VARIETY OF ARCHITECTURE IN AREA CHURCHES—Miss Christena Ferguson of Dunvegan, presented an art exhibit at Dunvegan Museum last Saturday of many area churches she has painted. She also knows the history of each of them and is a most interesting conversationalist. We had her pose for us by one wall of the display and no, these paintings are not for sale.

Loch Garry game preserve stays open despite rumors

The opening of the game preserves in the three United Counties has caused concern to members of the Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry Fish and Game Conservation Council.

The Council intends to make representation to the government as it feels this would clean out the deer population in the area.

The Loch Garry Preserve is now open although Tim Taylor, local conservation officer, reports that several people living in that area have their land posted.

The reason for having the game preserves in the first place was to protect the deer population. There are no longer enough deer in these preserves to warrant the posting, informs Mr. Taylor. Most of the small preserves throughout the province have been opened.

The Council is also protesting the low fines given to poachers, but this, says the Conservation officer, has nothing to do with his department. This comes under the Ministry of Justice and must be dealt with in another way.

Five members of the Council will travel to Toronto to meet with Leo Bernier, minister of natural resources. At the meeting they will explain the situation and make more demands for an extra conservation officer. The Council had been promised one last year when it met with MPP George Samis on the matter, but has had no results.

Rumors that the Loch Garry game preserve was to be closed to hunters again were prevalent here last week. Mr. Taylor declares they are but empty rumors.

Second crop

The frost is on the pumpkin but the abnormally cold weather isn't discouraging some growth.

Leo Ouimet, 4th Lochiel, brought in a cluster of blackberries he found in his lane Tuesday morning. He has been on that farm for 30 years and says this is the first time he has seen late blooming berries.

THE NAME GOES UP—With the new sign officially in place, Glengarry Sports Palace is all ready to start its first season. It's a happy ending to months of discussion and hard work by a lot of area people. Under the sign are Ghislain Seguin, architect; Recreation Director Mike Depratto and Building Committee Chairman Bob Leroux.

At Dunvegan museum

Curator finds callers are very interesting

"We have a steady flow of people looking for their ancestors. One man from the West was trying to trace his relatives and all he had to go on was that he had a cousin in this area called 'Big Murdoch Little Norman'.

"We are trying to re-inforce our oral history project and hope to build up a good tape library. These accounts of local happenings become more valuable as time goes on."

Miss Christena Ferguson, who was first curator at the Dunvegan Museum and who was its guiding light in its early years, was on hand on Saturday with an exhibit of paintings of the early churches in the area.

Miss Ferguson took up painting as a hobby after she retired from her nursing career and is especially interested in the history of the churches she paints. She finds it difficult to get information on some of the early Catholic churches.

Pottery is also a handcraft at which Miss Ferguson is adept. She finds the clay in her area especially good to work with and enjoys fashioning her own pottery designs.

The exhibit of paintings and the holiday weekend combined to attract a large number of visitors.

"That would be a better defensive weapon to carry than a rape whistle," remarked a visitor from Denver, Colorado, as he observed the old-time hatpins on display in Dunvegan Museum.

"And this is the type of comment that makes the curator's job so interesting," explained Mrs. Jean Morrison who has been looking after the museum all summer.

"There is such tremendous feedback from different people. I was showing a walking plow to a family and explaining about the hard work involved. Well, it wasn't all that bad, the lady in the group commented. My father liked to plow and he never complained about the hard work. But my son uses a tractor to do the same job; he is going deaf from the constant noise and has a sore back and kidney trouble from the vibration. Maybe it isn't such a big improvement."

Visited by forgery artist

A forgery artist has paid a visit to the locality and Duncan A. Macdonell is short $369 for having cashed his cheque.

The culprit used a stolen Chargex card for lodging at the Glen Motel owned by Mr. Macdonell and later cashed a cheque at the Atlantic Hotel, also owned by Mr. Macdonell.

The man is accompanied by a woman and five children.

Alexandria police are seeking the car of Claude Deguire, 32 St. Paul St., stolen during Sunday night. Mr. Deguire reported to police at 7:40 a.m. Monday, that his car had been taken from in front of his home.

Recovery of a Montreal car, found parked in front of the Ottawa Hotel, Monday, leads police to theorize that the same person who left the Montreal car there, went less than a block before taking the Deguire car.

Chief Cleroux also reports recovery of two bicycles, a lawn mower, radios, tapes, etc., reported stolen recently. One person has been charged with possession and he expects to apprehend several others.

Oil leakage problem yet unsolved

Is Mrs. Hilda Tobin living on top of an oil well? At least one Alexandria councillor is beginning to wonder and Archie McDougall vows to get to the bottom of a situation which he describes as "intolerable."

Mrs. Tobin who lives in Alexandria on the corner of Dominion and St. Paul Streets has been having a problem with oil seeping into her basement for the past six years.

She has reported the inconvenience to just about all the powers that be and lately is noticing a slight improvement, so she believes something may have been done but isn't sure who or what is responsible for the change.

Inspectors from different government ministries have been looking over the situation and there was some talk about an interceptor and detectors which would separate oil from water, etc., reports Mrs. Tobin, and she thinks maybe there has been some experimenting to get at the trouble.

The oil seems to come in more after a rain or when the water is high, she noticed and the situation has been better this summer. However, even if the oil source is detected now, the fact remains that the entire basement is saturated with the stuff and the fumes continue to permeate the house, a condition she finds injurious to her health.

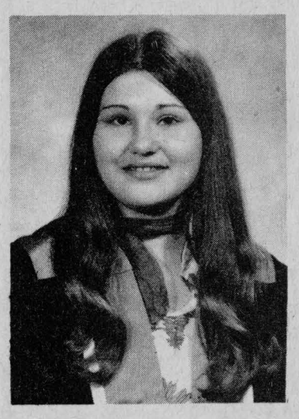
Mr. McDougall has written to the Ministry of the Environment in an attempt to pursue the matter and has received word back that the Ministry will continue to search for the source of the oil flow. "They have been informed of this for three years now and nothing has been accomplished," the councillor claims.

It was thought at one time the leakage might have been coming from the oil tank which supplies Lanthier Bakery. A representative from the Energy Safety Branch, Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations, directed the bakery to have the tank taken out of the ground to examine it for leakage.

This was a big job, but Lanthier's complied. It required heavy industrial equipment to dig up the 5000-gallon tank and raise it out of the ground. It was held out for three weeks for examination but was found not guilty. Meanwhile, the bakery had to install a 500-gallon tank which required two trips a day to keep it filled, as well as trips on the weekend. Then the 5000-gallon tank had to be returned to its initial position.

The problem, Lanthier Bakery would like to know, now that their tank has been proved faultless, is who should pay for all this exhuming and inconvenience?

Further to visits from officials of the local council and several ministry inspectors, Mrs. Tobin had a visit from Osie Villeneuve, MPP for Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, and she thinks there may be pressure applied to the proper sources to get the whole mess cleared up. For her, this can't come too soon.



