of $105,506. By enforcing a tight budget, described by Mrs. McCuaig as even unrealistic in some areas, Kenyon actually came out with a surplus of $30,000. However, this was used to offset the deficit, reducing it to $75,083.

Last year's tax increase of 4.1 per cent did not even meet the provincial inflation rate. It is hoped that this year's additional 2 per cent increase will make a difference.

"Just that extra two per cent (in 1989) has given us an extra bit to play with," Mrs. McCuaig said. "Mind you, council has got to be very, very careful."

But "a $100,000 deficit is not bad," Mrs. McCuaig said. "It's not a panic."

Mrs. McCuaig attributed Kenyon's $90,000 budget overspending to council's "just having cut too deep to the bone." She says council underestimated costs, setting spending limits that could not realistically be kept.

And "the waste disposal sites did us in," Mrs. McCuaig said. "That was one of the biggest expenditures."

Under new provincial legislation, dump sites must be covered every week: Burning is not permitted. This has bumped up environmental services costs more than $34,000, she said.

She added fire protection and administrative costs to the list of overexpenditures.

And over $10,000 more than budget was spent on fighting fires last year, Mrs. McCuaig said.

Also, the building inspector's fees were up about $5,000 or $6,000.

Transportation services were another source of overspending — more than $34,000 worth — largely because of the cost of repairing the transmissions in a grader and a truck.

Games improvements discussed at meetings

By Angus H. McDonell

The annual spring meetings, April and May, of the Glengarry Highland Games were conducted in an atmosphere of enthusiasm that assures a successful staging of the 1989 games, Aug. 4 and 5 at Maxville.

Following the trail blazed by the founders 42 years ago, based on the innovations that would create improvements: This year will emphasize the continuity of that system.

Treasurer Brian Arkinstall has drafted a lengthy, concise financial program to serve each committee as guidelines to follow and the plan has been endorsed as a positive directive. It is based on a conservative attendance that will be enhanced by a better than average crowd.

During the off season, still another major project has been achieved. As the number of bands attending during the 1980s increased, taxing the space of the infield, an annual discussion following the Games was the norm of how to enlarge the infield.

Maxville Village council, after last year's Games, launched their sewer project. That meant hundreds of yards of excavated ground to be trucked away. The Games executive seized the opportunity of the available fill to proceed with the long awaited expansion of the infield by moving the east side terrace back about 20 feet and rebuilding the mound.

Executive members Bill Metcalfe and Garry Smith were appointed co-chairmen to oversee the work. At this time, the project is in the final stages and at the request of Garry Smith, members are requested to report with garden rakes during the long evenings to smooth the surface of the terraces in readiness to seed with fast growing grass or sodding where necessary.

The fences will be restored, and not only will there be more space for the massed bands opening and closing ritual, but also of importance the sport track races can be held without creating any interference with the bands judging.

There will be another innovation as a result of moving back some 20 feet the east side terrace. The resulting area between the mound and the grounds fence will be reserved for Clan gatherings.

On this space, a Clan may erect a booth or tent for exhibits or private socializing. Three Clans have already made reservations. The area will provide food and beverage concessions and it is estimated this new terrace will accommodate about 3,000 more fans than the former mound. Although the area will encroach on the parking lot, chairman of parking, Jim MacEwen, states that will not create any problems.

Referring to the program, it is likely that one minute of silence will be observed during the opening of the Games, commemorating the sudden death as a result of a car accident last January, near Los Angeles, of Keith Tice a world champion heavy events athlete who competed at the Glengarry Highland Games the past few years. A memorial trophy is to money inside. In fact, they said, many exhibitors were giving their goods away, sending visitors home with bags full of goodies.

Lanthier's Bakery of Alexandria gave away about 600 loaves of a new "half and half" bread, 400 packages of half-baked buns and 250 aprons, hats and towels.

Polyad Industries of North Lancaster gave away its sponges and A&C Upholstery sent home pillow for visitors to dream on.

The Alexandria Lions Club, which hosted the "beer garden" on the trade show floor, reported that not much beer was sold. Gaetan Ravary on duty when the show closed Saturday at 3 p.m., pointed to five large garbage bags full of empty beer cans.

Most visitors, including children, found ways to enjoy themselves.

There were several fashion shows on Thursday and Friday nights, featuring styles from Paddy's, Carm's Ladies' wear, M&D Sports and The Bootique and hairstyling by Uptown Hair Designs.

But while Mrs. Olson said she is grateful for the participation and hard work put in by those businesses, she is disappointed that more local clothing stores did not get involved.

"The show was not too well supported by our merchants. I know it was Mother's Day, but everybody had Mother's Day," she said.

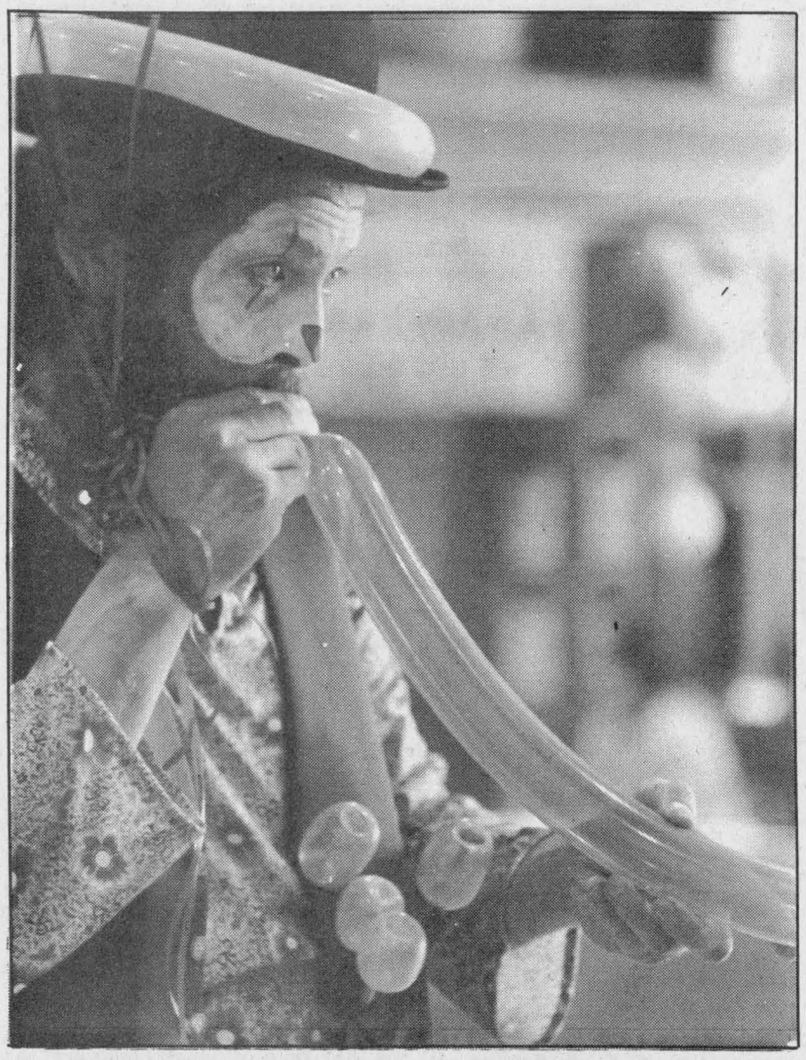
Glen Roy resident Brock Currie, dressed in clown attire, circulated among the youngsters all day Saturday, entertaining them with balloon crafts.

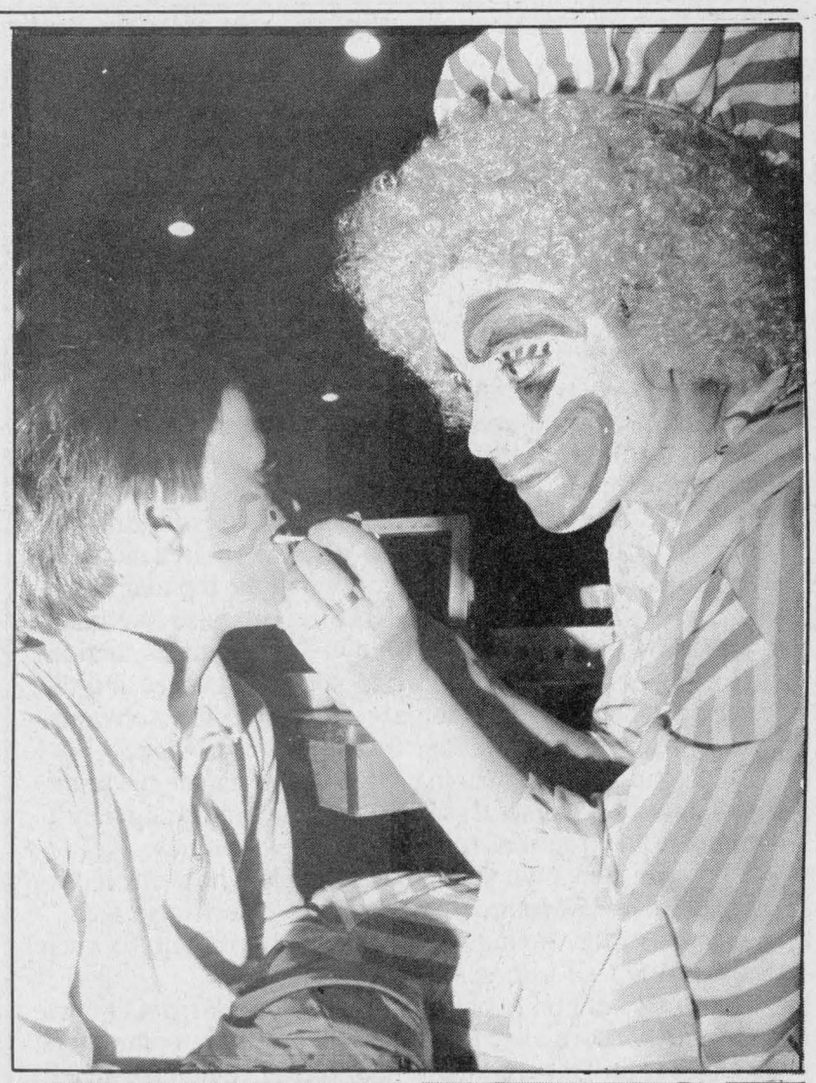
Many children also went under the paint brush; to have their faces painted, that is.

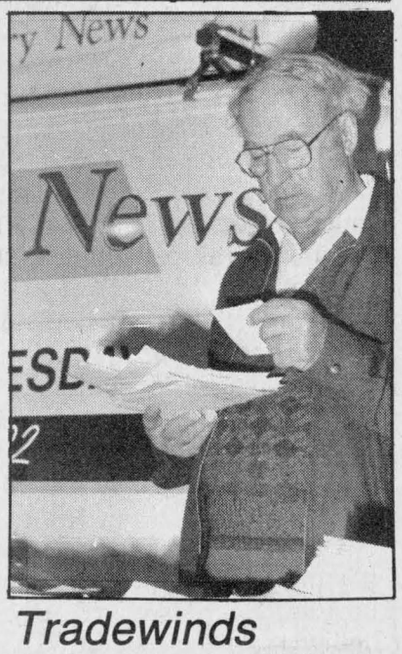
Sky-Hi ran movies for flick fans during the show and Miron Electronic kept their giant TV screens alive with pay television movies.

