Winchester Council Faces '72 With Optimism

G. A. Reynolds, in his remarks to fellow council members at the first meeting of the New Year, spoke optimistically of plans outlined for the coming months and thanked all members of council for their whole-hearted cooperation.

Mr. Reynolds said he was confident he could look forward to similar conditions in the year ahead.

Rev. Neil was present to open the first meeting with prayer for which he was graciously thanked by all councillors.

New Town Foreman

Because Reg. Freeland is no longer employed by the village but by the Water Resources Commission applications for the position were reviewed and Robert Watson received the appointment.

With the community centre nearing completion it was noted the 'Fund' has now reached the $36,000.00 mark and with ice now available skating hours have been announced as follows:

Every night between the hours of 7:00 and 9:30 and also both Saturday and Sunday afternoons between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00.

Council members expressed concern regarding what action could be taken by council to control building until such time as the new district planning board becomes active. It was agreed some type of protective By-law will be drafted at an early date.

Because of the time-consuming content of the agenda council found it necessary to break the first meeting into two segments. Consequently the meeting which was called to order on Tuesday evening was adjourned and reconvened the following night.

PARKS EMPLOY 115 MEN WINTER WORKS PROGRAM

115 men, recruited for the most part through Welfare Agency referrals, are presently employed on a special Winter Works Programme by the Provice of Ontario funded through the Department of Tourism and Information.

The programme which started on November 22nd, 1971, will continue through March 31, 1972 with a total expenditure exceeding 1/4 million dollars. The basic hourly rate is $2.50

Work groups are located on parklands in the Counties of Glengarry, Stormont, Dundas, Grenville, Leeds and Frontenac.

The removal of dead elm trees, underbrushing and cutting firewood for the campsites are projects in progress with a 7 man group at Adolphustown Park, 25 on the 1000 Islands Parkway, 13 in the Crysler Maple Sugar Bush, 8 at Charlottenburgh Park, 5 on the Long Sault Parkway and 18 in Crysler Park.

Another 19 men are working on a new storage shed at the Parks Maintenance Centre. At Upper Canada Village 20 men are employed on construction of a new mill pond dam, transplanting trees and installing new raceways for the Woollen Mill and the Saw Mill.

Due to the unusually open winter weather to date progress on the various projects has been exceptionally good.

New Minister To Be Ordained At Williamsburg Lutheran Sunday

For the first time in the long and fruitful history of St. Peter's Lutheran Church at Williamsburg the sturdy century-old building will be the scene of a very impressive ceremony this Sunday when the new Pastor, Rev. John Boehmer will be ordained and at the same time officially installed.

The young clergyman, born and raised in Ottawa's old 'New Edinburgh District' is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Boehmer.

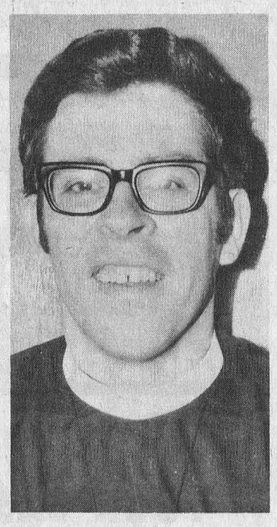
Educated at Creighton Street and York Street Public Schools and Lisgar Collegiate Institute he proceeded to Waterloo Lutheran University where he received his B.A. in 1967. Four years later he was awarded his M. Div. Degree at Waterloo Lutheran Seminary.

Rev. Boehmer has one sister, Mrs. Beryl Clark, who resides in Ottawa.

Following ordination the youthful cleric will not only take on the responsibilities at St. Peter's but also be in charge of the spiritual guidance at St. Luke's Dunbar.

Both are old established parishes. St. Peter's was founded in 1826 and the present church was erected in 1856. Neighbouring Dunbar parish was founded in 1874.

Church dignitaries from near and far will be participating in the solemn ordination ceremony when the sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. F. K. Wagschal, Pastor, Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Scarsdale, New York.



