STOP VANDALISM?—Perhaps people responsible for the damage done to town "Stop" signs should heed the word on the sign. Six "Stop" signs were bent like the above (at the intersection of Dominion and Kincardine Sts.) in the north end of Alexandria early Sunday morning reports the Alexandria Police Department. New alcohol treatment centre to feature 28-day program

People can recover from alcoholism and be useful members of society, two members of the newly formed Mount Carmel Association told members of the St. Raphael's Catholic Women's League at their annual banquet last week.

Raymond Billard, president of the association and a director, Alfie Lee, explained some of the problems endured by alcoholics and their families and the necessity of such a treatment centre as the proposed Mount Carmel House.

Alcoholism is an illness, the same as diabetes or a heart condition, the speakers explained. While you wouldn't see a family throw out a member of their family because he was a diabetic, it is common for an alcoholic to be treated like this.

You can be the best kid in the neighborhood, the ideal boy scout type and in no time at all wind up on skid row; the disease plays no favorites, but only in the past four years has it been recognized as a disease in Canada, the association president said. By contrast, in the States there is an alcoholic counsellor in every county.

Our closest treatment centres are in Toronto and New Hampshire. The necessity for having a closer environment is that patients at the time of their confinement to an institution have a particular need for their families to be close enough to visit. Loneliness can be a particular handicap during this period of recovery and loved ones play a major role in the process.

The original Iona Academy building in St. Raphael's is currently being renovated for use as a treatment centre. The building has been obtained from the Diocese of Alexandria-Cornwall for this purpose.

Treatment is a 28-day program which follows a detoxification at a hospital prior to entry.

In other centres where these treatments are available patients have had a recovery record of more than 80 per cent, the audience learned.

Mr. Lee told of 16 teenagers who had been referred to the Children's Aid in the previous week. Of these 15 had alcoholic parents, the 16th, a 13-year-old, had an alcoholic problem himself.

There will be no shortage of patients in Eastern Ontario, it was noted.

Both men have been canvassing industries in the area. Since most employers are familiar with declining production and absenteeism due to alcoholism, managers have been co-operative and eager to help contribute to the establishment of a recovery centre. While some are making cash donations, others are contributing materials to repair and furnish the building. One company has contributed new windows, another has offered paint etc.

Right now new heating, wiring and plumbing supplies are a priority. Volunteers are turning out on Saturdays to paint, plaster and help restore the old building which had fallen into disrepair due to lack of heat.

To help raise money for the project, shares are being sold at $100 and membership at $25.

However, Director Lee adds: "We accept any amount with gratitude. If everyone in the area just gave one dollar we would have our $80,000 necessary to get underway."

Directors have been particularly impressed with the encouragement given them in the near-by community and have an optimistic eye on early September as an opening date.

With just the moral support received so far, directors feel they have a right to be optimistic.

ALL HANDS ON FOR GOOD LUCK—The first donation to Mount Carmel House from an Alexandria industry came from Georges Lanthier et Fils Bakery last week in the form of a $1,000 cheque. Group will fight division of school

About 40 Glengarry residents gathered in Alexandria Monday to form the Committee Against Separation at Glengarry District High School.

The group has formed in response to contradictory reports concerning the future of the school and possible separation of the student body.

Karen Dicaire, who was named media officer for the committee, reports that the group will be circulating a petition calling on the school board and Ministry of Education not to split the school.

"The aim of the petition is to inform Dr. Bette Stephenson, our Minister of Education, and the SD&G County Board of Education that the citizens of Glengarry find abhorrent the idea of physically or psychologically separating our students along racial lines and are even willing to decline the grant of $649,000 applied for by the SD&G County Board of Education if the end result of that grant should achieve that purpose," a committee press release states.

"It was further decided that briefs will be prepared to be presented at the special May 21 meeting at the high school and that spokesmen will be appointed to represent the group."

Mrs. Dicaire said anyone requiring further information or wishing to assist the committee could contact the following committee members: Don Collin, 525-3571, Karen Dicaire, 525-2635; Mike Gibbs Jr., 874-2630; Roch Lajoie, 525-2157; Jean Larocque, 525-2320; Maurice Lemieux, 525-2008; Paul Roy, 347-2373; Alma Smits, 347-2665; Yon Van Berkom, 874-2945.

Mrs. Dicaire, who represents Lancaster Township's French-speaking parents on the school committee, says the community needs some straight answers due to the contradictory remarks being made by officials.

Although SD&G County Board of Education Director Rosaire Leger has said there will be no changes at the school, many committee members fear a split is taking place a little bit at a time.

Mrs. Dicaire said the school's structure is on the agenda for the school committee meeting tomorrow night (Thursday).

The meeting, to be held at 8 p.m. at the school, is open to the public.

Special meeting on GDHS planned for Francophones

SD&G County Board of Education has scheduled another information meeting on the Glengarry District High School issue.

In addition to the already scheduled May 21 meeting for all members of the community, the board is holding a special information meeting for French-speaking ratepayers on Wednesday, May 7, at 8 p.m.

"The purpose of the meeting is to inform the French-speaking ratepayers concerning the services offered in French at Glengarry District High School as well as the project of renovation now possible because of additional grants available from the Ministry of Education of Ontario," an ad in this week s Glengarry News states.

According to the ad, there will be no formal restrictions on speakers such as those imposed on the May 21 meeting.

People wishing to attend the bilingual May 21 meeting must give notice in advance, give an outline of their brief and cannot question trustees.

The French-speaking meeting May 7 contains none of these restrictions.

"The information meeting will be conducted in French and the French-speaking ratepayers are urged to attend," the ad says.

The information meeting will be chaired by French Language Advisory Committee Chairman Albert Morin even though Director of Education Rosaire Leger told 1,000 ratepayers at a public meeting that Trustee Morin's views on the issue do not represent board policy.

Mr. Morin stated at a board meeting that the proposed $649,000 grant for GDHS is the first step in creating a separate French school including two student councils.

Asked about Mr. Morin's statement, Mr. Leger told the public meeting "he is entitled to his opinion. Mr. Morin's statement is not board policy."

SD&G Board takes 'strong exception' to comments by ministry official

SD&G County Board of Education Director of Education Rosaire Leger issued a press release this week saying the board takes "strong exception" to recent comments made by Ministry of Education spokesman Vincent Caron.

Mr. Caron, who is co-ordinator of French Language services with the Ministry of Education, said Glengarry District High School was following a path which would logically result in the creation of two schools—an English language school and a French language school.

It would logically follow that there would be two of everything, including separate student councils, school committees, and sports teams, he suggested.

Following the spokesman's comments, Mr. Leger rushed to Toronto to speak with senior ministry officials.

In his release, Leger re-iterates that a proposed $640,000 provincial grant would "in no way mean that the Board of Education will change its organization or its programs for Glengarry District High School."

This statement, however, contradicts a letter sent to parents by the school April 8.

"Should this (grant) request be successful, this means that in September there will be two entities (ESRG-GDHS) which will co-exist under one roof," the letter states.

It notes that student enrollment would be split into two camps.

"It will then be necessary to determine those students who will be enrolled in the French entity and those who will be enrolled in the English entity," the letter says.

The purpose of the grant money, according to the letter signed by both

Court case is settled

Glengarry Sport's Palace Board has reached an out-of-court settlement with Admiral Engineering and Construction Company, the arena contractor. The board will pay the $39,500 owing but have also accumulated legal and engineering fees in the amount of $12,500. This settlement ends a three-year court battle.

It was the board's decision in 1976 to withold the above amount after the board's engineering firm, Lascelle, Seguin and Tremblay, advised them to do so. The engineering firm felt the contractor's had not completed the construction to their satisfaction.

Soon after activity began in the arena, the plexiglass sheets broke, gyproc on the arena's east wall was shattered by flying pucks and a canvas covering came off the seating, reports arena manager Michel Depratto. Plexiglass and the east wall were replaced with sturdier materials by the arena.

The arena board optioned to settle out of court avoiding further legal expenses as the members were not optimistic about a court settlement in their favor.

Lefebvres are flying to Belgium convention

Jean Marc Lefebvre, president of the Alexandria Richelieu Club, and his wife, Claudia will be flying to Belgium in order to attend the International Richelieu Convention which starts on April 30.

This convention will be attended by club representatives from 36 countries, Mr. Lefebvre informs us. The contingent is scheduled to spend five days in Liege, Belgium where Canadians will be received by the Canadian ambassador and then tour five other Richelieu clubs throughout Belgium and France.

Mr. Lefebvre is the first Alexandria Richelieu member to attend an international convention for the service club, a club which was founded by Canadians.

Mr. and Mrs. Lefebvre plan to be overseas until May 15 combining a holiday along with the convention.

Town court day changing

Commencing July 3, the day for provincial court criminal division hearings in Alexandria will be on Thursday. Presently criminal cases are heard on every second Monday and Tuesday.

Court will be presided over by recently appointed L'Orignal provincial court Judge Reginald Levesque.

'Parent power' reverses decision on school closings

A persistent, well-organized protest by parents has resulted in SD&G County Board of Education rescinding its decision to close three rural elementary schools.

Maxville Senior, John Sandfield Macdonald and Roxborough schools have been saved.

The Stampville school will be closed but parents there did not oppose the move.

About 60 placard-carrying parents filled the board chambers during the debate.

"It shows that if we work hard enough, fight long enough, something good will come out of it," said Joanne Rodger, president of the Macdonald School Committee.

Although the issue was not scheduled for reconsideration, Trustee Harry Gatward raised the matter.

The vote was 6-5 to keep the schools open. Originally, the board voted 10-1 to close the schools. This was followed at a subsequent meeting by a 6-5 vote re-affirming the school closings.

Parents cheered the result of last week's reversal vote which came after a three-hour discussion.

On one occasion, Trustee Fraser Campbell angrily threw his pencil across the board in his frustration in failing to convince his colleagues to delay taking a vote on the subject.

"It's like Christmas in April," said a happy Roxborough Reeve George Crites who had spoken in favor of keeping the schools open.

Teacher John Milnes who helped organize the protest said the final decision was a "demonstration of democracy in action."

James Fergusson of Maxville said the vote shows "what parents can do when they stand up and speak out."

He told trustees closure could also spell the end of the Glengarry Pipe Band because there was no other rehearsal space in the area.

Dalton Gadbois gave a brief for the Macdonald School Committee.

He said the school's closure would mean sending children to the already crowded Eamers Corners school where at least one portable would have to be added.

"We feel our children will learn much more in a classroom where the student-teacher ratio is smaller."

