ROW BROTHERS ROW, THE STREAM RUNS FAST—For the thousands who followed the canoeists down the Raisin on Sunday, there were delightful scenes to behold in the river below. Here four of the teams pass by the Cornelissen farm just west of Williamstown, a few miles from the finish line. Lower left—We can't identify them but it was a brave pair that sailed into the ten foot wall of white foam at the base of the Martintown dam, where the front paddler is completely obscured by the waves. They were expert enough to steer their craft through but the waves filled their canoe and they had to stop to bail out before proceeding on. —Photo Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald

Traffic was heavy on Raisin and on roads leading to it

Two Ottawa men, John Bales and Glen Woodcock, were the first-place winners of the third annual canoe race held on Sunday between St. Andrew's and Williamstown on the Raisin River. Their time was two hours, 16 minutes and 20 seconds.

Close on their heels were two teenagers from Rockwood, Ont., Bob Wissenz and Ian MacMillan who clocked in at two hours, 18 minutes and 10 seconds, while another pair of teenagers, David Malcolm of Cornwall, and Darcy Gordon of Williamstown, took the third place position in two hours, 34 minutes and 40 seconds.

More than 70 canoes left St. Andrew's with a high wind at their backs and the skirl of the pipes from the bridge overhead ushering them forth in grand style.

We've heard the expression that events would come off "Come Hell or High Water" and after Sunday afternoon's canoe race we now know exactly what that means.

The hell was the traffic. This kind of tie-ups you find in Toronto or New York City maybe, but in dear old Glengarry, this sort of thing you just don't find on a Sunday afternoon. With about 1,000 people swarming on and around the bridge in Martintown, some drivers waited an hour and a half to get through. Police re-inforcements had to park over a mile out of the little town and walk in to help unsnarl the lanes of cars which stretched for miles. When the cars left Martintown they stretched bumper to bumper from there to Williamstown.

Police estimated the crowd at between 10 and 11 thousand, a situation that was completely unexpected as in other years the spectators numbered a few thousand and they were strewn leisurely along the 21-mile stretch with several gathered in strategic spots along the river. Officials of the race credit the publicity campaign put on by the Seaway Valley Tourist Council with the large turnout, but considering the race had been postponed and the weather was unfavorably cold, even they did not anticipate such an interest.

The high water was in Martintown the past two years the big attraction in the race was to see the canoeists going over the dam, the most hazardous spot in the whole run. However, this year the churning water at the base of the dam rose in waves about ten feet high and only three or four canoes attempted it. The first one rode through victoriously but the waves splashed into their craft filling it with water and they had to stop and overturn their canoe before proceeding on. One kayak made it through but it did not qualify. Since there was no "Evel Knievel" money in the offing, almost all portaged.

Four young lads from Glengarry District High School, Steve and David Frederick, Paul Racine and John Van Loenan completed the run in two hours 50 minutes and 20 seconds. In a canoe 19 feet long and four feet wide, they made the run right through the Martintown falls without mishap but did not qualify for the race because only two were allowed to a canoe.

They were the last canoe to leave St. Andrews and they tell us the stretch of water a few miles east of St. Andrew's challenged most of the entrants with all kinds of treacherous curves and it was here many of them upset, piled into trees and each other.

Of the 71 official entries, 35 finished. It was a cold and windy run and the ones who made it to the finish line were chilled, exhausted and wet, but triumphant. To make the run under such adverse conditions was quite an accomplishment.

Despite the heavy traffic, car passengers had extremely good viewing all along the river road where the canoeists paddled on in the swirling waters below them, sometimes three and four abreast.

The young team from Rockwood really dig canoe races. (Young MacMillan is the son of Hugh P. MacMillan, well known in the Lochiel area from whence he came and where he frequently returns to visit). They had been in a canoe race up in the Guelph area the weekend before, they told us, and on returning home found a copy of the Glengarry News informing that the Raisin River Race would be held on Sunday, April 13th. They weren't going to miss the race where Hugh P. had paddled down in style back in 1967 so they drove all night to get down here only to find the race had been postponed. Back they came last Sunday and when we hear of that kind of spirit, we think it is nice they were able to return home with a trophy. Wissenz is 18 and MacMillan is 19.

The third place winners, Dave Malcolm of Cornwall, and Darcy Gordon are 17 and 16 respectively, so also put up a good showing despite their tender years.

The trophies were presented in

No fence at park

Town council will take no action on building the proposed fence around the park and playground, it was decided at last week's meeting. The decision followed word from the Richelieu Club that it was not prepared to share in the cost of building the fence.

Plan another drive for funds for new community centre

The Alexandria and district fund raising committee is preparing to launch a second stage of the campaign to raise $200,000 toward the cost of the proposed new community centre. The campaign started last summer when more than $60,000 was pledged in one month. Members are very optimistic that their goal will be met.

Organizers hope the new Alexandria and District community centre will be built through grants and donations and will not raise the local tax bills.

Denis Ethier, MP and Osie Villeneuve MPP, were present at a meeting here Saturday, and they have promised to look into possibilities of grants from the senior governments. In attendance at the meeting were Mayor Bruno Massie, Reeve Albert Faubert of Kenyon, Reeve Alex McDonald, and Councillor Ken MacLennan, Lochiel, among others.

Organizers of the fund campaign report the public will be approached soon for donations or help in raising funds. They ask for a generous response so that we may "soon boast a Community Centre built by the people and something of which they can be proud."

Little damage in blaze

Firemen responded quickly to a call on Monday night when fire broke out in a service station and garage owned by Mel McRae, Main Street South.

A passing OPP officer noticed a flicker of flame in the window as he was going south and notified the firemen. Arriving on the scene they discovered a sofa was smoldering in the interior and filling the place with smoke. They removed it from the cement block building before it became a threat. The window glass and casing of one window was damaged.

Raisin Region Authority interested in developing conservation area at Loch Garry

A tract of 585 acres of town-owned land in the Loch Garry area lends itself to development of a recreation and forest management program, council was told at last week's meeting and the Raisin River Region Conservation Authority is interested in developing the parcel of land.

Art Chalk, resources manager with the Authority, was present to discuss the project with council and there will be further study when Authority officials meet with council shortly.

Mr. Chalk assured council that the authority would go into agreement with the town over any and all steps taken during development and that Alexandria's water rights would be safeguarded.

The authority operates from capital provided by nine municipalities and grants from the provincial government.

"The authority has the qualified personnel to carry out this kind of water and forest management program and is quite ready to hire consulting engineers for design development on the 585 acres of land in Kenyon," Mr. Chalk told councillors.

Mayor Bruno Massie wavered on the idea of committing the town to a deal and emphasized he would want council to have "a hand in the project at all times."

Mr. Chalk replied that such co-operation between the authority and Alexandria could easily be worked out.

"The Conservation area committee, an advisory board to the authority, could study the various alternatives presented, even with the town's strings attached to them," he said.

Mr. Chalk told councillors the authority was set up to handle water and forest management throughout Stormont and Glengarry and that the authority was "being strangled" by not having access to those bodies of water.

"If we had access to this water and could manage the area's forest, then I think the benefits to the whole area and Alexandria would be enormous," Mr. Chalk told council.

Reeve Jean Paul Touchette said he was somewhat wary of the plan since a similar one had been worked out a few years ago but had to be abandoned.

"The lands and forests people had helped us work out a park plan for the same site and everything was ready for approval," said Mr. Touchette. "But when it did come for approval, we found we could not go through with it since the plan was carried out under a program eligible only for municipalities of at least 15,000 people."

Mr. Chalk assured council that there would be no such complication with the conservation authority. He told them that it was the surest way of handling water management programs for the benefit of all concerned. He told councillors that Alexandria's water rights in the area would be safe-guarded.

High winds did damage

The high winds last weekend did considerable damage to telephone and power lines in the area and some residents were without service in both areas for some hours.

A wooden silo on the farm of Jack McDonell at North Lancaster was blown down and the roof taken off a cement silo alongside. In the Dalkeith area a wooden silo on the farm of Richard Burton was lifted off its foundation and twisted and two cement slabs, eight feet square were knocked from the Bunker silo.

Several area residents had roof damage on houses and barns.

The story of St. Raphael's Iona Academy

(As presented by Sister Clair Macdonald in a recent address to members of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Historical Society at Cornwall.)

Delving into historical lore, we find the story of St. Columba and the Isle of Iona very close.

In the 6th century, Columba with twelve monks left Ireland and formed a monastery at Iona, an island on the west coast of Scotland. From here they went forth throughout the Highlands and western islands christianizing. For many years, Iona was the centre of the Gaelic religion. However, the prophecy of Columba before his death was about to be realized—"Instead of monks' voices shall be heard the lowing of cows."

Then in 1200 Reginald, the Lord of the Isles, had the Abbey rebuilt. But the day finally came when the buildings fell into ruin, and for hundreds of years only the tower remained. The time of "the lowing of cows" had come.

In 1900 the Duke of Argyll gave the Abbey to the Church of Scotland. He stipulated that any recognized Christian denominations should be granted the use of it for public worship. In 1938 Rev. Mr. George MacLeod founded the "Iona Community." They spent the summer rebuilding the Abbey and conducting ecumenical seminars, study groups, etc.

The spirit of Iona is immortal. The faith, the learning culture could not die with the crumbling to earth of its perishable buildings. And so we find many sore-tried people of the Highlands, reduced to poverty and wretchedness through the ravages of war, looking toward the New World where they might plant and nurture the precious seed of Christian culture bequeathed to them.

In 1802-3, three ships arrived at Quebec laden with emigrants from the north of Scotland, among them being the disbanded soldiers of the Glengarry Fencibles. These men, accompanied by their Kneydart chaplain, Rev. Alexander Macdonell, settled near the Kneydart emigrants, and named their new home after their native glen, "Glengarry."

Due to bad crops and the hardships and privations of the settlers trying to establish new homes, and the war of 1812-1814, the building of the church was delayed. However, they built a home for Father Macdonell. The following is a quotation from the "Catholic World" Vol. 34, October, 1880,

"The Bishop's house built in 1807 is a spacious stone mansion, capable of accommodating many persons, and fronting on a large garden laid out in 1826 by a gardener whom Bishop Macdonell brought with him from Scotland. There are still lilacs growing in the garden from the Bishop's time, and there is also seen in the garden a sun dial whereon we trace the hours in Roman numerals, and the initials R. J. McD. 1827."

The Bishop's house still stands in good condition, and there is a fireplace in every room. In front is a stone wall built by the college boys in the 1820's. At the foot of the steps may also be seen the traces of the root cellar used in the Bishop's day for storing potatoes, turnips, apples, etc. Here is where Father Macdonell and his assistant teachers and ecclesiastics lived from 1808 to 1836. But after he was transferred to Kingston, the building was used as a presbytery for the parish priests till 1890. Here also was the first printing press, and from it some of the first communiques in English went forth to Upper Canada.

