Council Vacancy Filled

After three nomination meetings Winchester's four-man council was completed on Saturday night when James Johnston was elected to the vacant post by acclamation. Mr. Johnston was one of four men nominated to the office at Friday night's nomination meeting in the Council Chambers. At two previous nomination meetings none of the nominees had qualified. Mr. Johnston's nomination to office, made by Aura Watts, and seconded by Hans Petersen, was his first. It will also be his first time as a member of Winchester Village Council. Other newcomer is G. H. Reynolds who had previously been elected by acclamation. Re-elected to office by acclamation following the first nomination meeting on November 23rd were Allen MacIntosh and Donald Christie. Others nominated Friday night were Max Boyd, Fred Hutt and Howard Fetterly.

The Nomination meeting Friday night was, for a variety of reasons, the smallest held in this village in many years. About ten attended the meeting.

The new council, headed by Reeve Fader, will hold its first meeting of the new year on January 7th.

Christmas Services Well Attended

Large congregations and the spirit of Christmas characterized services at all Winchester churches on Sunday.

* * * *

United Church

At the United Church, capacity congregations attended both morning and evening Christmas services of worship. Rev. T. N. Mitchell had charge of the services and based his text on the meaning of Christmas. Junior and Senior choirs combined at the morning service to sing "And There Were Shepherds." The Juniors sang "The Beautiful Hills of Judea" and "Angels We Have Heard On High." "Christians Awake," and "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks" were the anthems sung by the Senior choir featuring solo parts by Carolyn Alford, Gail Lannin, Howard Biccum and Robert Keyes. Soloist at the morning service was Ronald Freeland.

At the evening service the Senior Choir presented the Christmas story in the form of a contata, "A Star In The Sky," by Bruce Carleton. Solo parts in the contata were taken by Carolyn Alford, Gail Lannin, John McKenzie, Ronald Freeland and Robert Keyes. Mrs. Howard Fetterly, organist and choir leader, directed the special music at both services.

The Young Couples' Club was responsible for the appropriate Christmas decorations which adorned the church interior.

Presbyterian Church

At St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Rev. Wm. Sutherland conducted the Christmas service, assisted by Mrs. Hugh Wilson, organist and choir leader, who had charge of the special Christmas music. It included anthems by the Senior choir, "Birthday Of The King," and "The Song of Christmas," with Mrs. Chas. Cross, the soloist. Special music also included the singing of "Away In A Manger" by the three primary Sunday School classes.

Decorations at the church, both inside and out, were arranged by a special committee of the Ladies' Aid.

Anglican Church

Rt. Rev. Ernest Reid, Bishop of Ottawa, has appointed Rev. H. D. Roberts, of Metcalfe, to hold Service at St. Matthias until May. The Winchester congregation is very happy of this appointment as Rev. Mr. Roberts is a beloved pastor who supplied for them before Canon Carryer was sent to Winchester.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Marriner, who recently moved here from South Mountain.

The Christmas Eucharist was celebrated on December 23rd at 9.30 a.m. at St. Matthias' with 24 Communicants. The church was prettily decorated with evergreens given by Mr. John Henderson and Mr. Charlie Acres to the glory of God and in loving memory of their parents. This year Mr. and Mrs. Acres did the decorating.. They were ably assisted by Mrs. Annie Greer who took charge of putting up the white hangings and reredos curtains, and on the altar she put tall white candles in the beautiful brass permanent memorials there to her heusband, Kenneth Henry Greer.

Mrs. S. S. Rose was at the organ for the Christmas music. The three hymns used were: "While Shepherds Watched their Flocks"; "O Come All Ye Faithful," and "Now, O Father, Mindful of the Love."

Rev. Roberts took for his text the first four words of the Bible. Before the offertory he spoke briefly to the parents and little children telling them to say a Thanksgiving prayer for the Baby Jesus which was born at Christmas, before they opened the gifts Santa had left for them. —(Contributed).

Five Generations

Five generations of the same family gathered at the home of Mrs. Otis McMillan of Winchester Springs, recently. The eldest of the family, Mrs. Annie Boude, of Springwater, Sask., celebrated her 87th birthday as this photo was taken. Left to right: Brian McMillan, great, great-grandson with his father, Donald McMillan, great grandson; Mrs. Otis McMillan, granddaughter; Mrs. Frank Whitteker, Chesterville, daughter, and the matriarch herself, Mrs. Annie Boude.