Trustee Earl Myers said it seemed "kind of ridiculous to close that school if we don't have room at the other one."

Cornwall Township Reeve John Cleary said closing of the rural school "leads us to believe that the board considers the children of our township to be second class citizens."

Planning constultant Larry Cotton presented a 28-page report with statistical information backing the school zone's growth potential.

He noted the township has the second fastest growth rate in the United Counties.

The township "is in the middle of a mini baby boom," he said.

Mr. Cotton also challenged the board's way of calculating the so-called inefficiency of the school.

The board's calculation "is highly questionable when the board removes the kindergarten and Grade 7 and 8 classes but still calculates the ability of the school to function as if these classes were still present," he said.

Jumps to safety

An area man was forced to jump to safety from a second storey window last week when he awoke at 4 a.m. to discover fire raging through his home, confining him to his bedroom.

Bernard Deguire who was alone in the house at the time, first tried to escape through his bedroom door but realized he would be overpowered by the smoke.

The house, owned by a neighbor Rolland Massie, on the Third Concession of Lochiel, is located about five miles from Alexandria. It was a frame construction with imitation brick siding and was valued at $50,000.

Cause of the fire has not been determined.

Mrs. Ernest Sawer, another neighbor, alerted the Alexandria Fire Department, whose prompt reaction saved a nearby shed which stored some valuable articles. Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Massie both expressed astonishment with the fire department's arrival time. "It doesn't take those boys long to put on their boots," said Mrs. Massie.

Several of the firemen reported they could see flames leaping skyward as they headed out of town in that direction.

Fortunately Mr. Deguire was alone in the home at the time of the fire, the cause of which has not been determined.

Heated debate

The subject being discussed at Alexandria Town Council was not a heated one but Councillor Fern Seguin got pretty hot about it at last week's meeting.

The councillor was calmly presenting his views on the need to assist senior citizens moving into housing units when suddenly he bolted to his feet as smoke engulfed him. A book of matches had ignited in his pant's pocket. Fern's pants were salvaged without Fire and Light Chairman Yolande Viau having to summon the town's fire crew.

RICHELIEU HELPS MINOR HOCKEY—Richelieu President Jean Marc Lefebvre (right) hands Alexandria and District Minor Hockey President Guy Lanctot a cheque from the club in the amount of $500. This brings Richelieu donations to various organizations over the $9,000 mark since September. A total of $4,000 was given to a number of local parishes last Fall to sponsor Vietnamese refugees.

Company will remove fill

Bourgon Construction Ltd. reached an agreement with the Town of Alexandria to remove fill from the Industrial Park land located in the northern sector of town which will save the town $5,000.

Bourgon's are using the earth to raise the land on Kenyon Street East where they are under contract to build senior citizen housing units.

Lots Six and Seven within the Industrial Park have been sold recently to Ryax Holdings Inc. and the fill situated there must be removed by the town. The earth is the result of excavation from industrial buildings in the park.

Early estimates for removal of the fill were in the neighborhood of $6,000 but Bourgon's demand and the town's responsibility resulted in the agreement. The town loaded trucks for two days at a cost of $1,000 but the remaining earth will be loaded and hauled at the construction company's expense, reports Road Superintendent Jean Guy Levert.

Set one-ways

Two Alexandria streets, which were made one-way streets last year have been adopted into bylaw by Alexandria Town Council.

These are Mill Square and Ottawa Street.

Originally council set a three-month trial period then extended that time because of complaints with the new traffic flow.

Council now feels the people have adjusted to the new streets and passed the bylaw which will permit traffic violators to be charged.

principals, is "for capital improvements (alterations) necessary to create administratively distinct French Language Schools within existing school buildings."

Mr. Leger contends that two schools are not being created, however.

He produced a letter from G. R. Podrebarac, assistant deputy minister, education programs, which Mr. Leger says "clarifies ministry policy and endorses the position of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Board of Education in regard to programming at Glengarry District High School."

In his letter, Mr. Podrebarac notes that the board has done much to "meet the expectations of its French-speaking community" and says "the 1980-81 organization structure for Glengarry District High School appears to be such that the board is now eligible to make application for additional funding."

He says that "it is the belief of this ministry that the establishment of French language homogeneous entities is an effective way of providing an environment conducive to preserving linguistic and cultural identity. However, local conditions and concerns may indicate alternative arrangements."

Although the letter mentions the "organization structure" of the school, it does not clarify whether the school is considered a mixed school or two schools co-existing under one roof.

Mr. Caron contended that once a two-entities program was adopted, two distinct schools were legally created.

The grant application form submitted by the SD&G board to the province describes the program as "creation of administrational distinct French Language school at Glengarry District High School."

Both French section Principal Rene Gauthier and the board's French Language Advisory Committee Chairman Albert Morin have publicly stated that they feel the creation of two student councils would be the logical development at the school.

The principals' letter also suggests the single school committee should re-examine its structure so as to "reflect the realities of ESRG-GDHS."

90 YEARS YOUNG

On April 19, Mr. and Mrs. Rod F. McRae were among the many friends and relatives who attended the 90th birthday party of Mrs. Hattie MacLennan, held at the home of her son Ken MacLennan, Dalkeith. Mrs. MacLennan is a first cousin of Mr. McRae.

MINISTER ARRIVED

The congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church welcome their new minister this week. Mr. Garnet Zoellner, a native of Vancouver, has been doing post-graduate work at McGill University and will be preaching his first sermon this Sunday, May 4. Mr. and Mrs. Zoellner and their two children are presently busy moving into the Catherine St. manse.

LIONS HAVE PLANS

The Maxville Lions' Club are holding their dinner meeting this Wednesday evening, as the big Auction Night is Thursday. Visitors will be those Lions campaigning for the office of Governor. The Club donated $300 to the Cadieux family whose house was destroyed in a fire last week. The team of curling Lions skipped by Bill Kippen were runners-up in the Hawkesbury Bonspiel—very good going out of a total of 100 rinks. The Lions have decided to take charge of parking cars at the Glengarry Highland Games this year, rather than operate their usual food booths at the Fair and the Games. At Council meeting last week the final approval was given to the Lions' plans for installing seating, and heat lamps in the Arena at the Complex. Contracts have already been awarded, and the work will proceed this summer.

SOCIETY HAS EVENTS

The Maxville Horticultural Society had a very successful pot luck supper this week, with George Elliott of Green Valley giving a fascinating nature talk illustrated with slides—"At the Edge of the Field." The next meeting will be another pot luck supper and a plant sale too—this will be at the United Church Hall on Tuesday, May 20. Membership remains at the bargain price of $1, and the annual premiums of six glad corns will be distributed on that night. New members are most welcome to join. An added attraction this season will be a July bus trip to the International floral exhibit in Montreal—"Floraleis 1980."

GOOD SALE

The Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders and their leaders would like to thank all the donors and patrons who made their rummage sale the best one ever. They raised over $600—and that is a lot of nickels, dimes and quarters. They also sorted some clothes for bales, packed bags of garage wipers, and sent a good lot to the Service Store in Cornwall.

WILL CONTINUE MEETINGS

The WMS Afternoon Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church met in the schoolroom for their April Thankoffering. Mrs. Bertha McRae opened with prayer, then a hymn followed, and a scripture reading from Matthew. Mrs. Peter Cameron provided the piano accompaniment. Mrs. Harold Cameron gave an Easter meditation which had been prepared by Mrs. Abbie Wilkes. Mrs. D. G. McNaughton read the poem "This Spring" and Miss Gladys Roulston the story "Easter and Journey's End." The members decided to continue their summer meetings in the Sunday schoolroom, and the meeting closed with an offering and prayer.

ENJOYED CONCERT

On Monday, April 21, the members of the Young at Heart Club met in the Anglican Church Hall and enjoyed "The Sound of Music" as presented by Ron Clare with his accordion, and John McDermid at the piano. The Club's next meeting will be on Tuesday, May 6, at 8 p.m. This will be a special euchre party and the Apple Hill Happy Hour Club and the Alexandria Fraternity Club are all invited.

That lovely quilt and the oil painting are being raffled off as part of the entertainment.

IN THE HOSPITAL

Mrs. Donalda Scott is presently a patient in the Hotel Dieu, Cornwall.

HAVE NEW HOCKEY EXECUTIVE

The North Glen Stor Minor Hockey Association held its annual meeting at the Sports Complex this week. With the inspiration and enthusiasm generated by posters, paid ads, and social notices—three extra persons turned up at this meeting, besides the regular executive.

The group managed to persevere however, and a slate of officers was elected for the coming year as follows: President Murray Manly of Finch; 1st Vice, Ron Macdonell of Apple Hill; 2nd Vice, Bertha Sullivan of Finch. The secretary has not been decided yet. Treasurer is Mary Ellen Villeneuve.

Travelling Convenor, Ross Smith; Fund raising, Ray MacLeod; Tournament chairman, John Hrycak of Finch, with Ron Macdonell assisting; House Team convenors, Tom Grady and Guy Mainville; Commissioners Don Vollrath and Stewart Arkinstall; and Referees-in-Chief Alcide Paquette and Bill MacMillan.

The banquet will be held in the Finch Arena on Wednesday, May 7 at 7:30 p.m., with Brian Smith of CJOH as guest speaker. Tickets are $3.50 for children, and $4.50 for adults—these are to be bought before May 2, must be in advance and are available from the coaches or the treasurer, Mary-Ellen Villeneuve—phone 527-5737.

BAND CONCERT

Anyone wanting to help with the arrangements for this please call 527-5724. The Junior Choir will sing on Mothers' Day, May 11 which is also Baptism Sunday.

COURSES CHOPPED AT TAGWI

With matters settled at one school, troubles begin at another. The students at Tagwi Secondary School were surprised this week by the sudden posting in each classroom of a list of 36 courses that are to be eliminated from next year's schedule.

No copies were provided, and the students were advised to read the lists and choose alternatives if necessary to the courses they had thought they were going to be able to take.

With the school enrolment dropping steadily—down to about 700—12 courses were cancelled two years ago, and 20 last year. Many senior students wanting to take special courses in Grade 12 and 13 have found themselves forced to travel off to other schools—in Cornwall, Alexandria and Casselman.

Countering this latest chop, the students have organized a petition with several hundred signatures and the support of several of their teachers and are going to present this to the SD&G Board. Copies of this are to be sent to all parents this week.

Miss Prevost dies

Point Blank

by Brian Filion

On the night of June 9, eight trophies will be presented to Glengarry athletes at the Lions Club Annual Sportsmen's Dinner. Selecting those recipients will have individual trophy committees in a quandary, for this year Glengarry athletes have flourished in their athletic endeavors.