Rev. John Boehmer

Other high-ranking clergy at Williamsburg for the historic occasion include Rev. Dr. D. J. Glebe, Dean of Waterloo Lutheran Seminary who will be the new cleric's Sponsor, Rev. Dr. E. Riegert, Professor of Homoletics and Liturgics, Waterloo Lutheran Seminary, 'Liturgist'; Rev. H. O. Hartig, Pastor, St. Peter's Church, Preston, Ontario, 'Assistant Liturgist'; and Rev. Dr. O. F. Reble, President Eastern Canada Synod of the Lutheran Church in America, 'Ordinator'.

The ceremony will commence at 11:00 a.m. and Rev. Boehmer anticipates having all parishioners present, as well as, many of other faiths, to witness his acceptance into the ministry.

Rev. Walter J. Goos, who has served the congregation faithfully for the past eight years, has retired.

A RECORD

Williamsburg Township Spends $195,000.00 On Roads, Culverts

Roads and culverts in Williamsburg accounted for an expenditure of $195,000.00 in 1971 the largest expenditure ever made on roads by the township and included construction of a new 4-bay centrally-located garage.

The expenditure report was read at the first council meeting of the year last Saturday when all members were present with the exception of Deputy Reeve Edward Hanson who was ill.

Reeve J.C. Whitteker thanked fellow councillors for their co-operation during the past year and predicted a productive year ahead.

The two usual By-laws concerning borrowing and appointment of township officials were passed and Mr. Whitteker was appointed for a one-year term to the South Dundas Area Planning Board.

An application by Donald Irven to sell land in concession 8 was approved and following examination of bonds the clerk was instructed to replace them in the township safe.

ED WOOLVEN, NEPEAN

Seeks Conservative Nomination

Ed Woolven, resident of Nepean Township and Vice-President of the Grenville-Carleton Progressive Conservative Association, has announced his intention to seek the nomination for candidate at the Progressive Conservative nominating convention set for 2:00 p.m. on February 19th at either Richmond, Ontario, or Algonquin College.

If successful Mr. Woolven will oppose Gordon Blair in the next Federal election should Mr. Blair decide to again run for office.

Mr. Woolven has written a Conservative Viewpoint news column in area newspapers for the past three years. He also spearheaded the drive to provide safe recreation facilities for snowmobile and bicycling families because he believes that unnecessary deaths have occurred as these families have been forced to use busy highways for lack of designated trails. He would also like to see Canada take the initiative in the creation of a United Nations Navy to control pollution on the oceans.

Mr. Woolven is resident representative for one of Canada's oldest Canadian-owned Casualty and Farm Mutual companies. His keen interest in recreation and tourism comes naturally since his family have operated a small tourist resort near Huntsville for several years.

Prior to coming to Ottawa in 1961, he organized along with five friends, the Craigleith member-owned ski club in the Blue Mountains of Georgian Bay.

Countryman Trophy Winners At Winchester Curling Club

The Countryman Trophy bonspiel was played at Winchester Curling Club last week and the rink pictured completed the spiel without a loss to earn the coveted award.

The trophy, presented in memory of the late Gordon Countryman is one of feature events of the year at the local club and attracts special interest because of the fact it is a mixed competition with ladies playing the skip position.

Although Rita Savage was the starting skip, illness forced her out after two games and Amy Holmes played the balance of the schedule.

Ironically enough Mrs. Savage defeated Mrs. Holmes in her first game on Wednesday evening and then returned Thursday night to advance another step with a victory over Ina Thompson.

It was at this stage of the bonspiel that Mrs. Savage was forced to withdraw and since Mrs. Holmes had been eliminated from further play, she moved into skip the rink and with great success.

Freida Berry was next to fall victim of the strong Savage rink and from here they advanced to the finals against Cathy Keys. Mrs. Keys had reached the final stage with wins over Eleanor Toop, Norma Wylie and Phyllis MacIntosh.

Although official presentation of all trophies is tied in with the annual banquet in spring the winning quartette gladly posed, along with the ladies' club president, following the hard battle.

O.F.A. Boasts 200 Members In Dundas County

With approximately two hundred members the Dundas County Federation of Agriculture now has the largest membership of any county east of Toronto.

