Save Systematically

Haphazard, occasional saving seldom accomplishes much. It's the steady, persistent, regular depositing of so many dollars a week, or month, or season, in the Union Bank of Canada, which makes one financially independent. The money accumulates all the more rapidly, too, because of the Interest which is added every six months.

Daisies Growing Over Dud's Enemies.

Editor Mason, of the Prescott Journal, who is nothing if not original, says; Seventeen years ago today this office came under the present management and then began the struggle for existence among the "aborigines" of the old fort town. Many times we heard our friends say in an undertone, he won't last long (with as much confidence as if he were a degree tuber) but here we are and hoped to be spared for another 'teen at least. During that time we have bumped against almost everything on the globe and we didn't let anything go over our heads, either. People have got sore on us for one thing and another and have stopped takin' the derned old paper and so on. But the sorest touch of all was many years ago when a selected few of our prominent merchants and business men practically boycotted us and did all they could to put us out of business. However, here we are and as fresh as a daisy and we are sorry to relate that the bunch who put the stone wall against us are now about all resting in the sand hills to the north of town. We wrote nice obituaries about each one of them, "may their souls rest in peace."

White Slaver Sentenced.

A case in which a young Canadian girl, Pearl Martin of Mille Roches, five miles west of Cornwall, a daughter of Mrs. Kate Martin, was induced to leave her home and go to the United States was aired in the United States court at Syracuse, N. Y., before the grand jury. John White, a widower, of Solvy, N. Y., was the man against whom the "White Slave" Act was charged, and he was sentenced to a year and a half in the U. S. penitentiary at Atlanta, Georgia.

The Martin girl, who is but fourteen years of age, was induced to go to Massena by Mrs. Antoine, a sister of White, the woman telling her she could get a good position and have good clothes. The girl left during the night early last month and her mother has been endeavoring to locate her since then. Fearing she might be subject to arrest, Mrs. Antoine helped Mrs. Martin to locate her daughter in Syracuse, laying all the blame on her brother for the disappearance of the girl. The arrest of White followed. Although an alleged accomplice, the U. S. immigration officials do not propose prosecuting the Antoine woman.

George W. Wood, of Cornwall, of the United States Immigration Service, was in Syracuse on the case, and has returned, bringing the Martin girl back with him. A couple of weeks ago a brother of the Martin girl, G. W. Martin, was sent to the penitentiary at Atlanta for a year on a charge of smuggling aliens into the United States from this side of the line.

Daniel Brennan of Charlottstown second officer of the ferry Hillsborough, is missing since Saturday evening and it is feared he is drowned.

The nuptual knot was tied by Rev. W. D. Bell of Finch in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride received many beautiful and costly gifts including several well filled envelopes of cash.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and fob.

Big Cabbages

There has been a little competition between Mr. Thomas Sloan of "Donnybrooke Farm" and Mr. George Haskins, Miss Frost's gardener, in the cabbage line and at present Mr. Sloan is ahead. He had a head of cabbage in the Record window measuring 42 inches, Mr. Haskins brought in one measuring 43 inches, and that set Mr. Sloan hunting through his cabbage patch. Tuesday night he placed in the Record window what is said to be the biggest cabbage ever grown in this part of the country. It measures 47 inches in circumference and not satisfied with that he flanked this big head with six others almost as large. They are now on exhibition in the Record window.—Smith's Falls Record.

Mr. Ross Beckstead was the tenant of the farm, and although he saved the majority of his household effects, the hay, grain and corn were burned with no insurance.

Shipping Milk Across Border.

The buildings will be erected on the corner of the Milmoe farm next to the railroad track on the N.Y and O. railroad track and a switch will be built from the main line to the station. There is a large dairy company in the immediate vicinity which will supply a lot of milk and under the new tariff which lets in milk free from Canada, they will probably get a lot across the St. Lawrence at this point.

It is understood the milk will be shipped to New York over the O. & N.Y. railway. Cattle dealers are taking advantage of the new United States tariff which admits cattle duty free and large shipments are to be made from this side.

Thousands of dollars' worth of loss by fire was sustained by the Alabastine Company and the Shirra Milling Company at Caledonia.

The thirty-eighth annual convention of the Dundas County Teachers' Institute closed at Morrisburg on Friday evening. The meeting lasted for two days, with one hundred teachers in attendance.

Mr. Arthur Brown of Morrisburg who for more than thirty years was Public School Inspector for Dundas county, was made an honorary member for life. Edward Strader of Brinston, was elected President, and J. R. Baifour, of Morrisburg, Secretary-Treasurer.

One of the teachers, who has been in the Canadian west, sounded a note of warning against teachers' engagement agencies, saying they were sometimes offered more in the way of salaries than western boards would pay.

It was resolved to hold the next meeting of the institute in Winchester, spending one day there and later going to Macdonald College at Ste. Anne de Believue.

(Iroquois News.)

The 36th annual meeting of the Dundas Sunday School convention was held in Iroquois on Oct. 2nd and 3rd.

Thorough preparations were made for this inter-denominational Sunday School convention which opened on Thursday evening with but few delegates on account of the drenching rain which continued through the whole day, and causing considerable anxiety to those who had this matter in hand. The convention was held in the Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

The first session, which was held in the Presbyterian church was presided over by Rev. A H. Visser, who made an ideal chairman. Rev. K. W. Barton, Prescott, gave the leading address, his subject being "training." As the speaker went on from point to point he was listened to with wrapt attention. After Mr Barton had finished it was felt that a good start had been made. Miss Hazel Beach held the attention of the audience in a most exquisite reading, "The Sign of the Cross" Five solos were rendered during the evening by Mr. Charlton Heaslip and Mr. Ralph Thompson.

