I scream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream

This young contestant in the ice cream eating contest at the Morewood Winter Carnival really bent his nose to the grindstone during the children's program in the Fire Hall Saturday afternoon. The weekend's blizzard didn't deter Morewood area residents from coming out in large numbers to enjoy the events at the third annual carnival. Over 100 came out for Friday night's crowning of the queen - 16-year-old Connie Nurse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nurse - and bingo, and about 100 were served at Saturday's pancake breakfast. The number of spectators at Saturday afternoon's broomball tournament was cut down by the bitingly cold wind but a large number were in attendance at the carnival dance in the RA centre that night and Sunday's events were all well-attended. For complete photo coverage of the carnival, please turn to page eleven.

Carnival profits up, reach $2,668

(Staff) — The eighth annual Chesterville Winter Carnival was as successful financially as it was in the number of persons attending the event's activities according to Chamber of Commerce secretary Jim Moran.

The 2½ days of events brought in just over $5,000 in receipts and after expenses, the Chamber is left with a $2,668.30 profit, up over $300 from last year's figures. This year's effort was one of the best in the history of the event, Mr. Moran said.

Although the Chamber organizes the carnival, he pointed out that it would never have been the success it was without the dedication and work of the organizations and individuals which sponsored the events.

Mr. Moran said this year the Chamber wants some input from the organizations which sponsored carnival events on how they want the profits spent. In the past, the Chamber has received all the profits and their distribution has been left up to the one group.

At the Chamber's January meeting, groups taking part in the carnival were asked if they wanted to keep their receipts this year but most indicated they preferred having the Chamber act as the distributing body.

Mr. Moran said the groups will be invited back to the Chamber's March meeting and asked if they have any priorities as to where the money should be spent. In past years the Chamber has had a commitment to village recreation projects such as the park, park pavilion, arena and baseball diamond, but all these have been completed.

Receipts from events this year are as follows: Legion dance and bingo, $343; C of C Friday night dance, $368; C of C Saturday night dance, $1585; Friday night supper, $568; Saturday supper, $826; Sunday supper, $728; carnival queen contest, $141; pancake breakfasts, $443; broomball tournament, $66.

Mr. Moran had a breakdown of most of the expenses, including $250 in cash prizes for the broomball tournament; $50 in prize money and $33.64 for the trophies in the bed race; $354.50 for plates, glasses and cups for the meals; ice sculpture prize money of $90; $62.50 for bar supplies; $1,000 for liquor and beer, and $278 for advertising.

The profit was kept up as several organizations, including the Agricultural Society, Connaught Rod and Gun Club and Dundas Rebekah Lodge, which gave prizes for their events from club funds.

Mr. Moran credited the newly-formed Winchester Township Snowmobile Club for helping increase interest in the carnival this year. He said the snowmobilers' torchlight parade and snowmobile time trials at the fairgrounds helped boost attendance and participation.

Stormont Fair in black without grants

NEWINGTON (Staff) — Black ink will again border the books of the Stormont Agricultural Society despite a lack of government funding for the annual 1976 Labor Day Weekend fair.

The financial report released by secretary-treasurer Carrol Mooney at the society's annual dinner-meeting at Newington United Church hall last Tuesday night showed the society with a balance of $268.91.

Mrs. Mooney explained she was uncertain of the whys and wherefores but $1,500 grants from each of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food and the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry were not received.

A smaller grant of $100 from Roxborough Township Council was also not received.

"If it hadn't been for that, we wouldn't have had to borrow any money" she noted. The society borrowed $500 in 1976.

Total receipts were $21,648.58 and total expenditures were $21,379.67.

Cold, wet weather also prevailed during the fair but it did not hamper crowds with attendance up by 1,000 over 1975 to 12,000 in 1976.

Gate receipts in 1976 showed an increase of $750 over 1975.

Figures were, with the 1975 figure in brackets: Friday night $340.50 ($243.00), Saturday $3,097.20 ($3,489.50) Saturday night $412.05 ($329.50) Sunday $1,913.00 ($1,980.00), Monday $3,122.22 ($2,077.00). Total $8,884.97 ($8,119.00).

President Jack Helmer, in a brief address, thanked everyone for their help in preparing for the 1976 fair and hoped for another good year in 1977.

Peter Zeran was named president of the society for 1977, moving up from the first vice-president position. Roy Simmons moved to first vice-president from second vice and Dalton Cleary went to second vice form his director position. Wally McEwen, a director in 1976, was named secretary-treasurer.

Named as directors for 1977 fair were Elmer Stewart, Mildred Rombough, Reta Raymond, Hilda Meldrum, Eleanor Zeran, Helen Zeran, Wayne Presley, Kent Snetsinger and Melvin Waldroff.

The following are the names of those who will be serving on committees.

Crysler Carnival schedule ready for Feb. 10 to 13

CRYSLER (Staff) — Four girls are in the running for the title of Carnival Queen during Crysler's 13th annual Winter Carnival Thurs., Feb. 10 to Sun., Feb. 13.

All students at ES Tagwi SS, the girls are sponsored by a variety of clubs and organizations in Crysler.

They will be presented to carnival goers on the opening night at the Community Centre and will take part in a talent contest. The crowning will take place at the Community Centre Friday evening and will be carried out by Suzanne Boisclair, last year's queen.

Running for the title of queen are Monique Mahoney, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mahoney, sponsored by the Nation View Horse Association, the Ideal Snowmobile Club and the Finch Township Volunteer Fire Department; Denise Legault, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alban Legault, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association and the Crysler District Arena Committee; Anne Marie Krauss, 16 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Krauss, sponsored by the Club 60, Community Centre and Union Culturel Franco-Ontarien, and Estelle Beehler, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beehler, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, Minor Sports Association and the English Ladies Club.

Each of the contestants, or duchesses, will receive a long gown to be worn during the contest, flowers, gifts from the Community Centre and from each of the organizations sponsoring them. In addition, the queen will receive a large gift from the Community Centre Committee.

Immediately following the crowning, there will be a dance in the Community Centre to the music of Sweet Rain.

The carnival will be officially opened at 8pm Thurs., Feb. 10 by last year's queen, Suzanne Boisclair, and at 8:15 this year's contestants will be introduced on stage at the Community Centre. Following their presentations, there will be 15 cards of bingo, sponsored by Club 60.

Activities kick into high gear Saturday with a sleigh ride for children, leaving from the Community Centre at 1:30pm followed by a discotheque with free admission.

At 8:30pm there will be an Oktoberfest Dance with music supplied by Helmut Reichinger. A spaghetti supper will be served following the dance. Admission to the evening at the Community Centre is $5 a couple advance and $6 at the door.

Sunday's events start a little earlier. The township fire fighters will hold a pancake and sausage breakfast at the fire hall from 10am to noon. Price of the breakfast is $1.50.

There will be outdoor sports activities throughout the afternoon, beginning at 1:15pm.

Included among the events will be tugs of war, with both men's and women's teams, log sawing, and hockey with the men of Crysler North going against those from Crysler South.

From 4:30-8pm there will be a "Canadien Supper", featuring meat balls and tourtiere.

There will be snowmobile rides capped by a bonfire from 8-9pm and following the bonfire there will be another dance at the Community Centre featuring the briefly

Presbyterial executive

(Staff) — All executive members of the Seaway Valley United Church Presbyterial are asked to attend the area executive meeting next Tuesday from 10am-3pm at Williamstown United Church. The program will be on stewardship and those attending are asked to bring a box lunch.

NFU news conference

(Staff) — Jim Mayne, new vice-president of the National Farmers Union, will be in Winchester Monday at 2:30pm to give a news conference in the OMAF boardroom. Mr. Mayne, of Prince Edward Island, succeeds Walter Miller of Ontario as NFU vice-president.

Metrication completed

(Staff) — In keeping with the schedule set up two years ago, the SD&G County Board of Education is introducing the mandotory use of metric units for the teaching of measurements in grades seven and eight at the beginning of the next school year. These are the last two grades in public elementary schools to begin using the system. Metrication was introduced on a phase-in basis beginning two years ago with primary classes. This year junior classes were introduced to the system and with grades seven and eight, the phase-in will be complete. The Ministry of Education provides the board with 75 cents for each elementary student to help with the cost of putting the system into operation.

MP behind bars?

(Staff) — Stormont-Dundas MP Ed Lumley has joined the Parliamentary Justice sub-committee on the Penitentiary System in Canada for the tour of federal penal institutions in Eastern Ontario. The sub-committee will be meeting with members of inmate committees, institutional directors and personnel and citizen advisory committees at three institutions in the Kingston area - the Prison for Women, Regional Reception Centre and Millhaven Maximum Security Institution - to help in preparing its report into the system of maximum security institutions run by the Canadian Penitentiary Service. The report is expected by February 27.

New secondary bursary

(Staff) — A new $50 bursary has been approved by the SD&G County Board of Education for students from the area formerly served by Maxville and District High School. The Albert A. Urquhart Masonic Bursary will be awarded annually for all round proficiency leading to a secondary school graduation diploma. Maxville Lodge AF&AM and the county director of education will select the winner. Board members said last Tuesday night there may be some problem in picking a winner since some students from the former Maxville school area attend Glengarry District High School and the rest attend Tagwi Secondary School. Director of Education T.R. Leger will set the guidelines for awarding the bursary.

Sunday's storm

The haze created when the weekend's high winds whipped the fine snow into drifting clouds created a beautiful spectacle for those who could look at it from the safety of their homes but driving throughout Eastern Ontario became a hazardous pastime as windrows of snow built up into impassable drifts on north-south roads.

26 attend January Mariners meeting

(Special) — Twenty-six members of Chesterville Harbor, Mariners With Christ, met at Eatonholm in Chesterville Tuesday evening to hear reports of the work of Mariners, International: discuss programs and promotions, and engage in a songfest and worship service.

First Mate Garnet Johnston piloted the "Good Ship Faith" and led the song service accompanied by accordionist James Bray.

Mrs. Milton Shay, purser, "logged the voyage". Steward George Crawford received an offering for the work of the Mariners. The captain, Rev. E. Earle Eaton, who hosted the "sailing", gave the Mariners' Report.

