Keeping it Simple

Do you or your organization write information for the general public? Would you like to learn how to "Keep it Super Simple"? A + B=$ is offering a FREE WORKSHOP on clear writing for community organizations, businesses and government agencies on May 1st from 10 a.m. at the Morewood United Church. Registration is at 9.30 a.m. and the workshop starts at 10 a.m.. The focus is on writing, and there is an introduction to literacy and tutoring on a volunteer basis. Thanks to the support of people in the United Church and the Women's Institute, there is no registration fee, and lunch is only $5, or bring your own. To register, please call Rietta Hillis at 448-2424 or Ina Poole before April 24. A + B=$ is a coalition of representatives from economic development agencies, employers, unions, governments, educators, community organizations and the public. The coalition wishes to double the number of people who take literacy upgrading in coming years.

Occasional teachers vote

The teachers of the U.C.O.L. (Upper Canada Teachers Occasional Local) are preparing to vote on the ratification of a new collective agreement after negotiations with the Upper Canada District School Board. This agreement affects over 500 occasional teachers who work with the board formed by the amalgamation of Lanark, Leeds, and Grenville, Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry and Prescott Russell. Occasional teachers vote on this tentative agreement on Thursday, April 29 at 5 p.m. at South Branch Elementary School in Kemptville.

On the march

Hessian mercenaries with the British army are shown marching behind the Grist Mill at Upper Canada Village. The continental army of the Americans awaits them for a confrontation on the other side of the hill, in a movie scene from "The Crossings" depicting the Battle of Trenton. A & E Television Networks is leasing the site at Upper Canada Village to make this movie.

"The Crossings" depicts Battle of Trenton at UCV

MORRISBURG—The hill behind the Grist Mill at Upper Canada Village is once again alive with soldiers reenacting a nineteenth century battle.

This time, the battle depicts George Washington's legendary attack on the British Army's German mercenaries, in a scene from "The Crossings", an A & E Television Network production.

The date is December 17, 1776, the continental army is exhausted by attacks from the British Army and their mercenaries, the Hessians. Due to death and desertion, General Washington's troop of 10,000 strong fighting strong men has dwindled to a meager 2,000.

Washington is faced with a difficult situation demanding retreat, in light of Congress' decision not to allow more military support.

Faced with the defining moment of his life, Washington realizes the American Revolution is lost, without some drastic action. A week later on Christmas Eve, he crosses the Delaware River, and his troops launch a surprise attack on the Hessians. During the Battle of Trenton, the Germans are routed, the British Army have been dealt a severe blow, and new life is given to the American Revolution.

Written by Howard Fast, The Crossing is based on his novel, and stars Jeff Daniels as General George Washington.

Writer Howard Fast is considered one of America's greatest living novelists, with over 80 books to his credit, including mystery novels under the pseudonym E. V. Cunningham. He has won critical acclaim for his works of historical fiction, especially those dealing with the American Revolution.

The Crossing is directed by Robert Harmon, of Los Angeles, California. and is executive produced by Rick Rosenberg and Bob Christiansen of Chris/Rose Productions.

The filming, which started Monday, will go on until Friday, and the two-hour production will be televised in late 1999, or early 2,000.

Court office to relocate to land registry site

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

MORRISBURG—The court office of the Ministry of the Attorney General currently located in the plaza here is being relocated to the Dundas County Land Registry Office of the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations on Fifth Street.

"This is tentatively set for June 18," said Louis Arki, Land Registrar for Dundas and Stormont Counties, from the Cornwall Land Registry office.

"It will be a good thing for the public and the office of the Attorney General. It will make it a lot easier for them, they'll just have to walk across the lawn from the court," Arki continued.

"It will be neutral for us," said lawyer Rick Leroy. "The Ontario Government is basically amalgamating its resources."

Arki said the physical move will not be costly, as it simply involves wiring to accommodate the Ministry of Attorney General computer, adding shelving to the existing counter, and relocating register books on the public side for easier access.

"It's a win win situation for both the Ministry and the public," said Brendon Crawley, a spokesperson with the Ministry of the Attorney General.

"There will be advantages for the public in improved customer service and reduced costs. Residents who have business with both ministries can make one stop, as one office will combine both functions," Crawley continued.

Crawley said there will be no impact on staffing at either the court office which has one position, or the Land Registry Office which has 1.5 positions. "There will be 2.5 in a shared office with one lease."

The Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations currently leases their building from the United Counties, while the court office is leased from Allan Bell & Associates. "It's obviously cheaper to use one office than two," said Crawley. "There will be a saving to the taxpayers."

Crawley said there is also an advantage in that both employees can learn each other's jobs and fill in, if one is away.

He added the relocation here is not one on a list of moves province-wide. "Co-locations are not uncommon in smaller centers," he said.

Catholic Board withdraws offer

CORNWALL—The Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario withdrew its final contract offer to teachers after prolonged discussions called by the Ontario Labour Relations Board. Fernando Da Silva, Senior Labour Relations Officer, convened a meeting of the parties in Ottawa on April 14. Teachers agreed to a mediation session on the outstanding issues.

"It was always our position that we would agree to mediation if the Board pulled their final offer from the table," said Ed Chudak, OECTA executive assistant, adding that if the Board had proceeded with the final offer the union was confident of a near one hundred percent rejection. "The offer tabled was substantially below par in respect to other teaching groups in the province."

Bob Leroux

Beavers' GM retires after 23 years

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

MORRISBURG—After 23 years of service at Beavers Dental Products, now a Division of Sybron Canada Ltd. Bob Leroux is retiring from his duties on April 30.

His official retirement will take place on June 12. Bob joined Beavers Dental Products Ltd. as finance controller in October 1976. He was promoted to general manager in January 1984, following Wallace Latchem's retirement in December 1983, and is currently in his 16th year as general manager.

During his years with the dental bur manufacturer, the company was acquired by Sybron Corporation in September 1982, from the American Hospital Supply Corporation. Throughout his tenure, Bob has witnessed growth in production and the workforce.

He has seen two expansions, the first in 1978-1979, when the plant added 8,400 square feet to the existing 20,000 feet. In 1995-1996, the factory doubled in size with the addition of 30,000 square feet to accommodate the need for more space and equipment.

Sales have gone steadily up since 1976-1977, the first year Bob was at the plant, and 4.5 million units were sold. Last year its production was close to 40 million burs, with an output of over 41 million units projected for this year, as well as over one million diamond burs. The plant has also increased its number of employees from 100 to the current 325 employees.

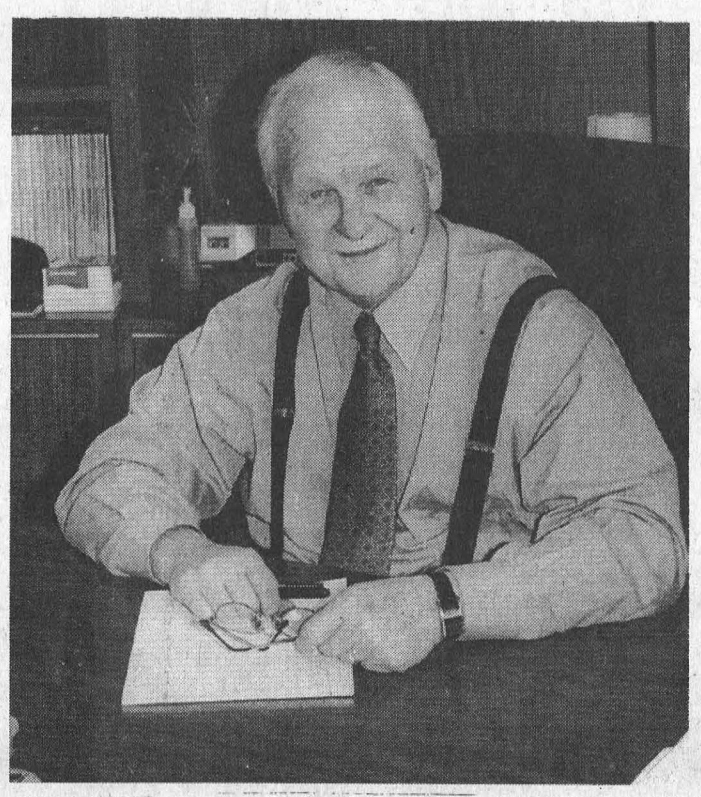
In his time, Bob has also seen changes in technology like the introduction of computer controlled screw machines to make diamond shanks, and induction welding which fuses carbide to shanks.

Three years ago, the company acquired diamond manufacturing of dental burs, which involves plating diamond grit to a steel shank, so the diamond does the cutting not the carbide.

Over the years, the plant's product has increased in excellence, meeting the International Standard of Excellence in June 1995, and a year later the CE certification, satisfying the standards of the European community.

The burs are sold around the world, although the major markets are in the United States, Canada, and Japan, and in recent years, many have been sent to Brazil, Argentina, and South America. The company also has exports in Germany, France and Sweden.