A token winner is one reason why a trophy is held in high acclaim but the unfortunate aspect is that other eligibles are not acknowledged. For this reason we decided to mention several athletes who rate consideration for the most prestigious award presented that evening—the Vern DeGeer Memorial Trophy.

This trophy is awarded to an individual with Glengarry ties who has made his or her mark on the Canadian sports scene. In recent years, the selection committee has been able to neglect complicated ancestral trees and honored our homebrew Glengarry athletes. This year will be no exception!

Blair MacDonald has just completed an outstanding season, scoring 46 goals for the Edmonton Oilers in their inaugural NHL season. Combined with his offensive talents, Blair is a more than competent defensive forward. That all-round playing ability and his natural leadership quality led to his selection as captain of the team at midseason. Other honors bestowed upon Blair during the 1979-80 season included an All-Star team selection, the President's trophy on his own team, nomination for the Bill Masterson Trophy, but above all in importance to Blair, the Oilers captured a playoff berth.

John Wensink completes the Glengarry content in the NHL playing left flank for the Boston Bruins. John's cruising, bruising style assisted the Bruins in recording a very commendable season record. John's own output was somewhat of a disappointment from the previous year's high scoring performance but rest assured John and the Bruins will return stronger than ever next year.

J. T. Hay was given a plane ticket to Calgary and a Jack Gotta reception last spring by the Ottawa Roughriders. Ottawa management is presently cringing in hindsight. J.T. booted more than 60 per cent of his field goal attempts while Ottawa's Gerry Organ converted some 40 per cent of his kicks. J.T. will soon return to (mini-Glengarry) Calgary and we trust, help the Stamps clinch a Western Conference C.F.L. title.

The above athletes' achievements are no great revelation; we are made aware of them daily during hockey and football season, however several Glengarrians have excelled on the Canadian amateur sports scene but have not been recognized comparably.

Willie McDonald, Brian Benton and Harold McRae are members of a Canadian Broomball Championship team, an honor recently won in Saskatoon. Earlier in the season Willie won an individual M.V.P. award at the Golden Broom Tourney which was also held in Saskatoon.

Several Jr. "A" hockey players headed for Memorial Cup play are natives of Glengarry or have ties within the county. Pat Haramis, formerly from Maxville, is playing for the Cornwall Royals. Pat plays an effective forechecking game along with his linemate Newell Brown of Long Sault. Their play has been a big factor in the Royals' challenge for the Quebec Junior title.

"Sports in the Glens" author, Angus H. McDonell, revealed the Glengarry connection for two other active Jr. "A" players last week. Mike Corrigan is a strapping left winger with the Cornwall franchise while Rick Laferriere is the Peterborough Petes No. 1 goaltender.

We have also recently recognized the efforts of Kelly Kavic from Maxville who had a great rookie season with the Concordia Stingers and Claude Bourck of Lancaster who was honored as an All-American (Canadian) while playing hockey for Canton ATC.

Scott Hay appears destined to become the third Lochiel resident to kick in the C.F.L. Lochiel must without a doubt have the greatest number of kickers per capita. Scott kicked last summer for the Ottawa Sooners, a team which captured the Little Grey Cup.

Carman MacMillan is not an athlete by definition but through his refereeing has made a mark, or better phrased, a contribution to Canadian sport. Last year Carman became a National Soccer referee—one of ten in Canada. That status has resulted in his receiving assignments across the country. In addition, Carman has officiated lacrosse and hockey in the Ontario junior ranks throughout the year.

Maurice Sauve of Alexandria and Tom Bryson of Lancaster are becoming renowned for their canoe expertise, particularly white-water racing. They will compete in provincial competition in mid-May. Tom is also classified as an expert cross-country skier, winning the Chaffey's Lock 14-mile race and placing seventh in the popular 30-mile Montebello race. The Montebello race attracted 250 skiers; the winner of the race was a European which is indicative of the competition.

Anne Jardin of Pointe Claire, Quebec has a Glengarry heredity which won her the Vern DeGeer trophy two years ago. Anne is an Olympic swimmer.

There will only be one name added to that massive wooden base of the Vern DeGeer Memorial Trophy and that's kinda too bad!

Stars capture indoor title

The Glengarry Stars won the senior championship of the fourth annual Cornwall City Indoor Soccer Tournament on the weekend. The Stars prevailed over an international field of 18 teams, tying one game and winning four others, including a 2-0 defeat of Euro-Can, S.C. in the final.

Scoring for the Stars in the three day tourney were Wally Martin and Cameron Ward with two apiece, and Hugh MacGillivray, John McPherson, Herbie Maley, Pierre Theoret and Jim Wert with singles. Andre Chenier provided solid goaltending, recording two shutouts.

Other area senior teams entered were Char-Lan United, who won one game and lost two, Heart of Glengarry, who also had a win and two losses, and Dunvegan S.C., who finished with a tie and two defeats.

Stars also entered their Jr. Club which won two and lost one in round-robin play, for a consolation final berth. The Jrs. fell 2-0 to a Prescott entry in that final match.

Dunvegan Jrs. played four games throughout the tournament, winning one, losing one and tying two others.

Glengarry Stars will travel to Ogdensbury, N.Y. on May 10 for another indoor tournament before the outdoor season opens on May 17.

G.D.H.S. marks sports week

by Evelyn MacMillan

Canadian Sports Week is a time for "Fun and Fitness", a week designated to remind the public that sports activities are alive and well across Canada.

Canadian Sports Week runs from April 27 to May 3, many activities have been planned at GDHS for this period. The activities will take place in the gyms at lunch hour.

Some of the activities planned are: basketball, football and frisbee throwing, hula-hoop and a rope climbing contest.

The emphasis being on participation and fun, the GDHS Athletic Association has arranged for a new event—a tricycle race. Tricycle teams will race in the "Indy 500", where teams of four will hazard an obstacle course complete with protective helmet and pit stops! Time trials late in the week will result in final runs the following week.

Sports week has been an annual event at GDHS for three years now with participation as the main theme. Students are encouraged to come out and join in the fun!

Foot hockey tourney scheduled for weekend

The Alexandria Foot Hockey League will be holding its annual eight-team League Tournament at the Glengarry Sports Palace on Saturday, May 3. The tournament will run from 9:30 till 6 p.m.

The first round schedule is as follows: 9:30, Betty Bread vs IGA; 10:20, Consolidated Textiles vs Alexandria Moulding; 11:20, Borden vs Trottier-Ford; 12, ABS vs Roy's Garage.

An interesting feature of the tournament is the league rule that permits the players to leave the team they played for during the season and play for the team of their choice. Admission will be free for everyone in appreciation for their support during the year.

St. Raphael's leads series 2—1

St. Raphael's Ruins put forth two strong team efforts on Wednesday and Friday to take a two-game lead in the Glengarry News Cup final series before Bainsville Blue Bombers rebounded on Sunday to down the Ruin's squad 7-3 and tighten the best-of-seven series.

SUNDAY, APRIL 27
Bainsville 7, St. Raphael's 2

Smarting from two consecutive setbacks the Bombers came to play Sunday afternoon, taking an early 3-0 lead. Brian Filion, Brian Wensink and Frank St. Pierre netted markers before the mid-point of the first period.

That early lead was shortlived; Kennedy MacDonald came back to score two goals within ten seconds and bring the St. Raphael's team to life.

Rodney Shepherd returned the momentum into Bainsville's favor when he scored a goal in the dying minutes of the first period and gave his club a more comfortable 4-2 lead.

In the middle frame the teams exchanged goals with Shepherd getting his second tally at 14:29 and St. Raphael's Mike Ruest replying shortly after with a 40-foot blast into the net.

Bainsville forwards supplied two insurance markers in the final frame to sew up their first series victory. Yvan Desautels broke out of a scoring slump with a goal and Frank St. Pierre added number seven late in the game.

FRIDAY, APRIL 25
St. Raphael's 6, Bainsville 4

St. Raphael's stormed the Bainsville zone for the first half of the game Friday evening peppering goaltender Marc Gareau with shots. The result was a commanding 4-1 lead.

Jacques Lajoie, Cameron MacLeod, Mike Crack and Leo Seguin each contributed a goal.

Bainsville's Frankie Morris cut the three-goal lead to one by scoring two tallies within six seconds in the latter half of the second period.

Cameron MacLeod's second goal of the game early in the final period retained the Ruin's two goal margin.

Bainsville hinted comeback when Luc Poirier scored at the 5:49 mark but Mort Belmore scored for St. Raphael's with a minute remaining, killing any Bomber's hope.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23
St. Raphael's 5, Bainsville 3

Bainsville led 2-1 after the first period but a determined St. Raphael's crew stormed back in the second period and took a commanding 4-2 lead.

Bob Cuerrier and Brian Reasbeck scored Bainsville's first period goals while St. Raphael's Mort Belmore potted their lone early marker.

The game's score remained 2-1 until 10:16 when Paul Seguin tied the game. This led to a scoring onslaught. Leo Seguin and Mort Belmore added two more tallies within a four-minute span, ending the middle frame with the Ruins atop 4-2.

St. Raphael's added to their lead at 6:22 of the third period when Ewen McCormick scored.

Bob Cuerrier added his second goal of the game late in the third period to bring the Bombers within two goals, 5-3, but too late for a comeback.

Alexandria Figure Skating Club annual "Festival on Ice" saw 160 students perform 16 skillful solo and group performances in front of an appreciative audience at the Glengarry Sports Palace recently.

Motivated by guest skater Campbell Sinclair of the Minto Skating Club in Ottawa, the following skaters gave impressive solo performances: Louise Lanthier, Francine Giroux, Nathalie St. Denis, Lison Lanthier, Andree Gauthier, Nathalie Hebert, Elizabeth MacDonald, Blair Fraser, Manon Brunet, Chantal Roman and Nathalie Raymond.

Mrs. Nicole Nadeau, president of Festival '80 commented on the success of the third annual festival and commended the decorations constructed by Mrs. Carole Doiron and Mrs. Ginette Hebert, as well as the commentators for the day, Mrs. Jacqueline Fraser and Rene Gauthier.

Junior coaches received a flower and souvenir chain in recognition of their work during the year. In addition a bouquet of flowers was presented to the five teachers, Mrs. Noella Acquin, Mrs. Micheline Berard, Miss Rachel Boyer, Miss Manon Cote, Miss Suzanne Sauve and their assistant Miss Manon Brunet.