Discussion was led by George Crawford, Fred Marquette, Mrs. Nina Woods and Mrs. Duart MacLean. Special music was furnished by the Vardy family - Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Vardy, son Greg and daughter Sharon. Mr. Vardy accompanied their vocal numbers, "Because He Lives", and "How Beautiful Heaven Must Be", on the guitar. Mr. Crawford favored with two harmonica numbers, "Until Then", and "Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee". Hubert Casselman of Kemptville was guest speaker.

Refreshments were served by a hospitality committee comprising Mrs. MacLean, Mrs. Shay, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. Arthur Dillabough and Mrs. Piebe DeJong. Prayers were offered for the sick and for the on-going work of the Mariners, and the meeting closed with a prayer circle with final prayer by Mr. Casselman.

Snowmobile driver course Feb. 23, 24

(Staff) — The Riverside Heights Snowmobile Club will be holding another driver training course for children 12-15 years of age and for adults who do not have a snow vehicle operators permit.

The course will be given at Riverside Heights Public School Wed., Feb. 23 and Thurs., Feb. 24.

Cost of the two 3½ hour sessions is $6.25 per person, payable on registration, Fri., Feb. 11.

The course is organized by the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs and will be constructed by members of the Riverside Heights Club.

The first training session was to have been held last weekend but Saturday night's lesson had to be cancelled because of the weather.

Anyone wishing further information should call 543-2261 or 543-3327.

Income tax regulations influence farm decisions

(Special) — Income tax regulations should influence farm decisionmaking as much as the price of feed or market prices, says Professor J.G. Hutchison, agricultural economist at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

To help farmers become aware of income tax regulations, Professor Hutchison has written a home-study course, Farm Income Tax, available through the Office of Continuing Education, University of Guelph.

"Income tax is not a once-a-year headache," he says.

"Understanding the regulations when decisions are made during the year can significantly alter the taxable income of the farm. It doesn't matter who is filing the return. If the farmer is not up to date on the income tax regulations, he could lose much more than he gained striving for an extra 300 kilograms per hectare from his cornfield."

According to Professor Hutchison, the main objective of the course is to outline the regulations and give examples of how they can influence daily decision-making. The course will also help solve the problems of bookkeeping and filing returns.

Step-by-step instructions are given to complete the returns and the course includes a record system for income tax purposes.

Cost for the course, which is revised at least once a year, is $30 for Ontario residents and $50 for out-of-province residents.

For more information on this program and other agricultural courses, contact the Office of Independent Study, University of Guelph, Guelph N1G 2W1.

Ecumenism comes of age in Counties

CORNWALL (Staff) — The ecumenical movement seems to have come of age in the United Counties.

At last Tuesday night's meeting of the SD&G County Board of Education's elementary panel, the panel had for the first time a Roman Catholic priest Fr. Rudolph Villeneuve, a Cornwall trustee representing the city's separate school supporters, in the chair. He was elected chairman of the full board at its January inaugural meeting.

Mr. Villeneuve said we are living in an ecumenical age in which the barriers of religious difference are falling.

As president of the Cornwall Christian Council he said he works with clergy of all demoninations and he added that his concern is only for the best possible education for the children of SD&G, regardless of where their parents direct their education taxes.

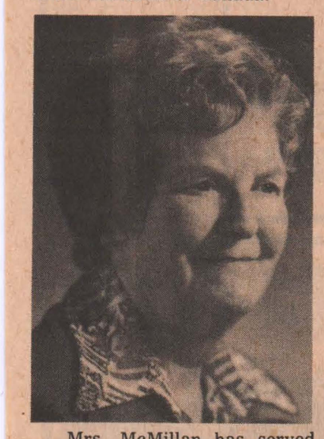
Williamsburg woman WI National Secretary

WILLIAMSBURG (Staff) — An active Women's Institute member for many years at the branch, district and provincial levels, Mrs. Roma J. McMillan has been appointed national secretary-treasurer of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada.



Mrs. McMillan has served the WI as president of the Williamsburg branch, district president, district secretary-treasurer, area president and as a member of the board of directors of FWIO, during which time she was also a member of the Ontario Food Council.

With her new appointment, Mrs. McMillan will be working four days a week at the National Office, 46 Elgin St., Ottawa.

Mrs. McMillan is a native of Lachine, PQ, and received her education there and at Montreal West High School. She was associated with the Robert Simpson department store in Montreal following her graduation from business college and in 1935 she married Hugh A. McMillan and moved to Williamsburg.

In 1956 she joined the staff of the Winchester District Memorial Hospital and resigned as business office manager in August of last year.

Besides her interest in the WI, Mrs. McMillan is known in Ottawa and district as an accomplished musician. She is a member of the Parkdale Concert Orchestra and last summer was named president of the Ottawa and District Old Time Fiddlers Association.

Seaway Services discuss plans

MORRISBURG (Special) — A general meeting of Seaway Community Services was held Monday evening at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church hall in Morrisburg to hear reports and discuss plans for furthering the program of social services in the southern townships of Dundas County.

Mrs. Fred Zandbergen, president, chaired the meeting and called on Rev. E. Earle Eaton of Chesterville, public relations representative, for prayer.

Miss Candace MacKenzie of Iroquois gave the secretary's report; Mrs. Reip Peppers, Morrisburg, treasurer, the finanance report and Mrs. Marie Barclay of Morrisburg the co-ordinator's report.

Gail Webster of Dundela spoke on Young Canada Works Projects and referred the use of natural resources, including solar heat. George Shaw of Dundela spoke on community gardening. It was reported that 76 Christmas baskets had been distributed.

Other matters discussed included LIP grants, Crafts Shop, co-operatives, recreation, wells, and work on behalf of the mentally retarded and disadvantaged.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the president, who reported a generous donation of same by Morrisburg Bakery. Rev. Dr. Lester Joyce of Brinston, vice-president, was also present.

Tenders opened for new X-ray room

WINCHESTER (Staff) — Tenders for the new X-ray room at the Winchester District Memorial Hospital were opened last Thursday afternoon and the selected tender is now in the hands of the project's architect, who will review it and make recommendations to the board at its next full meeting.

Tenders closed last Wednesday afternoon and bids were opened Thursday by board president Ed Hanson, vice-president Bill Porteous and treasurer Jack McIntosh.

At the board's January meeting, last Tuesday at the hospital, administrator H.P. Stel told members that plans for the X-ray room have been submitted to the Ontario Fire Marshall's Office and to the X-ray inspection service of the Ministry of Health for their study.

The hospital's administration has written a further letter to the J.F. Bickell Foundation to reiterate its request for financial assistance from the foundation for the X-ray room project.

The Ministry of Health will also be asked to provide a grant larger than the $10,000 it has already approved for the project.

Because of non-budgeted emergency maintenance costs, the hospital went $14,404 over its 1976 budget, board members were told. However, if these costs - $7,870 for roofing, $6,600 for flooring and $3,679 for oxygen system modifications - are not considered, the hospital managed to stay about $4,000 under budget.

Subject to a year-end appeal hearing, it appears the WDMH may recover about $50,000 in costs which had been disallowed by the Ministry of Health in 1975.

The board made a detailed appeal early in 1976 for the re-instatement of $67,000 which the ministry had disallowed and according to the minutes of last Tuesday's meeting, there seems a good chance the hospital will recover all but $17,000 of this sum. The board's optimism springs out of discussions it has held with the ministry's financial representative.

It will not be able to recover the $17,000 since that is the amount by which 1974 and 1975 salary guidelines were exceeded.

Board and staff representatives and members of the ministry will attend the appeal hearing.

The management and finance committees presented the budget for January 1, 1977 to March 31, 1978 last Tuesday.

It shows overal gross costs of $4,751,598. After allowance for offset revenue, the net allowable costs are $4,127,778, the same as the amount shown in the ministry's December, 1976 computerized budget statement.

All salary range increases for 1977 have been calculated to remain within Anti-Inflation Board requirements and daily rates for 1977 have been set.

They are: $95.55 for active treatment ward; $40.05 for long-term ward; $20 for newborn nursery; $11 for active semi-private differential; $7.10 for longterm semi-private differential; $22 active private differential; $10.25 longterm private differential; $21.15 outpatient visits; $5.80 for physiotherapy treatments.

Delegates at Cancer Society meeting

(Special) — Delegates from Cancer Society units and districts from across Ontario attended a two-day campaign conference at Toronto's Royal York Hotel, January 22 and 23, to organize for the April fund-raising drive.

The weekend sessions, having as a theme "You Are Still Making the Difference" highlighted the Cancer Society's work in education, publicity and service to patients through film, video tape, slide presentations and panel discussions.

Attending the conference from Chesterville was Mrs. Dalton Docksteader, branch campaign chairman.

Inside Ingleside

by Jean Jeacle

Osnabruck Carnival Feb. 24th to 27th

I find that driving in a winter storm is a tiring and trying experience...especially when I do the driving from the passenger seat.

We have just driven from Winchester in blizzard conditions and while Earl looks none the worse for wear, I am completely exhausted. This is understandable, of course, because I worked much harder than he did to get us home safely.

I did not say much but I groaned and cringed a great deal and I never closed my eyes because I knew that he could not stay on the road without my help. My hands gripped an imaginary wheel and my foot pumped an imaginary brake all through the blowing snow on highway 31. I drove ever inch of the way and I repented of my sins and planned my funeral at the same time.

I did not hear anyone say "Thank you for your help" when we pulled into our driveway but I might have missed it when I was down on my hands and knees, kissing the doorstep of our Home, Sweet Home.

BITS AND PIECES

It is time to sign up for any or all events in the carnival, Feb. 24-27. Here is a list of the names of some of the people to contact:

BED RACE, — Wally MacKinnon Jr. Necessary equipment includes one bed and five people (four pushers and one pushee)

BROOMBALL TOURNAMENT, — Oscar Ouderkirk or Peter Zeran. There are two age categories for teams, - 25 and under and 26 and over. At least one-third of the team members must be female.

VARIETY SHOW, — Verna MacIsaac. Any Family-type-entertainment act is wanted.

MISS OSNABRUCK CONTEST, — Dawna Bamford. Entrants must be 16 to 20 years old. Since sex discrimination is not allowed in public advertising, I can only say the contest is open to anyone who would be proud to be known as MISS Osnabruck.

CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT, — Fran Laflamme. This is a perfect opportunity for anyone from age nine to 90 to try again for a perfect hand.

VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT, — Jean Jeacle. A strictly-for-fun tournament with very relaxed rules in force. A team must have no fewer than nine and no more than 12 players on its roster. Of the nine people on the floor at any time at least four must be female. A team should consist of three members 16 years old or under, three members between the ages of 17 and 30 and three members over 30.

CRAFT DISPLAY, — Eileen Crites. Anyone with handcrafted items to show or sell is invited to participate.

Last week I neglected to mention on WHICH Sunday evening Lloyd MacDonald was speaking on smoking. February 6 is the date for the Stormont units' Cancer Society meeting at the United Church here, "Inside Ingleside".

Avonmore WMS holds first meeting

AVONMORE (Special) — The first meeting of the New Year of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church was held last Tuesday night in the Sunday school room with a good attendance.

The conveners of the meeting were Mrs. Iva Bush and Mrs. Hilda Ferguson and they opened in the usual way with the call to worship, followed by singing a hymn. Mrs. Ferguson had the bible reading, followed by a well prepared bible lesson entitled "God of Thee Oppressed". Mrs. Bella McMaster led in prayer.

Mrs. Bush had the missionary lesson taken from the New Study Book and entitled "Canadian Concerns Christians Response", which was very interesting and gave the members an opportunity to take part in their own Response and Concern.

Mrs. John Wiseman took a reading from Glad Tidings "You are the Church in the World" and the topic was discussed with suggestions from members on what they could do to improve the church in the world.

For business, Mrs. Catherine Morrison gave a report of the Annual Presbyterial Meeting in St. Johns Church, Cornwall. Mrs. Wiseman and Mrs. Bush were appointed to meet with ladies of St. James United Church to make plans for the World Day of Prayer.

The meeting was brought to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer, followed by a lunch and social period.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of your local Nursery School, I would like to thank all those who supported our bake sale held on Jan. 28. Special thanks to the Manager and employees of the Bank of Nova Scotia for the use of the bank in which to hold the sale and also to all the Nursery School mothers who braved the storm to bring in their donations of baking. It was a great success and the proceeds will be put towards restocking Nursery School supplies.

Shelagh Derks, Chairman

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Simon Garlough wish to thank their relatives, neighbours and friends for their expressions of sympathy, floral tributes and donations. A very special thanks to Dr. Slowey, Rev. IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM

SHAY — In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Fred Shay, who passed away Feb. 3, 1973.
Softly the leaves of memory fall.
Gently we gather and treasure them all.
Unseen, unheard they are always near.
Still loved, still missed and ever dear.

Ever remembered by
Clara, Arthur, Milton

IN MEMORIAM

CURRAN JAMES E. — In loving memory of our Dear Dad. Who passed away Feb. 1, 1976.
What we would give if we could say,
Hello, Dad, in the same old way
To hear your voice, see your smile,
To sit with you and chat awhile
So you who have a father,
Cherish him with care,
For you'll never know the heartache,
Till you see his vacant chair.

Always remembered, by his sons
David, Terry, Dale, John, Wayne
Richard and their families

IN MEMORIAM

CURRAN JAMES E. — In loving memory of my dear Husband who passed away Feb. 1st, 1976.
In tears I saw you sinking,
I watched you fade away,
My heart was almost broken,
You fought so hard to stay,
But when I saw you sleeping,
So peacefully, free from pain,
I could not wish you back,
To suffer that again.

Sadly missed by wife Gladys

Crysler Queen contestants

In the running for title of Carnival Queen at the 13th annual Crysler Winter Carnival are, clockwise from upper left, Estelle Beehler, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beehler; Anne Marie Krauss, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Krauss; Denise Legault, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alban Legault, and Monique Mahoney, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mahoney. All four girls are students at ES Tagwi SS. The carnival queen contest opens the carnival's first night when the four contestants appear onstage at the Crysler Community Centre and take part in a talent contest. The winner will be declared the following night and will be crowned by the 1976 queen, Suzanne Boisclair. As part of the contest, the girls are now selling draw tickets for $1,000 in cash prizes. The number of tickets each girl sells will count towards 50 per cent of her points in the queen contest. Each girl will receive a long gown to wear during the Friday night show, gifts from the Community Centre, gifts from each of the organizations sponsoring them and flowers. In addition, the queen will receive an extra gift from the Community Centre. Following Friday night's crowning, there will be a dance to the music of Sweet Rain.

Changing weather may affect farming

(Special) — The cooler and more variable weather conditions predicted for the remainder of this decade may affect the agricultural scene in Ontario.

Dr. T.J. Gillespie, meterorologist at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, says farmers may have to reassess farming strategies to adapt to the slightly cooler temperatures in the long-range forecast.

"Based on the evidence available, we are predicting more variation in heat units and rainfall from year to year than we have had in the past decade," says Dr. Gillespie. What this means to farmers is that the growing season in future years may be a bit shorter than current conditions.

Examples of possible planning strategies to deal with the changes are planting a corn hybrid which requires less heat units than normally recommended, or shifting acreage to a different type of crop.

"In the southwest part of the province, farmers could consider planting a shorter-season corn hybrid which requires 100 to 200 less heat units than the rated numer for that climatic zone," says Dr. Gillespie.

"The farmers won't lose much yield, and with the earlier maturation of the shorter-season hybrid, they can save on artificial drying costs if some of the drying can be done in the field," he added.

Dr. Gillespie said farmers farther north may have to shift some soybean and corn acreage into other crops such as winter wheat or barley.

According to research, temperatures have been sliding slowly downward since the peak in the mid-1950s.

the editor's notebook

THE BLOOM IS OFF THE ROSE — or should we say the lily? - as Canada's national news media begin to see Rene Levesque for what he is: the man whose avowal is the disintegration of this country as we know it. Mr. Levesque is not saying anything different from what he said before last November's Quebec provincial general election; now he's just saying it in front of our national monument builders - those men and women in the "serious media", the purveyors and shapers of the Canadian mood. Mr. Levesque was a separatist before last November and now that he can look down in safety from atop the Citadel, he remains a separatist. No magical metamorphosis has taken place since November. What he said to the Wall St. power brokers in New York City last week he has been saying for the past seven or eight years, except that now the blinkers - and the gloves - are off. Like the lover who finds his partner is not what he thought she was, the affair between the national media and Mr. Levesque is coming to an end. By not being what the press wanted him to be and what it thought he should be, Quebec's premier will now get the cold shoulder as our "informed sources" realize that what they loved - a man who they thought sought power just to end the corrupt and ineffectual regime of Robert Bourassa - is not what they got. The cold hard fact is beginning to dawn that Mr. Levesque is dedicated to ending Confederation (or at least a part of it). In 1968 it was Pierre Trudeau, the swinging bachelor who slid down banisters and dated Barbara Streisand and who seemed to promise to turn Ottawa into Camelot North. But he turned out to be just another politician who would turn any situation to his political advantage. In 1977 it is Rene Levesque who again has left the media standing alone at the altar of their expectations. - robin morris.

Nobody asked me but ... if it continues to snow like it has so far this winter we will have mountains of the stuff by spring. For this second last week in January saw the big wet snowflakes tumble straight down again as though someone up in the grey inverted soup bowl of a sky was flipping them out of a pancake griddle.

However, February is just around the next corner and with it comes the delightful custom of celebrating Valentine's Day.

Roses are red
Violets are blue
February brings a Valentine
Won't you be mine?

Sentimental, perhaps, but why not? England's poet Chaucer in the fourteenth century chronicled: "For this was on St. Valentine's Day when every fowl cometh there to choose his mate." The general belief through England and France was that the birds began to mate on St. Valentine's Day, this being the start of the second fortnight of the second month.

So when the birds began cooing and chirping, it inspired young hopefuls to send love tokens or Valentines (usually anonymous) to their beloveds. There are numerous tales about each custom, but to the unknown author of Valentine's Day, I am grateful.

Arriving in this snow-lashed, icy month with its vibrant red hearts and rosebuds, with its cupids and doves, its sentimental messages, Valentine's Day is welcomed by all.

Would you believe that this column is being typed by lamplight? The reason is that a main line from Merrickville to Kemptville is out of order and we have had no electricity for three hours. Thank heavens for fireplaces! For, at least, we are warm, and number one son, Sheryl and Sarah have just finished having bunwich sandwiches with us and now the men await the return of the electric power in order that they may finish the milking. How dependent we are on electrical energy! It somehow is very frightening! But, no doubt, we humans would manage being as resourceful as we have always been.

The seed catalogues blossom like the fabled Rose of Sharon. And what a temptation it is not to order everything one sees. But, here I was not going to have a garden this year. I was going to enjoy a summer of doing practically nothing. But, the illustrations are so enticing!

I read recently that the green revolution indoors has gone past geraniums and coleus in tomato soup cans covered with tinfoil. Didn't everybody's grandmother grow things like that?

Urban and rural dweller alike have turned to the more Act 2 and Act 3 up to April.

But now the snow melts a bit, icicles drop from the barn roof, exotic types of plants while still retaining the old familiar favorites. South Africa is flowering in our family rooms. Plants are being sold everywhere - from grocery stores to bookstores.

Does all this greenery have something to do with our long cold winters? Or does it have more to do with our affluence and the availability of plants from all over the world?

At the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, Tom Sharkey says that on a good day the farm's information desk gets more than 300 calls from people with various plant problems.

Our return to plants, he says, is partly a reaction to being cut off from the soil. "We're no longer in the country. So many apartment dwellers are 20-storeys up." He predicts that as the number of highrises increases, the more plants we'll buy.

The Farmer says he hates to think how many plants I'd be surrounded with if I lived in a high rise. You wouldn't believe how many I have in two-storeys. But, on this dark January night the amaryllis brighten our lives and the tomatoes picked from our own plants sweetened our bunwiches as no hot house variety could.

The crackle of the fire in the fireplace has a special pleasure also. There is a cosy hearth for toe-toasting too. In short, it is a joy and worth all the carrying of wood to it and the carrying of ashes away from it.

Along about now we look forward to the late January thaw or the early February thaw. Really a February thaw is a miracle. It is a curtain going down after Act 1 in Eastern Ontario, for we shall still have calm in the nation

the air is suddenly soft as the finest of silk. Out we dash wearing no mittens and a light sweater only. A kind of intoxication sets in.

