Chamber of Commerce future grows dimmer in 1982

(Staff) - The future grew dimmer for the Chesterville Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday night as seven out of 55 chamber members attended the regular meeting and reviewed the organization's gloomy financial status.

The chamber has $141.31 in the bank, and two outstanding debts totalling $178.23 secretary-treasurer Ina Graafland reported.

A dance held in conjunction with July 1 celebrations, with the theme of Monte Carlo, lost money to the tune of $933.37. Later in the summer, at Chesterville Fair, the chamber did make some headway when their dunking booth netted a profit of $218.75.

Stating the obvious chamber president John VanBruinessen said, "Our financial status is not very good."

With the small number of members at the meeting and anticipating an equally small number to show interest in coming chamber sponsored events the chamber voted in favor of holding the Santa Claus parade, and the New Year's dance but cancelling the Christmas merchants promotion and possibly cancelling the winter carnival.

Although not present at the meeting Dale McNaughton, marshall for the Santa Claus parade for the past two years, had told several chamber members he would prefer to assist with the organizing, but didn't want to remain as marshall this year.

The members decided to form a committee to organize the parade instead of having one person take on the responsibility.

After deciding to go ahead with the parade the few members decided there wasn't enough participation or interest to continue with the usual Christmas promotion conducted by the merchants. The Treasure Chest promotion, held the last four years, where merchants gave out coupons making customers eligible to win merchandise just previous to Christmas was cancelled.

The chamber members also agreed to continue the New Year's Eve dance as the Community Hall and the band, Westburg Union, have been booked for the event. Members noted the dance is a safe event to raise money and lift the organization out of debt.

The fate of Chamber grew dimmer as the topic of conversation turned to the Winter Carnival. The small group at Wednesday's meeting decided that if no more interest was shown by other chamber members the carnival would have to be cancelled. The event is too large for the small number of people showing interest to work at, they decided.

SNRCA approves 1982 budget

BERWICK (Staff) - The $3.5 million 1982 budget and the creation of a non-profit foundation were approved last Wednesday night at a full authority meeting of the South Nation River Conservation Authority (SNRCA).

Next year's total municipal levy will remain the same as this year's, at $272,000. The authority will use a $120,000 surplus levy from previous years to meet next year's proposed municipal levy of $392,000.

About $3.1-million of the total 1982 budget is expected to come from provincial grants.

One member questioned whether his township was receiving any benefits for the $9,000 levy it paid the authority. Member Bob Kingsley, of Clarence Township, wanted to know if any of the $50,000 budgeted for erosion control and channel improvements next year would be spent to clean up Cobb Lake.

"We can't see any short-term advantage of belonging to the authority if nothing is done about Cobb Lake. The lake is flooded and farms can't drain into it", Mr. Kingsley said.

Cobb Lake is part of the basin study, which will decide spending priorities, said authority general manager Mike Garrett. If the study finds that erosion or flooding is the cause of the problem at the lake, then cleaning the lake could become a priority he said. However, if the cause of the problem is poor drainage, then the money will have to be sought under drainage he pointed out.

"We don't want to spend a pile of money on Cobb Lake if the authority is going to pay for it," Mr. Kingsley said. The study should be completed by January.

The creation of a foundation for the authority was also approved at last Wednesday night's meeting. The foundation will accept antiques, land and monetary donations and a tax receipt will be given to the donor.

The foundation's purpose is to raise money to spend on authority projects which aren't government subsidized. It has its own set of bylaws and the authority's executive committee will become the foundation's Board of Directors. The application for charter must be approved by the province.

Newsbriefs

We were wrong

(Staff) - A story in last week's issue of The Chesterville Record incorrectly named hairstylist Joyce Simzer of Chesterville. We would like to apologize to Mrs. Simzer for any inconvenience the error caused.

(Staff) - Chesterville Boy Scouts will be on the road again tomorrow (Thursday) for another paper drive. If you have newspapers (newsprint only) you'd like to get rid of they ask that you bundle them separately and leave them outside your home.

Best blood donors

(Staff) - Winchester District Memorial Hospital blood donor clinics have the best track record in the province for the number of donors registered in relation to the eligible population in the area. The hospital was recently congratulated on its August 12, 1981 clinic by the Canadian Red Cross Society.

We protest!

(Staff) - The letters of protest regarding the government's high interest policy now in Chesterville stores will be picked up by the Chamber of Commerce, October 22, for delivery to Ed Lumley, MP for Stormont-Dundas October 26. Those who do not wish to add their personal story or comments may simply sign the letter and return it to the store to be forwarded to Mr. Lumley.

Tagwi school committee

(Staff) - The Director of Education for the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Board of Education will be talking of the goals and objectives of the education system today (Wed., Oct. 14) to parents of the Tagwi School Committee. The committee meeting starts at 8pm in the library and will also include the election of parent representatives on the committee, some remarks from Tagwi principal Doug Murray with a question and answer period, an introduction to student representatives, staff representatives and school trustees. Any ideas for the School Committee's 1981-82 program are welcome.

Hospital employees get salary increase

After two years parity reached with Ontario counterparts

WINCHESTER (Staff) - After two years without an increase in salary, Winchester District Hospital employees in CUPE have parity with their Ontario counterparts in a settlement ratified Sept. 24, 1981.

The service, clerical and technical employees were certified as a local of the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) in May and August, 1979. The settlement represents the first since certification.

The new contract in the service group will bring a starting registered nursing assistant or orderly to $1,282 per month (from $955 in 1979) effective October 1, 1981. A further increase is scheduled for June 1, when the group will go to $1,339.

A maintenance helper, covered in the same settlement, will earn $1,297 per month (from $965 per month) effective October 1 and increase to $1,354 effective June 1.

Although the overall increase in the category during the two-year period total approximately 53 per cent, explained Bert Stel, hospitai administrator, the increases were phased in and average 17 per cent per year.

Other positions covered by the service contract are nursing assistants, cooks, linen, dietary, housekeeping and dishwasher aids, cleaners and laboratory aids.

The clerical staff salaries saw a similar jump, overall 53.5 per cent pahsed in at approximately 17.6 per cent per year.

A receptionist moves from $775 per month in August, 1979 to $1,100 per month, effective October 1, 1981. A further increase to $1,205 is slated for June 1, 1982.

The technical staff did not have the same catch-up to make as the other groups, said Mr. Stel, and the overall increase totalled 26 per cent with the yearly increments being approximately 8.6 per cent.

A starting junior laboratory or x-ray technologist's salary went from $1,265 in April, 1980 to $1,515 in October, 1981. A further increase to $1,595 is scheduled for June 1, 1982.

A senior technologist with more than four years experience will earn $1,725 effective October 1, 1981 compared with $1,475 per month in April, 1980.

The chief additions to the benefits awarded to the two staff groups, said Mr. Stel, are extended health benefits and a dental plan. As well, the hospital has agreed to provide 50 per cent of the employees Blue Cross, 90 per cent of the group life premium (up from 75 per cent); 100 per cent of the OHIP premium (up from 75 per cent) and to maintain the sick leave and disability program as it was.

The leave of absence policy has been broadened to illuminate different aspects, said Mr. Stel, although there was a leave of absence policy in effect previous to the settlement.

A letter of understanding between the hospital and the employees provides for the continuation of alternate weekends off for departments currently doing so, but noted this practice is not possible in all areas of the hospital.

The contract expires September, 1982, covering 39 months for the service group and 37 months for the clerical-technical group.

Winchester Hospital launches budget appeal

Pay increases, intensive care unit expansion, additional staffing responsible

WINCHESTER (Staff) - Retroactive pay increases, the expansion of the Intensive Care Unit and additional staffing requirements have prompted the lauching of a $500,000 budgetary appeal by Winchester District Memorial Hospital.

The announcement, made last week by Bert Stel, hospital administrator, at a press conference, also included the statement the hospital will be forced to borrow funds from the bank to aid the cash flow situation for the first time in many years.

A line of credit for $150,000 has been established, Mr. Stel, said, but the funds will be borrowed only as needed to keep interest costs down.

He elaborated on the causes of the over-spending by the hospital, explaining the four-bed intensive care unit, expanded from the previous two-bed coronary care room, is maintained independent of the nursing station as it was previously.

Thus, he continued, the unit requires six nurses, divided into three shifts, around the clock. At approximately $22,000 per year, the cost of nursing alone, is significant.

In addition, the unit's expansion necessitated a certain capital expenditure for monitoring equipment. No provision was made by the province for either the capital expenditure or the nursing costs.

Increased demand for chronic care services has also necessitated additional staffing costs in that area, added Mr. Stel.

The September settlement with the Canadian Union of Public Employees, service, and clerical-technical staff necessitated payment of retroactive salary in excess of that anticipated by the hospital, said Mr. Stel.

The hospital assumed yearly salary increases of five, eight and 10 per cent during the 1979-80, 1980-81 and 1981-82 fiscal years. In addition those increases must be annualized. (The 10 per cent increase is on the original salary plus the previous year's five and eight per cent increases).

The total deficit accumulated is $308,000 to the end of August, said Mr. Stel. Since the beginning of this fiscal year in April, a further $107,000 deficit has accumulated but this includes any operating deficit in the previous fiscal year, he added.

In addition to the incurred deficits, said Mr. Stel, the Ministry of Health tends to hold back one-third of the first apportionment of funds from each hospital since, in theory, at that time the hospital would be receiving its payment for any allowed over-budget funds spent during the previous year. This happens more in theory than in practice, however, he said.

Since the year-end payment for over budget expenses can be delayed up to six months, this adds to the financial burden being carried by the hospital.

On the plus side of the problem, though, he said, there is virtually no doubt the ministry will approve funds for the over-spending based on the CUPE settlement.

On the basis of the hospital's previous track record, he said, the intensive care expenses will have a good chance of being funded notwithstanding government hospital cutbacks.

Eastern Ontario Subsidiary Agreement increases ceiling

Aid to small businesses revised

(Staff) - The joint Ontario-Canada Eastern Ontario Subsidiary Agreement has increased the ceiling for aid to small businesses and will provide funds for the city of Cornwall to explore the tourist potential of a park.

The revised funding of the Small Business Incentives Program increases the interest-free, forgivable loans ceiling from $100,000 to $300,000 and increases the total capital cost of a proposed project allowed to $600,000 from $500,000.

The announcement was made jointly by Pierre De Bane, federal minister of Regional Economic Expansion and Frank Miller, Ontario treasurer. The two men agreed the increase in both aspects of the program was timely and necessary in view of current high interest rates and the general economic slowdown in eastern Ontario.

Eligible businesses include mining, quarrying, manufacturing, processing, including agricultural and forest products and related service industry. The $10 million program was established in December 1979 with the intent of creating employment in Eastern Ontario and making small businesses more competitive with companies outside the region.

A $45,000 feasibility study grant was awarded to Cornwall to explore the tourism potential of its 478-acre Guindon Park.

The park now has basic municipal recreation services, cross-county skiing, nature trails and picnic areas.

The grant was made under the tourism provisions of the Canada-Ontario Eastern Ontario Subsidiary Agreement.

School Briefs

BASKETBALL

(Staff) - The North Dundas girls' basketball teams, coached by Nancy Wilson had a busy road schedule last week.

Last Tuesday the teams travelled to Seaway District High School. The games played ended with split decisions. The juniors lead by Deanne Saunders' 18 points, gave them the victorious score of 52-41 over Seaway. The seniors did not fair as well, suffering at 36-18 loss. Debbie McVey, high-lighted the game with 11 points for North Dundas.

