Lighting contest brightens Christmas season

WINCHESTER — Huge amounts of snow may have hampered but not dampened Warren Jackson's Christmas spirit.

He and his wife Vivian try to get their seasonal light display up before the snow falls but this year the weather was too quick. They came back from a trip to Hawaii and the snow had already fallen.

It may have been a bit trickier but it was worth the effort. The Jacksons won first place in Winchester's "Light Up Your House at Christmas Contest", judged last weekend. The contest, sponsored by the Winchester Chamber of Commerce, offered a $250 first prize for the best-decorated house and $150 and $100 for second and third prizes.

According to Warren they didn't even know there was a contest. They've put up a display every year although it changes a bit each time.

"I do it for the fun of it, just because it's Christmas," says Jackson.

This year's display of multi-colored lights takes up the entire front lawn of their 519 Fred St. home. A small lit-up village sits under an archway of lights. Warren made the buildings himself. The farm buildings are modeled after their former farm.

The effect is audio as well as visual. To add to the display, the Jacksons play Christmas music over speakers.

Their yard always garners interest. One night Warren counted 37 cars rolling slowly by to take in the Christmas cheer.

But they wouldn't be the sole attraction on Fred St. The Jacksons' lights compete with the brightly illuminated lawns of neighbors who have not only lights but manger scenes and Santa displays.

In fact most Winchester homes covered their lawns and houses in festive paraphernalia.

Bill Bouck of 468 Main St. said he was a bit surprised by his second place win because of the stiff competition. His house, decorated by Bouck and his wife Ella, is framed in lights running along the windows, the frame and the veranda. Illuminated candy canes they bought at White Rose flash on and off in the windows and the television antenna is topped with a huge star.

"I enjoy doing it. A lot of the seniors living nearby used to always say it looks so nice," he says.

Third place went to Bill Johnston of 526 Henderson Cr. whose huge 10-metre spruce is decorated completely in red lights. He also did part of his house in red lights and green illuminated wreaths. Though the lighting contest hasn't run for several years, Johnston has won prizes in the past. He plans to donate this year's winning to the food bank.

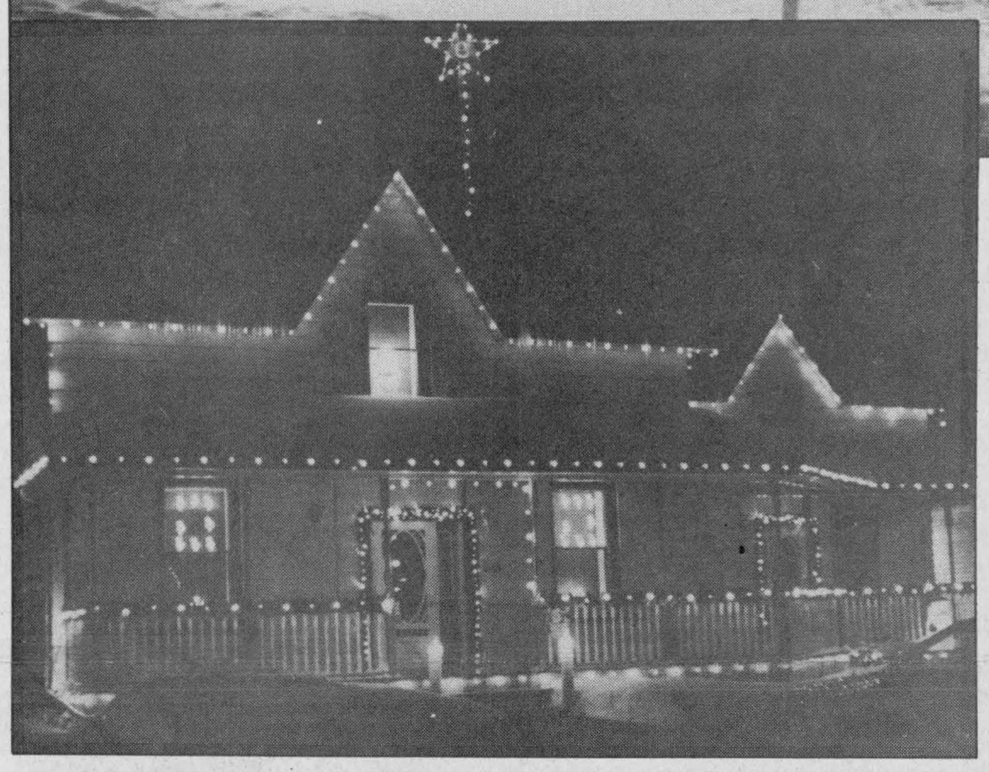

It's not a simple job. Johnston puts the bottom strands on himself and gets a bucket truck to do the top of the tree. Though he's not sure how many lights there are exactly, he estimates it could be around 800.

