1980 PRIZE WINNERS CANADIAN COMMUNITY CNA NEWSPAPERS ASSOCIATION BETTER NEWSPAPERS COMPETITIONS

VOL. 88, No. 42 ALEXANDRIA, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1980 SINGLE COPY 25c

Reform team grows to five

The Reform Team which hopes to oust the old guard at Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Board of Education has grown to five candidates.

Incumbent Trustees Fraser Campbell, Lloyd Markell and Harry Gatward have joined the team while new candidates, Art Buckland and Maurice Lemieux will also run under the Reform Team banner.

Reform Team organizers are emphasizing that "all endorsed candidates remain independent and responsible to all of their electors" and not just one particular interest group.

The candidates will merely share certain common goals such as trustee control over administration, better communication with ratepayers and preservation of small, rural schools.

Mr. Campbell will run in Kenyon, Roxborough and Maxville riding.

Mr. Buckland will run in Charlottenburgh-Cornwall Township riding.

Mr. Lemieux will run as a separate school representative on the public board in Alexandria, Kenyon, Roxborough and Maxville riding.

Mr. Markell will run in Osnabruck, Finch Township and Finch Village riding.

Mr. Gatward will run in Williamsburgh Township, Morrisburg Village riding.

Major seeks higher post

Charlottenburgh Township Councillor Morgan Major has announced he will seek the deputy reeve's post.

The 40-year-old hardware salesman has served three terms as councillor.

Councillor Major said the township is the envy of its neighbors because of its growth and prosperity in recent years.

He said he would like to see this residential and industrial growth continue.

He cited the influx of new residents, particularly from Quebec, as a positive factor in the township's development.

He said he is running for deputy reeve because he has the time to devote to the position and feels he can offer ratepayers a "strong voice" on county council.

Fortin puts hat in ring

Former Charlottenburgh Township building inspector Wilfred Fortin says he will run for reeve or deputy reeve in the November 10 municipal election.

He said he is concerned about "the way the majority of township residents are ignored in matters concerning their township, the high tax rate in this township and the need for road repair to certain areas."

Mr. Fortin served for 12 years as building inspector, zoning commissioner, secretary of the planning board and secretary of the committee of adjustment.

He retired in December.

Mr. Fortin said he had been approached by several residents to seek election due to his many years of municipal experience.

"I am not afraid to take a stand on controversial subjects and will see that the laws treat everyone equally," Mr. Fortin said.

"I will devote full time to serving the township residents and will work diligently in the interests of Charlottenburgh."

Mr. Fortin said he has not yet formed a position on the proposed expansion of Summerstown Airport but said further information should be obtained on the supposed benefits.

He said more public discussion should also be forthcoming.

Police official named

Gerard Roy has been named to the Alexandria Police Commission.

Mr. Roy replaces George Lanthier who resigned.

The provincial appointment runs for two years, effective October 1, 1980.

Marina operators to stay on the job

The Raisin Region Conservation Authority has reversed its decision to remove the Glengarry Marina Operators Association as operators of Gray's Creek marina.

After a lengthy discussion with association president Ian Macintosh and member Winston McIntosh Thursday, the Authority agreed to sign the three-year management agreement with the group.

Several Authority members, including the two Cornwall City representatives, complained that the association was not running the Authority-owned marina properly.

A report from the Authority's staff listed several instances where the association had not followed up on its obligations.

Association President Ian Macintosh responded by listing areas where he felt the Authority had not lived up to its obligations.

He cited the City of Cornwall's decision to repair and operate a free boat ramp at Gray's Creek in opposition to the marina ramp as an example of lack of co-operation.

He also said the gas pumps were not operating properly when the association took over and noted the road to the marina was in poor condition.

The Authority report noted that security was at times less-than-adequate and the facilities were not kept clean. On one occasion the Eastern Ontario Health Unit fled a complaint about the condition of the washrooms.

The association will operate the facility for two more seasons for a token $1 per year.

Last year the authority lost $15,000 in operating the facility and decided to turn it over to private interests to manage.

Vehicle stolen

An Alexandria man had his automobile stolen from the PUC parking lot early Saturday morning and it was recovered in a Lancaster Township field several hours later with minor damage. Lancaster OPP officers discovered the car.

Raymond Hurtubise of 74 Elgin Street, who works the night shift at the town's filtration plant, was alerted by the Alexandria Police that a 1973 Ford had been found on County Road 23 near Curry Hill around the KOA campsite. Mr. Hurtubise checked and found his car was missing from the parking lot. The keys had been left in the ignition, he said.

PROTECT THE MAYOR—Mayor Touchette was loaned a pair of quality hockey gloves at the official opening of A & G Giroux Sport store in Alexandria to protect his hands from serious injury while cutting the symbolic ribbon. The Mayor has never cut his hands at an official opening but the Giroux family were not going to take any chances. Joining in the official ribbon-cutting ceremony are (from left): the new owners of the store, Estelle, Gaetan and Alain Giroux; the Mayor; the former owner, Wally Hope, and wife Helen; Father Roger Desrosiers and Marcel Francoeur, the accountant. Some 30 people gathered at the opening to wish the new ownership the best of luck in their new business. Staff Photo—Brian Filion

Resource centre starts

A grant in the amount of $30,000 from the Levi Strauss Foundation has been received by St. Lawrence College and the SD&G Chapter of the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

The association was awarded the $30,000 grant earlier this year in order to set up a community resource centre that would help parents, teachers and volunteers to help children overcome learning disabilities. The grant was acquired through the efforts of the community involvement team at the Cornwall plant of Levi Straus.

The resource centre, which is now in the process of being established, will be located in the library at St. Lawrence College, and is expected to be in operation by January. At the same time, the ACLD hopes to have a volunteer tutoring program in action as well, according to Susan Lopez.

PRACTICAL COURSE

Mrs. Lopez, an ACLD member, and a special education teacher at Cornwall Collegiate and Vocational School, will be teaching a course entitled Introduction to Children with Learning Disabilities next month, at the college. She said the course is open to parents of children with learning disabilities, to anyone who wants to know more about the subject, and to anyone who would be interested in volunteering to work in the tutoring program.

Mrs. Lopez said the course will concentrate on "very practical" aspects of working with children with learning disabilities. She said the course will show participants how to use the materials in the resource centre to help children overcome difficulties in reading, writing, spelling and mathematics.

"We'll cover the kinds of things that parents can do at home, or that volunteers can do if they are thinking of tutoring in the ACLD program or if they would like to help out in school classrooms," Mrs. Lopez said.

She said the resource centre at the college would contain textbooks, reference books and learning materials such as games. The materials in the resource centre will be used in the tutoring program, and will also be available on a lending basis as part of the regular college library service to the general public.

ONE-TO-ONE

Mrs. Lopez said that SD&G is only the second area in Ontario to have such a resource centre and tutoring program. She said the other similar arrangement is in Kent County.

She added that working as a tutor in the local program "is the kind of activity that a retired person might enjoy."

The tutoring program will take place at St. Lawrence College so that tutors and students can be close to the resource materials. The program will operate after school hours, between 3:30 and 5 p.m., Mrs. Lopez said.

She said that students would be tutored twice a week for about an hour at a time, and she emphasized that a major benefit of the program would be that the children involved will be tutored on a one-to-one basis.

Mrs. Lopez said that the ACLD tutoring program would not interfere with programs that exist for children with learning disabilities in elementary or high schools. "This is a supplementary program," she said. "We expect teachers to refer children to us, and in cases where no remedial program is available, we would make help available."

People interested in finding out more about the ACLD may attend a general meeting of the association on Wednesday, October 15, at 8 p.m., in Aultsville Hall at St. Lawrence College.

Hunter dies near Maxville

A 56-year-old man from St. Leonard, Que. dropped dead while on a hunting trip in the Maxville area.

Guiseppi Parente and his brother, Eugenio, were hunting small game in the area when the victim fell ill reports the Maxville OPP. He collapsed while walking back to the car.

The tragedy occurred in the area of Lot 16 in the Eighth Concession of Kenyon, Saturday, October 4 around the noon hour.

Dr. Laszlo Roman, county coroner, established the cause of death as a heart attack.

Constable P. G. Evans was the investigating officer.

News staff forms union

Employees of The Glengarry News have unionized.

The Ontario Labor Relations Board Friday approved certification of the Ottawa Typographical Union as the employees' bargaining agent.

The OTU received instant certification at a hearing in Toronto after proving to the board it had the overwhelming support of the employees.

The News becomes the first unionized weekly newspaper in Ontario.

The UTO is a branch of the International Typographical Union, the oldest union in North America.

The News will become a separate unit within the Ottawa local which will represent all full-time employees with the exception of the president and publisher.

Candidates will debate

Glengarry's French weekly LE POINT is organizing a public debate that will feature the candidates from Alexandria at the next municipal and school board elections.

The debate will be held on Wednesday, October 29 at 8 p.m., at Alexandria's Sports Palace.

Once the names of the candidates are known, each of them will receive an invitation by the mail to the debate. Those interested in participating will have to pay a sum of $10 to obtain the right to speak. This money will be used to pay for the hall.

The time awarded to each person will depend on the number of candidates, so as not to prolong the debate needlessly.

Also, if there is enough time, the candidates elected without opposition may have some time to speak.

The candidates will open the debate with their speeches, which will be followed by a question period for the public.

This debate is organized so that the people of Alexandria can take a greater part in municipal politics and school affairs.

McCormick seeks election

Cameron McCormick will seek a trustee's post on Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Roman Catholic Separate School Board.

Residing on the family homestead in Lochiel, Mr. McCormick is a property owner in Alexandria and will contest the Alexandria, Kenyon, Maxville seat.

Married to the former Yvette Seguin, he is the father of 12 children.

Mr. McCormick is a janitorial and maintenance contractor at Glengarry District High School, fourth degree Knight of Columbus and a member of St. Finnan's Parish Council.

A veteran of the Korean War, Mr. McCormick is an active Legion member and is heavily involved in youth and sports activities.

He said he is "genuinely interested and concerned with the best interests of separate schools."

Although he has ideas of his own, he said he is also "willing to listen attentively to the concerns" of others.

Workers meet

Consoltex workers are meeting this afternoon at the Alexandria Legion Hall to discuss the deadlock in contract negotiations with management.

Ray Bissonnette, president of Local 1664 of the Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers Union, said the two sides met Friday but neither changed their positions.

The membership meeting has been called so that the union leadership can report the results of the talks.

A car owned by Consoltex Manager Denis Hebert was vandalized Thursday, reports the Ontario Provincial Police.

Grey paint was thrown on the car while it rested in Mr. Hebert's driveway. Estimated damage is $200.

On October 7, an alarm went off at the plant after a telephone line leading into the building was cut, police report.

Campaigning

A door-to-door campaign for the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society will be held on Sunday, October 19, Dr. Ajay Varma, president of the Glengarry branch has advised.

Members of the Alexandria Lions Club and the Alexandria Branch of the Canadian Legion will assist in the canvassing.

While there was no door-to-door collection last year, response to a letter by local businessmen netted $500 and there was an additional donation of $300 by the Oldtimers Hockey Club.

Bridge tournament planned for here

The Alexandria Bridge Club will be hosting the Seaway Open, a sectional bridge tournament on the weekend. It will be the first of its kind to be played here.

Tournament Chairman Maurice Lemieux reports that 100-200 players from Montreal, Ottawa and the Northern United States will be here.