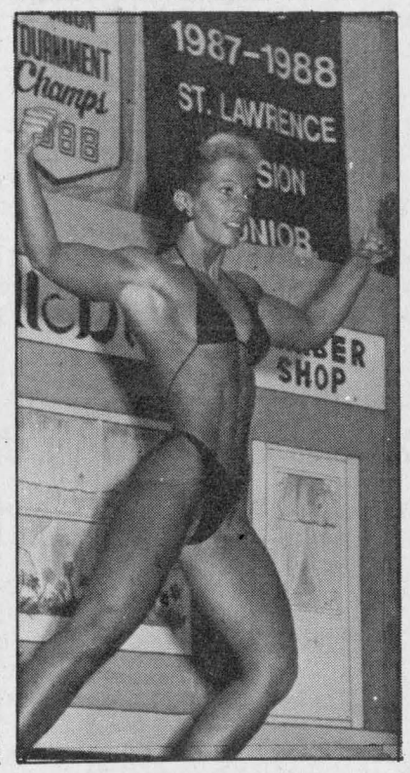
Roxanne's Fitness held an aerobics demonstration, with a brief appearance by Alexandria bodybuilder Sue Delage.

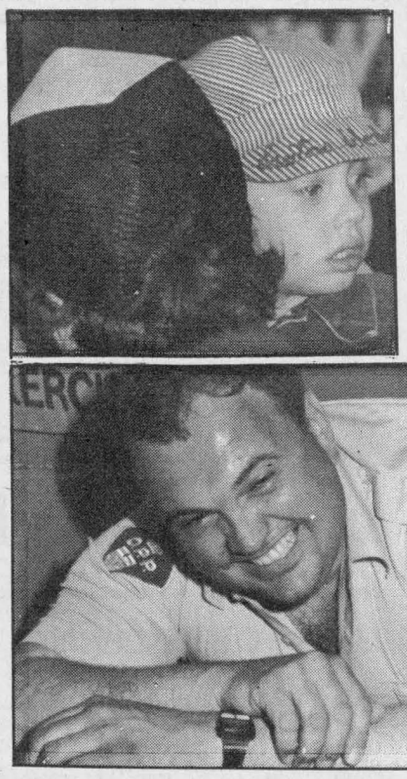
The Alexandria IGA held a barbecue on the warm Saturday, under partially cloudy skies.

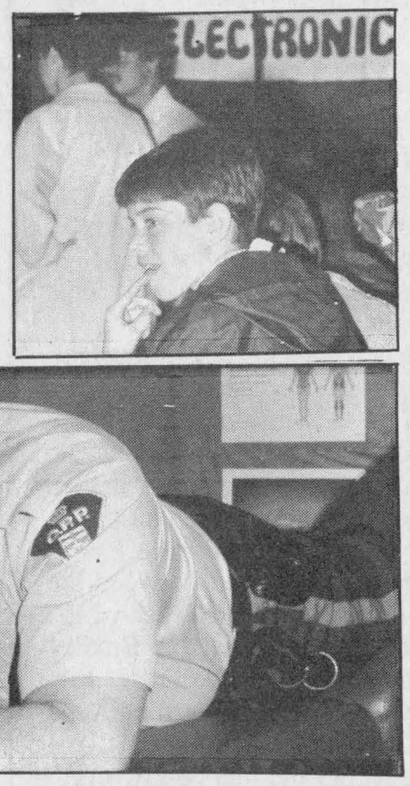












Tradewinds

Domestic dispute leads to unusual scene near Glen Walter Thursday afternoon

Residents along Hwy. 2 near Glen Walter may have witnessed an unusual scene, Thursday afternoon, when a woman sped out of a parking lot with her boyfriend clinging partially nude, to the hood of the car.

Lancaster OPP received a call to investigate a domestic complaint on Thursday afternoon, at the Precious Blood Church parking lot on Hwy. 2 in Glen Walter.

Shortly after an officer was dispatched to the scene, he was advised that the vehicle had left the church and was being driven erratically a short distance away on Hwy. 2. Police apprehended the vehicle and found the man, unclad from the waist down, clinging to the hood of the vehicle. The driver was dressed in only a slip and shoes.

According to Lancaster OPP, the incident was precipitated when the couple, parked in the church parking lot, began arguing. The male subject was locked out of the car by his girlfriend, but jumped onto the hood as the car pulled away.

The driver has been charged with careless driving.

Car rolls

A 1983 four-door Subaru went out of control late Saturday morning on Hwy. 401, 2 km. east of Boundary Road in Charlottenburgh Township. The westbound vehicle went into the north ditch and rolled three times.

The driver of the vehicle, Julie Slater, 16, of RR1, Alexandria was taken to Cornwall General Hospital with minor injuries.

The vehicle was totalled.

News vehicle damaged

The Glengarry News van was the target of vandals sometime between 4 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m. Sunday.

Alexandria police say someone slashed the left front tire and wrote a four letter word — with a cake icing-type substance — on the left side of the vehicle.

The 1988 GMC van was parked outside The Glengarry News office.

Vandalism

Three vehicles and a portable classroom were the targets of vandals Friday night at Ecole Secondaire Regionale Glengarry-Glengarry District High School.

Alexandria police say the front windows on the passenger's side in vehicles belonging to Jean Villeneuve (1986 Hyundai) of Hawkesbury and Jean-Claude Larocque (1978 Ford Pickup) of Alexandria, were broken.

A third vehicle, a 1982 Honda registered to Claude Bourdeau, had its rear passenger window smashed.

Desks inside the portable classroom had been tipped over and books were found strewn across the floor. A "ghetto blaster" radio was stolen from the premises.

Police say there was no sign of forced entry.

Vehicle scratched

A 1988 Cherolet Cavalier, belonging to Ronald Dupuis of RR4, Alexandria, was scratched on the driver's side with an unknown object between 1 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. Friday. The vehicle was parked at 289 Kenyon Street in Alexandria.

Break-in

Someone broke into the Alexandria fire hall late Thursday evening or early Friday morning and stole a variety of items. Taken were eight to 10 training video cassettes, seven photographs of fire scenes from the wall, and one pair of size 12 firefighter's rubber boots.

Entry was gained by way of the back door.

Court report

The following are cases dealt with by Judge Reginald Levesque at Alexandria Provincial Court on Thursday, May 11.

Trial adjourned

The trial of a Bainsville man charged in connection with a hit-and-run accident that killed two people on Hwy. 401 near Lancaster last month, has been adjourned until June 8.

Raymond Ravary, 39, was charged May 2 with "causing death by criminal negligence and failed to stop at the scene of an accident" by Lancaster OPP.

Ramon Mallari, 35, and his wife Maria, 28, died April 22, when the vehicle in which they were travelling was struck from behind.

The couple's three-year-old daughter, their 10-month-old son, James, and Peregrina Mallari, 73, have all been released from hospital.

Defrauded local businesses

An Alexandria woman pleaded guilty to defrauding two Alexandria business of a total of $1,618.20.

Alexandria police charged Joanne Massia, 24, with two counts of fraud in November. She had cashed family benefits cheques for $826.60 at Lemieux Bookkeeping in March 1988 and another for $791.60 at the Alexandria IGA in November 1987, and later signed affadavits produced by social services, swearing that she had not received the cheques.

The money was taken back from the IGA and Lemieux Bookkeeping by the Ministry of Community and Social Services. In October, 1988, IGA reported the problem to Alexandria police and Lemieux Bookkeeping reported the matter in November, 1988.

Ms. Massia appeared in court on April 6 and the case was remanded while Ms. Massia was subjected to a pre-sentence report.

Last week, Ms. Massia pleaded guilty and was given 18 months of probation. She has paid restitution to Lemieux Bookkeeping and has until Dec. 31 to reimburse IGA.

Jail sentence for impaired driver

A Summerstown man who faced his second conviction for driving a motor vehicle with a blood-alcohol level exceeding the legal limit, was sentenced to 21 days in jail.

William McDonald, 46, pleaded guilty to committing the offence, which occurred on Dec. 21, 1988, in the Township of Charlottenburgh.

Mr. McDonald was charged by Lancaster OPP.

He is also prohibited from operating a motor vehicle for 18 months.

For scientists and others commuting is viable option

Evidence that the CN rail line between Ottawa and Montreal can continue to play an increasingly important role came last week from an unlikely source -- the president for corporate services and research of the Canadian Space Agency. While his position may not necessarily qualify him as an expert, his views definitely add fuel to the defence by those working to save the line and passenger train service on it.

As most people inside and outside of the debate now know, the government has decided to put the headquarters of the Canadian Space Agency in Montreal. Aside from drawing the ire of political critics and the general public, the decision has induced the resignation of two of the top men directing Canada's efforts in space. The reports also say many others in Ottawa are ready to follow. The scientists, mainly anglophones, say they're worried about language, and the festering debates over the subject in Quebec. They obviously have serious doubts about living in the province.

Gary Lindberg, the man in charge of convincing the scientists to move to Montreal, say that for the time being they'll commute to Montreal from their Ottawa homes.

"You can find a whole bunch of people who work in Ottawa and live in Montreal. And the reverse is also true," he was quoted as saying. "The physical proximity is such that that's not an impossible hardship."

The story went on to point out that the drive from Ottawa to Montreal normally takes two hours, but commuters heading for St. Hubert in rush-hour traffic could take an additional hour to reach the southshore suburb.

Language and favoritism aside for the moment, Mr. Lindberg has unwittingly stated the obvious -- that commuting between Montreal and Ottawa is a viable alternative, and has been for a number of years. His views dovetail perfectly with those of the local Save-the-Train people -- that sufficient commuter traffic can render an efficient, timely and high-speed commuter rail travelling system operable and potentially profitable.

It's something defenders of the rail line have been saying for some time, but few high-profile figures, excluding Don Boudria, have been willing to acknowledge that commuting is, in fact, occuring on a large scale between the two cities.

And with Alexandria and Maxville sitting between those two, the benefits to be gained for these areas would be entirely positive.

The problem is the cities lie in two different provinces, making a 'GO' type of train service funded by the province unworkable. Passenger service has been left within the bailiwick of the federal VIA Rail agency.

If local rail service proponents can uncover more Gary Lindbergs and the scientists he says intend to commute, demand for inter-city rail services (a move that would save the Mulroney government more resignations and an embarrassing brain drain) could well make it impossible for the government to allow the CN line -- or indeed passenger rail services -- to fold up without a very heavy price.

Tainted fuel from US places everyone at risk

Reports of the entry of contaminated fuel into Canada from the United States are highly disturbing, not only for the potential harm it can inflict on Canadians, but because of what harm it may have done since the flow first began.

Last week, federal Environment Minister Lucien Bouchard announced a ban on fuel imports at selected border crossings after newspaper reports of a Buffalo, N.Y.-based criminal conspiracy that blended millions of litres of hazardous waste in fuel sold later across North America. That led to the closing of some border crossings to U.S. tanker trucks to keep the contaminated fuel out of Canada.

But there have been discrepencies reported between the times provincial and federal officials became aware of the fuel importations. Ontario Environment Minister Jim Bradley said he knew about the activities as early as January. Mr. Bouchard claimed he wasn't aware of the problem until the story broke in the Globe and Mail last week.

This is the most unnerving aspect of the fuel controversy.

The controlling of the flow of goods into Canada is within the federal government's jurisdiction. If that flow was not interrupted since the Ontario Ministry of Environment became aware of it, it's anybody's guess how much contaminated material has to date been sold to fuel wholesalers across Canada, including those in Eastern Ontario.

Fortunately, the public can breath somewhat easier with the government ban on fuel imports at selected border crossings. Bearing in mind that it was some months before Mr. Bouchard knew about the importations, however, the public can't be blamed for taking a very conservative breath.

Trade show gave a chance to meet many of you face-to-face

AFTER THOUGHTS
Joe Banks

It was great to see so many of you at our booth at the trade show last week and weekend. We had a ball and the chit-chats we had were very much appreciated.

It was the sort of event that's important not just for the businesses represented, but because it draws a community together to one place. That's something that's dwindling in today's era of home entertainment centres — personal interaction. And yet, it's probably one of the most important factors in small rural communities, striving to maintain a sense of identity and pride.

