Ozias Durant Dies Suddenly

Death came with startling suddeness to Mr. Ozias Durant, a highly respected and aged resident of The Boyne, on Monday morning. Mr. Durant had got up about five o'clock, made the fire in the kitchen range and had gone outside. He felt weak and decided to return to his room but collapsed on the floor just as he entered it, passing away almost immediately without uttering a word. The deceased was over eighty years of age and five years ago with his life partner celebrated their golden wedding when all the family of grown up sons and daughters, with one exception, were brought under the old home roof tree. Mr. Durant was well known to a large circle of friends who extend their sympathy to the bereaved wife and family.

Mrs. Frank McCloskey Honored

On Monday evening May 5th a number of the ladies of St. Mary's congregation gathered at the home of Mrs. Jas. McAvoy to say farewell to Mrs. Frank McCloskey and to express their regret in her intended departure from Chesterville. The early part of the evening was spent in playing cards after which an address on behalf of those present was read by Miss Nell McDonald. This expressed the keen sorrow felt by all losing Mrs McCloskey and what a loss her departure meant to the whole community, not alone in social interests but in church work as well, where her zeal and never-failing interest were a source of inspiration and help to all. A beautiful silk umberella was then presented to Mrs. McCloskey, who expressed her surprise and gratitude in a pleasing and gracious manner.

Refreshments were then served and the evening was brought to a pleasant close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King.

Lizzie McMahon, Cannamore

Once again the reaper, death, has been in our midst, taking from us, one, who had but nicely began the journey of life, Mary Bertha Elizabeth McMahon, known among her school mates and friends as Lizzie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McMahon of Cannamore who was born Oct. 22nd, 1905. She was taken to the Hotel Dieu in Cornwall, on March the seventh of the present year, where a successful operation for appendicitis was preformed, coming home on Mar. 20th, although all was done that medical skill, loving hearts and hands could possibly do for her, she never regained her strength. She bore with marvellous patience her weakness and pain until about eleven o'clock a. m. on May 8th, when she heard the Master call in answering it gave up this life to enter the life beyond. Not only in her home did the light of her life shine, but in the school she was loved by all and will be sorely missed by those with whom she studied and played.

She leaves to mourn her loss, father and mother, an aged grandmother, four sisters—Josie and Celia at home, Lucy of Cornwall, Mrs. Jerry Kearns of Berwick and one brother—Thomas at home.

Spiritual offerings were given by Father and Mother, brothers and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kearns, Lucy McMahon, Miss Kate Allen, the Cashion family, Miss Bridget, Samuel and Allan Kearns; Miss Lena Lalonde, Archie Provost, Mr. J. H. Aube, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Moran and family, Miss Irene Pelletier, Miss Annie Rady, Mr. D. O'Callaghan.

Floral offerings were given as follows—A wreath by the family, a spray, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kearns; cut flowers, Coslet and George Feeley; a cross, Mrs. James Cameron; a wreath, by the teacher and pupils of the Public School; a cala lily by Mary Munharvey.

About fifty conveyances followed the remains to St. Mary's church, Crysler where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Father Huot, after which interment was made in the Catholic burying ground at Crysler. The bearers were Ernest Munharvey, Eli Lavictoire, Johnny Glasgow, Joseph Moran, Johnny Aggett, John Perra.

Teach the Children to Save

Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.

Body of Child Found on Railroad at Berwick.

On Friday morning last as the Berwick O N. Y. section men were going to their work towards Crysler, on their hand car at seven o'clock, opposite the outskirts of the village they found the dead body of a female infant lying across the rail. Owing to the early hour of the last evening train it is unlikely to have been thrown from a train and as there were no marks on the body it is believed to have been carefully placed on the rail in the hope that a train would pass over it before being found. It is hoped that the authorities will prove successful in locating the guilty party.

Better Cooling Suggestions

(FARMERS CUT THIS OUT.)

BE SURE and have water tank filled, so that water will be high enough to reach the neck of the can. Stir your milk every ten minutes. 90% of high acid milk is caused by trusting to air cooling, and is responsible for great losses. "Don't do it. Cold water cooling is the surest way to avoid loss. Don't be careless."

A Question of Buns

A linguistic incident took place in a small town in the north of England recently. A Canadian soldier happened into a small store for some article or other and was waiting for a clerk to appear when another chap wandered in and asked the Canadian if he knew whether they sold "hot buns" in the shop or not. The soldier replied:

"Hot buns! Why I haven't seen a cold bun since I came to England let alone a hot one. Your chances of getting buns are mighty poor."