The plant improved conditions for its employees in higher wages, benefits and working hours, although it was never unionized. "The work week went from 45 hours to 40 hours with the same pay," Bob noted.



Bob Leroux

Company sources say Bob Leroux was instrumental in the early development and implementation of Beavers pension plan, and many policies which remain essentially the same today, with minor modifications to reflect the times.

Asked the highlights of his career, Bob replied, "the company did so well in the period I've been here. Part of my goal was to leave it in a much better place than what I came to. We increased the number of employees, our production, and reputation for quality."

Bob said he was also privileged to travel internationally on company business to Japan, Korea, Singapore, Australia, New Zealand and European countries.

"Another thing we tried to do was to make Beavers a little better citizen of the community," he continued. The company has earned a reputation in the community as a supporter of the Upper Canada Playhouse, Heart and Stroke, the Canadian Cancer Society, and other worthy causes.

One of the company's biggest challenges was "replacing retiring managers who grew the company"—managers such as Hugh Jarvis who retired din 1988, Dalton Smith in 1991, and Doug Duncan in 1992. "We had all of that experience to replace in a short period of time. But the young people did a good job," he commented.

Bob predicts continuing progress for the factory, although he will not be present for the third expansion.

"This has been delayed a bit, since a major American customer is under instructions to reduce inventories," he said. "As a result, we're not achieving our planned figures, even though at the end of six months, our net income was seven times the amount as at the end of 1997. Although 1999 was a tough year for us, we did very well." (The company's year goes from October 1 to September 30).

Bob's replacement will be announced shortly, but the position of general manager will not be replaced, he said. The new position will be plant manager, and the plant manager's responsibility is production, while another manager will have responsibility for sales and marketing. There will be changes in reporting relationships, so that instead of all managers reporting to the general manager, some, including plant manager will report to the office of Sybron Dental Specialities Kerr, in California.The parent company, Sybron International has a corporate head office in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

"The changes will pull us more into the corporation, but other than that, there won't be much change," Bob said. "It's just a normal changing of the guard."

"We wouldn't be where we are now without the support of workers on the floor," he stressed. "Everyone remarks on the atmosphere here, how people are committed to their jobs and the quality of the product. We always told them they were the best in the world, and they take pride in keeping that up."

Volunteering experience is changing

CORNWALL—The volunteering experience is changing, and so is the volunteer. A few years ago, the typical volunteer was a middle-aged woman who enjoyed helping others.

Today's volunteer is just as likely to be a student donating time and skills to an organization in the hope that the additional experience will help land a paying job.

The volunteer staff at the Canadian national Institute for the Blind (CNIB) is made up a mix of both, says Kim Umbach, coordinator of district volunteer services. "We do have younger people come to us looking for experience and we appreciate their freshness and enthusiasm. We also have seniors, our valued long-term volunteers, who have been with us for many years and we treasure them for their commitment and dedication."

Volunteering opportunities at the CNIB include: driving clients to appointments, fundraising, visiting clients in their homes and reading their mail to them, supporting rehabilitation, mobility, and orientation staff workers, or serving on a board or committee. Other opportunities associated with the CNIB Library, located in Toronto, include: brailling, working in the recording studio, or creating tactile art, and of course, there will always be envelopes that need stuffing.

People who are considering offering their time and skills to an organization should consider what they hope to get out of it and choose their community work carefully, Umbach says.

It's important for a volunteer to support and share the organization's mission and beliefs. Otherwise, the work is just meaningless tasks. Here at the CNIB, although some volunteer assignments require specialized training, we have others that just require great people skills—being a good listener, supportive, and cheery."

She suggests that younger people looking to add some impressive qualifications to their resumes might get something that prospective employers will value.

"Volunteering experience tells an employer that you have good time management skills, you're reliable and have taken on some good life skills. It could also mean a letter of reference that could help you land your first job," she says.

"You'll also go home at the end of the day knowing that you've made a difference, that your talents and time are appreciated and that your hard work is accomplishing something worthwhile."

About 20,000 Canadians have chosen to volunteer with the CNIB, working out of 60 district offices.

Police File

During the past week, police officers in Dundas County responded to 76 calls for service: Matilda 14, Williamsburg 11, Iroquois 2, Morrisburg 7, Mountain 11, Winchester 19, Chesterville 7.

Williamsburg man in custody

A Williamsburg area man is in custody (Tuesday) following an investigation by members of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry OPP in relation to a threatening incident which occurred in Dundas County on April 19 at 9 p.m. Police were called in regards to threatening telephone calls received at the Winchester Hospital directed towards staff members, from the son of a man who had been a patient at the hospital. The suspect was later located at his home on Whittaker Road in South Dundas Township at approximately 11:10 p.m. and surrended to police.

Charged with uttering threats is Dirk Ostrander, 40, of South Dundas Township. He was held in custody at the Cornwall County jail and was scheduled to appear for a bail hearing at 2 p.m. yesterday. Further information was not available at press time.

Theft from motor vehicles

On April 12, police received a report of a theft, which took place in Chesterville during the night. An entry was made into a truck parked at Lannin's Garage and a Pioneer stereo was stolen from the vehicle.

A second theft occurred in Chesterville where a Kenwood stereo, two Pioneer 100 watt speakers in 6"x9" boxes were taken from a vehicle during the same evening. Also stolen was a pair of prescription sunglasses.

Mischief at Iroquois post office

On April 15, police received a report of damage at the Iroquois post office. Two vehicles owned by the rural route drivers, had sustained scratches as a result of dirt being rubbed on the car. The investigation by Const. S. Roy is continuing.

Tag your dogs

Dog owners are reminded to have current tags for their pets. In recent cases, police have been called to instances where dogs are running loose and have been unable to locate the owners of these animals as the dogs were not properly tagged. As police do not have the facilities or equipment to pick up and/or store stray animals, animal control officers would have to be contacted to pick them up. In many cases animals could quickly be returned to their owners if there was a method of identification being used.

Traffic update

During the past week, police officers in Dundas County investigated eight motor vehicle collisions. Two investigations were conducted in relation to Criminal Code drinking and driving offences, which resulted in four criminal charges, and one charge under the Controlled Drug and Substances Act following a seizure of cannabis resin. Two 90-day administrative driver's licence suspensions were issued in addition to the apprehension of two suspended drivers.

Bicycle safety

Cyclists are reminded that they are responsible to follow the same rules of the road as other drivers. This means that the laws relating to stop signs and signaling the intended movements of your vehicle, also apply to bicycle drivers. Fines for violations of the traffic laws carry the same penalty as if they involved a motor vehicle and the accumulation of demerit points would also apply.

Road Safety Challenge

To kick off Road Safety Week in North Dundas, the OPP will be sponsoring a bicycle safety day at the Winchester Arena on May 20 from 1-4 p.m. The day will include safety presentations, bicycle safety checks, and a bicycle skill test in addition to presentations and displays. HELMETS ARE MANDATORY.

Crime Stoppers

Each week, Crime Stoppers spotlights a crime that has been committed in the area. Crime Stoppers would like to remind you that they need information on all crimes and not just the crime of the week.

Police services are requesting the public's assistance in solving break and enters. Both residential and commercial break-ins are a continuing problem locally. Residential break-ins can be traumatic for the victims with the loss of family heirlooms and the invasion of privacy. Commercial break-ins can be financially devastating for a business.

Persons who buy stolen property should remember that possession of stolen property carries the same penalty as theft.

If you have information on break and enters, or any other crime, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000—if your information leads to an arrest.

Call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-265-TIPS. It's your program, and it works. Your anonymity is guaranteed.

Wild animal identifcation

Kevin Wallace, with the Museum of Nature, gave a popular presentation for Envirothon at the Upper Canada Bird Sanctuary. He is holding a white tail deer skull, and brought with him wolf, fisher and mink skulls, a coyote skin from Saskatchewan, feathers and claws of different birds and a few paws from various species.

Students "reach for the top"

MORRISBURG—Last Wednesday, Envirothon, an event at the Upper Canada Migratory Bird Sanctuary was an excellent learning opportunity for students interested in wildlife and environmental subjects.

Fifty students from eight area schools learned information on environmental topics, ranging from "Why Should We Learn About Animals"(wildlife identification) presented by Kevin Wallace of Osgoode, who is with the Museum of Nature, to Animal Adaptations by Joanne Stewart, a Brockville biologist.

Other workshops were on Natural Vegetation Succession, presented by Elaine Kennedy, a volunteer from St. Andrews West; Predator-Prey Relationships, by Christy Curley, a Ministry of Natural Resources biologist; Rare, Threatened and Endangered Species by Shaun Thompson, district ecologist; and Habitat Loss, by Dr. Brian Hickey, Cornwall biologist.