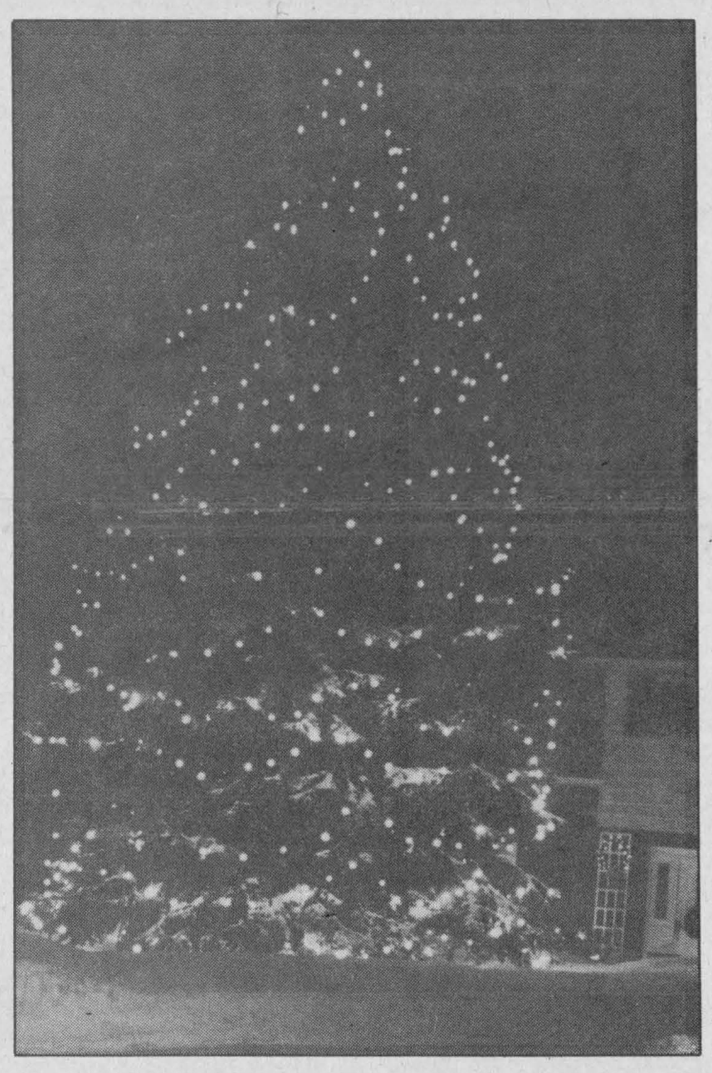

"It's quite a challenge. It keeps blowing lights and breakers because of the tremendous load of power," says Johnston.

His father planted the tree in 1967. They have decorated it every year since, adding more lights each time and spray painting the bulbs when the color wears off. Johnston says he prefers to put one color rather than several different on his tree.

"It looks a bit more subdued, not as macabre or flashy, " he says.