Now that the building of the immense church was well under way, the Bishop turned to means of educating the children of his Scottish emigrants. He was insistent on the establishment of schools, urging his people to make every possible sacrifice, for, if they failed, they would be "hewers of wood and drawers of water." So he went to England for financial help, and in 1818 a school for boys was built at St. Raphael's near the Bishop's house—on a grant of L200 from the British Crown. To this day may be seen the foundation stones of this log cabin. "It was a modest structure, but sufficient for the purpose."

But the Rev. A. Macdonell's greatest anxiety was to give his people a learned, cultured, devoted clergy. So he returned to England for help. He received L350 to build an addition on the west side of the school for young men who wished to study for the priesthood, and the building was called "The College of Iona"—a seminary for boys. Rev. William P. MacDonald from Scotland was the first rector of the College. In the college, he himself taught, along with the professors from Montreal.

At this time, Father A. Macdonell was appointed Bishop, and King George IV, as a personal gift, gave him his episcopal ring, a beautiful amethyst surrounded by diamonds. This ring is still in the Diocese. His diocese extended from Sandwich to Lake Superior along the Great Lakes, to Ottawa, and as far east as River Beaudette. He travelled by foot, by canoe, on horseback, rough wagon, sleigh, visiting the many settlements in the forests, follow-

No more turbo stops here as we go to daylight time

Two turbo trains will speed back and forth from Montreal to Ottawa daily but neither will make a stop at Alexandria according to the new CNR schedule that goes into effect Sunday.

Effective with the adoption of daylight saving time at midnight Saturday, the new schedule is changed considerably, reports Lucien Chenier of Alexandria Travel Agency.

Probably the most important change after elimination of the present turbo stop is an eastbound train that reaches Alexandria at 4:05 p.m. It will provide afternoon service from Ottawa, something that had been missing in recent years.

The new schedule, (All times DST)

Eastbound

Man killed under truck wheels

A young St. Raphael's man met death accidentally on Friday while at work in the Fifth of Kenyon.

Marcel Decoeur, 27, died minutes after he was run over by a gravel truck while piling crushed gravel in a pit owned by Wilfred Lefebvre. Deeply tragic was the fact that the victim's brother, Denis Decoeur, was the driver of the vehicle.

According to a police report, Marcel Decoeur who was standing at the rear of the truck had signalled to his brother Denis, to back up. It is surmised he slipped and fell under the left rear wheel of the vehicle. He died almost immediately.

The victim was born in Glen Robertson on March 29th, 1948 and was educated at local schools. Following his marriage to Mary Den Otter, they took up residence in the Seventh of Charlottenburgh and had resided there since that time.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Luanne, five years old and Terry, three.

He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Decoeur of Glen Robertson, six brothers and six sisters. They are: Yvon, RR 5, Alexandria; Laurent of Lancaster, Michel, Denis, Gilles, Pierre, Lucille, Pierrette and Ginette all of Glen Robertson; Marie Paule, Mrs. Robert Proulx of Hawkesbury; Diane, Mrs. Theo Den Otter of Glen Robertson and Rhea, Mrs. Serge Wathier of Alexandria.

The funeral was held Monday to St. Raphael's Church where Rev. M. J. O'Brien offered the funeral mass, assisted by Rev. Maurice Lariviere. In the choir were the teachers and students of Iona Academy, where Mrs. Decoeur is on the teaching staff.

New fronts for business blocks

The Main Street business section got something of a facelifting last week as three buildings were improved. In addition to the Hub restaurant, the fronts of Bert's barber shop and Claude Lemay's radio and tv shop were covered with varying patterns of steel siding. Federal Maintenance Reg'd of Cornwall, had the contracts.

Work is proceeding on the new senior citizen's residence on Centre Street and other construction in progress includes the OHA apartment building on Lochiel St. West, the storage shed at Alexandria Moulding Ltd., and the addition to the municipal garage, Main St. S.

Other recent building permits cover the conversion of the Faisan Bleu restaurant, Lochiel St., into apartments, finishing of the cellar under Lalonde's Ladies Wear and removal of the overhanging cornice atop the Bank of Nova Scotia building.

Sewer service to Boundary St. deemed to be too expensive

A request from residents of Boundary Road East for sewer connections and a pumping station was refused by town council last week because of the "exorbitant" costs involved.

Town Engineer Ghislain E. Seguin of Hawkesbury said that to install the sewers would cost $80,000, an amount which could be absorbed mostly by the town or the abutting ratepayers of Boundary Street East.

A complicating factor Mr. Seguin told council would be the agreement which would have to be entered into with Lochiel township because of boundary lines.

Mr. Seguin told council that the town would have no alternative but to provide the service if a circulated petition gathered the names of two-thirds of the street's residents and that the number represented at least 50 per cent of the total assessment for the street.

The number of citizens calling for installation of such services has not been that high.

"Most of the residents of that street are quite satisfied with the usage of septic tanks and are probably not too concerned with this matter," Mayor Massie told council.

Mr. Seguin told councillors the town had enormous latitude in deciding financing arrangements for the scheme since it could assume as much as 95 per cent of the construction cost or as little as $5,000, which is the minimum town contribution allowed under provincial legislation. The rest of the money would have to come from the abutting ratepayers themselves.

Winds caused chimney fires

Saturday's high winds sent the Alexandria firemen to two chimney fires. The damage was minor in both instances.

At 9:55 a.m. the truck was called to the home of John Harland, Green Valley. Less than two hours later firemen were at the home of William Ouellette where a chimney fire had spread to the wall.

Sewage problem to be discussed

Alexandria town council and officials of the Consolidated Textiles Co. will meet May 13 in an attempt to solve the problem of the plant's sewage treatment.

A recent estimate on costs of aerating the sewage lagoons so that they might accommodate both the town's sewage and the plant's effluent, was in the $400,000 range.

That is more than the town feels it can afford and council will propose that Consolidated take care of its own effluent while the town lagoons treat the municipal sewage.

Aeration of the lagoons and provision of better pumping facilities then could be obtained at a cost of $121,000.

Martintown rumor mill

Arthur Buckland

Who has spoken to the most local people over the last 20 years? It was a question I asked myself as I feigned work in the barn to avoid painting and plastering in my wife's kingdom. Hmm, I thought, must be a teacher, a preacher or a politician.

The names that came to mind were: Miss MacInnes, a well known teacher of Latin at Cornwall High School, Mrs. MacMillan, a teacher of long standing in Glengarry; Reverend McLellan, Father MacPhail and Osie Villeneuve. All of these people had influenced a great number of locals but one person has outspoken them. That man is Carl Fisher of the old CKSF and now CJSS.

A salute to you Carl for informing and entertaining us for such a long time with such things as live hockey broadcasts from Moncton to your present day morning banter.

What area engineer now introduces himself as "the man who is second only to Dutch Elm disease in the tree business"?

Lost: one 14 foot green Viking canoe. Last seen floating downstream east of our Martintown dam without Barry Lunt or Cameron Ward in it. If you have any information on it phone 374-2858.

These boys, like Bruce and Don McCuaig, tried practising before the Great Grape River Run and ended up without a canoe for the race. Thomas Gill of Ingleside, and I learned that lesson last year. The St. Lawrence College run was last Saturday and we put last year's lesson (we demolished our canoe last year at the dam) into practice. Thomas Gill, Thomas Garlough (Glen Walter) and I paddled down the Raisin, beached our canoe just above the falls, at Eleanor MacPhadden's, and then we portaged to the Grand Hotel. Then we travelled overland to the Atlantic (in Alexandria) where we found Rob Taylor and The Brigadoons at their toe tapping best.

Rob introduced me to his young sister Sandra who was passing through on her way home to Newfoundland from university. Her lowest math mark this year was 99%. It certainly kills a lot of my good Newfie jokes when I think of this.

Remember The Brigadoons, Rob, Bob, Bob, and Guy will be playing at our Martintown Recreation Dance, the Farmer's Spring Planting Dance, on Friday, May 30th. Any male in a kilt will be admitted free. Pipe Major John MacKenzie will be along as well as our beloved MacCulloch Dancers. We'll be having a sing song; you will also have an opportunity to win many prizes. Come along.

I have a new contest. Win a book by describing "Spring in Glengarry" in a verse or prose. Secondly, how many words can you make from the name of our beloved county "Glengarry"? The contest closes May 23rd and prizes will be given out at the Spring Planting Dance, Friday, May 30th. Anyone may enter.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Wood held a birthday party for their young lad in our St. Andrew's United church basement. Can you imagine—40 children attended and had a fine time. Terry and his wife and family are headed West to a job in Saskatoon. Good luck folks.

Donnie Ross tells me that his father is in hospital for diagnosis of chest pains and shortness of wind.

Gerry Desjardins' wife was in hospital last week for an operation.

Sam MacLeod is in obvious pain with his whiplash. One doctor said Sam would never ride a tractor again.

Hope all you fine people will get well soon.

Hughie Gifford, Len Jack and wife were some of the fine people from Alexandria way that we met last weekend. Hughie, a retired barber, was the best dressed man in town last Saturday, I am sure. They were anxious to find out the identity of Martintown Mac. I had to tell them that it was not Rhodes Grant, Alex Lagroix or Mac Warden.

I'm glad they did not press the issue because I'm sure Mr. Jack, who is a physical giant of a man, could have sent me straight through the floor of the Atlantic just by pressing his thumb down on my hard head.

Martintown Mac says you should sense Spring by looking for the geese and other birds returning to us, by touching the soft shoots of the narcissus and tulips, by listening for the mating sound of the woodcock and the grouse, by tasting the fresh cold maple sap and by walking in the bush sniffing for our first vegetable, the wild garlic. These activities, of course, assume that you don't have to work for a living.

Mrs. Copas heads WI

The annual meeting of the St. Lawrence WI was held at the home of Misses Bessie and Christena Cumming.

The president, Mrs. Alex Lalonde, welcomed the members and guests to the meeting and presented the opening exercises. Nineteen members answered the roll call with the payment of their annual fees.

Miss B. Cumming read the minutes and correspondence and gave a summary of the Quilting Course held recently in Alexandria.

Mrs. J. P. Sangster reported on the Kitchen Workshop held April 2nd in Knox Church, Lancaster, and on the District Directors' meeting held in Alexandria.

The theme for the McArthur Trophy display will be 'Brighten up your Kitchen' with a total of nine articles to be made.

Members were asked to consider a trip to the Nepean Sports Centre for a WI celebration of International Women's Year for their annual bus trip.

The minutes of last year's annual meeting were read by Miss B. Cumming who also gave the yearly financial report. The auditor's report was given by Mrs. Graham Copas. Standing Committee reports were given by Mrs. J. B. White for Agriculture and Canadian Industries; Mrs. G. Copas for Citizenship and World Affairs; Miss C. Cumming for Education and Cultural Activities; Mrs. Dorothy Haight for Family and Consumer Affairs. The Public Relations report of the year's activities was given by Mrs. James Sinnott.