The forenoon session was again held in the Presbyterian church. Delegates began to arrive in goodly numbers early Friday morning. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. G. Stafford, and President took the chair. The nominating committee was appointed; reports were received from township secretaries. The delegate to the Hamilton Provincial convention gave a report; and a delegate to the Provincial convention to be held in Ottawa, Oct. 23-24, was appointed, Rev. W. H. Stevens, of Chesterville, being the choice. Other delegates to the number of 15, from the different townships in the county, were also appointed. The address of the morning session was delivered by Mr. Preston G. Orwig, provincial secretary of the secondary department. The speaker gave a capital address, full of instruction, wit and humor. By his charming manners he won his way at once into the hearts of all. We hope to hear from him again some future day.

The afternoon and evening ssssions were held in the Methodist church. The audience was largely increased and great interest was manifested in all parts of the program. Praise service was conducted by Rev. G. Stafford, Rev. T. A. Sadler leading in prayer. Conference departments of work was on the program, out of which rose considerable discussion on account of the absence of a number of the superintendents. It was decided to place the item on the program for at least another year. Great force was added to the afternoon program by the addition of an address of deep, spiritual thought by Rev. Mr. Smith, secretary in the Methodist church of Social and Moral Reform. It is to be regretted that space will not permit of even an outline of this remarkable address. The audience was also increasingly entertained by Mr. Orwig, who it is believed could talk instructively all day on the boy problem. Mr. Orwig has studied this theme under the great masters.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. E. W. S. Coates. The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. R. S. Peiton, and was replied to by Mr. Hudson McIntosh. Mr. Smith gave a practical address on the moral condition of affairs throughout Canada. Mr. Smith spoke with holy earnestness and the people sat up and listened. Mr. Orwig's closing address was all that could be desired. Mr. J. Jackson makes an ideal secretary-treasurer. The year has been a successfcl one, the county at present being fully organized. There will be about $117 in the tseasury at the beginning of the new year. The offerings for the four sessions were $19. Rev. Mr. Millar, of South Mountain, is the new President. He was introduced to the audience by the retiring President, Rev. D. O. McArthur, who during the year had filled the important position to the satisfaction of all.

During the evening a beautiful solo was rendered by Mrs. Libbie-Beach Knox who has always been so favorably received by Iroquois audiences, A trio by Mrs. Knox and Mr. and Mrs. McInuis was charming. The male quartette, Mr. Tindale taking Mr. Bender's part, gave a fine selection, even surpassing many of their very best in the past. The convention, which was voted the very best yet, was closed with the benediction.

Consumed by Flames

Brockville, Oct. 12—The temperance hotel at Mallorytown, known as the Ferguson House, caught fire in the roof by a spark from the chimney. The blaze could not be checked and the building was destroyed. The bulk of the contents were saved. The loss is placed at $3,000, partly covered by insurance. The hotel was one of the landmarks of the village.

PARALYSED AND COULD NOT WALK

MR. ALVA PHILLIPS

BRISTOL, N. B., JULY 25th. 1911.

"I am unable to say enough in favor of "Fruit-a-tives" as it saved my life and restored me to health, when I had given up all hope and when the doctors had failed to do anything more for me. I had a stroke of Paralysis in March, 1910, and this left me unable to walk or help myself, and the Constipation of the bowels was terrible. Nothing did me any good and I was wretched in every way. Finally, I took "Fruit-a-tives" for the Constipation, and it not only cured me of that trouble but gradually this fruit medicine toned up the nerves and actually cured the paralysis. Under the use of "Fruit-a-tives", I grew stronger and stronger until all the palsy and weakness left me. I am now well again and attend my store every day and all day."

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy in the world that is made of fruit juices and tonics.

Law Governing Race Tracks.

Vancouver, Oct. 10—Are pari-mutuel machines used on race tracks "disinterested stake holders" or not? If they are not, then the provisions of the law governing race tracks are violated, and if the law is violated then the machines ought to be legislated against, and an Act drafted preventing any kind of betting, even between individuals, with a "disinterested stake holder," except under the law for the regulation of betting at race meets.

This, in substance, is the opinion of Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, who to-day was waited upon by a large delegation from lhe Board of Trade of Vancouver.

While the Minister was not in a condition to give an offhand statement with regard to the alleged impossibility of enforcing the Act, he said he would give it study with a view in remedying it, so that extended racing or betting would be prevented. He was informed that Attorney-General Bowser, of British Columbia, had said that the Act could not be enforced, he holding that the pari-mutuel machine was a "disinterested party, to the betting. In other words the pari-mutuel was the same as a strange stake holder between two betting parties. This was a new view to the Minister, and he promised to do what he could to remedy this feature.

GIN PILLS Brought Relief

Larder Lake, Ont., March 26th.

"I had been suffering for some time with my Kidneys and Urine. I was constantly passing water, which was very scanty, sometimes as many as thirty times a day. Each time the pain was something awful, and no rest at night.

I heard of your GIN PILLS and decided to give them a trial at once. I sent my chum 60 miles to get them and I am pleased to inform you that in less than six hours, I felt relief.

In two days, the pain had left me entirely. I took about half a box and today I feel as well as ever and my kidneys are acting quite natural again."

Tory Win In Chateauguay Majority 144

Ste. Martine, Que., Oct. 13—Chateauguay county, which since confederation forty-six years ago has been represented by a Liberal, in the by-election on Saturday elected Mr. James Morris, Conservative, a resident of the county, the figures of his majority early this morning being 144 votes over Hon. Sydney Fisher of Brome.

The vote was probably the heaviest ever polled at a Dominion election, averaging at some of the polls upwards of 95 per cent. It is estimated that throughout the constituency over eighty per cent of the electors on the voters' list cast their ballots.

At one poll in this town, of 127 on the list, all but four voted.

A review of the vote shows that English and French speaking sections alike favored the government candidate.