NOW IN OTTAWA—A former student at Glengarry District High School, Danielle Desjardins graduated as a medical secretary at St. Lawrence College, Cornwall, and is now employed at St. Vincent's Hospital, Ottawa. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Desjardins, Alexandria.

Expect 14 dealers at Antique Show

The Glengarry Historical Society is holding its 10th Annual Antiques Show and Sale on Sept. 17 and 18th. Owing to alterations in the Green Valley Pavilion it has been possible to enlarge the show to 14 dealers.

Our old friends will be back again from Winchester, Brownsburg, St. Eugene, Point au Chene and Alexandria, but new friends are coming from Prescott, Napanee, Cornwall, Ottawa and Montreal and as far away as Hemmingford.

There will be lots to see for those who merely come to browse and plenty to tempt those who are avid collectors. Buffet meals will be available in the newly renovated Green Valley Pavilion Restaurant which is now fully licensed. It will make a pleasant Friday night outing or a Saturday trip to come and see us. Bring your friends and bring money too! It is our largest fund-raising event and helps the Historical Society to support our two museums.

Have you visited our charming log house in Dunvegan recently or wandered through our Nor'-Wester Museum in Williamstown? Like a prophet in his own country these are often overlooked and a trip to either can give an appreciation of our past and pride in our ancestors. Tourists come back year after year—why shouldn't we? Our able committees and curators keep changing the exhibits and there is always something fresh to look at.

Two injured

Maureen McDonell of RR2 Green Valley, was released from Glengarry Memorial Hospital on Friday, having been admitted two days prior following a car accident.

Miss McDonell, 19, was proceeding west on the Ninth of Lancaster road about three miles east of Highway 34 when she came into collision with a car driven by Camille Periard who was pulling out of a driveway.

Maureen is suffering from a sprained back, concussion and abrasions.

Damage to the McDonell car was $800 and to the Periard vehicle, $1,000.

A 17-year-old youth from St. Laurent suffered cuts and bruises Friday night at 9:45 when the 1975 Kawasaki he was driving went out of control on County Road 23 just north of Bridge End. Damage to the motorcycle was $400.

Neat shorelines

The Charlottenburgh shoreline will be a more picturesque drive along the St. Lawrence as several run-down boathouses have been removed from sight.

Almost 20 of these boathouses have been taken down recently, states an official of the Ministry of Natural Resources. These have been removed at no cost to the municipality and the exercise is to continue.

Earlier this year, the Charlottenburgh Council launched a vigorous drive to clean up the waterfront as many of the boathouses were not being used or were beyond repair.

Entered plea not guilty

Gaetan Ravary, an ambulance supervisor at Glengarry Memorial Hospital will appear in court on November 8th to answer a charge of permitting the operation of an unsafe motor vehicle. His plea is not guilty.

Mr. Ravary had been charged following an incident in July when a nurse at the hospital, Mrs. Helen MacRae, was overcome by carbon monoxide fumes while accompanying a patient in the ambulance to hospital.

Mrs. MacRae told a News reporter on Tuesday she is still under a doctor's care since the incident. She suffers from headaches and loss of memory due to brain damage from the fumes and her arm which was burnt at the same time is not yet healed.

It was such a success

Columbian Day will be an annual affair

It was a big success, the Columbian Fun Day at the new Sports Palace last Saturday and about $7,000 was raised to add to the kitty of the building fund. Eligible for Wintario grants, this donation will earn an extra $14,000 from the lottery bank to reduce the debt on the new building.

Entertainment wise it was also enjoyable as several local entertainers pitched in to put on a two-and-a-half hour show which never lost its beat all afternoon. Ten dancers from the MacCulloch group, girls from the local majorette corps, baton twirlers, singers and the Soft Touch Orchestra presented a continuous concert throughout the afternoon and Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, Marcel Boileau reports they were such good sports they were all given a participation trophy rather than just the first three. "They were all winners," he thought.

Two orchestras supplied the dancing, one upstairs for the teenagers and one downstairs for the folks who find it harder to climb.

Gilbert Sauve tells us the sale of souvenir medals went well, netting a fair profit.

In charge of the horseshoe competition, Raymond Levert tells us about fifty players took part. Winners were: Class A, Maurice and Marcel Bellefeuille, Class B, Leonard Robinson and Rolland Duval.

George Robinson of Green Valley, won the new Chevrolet Impala '76. The Robinsons do well on car tickets. Mr. Robinson's daughter Dora won a car two years ago.

The chairman of the event, Lionel Leroux, was assisted by Gerald Trottier and Mike Gibbs. They plan this to be an annual Columbian Day on Labor Day weekend.

Changes in diocesan clergy

Bishop Eugene LaRocque has announced three new clergy appointments for the Diocese of Alexandria. All affect Cornwall parishes.

Rev. Norman Loney returns to the diocese after many years of teaching with the Sulpicians in the United States. He will be associate pastor at St. John Bosco parish in Cornwall.

Rev. Gilles Ayotte, formerly of St. John Bosco, will join priests at Holy Cross parish in Cornwall.

Rev. Luc Bouchard, who was ordained Saturday, will be an associate at Nativity parish in Cornwall.

Father Bouchard studied at the Cornwall Classical College from 1964 to 1968. He received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Ottawa in 1971. He then studied at the Dominican College of Theology and Philosophy in Ottawa where he received his bachelor of theology in 1974.

He will be completing his master's degree this year.

Father Bouchard has done social work in Mexico and has served as deacon at the Sacred Heart Parish, Alexandria, and Saint John Bosco Parish in Cornwall.

Bishop LaRocque also announced that Rev. Raymond Dumoulin will spend a year in post-graduate studies in Ottawa.