"These were all training workshops in preparation for an 'environmental reach for the top'", said Jim Hendry, Resource Stewardship Coordinator for S.D. & G. with MNR.

The 'reach for the top' quiz will take place during the regional competition April 28 at the McKinnon Forestry Center south of Apple Hill. One winning team will proceed to the provincial competition held May 6 and 7 at Dorset, west of Algonquin Park.

From there, one winning team from the provincials will go on to compete in international competition on July 27 to August 3 at Humbolt, California.

Sponsors of Envirothon are Domtar Inc., Ministry of Natural Resources Stewardship for S.D. & G., South Nation Conservation, and the St. Lawrence River Institute of Environmental Studies.

Announcement pending on moving land records

MORRISBURG—Dundas County original land records dating from 1867 to 1955 will have a new home.

The records are currently stored at the Dundas County Land Registry Office on Fifth Street. Both the United Counties Library and the St. Lawrence Branch of the United Empire Loyalists applied for custodianship of the records to the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations, through APOLROD (Association for the Preservation of Ontario Land Registry Documents). The UEL proposes storing records at The Loyalist Resource Center on Augusta Street and the Counties Library suggest Morrisburg Public Library as a location to keep the documents.

Last March, South Dundas Council passed a resolution supporting the St. Lawrence Branch's request. Council resolved records should be transferred to a museum in South Dundas, if a museum is established in the Township.

A meeting is to be held next week Sandra Shouldice, president of the St. Lawrence Branch UEL, Lynne Cook, genealogist and past president with the St. Lawrence Branch, United Counties librarian and Land Register for Stormont Dundas Louis Arki to discuss the issue.

Arki said a decision will account for input from both parties, and the criteria set by APOLROD including permanence of the organization, and accessibility to the public. An announcement from the Ministry is pending.

"We want to accommodate the wishes of all parties, and make access better for historical groups," said Arki.

In 1997, the Ontario Government announced its intention to destroy 1869-1955 land records, since its registry offices do not have the space to store the growing pile of documents. However, historical groups objected and APOLROD was formed to preserve the records. Pre-confederation records are preserved in the Ontario Archives, while documents since then have been copied into copy books and are on microfilm.

Many documents are now electronically registered. Land record registration is in the process of transformation to electronic registration, which will eventually replace paper registration in real estate transactions. Such transactions will also be on microfilm.

Dundas County Food Bank

Driving for food items

MORRISBURG—There will be a food drive on Saturday, May 8, for the Dundas County Food Bank, where non perishable food items will be collected.

Pasta, pasta sauce, canned pasta, juices, peanut butter, cereals, rice, crackers, canned goods such as tomatoes, vegetables and fruit, are on the list of much-needed items.

This food drive will be held in the Morrisburg Plaza near the Valu-Mart grocery store, and at the Iroquois Village Plaza between 9 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Cash donations are also needed, and greatly appreciated.

It is an event jointly sponsored by Morrisburg and District Lions Club, the Iróquois-Matilda Lions Club, Morrisburg Valu-Mart, the Morrisburg Leader, the Iroquois Chieftain, Harland Veinotte Transport Ltd., Canada Post, and the Apple Tree Ministry.

Following the drive, there will be a musical ensemble at the St. James Anglican Church at 7 p.m. Join "Music from Morrisburg" as they raise funds for the Dundas County Food Bank. The music will be a mixture of local talent with some audience participation.

A free will offering of money or nonperishable food items will be received. Refreshments will be served.

'Active Schools' stem youth health crisis

The Ontario Physical and Health Education Association with the support of the Government of Ontario has launched a sweeping new province-wide initiative called Active Schools to combat dangerous levels of physical inactivity in students from JK to Grade 12. The unique initiative has been developed to create more opportunities for students to be active by involving school communities as equal partners in the creation and or delivery of school-based activity programs.

"Physical inactivity among Ontario students has reached epidemic levels, worsened by an era of budget and program cuts to education," cautions Dr. Andrew Pipe, MD, Associate Professor, Ottawa Heart Institute and spokesperson for the Active Schools initiative. "Ontario communities must therefore play a much larger role in providing students with more opportunities to develop a positive attitude toward active living early in life, or this province will face serious health, social and economic issues down the road."

Active Schools' novel approach begins with the conviction that getting students active is more than a school issue. Instead, Active Schools advocates the cooperation of schools, parents, public health professionals, community recreation groups and business partners to provide students with more frequent opportunities to benefit from school-based physical activity.

"Our knowledge of the benefits of physical activity in youth- - ranging from reduced depression and anxiety to enhanced memory and problem-solving skills to improved attitude, discipline and creativity - - compels us to find more effective ways of delivering these advantages to our student populations," says Dr. Pipe.

The Active Schools initiative will help Ontario's school communities adopt, and implement school-based physical activity programs. Teachers will be provided with professional development opportunities to help implement Ontario's new Health and Physical Education curriculum. Teachers will also have access to a newly-developed central inventory of quality programs and resources. Active Schools will also implement a campaign to increase awareness among school communities of the issues and will ensure that opportunities offered through the school curriculum are supplemented with an adequate range of co-curricular activities including intramurals, school sport, and activity-based clubs. Finally, Active Schools will help coordinate the implementation of existing physical activity programs.

"It has become clear that Ontario schools need support in providing our students with adequate op0opportunities to build a foundation for active, healthy living," explains Dr. Pipe, "Active Schools - - through programs like Royal Bank Activ8, among others- - is designed to raise the alarm about this situation, and to provide tangible support to help school communities become part of the solution."

This Week In Morrisburg's History

Compiled from The Leader's fyles by Laurie Day

In a very quiet and informal manner, Reeve Bill Dillabough signed a document Friday afternoon which had great significance. The document was the final contract between the Village of Morrisburg and Triple B Structures and Dillabough's signature marked the official launching of the municipality's P.R.I.D.E. project. The $625,000 project consisted of rebuilding the canopy of the village's shopping centre, as well as various improvements to sidewalks, lighting and sinage through the downtown core.

The St. Lawrence Parks Commission was going all out to welcome Premier David Peterson on his visit to Upper Canada Village. Commissioner and chairman of the Premier's visit to the Parks, George Assaly, said Cornwall MPP John Cleary would welcome the Premier to the village around 2:15 p.m. He would meet Reeve Bill Dillabough of Morrisburg, members of the commission, and staff dressed in period costume. It was the intent to the show the Premier what the area was doing for tourism.

When residents of Lunenburg finally obtain their new water system, they may be digging a little deeper into their pockets to cover increased engineering fees. That was the lead of a story in the April 19 issue of The Leader, which fell under the headline: Osnabruck Twp. approves increased water costs. The villagers were have trouble with the water quality of their wells for several years, and high bacterial counts were confirmed by a study by the Eastern Ontario Health Unit. Malfunctioning sewage systems in the village created a public health hazard.

Pictured on the front pate of the April 18 issue of The Leader was the new Legion building which was officially opened April 14. The $250,000 building was partially paid for by a $127,623 Wintario Grant as well as Canada Works and New Horizon grants totalling about $50,000. The building's corner stone was placed at the opening festivities by Legion president Lorne Brown, and treasurer John Rice.

Members of the South Williamsburg Township Recreation Association were making plans to construct a community hall on their property in Riverside Heights. Located just south of the ball diamond, the property was the site of a dilapidated one-room school house which was long past renovations.

A tragic accident in Lisbon, New York, claimed the lives of Ronald Barry Beckstead and David Allen Bouck of Williamsburg.

The new Pinkus Plaza, to be located east of the Morrisburg shopping centre, was under way.

The Morrisburg Junior B Lions made history even before their season ended. In defeating the Smiths Falls Settlers for the Southern Division Championship of the ODJBHL, they were the first Morrisburg team and the first team in the Southern Division to qualify for the league championship on four consecutive occasions. The Lions were to open in the final series against the Ottawa South Canadians at the Canterbury Arena. The Lions had claimed their first Citizen Shield four years earlier when they defeated the Hawkesbury Hawks. The next year, they lost in the finals to the Renfrew Lions, but rebounded in 1977-78 with a championship against the Richmond Royals. The six game against Smiths Falls was played in Kempvtille, the Lions claiming the southern championship with a 6-3 victory in overtime. Bob McNairn, Jim Whelan and Dave Myers did the damage in overtime for the upset.

The April 18 issue of The Leader reported that Fred A. Hill had been elected president of the Morrisburg Curling Club. Others elected to office were John Allison, secretary, and M.J. Sulphur, treasurer.Elected president of the ladies' section was Joan Farlinger.

At Brinston's Allied Food Market, fresh asparagus was 49 cents a pound, and prime rib roasts were 79 cents a pound.

R.C. Earle, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. Earle, and H.T.B. Dolphin, son of Mr. and Mrs. B.H. Dolphin, both of Morrisburg, received Canada Council doctoral fellowships in the value of $3,000 to assist them in their final stage of training for a career in research or university teaching in the sciences and humanities.