Although proud of this record the county executive is presently in the middle of an all-out drive to further increase the strength of the unit. Three O.F.A. Fieldman, John Carley, Osborne Bowes and Gerald Carey have willingly offered assistance in this most recent drive and all three have expressed pleasure with the keen interest shown by area farmers.

The O.F.A. is becoming a powerful body," he says, "and has only recently been instrumental

One member of the local executive points, rather triumphantly, to recent incidents that have proved the value of membership in the organization.

in bringing about a settlement with the Purina Company involving a top researcher from St. Louis and a Perth pig farmer concerning a bad feed mix."

He also quoted another Carleton County appeal that was successful thanks to the efforts of the Federation.

"At the present time", he concluded, "there is action being taken on several fronts concerning costs to the farmer."

The organization is sponsoring a Dinner and Dance at Chesterville Legion Hall on January 21st with music by Frank Morgan's band and a sell-out crowd is anticipated.

In an effort to bring the organization closer to the individual member the Federation, in co-operation with several Eastern Ontario counties, is planning to open a service office at Smiths Falls in the very near future.

Headlines Raise Eyebrows

Front-page headlines in last week' s edition were designed to focus attention on the immediate area and the results proved the merit of such steps.

Many however, read only the prominent black letters and failed to digest the print which, because of space problems, must obviously be on a much smaller scale.

Although outlined in detail that the proposed out-patient hospital wing for Morrisburg has been approved 'in principle' only, some apparently took for granted construction would get under way almost immediately.

There is a distinct possibility the wing will become a reality in the not too distant future but many hours of careful planning and negotiating will have to be completed before such a date arrives.

POSTER EXPO '72

Churches Launch Children's Contest

Canadian churches have launched a Poster Expo Contest for elementary school children on the subject of world development and relief. There won't be any prize but posters which most creatively express the 1972 theme "Development is "People" will be featured at Man and His World in Montreal and at the "Arts Alive" exhibit at the Calgary Stampede in July.

Poster Expo '72 was initiated by an interchurch committee on World Relief and World Development and a kit filled with materials about development has been offered to teachers across Canada with an invitation to assist their pupils in the project. Poster Expo is aimed at youngsters from 9 to 15 years of age (grades 4-9) and the interchurch committee suggests that the art work be exhibited in each community during the period February 16 to April 8. Winning posters will be sent to Toronto and Montreal before April 30 and the most expressive and artistically unique will be chosen for display at the two national exhibitions.

"We hope to help Canadians, especially young people, to come to a better understanding of the world's needs and world development," says Colin Stuart, 28, of Toronto, who is preparing Poster Expo materials for English-speaking Canada.

Stuart, who has just completed two years in Thailand as a CUSO volunteer, says the prepared material with each kit includes an introduction on development and guidelines for poster creation. By the end of January 10,000 kits will have been circulated to churches and schools, the cost shared equally between the churches and the Canadian International Development Agency.

"It's an experiment by the churches," Stuart explains. "We hope it will tell us what level of interest there is in the country and what kinds of people are interested. We hope it will get teachers and students actively thinking. Concern for world development is not just for specialists or experts, but something that is for everyone," he said.

Clergymen and Sunday School leaders of the participating denominations - Anglican, Lutheran Presbyterian, Roman Catholic and United - have been mailed information about Poster Expo.

To obtain the full kit they should write to: Poster Expo '72, P.O. Box 900, Station "F", Toronto, Ontario.

For Book Lovers

THE DISCOVERERS, by Leslie Hannon, is rated as a 'must' for book-lovers and the story the author recounts is one with which all are familiar - at least in part.

It is the story of the courageous men who were the first to land on Canada's shores and the first to carry the knowledge of Canada's existence and extent back to the old world.

Not only is THE DISCOVERERS beautifully illustrated with maps, drawings and colour photographs, but the text is lively, absorbing and thoroughly researched.

Ranging from the Irish monk, St. Brendan (who is reputed to have reached the area of present day Florida in 1545), through Norse voyageurs, to the four men who left the first distinct European stamp on this land, Cabot, Cartier, Champlain and Cook, the author explores in detail the personality of the intrepid adventurers who braved danger, hardship and the dread unknown for the Glory of God, King and country.

