Council To Improve Lighting Of Chesterville's Streets

Chesterville's street lights will soon brighten up as Council decided at the October meeting, Tuesday night, to increase the power of the present lights, and as soon as material is available more lights are promised. A delegation from the Rotary Club Community Service Committee, R. C. Dillabough, Chairman; W. Timmons and Leo Gallagher, offered suggestions to the Council, and Reeve Barkley promised that the services of Hydro lighting engineers would be sought.

Waste paper containers will be placed on the streets at the Post Office, Moran's Pool Room, and at Al's Restaurant, as suggested by the delegation. When some members of the council objected, saying the containers would soon be ruined by destructive youths, Mr. Dillabough said it was too bad "a few kids could run the town". Discussion followed on the possibility of turning the policing of the village over to the Provincial Police, as has been done in several other places in the Counties.

Repairs to the sidewalks on Main Street from the Queen Street crossing to the Kearns Block are progressing, and will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000. Surfacing of the remaining gravel streets has been completed by the United Counties' road building department, including Hummel, and Howard streets, north of the CPR, and extension of College street to G. I. Bogart's farm west of town.

Council will share the cost with the Women's Institute of cleaning the kitchen at the Community Hall once a month.

Reeve Geo. H. Barkley will attend a meeting in Toronto called by the Provincial Department of Highways to decide on the route of Highway No. 7 east of Smiths Falls to its junction with No. 43 six miles west of Chesterville. The province will build a direct highway into Smiths Falls but the decision has not yet been made which side of the Rideau River it will follow east of that town. It is said the new highway will come south of Winchester, joining 43 at its junction with Highway 31, then through Chesterville. Whether the bad C.P.R. crossing west of town, known as the "White Crossing", will be eliminated is not known. It is stated there has been talk of constructing subways at that crossing and at the railway crossing in town.

Council will meet with the Winchester Township Council and representatives of the Red Cross, Monday evening, to discuss the welcome home of men and women of the Forces to the district.

Some repairs will be made to the Award Ditch on Church street.

Accounts passed included: A. Harper, garbage collection $33.00; Wm. Allen, labor $22.40; Chesterville Hydro Electric System $2.38; Allison & Gillard $4.49; Chesterville Record printing and advertising $78.30; United Counties $31.88; W.B. Rowe ambulance service to Cornwall, re Mac McNaughton $5.00; John Wagner, repairs to sidewalk $4.00.

KEEN BIDDING ON UMBRELLA

Last week at an auction sale at Embrun, Auctioneer Patenaude, in selling household effects came upon an umbrella, not new but in good condition, which was run up to five dollars before being knocked down to the highest bidder. Umbrellas have been hard to buy for many months.

Councils, Red Cross to Plan Welcome for Returned Men

The regular meeting of Winchester Township council was held in the Community Hall, Chesterville, Monday, October 1st, with all the members present. The minutes of the last meeting were adopted as read and signed by the reeve.

The reeve was instructed to get in touch with the different Red Cross Units in the township and have each send representatives to meet with the council at a special meeting to be held in the Community Hall, Chesterville, on Monday, October 8th, at 8.30 p.m. with the object of deciding on what token of appreciation to present to each returning boy or girl from overseas service.

Council adjourned to meet in Winchester on Friday, November 2nd, at 10.30 a.m.

PHILATHEA CLASS MEETING

The Philathea Bible Class held their monthly meeting at the Parsonage, on the evening of September 25th, with 19 members in attendance. Mrs. W. N. Fulton conducted the meeting with Mrs. Lyle Marcellus assisting as Secretary.

The devotional part of the meeting consisted of that lovely hymn "Breathe on me, Breath of God", followed by prayer by Mrs. Wright and Scripture Reading, read in unison by all members.

A very fine report was given by the Welfare Committee, which comprised 65 calls during the past two months. This committee is certainly a very active one and deserves much credit.

