New School Grants Will Reduce Taxes

A few days ago the Press received from Hon. Geo. H. Challies, the local M. L. A., a tabular table outlining the new system of school grants set up by the Drew Government. Under this new system, the grants have been greatly increased and should enable all municipalities throughout the province to cut their tax rates by several mills.

Here is how the new grants compare with previous grants:

Winchester Public School—grant on new basis, $4,623.64; on old basis, 1,063.00, a possible reduction of 6.7 mills. Winchester High School—new grant, $10,356.00; grant on old basis, $2,348.84, a possible reduction of 15.01 mills.

The new grants are based on 1934 operating costs, and there may be a slight variance when the 1944 operating costs are used as the basis for the grants. Taking this into consideration, the local tax rate should be reduced by at least 10 mills, with these new school grants in force.

Space permitting, we will publish the complete comparative table of these new school grants in the next issue of the Press.

These increased school grants were promised by Premier George Drew, prior to the last Provincial Election. He has made good that promise, and all taxpayers should be grateful. The government plans to get the money, previously paid by municipalities for the maintenance of schools, from provincial taxes on liquor, beer, etc., we are informed.

MEMBERS OF LOCAL WOLF-CUB PACK BANQUETED

An enjoyable time was spent in the local town hall on Thursday evening last, when Mr. Arnold Dukelow, Cubmaster, and his good wife, tendered a banquet to the Winchester troupe of Wolf-Cubs. In addition to the 23 Cubs, a number of guests were present at the supper. These included Rev. Norman J. Thomas, Councillor Walter MacDonald, Mr. Ward Summers, Pringle Thomas, Cub instructor; Mrs. Ed. Libera, Mrs. Howard Fetterly and Mrs. H. G. Graham, instuctresses. These ladies assisted Mrs Dukelow in serving.

During the evening, Mr. Thomas led the lads in a spirited sing-song and gave them an interesting talk. Various games were played, and other forms of entertainment provided.

A highlight of the evening came when the Cubs presented their Master, Mr. Dukelow, with a wallet and some handkerchiefs.

With the help of the lady instructors, Cubmaster Dukelow has an interesting and instructive year planned for these youngsters, who will be called upon to share the responsibilities of tomorrow. Parents should not hesitate to encourage their children to take more than a passing interest in this splendid youth-training program.

WEDDINGS

McKENDRY—MACDONALD

A wedding of local interest took place in the chapel of Deer Park United Church, Toronto, at 8.30 o'clock on Thursday evening, December 28th, when Miss Jean Williamson Macdonald, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. J. F. Macdonald, of Wilberton Rd., Toronto, became the bride of Cpl. William Gerald McKendry, C.A.C., T.C., Camp Borden, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. McKendry, of Winchester. Rev. G. Stanley Russell officiated, assisted by Rev. William Purvis, of Mallorytown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a gown of white jersey. Her finger-tip veil was caught wth orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of Red Roses.

Mrs. Evan Young was her sister's matron-of-honour, wearing silver blue crepe with calot of scarlet feathers, and carrying a poinsettia muff.

Capt. Ralph McKendry was best man for his brother, while Mr. William Macdonald, brother of the bride, acted as usher.

Following the ceremony, a small reception was held at the University Women's Club.

Cpl. and Mrs. McKendry spent their honeymoon in Quebec. For travelling, the bride wore a fur coat with cocoa brown accessories.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the weding were: Dr. and Mrs. J. J. McKendry, Miss Vivian McKendry and Miss Jean Wyatt, of Winchester; Miss Pauline McKendry, Reg. N., of Montreal, and Capt. and Mrs. Ralph McKendry.

TRICKEY—FAULKNER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Ernest Trickey, Williamsburg. Rev. E. A. Martineau performed the ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Edgar Strader, aunt of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Gladys Marcellus. Mr. MacGregor Moffat was best man.

The bride wore a heavenly blue crepe afternoon dress, designed with Sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her smart black hat was trimmed with flat ostrich feathers, the same colour as the dress and a shoulder-length black veil. She wore a corsage of Bettertime roses. The bridesmaid wore a gold crepe two-piece gown with black accessories, and a corsage of Talisman Roses.

The bride's mother was dressed in Fuschia crepe and wore black accessories. The groom's mother chose a black crepe gown with trapunto trimming, and black accessories.

Following a reception, the couple left on a short honeymoon trip to Toronto. The bride travelled in a Turquoise blue wool dress with matching hat and a mink dyed Muskrat coat.