It's also one of the reasons we had a booth in the trade show. For all of the letters to the editor we receive, for all of the phone calls complaining or complimenting us on the content of The News, we can't get enough of the personal touch. I suppose us "newcomers" here really want you to see we're not a bunch of ogres, ignorant of rural ways. We're here to listen as much as we're here to report.

And I must say that one of the byproducts of meeting you on the weekend was that now I understand how a department store sales clerk feels during a "50 per cent off" sale. Our table-full of photographs drew large gangs of curious Glengarrians, seeking snatches of the county's past in picture form that related to them. It was by far the most popular feature of our booth, and it was a pleasure to watch people recognize their friends, acquaintances and relatives and take the photos home with them. I suppose the old axiom, "a picture is worth a thousand words" is true after all.

The suggestion box only attracted a scant nine submissions, some practical and others not. A couple were especially noteworthy, and will provide much food for thought during our staff meetings.

I think the most delightful aspect of our display — the historic printing artifacts and old ledger books — garnered the most interesting reactions. An elderly gentleman quietly flipped the pages of one of the books, a growing smile on his face.

"It's the handwriting," he said, his eyes glowing with memories. "I remember having to learn to write this way. Every letter just so."

On the flip side, there were two 10-year-old boys who wondered whether 1924 — the date of the editions we had on display — was really all that long ago. One of them asked me, in fact, about the length of time it took me to write all those fine-lettered stories. I suppose I looked as if I was getting on in years that day.

The one small disappointment I had was our "how The News is assembled" display panel. I'd hoped to stimulate more interest in how the paper is put together today, but I have a feeling the picture table simply upstaged it. At times, there was such a crowd around the table that it would have been practically impossible for anyone to see the panel from the aisle.

At any rate, most of you became aware of our intentions to celebrate our 100th birthday in 1992, thanks to the large sign which sat atop the van throughout the show. It's our wish that you'll be there to celebrate with us.

All in all, the Alexandria and District Chamber of Commerce Trade Show, from our perspective, was well worth the effort. The smiles on many of your faces was evidence of that (although it may have been Saturday's fine weather). And the Chamber representatives who organized the show deserve hearty congratulations for a job well done.

Here's to the next show in 1991.

"Life's redemptive forces" support Godward pilgrimage

LIFE WORTH LIVING
Dr. Gordon C. Smyth

In Johy Bunyan's "The Pilgrim's Progress," when "Christian" set out for the City of God, he found himself weighed down by a heavy burden of sin. The going was extremely difficult until, through the grace of Jesus Christ, this burden was rolled away.

We, too, are on a Godward pilgrimage. We find ourselves bent beneath various burdens. There may be the burden of moral instability. There may be the burden of monotony from day to day. There may be the burden of seeming futility. There may be the burden of realizing our finiteness. There may be the burden of sorrow or loneliness. However, the touch of God's spirit is available to supply nerve and direction. When the soul encounters God, it has found salvation.

But how do we find God? I believe the search for God is surpassed by God's quest for us. Read Psalm 139. "The Hound of heaven" is always on our tracks, pursuing us, as Francis Thompson wrote, relentlessly and "with unperturbed pace," never in wrath, but always in mercy. A divine spark disturbs our human clod.

Out of the mystery of life there comes to us, from time to time, perhaps unsought and unsolicited, radiant intimations of a richer, finer life. In suggestions of the beautiful, in expressions of devotion when we love and are loved in the unfolding of truth, we may feel the touch of a redeeming God. This is the most holy Trinity — the trinity of beauty, love, and truth.

Beauty is a road to God. I cannot conceive of any human being so utterly insensitive to the charm of color or sound that he or she has never stopped on the way in order to watch the western sky aflame with the expiring sun, or to listen to the laughter of a brook as it hurries towards a lake or river. Saturation of the soul with the beautiful is one way in which God is revealed to us.

Next, in an ascending scale, I place the ministry of Love. Who has not felt its redeeming power? The women and men who stood by us in times of disappointment, the folk who rescued us from ourselves and inspired us to nobler ideals — these bear witness to the significance of love. When love enters a life, it may well be the clothing of a loving God.

And yet beauty and love cannot, unassisted, bring us our needed redemption. They require the reinforcement of truth. A thoroughly examined, objectively compared, and courageously espoused position in science, politics and religion is a primary global need.

And so, there are these three avenues to the heart of God — beauty, love, and truth. Some people radiate these qualities by their very presence among us. When they are near, we yield to the lyric spell of their beauty; we respond to the loveableness of their personality; we know that, in their presence, no untruth can be at home. These people constitute the elect in every generation.

Such a person, preeminently, was the Man of Galilee, whom we would do well to acknowledge as divine Redeemer. He remains the essence of beauty of character. He remains the most vivid manifestation of sacrificial love. He remains the supreme revelation of richest truth.

By Jesus Christ we come closest to God. In him, God comes nearest to us. Fortunate are those pilgrims of life's stony road who have such a Savior fulfilling their redemption!

Dr. Gordon C. Smyth is a United Church minister and a writer who resides at 112 Beckwith St. East, Perth, Ont., K7H 1C7.

The party's over

THAT'S LIFE
Lesley Cadham

An earthquake has struck.

Not in the sense that rock and ground have actually cracked and heaved, swallowing up buildings and leaving people homeless, but in the figurative sense. There has been more bad news for the Canadian taxpayer, taxpayers of SD&G and potentially for Alexandrians in particular, than there has been for some time.

The past month will go down in history as being the "dark month," the month the budgets came home: The big, the bad and the ugly.

The party's over. Alexandrians, say goodbye to those tiny single-digit tax hikes.

In less than three weeks (barely enough time for taxpayers to stop reeling after news of federal tax increases came down the pipes) the town will, in all likelihood, announce a nice little rise in the mill rate.

Even David Copperfield couldn't get us out of this one.

With Alexandria's $71,000 deficit (deficits occur when more money is spent than is brought in) and the county education boards' crushing increases of 11 and 17 per cent, we're likely to see less of our hard-earned money going into our own bank accounts.

It's only logical. The town ended the year with a sufficiently substantial deficit, specifically after squaring up with 1987's deficit of $47,000, and "planned overspending" of $64,000, both of which could not be carried over to the new term of council. It had to be covered in 1988.

So if taxes aren't raised this year, at least to clear the current deficit, we'll probably see another one next year.

A rare breed

Recently, The Glengarry News staff had the opportunity to delve into some Glengarry history, while putting together the special supplement for the Kenyon Agricultural Society, which you'll find in this issue of the newspaper.

In our journeys through old newspapers and the KAS book, and in conversations with some of Glengarry's natives, we became acquainted with legends we had previously only known by name and by reputation. One of these is Osie F. Villeneuve.

I'd heard this man's name frequently, always in a positive light. He'd been a rare breed of politician, people said, in that his aim was not to rise to the top of the political heirarchy, but to remain at a level where he could be closer to his people.

He didn't want fame and glory and publicity laced with gold and silver. He just wanted to represent his constituents, and do what he could to make life better for them. Rare, indeed.

I'm sorry I never had the opportunity to meet him.

Fat chance

WORD SKETCH
Sybil Carello

The debate on what constitutes healthy eating rages on.

On one side, wielding 2-ft. organically grown carrots, whole wheat sourdough loaves and 24-lb. Champion Juicers, we have very thin vegetarians. (Sure, thin. Ever try gaining weight on a diet of fenugreek sprouts and distilled water? Fat chance!)

Crowding the other side of the room are the carnivores — dread meat eaters. Focusing in for a tight shot, one might note the blood dripping from their front incisors.

Detractors of the "vegans" say this group is stuck in a 60s time warp — that morning fresh born-again-time when Mother Earth presented her most bountiful and beautiful gifts. (Since then, of course, these gifts have been sent asunder by acid rain, PCBs, chemical pesticides and demolition derbies). Critics rail against the flesh eating group saying they have their heads stuck in primordial sludge. Or somewhere thereabouts.

Vicious campaigns have erupted — ie. the massive drink-a-cold-glass-of-milk-for-a-natural-thirst-quencher versus the equally didactic beef-is-boffo message.

Solid reputations have been destroyed. Kingdoms lost. And still guns remain at the ready.

What on earth is one to make of this full-scale war?

Well, we who have already determined what best suits our life-styles and palates and are not afraid to be seen anywhere, joined at the hip by a 10-lb. bag of pecan chocolate chip cookies, for example, or a side of glistening beef, are relatively safe. We've made our choices, fought the good fight so to cliché-speak. But what of the younger food consumers coming down the pike, rounding the corner, platters in hand? What of them, huh? Will they be able to yell for quarter pounders without feeling the keen knifing of guilt in the gut? Or, will they submit without a fight to the overrated wonders of dulse (yucky reddish brown seaweed) and tofu (yucky soybean curd)?

For them, I offer the other side of the lunch counter. The balance.

Consider for example a roll of soppressata — Italy's fatter version of a hot pepperoni stick. Personally, I'd kill for the stuff, but that's another story. My point is this: Sure, this dry cured hunk of pork is loaded down with sodium erythorbate, sodium nitrite, sodium nitrate, lots of salt, lots of dextrose, lots of sugar, and of course, the requisite burn-out-your-mouth spices. But chewy? We're talking serious chomping here. and you know what dentists are saying about our pearly whites: use them or lose them. That's some trick when most of our food is over processed, reduced to pap and petroleum.

But not soppressata. We're talking about something that's more than just a salami, more than just an incredible taste experience. We're talking about something that just might save your teeth. Now that's real food for thought.

Letters

Glengarrian or not, obituary should have been published

To the editor:

I am reluctant to write this letter of complaint, because it deals with a rather delicate subject. However, I am doing so at the urging and insistence of some well-known fellow Glengarrians who, upon learning from me about a new editorial policy adopted by The News, share my feelings, as Glengarrians, that this new policy is not only discriminatory, but shows complete disregard for the deep-rooted heritage and traditions of Glengarrians and their families, many of whom live across Canada, in the United States and abroad and who hold on tenaciously to their Glengarry ties with deep pride.

My complaint concerns the refusal of The News to publish in the appropriate place, an obituary about the recent death of a family member, on the grounds that he hadn't lived in Glengarry. This would never have been a question when Eugene Macdonald was in charge. This new policy is breaking with long-established tradition. For the record it should be pointed out that the deceased had spent more time in Glengarry, as a member of a large family connection, than either the editor or the publisher who are relative newcomers. In addition, the wife of the deceased is a Glengarrian and she and their children and grandchildren can trace their Glengarry ancestry back almost 200 years. The deceased was the husband and father and head of this family, but the new policy in essence strips him of his rightful Glengarry family ties and connections.

At a time of grief and sorrow after the loss of two close family members within a period of six weeks, it was not the proper time to engage in a debate over this sudden change in policy because it was obvious the editor and publisher were adamant to uphold this ill-conceived, discriminatory policy.

I think it's normal for a newspaper to publish a write-up about a death in its obituary column along with others. The News has such a column, but because in this case the deceased hadn't lived in Glengarry, the new policy ruled that the deceased didn't rate to have his memory honored like all the others in recent issues of The News. Instead of according his memory equal treatment, the write-up about his death was buried on another page, at the end of a column that basically reports trivia, gossip and a few newsworthy items. The obituary in question was of interest and concern to many readers, including relatives, friends and neighbors, but because it was misplaced, out of context as it were, it had gone unnoticed by many.

As members of a family who have been subscribing to The Glengarry News (''A Letter from Home'') for over 90 years, I feel strongly that Glengarrians and their families, wherever they live or have lived, should continue as in the past to receive the same fair treatment that had always been accorded them by the founder, Col. A. G. F. Macdonald, his son, the late Eugene, and Glengarrians like Angus H. McDonell, Anna Margaret MacDonald and others, who promoted and nurtured the concept that The Glengarry News was established by, for and about Glengarry and Glengarrians and their families wherever they may live, with discrimination against no one.