Play gets underway on Friday evening at 8 p.m. with ladies' and men's pairs.

On Saturday open pairs competition is held at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. There will also be a side game at 7:30 p.m. for those who wish to play one session or those who do not qualify for further competition.

On Sunday at noon the open Swiss teams will compete.

Knights establish another district

A new district has been formed by the Ontario State Board of the Knights of Columbus. The new district "62" consists of Council 1919, of Alexandria, Council 7229, St. Croix of Cornwall and Council 5068, Glen Walter.

Mike Gibbs Jr. was appointed new district deputy of the new district and Herve Wathier was appointed district warden.

The district was formerly No. 32, and due to the increased number of councils the district was split into two districts.

District 62, is the newest district in the province of Ontario.

The slate of officers for Council 1919 Alexandria, 1980-81 is as follows: Grand Knight Duncan Morris, Deputy Grand Knight Gerald Beauclair, Financial secretary Marcel Boileau, Chancellor Guy Lanctot, Warden Roger Campeau, Recording Secretary Paul Lalonde, Treasurer Archille Michaud, Advocate Ernest Lalonde, Inside Guard Joe A. Sabourin, Outside Guard Serge Wathier, Trustees Hubert Dubois, Herve Wathier, Bruno Legault.

Four youths are charged

Four Alexandria youths have been charged with a series of wilful damage charges following a number of vandalistic acts in Alexandria early Tuesday morning.

Three apartment houses owned by J. P. Levert had windows broken, a gas pump glass cover at Claude Cuerrier's Garage on Main Street in Alexandria was broken and four automobiles parked on town streets were damaged.

A 3'x7' picture window at 54 Derby Street, rented by Rejean Rochon, was broken with pieces of a cement block and two smaller windows were broken at 52 Derby Street, rented by Real Lampron. Alexandria Police estimated the total damage as being in the neighborhood of $235.

Charles Emile Massia of 118 Lochiel Street reported a broken window on the west side of his rented home after someone threw a water tub through it. Damage was estimated at $35.

A dune buggy owned by Guy Cholette of Alexandria and parked in the Cholette's Moulding parking lot suffered significant damage when lights were broken and the wiring pulled out of the dash.

A car, 1977 Dodge owned by Fernand Theoret incurred only slight damage when culprits walked on the automobile and a 1979 Ford owned by Fernand Cameron suffered $275 worth of damage when someone also walked over the car and broke an ornament on the front hood. George Ingola of 20 Lochiel Street also reported damage to his 1973 Plymouth late Tuesday morning.

The four youths will be appearing in Alexandria Provincial Court on November 6.

KIDDY CART—Lloyd (Red) McHugh of Alexandria uses his gas-powered golf cart to haul his clubs around all summer and his grandchildren for rides during the Spring and Fall seasons. Present petition

It's hard to please all of the people all of the time, the Raisin Region Conservation Authority is learning.

Amid pleas from area farmers that the Beaudette River be channelized to alleviate flooding, the Authority has now received a 30-name counter petition asking that channel work not be done on certain sections of the waterway.

Members of the South Lancaster Fish and Game club say they want the "eastern extremities of Kenyon and the western portion of Charlottenburgh Townships" left in their flooded state because the area serves as a wildlife preserve.

Charlottenburgh and Lancaster Townships, responding to farmers' complaints, have asked that the river channel be improved.

The Authority has yet to determine where improvement would have to take place and is examining whether the western end of the river would require channelization. Most of the flooding complaints are coming from further east along the river.

The petitioners say they would oppose channelization if it touched the upstream flooded areas, which are owned by conservation-oriented people.

"In our opinion, we feel this work would have a definite adverse ecological effect by destroying wildlife habitat, particularly the waterfowl breeding areas adjacent to the Beaudette River," the petition says.

Park may be sold

Lochiel's Municipal Recreation Association has recommended to township council that it assume control over the Glen Sandfield park.

Association Chairman Gerard Goulet confirmed yesterday that the recommendation was made in view of the split in local opinion over what should be done with the park.

Adjacent property owners have pointed out that the playground is an un-maintained eyesore and have asked that it be upgraded.

The Glen Sandfield Sports and Recreation Club, which took over the former residential lot from the township for use as a playground, has stated it has neither the money nor manpower to manage the property.

Mr. Goulet said it was now up to the residents of the hamlet to make input on how they want the township to deal with the lot.

He said the township will likely give consideration to selling the lot but it was not up to his committee to make that decision.

Warren Kinsey, Muriel Calestagne and Bob Smith presented a brief to the MRA last week suggesting that an ad hoc committee be formed to bring the park up to standard.

Mrs. Calestagne said she and the others would be willing to form part of the committee.

Noting that fund-raisings had been held and tax dollars spent on the park, Mrs. Calestagne said it would be a shame to abandon the park now.

Erratum

A news story reporting a one-car accident on McCormick Road in Lochiel township was in error in the Oct. 8 edition of the News. The driver involved was Albert Quesnel of RR1 Alexandria, not Raymond Quesnel.

Knights protesting nude entertainment

The Alexandria Knights of Columbus have decided to tackle the nude entertainment business in town.

In a letter to council last night, Gerard Massie and Duncan Morris asked for permission to appear at the next council meeting to discuss the issue.

They noted that nude entertainment was discussed at the October 9 K of C meeting and "it was voted unanimously that we request to be heard at one of your meetings as soon as possible.

"We know that this had been going on for a long time and that no apparent effort has been made to control it.

"Although you may argue that provincial laws permit such exposures, we are confident that something could be done to bring back some decency in the entertainment of our people."

Mayor J. P. Touchette said the police chief would also be in attendance to explain the law.

French newspaper requests town ads

Alexandria Council will recommend that the election returning officer, Don Collin, print election notices in the town's French language newspaper, Le Point. The recommendation came following a presentation from a director of the newspaper, Suzanne Massie.

Council has already instructed the town office to publish all public notices in Le Point.

Leo Poirier cited the Municipal Election Law which says that all public notices must be printed in a local newspaper provided the paper had a general circulation.

Miss Massie said the newspaper has 300 subscribers in the town but 1,500 readers in the area.

Mrs. Marcel Francoeur, accompanying Miss Massie, approached council and said that suprising as it may be, some people in the town cannot read English.

Singers coming

Time, our most precious possession, was the theme of the U.C.W. meeting held recently at Dalhousie Mills.

Do we use our minutes, hours and days to the fullest or do we waste them in our daily rounds of needless worry and selfish pursuits. Yesterday is a cancelled check, tomorrow a cheque uncashed but today is cash in our pocket. What are we doing with our cash?

The treasurer's report was given by Audrey Blair. It was decided to order Ecumenical Church Calendars.

Discussions of our Annual Congregational Worship Service and luncheon being held October 19, 1980, followed. "The Musical Crusaders", a young adult group who love to sing, will join us for this special service.

Everyone interested in having St. Andrew's, (The Round Church), continue as their Worshipping Community, is invited to attend and help plan for the future.

EUCHRE

On Tuesday evening next week, October 21, the Young At Hearts and the congregation of St. Michael's are holding a Euchre in the Church Hall. Eight o'clock, and everybody welcome.

LIBRARY

The Maxville Public Library is getting quite busy in its new location. Librarian Nicole Dewar would like to inform the general public that there has been a change in the method of notifying persons whose books are overdue —a new regulation from the administration in Cornwall for the counties' area. If you happen to forget a book the librarian will phone you after the library closes, so that you can get it back by the next open day. And again one week later if necessary. Since the fines are up to five cents a day for adult books and two cents for children's books this friendly reminder could be a money-saver. Anyone wanting to renew a book can do so by phoning the library at 527-2235.

SENIOR SCHOOL

At a recent meeting the executive for the Maxville Senior School Committee was elected for this year—Chairman Mrs. Lusia Jasiewicz, Vice-Chairman Mrs. Jan Geddes, and Secretary Crystal Campbell.

NEW APPOINTMENT

Fall services continue at 9 a.m. Sunday mornings at St. Michael's Anglican Church. The congregation has learned with regret that these will be Father Peter Durrett's last months in this parish. He has been appointed secretary-treasurer of the Diocese of Ontario, and he and Dorothy will be moving to Kingston at the end of the year, to take up their new work.

EUCHRE PARTY

The Young At Hearts held their regular meeting last Tuesday in the Church Hall with a good attendance of 30 members, who enjoyed the evening playing euchre.

Ladies winners were Mrs. F. Brabant, Mrs. Florence Harkin, and Mrs. Clara Viau. For the men, it was Lawrence MacKinnon, Neil MacLean, and Murdie Campbell. John Sinclair was the cokinole champion.

Appointed on committee in charge of the euchres for this year are Mrs. Dolphis Villeneuve, Murdie Campbell, and Oliver St. Louis. Mrs. Peggy Cline will be sending cards to any members who are ill.

During the lunch and social hour after the cards, President Rod. F. McRae spoke briefly, welcoming all the members, and reminding them that this was the 10th anniversary of the founding of the club. In those years, 35 members have died, and their names were read in memory. Ten others have moved out of the district.

The Club meets every second Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in St. Michael's Hall, and new members are most welcome. The next meeting is October 21 at 8 p.m. since this is the "Open Euchre" with St. Michael's.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Maxville Guides and Brownies are making preparations for their main Fall fundraising event—the RUMMAGE SALE. When you are housecleaning and sorting clothing—just don't throw anything out, take it to them. The sale is next Thursday and Friday, October 23 and 24, 6-9 p.m. and 3-9 p.m. and it will be in the Sports Complex.

GUIDES AND BROWNIES

There is no Pathfinder group in Maxville this year. There are 29 Guides under the leadership of Laurie Symons and Caren Ross, and they meet at the Sports Complex Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. The 24 Brownies with Mrs. Joan Fergusson, Daryl McCormick, and Sharon Villeneuve meet at the Public School also on Tuesdays at 6:30.

WMS HEAR MRS. MUNRO

The Afternoon Auxiliary of the St. Andrew's WMS met in the school room on October 7 with a very good attendance. President Mrs. Rod F. McRae gave the opening thought "We Plough the Fields and Scatter". During the business meeting, letters of friendly regard were read from Mrs. I. D. MacIver and Mrs. Ruth Rostock. Mrs. Ethel Long read a poem—"If God Should Go On Strike", and there was a short Thanksgiving worship service. The president introduced the guest speaker Mrs. Archie Munro who had some timely thoughts on the harvest season. She was thanked by Miss Gladys Roulston. The Roulstons will be having the next meeting at their house on Tuesday, November 4.

NEW EXECUTIVE

The new executive for the Maxville Public School Committee was elected last week. Chairman Joan Siwik, Vice-Chairman Ken Jones, Secretary Evelyn Smith, and Treasurer Beth Williamson. Hot dog and juice days are being organized, and the scholastic paperback program will be offered soon...all of these with the help of an active group of volunteers. Don't forget that next Friday, October 24 is a P.A. Day, and there will be no school—a holiday for all. Thursday, October 23 is the fall Open House—all families welcome to the school on this evening.

Named director

by Angus H. McDonell

One of Glengarry's most widely known and knowledgeable sportsmen, Duncan Macdonell, has accepted an invitation to become a director of the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame. The vacancy was created by the resignation of Dr. Don Gamble.

Duncan "Angie Alex" as he is affectionately known to an older generation, began his sports career in his native St. Raphael's. He played hockey with Alexandria Maroons during the launching of Alexandria's first covered rink-Glengarry Gardens. Duncan Macdonell played hockey in subsequent years especially with Green Valley in the Border League.