Among the out-of-town guests were Flt. Sgt. Glen Ferguson and Mrs. Ferguson, of Toronto; Misses Sadie A. Feeley, Hilda Cunningham and Gladys Marcellus, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. W. E Trickey, Miss Joan Trickey, Mr and Mrs. W. Casselman, Mr. and Mrs. W McIntosh, Miss Jean McIntosh, Mr. Ray McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. OBITUARY

LATE JOSEPH HUGHES

The news of the sudden passing of "Joe" Hughes on December 28th last, came as a great shock to this community. On Christmas day, while going down the steps at his home to shovel snow, he fell and broke his hip. Dr. McKendry was called and had him removed to his office for an X-ray, which revealed his condition such as necessitated his removal to the Civic Hospital at Ottawa, where it was expected he would undergo an operation in order to properly connect and set the bones.

The second day after his admittance to the hosptal, and before any surgical work was done, his condition became serious, and in a few hours he passed away.

Joseph Benson Hughes, who was the youngest son of John L. Hughes and Jessie Earl, was born in the Melvin Settlement May 5th, 1876. Forty years ago he moved to Winchester village into the home which his mother had built for herself and him, and continued to live there until his death on Thursday last.

Having lived in this district all his life and having delivered mail over all the rural mail routes from Winchester, he was well known and had a large circle of friends and acquaintances who held him in high esteem. He was of a kindly disposition and enjoyed a social fellowship with all his acquaintances. He also was a great lover of children. This was a well proven fact by the number of children who viewed his remains and were loathe to withdraw from his casket.

He was a great reader and had preserved many clippings from the variety of literature which interested him, especially matters pertaining to the Government and politics, being a staunch Conservative and very loyal to his party.

He was converted under the ministry of Rev. B. S. Taylor in a camp meeting held on the Fair Grounds in September, 1905. Shortly afterwards, he sought and obtained the experience of holiness, and united with the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and was a loyal and devoted member until his death.

He leaves to mourn his passing, one sister, Mrs. Electa Rowley, of Winchester; several nephews and nieces, and a wide circle of friends. Two brothers and four sisters have predeceased him.

The funeral service, which was largely attended, was held from the home to the Wesleya[n] Methodist Church on Saturday, D[ec]. h, at p.m., and was in charg[e] e tor, Rev. D. W. Summe[rs] Rev. Norman Thomas a[nd] Summers. The sing[ing] was rendered by the Bessie Rennick as pi[anist] don Robinson and [Mrs.] sang: "No Night T[here]" bearers were: Me[ssrs.] mers. Clarence De[an] and Thos. FEED NEWS

PROSPECTS

With much of the local grain used up, most feeders will have to buy grain feed from now until spring.

Compared with last year, supplies would appear to be at least as good, if not better.

In a general way there really is no shortage. A few lines such as Millfeed cannot keep up to demand, but there is an abundance of western grain. The only reason for shortage of this western grain would be transportation. Mr. Davidson, Feeds Administrator, says it will take 200 cars of grain from the West every day until spring. Allowing for storms and other delays, that is a big job.

It will help a lot if everyone will figure what feed he will need and buy ahead as far as possible.

Arrange rations acording to kinds of feed available.

Keep a fair amount of feed on hand to carry over possible delays in getting supplies in.

WESTERN GRAIN

Lots of Western Oats, Barley and Wheat, and quality is good.

By bringing in both whole and ground grain, we have been able to keep up our stock. If everyone will co-operate in ways we have suggested, we hope to keep it coming fast enough.

MILLFEEDS

We expect to get our full quotas of Millfeeds but it will not be nearly enough to go around.

Use Rolled Grain or Dairy Concentrate to replace Bran.

GLUTEN FEED

Fair supply. By using Gluten in limited quantities along with other protein feeds, there should be enough to go around.

OILCAKE MEAL

Production of Linseed Oilcake is much less than last year. We do not expect to have much to offer through the winter months.

SOYBEAN OIL MEAL

Soybean Oil Meal is one of the best feeds on the market. It has 44% protein. It costs about the same per protein unit as other high protein feeds.

No limit in quantities.

Highly recommended for mixing in Dairy, Poultry or Pig Feeds.

Feed Soybean Oil Meal in place of Oilcake, Gluten, Distillers, etc.

DAIRY FEEDS

16% Dairy Feed, 24% Dairy Concentrate, Ground or Rolled Oats, Barley, or Wheat, Soybean Oil Meal and Gluten [Meal], all in stock.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN
Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! Once more the holiday season has gone the way of all good things and if you feel as we do: "you'll feel like one who treads alone, some banquet hall deserted; whose lights are fled; whose garlands dead and all but he departed." How else could one feel after the magpies are off to school and the house looks as if a tornado had struck it. But it's been fun to have so many doing dishes and things that had to be finished, and the table has been set as soon as it was cleared away for a week.

Food is the last thing I wish to speak of to-day. Surely it can't be that there are tidbits that we can't decide what to do with. Leftovers are problems in most households and until one can master the knack of using them, we haven't proven ourselves good cooks.