Mrs. J.G. Woods was elected president of the Williamsburg Women's Institute.

The April 22 issue of The Leader reported J. Miles Whitteker had resigned his position as secretary-treasurer of the Morrisburg Board of Education after serving for more than 30 years in that capacity. Mr. M.A. Campbell was engaged to fill the position until th next annual meeting.

Cedric Hardwicke and Gale Storm were starring in Tom Brown's School Days at the Cameo Theatre.

Mrs. Hubert Casselman was the elected president of the Morrisburg Women's Institute.

Pineapples were 37 cents each and lard, 15 cents a pound at the Modern Market.

It's a good-news/bad-news sort of thing. Bad news...the men's fastball league at Riverside Heights has folded due to lack of interest. Good news...there is a new ladies' three-pitch league in Williamsburg and Brinston. The two have joined forces where five teams in total will compete on Wed-nesday and Thursday nights. There may still be some openings, and you can call Dianne Lapier at 535-2264 or Janice Gilmour at 654-4929 for more information.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor - Most caring people at one time or another become volunteers in the community. Perhaps coaching a minor sports team, leading local Scouts or Guides, as a member of a service club, directing a board in their Church, etc., often with little acknowledgement and less thanks, but as concerned volunteers accolades are unimportant.

Having said that, I think we should acknowledge a highly skilled, trained, and responsible group often involved in life and death situations: the Morrisburg Volunteer Fire Department.

Although on call all day, every day, we only occasionally see them (during our working hours) racing to an emergency, and yet unfortunately, seldom think twice of it.

Last Wednesday, I became aware of a fire call as most of us were relaxing with lunch at 12:15 noon. Within moments Mike Van Allen, with green lights flashing, led the activity at the local fire hall. Within an incredible 1:45 the fire truck was leaving the hall, followed only 40 seconds later by the yellow Emergency van. A total of eight local men were in the two vehicles, two be joined later by an additional three volunteers.

On this occasion, they assisted the driver of an overturned tractor trailer on the 401 just west of the County Rd. 31 overpass, apparently in less than five minutes of receiving the original emergency call. I can't imagine a full-time fire fighting force in a city responding quicker or more professionally.

This local force has evolved through decades under the leadership of Herbie Clark, Gord Servage, Les Bilmer, Art Carkner and Lee Hess, and the current chief Robert Hamilton to become a group of volunteers extraordinaire.

Just thought we should say "thanks".

Regards,
JACK NOTMAN Jr.

Dear Editor—The following is for public awareness, as in the past I have expressed my views on different subjects. This one is about our drinking water coming out of our faucets. It's unfit to drink or cook with. Even if you run it through an advertised filter, it does not work.

A year ago I purchased a water cooler and I have since enjoyed excellent coffee and vegetables tasted great. I now use only distilled water.

Last week I ran out and used tap water for only one day and having gone through surgery which cut my immune system, I got sick from using the local water.

I strongly urge your readers to make a simple test. Take a clear glass and put one ounce of water in it and let it evaporate. You will see the junk your town can't take out. By the way ask them about the zebra mussel problems they are having in the water intakes. As a former diver I know of the damages they can and do cause to your health.

Dear Editor - We are looking for a news item when a Colonial's bus hit the back of a truck and went into the river (1950s or 1960s). We are also looking for any retired Colonial drivers who might like to share their experiences to put in an upcoming Y2 book. We are also looking for Colonial memorabilia—schedules, ads or anything else that we could get a copy of and put in the book. Pictures of busses, ect.

Please mail copies of your Colonial Coach information/ memorabilia to: Lakefield Heritage, PO Box 795 Lakefield, Ont., KOL 2HO.

Thank you,

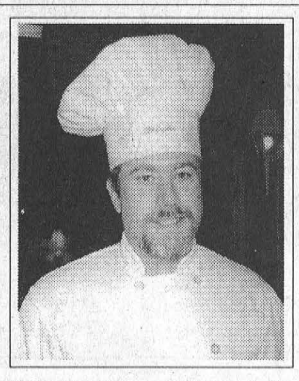
Ask the Chef



Chef Gilles Gagnier,
McIntosh Country Inn,
Morrisburg, ON

Cooking is a form of art, and like any art form it requires a level of commitment, and a level of passion in order for the artist to excel. A good friend of mine once gave me a list of lessons on life called "Instructions for Life" which consists of 39 lessons on how to live a happier, fuller life. As compelling as this list is, I was most impressed with instruction #39 which reads: "Approach love and cooking with reckless abandon."

This is a truth which is often overlooked, but a lesson that once learned will undoubtedly prove helpful. In order to produce fine foods, you must make use of all of your senses. For example, you must feel the consistency and the texture with your hands in order to make a good pastry dough. The best cooks use intuition, putting years of practice and training, not to mention heart and soul into everything they cook. It is this passion, driven by reckless abandon, that separates the great from the good in the world of culinary arts. Today's recipe comes from a friend and co-worker here at the McIntosh Country inn, Mark Currier.

ORANGE BALSAMIC GLAZED CHICKEN

Ingredients
1 cup balsamic vinegar
1 cup good quality orange juice
1 tsp fresh ginger
1 tsp fresh garlic
2/3 cup brown sugar
1 Tbsp teriyaki
salt and pepper to taste

Method
Combine all ingredients in a small saucepan, bring to boil, then allow to reduce until thick enough to coat the back of a spoon.
Strain sauce through cheesecloth or a fine sieve.
Cook chicken breasts on the BBQ.
Cook rice pilaf as per your favourite recipe.
Serve grilled chicken over rice pilaf and fresh vegetables.
Pour sauce over chicken breasts and serve immediately.
Bon Appetit!

This sauce was created by one of my cooks at the McIntosh Country Inn and is a perfect example of the quality of food you can produce by experimentation, provided you understand the fundamentals of cooking.

If you have a recipe for "Ask The Chef" fax, e-mail or write: Chef Gilles, McIntosh Country Inn, P.O. Box 1140, Morrisburg, ON, KOC 1XO. Fax: (613) 543-3160, or e-mail at mcintosh@mcintosh-inn.on.ca.

Put your trust in Jesus Christ

Have you been noticing what keeps appearing in the news in recent days? Besides the usual reports of crime, and the turmoil in Kosovo, something else is getting lots of attention. An election is in the works. The news is full of politicians reminding us of their past accomplishments, while those who are hoping to get elected make all sorts of claims and promises to fix all the ills of society. It still amazes me every time I hear these political claims because history has proven that no politician can solve the problems society faces.

From A Biblical Perspective

Rev. Duncan Perry

Well, I certainly don't want to come across as being negative. I believe in our system of government. It's not perfect, but it's better than most. I also believe there are some good men and women doing the very best they can to serve those who have elected them.

It's not easy serving the public, those who think it is, should try it some time.

There are so many different people with so many different opinions, that no matter what a person does not everyone is going to be pleased with that decision.

From a biblical perspective, we're told in the Book of Romans, chapter 13, verses 1 and 2, that "everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority, except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God. Consequently, he who rebels against the authority will bring judgment on themselves." God has ordained government, those who are in place, to rule over the affairs of mankind for the good of all.

As Christians then, we have a responsibility to pray for these elected officials. They need God's wisdom to effectively and properly do the work they have taken on. There is something else we need to understand, as people these men and women who serve us as elected officials are human. They are just like you and me.

They don't have all the answers to the many difficulties that we all face. A politician is not God. Only God can live up to the expectation of someone being able to solve all of life's problems.

Psalm 20:7 has some words for us to consider that will put things into perspective for us.

It says "some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we will trust in the name of The Lord Our God."

We could put it this way: Some trust in Queens Park, some trust in Parliament Hill, but if we are wise, we will trust in the name of The Lord.

You see folks, the reality is this: Politicians, while they try their best to be good public servants, cannot solve the problems that mankind faces today, because the large majority of our problems stem from man's disobedience to God's laws. The solution therefore, cannot be found in man. The solution is found when man repents of his rebellion against God. God then forgives, on the merit of the sacrifice of His Son on Calvary. God gave His Son to be our problem solver. A new name, a new face, new promises are all unlikely to make much difference. Any difference will only be short term, but Jesus, if we trust Him, will not only solve our problems on a short term basis, but He will also give us eternal life.

By all means, vote in the upcoming election, pray for the one you vote for, and for all who are elected.

But, put your trust in Jesus Christ. He is the one who never fails, never changes and never goes back on His promises.

If I may be of any help in your making a choice to follow Jesus, please call me at 543-2681.

This Week In Morrisburg's History

It was reported in the April 21 issue of The Leader that Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Casselman of Morewood were celebrating their 59th wedding anniversary.

The Religious Education Council of Dundas County announced it would be holding boys' and girls' camps at Broder Island again this coming summer.