In the parish of Ormstown, with its five polls, Morris had a majority of 74. The village of Ormstown gave Fisher a majority of 16, and the four outside polls recorded 90 more for Morris than for his opponent, as against a majority of six for the late Liberal member in 1911. St. Jean Chrysostome, which includes the village of Aubrey, the Conservative candidate's home town, recorded fifty-six majority for Morris. The same district went against him at the last election. In Howick Morris was defeated by 21 two years ago, and on Saturday he polled two more votes than Fisher.

Mr. Fisher, ths defeated candidate, said he considered the election one of the most corrupt in his experience. For two weeks, he said, he had seen evidences of crookedness, and thought he would be thoroughly justified in entering a protest.

Sir Rodolphe Lemieux said: "The loss is all Chateauguay's and all Canada's."

The successful candidate motored through three of the principal villages of the riding after the election, and in an interview here stated he believed the result an approbation of Premier Borden's entire policy and record. "The race cry which was touched on by speakers for my opponent," he said, "had no effect whatever on my French-speaking friends who form two-thirds of the population of the county. I consider the men accompanying Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the hustings, who hurled insulting epithets right and left as well rebuked by the electors."

On the 21st September, 1911, the three polls in the parish of Chateauguay gave a Liberal majority of 71, while these same polls were carried on Saturday by Mr. Morris by 19, his majority in Chateauguay Basin being 18 and at Woodlands 46, Mr. Fisher having a majority of 45 in Chateauguay village. Two years ago Mr. Morris' majority in Ste. Martine, a mixed English and French speaking centre, was 59, and this year 49. The new voters' list, with the one man one vote principals applying, was much smaller than two years ago, which accounted for the loss of ten votes.

W. H. Rowan Drowned While on Hunting Trip

Ottawa, Oct. 12—News was received here today of the drowning at Rigaud, Que., on Saturday of Walter H. Rowan, Superintendent of the Money Order Branch of the Postoffice Department. With his sons-in-law, Messrs. W. Simpson and W. R. Baillie of Montreal, and two guides from St. Andrew's, Que., Mr. Rowan started on a hunting and fishing trip Friday, camping at Jones Island, opposite Riguad. About twenty minutes after Mr. Rowan had started out alone in a boat yesterday morning, his sons-in-law noticed the craft floating down stream empty. The body has not yet been recovered, although parties have been dragging the channel since the accident.

Mr. Rowan was in his fifty-sixth year and was a native of St. John, N.B. He was well known in local aquatic circles, having been Commordore of the Ottawa Canoe Club and the local representative of the Canadian Swimming Association.

Many Perish on Burning Steamer.

Fishguard, Ireland, Oct. 11—The Uranium Line steamer Volturno, from Rotterdam bound for Halifax, last night caught fire at sea. Her frantic appeals by wireless were heard by the Carmania and nine other steamers, who rushed to her assistance at full speed, and upon arriving at the scene, rescued 521 of the Volturno's passengers.

Over 200 of the ill-fated vessel's passengers are still missing, however, and it is feared that they met their doom in the flames which swept the decks of the Volturno with hurricane-like rapidity, or in the angry Atlantic.

There is a persistent roport that the Volturno had insufficient boats, under the Board of Trade regulations, and that this may prove responsible for a disaster, the most horrifiying since the wreck of the steamer Titanic of the White Star Line.

Captain Gardner, of the Carmania, played a heroic part in his death-defying efforts to rescue the passengers of the Volturno, trapped like rats in a raging furnace of flames. For two hours the boats from the Carmania struggled frantly got within fifty yards of the doomed ship and vainly tried to throw a rope over the stern to several hundreds of the Volturno's passengers huddled together in the lifeboats on deck unlaunched, half dead with fear and exposure to the storm.

The steamer Grosser Kurfurst arrived half an nour later in response to the "C. Q.D." wireless call from the Volturno. This was at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. And from then on, every half-hour wit-ically to take off the 200 left on the Volturno, and then having lost all but three of the oars of his boat in the terrific seas whipped up by the gale, which was blowing 70 miles an hour, returned to the Carmania to change his crews and equip the boats afresh.

Captain Gardner finally decided to run the Carmania alongside the blazing Volturno, despite the risk to his own ship, and after a heart-breaking struggle finalnessed the sight of some monster ocean liner tearing at full speed across the angry waters of the Atlantic, her crew manning the rails, ready for a desperate attempt to save the lives of the helpless people on the Vulturno.

As darkness commenced to fall the gale moderated somewhat, but not enough to allow the big liners clustered around the blazing vessel to steam close enough to complete their errand of mercy.

Captain Gardner of the Carmania, received the first wireless call when he was 78 miles from the Vulturno on Thursday morning, and immediately ordered full steam on, making twenty knots in the teeth of the gale. He reached the Volturno at noon, and found her a flaming beacon, with her forward portion completely enveloped in fire, rolling heavily, and with her propeller fouled in the boat tackle.

Only two boats had been got away safely. Four others had been smashed against the side by the relentless Atlantic and their occupants drowned.

All of the nine liners who had rushed to the scene of the disaster at top speed, immediately lowered their boats, but the mountainous waves prevented them from approaching the Volturno, and their crews were driven back to their ships to save their own lives, which were repeatedly endangered as their little shells were dashed against their own ships in lowering and being lifted back to the decks.

All the ships turned on their search lights, and the scene was one of the most weird in the annals of the Atlantic's list of tragedies.

The lighted surface of the sea was dotted with the heads of swimmers from the Volturno, who had cast themselves into the cruel waters to escape a still more fearful death in the flames raging on board the doomed ship, and hundreds of them were rescued by the boats from the liners at the spot.

All this time the fire on the Volturno was spreading rapidly and at 9.30 o'clock the boilers exploded and the Voliurno, either accidentally or by design, fired salvos of rockets.