The club's special guest, Mr. Sinclair, was also presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Trophies, donated by the Alexandria Caisse Populaire, were presented to the most deserving student in each category. Honored skaters were: Miss Julie Samson, novice category; Miss Natalie Ranger, junior category and Miss Nienke Hoedeman, intermediate category.

The Figure Skating Club will hold its annual meeting towards the end of May.

Gael's gymnasts second in EOSSA

Gaels girl's gymnastic team travelled to Queen's University in Kingston recently and placed second in the 14 team EOSSA high school meet.

Beyond the outstanding team performance, two individuals, Diane Claude and Ginette Poirier placed high enough to qualify for OFSAA competition in Hamilton this upcoming weekend. Diane placed third overall in the senior girls category and Ginette placed second on the uneven bars also in the senior girl's category.

The GDHS team qualified for the EOSSA meet by winning the SD&G meet in March held in Alexandria.

GDHS track and field team will attend their first meet of a new season on Thursday. The team will be travelling to Seaway High School in Iroquois for a relay meet.

St. Isidore O.D.H.A. Champs

St. Isidore Eagles captured the ODHA Jr. "B" title on Sunday afternoon in Kemptville with a 4-3 overtime victory over the Spencerville Bruins. The victory gave Eagles the best-of-seven series four games to one.

On Friday evening St. Isidore blanked Spencerville 4-0 on home ice for their third win in the series.

It is the third consecutive season a North East representative has captured the ODHA championship.

Focus

By Anne McRae

Recently I was embroiled in a heated discussion with a British woman who had lived in England, South Africa and Canada for long periods of time and who, after assessing each country, said that South Africa will be the country where she will settle.

"South Africa," I said. "But how can you tolerate their policy of apartheid?"

"What apartheid?" she flashed back.

"What apartheid?" I said. "Didn't you see the segregation of black and whites there? Didn't you see the separate buses, toilets and restaurants?" I questioned somewhat fiercely.

"And what," said she, "do you do with your Canadian Indians here in Canada? Where are they?"

I felt, at that moment, as though I'd been hit with a bucket of cold water.

"They're on reservations," I said.

"Ah, you Canadians! You're all so bloody smug. In this country you have one of the most effective systems of apartheid I've ever seen."

After more discussion, this woman and I parted friends, but I will never forget her description of Canadians. Smug.

Now I don't like to be described that way. I decided to do some research on the status of Canadian Indians in our big and beautiful country.

Here:

Canada's Native Peoples
Some Vital Statistics
(Statistics Canada)

1) Rate of Infant Mortality: (deaths per 1,000 live births) Native People 49% All Canadians 19%.

2) Life Expectancy at Birth:

	Male	Female
Canadian Indian	61 yrs.	65 yrs.
Canadian Inuit	50.5 yrs.
All Canadians	69 yrs.	75 yrs.

3) Suicide Rate per 100,000 population
Canadian Indian 20
All Canadians 10

4) Students completing high school
Indian 6%
Non-Indian 88%

5) Unemployment rate:
Indian 50%
Non-Indian 6% (1974 figure)

6) Families with incomes of less than $2,263/yr.
Indian 54%
Non-Indian 20%

This is what it's like to be part of Canada's native peoples.

The facts are available. Over half the Indians of Canada are jobless year after year. Thousands upon thousands of native people live in housing which would be condemned in any advanced society on the globe. That means: no inside plumbing, no running water, no electricity. This is the way it is, not in Asia or Africa, but here in Canada.

Take a Sunday drive to the nearest reserve and find out the realities in the lives of a people who are invisible to most of us. And they really are invisible.

Perhaps they're going to become even more invisible as times get tougher. When one is out of a job and feeling the crunch, one often does not wish to hear, read, see or care that others, who live nearby, are worse off. When one is fighting for one's own rights, it is too easy to ignore those of others. Perhaps we do not like, as the British lady told me, to admit that we have segregation here in Canada, from sea to shining sea.

Those attitudes are disgusting.

Just about as disgusting as this example of correspondence between an Indian agent and the Ministry of Education re one Clifford Tobias, a well-educated Indian who applied for a teaching position in a reserve school. The Indian agent wrote, " . . . I would not advise putting any Indian in charge of an Indian school. These children require to have the 'Indian' educated out of them, which only a white teacher can do . . . An Indian is always and only an Indian . . ."

Next time you think of Canada, remember that what you've just read is a part of Canada too. Next time you read about the plight of native peoples in other countries, remember the plight of our people in Canada. Next time you talk to someone about Canada, don't be smug.

Area woman takes short story prize

Bic the Bull, a story written by Anne Fergusson of Highway 43, won first prize for Best Short Story in the New Writer's Cross-Canada Workshop.

This is a nationwide correspondence workshop for writers and this was the first of its competitions.

Anne Fergusson was born and educated in Montreal. She and her husband moved to Alexandria in 1970, where they lived for three years, before opening their antique shop on Highway 43.

Mrs. Ferguson began writing while still in Alexandria. In 1978 she joined The New Writers' Cross-Canada Workshop. This group gave her the stimulus of new contacts. She was greatly helped by the friendly criticism and encouragement available to all members.

Anne Fergusson's work has appeared in Ontario Showcase, The Canadiantiquer, and the Cornwall Standard Freeholder.

Daughters are busy with good deeds

by Hilda Brunet

Our last meeting was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. The turnout of the members was excellent. The sick were paid 263 visits and 333 hours of benevolent work were registered.

The Community Nursing Home was visited and on April 5, 70 small Easter baskets filled with chocolate goodies were donated. The activity was organized by Judy and Isabelle Seguin.

Twenty-five families received clothes this month and many cards of prompt recovery were sent to the sick.

The Blood Donor Clinic was a success with 187 units being received for the area. Thank you for the gift of life.

Edna Lalonde was present at the meeting to make a demonstration of Lady Finnell beauty products.

On May 1, all the Daughters of Isabella are invited to meet at 7:30 p.m. for a half-hour of prayer before Holy Mass at Green Valley Church.

The door prize was won by Therese Valade.

The next meeting will be on May 21 at the K.C. Hall.

Salem UCW plans second 'Big Event'

Due to the tremendous success of last year's "Big Event" a special meeting of Salem UCW was held recently to initiate plans for a second one.

The show and sale will be held in the church hall in Summerstown on Nov. 1.

The UCW will have several tables including homebaking, plants, bazaar items, books and a variety table. They will also be busy at the lunch counter.

Dealers and crafts people will again be showing and selling antiques, collectibles, glassware, crafts and numerous other articles. It is hoped that there will be something of interest to everyone.

There will be no admission charge to come and browse.

Mrs. Lorna MacLean and Mrs. Betty Linnett have agreed to convene the event.

Ladies of the UCW, neighbors and friends are asked to keep this date in mind.

HOW ABOUT THIS ONE, MOM?—Young Sean McCormick, 4, son of Emmett and Barbara McCormick of Alexandria, is interested in doing his own spring cleaning this year. He found what he wanted at an auction sale on Lochiel Road last Saturday but his parents quickly took him home before he could bid on it. (Staff Photo—A. McRae)

Home seeks volunteers

The ladies of St. Andrew's United Church Women, Second Concession, Bainsville, entertained members of Salem, Summerstown and Knox, Lancaster, at an evening meeting in the church.

The president, Mrs. Calvin Carr, opened the meeting with the poem "Unaware we Pass Him By." The worship service was in charge of Mrs. Robt. Black which followed the Easter theme. A letter was read from the president of the Volunteer Auxiliary of Chateau Gardens Nursing Home in Lancaster asking us for entertainment and volunteer workers. Several of our members were ill at meeting time and they were remembered by a card.

Malcolm Robertson has made a bookcase for the Sunday School books, which will be most useful, and he was given a hearty vote of thanks by the members.

Mrs. Merle Haverstock showed her slides and commented on the Holy Land. This proved very fruitful and entertaining.

At the close of the evening lunch was served by Mrs. George Snider, Mrs. D. Cameron and Mrs. R. Robinson.

Caring is theme of WMS

by Mrs. H. McMillan

The WMS of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Martintown met at the home of Mrs. Harvey McMillan for the Easter Thankoffering meeting. Miss Emily MacInnes opened the meeting with an Easter poem.

Mrs. D. R. Christie was convener for the worship service. Readings by members revealed that Christians must care because Christ cared supremely. Caring costs comfort, security and sacrifice but the price is far greater for not caring. People hear the caring words of Christ's gospel and wait for the caring deeds of His followers.

Among interesting answers to the roll call were a prayer written by Dorothy Dumbrille and Easter celebrations in Greece in which Miss MacInnes participated.

Members reported cards and visits to sick and shut-ins, 36 of each.

Plans for attending the Synodical in Vankleek Hill, April 16 and 17, and participating in the bake sale for the Cancer Fund May 15 and 16, at St. John's Presbyterian Church, Cornwall, were discussed.

BENEFIT DANCE

Saturday, May 3 is the date for the Maloney Fire Benefit Dance at St. Mary's Centre. "Irish Acres" lost their barn and some stock recently in a fire.

GOOD BUSINESS RELATIONS

Humanitarianism still exists in big business. Last week when Loblaws was out of lunch bags, the manager gave me a handful of his small shopping bags to tide me over.

BIG PRIZE

The story out of Ottawa is that Peterborough Petes will play off against Cornwall Royals and the winner gets Parks Canada.

DEADLINE

Unfortunately, St. William's parish bazaar news came too late for inclusion in last week's column. Thursday night of the week before is my deadline.

ON THE LIFT

Mrs. Clint Murray, Glen Falloch, is in hospital in Cornwall. Sally Buchan is nursing a bad back. Get well, soon.

SKI HOLIDAY

Martin Van Rooi on holidays from his pipeline and farm jobs. This young Glen Falloch man is skiing out in Alberta.

SCHOOLS OPEN

Country schools stay open. Congratulations to all those who worked so hard on this project. A pity actually, when it is something we should have had without any of this complaining, lobbying and brief presenting. Now to keep them open.

And, in an age of rapid travel, some students spend one-and-a-half hours getting home from school.

Good to see so many Martintown area students on the Char-Lan honor roll.

ANSWER NEXT WEEK

"Well," Doug Murray told us, "the old bulk tank is disconnected and the new one has to be hooked up and ready by milking time tonight." However, there was no sign of the new tank anywhere in the barn yard. Did it happen? Did the new tank arrive in time? I leave you in suspense dear reader, to conjecture as to whether the milk went into the new tank or down the streets of Glen Falloch.