C. T. C. Store At Williamsburg "Rifled" By Thieves

Brazen thieves defied the sacred spirit of Christmas on Monday night with a daring break-in at Pat Henophy's modern Canadian Tire Associate Store at Williamsburg. Four costly rifles and guns were taken from their show position in the west side sports department of the big store.

The culprits, apparently aware that the building was equipped with a burglar alarm system, chose one of the few spots where the alarm did not operate—the west front plate glass window. To break the window the punks used a crowbar belonging to Henry Garlough, who lives some distance down the street from the store. The crowbar had been taken from his premises some time during the evening.

It was not immediately known whether anything else had been taken. A preliminary inspection by Constable Eric Zalman of Morrisburg detachment OPP, revealed that the robber or robbers had gone directly to the gun tray after entering the store.

The break-in second at the CTC this year, was discovered early Christmas morning. Damage to the window was estimated at $100.00. No estimate had been placed on the amount stolen, although it is believed to have been worth several hundred dollars.

Sunday School Concert

A capacity audience was on hand last Wednesday night to see the annual Winchester United Church Sunday School Concert presented in the Church Sunday School Hall. Rev. T. N. Mitchell was the chairman, and in a few introductory remarks welcomed the parents and friends.

The program was arranged by Sunday School teachers and was climaxed with the appearance of Santa who handed out treats to all Sunday School members. Sunday School Superintendent is Douglas Johnston.

The very entertaining Christmas program included: Recitation, Miss Joy Corry; chorus, Beginners' class, "Jesus Loves Me," and "Away In A Manger"; recitation, Larry Earl and Patricia Ault; Six Christmas Cooks, Primary Class; Chorus, "Baby Jesus," Junior Class; recitation, Joanne Dixon; Christmas in the Barnyard, Primary Class; recitation, Shelley McVey, Terry Cook; Christmas Carols with Miss A. Walker accompanying at the piano; recitation, Barbara Bronson, Pam Anderson, Eleanor Byers; Choral Speaking, Junior Class; Christmas Pageant, Junior Class; Merry Christmas music, Miss A. Walker.

The concert this year featured beginners, primary and junior Sunday School members only. Teachers who assisted in the program were: Mrs. H. Willard, Mrs. H. G. Barton, Miss Nancy Willard, Miss A. Walker, Miss O. Hughes, Mrs. A. Windsor, Lorne Isaac, Willis Robinson, Elgin Bowman.

Women's Institute Christmas Meeting

Members of Winchester Women's Institute met at the Town Hall Tuesday night of last week to attend the annual Christmas meeting. Mrs. Charles Beedie presided, assisted by the secretary, Mrs. Delbert Link. Roll call was answered by each member naming her favourite Christmas Carol.

Bank balance showed a credit of $115.46. It was announced that there would be no Music Festival in the county next year due to the decided expansion of the festival and the over demanding amount of work entailed. Music Festivals in the county have always been sponsored by the Women's Institute branches in Dundas.

The short Christmas program consisted of the singing of Christmas Carols, tap dancing numbers by Judy Coons, and contests conducted by Mrs. Roy Merkley. Members were asked to return their white gift envelopes by December 31st. Contents of these envelopes is turned over to the Sick Children's Hospital. A vote of thanks to the committee in charge of the meeting, Mesdames Gordon Coons, Roy Merkley, Lloyd Kenney and Arthur Christie, was moved by Miss Ida Knowland. A delightful lunch was served before the evening ended.

Winchester Bowlers Are Regional Finalists

Seven Winchester bowlers, headed by Joyce Hay and Harold Armstrong, are off to a good start in Molson's $20,000 5-pin bowling championship. Bowling recently at Flora's Bowling Lanes here, the seven bowlers were successful in the Ottawa regional qualifying round enabling them to take part in the district finals in February.

Joyce Hay led the 30 successful women with a neat 1262 cross. Peggy Ruthowsky of Ottawa, who was second to Joyce, wasn't even close with an 1195. Other women bowlers from Flora's bowling lanes to make the grade included Phyllis Henderson with 1072; Helen Helmer, 1007, and Lillian Acres, 992. All are five-game cross scores.