The Macdonell family took up residence in Alexandria some 25 years ago as operators and now owners of the Atlantic Hotel. At the outset Duncan Macdonell found time and still does in the progressive and charitable work of Lionism with the local club. He also serves as chairman of the Lions' Sportsmen dinners that have become a popular annual event in recognizing the talents of Glengarry athletes.

To say that Duncan and Mrs. Macdonell are pillars of the Alexandria Curling Club is more than a sport cliche. It is a well deserved accolade in recognition of many years devoted to the best interests of the club.

Duncan Macdonell has given distinctive, sound leadership as president of the Lions and Curling clubs and just about every committee. Add his sound judgment of wholesome entertainment provided in the historic "Atlantic" (Canada Atlantic Railway) that meets so highly with public approval is just one more reason why Duncan Macdonell is rated one of Glengarry's most noted sportsmen.

Duncan "Angie Alex" Macdonell has been unamimously accepted as the new director of the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame.

Point Blank

by Brian Filion

Most of my generation grew up in Glengarry County without sighting a white-tailed deer in its natural habitat. It bewilders me to have my father speak of days (not that long ago) when the deer population was healthy in Glengarry and the sight of a mighty buck crossing a farmer's field was not an uncommon occurrence. This day in 1980 sees the County of Glengarry with surrounding area having the hideous distinction of possessing one of the lowest deer populations in the province.

Glengarry, Stormont, Dundas, Prescott-Russell and a small piece of Ottawa-Carleton compose District Number 65, one of 101 districts in the province sectioned off for legislative purposes by the Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR). Local Conservation Officer Bert Van Wout described the deer concentration in this district in terms of 1979's hunting harvest:

"Dundas County would have the highest success rate followed by Stormont and then Glengarry. Prescott-Russell would probably be the area with the least chance of bagging one."

What this means is that Glengarry's deer population is low within a district which is one of the most sparsely populated areas in the province.

The problem is province-wide but certain areas such as ours have been affected more than others. A Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR) pamphlet on "Deer Management in Ontario" says the deer population has decreased 70 per cent since the 1950's.

One of the problems cited by the MNR has been the harsh winters during the late 50's and throughout the 70's featuring more than average snow depth and colder temperatures.

Glengarry felt the full impact of harsh winters and these conditions permitted dogs to pursue the deer on the snow surface while the deer floundered, eventually surrounded by a killing crew of "Spots", "Lassies," and "Bingos".

Domestic predators are a serious problem in the area because it is densely populated with farms and homes located close to deer-inhabited areas. Last year's small seasonal snowfall was good news for the deer population and MNR reports it actually increased somewhat.

The annual Ontario hunting harvest claimed between 10-25 per cent of the deer herd (quite a disparity in numbers). In some areas the harvest was as high as 40 per cent. There are no figures available for this area but translated from other statistics available, the percentage taken must have been high.

MNR officers surveyed 148 area hunters last year and found that 52 of them had shot a deer, which gives an astonishingly high success rate of 35.1 per cent. That hunter success rate is high for anywhere in the province but in a sparsely populated area such as here—the harvest must have claimed a good chunk of the entire population.

The reason for the local hunter's success says Bert is that the deer are localized in certain areas and this is common knowledge to most hunters. Therefore, a group of hunters will congregate in an area and the deer's chance of escaping gunfire is probably lower than the hunter's success rate.

An abbreviated season is now featured in the area and this year it runs from November 3 to 7. Bow hunters are permitted another four-day period from November 10 to 13. No dogs are permitted in the hunt and the hunters can only use shotguns, muzzle loaders or bows.

In shortening the season the government has only managed to increase the hunter density during the time period and according to past records the kill is never significantly lowered.

My answer is to cancel the season completely until the deer population has rebounded to the point where a hunt is necessary only to balance the nature cycle.

Two other unrelated problems plaguing the deer population are poachers and a loss of the deer's natural habitat. Poachers have been known to claim as much as 10 per cent of a township's deer population.

The deer shortage has reached the point where the Hon. James C. Auld, Ontario Minister of Natural Resources, has launched a province wide deer management program in an effort to replenish the dying breed's numbers.

One component of the new program is the selective harvest system which permits a hunter to shoot antlered deer, (antlers that are at least three inches in length) and a controlled number of resident hunters to shoot antlerless deer (does). This program will allow ministry officials to better control herd size.

In an area such as this district where there is an objective to increase the herd size, only a limited number of permits, (15), to hunt antlerless will be issued. Hunters issued one of these permits are selected at random from all resident hunters who applied for a special permit.

The MNR also plans more enforcement in order to cut down on poaching, enforce the new harvest program and better control dog running.

The new program also pledges an effort to control the wolf population in balance with the deer population, enhance habitat management, improve data collection and perform more research in general.

Perhaps the next generation to grow up in the county will have the opportunity to watch a deer roam freely in their natural habitat instead of the local zoo.

Obey and respect the wildlife laws. We don't know what we have until it's gone!

Cheerleaders win SD&G title

Glengarry District High School cheerleaders made the student population quickly forget the football team's loss on Friday afternoon by winning the SD&G cheerleader competition at the Civic Complex in Cornwall that evening.

Glengarry out-performed six teams in front of a panel of judges and a vociferous student crowd, estimated at 3000 strong. Some 50 GDHS students, mostly football players, reversed the roles and cheered on the team.

"It was a very dramatic and surprising victory for us," said Lynn Whitham, coach of the team.

After each team had performed their routine twice, three teams were called upon to perform once again. The girls were convinced they had not won, recalls Coach Whitham.

The teams were called to the front at the conclusion of the performances and the third-place winner, St. Lawrence High School's team and the second-place winner, St. Lawrence's first team, were named. Building up to the climatic announcement of the winner,the emcee, introduced the winning team as a three-time winner of the trophy. CCVS girls were prematurely jubiliant for they are perennial contenders but the Glengarry team was named. It was Glengarry's fourth title.

The Glengarry cheerleading squad last won the competition in 1975.

The team will travel to Ottawa on Saturday for the Ottawa Valley competition which will feature 20 teams.

What are the team's chances in Ottawa?

"Well I didn't think we had a chance in Cornwall," said Miss Whitham, "we only started practice this Fall while many Cornwall teams practice all summer. The judges liked the originality of our routine."

Perhaps the Ottawa judges will also appreciate originality.

Glen Nevis wins tourney

Glen Nevis soccer club topped off their 1980 season by winning the First Annual Char-Lan Thanksgiving Tournament held on Saturday and Sunday. Glen Nevis narrowly defeated Cornwall City 2-1 in the final to capture the title.

In order to earn a final berth, Glen Nevis had to beat Brockville in a marathon shootout which saw 10 men from each club either miss the net or stopped by the goaltenders. Stewart MacDonald was outstanding in the Glen Nevis net. Gordie Macdonald finally connected for Glen Nevis with a hard left boot from 18 yards out.

Brockville and Glen Nevis were tied after the round-robin portion of the tournament with identical two wins, one loss records and the same difference in goals for and against. Cornwall City advanced to the finals with a 3-0 record.

In the final, the teams were tied at the half but Hugh MacGillivray put Glen Nevis up 1-0 early in the second half. Sylverter Pye replied for Cornwall minutes later when he in turned a corner kick for a goal. Andy McRae came right back and scored the winner for Glen Nevis when he crossed a ball into the Cornwall penalty area after a good run up his right wing and a Cornwall defender redirected the ball into his net.

Osnabruck took the tournament B division honors.

The Fall Cup final was also played on Sunday afternoon and the Stars eked out a 1-0 squeaker over Glen Sandfield. Steve Watt scored early in the game on a breakaway and the goal proved to be the winner. Goaltender Gerald MacDonald was called upon to make several key saves in the second half as Glen Sandfield pressed for the equalizer.

Individual trophy winners included Ewen McLeod of Glen Nevis, best forward and Terry O'Brien of Cornwall City, best goaler.

Char-Lan United was awarded the trophy for the best dressed and disciplined club.

Legionnaires win touch football first

Following consecutive victories over Lochiel, 26-16 and Loch Garry 14-12, the Legionnaires have become the first-place champions of the Glengarry Touch Football League for 1980.

Paul Masson led the Legion team in their last two games scoring three touchdowns, while Doug Dumouchel, J. P. Claude and Jim McCormick had one t.d. each. The last t.d. of the season was scored by Jim McCormick on a pass from Henry Dumouchel with only four plays remaining. This permitted the Legionnaires to beat the stubborn Loch Garry club.

Defensive Captain, Phil Dumouchel called his usual strong game, leading his team to the best overall defensive record in the regular season.

Loch Garry assured themselves of a playoff position by defeating Hope's Auto Parts 21-20 (winning two out of three contests between the two teams this season) in a wide open thriller. Brian Arden was the offensive star scoring two t.d.'s for the Lakers. The winning touchdown was caught by Frank Morris on a pass from Jamie MacDonell with only three plays to go in the game.

Lochiel blasted Hope's Auto Parts, 33-0 to conclude the regular season in convincing fashion. The Loks had touchdowns from Paul Poirier, Hugh MacGillivray, Andre Chenier and John Charlebois.

Lochiel will now meet Loch Garry on the weekend in a two-game total-point series. Legionnaires have received a bye into the finals but will play an exhibition game against the Almonte champs on Saturday at 1 p.m.

Three out-of-county men are winners

Three out-of-county Scottish heavy game's competitors took the top three over-all positions at the Glengarry Caber Club's Fifth Annual Meet held on Sunday at Dr. Senecal's residence (the old Alexandria High School). Dave Harrington of Old Chelsea, que., the 1980 Canadian champion won first place, Stuart Watson of Cobourg, Ont. was second and John McDonald of Syracuse was third.

Ribbons were presented for all eight events held and prizes were donated by the two local sport shops and the Alexandria Co-op.

A sketch, drawn and donated by artist Doug Fales was won by Mrs. Stuart Watson of Cobourg and proceeds of the draw, $100, were turned over to Peggy Calder Glengarry's campaign chairman for the Canadian Cancer Society, for the Terry Fox Marathon of Hope.

A haggis-hurling contest for the children was won by Hillery McDonald and Shannon MacLeod.

The club is already making plans for the 1981 season.

Wensink to Nordiques

A former Maxville resident and member of the Boston Bruins Hockey Club found himself a member of a Canadian NHL team on Wednesday. John Wensink was released by the Boston Bruins on Tuesday but was claimed by the Quebec Nordiques the following day.

Missed winning runner

In our report on the 10 km. Pitt Street Mall Run on Oct. 4 we failed to report the winning performance by Kim Lapierre of Summerstown Station.

Kim ran the 10 km. in 39 minutes and 16 seconds, good for first place in the junior male category and seventh place over all.

Glens avenge loss

by Gerry Simpson

Alexandria Glens retained their winning form on Friday evening and avenged a 6-3 loss to the Char-Lan Rebels the previous Sunday by downing the Williamstown club, 11-4.

Glens pulled out to an early 4-1 lead and never looked back.

Kennedy MacDonald notched the hat trick, Grant Crack and Steve Kavic each added a pair and singles were recorded by Frank St. Pierre, Kieran McCormick and Leo Seguin.

Coach Giroux appears content with the effort from his boys in their pre-season games. Like his players Gaetan has logged many skating hours and he is looking forward to the first league game against St. Isidore Eagles on Friday evening at the Glengarry Sports' Palace.