However, when the clerk appeared it turned out it was a hat band the other chap wanted.

The Settlement With Germany

Under the terms of the peace treaty Germany loses ultimately at least 40,000 square miles of territory in Europe, or substantially 20 per cent. of her pre-war area.

This means a reduction of at least $12,100,000,000, or 20 per cent. in Germany's national wealth, estimated in in 1913 at $60,500,000,000.

Other German losses include:

African colonies, 1,035,068 square miles; all her Pacific lands and all holdings outside of Europe.

A total of $25,000,000,000, by way of reparation.

All merchant ships of 1,600 tons gross and upwards; one half of the tonnage between 1,600 and 1,000 gross and one-third of her fishing fleet. This takes the commercial fleet off the sea as completely as the naval fleet. At current ship prices the merchant vessels taken from Germany would be about $400,000,000.

Germany must, in addition, build, 200,000 tons gross for allied account annually for five years, and replace all tonnage sunk by submarines.

Her once-proud navy is reduced to six battleships, six light cruisers, 12 destroyers and 12 torpedo boats, with a personnel of 15,000, placing her on a level with Holland.

Her Imperial army is slashed to 100,000 officers and men, and conscription abolished.

For a period of five years all German ports are thrown open to ships of allied and associated powers on the same terms as to German ships.

German railroads, rivers and highways are to be placed freely at the disposal of allied and associated nationals who may wish to use them for commercial purposes.

She must permit the free use of the Kiel Canal, heretofore a closed artery, to merchant and war vessels of all nations.

Her entire military and naval air fleets are wiped out.

Her hangars, landing fields and other flying facilities are to be freely used by nationals of allied and associated powers for commercial purposes on the same terms as by Germans.

She loses command of the Baltic and must raze fortifications there as well as on Heligoland.

For five years allied and associated fishing boats may fish in waters heretofore alloted to Germany, including those with territorial boundaries.

She loses the city of Danzig.

She loses national control of the Rhine, Moselle, Elbe and Oder, which are internationalized, and loses control of the Vistula altogether, which goes to Poland.

German must forego the project of annexing German-Austria and shake loose from Bulgaria and Turkey.

Holdings of German nationals in public utilities outside of Germany to reimburse her subjects.

MOREWOOD

The tragic and sudden death of Miss Maida Thomas, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, in the General Hospital, Ottawa, came as a great shock to the whole community and deepest sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents and brothers. The funeral on Friday at the home of her uncle Mr. B. Loughridge, was largely attended and a most impressive sermon preached by the Rev. Dr. Philp from the words "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

The inclement weather last Sunday spoilt the attendance at the "Mother Day" services but the programme was exceptionally well given by the children and the gift of carnations by the girls was much appreciated by those mothers present.

Miss Muriel McGregor, of St. Luke's Hospital, Ottawa, spent a few days the end of the week at Mrs. Warren Feely's.

Mr. J. W. Marcellus received word by telephone on Monday morning of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Marcellus, of Milton, Ont., interment to take place in the Presbyterian Cemetery on Wednesday morning.

The Annual Church Service of Morewood Lodge I. O. O. F. will be held in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, May 18th, at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Chas. Hutchinson was removed to the General Hospital, Cornwall, on Monday. We all wish her a safe and speedy recovery.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Institute held at Mrs Collison's plans were laid for the annual Girls' Exhibition and Flower show and arrangements were made to hold the Dundas District Annual here on Tuesday June 10th, and if possible to secure as speakers Mrs. J. P. McNaughton of Maxville and Mr. Leake. Inspector of Manual-Training and Household Science.

Our teachers are preparing for an enthusiastic celebration on May 24th, but the usual S. S. entertainment will not be given till Monday 26th.

We cannot all go; we may not all be able to give but we can all pray.

"Easy-to-Grasp" Trade Facts.

Our net debt in the Dominion before the war was Three hundred and Thirty-six Million Dollars. Now it is up beyond One Billion Five Hundred Million Dollars, over four and one-half times as much as in 1914.

Interest charges on the borrowings of the country before the war amounted to Twelve Million Dollars annually; today they are seven times as heavy. There were practically no pensions to pay four years ago; today they total over Fifteen Million Dollars a year.