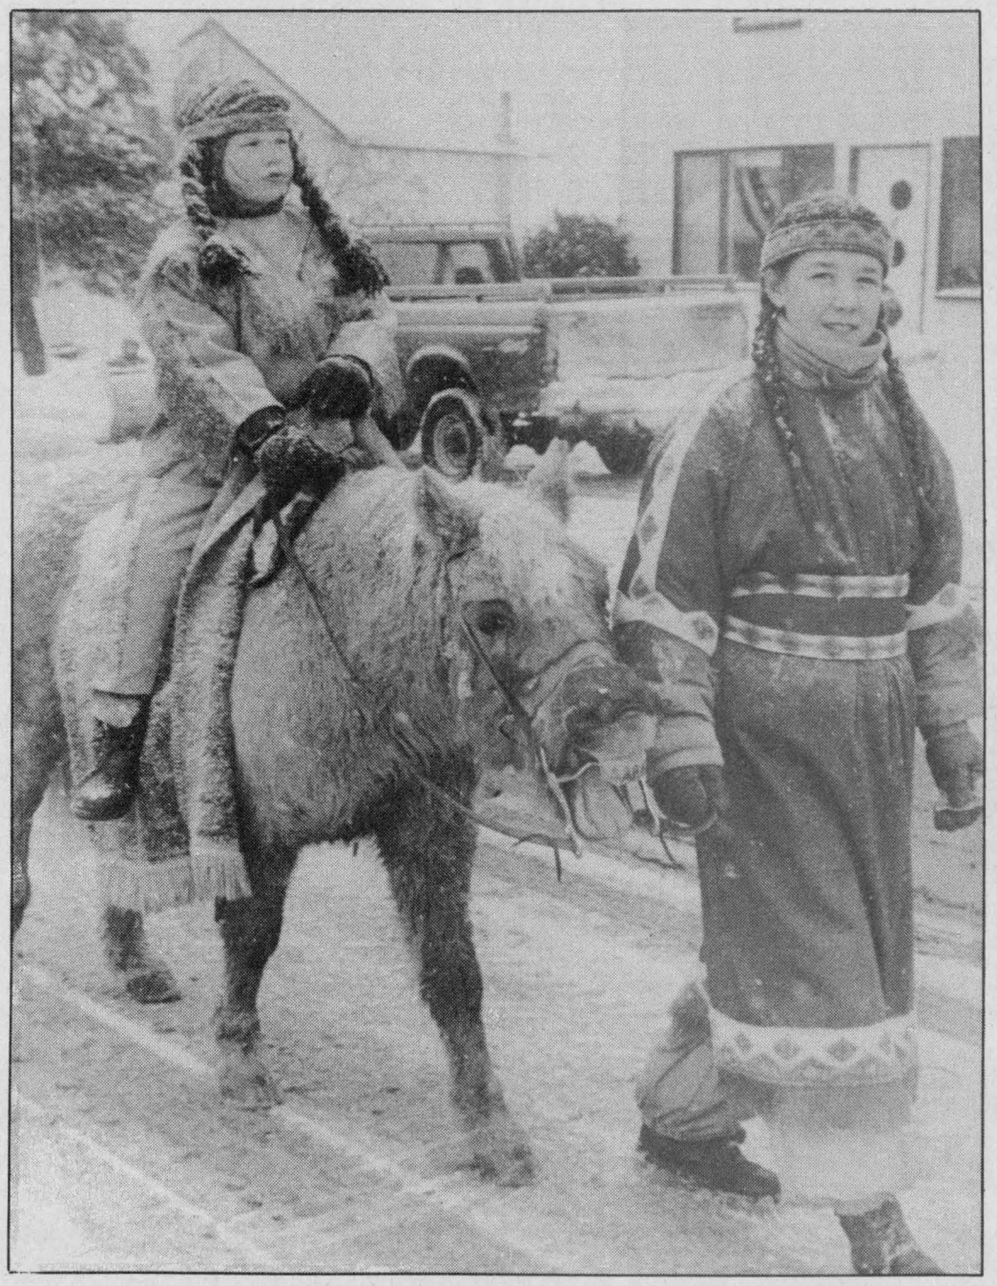

Spirit shines

Tony Wouters: 1995 Farmer of the Year

WINCHESTER — Tony Wouters, of Chesterville is the Dundas Federation of Agriculture's 1995 Farmer of the Year.

According to the DFA, Wouters's enthusiasm, innovative ideas and farm management skills make him a worthy winner of the Eric Casselman Award as the 1995 Dundas Farmer of the Year.

Wouters purchased Wouters Poultry Farm Ltd. From his parents in 1988. The operation located on the Boyne Road east of Winchester, consists of 10,000 egg layers. As well he raises 10,000 pullets for himself and another 10,000 on contract for another egg producer. The business sells about 3.5 million eggs per year.

In 1995 Wouters converted a machine shed into an on-farm grading station. This allows him to sell directly to clients such as stores, restaurants and bake shops. Although his main market is Ottawa, he supplies several local outlets including Valu-Mart in Winchester.

On his operation, Wouters grows corn, soybeans and in 1995, some canola. All the corn is fed to the poultry and he has his own feed mixing system.