Thanks to these Glengarrians for maintaining our interest in our ancestry, heritage and traditions as chronicled and reported in The News since its founding. In the most recent issue of The News, Angus H. states, ''Keep our cherished history as it happened.'' I add, keep our cherished traditions. There should be more Glengarry influence and input at the policy level of The News, and this new policy which discriminates against some Glengarry families should be rescinded.

John Lacombe,
Dorval, Que.
(Glen Robertson)

Editor's Note:

While it is not the normal policy of this newspaper to respond to letters from our readers, we feel we should clarify some points to avoid any false impressions our readers may have developed after reading this letter.

First of all, The News publishes all obituaries received with few exceptions.

Indeed, the newspaper has had a long tradition, as Mr. Lacombe notes, of recording the passage of Glengarrians, both of those still living in the county and elsewhere. This has always been an important aspect of the publishing of The News, both when Eugene Macdonald and his father operated the newspaper, and today. The present management feels very strongly that this tradition should continue.

In this case, the man in question was a resident of Vancouver when he died and a native of Richmond, Quebec. His wife, as Mr. Lacombe pointed out, is a native of Glen Robertson. It was reported to us that while the family never lived in Glengarry, the gentleman in question was well known to Glen Robertson people on a social basis, for many years, due to his wife's family connection. In this case, The News had judged that while he was not born here and did not reside here for any time, the connection to Glengarry warranted mention in the columns of 'Glen Robertson News', a district news column written by correspondent Colette Sauvé. As a result, the obituary was inserted into that column.

There was no intention, by doing this, to discriminate or trivialize this man's death. Our correspondents often mention names of individuals connected to the community who have died, for they recognize the importance of the reporting of such passages to the community and in particular the family. The current News management shares this sense of responsibility. Indeed, the issue in this case was not whether the obituary would be printed, but where it was most appropriate that it be placed.

We also feel it is important to point out that The Glengarry News has never received the large volume of obituaries it does today. With increasing pressure to provide more space for obituaries, we are sensitive of the fact that, if everyone saw that obituaries of people with indirect connections to Glengarry are allowed to be printed, that pressure would increase, hampering our ability to provide appropriate space to Glengarrians who are natives or residents.

Finally, Mr. Lacombe notes there should ''be more Glengarry influence and input at the policy level of The News . . . '' We at The News are always open to advice, constructive criticism and comments. In fact, at The News booth at the Alexandria and District Trade Show this past weekend, a suggestion box invited patrons to contribute input to help the paper fulfill its obligations and traditions to the community. The current management acknowledges that, with the loss of Mr. Macdonald last year, a gap has been left. It's why we require the input and advice of you, the reader.

Join in the walk to Armx '89

To the editor:

Ottawa is playing host to a massive international exhibition of armaments, and other military technology, between May 23 and 25. This exhibition, known as Armx '89 will be the largest display of military technology ever held in Canada. As such it is perhaps the most blatant example of the arms trade in Canadian history!

While the Canadian government is preaching peace, development, human rights and environmental protection, it is actively promoting another agenda. Armx, one of Canada's major contributors to the global arms trade, is a case in point.

Armx '89 has invited over 400 corporations from 17 countries to showcase its latest tools of destruction to between 10,000 and 15,000 potential buyers and users. Many of the countries which participated in Armx '87 — such as Chile, South Korea, Argentina and Taiwan — are notorious for their flagrant abuses of human rights.

The staging of Armx '89 should not go unopposed. To allow it to take place without effective demonstrations of protest would be to convey to the world the mistaken impression that most Canadians condone their government's involvement in the arms trade.

To counter the arms trade, there must be concerned citizens who are willing to express their opposition. If you disapprove of such a trade of arms on Canadian soil, we encourage anyone to voice his or her concern:

1. by writing to your Member of Parliament expressing your opposition to Armx '89;

2. if possible, attend the mass rally on May 22 at Confederation Park (Elgin and Laurier Streets) 1 p.m. to hear speakers from youth, union, religious and Third World groups. At 2 p.m. join in the walk to Armx '89 at Lansdowne Park, Ottawa.

The Little Engine That Could will for Green Valley Days

A pint-size dynamo will be chug-chugging its heart out for locals during Green Valley Days.

Engine 82 may not have the bulk of a real locomotive — it's only one-eighth of the size — but it has it matched in every other respect, running on coal and using 100 lbs. of steam, just like any other locomotive.

And like any real locomotive, it transports people and will be proving it by giving scenic tours of St. Marie's Church parking lot in Green Valley on Saturday, May 27, from about 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Each ride will last only a few minutes — the train track is only 164 ft. long — and either four children or two adults will be able to ride for free in each of the open cars pulled by the engine.

The engine was built about 1982 by Bob Canavan, who moved to Green Valley just last year. He is a member of the Montreal Live Steamers Corporation, "a group of fellows who started off with toy trains and then graduated to something more challenging, more exciting. And what better way than to scale a train."

While people wait for rides on Engine 82, they can examine another engine that will be on display. It was built about 1972 by Harry Turnbull, one of the founding members of the steamers corporation.

Mr. Canovan says he expects the engines to draw a large crowd because they are curiousities.

"Younger people haven't seen steam locomotives," he says.

Look for announcements of other Green Valley Days' events in the May 24 issue of The Glengarry News.

Several area people attend LCW banquet

GLEN SANDFIELD
Lorna Chapman

Several area people attended the production put on by the Glengarry Players at GDHS on Saturday evening. Too bad about the bad weather and the Trade Show because the play merited a much larger audience. We're lucky to have them here.

"Saving Grace," written by Jack Sharkey, was a delightful romp through the winding trails of plot, sub-plot, and deception. The characters were well cast, and fitted the roles to a "T." It is a play in three acts, in which poor innocent Grace gets herself deeper and deeper into a quagmire of misunderstanding and into her inept way of dealing with these situations. Anne Lamb was terrific as Grace. Walter Chepple was the perfect chauvinistic boss, played by Jim Cameron. Manfred Schmidt was the entrapped telephone lineman, and was so believable, I could expect him to appear any day to fix the phone. Tall, blond and handsome, he made a perfect foil for Grace's fabrications and alibis. Kathleen Lowe and Wayne Forcier was the two 'almost engaged lovers' were delightful, and all of them kept the listeners in stitches. The set was really well done, and so congratulations to the whole cast on a very pleasant evening out, and to the backstage people, producer and director on a good, fast smooth pace, good sound and lighting. All in all, a splendid evening's entertainment, provided by a set of very talented artists.

Several people from the area attended the Lachute-Laurentian Christian Women's Club banquet recently, at the United Church in Lachute. Among the guests from this area were Mrs. Jenny Cumming, Betty and Les McNaughton, Nina Newton, Eleanor Willis and Sidney and Wanda Hay, Glenna and Keri.

The theme of the decorations was birds, cages of flowers decorated the stage and tiny birdhouses, candles and flowers served as centrepieces. The program speaker was an avid 'birder' and the crowd learned many things about the care and feeding of birds and what kind of houses to put up to attract the birds you like. One thought was to put up two houses, so that when a more belligerent bird moved in, the more timid bird would be protected, as the other proclaimed his territory. A most interesting talk, well presented and enjoyed by all.

L'Union Culturelle honors area mothers

NORTH LANCASTER
Diane Roy
347-3553

"God could not be everywhere at once and consequently He created mothers."

Hope that last Sunday, every mother was deservedly honored with a special thought, remembrance, gift or meaningful gesture by those she loves best.

At the UCFO meeting last Monday, May 8, at Ecole Ste. Thérèse, newly-elected president Gisèle Giroux Besner chaired the interesting reunion, where the theme of motherhood prevailed throughout the evening. All members were deeply touched by the heart-moving testimonies of three remarkable community mothers, namely Colette Elie, Cecile (René) Poirier and Angeline Poirier. They related their personal joys and many trials and tribulations of raising large families. With our congratulations, they surely deserve medals and trophies for their accomplishments, but in their humility and devotion, they find their rewards in their children and grandchildren.

Honored with the Mother of the Year title for l'Union Culturelle of North Lancaster was Aline Samson Charlebois of Alexandria. She was presented with flowers and gift certificates from the members, while both Cécile Poirier and Suzanne Loupret were the lucky door prize recipients. Congratulations to all the ladies who contributed to an unforgettable evening.

Great concerts

Last May 8 and 9, St. Finnan's Cathedral was the impressive setting of the annual spring concert given by the ESRG-GDHS junior, senior and jazz bands. Sincere praise to all the musicians and to their devoted musical directors Pierre Vaillancourt and Mark Girard. Congratulations to our talented area high school students for their part in the entertaining concerts. From the North Lancaster region were senior band members: Julie Carrière (oboe), Dominique Roy (French horn), Lynn McCuaig (saxophone) and Paul Shipton (tuba). And from the junior band were Josée Dubeau (trumpet), Anick Lalonde (euphonium), Joanne Levac (oboe) and Lee-Ann McDonald (clarinet).

Sports scene

Six-year-old Andrée-Anne Samson, youngest daughter of Rosaire and Micheline Samson was declared 'bowler of the year' in the peewee division in Alexandria last Sunday, May 7. This young bowler will compete for the zone division title on May 28. Good bowling luck Andrée-Anne!

Congratulations are also in order to 16-year-old Richard Campeau, who received the medallion for most improved player with the Char-Lan Midget house league last week.

Good wishes

Though Claude Robinson's birthday was Monday (May 15), he will probably celebrate all week because he won $2,400 with a lottery ticket last Saturday, May 13.

Birthday happiness to Stéphane Besner who marks his big "20" on May 19, and many happy returns to Jean-Paul Claude, celebrating on May 21.

Hope that Dr. Stewart and Mrs. Marion Polso enjoyed a very happy 41st wedding anniversary on Monday (May 15).

Just a thought: "Nothing is permanent except for change."

be donated for competition.

Chairman Don Bond, of the heavy events, expects a friend of the late Keith Tice from Modesto, California, Robert McKay, to be among the competitors. McKay is rated among the top U.S. athletes specializing in Scottish Games.

The quality of the annual Friday night program will be on a par with other years and that in itself ensures class entertainment. The Glengarry Pipe Band of Calgary will be back, as well as area pipe bands. There are tentative plans that a pipe band from Scotland, New Zealand and Los Angeles will replace the bands who attended last year from those places.

The G.G.F.G. Brass Band, Ottawa, will be back again. Further program number of both Friday night and Saturday will be announced in due course as well as the official opening guests.

Opening of museum marks springtime in hamlet

WILLIAMSTOWN
Sue Harrington
347-2279

While most of us have taken to the fields with the coming of the nice weather, a triumvirate of local ladies has been working indoors to prepare the Nor'westers and Loyalist Museum for its opening day, May 20.

Thelma Rose, chairman of the museum and her co-chairmen, Margaret Dean and Wendy Rozon have stepped in with six feet to fill the shoes left by long-time head, Joan Johnston who retired from the position last fall. Fortunately, Mrs. Johnston has been available to advise and assist the newcomers in their preparations for the new season.

Lead-off display for opening day will be an exhibit of hooked rugs made by local artisans, with a vernissage planned for May 28 from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

Bertha Fraser of Frog Hollow, who created most of the rugs in the exhibit, will be present at the vernissage to demonstrate her craft and to answer questions from the public.

Assisting curator Fred Blair at the museum this summer will be Challenge '89 student, Andrea McDonell.

Along with the opening of the museum, the opening of spring flower buds and summer seed packets, Larry Rozon will be holding the Grand Opening of Rozon Feed and Garden Centre on May 27. The event will take place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and you are invited to drop in to see the new line of garden products which will be sold, along with the usual feed products, in the new store in the old location.

A new face will be greeting you at the bank for the next four weeks. Milton MacDonald of Lancaster will be replacing Lloyd while he takes a well-deserved holiday to the west coast.