The program was very interesting. Very pleasing, indeed, was the solo, "The Stranger of Galilee", which was sung by Miss Marjorie Merkley. Mrs. Ingram Cross gave a very interesting account of the Robert Moffats early life and his Missionary trials and tribulations in his endeavor to bring the gospel to the people of Africa. He and David Livingstone were truly two of God's great Gardeners, as described in the account "Roll On Wagon Wheels", written by Hugh Frame.

After singing "Tell Me The Old, Old Story," and the repetition of the Lord's Prayer, the meeting closed with the benediction.

Sgt. F. Casselman Awarded MM For Bravery at Arnhem

Sgt. Francis (Frank) Casselman, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Casselman, has been awarded the Military Medal for bravery on the Northwestern European campaign on April 14. It was just at the end of May that Sgt. Casselman was cited for Mention in Despatches for services with the Ontario Tank Regiment in the Italian campaign.

Sgt. Casselman's regiment was supporting British Infantry, a battalion of the Hallams, in the drive north after the capture of Arnhem last spring, when a flak gun held up the advance, causing a number of casualties to the infantry. Through the courage and resourcefulness of Sgt. Casselman, the gun was silenced, and he also assisted, under machine gun fire, to recover a tank.

Sgt. Casselman was born in Chesterville on April 13th, 1904, and obtained his elementary and secondary education here. He was living in Birmingham, Mich., when he enlisted in the Royal Canadian Armoured Corps. He was then following the business of plumbing and heating contractor. He has been overseas since June, 1941.

The citation reads:

On April 14, 1945, this non-commissioned officer was sergeant of the tank troop that was in support of "A" Company of the Hallams in the advance out of the town of Arnhem to the north. Throughout the day under continuous shell-fire and with several snipers in the area, he maintained his tank in an exposed position and brought fire to bear on a flak gun, which had caused several casualties among the infantry. Later in the day he directed the recovery of a tank that had become bogged, during which he was out of his tank on foot under machine gun fire in an exposed position. This done, he continued to engage the flak gun which was silenced. During the time that the troop officer was away with the infantry commander he maintained close control of the situation passing back information clearly and concisely. At all times his coolness and resourcefulness was an inspiration to all the men of his troop, and his continual cheerfulness did much to relieve the tension of a difficult situation. At all times during the operation of this regiment, both while in Italy and in Northwest Europe, Sgt. Casselman worked with a forward squadron. His constant attention to duty, his indifference to danger and discomfort, and his intelligence and willingness have always been an invaluable assistance to his officers, and an example and inspiration to the men of his squadron."

Improvements Are Planned High School Board Meeting

At the High School Board meeting Tuesday evening, special attention was given to improvement of the school library accommodation and also to the flooring of the Home Economics room. School microscopes for more effective instruction in Botany will be procured. At the present time, provision of equipment for instruction in the various courses seems quite adequate.

The High School Literary Society will have Gordon Fulton as its president this year. Vice-President is Charles Doering, Secretary, Marjorie Thom and Treasurer Douglas Dillabough.

The company commander of the cadets will be Gordon Fulton. The other officers will be named by the instructor later this month. Capt. Mutton, M.D. 3, Kingston, will visit the cadet corps instructor next Wednesday, October 10th.

It is hoped that field day will be held some day next week.

KEEN INTEREST IN NATION RIVER

Developments over the next few weeks, when the resolution calling for a survey of the complete Nation River Watershed is presented to Hon. Dana Porter, Minister of Planning and Development, of the Ontario Government, will be keenly watched by the farmers and others of the 1500 square miles the river drains.

It goes without saying, following the enthusiastic meeting after the tour of inspection last Thursday, that the need for the control of summer and spring floods is very urgent. Officials of the Government inspected the headwaters along with the committee and many farmers and offered useful suggestions. But the scope of work necessary will not be known until after the survey.

After listening to reports and suggestions at the meeting held in the Community Hall, we are of the opinion the solution to the problem is reforestation of the lower areas to the west. Thus the rain would be held from rushing off into the tributaries and the main channel, causing floods and resulting later in dry wells and streams as has been experienced several times in the past few years.

Damming of the streams feeding the Nation from the marshes will cause considerable flooding because of the flat countryside. This might be necessary until the reforestation project is developed sufficiently to exert its influence on the water table.