Correction

An error was made in listing survivors of the late Mrs. Clarence Deeks in a recent obituary. Mrs. Rena Kerr should have read Mrs. Tena Kerr and the name of a brother, George Brown, was completely omitted.

GORDON BLAIR REPORT

The End Of A Long Session

Parliament has all but concluded the third longest session in its history. When it terminates finally on February 16th, it will have spanned three calendar years - having started in October of 1970. It commenced with the high drama and great tragedy of the kidnappings of Jason Cross and the late Pierre Laporte. It ended by passing the new Income Tax Act and, after a strenuous all-night session, the controversial national agricultural marketing legislation. Some statistics are interesting. The House of Commons sat for 242 days; Hansard now runs to almost 11,000 pages; its 18 Standing and 3 Special Committees held 920 meetings, heard 2,751 witnesses and produced almost 30,000 printed pages of reports.

A PRODUCTIVE SESSION

It was a productive session - 58 Bills were passed, many of major importance. Apart from the new Tax Bill, the most important legislation included the new Unemployment Insurance Act, the new Veterans Pensions Act; the creation of the Canada Development Corporation; a new Investment Companies Act; a new Cooperative assistance Act; a new Packaging and Labelling Act; the emergency legislation designed to protect Canada from the effects of the United States import surcharge; and the incorporation of the textile and clothing Board.

Several important projects were laid before Parliament in the form of draft legislation so that they could be properly considered by the public. These included a draft Competition Bill and a draft of a new Federal Labour Code, both of which have been the subject of much controversy and discussion. Also outstanding are proposals for prohibition of cigarette advertising and the protection of privacy from wire-tapping.

OUTLOOK BRIGHTER

During the life of this Session the Nation has been confronted with the most serious unemployment in a decade and threatened by the disturbance of international trade resulting from the United States emergency measures and surcharge of last August. As the long Session ends, the international picture looks much brighter as a result of the lifting of the United States surcharge and the rearrangement of currency valuations across the Western World. Although no one has any right to be complacent, the economic outlook in Canada appears, to all objective commentators, both Canadian and foreign, to be much brighter. The new Session, which as far as anyone can judge, will be the last one to be held before the election, will therefore start under happier auspices than its predecessor.

ANOTHER QUESTIONNAIRE

Many constituents have asked whether we will have another questionnaire like the one I distributed last year. The answer is "Yes" because I think the questionnaire was extremely valuable not only to me, but also to many people in the constituency and other Members of Parliament, as indicating trends of opinion.

I hope that anyone who has ideas about questions which might be covered in a questionnaire this year will let me have them as soon as possible. I would welcome suggestions from everyone about types to be included.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD

Mrs. Frank Acres was elected president of Vernon A.C.W. at the Annual meeting which was held at her home last week.

As I gazed into the night.

This photo may also bring back memories of dreams of long ago.

All we know, for sure, is that the picture was taken here in Winchester and that several local businessmen have changed somewhat since that happy day fifty years ago.

Readers have, on several occasions, expressed a keen desire to study pictures similar to this since such photos prove a real test of memory.

The names are on file here at the office but, as is often the case, thre are a couple of 'blanks'.

Maybe you can help us out. Next week the picture will be reprinted on a smaller scale, complete with names.

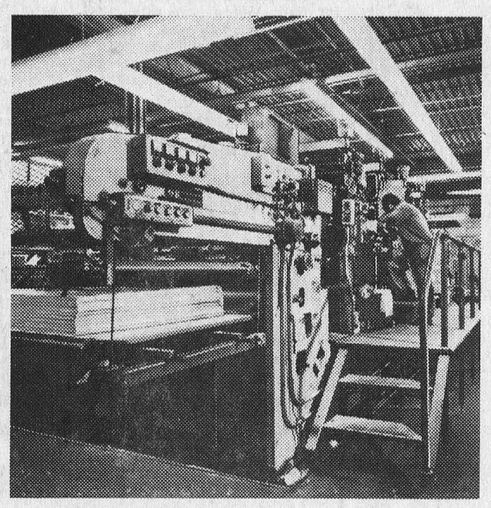
The presses are rolling.