Brian Wensink, a thorn in most teams' side is on the 30-day injury list, but Luc Poirier is back to normal and will play Friday with Kieran McCormick. Frank St. Pierre and Leo Seguin should make the team click offensively. Steve Kavic, Bruce Wensink and Ronnie Besner, all Maxville lads will give the Glens a big lift this year.

Glens' rookies had a passable performance in pre-season games. Kennedy MacDonald, Frank Morris, Grant Crack and Robert MacDonald showed some pretty passing performances in games played this far.

Denis Brunet will provide the hitting to slow down opposition skaters.

It's early to grade the teams in the North-East Division but Ottawa South with Ottawa 67s behind them should be the team to beat. Vanier 72s have most of their roster returning. Navan Grads will be up and down, weak on defence, and for Clarence Township it will be a devastating winter. St. Isidore Eagles could be really hot if their new coach can light the fire.

When Glens have the crowd behind them it's worth a goal or two and if they use their heads and keep out of the penalty-box, it should be a winning season.

Glens have 18 Friday night home games so come on out and don't forget—it's a team sport. Face off at 8:30 p.m.

Atoms report

Alexandria narrowly defeated the Char-Lan "Scotia Bank" Atoms by a score of 6-4 in their recent encounter. Marc Sauve notched five goals for the winners and Jason Palmer added the single.

Char-Lan scorers were Blake McDonell with two, Todd Cassidy and Pat MacCulloch with one each.

Vanier Vikings down Gaels

A second-quarter field goal by General Vanier Secondary School's placekicker Don Gault gave the Vikings their point total for the football game at Glengarry District High School on Friday afternoon and it was one point more than an anemic Gaels' offence could muster.

Gilles Bissonnette, the sparkplug of the Gaels' offence, was sidelined with a bruised shoulder muscle and his absence was painfully obvious. The Vikings defence just dug in and concentrated on Number 57, Kennedy MacDonald—the other half of the fullback combo which has been the back bone of the offence. Kennedy was held to 43 yards for the afternoon on 13 carries.

Gaels' defence, self christened "The Wild Bunch", allowed only three points but for the first game this year an opposing offence moved the ball effectively. Vikings' quarterback Brett Doll had the linebackers second guessing with the timely usage of short passing plays to his sure-handed tight end, Peter Boucher. The attack resulted in the defence making several mental errors and their aggressiveness was tempered with indecision.

"Their passing game is the best in the league," said Gaels' head coach Jean Yves Jeaurond, "and if we have to play them again we must put more pressure on the quarterback." Jean Yves went on to say after much hesitation that if the club gets a final berth he would prefer to play CCVS.

"The Wild Bunch" did pull together whenever the Vikings closed into home territory and they were especially effective in the fourth quarter bottling the maroon sweaters deep in their own zone. Time and again the offence failed to pick up enough yardage for a good field goal opportunity or even in the range where their punter, Marc Titley could loft a pigskin deep enough into the end zone for a tie score.

Gaels kicked off to the Vikings, defending the south end of the local gridiron to start the game and little time was consumed before the defence handed David Schroeter and his offence the ball on their own 54-yard-line. Kennedy MacDonald ran an off-tackle play and a pitchout for a first down through gaping holes on the right side of the line, but those holes became miniscule pores as the game progressed. The offence showed little imagination in the early going, sticking with the inside running which was being shut down by the Vikings' defence.

The field position gained by the black defence did result in the game's first scoring when Marc Titley sent Vikings' Clem Distefano into the end zone to receive a punt and he conceded a single in exchange for a 35-yard-line scrimmaging point.

General Vanier proceeded to march the ball down to the Gaels' 47-yard-line on this possession highlighted by a nice pass to the tight end, Boucher. Vanier's drive stalled but a punt was mishandled by punt returner, Frank Morris, and the Gaels were the team with their backs to the goal line scrimmaging on their own 15-yard-line.

Quarterback Schroeter called some timely sweep plays on this series, one to Guy Pilon for a gain of eight yards and another to Reg Lake on the opposite side for an 18-yard gainer.

The blocking on the outside was impressive and the second sweep could have gone for a touchdown if the halfback had been a Johnny "R" Charlebois, but Reggie did a good job running up the yards for a kid inserted into the position only the week prior to the game when the regular halfback, Frank Morris, replaced Bissonnette at the fullback slot.

Coach Jeaurond said they had worked on the sweeps throughout the week and it was evident. The guards were getting out into the flats quicker, but Vikings made the necessary adjustment and that pathway was quickly shut down.

Marc Titley backed the Vikings into their own five-yard-line when he sent a 53-yard kick over the returner's head but the Vikings escaped trouble with a timely call—the reverse to Number 20, Clem Distefano for a 20-yard gain. On the next play Doll dropped back and facing an oncoming rush lofted a perfect screen pass to fullback, Jerome Cook, who made the reception and headed up field for what appeared a big gainer, but Grant Oke broke through the blocking wedge and hit the ball carrier with a real cruncher, jarring the ball loose and Tim Danaher was there to pounce on the pigskin. The turnover set up a 39-yard field-goal attempt but John Wood got under the ball and it plopped short. It was returned to the 35-yard line and to add insult the Gaels were assessed a 15-yard piling on penalty.

Brett Doll scrimmaging from his own 50, promptly hit one of his pass receivers, Bill Francis crossing the middle for a 25-yard gain. Another first down was added via the running routes and the winning field goal was set up. When the officials' arms were raised the Vanier bench was jubilant and they headed to their half-time pow-pow with a 3-1 lead but also the festering memory of their last encounter with the Gaels which saw them in the same position at halftime but went on to lose, 19-3.

Gaels' defence turned another big play early in the second half which resulted in the Gaels' second single. Johnny Marelic stripped the ball from a GVSS ball carrier on their first play of the half and then recovered the loose ball. Brendan MacDonald took over at quarterback but was unable to move the club, Titley came in to punt and bombed a 65-yarder for a single point, Vikings 3, Gaels 2.

That concluded the scoring but there were plenty of opportunities for the Gaels to salt away a fourth victory. GVSS fumbled again on their next possession. This time MacDonald moved the club for two first downs before the drive stalled and a Titley punt into the end zone was run out by Distefano who managed to out-manoeuvre Glengarry's downfield tacklers.

The Gaels' next possession was perhaps their best opportunity to put the winning margin on the board. It began with Tim Danaher taking a sky punt on the Vanier 35-yard line. A sweep to Guy Pilon for eight yards and an off tackle with Grant Oke carrying gave the Gaels a first down inside the 25-yard line, but then two outside running plays resulted in losses and a 35-yd. field goal was set up as the gun sounded to end the third quarter.

John Wood hit a firm kick, plenty of distance, but just wide and the ball was run out to the one-yard line.

Gaels' defence continued to give the offence good field position. Particularly big plays were made by Grant Oke, Johnny Marelic, Gilles Depratto and Jean Seguin. Grant Oke led the defence with 11 tackles and Johnny Marelic was right behind with eight.

Doll got himself some breathing space as the two minute warning sounded by completing two short passes and a face mask penalty against Gaels' Nick Mosky also helped. They worked their way out to their 44-yard line and then Doll doubling at the punter position, lofted a spiral. The ball was mishandled by Morris and a clipping penalty saw the ball downed deep in Glengarry territory for the first time in the half.

On second down Schroeter, who returned to the quarterback position tried to hit Morris on a post pattern but underthrew him and the ball was intercepted by Ted Swabey. The Gaels had run out of chances.

The loss has Glengarry tied with CCVS in first place with identical 3-1 records and GVSS in second with a 2-2 record. Gaels' first-place finish will be guaranteed with two victories against Tagwi in their last two encounters. The Gaels have next Friday off, allowing time for any bruises to mend and permit both defensive linemen Dale Boisvenue and Gilles Bissonnette more healing time before facing the Warriors in consecutive week matchups. No doubt Don Bond will have his team sky high for the perennial rivalry and have them thinking upset.

CCVS and GVSS will meet on Friday and the outcome will decide the Vikings' fate. A victory is a must.

Upcoming Games:

Friday, Oct. 17, CCVS at General Vanier, St. Lawrence at Tagwi.

Thurs., Oct. 23, Glengarry at Tagwi, St. Lawrence at CCVS.

Fri., Oct. 31, General Vanier at St. Lawrence, Tagwi at Glengarry.

Friday, Nov. 7, final, 2nd place vs. 1st place team.

TENSE ON THE BENCH—As the clock ticked down and the Gaels football team was unable to chalk up the necessary points on the scoreboard in Friday's 3-2 loss to General Vanier faces on the Glengarry bench began to show the chagrin. From left are: Pierre Jeaurond, Gaels' backup quarterback; Lynn Whitham, teacher and coach of the cheerleading squad and Diane Larocque, dressed in the Gaels' mascot costume.

A card party will be held on Monday, October 20 at 8 p.m. in the Lancaster and District Curling Club. It is sponsored by the Ladies Auxillary of Branch 544, Canadian Legion.

Mrs. Richard Chatterton and family of Saranac Lake N.Y. spent the Thanksgiving weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seguin.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae McCallum and family of Thetford Mines, Que. spent the holiday weekend with his mother Mrs. Margaret McCallum.

Fish and Game Club explores the wetlands

A meeting of the South Lancaster Fish and Game Club was held recently at the Lancaster Inn. Preservation of wetlands was the main topic of discussion. The wetlands in question are the Apple Hill Marsh on the Beaudette River.

The guest speakers were, Jay Currier and Andy Code, representing the Raisin River Conservation Authority. Mr. Currier spoke on the Authority's policies on drainage and conservation of marshes and wetlands. Slides were shown by Mr. Code of various projects being undertaken by the Authority while Mr. Currier explained the various slides shown. A photographic tour of the Apple Hill Marsh was also shown.

Mr. Currier stated the Authority is preserving some 570 acres of wetlands along the St. Lawrence River in the Lake St. Francis area and would work with "Ducks Unlimited" in order to establish a waterfowl breeding area.

In regards to the Beaudette River Channelization scheme, he stated the flooding problems extended from east of Munroe's Mills to the Quebec Border and that environmental studies would have to be undertaken to determine what adverse effects there would be on the ecology, such as destroying breeding areas adjacent to the channel.

Engineering studies would also have to be undertaken to determine how much work would actually have to be done in order to alleviate the flooding problems he said.

In his closing remarks, Mr. Currier said that while preservation of wetlands was one of the Authority's policies, the agricultural community has priority on channelization and drainage. He emphasized the power the farming community has regarding such policies and that preservation of wetlands in some areas would affect crops.

It is the hope of the South Lancaster Fish and Game Club that together with the Conservation Authority and the Agricultural Community a viable solution can be found regarding the problems of flooding and conservation of wetlands and waterfowl breeding areas.

Mike Eckersley biologist for the Department of Natural Resources spoke on a blood parasite called "Toxitiosis" which has been killing ducks. The parasite is transmitted from duck to duck by black flies and it has been responsible for 200 ducks dying from the disease in the Lake St. Francis area. The parasite cannot be transmitted to humans. A total of nine ducks suspected of having this disease have been turned into the local office and hunters are urged to turn in any sickly or dead ducks for examination.

Also speaking for the Department of Natural Resources was Bill Lanin who stated marshes are useful for other things besides duck breeding such as water retention and filtering areas. He promised his department would work closely with the Raisin River Authority on such matters.