Several farmers, including Mr. Little, of Osgoode Township, told of his experiences last summer, when conditions were directly opposite to this season's rain and floods. Drainage of the swamps and all low-lying land has resulted in a fast run-off of water in the spring and following summer rains. The result has been a lowering of the water table so that last summer and winter farmers hauled water for miles for their livestock.

TRULY A WAR LOAN TO HELP THE FORCES

Nowadays we are being jostled by problems of peace. Almost everything we read, all the utterances of public men, tends to emphasize the fact that the war is now history.

Yet, the Ninth Victory Loan which will be opened to the public on October 22, is definitely a war loan.

There exists no magic wand one can use to waft military forces from the scenes of battle to their normal home surroundings overnight. Unfortunately, long after the enemy cries surrender, the cost of war goes on. It is estimated, for example, that the country of Canada must raise a sum of about $25,000,000.00 during the present year to provide adequate medical attention and hospitalization for the men who are coming back wounded and sick. Last year, members of the House of Commons were told that at that time $750,000,000.00 would be needed to pay gratuities and take care of re-establishment credits to men returning from battle. One year having passed since then, the cost of that important undertaking has now reached about $900,000,000.00. In addition to all that, the Canadian people must meet the cost of bringing the troops home, the maintenance of our forces of occupation in Germany. Pay of the men who are waiting demobilization goes on. Cheques to dependents keep going out until the soldier has his discharge paper.

There are heavy domestic expenditures, made heavier by the unprecedented demands of this period of reconstruction in the country, which are included in the total of the Ninth Victory Loan objective. But of this we can be sure. The major portion of the money which Canadians will provide for the purchase of bonds in October and November is needed to cover the cost of war.

Promotion.

"And what," asked the chief of the cannibal islands, in his kindest tones "was your business before you were captured by my men?"

"I was a newspaperman," answered the captive.

"An editor?"

"No, merely a police reporter."

"Cheer up, young man! Promotion awaits you. After dinner you shall be editor-in-chief!"

Delegation Will Ask For Early Survey To Determine Conservation of Nation Waters

The sequel to the tour of inspection of the Nation River Watershed and the meeting held in the Community Hall, Thursday night was the adoption of a resolution calling for an immediate Provincial Government survey of the drainage area with the view to finding a remedy for the serious annual floods in the upper reaches of the area, and a delegation was appointed by Zone 5 Ontario Conservation and Reforestation Committee to present the resolution to the Minister of Planning and Development.

The inspection of the watershed was made by a party of 55 men which included representatives of the councils of the six counties through which the river and its tributaries run, the Provincial Department of Planning and Development, Provincial and Dominion Departments of Agriculture, members of the local committee, and representatives from the Montreal Daily Star, Family Herald and Weekly Star, Ottawa Journal and Farm Journal, Brockville Recorder and Times, and The Farmers' Advocate.

Local members of the party were Reeve Geo. H. Barkley, O. L. King. and Eric Casselman.

The party commenced its inspection at Spencerville at 9.30 a.m. and traveled west to view the streams and swamps that comprise the headwaters of the Nation. A forestry conservation project was visited, and the party proceeded southwest into Augusta township, in the vicinity of Algonquin.

Members of Delegation.

The party was entertained at luncheon in Brockville by R. S. Kennedy, editor-in-chief of the Family Herald and Weekly Star. In the afternoon the delegates inspected the watershed as far as Chesterville. Here they were entertained at dinner in the McCloskey House by the Ottawa Farm Journal. In the evening, a meeting was held in the Community Hall where the resolution calling for an immediate survey by the provincial government was passed and turned over to the Zone 5 O.C.R.A. which named its delegation to wait on the provincial government.

The delegation will consist of H. S. Arkell, Brittania Heights, vice-chairman of Zone 5; O. L. King and Eric Casselman, Chesterville; Reeve Mahlon Zeron, Matilda; Dr. H. Munro, Maxville; V. R. Purvis, chairman of Zone 5, Mallorytown; J. Kearns, Berwick; W. Weir, Domville, for Augusta Township; and a delegate to be appointed from Grenville.