The president, Mrs. Lalonde, congratulated the conveners on their reports and thanked the members for their support and encouragement during her six years in office.

Following the nomination committee report the following were elected to office, Mrs. A. Lalonde, past president; Mrs. G. Copas, president; Miss Bessie Cumming, 1st vice-president; Mrs. J. B. White, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. A. Lalonde, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. P. Sangster, District Director; Miss C. Cumming, alternate; Miss C. Cumming, Tweedsmuir History Curator; Miss B. Cumming, Fair Board Representative; Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Mrs. Eugene Picard and Mrs. James Sinnott, directors.

Standing committee conveners include, Mrs. J. B. White, Agriculture and Canadian Industries; Mrs. H. Leblanc, Citizenship and World Affairs; Miss C. Cumming, Education and Cultural Activities; Mrs. D. Haight, Family and Consumer Affairs; Miss Veronica Caron, Resolutions, Miss B. Cumming, Public Relations officer; Miss Alice Bellis and Mrs. J. Sinnott, auditors.

Mrs. Copas, the newly elected president, closed the meeting with the royal anthem.

Special prizes were won by Mrs. E. Picard and Miss A. Bellis.

Veterinary Club elects slate

The first meeting of the Glengarry 4-H Veterinary Club was held on Tuesday, April 14, at the Ag. Rep.'s office.

The main item on the agenda was the election of the new executive. The officers are:

President—David MacMillan
Vice-President—Jim Vallance
Secretary—Janet Vallance
Press Reporter—Lee Anne Burton.

The Club is most fortunate to have Doctor Jim Algire as leader and under his direction the members discussed the year's program, specifically dealing with the health of the dairy herd.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM MAXVILLE AND SURROUNDING DISTRICT

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Scott and family of Westport, recently spent a weekend with Mrs. Hilda Scott.

Raymond Bourgon was the lucky—and the last—winner for this season in the Lions' 50-50 draw. The Lions appreciate the support that made their project the most successful effort so far, a very good winter.

Mrs. J. N. Fitzgerald spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey LeRoy and family at St. Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sinclair and family were visiting friends in Ottawa last Saturday.

Big and bright new premises for the Max-Len hairdressing salon owned and operated by Helen McGillis. Helen has moved into the rooms formerly occupied by the old post office, and there is a wide and convenient entrance at the door on Mechanic Street.

Kerry Franklin enjoyed a short holiday at Fairhaven Camp near Guelph.

Mrs. Hilda Scott was in Belleville on Wednesday attending the funeral of a cousin, Hubert Scott. She was accompanied by Mrs. Iver D. MacIver.

The service next Sunday, April 27th, at St. Michael's Anglican Church will be Evensong and Laying on of Hands at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weedmark of Ottawa were weekend guests with Mrs. Howard McEwen.

A notice for all the ecologists who have learned to save and bundle all their waste paper for re-cycling. In spite of rumors and counter-rumors and threats of extinction, CARP is still functioning, keep on filling the big white boxes and save our natural resources.

MET ON CANCER

An impressive attendance of 65 people were present at a special meeting of the Maxville Branch of the Cancer Society held in the Community Hall last Thursday evening. Mr. J. Hilliard, field secretary for the Eastern Region, was introduced by Mrs. R. F. McRae. He showed two very interesting and informative films, "To Build a Dream On" and "We Can Help," and spoke briefly outlining the work of the Society and the use made of funds collected. Mrs. Marion Loewen introduced the second guest, Dr. Rebecca McDermott of Ottawa. Her theme dealt with the present state of cancer research and the kinds of treatment available.

The speakers were thanked by Mrs. Clarence Sinclair, who is chairman of the local service to patients.

This special meeting was held in Maxville to help publicize Cancer Week, and the success of the venture was evident in the good turn-out and also in the lively question and answer session that followed the speakers' addresses.

DUNVEGAN

Miss Olive Ferguson, President of Glengarry Presbyterial WMS, Mrs. John MacQueen and Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Skye, recently attended the Mission Rally held at Martintown Presbyterian Church. Miss Margaret Kennedy, from the Mission field in India, gave an inspiring address.

Mrs. D. J. Hartrick, Mrs. Leslie Clark, Donna Clark, Mrs. Paul Loeffelhalz, Hans, John Paul, Ouida Loeffelhalz, John MacKinnon, Mrs. John Keith MacLeod, Mrs. Norman MacLeod and Bettianne MacLeod attended the Centennial Sunday School Rally and Potluck Supper held at Lancaster last Sunday afternoon. A profitable and enjoyable program was enjoyed by all.

The Presbytery of Glengarry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada held their regular Spring meeting in Kenyon Church, Dunvegan, on Tuesday, April 15th. The members of Kenyon Women's Association catered to the noon luncheon.

Dr. Iver D. MacIver officiated at Communion Service, Sunday, April 20, in Kenyon Presbyterian Church, Dunvegan. The following candidates: Lorna Campbell, Brenda Cousineau, Glen Nixon, Lois Nixon, Joyce MacLeod, Kenneth MacLeod, Norma MacLeod, Kyle MacMillan, Robert MacMillan and Audrey MacQueen, were received, on confession of Faith, into the Congregation as new members. These young people are warmly welcomed into the fellowship of Kenyon Church.

Rev. Roy MacGregor will be guest preacher in Kenyon Presbyterian Church on Sunday, April 27, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacRae and Mrs. K. W. MacRae moved to Maxville on Saturday to their new home there.

The Dunvegan WI will hold its annual meeting in the Institute Hall on Thursday, April 24th, at 8 o'clock.

Special display

Staff and pupils of St. Joseph's School in Lancaster, have prepared a special display for Education Week. It is being shown in the Lancaster public library, starting Tuesday, April 22, at 1 p.m.

The display shows work by students of all grades. Principal J. P. Bourdeau said that it will remain on display in the library until Friday, May 2nd.

The National Hockey League play-offs are into their third week and some 30 games have been played. With the exception of the Los Angeles-Toronto series the hockey we have been served has not been of play-off calibre and a far cry from the quality of play we were treated to a few years back.

However, NHL play-offs without seasoned pros like Orr, Esposito, Park, Ratelle and Gilbert can not be expected to be the same. It is players like these that come up with the big plays and create the interest that makes hockey the fine sport it is.

The play-off structure this season was most confusing and resulted in several mismatches. The top team in every division was given a bye in the first round while the second and third place finishers met in a best of three series. The total points during the season's play determined the pairings for the play-offs.

Idle for a week before getting a taste of the play-off action, the division winners Canadiens, Vancouver, Buffalo and Philadelphia lost some of their sharpness, although Philadelphia seemed to have benefited by the lay-off. Flyers' coach Fred Shero is a great believer in conditioning and his team appears to be the best-conditioned club in the league.

The semi-finals will likely begin this weekend and at this stage of the game the only real contender missing is Boston. Canadiens will probably be matched against Buffalo and the Flyers and Pittsburgh will square off. The Buffalo-Canadiens series should provide good fast hockey and could go the seven game limit. In the other semi-final, Pittsburgh will be no match for the likes of Clark, MacLeish, Barber, Parent, etc.

The champion Philadelphia Flyers will supply plenty of action in the finals and their superb conditioning could lead them to another championship. Whether Buffalo or Canadiens provide the opposition the series should be a hard-hitting one.

The NHL hockey season has become much too long. The teams now play 80 regular scheduled games and possibly another 50 play-off dates will end up well into May. Not only the season is being stretched, so is the quality. Hockey is now overlapping other major summer sports and is losing its appeal.

We do not like this season's play-off set-up and hope it is not a permanent fixture. The best-of-three opening play-off round should be scrapped. A team can struggle through 80 regular games to end up second in its division, then be knocked out of further play in two games.

It will be a long summer for such teams as the Bruins and Rangers and changes could be made. These two teams carry many high salaried players who have not produced. Management will not accept defeat of this nature lightly.

The World Hockey Association play-offs are producing upsets too. Minnesota's defeat of New England, and San Diego's win over Toronto Toros was unexpected. Quebec Nordiques and Houston will probably meet in the finals. This will likely be the last play-off for the great Gordie Howe.

Sports Slants . . .

The Expos surprised everyone with their leading record in the pre-season Grapefruit League but since the regular season schedule started Gene Mauch's young club has not looked like a team that can play .500 ball. The lack of hitting will hurt them and if their pitching doesn't come through the Expos will be in deep trouble. . . Last week the Midgets were eliminated in Embrun by a good skating St. Isidore club 6 to 4. Coach Barry MacDonald's team went into the semi-final game without his top player Yvan Desautels, sitting out a game suspension for spearing. . . Friday night in Embrun we ran into friend John [Moose] Wensink. John is looking fit and claims his back injury that kept him out of the St. Louis Blues line-up the past season is finally coming around. He feels he could have helped the Blues in their recent play-offs. We hope to see him up there next season. . . Soccer got off the ground with the election of officers at a meeting held Monday night. Alastair MacKenzie was returned as chairman. Play in the senior league is expected to get underway by the end of May with six teams. Dunvegan is expected to return after a few years absence. . . In spite of the uncertain weather, the canoe race on the Raisin River attracted almost double the entries of the two previous years. It was a cold wet run and the competitors deserve a big hand for not only taking part, but putting on a good show for all those who turned out to herald this spring event.

(by Elaine Aubry)

The Lancaster 4-H Horse Club members are on their feet again this year with bigger and better plans. They held their organizational meeting at the North Lancaster Township Hall, April 17th. The assembly started off by a welcome from Glen Smith and our leader, John Peters. A film on Parliamentary procedures was shown and enjoyed by all. This was followed by the nominations and election of the executive. Those elected were:

President—Margie Peters
Vice-President—Shelley MacDonell
Secretary—Sheila Alexander
Treasurer—Laurie MacDonell
News Reporter—Elaine Aubry.

Further meetings have been scheduled for every third Thursday of each month. Certain plans for the club were discussed and this year should prove to be very interesting.

Lady bowlers ended season with awards night, Saturday

The president of the Alexandria Women's Bowling League, Mrs. Marcel Menard presided at the presentation of trophies at the annual dinner and dance held at the Curling Club rooms on Saturday night.

Ten teams took part in league and play-off competition and trophies were given to the first four in the play-offs and the first five in season play.

Alexandria Moulding took three trophies for first place in season play, second place for the year and the high pinfall, -3346.

Alexandria Cleaners took two trophies; for second place for the play-offs and third for the year.

Glen Sportswear also took two trophies, fourth place for the season and fourth place for the year.

Alexandria Builders won third place trophy for the play-offs and Brown Shoe won the fifth place trophy for season play.

Individual awards went to Lise Paquette, first high average, 214; Huguette Perrier, second high average, 214; Marlene Cholette, third high average, 208. Micheline Menard had the top high single for the year with 352 and Clair Roy ahd the high triple, 876.