True, we may catch cold, but never mind. We race around with the cat and dog and keep thinking that the tulips will pop up any day. Maybe nature is pausing a bit to look forward to spring.

But then the thaw is over so swiftly. Yesterday was balmy, with a real warmth in the sunlight. We turned the thermostat down a notch or two but, in the night, the thermometer slid way down as the icy hand of winter reached out and grasped us tight again. We got up shivering and hastened to turn up the thermostat a notch or two and built a fire in the lower fireplace.

Yesterday's embers were hot enough so the kindling caught easily. Because we keep a good bed of ashes, the embers seem to last indefinitely. Sometimes when I plan to lay a fire but not light it at the time, it begins to burn immediately.

Another blizzard blew in at dusk, snow and blowing snow. A bit of sleet. The window panes were pebbled over with ice so I could not see out. Mainly, it troubled Scamp, who loves looking out the windows.

At twilight the sun leaves a pink glow on the snowy pastures. Then night comes sudden and soon. The brief warmth of the sun is gone and the air crackles cold. A good winter's night to you all!

chesterville's past

FROM THE RECORD
THURS., FEB. 4, 1937

For months the suggestion has been heard from several corners that Chesterville should welcome its old-time boys and girls back in an Old-Home Week, but nothing has ever gone beyond that. The matter was put before the Village Council at its session Tuesday evening and the town fathers are sponsoring a meeting in the Community Hall for Wednesday evening to discuss the advisability of such a celebration for this summer.

At a well attended meeting of Trinity United Church Friday evening in the Sunday School hall, very encouraging and satisfactory reports of the congregation's progress were given from all branches of the church's work and to bear witness of the congregation's pleasure, a substantial increase was made in the salary of the pastor, Rev. R.C. Tait, by an entirely unanimous vote of those present. The only change in the officers of the congregation was the replacing of the stewards whose term had expired by Messrs. H.I. Johnston, O.L. King, Eric Casselman and Sheldon Ball.

Scoring two quick goals with less than five minutes remaining, the Leafs divided the points for a draw with the flashy Cardinal team here Tuesday night. The final count was 4-4, each team scoring one in the 10-minute overtime period. At 18:05 in the last period, Cardinal held a 3-1 lead and so hopeless did the local cause appear that patrons began leaving the arena. They missed the greatest thrill presented locally to hockey fans this season. Rombough poked the puck behind Carter from the rear of the line for a 3-2 count, and then Dob Plantz sent the fans into hysterics 25 seconds later as he evened the count.

H.G. Cummings was again appointed Road Superintendent for the Township of Winchester at its February meeting, held in the McCloskey House, Chesterville, Monday of this week. The following trustees were appointed for the Morewood High School: William Steen for three years, Ford Steinburg for two years and Allan Smirle for one year. The Reeve, Deputy-Reeve and Road Superintendent were appointed delegates to attend the Good Roads Convention to be held in Toronto the latter part of the month.

A dance will be held in the Community Hall, Berwick, under the auspices of the Berwick Hockey Club, on Friday evening, Feb. 5th, with the Johnstone Brothers Orchestra. Dancing from nine until two a.m. Admission, including tax, is 35c for ladies and 40c for gents.

Mr. Carr expects to be away about two months.

Farmers along the Nation will commence the annual ice harvest within a few days they report, following the freeze-up after last weekend's mild spell.

With Bic Fulton and Bud Fyke back at their regular berths at centre ice, the Legionaires hope to tie for first place in the league standing by taking the measure of the Finch-Berwick Blue Devils at the Legion Memorial Rink tonight. Chesterville tied Maxville 5-5 on the latter's ice Monday night and Finch defeated

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Crites rights record

The Editor:
Let's set the records straight in the Township of Roxborough by quoting the exact figures of the Inaugual meeting of Jan. 4, 1977.

After reading a letter to the editor by a past reeve, Donald Cumming in the Jan. 20 issue of the Glengarry News, I am equally as shocked as he said he was upon reading of the inflated wages given to members of Council for 1977.

As reeve of the Township of Roxborough, I am only responsible for the action of members of council during council meetings and not for their private lives before or after council meetings by so called "brain washing" as was quoted in Mr. Cummings' letter.

All the business of Roxborough is completely carried out within the council session by resolutions of council under the watchful eyes of the press and my clerk W.E. Wright. As Reeve of Roxborough, I have no control over the press in their coverage of council, whether it be quoted exactly or in error in the press for public scrutiny.

If I were an intelligent past reeve of any municipality and read a disturbing set of figures in the press that shocked me or upset me as a ratepayer, I would first call the clerk to clarify the figures before I would quote figures that were inserted in the Chesterville Record in Mr. Cummings' letter-ed's note which proved to be different from our resolutions of council.

As salary and convention expenses for Mr. Cumming's claims about the Township of Roxborough, which these were not correct at all.

If I ever become a past politician - and I will - I hope my good judgement and common sense do not completely leave me in a position where I cannot obtain the facts and figues of my municipality by just simply calling the clerk for clarification prior to making a lame attempt to try and brain wash the ratepayers of the Township of Roxborough by using false figures.

In defense of my three new members of council as quoted "with no past experience on council", this I hope would not be taken to mean that they would not be able to carry out their duties as elected officials to speak their own minds and make intelligent decisions to run the affairs of the Township just as well as any past elected officials did.

This is another attempt to downgrade the ratepayers who voted for these three gentlemen to fill the seats on council had made a poor choice and could only be controlled by brainwashing. That quoted remark to me was surely illconceived by one who used these methods himself to try to make the present reeve follow his pre-planned course on our medical centre against a former member of council. I refused to bend to his wishes, which has resulted in bitter conflict to this day.

The irresponsible and large pay increases were less than eight percent in the Township of Roxborough the same as our neighbour, the Township of Finch and this gives the reeve of Roxborough a staggering amount of $150 over last year's renumeration.

In my own defense, all my long distance calls to the south end of my municipality are considered farm expenses my car mileage is 19c to and from council meetings. All other travel expenses are out of my pocket or farm income.

Speaking of my deleted speech as to the plans for 1977, this was considered and I chose not to lay down specific plans for 1977 at the inaugural meeting because of the three new members of council.

I chose to direct my Township planning to the council of the whole for direct input of all concerned and this will automatically give the three new members their full input in municipal affairs just as they were elected to do by the people.

Roxborough taxpayers pay us well, yes, and this is all it will cost you on taxation for your reev's increase. Roxborough's total assessment is $3,427,560.00 for 1977, an increase of $110,485 over the 1976 assessment. We're moving ahead through good government and making this a better place to live. Fifty-four building permits were issued in 1976.

Let's take the case of the past reeve in question and see what impact my $150 salary increase will have on his 1977 tax bill. (Ed.'s note: Mr. Crites supplied the assessment in question but in the interests of confidentiality, The Record has deleted this information.) Based on his assessment, his tax increase to cover my enlarged honorarium is 20 cents, calculated to the nearest cent. Hardly enough for a cup of coffee and certainly not enough to any of the "refreshments" to which he alluded in his letter! Then again, I guess my own property of 443 acres of productive land, with a total assessment four times that of Mr. Cummings', will look after "refreshments".

Holy Trinity hosting youth service Feb.6

(Staff) — The annual meeting of the Vestry of Holy Trinity Anglican Church was combined with the annual meeting of the Anglican Church Women of Holy Trinity and held at the home of Harold and Eileen Sharkey, Victoria St., Mon., Jan. 24.

The meeting was presided over by the rector, Rev. Henry Bowkett, who reported a drop in attendance and number of communicants this year but who spoke with optimism of the future. Rev. Bowkett thanked all those who had supported the church during the last year, a trying one, in which both wardens had moved from Chesterville.

During the year the ACW catered for several weddings and other social events and the men of the parish repaired the church's ceiling and erected new steps at the entrance.

The ACW reported a very successful year and at the meeting voted the sum of $1,200 towards church expenses and commitment to the diocese.

The guild's officers were re-elected for 1977. They are Muriel Symonds, president, June Thompson, secretary, and Shirley Coons, treasurer.

Church officers for the coming year are Mrs. Sadie James, vestry clerk, Lorne Thompson, People's Warden, Charles Collingridge, Rector's Warden, Marjorie Trillo, Deputy Warden, Joanne Saunders, treasurer, Kae Merkley, Synod delegate, and Shirley Coons, alternate delegate.

Increased efforts will be made this year to interest younger members of the parish and a special Young People's Service will be held Sun., Feb. 6 at 2:30pm. All are invited to the service.

Winchester 6-3 Saturday night, only to have their return game in Winchester postponed Monday due to soft ice. The Legionaires play their return game in Finch Saturday night to complete a tough week of four games. At the moment, Chesterville trails the league-leading Winchester squad by two points, with eight. Winchester has 10, Maxville nine, Chesterville eight and Finch-Berwick five.

Last week-end a change of 52 degrees was experienced from Thursday to Friday mornings. Thursday morning the thermometers read 16 degrees below zero and at nine a.m. Friday, the spring-like reading of 36 above made the mercury smile.

Miss Ann Devaney, B.A., a graduate of the 1946 class at Ottawa University, has joined the teaching staff of Maxville High School to replace W.H. Davison, who resigned to take a position in Walkerton, Ont. Miss Devaney is a daughter of Mrs. William Devaney and the late Mr. Devaney of Chesterville.

Four of the new-type street lamps have been installed by Hydro-Electric Workmen, but only one has been in use as the 300-watt bulbs were not included in the shipment. When the bulbs are received, installation of the 18 lamps will be proceeded with. Judging from the results of the one lamp in operation, in front of the Fire Hall, Chesterville should be entering a new era of street lighting.

Arnold Kyle, of Ottawa, and formerly of Chesterville, where he entered the employ of the Bank of Nova Scotia and of which he is an Inspector of Agencies, has just returned from a couple of months on official business for his bank in New York and Cuba and is now making an inspection of the local branch.

FROM THE RECORD
THURS., JAN. 31, 1957

In an effort to maintain hospital rates to patients at their present levels, in spite of rising costs, the Board of Directors of the Winchester District Memorial Hospital has adopted a policy of asking the many municipalities using its services to subsidize the hospital finances on a basis of the utilization of patient days by the various municipalities. Each municipality has been asked to pay $1 per patient day for the past year's use of the hospital, and also the free service rendered in regard to indigent patients.