The Volturno's wireless operators nobly upheld the traditions of the service, and manned their keys, keeping their frantic calls for help flashing through the storm-swept area.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the operators found their dynamos flooded, and having done everything humanly possible they took to the last boat, lowered it, and were rescued.

It was marvellous, even to the hardened tars of the liners standing by, that any boats could be launched from the Volturno in the teeth of the gale. The rescued passengers picked up from the sea all wore lifebuoys, and were mostly members of the crew and a few male passengers.

As the gale continued to moderate boats from the Carmania, Kurfurst and other liners got alongside and the work of rescue was hurriedly begun.

48 Contests of Local Option in Ontario Soon

The Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance reports arrangements for forty-eight temperance campaigns, the results of which will be known early in 1914. Of these places one is a city—Sault Ste. Marie—thirteen are towns, fourteen are incorporated villages and the remaining 20 are townships. Eleven out of the 48 have not before voted upon the question of local option in former contests; there are 26 in which local option bylaws were defeated by the three-fifths requirement, and there is one in which a local option bylaw was carried and subsequently quashed upon a technicality.

These are contests brought on by the temperance party. Others may be promoted, as petitions may be put in up to the first of next month. Repeal contests may also be brought on in places where the local option bylaw has been in force for three years. It is, therefore, very probable that the total contests may be much in excess of the forty-eight meutioned above, and a lively fight is anticipated.

The Chesterville Races.

The day selected for the holding of the Chesterville races was Tuesday of this week and although the weather was somewhat cool, the day otherwise was perfect. A very good crowd of people were present, a good field of horses for the three events, and the track a perfect one. Mr. James Hughes, in his usual way, got the horses off to a good start.

There were many close finishes, although two events were won in straight heats.

The days events closed with a grand assembly in the music hall, at which many took advantage of the nice hall, good floor and the excellent music furnished by Miss Ella McCloskey and Messrs. Ed. Flynn, G. M. Whitney and Chas. Millea. During the evening an excellent lunch was served by Mr. Eugene McMillan.

Makes Serious Charges.

Kingston, Oct. 15—The long promised sensations over the penitentiary inquiry broke loose this morning while Major Hughes was giving evidence on the charges against Deputy Warden O'Leary. Mr. Hughes had gone over the roster and shown how on January 11, 1913, the guards given the choice positions were ninety per cent Roman Catholics, although there are twice as many protestants as there are Catholic guards. Dr. Edwards, M. P., who launched the charges, then got permission to ask questions, and his first one was: "Do you consider Deputy Warden O'Leary a fit and proper person to hold such an office?"

"Hold on" said the chairman. The commission consulted a moment and disallowed the question.

"I cannot see that Mr. Hughes' opinion of Mr. O'Leary is pertinent," said Commissioner Downey. "We are anxious to get information, not opinions."

Dr. Edwards jumped to his feet and declared with considerable heat that the commission was apparently not at all anxious to get information.

"We have been working under great difficulties all along, and I want to say that it is a most extraordinary thing that the chairman of this commission, after signing an advertisement asking for those who have any complaints or any information for the commission to come forward, and a man comes along witn a complaint and first his story is discredited, and then he is told to go home and keep out of it. This is a most extraordinary thing. It indicates an attempt on the part of the commission to make this investigation a whitewashing affair."

Mr. Downey promptly told Dr. Edwards that he could pass comment on the work of the commission when they had made their finding.

Prince Arthur Married

London, Oct. 15—Prince Arthur of Connaught, son of the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, and Princess Alexandra Victoria, Duchess of Fife, eldest daughter of the widowed Princess Royal, Louise, were today made man and wife in the ancient chapel of St. James' Palace, where both of them had been baptized.

Gang Caught Ready to Print $5 Bills

Montreal, Oct. 15 — Charged with conspiracy against the United States Government, four Germans were this morning arrested in the city, a lithographic plate for making $5 bills of the Indian head issue, described by the authorities as "microscopically perfect" being captured just as all the apparatus for the production of the bills was ready.

The four men, whose names are P. H. Henderson, alias Paul Caoke Fitz Munding, August Kanachi, and Goldrich Sania, were taken in charge by Detectives Laberge, Lamont, Fafard and Crowthers of the local force, assisted by Special Secret Service man Manasi of the New York police, acting on information given by Mr. P. Gorman, vice-consul of the United States.

About six weeks ago Mr. Gorman had information given him which led him to believe that counterfeiting of these bills was being commenced in Montreal, and, his convictions being confirmed he telegraphed to Washington for a man unknown here to be sent to investigate the case. New York was notified and Mr. Morris Manasi came here, just five weeks since. He applied th Chief Charpentier of the Detective Department, and Detective Lamont was detailed to follow out the case with Mr. Manasi.

The two at once got to work and the first clue they obtained was through an advertisement for an engraver which they noticed in the local press. Through this they traced the sender to Montreal of a lithographic stone which was to be engraved after arrival. They then got on the track of a man whom they followed from bank to bank, watching him making out cheques and cashing them. Later they saw him with some more men, and were convinced that there was a gang of counterfeiters and that at least four men were involved.

Yesterday, acting on Mr. Gorman's advice, Mr. Manasi telephoned the local detectives and asked for assistance in arresting the gang, and this morning the four detectives above mentioned were put on the case. Henderson was first captured, being taken at 81 St. Urbian street, and he is thought to be leader of the gang and to be responsible for the arrangements for puting the notes in circulation. Then Munding was taken at 95 St. Alexander street, while Kanachi was found on Notre Dame street and Sania on Dorchester street.

All the men were taken to headquarters, locked up, and will appear in court tomorrow morning. The work of engraving the stone occupied over five weeks time.