Will tape stories of seniors

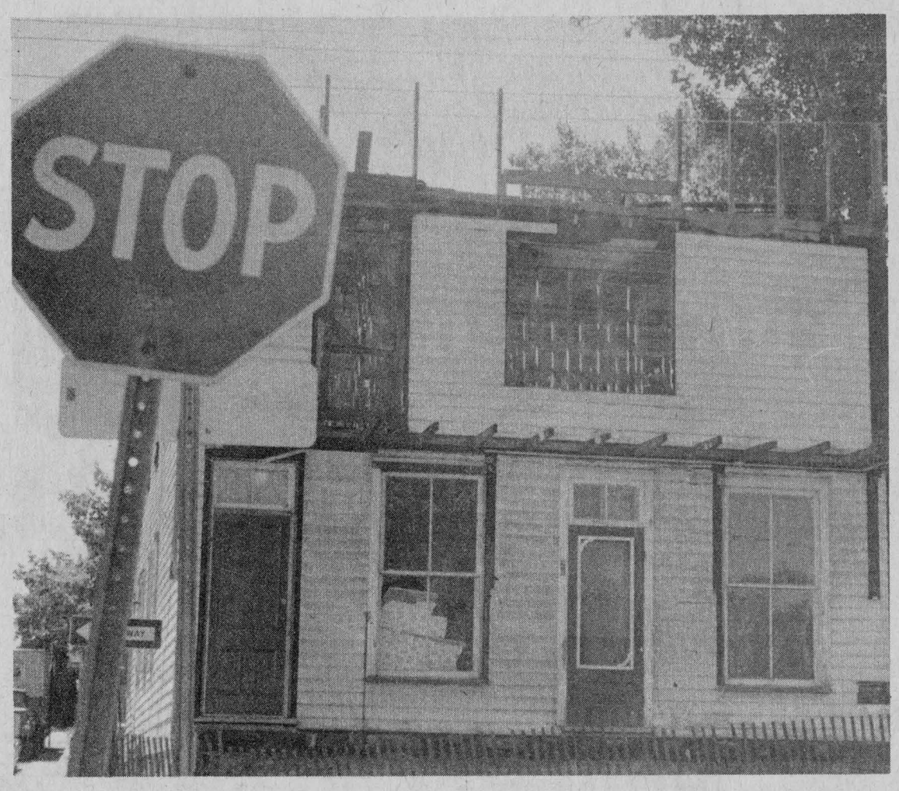
The Glengarry Historical Society's Fall season began enthusiastically at the meeting held in the Nor'Westers' and Loyalist Museum, Williamstown, on Thursday, September 2nd. A record number of members and friends were on hand to hear the encouraging reports of the leaders of the various committees and the guest speaker, John Sloane, General Manager of the St. Lawrence Parks Commission who was introduced by Mrs. Helen Kennedy.

Mr. Sloane, who has served in the past on the reconstruction and restoration of Fort Ste. Marie near Midland and Fort William near Thunder Bay, described these projects with the aid of colored slides and encouraged all present to cherish their heritage and to visit these two parks and other historic sites which have been restored.

Mrs. Ann Wardrop announced that her committee had been able to purchase a tape recorder and planned to begin immediately to record messages from our Senior citizens about the old days in Glengarry. Several members were authorized to represent the Society at a Seminar in Ottawa next week sponsored by the Oral History Society.

Mrs. George Arnott urged all members to give 100% support to the annual "Antique Fair" arranged by the Society at the Green Valley Pavilion Sept. 17th and 18th, when a record number of dealers will be present.

The next meeting will take place in Alexandria on October 7th when the members will be visiting "Garry Fen" before proceeding to the Church on the Hill.



STOP—TEARING DOWN OUR OLD LANDMARKS!—The sign seems to say as it leans towards the old building in Alexandria that once housed Hector's Theatre. Situated on the corner of Dominion and St. Paul Streets, the building will be remembered nostalgically by Alexandrians of half a century ago who followed the "Perils of Pauline" and other serials at Hector's. An apartment house in recent years the building is being razed by its present owners, Lanthier's Bakery.

Digested 318 books in club at libraries

During the summer vacation the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Library Board has organized a reading club, to promote reading among young people. Book prizes were awarded to those who had read the greatest number of books and were able to tell about them.

Seven-year-old Pat Sullivan of Finch, exceeded them all. She read and was able to report fluently on no less than 318 books. To make this achievement even more impressive, it is to be noted that many of these books were well above her age level.

The craft groups in the library branches produced a variety of interesting articles. The best items of each branch were displayed last week at Simon Fraser Library, together with the Cornwall products.

The winners of book prizes in the three counties were:

Alexandria: Susan Andrews; Jonathan Marshall.

Avonmore: Tracey Hollendrake: Brent Robinson; Kent Campbell.

Wedding trip to Maine

McMENAMIN—PAGEAU

A lovely summer wedding was held in Our Lady of Fatima Church, St. Laurent, Quebec, on July 10th, 1976, when Miss Carole Pageau became the bride of Peter McMenamin. Rev. Russel Schultz pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 3.30 p.m. Nuptial music was provided by the parish organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Pageau of St. Laurent, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony McMenamin, also of St. Laurent.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's dress was on Empire lines, the bodice of white lagoda material with bouffant sleeves and a full skirt of barnasconie chiffon, the neckline, sleeves and edge of skirt had crystal pleats trimmed with blue and white marguerites, the headpiece was a pill box hat and veil. The bride carried a nosegay of miniature yellow roses and yellow and white daisies.

The bride was unattended. The groom's best man was his former school mate, Francois Gauthier who travelled from Ungava Bay N.W.T. to attend the ceremony.

Guests were present from Montreal, Belleville, Alexandria and N.W.T. For the wedding trip to Maine the bride wore a two piece dusty rose suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The couple will reside in St. Laurent, Quebec.

Interviewed Sask. radio

On August 18th, at 7 p.m., I was listening to Radio Station CJNB, North Battleford, Sask., and heard an interview by Cpl. Bob Laporte who is in charge of Investigations in Crime with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, writes Helen Kaufmann of Landis, Sask.

It certainly was interesting to hear Bob explain the different crimes and circumstances on Break and Entry cases, she writes. He quoted sections from the Criminal Code explaining the difference regarding the seriousness and he stated there is a marked increase so far in 1976 in crime and the methods of operation.

Bob is a native Alexandrian, a son of Arthur Laporte and the late Mrs. Laporte.

FASHION SHOW

Try to keep a free evening for Friday, Oct. 1st . . . the Maxville Girl Guides are sponsoring a fashion show at the Senior School. A complete range of ages and sizes, from Woolco Department Store.

The Glengarry Old-Time Fiddlers Association presented a most unusual entertainment group at their annual Labor Day concert and dance. This was the Frank Leahy Band from Lakefield . . . Mr. Leahy, a violinist, has had an orchestra of his own for many years, but for the last three years has been touring eastern and central Ontario with the remarkably musical and talented members of his own family. The pianist is Mrs. Julie Leahy, and on stage at this concert were the four oldest Leahy girls . . . Chrissy, 12, Julie 11, Denise 10, and Siobheann 9 . . . all of whom sing, step-dance, and play the violin. Julie also plays the accordion and substitutes capably for her mother at the piano. Solo violinist was Donnell Leahy, 8 years old. There are, incidentally, five younger Leahys at home . . . presumably waiting in the wings.

The M.C. for the evening was their manager, Ray McNeilly of Bobcaygeon, and the group opened with a lively clog, jig, and reel step-dance by the girls. Accompanying them were two talented accordionists, Colum and Greg Quigley, another father and son pair who did a fine duet after the dancing. Then came the small fiddler, accompanied by his mother at the piano, with a lovely "Jewel Waltz" then a rousing "Andy's Jig" both played with amazing strength and control in so young a performer. Siobheann Leahy did a step-dance accompanied by her father on the violin. Next came another father and son pair . . . "Home Sweet Home" on the banjo by Tim Sanders, accompanied by Rip Sanders on the guitar. They also did "Foggy Mountain Breakdown" . . . the theme from Bonnie and Clyde.