Mrs. Menard also introduced next year's executive: Mrs. Ernest Etherington, president; Mrs. Jean Marie Rochon, secretary; Mrs. Raymond Ouellette, treasurer.

Soccer league elects slate for season

Representatives from Dunvegan, Laggan, Glen Sandfield, Lochiel, Alexandria, Greenfield and Maxville were present at the meeting of the Glengarry Soccer League on Monday, April 21st.

Re-elected to office were Alastair MacKenzie as chairman, and Elizabeth Barton as secretary treasurer. Hubert Hay is the new vice-chairman.

The Senior Division hopes to start play towards the end of May with possibly six teams. Dunvegan is returning after an absence of a few years.

The girls and minors will begin later in the season.

Elected representatives to date are: Alexandria, Colleen McCormick; Maxville, Janet Vallance; Greenfield, Adrien St. Denis; Dunvegan, Shirley Dashney; Lochiel, Hubert Hay and Glen Sandfield, Erwin MacLennan.

Calves average $531 at sale

Forty five calves averaged a price of $531 at the Eastern Ontario Calf Sale held Saturday at the Fawcett Sales Barn in Winchester. Nine calves were consigned by Glengarry breeders. They averaged $587.

Alex Snedden of Almonte, consigned the highest priced calf at $1,450. It was bought by a Finch drover, Ralph McKenzie.

George Osborne and Sons, Bainsville, sold two calves at $785 and $700. Bill Delhey of Apple Hill consigned two that brought in $610 and $585.

Local buyers at the sale included Wm. Condie, Lancaster; Alex D. MacLeod and Douglas Howes, Dalkeith.

Some of the calves went to Italy, Cuba and Western Canada buyers.

Clerks will meet here in May

The clerks of all municipalities in Eastern Ontario, about 70 or so, will be in Alexandria on Wednesday, May 7th.

They will be the guests of the seven local municipalities, the Town of Alexandria, Villages of Maxville and Lancaster and Townships of Lancaster, Charlottenburgh, Kenyon and Lochiel.

They will meet at the Acropolis Room in Alexandria Pizzeria, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. with a break for luncheon.

It is customary for the clerks to meet every Spring to learn of any new legislation and discuss matters that might be of mutual concern.

To address Historical group

The next meeting of the Glengarry Historical Society will be held in the Church on the Hill, Alexandria, on Thursday, May 1st, at 8 p.m., preceded by an executive meeting at 7 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Campbell Fraser who will talk on "Some unusual literary references to Glengarry". Mr. Fraser is well known in the area, having been Principal of Glengarry District High School until his retirement in 1965.

Visitors will be cordially welcomed.

Won quilt

Miss Claudine Ouimet of Glen Robertson, was winner of the quilt drawn by the Club 65 in Glen Robertson last week. She held ticket #395.

Local man keeping pro lacrosse players good

Montreal Quebecois of the National Lacrosse League opened their home season in the Forum, Monday night, and though Glengarry had no players on either the Quebecois or their opposition, Philadelphia Wings, this county was represented on the Forum floor.

Lochiel's Carman MacMillan had his part to play as one of the two whistle-tooters assigned to referee the game. Carman refereed some games in the fledgling lacrosse loop last year and now has graduated to a role as a regular.

He opened the season in Maryland, April 15th, and was in action again at Philadelphia the following night. Montreal offered the opposition in both games and the referees got a panning in the metropolitan press for "spoiling the game by too many penalties."

There were 58 penalties handed out in the Maryland game and another 37 in Philly. The parade to the sinbin will continue steady, declares Carman, until the players have decided to quit slashing and interference.

Referee-in-chief Red Storey has laid down the dictum that this is professional lacrosse and the players will have to act like pros. Until they do, they will spend time in the penalty box and may also be assessed fines in various amounts depending on the severity of the infraction.

"We have our orders to hand out the penalties," says Carman, and league moguls are backing Red Storey 100 per cent. The league levied more than $1,000 in fines over the first three games.

A soccer star of note, Carman is a big six-footer built on the model of his dad, Keith MacMillan. He likes travel by air, fortunately, for that is the way he will travel to all games except those in Montreal and Quebec City.

He likes flying, and Carman is more than happy in his role as a regular referee in the professional lacrosse league.

Glengarry has no talent in the loop but there are several Cornwall players including Bruce Roundpoint and Ernie Mitchell of St. Regis; Allan Harrington, Claude Disotel and John McDonald of Cornwall.

Minor hockey held awards night on Friday

President Ron Allison of the Alexandria District Minor Hockey Association officiated last Friday night at the presentation of awards to 370 players who had been registered during the past season. GDHS auditorium was filled to capacity as parents and friends accompanied the children.

Each of the divisions was called to the stage and the coach of each team was presented with Olympic certificates for each of his players from Louis Lafrance on behalf of the Royal Bank.

There was one trophy for the top team in each division and they were accepted by the coaches of the winning teams as follows: Novice, Yvon Menard; Atoms, Robert Boisvenue; Peewee, Rannie MacLeod; Bantam, Ray MacDonald; Midget, Glen Murray.

Trophies went also to the Most Valuable Player in each division and the proud boys who took these trophies home were: Luc Cuerrier and Martin Seguin, tied for Novice; Danny O'Connor, Atoms; Jeffrey McRae, Peewees; Bradley Gagnon, Bantams and Robert Decoste, Midgets.

There were trophies also for the Most Valuable Players in the Travelling Teams and these went to; Atoms, Kennedy MacDonald; Peewees, Dale Boisvenue; Bantam, Francois St. Pierre. There were three trophies for the top players in the Midget Travelling Team: Most Valuable Player, Yvon Desautels; Best Defence, Jim Labonte; Most Gentlemanly Player, Roger St. Pierre.

The trophy for the most promising goalie in the whole system went to Gilles Gareau of the Midget Travelling Team, and the President's Trophy for hockey ability combined with academic achievement was awarded to Terry Epp.

The coach of each of the Travelling Teams gave an account of his team's play during the past season.

Ernie Etherington who coached the Atoms reported that out of 62 games played, the team won 41, lost 15 and tied six. Out of six tournaments entered, they won four A trophies, one B and were finalists in the sixth. They also won the SD&G trophy and capped it all by winning the ODHA finals, the first Atom team to bring this honor back to Alexandria. The team had scored 377 goals and had 221 assists for a total of 598 points.

The Peewees took part in nine tournaments, reported Coach Wayne Crack. They won three A trophies, one B and were A finalists in two. They placed second at the International Tournament in Lake Placid. During the season they played 53 games, won 35, lost 15 and tied three.

Gaetan Giroux, coach of the Bantams reported his team had competed against 22 different teams in the past season and out of 60 games, won 38, lost 17 and tied five. They participated in eight tournaments, won one A trophy, two B trophies and were finalists in one A and one B tournament.

The Midget Travelling Team coached by Barry MacDonald were not present as they were participating in the big Embrun tournament on Friday night.

The travelling teams brought a total of 13 trophies and one playdown championship to their home base during the season, an impressive record since many of their former players had been incorporated into the Char-Lan system this year.

E.W. Morris new president area TB & RD

At the annual meeting of Eastern Counties TB &R.D. Association, held at the New Parkway Inn on Tuesday, April 8th, at 8 p.m., Dr. R. Beverley Lynn of Queen's University, Kingston, was guest speaker.

Dr. Lynn gave an excellent address on respiratory diseases and the once dreaded disease of Tuberculosis. He stated that in 1912, in Ontario, it was the No. 1 killer. Although this is not the case in 1975 we certainly have problems such as emphysema, chronic bronchitis and asthma.

A. C. MacDonell chaired the meeting and noted how much he had enjoyed being President of the Assoc. for the past two years. He turned the meeting over to E. W. Morris of Finch, the incoming President for 1975-76.

Refreshments were served to some 30 who attended.

Volunteers are needed in this organization from different areas of Stormont, Dundas, Glengarry, Prescott and Russell.

For more information regarding this organization please call: Eastern Counties Lung Assoc., Box 52, Cornwall, Tel. 932-4999.

FFCF had April meeting

The regular meeting of the FFCF was held on April 8th, at 2 p.m., in the rectory hall.

Mrs. Theodore Desjardins chaired the meeting and welcomed 20 members. Arrangements were made for a trip to Montreal in late June. Members volunteered 205 hours during the past month. Mrs. Yvonne Carriere reported 300 pieces of clothing were distributed to needy families. Members were reminded of the Spring Achievement Day for 4-H Homemaking Clubs being held on Saturday, April 26, at Glengarry District High School.

Mrs. Theodore Desjardins and Mrs. Edward A. Bissonnette are the two delegates attending the FFCF convention in Ottawa.

The story of Iona...

ing Indian trails, living days with the Indians, sharing their meagre fare and habitation. We are told that he had an open sleigh lined with bear skin, and a team of horses. As soon as the rivers were frozen, he started on his journey visiting his people. Anybody that he found anxious for a higher education returned with him, and studied at Iona.

The College of Iona during the ten years of its existence gave 14 priests to the diocese. However, many other students went on to other professions. The schooi was a European Classical College.

It was closed as a seminary when the Bishopric was moved to Kingston in 1836. The next year the Bishop obtained a charter for a new college in Kingston, known as Regiopolis College, with university powers and privileges. But the log cabin—the College of Iona—continued as a school till 1881, when the partitions were taken down and it was turned into a chapel.

Among the boys who studied in the log cabin was Honorable Donald Sandfield Macdonald. After completing the classical course, he was engaged in Public Works, and in 1873 was made Postmaster General. In 1875 he was appointed Lieutenant Governor of Ontario. His son, the late Col. A. G. F. Macdonald was editor of the Glengarry News for many years in Alexandria.

This is a quotation concerning Dr. Strachan's tour in Glengarry, dated October 23, 1828:

"Dr. Strachan left Cornwall on September 30, 1828, and came on to St. Raphael's. Here the Archdeacon found a church which he described as a most gigantic undertaking in so wild a country. There was also a shool and a college for boys in active operation, and the people were engaged in erecting one for girls." (It never materialized.)

In 1900 Rev. D. A. Campbell became pastor of St. Raphael's, and remained there till 1948. At that time the parish had a one-room rural school and education was at a low ebb. So Father Campbell decided to remedy conditions if possible. In 1913 he invited the Sisters of the Holy Cross to come to St. Raphael's. Sister M. Sophie (Janet Campbell), Sister Elodie and Sister Olivier (from Quebec) answered the call. They taught catechism, and prepared the children for confirmation, and helped in the sacristy. They lived in a small building attached to Mr. A. A. Macdonell's store.

In 1913, under the guidance of Rev. D. A. Campbell, and with financial help from Bishop William A. Macdonell, Bishop of Alexandria, the Bishop's house which had been closed since 1881 was renovated and converted into a boarding school for girls and a residence for the sisters. In 1914, four new recruits came. Two of them taught in the elementary school near the church. One sister was Sister Albina, an aunt of Rev. D. B. McDougald, pastor at St. Columban's. Each year brought an increase in the number of day pupils, and the boarders' quarters were run at full quota—about 15 to 25.