Rich Morgan, vice-president of the Ontario Anglers and Hunters then gave a brief outlining the problems hunters and fishermen could encounter in the future in the pursuit of their sports. Information was given regarding lobbyists who are opposed to hunting in particular. Mr. Morgan stressed the importance of a strong untied voice as the only way to conserve the hunters' and fishermen's rights to pursue their sports.

LIONS DONATE BRAILLER—Alexandria Lions gather around Bob Cyr of Green Valley as he operates the new brailler which the club donated to him on Friday. Lion members overlooking Bob's work are, from left: President Wally Hope, Lions Jerry Adams and Jacques Trottier. The brailler is similar to a typewriter but the characters are in braille. Bob says he will use the machine to take some correspondence courses among other things.

Life of missionary recalled at Thanksgiving meeting

Tribute was paid to the late Margaret Cameron, at the Thanksgiving meeting of the Kirk Hill United Church Women. Miss Cameron was the only foreign missionary who went out from the Kirk Hill congregation.

Mrs. Kenneth MacDonald led the meeting which was held in the Maxville Manor chapel and Mrs. Tena MacKinnon, a sister of Mrs. Cameron, was a guest.

The meeting took the form of a question period when Mrs. MacKinnon reminisced about her sister's early life and her experiences in India. Margaret received her early education in SS No. 5 Lochiel and the Alexandria High School. She had many friends there, two of whom were Christie and Flora (Baker) MacDonald. After visiting them one afternoon she announced that these two girls were going to be nuns and she was going to be a missionary. She always said that Rev. David MacLaren, was her inspiration. He had been minister in the Alexandria church which the family attended in her youth. He spoke a great deal on missions.

Following High School and Model School in Cornwall, Miss Cameron taught for nine years. (Her first school was at Cotton Beaver, where one of her pupils was Jean Campbell, who was present at this meeting.) Then to prepare further for her commitment as a missionary, she trained as a nurse in the Allegheny Hospital near Pittsburg. After being assigned to India, she then took her training in Toronto and Hartford Bible Colleges.

In October 1911, her "Designation" was held at Kirk Hill where Rev. Allan Morrison was minister and Rev. Dr. McKay, moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada attended by Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon and other members of the Cameron family who later saw her onto the boat for India, a journey that lasted 28 days.

After her arrival in India, she spent two years learning the languages Hindi and Urdu, while working in the hospital. After her mastery of these she spent many years training young Indians as nurses, helping the doctors in the operating room and supervising the hospital. She also combined two English books, one from the Royal Victoria and one from the General Hospitals in Montreal on Obstetrics, then translated it to Hindi.

Miss Cameron also supervised the building of a new hospital. During her 32 years in Central India, she served in Dhar, Ratlam, Indore, Bonswara, Neemuch and most of the stations there.

Early in her career she adopted a baby girl, eight days old, that was brought to the hospital, her mother having died. Margaret called the baby Grace, educated her and later trained her as a nurse. Grace married a Christian, who was a distributor of Bibles in India.

When Dr. McClure, former moderator of the United Church in Canada went to India, he said, "Grace was the efficient nurse he had in his outdoor clinic at Ratlam" and it was she who taught Mrs. McClure the Hindi language. Grace still corresponds with Miss Cameron's relatives in Canada. Later Margaret adopted another baby girl whom she left in charge of the other missionaries when she returned home to stay. During her service in India she enjoyed three furloughs and while in Canada she gave many hours of her holiday telling of her work in India.

Dr. Jean Whittier and her sister Catherine, also a doctor in India, paid her a great tribute in the "Central India Torch", a missionary paper, when they said: "She had a well-stocked mind and a deep dedication and love for the nurses she trained."

After her retirement Miss Cameron donated a beautiful cross for the communion table of the Kirk Hill United Church in memory of Rev. and Mrs. Allan Morrison who were instrumental in her final decision to dedicate her life to the Lord.

Mrs. MacDonald thanked Mrs. MacKinnon for her sharing of her vivid memories with all present. Mrs. McKinnon then voiced her appreciation to the Kirk Hill ladies for this gathering in remembrance of her sister's missionary service and said, "Margaret always had a deep love for her home church at Kirk Hill, and how happy she would have been to know that the younger members are sufficiently interested in wanting to hear of her experiences in the mission field". The meeting closed with the benediction from Dr. Whittier's book.

A collection of artifacts and two letters sent to Christina (MacLeod) Armstrong while she was secretary of Kirk Hill Mission Band and which she had already donated to the church were on display.

Also attending the meeting were three nieces of Miss Cameron's—Mrs. Christina Franklin, Mrs. Marjorie McRae and Mrs. Marjorie MacKinnon, as well as a girlhood friend, Miss Ethel Ostrom, and other Manor residents.

Wed in Williamstown

BOURDEAU—SONNENBERG

Saturday, July 26, St. Mary's Church in Williamstown was the setting for a beautiful double ring ceremony when Suzanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Bourdeau of Williamstown and Fred, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sonnenberg of Cornwall were married.

Father M. J. O'Brien officiated at the ceremony. The organist was Charles Abrams. Reading was done by Angela Moffat, only sister of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a "Scarlet O'Hara" style white wedding gown and white picture hat with veil attached. She carried a cascade of red roses, stephanotis and baby's breath attached to a white umbrella.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Gisele Bazinet, Joanne and Linda Bourdeau as matron of honor, bridesmaid and flower girl, respectively. A friend, Sharon Thibeault was also bridesmaid. They wore gowns in different shades of yellow.

Best man was Gary Vivarais from Kingston. Ushers were Dale Abrams and Peter Von Leishout, both of Cornwall. Jacques Bourdeau, the bride's only brother, was ring bearer.

The reception was held at Nativity Hall in Cornwall. The couple honeymooned in Niagara Falls and are now residing in Cornwall. Wedding guests came from: Australia, Mexico, Calgary, Windsor, Montreal, Kitchener, Kingston and Cornwall area.

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

Miss Edna MacKinnon, Ottawa, spent Thanksgiving with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacKinnon, 4th Kenyon.

Mrs. Agnes MacDonald, Mrs. Laurie Doyle and Rory McCormick, Cornwall were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Angus H. McDonell.

Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Allan McDonald, St. George St., Alexandria were: Mrs. Barbara Cameron of Cornwall; Mr. and Mrs. Colin Cameron of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Larouche and Joanne and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Payment and boys all of Ottawa.

Among those attending the graduation of Kathryn Lacombe in Brockville, besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lacombe of Dorval, were Mr. and Mrs. S. Erno Moore, Janice Moore and Mrs. Martin Moulton, Ogdensburg, N.Y., and Cynthia Moore, Syracuse, N.Y. After the graduation they celebrated the occasion at a dinner party at Gran'View Restaurant, Riverside Drive, Ogdensburg.

Champs challenged by rebels

Charlottenburgh Jr. "B" Rebels open their regular season schedule at home on Saturday evening at 8 p.m. against the Morrisburg Lions, last season's divisional champs.

The Rebels split their preseason exhibition games with the Alexandria Glens. This result has given the coaching staff high expectations for this year's edition of the Rebels. Coaches hope the club can even better last year's third-place finish which saw them lose only eight games all season.

Annual meeting

The Glengarry and District branch of the Clan MacMillan Society of North America will meet in Finch this year on October 17. The annual meeting will be in the community centre, beginning with dinner at 7 p.m.

Glen Sandfield UCW heard Mrs Mayes speak on plight of lonely adults

There were 16 members and guests present on the afternoon of October first, when Mrs. Clifford MacDonald hosted the monthly meeting of the U.C.W.

Mrs. Arnold MacRae welcomed those present and took 'Gleanings For The Soul' as her first theme reading. She chose, "The Grace of Giving Thanks." Mrs. Chas. Chapman read "A Gift Brings Love", followed by the signing of Harvest Home. Some delightful poems were read by our president and Mrs. Ronald MacLachlan. Wheatfields and Stairway to the Stars, by Dorothy Dumbrille, Indian Summer, by Longfellow; Wise Thoughts and New Thoughts were read in twin by Mrs. Shelah Mayes; Tunnell Vision was read by Mrs. Clifford MacDonald and Kindness was read by Myra Van Nooten.

We received the Mandate and took a quick look at page 18, How Do We Spend Money?

Reports on bales sent to Sandy Lake by the U.C.W. and Sunday School members in the past few months totalled 5 in all. A letter to Johnnie Tate for specific items besides mittens for the Mitten Tree, will be noted in the church News Letter.

East Hawkesbury and Glen Sandfield congregations please take note: October 26 is to be the date for the Congregational Luncheon. Each family is asked for a main dish and a salad or pie for the table. The bazaar will be November 22.

Our two guests, Mrs. Mayes and Mrs. Van Nooten, spoke about the Phoenix Park Home in Glen Robertson. They do need visitors and should feel that they are a part of society, and that people do care. Money isn't needed. Provincial sponsors take care of 90 per cent of funds, but the folks do need some friends, to take them to stores, to church, or just to come and visit them once a week.

Here is a chance to do something in your own community, that doesn't cost much, but does demand that we give ourselves. Some can't! To go and sing with them or just toss a ball with them maybe read a simple story could bring so much into a drab and dreary life. Not many go to see them. A few do have family visitors but for the most part, no one seems to care. In turn, they don't seem to care about themselves, feeling that they are of no account. But this is not so. Few of us knew the home was still open. None knew it was for retarded adults living there now. They enjoy easy games, happy faces, music, dancing, rhythm and instruments. These people, rejected for the most part by everyone since childhood, take some time to relate to a new face, but with patience, their response will be good to ones who go with the idea of helping them learn, or of going in friendship. However, they can sense someone who fears them, or is repulsed by their sometimes different appearances. This brings withdrawl, for they are not willing to face hurt again. We can all do a little. Sending twenty Christmas cards to them would delight them. They love to get cards. Not much eh? But this would let them know someone does care.

This was the message brought to us by our guests. It left us with much food for thought. Oh, there is a Christmas party each year given by the Lions Club I believe. That's it! Lots of opportunity for service and kindness really close at hand.

After the benediction, the group enjoyed light refreshments. Several interrogated Mrs. Mayes about the ways they might contribute to this program with the residents. We resolved to become involved somehow.

UNICEF has far-reaching effect

This year we mark the 25th anniversary of UNICEF, the organization founded by the United Nations to help provide health care, nutrition and social service projects in developing countries.

The Canadian branch of the UNICEF Committee raised $15,000 through the Hallowe'en campaign in 1955, the year it was formed here. Last year the amount collected was $1,500,000 with more than one-third of this contributed in Ontario.

The projects earmarked for UNICEF funds this year are for horticulture and nutrition in Bhutan, education in Burma, basic health services and water in Cape Verde, rural water and sanitation in Jamaica, textbooks in Liberia, nutrition and education in Somalia and non-formal education in Thailand.

Although the Year of the Child appears to have accomplished little, its long term effect may reach further than has been evident. Its goal, to alert people to the needs of children around the globe has had a measure of effect. UNICEF, and the World Health Organization has defined objectives resulting from Year of the Child study as follows:

—Health for all by the year 2000. "The attainment by all peoples of the world of a level of health that will permit them to lead a socially and economically productive life."

—Expanded Immunization Program by the year 1990. The provision of immunization services for every child in the world by 1990. The eradication of smallpox throughout the world during the 1970's was one success. Now the targets are five other contagious diseases which presently kill or disable 10 million children every year: diphtheria, measles, pertussis (whooping cough), poliomyelitis and tuberculosis. All of these diseases can be prevented by immunization, at a cost of approximately three dollars per child.