Thursday the girls travelled to Char-Lan High School. Here the juniors spoiled their winning record, losing a close 49-45 decision to Char-Lan. Alice Koekkoek was leading scorer with 14 points. Nicole VanVlaanderen and Kathy Middlemiss each dropped in 10 points.

The seniors lead by Debbie McVey's 17 points, lost a close battle to Char-Lan, 63-51. Other players scoring for North Dundas were Tracy McIntosh 12, Peggy Carkner 10 and Mary-Ann Koekkoek 10.

The Tagwi teams played Glengarry Thursday afternoon. The juniors had a terrific game trouncing the Glengarry team badly, 64-11. Top scorers were Kelly Conroy, 24, Tracy Hollingdrake 14, Bernadine Murray eight and Audrey Cooper 7. Top scorer for Glengarry was a one man (woman) team: Karen Rotary finished with eight points.

The Tagwi seniors lost a heartbreaking close game to Glengarry by the tiny margin of 31-28.

Last Thurs., North Dundas's soccer teams saw action at Char-Lan's field. The juniors tied their game 0-0. The seniors lost 2-1 with Clifford Bartch picking up the lone goal.

Osnabruck boys were also in action, at St. Lawrence high school in Cornwall. The Osnabruck team was a winner with a 2-0 score over the Saints. Brent Winter and Andy Vennis kicked the ball through the posts for the win.

Chesterville welcomes area guests

(Special) - On Thursday evening Oct. 1 ladies from local churches, Morewood and three guests from Ottawa joined with the Chesterville ladies for their autumn Thank-offering service.

Mrs. Hilda Belsher welcomed the group and then read an appropriate poem. Hymn 579 was sung.

It was moved by Mrs. F.M. Cass and seconded by Mrs. Graham Smith that the minutes of the earlier joint meeting be approved.

Mrs. Belsher thanked those who had decorated the room so beautifully for the meeting.

A letter was read from Rev. and Mrs. Ferguson in appreciation for Shauna's wedding banquet. Also a letter read from Shauna for the same.

Mrs. Blake Ball sent a note thanking the group for the sympathy shown to her at the time of her brother's death, Rev. Nathaniel Holmes.

Following are dates to be noted: Oct. 29 Seaway Valley Presbytery meet here for a supper meeting Nov. 5 we have an invitation to Williamsburg for afternoon or evening; Betty and Allen Darby from Haiti are to speak Nov. 10; next seaway valley presbyterial meet in Maxville, Ont.

The offering was taken by Mrs. Ella Merkley and Mrs. Alice Shay and dedicated by Mrs. Hilda Belsher.

The devotions were shared by Mrs. F.M. Cass, Mrs. Douglas Hitsman, Mrs. Harry Craig, and Mrs. John Vanden Bosch.

It opened by reading the Litany responsively "The Beauty around us". Hymn - Bringing in the Sheaves was sung. This was followed by a scripture reading by Mrs. Hitsman.

Mrs. Joye Loucks our church organist, who was pianist for the evening, played for a delightful choir number.

Mrs. Harry Craig gave us material for plenty of serious thought in her Meditations on Thankfulness. We are people who have everything while there are many in other countries who have practically nothing.

"Come All Ye Thankful People Come" was the closing hymn and prayer followed read by Mrs. John Vanden Bosch.

For the programme, Jeanne Wolf of Ottawa, a friend of Isabel Forward, showed slides on Zaire formerly the Belgian Congo of Africa.

She was there to visit her sister Edith Radley who was in missionary work in Zaire. The slides and the comments were extremely interesting.

Many people in this land are very happy and show this by their singing and their numerous religious services.

The speaker was introduced by Isabel Forward and was thanked and presented with a gift by Mrs. John Vanden Bosch.

Refreshments were served by the conveners.

Last week was Fire Prevention Week and Chesterville Fire Department visited area schools to talk to the students. Here Chesterville Fire Chief, Mike Fyke, chats with Jason Desormeaux, kindergarten, and Charmaine Enright, grade one, of St. Mary's Separate School in Chesterville. -staff photo-

Bertha Annable dies

Bertha Luella Annable of Winchester died Wed., Oct. 7 at Dundas Manor, at the age of 93 years.

Mrs. Annable was born January 21, 1888, at Felton, Ont., the daughter of Levi Fetterly and Ella Hummel, both deceased. She married Roy Erratt Annable, who predeceased her.

Surviving are twin daughters Dorothy (Mrs. John Cameron), Cornwall and Doris (Mrs. Gerald Holmes), Winchester; six grandchildren, Beverley, Bonnie, Trudy, Dorothy, Heather and Marsha; as well as 14 great-grandchildren and one brother, Allan Fetterly, Cornwall.

The funeral was held at Vice and Craig Funeral Home, Winchester, Fri., Oct. 9 at 2:30pm. Rev. E. Royle officiated. Interment followed at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Allen Barkley, Ron De Vries, Robert Fairfield and Andrew Jarzyna.

New hospital members

(Staff) - Winchester District Memorial Hospital board of governors welcomed Joan Farlinger, RR1 Morrisburg, to the hospital board late last month. Mrs. Farlinger will replace Louise Sloan, who moved to Toronto. Douglas Stewart, a member of the public relations committee, accepted the position of chairman of that committee, also vacated by Mrs. Sloan.

SULLIVAN — ROSS

Mrs. Betty Sullivan (wife of the late Arnold Sullivan) wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter, Patricia Anne to Mark Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ross of Ingleside. The wedding will take place November 14, 7pm at the Sullivan residence.

Record Recipes

by Chris Brown

Now that Thanksgiving is over, the household is looking forward to the next major cooking event. For some it's a small break until Christmas and for others, Hallowe'en presents demands for candy-making skill.

It is no longer much of a saving to make candy from scratch with the price of sugar as high as it is, but the satisfaction of a job well done coupled with the pleasure of watching a youngster sort out his loot bag, setting aside the homemade goodies to be rationed carefully, make the process worthwhile.

A candy thermometer is essential for the novice but experience will help after a few recipes. I originally bought a good thermometer but when it was broken some years later, I didn't bother to replace it, so it's not an item you must replace again and again.

I've often heard it said that fudge is one of the most difficult candies to perfect. As with most projects, the secret is not in a difficult process, rather in recognizing possible problems and steering clear.

EASY MAPLE FUDGE

3 cups brown sugar
1 cup milk
½ tsp. maple flavoring
2 tbsp. butter

Combine the brown sugar and milk in a high-sided saucepan and boil over direct heat, stirring as seldom as possible. The reason for not stirring is simply that the motion can entice sugar crystals up onto the sides of the pan.

If any sugar crystals remain unmelted they will have the effect of making the finished product granular or sugary. If stirring must be effected, lower the heat slightly and thoroughly scrape the sides of the pan with a spatula to make sure all the sugar is melted.

When the mixture has reached 238F on the candy thermometer or forms a soft ball when small drops are sprinkled in cold water, take the candy off the heat.

(The soft ball stage is easy to recognize. Previous to soft ball, the mixture dissolves and runs to the bottom of the glass. After soft ball it forms a hard ball near the top of the water which sinks).

Let it cool in the pan and while cooling add the butter and maple flavoring and stir in.

The mixture should then cool to lukewarm or approximately 110F. When it has reached 110F, begin to beat in a circular fashion making sure the sides are clean. When it begins to look dull (rather than the sheen it has so far displayed) you know you're getting close.

If it begins to be at all difficult to beat get it into the buttered pan quickly; it means you took it to too high a temperature and it wants to solidify too soon. While it is still warm pour into a buttered pan to cool. Cut into squares while not quite set.

"Stress" topic at Seaway Valley UCW rally

(Special) - The fall rally of Region Three of the Seaway Valley UCW was held in Morewood United Church, September 30.

Registration began at 1:30pm with Mrs. Pat Carruthers and Mrs. Swerdfeger in charge.

Mrs. Ron Dillabough and Mrs. Louva Irven handled the dinner tickets.

Mrs. Rietta Hillis presided for the sessions which began with a sing-song led by Miss Addie Campderros accompanied by Mrs. Allison Graham. The ladies were welcomed by Morewood vice president, Mrs. Dorothy Crump.

The worship service was given by Mrs. Betty Forward and Mrs. Irene Merkley of Chesterville UCW.

A film on "Stress' was shown by Mrs. Ina Crump. The guest speaker, Miss Dianne Latreille, a psychometrist with the Dept. of Psychology at Cornwall General Hospital, was introduced by Mrs. Dorothy Middleton.

Dianne's talk on stress in our lives was most informative and she gave us a wealth of help in coping with our everyday problems.

She led a lively discussion and fielded many pertinent questions from the ladies. She was thanked by Ina Crump.

Dorothy Middleton then demonstrated several exercises designed to relieve stress.

Greetings were brought by Presbyterial president Mrs. Edith Jenkens. Book reports were given by Mrs. Martha Hunter and Mrs. McIntosh of Williamsburg reported on her trip to Summer Event.

A delicious smorgasbord supper was served by Morewood UCW. Head table guests were introduced by Mrs. Marion Hough, and courtesies extended by Martha Hunter. Ladies were welcomed by Rev. L. Ferguson.

The evening session began with worship provided by Mrs. Doris Ennis of Winchester UCW.

A panel discussion on "Mental Health and You" was very much enjoyed. Rev. L. Ferguson acted as moderator and panel members were Lynn McBain, Public Health Nurse; Margaret Conliffe of Family Counselling in Cornwall and Dianne Latreille, the afternoon speaker.

The panelists were warmly thanked by Rietta Hillis and gifts presented.

Courtesies were expressed by Jean Casselman of Winchester Sprints UCW.

The evening was brought to a close with the benediction by Rev. Ferguson.

Tony E. Hansma

Tony Edward Hansma of Millet, Alberta, died in Foothills Hospital, October 5, at the age of 24 years.

Mr. Hansma was born September 12, 1957, the son of Obele Hansma and Grietje Barels, who both survive. He is a former resident of Toyes Hill.

Surviving Mr. Hansma are dear friend, Brenda Miller of Millet, Alta; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Obele Hansma, Toyes Hill; brothers Henry and his wife Thelma, Hamilton; Roy and wife, Sharon, Winchester; Obele, Jr., and wife, Janice, Toyes Hill; Garth and wife, Ginette, Toyes Hill.

The funeral was held at Vice and Craig Funeral Home, Winchester, Thurs., Oct. 8 at 2pm. Rev. E. Royle officiated. Interment followed at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Mr. Hansma's four brothers, Henry, Roy, Obele, Jr., and Garth as well as Lawrence Johnston, and Warren Jackson.

Avonmore takes to the air waves

Agricultural building fund is the biggest winner

AVONMORE (Staff) - More than 500 people were either curious or felt lucky last Thursday evening as Wintario came to Tagwi High School.

The weekly draw, televised on the Global Network, was in Avonmore, hosted by the Roxborough Agricultural Society.

Although there were no shouts of joy from the audience through the half-hour draw program indicating a large money winner the Agricultural Society building fund was a winner.

From the admission price to see the show the building fund was able to raise $1,200. "We were really happy with the program," said society secretary-treasurer Jean Canham.

Before the "show went on air" a one-hour program of local entertainment was provided by the agricultural society. Emceed by CJSS-Radio personality, Keith Clingen, the pre-show program featured Rene Trottier and his family , the Winchester and District Concert Band under the conduction of Dave Irwin, and the McCullough Dancers.

The television cameras began rolling at exactly 9am after the audience had received their instructions for their part in the live telecast.

The show allowed the village of Avonmore to receive some national coverage as a short story on the village, Stormont County, and the Avonmore Fair were featured.