On the male side of the bowling ledger Harold Armstrong of Chesterville, who bowls here, was the most talked about bowler in the 50 successful men. Harold finished third in his five-game qualifying round with a nice 1344 cross. He was headed only by Gerry Durocher of Eastview, 1495, and R. Thom, Cornwall, with 1366. The big news in Harold's successful bid was his tremendous 430 single, highest ever at the local lanes and highest single in the entire elimination round. Harold came within an ace of accomplishing the dream of all bowlers, a perfect 450 score. After rolling ten consecutive strikes he left the five pin standing on his eleventh ball. He spared it with his 12th ball. It was Harold's biggest game ever, and ranks as a major contender for the high game in the entire Molson series. Harold, by the way, is presently the leading man in a lot of top bowlers at the Flora Lanes.

Two other men bowlers including Harry himself made the final round. Harry rolled a five-game cross of 1164 and Lorne Byers, another excellent bowler, came home with 1225 to easily make the grade. Four or five other Winchester men bowlers just missed out by a few pins. In the phrase so often heard, "They had a rough night."

WEDDINGS

WEEGAR — SWERDFEGER

Morewood United Church was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday, December 15, when Marlene Linda Swerdfeger, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Swerdfeger, of Ottawa, formerly of Morewood, and Donald Clare Weegar, of Morewood, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony, with Rev. D. L. Gordon officiating.

Christmas greens and baskets of mums decorated the church. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Gerald Gardiner. The soloist, Mrs. Archie Coulthart, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Eunice Swerdfeger, of Ottawa, cousin of the bride, and little Lynn Swerdfeger as flower girl. Bruce Carruthers was best man, and the ushers were James Carlyle and Robert Stephenson.

For the occasion the bride chose a gown of white velvet waltz-length, with princess lines and V-neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a circular headdress of shirred velvet. She carried a white Bible adorned with roses, the gift of the groom. She also wore a pearl necklace and pearl earrings.

The bridesmaid's dress, made on princess lines, was of red velvet. She wore pearl necklace and earrings and carried a bouquet of white mums.

Little Miss Lynn Swerdfeger, sister of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a white crystalette dress over blue taffeta and carried a nosegay bouquet of blue mums.

The bride's mother wore a blue dressmaker's suit with winter white accessories and corsage of white mums.

Mrs. Weegar, mother of the groom, wore a soldier blue crepe dress with lace inserts, winter white accessories and corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Weegar left on a trip to New York and Eastern points. For travelling, the bride wore a peacock blue wool dress and a black seal jacket, white angora hat and gloves, and pink and white mums. They will reside in Kingston.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Craig Best Decorated

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Craig's new Louise Street south home was Winchester's most attractively decorated home at Christmas this year according to a panel of judges who made their decision on Christmas Eve in a contest sponsored by the Winchester Chamber of Commerce.

As a result of the win, Mr. and Mrs. Craig will receive a $10.00 cheque from the Chamber for their timely effort. In making their decision the judges, Rev. Messrs. T. N. Mitchell, Wm. Sutherland and F. K. Gordon, made it known that their task was a most difficult one because of the many beautifully decorated homes on practically every street in the village. The Robert Geggie residence, the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKercher, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnston were only a few of the outstanding examples of unified co-operation and effort made in this village this year.

As one person phrased it "Winchester never looked better." In addition to the countless homes which were adorned with pine boughs, Santa Claus faces and numerous lights, the business section of the village was lit up in a special program designed by the Business Men's committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The program will be extended next year to include more decorations along the main thoroughfares in the village. It is also expected that the home decoration contest will be continued next year with many prizes being offered.

The run on lights at local stores was so great this year that on the Saturday before Christmas all outside coloured lights had been sold. This year's home decorating contest was based on attractiveness of display, both inside and outside the home, originality and effort. As the judges mentioned, it was a difficult task to pick a winner because of the many beautifully decorated homes.

THE NEW YEAR!

The year is dead,—a new one dawns,
A year of peace and happier days,
When Truth and Justice right the wrongs
Made by man's hard and selfish ways.
Our lives are made of little things,
Of kindly words, and smiles, and acts,
The happiness that each can bring
By giving what our brother lacks.
Although we see but darkly now,
To view the whole, great, Cosmic Plan,
Some day our eyes will open wide,
To understand the "Unseen Side."

—Dorothy Sproule.

On Reading Newspapers

P. G. Hamerton, in his little book, "Intellectual Life," tells of a man who told him that he did not believe in reading newspapers. He made the charge against them that they dealt too much in sensational matters, and claimed that the 500 hours or so a year which he ordinarily spent on reading them could be used to better purpose in more select reading.

Someone has said somewhere, in stating the value of the newspaper, that one's mind needed checking up as the business man's ledger did, and that this could be done best by the information given in the press.