Tax reform legislation has been passed by Parliament and is now law.

What does tax reform mean to you? How will it affect you?

To answer these questions, the Department is conducting a massive national mailing program. Booklets are now being printed and mailed to all taxpayers as quickly as they come off the press.

The complete mailing will be finished in about five weeks.

All taxpayers will receive at least two booklets—"Highlights for Individuals" and "Valuation Day". These should provide answers to most of your questions.

Some taxpayers will receive additional information, according to their specific needs.

Read your booklets. Afterwards, if you have questions, ask us. We'll be glad to help.

You will find that your booklets will make it easier to file your income tax return in 1973, because they will help you to prepare now.

Municipal Employment Incentive Program Expands To $35 Million

Municipal Affairs Minister Dalton Bales announced today an expansion of the Provincial-Municipal employment incentive program.

The municipalities are being notified that they can now undertake winter employment projects on private property provided they are in the public interest and have received the consent of the owners of the properties.

The employment incentive program is being expanded in this way in response to requests by municipalities, the Minister said.

"Any work on private property must be done by otherwise unemployed people, and the work itself must be for the good of the community in order to receive my Department's approval," Mr. Bales said.

Under the program the province is paying labour and certain other costs of the job-creating projects undertaken by municipalities and other local authorities.

The Minister also said he is notifying municipal treasurers that funds available under the program have been increased by $10 million to $35 million.

"The extra funds will be distributed on a first-come-first-served basis and I urge municipal councils to re-appraise their local employment situations with the objective of undertaking these additional works projects as soon as possible in the new year," Mr. Bales said.

Since the program was announced six weeks ago, 400 local authorities have started projects costing approximately $17 million and creating 421,000 man-days of work. About 150 municipalities have already requested $4 million in extra funds beyond their initial allocations.

"This response so early in the program is most encouraging," Mr. Bales commented.

Of the $25 million originally available under the program, $17 million was allocated to municipalities and Indian Bands and $5 million to school boards and conservation authorities.

"Funds not taken up by the end of this year, plus the $10 million now added to the program, will be distributed to those municipalities who come forward with additional projects for alleviating their local unemployment problems," Mr. Bales said.

The Minister said that if the total of $35 million available is used up, it should create about 1,100,000 man-days of work before the program ends May 31st, 1972.

Under last year's program, $7.5 million was made available and 697 municipalities used $6.3 million, creating work for 7,000 people.

WINCHESTER GROWTH

There has also been some speculation concerning the suggestion that Winchester's population could double before the end of this century. The Press basis its comments on the reports of a reputable engineering firm and following a careful survey, this organization predicted very rapid growth in the area.

Some readers expressed the opinion the Press was 'over-optimistic'.

Time, and time alone, has the answers.

Smokefree Engine Program Underway

Air Canada is well under way in its program to convert all of its Pratt & Whitney JT8D engines to make them smokefree. The JT8Ds power the DC-9 jetliners of which the airline operates a fleet of 36. A recent flypast low over a Canadian airport shows a DC-9 with one engine modified. The black smoke plume can be seen pouring from the non-modified starboard engine while the port engine shows no trace of smoke pollution.

"Lovingly remembered by one and all who knew you, dear mother."
37c —Son Clifford

ST. PIERRE — In loving memory of a dear daughter, Yvonne St. Pierre, who passed away accidentally on January 13, 1966.
Those whom we love, though out of sight,
Are never out of mind;
They're ever cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
That's why we think of those dear days
When you were always near,
And long to have you back again
Because we love you dear.
—Lovingly remembered by mother and father (Mr. and Mrs. Albert St. Pierre), brothers and sisters. 37p

SHELDRICK — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Irvine Sheldrick, who passed away January 18th, 1970.
The midnight stars are shining
Upon your silent grave,
Beneath it sleeps the one we love,
And the one we could not save.
—Sadly missed by daughters Jean and Hilda and families. 37c