—Safe water and sanitation for all by 1990. Reaching this goal will mean that 80 per cent of the infectious disease now afflicting children will be eliminated. This goal will require an investment of approximately $5,000 million per year for the next ten years.

It is all very well for adults to be aware but children themselves should be conscious of other children's deprivation and suffering. This is the purpose of having the little ghosts and hobgoblins collect pennies for others instead of goodies for themselves at Hallowe'en. As we understand it, the UNICEF collection is supposed to be an "instead of" and not a "besides". We've known the wee solicitors to have a basket in one hand for their own loot and the UNICEF can in the other.

Could be we do not challenge the youngsters enough in this regard. We put on parties for the young ones and dances for the high schoolers to distract them from vandalism.

If a purpose is what the youth need, UNICEF provides a great incentive.

Methanol may be answer

If methanol can be developed into an effective fuel, Eastern Ontario could be a prime producer.

Several farm organizations are studying the matter and as the price of conventional fuels rises, there is every likelihood that methanol will become very attractive financially.

That could be jobs and economic stimulation for our area.

Methanol can be produced from any material containing carbon or hydrocarbon. Wood, garbage and farm crops can all be used. Methanol can be used either in its pure form or added to gasoline. It is a natural liquid which burns cleanly.

It has been estimated that with a blend of only 10 percent methanol to gasoline, cars could run as well as they do now, if not better and we would reduce our oil requirements by four per cent a year.

Converting to 100 per cent methanol would reduce our oil usage by 35 per cent.

Poplar plantations already in an experimental stage in Eastern Ontario could be a major source of methanol. What is particularly attractive about this source of energy is that, unlike oil, it is renewable.

Further experimentation will be necessary and the system will probably not become that feasible until the cost of other fuels rises more.

Nevertheless, the time for government to make a commitment to this alternative energy form is now. That way, when another oil crunch comes, we'll be ready for it.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

It's a great time of the year for fantasizing. Particularly for women. It's one of the seasonal hazards we all experience this time of the year.

It starts when we pick up the Christmas Wish Book. Just watch any woman walk down the street with "The Book" tucked under her arm and you will see that "I-can't-wait-to-get-home-look".

Supper gets quick shift that night. "The Book" reposes on the kitchen counter screaming "Hurry up, look at all the goodies I contain".

Mealtime over, woman becomes absorbed in her picture-book and woe to him who tries to intervene. Such a golden moment tolerates no intrusion.

Near the front cover are the luxury telephones. The kind glamorous ladies in the movies reach for while buried up to their ears in bubble bath.

Gleaming goblets, shimmering crystal, exquisite candlesticks. No one holding them up to the light to inspect them for dishwasher spot marks.

Gorgeous appliances shining in gay colors to make a kitchen as multi-colored as a Glengarry forest in October.

Timepieces for pockets and pendants, for slender or sturdy wrists, the latest fad—a clock-face as part of a decorative picture or set out in stately grandfather clocks.

Robes in satin and plushes to make mother look like a beauty queen draped across her bed.

Soft wooly sweaters, lovely sheer dresses to grace tall, slim ladies. There are no "fat lady" models, no male models with Santa Claus bellies floating in their laps.

There are stereos, tools and the kind of furniture that's nicer to look at than sit on.

But the toys. The pages and pages of toys!

The space age toys. Nothing so simple as a mere car or truck. Only in a catalogue is it possible to examine the wondrous new inventions and learn of the potential of each. For instance: brain buggies, the probe droid, the twin pod cloud car, snow speeder, sand crawler, ice planet, millenium falcon, Darth Vader tie fighter, the cryotron, laserscope fighter, hydrocopter, galactic cruiser, rocket tubes, glider launcher, Lyperion. There are also hornetroids and micronauts to operate these.

But can anything compare to the dolls, the unbelievable line-up of dolls? We have Brandi, Barbie, Brenda, Boudoir Doll, Rub-a-dub Dolly, Tugboat Shower, Baby Wet'n Care, Look'n Love Dolly, Bottle Baby, Luv-a-Tub Doll, Dolly Pops, Baby Bum-Bum, Baby Do-Do, Musical Wiggles, Whoopsie, Baby Alive, Ronald MacDonald.

In the soft bear and stuffed rag doll type we have Brian Beaver, Peter Porcupine, Sealy Seal, Ralph Racoon, Koala Bear, Three Bear Family, Lying Colt, Rumples Dog, Cuddle Bear, Dave Dragon, Tubby Dubby Dog, Papa Smurf, Calvin the Chimp, Oscar Trashman, Cookie Baker, Big Bird Fireman, Super Grover, Ernie, Bert, Country Girl, Dream Along Carrie, Raggedy Ann, Raggedy Andy, Giant Panda, Giant Racoon, Snoopy and Woodstock, Winnie the Pooh.

Mother can drool over all the gifts by the hour, evening after evening and dream, dream, dream.

Then out she goes to the local stores to see them all where she can reach out and touch.

The catalogue? Oh yes, she orders some of the stuff. But there has to be down the aisle Christmas shopping, out among the tinsel and the people.

And having digested the catalogue she has a comparison shopping price computerized in her mind so she knows pretty well just what everything should cost.

Perspective

by Bob Roth

Constitution package not bad

Regardless of one's partisan political beliefs, an objective evaluation of the federal government's attempt to bring the constitution home indicates that it is, on the whole, a pretty fair package.

There are some serious flaws, to be sure, such as the open-ended provision in the proposed new constitution which guaranteed the rights and freedoms of Canadians "subject only to such reasonable limits as are generally accepted in a free and democratic society with a parliamentary system of government".

The 1970 invocation of the War Measures Act proved, people in a democratic society do not always agree with what is "reasonable" use of government power.

Nonetheless, the proposed charter of rights contained in the draft constitution puts onto paper rights which we only enjoy now through tradition.

Among the freedoms cited in the proposed constitution are the following:

—Freedom of conscience and religion.

—Freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression including freedom of the press and other media of information.

—Freedom of peaceful assembly and of association.

—The right to life, liberty and security of the person and the right not to be deprived thereof except in accordance with the principles of fundamental justice.

Minority language rights are also guaranteed in the package and the government seems to have taken a realistic approach to the situation.

The draft constitution notes that services in the minority language (English in Quebec, French in other parts of Canada) shall be provided where there are "a substantial number of persons" in a given area who use the minority language.

In other words, the entire civil service does not have to be bilingual from coast to coast.

The constitution will, of course, run headlong into conflict with the government of Quebec because of its position that nobody moving into Quebec should have a right to an education in English.

The draft constitution steers clear of the controversial issues of resource management and other such disputes over federal-provincial jurisdiction. The government believes these issues can be debated once the constitution is home.

Given the past record, it is doubtful that patriation of the constitution can be achieved if such patriation depends on unanimous agreement of the provinces.

If the constitution must be patriated unilaterally, the government has come up with a formula as good as any.

Hopefully we can work the bugs out, once we get it here.

One of those bugs, of course, is the not so iron-clad guarantee of fundamental rights.

Rights which can be taken away by an Act of Parliament are not guaranteed rights at all. The very purpose of a bill of rights should be to protect people against precisely that kind of action.

Foghorn explained

Alexandria, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

I read with keen and nostalgic interest that letter relative to "Foghorn" McDonald in the last News issue by our mutual friend and historical author, a transplant from down Martintown way to Goderich—Ewan Ross.

All I can do, authentically, Ewan, is confirm your capsule reference to a noted Glengarrian. In this way.

Many times as a boy I listened with awe to the narratives involving the risk of injuries or drowning from an upset canoe loaded with a "grub stake". Such hazards overshadowed a prospector's dream to stake a claim that would result in wealth.

Such a story-teller was our next-of-kin, George R. (Ranald Roy) McDonald. When home from the "North" he visited with his mother, across the line-fenc, Mrs. Ranald Roy (Aunt Maggie) McDonald, the co-author of the "Road to Dalhousie" ballad.

George would walk across the fields to visit with my parents and always wearing prospector's knee-high boots, the soles studded with hob nails. He invariably told of the rough life that had to be endured in the new-found mines of Northern Ontario. Not all was gold that glittered. More than one anecdote included in some way Neil Roderick McDonald from Glen Nevis. And how he had become widely known as "Foghorn" due to his booming voice.

I recall in particular the telling of the Porcupine disastrous fire and how "Foghorn" rated highly among those playing a hero's role. Later appropriately recognized in a tangible way.

The memories I have retained more vividly are those visualizing Foghorn McDonald as one who captured and retained the admiration of Glengarrians and other workers in mining, lumber and construction camps, plus the army of course. Not only by leadership but also by his gift of homey conversation spiced with Glengarry wit and humour.

To illustrate this assumption I'll close by relating a true story about Foghorn McDonald's desire at Mother Martin's in Montreal, for a supper like his late mother would serve at home in Glen Nevis.

Foghorn had just checked into the popular Glengarry rendez vous, Mother Martin's, after quite a lengthy sojourn in Northern Ontario, Mrs. Martin, a widow with a young family and hotel responsibilities was widely known as "Mother" because when miners, lumber-jacks or construction workers registered at Martins, Mrs. Martin kindly asked her guests to let her put their money in the safe and she would dole it out as required. Thus preventing some city sharpie from "rolling" a guest. Hence the tag "Mother Martin".

After going through this usual ritual the next sequence of events, as one would anticipate, was Foghorn McDonald at the bar. He was soon surrounded by Glen Nevis confreres like "Humpy" Jack MacDonald.

Following a number of "hoisters" and exchange of greetings it was supper time. They adjourned to the dining room. While being seated by the hostess, Foghorn let it be known that he craved a feed of pig's feet (pork hocks). He hadn't enjoyed such a meal since the last time he was home and they had butchered a hog. His mother served that special for supper—pig's feet or hocks if you wish.

At this point the waitress, a middle aged lady, headed towards the table and being a bit handicapped walked with a waddle. Of course she approached Foghorn first as he was obviously the host and holding forth in conversation. Handing Foghorn the menu he brusquely handed it back and in his traditional tone of voice boomed, "Have you got pig's feet?" The humiliated waitress meekly replied, "No, it is rheumatism".

That's the best I can do, Ewan, s'long.

Sincerely,
Angus H. McDonell.

Reunion

by Christina MacGillivray

Progress reports will be in at the Friday night meeting of the Alexandria High School reunion group and formation of more committees will be taking place. Please come and bring your ideas; we'll toss them around and promise not to throw any out.

You who cannot attend be you far or near, can send yours. The meeting at the High School is from 7:30-9:30 p.m. so should not interfere with your Friday night dates.

Bylaws are finalized

The second annual meeting of the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame directors was held Wednesday evening of last week in the boardroom of the Maxville and District Sports Complex.

There were laudible reports regarding the July induction program and treasurer Dr. Don Gamble presented a favorable financial statement that was pleasantly received by the members emphasizing that already this fledgeling county organization is progressing on a sound monetary basis that ensures continued success.

Chairman Archibald MacDonell of the nomination committee launched the 1980-81 term by returning all directors with the exception of Dr. Don Gamble. Dr. Gamble, a co-founder, requested to be relieved of his duties as he has become "weary" of attending meetings. The matter was discussed at length and finally it was agreed, regretfully, to accept the resignation after realizing that Dr. Gamble has been attending community meetings, always in a leadership way, for some 40 years. The loss was also tempered with "Don's" assurance that he, quote, "Would hope that you would feel free to call on me to do anything I can on the outside", end of quote.