THE RICH UNCLE VISITS

A Glengarrian was telling me that I should warn everyone "Never let your wealthy relatives visit." Apparently, his rich uncle wrote to inform the family of an impending visit and his wife decided on a spring cleanup and a cellar to attic renovation. This Glengarrian was chained to a paint brush for ten days. He had to plaster holes in the walls until he was white in the face, hands and hair. He had to put seven years of ceiling, door and floor trim back after all those temporary repairs and alterations of years gone by.

According to his story and I have no reason to doubt his word, on a day when his wife was away at a women's meeting, he decided to stop for dinner. So frenzied was his pace by this time that for dessert before he realized it he had eaten two servings of basswood and finishing nail pudding topped with high gloss white enamel.

Jack Howells told me that the same thing happened to him.

GOOD SUPPER

The Martintown St. Andrew's United Women served such a marvellous spring supper that I could easily get into the habit of eating at church every Friday night.

LEFT AREA

Last week John Johnston, Computer teacher at St. Lawrence College, left for Fredericton and a position with the New Brunswick government. John has deep roots in the farming community of Stormont and Glengarry and thus a rousing goodbye party was held by some of his friends.

Some fellows are just returning now. Early morning bicycle riding was partly the cause—all the way from Riviere Beaudette? One fellow may become a butcher after the way his wife is giving him hot tongue and cold shoulder. Bon voyage, John and family.

DIFFERENT MEANING

She was once called "dear"—now she is called "expensive."

Crusader News

by Happy Howells

The Student Council members have been working hard for the students all year and have made a substantial progress. They started off the year with a large debt from the last two year's yearbooks, plus the 1980 yearbook and other small bills that came in. But with a massive effort by the council and the support of the students in general, four thousand dollars was paid off! But there is still more, and with the help of the students again, as they had in the Chocolate Bar Drive and the dances, they can cover these debts.

SOLD BARS

Speaking of fund raising, the Chocolate Bar Drive was a huge success thanks to your co-operation and support. There are still chocolate bars that can be purchased in Room 5. There may be a Bike-A-Thon in the near future, so you better give your bike that spring check-up!

CRAYONS TO RETURN

"The Crayons" are coming back! The fantastic new wave band that played here for an enthusiastic crowd in January will be back on April 18. So everyone should go and have a good time because they are a great band, and this may be the last dance of the year.

TO GREET THE SPRING

"Spirit Week" will also be coming soon with lots of games and activities. So everyone get ready to enjoy an excellent spring at Char-Lan.

BAND EXCHANGE

The Char-Lan Senior Band has just completed the first half of its band exchange with St. John's College from Brantford. It was a busy but enjoyable experience. The band arrived on Thursday afternoon; that night there was a rehearsal for the Spring Concert on Friday night. Friday night the Spring Concert featured the band from St. John's, the choir, and our junior and senior bands. The highlight of the evening was the performance of a couple of numbers by the combining bands of about 75 to 80 musicians.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

On Tuesday, April 29, the Char-Lan senior band will be competing in the Kinsmen Music Festival in Cornwall. The choir will be competing in that festival as well and will also travel to Ottawa to compete in the festival there. I wish the best of luck to both the choir and band.

On Thursday, May 1, our track and field team will be competing in a Relay Meet at Seaway District High School.

Veterinary Club is formed

by Mary McCrimmon

One of the largest clubs of the Glengarry 4-H program met during the March break and installed the following list of officers for the 1980 club: President Doreen Peters, Vice-President Duncan MacPherson, Secretary Sandra MacLeod and News Reporter Mary McCrimmon.

On Thursday, April 3, the first regular club meeting was held at the OMAF boardroom under the leadership of Dr. Valerie Harrison of Vankleek Hill. Two common sicknesses, mastitis and milk fever, that frequently appear in dairy herds this time of year were discussed. Dr. Harrison drew the make-up of the cow's udder and explained the function of the various membranes, lobes and lobules, alveoli, the duct system and the mammary gland. She explained that it is the decrease of the calcium level in the cow that causes her to fall with milk fever.

A film was shown concerning the care and prevention of mastitis in your dairy herds. Notes will be given at the next meeting to help the members remember their lessons easier. Members next meeting is Thursday, May 1, at the boardroom and they must answer the roll call with an idea for a club project.

The first barn meeting was held on Monday, April 7 at Clifford McNaughton's. Jean-Denis Methot presented a film on mastitis. Later on we discussed feeding the dairy cow and we judged cattle.

The next meeting will be held on May 5.

TOGETHER IN EDUCATION

The week of May 4-10 has been designated as Education Week in Ontario with "Together in Education" as the theme. The theme is a most appropriate one as it illustrates one of our basic premises; that the school and the community are very much interdependent one on the other.

During this special week we intend to promote this important link by having our students become more aware of the role of various individuals and institutions in our community and by giving the community the opportunity to observe the activities of our school.

Local industries and organizations which will send representatives to address our students include CIP Foods, the Bank of Nova Scotia, Glengarry Transport Limited, the Ministry of Agriculture and our Town Council. Max Keeping from CJOH television will be with us on Thursday, May 8.

The highlight of Education Week will be on Friday when parents and friends join us for mass at St. Finnan's Cathedral followed by refreshments and Open House. We feel sure that the theme "Together in Education" will become a reality at the Alexander School during Education Week 1980.

Ontario Youth Employment Program

This year the program takes place for 25 weeks between May 5 and October 26. The program is to encourage business people and farmers to hire young people 15-24 years of age in order to provide summer employment.

If you hire a young person under this program you are eligible for a grant of $1.25 per hour up to a maximum of $50.00 per week towards the salary of each eligible youth hired. This person must be hired for an average of 25 hours of supervised employment per week for at least 6 weeks.

In order to provide more young people and more employers with the benefits of this special program, the jobs must be new. This means that the position created must be in addition to regular and seasonal employment normally provided during the program period.

Information and applications are available by writing to the Ministry of Intergovernmental Affair, Subsidies Branch, Queen's Park, Toronto, M7A-2R8 or calling 1-800-268-7592 which is a toll-free number.

The deadline for applications is July 2, 1980. Since grant funds are limited make sure to submit your application as soon as possible.

DRAINAGE SURVEYS TO BE DONE

Warren Wilson. from St. Mary's, has been hired as the Engineer's Assistant for the summer months. Warren will be doing the drainage surveying requested by the farmers in the County. If you wish to have a survey done this summer and have not left your name with our office please do so as soon as possible.

Jean Paul Leclair, Fieldman for the Ontario Milk Marketing Board, will be in our office for office visits on Thursday, May 15, 1-5 p.m. The Fieldman will be in our office the afternoon of every third Thursday of each month. Mark May 15 on your calendar if you wish to see Mr. Leclair this month.

4-H program underway

BY JEAN—DENIS METHOT

The 4-H Program is now well underway for another season. We have a total of 107 members enrolled in 133 projects. This is up slightly from last year when we had 103 members enrolled in 129 projects. Now, we are counting on a high completion rate.

The members are planning ahead for their individual project completions, their Club Display to be completed and presented at Judging Day in July, a club trip and, of course, their Achievement Days.

Each club elected one member as a news reporter. His or her role is to inform the public regarding the achievements of the club. The goal of the Glengarry 4-H organization for 1980 is to keep everyone aware of the numerous activities at the local, regional, provincial and national levels. Therefore, we have high expectations for our news reporters. To help ease the pressure for them, they will be attending a special meeting on May 9 when Mrs. MacDonald, editor of the Glengarry News, will give them some hints on how to be a successful and effective news reporter.

Two members are doing Junior Leadership Projects this year. They are Anne Van Loon with the Charlottenburgh 4-H Junior Calf Club and Sandra MacLeod with the Lochiel 4-H Junior Calf Club. And, this year we have 16 very capable leaders handling our 12 Glengarry Agricultural Clubs.

Mary McCrimmon, a senior 4-H member, is representing Glengarry as an applicant for a Summer Work Exchange Program involving one 4-H member from each province in Canada. This exchange basically "twins" 4-H'ers so that they can do each other's chores and still gain a great deal of experience by living in another province for a month.

This year, Ontario and Quebec will be exchanging delegates during the month of July. Of all the Ontario applicants, four have been selected to go to Toronto on May 5 to determine who will represent Ontario. We are pleased to announce that Mary McCrimmon was one of the four applicants chosen to attend the interview in Toronto. We wish Mary the "Best of Luck".

Mark your calendars—The Kenyon-Lochiel Junior Farmers' Annual Spring Dance will be held on Friday, May 9 at the Bonnie Glen Pavilion. See you there!

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Beware Glengarry barbarians

Parent leader Karen Dicaire has appropriately labelled the board's performance on the GDHS issue "a comedy in three acts".

The final scenario, it seems, is to be meticulously acted out May 21 when the long awaited information meeting with all the trustees is held.

Those who had hoped for a free exchange of ideas with their elected representatives have been disappointed, however. Board officials have carefully written the script. There will be no question and answer period.

How can you have an information meeting without questions and answers, you ask? Here is the board format: The board will give a monologue at the beginning of the meeting outlining its position. Members of the public—if they have given prior notice—will be allowed to present briefs.

In other words, we will talk at each other, not with each other. We asked for dialogue and they give us monologues.

We asked for an information meeting, not a royal commission.

Mrs. Dicaire, who is a woman of few, but well-chosen, words again echoed the community's feelings when she asked rhetorically, why are the trustees "afraid of questions".

Indeed, why are they?

According to board Chairman Sandra Enns, board officials do not want a "free-for-all". They do not want to "create a forum for a mob atmosphere".

We don't know what kind of report Director of Education Rosaire Leger made to Mrs. Enns following our last public meeting—attended by 1,000 ratepayers—but we fail to see any justification for implying that Glengarrians behave like a bunch of barbarians at public meetings.

There was lively debate, to be sure, but that is part of the democratic process. The meeting was well supervised and at no time did it get out of hand.

It seems the board hierarchy is doing everything in its power to avoid direct dialogue between the people and their elected representatives. In no way are we to be allowed to partake in a creative question and answer exchange.

What we cannot fathom is why our trustees are so terrified at the prospect of talking with us now. They didn't mind talking to us before the last election. At that time we were "my fellow constituents", or "my dear neighbors" or "my beloved friends". One minute after the ballots are counted, we become "the mob".

There is more to being a public servant that getting elected. It is imperative that elected officials maintain a close relationship with their constituents between elections.

We hope the decision not to have a question and answer period is only the views of a few top officials and that the rest of the trustees will uphold the public's right to information by overruling the chairman and director.