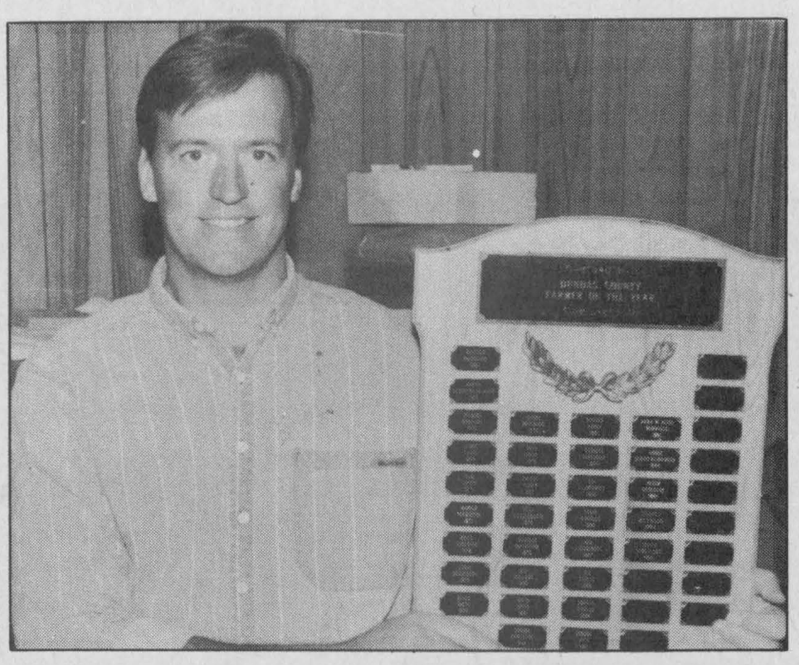

An active member in the Dundas Agriculture in the Classroom Committee, each year Wouters does a presentation on the story of eggs from farm to consumer at the Dundas Farm Fair.

As well he is completing two years as president of the Chesterville Agricultural Society where under his leadership, the Chesterville Fair has adopted some new events that are turning out to be popular attractions.

Wouters is a committeeman with the Ontario Egg Marketing Board and a past member of the SD&G Public Liaison Committee on Waste Management.

Wouters and his wife, Trish, have three children, Andrea, Jenna and Olivia.

He was nominated by fellow DFA members Dawn and Alvin Runnalls.

Bob Weagant receives soil and crop award

WINCHESTER — Bob Weagant of South Mountain was recognized by the Eastern Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association as the recipient of the 1995 Award of Merit.

The first vice-president of Weagant Farm Supplies, Weagant says he is very honored to be recognized by the association. Weagant Farm Supplies is a family owned and operated business with locations in both Winchester and Brockville. A new business — Top Line Trailers of Winchester is just completing a successful year.

Weagant is a committed supporter of and volunteer to farm and rural organizations. His business supports the Dundas Farm Safety Association by opening its facilities for meetings and workshops. He also supports other groups with door prizes, awards and financial sponsorship.

He has also given his time and energy to the community as past-president of the Mountain Township Agricultural Society and the Winchester District Memorial Hospital Board, where he continues to be active.

The Weagant family has also been active in the 4-H program. Bob's wife, Sandy has been a leader for a number of lifestyle projects and their four daughters Stacey, Wendy, Leslie and Paula have participated in the program. The family has always been an enthusiastic friend of 4-H.

The Eastern Ontario Soil and Crop Association presented Weagant with the award during the Dundas Soil and Crop Association annual meeting held last Thursday in Winchester.

Conservationists recognized

WINCHESTER — The Dundas Soil and Crop Improvement Association wrapped up a successful cropping season with its annual meeting last Thursday at the Winchester Community Centre.

The association honored a number of its members for outstanding achievement. Two area farm families were recognized for their interest and work in soil and water conservation.

Bill, George and Jim Byvelds of Chesterville as well as Ron and Rosemary McKeen of South Mountain received Soil Conservation farm gate signs from the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association for practising excellent soil and water management on their farms.

The Byvelds family operate Nation Valley Farms outside Chesterville. They grow 900 acres of hay, corn, beans and wheat and milk 85 cows.

For tillage, the Byvelds use a combination deep till plow soil saver on corn, soybean and sod fields. A straw chopper on the combine mulches the stalks for easier tillage in the fall. Their rotation philosophy is a maximum of two years for any crop. Liquid manure from the dairy operation is preferably applied to sod. The farm uses the nitrogen test to determine fertilizer requirements for each field and crop planted.