Hon. G. H. Challies, vice-chairman of the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission and M.L.A. for Dundas, took part in the tour and spoke briefly at the Brockville luncheon. He emphasized the provincial government's awareness of the importance of forest conservation measures and referred to the recent announcement that 1,500 acres of land were being taken over on Highway 16 near the Rideau River for the establishment of the "best forest nursery in Ontario."

Other officials present were V. R. Purvis, Mallorytown, chairman of Zone 5; Dr. P. O. Ripley, chief assistant in field husbandry; P. Stobbe, soil specialist, and C. Lovell, photographer of the Central Experimental Farm Staff, Ottawa; W. M. Croskerey, Ontario Department of Agriculture Representative for Carleton; Albert Barr, representative for Stormont; C. C. Tennant, Grenville; F. LaRose, Prescott and Russell; J. R. Ostler, Leeds; A. H. Richardson, chief conservation engineer for Ontario, and Watson Porter, editor of The Farmer's Advocate and chairman of the Thames Valley Conservation Committee.

Difficult Problems

A. B. Wheatley, zone forester, and W. E. Steele, forester, both of Kemptville, accompanied the party and explained the significance of the land formations and sections of forest growth in respect to flood control.

The delegates were unanimous that the problem of conservation along the 1500 square miles drained by the Nation and its tributaries, is a complicated one and too large for any village, township or county. It will involve complicated problems of engineering and reforestation.

The problem of what will be done with the low-lying farms in the headwaters which are flooded each spring and during heavy rains, will be a problem requiring much study.

This theme was dwelt upon at the luncheon and dinner meetings. A. H. Richardson, Chief Conservation Engineer for Ontario, discussed the difficulties from an engineer's standpoint. The problems are many, he said, since the drop in the entire length of the watershed was only 245 feet. He also sat in at the meeting of the Zone 5 committee to give advice.

Watson Porter, editor The Farmer's Advocate, was also invited to the Zone 5 committee meeting, and his assistance was appreciated as his Thames Valley Committee has gone through the organization similar to the Nation Valley project, and work has been commenced on the survey.

Visit Swamp Area

The delegates visited the swamp area along the border of Oxford and Edwardsburg townships, first. Mr. Wheatley showed them the vast expanse of the Groveton Marsh, pointing it out as a possible location for a water storage basin, which might be formed by building a small dam. He stressed the difficulties arising out of any flood control scheme due to the generally flat nature of the whole drainage area. No lakes or deeply ravined areas exist that could be dammed off. The contours of the land are such that even a small dam would flood large areas.

The delegates visited the Limerick Forest, a fine example of otherwise useless land being turned into a plantation of approximately 650,000 pine and spruce trees. The existence of more such plantations would slow up rain-water run-off and reduce the floods appreciably.

Worst Flood Section.

Following the luncheon at Brockville at which Mr. Purvis was chairman and Hon. Mr. Challies, Mr. Richardson and W. H. Porter spoke briefly, the party visited the area at the junction of the north and south branches of the Nation at Salter's Bridge, northeast of Brinston. This region is one of the worst flood sectors and the delegates were shown where the water had been 10 feet above the present level, ruining thousands of acres of crops. Mr. Wheatley explained that owing to the narrowness of the river channel and its odd, sharply twisting course at this point, the remedy for that particular area would present the engineers with a difficult problem.

Letters to The Editor

SHOULD THE FARMER STRIKE?

Meat rationing is causing considerable trouble in Canada, yet the farmer, who is suffering largest financial loss from the effects of rationing, says nothing.

Butchers are going on strike, city dwellers are writing to the press for and against rationing, yet not one word about the financial loss to the farmer. Pork has dropped 4 to 5 cents to the producer; stock yards have a large carry-over of beef and sheep and it's the farmer who suffers the loss in price and pays the carry-over charges. Yet not a word of the farmer striking.

If rationing meat in Canada would for a certainty, help feed the starving millions in Europe then meat ratoning should be enforced. But why should the framer stand the loss? The Federal Government issues statements that Canada is millions of pounds behind in her export commitments. The farmer produces more and when he sells he finds that the price has fallen and the market glutted.