Hostess Fay Dance, and host Greg Bereford took the audience through a fast-paced program of drawing winning ticket numbers and chats with members of the local audience.

Among those asked to push the button which stops the drums from which the winning numbers will be pulled were Stormont Dairy Princesses Patti Campbell, and Nancy Jans, and MPP Osie Villeneuve.

Five-million tickets were sold on the draw last week

President of the Ontario Lottery Corporation, Norman Morris (middle) presented the Roxborough Agricultural Society members Jean Canham (left) and Carol Hollingdrake, with a certificate of appreciation for their work in bringing the Wintario show to Avonmore.

The Ontario Lottery Corporation — the only corporation with it's own weekly prime-time television program

AVONMORE (Staff) - President of the Ontario Lottery Corporation, Norman Morris, has his office in Toronto. From there he watches over the lotteries run by the Ontario government, including Wintario, Lottario, Super Loto, and The Provincial.

But despite the distances Mr. Morris travels to most of the locations from which Wintario broadcasts live each Thursday night.

In an interview following the Wintario Show held at Tagwi High School last Thursday Mr. Morris spoke briefly on the unique corporation which he runs.

Mr. Morris has been with the Ontario Lottery Corporation about one-and-a-quarter years now. A chartered accountant by profession, Mr. Morris finds himself in a unique position as president of this particular corporation. It's the only one which has a live television prime-time show each week.

The president goes to as many shows as possible. His family seldom sees him on Thursday nights. Last Thursday he flew out of Toronto to Ottawa and came to Avonmore by car.

Mr. Morris takes the time to come to the shows as they allow him to meet the local people and find out what they think of Wintario, and the other lotteries.

For example, starting this week Wintario increased the number of chances to win with a new scheme of winning numbers. The "new rules" became possible because local people let Mr. Morris know how they felt about the draw. There is, of course, the buiness side of it too - Mr. Morris studies marketing reports which tell him what the people want from the lottery.

Speaking as a businessman Mr. Morris said the corporation last year made $490-million in sales.

What does the corporation do the rest of the week, other than Thursday, you ask? Well, according to Mr. Morris there are enough winners every week to make Mondays one of the most hectic days they have.

Members of the Trottier Family played the violin and tap danced in the pre-TV Wintario show program. The drums from which the winning Wintario numbers are drawn are behind the girls. - staff photo -

Margaret May LaSalle dies in 92nd year

Margaret May LaSalle of Winchester died Tues., Oct. 6 at the age of 91, in Winchester.

Mrs. LaSalle was born May 23, 1890, in Chesterville, the daughter of William Henry Liscumb and Mary Kearns, both deceased.

She married Lemuel LaSalle in Winchester. Mr. LaSalle predeceased his wife in 1957.

Surviving are William, Cornwall; Mary Larue, Winchester; Margaret Lavarnway, Ogdensburg; Edna Wong, St. John, New Brunswick; Edward and James, Toronto; and Roy, Colborne.

Mrs. LaSalle was predeceased by sons, John and Howard and daughter Gladys Schmidt.

The funeral was held Thurs., Oct. 8 at Vice and Craig funeral home, Winchester at 11am. Rev. Charles Jackson officiated. Interment followed at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Garnet Johnston, Jimmy Wong, Basil Liscumb, Rick Stephens, Edgar Turner and Edward Vard.

Robert William Sharp

Robert William Sharp, a 26 year resident of RR6, Russell, died Wed., Sept. 30, 1981, in the Glebe Centre, Ottawa.

Mr. Sharp, a retired merchant, was 82.

He was born April 8, 1899, in Liverpool, England, a son of Robert and Florence (nee Foshi) Sharp. Both parents predecease him.

His wife, the former Mary G. Roberts, also predeceases him. She died in 1979.

Mr. Sharp is survived by two sons, Arnold and Ronald, both of Russell; ten grandchildren; three great grandchildren; and two sisters, Kit Sharp and Muriel Metcalfe, both of Ottawa.

Mr. Sharp was a former resident of Marvelville, and was a member of the South Gloucester United Church.

Funeral services were held Fri., Oct. 2 at 11am at the South Gloucester United Church.

Interment was at Capital Memorial Gardens. Pallbearers were Brian Robinson, Doug Hay, Chris Sharp, Willis McCormick, Doug Pitt, and Goldie Hume.

In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM

PRESLEY — In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Nita, who passed away October 16, 1979 and brother and uncle, Eric, who passed away November 14, 1977.

Only a memory of bygone days
And a sigh for a face unseen
A constant feeling that God alone
Knows best what should have been.

Lovingly remembered by Russell and Ruby

Elsa Marion Hummel

Elsa Marion Hummel, Church St., Williamsburg died in Winchester District Memorial Hospital, Thurs., Oct. 8 at the age of 49.

Mrs. Hummel, a former Chesterville resident, was born January 2, 1932, the daughter of Thorgnay Klingvall and Andresson Borghilde Hildorg, both deceased, in Quebec.

She married Robert Garth Hummel in 1952 at Chesterville. Mr. Hummel predeceased his wife, February 1, 1977.

Surviving are daughters, Linda (Mrs. Stephen Reason) and Jayne, both of Kingston, sons Thomas Robert of South Mountain and Edward Harry of Williamsburg.

Mrs. Hummel attended local schools in Chesterville. She was a member of Williamsburg United Church.

The funeral was held at Vice and Craig funeral home, Chesterville, Sat., Oct. 10 at 1pm. Rev. Thomas Lowry officiated. Interment followed at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ed Hanson, Roger Tupper, Gordon Garlough, Mac Vandemheem, Hubert Wills and Wayne Barkley.

When UNICEF's ghosts and goblins come to your door this Hallowe'en carrying their orange boxes, remember that your coins will help protect the lives of UNICEF's 500 million children. This year, UNICEF is appealing to the public to join the UNICEF drive to supply clean, safe water to those children in the developing countries of Africa, Asia and Latin America. UNICEF urges you to remember the children on UNICEF Hallowe'en night.

MacGregor — Hopmans

On Sat., Aug. 29 at 3:30pm in Morewood Presbyterian Church, wedding vows were exchanged between Janet Hopmans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hopmans, and Tom MacGregor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacGregor, both of Morewood.

Ministers De Bruijn and Woolfrey officiated the ceremony.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by her bridesmaids, Janet LaPierre, Mary Fife and maid of honor Nicole Baker. The bride was accompanied by her father.

The ushers were Dwayne Harrison and John Hopmans with Brian McLaughlin acting as best man.

Guests attending the wedding were from Texas, Sarnia, Cornwall, Ottawa, Carleton Place, Brinston, Kars and surrounding areas.

Tom and Janet honeymooned on the East Coast and now reside on the MacGregor farm east of Morewood.

School Guidance Corner

By Don Stephen,
Head of Guidance, NDDHS

Confirmation of program sheets were distributed to the students on Tuesday morning. These forms indicate the program that the student is following and parents are asked to sign these so that they can be retured to school.

This year we encountered considerable difficulty with timetabling as an additional 1½ teachers were added to the staff at the end of September so many more changes were needed than we usually have.

In fact we have now made over 600 timetable changes since the beginning of the school year. So we ask parents to check over carefully your son's or daughter's schedule and if you have any questions or concerns, contact Mary Fetterly or myself at the guidance office.

Career Week preparation is going ahead and during the week of November 2 to 8 we will be having people from our communities visit with classes that are related to their career. They will talk to the class about what is involved in their career - the responsibilities, the problems, the pleasures, the qualifications needed.

During the week our students will hear from accountants, mechanics, health specialists, farmers, scientists and many more volunteers from our community who will share their career.

Career Week should be thought provoking. Our young people can come out of Career Week with some genuine alternatives in their heads....if they can seriously consider pursuing an option which they have never considered before, then it will be a very worthwhile experience.

November progress reports will be coming out soon. All marks earned up until Fri., Oct. 30 will be included on the report card. These grades will be entered on the progress reports by the individual teachers on November 3rd. On Fri., Nov. 6th reports will be distributed to students to take home.

On Tues., Nov. 10 in the afternoon and evening, we will have Parent-Teacher interviews in the school gymnasium.

With the exception of grade 13 all evaluations will be in alpha form.

A - 80 - 100 per cent.
B - 70 - 79 per cent.
C - 60 - 69 per cent.
D - 50 - 59 per cent.
E - 40 - 49 per cent.
F - below 40 per cent.

Mary Fetterly will be checking during the next weeks with the grade 12 students to see that they have the necessary courses for graduation next June. I will be preparing the grade 13's for University and College selections which will be starting next month.

We will also be visiting the grade 9 classes to instruct them in the use of SGIS (Student Guidance Information Service) system that gives them access to the computer bank of career information on over 6000 occupations and all forms of education available to students after high school.

So now that most of the adjustments to timetables have been made, its down to business as usual for the remainder of the year.

Robert K. Thom

Friends and relatives were saddened this week by the sudden death on Thurs., Oct. 8, of Robert Kelso Thom of Ottawa. He was the son of the late Bessie (Weegar) and Lyle Thom. He was 47 years of age.

Born at Elma and educated at local schools, he graduated from Queen's University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering and was presently an associate engineer with M.M. Dillon Ltd., Consulting Engineers, Ottawa.

He is survived by his wife, the former Claudette Chatelain, and one daughter, Susanne, at home.

He also leaves to mourn one brother, Arthur of Williamsburg, and two sisters, Evalene of Williamsburg, and Margery (Mrs. McKell Fraser) of Ottawa. Also surviving his loss are several nieces and nephews.

A private funeral service on Fri., Oct. 9, at Vice and Craig Funeral Homes, Inc., Chesterville, was conducted by Rev. Alex Morrison. Interment was at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Ministers meet

(Special) - Eighteen members of Dundas County Ministerial Association, assembled at St. Matthias Church hall in Winchester Monday morning for their monthly meeting, were treated to a slide presentation of scenes in China, presented by Isabel Forward of Chesterville.

The meeting was chaired by the president, Rev. Thurland Brown of Newington; minutes were read by the secretary, Rev. Mansell Atkinson of Inkerman.

Rev. J. Alex Dobson, who, with Mrs. Dobson hosted the meeting, introduced the guest speaker, and led in worship.

Rev. Leonard Ferguson of Chesterville thanked the speaker, program convener, host and hostess.

Rev. Leonard Wolfrey of Morewood offered the closing prayer.

Albert B. Munro dies suddenly

On Tuesday, Aug. 25, 1981, Albert Bordon Munro suddenly passed away at Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital in Burlington.

His dealth came as a shock to his family and many friends.

Albert Munro spent his early years on the home farm in Chesterville.

He later learned the building trade and worked in Ottawa. He joined the RCAF during the war years and was stationed at Lengara Island in British Columbia.

He later returned to Toronto to again work at his trade and moved to Milton in 1935.

He only recently retired at the time of his death.

The son of the late John and Catherine Munro of Chesterville, he leaves his wife Betty Lamont Munro.

He is also survived by one brother Edwin and sisters Gertrude (Mrs. Tinkler) of Inkerman, Cora (Mrs. A. Parrington) from Toronto, and Francis (Mrs. J. McMurray from Markham.

He also leaves a number of nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by sisters Norma and Hazel. A Masonic service was held Wednesday evening and the funeral at the McKersie Funeral Home in Milton Thurs., Aug. 27.

Interment was at Evergreen Cemetery, Milton. Acting as pallbearers were Ron Featherstone, Charles Fay, Wolfe Bahr, Cy Hilson, Larry O'Riley, and Gordon Churchward.