Irene Laurin of Morrisburg was among the graduates of the Hotel Dieu Hospital Training School for Nurses. She was presented with the gold medal awarded by Rev. Mother Chisholm of the Religious Hospitallers of St. Joseph, for the highest scholastic standing during the three-year training period.

Consumers were being encouraged to use more electricity in their homes as it was more economical, safer and much better. Modern electric ranges were said not only to have taken the guesswork out of cooking but they made cooking a pleasure and were much cleaner.

At Barkley's Meat Market, front quarter lamb was 17 cents a pound, and mixed nuts were 10 cents a pound.

The April 18 issue of The Leader reported Garnet M. Whitney, only son of the late Sire James Pliny Whitney, former Premier of Ontario, had died unexpectedly. Born in Morrisburg, he was only 52 years of age. After his early schooling in Morrisburg, he entered a financial career with the Molsons Bank.

A charter was granted under the name of Morrisburg Arena Limited with the object of building an up-to-date covered rink for Morrisburg.

Fetterly's Limited had some good used cars selling at exceptional prices, including a 1928 Pontiac Imperial for $925.

Runaway horses injure movie extras

MORRISBURG—Two extras working on the "Crossings" film at Upper Canada Village Monday had minor injuries as a result of an accident with runaway horses.

The accident occurrred at approximately 2 p.m. when two horses pulling a cart were startled and bolted across the hill behind the Grist Mill, heading towards the fence at the west side.

One extra fell off the cart, receiving bruises, while another who was one of a crowd at the fence was hurt while going over the west fence, in an attempt to avoid the runaway animals.

The horses took off to the east side of the pasture, where they were stopped by the fence, and were soon brought under control. By this time, everyone who was on the set, including over 200 extras, actors and film crew had left the area, some jumping over the fence. As soon as the horses were calmed, the film crew returned to work, although some admitted they were rattled by the experience.

Paramedics hired by A & E Productions who were on standby in the parking lot, attended to the extra who was hurt going over the fence. A local ambulance then took him to hospital for treatment.

On Tuesday, Gabrielle Thomas, a Marketing and Communications official with the St. Lawrence Parks Commisison, said "he's doing fine. He didn't break anything. It looked really bad, but it was a soft tissue injury. People who saw him in the hospital said he was up and ready to go."

"Everyone breathed a big sigh of relief that he wasn't badly hurt," Thomas said.

Marlea Willis, director of public affairs with A & E, said the flim company always has paramedics on site, to be ready for such situations.

The site at Upper Canada Village is being rented for the movie production, and the horses were not Village horses. Thomas said the horses were brought in by "The Wrangler", an outfit which supplies horses for movies. There are approximately 20 horses on site, specifically brought in for the movie.

Morrisburg Craft Show

$1M to be used to hire nurses

CORNWALL—S.D.&G. and East Grenville MPP Noble Villeneuve announced that three local hospitals will receive more than one million dollars in new funding this year to be specifically used for hiring more nurses. THis announcement is part of the government's $375 million plan to hire 12,000 new nurses by the end of the year 2000.

"Nurses are working hard on the front lines of our health system, and our government recognizes the need for more nurses in our hospitals," said Villeneuve. "The new funding will mean more nurses are there to deliver high quality patient care to the residents of our community."

Last month, in response to the recommendations of the government's Nursing Task Force, Premier Harris announced a special $130 million nursing fund to hire up to 3,300 nurses in hospitals. The following hospitals will receive funding to be used specifically for new nurses. Cornwall General -- $455,913, Hotel Dieu - $337,372, and Winchester $230,410.

To receive the nursing funding, the hospitals must submit a nursing plan to the Ministry of Health outlining the steps that will be taken to increase the level of nursing care.

"Investing in nurses means investing in quality care for patients," said Health Minister Elizabeth Witmer. "By implementing the recommendations of the Nursing Task Force, we are adding more nurses to the system, and improving access to care for patients."

The funding announced will be provided to the hospitals upon completion of their nursing plan. In addition to last month's announcement by the government of new base funding for hospitals, Hotel Dieu will receive approximately $1.2 million in additional operating funds this year.

Don't make the mistake of thinking a will is not a priority

Your Will, Your Way

Did you know that many Canadians mistakenly believe that having a will is not a priority? Nothing could be further from the truth. In fact, a will is probably the most important document you will ever write.

If you die without a will, the province in which you live will decide how to distribute your estate. And if you have children who are minors, the provincial government (through the Public Trustee) will decide who will raise and care for them. Children might be taken into public custody until guardians are identified.

The provincial government has its own common and impersonal formulas for the distribution of your estate. Some money or assets may end up going to places and persons you may have not intended.

For example, under these laws, each child would receive a proportion of the Estate created by a pre-established formula. So a son or daughter who was already well-established, completed university and had their own home and a secure income, might end up receiving the same amount as another child with very different needs.

As well, without a will there could be no special gifts to your lifelong friend, or a bequest to your favourite community or non-profit organization such as a health charity or a group like Greenpeace. In sum, no concerns for your thoughts on the size of any bequests to anyone would be addressed without a proper will.

Avoid Family Disputes

Having a proper will also goes a long way to preventing family tiffs. A current study showed that one in five Canadians has experienced family disputes over inheritances.

It is likely many of these involved circumstances where there was no will. With a properly-written will the guesswork is eliminated, and the family is clear on your intentions. The emotional turmoil which is natural at such a time can be greatly reduced by having made your wishes clear in a written will.

Another compelling reason to have a will is to save money. Many people mistakenly think their estates are too small to warrant having a will, but the contrary is true.

The smaller the estate, the greater the need to have things settled quickly. Without a will, a person's affairs are managed by provincial authorities, who often have hundreds of files to attend to, which could cause unnecessary delays and extra costs.

There are many reasons why people never get around to writing a will, including the belief that it is costly -- a common misconception, and it doesn't have to be.

For a free copy of our booklet "Questions & Answers About Wills", which looks at these and other questions including how to save money when you visit a lawyer to make your will, please write: Greenpeace, 1726 Commercial Drive, Suite 200, Vancouver, B.C. V5N 4A3.

ONA skeptical about provincial funding announcement

MPP Noble Villeneuve must ensure that funding announced today for Cornwall's two hospitals go immediately to nursing services, says the Ontario Nurses' Association.

"It's hard for us not to be skeptical about this latest funding announcement, when we have seen little evidence for the Harris government living up to its promises about nursing jobs," said Barb Wahl, RN, President of the 45,000-member ONA. "Certainly our concerns went t unheard when we asked the provincial government to keep nurses delivering home care in our communities."

ONA nurses who worked for the Eastern Counties branch of the VON in Cornwall were locked out for months in one of four labour disputes with VON in eastern Ontario. The VON discontinued home visiting nursing services at three eastern Ontario branches.

"We appreciate that money is being slated for nursing jobs in Cornwall, but nurses have a hard time believing yet one more promise to restore the nursing ranks, decimated because of the Harris government's restructuring policies. We need clear timelines on when this will happen."

ONA has called for the immediate implementation of the provincial Nursing Task Force Report, which recommended the creation of 10,000 nursing jobs to bring Ontario to the national average of nurses per capita. Ontario nurses say there has been no improvement fof patient care on the front line since that report was issued.

"The Harris government must go beyond the announcements it has been making in this pre-election period, if it wants to restore the public and nurses' confidence in Ontario's health care system," said Wahl.

"Mike Harris must prove to the people of Ontario his government is taking specific action to bring back thousands of nurses who have downsized, left the profession or left the province to practice nursing elsewhere, and Noble Villeneuve must do more for the nurses in this community than make good news announcements that have no substance."

R-O, CCVS outstanding in weekend drama festival

INGLESIDE—Rothwell Osnabruck School and Cornwall Collegiate Vocational School were two schools named "Outstanding Productions" at the Sears Seaway District Drama Festival in Cornwall over the weekend.

The winning play presented by Rothwell Osnabruck was ":Stuff 'n Nonsense", and the winning play presented by CCVS was "Women and Wallace". Other schools competing included Saint Lawrence High School, St. Joseph's Secondary School, Rockland District High School, and Glengarry District High School.

As well as the Outstanding Production Award, Rothwell Osnabruck students netted individual awards, with two outstanding performance awards given to Michelle Meilleur, and Kyle Beaudette. Rothwell Osnabruck also won awards for the chorus ' ensemble work, for lighting and design, set and costumes. The adjudicator was Doug Hill, a Cornwall individual involved with drama and English.

"We're very pleased," said RO English teacher Clive Marin, who directed "Stuff 'n Nonsense". Marin noted this is the second year in a row Rothwell Osnabruck has done well in the festival. Last year, the school went on to compete in Peterborough.

Both Rothwell Osnabruck and CCVS will now compete in the regional competition in Perth on April 30 and May 1. Winners from the regional festival proceed to Toronto where the nine best plays in the province will be presented.