We would be very sad, indeed, if we thought all trustees had such a low opinion of Glengarry manners.

We want our money's worth

People get the government they deserve, so the saying goes.

After six months of change, it appears we are back to the same old game. Hot on the heels of a mini-budget stolen from the Conservatives, we get the auditor general's report noting that clerical workers in 10 departments are only working at about 60 per cent efficiency.

Some things, it seems, never change.

Many people had grave doubts about the ability of the Conservative Party to govern this country, but there is little indication that a short stay in the Opposition benches has refreshed the Liberals.

In a move rivalling the old wage and price controls policy, the Liberals have done another about face and adopted the major items in the defeated Tory budget—the budget the Liberals said was no good.

Many citizens must be wondering whether it's worth voting at all in elections.

What is more frustrating, however, is yet another auditor-general's report telling us, in essence, that the public is being hopelessly ripped-off.

The annual reports never change. Every one contains a litany of spending abuses and a warning that the civil service is not under control.

Why is nothing ever done about it?

This year, the auditor general listed the following horror stories (among others):

—Clerical work now being done by 50,000 workers could be done as easily by 38,000.

—The Canadian International Development Agency spent $1.4 million on a boat that was never delivered to its Columbian destination. The government is now trying to sell the vessel.

—"Co-operants" CIDA sends abroad to work on aid projects, were often sent before CIDA and the recipient country had agreed on what the co-operant was to do.

The list goes on and on.

If the Conservatives did nothing else, they made a commitment to attacking this kind of waste. Sinclair Steven's civil service cuts were well under way when the government fell.

The auditor-general's report has merely confirmed what the Conservatives had been saying all along. We are top heavy in the civil service.

We leave you with Auditor General J.J. Macdonell's final plea on behalf of Canadian taxpayers:

"If the government's policy is to ensure that employees receive a fair day's wage, should it not also be a policy . . . to ensure that . . . the taxpayers . . . receive a fair day's work in exchange?"

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

The economic situation being what it is, more frequently we hear the common expression "There is going to be another depression".

This doesn't mean much to the kids who have no idea what the "depression" was. Each one who went through it would have a different description.

It was a "moneyless" time. When we say there wasn't enough money in the house to buy a stamp which at that time was less than five cents, many will remember.

But there were compensations, especially for us kids around the farm. Springtime in particular. That was the time of year we "set the hens".

The eggs were selected very carefully from the baskets of eggs we gathered from the nest and each hen was given about a dozen to hatch. This meant one particular hen who had indicated through her disposition that she was ready to sit on a nest and with her body heat, keep the eggs warm enough that after 21 days the chickens would be formed inside the egg and be strong enough to pick open the shell with their little sharp beaks.

There were all kinds of special corners in a barn in those days for hatching. Quiet spots where the mother hen would not be distracted from her drowsy occupation. There was always water left near by and special trips to feed the mothers near the nest so the eggs would not be left uncovered for too long.

And it was accepted that Mother Hen was not going to be in very good humor. "Cross as a hatching-hen" was a common farm term. There were no psychiatrists around to explain why Mother Hen was so cross, it was just a fact of life that when the incubation period was over, her good nature would return, providing she was not deprived of her chicks.

Certain fathers, Paw for instance, could tell you that type of disposition applied to more than hens during the "hatching" period.

As a matter of fact I can remember times during pregnancy when I thought it would have been very enticing to go sit in a quiet corner away from everybody and just "hatch" for a while. But enough digression.

It was quite exciting for us kids to watch the hens, from a distance, until we started to hear the first little "peep-peep" of the baby chicks and see how many each hen would have in her brood.

Then in no time at all Mother would emerge, her little flock in tow and she would lead them outside into the barnyard and teach them to "scratch for themselves", to pick up food that was thrown to them and experiment with all the food in the soil.

And no matter how we kids searched, there would always be one Mother Hen who had cached away a setting of eggs of her own, one at a time of course and she would strut forth one day out of nowhere, with her family intact.

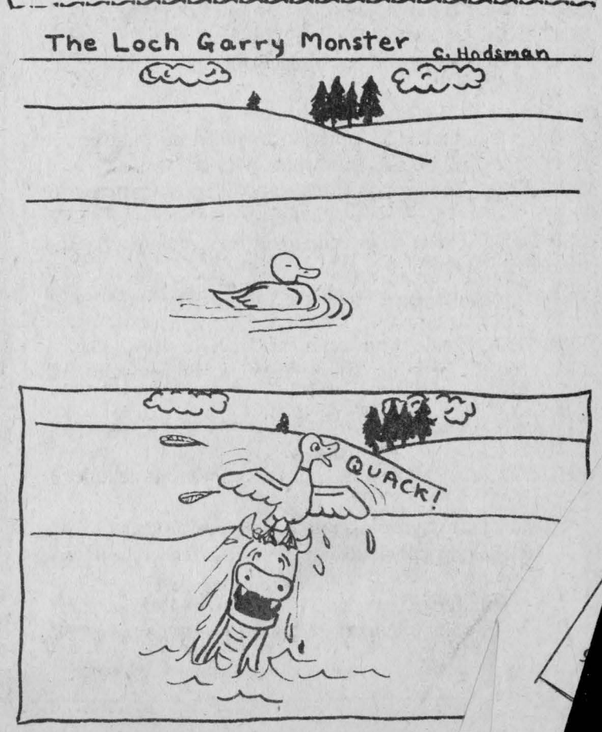
Hens are not known for their facial expressions but these particular mothers had a special dignity about them that was quite outstanding; their superiority was marked by their threats that it was not advisable to come close.

What cuddly little pets the baby chicks were! We even got to develop our own talents from nursing in babying the weaker ones, taking them into the house in shoe-boxes to keep them warm and well fed until they were strong enough not to be trampled underfoot when they returned to the flock.

Some of them got to be such special pets it was hard to part with them when the time came to sell them. But they had to go, that was understood from the day they hatched.

We didn't have many stuffed animals then like most kids have to-day. We had them already stuffed and alive.

Like I said, those were money-less days. But they had a lot of things money couldn't buy.



Perspective

by Bob Roth

People power victory

It seemed like an impossible task only a few weeks ago, but persistent parents have succeeded in reversing an SD&G County Board of Education decision to close three schools which local ratepayers desperately wanted kept open.

The board originally voted 10-1 to close the schools. The final decision last week was 6-5 to keep them open.

Those spared from the padlock are Maxville Senior, John Sandfield Macdonald and Roxborough Township schools.

The only school to close next year is Stampville, but parents there have indicated they are not displeased with the board's decision.

The parents succeeded because their grass roots campaign contained three essential ingredients—leadership, persistence and documented evidence.

When told they could not present their case until a given date—conveniently set after the board set its budget—the parents refused to be side-stepped so easily. They organized and kept up their information program right to the end.

At two board meetings prior to their hearing, about 60 parents turned up with placards to silently demonstrate their opposition.

Delaying tactics are often employed by government bureaucracies in an attempt to wear the opposition down. The parents, however, skillfully avoided this pitfall. Instead of passively sitting down and waiting for their hearing, the parents used this valuable time to expand their base of support and further publicize the issue through the media.

In this way, not only did they undermine the board's delaying tactics, they actually turned the tables around and increased the heat on the board.

When the hearing did take place, it was well done. Influential people such as Cornwall Township Reeve John Cleary and United Counties Warden George Crites were on hand to support the parents and planning consultant Larry Cotton was there with statistics to back everyone up.

Mr. Cotton, who was formerly the United Counties planner, noted that rural development is on the upswing as city housing costs rise.

The importance of schools to the vitality of small communities was also pointed out to the board.

Trustees who changed their votes also deserve credit for their courage. It takes great moral strength to make a public admission of error.

The trustees should not be held totally to blame for their original decision. They relied on information supplied by the staff, which was vigorous in its desire to close the schools.

What we have all received is a valuable lesson in why public input is essential. Thanks to the research done by the parents, trustees were provided with better information on which to base their decision.

All in all, the entire affair was a masterful feat of grass roots action. The organizers as well as the trustees are to be commended.

Independence or inter-dependence

Trenton, Ontario

The editor;
The Glengarry News:

As a former Glengarrian, but one who still fondly considers Glengarry home, I have been following with considerable interest the GDHS problem. I have hesitated up to now to write, living at a distance and not directly involved. However, the view from a distance often gives a better clearer perspective, an outlook not clouded by pressures, anxieties and often unfortunately prejudices. A letter from two former Glengarry district high school students not now living in Glengarry has encouraged me to write.

First I must compliment the students and the student council, those most intimately and personally involved, and whose lives will be most affected. They have shown I feel, clear thinking, courage and honesty, sometimes not seen in those more mature members of the community. Glengarry can be re-assured if the future and destiny of the county is to be in the hands of such young people as they take their place in the life of the community.

Secondly, I would like to recount an experience our family had at the Confederation Centre, Charlottetown, PEI, one summer. It parallels the present GDHS, problem I feel and may even have a common origin. At the Confederation Centre tours of the complex are conducted. Tickets are purchased and then the ticket holders are assigned either to a French speaking or an English speaking group.

There were two or three families who spoke English only at the time I am referring to and there was a most pleasant lady with her family who was bilingual. Her basic tongue was French but she spoke English as fluently as I did. If this lady and her family joined the group and she indicated that she would not only be willing but would like to go as a group with the English-speaking families, then there would be a sufficient number for the tour.

However, she was informed and the rest of us, that this was not permitted and that she had to go along with a French-speaking group and we would go along with an English-speaking group. And so it was. It is almost unthinkable that this should occur in the historic shrine that commemorates the uniting of the provinces, the birth of Canada.

One of the senior statesmen in Europe at the time of Confederation over a century ago commented that peoples and nations should not be working towards independence but rather inter-dependence. Despite an ever shrinking world with the urgent necessity for clear and open communication and mutual understanding there still are forces attempting to divide and separate. How out of date and out of tune with the times and with reality!

Sincerely,

W.A.L. McDonald

Wants support for marketing yard

Prescott County,
April 28, 1980

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

It is difficult to understand why a county association would choose an option which will disadvantage its members and reject one which would be helpful to them.

The second phase of a public hearing in Cornwall on April 16 and 17 revealed the mysterious manipulations of a few political adventurers who, disguised as defenders of the Glengarry Pork Producers, had created an artificial crisis on the marketing yard issue designed to cover up the Board's intentions to deprive their county of marketing facilities.

Never before had their action been exposed with such clarity and, in a display charged with emotion and aggressiveness, clearly indicating that the threshold of intolerance had been reached, the hearings exposed the manipulations of these politically oriented persons whose first preoccupation had been their image and the essential of their strategy to rally around them the greatest number of "well impressed" partisans. The spectacle was sad and distressing.