These are only parts of what we have been called upon to advance for the security of living our own lives free alike from Prussianism and Bolshevism. The Dominion will pay these charges gladly, though naturally it cannot be done by reverting to what was "normal" prior to the war, the impelling cause of it all. "Normal" then, translated into terms of today, would be bankruptcy. These are the things the Canadian Trade Commission at Ottawa are earnestly trying to bring home to every man or woman, even the children, in the Dominion. They touch the very heart of our home and private well-being.

During the last twenty years we have advertised the glorious possibilities of Canada wherever men can read. We wanted immigrants. Yet it was exactly in the four-year war period that we were taught that our development does not need to wait entirely for immigration. It is well known that the productive capacity of the average man and woman in the Dominion was almost doubled We learned the strenuous "art of doing more." We created more wealth per head of the population by higher standards of efficiency. The speculator, the land "booster" and the gambler in all forms of wealth were eliminated.

We learned to be self-reliant in the Dominion. It was the greatest lesson, perhaps the greatest benefit, which the war brought us. This is the quality which we must still further cultivate, self-reliance in business, in agriculture, in all that which goes to make trade and to hold it. It can be done permanently in peace time as it was done for victory. It will be compulsory, because no one else will pay our debts.

The waggoner in Aesop who prayed to Hercules had his own strength revealed to him when he was made to put his shoulder to the wheel. We are past the praying time in Canada.

There is no need for discouragement. The transition from war to peace is more complex than was thought. Yet the wealth of Canada remains today what we have always said it was— tremendous in its possibilities. In fact the, total developed value is probably about $20,000,000,000. The thing to do is to develop it still more. With an annual income which in 1918 was estimated at $2,500,000,000, there should be plenty of margin in our receipts for re-investing in national business for its expansion.

It is essential that the people should know that future prosperity hangs on the widening and broadening of trade—trade in all lines, agriculture, mining, fishery, lumbering and manufacturing. We could make or produce within our own frontier many things we import and so keep here the money we have. We could export many more things if we organized our medium-sized and smaller trades into groups, and so we could help to pay our debts with money brought in from outside.

These then are the broad, easy-to-grasp facts of the trade position in Canada. It does not want magic to bring about the change desired. Commonsense—in a rare degree—is wanted, though. The key will be found in continuance of the co-operative and patriotic spirit that we proved ourselves to possess during war.

First Liar has No Chance

Three men entered into a contest for a prize—the prize was to be awarded to the man who could tell the biggest possible lie. The first said, "I went up so high in an airship that I was able to read by the light of the stars." The second said, that's nothing! I went so deep down in the sea in a submarine that I almost perished from the intense heat as we neared the centre of the earth," But said the third man, with a confident smile. "I'm an American! and We won the war!" It is almost unnecessary to say that without hesitation the judges handed him the prize.

What is a Kilowatt?

A watt is a unit of measure for electricity just as the quart is a unit of measure for milk and the bushel as a unit of measure for corn. Kilo is a Greek word meaning 1,000 and a kilowatt is 1,000 watts. The watt takes the name from James Watt, the famous physicist.

Here are a few things a Kilowatt of electricity will do.

It will light 3,000 cigars.

It will run an electric clock for 10 years.

It will heat a curling iron three minutes every day in year, Sunday included.

It will heat a bedroom for an hour in the winter, or keep the room cool for 21 hours in the summer if a small ventilating fan is used.

It will propel an automobile three miles, knead 8 sacks of flour into dough, or operate an electric piano for 10 hours.

It will light an old 16 power Edison lamp for 15 hours.

Or a 25-watt Tungsten lamp for 40 hours.

Or a 40-watt Tungsten lamp for 25 hours.

Or a 60-watt Tungsten lamp for 16 hours.

Run a 9-inch electric fan for 25 hours.

The energy produced by a kilowatt hour of electricity running through a motor will raise twenty-two tons of coal in an hour.—Ex.

The Easiest Way To Invest

Canada, following the example of other Allied countries, has made it possible for wage earners—men and women—to invest in safe securities without effort.

These securities are called War Savings Stamps.

The cost now $4.04, but by compounding interest, the $4.04 you invest now will be worth $5.00 in 1924. There is no other security in which you can invest such a small amount that is as safe and that bears so high a rate of interest.

Or you can start with 25 cents, by buying a Thrift Stamp. When you have sixteen Thrift Stamps, you can exchange them for a War Savings Stamp.