426 Welsh Miners Lose Their Lives

Cardiff, Wales, Oct. 14—About 426 Welsh coal miners are believed to have lost their lives from fire and after-damp in the Universal Colliery at Senghenydd today. The most experienced men in mining accidents said late tonight that there was little hope of saving the 413 men still unaccounted for who are isolated by fire. If this despairing view is verified it will be the biggest human sacrifice in British mining annals. Nine hundred and thirty-five men went down in the pit this morning before the first explosion shattered the works. Of this number successive parties of rescuers sent up 509 men alive and 12 bodies. This leaves 413 men cooped in by fire with no chance of reaching them.

Fined $100 and Costs

Mrs. Geo. Ault of Matilda, was arrainged before Magistrates James Collison, J. J. Payne and Alfred Marcellus on Monday afternoon on a charge of selling liquor to Lucas Lapierre of Matilda, between Sept. 10th and 15th, 1913, contrary to the provisions of the Ontario Liquor License Act. Mrs. Ault, who was indisposed, was not present in court, but pleaded guilty in a letter sent to E. P. Foster, License Inspector, who had charge of the case for the Crown, with I. Hilliard, K. C., as Crown prosecutor. George Ault, in behalf of his wife, made no defence, and had no lawyer to plead his wife's case. Only one witness, Lucas Lapierre, of the six subpoened by Mr. Foster, was sworn, who testified to having received and paid for liquor at Mr. Ault's between the above dates. The Court accordingly fined Mrs. Ault $100 and costs, to be paid within 15 days, or to be sent to goal in default of payment.—Iroquois News.

Reduce Charge To Assault With Harm Intent

The charge of attempted murder preferred against John Finlay of Metcalfe, who is alleged to have assaulted a neighbor named John Thompson on Sept. 10th, was changed by County Magistrate Smith to one of assault with intent to inflict grevious bodily harm, after a preliminary examination in the county police court at Ottawa. Finlay was committed for trial.

The story told by Thompson who is manager for the Bell Telephone Company at Metcalfe, is to the effect that Finlay invited him into his house, whither he had been several times previously on business connected with the telephone instruments, and had there struck him Thompson alleged to have run away and to have been pursued by Finlay. Two fractured ribs Thompson avers, were the result of the row.

Finlay, in defence, declares that Thompson gave him provocation by making overtures to Finlay's wife.

Thompson alleges that before assaulting Finlay cried out that he would murder Thompson. This Finlay denies.

Montreal, Oct. 15—A relenting father and that "bless you my children" and took the place this morning of court proceedings in the case of Reginald Leamy, 77 Florence St., Ottawa, who was to have appeared on a charge of abducting Elizabeth Phyllis Campbell, daughter of James B. Campbell, 169 Lafontaine street, Viauville, Que., a minor, who is heiress to a fortune estimated at $75,000.

Miss Campbell left Montreal last week against her father's wishes to meet her lover in Ottawa, where they had arranged to be married. The irate parent caught her at Vaudreuil and sought to detain her there. She, however, escaped through a trap door in the station floor and after walking for miles, selling her gold watch to get money for her trip, made her way to Ottawa by a roundabout way and was married to Mr. Leamy as arranged.

The young husband was then arrested on a charge of abduction, the withdrawal of which charge this morning by the father enabled the young couple to be reunited.

Something New in Churches

This season has developed something brand new in churches. The church of the Village Green with its spire and its bell is no longer considered essential by church efficiency engineers. The new style came into being in London this summer and is now under consideration for use in the city.

There are in New York certain localities where churches are needed, but where it is considered unwise to build them. Lack of funds prevents building in certain localities, in others the permanency of the field is questionable or the demand may exist only in certain seasons of the year. Tents are not popular or permanent. The new church car devised and used in London this season may solve the problem.

It is a structure somewhat like a modern trolley car very long. It looks rather like a freight car with a door in the middle of one side, none at the ends, and one window on each side of the door. There are no end platforms but instead there runs along one side a fairly wide platform.

In front of the door the floor is a bit wider and here is a rail upon which the preacher leans as against a pulpit rail. On one side there is room for a small organ and on the other seats for speakers awaiting their turn.

The interior serves for meetings of Bible classes and for conferences and in the car are stored chairs and books. The car is run to some open space where it stands as long as the attendance at the meeting seems to warrant them it is moved to another locality.

The plan worked so well in London this season that Christian people are designing more of them. Christian leaders at work on the popular religious uplift, are looking into this new style church with a view to importing it.

New Dredge Safe at Port Nelson.

Ottawa, Oct. 10—The safe arrival at Port Nelson of the big dredge Port Nelson for use in connection with the terminal for the Hudson Bay Railway was reported to the Railway Department this afternoon by the steamer Beothic, which is returning from the bay. The big dredge, which was built in Toronto, was towed by the Bellaventure, and made the trip in 46 days. The dredge will be put to work at once in the terminal improvements now under full swing at Port Nelson.

The Port Nelson was built at a cost of $270,000, being the largest dredge ever constructed in Canada. She left Toronto in August on the 3,000-mile journey to Hudson Bay. The trip to Montreal lasted four days, to Sydney from Montreal three weeks, and to Port Nelson another three weeks. The arrival there on Sept. 27, was announced today by wireless from the Beothic from Fame Point. Word has also been received of the rest of the Hudson Bay fleet, including the Bonaventure, which left Sydney on Sept. 18, arriving at Port Nelson on the 28th, and the Sinbad, which is now on her return voyage.

Their Fun was Costly

Brockville, Oct. 10—At ten minutes to one this morning, thinking that the town was too dull and needed a stirring up, Neil McCauley and Arthur Bisnaw, two young men, and another whose identity the police have not as yet learned, walked up to box 12 at the corner of Pearl and Daniel streets and sent in an alarm for fire. The firemen and many citizens responded, as did also Sergt. Burns and Constable Glazier. They became suspicious of McCauley's actions and placed him under arrest. He gave the name of Bisnaw, who was taken from his bed two hours later. Bisnaw would not give the name of the third party. The pair were fined $40 each.