Rev. D. A. Campbell, with the help of the parishioners, had moved the log cabin (the College of Iona) to where it is today. Then it was renovated, clapboarded, and in 1914 was opened as a Private High School with Sister Irma (Sarah MacPherson) and Sister Florina (Elizabeth Kennedy) as teachers. Here may still be seen the hand-hewn beams of the ceiling, the addition, or partition where the two buildings were joined, and the century-old bell and the tabernacle of the altar still exist.

The little log cabin continued as a High School from 1914 to 1924. Among the first graduates from this High School was Msgr. R. J. MacDonald, retired, now at St. Columban's, Mr. Allen Edward McDonell, who was principal at Williamstown for many years, and many other teachers.

Then this building was further renovated, equipped, and functioned as Iona Commercial College from 1924 to 1945, during which time it graduated many students into the business world.

From the Canadian Magazine, September, 1923, Alden Griffin Meredith's chapter, "A Little Journey to Glengarry" is quoted:

"At St. Raphael's, the life history and work of Bishop Macdonell (first Bishop of Upper Canada) is being preserved and arranged by the loving care of Rev. Father Campbell, himself a native of Glengarry, whose charming personality and enthusiasm in his undertaking stir the heart and stimulate the imagination of the too-forgetful modern Canadian. He has had the small log cabin (Iona College of the Great Bishop's day) where such men of mark as Rev. George Hay of St. Andrew's, Rev. Michael Brennan of Belleville, Rev. Edward Gordon of Hamilton, and many others received their education from Bishop Macdonell, moved to a better site, and properly repaired so that all the relics of the past are preserved. The hand-hewn beams are straight and sound, and the broad planks of the flooring worn by the feet of Glengarry boys are still going strong."

The High School students increased in such numbers that it was necessary in 1924 to build two spacious wings to the Bishop's house—one wing equipped with four modern classrooms, and the other wing had a chapel, dining room and dormitories.

To finance this building, Father Campbell lectured at the University of Washington, D.C., for many summers. He made $11,000 which he contributed to the building. The parish was also levied, which entailed financial sacrifices. The teachers in the High School received no salary or grants. They lived on the money received from the fees for tuition paid by the boarders.

At the opening of the new school in 1924—thereafter known as Iona Academy—the guest speakers were Dr. Kerr, Director of Rural School Organization for Ontario, and Dr. Fraser, Provincial Archivist, both of Toronto. They eulogized the work done by Father Campbell and his parishioners. Within this new building we were able to accommodate 50 boarders. Improvements continued to appear. In 1926 the kerosene lamps were discarded and electricity was introduced into the Academy.

A driveway with iron enclosure and a terraced cement walk was built in 1936, supervised by Mr. J. D. McRae, and also an arched gateway with Iona Academy carved in its semicircular area, bidding "Welcome to Newcomers" and "Home Again" to old ones. An artesian well yielding a bountiful supply of water was dug in 1937. New sleeping quarters for the sisters and a modern kitchen were constructed in 1937. The grounds were levelled and graded to provide basketball, tennis courts, softball, etc. Hedges, rock gardens, flower plots graced the lawns. Lilacs which were planted in Bishop Macdonell's time still bloomed in profusion.

On June 30, 1930, there was the unveiling of a monument in memory of Bishop Macdonell at St. Raphael's. The following is an excerpt from Col. Fraser's address on Bishop Macdonell's interest in education:

"Of Bishop Macdonell's labours in the educational sphere I have been asked to say a few words. His zeal in this field had its roots embedded in the far past, his consuming love of learning being a distinct and direct inheritance from an Ancient Celtic ancestory—back to the days of Columba, the pioneer missionary, the cultured poet, and the forceful statesman, who fostered schools and established Christianity in the western Highlands more than 1300 years ago.

"He found in Upper Canada a receptive people who from the beginning had done their best for their children's education by private, district, and grammar schools. He will always be remembered as the founder of the College of Iona at St. Raphael's.

"Iona Academy of today, right here in St. Raphael's, the revival of the Bishop's efforts, makes an appeal to sentiment as well as to practical utility to us today, and I hope as the time goes on it will be richly endowed and generously supported."

In 1949 the Sisters of Holy Cross took over the administration of Iona Academy from the diocese. After buying the building and grounds for $20,000, they immediately added $11,000 of repairs to the building. The number of day students and boarders continued to increase in the High School.

In 1965 the Holy Cross Order again stepped in and built a brick school at a cost of $500,000 adjoining the stone building, the former High School and Bishop's House. They also built a Sisters' Residence. It was a modern High School for grades IX to XIII. It comprised the Monsignor Campbell Memorial Chapel, a cafeteria, a modern kitchen, gymnasium, classrooms, etc. There was a staff of nine teachers in the High School, two in the elementary school, and seven sisters who helped in the boarding school, and about 80 boarders.

The Cross on the chapel tower in front of the school is the Cross of Iona, also called the Celtic Cross, of ancient origin, used by the early Celts, and is prominent on the Isle of Iona.

In 1971, due to lack of personnel and the stand taken by the Ontario Government against private high schools, curtailing all grants beyond Grade X, the Sisters were obliged to abandon Iona. All through the years they had taught Grades XI, XII, and XIII without salaries. But with the high cost of living, and a drop in religious vocations, they could continue no longer.

In 1972 Grades IX and X phased out, and the last two Sisters withdrew in June, 1973, closing an epoch of 60 years.

In 1973, Iona Academy was purchased, and is operated by the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Roman Catholic School System Board as Iona School.

some real great performers don't even know how to skate!

We're not talking about Eddie Shack. He may not be the smoothest looking skater that ever took to the ice, but he's known throughout the league as one of the fastest, strongest skaters in hockey, even today, after 18 years of hockey's bumps and grinds. Fast Eddie took years to learn how to be a real great performer and he works at it every day. Like Eddie, we think Canadian plumbers are real great performers, even though most can't skate! It takes years of training to become a professional plumber. In fact, the average plumber spends over 5 years just learning his trade before he can step out as a first class plumber. On top of that, he's constantly going to 'training camp' to keep up with changing technology. So when you use the service of your plumber, remember, he's spent considerable time learning the ins, outs, and in-betweens of todays complex water systems.
As manufacturers of Duro pumps, we're proud to be part of this team of Real Great Performers.

Duro plumbers are real great performers!

How to win $100,000.00

"If I win, I'd take the family down south... to Orillia."

Good idea, Charlie. Because the new Ontario Lottery, Wintario, is going to be fun to play and fun to think about winning, too.

Particularly with a new grand prize of $100,000 every other Thursday. And lots more prizes. In the first draw alone, there will be up to fourteen $10,000 prizes, one hundred and twenty $1,000 prizes and hundreds of $100 prizes—up to 1,350 prizes in all!

And Charlie, the tickets cost just one dollar each. And you can get them almost anywhere: cigar stores, restaurants, newsstands, gas stations, milk stores, grocery stores.

You see this sample ticket, Charlie?

Tickets for each draw are prepared in series. For example, in the first draw there will be up to 15 series of tickets. The series number is printed on the corner of the ticket beside the date of the draw.

Your ticket number, made up of five digits, is printed in red and is located next to the series number.

Now, if your series number is the same as the series number drawn, and your ticket number is identical to the winning number, then you'll win the grand prize of $100,000.

If your series number is not the same as the series number drawn, but your ticket number is identical to the winning number, you win a big $10,000.

If only the last four digits in your ticket number are identical and in the same order as the last four digits in the winning number, you win $1,000. If only the last three digits are identical and in the same order as the last three digits in the winning number, then you will win $100.

Tickets are only good, of course, for the draw printed on the ticket and are eligible to win only one prize.

And Charlie, the first draw will be live on television May 15. You'll actually see the winning number drawn. Then, if you want to check the winning number afterwards, just look in your local paper the next day.

To collect, bring in your stub, or send it, filled out, by registered mail, to: Ontario Lottery Corporation, Cumberland Terrace, 2 Bloor Street West, Toronto. Don't worry, Charlie, everything you need to know is printed right on the back of your ticket.

But that's just part of the story. Because, through the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, the millions of dollars raised by the lottery will support a whole range of activities and facilities right here in Ontario. Things we can all enjoy.

You see, Charlie, with Wintario we're all going to win. And it costs just a dollar to play.

"You mean, just a buck a throw?"

Right, Charlie.

"I'll throw."

Hospital Auxiliary spring tea a colorful, successful event

A spirit of goodwill, friendship and a desire to promote projected programs at the local hospital were very much a part of the successful Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Apple Blossom Spring Tea held at Alexander Hall, Saturday afternoon, April 19.

Mrs. Archie M. MacDonald, chairman of the hospital board of directors, smart in a figured floor-length gown, officially opened the eighth annual spring tea. In her welcoming remarks she thanked all volunteers and anyone who assisted in any way. She also made special mention of the candy stripers who spend many hours carrying out their hospital duties.

Apple blossoms, pussy willows and greenery were featured in the decorations. Two shades of pink were used for the tea table cloths.

The main table was centred with an arrangement of spring flowers in pastel shades which was flanked by silver candelabra and burning pink tapers. Deep pink hydrangea plants formed a backdrop on the apron of the stage for the tea table.

Mrs. Bert Laflamme, tea convenor, in a frosty pink frock received at the door with Mrs. Ranald MacDonald, auxiliary president, wearing a pink pant suit, the top of a print resembling apple blossoms on a black background; also Mrs. Morlin Campbell, auxiliary treasurer, in a brown beige print.

Mrs. Wilfrid Menard was in charge of the guest book. Presiding at the contribution basket were Mrs. Arcade Trottier and Mrs. George Dumouchel.

Mrs. Gertrude Lalonde, Verdun, formerly of Alexandria, and the auxiliary's first president, drew the ticket for the quilt raffle which was won by Gregor McDonald, Ottawa Hotel. The door prize, the tea table floral centrepiece, drawn by Sister Irene Primeau, was won by Mrs. Gertrude Lalonde.

Pourers at the main tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. Betty MacCaskill, Mrs. John Grant, Mrs. Bill MacEwen, Mrs. Raymond Legault, Mrs. Florence Villeneuve, Mrs. Claude Brunet, Mrs. Phil Lloyd, Mrs. Lorne Lawson, Mrs. Jim Graham, Mrs. Campbell MacDonald.

Mrs. Gerald McDonald, tea room convenor, was assisted by Mrs. Aline Seguin, Mrs. Marlene Lalonde, Mrs. H. R. Armstrong, Miss Genevieve Gormley, Mrs. Ann Williamson, Mrs. Philip Lloyd, Mrs. Allistair MacKenzie. Candy stripers who assisted in the tea room were Joanne Larose, Jocelyn Taillefer, Diane Taillon, Laurie Lloyd, Lise Couture and Susan Lariviere.

The candy stripers were wearing their brand new uniforms which replace the former pink pant suit.