Thousands of factory workers in Canada are out on strike—the reason—their demand for more pay and shorter hours. Even before these strikes it was becoming increasingly difficult for farmers to procure farm labour. They simply can't compete in either wages or hours. Some farmers are selling their herds, others reducing the milk cows at least 50% keeping enough that they can carry on without help.

These conditions can't continue. If strikes are what the Canadian people desire how about the farmers giving them a real one? A thirty-day strike by the farmers—no milk, eggs, beef, pork, poultry, vegetables or grain—would convince Canadians that everything wasn't well in the agricultura industry. When people go hungry they start to think. A thirty-day strike would be a huge financial loss to the farmers, their organizations have no huge surplus stored up, as has labour, but the loss would be justified if it brought Canadian labour and the Federal Government to their senses.

Should we give a strike a try?

Chesterville Vitally Affected By Levels ot Nation River

Chesterville is vitally interested in the maintenance of the water level in the Nation because of the Nestle's Milk Products (Can.) Ltd. plant. In recent years when drought conditions existed, it was necessary to pump out pools upstream as far west as Cass Bridge to keep the plant supplied with water. Last summer, in spite of the dam at Chesterville, it was again necessary for Nestle's to spend huge sums of money in pumping water downstream.

Drought conditions always coincide with the peak of milk flow in the summer months, and present an aggravating problem as the plant is operating at capacity. During the peak of milk period, 1,000,000 gallons of water are required daily, while in the winter the plant uses 400,000 gallons a day.

Some years ago, officials of the company drilled a well to the depth of 1,000 feet to attempt a solution to the water problem. This supplies 100 gallons of water a minute but as it is sulphur water, can be used only in the summer for cooling purposes.

Nestle's also supplies water to the town's system of fire hydrants, and the safety of the entire business and residential properties rests on the ability of delivering water under sufficient pressure through the water mains.

Not only the village but a great dairy industry in and around Chesterville is affected by the Nestle's plant. In summer, 530 farmers deliver their milk here, while in the winter this jumps to 625 and a total raw milk production of 50,000 pounds a day. The area from which the milk is drawn extends from Monklands in the east to Mountain in the west, and from Vars in the north to eight miles south of the village.

It's the man who looks ahead who gets ahead.

GOOD management . . . essential to successful farming, as to any business enterprise . . . is largely a matter of timely marketing and careful spending . . . waiting for the time when it is most favourable to buy.

We all want things now . . . things we have not been able to get for the past several years. Some of these things are necessities . . . some are things that will contribute to our comforts and pleasures.

Eventually, these things will be more plentiful. By waiting a little longer we will help to keep prices of things we need at lower levels and we will buy at better advantage when we do buy.

Meantime we can invest our savings in the safest securities obtainable . . . Victory Bonds. More Victory Bonds will be offered this Fall. They pay 3% interest . . . double bank interest . . . and they are "liquid capital".

If we need cash in an emergency any bank will buy Victory Bonds at any time. And any bank will loan money on Victory Bonds.

The Ninth Victory Loan will be our last opportunity to buy Victory Bonds for a whole year, so buy double this time—the same rate of savings as in previous loans will pay for twice as many bonds over the 12 month period.

FARMERS CAN BUY VICTORY BONDS ON CONVENIENT DEFERRED PAYMENTS THROUGH ANY BANK

. . . just sign a short form letter which Victory Loan Salesmen carry (banks have copies) ordering the bank to buy Victory Bonds for you. Pay 5% when ordering and the balance at any time during the next 12 months. The interest the bonds earn pays the interest on the bank loan.

Dunbar Folks Remember Departing Teacher and Family

A farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McMartin on the eve of their departure to Cobourg, where Mr. McMartin has been accepted on the staff of Cobourg Public School. A pleasant evening was spent in dancing. An address was read by Miss Thelma Froats and presentation of a trilight lamp, coffee table and clothes hamper, to Mr. and Mrs. McMartin, and purse of money to Malcolm, was made by Marjorie McMillan, Fern Crowder, Clifton Barkley and James McMillan. Mr. McMartin thanked the friends and neighbors for their many gifts and expressed appreciation for their kind regards.