Re-elected president and chairman, Angus H. McDonell, was appointed to seek a replacement for Dr. Gamble.

Archibald MacDonell takes over Dr. Gamble's vice-chairmanship while Garry Smith becomes treasurer. Jim Hill continues as assistant historian and keeper of print records that already has made an interesting first volume. The other directors are: Bill Campbell, secretary; Cameron McDonald, Morlin Campbell, Donald E. MacMaster, Don Munroe and Murray MacQueen.

The directors were advised by the chairman that the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame application seeking membership in the Canadian Association of Sports Heritage has been accepted. The Glengarry Association hardly required an introduction as treasurer Wm. McBride and managing director of the CFL Sports Hall of Fame with the curator of the Football Hall of Fame in Hamilton ably assisted Jim Hill and Angus H. McDonell with advice and guide lines in preparing a constitution to govern the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame.

The draft of the constitution for the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame was then reviewed for the third reading and following a few amendments that were deemed necessary the constitution by-laws were agreed to and accepted on a resolution moved by Cameron MacDonald, seconded by Jim Hill and carried unanimously.

Included in the by-laws is a paragraph that should be well received by those countless fans of the Glengarry Highland Games regardless of where they reside and whether or not they have a Glengarry heritage. Athletic competitions is the founding basics of Highland Games that began centuries ago. Therefore, the directors felt that if those stalwart men and women who down through the years made the Glengarry Highland Games known throughout North America were not enshrined in the County Sports Hall of Fame, they, in time, would go down unheralded and unsung.

The directors have made certain that such a happening will not take place. Section eight, Induction into Hall of Fame, paragraph "f" reads: The committee responsible for reviewing and selecting candidates for induction shall consider and give due consideration to any member or members of the Glengarry Highland Games' committees whose contribution to the establishment and annual success of the Glengarry Highland Games is widely known.

The agenda was concluded with confirmation to Solicitor Larry Filion to proceed with the Charter application to legally incorporate the association.

Candidate nominations are being sought as advertised in another column of this issue for 1981. The directors again emphasize the point that any nominee not selected remains on file for a further subsequent review.

A gracious acknowledgement by artist Doug Fales was received in return for the tangible recognition of his talented work in the portrayal on canvas of the inducted candidates. The 1981 induction program will resume in early spring.

Capt. J. A. Macdonald; 2nd vice-president, A. Watson; secretary, D. R. MacDougald; treasurer, A. Gordon Macdonald; executive committee, Messrs. Lalonde, Dore, Danis, F. G. Chisholm and T. J. Bathurst.—Our fellow citizen, P. A. Ferguson, received a wire on Friday, conveying the news that his brother, Donald Ferguson, had been accidentally killed while engaged in bridge building operations at Chicago.

SEVENTY YEARS AGO
Friday, October 14, 1910

While engaged with several others in completing the roof of the addition to the Ottawa Hotel here about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Angus Gillis, carpenter, met accidental death in a 30-foot fall to the ground.—Leo Marcoux recently placed on the Alexandria-Green Valley route, an up-to-date bus, which is a great improvement on the open carriage in which he daily carried patrons to and from the CPR.—John McMartin, who left here in April, for Bangor, Sask., and later worked in Osaquan, Ont., arrived home on Friday. Associated with him were the following Glengarrians: Ranald and Dougal Cameron of McCormick; N. Baker of Laggan and John A. McDonald of this place.—The commodious barns and outbuildings, the property of G. H. McGillivray, McGillivray's Bridge, were destroyed by fire Friday evening, with most of the contents.

EIGHTY YEARS AGO
Friday, October 12, 1900

The lifeless body of Morris Fitzgerald, 5-1st Kenyon, was found on the road within sight of his home Saturday morning. He was returning from the factory when the attack struck him down.—E. de Bellefeuille, who is engaged at North Lancaster in erecting a store for J. F. Cattanach, spent Sunday in town.—A Guay, the well-known furniture dealer at Maxville, was here on business, Tuesday. Mr. Guay has just invented an extension bed spring, which he is having patented in Canada and the United States.—Donald McKenzie of St. Elmo, was riding into Maxville one evening last week mounted on a fractious young horse. Frightened by a barking dog the horse jammed young McKenzie against a telephone pole, breaking his leg, and finally threw him to the ground.

Martintown Rumor Mill

By Art Buckland

This week an essay by one of my readers, P. I. Curran of McCuaig's Corners.

Believe it or not, it was one of those days when everything had gone wrong. I finally threw up my hands in self-disgust and followed an urge to go out of the stifling confines of the kitchen and into the bright October sunshine. My heart was troubled with an aching restlessness that seemed to seek comfort in the peacefulness of the great outdoors. A light breeze has sprung up, carrying with it the odor of over-ripe fruit and the acrid smell of a far-off bonfire.

As I walked towards the river, the conventional sights and sounds of the farm encompassed me, awakening an awareness that had lain dormant during the busy summer season.

I felt a keen sense of calm enjoyment as I looked at the buildings, the countryside, the sky and the clouds, each in turn and with a slow deliberation.

My glance rested on the trees with their tiers of foliage. They had spent years growing outside my windows. They had thrown dancing shadows on my walls, and had whispered in barely audible voices throughout sleepless nights. I had always taken those trees for granted. So unaware of them was I, that I had scarcely even seen them. Now, suddenly, this fine autumn day was forcing them to become part of my life. The fall sun filtered through their branches spreading a halo on the grass beneath.

Field after field of still unharvested corn blended its perfectly matched russets with the gold and silver of the soft maple tree.

A blot of red war paint savagely colored the "sumac on the hill" filling me with a painful nostalgia. I saw a young aspen sapling shining in a shower of glittering hair, contrasting its fairness with the dark gree of the pines and firs and with the white of the nymph-like birch trees.

And, then, I gasped in admiration as I noticed the living fire of the king of the autumn, the sugar maple—lighting up the landscape from the forest to the village where it marches along the sidewalks and up the hills.

I rested my eyes on the subdued, pastel mauves, the bronzes and the soft salmon pinks of unidentifiable trees.

I looked at the oaks already craggy against the October sky, busy playing out the crowning point of this great theatrical production in the unsurpassed fireworks of changing color.

I revelled in the beauty before my eyes. It seemed as if the whole county had gone into a state of grandeur presenting to any willing on-looker nothing less than a breathtaking apparition.

A treetoad startled me as it screamed in orchestra with the chant of the crickets and the call of a last, lonely bob-white. A cloud passed over the sun. I sat despondently on the stone fence, resting my hands on my chin and wished. I wished that I were still naive enough to believe in Jack Frost.

I wished that I did not know that all this beauty had been created by death. And then the cloud passed by, allowing the sun to beat down in full force. My spirits lifted. What was the use of sitting with empty hands and of grieving with idle tears? Surely this could not be a time for sadness, surrounded as I was by a carnival of beauty lit by the fires of burning gold.

I reached out and touched the trunk of a nearby tree. I felt its power, its strength, and its solidarity. This very tree had something to teach me. It knew how to live and how to die, magnificently and gloriously, still manifesting its beauty until its termination, yet, always reaching outwards and upwards to a great unknown.

Now, refreshed both physically and spiritually, I breathed deeply of the cool, clean air. Then, with a soft, happy whistle, I returned to my still waiting work.

The Glengarry Craft Fair is a notable coming event: Oct. 18 and 19 at the Williamstown Museum.

Four young ladies from our area have been honored: Shannon Kennedy, Brigitte Kippen, Leslie Ann McRae and Mrs. MacCulloch will be dancing with the Scottish show Breath of Scotland an its Eastern Canadian Tour. Good luck to these MacCulloch Dancers.

Growth of Church discussed by WMS

Mrs. William Ewing, president of Glengarry Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society, presided for the Fall meeting held in St. John's Presbyterian Church, Cornwall, on October 1.

The theme chosen for this meeting was, "A Church without mission is a Church without growth."

A worship service followed, conducted by two ladies from the Vankleek Hill Auxiliary, Mrs. Robert Martin and Mrs. Alasdair Fraser.

Rev. Fred Rennie welcomed the ladies to St. John's Church and made an announcement regarding the visits of the church moderator, Dr. Alexander F. MacSween, to Glengarry Presbytery.

A meeting is to be held at St. Luke's Church, Finch, on October 14 at 8 p.m., also an informal lucheon at St. John's Church, Cornwall, on October 15 at noon.

Mrs. Alpin MacGregor reported receiving a box of historical records from Miss C. A. MacLennan, Lancaster, and a committee was named to decide where this material should go. A letter of thanks was to be sent to the Misses Catherine Ann and Mary Jane MacLennan for donating these records to the presbyterial.

Mrs. Gordon Fresque, Dunvegan, favoured the meeting with a beautiful solo. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Rourke, Vankleek Hill.

Reports on the Vacation Bible Schools were given by Mrs. Kennedy for Lancaster, Mrs. Martin for Vankleek Hill, and Mrs. Fresque for Dunvegan. Mrs. Ewing reported on the very successful Sunday School Rally, organized by Rev. F. Rennie and Rev. K. MacIntyre, held in St. John's Church, Cornwall, on Sept. 21. It was attended by 230 children.

Mrs. G. MacIntyre reminded the meeting that the cost of Life Membership Certificates would increase to $50 after Jan., 1981.

Mrs. Neil Bush introduced the guest speaker, Miss Margaret Boyd, area consultant from Ottawa, to the meeting. Miss Boyd reviewed the different study packets for this year. Adult groups have two choices: (a) Partners in India and Nepal. This packet contains outlines for meetings on the study of mission in India, a cassette tape on an interview with Pauline Brown, R.N. and Dr. Margaret Kennedy's book "Flame of the Forest". or (b) Bible Study, based on the book, "Beyond Brokenness". This study includes group discussions on the reality of daily living and engaging in mission.

The children's packet contains an excellent map of India and is based on the book, "River of Faith".

Miss Boyd was thanked by Mrs. M. Shaver, Cornwall.

Mrs. Archie Munro, Maxville, thanked the ladies of St. John's Church for providing refreshments for the social hour.

ON PRESIDENT'S LIST—Kathryn Lacombe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lacombe, Dorval, completed her nurse's training at St. Lawrence College School of Nursing in Brockville. Graduation exercises were held Saturday afternoon, September 27. Kathryn was selected for the President's List by the College Academic Council, a special recognition awarded for "high academic achievement and excellent contribution to the non-academic life of the College". She will be joining the nursing staff of the Mississauga General Hospital in Mississauga. Kathryn is a niece of Paul Lacombe of Glen Robertson.

Women get grant

The Honorable Ed Lumley, Member of Parliament for Stormont-Dundas and Minister of State for Trade, has announced on behalf of the Honorable Francis Fox, that the organization —Women for the Survival of Agriculture—has been awarded a $12,000 grant to assist with the staging of the First National Conference for Farm Women to be held in Ottawa, December 2, 3, and 4, 1980.

Women for the Survival of Agriculture which originated in Dundas County, is concerned with the status of rural women. Their objective is to ensure that the social and economic rights of rural women are recognized and accepted in the law and in society.

The National Conference for Farm Women will serve as the first opportunity for farm women from across Canada to meet and air their concerns on their dual role as women and farmers. The Conference's agenda calls for the opening address to be delivered by the Hon. Eugene Whelan, which will be followed by various workshops and panel discussion dealing with such topics as the role of women in farm organizations, salaries and benefits for farm women, and, how to influence decision making.