Milton says he is going to be ''strict'' and we're all wondering what exactly that means!

Women's rights is not a new topic these days, but attitudes have changed greatly since the days of suffragette Nellie McClung. Char-Lan students were shown the struggles of the feminist champion last week when they viewed, ''Nellie McClung, the Holy Terror,'' a play performed by a troupe of four actors from Toronto.

According to Char-Lan English Dept. Head, Tom Stewart, the play was one of the best he has seen in years. The actors apparently praised the Char-Lan students for being such an enthusiastic audience, able to appreciate good drama, and Mr. Stewart feels their reaction comes from the plays which have been produced at the school in recent years.

A senior level Music Theatre course is planned for Char-Lan in the fall under the Program for the Arts.

The bidding was fierce Saturday night as the UCW of St. Andrew's Church sponsored a congregational pot luck supper, followed by the auction of mystery-wrapped parcels. The man with the Midas tongue, Clifford Hope, coaxed bids from the audience with unprecedented ease. Ron Kubelka and John Hamilton had a bidding rivalry which led to some $27 being spent on a box full of baby food jars containing smarties!

All in good fun, and for a good cause! Over $400 was raised by the event.

Mothers throughout Williamstown were honored on ''their day'' on the weekend, with mothers of Cathy Kinloch's Grade 1 students at Williamstown Public receiving some special treatment at a party held in their honor at the school on Friday.

Williamstown's mother-of-mothers-of mothers award has to go to Stella McGibbon, however. Mrs. McGibbon is the proud great grandmother of 30 children, including the recently arrived William Lang. Congratulations to a wonderful lady!

The Ladies Guild tea held Saturday at St. Mary's Hall was a splendid opportunity to spend a relaxing time catching up on the news and visiting with old friends and new.

It was good to see Catherine Gourlay out and about again after her long convalescence this winter.

It was also good to see the talent Father Villeneuve has in arranging flowers. The head table bouquet was beautiful!

Ernie and Daisy Pelley have returned after a winter in the sun to play their cards right on Wednesday night, taking the first place in Williamstown Duplicate Bridge Club action. Albert MacDonald and Margaret Kennedy were second, with Suzanne Hazlett and Marcel Baumet coming third.

Ruth Mowat was in the village on Wednesday visiting with Marjorie Quenneville, whom I'm told was celebrating a birthday. Ruth has recently undergone surgery on her hip in Ottawa and it is good to see and hear from her once again.

Meanwhile the Mowats' former house is undergoing exterior renovations — the veranda has been torn off to make way for a new one.

Our two community clubs, The Glengarry and the Friendly Neighbors have both had birthday parties recently.

The Glengarry Community Club members celebrated on May 10 at the Charlottenburgh Recreation Centre, playing cards and enjoying a delightful cake made by Violet Lauzon. Winners at the card games were Dorothy Croll, Ethel Clark, Charlie Heath and John King.

Edna Edmunds bagged the box of chocolates given as a raffle prize, while Margaret Kennedy was a double winner in the Share the Wealth, with Alda Major, Violet Lauzon and Margaret McLennan also having a share of the spoils.

At the Friendly Neighbors party, winners included Violet Lauzon, Catherine Gourlay, Roger Pilon and Austin Abrams. Doors went to Ann MacDonald and Joan Abrams while 50/50 prizes were claimed by Eleanor Gibson, Germaine White, Rita MacDonald, Ann MacDonald, Catharine MacDougall, Viola Pilon, Ileen Latreille and Mary Rose Pilon.

Rena Major was the cake baker for the honored guests: Imelda Chretien, John King, Alda Major, Gilberte Marsh, Martin Van Sleeuwen, Dorothy Seguin, Mary McDonell and Beatrice McDonald.

Once again the Martintown area has reached in their pockets and contributed $2,727.78 to the Canadian Cancer Society. Team leader Mina Carter expressed great pride in her team of volunteer canvassers, as well as the community for its great generosity. This money will go a long way in helping our friends and neighbors if they have a need for the services of the Cancer Society.

Team members were France Desjardins, Marie Kitchen, Mary Murray, Lorraine Ramsey, Bruce McCuaig, Onagh Ross, Melba McDermid, May Thompson, Mary McDonell, Johanne Van Loon, Elizabeth Peters and Mina Carter. Congratulations for a job well done, to all volunteers as well as contributers. Bravo!

Clayton makes big splash!

Martintown's Clayton Delaney made a big impression at a recent swim meet held in Cornwall on May 7. He swam away with five firsts, one second and one third. His firsts came in the 200 m free style; 100 breast stroke; 50 back stroke; 100 IM; 200 medley. He won second in 25 butterfly, and third in the relay. Congratulations Clayton on such a super showing. Keep up the good work. Clayton is the son of John and Mary Ann Delaney of Martintown.

On Saturday, the annual Mother's Day celebrations were observed. The Maxville Manor was crowded with visitors who came to be with their friends and relatives at the Manor, and attended the Mother's Day Tea. It was a very special day, not just for the visitors, but for the many ladies who are in residence there. They received corsages, and were dressed up for the very special occasion, making a gay and colorful scene in the Manor.

On Friday afternoon the public school pupils entertained many of the ladies from the Manor at a Mother's Day Tea at the public school in Maxville. The pupils not only served tea and coffee, with sandwiches and cakes, but also put on a lively program of dancing and music, which was very much enjoyed by the guests. It is such a pleasure to see the kindness of the young people when they are with the grandmas from the Manor.

On May 3, Peggi Calder was in Ottawa to present the proposal for the organization of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry and Cornwall units of the Canadian Cancer Society to the executive and board of eastern district.

On May 4, she travelled to Toronto to put the proposal before the organization and planning committee of the Ontario division. The four units are to become the SD&G Unit with eight branches — Glengarry north and south, Dundas north and south, Finch, Roxborough, North Osnabruck and Ingleside. These restructuring changes are a first for Ontario under the Cancer Society's Strategic Plan, and will be a blueprint for other similar reorganizations in the society.

The ten most expressive words according to Dr. Wilfred Funk are: The warmest word — friendship; the saddest word — forgotten; the most bitter word — alone; the most cruel — revenge; the most revered — mother; the most peaceful — tranquility; the most comforting — faith; the coldest — no; the most beautiful — love, and the most tragic — death. And I say "the wisest — Dr. Funk."

Thelma and Henry Johnson spent a most enjoyable weekend in Ottawa with their daughter Debbie, son-in-law Wally de Vries, young Patrick and baby Jessica, who I'm told is a bundle of smiles from morning til night. Any time spent with a grandchild is special, but Sunday was Thelma's birthday, as well as Mother's Day.

The weatherman had predicted a gloomy picture for the past weekend, and I'm sure no one was disappointed that it turned out so nice.

Bear facts

A few facts for predicting the weather, says Gordon Wemsatt of Weed, New Mexico, is to put some bear fat in a jar; if the fat lies heavy on the bottom, there will be no change in the weather for the next two or three days. When the fat begins to build up in the center, or along the sides, expect a storm. Specks of grease drifting above the fat means wind; a few specks, a light breeze; many specks, a strong wind. Doesn't matter what part of the country the bear comes from. This forecasting method was passed on to him by an Apache Indian friend, George Hightower, now deceased.

Cold remedy

It may not be easy to catch a bear, but it's quite easy to catch a cold and a cough at this time of year. A remedy from a major citrus company: Roast lemons until they crack open, mix the juice with brown sugar and fresh pineapple juice, and give to the cough or cold sufferer. The pineapple juice adds its powerful "digestive" enzymes to those of the lemon and helps disintegrate the mucous in the throat.

Happy belated 40th anniversary to Larry and Elizabeth Lebrun, who celebrated on May 8. A belated birthday wish is sent to Alain Decoeur (May 12) and to his big brother, Serge, who will celebrate on May 26.

Bainsville Women's Institute members went searching through cedar trunks for their May meeting held at Mrs. Fred Ager's home. The roll call was "Something I wore in the past." The ladies modelled hats, furs, showed a negligee, dresses and even a hockey sweater. They spoke of outfits worn years ago for a well-remembered occasion. The Diamond Jubilee Committee reported on the Bainsville Women's Institute Memorial Park opening on May 27. Many local dignitaries and members of parliament have been invited. Our park is dedicated in memory of deceased members. These members worked hard in years past upholding one of the Institute's pledges of a better community so a park and picnic area, kept clean and tidy and with trees and flowers, is a fitting memorial. Anyone is welcome to attend the ribbon-cutting ceremony, May 27 at 1:30 p.m. at the corner of Bainsville side road (south of the village) and old Hwy. 2 just beside Hwy. 401. Mrs. Roy Keeler commented on the motto "The past is really almost as much work of the imagination as the future" defining imagination and memory closing with "What will be, will be." Pat Ager brought us up to date on the waste management committee. She is a member of the public liaison committee. There is a workshop being held June 10 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the North Dundas District High School, called "The Challenge and Fun of Waste Management." This is open to the general public, as well as the WI, and is sponsored by the Eastern Ontario WI. You can choose among eight workshops you want to sit in on and are asked to bring a bag lunch and our own mug. Childcare facilities are available. Pre-registration deadline is June 3 and if you are interested, call 347-2935 for a registration form before that date. A social time followed the business and information meeting. Fifteen members attended the district annual meeting hosted by McCrimmon WI in the Kirk Hill United Church.

SD & G MEET

Glengarry Gaels and Char-Lan Crusaders were well represented at the tri-county track and field meet in Cornwall Thursday. Gaels' Michel Jeaurond had to settle for a silver medal in the 100 metre dash (top), but he had already won two golds. Tara MacDonald (left) of Charl-Lan cruised to victory in the 400 metre event. Gaels' Josee Titley (above) participated in the discus throw event.

Glengarry track and field team wins tri-county meet

For the first time in eight years, Glengarry Gaels are the SD&G track and field champions, winning the team trophy Thursday in Cornwall.

Gaels compiled a total of 415 points, 16 more than defending champs La Citadelle Patriotes (399) and North Dundas Devils, who tied for second place.

Eleven high schools participated in the event, held under inclement conditions at General Vanier Secondary School.

Gaels also won the best overall boy's team trophy, spearheaded by the performances turned in by senior Ken Herman and midget Michel Jeaurond. Herman won gold medals in all three of his races (400-metre, 800-metre, 400-metre open hurdles) and walked away with the top senior boy trophy. Jeaurond was top midget boy on the strength of two first-place wins (100-metre hurdles and long jump) and a silver medal performance (100 metres).

Jeaurond's winning time in the 100-metre hurdles event (14.7 seconds) established a new tri-county record.

The pair will lead Glengarry's contingent of 34 athletes to the Eastern Ontario championships, Thursday in Arnprior.

The top four placers in any field event at the SD&G's, the top three finishers in track events and the top two relay teams, qualified for this Thursday's meet.

Seniors lead way

Glengarry senior boys led the EOSSA qualifying charge, with eight team members advancing.

Mario Paquette, top senior boy at Gaels' intramural meet a week ago, matched Herman's SD&G feat by qualifying for EOSSA in three events. Paquette won the long jump with a 5.71-metre leap. He was second in the 100-metre dash (11.6 seconds) and the 200-metre event (24.4 seconds).

Bill Millett heaved the shot put 11.06 metres, good for second-place in his category, and picked up a bronze medal in the 100-metre hurdles (21.0 seconds). Glengarry's Urs Kusch won the event in 20.1 seconds.

Other senior boys that have advanced are Alain Laroque (second-place

Ken Herman, on the left, and Michel Jeaurond were at the top of their field Thursday. They led Glengarry Gaels to the top boys team trophy at the meet.

Herman, Jeaurond tops in SD&G

It was cold, wet and dreary Thursday, but Glengarry Gaels' track and field team member Ken Herman finally blossomed.

The 19-year-old Dunvegan resident sloshed his way to three first-place finishes and the top senior boy trophy at the SD&G Track and Field Championships.