There was a change of pace with the entrance of a group from the Glengarry Pipe Band . . . Pipe-Major David Danskin, Pipe-Major John MacKenzie, pipers Lynn Campbell and Allan Blaney, with Dave Danskin Jr. drumming . . . a fine medley of Scottish tunes. The MacCulloch dancers were next . . . Lori MacGregor, Patty Campbell, Janice MacKenzie, Brenda Kippen, and Deborah MacCulloch. The Old-Time Fiddlers were introduced by their president Ron Clare . . . Ralph McIntosh, Donald Besner, Donaldson MacLeod, Fred Leroux, Bev MacQueen, and a small newcomer Robert Rozon, 13, of Moose Creek. There was a lively step-dance by the MacCullochs and a reel, accompanied by Pipe-Major MacKenzie.

Frank Leahy and Julie brought back their extraordinary family again . . . the four girls sang "I Believe in Music" accompanied by their parents, the voices clear and strong. Donnell, the small fiddler, played another waltz and reel, accompanied by his sister Julie. There was a virtuoso accordion solo with great speed and style by Colum Quigley. Denise and Siobheann picked up their violins and joined their brother for several more lively tunes . . . sister Julie at the piano. Mrs. Leahy came onstage with a lovely rendition of "Nova Scotia". She is a native of Cape Breton and when she sang "Westering Home" in Gaelic it was with the voice of one singing in her native tongue, and the audience loved this. The four girls did a final step-dance, and brought the concert to a close.

The Fiddlers' next concert and dance will be on Thanksgiving weekend, with Art Jamieson of Renfrew coming for this one.

Glen Nevis ball hockey winners

It was a repeat performance in the girls' ball-hockey this season as the play-offs saw Glen Nevis and Lancaster pitted against one another in a repeat of last year.

The final game was almost an exact duplicate of last year. Tied at end of the game, tied at end of the overtime. The game had to be decided by equal shots on goal. Las year Lancaster won. This year Glen Nevis won. Maybe next year they will be playing the winning round because it looks like they are still tied.

Lancaster goals were by Marilyn MacDonald, Moira MacDonald and Elaine Britson.

Glen Nevis goals were by Betty Lacombe, Babs McLeod and Helen MacGillis with Valerie MacDonell getting the winner.

Pine Grove soccer team new Glengarry League champs

by Carman MacMillan

The Lochiel Soccer Club kept things alive in the best of five final series by coming back and defeating Pine Grove 3 to 2 on goals by Robbie MacLeod (2), and Billy Shields, (1). For Pine Grove it was Rondo MacSweyn 1, and Stephen MacMaster with one.

The goal scoring in that third game was fast at both ends as it was 2 to 2 with only 10 minutes gone in the first half. The winning goal came in the second half. The field was slippery and the ball was wet.

Pine Grove just couldn't finish off their plays in front of Lochiel's goal and were frustrated time and again by David MacMillan who is playing one of the best series for Lochiel.

At this point the people who have to pick the most valuable player in the play-offs must find it tough. There are three players who haven't stopped contributing to their respective teams. Hugh MacGillivray or Bruce MacGillivray for Pine Grove, David MacMillan for Lochiel. It is going to be hard to pick the one for this year as these three are having an excellent series.

On Thursday, Sept. 2nd, the fourth game in the final series was played at Lochiel before a good crowd. It appears that the series with Pine Grove and Greenfield seems to have taken all the crowd and now Pine Grove and Lochiel are only playing to half that fan support. The people should know by now that the two deserving teams make the finals and it should always turn out to be exciting no matter who plays.

The game was very well played in the first half by both clubs with Pine Grove's Rondo MacSweyn scoring early and holding a 1 to 0 lead until the second half.

In the second half the bottom fell out for Lochiel as Pine Grove scored five unanswered goals to win the championship of Glengarry. Final score was 6 to 0 by goals from Campbell MacGillivray, Rondo MacSweyn with two each, while Hugh MacGillivray and Leroy Robinson got one each.

The annual banquet comes on Sept. 10th in the new Sports Palace in Alexandria and the highlight will be the most valuable person in the play-offs. My choice now will be Hugh MacGillivray as he was the commander for Pine Grove throughout the two series.

Don't forget that 60 days from Sept. 2nd the annual meeting for the Glengarry Soccer League will be held and at this time if you have any ammendments to the constitution, be sure to attend.

Minor hockey group held meeting

The Alexandria District Minor Hockey Association is busy preparing schedules and registrations for the oncoming season. New sweaters have been purchased for the travelling teams which will be wearing the Jr. B Glens familiar green.

Coaches and managers who are interested in running a travelling team this year must apply as a unit and the executive board will evaluate and vote for the pair who will lead the team's activities for the 1976-77 campaign. House league coaches are always in great demand and it is hoped this year that coaches will not be out-weighed by an anticipated large registration of youngsters who are anxious to return to ice after a one-year lay-off.

Registration time for minor ringette

Minor ringette registration for girls aged 7 to 18 years, as of January 1, 1976, will take place on Saturday, Sept. 18th, from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.; on Monday, Sept. 20th, from 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., both days at the Glengarry Sports Palace.

Late registrations will not be accepted.

Registration fees are $10 for the first girl, $10 for second girl, $25 for three or more girls. Ice time is every Thursday, 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Registration forms will be made available at your own school sometime next week.

For information, contact Mrs. Jean Menard at 525-2769 or the President, J. Y. Jeaurond, 525-1870.

Stars third in Ottawa league

by Carman MacMillan

On Monday, August 30th in Ottawa, the Glengarry Stars defeated Ottawa Falcons three to two on goals by Bert Massia, Brian Filion and John Charlebois. The Stars got back a little by knocking off two points from the league leaders. Before the game, Falcons were in first, Royals in second and we the Stars were third. Our record so far in 12 games is:

Won	Lost	Tied	Total

The spirit has again crept back into the players and we hope to keep it there for the remainder of the season.

It's too bad that we are losing a few good players as Brian Filion will soon be off to Waterloo College. J. T. Hay is now on the injured list with knee problems. Don Morris will soon be attending Toronto Maple Leafs training camp and John Morris will be trying out for football for Concordia. Also we have Scott Campbell who will be attending school at Queen's University, majoring in Physical Education.

Our next league game will be played in Glengarry on Sept. 15th at Lochiel against the Royals soccer club.

Maxville arena closed first time in 45 years

"Maxville's arena will not be operating this year, I am sorry to say," Reeve Hubert Quart told a News reporter on Tuesday. "It is a very unhappy situation; we have had a covered rink operating in Maxville for 45 years.

"Our minor hockey association has been meeting and has secured ice time in St. Isidore for four hours on Sunday forenoons from eight o'clock until noon. It isn't the hours we would like to have but we can't be choosy in our position. The older teams will have to make their own arrangements.