Mrs. Lloyd McHugh convened the baked goods table assisted by Mrs. Douglas Baxter, Mrs. J. F. Adams, Mrs. James A. Wightman, Mrs. H. P. Morton, Mrs. Cormick McDonald and Mrs. Albert Laporte.

Mrs. Archie M. MacDonald, convenor of the pantry, was assisted by Mrs. Donald Yule, Mrs. Lloyd Howes, Mrs. Agnes Ladouceur, Mrs. Grace McLennan, Mrs. Elizabeth Clingen.

Mrs. Keith MacMillan, Miss Mamie MacMillan, Miss Flora Ann MacGillivray took care of the kitchen assisted by candy stripers Sylvia Lewis, Patty Willard, Brenda Cousineau, Helene Lavigne. Mrs. Albert Lasalle and Mrs. Neil F. McCrimmon made the tea. Also assisting in that department were candy stripers Frances Martin, Sylvie Lewis, Lorraine Lavigne, Liliane Jeaurond, Joanne Jeaurond, Joanne Larose and Jocelyne Taillefer who helped with coats at the door.

Mrs. Raoul Leclerc, handicraft convenor, was assisted by Mrs. Archie McRae and Mrs. Louis Carriere.

Mrs. Ernie Gallant convened the novelties table assisted by Mrs. Carmen Bissonnette. The garden centre was an added attraction here.

The nearly-new table was convened by Mrs. Henri Ladouceur assisted by Mrs. Rene Roy and Mrs. Neil Blair.

Mrs. Alice Filion convened the raffle ticket table and was assisted by Mrs. Delia Roy, Mrs. John Grant, and Mrs. Carmel Roy.

Memberships were handled by Sister Louis Menard, Miss Georgette Paiement, Mrs. R. J. Watt and Miss Margaret McKinnon.

A delightful 'Sew the Funway' fashion show was presented by commentator and organizer Mrs. Gordon Ferguson. Models who were also the creators of the garments were Mrs. Clark McCuaig and her young son Bruce; Mrs. Ron McRae and children Kim and Tracy; Cathy Humphries; Cheryl Wightman; and of course Mrs. Ferguson with her daughter Anne. Mrs. J. Y. Humphries provided piano accompaniment for the models.

Guest auxilians came from as far away as Lachine, Ottawa, Avonmore, Vankleek Hill, Chesterville, Winchester and Cornwall, as well as from all over the county.

St. Finnan's CWL new slate

St. Finnan's Parish Council named a new executive at their meeting on April 10th at the home of Mrs. Inez McPherson.

President—Mrs. Lorne Lawson
1st Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Inez McPherson
2nd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Ranald MacDonald
3rd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Sandra MacDonald
Treasurer—Mrs. Hugh McDonald
Secretary—Mrs. Teresa Lemieux

Miss Mary Chisholm gave the Bible Reading, Chapter I of the Acts of the Apostles. Mrs. Ranald MacDonald spoke of vocations to the priesthood now on the upsurge in the archdiocese of Toronto. She announced that on April 20th Cathy MacDonald and Michael Morris will speak on vocations.

Fees are due and can be paid to Mrs. Gerald McDonald, membership convenor. Mrs. Inez McPherson, communications convenor, recommended the TV program "The Church Today," at 8 a.m., Sunday morning. Mrs. Marion McDonald, treasurer, announced that $316 had been collected for Peace and Development.

It was moved by Mrs. Lloyd McHugh and seconded by Miss Mary Chisholm that our mission collection be sent to Father Gary McDonald, SFM, in the Dominican Republic. Mrs. Sandra McDonald and Mrs. Ranald MacDonald are in charge of the annual dinner to be held in June.

Mrs. Lawson announced that the Priests' Day Mass would be held at St. Joseph's Villa, Cornwall, on May 1st. Members wishing to attend may contact Mrs. Lawson.

A Bake Sale is planned for May 3rd and 4th with Mrs. Mary Jane McDonald and Mrs. Shirley Campbell as convenors.

Father Leo gave a brief talk and the meeting closed with prayer.

Be the first on your block to be able to run around it.

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

What's to do about it ?

It is nothing new, the word that Glengarry has a drinking problem. Many residents may have been unpleasantly surprised, though, to learn through reading the Inter Agency committee report how extensive drinking has become, especially among youngsters of tender years.

The problem is by no means confined to our area either. In Toronto a survey last year indicated more than 90 per cent of Grade 13 children had at least tried alcohol and this was also the case with more than half the Grade 7 age bracket. Teen drinking is on the rise right across the province and if the problem is worse in counties bordering Quebec, such as Glengarry, that is not surprising either.

Way back in the horse and buggy days when Ontario was dry Glengarrians were immortalizing the road to Dalhousie in song. The oases so convenient across the border in Quebec grew increasingly attractive as prohibition lengthened its grip on this province. Succeeding generations of young people learned to drink in those border spots that are so much more accessible in this age of the auto.

Alcohol and gasoline don't mix, though, and the report brings the sobering news that Glengarry has a significantly higher rate of one-car fatal accidents in which the driver had been drinking. Our rate of drinking-driving offences is also one of the higher in Ontario and more than 60 per cent of fatally injured drivers here in 1973 were impaired. This compared with 34 per cent for Ontario as a whole.

This picture of young people involved in highway fatalities is not a pleasant one, nor is the report's suggestion that on any weekend evening 10 per cent of students may not be in condition to drive home. This was an estimate provided by Glengarry young people.

The report makes clear that drinking is a problem not only with young people and it recommends that no one group be singled out for special public attention. Stricter enforcement of existing legislation is suggested, more active policing of drinking spots, driver education and good example shown by adults.

The Inter Agency group is prepared to organize workshops if we the people demonstrate interest in dealing with the drinking problem. The report recommends local action. "Unless we can show that we are genuinely interested in doing something to remedy a situation, we cannot expect too much action."

Constructive ideas on how to cope with the problem are wanted and the letters column of this paper is open to anyone wishing to enlarge on the subject.

Parable of the affluent man

Behold, a certain man prospered in the affluent society in which he lived, and because he was a godly man who feared the Lord, he laid aside from all he earned a portion for the work of God. This he did gladly and with an open hand. In like manner also he paid his taxes, and all that was required of him. But, withal, his goods increased and he lived in comfort with the wife of his youth, and with his sons and daughters.

And it came to pass one day that he traversed the supermarket, as was his wont, to buy meat for his family. And when he had done so, he purchased also dog food for his beagle, and fish food for his goldfish, and catnip for his cat.

And as he paid his money, being of a merry heart, he spake unto the cashier that verily it cost as much to feed his animals as it did to feed his family. And as he drove home, he beheld a vision. And lo, he saw the faces of those who hungered, and of those who wept, and of those who were ill. And he saw also the faces of those who served them, and who preached unto them glad tidings. And he was smitten of heart and said to himself; "While others suffer lack, I have enough and to spare and to spend on dog food. Verily, as God has prospered me I will no more hold the needs of Rover above the needs of others."

And in his home he set aside a vessel, and vowed a vow, saying "As I live, not only shall I set aside each week as God has prospered me, but I shall also put herein sums equal to those I spend on puppy biscuits and kitty litter."

Thereafter when he bought Doggie-O or Birdie-Sing, or even Happy-Fish, he placed a like sum in the vessel which he had sanctified. And at the end of forty days and forty nights he looked therein, and beheld the money how it had multiplied! And he rejoiced, saying; "This is a day of good tidings. I do not well to hold my peace."

And he went unto his neighbors and showed unto them the vessel, and instructed them. And they gathered them vessels from their houses, some of glass, some of metal, and they did as he had done, and placed therein money, some to match the price of coffee, and some of bubble gum, and some of candy bars, and some of newspapers and of records, and others of Coke, and like goods. And thereby they learned what affluent people oft forget, that the needs of others, and of those who help to meet those needs, are worth at least as much as sundries.

Renfrew's paper hit by fire

The 103-year-old Renfrew Mercury will be published this week, but not in its own plant, destroyed by fire Wednesday night of last week. Equipment in a sister weekly, the Carleton Place Canadian, will be used in making up the paper and it will be printed at Smiths Falls for the time being.

Most of the heavy loss, which included a $100,000 printing press, is covered by insurance and there are plans to rebuild immediately. The Mercury will continue to publish but last week's fire destroyed irreplaceable files of the Mercury and Advance and the disruption affects some twenty other Valley weeklies that were printed in the Renfrew plant.

The Mercury is one of Ontario's finest weekly newspapers and numerous trophies and other awards won by the paper were lost in the blaze. Owner and editor Don. W. McCuaig has the sympathy of fellow publishers right across Canada.

We at the News were fortunate to escape the full brunt of fire some eight years ago and we feel for friend Don who has a close family connection with Glengarry. A grandfather was a well-known Bainsville merchant, the late D. D. McCuaig.

Belling the cat

(Dresden North Kent Leader)

There is a spate of new stories over various datelines, all dealing with the same subject—dogs and their control or the lack of it.

In the main, it appears that many municipalities are adopting a hardline financial approach to the problem. Presumably they hope, by raising license fees, to discourage the number of canines that are either owned or harboured by people. It is inevitable that dogs will get loose whenever and however they can, and will seek the pack or the freedom of lawns and gardens. It happens in the best of well-regulated canine harems.

It is also interesting to note, in reading some of the approaches and plans laid, that there is reference in some municipalities of a desire also to control roving felines, and this well may be a problem of an entirely different nature.

Chapter and verse escapes us at the moment, but we seem to recall a court ruling that cats were deemed by nature predatory, and as such, have the freedom to come and go at will. A side issue of the learned judge's decision revealed his opinion that no one really owns a feline. People are accepted by cats, at the animals' pleasure, but there is not the intense devotion of a dog to its master. Cats can and do remain aloof of their humans; demand and received food and attention, and that's about as far as they allow the relationship to go. A dog will fetch a stick, sit up on its hind legs and show off, and will even bring the cows from the back fifty, as well as acting as a barking alarm to warn of trespassers or intruders. Cats will observe, and that's about it, despite the many stories one hears of cats awakening the household when fire threatens in the night watches.

If some municipalities include feline control in their new by-laws, the results will be interesting to watch. We don't say it's impossible, but it's darn difficult.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

APPRECIATION

The editor,
The Glengarry News.

On behalf of the Alexandria Glens Junior Hockey Club, I would like to express my sincere thanks for the excellent "Sports" coverage of our games this past season in the Glengarry News.

Your support means a great deal to our club and fans.

To Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald and Emile Hurtubise, thanks a lot.

Yours in Sports,
Gerald Simpson.

INFO ON WALK

Alexandria

The editor,
The Glengarry News.

May we express through the medium of the Glengarry News pertinent information concerning the Lions Walk-a-Thon to be held Sunday, May 4.