Herman won the 400-metre dash, the 400-metre open hurdles run and 800 metres event.

"He's definitely a late bloomer," said his coach, Jean-Yves Jeaurond. "He's always been close but he's never won a major title. He's run very well this year."

The five-year veteran of Glengarry track and field had to settle for second-place in the senior division at Gaels' intramural meet a week ago.

Sprinter Michel Jeaurond was the top midget boy, blazing his way to an SD&G record in the 100-metre hurdles event in 14.7 seconds. Jeaurond also won gold in the long jump with a 4.97 leap, but had to settle for silver in the 100- metre dash when his finish line lunge fell just short.

Their combined performance helped lift Gaels to the best boys' team trophy at the meet.

"I didn't expect to do this well at all, but after my second race I thought I had a shot at it (top senior trophy)," said Herman. "I really pushed for it in my last race (800 metres)."

"Both of them should do very well at EOSSA," said Jeaurond. "They have a good shot at going on to the regionals.

"But we've got a lot of talented people on the team. We'll probably have four or five athletes go on to the next meet."

Greenfield, Dunvegan win soccer openers

The Glengarry Soccer League kicked off their 65th season Monday night with games on two fronts.

In senior men's play at Lochiel Soccer Field, Greenfield posted a 3-2 win over Glengarry Stars, last year's league champs.

Benny Philips, Greenfield's diminutive left winger, kept Stars goalie Pierre Roman on guard with numerous chances, but he couldn't score in the goalless opening half.

Greenfield got on the board early in the second frame when Mike Baker picked up a loose ball off a collision in Stars' crease and drove a shot low to the far left corner.

Just minutes after the opening goal, Stars' Richard Daniels rushed in to tie the game up on a sinker past goaltender Roger Chapman.

Minutes after Phillips had a goal disallowed on an off-side call, he took a crossing pass from Willie Kippen and put his team up 2-1.

Again, the Stars tied the game up, on a goal by Travis Giroux.

With the play flowing back and forth over the field, Greenfield notched the game winner when Kahil Cappuccino deflected a throw-in past a screened Roman.

Roman, who was outstanding in the match, thwarted a close-in Greenfield chance late in the game and sent the ball up field hoping for one more Stars' run, only to hear the game-ending whistle and the memory of a 3-2 loss.

Dunvegan 1 Laggan 0

Dunvegan won by the slimmest of margins in the senior ladies' opening contest. Jennifer Taggart scored the only goal of the game on a play that caught keeper Brenda Golden and her defensive friends by surprise.

The goal came just minutes before the end of the half. Laggan threatened to draw even in the second period, but Dunvegan goaltender Betti Anne MacLeod, winner of the Best Goalie Award in 1987, kept Laggan off the scoreboard.

Crusaders' Arnott breezes to three SD&G gold medals

Karen Arnott made it look easy Thursday.

The 15-year-old Char-Lan District High School student barely broke a sweat in winning all three of her events — including a tri-county record in the high jump competition — at the SD&G Track and Field Championships in Cornwall.

In addition to her high jump gold medal, Arnott won the midget girls' long jump and triple jump event.

"She has no competition at all at this (SD&G) level," said Char-Lan track and field coach Irv Francis. "Her best performances come when the competition is tough. That's when she's really able to excel."

Arnott excelled at last year's provincial championships recording personal bests in the triple jump (fourth overall) and high jump (fifth). She was the only athlete from SD&G to qualify for the provincials in two events.

"Unless something drastic happens, she'll be going (to the provincials) again," Francis said. "She's a second-year midget. She should be a force at the all-Ontarios.

Despite her size — Arnott is 6'1" — Francis says the co-ordination the Grade 10 student possesses, is one of her biggest assets.

"She's tremendously coordinated. Kids usually aren't at that age. She's big and she's strong."

The Martintown-area resident - a member of the MacCulloch Dancers who are performing in Tennessee this week - will fly home Wednesday to compete, along with four other Char-Lan students, at the Eastern Ontario track and field championships, Thursday in Arnprior.

"She'll be pretty tired, there's no doubt about that," her coach said. "But I think her raw talent alone will be enough to get her past EOSSA, so that she can get rested up for the regionals."

Karen Arnott was flying high at the SD&G track and field meet Thursday in Cornwall. Arnott won three gold medals to lead the Char-Lan team.

Speedway attracts local fans

by Todd Hambleton
Sports editor

When the Cornwall Motor Speedway's 21st season of dirt track racing gets under way this week (Sunday, May 21, 7:30 p.m., Twin 20's modifieds), more than a quarter of the 3,000 fans in the stands will be from the Alexandria area.

But to Doug Young, that's no news bulletin.

"We've always had a lot of support from the Alexandria area," said Young, track administrator at the speedway. "To have approximately 800 people come out from a relatively small community on a weekly basis is an incredible percentage.

"We've done market studies and surveys to see where our support is coming from, and next to Cornwall, Alexandria is our strongest area. It's amazing how much fan support we get from that part of the region."

Brian Mulligan, speedway director of marketing and promotions, says the race track will be counting on that kind of support again in 1989.

"As long as there's been a speedway in Cornwall (since 1969), there's been good support from the Alexandria area, and that's definitely going to continue," Mulligan said. "But I think the fan support is probably its very strongest right now. The reason being, I think, is that they have a lot of drivers to cheer for."

Area fans were out in force last season to cheer on Alexandrian Laurent Ladouceur, who placed second in modifieds in only his second year in the category.

Another area star attraction was Ron Valade of Glen Robertson. Valade copped rookie of the year honors for the modified class, finishing eighth overall in the premier division. Valade went on to combine his track points with points earned in a year-end international race series and was named top rookie in the Canada-U.S. circuit.

Another rookie, Marc Lalonde, was ninth overall in modified points.

And, of course, veteran Ovide Doiron — fourth in modifieds — brought along his legion of area supporters.

"The fan support and the fact that there are so many drivers from the Alexandria area has always revolved around Ovide," Mulligan said. "He's been the leading force. He's been racing for over 20 years and because of his success, he's had a lot to do with guiding the other racers to the sport in Cornwall. Ovide is probably one of the most popular drivers at the whole track.

"The people of Alexandria can jump in the car and say, 'let's go see Ovide, or Laurent and see how they do.' I can tell you that when I do the public address annnouncements at the track and we do the driver introductions, you can see the cheers go up for the Alexandria drivers."

"The people of Alexandria can jump in the car and say 'let's go see Ovide, or Laurent and see how they do . . .' For a small town, that's a lot of racers in a big class."
— Brian Mulligan

Mulligan says it's rare to have such a small town and region represented by so many quality drivers.

"For a small town, that's a lot of racers in a big class," he said. "There are twice as many modifieds cars coming out of the Alexandria area than Cornwall, and Cornwall has 45,000 people.

"To have that many top-line drivers from one area — especially considering a modified car is $25,000 to $30,000 — really illustrates how strong the sport is there."

Mulligan says area drivers expected to make a big splash this season will be two rookies in the modified circuit: Jean Larocque of Hawkesbury, and St. Clet, Que. native Sylvain Latulippe.

"Jean (Larocque) and Ovide raced together when Alexandria had a speedway 15 years ago, but there was no structural organization, so in effect, he's never raced a modified car in a structured dirt track organization. He qualifies as a rookie even though he's a guy in his 40s," explained Mulligan.

With his kids grown up and his business established, Larocque decided to take another kick at the can last year, and fared well, competing in the supporting classes.

He bought a modified toward the end of the season, but by only competing in two modified races, he retained his rookie status. "He's definitely a contender. Both he and Latulippe have a lot of experience," Mulligan said. "They should battle it out (for top rookie) all season."

After a third-place finish in the semi-pro class last year, Latulippe opted to purchase a modified car and brush shoulders with the big boys of top division racing. "Although he's never raced a modified he does have a couple of years of experience in the semi-pro class," said Mulligan.

Drivers in the modified series will again accumulate points during the series of summer-long Sunday night races. The speedway's major events, including the opening night twin 20's for modifieds program, will be part of a Miller Super Series.

"What we've done," explained Mulligan, "is taken the six most important events over the course of the year. The points the drivers pick up in those races will go toward the super series standings as well as the overall track championships."

The facility, into the final year of its five-year refurbishing plan, will offer a new look for area fans. A two-storey building with corporate suites and a restaurant was constructed in the off-season.

"All the suites were pre-rented three years in advance," proclaimed Mulligan. "We're getting good corporate people involved here."

Another welcome addition is a new building with modern washrooms. "We've had a dire need for more washrooms here in the last few years and now we have them," said Mulligan. 'Last year we had the old 1969 washrooms. They were built for 1,500 people and we've been getting 5,000 out to some of our events.

"The property is being updated along with the competition and the image of the speedway."

in pole vault), Daniel Bedard (third in pole vault), Mike Lacolle (third-place, 3,000 metres, 11 minutes, one second), and Trevor Bowles (fourth in triple jump, 10.64 metres).

Hilary Wilson was the sole senior girl from Glengarry to qualify, winning two events. Wilson — top senior girl trophy winner at the intramural meet — was first in high jump (1.55 metres) and long jump (4.24 metres).

Nadeau, Lortie lead juniors

Rachelle Lortie and Claudine Nadeau led a strong junior girls showing, both copping three medals.

Nadeau won the 3,000 metre run in 12 minutes, 25 seconds, finished second in the 800-metre event (2 minutes, 52 seconds) and was third in the 1,500 metre race (six minutes, 52 seconds).

Lortie won bronze medals in the 100-metre hurdles (15.3 seconds), 100-metre dash (14.3 seconds), and 200-metre event (29.6 seconds).

Danielle Morin won the junior girls' 100-metre hurdles event in 14.6 seconds. Melanie Vaillancourt was second in the high jump event (1.28 metres).

The junior boys' 4x100 metres relay team was the only Gaels relay team to qualify for EOSSA. Kalsidas Cappuccino, Jeff Benton, Yvan Jeaurond and Stephane Menard teamed up to finish second in the event.

Midgets don't disappoint

Gaels track and field coach Jean-Yves Jeaurond was looking for big things from his midget boys squad, and they didn't disappoint, with seven team members — in addition to Michel Jeaurond — advancing.

Michel Lajoie won the discus throw with a 32.4-metre toss. Lajoie was fourth in shot put (10.49 metres).

Recording second-place finishes was Carl Winter, in the 3,000-metre run (11 minutes, 13 seconds), and Kevin Mullen in pole vault (2.20 metres). Martin Hagen was fourth in pole vault.

Other Glengarry juniors to qualify are Marc Charbonneau (silver medalist in triple jump, 10.60 metres), Eric Paquette (fourth in long jump, 4.54 metres) and Martin Cardinal (fourth-place javelin, 34.56 metres).

Five Crusaders qualify

Karen Arnott's 1.53 metre leap in the midget girls' high jump event established a new SD&G record. Arnott — one of three girls to tie for top performer in the division — also won gold medals in the long jump (4.01 metres) and triple jump (9.63 metres).

Four other Char-Lan High School students qualified for Thursday's meet. Tara MacDonald, also a midget, won the 400-metre race in a time of one minute and 10 seconds, and was third in the 200 metres (30.4 seconds).

Two Char-Lan juniors will make the trip to Arnprior. Laura Lang won the shot put event (10.01 metres) and was second in discus (23.94 metres). Alain Fontaine was third in shot put, with an 11.32 metre throw.

Laurie MacDonald was the lone Char-Lan senior to advance. MacDonald won three silver medals, in the 800 (two minutes, 41 seconds), 1,500 (five minutes, 53 seconds), and 3,000 metre runs (12 minutes, 31 seconds).

Glengarry Gaels soccer teams cruise into playoffs with unbeaten streak on line

You know you're in good shape heading into playoff action when the coach has to tell his players to cool it, goal-scoring wise.