In May W-S.S. Cost $4.04

In June W-S.S. Cost $4.05

You take no risks. The Government of Canada guarantees to pay you back your money—with interest—at any time during the five years, or to pay you in 1924 $5.00 for every $4.00 (and a fraction) you invest now.

Woman Leaps from Fast Train

Iroquois News—While she was evidently temporarily out of her mind a middle aged woman, whose name we failed to learn, jumped from the Grand Trunk flyer between Maitland and Prescott on Sunday afternoon and escaped with such slight injury that she was able to proceed on her journey after she had been picked up limping, by the next train passing a few hours later.

The woman was a passenger on train No 14, Chicago to Montreal, which left Brockville at 2.40 o'clock, and it is understood she was ticketed from Chicago to a point in the State of New Hampshire. On her trip she was accompanied by her two small children, and until her rash leap, which outdid anything ever attempted by even the most intrepid moving picture sensationalists, gave no evidence of mental suffering or other trouble.

When the train reached Prescott the Conductor noticed that the two little boys age seven and nine, were unaccompanied and at the same time saw that one of the vestibule doors had been opened. A search of the train failed to reveal the woman, and the conductor immediately raised an alarm, Brockville was notified that the woman was missing, and all train crews and track walkers were asked to be on the lookout for her between Brockville and Prescott.

Without the mother, the children were carried on to Montreal and were apparently little concerned at their mother's absence. When train No. 6 was proceeding between Maitland and Prescott at 5.30 o'clock the woman was observed walking along the track with a slight limp, but with no other apparent injury. She was picked up and taken to Montreal.

How she managed to jump from the flyer which attains a high rate of speed between Maitland and Prescott, and escape with such slight injury is a mystery. It is under stood she offered no explanation for her conduct, but she was kept under observation for the rest of her trip.

How Canadians Did Themselves A Good Turn

When the people of Canada last year subscribed $695,000,000, to the second Victory Loan they did a great thing for themselves and the Dominion. They enabled Canada to make a splendid finish in the war, they kept busy the wheels of the country's industry and made a first class personal investment.

On May 1 these Victory Bondholders will draw their first interest return on these bonds in the form of $18,000,000. Every province will share in this, from Prince Edwaud Islaud with $85,000, up to Ontario with $8,600,000. And this is only one-half of what these 1918 bonds will pay this year.

The 1,100,000 people who bought the bonds did not inflict on themselves any hardship in doing so. They did themselves a good turn, for the bonds are quoted three or four points above par. The money is absolutely safe, and it is enabling the bondholders to collect $36 000,000year.this

Will this amount be permanently saved? It will, if those who draw it put it into War Savings and Thrift Stamps. A War Savings Stamp is a Victory Bond in miniature.

A Careless Motorist Pays Dearly

A case of particular interest to motorists and farmers has been decided by Judge Wismer. This was an action brought by Wm. and John Metcalf, farmers living near Bradford, against T. Albert Lyons, of Elmvale, for damages to sheep strurk by an automobile last summer. The plaintiffs were driving a flock of sheep to Bradford. According to the story of the plaintiffs, Lyons aproached from behind heading for Toronto at a rapid rate. The car hit two sheep killing one and breaking a hind leg for the other. On the other hand the defendant swore that he sounded his horn and slowed down till he was running not over four miles an hour; also that one of the sheep after crossing the road ran back right in front of the car so that it was impossible to avoid it. Lyons, after the accident, did not stop ascertain the damage or to leave his name. One of the plaintiffs ran to a near-by house and phoned to Bradford where Constable Simpkins held up the car. According to the constable's evidence the car was running over 25 miles an hour when it came within his view. A bill of $17 was put in by the plaintiffs for damage to the sheep, His Honor has ordered the defendant to pay, together with the costs which will make a total bill of fully three times the amount of damages.—Alliston Herald.

Sir Douglas Haig's Alleged Cows

Now that five months have passed since the armistice was signed (writes a correspondent) it will not be giving any information to the enemy to say that during Sir Douglas Haig's numerous moves immediately before November he was accompanied everywhere by a couple of Jersey cows. Whenever the commander-in-chief's train moved, the cows were put aboard a lorry under the care of guernsey cowherd—a private of the Royal Guernsey Light Infantry. They followed slowly after the train, and when the stopping-place was reached were turned out on any available bit of grassland. And so Sir Douglas always had fresh milk for breakfast.