Fire Chief John Hehir, Chesterville, was host to the Eastern Ontario Firemen's Association in the Chesterville Community Hall, Fire Marshall Lou Carriere spoke on Mutual Aid and Fire Marshal Frank Gardener, Belleville, spoke on the investigation of fires. Members attending the meeting came from Prescott, Gananoque, Sharbot Lake, Smiths Falls, Cornwall and Russell.

Thieves are at work again in the Winchester area, this time having broken into the Harry Levere service station. last week's break-in marked the third attempt on Winchester garages this year.

The IOOF euchre held in the lodge rooms, Chesterville, on January 23 saw the following winners: Ladies, Mrs. Jim Campbell, Mrs. D. Simpson; men, Cam Thompson, Thad McIntosh.

The Finch Volunteer Fire Brigade held their first meeting of 1957 in the fire hall, Chief C.J. Robertson being in charge. Hugh McDougall was appointed assistant chief with Myles Nephew as secretary. The Fire Chief pointed out that the Finch truck had to serve the southern part of Finch Township from the village of Berwick south to the Township of Osnabruck, west to the County of Dundas and east to the Township of Roxborough. It will also protect the villages of Berwick and Avonmore. Finch Township north of the village of Berwick will be protected by the Crysler Volunteer Fire Brigade.

The January meeting of the Osnabruck Centre Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Delbert Flintoff. Mrs. Flintoff, first vice-president, occupied the chair, assisted by Mrs. L. Gallinger, secretary-treasurer. The roll call was answered with "Something Scottish" and later each member was asked to give a current event. A paper, prepared by Mrs. C. Collins, education convener, was read by Mrs. Morley Warner and dealt with the growth of Women's Institutes, who provide help to genuine homemakers.

Morewood Carnival 77

MOREWOOD (Staff) — If the third annual Morewood Winter Carnival suffered from anything, it was from an excess of wintry weather, because it certainly wasn't for a lack of participation in that 2½-day event.

Despite the high winds and frigid temperatures which created blizzard conditions Friday night and most of Saturday and Sunday, large crowds turned out for all carnival events.

Over 100 were at Friday night's carnival queen crowning which saw Connie Nurse, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nurse, begin her reign as Queen of the third carnival.

Eight girls were entered in the contest and the princesses were 15-year-old Nicole Baker and 19-year-old Francine Baker, both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Germain Baker. Judges were Babs Koolwine, Cecil MacNabb and Ron Dillabough.

Gifts, including leather goods, jewellery, beauty aids, watch, camera, trophy and cash prizes, were donated by Claude's Upholstery and Manufacturing, Dillabough's Garage, D. Weegar Sales, Dutch Sash and Door, Elaine's Hairstyling, R. Lalonde Construction, Young's General Store, John Kurvink's Carpentry, Marie's Beauty Salon, MoreWood Homes, Nestle (Canada) Ltd., Morewood Volunteer Fire Fighters' Association, S.J. Patterson and Son, C. Swerdfeger Feeds, Vivian's Avon and Baker's Confectionary.

Peter Emmerson, who was to have emceed Friday night's show, couldn't make it because of the weather; he did come Saturday night, however.

The RA Centre was filled all day Saturday with children participating in games and contests; the Morewood Youth Group's rock-a-thon, and the afternoon's broomball tournament. Saturday's ice sculpture judging had to be postponed until

Embryo transplants maximize calf production

(Staff) — Artificial breeding to raise the quality of a farmer's livestock has been taken a step further with the innovative technique of embryo transplants.

First it was artificial insemination, which extended the use of desirable bulls; now, embryo transplants allow dairy and beef breeders to maximize the calf production of valuable cows.

Carl Smith, of Angus and Carl Smith, Sunnylodge Farms, RR3 Chesterville, is one of the first Eastern Ontario dairy farmers to employ the technique and now has a one-month-old heifer calf, born about 300 miles away from its natural mother.

Transplanting of embryos is a relatively new concept in cattle breeding and is achieved by surgically "harvesting" fertilized eggs from the natural mother and implanting them in a recipient or surrogate mother.

The selected natural mother is first treated with hormones to cause her to "superovulate" (produce multiple ovulations) and then bred.

Following breeding, she is left for several days before the fertilized eggs are removed, examined microscopically and surgically transplanted into the recipients, which have earlier been synchronized to the donor's heat cycle.

The recipients then serve as incubators throughout the gestation period and the natural mother can ovulate in a minimum three months, according to Mr. Smith. This cuts six months of the normal ovulation period, he explained.

The advantages of the practice are several.

First and foremost, it allows a valuable cow to bear more calves than it would under natural conditions since ovulation is chemically stimulated; the mother increases as a method for producing capital because she can go on ovulating at a relatively advanced age; another advantage is that imported exotic breeds requiring long and costly quarantine periods can be multiplied rapidly to expand their small population and satisfy the demands of exotic cattle buyers.

There are several firms in western Ontario specializing in embryo transplantation. Mr. Smith chose Modern Ova Trends Limited of Norval, northwest of Toronto between Brampton and Georgetown.

The company was set up in 1972 and went into operation in 1973. The company charges $1600 per implantation, with that amount paid as a deposit. If there is no pregnancy forthcoming, the company will refund $1100 of the original sum.

The natural mother must be supplied by the breeder. In Mr. Smith's case, he chose Sunnylodge Greentop Stylemaster, Very Good, Three Star. The cow had a proven track record, having already given birth to two Excellent, two Very Good and three Good Plus offspring.

One of the Excellent offspring, a maternal sister of the Smiths' new calf, was exported to Cuba for $15,000 several years ago.

Of the mother's offspring, four males are now being used for artificial insemination purposes - one in Kemptville, one in St. Hyacinthe and two in Woodstock, Ont.

Sunnylodge Greentop Stylemaster is still in Norval where she will again undergo surgery to have fertilized eggs removed from her uterus. The eggs will be frozen and flown to Germany where they will be implanted in recipient heifers.

She is one of only five cows chosen from across Canada for this venture.

Sunnylodge Greentop Stylemaster was bred March 1, 1976 with semen from Roybrook Starlite, one of the most popular bulls in Canada, and 10 days later six fertilized eggs were removed from her and implanted in recipient heifers. After 90 days the grade heifers were checked for pregnancy and two were found to be safely with calf.

They were kept at Norval until November when Mr. Smith brought one of the pregnant heifers back to Chesterville. She calved in January and gave birth to a heifer. The other grade cows was left in Norval and gave birth to a bull calf.

Under an agreement with Modern Ova Trends Limited, the company kept the bull calf and reduced Mr. Smith's breeding fee by 50 per cent.

Mr. Smith chose Sunnylodge Greentop Stylemaster because of her good record with offspring which, he said, is a normal precaution considering the high cost of the breeding procedure.

Her ability to produce calves has been extended through embryo transplanting, since Mr. Smith couldn't get her to calf by normal birth.

Three-year-old Craig Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith, Sunnylodge Farms, with the Smith's new Holstein calf, one of the first in Eastern Ontario born as the result of an embryo transplant. The calf is the offspring of Sunnylodge Greentop Stylemaster, Very Good, Three Star, which has already given birth to two Excellent, two Very Good and three Good Plus offspring. One of her excellent offspring was sold for $15,000. Embryo transplants prolong the breeding usefulness of proven mothers and shorten ovulation, allowing a cow to give more offspring than through conventional methods.

Asscociation for retarded debates work programs

(Special) — Martin VanAndel, a representative of the Canada Manpower Centre, Prescott, addressed members of the Dundas County Association for the Mentally Retarded at a meeting held recently in Williamsburg Public School.

Mr. VanAndel informed the group of two job creation programs, Young Canada Works, and Canada Works, which can be funded through government grants.

Young Canada Works is designed to create summer community-oriented jobs for high school or university students.

Mr. VanAndel stated that any organization receiving a grant for either program must then act as the employer. A minimum of three jobs for a duration of six weeks must be created and the maximum funding available is $25,000.

The manpower representative said a recreational and remedial summer program for mentally handicapped students might be of interest to the association.

He stated this type of program has been successfully operated in the Kemptville area and has proven to be beneficial to students in schools for the mentally retarded.

The Canada Works program is designed to create jobs for unemployed adults.

Mr. VanAndel concluded by saying that a Workshop and Vocational Training program could be started through grants from the Canada Works Program.

A decision to apply for either of these programs was not made at this time as more information was needed concerning the type of program and facilities that could be set up within the county.

In other business, Susan Shaver, treasurer, reported on the financial position of the Associaton.

The finance committee started a fund raising drive last November and to date is pleased with the donations received. However, more funds are required to establish programs for the mentally retarded and the committee will be continuing their fund raising campaign into 1977.

Susan Shaver was appointed the official signing officier for the receipts issued to organizations and individuals making donations.

Marg Maxted reported on the publicity committee activities and a motion was passed to have brochures, giving information about the mentally handicapped and the programs they require, printed. These brochures will be distributed to residents of the county in the near future.

Maxville man dies at home Mon., Jan. 24

Rev. John Wiseman conducted the funeral service at 2pm Wed., Jan. 26 from the Brownlee Funeral Home for Percy John D. Marjerrison, who died at his RR1 Maxville residence Mon., Jan. 24 after a lengthy illness. Mr. Marjerrison was 77.

He was born in Maxville the son of John G. and Flora (McRae) Marjerrison, both deceased, and received his elementary and secondary education at village schools.

He was a retired employee of the department of highways and was a member of AF&AM 418 and Royal Arch 143 Maxville Lodge. Mr. Marjerrison attended Gravel Hill Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Ellen Cameron; one son, Robert, Cornwall; one daughter, Isobel (Mrs. Roy MacDonell), Cornwall; two grandsons, Allan Percy and Scott Andrew MacDonell; two brothers, Milton, Prescott, and John, Apple Hill, and by three sister, Mrs. Daisy Rutley, Cornwall, Mary (Mrs. Carl Crabe), Flint, Mich., and Margaret (Mrs. Fred Marshall), Cardinal.

Pallbearers were Howard Haley, Dick Silmser, Len MacDonald, Jim Whissell, Alfred Amell and Orval MacLean. Honorary bearers were John Godard, Auley Morrison, Clarence McRae, Bob Tessier, Alex McEwan and Sam Gilbert.