Following is the address:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McMartin, Malcolm and Mrs. Coulthart:

As your days among us draw to a close, we feel that we must meet with you once again to express our regret on your departure and to wish you the best of everything in your new home.

You have endeared yourselves to us in many ways and were always ready and willing to assist in any way in our community activities. Our associations with you during the past have always been a pleasure to us and we deeply regret losing you as our teacher, our neighbours and our friends.

As a token of our appreciation and our esteem we ask you to accept these gifts. May they always be a remembrance of this happy occasion.

As you go to your new home you carry our best wishes and leave behind friends who will always remember you with kindest recollections.

Signed on behalf of your neighbours, friends and pupils.

Marjorie McMillan, Fern Crowder, James McMillan, Clifton Barkley and Thelma Froats.

A Minister, traveling on one of those way-trains that stop at every station on a side-line, was reading his Bible.

"Find anything about this railroad in that book?" asked the conductor, as he reached for the minister's ticket.

"Yes," replied the preacher, "in the very first chapter it says that the Lord made every creeping thing."

MARKED GASOLINE

1. On and after October 1, 1945, gasoline will no longer be marked for special uses.
2. Marking of gasoline for special uses under the jurisdiction of the Oil Controller for Canada having been discontinued, the tax exemption purchase permit system is thereby ended.
3. Farmers, fishermen, guides and tourist outfitters will be entitled to claim refund of the Provincial Gasoline Tax where applicable. Claims, accompanied by receipted invoices, must be submitted to the Gasoline Tax Branch, Department of Highways, Parliament Buildings, Toronto within six months from date of payment of invoices.
4. A simplified method of assuring prompt payment of refunds, eliminating affidavits for each claim, has been worked out.

As there is no rationing of gasoline in Canada, marked gasoline, under the jurisdiction of the Oil Controller for Canada, has been eliminated, thereby ending the tax exemption purchase permit system.
To meet the desire of everyone to be relieved of wartime restrictions, the Provincial Government has developed a new system as free from controls and difficulties as possible. A simplified refund form has been prepared which eliminates the necessity of an affidavit being taken for each refund claim. This form may be obtained on application to the Gasoline Tax Branch, Department of Highways, Toronto, Ontario.

- The ending of marked gasoline sale removes difficulties made necessary by this wartime control.
- Complaints were made that marked gasoline was detrimental to the equipment in which it was being used.
- Records and reports necessary under the marked gasoline system will no longer be required.
- Extra storage facilities will be unnecessary for the separate storage of graded and marked gasoline with consequent saving to the consumer.

Fuelwood Price Under Close Surveillance by WPT Board

Some consumer complaints of heavy overcharges on purchases of fuelwood in the Eastern Ontario area have been received by the Ottawa office of the WPTB, and the general fuelwood price regulations in Eastern Ontario are receiving careful attention by the Board's investigational staff, N. C. Norton, regional enforcement counsel for the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, stated earlier this week. He was commenting on a statement made by Ottawa wood dealers that district farmers were freely piercing the price regulations on sales of fuelwood.

"Several farmers were prosecuted during the past year for overcharging on fuelwood," Mr. Norton declared. "But the Board has no reason to believe that infractions of the regulations are confined to this particular class of seller," he said.

The enforcement counsel urged consumers to demand invoices on all fuelwood purchases, which are required to record details of the sale. "But above all," he said, "report any suspected infractions of the regulations to the nearest Prices Board office."

Goodfellowship Priceless Gift of Int'l Service Clubs

Answering the question often asked by new members and those not acquainted with service clubs: "What do you get out of an International Organization?", J. Frank Casselman of Morewood, speaking to the Rotary Club of Chesterville on Monday evening, listed the benefits accrued by the club and some of the things a member gets, including, valuable contacts, priceless ideas, prestige, group training, training as a speaker, opportunity for unbounded development, prominence through achievement, and financial, moral and mental growth.