Montreal Paper Sued for $100.000

Montreal, Oct. 9—A suit for one hundred thousand dollars damages, on account of an alleged conspiracy to destroy the Montreal Herald and to ruin its business, was entered in the Superior Court today by the Herald Company, Limited. The defendants are the Montreal Star Publishing Company, Limited, the Montreal Standard Publishing Company, Limited, the International News Service (a New Jersey corporation controlled by William Randolph Hearst,) Sir Hugh Graham, owner of the Star and Standard and Charles F. Crandall, managing editor of the Star.

Particulars of the allegations upon which the suit is based are given in full in the plaintiff's declaration, alleging a protracted and widespread conspiracy on the part of the defendants and other persons unknown, to prevent the Montreal Herald from having access to certain sources of supply from which daily newspapers secure their circulation-building features.

It is also alleged that the Canadian defendants formed a so-called syndicate and induced the New Jersey defendant to break its contract with the Toronto World and transfer its services to their syndicate. The Toronto World was thereby prevented from delivering to the Herald the features and services which it had contracted to deliver. The Toronto World yesterday secured an interim injunction restraining the New Jersey corporation from delivering its services to the Star syndicate until further hearing.

Mr. A's Profitless Job.

The patrons of a noted Ontario creamery, both members of a cow testing association, at the end of last year had these records of study. Mr. A. milking eight cows sent a total of only 1,360 pounds of fat. Mr. B. with only five cows sent 1,777 pounds.

Dairymen in other sections are invited to consider what this means. A. had three cows more than B. to milk and feed all year, but received a smaller income than B. by quite ninety dollars Nor is that all for the three extra cows consumed feed worth at least ninety dollars more, making another ninety dollars that he was "out."

But one step further; A. worked hard milking those three extra cows, spending probably 200 hours more than B. on a thankless and profitless job. The cows were worth something as an investment, but it is doubtful if they returned any interest on it; some allowance should be made for depreciation even of this wonderfully inefficient cow "plant;" then stable accommodation had to be provided for them; and the general care of the herd called for some expenditure of thought and skill on the part of A. as general manager of his establishment.

The deductions are plain; however comforting a "guess" may be as to whether a cow, or a herd, "pays," there is nothing to take the place of actual dairy records. Further, whatever the production of a herd may be, comparison with other annual records should be made in order to see if improvement is posstble.

The Packing of Fruit.

Canadian fruits, than which there are no better, are now regarded in the markets of the world at their true worth. Through the operations of the Inspection and Sale Act the packing of Canadian fruit has been greatly improved and the development of the trade accelerated. From time to time since its enactment, as experience has indicated, the Act has been improved in order to more completely encourage and protect the industry. The latest amendment to the Act, which was passed during the past session of Parliament, extends inspection to imported fruit thereby placing it on an equal footing with that grown in Canada. The amendment provides that the Governor-in-Council by regulation may prescribe the kinds of imported fruit the packages containing which must be branded or marked; the brands or marks to be used thereon, as well as the methods and places where such branding shall be done. Other minor changes were effected in the Act.

For the information of those interested in the fruit trade there has been issued by the Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner a pamphlet designated bulletin No. 40 of the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch containing the Inspection and Sale Act, Part 9, (the Fruit Marks Act and Fruit Packages) as amended. Copies of this bulletin are available to those who apply for them to the Publications Brauch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

Postage Stamp Revenue

Ottawa, Oct. 10—The postage stamp revenue of Canada for the first six months of the fiscal year was $6,749,690, an increase of $501,164 over the same six months of last year, and $4,112,000 greater than the half year ten years ago. The September receipts increased by $128,105 to a total of $1,153,535.

The divorce applications for the coming session of Parliament now number twenty-two. The number of annual aplicants has more than trebled in five years.

Mrs. Ernest Hall of Hamilton saved a boy's life by dragging him out of the way of an auto track, but collapsed and died in the ambulance on the way to the hospital.

Avonmore Tennis Club Camp Fire Picnic.

About thirty of the members of the Avonmore tennis club and their friends enjoyed a rather unique evening's entertainment on Friday, Oct. 10th.

The party with Mr. Geo. D. Hynes acting as guide, proceeded along the C. P. R. tracks to the woods at the front of Mr. A. J. McIntyre's place, where huge bonfires indicated the camping ground. Mr. McIntyre gave his friends the liberty of much of the farm as they cared to run over, and also stated that they could burn log heaps at their hearts content. The genial glow and warmth of one huge bonfire proved so fascinating that the party decided to camp around it. The company divided into groups around the fire, and were soon engaged in various forms of recreation, which appealed to their fancy. Games were played songs were song and stories were told, and thus the time passed quickly by until 11 o'clock, when the young people, who had not only taken their appetites with them, but had brought along also abundant provisions wherewith to satisfy the same began to think of refreshments. Lunch was prepared in true camp fashion coffee being made over a small camp fire. The young people gathered in a semi-circle around the fire and enjoyed thoroughly the good things provided. Sandwiches, cakes, biscuits and fruit. And last, but not least, pop-corn made fresh while you waited. This last was great fun, the poping of the corn sounding good to the company. Some of the more fastidious went to the trouble of making toast, and it tasted good too

After lunch Mr. Geo. D. Hynes was called upon and gave a very fine stiring speech, a most illuminating address, as they say in election time. Speeches were also given by Dr. Geo. D. McIntyre, who expressed the pleasure it gave his brother and sister and himself. being able to entertain his friends, Dr. McKercher, Grant Tinkess, And. McRae, Allie McRae and others also said how much they enjoyed the informality of the affair, and only hoped the good weather would continue so that more picnics could be held. In passing it might be mentioned that Dr. McKercher was a regular salamander, as he was chief of the bonfires and the heat seemingly had no effect upon him. Some cruel boys went so far as to say that he was getting himself in training for future events.