WEAVER—In loving memory of a dear friend, John Weaver, who passed away January 19th, 1969.
In the book of life there are memories
Of the happy days we knew,
And recorded in love are the blessings
Of a wonderful friend like you.
We loved him for his thoughtfulness,
His kind and gentle ways,
We loved him for the things he did,
Without a thought of praise,
Is it not strange that those we need,
And those we love the best,
Are the ones that God is needing too,
And taking home to rest.
—Sadly missed by Velma and Clifford Francis and family. 37p

Davis Announces Four New Cabinet Appointments

Following closely on the passing of enabling legislation in the December sitting of the Ontario Legislature, Prime Minister William Davis has announced the appointment of three provincial secretaries for policy development and designated the minister for the new Department of Financial and Intergovernmental Affairs.

These appointments are the first phase of a complete reorganization of the Government of Ontario.

The Minister of Education, the Honourable Robert Welch, becomes Provincial Secretary for Social Development, concerned with the well-being of individuals and families in the areas of educational and cultural development, physical and mental health, social services to those unable to meet their basic needs, and community services.

The Ministers of Colleges and Universities, Education, Health, Housing, Social and Family Services will provide the services in this policy field. Their ministers, along with the provincial secretary as chairman, will make up the Social Development Policy Committee of Cabinet.

The Minister of Health, the Honourable A.B.R. Lawrence, becomes Provincial Secretary for Resources Development, concerned with industrial development, enhancement of the agricultural sector, development and preservation of the province's resources, development of labour policies, development of all modes of transportation and communication, environmental management and provision of employment.

A. B. R. Lawrence

The Ministers of Agriculture and Food, Labour, Natural Resources, Environment, Trade and Industry, and Transportation and Communications will provide the services in this policy field. The provincial secretary as chairman, along with the other ministers, will make up the Resources Development Policy Committee of Cabinet.

The Minister of Justice and Attorney General, the Honourable Allan Lawrence, becomes Provincial Secretary for Justice, concerned with the traditional responsibilities of the provincial government in regard to the prevailing legal system, administration of the courts, protection of the basic rights of citizens and law enforcement.

The Attorney General and the Ministers of Correctional Services and Public Protection will provide the services in this policy field. The provincial secretary will chair the Justice Policy Committee of Cabinet which will include the other ministers of the justice policy field as members.

The Treasurer and Minister of Economics, the Honourable Darcy McKeough, becomes the minister responsible for Financial and Intergovernmental Affairs. The primary function of this ministry will be to develop and recommend fiscal, economic, regional and intergovernmental policies; ensure appropriate financial relationships amongst governments so that Ontario is effectively served, and to recommend to Cabinet policies that will ensure co-ordination and consistency amongst municipal, regional, provincial, federal and international programs of the government.

Legislation to establish the new Ministry of Financial and Intergovernmental Affairs is being prepared and will be introduced at the next session of the Legislature. One of the features of the new ministry is the amalgamation of the policy development and planning activities of the Department of Municipal Affairs and the Department of Treasury and Economics in order to bring these two vital activities closer together. A high level task force is examining closely the recommendations of the Committee on Government Productivity in this area to ensure that the enhanced relationships anticipated with the municipalities and other local governments are fully realized.

The new ministers were sworn in by Lieutenant-Governor W. Ross Macdonald. All will retain their present portfolios for the time being.

Reorganization of the Government of Ontario when complete will reduce the number of ministries from 24 to 20. There will be two types of minister: provincial secretaries and ministers with program responsibilites. All 20 ministers will have equal status in Cabinet and the right to question policy recommendations.

Other announcements concerning Cabinet will be made within the next few weeks.

Mr. Davis said the government reorganization involves some far-reaching changes which could take a number of years to implement fully.

The related civil service appointments under the reorganization were made earlier this month. They are:

A.R. Dick, as deputy provincial secretary for justice; Dr. J. K. Reynolds, as deputy provincial secretary for resources development; Dr. D.T. Wright, as deputy provincial secretary for social development.

Ian Macdonald was also designated as the deputy treasurer and deputy minister of financial and intergovernmental affairs.

Mrs. Hilliard Gilmer Dies Suddenly In Hospital

Death came suddenly to Jennie Teressa Gilmer of Pleasant Valley in her 68th year, on Christmas night, December 25th, 1971, at Winchester Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient for less than an hour.