"We are not in a position to decide on plans at this time, this is an election year and we will have to see what the next council will do. We will probably build again as we have a good ice plant capable of sustaining a bigger ice surface than we now have and we have all our piping and lights so that is a fairly good reserve to fall back on. We don't need a very elaborate arena so we should be able to build in the future."

Provincial regulations on arena buildings were eased a bit last week when it was announced some of the "condemned" arenas would be allowed to operate, providing roofs were kept clear of snow and a close check was maintained. However, Maxville arena needs such extensive repairs as well, that the cost is prohibitive.

M. S. Thompson, engineer, who prepared the report on the existing building at Maxville, stated there is no practical way to bring the building up to requirements.

Need heat if corn crop to be saved

We need heat for at least a month if Glengarry is to save a lot of its corn crop, reports J. Y. Humphries, ag. rep. If it doesn't mature, a lot of Glengarry dairymen depending on the corn crop for winter feed will have to buy grain.

We had rather severe frost on the nights of Aug. 31st and Sept. 3rd, severe at least for this time of year, but it was spotty. Low lying fields or any crop in muck were especially hard hit and Mr. Humphries thinks about 40 per cent of the area corn was at least touched.

"It was a real killing frost in some areas," the Ag. Rep. reports. "About 20 per cent of the corn possibly was hit hard by the frost; in other fields just the top of the leaves was touched."

A lot of the crop could be saved if we get enough heat, Mr. Humphries believes, but he is very concerned with the situation. The corn was quite short of heat units by Aug. 13th when the last assessment of crop prospects was made. There have been some warm nights since but too many have been too cold.

Once frozen, corn will not grow any more, Mr. Humphries explains. It could still be used for silage but there isn't silage space to accommodate the corn now grown in Glengarry.

Little damage

A cigaret left burning on a bureau is reported to have been the origin of a fire that brought the brigade out at 3:30 Saturday morning. The walls and ceilings in a bedroom in the St. Paul St. apartment occupied by Herve Levac were scorched by the flames but firemen quickly quenched the blaze.

The house is owned by Mrs. S. P. Katzer of Farmington Hills, Mich., and two apartments were vacant.

St. Mary's Church, Green Valley, was the setting for the wedding August 14th of Rachel Lefebvre and Gerald Legros. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Lefebvre of Green Valley, while the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Legros of Bainsville.

Rev. Gilles Deslauriers witnessed the vows and offered the nuptial mass. Mrs. Paulette Rozon was soloist, with Mrs. Noella Crevier at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length dress in nylon organza. The train was trimmed in pink as was the veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and peach roses.

Bridesmaids were Chantal Legros, sister of the groom and Gabie Blais of Alexandria. They wore floor-length gowns in peach fortrel with chiffon stoles and carried bouquets of peach roses, white mini carnations and baby's breath.

The ushers were Marc Lefebvre of Green Valley, and Jean-Luc Legros of Bainsville.

The couple will reside in Toronto where the bride will continue her education in nursing and the groom is employed in the computer programming field.

Sees Lancaster services in operation next spring

Contracts to supply Lancaster Village with water and sewer services should be completed sometime this winter but it probably will not be until frost has left the ground next spring that property owners connect up to the service lines.

This was the assessment of progress given the News this week by George Humble who is resident supervisor for Wyllie and Ufnal, consulting engineers on the project.

Rumors were rife this summer that some of the service lines had been improperly installed north of the railway tracks and would have to be dug up. This is not so, according to Mr. Humble. That contract is now under a new supervisor and though there was a lapse in construction there, both water and sewer lines are in the finishing stages now, he reports.

A start was to be made this week on the sewage lagoons and the water tower is now more than half completed.

Mr. Humble explains that after the lines are all installed they will have to be tested and any breaks repaired. No householders will be connected to either service until the contracts have been completed and he expects that will not be before next spring.

Won more trophies

At the Upper Ottawa Valley Exhibition held in Pembroke, Labor Day weekend, the Trottier sisters of Dunvegan again brought honors back to Glengarry.

Lori, 11, placed second in the Open Step Dancing class. There were sixteen competitors of which Lori was the youngest. She won a trophy and $50.

Ten-year-old Kelli captured the championship in the twelve and under class. There were ten competitors in her class. She won a trophy and $35.

Out of a total of 30 competitors from all classes, Traci, who is 7, received a trophy and $25, for being the youngest step-dancer in the competition.

The girls also danced together as part of the weekend entertainment.

BERIAULT—BEAUCLAIR

The marriage of Colette Beauclair and Gerard Beriault took place on Saturday, July 17th, in St. Martin of Tours Church, Glen Robertson, at 4 p.m. Rev. Bernard Pilon officiated at the service and Miss Viau was organist and soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Beauclair and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beriault, all of Glen Robertson.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white nylon organza with full skirt trimmed in lace, high round collar and long sleeves. Her veil, secured by flower headpiece extended into a train and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The couple were unattended.

They are residing in Alexandria.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurier Dumouchel, RR3 Alexandria, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamelin, RR1 North Lancaster.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned floor length in white lace featuring a five-tier bouffant skirt, long fitted sleeves and high round collar. A fabric flower secured her waist length veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

She was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Lucie Hamelin as bridesmaid and her niece, Miss Helene Valade as flower girl. They wore light blue dresses and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

The bride's brother, Yvon Dumouchel, was best man and the ringbearer was her nephew, Jeffrey Stevens.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

Have you ever attended a "share" supper? Therese Gaudet, a vice-president of the CWL in the diocese gave us an account of one she attended at the Provincial Convention this summer.

The share supper, it turned out, was one of the items on the Convention agenda and took place following a day's full activities so everyone filed into the banquet hall, exhausted and hungry.

The tables, usually laden with delicious food at such a time, were empty. However, everyone was directed to sit in and supper would be served.

It was served. To the guests at one side of the table was served a loaf of bread. From this loaf they were allowed to break a chunk and pass it on to the next one sitting beside them. They were directed to eat their portion but their pals across the table were to have nothing. However, the "bread" people could pray for their hungry neighbors if they wished, that God might fill their empty stomachs.

The purpose of the whole supper was to emphasize the fact that while some people have sufficient to eat, the other half of the world has nothing.

The idea was very effective, Therese reported. Not only were the ones on the "breadless" side of the table very hungry and much more aware of the pangs of their hungry brethern but the ones who had eaten were uncomfortable in the feeling their hunger had been satisfied while their friends had nothing.

One has to be really hungry and attend a share supper to realize the full impact of such an event, Therese reports. She sat on the "breadless" side.

Jean-Yves Jeaurond has come up with an answer to all the broken hockey sticks that lie around the "hockey" homes all winter.

The newly organized game of "ringette" which will be played by girls at the arena in Alexandria this coming season is played with the handle of a hockey stick. The girls may saw off the broken blade of their brothers' sticks and they have the hardwood all ready to insert into the hole of the doughnut-shaped puck.