A circle was formed after the speeches and everybody sang "For they are Jolly Good Fellows" and "Auld Lang Syne" and then went homeward two and two in the misty moonlight.

Closed Season in Certain Form of Game

Fish stories having had their day, the nimrods are now being given an opportunity to make a name for themselves, and accidentally, to earn the right to afterwards relate tall stories of their ability with the rifle, for the open season is on.

The laws of Ontario permit the shooting of the following game at the present time; Woodcock, swan, geese, ducks, rail, snipe, plover, and any other shore bird or wader and hates.

In Quebec the hunter has a bigger margin to play on, as the season opens earlier in almost every instance. The list is: Deer, moose, caribou, woodchuck, inipe, plover, curlew, tatler, sandpiper, widgeon, teal or wild duck (with the exception of sheldrake, loons and gulls), birch or swamp partridge In this province the shooting of partridge of any kind before the 15th of the month is forbidden.

In both provinces it is forbidden to buy or sell, expose or have in one's possession for sale any birch or swamp patridge before Oct. 1, 1917.

The Late William L. Redmond

There passed away in Iroquois on Monday evening, Sept. 29th, 1913, William Leonard Redmond, in his 64th year, removing one of the best known and most highly respected residents of Dundas county, who had given many years of his life to the public service in the village and to the county at large in a most unselfish and faithful manner.

Mr. Redmond was born at Dixon Corners, in this county, on Dec. 25th, 1848. Early in life he came to Iroquois, where he attended High School, afterwards engaging in the mercantile business in C. & M. Mills' store, where he and the late Edward McNulty received their early business training.

In 1874 he went to Brockville and engaged in the grain business, remaining a couple of years, when he returned to Iroquois and continued the grain business, subsequently taking into partnership the late W. A. Bailey. Of late years he has not been active in commercial pursuits.

As intimated above Mr. Redmond devoted much of his life to the public service, in the capacity of Reeve (two terms) Councillor, High and Public School Trustee for several years, and as a leader of Dundas Liberalism for many years, filling the honored office of county president for three years, and was in line for Parliamentary honors. During all his years of public service no charge of graft or corruption or self-interest could be charged to Wm D. Redmond. He served the public with the single-mindedness and enthusiasm of an honest man, coupled with real ability a d fearless courage which earned him the respect of every honest citizen, and which even his bitterest opponents grudgingly acknowledged. We have no doubt that posterity will do his memory the justice it deserves. The writer sat with Mr. Redmond in the council for two terms, and had opportunity during the past ten years of studying the man at close range, and we invariably found him a man of his word, possessed of good judgment, shrewd, capable, and intolerant of the least suspicion of wrong doing in the public service. He was quick to resent an injury and as quick to forgive. A good organizer and an indefatigable worker, his death leaves a void in the county and community that will be universally recognized and which cannot easily be filled.

In 1872 Mr. Redmond was married to Anna L. Carman, daughter of the late Phillip Carman, to whom were born three children, two of whom survive, viz., Mrs. A. W. G. Macalister of Quebec city, and Mrs. W. Dixon Craig of Edmonton, Alta., who with the widow, and brothers, Harvey and Ormond of Iroquois, and sisters, Mrs. M. McPherson, Prescott, and Mrs. H. H. Ross of Moosejaw, are deeply sympathized with in their bereavement.

Mr. Redmond was appointed Police Magistrate for Iroquois, which position he filled with the utmost fairness. He was also president of the Temperance Moral Reform Association and a warm friend and supporter of the W.C.T.U.

In religion Mr. Redmond was a Methodist, and a regular attendant at Divine service. His nature was naturally impulsive, warm, generous and sympathetic, and unselfish to a degree that left him a comparatively poor man when he died. The funeral service took place at the Methodist church on Thursday forenoon, Oct. 2nd, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Visser, who spoke comforting words of hope to the bereaved, while a large number of sympathetic friends assembled to bear silent testimony of their love and esteem for a good citizen who had served them well. Interment was made in the family plot in Point Iroquois Methodist cemetery.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Dr. Carman of St. Catherines, and Judge Carman of Toronto.—Iroquois News.

Inquest at Brockville.

Brockville, Ont., Oct. 13—An inquest was opened here today on the body of Thomas Turner, the 19-year-old boy whose life was crushed out by a Grand Trunk freight train last night entering the Brockville yards.

He and a companion, Ernest Billings, were beating their way home from a joy ride to Gananoque Junction, riding the bumpers both ways, according to the testimony of Billings, before the jury. The deceased was sitting on the top of the tender with Billing on the first car, after being ordered off by the fireman. A pail of water was thrown from the cab over the coal pile in the direction of the boys and Turner dropped to the rails to be cut in two by the train, which was running 20 miles an hour.

The jury adjourned to get the evidence of the fireman and the head-end brakeman before returning a verdict.

Problems of the Fruit Grower

During a sitting of the Select Standing Committee of the House of Commons on Agriculture and Colonization a few months ago, it came out in evidence that many apple growers were last year unable to secure more than from 75c to $1.00 a barrel on the tree and in some districts hundreds of barrels of good fruit were allowed to fall to the ground and rot because no profitable market could be found for it. It came out also that in the western provinces consumers were required to pay from $5.00 to $5.50 per barrel for good fruit. Mr. J. A. Ruddick, Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner, in giving evidence on this question pointed out that $1.75 per barrel was received in the Lake Ontario and Lake Erie districts by the members of co-operative associations while independent growers received about $1.00 per barrel. The Commissioner in referring to the discrepancy between the first and final prices of apples estimated that the unavoidable expenses amounted to about $2.23 per barrel made up as follows:—barrel, 45c; picking, 17c; management expenses or commission to a local buyer, 19c; freight to Winnipeg, 80c; broker's commission, 12c; and retailer's profit 50c per barrel.