Bees-busy again!

by Vicky Byers

The third meeting of the Chesterville 4-H Busy Bees was held Thurs., Oct. 8 in the WI room.

The leaders showed us many different seam finishes and how to use the sewing machine properly.

The club members made a dart and were given rules to use the iron.

The leaders checked if the patterns and the material were cut out. They demonstrated the use of the sewing machine.

The next meeting will be held at the Chesterville WI room, October 15, 1981.

Dear Ann Landers: The letter signed "Him and Her" about an uncle who had fathered twins at the age of 78 interested me. I do not believe "Unc" needed help with his "project" - and with good reason.

While doing genealogical research to learn about my ancestors, I uncovered some fascinating information. An ancestral grandparent, Thomas Purchase, was born in 1577. He married in 1657 at the age of 80. His bride Elizabeth Andrews was 24 years old.

Their first child, Thomas. was born in 1658 (Note the father's age - 81.) Their second child Jane was born in 1660. Two years later, 1662, a daughter Elizabeth came into the world. Sarah followed in 1666. Their last child was a boy, Abraham, born in 1669.

Thomas Purchase Sr. died May 11, 1678 at the age of 101. He was survived by his wife, Elizabeth, was was 45. The children were 20, 18, 16, 12 and 9. They proved it is never too late to start a family. — Proud of My Ancestors

Dear Ann Landers

Dear Proud: I wish I could come up with a snappy rejoinder, but alas, I am stunned by the astonishing virility of Uncle Thomas. I wonder if Aunt Liz knew when she married that she was getting a most unusual Purchase!

Dear Ann Landers: I laughed when I read your comments about how you knitted a pair of socks for the American Red Cross to help the war effort and your supervisor suggested that you could better serve your country by knitting for the Germans.

You must be the person to whom the GI wrote the following ditty:

Socks received. Some fit!
I use one for a helmet.
And one for a mitt.
I must say, Dear Lady,
You've done your bit.
But wher in the hell
But where in the hell
Sign me

-Buster in Bismarck

Hello Buster: I plead guilty as charged. But happily the damage was limited. I knit only one pair socks and then turned in my needles.

Dear Ann Landers: Last month I became the private secretary to the president of a well-known national company. The first day I took his dictation I was amazed. He rattled off three letters filled with hostile accusations and insults.

I typed the letters and presented them for his signature the following morning. He said, "Oh those! Tear them up. I just needed to let off steam."

He has done this several times since, and I think it is quite remarkable. What a wonderful way to get anger out of one's system without damaging a relationship.

If you think this letter has value, feel free to print it, but please delete the name of the city. The company is well-known and my boss's identity could be easily pinpointed.

-Very Anonymous Please

There is a big difference between cold and cool. Ann Landers shows you how to play it cool without freezing people out in her booklet, "Ten-Age Sex — Ten Ways to Cool It." Send 50 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

If you think fitness is a distant goal, consider this: you can walk all the way.

Firefighters visit schools

(Staff) - Chesterville Fire Fighters visited area schools last week as part of their activities during Fire Prevention Week.

Maple Ridge Public School, Chesterville Public School, and St. Mary's Separate School students practiced their fire drill and watched films on fire safety.

A total of 256 students at Maple Ridge Public School evacuated the building in 55.9 seconds. At Chesterville Public School 196 students evacuated the school in 58 sec. And at St. Mary's Separate School 166 students evacuated the building in 48 sec.

On Wed., Sept. 23 the Fire Fighters, along with the Nestle Safety Committee, and Garry Paquette of Levitt Safety, Ottawa, showed a film on the proper way to use a fire extinguisher, and two films on fire prevention in the home.

The day-long talk and demonstration was attended by 300 Nestle eemployees.

On Wed., Sept. 30 the Fire Fighters inspected the alarm system at the Chesterville Hotel, and the exits and extinguishers at the Oddfellows Hall and the Masonic Hall.

United Extrusions Ltd., Chesterville, was inspected on Mon., Sept. 28.

The Fire Fighters also plan to inspect the Senior Citizens Home in Chesterville.

And a visit from the Kindergarten classes from both Chesterville Public School and St. Mary's Separate School to the Fire Department was planned for the near future.

Book Fair adds coffee bar to annual sale

CORNWALL - On Sat., Oct. 24th, early Christmas shoppers, students, bargain-hunters, scholars, children and book-lovers will converge on Knox - St. Paul's Annual Book Fair.

Patterned after a similar sale in Montreal, the Book Fair, now twenty-years-old, has become a tradition in the community and the Three United Counties.

The low price of the books has made it increasingly popular in recent years of rising inflation. There is virtually something for everyone; from Harlequin Romances and current best-sellers, to the classics, and all at bargain prices.

There is always the chance of discovering a real "find" and this seems to excite those who participate in the morning rush and those who stay for the more relaxed browsing of the afternoon.

This year, a coffee bar will be set up for added enjoyment, enabling the shoppers to chat with friends and compare their purchases.

Saving money at a pleasant outing, however, is just one reason why the Book Fair is so well attended each year.

Most supporters realize that they are helping a major community project, as the proceeds are used for scholarships for grade 13 girls going to university.

Five awards of two hundred dollars, each, are presented annually to Cornwall and area students. Girls from all ten SD&G high schools are eligible for the scholarships, given in alternate years.

The day before the sale, action goes into high gear as members of the University Women's Club haul, sort, arrange and price the huge selection of books.

However, for weeks before the sale, they are busy taking books from their own shelves as well as receiving donations from schools, libraries, and co-operative city and area residents.

Depots have been set up at 1617 Charles St., and 231 Sydney St., to receive books, or call 931-1847 for pick-up.

Books can also be brought to Knox - St. Paul's the day before the sale. The support of the community is much appreciated by club members, assuring the success of the Book Fair held this year on Sat., Oct. 24th, running from 10am to 4pm.

Post office accessible

If you've been to the Chesterville Post Office in the last couple of weeks (is there such a thing as a rural resident who doesn't go to the post office?) you'll have noticed the changes in the entrance.

Post master Stu Allan says post offices across the country are adding new entrances like the ramp in Chesterville, as part of the government's policy to make public buildings accessible to handicapped people.

A lot of progress has been made towards making the world more accessible to the disabled in this last year. The handicapped, or those close to them, could probably point out numerous other areas where progress has yet to be made, but work has, at least, begun.

By declaring 1981 as the International Year of the Disabled the United Nations have lead the way for thousands of charitable organizations, service clubs and governments around the world.

These groups and governments have hundreds, if not thousands, of causes, which could use financial help. Spending money is not difficult in a world where so many justly require it.

The problem lies in deciding where the money is to be spent. By declaring each year one in which a specific part of society, like people who are handicapped, are made a priority item the United Nations accomplishes an amazing feat. The international organization sets a priority (probably ending endless arguments about which group is more deserving of financial aid); it focuses the world's attention on a single issue; and it allows for a year's worth of concentrated progress to be made in these areas. - mary macdonald -

Dreaded disease strikes

Chesterville Chamber of Commerce is suffering from one of the most dreaded diseases a volunteer organization can catch - apathy. Unfortunately it is not a rare disease. All too often it strikes the most undeserving groups.

The low attendance at the Chamber meetings for the last year is one of the most visible symptoms of a problem that can tear any organization apart.

Perhaps, what seems like an inevitable event, is part of an evolution process that every organization experiences. Perhaps, Chesterville businessmen should take the opportunity to review the Chamber and its raison d'etre.

Maybe the cure for apathy isn't to disband but to change the course of the organization. In everybody's life there is a need to stop and think about the direction we want to go in.

The same is true for the Chamber of Commerce. Businessmen in Chesterville may need this time to review the direction in which chamber was heading. A change in that direction could be the cure. - mary macdonald -

The Farmer's Wife — by Wyn Thompson

Nobody asked me but...in August, I said this lousey weather can't continue, we'll get a beautiful September. In September I said, we'll get a beautiful October. Would you believe a beautiful November...?

Well, the Farmer won his campaign for a wood-fired device for the winter season. It came in the form of an air-tight insert for the lower fireplace.

When I finally gave in and said, "Oh well, if it pleasures you, I guess I can stand it!"

Inwardly I was thinking, "Back to ashes, creosote drip, and nightly trips to feed this monster...all the things I sought to avoid. Oh lord, give me strength!"

Twenty-four hours later, it was an accomplished fact. Never have I seen the Farmer and number two son swing into action more quickly...and both are extremely agile mentally and physically...in case I might change my mind.

As a matter of fact, when I returned from work the next night, the installation was completed and the kettle was humming merrily on the blackened top of this energy saver. Whose energy?

And that was not all...the fire alarm had long since ceased its humming and was screaming its lungs out in protest of the smoke being emitted from the burining of the oil-like protective substance all new stoves are coated with.

Two cats climbed the curtains and leapt from one object to another, howling abuse after abuse at the insensitive thing; two dogs stood rigidly at attention and barked incessantly.

I telephoned the barn and was told that the Farmer was busy milking. I asked for number one son...if I could have got my hands on number two son. I screamed at him to get over here and disconnect this ——— —— —— fire alarm. He came! "At least you know it works," he yelled at me as he climbed the step ladder to it. The silence was deafening.

It was a damp, cold night outside. It was cosy and warm inside. And the oil-fired monster sat sad and neglected in the corner of the utility room, not being called into action once.

Come early morning, being a frugal soul of Scottish ancestry (among other things), I decided that I could not waste all that energy. I cooked our breakfast grits and eggs on the top of this new device, toasted our bread over its glowing coals, and blew the whole experiment in pioneer living by plugging in the electric perk to make the coffee.

Never mind, I corrected that small omission the next morning. It being Sunday, I searched through some old boxes of things my Mother had given me and came up with a regular coffee percolator.

And I cooked the Sunday chicken on top of this latest addition, set it aside on the hearth, while I boiled the potatoes and carrots. Apple sauce made earlier in the day on this contraption plus coffee also perked thereon complimented the meal.

Supper was prepared from the same source of energy. Neither electric nor oil consumption was in evidence that day. And for this week that follows, the same has applied for the evening meal, however, the Farmer does rely on electricity for the production of his breakfast and lunch while I am at work.

When will the novelty wear off? A good question. I have decided to monitor the oil and electric bills very carefully and see if all this nonsense is worthwhile in terms of dollars and cents being saved and my energy being expended.

Sunday was a beautiful day in which to fill the garage with one-year aged wood. I cannot say and I will not say that I derive any pleasure from this return to the past. I rather enjoyed the "throw away society". But it seems silly to waste all that good energy. Actually when the pocket book is being lambasted on all sides, there is not much choice.

And cruelest blow of all, our nip of whiskey, for medicinal purposes, is being inflated once again. Meanwhile, heaven only knows what MacEachen has in store for us, while Sadat will not be around to share in the world's woes, and the Third World shutters at the recent platitudes.

As the dollar continues its downward trend, so does the rain. One could easily become despondent. A good many are! But one always has to pick oneself up at some point and go on. So why not now!

How glad I am that we got all that wood in the garage before it began to rain again. Funny how the simplest tasks take on a new meaning. And by this time next week I just know my back will cease to be as sore as a boil.

Even in the rain, the trees are a glory and a wonder. The air this October alternates between being crisp as a celery stalk and soggy as a wet sponge. The coverlet of green in which we have lived is now vanishing. Wider horizons appear.

October weather makes for good appetites. We seem to be always hungry, from the scrambled morning egg at breakfast through to the Canadian cheddar cheese and crisp apple at bedtime.