I'm not sure if Jean-Yves invented the game. It sounds more like the work of a strain noted for their thrift.

Just hope there aren't too many "libbers" among the girls. Can't you just hear them—"Oh sure, we get to use the boys' left-overs."

I've been having a hard time trying to conjure up some sympathy clue to a sore thumb. There's only one way to get attention and that's to do something unusual like wrapping it up in several layers of gauze.

"What happened your thumb?" folks ask. "It's a wart," I explain. You know what? People don't feel sorry at all because I've got a wart on my thumb. "Everybody's got warts at one time or another" is the general comment, with the hint that I'm possibly a little bit queer for elaborating on mine.

"But it's a planter wart," I try to emphasize. "Planter warts just grow on feet" I'm told, and still get that suspicious look that I'm a pretty mixed-up soul. Evidently I am.

Have been trying to straighten out my life for some time. Now even the warts can't tell the difference between my hands and feet. Life sure has its challenges.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Blatant buying of goodwill

We've got nothing against Morrisburg, mind you, and ordinarily it would be more than acceptable to see another centre in this riding on the receiving end of government grants. But is it not a bit overdone to have Wintario outfitting that town's eleven minor hockey teams to the tune of $350 each?

That aggregates $3,850, and what a precedent it sets. If every minor hockey team in Ontario gets these goodies (and why should they not be treated as royally as Morrisburg's) the payola will mount into the millions.

That's a lot of taxpayers' money thrown to the winds; for make no mistake about it, all these millions the Ontario government is reaping via Wintario are basically another form of taxation.

One wonders if this splurging on minor hockey is in the nature of conscience money. This same Davis government has been condemning small town arenas right across the province and in so doing has been putting a serious crimp in minor hockey programs as well as other forms of winter recreation.

A storm of protest has forced Queen's Park to ease up on its arena closings and it appears to be further cosying up to minor hockey officialdom by using Wintario funds to help finance their programs.

Surely a government that finds itself unable to cope with the rising costs of education and health should be more conservative in its spending. If this Wintario money must be channelled to recreation purposes, it would be more to the point if Queen's Park increased help to replace arenas that have been closed by its own bureaucrats rather than splurge public dollars on hockey sweaters and team travel expenses.

Minor hockey has been in a healthy state in Ontario without the intervention of an over-generous government. It might be argued, even, that minor hockey might be a more effective program if there was less emphasis on travelling teams and travel. These Wintario grants will encourage local associations to concentrate even more on their "all-star" teams.

The entire program of grants should long since have been outlawed. These Wintario grants are nothing but blatant attempts to buy goodwill for the Davis government.

The problem is closer to home

Mercury-contaminated fish are a problem not only on Indian reservations in the North, it seems. Members of the National Indian Brotherhood report the problem is closer to home, too, among the Indians on the St. Regis and Caughnawaga reservations.

That should come as little surprise when one recalls the furor a few years back when mercury pollution was first identified in the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes. So serious was the mercury contamination at that time, commercial fishermen at Lancaster were ordered to stop selling fish for human consumption.

In time that restriction was eased even though little or nothing had been done to rid the river of the industrial wastes contaminating the waters.

Ontario has a ministry of the environment now but it seems only lip service is being paid by the Davis government to the problems of pollution. The industrial dynasties continue to spew their lethal wastes into our waterways despite all the anti-pollution edicts issued by Queen's Park.

The Indian population is expendable it seems and until the ill-effects of mercury poisoning are felt by the paleface we can expect industrial pollution to continue.

Where do we go from here?

Prices and wage controls have had only a slight effect in slowing inflation in Canada, principally because the three main contributing factors of inflation —government spending, food prices and the costs of energy—have not been subjected to the same controls as wages and profits. If and when the government lifts these controls, the Canadian economy is going to be completely out of whack, suggests an editorial in The Prescott Journal. Prices will sky-rocket, there will be an orgy of government spending and there will be nation-wide strife as the work force attempts to close the sudden earning-spending gap.

Prime Minister Trudeau, who introduced price and wage controls last fall in a desperate move to cover up his government's failure to cope with its own mixed up socio-economic problems, is still mixed up, and his present musings on what to do when controls end, is very unsettling.

We wouldn't mind following Trudeau's leadership if he knew where he was going himself, but he doesn't and he is experimenting with our welfare. His intermingling of economics and sociological philosophies has rendered our economy impotent. When he introduced price and wage controls he said he was doing so because Canada's business community had been unable to make the free market system work. So caught-up is he in his attempts to change the way in which we live and think in Canada, that he doesn't realize that since the start of the Second World War we have been living in a mixed economy with government interventions in the market system. These interventions have multiplied rapidly in the past eight years under Trudeau's leadership and anyone who owns a business today knows that our free market system is government regulated to the point of frustration. It is therefore obvious that our economic system failed, not because of the free market philosophy, but because of government interference.

What Trudeau is actually proposing and doing, is inflicting more government controls on business and industry, as well as on individuals in this country. New controls become apparent every day, it seems, and by the time he repeals wage and price controls his government will have enough other regulations to completely control all business in Canada. By controlling the economics of this nation, Mr. Trudeau can then put into effect his premier philosophy of changing the way we live and think. Almost singlehanded he has reduced a healthy economy to stagnation, and once he has the free enterprise system completely demoralized and demolished, then he can show Canadian citizens the errors of their past and lead us to the promised land of socialism with Big Brother our eternal benefactor.

The games that Trudeau has been playing with our economy in order to effect sociological change should, and will, be a major issue in our next federal election. Labor, industrial and political leaders are just now twigging to the game the philosopher prince has been playing with Canada and Canadians. It's a dangerous game and one that reduces the standard of living of all Canadians, because as the rich get poorer, so do the poor. Hope for future growth and economic recovery in Canada depends on how fast Canadians can dispose of Pierre Trudeau and his insatiable appetite for government controls of both economics and lifestyles.

RAMBLING REPORTER

FOUND MONEY

Somebody loses and somebody wins. And then there's that other old saying: Finders keepers, losers weepers.

All of which is prompted by the fact that your Rambling Reporter was well rewarded for walking his dog t'other night. Said dog led him straight to a sizable bit of currency lying in the middle of Main Street.

Welcome little stranger, he could be heard muttering as he stooped to gather in the bill and your R.R. finished his stroll contemplating on the fact that it's as much a pick-up to pick up somebody else's lost moolah as it is a kick in the solar plexus when one loses one's wad.

We've been on the losing end, too, and the experience has left us with the conviction it's a lot more fun spending a hundred bucks foolishly than it is to drop a dollar through that hole in one's pants pocket. In fact we'd say the only thing worse than losing a sum of money is the realization someone has cheated you out of your lucre.

That thought of the loser of that money put a damper on our satisfaction in finding it. We found ourself visualizing some child sobbing out her tale of the loss of that money; and, worse yet, her true story not being believed.

That possibility left us so flat we decided to turn that found money in to the government. We used it to buy Wintario tickets.