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION
Branch #48
MORRISBURG, ONTARIO

NEWSLETTER

First things First. On behalf of the Executive and members of the Branch I would like to thank the Ladies Auxiliary for their very generous donation towards the taxes.

As this is the year of the elderly in Ontario, the S.D.&G. Senior Games are beginning their playoff schedule. The first round of the cribbage tournament will be held at the Iroquois Legion on April 28th with a 2nd chance at Cornwall Legion on May 7th and the finals at the Morrisburg Legion on May 14th. Start time for the cribbage tournaments is 1:30 p.m. The dart playoffs will be held at Iroquois Legion on April 30th and at Cornwall Legion on May 13th and the finals at Morrisburg Legion on May 21st. All dart games will begin at 1:00 p.m. The euchre playoffs will be held at Morrisburg Legion on May 5th, Long Sault Legion on May 18th and the finals at Cornwall Legion on May 27th. All euchre games will begin at 1:00 p.m. Participants can take part in both locations for the qualifying rounds and the top six teams will advance to the finals. There will be a copy of the schedule available on the Legion bulletin board.

Also on the schedule for everyone is a euchre tournament to be held at the Branch on Wednesday, April 28th beginning at 7:00 p.m. All money taken in is returned as prizes. Our final game of the Sunday winter sports program will be a euchre tournament on Sunday, April 25th and don't forget our steak barbecue on Friday, April 30th beginning at 5 p.m.

We are looking for 10 trivia players to take part in the contest to be held at the Legion on Friday, April 30th beginning at 7 p.m. The cost to each player will be $8.00. If interested contact Don Ferguson, our membership chairman.

Winners of the cribbage tournament held on the April 11th were 1st Keith Johnson, 2nd Bob Henophy, 3rd Paul Morrow, 4th Muriel Benson. Paul Morrow and Paul Claxton split the skunk money from the jackpot.

The Royal Canadian Legion is an important part of the community and it sponsors many projects as you can see by the list of Branches hosting events for the Ontario Seniors Games. The Legion sponsored Seniors Club is open to all residents of Morrisburg and area over 55, and we meet for cards and fellowship every Thursday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. Why not drop by and see what goes on. Remember . . . nothing ventured, nothing gained.

Coming Events

- Every Thursday night: Bingo, James Fraser Hall, 7:30 p.m.
- Sunday, April 25th, Euchre Tournament, 1:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, April 28th, Euchre Tournament, 7:00 p.m.
- Friday, April 30th, Steak Bar-B-Q and Entertainment in the Lounge beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Locals links open for another golf season

by Laurie Day
Leader staff

WILLIAMSBURG—It's time to dust off the clubs, and shine up those irons, as local golfers have been hitting the links in full swing.

This week saw the opening of three local golf courses with the greens and fairways in great shape all around.

Two others have been opened for a week or more, and yet another is slated to open in a few weeks.

Back at Williamsburg, Cedar Glen has had over 100 golfers on the course since their opening last Thursday.

"The course is in great shape," said Mike Guy, who manages the pro shop and tournaments at the Glen. "I'd say it's in the best shape it's ever been this early in the season."

Guy says they will have a temporary green for hole number six to give the winter kill a time to green up. Other than that, he says four greens are in great shape, and the other four are quite good.

Men's night begins Thursday, and the opening day tournament will be held May 1.

Green fees are $14 for nine holes, weekends included.

The new nine is scheduled for a mid-July opening, pending weather conditions of course.

For a tee time, call 535-2333.

Iroquois Golf Course

The golfers have hit the Iroquois links in droves as well since opening on April 16.

Approximately 100 have also taken advantage of great weather on the weekend to get in a few rounds.

Green fees here are $15 for nine holes, and $24 for 18 through the week, and on weekends or holidays, the price is $17 for nine, or $28 for 18.

To book your time slot, call 652-4367.

Morrisburg Golf Club

Morrisburg has been opened since April 10, they have been very busy says Linda Cummins.

"Mother Nature has been good to us," she says.

Greenskeeper Russell Cameron is busy fertilizing the course (as of Monday), and Tony Cummins says the course is in great shape.

Green fees at the Morrisburg course are $11 for nine holes through the week, and $17 for 18 holes, and on weekends the price is $13 and $19.

Call 543-2382 to book your tee time at the Morrisburg Club.

Prescott Golf Club

Cal Polite, the manager at the Prescott Golf Club, says the course is in exceptional shape. They've been opened since April 12, and have been very busy.

The greens are great, as is the rest of the course, he says.

"Membership is up this year again, and it looks like it's going to be another great season," says Polite. "We've had loads of people in since we opened."

The key to their surge in membership? "A great product, and we advertise it well," he says.

Green fees are the same as last year: $25 during the week for 18 holes, and $30 on the weekends.

For information, or to book a tee time, call the club house at 925-3908.

Cloverdale Links Course

Located north of Winchester on County Rd. 31, the Cloverdale Links have been opened since April 15.

There are lots of deals at this "Save As You Play" course (no memberships here), including two-for-one deals on Mondays before 11 a.m., and Tuesdays for seniors only.

Seniors and juniors can play for $14 (nine holes) and $22 (18 holes) from Monday to Thursday, and League night is offered on Wednesdays after 4 p.m. This includes nine holes of golf, half a power cart, and a meal for $21 plus GST.

This is the second year that the new nine holes have been opened at the Cloverdale Links, and only the ninth year for the front nine.

Green fees are $15 and $24 through the week, and $16 and $25 on weekends and holidays.

For more information on the "Save As You Play" card, or to book a tee time, please call the club house at 774-0076.

Upper Canada Golf Course

The Upper Canada Golf Course is slated to open on May 1, however there wasn't a lot of information available.

The St. Lawrence Parks Commission will be releasing more information a week prior to the course's opening.

For a tee time after May 1, please call the club house at 543-2003.

ODMHA champions

The Rideau St. Lawrence Minor Peewee Kings were the league champs for the second year in a row. Peewee Kings claim second pennant

The Rideau-St. Lawrence Minor Peewee AA Kings claimed the ODMHA League Championship for the second year in a row with an impressive record of 26 wins, seven losses and three ties.

In playoff action, they recorded six wins, two losses and a pair of ties.

If the Kings repeat as the league champions next season, they will compete in the Provincial Championship in Thunder Bay.

Their goal is to represent the district at the Quebec City International Tournament next February.

During the 1998-1999 campaign, the Kings picked up an "AAA" tournament championship, and they represented the ODMHA at the Silver Stick "AAA" Championships in Toronto. This was a competition for the top 16 Minor Peewee teams to take part, and was by 'invitation only' for the branch champions across North America. Other teams included Toronto, Buffalo, Detroit, Ottawa, Cleveland, London, Windsor and Boston.

The Kings play in the District 1 zone with players from Brockville, Winchester, Prescott, Smiths Falls, Kemptville, and two lads from Morrisburg, Cody Casselman and Corey Cassell.

They are coached by Dave McFadden of Kemptville, and is assisted by Geoff Hare, a former Morrisburg Junior B Lions.

Kevin Casselman of Morrisburg helps out in the managerial position, while other staff members include assistant Brian Brynes, and trainer Norm Baribeau, both of Brockville.

Tight race in Riverside darts playoffs

RIVERSIDE HTS.—Please Help Us and the Unnamed Bandits are leading their respective divisions after two weeks of mixed dart league playoff action here.

In the A division, Please Help Us was propelled to eight points thanks mostly to Bill Devaul with four outs and highs of 140, 125, 100x6. Brenda Sypes took two games, while Al Loynachan and Eva McCooeye had one each.

The Flight Liners won eight games with Phil Jamieson taking five games and shooting two 100s. Liz Gummeson had two outs, and Cecil Tyo took one.

The In and Outs won 10 games and are presently in a tie for first place with 16 points total. Bernie Montroy (125, 101, 100x4) had six outs, Ivan Shearer (140, 100x2) two, and Carol Birch and Melba Chater had one each.

Woops took seven games with Bryan Elliott winning five. Both Diane Tyo (127) and Bev Brown had one each. Judy Hunter tossed two 100s.

Darren Tyo (100) won three, Elaine Baker two, and Tammy Chater (105) had one as the Geese and Ganders ended with six outs.

The LEEE's won five on three from Linda Birch (100), and one each from Edna Barkley (125) and Ernie Duval (121).

The Milk Maids had six outs with two each from Ernie Beckstead (100), Floyd Elliott (121) and Betty Gillard.

Gerry Sypes shot two outs and highs of 140, 134, 120 as the Perverts ended with three points. Sherry Wereley had the single win, while highs were shot by Ken Baker with a 123 and Denzil Tousant with a 100.

The Killer Cats ended with three outs on two from Lawrence Hunter (140, 100) and one from Brent McCooeye.

B division

The Unnamed Bandits picked up 10 points to lead the B division standings with 17 points. Jim Scott (140x2, 100x2) had six outs, John Hitsman (132) three and Dalton Hart had one. Mary Casselman shot a 114 high.