In some ways there is no more welcome visitors to a home than the paper. People read it who do not read books and who do not attend church. Indeed, for some it is their most important point of contact with their community, province, country and the world at large. It is a regular and friendly visitor and its various departments have something to interest the several members of the household.

Mr. Hamerton in the book referred to, shows the place the newspaper fills in the life of people. For one thing, it is to the public what the conversation of a home is to the inmates of that home. There they discuss domestic affairs—exchange ideas, discuss vital matters. So the newspaper provides a medium for the exchange of ideas, and matters that concern all the people are ventilated.

Besides, it tells the achievements of our day—registers progress. The cares, the thoughts, and the aspirations of the great families of nations are spread out upon the printed page. We read of the adventures of the people who made what we now call Europe and America. These places are still in the making. We see them reaching out their hands to one another, and we follow their great trade routes, and note their reactions to the crises of our time.

The French peasant of Hamerton's day did not read the papers and so was out of touch with contemporary life. The paper is an auxiliary to history. In fact, what the African traveller did for the mapmaker, the paper does for history, and the historians of tomorrow will search the files of the papers issued today.

It has been pointed out that people respect history when bound in leather and overlook the chronicle of present-day affairs.

Among the services rendered is that of friendliness It tells the people of one another, and has done as much as any agency to end isolation. Then what contributes more effectively to what we may call a profitable entertainment?

That leads us to another valuable service rendered by the newspaper. The advertising columns of the favorite family newspaper not only stimulate sales for business people but save time and money for those who buy. As a result of advertisements many are able to do their shopping in the comfort of their own home. Here they can compare values at their leisure, consider their needs and prepare their shopping lists. It is a well-known fact that best values will always be found in the advertisement which is held up for comparison.

Editorial Notes

Amid the rollicking noises and bustling excitement of New Year's Eve celebrations, let us pause and remember that we owe it to ourselves and our neighbours, in the interest of a better New Year, to assume the responsibilities of greater effort for more abundant living . . . greater brotherhood for lasting universal peace.

Mixing alcohol with gasoline is a deadly potion any time of the year. It is particularly potent during this holiday season which still has one big celebration, probably the biggest of the year as we ring out the old and welcome the new year. Traffic is unusually heavy, highway conditions are unpredictable, and parties are countless. The temptation is great to take that chance—but don't! If you drink, don't drive. If you have one for the road, make it coffee. This is one time you want to stay awake. Other than the liquid warning the rules of good driving still apply. If you want to live a while in 1957, follow them.

The Christmas vacation is a mark to go by in the yardstick of measuring one's progress to date in the school year. For most students it is the mid-point in the term, although in number of days it falls short of this. From here in a little more concentration is needed, a bit more home study and an urgent desire to pass are prime requisites. Most students pass their year in the January to Easter session. As a rule the first three months are flavoured with extra mural activity and school social life is heavy. From Easter to June it's a case of necessity. But the immediate period ahead is the time most suitable for study. It is indeed the "passing period."

As we wait on the threshold for a new year to dawn our thoughts wander back over the now old 1956. It has brought sorrow and happiness, richness and poverty, war and peace. We at The Winchester Press are mindful of the continued support we have received from a record number of advertisers, a record number of subscribers and readers, a record number of correspondents, a record number of job patrons, and, we trust, a record number of friends. As the years go by your support helps us to grow. In short, it is the lifeline of the successful functioning of this newspaper. To all of you we are indeed grateful for this support and trust that the New Year will bring you an abundance of joy, good health and prosperity.

"IF"

If everyone who drives a car
Could lie a month in bed
With broken bones and stitched-up wounds,
Or fractures of the head.
And there endure the agonies
That many people do,
They'd never need preach Safety
Any more to me and you.

If everyone could stand beside
The bed of some close friend
And hear the Doctor say "No hope"
Before the fatal end,
And see him there unconscious,
Never knowing what took place,
The laws and rules of traffic
I am sure we'd soon embrace.

If everyone could meet
The wife and children left behind
And step into the darkened home
Where once the sunlight shined
And look upon the "vacant chair"
Where Daddy used to sit,
I am sure each reckless driver
Would be forced to think a bit.

If everyone who takes the wheel
Would say a little prayer,
And keep in mind those in the car
Depending on his care,
And make a vow and pledge himself
To never take a chance,
The Great Crusade of SAFETY
Would suddenly advance.