I know of no fruit more varied in taste than the apple. An apple should be spicy and on the sharp side, never sweet and mushy. The prettiest apples, I find, have the least flavour.

We are fortunate to have an old and beautifully tended orchard near us, and we follow the varieties right through the season until we arrive at my favourite still, the McIntosh. These apples have the cool rich taste of autumn.

The old vegetables and weeds must be put to rest in the garden this Thanksgiving weekend. When the garden is put to bed it is time for the bird feeders to come out.

And so to bed while the rain lashes the windows and the wind howls along the eaves.

Chesterville's past

41 — October 9, 1941

Sgt. Pilot Harold H. 'Andy' Williamson, became the first Chesterville boy to receive his wings in the RCAF when on Tuesday he had the coveted award pinned on his uniform at Camp Borden.

Sgt. Pilot Williamson volunteered with RCAF in September, 1940 and was called for training early in the winter. Since then he has been stationed at Toronto, Windsor and Camp Borden.

Andy was born in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan and came east when quite young with his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Millea. He attended the Public School here and after graduating from the Chesterville High School attended Ottawa Normal School securing his first class teaching certificate.

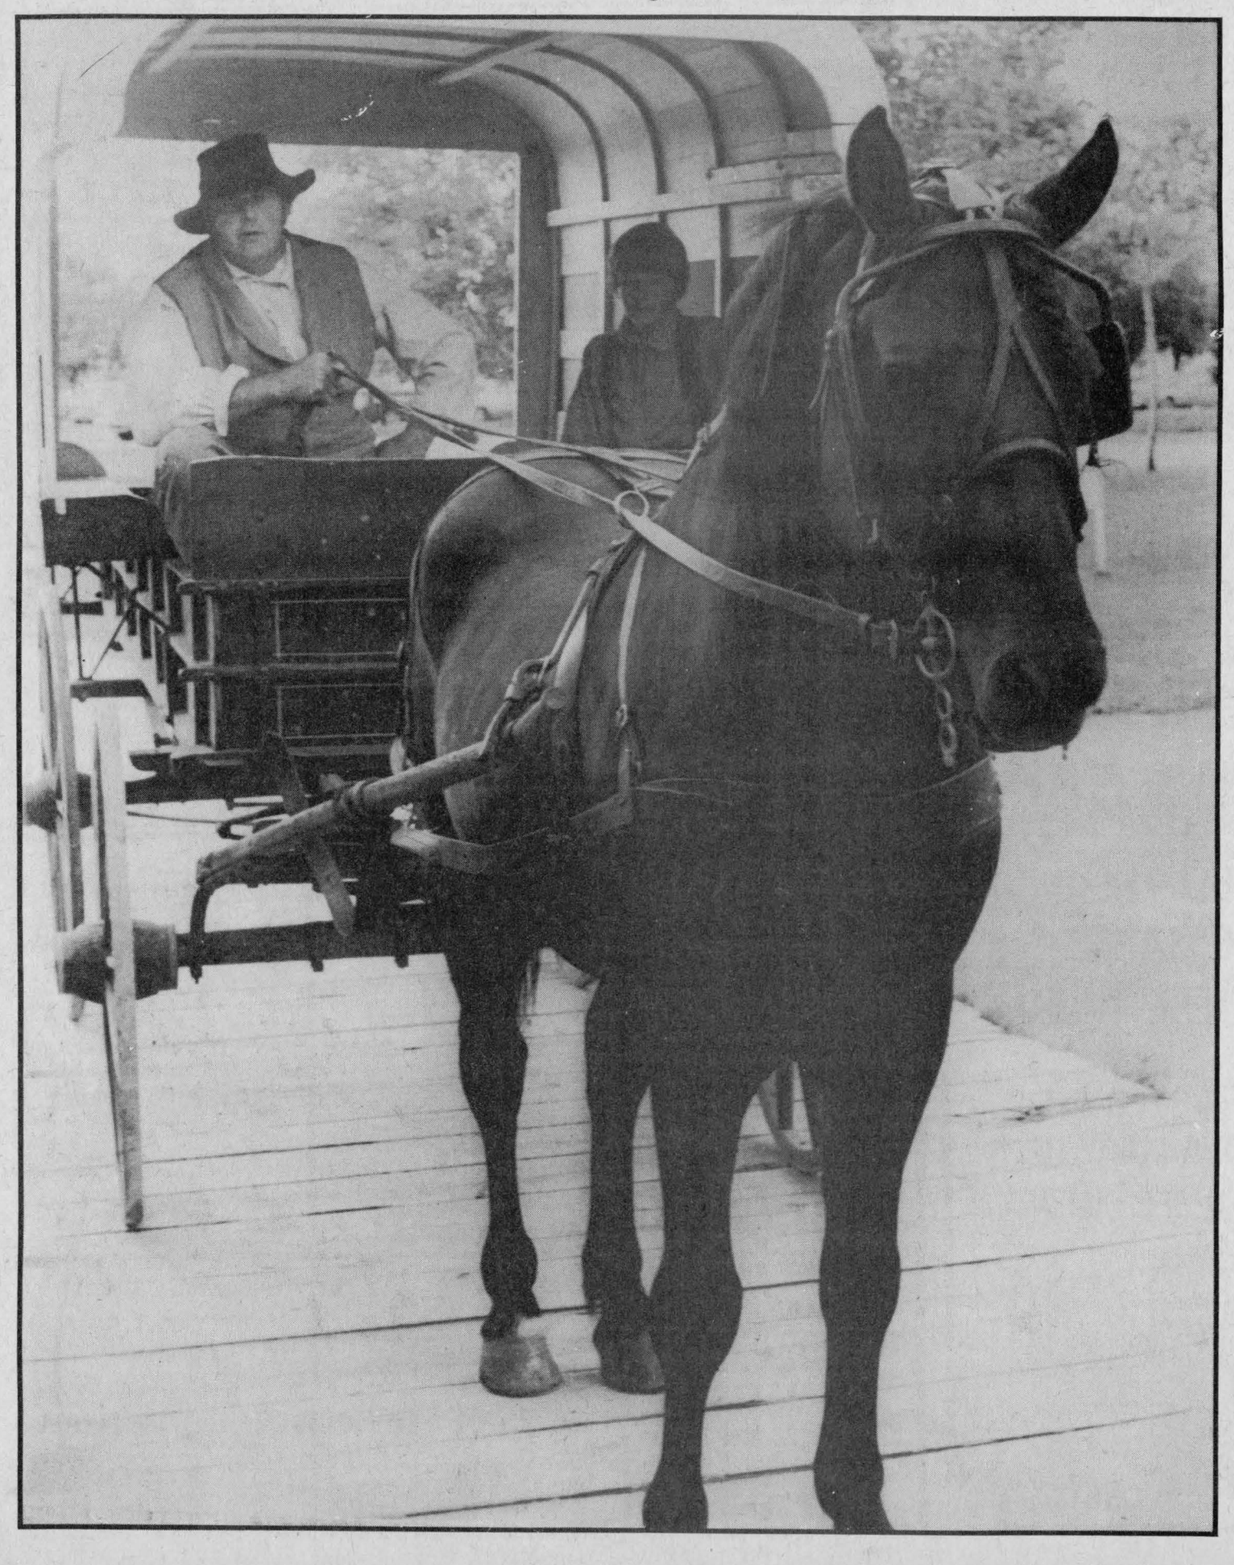
Men of the armed forces of Great Britain will not go short of their supply of good Canadian jam, if the Women's Institute have anything to say about it.

Last night at the session of the 27th annual meeting of the Women's Institute of Eastern Ontario in the Chateau Laurier, the audience heard Ontario members alone had exceeded their quota of jam and had shipped 175,000 pounds to Britain. They had the co-operation of the Red Cross Society.

Chesterville's six-man high school rugby team came out on top of a big score in their first game of the Grenville-Dundas High School League winning at Kemptville 22-5 on Tuesday afternoon.

The game had to be called in the third quarter on account of drenching rain. There were very few errors and the ball was exceptionally well handled considering the fact it was wet and many of the local team were in their first game.

51 — October 18, 1951



The proposed helicopter services for the delivery of mail in Eastern Ontario scheduled to start November 1, on an experimental basis, has been called off by the Post Office Department.

Post office officials said this week that the plan had been abandoned until further notice because the flying windmill would not be available.

Tentative arrangements had been made for the air services to Carp, Carleton Place, Perth, Smiths Falls, Merrickville, Kemptville, Winchester, Chesterville, Finch and Russell.

At Smiths Falls, the point of delivery had been arranged for the Memorial Community Centre baseball park while the 100 club community park in Winchester had been selected for the terminal of the helicopter and the fairgrounds at Chesterville . Parks were being looked over in other centres.

The 72nd annual convention of the Dundas County Teachers Association was held October 11, in the assembly hall of Winchester Public School.

The president, Elgin Bowman, addressed the assembly with an interesting and instructive talk on Choral Reading in the class room.

Mrs. Evelyn Craig, music superintendent, in her address to the teachers, explained the role of the regular teacher in the Music Program in her classroom.

Mr. W.E. Steele, District representative from the Department of Lands and Forests, addressed the Assembly on Conservation

Residents of this area are now checking results of the first three-weeks season on Hungarian partridge in Ontario's history and according to preliminary reports are still convinced that this section of the country is a Mecca for upland bird hunters.

The Hungarians, stocked in this area several years ago, have successfully withstood ice storms and are now well established. The season opened September 17 and close October 8.

Hunters from as far away as Connecticut and Michigan brought their shotguns and dogs, as well as hundreds of Canadians.

61 — October 19, 1961

Nap Struthers out on the old Pat Kirby farm in Limerick wandered into the office this week. He was lovingly lugging a large hunk of apple cider in the raw, a huge Wolfe River apple. The big red fruit was 14.5 inches by 13 inches and weighed nearly a pound and a half. It looked like a lot of fresh apple sauce. Mr. Struthers says his trees have many such fine apples.

A new $2,300,000 composite school has been suggested as a solution to the district's school building problem. The suggested building would be built at a site in the neighbourhood of Winchester Springs, close to the border of North and South Dundas districts.

Thirty-odd rooms would be needed for the proposed building. Under present provincial federal agreements, the total cost of the vocational site of the structure, a full 60 per cent, would be taken up by the governments.

Students would be transported from Stormont at Finch and Ingleside, Chesterville, Winchester, Iroquois, Morrisburg and South Mountain.

A meeting was held in Morrisburg last Friday night that will have long reaching effects on secondary education in this district. Inspector J.O. Proulx outlined his suggested plans for the consolidation of the present North and South Dundas districts and part of Stormont.

The marriage in these units would allow in his opinion, enough students to become available for the new style of "Composite" school. Composite schools are able to take full advantage of the new secondary school system that was announced August 27 by the Minister of Education.

In use, the composite school would draw its students from Chesterville and Winchester for all classes. Neither present school is adequate for the towns. Member schools would continue to teach all the academic courses with reduced teaching staffs and all students for the business-commerce and engineering-technology trades would be transported to the new unit.

DATA says Thank you

To The Editor:

The Organizers of the Drug and Alcohol Teen Awareness Information Day would like to thank everyone who in any way contributed to the success of this undertaking. The enthusiasm and assistance offered by everyone was most encouraging.

The special guests who so willingly contributed their time and talents to the program all expressed pleasure and amazement at the spirit and initiative shown by this community.

They, too, found it encouraging to see so many people band together in an attempt to place the problems of drug and alcohol abuse in their proper perspective and take some positive action in dealing with this issue.

We wish to extend a special thank you to the press. Your continued support, co-operation and assistance have been one of the most important factors in DATA's success to date.