Relatives and friends present came from Bowmanville, Brantford, Woodbridge, Virginia, Brockville, Prescott, Alexandria, Cornwall, Maxville and surrounding area.

District News

AVONMORE (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mills of Lindsay spent the week-end with Miss Ella Mills, Jimmie Mills and Arnold Mills.

Mrs. Stella Warner, Northfield, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Poapst.

Avonmore seniors enjoy 'Burns' night

AVONMORE (Special) — Due to the absence of the president, the vice-president, Mrs. Stewart MacRae, conducted the regular meeting of the Avonmore Diamond Club.

As it was "Bobby Burns" night and having entertainers present, only two items of business were dealt with A pot luck supper, followed by games - crokinole, cribbage and euchre, will be held Tues., Feb. 8 at 7pm in the club room. A public euchre will be held Fri., Feb. 18 at 8pm with prizes and lunch.

Ken MacKinnon was master of ceremonies for the program which opened with the Friendly Circle Choral Group rendering several old favorites.

The fiddlers, J. Boyle, Ken MacKinnon and C. McDermid, accompanied by J. McDermid on the piano, delighted the seniors with Scottish selections.

Three Highland dancers, the Misses Grace MacKinnon, Stephanie Abraham and Shauna Stewart, displayed their dancing skill as did Cecil McDermid. Mt. MacKinnon played Amazing Grace on the bagpipes with a men's trio later singing this beautiful number.

Mrs. MacNaughton gave two humorous readings and Mr. Duffy favored the group with a humorous solo.

Refreshments were served to bring a most enjoyable evening to a close. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Fraser MacRae, Mrs. J.A. Cameron, Mrs. Stanley Goodman, Mrs. Hugh Morrison, Miss Peg Morrison, Mrs. Hector MacRae and Mrs. Ernest Filion.

Roads accident free despite weather

(Staff) — Despite the weekend's wild weather, area OPP detachments reported a relatively accident-free period between Friday night and Monday morning as area residents stayed off the roads, many of which were rendered impassable by the high winds and drifting snow.

Major east-west roads were relatively clear but north-south routes were blocked by the wind which gusted between 30 and 60 kph. Highway 31 was closed Monday afternoon north of Winchester and travel on the road south of the village was hazardous since drifts covered the west lane in several locations.

The only road left open to Ottawa Monday was highway 416, which was protected by the rolling heavily-wooded countryside.

County and concessions roads were blocked for a large part of Monday and some remained closed Tuesday as snow removal crews worked around the clock to clear them out.

OPP officers were busy on the weekend helping stranded motorists and keeping watch over closed roads but had few accidents to investigate.

Corp. Earl Graves of the Winchester Detachment said his men investigated three minor accidents, none of which involved personal injury, over the weekend and commented that perhaps Eastern Ontario drivers are becoming acclimitized to winter road conditions.

He added that his detachment had investigated just half as many accidents in January 1977 as it did in the same month last year.

According to Morrisburg Detachment's Const. J.P. Watson, county public services officer, the OPP in that area investigated only three minor accidents over the weekend although they laid several liquor charges and arrested one impaired driver.

Const. Fred Langlois of the detachment is also investigating the theft of $100 from the Pioneer Hotel, Williamsburg, which occurred Friday night.

Const. Watson said the detachment's switchboard had been flooded by callers wanting road information from the OPP and explained that while the detachment tried to give as much as it could, members would rather have persons wanting information call the Ministry of Transportation and Communications.

The ministry is set up to handle this type of call and has more information than individual detachments. The number to call in the Ottawa area, he said, is 745-7049.

The Long Sault detachment reported lots of fender benders and vehicles in the ditch but a spokesman said there were no major accidents in the detachment's area.

Long Sault officers assisted Cornwall city police Monday afternoon in untangling a multi-vehicle pile-up at the city limits on highway two and they had to close the highway from Long Sault east while the accident was sorted out.

Hawkesbury OPP investigated one fatal accident over the weekend. Maurice Michel Cardinal, 23, Mechanic St., Maxville, was killed early Sunday morning when his Yamaha snowmobile collided with a traffic sign on Prescott county road nine, just south of St. Isador.

Carnival

Sunday because the wind damaged several creations Friday night.

In the village broomball tournament, the South triumphed 1-0 over West in their first game and 3-0 over the North in the championship to claim the Baker's Shell Trophy.

Sunday afternoon's sunny skies provided a more hospitable environment for the figure skating show and the 23 members of the Morewood Figure Skating Club, under the direction of 16-year-old Natalie Patterson - who volunteers her time to teach the youngsters - put on an entertaining show at the rink.

In the ice sculpture judging, there were winners in four classes. Don and Georgina Hillis took first in the most original with their Big Bird driving a snowmobile; John Koyman's whale was judged most difficult to build; the seal built by Nancy Smirle took first for being the most realistic; Lyn Louck's snowman in a bathtub was judged best overall, and special mention went to Glenn Smirle in the junior category for his Eskimo and igloo.

Lifelong Crysler resident dies

Romeo Allaire, a lifelong resident of Crysler, died in Montfort Hospital, Ottawa, Mon., Jan. 24 following a month-long illness. He was 69.

Mr. Allaire had been an employee of Wiseman and Thompson Construction Co. Ltd. for 30 years and had been retired for four years, although he remained active as a handyman in the Crysler area during his retirement.

He was born in Crysler June 5, 1907 and received his education in that community. He was a parishioner of Norre Dame du Saint Rosaire Roman Catholic Church, Crysler.

On January 27, 1936, he married the former Maria Regnier, who survives, in Embrun and the couple had six children.

Besides his wife, Mr. Allaire is survived by four daughters, Rita (Mrs. Thirl Furnace), Albion, NY, Rollande (Mrs. Rosaire Gibeault), Quebec City, Claudette (Mrs. Bernard Cousineau), Casselman, and Cecile (Mrs. Jean Guy Desormeaux), Crysler; two sons, Maurice, Crysler, and Rheal, Osgoode; two brothers, Arthur and Victor, both of Cornwall, and one sister, Mrs. Juliette LaPrade, Hamilton. Thirteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

Mass of requiem was celebrated by Fr. Roger Desrosiers from Brownlee funeral chapel at 11am Thurs., Jan. 27. Pallbearers were four sons-in-law and two eldest grandchildren, Michael Furnace and Danny Allaire. Interment will be in the spring at Crysler Parish Cemetery.

Rev. E. Eaton Heart Fund chairman

(Special) — Rev. E. Earle Eaton has been named chairman of the annual Heart Foundation campaign for Chesterville again this year.

Canvassers will be soliciting businesses and individuals during the month of February and there will be special appeals through local churches and social agencies.

Last year Chesterville contributors gave $700 to the Heart Foundation. It is hoped to exceed that figure this year.

Personal

Rev. E. Earle Eaton was in Ottawa for a meeting of the British Israel Association and in Cornwall for a Gospel Fellowship meeting.

Obituary Correction

Omitted from the obituary appearing in last week's Record of Jack Steen, who died in Kingston Sat., Jan. 22, was the fact that Rev. H. Bowkett was assisted at the funeral service by Rev. D.L. Gordon.

The Russians are coming!

CORNWALL (Staff) — The Russians are coming! The Russians are coming!

The recently-opened Ed Lumley Arena in the Cornwall Civic Complex will be the scene of an international hockey game between the Moscow Dynamos and the Cornwall and District midget hockey team at 7:30pm Sun., Feb. 20.

The game is the fourth in a six-game two week visit to Eastern Canada for the Soviet Union boys, who are being groomed as future members of that country's national team.

Ottawa District Hockey Association president Bill Dillabough, Morrisburg, is the prime mover of the contest, putting up $4,000 of his own money to bring in the Russian team.

The Cornwall Minor Hockey Association was originally approached to host the game but it felt it couldn't guarantee the $4,000 the Russian team was asking for. The Brockville Minor Hockey Association also passed up the game before Dillabough decided to put up the money and take the game to Cornwall.

Dillabough, who returned as the head of the ODHA this year after a two-year absence, had first thought of taking the game to Morrisburg but elected to choose the Cornwall Civic Complex.

Tickets will be $2.50 per person and will be on sale this week at the Cornwall Sports Centre, Dalbec's Cycle and Sporting Goods, Gaymour Sporting Goods and Freeman Trophies in Cornwall, Bergeron and Hope Sporting Goods in Alexandria, Chafee Sports Shop in Williamstown, Charlie's Sport Shop in Morrisburg, Jack's Sport Shop in Maxville and Crow's Sport Shop in Massena, N.Y.

The new Lumley arena seats almost 4,000 persons and the game has to attract a minimum of 2,000 fans for Dillabough to break even.

Pat Smith, secreatry-manager of the ODHA, is helping Dillabough make the necessary arrangements for the game.

Along with representing CAHA president Gordon Juckes on the day of the game, Smith is looking after the printing of tickets, special guests, advance publicity and all other minor details.

The Soviet team will arrive at Montreal's Mirabel airport February 10 and immediately travel to Moncton, N.B., for a game against the Century Flyers February 12.

From there, the Russian team travels to Ottawa for a February 14 meeting with a National Capital Minor Hockey Association midget A team.

On February 18, they are in Thunder Bay and then on to Cornwall for February 20. They play Contiers du Richelieu in Sorel, P.Q., February 22 and conclude their visit against Couillard de Ste-Foy in Quebec City February 23. They return home the following day, leaving from Mirabel.

For many members of the Cornwall and District team, which is coached by Larry Gabri and Brian Gilmour and managed by George Marlin, it will be their first-ever international game.

Gabri coached the Cornwall midget team which compted in the Wrigley tournament in Calgary last year and Marlin is the president of minor hockey in Cornwall.

The team meeting the Soviets will have eight players from Cornwall, four each from Morrisburg and Cornwall Township, two from Alexandria and one each from Maxville and Char-Lan.

From Cornwall is goaltender Alain Chevrier, defencemen Scot Marlin, Dale Lafave and John Fox, and forwards Dave McKissock, Lee Sheets and Kevin Fontaine.

Morrisburg is represented by forwards Jim Whelan, Scott Cordon, Mark Beaupre and Leo Lafortune. Cornwall Township has goaltender Richard Marleau, defenceman Lance Telschow and forwards Sheldon Coughlin and Harold Earle.