—(Seymour Taylor in the Christmas bulletin of I.A.P.A.)

OUR WISH TO YOU

HEALTH NOTE

THROUGH THE GROWING YEARS

A generation or so ago, rickets was a common disease among children and it still exists in countries less health conscious than Canada. The condition caused bones to become weak and distorted and the children did not grow straight and strong. It was found that fish oils contained vitamin D which is necessary to the child's normal development. The first type of vitamin D was in crude fish oil, but it was discovered that the valuable vitamin could be manufactured. Today's child requires vitamin D from birth throughout his growing years. In its modern form, it is available in liquid, capsule or tablet form, with no unpleasant flavor.

SPECIAL DIET

A special diet for the expectant mother requires well balanced meals, with emphasis on milk and milk products, vegetables and fruit, both cooked and raw. Eggs, meat and fish are necessary, plus a daily dose of vitamin D.

Brother, can you spare a dime? It's not for a cup of coffee, or maybe it is if you are a freedom fighter or a person without a home in grief stricken Hungary. Winchester Legion Post is presently sponsoring a drive for funds for Hungarian Relief and contributions may be left at Summers' Insurance Agency, Hotel Winchester. All donations are accepted, and if every person living in Winchester did donate a single dime the fund would grow quickly to more than $130.00. Every cent counts. These Hungarian people are homeless, they need assistance. The Legion is not putting the bite on anyone. It has simply announced that it will collect money for this cause. If you wish to contribute, your generosity will be greatly appreciated.

OF MANY THINGS . . .

SUICIDE NOTE

(By Ambrose Hills)

You may have read the item in the newspapers. The woman had written a note, asking forgiveness, then explaining: "I am useless to myself and everyone else!"

The report continued: "Friends and neighbours of the dead woman reported that she had been suffering spells of melancholy. She was a fine woman, very much respected in the neighborhood . . ."

And yet, she thought herself useless!

How many men and women make that terrible mistake? Perhaps it lies back of many tragedies. Too bad they had not read what Robert Louis Stevenson wrote.

"So long as we love, we serve," wrote the famous novelist. "So long as we are loved by others I would almost say we are indispensable; and no man is useless while he has a friend."

The tragedy of our generation is that we are transferring the emotions of love and friendship from our own hands into the hands of institutions or governments. We are trying to legislate virtues, rather than live them.

Not long ago a friend of mine lost his leg in an automobile accident. Ho told me that no less than eight persons had asked first of all: "Were you insured, John?"

When he told them that he was, they breathed sighs of relief, and one even said: "You're lucky, . . . You'll get a pension!"

How materialistic we've become! Can insurance repay the loss of a leg? Can unemployment insurance replace the satisfaction of honest work? Can a cheque from any source replace neighborliness, or man-to-man charity?

J. William Lloyd said: "There is but one virtue: to help human beings to free and beautiful life; but one sin: to do them indifferent or cruel hurt; the love of humanity is the whole of morality. This is Goodness; this is Humanism; this is the Social Conscience."

Aren't we in danger of forgetting that these personal virtues cannot safely be turned over to politicians? Too many who prate about Social Conscience make it a matter of laws, of impersonal and far-off administration. Personal love and personal responsibility seem forgotten.

When this kind of "social conscience" predominates, when charity and love become matters of bookkeeping and law-making, the lonely will grow in numbers and the last despairing notes they write will have tragic truth in them!

The 7th Column

With New Year's Celebrations coming up, may we again remind you: "Only Coffee for the Road" if you drive a car. Don't become a victim of an "alcoholiday."

If you think that the number "13" isn't lucky, read this: "A Brantford man who used to think he wasn't lucky at raffles recently completed a run of good fortune which should stagger a professional odds-maker. Jack Pipe, 35, spent 13 quarters Friday to buy 13 tickets in three different raffles. Result: He won 13 turkeys. Pipe won nine birds at the Shrine club, walked on to the Canadian Order of Forresters and won three more, then collected another at the RCAF Association turkey roll. Needing only one for his Christmas dinner, he sold 12."

"Sorry. No turkey," said the waiter.

"Then I'll have a chicken sandwich," said the man.

"Don't be silly," said the waiter. "If we had chicken, wouldn't we have turkey sandwiches?"

It's too bad that all those beautiful Christmas Carols and Christmas music have to end so abruptly right after Christmas Day. It was such a relief from listening to Elvis Presley's "Hound Dog," "Blue Suede Shoes,' etc. Hope that during the coming year the idol of the teen-agers sings more songs like "Love Me Tender"—that one we like—and the boy can really sing if he wants to.