There are endless possibilities of using every bit of the carcass of the fowl. After you've scraped off the bones, they go into the soup pot. With the addition of a little onion, seasoning and rice, they make a delicious hot broth. The meat goes into a casserole dish along with diced celery, and an egg sauce topped with crumbs and grated cheese.

Mashed potatoes seasoned with salt, pepper, a whiff of sage and combined with a beaten egg, may be fashioned into little sausages, rolled in crumbled corn flakes and heated in the electric oven until piping hot. Diced turnips make a tasty salad when moulded in clear gelatine using a little lemon juice for zest.

Slices of stale sponge cake may line a serving dish and a good boiled custard poured over them, the dessert is ready to be decorated with a spoonful of jam. Left-over fruit served over flavoured blanc mange.

Carrot Potato Ring

1 cup of cooked carrots, 1 cup of cooked potatoes, 2 tbsps. dripping, 4 tbsps. flour, 2 cups milk, salt and pepper, 4 egg yolks, 1 tsp. minced onion, 4 egg whites.

Press the carrots and potatoes through a coarse sieve. Make a sauce of the fat, flour and milk. Season with salt and pepper. Stir in the egg yolks and add the carrot and potato. Cool. Fold in the egg whites, beaten stiff. Pile the mixture in a greased ring mold and place it in a pan of hot water. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 1 hour in an electric oven. Unmold on a warm platter and fill centre with creamed eggs.

Dusky Dessert

1 1-2 cups sifted flour, 1-2 cup of sugar, 1-4 cup grated cooking chocolate, 3 tsps. baking powder, 1-2 tsp. salt, 1 cup cooked prunes cut in pieces, 1 well-beaten egg, 1-2 cup of milk, 2 tbsps. melted shortening.

Mix and sift dry ingredients and combine with the prunes, well beaten eggs, milk and melted shortening. Pour into well greased pudding mold and steam 1 1-2 to 2 hours. Unmold and if you wish, garnish with cooked maraschino cherries. Serve hot with prunes stuffed with peanuts and chocolate sauce.

Grape Tapioca

2 cups water, 1-2 cup of quick cooking tapioca, 1 medium sized jar of grape jelly.

Mix water and jelly and boil until jelly is dissolved, then slowly add tapioca. Cook until clear. Serve chilled with cream or boiled custard.

A one pint bottle of grape juice may be substituted for jelly and water and sugar added to taste.

Apple Cracker Pudding

(five servings)

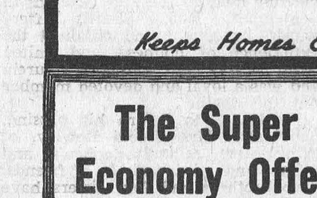

1 cup Graham cracker crumbs, 4 medium sized apples of good flavor, 1-2 cup chopped nuts, 1-2 cup brown sugar, juice of one lemon, grated rind of 1-2 lemon, 3-4 cup water.

Pare and slice the apples and combine with rest of ingredients. Pour into greased baking dish. Bake uncovered in an electric oven at 350 F. for 30 minutes, or until apples are tender and top a golden brown. Serve hot with cream.

We've made this pudding with stale oatmeal cookie crumbs and found it good.

The local 100 Club acknowledges with thanks a donation of $25.00 to the Community Park Fund from Capt. Gilbert "Punch" Gemeroy, on active service overseas with the Royal Canadan Dental Corps. Capt. Gemeroy cabled the money via the Royal Bank during the Christmas holidays, which just proves that those brave lads on the fighting fronts still have more than a passing interest in their home towns.

Still Young At 73!

Mr. W. G. Porteous, who resides on Queen Street, observes his 73rd birthday this week—but at heart he is not really that old. A few days ago he purchased a season's ticket at the local skating rink and has already enjoyed several skates. He says he intends to skate, with moderation, all winter, as he believes the exercise is good for him. In extending congratulations to Mr. Porteous, we hope that he will continue to enjoy good health for many years to come. We were going to suggest that he try out for a place on the local Junior Hockey Team, but he is just a little over the age limit.

THE OLD AND NEW YEAR

Year forty-four has come and gone;
No more will British subjects long
To have its tragic days, now flown,
Repeated by those sad and lone.

Ah, yes, to many hearts there came
News from afar which caused much pain,
Which still has left its imprint deep
On faces for those fast asleep.

Yet in the year that's past away
God sure has been our Guide and stay;
He has protected us from harm,
Has sent no cause to give alarm.

Now in the year that lies ahead,
May it of you and I be said:
We'll trust our God to lead us on Until that day of Victory dawn.

Then let us pray with hearts sincere
To God each day of this New Year;
That soon this cruel war shall cease
And usher in a reign of Peace.

—John Reoch, Winchester.