We get a bang out of found money but there'd be even more satisfaction in a return to sound money.

ADIEU TO A WET, COOL SUMMER

There'll be some nice weather ahead, we trust, but to all intents and purposes summer is over and it didn't need Labor Day to acquaint us with that fact. The cold nights of the past week were an unwelcome reminder of winter and it's to be hoped the frost didn't ruin a corn crop that promised a bountiful harvest.

This last long weekend of the summer must have been disappointing to a lot of holidayers who had fought their way through congested city traffic for a last fling in the sun. They didn't see much of old sol and the weather wasn't generally conducive to fun in the great outdoors.

A glance back over the summer recalls a lot of lazy, hazy days under a blazing sun. There was plenty of cloud too, and frequent rains. There were few muggy nights and the uncommon chill that followed the setting sun must have been disappointing for a lot of area people who had installed backyard swimming pools. Not many nights were warm enough to invite a swim.

The next holiday weekend will be Thanksgiving and it's to be hoped we'll be in a mood to give thanks for a warm fall.

It was chilly in Chile, too, over the weekend; but this is winter time down there.

ONCE IT WAS LABOR'S DAY

How many know the history of that holiday we took Monday, asks the columnist in the Prescott Journal. And perhaps you'd be interested in a few facts about Labor Day. He writes:

They call it Labor Day, and at one time it was even celebrated as such in our community. Now it is just another long weekend with little attempt to glamorize labor and even more deplorable, with little-or-no effort by Unions to woo public support by participation in and backing of community projects.

But in case someone is interested, the first use of the term Labor Day is thought to have been in 1882, when an American labor group, the Knights of Labor, decided to honor their heroes on the first Monday in September—a day that has ultimately been adopted by the other groups as their holiday.

In Canada, the labor movement has been celebrating its goals more or less continuously since

LETTERS to the EDITOR

NEWFOUNDLAND VICTIMIZED

13 Diefenbaker Street,
St. John's, Newfoundland.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

On April Fool's Day 1949, the late Hon. Louis St. Laurent announced, with great eclat, that Newfoundland had joined the Canadian Confederacy. Only a short time before, in a National Referendum, the people of Newfoundland had voted by a margin of about 4 % to join Canada. Before the Referendum was held, Mr. St. Laurent said he would accept the decision of the Referendum if there was a "significant majority" in favour of the move. Approximately 48% of Newfoundlanders claimed that joining Canada was a fraud, a delusion and a snare and they were being led down the garden path by a demagogue. Now is the time to prove them liars.

Much was made of the benefits that would accrue to Newfoundland by lumping its fortunes with Canada. Little was said of the assets Newfoundland was bringing to the Confederacy. These have all been whittled away in the intervening years, much after the same manner in which Hitler whittled away at Europe until he came to Poland. The reason the whittling has been so successful is the lack of interest and understanding by Ottawa and the Canadian Public. No one would listen to our side of any controversy or dispute. Poland in our case is Churchill Falls. We produce nearly 5,600 megawatts of electric energy there and the bulk of it is sold to Quebec. Now we are asking for the return of 800 of those megawatts but Quebec would sooner sell them to New York.

One of the claims of those who

Skateboards are dangerous

(The Lachute Watchman)

There is a resurgence in the popularity of "Skateboards" and the Canada Safety Council reiterates its policy with regard to their use.

Skateboards are capable of attaining speeds of up to 35 miles per hour. At this speed the risks are clear. Even at lower speeds, loss of control frequently results in painful and severe injury.

Novice riders have little control over their direction, and at times their speed, and cannot come to a quick stop when necessary.

The device is not fastened to the user and can become a runaway and dangerous to anyone in its path.

The Council advises against the use of skateboards in all public locations such as sidewalks, roadways, paved shoulders and on steep grades.

The newer models are considerably more sophisticated than their predecessors of the 60's. They are constructed of flexible high impact molded plastics or glass fibre. The urethane wheels afford a better grip on the road and allow the expert rider to slalom, spin and do balancing acts.

Although the new boards are safer, in some respects, serious injuries continue to occur. The Canada Safety Council regards the skateboards as an unstable device to be used only by those who are prepared to risk bodily harm.

They'll Do It Every Time

Martintown Rumor Mill

Art Buckland—528-4261

Eight generations of the Ross clan were gathered at the home farm near Martintown last weekend; weel, if they weren't there in body, they were present in spirit, I'm sure. They came from Woodstock, Rochester, Ottawa and all over for the festivities. The Ross farm was blessed with a light heather mist while rain fell heavily in surrounding areas. Novitiate minister Hugh MacGregor claimed credit for the weather arrangements. Good people, plus enjoyable surroundings, plus good strong drink and fine music always results in a grand time. Donnie's family reunion has made others realize how worthwhile such an event is. Art Benton demonstrated his bilingual talents by singing in English, and Italian.

Bill Cooper followed his music out of the mist, to make a dramatic appearance on the scene, playing 'Campbellton Loch' on his pipes, to the delight of all of Glen Ross.

The Cobblers supplied fine music from 8:30 till 3:30. Leader Brian McDonell has a good five-member band. Make a point to hear them soon; they improve every time out. When the four voices get going on something like "Nancy Whiskey', you really have a sound. Their rendition of 'Johnny I hardly knew You' is the best I've ever heard.

Barrie McIntyre and Ray Howes were the best bartenders; with these two serving, a man needed two glasses for each drink: one just for the scotch while the water had to go in a separate glass. Some farmers in the area may have had an extra body in the barn on the morning after, as a few farmers were not sure of the way home from Donnie's. What musician drove his truck in Donnie's ditch for the second time in two years? Brother-in-law Joe discovered that when you try to make music by smashing two mirrors together you only get one note—and then for more music you need two more mirrors.

Uncle Earl Ross asked to be remembered to all his friends in the area.

Fred Booth is still taking music students in Martintown (phone 932-4479).

The Brigadoons record is selling briskly. Stephen Doyle told me that he put it to the full test on his 100-watt stereo and found no distortion whatever. Ewen (Hub) and Dunc (Atlantic) have some for sale in Alexandria.

Glengarry '76 (the Arts Centre concert) is taking place Friday, October 29th (see coming events). Now is the time to get the best pick of seats. The talent array includes such names as Danskin, Denovan, Taylor, Dewar, Max Keeping, Kippen, Burnie, MacCulloch, MacKenzie, McMillan, McDonell, Wood, Kemp, Leroux and Stewart.

The reception for Robin and Debbie Thomson was a great gathering of country people. Area people filled McDonell's Inn to help celebrate the occasion. Robin and Debbie have moved into their new house on the Thomson farm.

The Nowickyjs entertained with several medleys of Scottish tunes. John MacKenzie and our famous MacCulloch dancers performed in one of their three shows in the area last weekend. Congratulations and good luck, Robin and Debbie.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie O'Connor (Co-op) celebrated 27 married years last weekend.