By continuing to work together, perhaps we can achieve our goals. It has often been said that the future of our country lies in our young people. Let us hope that together we can prepare and educate them so that they are able to cope with and overcome the negative influences so prevalent in our society.

Again, our sincere thanks to all!

The DATA Committee

Oct. 24-31 Safe Drinking Water Week

To The Editor:

I note with interest that the Ontario UNICEF Committee has declared the week of October 24-31, 1981, to be UNICEF Week For Safe Drinking Water.

During this week UNICEF will promote citizen awareness of the United Nations "International Drinking Water Supply and Sanitation Decade, 1981-1990", and I am more than pleased to wish the Committee every success on behalf of the Government of Ontario.

The goal of this UN - declared decade is to eliminate by 1990 the threat of death and disease which presently endangers the lives of 500 million children in the developing world.

The provision of basic necessities such as wells, pumps and pipes will guarantee safe water, a vital contribution to the health and well-being of these children in need.

I urge my fellow Ontarians to join with me in offering encouragement and support to UNICEF during UNICEF Week for Safe Drinking Water. Your generosity can ensure a healthy future for children less fortunate than our own.

William G. Davis

Rotary-an example to youth

Chesterville Rotary News

Our Congratulations to Jan and Nellie Roosendaal who celebrated an anniversary on Monday last, and to Eric Casselman who celebrates a birthday on the 18th. There's another Rotary couple who celebrate their 38th year of marriage on the 16th but, I can't think of their name.

"Together we must learn to live as brothers, or together we will be forced to perish as fools".

"Every Rotarian should be an example to Youth". Service to our youth is our investment in the future. We need to encourage our youngsters to become mature, responsible, productive individuals with a keen awareness of world understanding and peace. Let's be positive in leading our youth in the right direction.

Our Rotary world encompasses many forms of community assistance, as an example: Rotarians of Palmaner, India have undertaken a project to provide students with books and supplies to ease the financial burden on the family budget.

A free medical dispensary for persons with low incomes is the accomplishment of the Rotary club of Ixtlan Rio.

Minatitlan Rotarians paid for major surgery for a women of limited means.

The Rotary club of Merida purchased hearing aids for all needy students.

Rotarians of Cordoba donated 60 tables and chairs, excavated two water wells and donated a number of mechanical gamets for the recreation of the residents.

Osziba Rotarians co-operated in the construction of a kindergarten and completed a successful membership drive.

The Rotary club of Lavras, Brazil constructed a public library with the help of Rotary clubs in Tokyo, Southern Pines, Northern Carolina, and Tulsa.

With this in mind we hope you all enjoyed a very pleasant Thanksgiving in this a land of plenty.

A salute to Rotary clubs who this month celebrate 50 years years of service; Olvarria, Argentina; Windsor and Eton, England; Tijuana, Mexico; Springfield, Kentucky, USA.

Have you any old or rare coins? The Rotary club of Brunswick, Maine, USA invites all Rotarians in the world to become part of its International coin collection.

Your contribution, no matter how small will be displayed with your name and your club name attached. The collection will be displayed at various coin shows. How about that?

Coming Events: Oct. 19, Club Assembly; Nov. 2, Visit to Prescott Club.

"He alone has lost the art to live who cannot win new friends."

Religious focus for Separate PD day

(Special) - The Professional Development Day on Fri., Oct. 9, 1981, for all SD&G County Roman Catholic Separate School teachers was set aside specifically for religious development.

The teachers of St. Mary's School in Chesterville and St. Bernard's School in Finch joined with Father Jan Appelman, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Chesterville, and Father Paul McEvoy, Retreat Director of the Kingston Diocese.

The day was spent reading, discussing and reflecting on Sacred Scripture as a meaningful part of our daily lives. The day closed with the teachers actively participating in a Eucharistic Celebration.

Osnabruck Centre WI plan October 21 euchre

OSNABRUCK CENTRE - The October meeting of the Osnabruck Centre Womens' Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Laura Grandaw with Mrs. Ferguson presiding assisted by secretary-treasurer - Mrs. L. Gallinger.

The meeting opened with a poem "Simplicity" followed with "Ode, Mary Stewart Collect", and Lord's Prayer.

Roll call "What's your beef?" was answered by the 17 members and three visitors present.

Correspondence was received from Carnival Committee, Miss Michels and Mrs. Yates.

Mrs. Laura Grandaw commented on the motto "People are a lot like tea bags they don't know their strength until they get into hot water". She also said it was 47 years ago this month since she joined our branch.

Mrs. Ria ter Horst gave the Smile.

The resolutions were read and discussed. Plans were made for an euchre to be held at the hall on Oct. 21.

Mrs. Dorothy Morgan won the surprise parcel.

Mrs. Lelia Grandaw held a contest entitled baby names.

Winners were Mrs. H. Brownell and Mrs. B. Countryman.

Mrs. Laura Grandaw, Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Morgan served lunch and Mrs. Doris Daye gave the appreciation.

The November meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Ria ter Horst.

Valedictorian bids farewell to ODHS

INGLESIDE (Staff) - When Florence Donkers began to write the speech she delivered to a gymnasium full of parents, teachers and former fellow students at Osnabruck District High School last Friday night she began very formally and detached.

But the speech she actually delivered was warm and filled with emotion.

The valedictorian, chosen from the graduating class at the Ingelside High School, told the audience on hand for the school's commencement exercises, she couldn't write a cold speech "because that wasn't the way I felt about my last five years here."

The young woman, the sixth member of her family to graduate from ODHS, said she went through her old year books to help her recall her feelings about the school.

She told her former schoolmates, and her former teachers she missed them, but she has a new life now. Florence is attending Queen's University in Kingston.

She congratulated her fellow students on their successes, and wished them the best in the future.

To the teachers she said, although the graduating students of ODHS often didn't agree with their teaching methods, and gave them a hard time they did appreciate what the teachers did for the students.

Florence told her audience that the way she felt about Osnabruck District High School would never change.

She thanked them for the opportunity to express her feelings about the school.

Mr. George Hickey, a teacher, introduced Florence.

Also speaking to the graduates at the commencement were Board of Education Trustee Sarsfield O'Connor, and Director of Education for Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry, Roger Leblanc.

Mr. Leblanc urged the graduates to accept every challenge in their lives as a continuation of that life.

Missionary Society takes Faith as meeting's theme

CORNWALL (Special) - Mrs. W.R. MacEwen, president of Glengarry Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society presided for the Fall meeting held in St. John's Church, Cornwall, on September 29th.

The theme chosen for this meeting was, "Faith", taken from the first verse of Hebrews, Chapter 11, and the morning worship service following this theme was conducted by two ladies from Cornwall Evening Auxiliary.

The president welcomed the group of approximately 40 ladies and expressed the hope that all would have a pleasant and profitable day.

It was announced that the nominating committee, made up of Mrs. Glen MacIntyre, Avonmore, Mrs. Mack MacRae, Dunvegan, and Mrs. Robert Lothian, Vankleek Hill, would meet at the noon hour.

The roll was called by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. D.M. Kennedy, and it was gratifying that almost all of the auxiliaries were represented.

A very interesting panel discussion was held on the topic, "Mission is on your Doorstep." The panel was conducted by Miss Margaret Boyd, Area Resource Consultant, Ottawa, and the other members of the panel were; Mrs. Kerry McIntyre, Moose Creek, Mrs. Gordon Fresque, Dunvegan, and Mrs. Jennifer Adams, Cornwall.

The main concensus of the panel was that if we are to create more interest in the Women's Missionary Society and thus increase our membership, we must strive to improve our image in our own congregations.

The grace before the noon luncheon was offered by Mrs. J. Vanderwal, and the morning session was adjourned.

The afternoon session was opened by singing Hymn 569 and Mrs. MacEwen constituted the meeting with prayer.

Since this year had been designated the "Year of the Disabled," the guest speaker was Mr. Craig Munro, Administrator of Maxville Manor. He gave a very interesting address on the many problems faced by the elderly person who many have to cope with failing eyesight, poor hearing, loss of memory and numerous other health problems.

Added to all these physical handicaps is the traumatic experience of giving up one's home, treasured possessions, and privacy.

He stressed the point that family visitation was most important, and if there were no family members living close by, a resident would be happy to be visited by other people on a regular basis. He mentioned the fact that any volunteer work done at the Manor could be considered Missionary work.

Mr. Munro was thanked, on behalf of those present, by Mrs. Neil Bush, and presented with a small gift.

Short reports were presented to the meeting by all the departmental secretaries.

Mrs. Alpin MacGregor, president of the snodical of Quebec and Eastern Ontario, brought greetings and requested all departmental secretaries to send on their annual reports to the corresponding synodical departmental secretary.

Mrs. MacGregor proceeded to conduct a brief memorial service to honor Mrs. Effie McLean, Maxville, who had just passed away. Mrs. McLean had been a past Presbyterial recording secretary.

Mrs. Helen Stewart, Ingleside, paid tribute to another valued Presbyterial secretary, the late Miss Catherine Ann MacLennan, Lancaster. She had held the office of Welcome and Welfare Secretary for many years.

The meeting agreed that Memorial Certificates would be sent to the families of these two ladies.

Mrs. W.R. MacEwen announced that the tentative date for the Presbyterial annual meeting would be Jan. 19, 1982. She requested that all annual reports be sent in before Dec. 15th.

The president next called on Miss Margaret Boyd to present the study book material for the year 1982. The title of this year's Adult Study is, "Neighbours or Strangers," and is presented under six topics: (a) diversity or races and culture; (b) identity, (c) pluralistic nature, (d) attitudes towards people, (e) different religions, (f) concerns - neighbours or strangers.

The packet contains a film strip entitled, "All in our Family."

The youth study is entitled, "The Rainbow People," and the name of the children's Book is, "The Runaway Heart." This latter book contains many crafts, music, games, and drama activities.

Miss Boyd was thanked by Mrs. J. Vanderwal.

The meeting continued with the singing of Hymn 425, Mrs. Archie Munro, Maxville, read a poem entitled, "Friends of the Ages," and Mrs. MacEwen closed the meeting with prayer.

District News

The Rev. and Mrs. E. Earle Eaton and guest, Sheila Trudeau motored to Westport on Thanksgiving Day for the annual Thanksgiving Dinner at Camp Iawah.

En route, they stopped at the Rev. Mansell Atkinson home, Inkerman. Mr. Eaton spent Tuesday in Cornwall, participating in the Seminar on the Church's Mission to the Handicapped, at St. Lawrence College.

On Wednesday he was in Ottawa for a British Israel Bible Study, and in the evening at Inkerman for a Prayer Coffee.

On Thursday he conducted a worship service at Dundas Manor in Winchester; and on Friday, at St. Joseph's Villa and Bestview Lodge in Cornwall.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Eaton patronized a church dinner in Conrwall, and Saturday they attended a Gospel Fellowship Prayer Breakfast at Cornwall.

Nursing program increases quota in response to staffing shortages

CORNWALL - A shortage of nurses in Ontario has resulted in an increase in the enrolment quota for the nursing program at St. Lawrence College, and at other colleges throughout the province.

This fall the enrolment quota for first-year nursing students went up from 61 to 71 at the Cornwall campus, and all 71 seats have been filled, said Arleen Adams, chairman of the health and human studies department.

Mrs. Adams said that four years ago there was a lack of job opportunities in Canada for nursing graduates. Many went to the United States at that time, but now the circle has turned, and the current shortage of nurses in Canada is "very acute in larger centres and in smaller, more remote areas."