That was the gist of the instructions coach Hugh Wilson was barking out in the second half of Glengarry Junior Gaels' final regular season game 5-0 win over North Dundas Devils, Friday in Alexandria.

Gaels led 3-0 at halftime but managed to score twice more, despite adopting a more defensive posture in the second period. The win improved their SD&G athletic association girls' soccer league regular season record to six wins and no losses.

They were to host an SD&G Athletic Association girls soccer league semi- final playoff game yesterday (Tuesday). If they won, they'll play for the tri- county championship Friday at home.

Glengarry seniors will have the same opportunity Friday if they won their semi-final yesterday. Gaels ran their first-place regular season record to nine wins and a tie with four wins over the past week.

Kelly Laviguer scored twice late in the first half of junior Gaels' win, pushing their lead to 3-0. Laviguer's boot to the top-right corner from 20 yards out made it 2-0; minutes later she took advantage of some shoddy Devils' defensive work, pouncing on a loose ball in the crease and scored from five yards out.

Kristen Smith's redirection of a crossing pass had given Gaels an early 1-0 lead.

Josee McLennan and Stasia MacDonald rounded out the scoring in the second half.

Lisa MacDonald was between the pipes to pick up the shutout.

Gaels scored a 3-1 win Tuesday (May 9) in Iroquois against the Seaway Spartans. Caroline Cameron, Cynthia Wilson and Kelly Laviguer handled the offence, each scoring once.

Glengarry Gaels forward Heather Campbell and a North Dundas defender battle over a loose ball in SD&G senior girls soccer action Friday in Alexandria. A second-half goal by Jenny MacDonald lifted Gaels to a 1-0 win and their fourth straight regular season without a loss.

Seniors win four

North Dundas Devils did all they could to try to knock Glengarry seniors from the ranks of the undefeated Friday, but an early second half goal by Jenny MacDonald allowed Gaels to prevail, 1-0.

"They (North Dundas) played a very strong defensive game, but we were finally able to get one in," said Glengarry coach Marc Sauve, pointing out Devils employed a three defenceman, four halfback lineup that frustrated his club. Glengarry held a wide territorial first-half advantage but were unable to snap the scoreless deadlock.

Jocelyne Roman recorded her ninth shutout in 10 games this year. Only Tagwi Warriors, back on April 25, have been able to get one past Roman, who sports a miniscule 0.1 goals against average.

Gaels clinched regular season first-place over second-place Warriors earlier in the day with an easy 4-0 whitewash of St. Lawrence Saints.

Heather Campbell scored twice to lead Glengarry, who scored twice in each half. Tanya Henri and Marnie MacRae each scored once.

MacRae scored a pair in Gaels' 5-0 win over Rothwell-Osnabruck Lancers in Iroquois Tuesday (May 9). Jenny MacDonald, Katie MacLeod and Beth MacLeod also scored.

Campbell's two markers lifted Glengarry to a 4-0 decision over Spartans, also on Tuesday. Terry MacDonald and Beth MacLeod each scored once.

Crusaders make playoffs

Char-Lan Crusaders were to supply the opposition for Glengarry seniors in their playoff semi-final Tuesday. Crusaders lost (to La Citadelle, 1-0) and tied (0-0 against St. Joseph's) in their final regular season games a week ago — finishing in fifth-place and out of the playoffs — but qualified for post- season play when fourth-place General Vanier Vikings were disqualified.

A league protest against Vikings for using an illegal player, was upheld. They were subsequently stripped of all points they had earned during the year with the illegal player in the lineup.

Cheryl Proctor recorded the Char-Lan shutout against St. Joseph's.

Crusaders completed regular season play with a two wins, five ties and three losses record.

Gerald MacDonald tournament Sunday

The fourth Annual Gerald MacDonald Soccer Tournament will be held at the Lochiel Soccer Field all day Sunday, with 15 teams competing for top honors in the men's and women's divisions.

The single-knockout tournament format kicks off at 9 a.m. in both divisions. In men's play, defending Glengarry Soccer League champs Glengarry Stars open the season with a 9 a.m. encounter against Glen Sandfield. At 10 a.m., Glen Nevis will square off with Greenfield with Glengarry Oldtimers and Pine Grove hooking up at 11 a.m. Alexandria Drillers receive a preliminary round bye and will face the winner of the Glen Nevis-Greenfield game at noon in the first semi-final.

The other semi-final will pit the winner of the Stars-Glen Sandfield game against the Oldtimers-Pine Grove surviver, beginning at 1 p.m.

The men's championship game is scheduled for 4 p.m.

Women's schedule

Alexandria C and Alexandria B open up the women's division games with a 9 a.m. showdown. At 10 a.m. Maxville and Glen Sandfield will tangle. Greenfield and Dunvegan square off at 11 a.m., while Alexandria at noon.

Semi-final games are scheduled for 1 p.m. (Alexandria A-Alexandria C winner vs Greenfield-Dunvegan winner) and 3 p.m. (Maxville-Glengarry survivor vs Alexandria A-Laggan winner).

The championship game is slated for 5 p.m.

Glengarry Stars, with a 1-0 win over Glen Sandfield, and Greenfield, 3-2 winners over Alexandria B, claimed the championship trophies at last year's event.

Proceeds from the tournament go toward cancer research.

Glengarry golf club report

At long last, it appears as though the good weather has arrived — and just in time.

Glengarry Golf and Country Club's first tournament of the year took place on Saturday (May 13). A number of hockey players from various hockey teams in the area came out to tackle the course.

Club captain Les Kimbell is working hard at his duties and has posted the "Members" first club tournament. The "Early Bird" will take place this coming Saturday (May 20).

The grand opening of the "back nine" is scheduled for Saturday, June 3. A members tournament will take place, followed by a dinner and dance. Details are posted in the clubhouse and Pro Shop.

Bishop officiates at confirmation

APPLE HILL
Gordie VanPutten
527-3473

A beautiful ceremony was held last Wednesday evening by Bishop E. LaRocque at St. Anthony's parish.

Confirmed were Blaine Darling, Christ Heuston, John Lapierre, Sara Jean Levac, Stephen Martel, Marc Massia, Noel Massia and Joel Pilion. Father Sylvester welcomes you to the various ways you can serve your parish, either by being greeters, members of the choir, servers or as members of the youth group.

Cancer Society

A big hand should go out to the Apple Hill people in their raising of $553 for the Cancer Society. Collectors worked hard last month and they, too, should not be forgotten. They were: Maureen Bissonnette, who was in charge of the various canvassers, Mae Benton, Nancy Marleau, Brenda Jensen, Bonnie Lalonde, Colleen Benton, Hendrina Lacroix, Gayle MacLennan, Lee Ann MacMillan and Claire Van Putten.

St. Anthony's euchre

I am finally keeping up to date on the euchre results and this euchre was held on May 9 at St. Anthony's parish hall. Congratulations to all our lucky winners: Ladies' first — Jean Smith, second — Jennie Cameron and third — Margaret McCormick; men's first — Dan MacRae; second — Mac O'Byrne and third — Fern Théoret; 50/50 winners — Minerva Pilon, Herbie O'Byrne, Leo Seguin, George Jackson, Bertha Lalonde, Colombe Raymond, John McMaster and Ellen MacLeod; the door prize went to Lise Delhy and the dinner-for-two at Mr. Poppins went to Arlene Munro.

Twins!

Congratulations go out to Joyce McDonald and Sandy McLeod on the birth of their twins on May 8. Megan and Michael appeared on the scene, weighing in at 5 lbs. 11 ozs. and 5 lbs. 7 ozs. respectively. Now that's a beautiful Mother's Day gift!

Wedding anniversary

Good wishes are sent out to Sandra and Roger Piette, who celebrated their fourth year of marriage on May 17. It seemed like yesterday I served for their wedding!

Birthday wishes

Patrick Piette will turn four years old on May 14. On May 16, my grandfather, Paul-Emile Dùrivage will turn 69 years old. Sylvette Piette celebrates her day on May 17. (Thanks for all your calls.) On May 18, my grandmother Ella Van Putten will turn 85 years young and a happy birthday goes out to Ashley Marleau, who will turn a big "5" on May 20.

Mother's Day

My grandmother, Ella Van Putten, was swamped with her family on Mother's Day including my family, there was also Lester and Marlene Van Putten from Cornwall, Ella and Bruno Vaillancourt, Grant and Gisele Van Putten with Kim and Neil, all of Dorval, Leonard and Aleida Trudell from Belleville and leaving from her stay down here was Veronica, with Al and Barry Stewart.

Get Well Wishes

Get well wishes go out to Lynden MacLennan who has been in the hospital about a month. He had a hip replaced. Hope you are feeling better soon!

Special "Mom"

I am sorry that I didn't find this saying before Mother's Day, but I also think it's better late than never. This goes out to all the special people whom we call "mom." Though sometimes we think different, "mom" is very special to each and every one of us indeed. I found this in the weekly bulletin at St. Columban's parish in Cornwall. The author is unknown, but it means a lot.

It is called Beatitudes for Mothers:

Blessed are Mothers — who did without for us, they will be rewarded.

Blessed are Mothers — who lost sleep when we were sick. They will find rest.

Blessed are Mothers — who taught us how to pray. They will share God's kingdom.

Blessed are Mothers — who comforted us. They will be comforted.

Blessed are Mothers — who taught us right from wrong. They will know justice.

Blessed are Mothers — who showed us the Christian life by example. They will live forever.

Blessed are Mothers — who shared with us the meaning of peace. They will know peace.

Blessed are Mothers — who taught us the importance of loving God and each other. They shall see God!

Martin Gaudet recently graduated from basic training at CFRS Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, with honors. Martin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Gaudet of Apple Hill, is now receiving trades training in CFFS Esquimalt, B.C. Upon completion, he hopes to be posted on the east coast, to continue in the Canadian Forces.

Railway boys $10,000 richer

GREEN VALLEY
Helene Quesnel
525-3303

There are some happier and richer "CPR boys" working on the railroad after Sunday's Mother's Day draw held at Ste. Marie's church.

Five CPR employees got together and bought the $50 ticket (No. 216) which won them the $10,000 prize. They are Daniel Lefebvre, Norman Beaupré, Richard Bissonnette, Robert Ranger and Richard Curotte.

The two $500 winners in the draw went to Josephine Seguin (No.085) and a group of five people consisting of Lorraine and Lucien Beriault, Lucien and Grace Genier and Diane Marcoux (No. 054).

Ten $100 winners were (ticket numbers in brackets): Helene Giroux (092), Vivian Daprato (489), Glen St. John (043), Aime Delorme (247), Leo Meloche (332), Colette Rochon and Jocelyne Brunet (355), A. J. MacDonald (190), Pierrette Decoeur, Manon Lalonde, Nathalie Bourdeau, Joanne Lapierre and Michel Masson (319), Francine Turcotte (378) and Yvette Poirier (168).

Mother honored in parish

The eldest mother in the parish, Mrs. Josephine Seguin, was honored Mother of the Year by parishioners at Sunday's 11 a.m. mass at Ste. Marie's church.

Mrs. Seguin gracefully accepted a plaque and a "love cheque and certificate" from Father Dumoulin, and parishioners then gave this special woman a well-deserved standing ovation.

Mrs. Seguin and husband Albert have raised 10 children in Green Valley, and boast more than 50 grandchildren and over 30 great grandchildren. They moved to the 7th concession of Lancaster in the 1930s, and have farmed there for over 40 years.

Mrs. Seguin still enjoys knitting, crocheting, taking care of plants and cooking. She is going to be 91 years old on September 5, and besides being a remarkable woman, she happens to be my grandmother!

Félicitations "mamère."

Ligue La Lêche

The Ligue La Lêche invites interested mothers to the monthly meeting, to be held on Thursday (May 18) at 8 p.m. at the parish hall.