The question of marketing was but one of many dealt with by the special committee who had as witnesses beside the Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner, Messrs. Daniel Johnson, Forest, Ont.; S. B. Chute, Berwick, N.S.; W. S. Foggo, Vernon, B.C., and James Hardwell of Ottawa.

As evidence of the value to the grower of co-operation, Mr. Johnson instanced the case of a woman who was offered by a local buyer, $125 for her crop for which she received through a co-operative association, $1,035.

Mr. Chute, who represented 1,500 farmers, as manager of the United Fruit Companies of Nova Scotia, explained that through his organization, 5,000 tons of fertilizer had been bought from the manufacturers for the members, who had benefited to the extent of about $15,000, on purchases of fertilizers, spraying machines and materials, farm implements, seeds and other requirements.

Equally interesting evidence was given by the other witnesses, all of which appears in a pamphlet of 116 pages that has been printed for public distribution by the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

The Late Mrs. Edward Hewitt

The remains of Mrs. Edward Hewitt, who died in Montreal on Monday night last, were brought on the noon train here yesterday for interment, funeral service being conducted at the residence of her mother, Mrs. David Duvall, at 2 o'clock, the Rev. H. Cameron officiating. Interment was in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

The late Mrs. Hewitt had suffered for a long time from internal cancer, the malady manifesting itself more prominently about five months ago, during which time the deceased underwent three operations at the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Mrs. Hewitt whose maiden name was Amanda Duvall, was the third daughter of the late David Duvall and Mrs. Duvall, and born in Matilda township 44 years ago. Twenty-five years ago she was married to James Gordon and resided here. Mr. Gordon pre-deceased her six years.

In 1910 she married Edward Hewitt, superintendent of the American Locomotive Works in Montreal, who survives her, together with three daughter and her mother, Mrs. David Duvall, besides two sister, Mrs. Andrew Redmond and Mrs. Amos Duvall and four brothers, Edward, Henry and Fred of Morrisburg, and Simon of Brockville.

The floral tributes were beautiful testifying to the esteem in which the deceased lady was held.—Morrisburg Leader.

Midland ratepayers carried by a sweeping majority a by-law to loan $60,000 to establish a malleable iron works.

Frank Pedley Resigns Post in Indian Affairs Branch

Ottawa, Oct. 12—Frank Pedley has resigned his post as Assistant Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs. His resignation has been accepted by the Government, and Duncan Campbell Scott has been promoted from the position of accountant in the department and superintendent of Indian education, to that of deputy head.

This is the first change made in the higher ranks of the inside service since the change of Government. It was reported some time ago that it would take place, and others besides have been freely predicted since the presentation some weeks ago of the interim report of T. R. Ferguson, K. C., the commissioner appointed to investigate the administration of the public domain during the latter period of the Laurier Administration.

Mr. Ferguson's investigation is said to have resulted in the disclosure of grave irregularities in regard to the administration of the public domain, particularly with respect to the disposition of Indian lands.

These matters have been under the consideration of the Department of Justice for some time, and the prosecution of one or more of those concerned in the revelations has been regarded as probable. In the meantime Mr. Ferguson is continuing his general investigation. He is now in Saskatchewan, where he has been examining J. G. Turiff, M.P. for Assiniboia.

Mr. Pedley, who was formerly a Toronto barrister, was one of the early appointees of the Laurier Government, entering the service in 1897 in the immigration branch of the Department of the Interior. He was transferred in 1902 to the position which he has just vacated.

Duncan C. Scott, the new deputy, has been in the Indian Department since 1880, and is a well known poet and writer.

Notion Shower to Miss Jessie Rutley

On Wednesday, Oct. 1st, a very pleasant evening was spent at the Amelia Club Room, when Miss Jessie Rutley, whose engagement to Mr. Chas. P. Bowman of Newington, had been announced, was given a "Shower" by about 50 of her Avonmore friends. The Club Room was prettily decorated with red and white, the Club colors. The first part of the evening was spent in playing games and singing songs, Miss Anna Fulton presiding at the piano. Later in the evening Dr. Geo. McIntyre called the people to order and read and address to Miss Rutley which expressed the regret of her many friends in losing her from the community where she had always taken so active an interest in the various activities of its social life. It also wished to convey their most sincere wishes for her future happiness. Miss Rutley was then "Showered" with many beautiful and useful presents. Although completely taken by surprise Miss Rutley replied in a very appropriate speech, thanking her friends for their kindness, both by the expression of well wishes and by making her the recipient of so many beautiful presents, which she would prize all the more coming as they had from her Avonmore friends. Mr. Bowman on being called upon, replied, thanking on behalf of Miss Rutley her friends for their kindness.

Refreshments were then served after which a very pleasant evening was concluded by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Little Girl Attacked by an Angry Bull

Brockville, Oct. 9—Glenna, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Booth, narrowly escaped being killed yesterday, when she was attacked by a bull near her home on Perth street. The animal had been driven in from the country, and, after its long walk in the extreme heat, was allowed to lie down on the roadside to recuperate. The child playfully approached the bull, which suddenly arose and charged her. To escape she ran for the nearest fence, but the infuriated beast caught her as she reached it and hurled her through the barricade, a portion of which was broken by the impact of the animal's weight. Fortunately Charles Grey, an employee of Mr. Booth, happened to be close by and succeeded in diverting the attention of the animal, which also attacked him. Mr. Grey escaped with a few slight bruises. The child is in hospital, but her injuries are not serious.

Dr. J. W. Edwards, M.P., strongly criticizes the Government for its proposed limitation of the Prison Reform Commissioner's inquiry into charges he preferred to events during the past five years.