"Have you ever been bothered with insects in your corn?' he inquired of the farmer.

"We sure do," replied the man," but we drinks it anyhow."

Your friendship and goodwill have meant a lot to us and we hope that our pleasant association will long continue. At the turn of the road,
Where the old year ends,
What a pleasure it is
To greet old friends.

She: "I sure have."

"Because you were a little hoarse?"

"No, because her father is as big as one."

Husband: "It was postponed. The wife of the Grand Exalted Invincible Supreme Potentate wouldn't let him out tonight."

Happy and Prosperous New Year

Four-year-old Wanda is now quite comfortable and happy in spite of a large plaster cast which is designed to cure a congenital dislocation of the hip. She is one of more than 120,000 children who come to The Hospital for Sick Children each year. Before her specialized operation, Wanda was unable to walk as well as other children, but she is now on the road to recovery and a normal life. This year, as in the past, The Hospital for Sick Children has operated at a substantial deficit—slightly increased over last year's. Supporters of the Hospital are now sending in their cheques for the Hospital's Christmas appeal to help meet a $231,925 operating loss. Please send donations to The Hospital for Sick Children, 555 University Avenue, Toronto.

South Mountain

(Last Week's News)

Mrs. H. Elliott, of Chesterville, spent some time last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Weagant.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bacon were week-end callers in town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Weagant spent two days last week in Montreal.

W. M. S. Meeting

The W. M. S. of South Mountain United Church held its "Love Gift and Christmas Service" at the home of Mrs. I. Keays last Thursday. There were fourteen members and four visitors present.

Mrs. E. Shaver presented the report of the nominating committee as follows:

Hon. president, Mrs. G. Mulholland; president, Mrs. H. Boyd; recording secretary, Mrs. D. L. Berry; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. Shaver; treasurer, Mrs. G. Cleland; Christian Stewardship, Mrs. S. Marquette; community friendship, Mrs. Wm. Crowder; Christian citizenship, Mrs. I. Keays; intercessory prayer, Mrs. W. Barclay; associate members, Mrs. C. Stirtan; supply, Mrs. L. Monteith and Mrs. W. Cleland; Missionary Monthly, Mrs. F. E. Gilroy and Miss L. Brandmire; Mission Band, Mrs. E. Richardson and Mrs. S. Brunton; baby band, Mrs. S. Marquette, Mrs. D. Monteith; press, Mrs. S. Brunton; pianists, Mrs. L. Armstrong and Mrs. I. Keays; nominating committee, Mrs. R. Berry, Mrs. C. Stirtan and Mrs. F. E. Gilroy; finance, Mrs. G. Cleland, Mrs. S. Marquette and Mrs. C. Keays.

In giving her report Mrs. W. Crowder reported one hospital call and twenty-one home calls. Mrs. S. Marquette and Mrs. I. Keays gave appropriate readings.

Mrs. I. Keays was in charge of the program which consisted of a number of Christmas readings and carol singing. Two piano solos were presented by Mrs. L. Armstrong and Mrs. Keays. The Love Gifts were given individually, followed by a Christmas candle-lighting service with the theme, "His Constant Lamp." Six members represented Burma, Korea, New Guinia, Cambodia, Malaya and Hong Kong.

Following the meeting, a delicious lunch, prepared by the hostess, was enjoyed by all.

Drive Carefully During Holidays

"Two years ago, in 1954, the number of fatalities in the final ten-day period of the year, was cut in half to 22 from the previous year's experience of 45 killed. We were greatly encouraged by this evidence that the toll can be reduced. Unfortunately, the experience was not repeated last year, when 52 people were killed in 39 accidents.

"The individual driver or pedestrian is finally the person who can prevent or avoid an accident. Last year, 95% of the fatal accidents in the final ten days of the year involved only single motor vehicles. There were 21 people killed in 17 accidents where the vehicle left the roadway and crashed; seven railway crossing collisions took 12 lives and 12 pedestrians were struck and killed. A driver attempting roadside repairs was hit by a passing car. Four occupants lost their lives when two cars, one on the wrong side of the road, met head on. Two died when a vehicle stopped suddenly and a following vehicle, about to pass had to swerve abruptly and crashed out of control.