The event will be held during the hours from 6:00 a.m. until noon, beginning in the Cafetorium of Glengarry District High School. The course will be as follows: north to Laggan, east to Dalkeith, south to Glen Robertson, west to Alexandria, and back to the High School. Check-points will be manned by the following persons who will be in charge: departure—Mrs. Therese Whelan; Laggan—J. Y. Baker; Dalkeith—Mike Barbara; Glen Sandfield—Duncan A. Macdonell; Glen Robertson—Harry Main and Harry Abbey; Glen Robertson Road—Paul Roy; west Glen Robertson Road—Fred Vander Haeghe; GDHS—John Larocque and Lions staff. Liquid refreshments for the walkers will be looked after by Ernie Gallant and Marc Lalonde. The car patrols will be organized by Mike Depratto.

We ask the complete support of the public—walking by those who are able, and financial support for each of the walkers. Pledge what you wish, but honor your pledge. This is a community project for the benefits serve each of us; the dollars go to Glengarry Memorial Hospital.

We ask that people along the route that has been chosen, restrict all dogs on May 4, for the trek of 30 miles is difficult enough without the added burden of facing cross dogs. We ask the support of everyone in every

They'll Do It Every Time

WITH OUR RAMBLING REPORTER

by Ed.

A BIT NAUSEATING

It's a catchy tune and the camera shots of tiny tykes on their bikes, astride ponies, etc., are eye-catching. But the message that Bank of Nova Scotia commercial on TV seeks to promote lends itself to misinterpretation. Maybe local manager Al Desjardins could ask head office to take a second look—and listen.

"Grow with us," apparently is the theme Scotiabank is trying to put across in these commercials, Al, but perhaps your ears play the same tricks as do ours when the chorus of voices gives out with that "Grow with us."

Every now and then that "Grow with us" sounds to our ears like "Throw it up" and that's what we mean when we suggest the commercial can be a bit nauseating.

We wouldn't mind seeing our capital and resources growing at the same rate as Scotiabank. That commercial is a lot more acceptable than a lot of others on tv and we wouldn't be putting in our two cents worth if there wasn't that odd suggestion we should upchuck. That's almost enough to turn one's stomach and that's not what Scotiabank intended.

Maybe they'd be better off advertising in the News. The printed "Grow with us" would have no similarity to "throw it up."

One doesn't need a commercial course to make a commercial coarse.

TIME TO WARM UP

The wind she blew over the weekend and there was some loss of trees, damage to signs and roofs and at least one day-long power interruption in the area. The wind wasn't at hurricane pitch, though, and that was a reminder of how fortunate we are in this eastern neck of Ontario to be free of the extremes of weather.

That weekend wind came our way from the midwestern States where it struck in the form of tornados that caused heavy damage and some loss of life. En route here the storm brought heavy rains and flooding to southwest Ontario but by the time it reached this garden spot of America the rain had almost petered out and the wind was but the tail end of a gale.

Invariably we escape the worst of storms and so it's safe to say we're fortunate to miss the extremes of weather. We'd be still luckier, though, if the weatherman turned off the cool air fan for a while.

How's about a coupla days of warm rain that would clear the remnants of snow and hurry along a return to the golf fairways. These long cold springs can be frustrating.

Some people love to be outspoken, but not by other people.

ON YOUR SIDE, BRYCE

We were cussing Bryce Mackasey a couple of years back when he became overgenerous in his Unemployment Insurance payouts. Now we find ourself in his corner as Mr. Mackasey takes on the postal unions in his new role as postmaster-general.

It's the first time any cabinet minister in the Trudeau Government has stood up to the posties and we've got our fingers crossed, hoping Mackasey will have the guts, and sufficient cabinet backing, to clean up those overly obstreperous postal unions.

There are 10 million pieces of mail awaiting sorting and delivery in the Montreal post office and union leaders are preventing the use of casual workers to catch up on the backlog regular workers are responsible for. Mr. Mackasey has fired several of the ringleaders and suspended for a day some 550 others. He has also gone so far as to threaten to close down the Montreal post office unless the workers decide to do a day's work for a day's pay.

That's the spirit! Postal service might as well be shutdown by management as held up by irresponsible unions. A showdown is long overdue and Mr. Mackasey will have public opinion overwhelmingly with him in his efforts to put service back in the postal service.

NEWS FROM HERE AND THERE

LANCASTER

Douglas McNaughton of Long Sault, has occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's Presbyterian, 'Old Stone Church' for the past two Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wightman of Alexandria, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fraser one day last week.

Grades I, II and III of the Lancaster Area Public School spent a pleasant afternoon at the Bourbonnais sugar camp under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Betty MacDonald.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. James Green, Mr. Green and other members of the family of the late Mrs. Dorothy Hunter.

A very successful Euchre Party was held in Knox Church Hall, Lancaster, sponsored by the UCW. Prizes were won by Mrs. E. McNeil, ladies' high, Mrs. Ray Markell, second and Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, low. Stewart Hall won men's high, Jeff Fisher, second and Ken McLeod was low. Drinking tea from the lucky cup was Mrs. Gordon Ross.

GLEN SANDFIELD

Sincerest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Pat Heppleston on the recent death of her father.

Sunday visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman were daughter, Bonnie of Brossard, her fiance Keith Gilbert of St. Hubert; son Edward, daughter-in-law Pierrette, and six children of St. Remi, P.Q.

Mrs. Rose Seguin was away for a few days, enjoying a visit with relatives in Quebec City.

Mrs. Libbey MacLennan, Mrs. Ron MacLachlan and son Kevin, drove to Montreal, on the weekend to visit Kenneth MacLennan, formerly of Glen Robertson, who is in hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

We would like to welcome back to her home Mrs. A. Fraser, who was recently in hospital in Alexandria undergoing surgery.

The bi-monthly Euchre party was held downstairs in the Glen Sandfield Hall, last Thursday evening. There was a good crowd out, and 15 tables were in play. Percy MacNeil and Arthur Hambleton were in charge of proceedings. The ladies first prize was taken by Mrs. T. Oetelaar of Glen Robertson. Men's first prize went to Roger Lauzon.

The draw was for a two-quart insulated all-purpose picnic jug. It was won by Mrs. Grant MacLennan. A deliciously hot cup of coffee and a bounteous and tasty lunch was served by the ladies, to round off a very enjoyable evening. Last Euchre, May 1st.

Mrs. Arnold MacRae was a recent visitor to her parents' home in Packenham.

Miss Mary MacKenzie was one of the guests at a birthday party given for Keith MacMillan, at his home in Lochiel.

EDWIN (Baker) McDONALD, Prop., RR1 Alexandria, 525-1882

If you have Green Foxtail in your feed corn, you should have Ekko® in your field.

Annual grasses, particularly Green Foxtail, are the reasons you need Ekko in a corn-after-corn operation.

Ekko is a safe, economical, one-package herbicide that saves you work while controlling broadleaf weeds and grasses.

Ekko offers the same flexibility of application times you've been accustomed to with AAtrex: pre-plant incorporated, pre-emergence and post-emergence in an oil-water emulsion.

And Ekko is safe to corn and is effective right up to the three-leaf stage of grasses.

Ekko was designed to give season-long control of grasses in continuous corn operations, so only corn can be planted the year following application.

A suggested method of controlling grasses is to plan on two years of corn. Use Ekko the first year and AAtrex,® combined with a short-residual grass herbicide, the second year. Then, your field will be ready for a change of crop in the third year.

Ekko. The convenient, easy-to-use, one-package corn herbicide that prevents grass build-up and gives you clean fields right up to harvest.

8—IN MEMORIAM

MacCRIMMON—In fond and loving memory of a dear father and grandfather James G. MacCrimmon, who passed away April 27, 1973.
Sincere and kind in heart and mind
What beautiful memories he left behind.
—The family. 17-1p

ROBERTSON—In loving memory of a dear father, George Robertson, who passed away April 24th, 1965.
He is gone but not forgotten,
And, as dawns another year,
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near.
Days of sadness will come o'er us,
Many think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow,
That lies in the heart concealed.
—Lovingly remembered by daughter Brenda, son-in-law Keith and grandson Colin. 17-1c

MacDONALD—In loving memory of John B. MacDonald, dear husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather, who passed away two years ago on the 8th of April '73.
Today recalls the memory
Of a loved one gone to rest;
And those who think of him today
Are those who loved him best
The flowers we lay upon his grave
May wither and decay,
But the love for him who lies beneath
Will never fade away.
—Ever remembered by wife Sarah and family. 17-1c

ROBERTSON—In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, George Robertson, who passed away April 24, 1965.
What we would give if we could say,
"Hello Dad" in the same old way,
To hear your voice and see your smile,
To sit with you and chat a while.
So you who have a father,
Cherish him with care,
For you never know the heartache
Till you see his empty chair.
—Remembered always by daughter Jean, son-in-law Stewart and family. 17-1c

ROBERTSON—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, George Robertson, who passed away April 24th, 1965.
Gone from us but leaving memories
Death can never take away
Memories that will always linger
While upon this earth we stay.
—Ever remembered by wife Christena, Lyma and Sheldon Robertson,
Moose Creek. 17-1c

ROBINSON—In loving memory of a dear wife, Annie, who passed away April 28th, 1973, and a dear son, Roderick Stuart, who passed away January 20th, 1973.
I loved them all
No tongue can tell
How much I loved them
And how well.
God loved them too
And thought it best
To take them home
With him to rest
Safe in Heaven's seclusion.
—Sadly missed and lovingly remembered,
—John Robinson,
RR 4, Crysler. 17-1c

Temperance service Kirk Hill

In observance of Youth Temperance Education Week, April 20th-26th, Rev. Lloyd Hylton, Kirk Hill United Church, conducted the Sunday service April 20th at the usual hour of 11 a.m., using special Youth Temperance bulletins provided by the WCTU, on which the order of service was mimeographed. The guest speaker was Wm. MacNairn, Supt. of the Welcome Hall Mission, Montreal. He was accompanied by his daughter, Debbie and a second teen-ager, Miss Virginia Merce, who sang two solos during the service, accompanied by the regular organist. Mr. MacNairn chose for Scripture reading, Romans 12, with other references from the Apostle Paul's letters. He gathered junior members of Sunday School around him for a practical demonstration showing the accumulation of tar from just one cigarette, a warning that heavy smokers can accumulate as much as one cupful of tar in the lungs over a stated period of time.

Four teen-agers from the congregation supplied accordian, violins and piano accompaniment for the senior and junior members of Sunday School while they sang "Amazing Grace."

Special guests who attended the service were W. C. Jamieson, a member of Session in Brodie Reformed Presbyterian Church and Mrs. Jamieson, president of the local branch, WCTU.

Literature was provided on a table in the narthex and a number of posters made by students from the elementary schools in the township were on display at the entrance of the church.

The service closed with singing of hymn 365, United Church Hymnary, followed by the benediction and Choral Amen.