The Dart Masters are in second place after winning seven games. Frank Marriner had four outs and highs of 121, 100x4, 109 finish, while Roger Trudeau shot two outs. Elizabeth Markell had one out as well.

Quiet Yet Deadly picked up eight points and moved into third place as Roy Gummeson (121, 117) had four outs. Both Diane Trudeau and Diane Baker had two outs each.

David Wells shot four outs and highs of 140, 102, 100x4 as the Wild Turkeys won six games. Both Pat Hart and Dale Baker had one game each.

Forever Hoping won five games with George Baker (100) and Darwin Markell (100) taking two games each. Vicki Marriner (125) had one.

MASH picked up six points with Guy Hart (103) taking three outs, Roger Markell two and Lisa Arthurs had one.

The Redneck Roadies won five games led by Keith Johnston with three outs and a 100 high. Ron Bradford (121, 100x3) had the other two, and Karen Hart shot a 106 high.

Webege picked up three points, with two from Elvis Tyo (171) and one from Wayne Hunter (100x3).

Mike Osborne and Jean DeJong had the only outs for J.M. & Company.

Minor Hockey Meltdown

Apologies are extended to a player on the Peewee B Lions, Chris Osler, who was named Chris Cullen in last week's issue of The Leader. Chris was the big winner of the team's Most Improved Player award at the minor hockey banquet, and was presented with an ESSO Medallion for his prowess in the sport this season.

The Leader regrets the error.

Laurie Day

Saturday, I had a chance to see my dear friend Max. She has recently moved to Carleton Place, and although it's only 1:20 to her place from mine, I hadn't yet taken the time to go visit her, Andy, Matt, Jake, Peter, and Leah.

Jacob was having a birthday/pool party (9) and Maxine had suggested I join the fun.

It wasn't to start until 3 p.m., but I wasn't exactly sure how long it would take to get there. Max had asked me to come for lunch, but I insisted that I didn't want to impose. After all, she had enough to think about.

Mandy and I trekked out about 9:45 and made it there in record time. It was 11-oh-something when I sat outside her house. Dilemma. Should I call, should I tour the town, or just drop by? I called.

"Guess where I am? Look outside your window!"

"Hey, what are you doing?" she shrieked at me. "You're early! I haven't cleaned the house. It's an absolute mess!"

After some goodhearted sparing, she coaxed us in.

'Awesome' can only describe the 6000 square - foot megahouse. It's unbelievable! There's a kids' room, a dining room, an art room, a master bedroom with a huge walk-in closet, and a master bath complete with a Jacuzzi, two other bedrooms, a kids' bathroom, and a funky retro 70's kitchen The Nanny.

The walls are stenciled in spots, but most have paintings that Maxine has done. "I'm a little conceited when it comes to my paintings (she has every right to be), and I only hang up ones I've done," she laughs. She even gave me one—which I inadvertently left there. (Heavy sigh!) Then there is the basement (all 3000 square feet) which will eventually become the games' room.

The whole time Mandy and I were getting the guided tour, little Peter (he's four) was entertaining his baby sister by doing some Spiderman antics, when all of a sudden we hear this tremendous crash. Next came the earth-shattering shriek.

Max hikes up her skirt and dashes for the kids' room, where Peter is covered in blood. There is an inch long gash in his forehead, frighteningly close to his eye. She scoops up the freaked out kid, applies a towel to his forehead, asks her husband to hold him while she gives instructions to her early house guests. She was so calm. I was the one having heart palpitations!

Five stitches later, Max calls the house to let us know what was going on.

"Laurie, I hate to ask you this, but Pete wants his Auntie Laurie to buy his a present," she says, after telling me that he's about to have five stitches in his head. (Ouch!)

"No problem, I'm on my way," I tell her. "But first we'll clean up the mess."

I got him a bunch of huge bugs that I though they were pretty funky, however, Peter didn't think so. Peering into the bag with one good eye (the other was almost covered in a bandage), he gets that lip going in a pout.

"Where's Spiderman?"

Hurricanes defend title

MORRISBURG—The annual Cedar Glen Rams Four-on-Four Tournament was held at the Morrisburg Arena on April 11, with eight teams taking part in the competition.

That time of the year again
The Williamsburg Girl Guides will be selling their Girl Guide Cookies on Wednesday, April 21. Pictured are spark Rikki Johnston, Guide Danielle Vachon and Brownie Amy Nagle as they prepare for this fundraising event. Courtesy photo

The first game saw Team Whitteker face off against the Morrisburg Chubbs in two 15-minute stop-time periods.

The Chubbs kept it close after only one period were down 3-1. In the second, the Morrisburg team could not contain Team Whitteker any longer as four more unanswered goals were scored for a 7-1 Chubbs win.

Game two, Team Hare USA, doubled the Cornwall Colts 14-7, and in game three, the Devils dropped a 5-2 decision to the Cedar Glen Rams.

Last year's defending champs, Team Hurricanes (Marcus) played off against Nick's Sports Bar in the closest match of the day. The Hurricanes held a 1-0 lead after one and Nick's tied it at one in the second only to give a late break to the Hurricanes. With only one second left, the Hurricanes scored to take the 2-1 upset.

The Colts got things together in game five, putting away the Chubbs by an 11-5 count. The Chubbs held the game close until late in the first when the Colts rallied for three in under a minute to close the door.

Game six, Team Hare USA kept rolling along putting away Team Whitteker 11-4 to earn a berth to the A final against the Hurricanes who ousted the Rams 11-4.

Nick's blanked the Devils in game seven, 6-0, to earn a spot in the B division finals against the Colts.

In the B finals, Nick's Doubles the Colts to win the championship 6-3, and in the A finals, the Hurricanes were able to defend their title, shutting down Team Hare 3-0.

The Rams would like to thank all the teams for entering their tournament and a special thanks to their mains sponsor, Dennis Casselman and Cedar Glen Golf Course. Thanks also goes out to the day's sponsors.

The Community Care Access Centre for Eastern Ontario and The Hôpital Général de Hawkesbury and District General Hospital Inc. are seeking a Senior Advisor in

HUMAN RESOURCES

THE CONTEXT:
Our two agencies are providing services in a similar context and wish to achieve and implement a shared human resources service.

An organizational structure with the objective of having all employees accountable for the application of self directed work team concept.

The position will be fulfilled by a person who can demonstrate the capability of integrating all the services normally offered by a human resources service.

THE VISION:
A desire to offer our manpower a human resources service that will support the SELF DIRECTED WORK TEAMS in the attainment of their objectives, to improve the continuum of care and the co-ordination of services to all our clients.

THE OBJECTIVES:

- The main role will be to facilitate, educate and support each team with its particular needs, especially those related to change.
- The senior advisor and his/her human resources team will be at the service of all teams in our two agencies (CCACEO and HGH&D) and will ensure that necessary transformation occurs in a self directed work team environment. Education/development is to be one of the principal means to achieve the required change.
- The philosophy and the operation of the joint service will be developed by the senior advisor and his/her team in order to ensure the full integration of all human resources services in the two agencies.
- The candidate will ensure the appropriate operation of both agencies in all matters of human resources, i.e. labour relations, recruitment, benefits, etc.
- The candidate will be an integral part of the respective management teams. Because of the innovative and creative character of this position, the personal experience and the philosophy expressed by the candidate will account for an important selection criteria.

THE REQUIREMENTS:

- Experience / knowledge in human resources;
- University degree, master's level;
- Minimum of five (5) years of managerial experience;
- Knowledge in behavioral sciences;
- Strong experience in management and excellent skills in interpersonal relations, communications and team work;
- Bilingualism

Interested candidates must send their curriculum vitae before April 30, 1999 to one of the following addresses:

Administration
Hôpital Général de Hawkesbury
& District General Hospital Inc.
1111 Ghislain Street
Hawkesbury, Ontario K6A 3G5
Fax (613) 632-5126

OR

Administration
Community Care Access Centre
for Eastern Ontario
709 Cotton Mill Street
Cornwall, Ontario K6H 7K7
Fax (613) 936-0644

We thank you in advance for your interest in this position, but only the retained candidates will be contacted.