"For the most part, pedestrian fatalities occurred when people on foot were neglecting a simple safety precaution. They entered the roadway around parked or moving vehicles, crossed against traffic lights and walked in the roadway at night or crossed roads incautiously.

"To help make this holiday season a happy one for ourselves and others," Mr. Allan urged, "let us all be determined to act with good sense and care when walking or driving."

BORN AT RUSSELL, LADY CELEBRATES 100th BIRTHDAY

A Russell woman who believes in making her home with her two daughters in Williamsburg and Russell, will be 92 years young next Wednesday, January 2nd. She is the remarkable Mrs. Agnes Gove, who is spending the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. Gladstone Warner, of Russell. The cold spell past, however, and she will very likely take off for the home of her other daughter, Mrs. Mae Hollister, at Williamsburg.

She was born at Osnabruck Centre, a daughter of the late Johiel Empey and Mary Grant. She married Mr. George Gove many years ago and lived at Osnabruck. Mr. Gove predeceased his wife several years ago.

At 92 Mrs. Gove is still exceedingly active for a woman of her years. She continues to enjoy life to the full and only last summer spent a day at Ottawa Exhibition, taking in all the sights. If health permits she plans to go again next year.

Mrs. Gove's many friends in Russell, Williamsburg and district will join in wishing her a very Happy Birthday and a New Year of good things.

INTERESTING ARTICLES APPEARING IN THIS WEEK'S TORONTO STAR WEEKLY

Food preservation by atomic irradiation will probably be in commercial use by the 1960's, according to the head of the household science department at the University of Toronto.

Thirty-day-old chops which are as fresh as the day you bought them, rolls that were baked four months ago and taste as good as if they had only just come from the oven, are now more than a probability.

You will soon be able to stockpile your perishables when you find them cheap—and they will not be anything like as perishable as they used to be.

This important development in the processing of our foodstuffs which will almost certainly have a favourable influence on the family grocery bill, is fully described in the magazine section of this week's Star Weekly.

Comments by visitors from other countries leave no doubt that in the eyes of the whole world, Canada is a land of opportunity. Almost every area of our country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, has a story of progress and development to tell.

Take interior British Columbia, as one of the many examples. Once Prince George was one of interior B. C.'s smaller, sleepier cities. Today it is the largest and liveliest. Since the war its population has jumped fivefold to 12,500—and is estimated as high as 50,000 within a 20-mile radius.

It's a town that is showy and growy—a city that has attracted so much attention that travelling reporter, Harold Hilliard, devotes a feature article to t his "bustling metropolis of the woods" in this week's issue of The Star Weekly.

DOCTOR ON CALL FOR WEDNESDAY, JAN. 2nd
DR. H. G. BARTON

Tho' the world be at sixes and sevens,
And battered and twisted and torn,
And old faiths seem shattered and shaken,
Or wiggly and wobbly and worn—
We'll be cheery, for it's Christmas
And we'll laugh as we always do,
When you pass us the old-fashioned greeting,
And we say the same back to you.

IN MEMORIAM

WYATT—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Connell F. Wyatt, who was killed December 27th, 1955.

We little knew when we awoke that morn
The sorrow the day would bring,
The call was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.
Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things have to be,
But in His wisdom, God has planned
Beyond our power to see;
God gave us strength to fight it,
And courage to bear the blow,
And what it cost to lose you
No one will ever know.

—Sadly missed by his wife and family. 32p

WYATT—In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Peter Wyatt, who passed away December 31st, 1955.

—Ever remembered by the Family. 32p

CARTER—In loving memory of a dear fiance, James E. Carter, who was killed December 27th, 1955.

One year has passed away and gone,
Since one I loved so well
Was taken from his home on earth
With Jesus Christ to dwell.
The flowers we place upon his grave
May wither and decay,
But the love for him who sleeps beneath
Shall never fade away.
As angels keep their watch up there,
Please God, just let him know,
That I down here do not forget,
I love and miss him so.

—Lovingly remembered by his fiancee, Shirley Wyatt. 32p

HESS—In loving memory of our dear little girl, Marion Thelma Hess, who departed this life December 31st, 1944.

There is no parting from those we love,
No distance can divide,
For today in memory's garden
We still think of her.

—Always remembered by Mother, Father, Sisters and Brothers. 32p

WYATT—In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Peter Wyatt, who passed away December 31st, 1955.

You fell asleep without goodbye,
But memories of you will never die;
Your memory is as sweet today
As in the hour you passed away.