Preliminary work on the conference has been underway for sometime. During this past summer, 14 students were responsible for researching and preparing the necessary information for the conference participants. The results of their research into the status, media image, legal rights, etc., of farm women will also be discussed in the workshops.

In making the announcement, Mr. Lumley congratulated the Women for the Survival of Agriculture for "their initiative in organizing such a worthwhile conference. The willingness of the federal government to support such an event illustrates its interest in the agricultural community as an important component of Canadian life."

"I would also like to express my heartiest congratulations to Conference Chairperson Dianne Harkin of Winchester, who has spearheaded the efforts required to make this conference a reality. Farm women in Canada are most fortunate to have such a devoted and concerned individual working on their behalf and in their best interests."

Wok works

The first meeting of the Martintown 4-H group came to order on October 4, with seventeen members present. The elected President is Bonnie Ivens, Vice President Andrea Buckland, and the Secretary is Rosemary Vanrooi. Our topic was stir frying, using a wok. It was a success with the members. The members found out how to use a wok and how to make Chinese style pork. We also learned about energy conservation. Bonnie Ivens made a motion that the meeting adjourn.

In Memoriam

SHAVER—In loving memory of a dear husband and father who passed away, October 12, 1973.
We can not bring the old days back.
His smile we can not see.
We treasure now the memories,
Of days that used to be.
Lovingly remembered by wife
Ethel and family. 42-1c

MULLEN—John James. In loving memory of my dear husband, John, who passed away Oct. 21, 1978.
I miss you more than anyone knows.
As the years pass the emptiness grows.
I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
With you I spent my happiest days.
You shared my life, my hopes, and fears.
But all I have left are memories,
And your picture in a frame.
Lovingly remembered, sadly missed,
Your loving wife Isabel. 42-1p

MULLEN—John James. In loving memory of our dear Dad who passed away 2 years ago, Oct. 21, 1978.
The rolling stream of life flows on,
But still the vacant chair,
Recalls the love, the voice,
And smile of one who once sat there.
Lovingly remembered,
Your daughter Bertha and son-in-law, Real. 42-1p

Irwin wins two

Tommy Irwin of Cornwall overcame the muddy track conditions at Gartree Park to win two first in the moto-cross races held there on Sunday. Tommy won the 250 cc open expert and Enduro classes.

The races at Gartree were the third set of races staged at the track located near Long Sault and it was the first time that local riders placed so high in the standings. Irwin's performance was particularly commendable considering that only five weeks ago the youth had a plaster cast removed from his leg.

Wayne and Garry Burge of Hawksbury won second-place honors in the Mini-senior and junior classes, respectively.

Over 60 riders raced on the less than ideal track conditions, reported John Milnes, one of the race organizers. No injuries were reported.

The races held at Gartree Park are part of the Eastern Ontario Moto-Cross circuit.

To exchange

In an exchange of pulpits within the presbytery of Glengarry, the service in Kenyon Church next Sunday will be conducted by Mr. Dwight Nelson of St. Columba Church, Kirk Hill. Mr. Fresque will conduct the service at St. Columba. The theme of the exchange will be "Church Growth".

Flashback to Glengarry's mercantile past

by Angus H. McDonell

The top afternoon CBC tv viewing last Saturday, October 4, was the second baseball game of the Phillies-Expos final series. All was in readiness except the mood of the weatherman. Rain was falling from Cape Breton's Cabot Trail rocky shore line to the lush Leamington tomato fields edging western Lake Erie. There would be a delay in the plate umpire bellowing p-l-a-y b-a-l-l.

Noting this obvious stand-by time, my Scottish lass of Highland Chief displaying all the charm of a Lester Pearson diplomat suggested how nice it would be to attend the 39ers Harvest Tea and Bake Sale at the Church on the Hill, while waiting for the game to start. And should there be a further delay we could spend that time checking our mail (we had been away) and browse through the papers especially the News.

I confess that I am more at ease hoisting a noggin or two than socially fingering a cup of tea. However, I, too, thought this way of spending the ball game interlude would be very pleasant. It was an enjoyable social hour.

It was still raining, so back home I lit a fire in the fireplace to eliminate the damp chill and be more comfortable reading mail and papers. (We had just returned from our annual Indian Summer trek through the Aridondacks visiting the Lapierres at their Chateauguay Lake cottage, thus once more quenching our viewing thirst on the panoramic sketches of beauty by the greatest artist of all—mother nature.

I lounged back in our Archie Bunker chair with our orphan kittens, "Snoopy" and "Tiger", snuggled at my feet. (Vic Dudar had neighborly cared for them in our absence). I began reading. But only got as far as the News' front page.

There in the lower left corner was a photo of Frank McLeister and Sam Sultan with the new drug dispensary in the background. The supporting story revealed, briefly, that three of Alexandria's prominent business enterprises at the turn of the century and for subsequent decades, Ostrom's Jewellery and Drug store, McLeister's Drug Store and "Little Archie" McMillan's livery stable and grounds would henceforth be combined into one unit.

I folded the News and for a while just peered into the colorful, flickering fireplace flames. What better setting for concentration of thought and inspiration while turning back to the nostalgia pioneer pages of time that greatly contributed, input, to Alexandria's mercantile history by Isaac Brock Ostrom, John McLeister and Archie McMillan.

So let us begin this narrative down Memory Lane by saying that the introductory paragraph was recorded almost one hundred years ago, 97 to be exact, by a young ambitious jeweller confidently staking his future in Glengarry and in particular Alexandria. He was Isaac Brock Ostrom. (In preparing this article I sought the aid and was richly rewarded by receiving Ostrom family history from that beloved and venerable elderly lady of Maxville Manor, Miss Ethel Ostrom).

Many times in the past I wondered why Mr. Ostrom was named Isaac Brock, obviously after Canada's great army general, Isaac Brock, who was killed in action at Queenston Heights during the war with the U.S., 1812-14. Miss Ostrom gave me the answer and I am sure many News readers will also be pleased to know how this came about.

Among the pioneers settling in Sidney Township, just north of Belleville, in Hastings County were a Daniel Ostrom and his wife Isabel Drysdale, great grandparents of Miss Ethel and Harold Ostrom, Vancouver. By keeping an inn they cared for stage coach travellers between Montreal and York (Toronto). One night early in 1812 a notable guest registered, General Isaac Brock. That week the Ostroms had been blessed by a baby son. Before leaving, next day, General Brock tenderly lifted the baby from his mother's arms and kissed the infant's forehead. "That kiss (quoting Miss Ostrom) started a proliferation of Isaac Brocks and plain Brocks among all the Ostrom connections".

On lot 11, concession 5, Sidney Township, June 24, 1844, another Ostrom baby boy was born. Family history repeated itself as this baby, too, was named Isaac Brock Ostrom. Thus the beginning of the young ambitious jeweller who opened his own store in Alexandria in 1883.

The original store was the second building north of Kenyon street, east side of Main. By today's survey that is next to the Sauve Real Estate offices, the former Donald Roy McDonald grocery store.

Mr. Ostrom's brother, Byron, was a pharmicist and he was in partnership hence, "Ostrom Brothers". At the turn of the century, 1900, son Ernest Ostrom a graduate pharmicist joined his father and that was the origin of what we recall the noted family enterprise wedged between the Glengarry News and the Grand Union Hotel—"Ostrom's Jewellery and Drug Store".

We will backtrack for a moment to the original store that I presume was the Ostrom home before settling on Bishop street north of the public school. Although too young to entertain political views I did compare Isaac Brock Ostrom to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Mr. Ostrom was a tall, distinguished gentleman in appearence, made that way by business dress, always well groomed, displaying a lofty brow with receding thinning hairline in contrast to an abundance of temple and neck grey curls so much the image of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. In summer he wore a farmer's straw hat not only while spending leisure time in his attractive flower and kitchen garden but also as he strode with dignified step down Main street. In winter his custom was an amusing trait. As he hurried from the store to the post office, he covered his head with the palm of his right hand.

Mrs. Ostrom was Margaret Jane MacGregor from Martintown. Miss Ethel Ostrom told me that she had relatives, MacGregors, Rosses and Munros "strung out all along the King's Road".

Now the interior profile of Ostrom's store of 60 years ago. How do I know? Many and many a morning on our way to school, and later years, drop in and ask either Clarence or Ernest the results of hockey games the previous night. They knew via the night telephone switchboard operator. (More anon about the telephone).

The light from the large front windows enhanced the display counter case contents, shelves laden with Patent medicine, and entire interior. As you entered on your left was the attractive cosmetic merchandise of great interest to the women-folk. Next was a tooth-watering show of chocolates, open and boxes, bridged by the serving counter and cash register adjoining a display of surgical instruments.

Ernest Ostrom's dispensary was in the rear, combined with a store room for books, stationery and school supplies like flags, maps etc.

On your right at the front window was the jeweller's work bench. Obviously occupied by that venerable elderly gentleman, Isaac Brock Ostrom, with that fascinating trademark the magnifying glass, to us of tender age, in shirt sleeves with cuff links and tie 'stick pin' and the traditional watch chain linking right to left vest pocket anchoring a valuable open face timepiece. What a contrast to today's fashion. Even the Prime Minister will sit before tv cameras with open shirt. Give me the old days of professional dress dignity.

On the wall beside the work bench was a case holding scores of tagged watches. Some to be repaired, the others ready for owners. Then the show case of varied watches for sale from expensive Longines down to wrist watches and the ordinary pocket "ticker".

And now possibly the most important case of all. The one containing those purple trays of diamond engagement and wedding rings. Next, show case of flat and silverware.

If you were at all interested in clock timepieces the wall back of those show cases was lined with really fascinating wall clocks and other smaller ones suitable for any room in the home. The pendulums swaying silently in contrast to every hour on the hour chimes of almost every tone would ring throughout the store and the opened front door in summer time.

Finally at the rear a display of cameras, photographic accessories and records aptly advertised by the little black and white spaniel with his ear cocked to the gramophone horn listening to, "His Master's Voice". Remember?

Just in front was a post-war built victrola with cabinet case. Beside the victrola was a heavily built, rounded armchair. Prospective record buyers sat here listening to the playing before the purchase.

Directly in front, floor center, was an approximate 4x3x7 foot upright box. The lower portion wood completed with glass sides including door. Likely made by such skilled craftsmen at Schell's as Alex Lamabe and Duncan Gray.

Inside was a small stool and shelf. Facing you was a traditional box with transmitter piece, "hooked" receiver, crank on one side and two bells on top. That, folks, was Alexandria and Glengarry's first telephone booth.

Next week we will take you through the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada installed a switchboard in the drug and jewellery store of Isaac Brock Ostrom in 1895. Our concluding paragraphs will relate to the John McLeister drug store, the amalgamation with Ostrom's and finally the renovation of recent weeks that includes the acquiring of the third noted turn of the century enterprise, "Little Archie" McMillan's livery stable. grounds.

I trust this subject matter is of some nostalgic interest especially to far away Glengarry News readers. This issue is being mailed direct to one of Canada's foremost prospectors and mining experts—Ranald (Rannie Danny Jim) MacDonald, now in sick bay, room 45A, General Hospital, Edmonton. Rannie's birthplace is the pioneer Second of Kenyon home with open fireplace hearth owned by our history recording neighbors, "The Harpers".