The students should be interested to know that Mr. MacNairn asked for the posters, in order that he might display them in his chapel at the Mission. Mr. MacNairn left the youth with the appeal from the Apostle Paul in Romans 12—I beseech you by the Mercies of God, present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

Lengthy history of United Churches is noted

The history and background of the United Church were featured at the annual meeting of the United Church Women of Seaway Valley Presbyterial, at Trinity United Church, Ingleside.

"You don't need to go outside of our own area to gain a sense of history," Rev. George Clifford, president of the Montreal-Ottawa Conference of the United Church, told the 300 or so members and delegates. "Many of the churches have a history going back to the first settlement of Upper Canada," and he urged a sense of pride and accomplishment in recalling this.

Mr. Clifford addressed both afternoon and evening meetings of the UCW presbyterial. Several skits and dramatizations of episodes in the church of the area were presented. During the election of officers, Mrs. R. M. Scott of Cornwall was elected president. Mrs. D. J. Cooper of Kemptville was president and chairman of the Wednesday meetings.

A special feature incidental to the presbyterial gathering was the provision of a decorated anniversary cake by each UCW unit across the presbytery. Hallville UCW was judged first, with Long Sault, Kemptville and Algonquin UCW's following up.

After supper, Mrs. George Irvine introduced the hilarious skit put on by Region 2, "The Sewing Circle" written by Mac MacRae, Williamstown. It was directed by Mrs. Sue Harrington and acted by Mrs. Eileen Mc-

Crabgrasses

Yellow and Green Foxtails

With weeds like these in your corn, where do you start?

Start with the labeled Lasso® herbicide tank mix that fits your weed and carryover problems in corn...

Lasso plus atrazine for broad-spectrum control in corn.
Preemergence Lasso plus atrazine tank mix controls major grasses like crabgrasses, yellow and green foxtails, and more. Carryover possibility is minimized because Lasso alone doesn't carryover and you'll use less atrazine in the tank mix.

Lasso plus Bladex[1] for specific weed control with no carryover.
This preemergence tank mix also controls many labeled weeds including crabgrasses, yellow and green foxtails. And it is ideal for the farmer who is concerned about rotation . . . because it gives good weed control performance with no carryover.

1. Bladex is a registered trademark of the Shell Chemical Company.

To get all the benefits Lasso has to offer, always read and follow Lasso label instructions carefully.

100 ways to save energy & money in the home

TIPS ON HOW YOU CAN STRETCH CANADA'S ENERGY RESOURCES AND PUT MONEY IN YOUR POCKET

Energy, Mines and Resources Canada / Energies, Mines et Ressources Canada

WE'RE ALL AWARE of the energy situation, and it's easy to say, "Well there's nothing I can do about it."

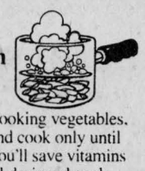
Wrong. There's plenty that each one of us can do in our homes and apartments to help Canada – and save as much as $100 a year. When we save energy, we also save money.

This new book is full of ideas you can apply to heating, cooking, air conditioning, lighting, water heating. And it's written simply, with diagrams and full instructions on how to fix tap washers, dirty furnace filters, gaps around windows and so on.

Almost everything that has been written on home conservation is packed into this book. And it's yours free.

Here are a few of the ideas:

Don't drown the beans



WHEN you're cooking vegetables, use little water and cook only until they're tender. You'll save vitamins and flavour. Well-designed cookware, used on the proper settings, will also conserve energy. Try cooking the entire meal in the oven, or on one or two burners.

If you're lucky enough to have a dishwasher, don't use it until you have a full load. Do the same with your clothes dryer – and be sure to clean the lint filter after each load.

Saving energy is often a game of pennies, but they all add up – and so do the savings for Canada.

Do you really need a crushed-ice dispenser?

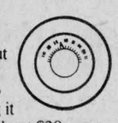
A FROST-FREE refrigerator uses 50% more energy than a standard model. A crushed-ice dispenser is a big energy drain. And a self-cleaning oven uses 20% more energy than a standard model. Ask yourself how many of these extras you really need.

When you go shopping for a new appliance – refrigerator, dishwasher, range, dryer, washing machine – look beyond the price tag. What's the energy cost of running it? Often the better-built, more expensive model is also more energy-efficient. A better buy in the long-run.

Five ways to save on home heating

HEATING is the biggest item in a family's home energy budget. Here are a few simple ways to save:

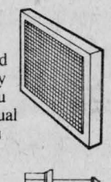
Lower the thermostat.



Each degree over 68 adds about 2½% to your heating bill. By dropping the setting from 72 to 70 you can save 5%. Dropping it from 72 to 68 will save 10%—about $30 a year.

It helps to lower the temperature further at night, and when you're going to be away from home for a few days.

Check your furnace filter.

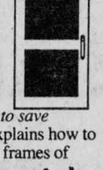


A dusty, clogged filter forces the system to work harder, and wastes energy. Inspect it every 30 days. (The book shows you how.) An annual or semi-annual furnace cleaning can save you another 10%.

How's your insulation?

Many Canadian homes have inadequate insulation. Ceilings should have 6" or more of mineral wool or glass fibre insulation. Wall cavities should be completely filled. Basement walls should also be protected to 2 feet below grade level. To avoid fire hazards, don't use foamed plastic insulation in exposed applications.

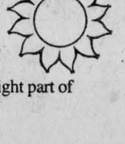
Use storms and weather-stripping.



Storm windows and doors will reduce heat loss in winter by up to 15%.

Weather-stripping is a must. A tiny gap of ¼" along the bottom of a door is the same as having a 9 square-inch hole in your living-room wall. 100 ways to save energy and money in the home explains how to weather-strip joints and caulk the frames of windows and doors.

Let the sunshine in.



Energy from the sun is free, so it makes sense to use as much of it as we can. In the winter, open curtains and drapes during the bright part of the day and close them at night, for their insulating value. In summer, do the opposite.

Drip, drip, drip

ONE DRIP per second from a leaky hot water faucet or shower-head sends about 175 gallons a month down the drain. That's money down the drain. You can probably fix it yourself with a new washer and a few minutes work.

Be sure the size of your water heater matches your needs. Don't set it for more than 140 degrees, and turn if off when you go on vacation.

Have you tried a cold-water wash for clothes? It usually works just as well. Remember, too, that your average shower bath uses only 5 gallons of hot water, while a tub bath takes almost 10 gallons.

Could you use an extra $100 a year?

These are just a few of the many, many ways to save energy and money in the home.

It's well worth doing. By making modest energy savings now, we can improve our environment and way of life far into the future.

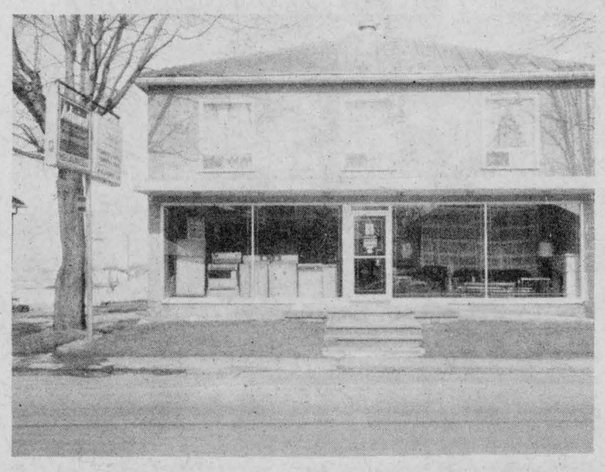
THE ORIGINAL STORE – 1945

An early shot of the interior

H. Gonzague Lalande started the business in the spring of 1940 when he specialized in installation and repairs as tinsmith and plumber.

In 1945, he constructed the first store, comprising a tinsmithing shop and a display room for furniture and appliances.



1961 - 1962 saw the demolition of the house and the enlarging and complete renovation of the store as it is today.

1975

After dropping some lines, [redacted] Lalande now specializes in plumbing and heating systems on a large scale and in the sale of furniture and appliances.

EDMOND MEILLEUR, plumber and sheet metal worker, 33 years in the service of this Company. DENIS GRATTON, apprentice plumber, with the Company 2 years. ANDRE BERGEVIN, plumber, with us 7 years. LUCIEN LALONDE, plumber and metal worker, 21 years in the service of the Company.

The Glengarry News,

I am interested in compiling information, in the hope of making up a book about the Williamstown Fair, Ontario's Oldest Fair.

As present Secretary-Treasurer of the Board I have most of the events of the past ten years.

I would like to ask any of your readers to send any information they may have from newspaper clippings, pictures, old posters or memory, concerning special features, guest speakers, or any humourous incidents which occurred. I would appreciate dates of these items if possible.

I would like to thank, in advance, those who respond. I will return any clippings or pictures if desired.

Secretary-Treasurer,
St. Lawrence Valley
Agricultural Society,

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

Donald Ewen Macdonell, who died in Toronto on Jan. 29th and who will be buried in St. Raphael's on April 26th, was a direct descendant of Alasdair Mor Na Bochan MacDonell. This Alasdair Mor story is mentioned in Dorothy Dumbrille's book, Up and Down the Glens, pages 105-9 and the version from Scotland is written up in the 2nd newsletter of the Glengarry Genealogical Society.

Donald E. Macdonell's ancestry is as follows, son of John MacDonell 1864-1947 and of Christina Kennedy 1864-1935, son of Donald MacDonell 1828-1927 and of Ann MacDonell 1833-1906, son of Capt. Alex Macdonell 1794-1885 and of Ann MacDonell 1793-1851, son of Alasdair Mor Na Bochan MacDonell who died in Scotland in 1820 and of Marguerita MacDonell 1756-1828 of 21 in the 9th of Charlottenburgh, son of John Allan MacDonell who was the Glengarry Standard Bearer at Culloden.

I met Mr. Macdonell only once and this was last summer. I found him very interested in his Scottish ancestry and we were able to help each other out in our research. He is another person who was very knowledgeable and interested in Scottish History, who has passed on and who would have been a great help to my research and to the aims of the Glengarry Genealogical Society, which he was interested in seeing come into being.

Alex. W. Fraser.

Apple Hill. —On the 1st May, the Commercial Hotel will pass into the hands of Messrs. Gormley Bros., the well-known hotelmen of Finch, who have rented it for a term of years from Arch. McMillan. —On exhibition at Geo. H. Kemp's shop is an oil painting from the brush of Henry McDonell. A life size figure of our Saviour following his crucifixion, the work is an ambitious effort. —Dr. J. Howard Munro who has practised his profession in company with his father at Maxville for some time, will shortly remove to Greenfield, where he will open an office. —It is reported Allan J. McDonald will erect a barber shop immediately south of the Grand Union hotel.

Donell, Mrs. May MacGillivray, Mrs. Ruby Warden, Mrs. Norma Cattanach and Mrs. Carole Edwards, all of Williamstown. Time was turned right back to 1812 in this skit with the actresses discussing the "new" St. Andrew's United Church in the process of being re-built. "And that Church still stands" said Mrs. Irvine, "as it has for the last 188 years."