La Vie Montante

Members of La Vie Montante were quite busy the last few weeks.

A mini congress was held at St. Paul's University, Ottawa, on May 3.

Those attending were Lorette Scharf, responsible for the diocese, Father Gérald Poirier, spiritual advisor for the diocese, Isidore and Evelyne Secours, responsible couple for Ste. Marie's parish, Green Valley, Sister Rita Quesnelle, spiritual counsellor for the parish, Sister Adrienne Lériger, spiritual counsellor for the Sacred Heart parish, Sister Rose Lacroix, Sister Jeannette Quesnelle and Sister Ida Larivière of St. Raphael's, Irène Menard, co-responsible for Green Valley, Thérèse Lortie, secretary, Cécile Poirier, Cécile Joanette and Marguerite Lajoie.

Daniel Charbonneau, son of Robert and Diane Charbonneau of Green Valley, recently graduated from St. Lawrence College after a two-year course in electronics engineering technician.

During the day, they heard conferences from three different bishops: Msgr. Plourde, Msgr. Ebacher, and our own bishop Msgr. Eugene LaRocque. At the closing of the congress, seven priests celebrated mass with 200 members in attendance, to thank God for all he has given, and for the lovely day.

In 1990 the congress will be held in Montreal.

The regular meeting of the month was held Tuesday, May 9.

Members sold roses at church before the masses last weekend, for Mother's Day.

A crocheted blanket made by Josephine Seguin, Mother of the Year, was raffled by the UCFO at the 11 a.m. mass on Mother's Day and was won by three-month-old Sylvie Chabot of Alexandria.

The next meeting will be held June 13 followed by mass and the annual party to be held at the convent.

Linda Lauzon was the lucky mother who won a bouquet of potted mums in a draw held for all mothers at Sunday's 11 a.m. mass.

* * *

Sunday (May 20) is the day that many people are awaiting. Be at the Sports Palace at 8 p.m. for the Roger Constant roast sponsored by the Green Valley Optimist Club. Should be a great time!

* * *

Green Valley Days begin next week. If anyone would like to lend a helping hand, contact Hortense Charbonneau, Colette Viau or Allan Poulin.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1988

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of the municipality are the representation of management prepared in accordance with accounting policies prescribed for Ontario municipalities by the Ministry of Municipal Affairs. Since precise determination of many assets and liabilities is dependent upon future events, the preparation of periodic financial statements necessarily involves the use of estimates and approximations. These have been made using careful judgments.

(a) Basis of consolidation

(i) Financial statements

These statements reflect the assets, liabilities, sources of financing and expenditures of the revenue fund, capital fund, reserve fund and reserves and include the activities of all committees of Council.

All interfund assets and liabilities and sources of financing and expenditures have been eliminated with the exception of loans or advances between the reserve fund and any other fund of the municipality and the resulting interest income and expenditures.

(ii) Non-consolidated entities

There are no non-consolidated entities.

(iii) Accounting for County and School Board transactions

The taxation, other revenues, expenditures, assets and liabilities with respect to the operations of the school boards and the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry are not reflected in the municipal fund balances of these financial statements. Net underlevies are reported on the Balance Sheet as other current assets.

(iv) Trust Fund

The Township of Lancaster Ontario Home Renewal Program trust fund and its related operations administered by the municipality are not consolidated, but are reported separately on the Trust Fund's Statement of Continuity and Balance Sheet.

(a) Basis of consolidation (Cont'd)

(v) The charges for long-term liabilities assumed by individuals, in the case of tile drainage loans, are not reflected in these financial statements.

(b) Basis of accounting

(i) Sources of financing and expenditures are reported on the accrual basis of accounting with the exception of principal and interest charges on long-term liabilities, which are charged against operations in the periods in which they are paid.

(ii) The accrual basis of accounting recognizes revenues as they become available and measurable; expenditures are recognized as they are incurred and measurable as a result of receipt of goods or services and the creation of a legal obligation to pay.

(iii) The historical cost and accumulated depreciation of fixed assets are not reported for municipal purposes. Fixed assets acquired with current funds are reported as an expenditure on the Statement of Operations in the year of acquisition.

(iv) Capital outlay to be recovered in future years, which represents the outstanding principal portion of unmatured long-term liabilities for municipal expenditures or capital funds transferred to other organizations, is reported on the Balance Sheet.

2. OPERATIONS OF SCHOOL BOARDS AND THE UNITED COUNTIES OF STORMONT, DUNDAS AND GLENGARRY

Further to note 1(a)(iii), the taxation, other revenues, expenditures and overlevies (underlevies) of the school boards and the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry are comprised of the following:

	School Boards 1988	1987	County 1988	1987
Taxation and user charges	$1,125,264	$ 979,754	$ 223,780	$ 209,457
Requisitions	1,125,248	979,729	223,799	209,452
Overlevies (underlevies) for the year	16	25	(19)	5
Overlevies (underlevies) at the beginning of the year	(11)	(36)	11	6

Congregation bids farewell to departing Rev. Crosby

the village and now residents at the Manor, Bertha and Roderick MacRae, on the occasion of their 30th wedding anniversary. At a family dinner in Alexandria, this well-known couple was honored.

Her many friends were sorry to learn of Cathy Clay's recent automobile accident and wish her a speedy recovery from her fractured wrist and other injuries. Fortunately, Mr. Clay can get around somewhat now, but still has a small cast on his leg that was fractured early in the winter.

This couple seems to have had far too many undeserved problems but are to be commended on their philosophical approach to them.

George Heinsma, Dyer, is also in the hospital in Cornwall and to him we wish the very best.

* * *

Bruce MacRae, Waterdown, visited with his aunt, Anne Bruce last week. Mrs. MacRae, nee Isabel Kippen, was in Ottawa at the same time acquiring grandmotherly skills as the MacRaes' first grandchild was born in Ottawa on May 4. He is Alexander Noel Villeneuve, son of Cynthia (nee MacRae) and Marc.

* * *

Last weekend, Florence McNaughton accompanied her daughter Shirley and David MacGregor and Lorie to Whitby to attend the wedding of Mrs. McNaughton's granddaughter, Margaret, daughter of Jean and John Harrison.

* * *

Dorothy and Bill Campbell, Brantford, were in the village to visit his mother, Leda Campbell, at the Manor and to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mary Campbell of Cornwall.

* * *

We extend sympathy to the members of the family of Valerie Paquette who died last Thursday at the Manor.

* * *

All are invited to support the members of the Maxville Veterans Club at the bake sale to be held this Saturday at 11 a.m. in Mrs. C. B. McDermid's store.

On our way home last week from Richmond Hill, we visited with Wilma and Doug Nevin in Port Hope and also with John and Cathy Nevin and two young sons. The Nevins wished to be remembered to all their friends here. It is 15 years ago that Mr. Nevin was transferred from the bank here to Port Hope. He is now retired from the bank but keeps busy in other ways.

The four of us enjoyed dinner at the resort of Veronica and Mike Thiele, formerly of St. Elmo. Veronica was a most gracious hostess and showed us through their spacious facilities. It appears that they are being very successful in this new business as they were with farming at St. Elmo.

Centennial committee meeting

At the meeting of the Centennial Committee last week, a slate of officers was drawn up and accepted. Dale Munro is chairman, Village Clerk Connie Charbonneau is secretary and Verna MacGregor is head of finance. The following have been named to head the various committees: Decorations — Ruby MacGregor; special events — Eileen Colbourne; special projects — Bill Shields; Book — Gordon Winter; photography — Erin Blair; youth — Cheryl McCrory; accommodations — Dorcas MacDougall and Joan O'Hara; fashion show — Merydie Fjarlie; parade — Bill Munroe; church service — Rev. Father Rejean Lebrun; publicity — Michael Cowley-Owen; souvenirs — Donald and Christena Cumming, and fundraising — Don Munroe. The Lions Club and fire department will appoint their representatives shortly.

Honorary members appointed to the centennial committee are Margaret Dingwall, Florence McNaughton, Marjorie MacPherson, Bertha MacRae, Catherine Munro, Alma Villeneuve, Grace and William G. MacLeod, Stanley McDonald and Ben F. Villeneuve.

The convenors of the various committees will be seeking out additional residents to serve on their committees. It is going to take the concerted efforts of many to make our centennial in 1991 the huge success that our village deserves.

Bid farewell

The congregation of St. Michael's and All Angels Anglican Church had a very busy day on May 7. At the morning service, their new hymn books were dedicated. This is the "Red Hymn Book" which was published a few years ago for both the Anglican and United Churches in Canada.

At the evening service, the choir of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Lancaster led the singing and favored with two anthems. Also, the new parish organ, a three manual Yamaha electronic, was dedicated. This 15-year-old organ was donated by Brian Beaton of Orleans. Mr. Beaton was a stranger to the congregation previously but had offered this organ to some congregation and our local one was the fortunate one to receive it.

After this evening service, a reception was held to say goodbye to the Rev. Peter Crosby and his wife Ruth. Presentations were made by the congregation, the ACW and the choir of St. John's, Lancaster. The Crosbys are assuming new duties in Metcalfe.

The Rev. Frank and Felicia Bailey and the Rev. Father Rejean Lebrun were present for the evening service and reception afterwards, and brought greetings from their respective congregations.

The new minister of the congregation is the Rev. Daniel Howard, the curate at Pembroke prior to his appointment here. Mr. Howard plans to live in the village.

United Church news

On Sunday, April 30, the "Secret Pal Project" concluded with a pot luck lunch. Participating members from the "older" congregation had been corresponding with the "younger" members using code names. Finally, after much speculation and suspense, the secret pals met. There were some interesting conversations! Secret pals shared a small treasure with each other following lunch. Adult pal co-ordinators were Hazel McIntosh and Sybil MacPhee.

Erin Blair is the new church librarian.

On May 14, 92 bibles were dedicated for use during worship, donated by members of the congregation during the Christian Education Committee's "Bible Building Budget" in late fall. The elders presented bibles to students in the primary class, who are completing Grade 3 at school.

Vacation Bible School is scheduled for July 17-21 from 9:30 a.m. to noon at Maxville United. If you can help with crafts, cookies (last time over 96 dozen!) or music, please contact Marj Munroe at 527-2500. VBS is an inter-denominational event open to all children ages four to 12.

Playtime Pals

The Playtime Pals Co-operative Nursery School is holding a spring bazaar on May 21 from 1-6 p.m. in the Maxville and District Sports Complex. This fund-raising project will offer local crafts, art, baking and other goodies for sale and a wandering minstrel will supply music throughout the afternoon. This new event should prove very interesting to many.

Young at Heart euchre

At this last euchre, the big question was "Did Herbie O'Byrne set a record with his score of 98 out of a possible 100 points?" It certainly sounds like a great score, which probably resulted from Mr. O'Byrne's superb playing, plus a bit of luck with good cards and keen partners.

George Jackson, Monkland, and Chester Valley, Moose Creek, were the other gentlemen winners.

Former queen, Rita Seguin, has finally entered the winners circle and she was followed by Edith Howes, Kirk Hill, and Bertha Lalonde. These three ladies were also 50-50 draw winners, as were Violet McDermid, Olive MacLean and George Essery, Moose Creek, and Gloria Rolland and Catherine (Dan) MacRae.

"When we built our new R-2000 home, the only things we left out were the drafts."

Chris & Gail Lazenby, R-2000 Homeowners, Stirling

"I guess the best word to describe our old place was drafty. It was a great place. We loved it. But we could never keep it comfortable enough.

"So when we decided to buy a new house, we decided to go R-2000. We checked into it and found that R-2000 would do two things. Cut down on energy costs, and make the place a lot more comfortable.

"The double-glazed windows are great. The ground source heat pump gives us air conditioning in the summer, too. And the fireplace keeps the living room cozy.

"Before we couldn't imagine what it would be like living without drafts. But at times it gets hard to remember what it was like living with them."