The McKeen family operates McKeen Farms Pedigreed Seed Ltd. — a 400-acre seed and cashcrop business. They are Select seed growers with all soybeans, barley and wheat grown for Secan. The main rotation is soybeans, barley, wheat and occasional corn to clean up persistant weed problems. Cereal regrowth is left overwinter and worked into the soil in the spring with a soil saver.

McKeen Farms is a member of the Ontario Seed Growers and Secan Association.

EXECUTIVE CHOSEN

The association also chose its new executive.

Jim Wallbridge of Williamsburg takes over from Arden Schneckenburger as the association's new president. Tim Moher is vice-president and Kathy Hardy takes over from Phyllis MacMaster as secretary/treasurer.

Due to recent cuts to the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs, ag rep MacMaster is no longer able to work as secretary/treasurer for the association. However, she will still help the association plan educational opportunities for its members.

New township directors include: Norm Tinkler (Matilda), Eric VandenBroek (Mountain) and Steven Byvelds (Williamsburg). It was left up to the executive committee to find another director for Winchester Township.

New directors-at-large are: Gordon Smith, Charles Farlinger and John Roosendaal.

Recycled newsprint market down in the dumps

Liz Edwards
Press staff

WINCHESTER — Newspapers aren't piling up at Winchester landfill site but neither is their worth.

Supervisor Dave Sloane says they are still able to sell the newspapers to recyclers but they aren't getting the same price as last summer.

Last summer prices for recycled newspapers skyrocketed, jumping up to $250 a metric tonne or at times even higher, depending on the buyer. Now the price has dropped to $50 to $60 a tonne. The price of cardboard has suffered a similar fate, dropping from $350 per metric tonne in the summer to $50.

Newspaper and cardboard account for approximately three-quarters of the recycled material collected by the landfill site operators every second week. Every six weeks or so, the landfill site ships out 25 tonnes of each material.

But according to recycling broker Robert Dick of Lorax Waste Management Inc. in Ottawa, who buys and sells materials from the landfill site shared by Winchester Village, Winchester Township and Chesterville, the prices in the summer were over- inflated because of a fibre-shortage scare. A great deal of newsprint is de-inked and used once again for newspapers, according to Dick.

"All the (paper) mills were just jockeying for position, buying tonneage, buying tonneage," he says.

"It was a false kind of upswing in price. We had a lot of foreign orders. We had people calling from Japan. It was just crazy."

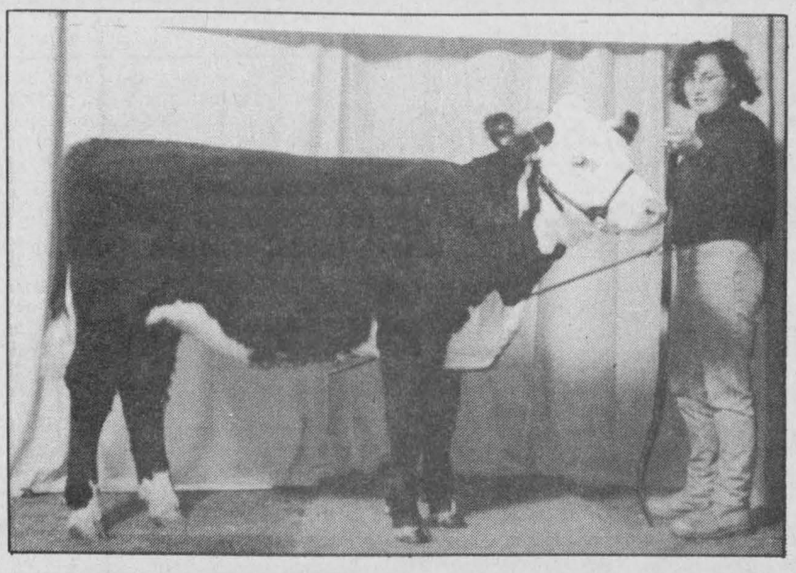

While he's doubtful the prices will ever go as high as they did in the summer, he would like to see them rise to $150 a tonne.