We, on the other hand, have a lucid vision of our mission and of the risks of our compromise and, whilst we deplore all these unnecessary political interventions, we realize that the implantation of two small marketing facilities, one in Glengarry and one in Prescott, will complete an overall plan to transform our area into a major pole of production for the pork industry.

Our enterprise will also generate an atmosphere of optimism and revitalize our industry as it emerges from the present economic slump.

We urge all well-thinking pork producers to support us as we are nearing fulfillment of our desire for suitable marketing facilities in Glengarry and also in Prescott County.

Letters policy

The News prints letters to the editor providing they are not libelous and carry the signatures, addresses and phone numbers of the writers. This is necessary to ensure letters are authentic. Pen names are not permitted. Letters must be no more than two typewritten pages, double-spaced or the equivalent in handwriting. Letters over this length will be cut.

White line—black line?

R.R.2 Williamstown, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

In his letter of April 12, B.L. Furkle of Lochiel Township proposed an admirable plan to assist after-dark drivers of gravel roads. He suggested that white lines be painted down the middle of gravel roads. Unfortunately, he did not go far enough.

I'm sure many of your readers have been in the very challenging situation of driving down one of those same gravel roads in the middle of a winter blizzard, the blowing snow causing a white-out that would surely make a penguin feel at home.

I therefore suggest that a black line be painted down the middle of those same gravel roads, to assist all drivers (those of legal drinking age) on their way home.

I was tempted to suggest that all our roads and highways be made into one-way roads, eastbound and northbound on odd numbered hours, but I soon realized that this was an impractical idea, as there would be some confusion changing from hour to hour. In addition, not all cars are equipped with clocks of sufficient accuracy.

Informed input from concerned citizens is sure to make our roads safer and saner places.

Sincerely,

Nick MacDonald-Wolochatiuk

Who is the mob?

RR2 Alexandria, Ont.
April 24, 1980

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

I take exception to the statement of Mrs. Sandra Enns, as reported on Page one of The Glengarry News issue of April 23, wherein she has stated that the SD&G School Board was not providing a forum for a mob atmosphere and is trying to avoid a free-for-all at the upcoming meeting of the School Board o.. May 21.

A statement like that casts a very serious and uncalled for slur on the decency and good manners of the people of Glengarry, regardless of their race or creed or their personal feelings on the issues to be discussed. How about a public apology, Mrs. Enns?

Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Board of Education

Clarifies its Position in Regard to Programs and Organization at Glengarry District High School

The Board of Education has scheduled a Special Meeting at Glengarry District High School on May 21, 1980. This meeting is in response to a signed petition or request. It is hoped that clarification will be provided in response to briefs to be received at that time regarding both program and organization at Glengarry District High School.

However, some concerns are being raised within the community over statements attributed to Vincent Caron of the Ministry of Education in the April 16th edition of The Glengarry News. Mr. Caron saw fit to comment on possible or probable organizational changes at Glengarry District High School.

The Board of Education takes strong exception to the comments made by Mr. Caron and in fact wishes to state its position.

The facts of the matter are as follows:

1) It must be emphasized that the Board of Education's position in regard to instruction at Glengarry District High School remains unchanged. Despite Mr. Caron's statements, the Board of Education will continue with the current programs at Glengarry District High School whether it receives special funding or not.

2) The Board of Education has applied for funds for renovations at Glengarry District High School. These funds are made available by the Government of Ontario to schools where programs are offered in French and in English and where such schools are more than 20 miles from any other French language school. In this regard Glengarry District High School qualifies to make application. This has been done.

3) The application for these funds and the receipt of these funds if such are granted will in no way mean that the Board of Education will change its organization or its programs for Glengarry District High School.

It is emphasized for the benefit of the community and for the benefit of students that any student at Glengarry District High School may follow either all his courses in English, or all his courses in French, or some courses in English and some courses in French, as he chooses.

Your attention is particularly drawn to the following letter issued by the Assistant Deputy Minister of Education, Province of Ontario, which letter clarifies Ministry policy and endorses the position of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Board of Education in regard to programming at Glengarry District High School.

Sandra Enns,
Chairman of the Board

T. R. Leger,
Secretary of the Board

April 22, 1980

Mr. T. R. Leger
Director of Education
Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry
County Board of Education
902 Second Street West
Cornwall, Ontario
K6H 5S6

Dear Mr. Leger:

Subsequent to our April 18, 1980 meeting, I have had an opportunity to discuss with Mr. Caron, Mr. Doyle and Mr. Comtois, not only the present organizational structure of Glengarry District High School, but also the question of whether or not that organizational structure falls within the intent of the Minister's policy statement of October 5, 1979 with respect to French Language Education in Ontario.

Given that the French language school situations vary considerably across the province, a fundamental concern of the Ministry in the development of this policy has been to avoid imposing in each and every case a rigid and uniform pattern. Flexibility, therefore, is an essential element in the application of our policy.

It is the belief of this Ministry that the establishment of French language homogeneous entities is an effective way of providing an environment conducive to preserving linguistic and cultural identity. However, local conditions and concerns may indicate alternative arrangements.

The Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Board has done a great deal to meet the expectations of its French-speaking community. The decision to appoint principals with specific responsibilities regarding English and French programs and institute appropriate staffing mechanisms predates the Minister's October 5 statement and is obviously in support of its principal objective. The 1980/81 organizational structure for Glengarry District High School appears to be such that the Board is now eligible to make application for additional funding.

I understand that an effective liaison relationship with the Eastern Ontario Regional Office has been established. If you feel that it would be helpful to have further clarification with respect to the Ministry policy, Mr. Doyle and Mr. Comtois are prepared to participate in whatever follow-up activities may be required.

Yours sincerely,
G. R. Podrebarac,
Assistant Deputy Minister
Education Programs

Win honors for 4-H'ers

by Mary Michels

The Achievement Day program for the current 4-H Homemaking project was held on Thursday evening, April 17 at the Glengarry District High School, Alexandria.

The theme of this project was macrame, with a little bit of interior decorating included as well. The members looked at how they could improve their personal living space, namely their bedroom. As part of the requirements, the members had to complete two macrame articles.

A wide variety of articles including plant hangers, owls, lampshades, and wall hangings were on display for the audience to see. It is hoped that the audience were able to get some inspiring ideas for their own future macrame projects.

The program consisted of two segments. One important area was the presentation of awards. The Canadian Council on 4-H clubs award leadership certificates to leaders who have led five, ten and fifteen years. These awards go to very deserving leaders, since they give voluntarily of their time. The recipient of a five year certificate was Mrs. Mary Alguire. Congratulations are extended to Mary for her years of hard work and devotion to the 4-H program.

Provincial Honor Certificates and Pins were awarded to two members for having completed twelve projects. These members were Carol-Ann Larocque, from Lochiel, and Margaret MacPherson, from Martintown.

County Honor Certificates and Pins were presented to eight Glengarry girls. The following members successfully completed six 4-H Homemaking Clubs—Heather MacGillivray, from Kirk Hill; Karen Cameron, from Lochiel; Margaret Fox, from Martintown; Frances Oeggerli and Lise Quesnel, both from Picnic Grove; and Tracey Ager, Kim McRae, and Lori Preston, all from the Bainsville Club. Congratulations are extended to all these winners. We trust many of them will continue on in their 4-H work and participation.

The second part of the evening program was the presentation of skits and exhibits by the 11 clubs involved in the project. The entire program was chaired by Miss Bea DeHaas, from the Martintown Club. She welcomed everyone to the evening, and introduced the various skits and exhibits.

Five skits were presented. Kirk Hill presented the topic "Redecorating"; the topic "It's in Here somewhere" was given by Apple Hill #2; Maxville performed "Let's Get the Hang of It"; "All Tied up in Knots" was the theme of the Bainsville presentation, and the final skit was presented by Alexandria, and it was entitled "Divide and Cooperate." All of the club members were participants in their respective skits.

Six exhibits, each offering a wealth of information were also presented. Frances Oeggerli, representing Picnic Grove, spoke on "Picture Perfect"; "Moving Along With Macrame," was presented by Dalkeith, with Gail MacMillan commenting; Donna Clark, a Dunvegan member, presented "Super Storage Suggestions"; "Wonderful World of Wallpaper," was commented on by Connie VanderByl, from Lochiel; Margaret Fox, from Martintown, presented "The Art of Arrangements"; Apple Hill #1, with Monique Gaudet, commenting on "Revive the Rainbow," was the final exhibit presented.

All of these presentations gave the audience a good insight into what the project, "Your Corner of the World," was all about. The members guided by their leaders did a terrific job.

Each leader and member was presented with a silver spoon, for all their hard work, and time spent on this project.

County Home Economist Mary Michels commented on the work handed in by the members and on the skit and exhibit presentations of that evening. She was pleased by what the members had accomplished in their projects.

The project for the fall, of 1980, will be a cooking one entitled "Food For Friends." The preparation of party food is used as a means of discussing energy conservation and the wise use of small appliances. Members will be exposed to many modern party foods, such as crepes and tacos, and a wide variety of small appliances. All young people who are 12 by September 1, 1980, are invited and encouraged to attend this fun-filled project. Watch for further information, as the month of September approaches.

Miss Bea DeHaas closed the evening by telling the audience what 4-H means to her.

Martintown WI elects new slate of officers at annual meeting

A pot luck dinner preceded the annual meeting of Martintown Women's Institute held in the Presbyterian Church Hall. Roll call "Smile and pay your fees." Mrs. Ray Markell, president, presided.

Several members were planning to attend the 4-H Achievement Day being held in Alexandria.

Delegates to the district annual from our branch are Mrs. Ray Markell, Mrs. Harvey MacMillan, Mrs. Gordon Ross and Mrs. Clifford Morris.

Members who are planning to participate are asked to contact Mrs. Doug Murray the day of the District Annual to secure their tickets and she will furnish any information you may require.

Mrs. Clifford Morris and Mrs. E. Kolisnyk volunteered to have their crewel embroidery articles on display at the District Annual.

Officers and conveners for the past year presented reports proving that our branch had not only helpful, but most informative meetings, and the president thanked all for their excellent work which had made the meetings so rewarding.