Gordon Wragg, secretary, gave a detailed report of the Directors meeting held at the home of Leon Marcellus on Thrusday evening. Included were details of the work and plans for the vocational, International, community and club services. P. S. Boyd spoke briefly reminding the club of the National Clothing Collection being held October 1 to 17, and President Water J. Carr announced the visit of the District Governor, D. Silverston, of Vankleek Hill, next Tuesday evening.

The speaker was introduced by Matt. Flynn and R. C. Dillabough expressed the thanks of the club for a talk well prepared and exceptionally well delivered.

Mr. Casselman, who is a well-known local farmer, is president of Chesterville and District Co-Op Ltd., a veteran of the first World War, a former Registrar of Deeds in the Morrisburg Office, and was the unsuccessful Liberal Candidate for Grenville-Dundas riding in the last Dominion election. He spoke with authority on his subject, as he is a past president of the Morrisburg-Waddington Lions Club.

Mr. Casselman's talk, after explaining the benefits the club receives from the parent organization, dwelt on the many privileges that come to a member of an organization such as Rotary International. Greatest of all, perhaps, is the good fellowship sponsored by meeting with the leading men of every line in the community. Here he receives training in working with groups of men of his community as he engages in service work.

Mr. Casselman quoted Kehler's definition of good-fellowship: "Good fellowship is one of the elemental things—rooted in man with good and evil, love and hate. Its temples are wherever good men get togther—its shrines and sanctuaries are the hearts of men. More than the impetuous comradeship of youth, it is the settled faith of men in men. Passing all boundaries of nation, creed or calling, it asks only the open heart, the honest purpose, the cheerful countenance. Its password is the kindling eye, its pledge the hearty hand—its finest messages are unspoken. It is the golden age made manifest. Rites, religions, men and measures, pass—good-fellowship remains: for it is eternal love of life, eternal faith, eternal charity and cheer."

One of the finest compliments to the International service organizations, said the speaker, was the invitation to sit in at the San Francisco conference.

THE CHALLENGE OF AN EMPTY PLATE*

★ BEEF – 140,000,000 lbs. still to be shipped.

The United Kingdom and liberated Europe rely on for Canada 225,000,000 lbs. this year.

We supplied only 85,000,000 lbs. to August 31.

★ PORK – 100,000,000 lbs. still to be shipped.

The United Kingdom and liberated Europe rely on Canada for 450,000,000 lbs. this year.

We supplied only 350,000,000 lbs. to August 31.

★ CANNED MEAT – 70,000,000 lbs. still to be shipped.

The United Kingdom and liberated Europe rely on Canada for 114,000,000 lbs. this year.

We supplied only 44,000,000 lbs. to August 31.

In most liberated European countries, there is a desperate shortage of meat.

As a great food-producing nation, Canada must, can — and will — help to meet the emergency.

The job will not be finished at the year's end. Food scarcities in Europe will continue until the next harvest.

★ ★ ★

This year, Europe is relying on Canada for a minimum of 789 million pounds of beef, pork and canned meat.

Up to the end of August, only 479 million pounds had been sent.

How soon can we bridge the gap?

Livestock marketings are normally at their heaviest in the last four months of the year.

If we are to help feed the hungry peoples of devastated Europe, this is the time to make our greatest effort.

★ ★ ★

To do our part, we must reduce our own consumption of meat and also assure that everyone in Canada gets a fair share.

That is why rationing is necessary.

MEAT RATIONING ADDS TO EVERYONE'S WORK

The producer who slaughters, the retailer who sells, the consumer who buys and eats—they all play a vital part.

AS A CONSUMER, HERE IS HOW YOU CAN CO-OPERATE

1. Try to plan your meat purchases before leaving home by determining what cuts you intend to buy and their approximate weights.
2. Make sure you have enough valid coupons and tokens to cover your proposed purchases by referring to the Consumer Coupon Value Chart and the Coupon and Token Calculator. Copies may be obtained from your Local Ration Board or Ration Branch.
3. Know the dates your "M" coupons become valid.
4. Do not buy more meat than you really need.
5. Avoid shopping at rush hours.
6. Be patient. Remember — your butcher may have inexperienced help.