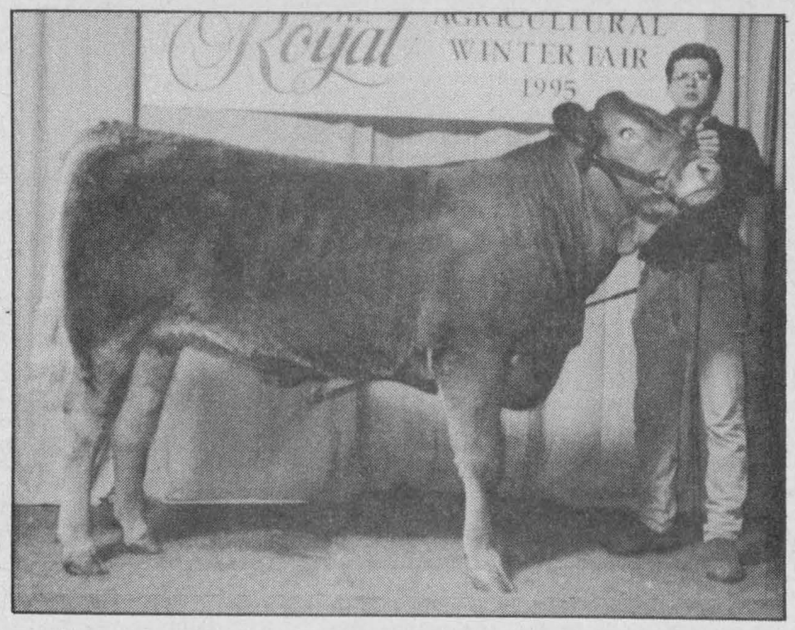

The inflated price helped for a while but Sloane says he doesn't think revenue gained from selling recycled materials will ever cover the costs of the collection program.

"When the prices were up we were sitting pretty," he says.

The landfill's recycling program is in its second year of operation and government grants pay for about 40 per cent of the costs. Grants, at about 33 per cent, will continue for the next three years. The rest is made up through tipping fees.

In some places such as Mountain Township, the municipality doesn't sell the paper to help offset costs. The recycling company takes it away and sells it.

Knob Hill competitors

Farmers co-op reaches agreement with province

CORNWALL — Seaway Valley Farmers Energy Co-operative is pleased to announce that the co-operative is finalizing a $3 million financial agreement with the government of Ontario that will provide funding to the Cornwall ethanol production facility in return for significant investment in research and ethanol awareness over the next 10 years.

"We greatly appreciate the leadership of Ontario's Minister of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs, the Honorable Noble Villeneuve, in developing this agreement," said Bud Atkins, president of Seaway Valley. "This agreement is a major step forward in the development of our 52-million litre per year ethanol production facility, and the Ontario ethanol industry."

The agreement will provide the Seaway Valley ethanol project with $3 million in funding. In exchange, Seaway Valley will provide $60,000 per year, over the next 10 years, for agricultural research. The co-operative will also establish an ethanol environmental awareness centre at the ethanol plant, to be constructed in the Cornwall Industrial Park.

"The benefits of ethanol production will not only reach farmers, but will give a boost to communities in Eastern Ontario," said Atkins.

The $42 million project is expected to get under way, at the site, in the not too distant future. Seaway Valley Farmers Energy Co-operative was incorporated in 1992 and has a present membership of 1,800.

Still loved and missed and ever dear.
— Always remembered by husband Ted, nieces and nephews
38

FRANCIS — In loving memory of Don Francis who passed away suddenly Dec. 20, 1993.
As time goes on without you,
And months turn into years
They hold a thousand memories,
And as many silent tears.
— Evelyn and Family

In Memoriam

CONGRATULATIONS GEORGE — Seventeen years of sobriety and still going strong! You have honored our family name well. Mother was so proud, father would have been, and I'll be. — Love B.E.B.
38

BAKER — In loving memory of Nancy and Garfield.
As Christmas season gets closer, it's a time of traditional family gatherings. But God has left a vacancy in my heart and our home Mother, when He took you back March 21 this year. He only takes the best "angels" but he also took the greatest lady, mother and best friend a daughter ever had. Though He took you, Dad, on Dec. 9, 1977, it only seems like yesterday. Though my last name may differ in the years ahead, your greatest and proudest gifts I have my given name will never cease.
— Forever your loving and devoted daughter Bonny.
38