Locally, Mrs. Adams aid, there is no shortage, at the moment, except in a few specialized areas.

Mrs. Adams attributes the shortage of nurses to several causes. She said financial cutbacks in hospitals have resulted in fewer full-time registered nurses on staff. These nurses have had more responsibilities put on them, and many have found the increased demand so heavy that they have left the profession.

Others have left nursing, Mrs. Adams said, because changing lifestyles and work ethics have "turned them off" shift work.

Another large group has recently reached retirement age, and lastly, many graduates of Ontario nursing programs are going to the West to find their first job.

The shortage of nurses in Ontario has also caused an increase in the number of registered nurse refresher programs offered in the province. Mrs. Adams said this program has been in existence for five years, but the Cornwall campus only started offering it last January. Both sections offered to date have been filled.

The refresher program is intended for nurses who graduated within the last ten years, who are not now working, but who would like to return to active practice. Mrs. Adams said that the field of nursing is changing so rapidly that it is almost mandatory for anyone returning to work after several years to brush up on the changes.

"Refresher and continuing education for the modern nurse is very important because of the changing technology in the field and because of the changing focus to community-based nursing, that is, home care, as opposed to institutionalized health care," Mrs. Adams said.

Another program that the health department recently introduced to help nurses keep up with the changing times is the gerontology certificate program.

Gerontology, the care of the aged, is a new specialty, Mrs. Adams said, because of the increasing proportion of aged people in Canada.

"The aged have special health needs and nurses play a major role in meeting those needs; therefore, we have a special program."

To help meet nurses' continuing need for refresher and upgrading courses, the health department regularly offers part-time credit courses, seminars and workshops on various aspects of health care, in response to local needs.

This fall, for example, the college is offering a series of three seminars that will deal with the care of patients suffering from cancer.

Many of the courses and seminars are intended for registered nursing assistants as well as registered nurses.

Home sewers can co-ordinate their wardrobe more easily if they carry a safety pin on which are fastened small swatches of cloth from garments in their current wardrobe. The swatches are small and can remain in the purse until shopping time and be pulled out to compare the proposed fabric to the existing garments.

Three Chesterville forwards move the ball out of their own zone in the overtime session of the junior boys consolation final. CPS scored two times in the extra session to defeat Wnchester Public School Hawks 3-2.

Chesterville B champs

INGLESIDE (Staff) - The Chesterville Junior boys soccer team captured the "B" Championships, in Ingleside last Friday (Oct. 9).

The Tournament hosted six senior and 10 junior teams in the all day event. Chesterville was knocked into the consolation round with a loss to Morewood of 1-0. The boys never looked back on their defeat and went on to win the next three games for the title.

The team had a close game against Inkerman, narrowly marking the win of 1-0 in a ten minute overtime, Ross Gilles kicked in the winning goal. In the next game Chesterville Public breezed past Morrisburg 6-0.

Chesterville met Winchester in the final game, which was a close battle, but ended in overtime with Chesterville boys on top 3-2. Jeff Girard was top scorer with two and Chuck Droppo, tallied one for the win.

The junior "A" championship was won by Nationview, who beat out Dixon Corners in the final 2-0. Nationview was strong contenders at the tournament also winning the senior boys "A" division defeating Iroquois, 1-0. The consolation finals for senior boys was taken by Riverside who blanked Morrisburg "B" team 2-0.

The girls elementary soccer tournament will be held Wed., Oct. 14. at Winchester Public School, starting at 9am and running till 3pm.

High rollers

OSNABRUCK (Staff) - The Osnabruck community began their first year gymnastics programs, Sat., Oct. 10, Rothwell Public School, in Ingleside.

Mary Margison, the Osnabruck Township Recreation Director, designed the program for boys and girls, ages 4-14.

There are two instructors, Rosan Brownlee and Bonnie Ward, who will be teaching all the gymnastic levels.

The program is divided into three age groups, (4-6), (7-10) and (11-14). Classes are one hour and 20 minutes long, which is a challenge to the instructors, holding the four-year-olds' attention.

The course runs 10 weeks in duration, with classes every Saturday morning.

Ingleside and the Osnabruck district have taken to this new idea, says Mary Margison. The registration was a success, having signed up 57 children.

After Christmas, if the interest is still sounding, there will be another registration for this new program.

Sports Humor

After the new Montreal Expos lost their 20th straight game in 1969, a man of the cloth visited them in the clubhouse at Dodger Stadium. He went to the office of manager Gene Mauch.

"I was talking to some of your Latin boys," he said, "and they asked me to offer a blessing in Spanish. But I can't, I'm only a brother, but I will say a prayer for you in the morning."

"At least we have these people on our side," said Mauch to a reporter. And it shows you the team may be down, but it hasn't quit."

"How's that?" the reporter asked.

Said Mauch, "The players asked for a blessing - not for last rites."

which end is up?

"Insulating the house made a big difference: over $1,000 a year on the heating bill, and there were no problems with the paperwork to pay for it; CMHC was very helpful."
Don Parent, Ottawa, Ontario
"I've got new windows and a new furnace, and now it's just airtight. This is our home; you've got your roots set in a place and you like it, why leave it?"
Harry Anderson, Vancouver, British Columbia.
"Since we insulated we have an even heat upstairs and down, and it's made a tremendous difference in the coolness in summer."
Mrs. Carolyn Lemieux, Halifax, Nova Scotia
There's one thing you can do about the rise in fuel prices. Use less. CMHC recommends that, if you own or intend to buy an older home, you would be wise to make the investment in bringing the insulation up to standard. Or if you are thinking about buying a new home, be sure to ask the builder about its energy saving features. Then compare the cost and energy saving characteristics of other homes available. Remember, the cost of heating is a very important consideration when purchasing a home. For advice and publications about CMHC housing programs and services consult your local CMHC office.

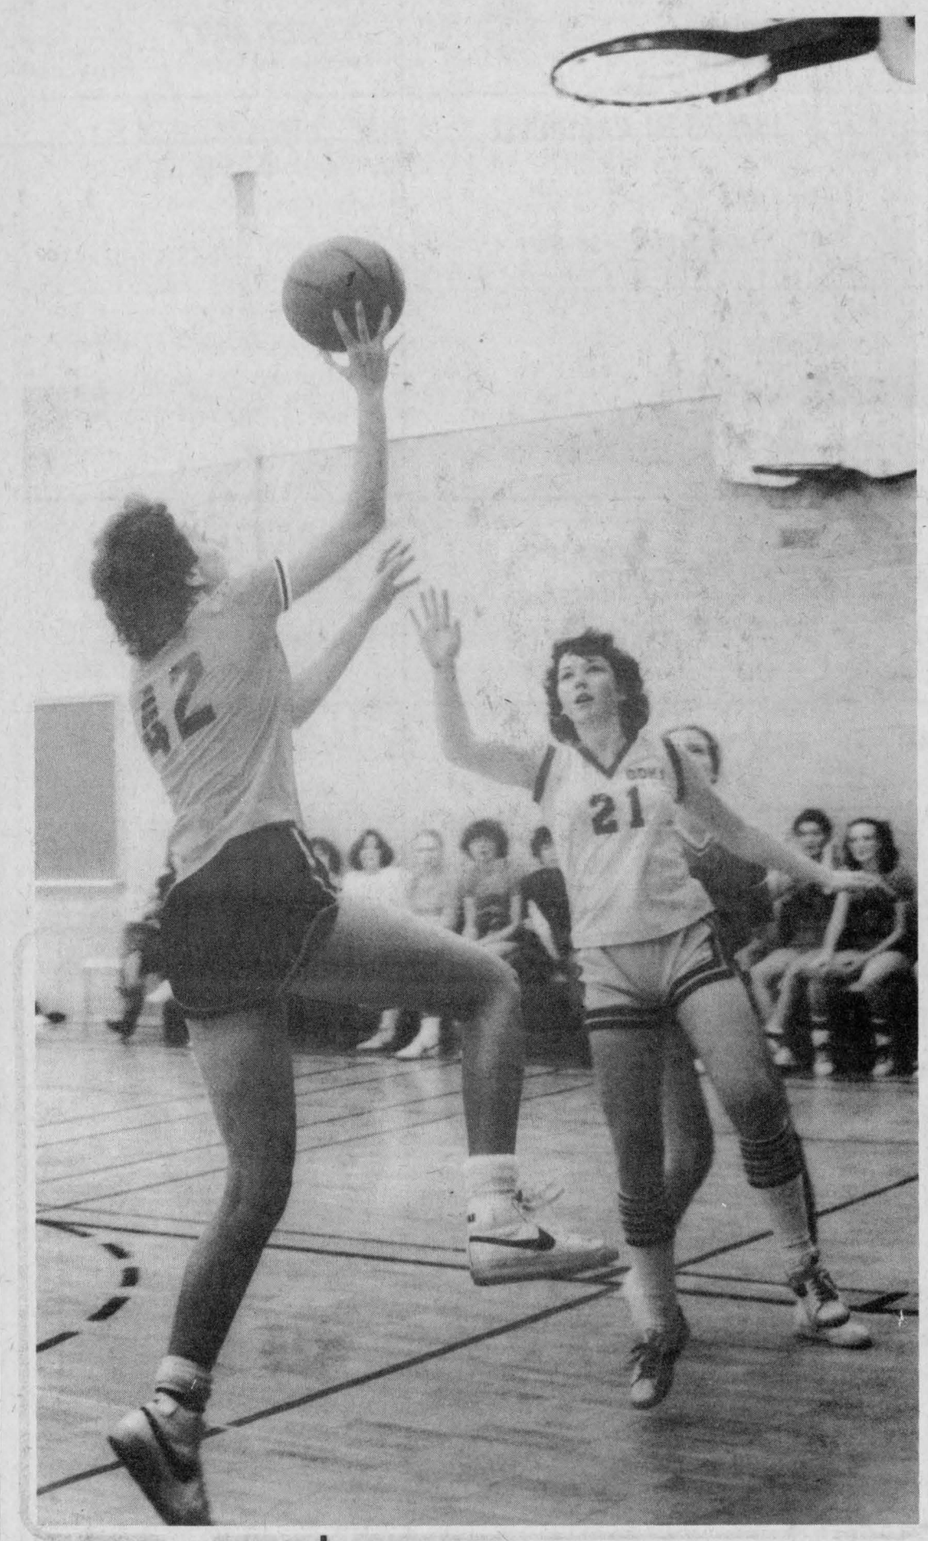
Osnabruck looses one to Seaway District 67-33



INGLESIDE (Staff) - The Osnabruck District senior girls' basketball team, was defeated 67-33 by Seaway District, Thurs., Oct. 8, in their home gym.

Both teams were evenly matched at the half; score showing was 28-21, for Seaway.

In the third quarter Seaway exploded away from Osnabruck, lead by Rebecca Gorman, who picked up 10 points and Kim Freeman who had six. Osnabruck couldn't get things together managing only four points total.

Seaway District's team was much taller than the Osnabruck squad, which showed up in lost rebounds. The Osnabruck defence were also having trouble stopping tall Rebecca Gorman, under the net.

In the final quarter the score was again closely matched. Osnabruck managed nine points, while Seaway had only 13.

The final score of 67-33 does not reflect the overall game play, with the exception of the third quarter, where Seaway picked up 20 points, Osnabruck stayed within range, of the opposing team.

Top scorers for Osnabruck were, Patti Gorton with 15 points, Nancy Shaver 10, and Heather Armstrong with seven.

Embrun broomball

EMBRUN (Staff) - The 417 Sportsmen Broomball league continued their schedule playing a total of eight games on Thurs. Oct. 8 and Mon., Oct. 12.