Helpers Urgently Required At Red Cross Workrooms

With the sudden ending of the war in the East, and the fact that the Red Cross rooms were then closed for the summer months, the committee in charge of Chesterville and District Red Cross is having a difficult time to stir up interest once again in the work of the Red Cross.

There is still a huge amount of work to be completed to supply the great needs for clothing for the United Kingdom, which will continue to be the first care of the Overseas Headquarters. The few workers who come out to the rooms twice a week cannot cope with the amount of work required of the unit, and a direct appeal is made to the women of the village and district to call and help with this very necessary, humanitarian work.

"Europe faces the worst winter since the 30 years war, states Dr. Frank Munz, UNRRA official. "We are at the beginning of the greatest battle in history, the battle of the winter of 1945. Hundreds of thousands will die of starvation in Europe this winter. Many millions will live in unheated homes and millions will go without shoes or clothing."

All Civilian Work

There are on hand at the rooms now 450 yards of flannelette to be made into 200 children's combinations and 100 women's nightgowns. Many have been cut out and some made up, but help is urgently required to complete the job. All the articles being turned out are for civilian use. Also required are 50 sweaters and 50 pairs of boys' stockings

The rooms are open Tuesday afternoons and Saturday evenings when material is cut and handed out for sewing or knitting. When completed every garment bears a label, "Gift of the Canadian Red Cross Society".

During the war, the Chesterville and District Red Cross did a marvellous job as attested by many a serviceman and unfortunate bombed-out English family. The need today is just as urgent—don't let the Red Cross down!

DUNBAR PRESBYTERIAN YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

On Friday evening, September 28, the devotional meeting of the Dunbar Presbyterian Young People's Society was held at the home of Mrs. Grant Beckstead. The president being absent, Miss Winnifred Elliott opened the meeting with Psalm 86, with Miss Florence Barkley at the piano. The Lord's prayer was repeated in unison. The scripture reading was taken by Miss Fern Crowder, followed by hymn No. 567.

The topic was read by Lyle Elliott and the discussion was taken by Mrs. Elmer McMillan. Miss Florence Barkley rendered a beautiful piano solo, after which the minutes of the last meeting were reard by the secretary, Mrs. Arza Beckstead. The Roll Call was answered by 22 members and 13 visitors. The treasurer reported over $140.00 in the treasury.

Hymn No. 571 was sung and prayer and the National Anthem closed the meeting. Lunch was served by the hostess after which a sing song was enjoyed by all.

GOW—SWERDFEGER

The United Church at Colquhoun, was the scene of a pretty wedding, Thursday, September 25th, at 2 p.m., when the marriage was solemnized of Edna Maxine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Swerdfeger, Williamsburg, to Gnr. Duane E. Gow youngest son of Mrs. Lillie Gow and the late Mr. Gow.

Rev. Hector M. Beach, of Finch, performed the ceremony. The church was prettily decorated with multi-colored gladioli, asters and ferns.

The wedding music from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. William Gow of Cornwall. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Mahlon Gow, Williamsburg, sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked charming in her wedding gown of white slipper satin with a sweetheart neckline and the sleeves falling in points over the hand; three-quarter length veil, draped in coronet style and held by white gardenias. She carried an arm bouquet of Bettertime roses. The only ornament worn by the bride was a pearl necklace, which was worn by her mother on her wedding day, 27 years ago.

The bridal couple left later by motor on a trip to Western points. They were showered with rice and confetti by their friends, carrying with them best wishes for their future happiness.

The bride chose for travelling a tan and green silk jersey dress, a green wool tweed coat with tan accessories and wore a corsage of Funkia lillies and maiden hair fern.

A co-incidence in connection with the marriage is that the officiating minister, Rev. Hector M. Beach and Mrs. Beach (formerly Mae Kyle) were married the same evening, 27 years ago as were the bride's parents. Mrs. Swerdfeger, (formerly Nellie Kennedy), and Mrs. Beach, (formerly Mae Kyle), were neighbor girls before their marriage.