IN MEMORIAM — As Christmas nears, it's a time of memories. In memory of my cousins Dianne Baker and Terry Young, who were taken July 18, 1995 and my close friend, Steven Cougler on Jan. 7, 1995. Your smiles and loving ways, will forever be alive. To your families, our prayers and thoughts are with you at this difficult time and may God's love see us all through this season and the months ahead.
— Love, Bonny and Albert Black 38

PRICE — In memory of Graham.
In memory, a daily thought;
In heart, a silent sorrow.
— Sadly missed by Joyce and family
38

YOUNG — In memory of three brothers, Wayne Gary and Roger
There is a link death cannot sever.
Love and remembrance last forever.
— Sadly missed by Joyce and family
38

YOUNG — In loving memory of a dear brother, uncle, and brother-in-law Roger, who pased away Dec. 24, 1981.
There's an open gate
At the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there in a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims His own.
Beyond the gate, our loved one
Finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort
In the thought
That a loving God knows best.
— Sadly missed by Jean, John, Tracy, Jennifer
38

McINTOSH — In memory of a dear mother, Iverene, who passed away on Dec. 21, 1985.
Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.
— Love, the family
38

WHITTEKER — In loving memory of a dear brother and uncle Donald L. who passed away Dec. 17, 1994.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain
To walk with us throughout our life
Until we meet again.
— Sadly missed by the Family

Park needs $300,000 upgrade

by Chris Bridgen

EDWARDS — Lynnwood Garden Estates owner Sid Finkelman has come on board to seek a solution to the Edwards area trailer park's problems.

For years, ineffective septic systems and water problems have plagued the 64-unit development.

The region has shipped in bottled water, and are now repairing the water system, including replacing a gas generating pump.

Residents of the park say they are finally feeling like long-term solutions are being sought. Council and about 60 residents who packed the Osgoode Township hall Dec. 5 decided to form a committee to implement solutions for the park's woes.

Already the region has worked this past month to improve the water cistern and lines leading to the mobile homes.

"When the region came in, their objective was to put the pump on hydro and make potable water available at the pump site," said Kevin Grace, Osgoode's drainage supervisor.

"The work isn't done yet, but the region will continue to deliver bottled water until water is available at the pumphouse."

Art Nault, a long-time resident of the park, wants to make sure the township fulfills what he calls its moral obligation.

"We're worried about the futures of all the families in this community," he said. "We want to make sure 64 families in this community can go on with their plans for the future and not live their nightmare any longer."

Part of the problem is the extent of the work needed. Sewage leakage from septic systems into the Prophet municipal drain are already under investigation by the Ministry of Environment and Energy.

Taxes on the property are in arrears, and township treasurer Don Reid sent letters to residents asking they pay rent directly to Osgoode, not the park's owner.

Grace estimated the cost of fixing the sewage and water problems at $300,000.

This concerns Stan Hadden, who was closely involved in the former Lynnwood Community Association, and who has acted as point man in the residents' fight.

"There are rumor Lynnwood will be closed by the summer of 1996," he said. "Had the requests for help been heeded in this situation (years ago), this situation as it stands would not exist."

Despite continuing problems and residents' anger — the water supply has been on and off, and snowclearing inconsistent — positive steps have been taken, said councillor Dale Harley.

Although he attended a meeting in the township, Finkelman would not return calls.

Notice of Public Meeting Concerning Proposals Affecting Lands Zoned Rural

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the Township of Osgoode will hold a public meeting on the 13th day of February, 1996 at 7:00 pm at the Township Hall, Metcalfe to consider a proposed zoning bylaw amendment under Sections 34 and 35 of the Planning Act RSO 1990. An Open House on the proposed zoning will take place from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm immediately before the public meeting.

THE PROPOSAL: Properties currently zoned Rural will be affected as follows:

RURAL AGRICULTURE
Those properties identified as being in the Agricultural Resource area of the Official Plan and zoned Rural will be zoned Rural Agriculture. The permitted uses will be expanded to permit uses directly related to agriculture to occur. The lot size minimum would increase from 10 to 40 hectares (25 -100 acres) to reflect a reasonable minimum size for a viable farm in this area.

RURAL MARGINAL
Those properties identified as being in the Marginal Resource area of the Official Plan and are currently zoned rural will be zoned Rural Marginal. The permitted uses will remain the same but with the expanded definition of agriculture. The lot size requirements will remain the same.