Thursday's first game saw the Farmers go down 3-2 to Rejean Genier Excavation, in overtime. Scoring for Rejean Genier Excavation was Pierre Savage with two goals and Michel Voisine with one goal one assist. Scoring for the Farmers was Donald Burelle.

The second game of the night had a lot of goals for TRP Ready-Mix and Lemieux Plumbing, as they trounced Y.L. Construction 7-1. Jacques Lafleche was top scorer with three goals and one assist, Michel Bourgeois added two more with two assists on the side, Alain Lafleche and Denis Beaudin added singles. The lone scorer for Y.L. was Jacques Marcel.

La Croix and Provost and Latremouille played in a goalie's game tying in a 0-0 score. Honored goalies were Gerard Laforest and Jacques Marion.

In the last game of the night, Independent Radiator and O. Maheau battled a 1-1 tie. Scoring for Independent was Guy Bourgois, for O. Maheau and Denis Forgues.

Independent Radiators defeated Y.L. Construction 5-1 in the first game Monday night. Scoring for Independent was Paul Peterson, Rolland Fleurand, Dave Henry, Guy Bourgeois and Denis Roy.

A close decision between Rejean Genier Excavation and Latremouille ended in a 1-0 victory for Rejean Genier Excavation. The goal was popped in by Paul Loiselle and the shutout went to Roger Adam.

Monday was full of close, exciting games, La Croix and Provost beat the Farmers by a 1-0 margin. Claude Groulx score the lone goal and Gerard Laforest had the shutout.

The last game was a 1-0 victory for TRP Ready-Mix and Lemieux Plumbing over O. Maheau. Scoring for TRP was Jacques Lafleche; the shutout went to Alain Bertrand.

up, up and away

Top scorer Rebecca Gorman, 42, for Seaway, jumps up her shot, while Karen Zeran of Osnabruck tries to defend her hoop. Seaway defeated Osnabruck, 67-33.

History of Curling

(Staff) - Scotland, the country of heather and lochs, has a national game, played by many known as curling. The game's origin has been suggested, to be found in this hard, wintered country.

One account of the game's origin says the men had another grim winter ahead of them. As usual, all the crofters' work had come to a stop. The fields were as hard as rock and ploughs were frozen to the furrow.

The men were at a loss what to do with themselves, when on the spur of the moment, a fellow loosened a rock from the river bank and casually hurled it across the icy surface of the stream. He was so delighted when it slid along fast and smoothly that he repeated the performance.

Others who had watched him soon began to imitate his throws. Eventually, they put on the ice a distant mark that they tried to hit with the stone, or "draw" as near as possible to it.

Some players managed to propel their stone, in such a dexterous manner that it either knocked an opponents stone out of it's position, or "promoted" a stone belonging to his own team.

Curling has also been described (to the indignation of curlers themselves) as "lawn bowling on ice." Some authorities claim that it arose out of the summer game, that had been most popular for centuries among the Scots, before the adoption of its icy version.

Other sources feel that this sport was imported either from Iceland or the Netherlands, where 450 years ago games very similar to the earliest forms of curling did exist. It was thought that either Flemish migrants had brought it to Scotland some time during the sixteenth century or Scottish travelers themselves had brought it back, on their return from visiting the Low Countries (or Iceland).

This theory can be backed up, since the majority of curling's terms are foreign. The word curl, itself, was supposedly derived from the German Kurzweil, denoting a pastime and amusement.

The word Bonspiel, describing a curling match, was from the foreign words, the French bon (Good) and the German, Spiel (play).

In spite of the close association of curling with Scotland, no literary mention appears of the game in that country before 1600. James the fourth (1473-1513) was the first Scottish King linked with the sport.

Not only do Canada Savings Bonds offer you a good rate of return, they also offer a unique combination of features that make Canada Savings Bonds a strong, secure investment for today and tomorrow.

FLEXIBILITY FOR TOMORROW

Instant Cash. With new Canada Savings Bonds you're never locked in. If the need arises, they are easy to cash anytime at any authorized redemption agent. A Canada Savings Bond is as good as money in your pocket.

No Interest Rate Penalty. When the new Bonds are cashed anytime after December 31, 1981, there's no interest rate penalty. You will receive earned interest for each full month elapsed since November 1, 1981.

BACKED BY CANADA ITSELF

Canada Savings Bonds are backed by all of Canada's resources. When you buy Canada Savings Bonds you can be sure they are a safe, secure investment you can count on.

RETURN ON PAST SERIES INCREASED

The rate of return on all unmatured Canada Savings Bonds has been increased to 19½% for the year beginning November 1, 1981. For each subsequent year until the Bonds mature the rate of return continues to be a minimum of 10½%.

SERIES DATED BEFORE 1977

For Series dated before November 1, 1977 the higher return will be paid through an increase in the value of the cash bonus payable on the maturity date of the Bonds. The new bonus amount per $1,000 Bond of each Series is as follows:

Series	Maturity Date	Cash Bonus at Maturity
1968/69	Nov. 1, 1982	$276.40
1972/73	Nov. 1, 1984	$378.40

Maple Leafs bring home two trophies

(Staff) - On Thurs., March 7, 1935 the Chesterville Record wrote an article about one of Chesterville village's greatest hockey teams, the Chesterville Maple Leafs, who won both the Benson Trophy and The Citizen Shield that year.

The Chesterville Leafs played in the St. Lawrence Senior B League, in which they were the samllest town. During regular season play, the Leafs were off to a poor start, making up in the last half of the season, barely knocking Cornwall out to make the playoffs.

On Thurs., Feb. 28 the Leafs played Cardinal, the first game, in a best out-of-three series. They won the game by a one goal margin in over time. Then at the Morrisburg Arena on Saturday, they took home the Benson Trophy defeating Cardinal again by one goal in overtime. Chuck Lapierre was the hero, as he crashed home the winning goal, after half-time of the second overtime period.

The Leafs then met the Smiths Falls Mic-Macs who were champions of the Lanark league and favoured to win the Citizen Shield. The Mic-Macs came to town Monday, for the first game of a goals-to-count two game series and carried off the decision by a one goal victory of 5-4. Monday's game did not fizz on the spirits or confidence, of the hockey players who felt sure their ability could take the Mic-Macs, despite the one goal deficit.

Chesterville's green-shirted Maple Leafs, came from behind in Smiths Falls, Wednesday night, to defeat the Mic-Macs, 4-2, in a thrill-jammed hockey contest and by their victory captured the Citizen Shield, emblematic of the Ottawa and District Amateur Hockey Association, Senior "B" honors. The triumph of the win gave the Maple Leafs the best two game total of 8-7 goals.

After 15 years, Chesterville fans found their aspirations rewarded with their team on top. Time and again, they had been in the first round of the playdowns, once or twice farther, only to get knocked out by one of the Eastern Ontario teams.

The green shirts came out fighting right from the start for the win. Their hard play was rewarded at 4:10 of the first period, a goal by Don Farmer, from Cliff (Swede) Olsen. With three minutes left in the first period Olsen picked up his second assist, giving the puck to Bob Hitsman, who placed a shot high into the corner, putting the team two ahead.

Half way through the second period, Smiths Falls answered back with a goal, Frank Dorman scored. Early in the third period, Olsen replaced the two goal lead, he slipped down the right wing and fired one from the blue line, the long shot found its place glancing into the net. Smiths Falls had one more hope coming at 2:50 an unassisted shot by Rusty Black.

Bob Hitsman added the assurance goal; Melvin Harper broke away, he stick handled through for a clear shot, then passed the puck to Hitsman. From almost behind the net, he fired a drive which glanced off goalie McGills' pads and trickled in.

The team consisted of: (James "Darky" Fyke - goal, age 21. A Chesterville boy who played all his hockey in local colors; (Melvin "Shy" Harper - defence, age 29, probably the smallest defence man in the district, Harper is known as "iron man"; (Fleming "Chuck" Lapierre - defence, age 22, a graduate from the local high school and junior ranks, an all-around good man; (Reginald "Skinner" Helmer - defence, age 22, a fast breaker and a good shot, Helmer has been prominent in local hockey since his high school days; (Lyle "Pro" Alford - back up goalie, age 17, playing his first year in senior company, Alford has been ready to be called upon for relief duty; (Francis "Dob" Plantz) - centre, age 26, one of the stars of the team, Plantz is a fast skater, a good stickhandler and one of the team's top scorers, he broke in, in 1927-28 playing on the local team that had Johnny Sorell, who went on to play for the Detroit Red Wings; (Percy "Dob" Plantz - centre, age 22, a brother of Dob, Percy is also a centre and shows promise of being a stand out performer; (Jack "Jimmy" McAvoy) - left wing, age 23, McAvoy is one of the fastest and cleverest men on the ice, he has played all his hockey in Chesterville; (Bob Hitsman) - left wing, age 25, packing the hardest shot on the squad, he has been a high scorer all season, hailing from Winchester, he has played with the team for the last three years; (Cliff "Swede" Olsen - right winger, age 23, another local boy who played up through the ranks, he is a consistent scorer and a fast skater; (Don Farmer) - centre, age 19, the kid, of the team has played senior for two years, he is one of the Leafs hardest workers; (Lorne Rombough) - right winger, age 23, a good skater and a good scorer was called upon during the season to show his stuff, he is also prominent in the Winchester town league; (Ralph "Bus" Hummel) - right winger, age 30, Hummel has turned in valuable relief efforts in the course of the season, a hard shot Hummel can drive a placed shot for the timely goals; (Beryl "Mickey" McIntosh) - defence, age 25, after starting with the Leafs, an injured shoulder forced McIntosh out of action, his loss was keenly felt, as he had shown great promise; (Alex Stark) - defence, age 27, coming from Winchester in a relief role, he was prominent for his sturdy checking and his hard shot; (Lorne Hutt) - coach, a popular figure in hockey in this district for a number of years, Hutt has had good success with Chesterville this season, his direction and judgement have helped in carrying the team to the title.

Ken Holland, of Avonmore, has a collection of trophies awarded to him by Connaught Rod and Gun Club recently. They included best hi-power with scope; hi-power open; best 22-cal. "A" class; awards for the highest trap score, 23 out of 25; third best average of 23.2 for the season and class "A" skeet with a score of 40 out of 50. Steven Shaver of Iroquois picked up his trophy for 22-cal. "B" class. Not shown in the picture was winner Susan Casselman of Berwick, the best in the ladies 22-cal. - staff photo -

(Staff) - The Chesterville and District Figure Skating club is about to start another season, beginning with their registration, being held, Mon., Oct. 19, from 7-9pm, at the Chesterville arena; cost is $25.

The first classes will be held October 26. The club has two instructors, which are responsible for all the levels. They are Bonnie Castle and Gayle Parks.

The lessons are 15 minutes in a structured class formation, then for the rest of the time from 5-9pm, the children may practice at the other end of the ice.

Classes are for children five years and older. Boys are welcome as there is a special class for them, called power skating.

The Classes are taught, according to the National Skating standards. Levels are: beginners, stroking, elementary, basic, novice 1, Dance one, novice two, speed, jump, dance two, figures, free style one, free style two and dance three. Above these levels the competitors are required to perform, pre-planned dances of high skill and proficiency The boys have the same challenges, classes power levels one to seven.

The club will also be glad to give adult lessons, if there is interest shown.

Another busy and promising year is about to begin, with the club hoping, for a good turnout. Responsible for the organization of the club are, Shirley Coons, Ruby Miltimore, Carol Barkley and both instructors.