IN MEMORIAM

MacLENNAN–In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Patricia, April 25, 1996.
The depth of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well.
And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep,
Her memory we shall always keep.
–Sadly missed by Cam, Rick, Steve and families 16p

CASSELMAN–In loving memory of a dear father, Bert, who passed away April 24, 1994.
Till memory fades and life departs,
You live forever in our hearts.
–Love always, daughter Linda and Bruce 16p

HALL–In loving memory of my dear brother, Clifford Hall, who passed away April 21, 1995.
His weary hours and days of pain
His troubled nights our past
And in our aching hearts we know
He has found sweet rest at last
–Sadly missed, sister Eleanor Duff 16p

COULTHART–In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother, Maisie, who passed away April 19, 1996.
She left so suddenly, her thoughts unknown,
But she left a memory we are proud to own.
Treasure her, God, in your garden of rest,
For in this world she was one of the best.
To a beautiful life came a sudden end,
She died as she lived - everybody's friend.
She was always thoughtful, loving and kind,
What a wonderful memory she left behind.
–Sadly missed and always remembered by Ralph and family 16p

Obituaries

Donald "Moon" Mullin passes at home

A lifetime resident of Iroquois, Donald 'Moon' Mullin died at his home on 5 Dundas Street, Thursday, April 15, 1999. He was a welder at the Canadian Coast Guard, Prescott, for 32 years before he retired in April of 1997. He was 71 years of age, and was associated with the Iroquois United Church.

Born December 3, 1927, in Morrisburg, he was the son of the late William Mullin and the former Maude Steed.

On December 27, 1952, he was united in marriage at Welland, to Dorine Helmer, who survives.

'Moon' was an extremely hard-working man who was very devoted to his family. If there was anything that his family needed, and it was in his power to provide it for them, they got it. He possessed an amazing ability to get along with young people. Many young men in the Iroquois area have benefited from Don's guidance and caring.

One of the most interesting aspects of Don's personality was that on the exterior he seemed rather gruff and intimidating, but if one was fortunate enough to get to know him better, one would realize that he was actually a wonderfully generous and kind person.

Don loved animals, especially dogs, and the residents of Iroquois will miss seeing him driving around town with his dog in the passenger seat acting as his co-pilot.

He enjoyed gardening and many area residents will miss the vegetables that he used to unexpectedly drop off to them as gifts.

Besides his wife, he is survived by four sons: Donald of R.R. 1 Morrisburg, Bill (Martha) and Bruce (Pam), and Randy, all of Iroquois; three daughters: Dixie Beckstead of Iroquois, Cindy (Dale) Adams of Morrisburg, and Tammy (Brent) Spencer of Dom-ville; a sister Ruth Kirkwood of Morrisburg; 10 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Friends called at the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home, Iroquois, on Saturday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. The funeral service was held at the Iroquois United Church on Sunday, April 18, 1999, at 2 p.m., with Rev. Doug Carnegie officiating.

Interment followed at St. John's Anglican Cemetery, Iroquois. Pallbearers were Aaron Banford, Doug Byers, Laird Weagant, Perry Robertson, Garry Banford and Bill Farrell. Honorary pallbearers were Ray Delegarde, Ron Whitehorn, Ryan McMillan, George Fawcett and Matt Hayes.

Donations to the Winchester Hospital or the Kidney Foundation would be appreciated by the family.

Ruth Coons

A lifetime resident of the Brinston area, Ruth Vivian Coons died at the Winchester Hospital on Tuesday, April 13, 1999. The former homemaker was 88 years of age, and was a lifetime member of the Brinston United Church, where she played the organ for over 60 years. She was also a member of the Brinston Rebekkah Lodge.

Born July 30, 1910, in Matilda Township, she was the daughter of the late Wellington Seeley, and Georgia Hamilton.

On April 10, 1929, at Iroquois, she was united in marriage to Charles Coons, who predeceased her.

She is survived by a daughter-in-law, Shirley Pedlar of Colborne, and grandchildren Wayne (Marilyn), Dianne (Casey), Candace, Doug (Laura), Joy, Bill (Margaret), eight great-grandchildren, and nieces and nephews. She will also be missed by sisters Blanche Leroux of Prescott, and Hilda (Arnold) Johnston of Belleville.

Besides her parents, Mrs. Coons was predeceased by a son, Gordon, a sister Doris Shaver, and a brother Graham Seeley.

Friends called at the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home, Iroquois, on Thursday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. A Rebekkah Lodge service was held at 7 p.m. that evening.

The funeral service took place at the Brinston United Church, on Friday, April 16, 1999, at 11 a.m. with Rev. Angela Bailey officiating. Interment was held at the Spruce-Haven Cemetery, Brinston.

Pallbearers were Lorne Strader, Francis Henderson, Hubert Lapier, Wes Douma, Tom Johnston and Gordon Cooper.

Donations to the Brinston United Church would be appreciated by the family.

Lila Sullivan

A lifelong area resident, Lila Sullivan died Wednesday, April 7, 1999, at the Winchester Hospital after a lengthy illness. The former housewife was 76 years of age and was associated with the Hulbert-Valley United Church.

Born April 24, 1922, in Dunbar, she was the daughter of the late Ellery Merkley and the former Nellie Pemberton. She enjoyed baking, knitting and playing the piano.

On June 18, 1941, at Elma, she was united in marriage to Lyle Sullivan who survives.

Mrs. Sullivan will be sadly missed by son Lee (Tammy) of Ottawa, daughter Lorna (Steve) Sayeau of Morrisburg, a brother Ray (Josephine) of Florida; grandchildren Sandra (Anthony), Mark (Tara), David, Lisa, and Matthew, a great-grandson Jeffrey, and a sister-in-law Lola Ace of Winchester.

She was predeceased by her brother Lee.

Friends called at the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home, Williamsburg, on Thursday, April 8, from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. The funeral service took place at the home on Saturday, April 10, at 11 a.m. with Rev. Georgia Copland officiating. Interment followed at the Spruce-Haven Cemetery, Brinston.

The pallbearers were Ralph Black, Mahlon Cook, Dale Keyes, John Mellan, David Sullivan, and Mark Sayeau.

Donations to the Winchester Hospital, Hulbert-Valley United Church, or the Heart and Stroke Foundation were appreciated by the family.

Nellie Hitsman

A lifetime resident of R.R. 2 Brinston, Nellie Hitsman died suddenly at the Ottawa Civic Hospital on Saturday, April 10, 1999. The former housewife was 55 years of age. She enjoyed playing Bingo, knitting, crocheting and gardening.

She also enjoyed the Christmas season, and loved spending time with family and friends.

Born May 18, 1943, in Matilda Township, she was the daughter of the late Robert Markell and the former Maude Kelly.

She is survived by her husband George Hitsman, two sons: George Jr. (Rosie) of R.R. 1 Iroquois, and John (Bonnie) of R.R. 2 Spencerville; three daughters Freida (Robert) O'Neil and Gloria (Ricky) O'Neil, all of R.R. 1 Iroquois, and Kimberly (Allan) O'Neil, of R.R. 2 Iroquois; five brothers: Art and Charlie (Kathy) of R.R. 2 Brinston, Bernie (Sharon) of R.R. 1 Iroquois, Brian (Elaine) of Morrisburg and Carl of R.R. 2 Brinston; a sister Flossie (Stan) Royle of Stirling; 10 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Hitsman was predeceased by brothers George, Sid and Robert, and by great-granddaughter Lacie.

Friends called at the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home, Iroquois, on Monday, April 12, from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. The funeral service was held at the home the following day at 11 a.m. with Rev. Georgia Copland officiating. Interment followed at the Spruce-Haven Cemetery, Brinston.

Pallbearers were Charles Barkley, Donald Barkley, George Hitsman Jr., Ricky Thompson, Arnie Hitsman and Art Hitsman.

Donations to the Ottawa Civic Hospital were appreciated by the family.

WI hears talk on how to make kerchiefs for Cancer patients

RIVERSIDE HEIGHTS—On April 8, the Riverside Heights Women's Institute met at the George Jowett Hall for a delicious pot luck luncheon followed by their monthly meeting.

Roll Call was answered by 12 members and four guests.

It was decided not to raise the membership fees for the year 1999-2000. Correspondence was read and discussed. Doris Erratt read the Convenors Reports for the year 98/99, and will send them on to the District Secretary.

Hiltrud Weiher gave a report on the workshop in Williamsburg. She also reported attending the district meeting in Williamsburg Support Centre. The District Annual will be May 4, 1999 at the Lions Hall in Winchester, Ontario.

May 1, there will be a workshop on illiteracy at the Morewood United Church Hall. Admission is free, and lunch is $5. For more information, call (613)-448-3432.

A report was given by Bev Brown on a workshop in Williamsburg on how to make kerchiefs for cancer patients. It was decided we will try to make some at a later date.

We were also asked to knit small teddy bears for the Children's Hospital and for Alzheimer's patients. The branches were asked to think about changing the Women's Institute name to "Women of Ontario". All voted against the change.

Eileen Gallinger from the nominating committee agreed to phone members for the different positions. Doris Erratt asked for more lap throws to give to shut-in. We were happy to oblige, and still have a few to give to institutions in the area or where needed.

Doris donated Homemaker's magazines for the 50's and 60's. They were well received by the ladies.

We were asked to think about a destination for our annual summer day outing. One suggestion was Wolfe Island.

Convenors will meet at the home of Annette DeVette, Wednesday April 14, to make up the new programmes for the following year.

Next meeting will be in May—time and place has not been decided yet.