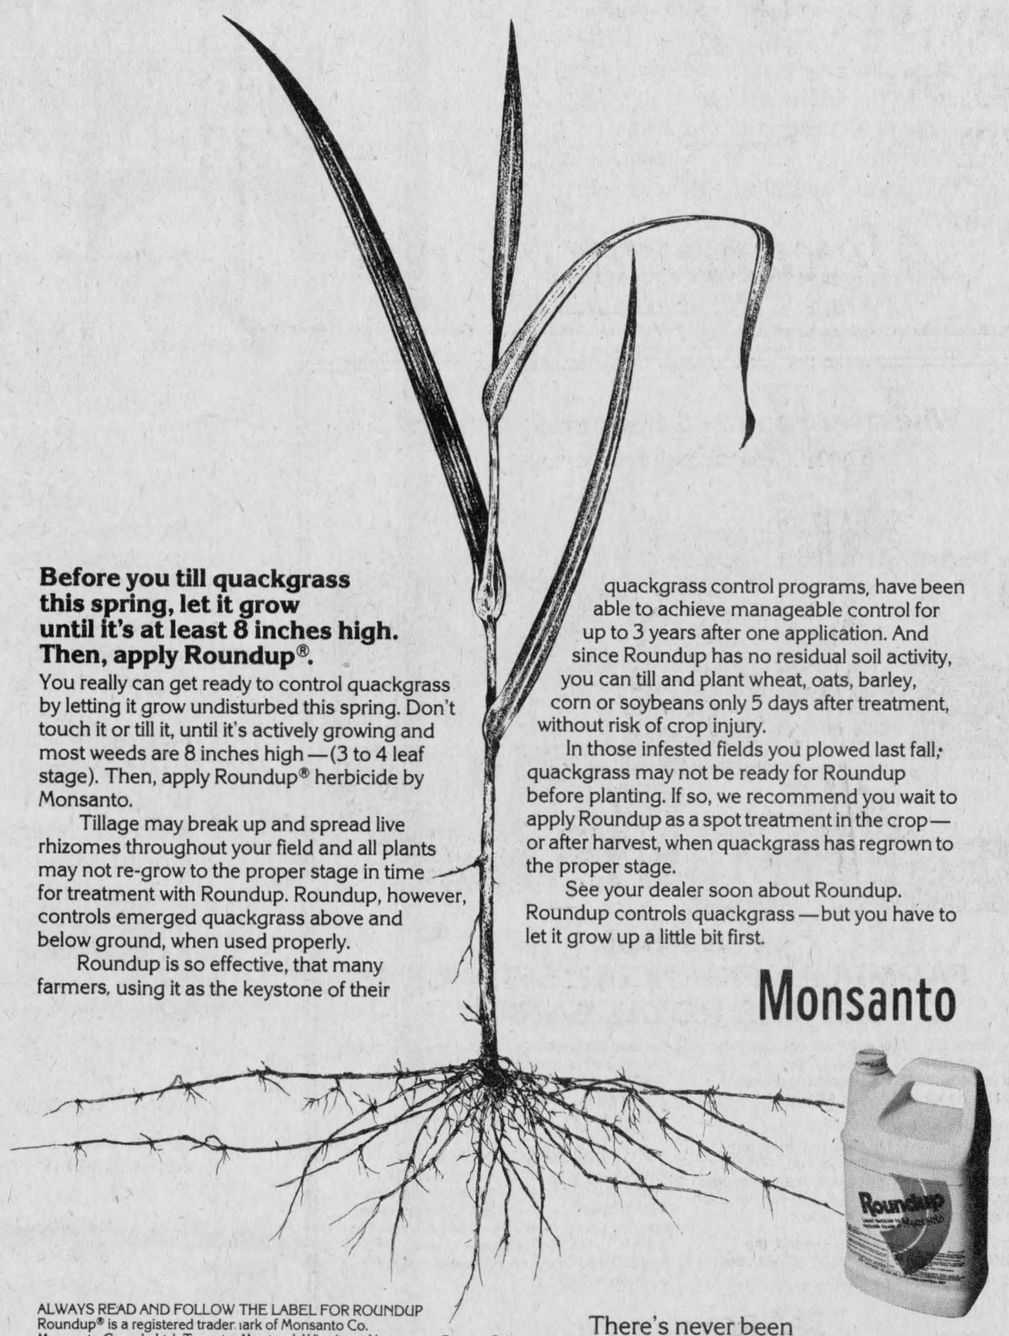
To keep quackgrass down, you have to let it grow up.



Before you till quackgrass this spring, let it grow until it's at least 8 inches high. Then, apply Roundup®.

You really can get ready to control quackgrass by letting it grow undisturbed this spring. Don't touch it or till it, until it's actively growing and most weeds are 8 inches high—(3 to 4 leaf stage). Then, apply Roundup® herbicide by Monsanto.

Tillage may break up and spread live rhizomes throughout your field and all plants may not re-grow to the proper stage in time for treatment with Roundup. Roundup, however, controls emerged quackgrass above and below ground, when used properly.

Roundup is so effective, that many farmers, using it as the keystone of their quackgrass control programs, have been able to achieve manageable control for up to 3 years after one application. And since Roundup has no residual soil activity, you can till and plant wheat, oats, barley, corn or soybeans only 5 days after treatment, without risk of crop injury.

In those infested fields you plowed last fall, quackgrass may not be ready for Roundup before planting. If so, we recommend you wait to apply Roundup as a spot treatment in the crop—or after harvest, when quackgrass has regrown to the proper stage.

See your dealer soon about Roundup. Roundup controls quackgrass—but you have to let it grow up a little bit first.

Clergy Comments from Glengarry Christian Council

by Rev. Gary Ostler, pastor, St. Raphael's Parish director of Maison
Shalom House

Why is it that there continually seems to be a crisis around the corner of each day? Every so often, just as things seem to be relatively well, something happens to shake away the cobwebs and stir yet another response.

The gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ cannot do otherwise. Inherent in its message is the commissioning to go out and preach the good news. The experience of Christians from earliest times confirms that commitment is never easy. Opposition to pagan ways has always been part of the Christian's responsibility. In our day, indifference coupled with subtle opposition combine to truly test the endurance of the followers of Jesus.

Most recently, the political scene in Toronto produced an attempt to undermine the very foundation upon which true family life can be fostered. In December, an act of parliament entitled "Health Care Services Consent Act" was introduced at Queen's Park. If this bill is passed, it would remove the legitimate rights of parents to decide what is best for their children. Here are some of the possible consequences of this bill becoming law: girls and boys under 16 years of age (no minimum age stipulated) could obtain an abortion; get contraceptive counseling; be fitted with a mechanical contraceptive device; get prescriptions for the pill; be treated for sexually transmitted diseases; consent on their own to most surgery. All of the above become the child's right without their parent's knowledge or consent even if the child was living at home with his or her parents. Second reading has passed the legislature in Toronto.

This is the most cynical legislation before our parliament in this the Year of the Family. In a time, when the family is under attack from every corner, the government proposes to undermine that very institution that it says it serves. This bill, if passed by our legislators, confirms yet another step in the continuing undermining of the legislators, confirms yet another step in the continuing undermining of the legitimate authority of parents in the well-being of their children. The Second Vatican Council stated emphatically in its Declaration on Religious Education- "Since parents have conferred life on their children, they have a most solemn obligation to educate their offspring. Hence, parents must be acknowledged as the first and foremost educators of their children." So many sectors of today's society have eroded this principle. Shall we allow yet another step in the taking away from the parents?

Were I a parent, would I not be responsible for my child should my child engage in vandalism or some other act of defiance? Am I not responsible legally and morally? Even as I drive my car, am I not responsible for the safety of all passengers? What if the seat belt is not on someone under 18, am I not responsible legally and morally for his or her safety? It seems to me that the journey of life is not different. Should you agree with me, then please write one of the following: The Honorable Dennis Timbrell, Minister of Health; The Honorable Roy McMurtry, Attorney General of Ontario; The Honorable Keith Norton, Ministry of Community and Social Development; Mr. Osie Villeneuve, MPP for Glengarry.

In this Easter season, as new creations in the Lord, we must be involved in transforming darkness to light! The resurrected Christ within us demands an end to complacency in our very, very selfish world!

AUDITOR'S REPORT
TOWNSHIP OF CHARLOTTENBURGH

The Members of Council, Inhabitants and Ratepayers of the Corporation of the Township of Charlottenburgh:

We have examined the 1979 financial statements of the Corporation of the Township of Charlottenburgh and its local boards, which are listed on the attached index. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Corporation of the Township of Charlottenburgh and its local boards as at December 31, 1979, and the results of their operations for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted for Ontario municipalities applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

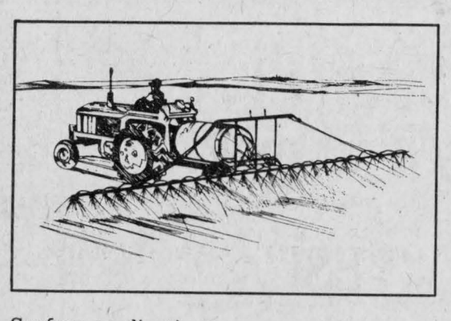
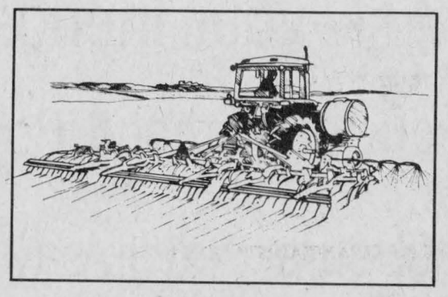
Surface application or shallow incorporation.

It's your choice with Lasso®.



Surface application



Shallow incorporation

Lasso® herbicide by Monsanto is usually surface applied before the crop emerges. Some farmers, however, prefer to incorporate their herbicides, and Lasso fits the bill.

"Shallow" is the key word.

Lasso should be shallowly incorporated, prior to planting corn or soybeans. First, broadcast Lasso; then thoroughly incorporate it into the top two inches of soil. To make sure the incorporation is shallow, set your disc or cultivator to work the soil to a maximum depth of four inches.

Shallow incorporation of Lasso plus atrazine suppresses yellow nutsedge in corn.

To suppress yellow nutsedge for six to eight weeks, shallowly incorporate Lasso plus atrazine (mixed at new labelled rates) before planting. Suppressing yellow nutsedge with Lasso plus atrazine gives your corn the chance to become established without nutsedge competition that can hurt your yield.

Whether you surface apply or shallowly incorporate, you get outstanding grass control with Lasso.

Lasso consistently controls annual grasses in corn and soybeans. With excellent crop safety. And no carryover. And you can surface apply Lasso or shallowly incorporate it. Because it's your choice, with Lasso.