—Sadly missed by Gracie and Dick McGillis. 32p

McINTOSH—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Isaac McIntosh, who passed away December 22nd, 1953.

We cannot bring the old days back,
His voice we cannot hear,
But we treasure happy memories
Of one we loved so dear.

—Ever remembered by Wife and Family. 32p

Perpetual Care For Maple Ridge Cemetery

"Maple Ridge Cemetery Where Your Loved Ones Are Resting"

As members of Maple Ridge Cemetery Board, we feel that it should be a cemetery of which owners of plots are proud.

Many have secured perpetual care and the board is quite anxious all plot owners secure the same; by so doing you eliminate any further expense for care of your plot, not for today but all time.

This is what we are trying to do, which necessitates a large expense for labour, etc.

May we suggest that you get in touch with the Secretary and inqurie about perpetual care.

If you do not wish to buy perpetual care now, perhaps you could make provision for this in your will and be assured that all is well for the future. The cost is $200 per plot or $100 for half-plot.

Any donations for maintenance will be appreciated.
Thanking you,

MAPLE RIDGE CEMETERY

Cattle feeders everywhere are finding that SHUR-GAIN Beefmaker makes a big difference in the type of finish they can put on cattle. On top of good finish they get faster gains and better feed conversions now that they can buy Beefmaker containing diethylstilbestrol.

Meditations

By CECIL W. TUININGA

Luke 2:13, 14—"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased."

* * * *

Christmas is a time for joy and rejoicing. Especially has it been made a great time for the children. Their whole life is surrounded by those things that most please them. In these days they receive gifts and sweets and treats of every kind. Small wonder they are all excitement.

Because children have a lively imagination and live into their joys more fully than adults, the Christmas season is greeted more enthusiastically by them. For this reason it is very important what we make of this occasion.

We can make Christmas a blessed experience in their lives, or a time of empty frivolity.

Christmas certainly demands our best and full attention. Retaining something of our past child's imagination we should listen to the angels sing on Ephratha's fields. They have a special message for us who are in danger of being pre-occupied with a multitude of things in this busy and materialistic age. Christ's coming, they would tell us, is of the greatest moment for the world. It is of such importance that all of heaven rejoices in the event.

This angel's message brought in heavenly music and glory can only be understood in the light of Adam's transgression. When Adam and Eve fell there was rejoicing in the kingdom of darkness. Satan had apparently won a great victory. Man had become Satan's prey and servant and the world a chaos through sin's curse.

But God has not left the victory to Satan. He has sent His own Son into this world, born of a woman and born under the law, to redeem this fallen world. Therefore there is rejoicing in heaven above. The rejoicing of the demons is silenced and heaven begins to sing when Christ the Saviour is born. Heaven rejoices when one sinner repents, how much more when the Saviour of sinners is sent into this sinful world to save it!

All heaven resounds with the glory of God when Christ is born. This tells us that this is earth's greatest moment. For that reason too we are now rejoicing in our celebration at Christmas. For Christ has come to bring peace on earth. A peace that has its foundation in the finished work of our Saviour, for the Scripture declares that, ". . . we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." —(Rom. 5:1).

This is the gospel contained in the Christmas story. This is the message sung for us by the heavenly hosts. They, along with all of God's ministers and witnesses, proclaim, "The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all)"—(Acts 10:35). World peace is wholly contingent on this God-given peace, a peace that comes to those only who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

The angels sang only of the peace Christ came to bring to a world lying in the clutches of despair and hate and war and darkness. Otherwise their song could better have been silenced. World peace, the hope of men and nations, is far from a reality in our fear-ridden and war torn world. And peace is far from the restless soul of those who think to solve life's problems through man's wisdom and device. Peace, as the angels sang of it, is only to those who love the Lord of glory and accept the salvation He offers. For all others life remains a troubled pool of human vice and is nothing more than a constant death. And aside from the peace that Christ brings there can be no peace on earth among the nations.

Peace in Christ, as the angels sang to the shepherds of old, is still the central message of Christmas. All the cheer and gladness and kindness that men can pour into the yuletide festivities will not bring either peace or happiness. Only the Son of God, who came to this earth to suffer and die for man's sin, can give peace and happiness. And aside from this, not only is our Christmas celebration a farce, but our life spent in vain. Therefore our wish to all our readers is that they may experience a blessed Christmas, sharing in the blessings only Christ can give to those who believe on Him and confess His name. Then we can unitedly sing, "O come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord."