Defencemen Carter MacDonald and Scott Hay represent Alexandria. Goaltender Peter Wensink is from Maxville and forward Kenton Spink is from Char-Lan.

Down but not out of the play

Chesterville's Lyle Servage (sprawled on the ice) ran into a tough Avonmore defenceman in Dan Marsolais last Wednesday night and ended up looking up at the play. Servage, before hitting the ice, managed to flip the puck to teammate Lorne Cook. Chesterville won the game 4-2 and moved into a 4-0 lead in their eight-point NSLSJHL quarter-final series. - staff photo -

Chesterville, Osnabruck Twsp. lead, Maxville, Char-Lan tie series opener 2-2

(Staff) — North Stormont Long Sault Junior C Hockey League followers have been dealt a mixed bag of results as the playoffs started last week.

The second place finishing Chesterville Jets have been unimpressive but still hold a 4-0 lead over the Avonmore Aces.

Char-Lan got a late goal Sunday to tie Maxville in their opening game while Osnabruck surprised Finch 7-6 Saturday night to take the lead in that quarter-final series.

Chesterville could conceivably wrap up its series this week but the other two series will not be decided for at least another two weeks.

Jets 6, Aces 1

Chesterville scored a powerplay goal and a shorthanded goal last Tuesday night as they dumped Avonmore 6-1 in the opening game of their eight point quarter-final series here last Tuesday night.

Kevin Smith led the Jets to the win with a pair of goals and an assist. Chesterville held 2-0 and 4-1 period leads.

Kevin Blair, Dave Cross, Wayne Dillabough and Neil Kittle contributed single goals for Chesterville.

Bernie Henderson notched the lone Avonmore goal late in the second period.

Avonmore was handed two of the game's six minor penalties.

Osna. 4, Finch 1

Osnabruck Township closed out the regular season with a 4-1 win, only their second of the year, over third-place Finch last Wednesday night.

The shorthanded Osnabruck team got goals from four different players as they built up a 2-0 lead at the half.

Archie Aubin and John Beddingfield put Osnabruck into the lead, Aubin on a slap from the point and Beddingfield from a scramble in front of Finch netminder Jim Hume.

Eddie Gove picked up a rebound early in the second half to cut the margin to 2-1 but midway through the period Jim Collins scored for Osnabruck and Don Simpson added the fourth goal late in the period.

Finch had four minors and Osnabruck three.

Jets 4, Aces 2

Chesterville rolled up a 3-0 first half lead in the second game, played in Finch Wednesday night, and held on to move into a 4-0 point lead in the series.

Doug Shay, Kevin Smith and Kevin Blair scored in the first half.

Charles Campbell and Bernie Henderson got the Aces back in the game early in the second, scoring goals 1:10 apart.

However, Danny Clement upped Chesterville's margin to two goals with 13:56 remaining in the game.

Each team received one minor penalty.

Osna. 7, Finch 6

John Beddingfield's second goal of the game on a powerplay with 49 seconds remaining in the game gave Osnabruck Township the win here Saturday night and a 2-0 point lead in the eight-point quarter-final series.

The goal capped a third period rally after Finch had carried a 5-3 lead into the frame. Osnabruck led 2-1 after one period.

Beddingfield's first goal with 2:37 remaining in the first period gave Osnabruck the lead but Frank Briere knotted the score 35 seconds later.

Don Simpson and Archie Aubin each scored twice for Osnabruck and Mark Stephenson contributed a single goal. Simpson also had two assists.

Briere had a pair for the 76s and singles went to Dave Rumer, Steve McRae, John MacNaughton and Robert Briere.

Osnabruck was handed four minors and Linden Marcellus earned a fighting major, game misconduct and automatic minor in the third period for a scuffle with John MacNaughton.

Earlier in the period, Finch's Terry Holland received a fighting major, 10-minute misconduct and a minor. The 76s also had six other minors.

Rebels 2, Highlanders 2

Don Thompson's goal with over seven minutes remaining in the game lifted Char-Lan to a 2-2 tie with Maxville in the opening game of their eight-point semi-final series Sunday.

Mickey Wolfe staked the Rebels to first period lead and it stood up until early in the final frame.

Ian Sandilands tied the score and Sandy McIntosh sent the Highlanders into the lead six minutes later.

Char-Lan received six minors and two fighting majors while Maxville had 10 minors, two fighting majors and a 10-minute misconduct.

Bantam B hockey titles to Kemptville, Winchester clubs

(Staff) — Late third period rallies fell short in both championship games of the annual Nestle sponsored Bantam B hockey tournament held here Saturday.

Kemptville Mather's Electric and the Winchester Hawks grabbed early leads in their respective title games and held on to claim victory.

Kemptville nipped Spencerville 3-2 for the grand championship and the Hawks beat Morrisburg 3-1 to win the consolation title.

Little Ron Stewart sparked Kemptville to the championship win with a pair of goals in the first two periods.

Spencerville, which received a bye in the opening round when Winchester Berry's defaulted the game because most of the players were unable to make the game due to the snowstorm, narrowed the margin to one goal early in the third period when Paul Laroque scored.

Less than three minutes later Peter Greenwood, who drew an assist on the first Kemptville goal, made the score 3-1.

Kenny Faber drew the Bruins to within a single goal with 25 seconds remaining in the game. They pulled the goaltender in favor of an extra attacker but Kemptville took control of the puck from the faceoff to hold on for the win.

In the consolation final, Mike Nelson did it all for the Hawks.

The little winger scored once and earned two assists in being named the team's most valuable player in the final game.

Captain Mike Guy staked the Hawks to a first period lead and Nelson increased the lead late in the second period as Winchester dominated play.

Doug Ransberry ran the count to 3-0 on a powerplay early in the final period.

Doug Cassell finally spoiled Kevin Loverin's shutout bid with 4:48 remaining in the game.

MVPs of the two championship games were Nelson of Winchester, Steve Sheridan, Morrisburg, Richard McGuire, Spencerville and Danny Thompson, Kemptville. Thompson played net for the five Kemptville games because the other goaltender could not make the trip.

Kemptville Mather's reached the championship contest by beating Morrisburg 3-1 and Osnabruck Township 2-1.

After receiving a bye in the first round, Spencerville eliminated the host Chesterville Flyers 2-1.

In that game, Spencerville scored once in the first period and held on to the margin until early in the final period when Peter Elliott scored for Chesterville.

In the tournament's opening game, Wayne Ball played shutout hockey as the Flyers got goals from five different players in a 5-0 win over the Winchester Hawks.

Tony Fraser and Jim Derue gave Chesterville a first period lead with Peter Elliott, Larry McMillan and Peter Schoones scoring in the middle frame.

Osnabruck got steady goaltending from Steve Kielec and a pair of third period goals to dump the Kemptville Canadians 2-1 in the first round. Stu Beddingfield scored once and drew an assist on Don Hickey's winning goal with 1:07 remaining.

Hickey got the lone goal in their second game as they lost 3-1 to Mather's Electric.

Embrun hockey teams on the move?

EMBRUN (Staff) — Embrun hockey teams may be on the move at the conclusion of their current seasons - one to another community and one to another league.

The community's senior hockey team, the Panthers, may be moving their operation to Smiths Falls while the Junior B 72's are strongly considering a move to the North Stormont Long Sault Junior C Hockey League.

In a report published in last week's edition of The Smiths Falls Record, Panther president Mike Murray announced his team would play an Ottawa District Senior Hockey League regular season game at Smiths Falls Memorial Community Centre, Friday, February 11 against the Potsdam Pioneers.

Mr. Murray went on to say if fan support for that game is strong, he will investigate the possibility of moving his club to Smiths Falls permanently, beginning next season.

The Panthers were idle on the weekend but with only four regular season games remaining, they need only a tie to clinch first place. They have won 19 of their 22 games.

Winning has definitely not been a problem for the defending Harding Cup champions but fan support has dropped substantially. Along with capturing the national intermediate title last year, the Panthers tied the West German national team last year and beat Yugoslavia the year before.

The Smiths Falls Bears of the Central Junior A Hockey League suspended operations this year blaming lack of public support for their financial problems but Mr. Murray said he believes an intermediate or senior hockey franchise would be successful in the Falls.

Operating costs are much lower, he said, and fans can still enjoy exciting hockey.

Mr. Murray noted the average budget for the Panthers has been $7,500, compared to $45,000 for the Bears' final season. Due to an extended season in competing for the Hardy Cup last year, costs climbed to $12,000.

One reason expenses are lower, he said, is that intermediate and senior clubs do not make a habit of paying their players as is the case in Junior A.

"We pay their mileage for games and practices," he said. "At the end of the season, if there's enough left in the kitty, they get jackets and mabe some cash."

An unconfirmed report says the Gatineau Nordiques will suspend operations next year leaving the Ottawa District Senior league with only three entries.

Embrun's junior team, entered in the north-east division of the Ottawa District Hockey Association Junior B Hockey League, is also considering a move.

The 72s are currently in last place in their division standings and their playoff hopes are slim.

In a telephone interview Thursday, the team's manager, Francois Brisson, confirmed there is a strong possibility the 72s will be stepping back to the Junior C level next season.

The team's sponsor, the Embrun Recreation Association (Centre Recreatif d'Embrun), last week approved the move by the team, Mr. Brisson said. He must now gain approval from the Junior B league for a possible one year leave of absence.

Poor attendance has been a problem at home games, he said, as fans just will not support a team that is not competitive at the Junior B level.

He is hopeful his club will be more competitive in the Junior C league.

NSLSJHL president Larry Stevens said the Embrun entry would probably be accepted and would be a strong contender.

Bantam B champions

Two teenaged girls in a boys' hockey world

(Staff) — It may never make the columns of The Guinness Book of World Records and it will probably be forgotten in the not too distant future but two Kemptville girls made history here Saturday by playing in the annual Nestle Bantam B hockey tournament.

Chris Durant and Lori Stewart, both 14 years old, became the first girls ever to participate in sanctioned minor hockey event in Chesterville.

Their appearance on the ice, Lori for the Kemptville Canadians and Chris for Kemptville's Mather's Electric, is nothing new - this is their second year in organized hockey.

The two girls are not alone in Kemptville with some 25 other girls, ranging from eight to 15 years, registered and playing house league hockey with the Kemptville Minor Hockey Association.

The situation arose two years ago when Chris, was placed on an all-boys team because she wanted to play the sport and was too small to play in the women's league.