Next week a special: Aunt Molly Garlough revisits South Branch Road after a 30-year absence.

As school starts, Martintown Mac remembers what the bulldozer operator said "Me dere I only hav tree year school" and he is only earning $1,000 each week.

Apple Hill club had tour

The "Happy Hour" Senior Citizen's Club of Apple Hill, held their bi-weekly meeting in St. Anthony's Church Hall on Tuesday, Aug. 24th. Eight games of progressive euchre were played. Later a film was shown on "With Camera and Gun in Newfoundland."

Lunch was served. Several new members were added to our group.

The next event was to be a bus trip to Upper Canada Village, leaving St. Anthony's Church on Tuesday, Sept. 7th, at 10 a.m.

supported our entry into the Confederacy was that we would never by able to support ourselves. They forgot that "never" is a long day. The power generated at Churchill Falls sold at current rates would come so close to paying our way that we would be able to do away with quite a few of the taxes with which we are saddled today. Instead, we are tied to a bad contract that still has 65 years to run. Quebec is paying us something in the order of 3 mills per megawatt for this power and selling it at forty odd. That, if there is any justice in Canada, is barefaced robbery. We are not demanding the return of all power. We are asking for enough to develop our potential but Quebec will not accede to our request. Instead that Province wants to sell it abroad at a greater profit.

Well, Canada, what about it?

SEPTEMBER UCW IN GLEN SANDFIELD

The monthly meeting of the UCW was held at the home of Mrs. C. MacDonald, Wednesday evening, September 1st. Mrs. Wm. MacLennan opened the meeting with a poem and turned proceedings over to Mrs. C. Chapman for devotions. After the thought for the day the first two verses of Hymn 284 were sung. Both Mrs. C. MacDonald and Mrs. G. MacRae had Scripture readings from the first chapter of Kings.

The address was one of Dr. Oswald Hoffman's, entitled simply, 'Listen' . . .it pointed out that in this world of noise and confusion, TV and canned music and ready-made entertainment, we should all pause to listen to each other's opinions, conversation and to God's message. Four verses of 'Dear Lord and Father of Mankind' were sung as a duet by Mrs. C. Chapman and Mrs. A. MacLennan, who also played the accompaniment.

Mrs. A. MacRae had the study book, "The Feathered U.E.L., and after her summary, Mrs. MacRae had some interesting and disturbing articles from the Sunday School scrap book, compiled by the children during the summer months. There were clippings about the high mercury content of the fish diet of the native people up North, the causes and effects, and the unfairness of such afflictions upon innocent people by our affluent society, and some discussion on what might be done about it. Sending a bale to Sandy Lake was dealt with.

The business portion opened with the reading of the minutes and a thank-you note was read from Mrs. Ann Wardrop, our former speaker. A reminder about the rally, to be held Sept. 21st at Vankleek Hill's Trinity United Church, was read by the secretary. The collection was taken and dedicated in prayer. After a brief business discussion, the meeting closed. Thanks were expressed to the hostess, a lovely lunch was served and a social hour followed.

CNIB canvass for funds

September is CNIB month in Eastern Ontario. During the late part of September and early October, an army of volunteer workers will be calling on citizens to ask for financial support for the work of the CNIB in Dundas, Stormont, Glengarry, Prescott and Russell.

It is said that six Canadians lose their sight every day. The CNIB has set itself the task of helping these people to re-adjust to a reasonably normal way of living in spite of blindness. The types of service that are given depend on age and ability of the individual concerned. All are eligible for training in basic skills of living without sight. Many take special training to enable them to earn a living while others, with the help of a rehabilitation teacher who works with them in their homes, learn to carry on household tasks in spite of the handicap.

This summer, several people spent two weeks with their sighted escorts at a special training and holiday centre at Lake Joseph. Others took courses preparatory to higher education. Some competed in athletic events that brought them a great deal of pleasure. The programme is widely varied and there is something for everyone.

So, when the canvasser calls to ask for your subscription to the CNIB, please give generously knowing that the money will help someone who lives in your neighbourhood.

More tomatoes

This was a year for large tomatoes on the vine in this area. In recent issues we had reports of large tomatoes and last weekend there were three more brought into the office.

Donat Wissell, Alexandria, had one measuring 17½ inches in circumference while that of Henrietta Van Loon, Greenfield, measured 18 inches. Mrs. Marge Tetreault, Maxville, had one she called Dracula because it was so ugly.

DO YOU HAVE A WILL ?

What should your will say? That's for you to decide, together with whoever draws it up.

Only a lawyer (and additionally in Quebec, a notary) is qualified to draw up wills. To do so he must ask questions and some of them may require a lot of careful thinking.

To help you give thought to some of these questions in advance, Sun Life of Canada has prepared a booklet that can direct your thinking. It's yours for the asking.

Let me show you how life insurance, by providing cash at the moment it is needed, can guarantee the realization of your plans for your family's security. I shall also be happy to present you with your copy of Sun Life's booklet "Planning Your Will". To get your copy, simply call me at 000-0000 or complete and clip the coupon below.

Please show me how life insurance can guarantee the realization of my plans for my family's security, and be sure to bring my copy of "Planning Your Will".

Compensation increased

The compensation rate has been increased for purebred cattle ordered slaughtered in disease eradication programs under Agriculture Canada's Animal Contagious Diseases Regulations, Agriculture Minister Eugene Whelan has announced.

Effective August 5, 1976, the maximum compensation rate for purebred cattle was raised to $600 from $450 for animals infected with brucellosis, tuberculosis or Johne's disease and ordered slaughtered by the department's Health of Animals Branch.

The maximum compensation rate for grade cattle will remain at $200.

"The compensation rates were recently reviewed in relation to cattle market values. Based on the statistics, a maximum of $600 for purebred cattle is a realistic compensation rate. "Mr. Whelan said.

The cross-country averages of slaughter cow prices and sale prices of purebred and grade cattle for breeding production purposes were compared with the average prices on which the previous compensation rates were established in March, 1974.

"The new rate takes into account that packing plant buyers discount the price of reactors because they have to be handled separately in the yards and on the killing floor," Mr. Whelan said.

"The new level will help purebred producers cope with the loss of infected animals," he said.

These maximum rates are not applicable to serious outbreaks of foreign diseases, such as bluetongue, where compensation is awarded at the fair market values of the animals without any limit imposed on the maximum amounts payable.

Calf club had final meeting

The final meeting of the Charlottenburgh Junior Calf Club was held on Monday, August 23rd, at the farm of Rosetta MacRae. The members first had a football game that lasted for most of an hour. The members then returned for a snack of corn and hot dogs and they also handed in their record books.

Glen Smith, the 4-H co-ordinator, and the leaders of the club congratulated members for the good work done during the 4-H program and Stuart McIntosh the club president, thanked the MacRaes for the use of their farm.

The only other event left in the 4-H program now is the awards banquet which will be later on in the fall.