Lori followed suit and other girls joined in hopes of forming a team in an age division. However, not enough girls registered in one division and they were then placed in the appropriate house leagues.

Lori told The Record Saturday when asked if she liked playing hockey with the boys said, "it's neat, it's a lot of fun".

She explained the boys don't seem to mind her playing and in fact they don't take it easy on her when it comes to bodychecking. They check her as hard as they do another boy.

Lori and Chris have their own hockey equipment, complete with boys' skates and a special athletic support.

When asked if they dress in a separate room from their teammates, the girls replied "no". They wear gym suits under their regular clothing and simply pull on their hockey gear over them.

The girls admitted being a little slower than the boys but went on to say their teammates and coaches were helpful in their endeavor to learn the skills of the game.

Chris had problems backing up at first but that skill has been improved to some degree.

Lori said fans in most cases cheer harder for her than the boys and it encourages her to do better.

Chris's team won the tournament championship here Saturday but she didn't see much action with the final score ending up 3-2.

They don't mind sitting on the bench if the score is close but when given the chance to play, they both give a 100 per cent effort and enjoy the game.

Greely, Winchester lose to C of C Atoms

(Special) — Last Wednesday, the C of C Atoms hit the ice in fine style against the Greely Eagles and came up with one of their finest games this year.

Chesterville scored three unanswered goals in the first period - the first two by Mark Smith and the third by Rene Boulanger who also assisted Mark on his first goal.

The fast second period saw each team notch a goal. Bradley scored for Greely and replying for Chesterville was Glen Merkley on a pass from Mark Smith.

Flyers lived up to their name and kept up the pace for the third period and Kelly Mitchell notched two goals while Lauzon responded once for the Eagles making the final score 6-2 for Chesterville.

On Saturday morning, the Flyers travelled to Winchester for their second league game with the newly enrolled Winchester club.

Winchester was minus their two regular goalies so John Guy was elected to suffer the pressure between the posts.

Flyers didn't play a particularly strong game but came up with four goals to Winchester's two.

Flyers opened the scoring halfway through the first period when Glen Merkley scored. Terry Carkner replied for Winchester and at the end of the period Tyler Alton notched another and the period ended 2-1 for Winchester.

Back and forth action in the second period only resulted in one goal when Kelly Mitchell scored unassisted to keep Chesterville in the game with a 2-2 tie.

The third period was a little better for Flyers as Kelly Mitchell again took things in hand and scored two goals assisted by Glen Merkley and Don Imrie to clinch the win for Chesterville.

Danny Dubois leads tykes past Berwick

FINCH (Staff) — Chesterville's tyke hockey team got a two goal effort from Danny Dubois in a 4-3 exhibition win over Berwick at the Finch Community Centre last Tuesday night.

Danny's goals came two minutes apart in the second period and snapped a 1-1 first period score.

Mike Harper scored later in the period for Chesterville and Hugh Craig got a first period goal.

Berwick scored once in each period with Tim Meldrum, Kenneth McRae and Doug Paul getting the goals in that order.

Chesterville received three of the game's eight minor penalties.

Visitors lose games in Jr. B puck league

MORRISBURG (Staff) — Three of nine ODHA Junior B Hockey League south division games were postponed on the weekend due to the snowstorm that hit the area.

Of the six games that were played, only two were relatively close with the visitors in each case ending up on the wrong end of lopsided scores.

The other two games, both involving the Athens Aeros, had the visitors winning. The Aeros downed Cardinal 7-4 Saturday night and lost by the same score to Morrisburg Sunday.

Friday's games postponed were Long Sault at Morrisburg, Gananoque at Winchester and Brockville at Prescott.

Winchester fans may be wishing the Hawks' game in Spencerville Saturday had been postponed.

The Hawks had just about everything possible happen to them as the Bruins handed them a 16-1 thumping.

Winchester could muster only 10 players for the game and when they did arrive, they had one player ejected and two others injured, including the goaltender. They played the third period with Spencerville's spare goaltender in nets for them.

Greg Martin got the lone Winchester goal.

On Sunday, Morrisburg got three powerplay goals in posting their 17th win of the season.

Pete McIntosh scored twice while the Lions had a man advantage and Doug McNairn also chipped in with a pair of goals.

Billy Morrow, Brian Moran and Jeff Cassell got the other goals as the Lions led 3-2 and 4-2 at the period breaks.

Athens counted two power-play goals as Rick Churchill scored twice and singles went to Joel McCulloch and Bob Seed.

Athens had seven minor penalties and Morrisburg eight.

The Aeros got their first two goals six seconds apart and their last two goals one minute apart.

Red, Green teams win in town league

(Staff) — One goal margins prevailed last week as Red and Green remained tied for first place in the Chesterville Town Hockey League.

Red nipped a shorthanded Blue squad 2-1 Wednesday night and Green had to come from behind to squeeze by Yellow 5-4 Thursday night.

Richard McMillan's seventh goal of the season with two minutes remaining capped Green's comeback Thursday after trailing 2-0 after one period.

Garry Gallinger fired a late goal the previous night to earn Red the win.

Blue got an early first period goal from Dave Carkner and it stood up until midway through the final period when Pete Lasalle scored for Red.

Blue meets Green tonight and Yellow goes against Red Thursday night.

Bantams score two victories

(Special) — Two CDMHL matches last week ended in victory for the Chesterville Bantam Flyers as they struggle to remain within reach of Winchester Bantams in a see-saw battle for top spot.

Last Tuesday in Russell, the Flyers skated to a 5-1 win over Warriors, Don Richards, and Doug Rance each had a pair and Dave Byers added a singleton T. Harrison replied for Russell.

On Wednesday, the Metcalfe Jets came to town and held the Flyers off the scoreboard until late in the second period.

Flyers blasted home four goals before Jets' Steve Corlyon could reply. Scoring for Flyers were Rick Grisel, Steve Jones and Don Richards with a pair. Curtis McMillan added three assists.

Friday night's key struggle with Winchester was postponed because of the storm.

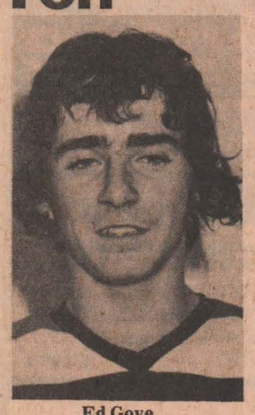
Gove leads 'Ton'



Ed Gove
... nets three goals

FINCH (Staff) — Ed Gove ran his goal production to 11 on the season Sunday night, scoring three times as Newington staged a second half 5-3 win to come from behind over Berwick in North Stormont Men's Hockey League action at the Finch Community Centre.

Gove, second in the league's scoring race behind Art Sinfield, fired his third goal with 2:02 remaining in the game to snap a 3-3 tie.

Gerry Zeran and Dwight Dishaw got the other Newington goals as they trailed 3-2 late in the game. The teams were tied 1-1 at the half.

The win, combined with Avonmore's 7-4 decision over Ingleside, enables Newington to run their first place lead back up to four points.

Steve O'Donohue, Leonard O'Donohue and Dave Rumer got the Berwick goals.

In the first game of the double-header, Barry Crawford paced Avonmore to the win with a hat trick as Art Sinfield played a part in all of the Ingleside goals.

Sinfield scored twice and set up the other two goals which were scored by Dalt Swerdfeger.

Contributing singles for Avonmore were Bruce Henderson, Junior Lalonde, Rick McElheran and Ron Alguire. Art McElheran had four assists and Mike Connelly three.

League action continues at 8pm Friday with Avonmore going against Newington while Newington plays Berwick in the nightcap.

Sunday, Berwick plays Avonmore in the first game and Ingleside meets Newington in the second game.

THE TWO BIGGEST

Hockey tournaments (for boys and men) are the rage this time of the year and we salute organizers of the giant Embrun Minor Hockey Tournament for including the fairer sex in their plans this year.

The tournament this year runs for six weeks, from March 19 to April 30, and includes over 100 teams.

Play will be novice, atom, peewee, bantam, midget divisions, and also in a girls' division if interest warrants.

Boys minor hockey teams and the men (The Stormont Countymen Oldtimers Hockey Club) get plenty of recognition for their expertise in handling the puck and it's about time the girls got a little ink.

Girls and women are more inclined to play broomball in this part of the country but in other areas hockey is the more dominant sport.

Broomball tournaments are few in this area so with the Embrun gang offering hockey we say take advantage of the outing.

The two sports have similar rules and the girls already have a knowledge of hockey simply by playing broomball.

The age specification for girls in the Embrun tournament is 12 to 16 years which is in line with that of bantam and midget girls' softball.

So, area girls' softball teams or broomball teams could form hockey teams, borrowing the necessary gear from a brother, and enter the eighth annual Embrun tourney.

We're not saying hockey will be more enjoyable to play than broomball but it may make for a fun time.

The young may be getting old and the old may be getting older but it does not necessarily hold true when it comes to oldtimers hockey.

Stormont County's Third Annual Oldtimers Hockey Tournament is scheduled for Feb. 11 - Feb. 13 at the Finch Community Centre and we plan on taking in a few of the games.

Tournament convener Art Buchanan has 24 teams competing in the event. Play starts at 6pm Friday and goes to midnight. It resumes at 8am Saturday and goes to 11pm. On Sunday, the final day, play starts at 9am and continues to 9:30pm.

All players will be 30 years or over and cash awards will be presented to the top four teams. The champion gets $225 and the Finch Recreation Trophy while the finalist receives $175. The consolation round winner gets $125 and the Moose Creek Recreation Trophy and the runner-up gets $100.

Individual awards will be presented to the tournament's top point scorer, the most valuable goaltender and the most valuable defenceman in each division.

If you wish a break from the action for an hour or so don't go home; there will be a hospitality room overlooking the playing surface.

Last year's four winning teams - Cornwall Hubs, Vanier City, Countymen and Beaconsfield, PQ - are returning this year.

Entered along with them are Ottawa Old Pros, F.H.L. (Montreal), R.C.M.P. (Ottawa), Quyon, PQ, Morrisburg, Crysler, Pte. Gatineau, St. Isidore, Alexandria, Hawkesbury, Osnabruck, North Stormont All-Stars, Maniwaki, Alymer, Westmount, PQ, and Hull.