She was born on January 4th, 1904 at Hainsville, daughter of the late Robert John Briggs and his wife the late Hattie Mae Hutchcroft. She was married to Hilliard Gilmer of Pleasant Valley on June 28, 1928. To this union was born three children - John Dean who died in infancy; Marie, (Mrs. Sam Cowan) of Prescott and Preston of Kemptville, RR2.

Besides her husband, daughter and son, she is survived by her step-mother Mrs. Grace Briggs and half-sister Ivah (Mrs. Gordon Warren) both of Prescott as well as six grandchildren, mother-in-law Mrs. Mary Gilmer of Pleasant Valley and several nieces and nephews.

She was a member of Pleasant Valley United Church and was a faithful worker in the Sunday School; U.C.W. and choir while health permitted.

Her body rested at the Armstrong-Weagant Funeral Home, South Mountain, from Sunday til Tuesday, December 28th thence to Pleasant Valley United Church where the funeral service was conducted by her minister Rev. A. J. MacDonald of Winchester assisted by a former Minister, Mr. Mervyn Peters of Spencerville.

The Scripture readings were taken from Psalm 23; Ecclesiastes 7; John 14 and Corinthians 15. The combined choirs of Pleasant Valley and Hainsville sang " He Leadeth Me", "Safe In The Arms of Jesus", and a special favourite of the deceased "Peace Perfect Peace."

The pallbearers were Richard and Rodney Gilmer, Isaac and Walter McShane, Alex Fatheringham and Orval Cowan. Interment was at South Gower Cemetery.

Wolf Shot Mile East Of Greely

Although there have been no reports of any molestation by wolves in the area it is evident a few roam through the limited forest area in the district.

Ab. Morrison, hunting with a group of friends last Saturday, spotted the animal in the underbrush a mile east of Greely and felled him with a single shot.

There has been much controversy of late concerning the possible extinction of the wolf, and many feel the animals play an important role in the balance of nature.

A call to Osgoode Township office indicates no bounty is paid on wolves by council, but a spokesman suggested the possibility a small bounty is still being paid by Regional Government.

FARM EXHIBITIONS NEEDED

John Moles Says Fairs Must Be Saved

John Moles, general manager of Toronto's Royal Winter Fair, told a large group of agricultural men assembled at Cobden that Canadian farms employ more horsepower than Canadian industry yet pressure from urban exhibitors at both Ottawa Winter Fair and the Central Canada Exhibition is crowding agriculture out of the picture.

More than 130 agricultural people were gathered at Cobden last week to hear Mr. Moles who said the biggest problem appears to be finding a means to communicate with the urban population.

Mr. Moles wondered how many Canadians realize that agri-business - meaning the total sector employed in food production, transportation and marketing, together with those complexes engaged in the manufacturing of chemicals for farm use - employ about 35 per cent of the total work force.

In simple language this means that one in every three families derives all or part of its income from agriculture.

Because only 6.8 per cent of the population is engaged in primary agriculture some 20 million Canadians have little, if any, knowledge of the importance of agricultural production, Mr. Moles told his interested audience.

He explained that he believed one of the best communication outlets is through agricultural exhibitions and he urged area men to continue their move to save agricultural shows.

Convinced that the two major fairs in the area had to be saved as agricultural show places the meeting set up a five-man committee to study what future steps should be taken.

What's Holding You Back?

Isn't it strange? People spend a lot of time, money, sweat and tears to invent and perfect something to help keep automobile drivers and passengers from being hurt or killed.

The result? Seat belts.

Then other people spend a lot more time, money, sweat and tears trying to persuade drivers and passengers to use this life-saving piece of equipment.

The result? More people do not wear belts than those that do.

So every year, thousands of people are killed or injured simply because they had not buckled their seat belts. And thousands of people who do not use seat belts spend a lot of time and sweat thinking up reasons why they do not.

Funny, isn't it? Tragic too! BUCKLE UP FOR SAFETY SAKE!

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Toronto Telegram Syndicate

Happy And Cheerful

This happy-looking baby is Larry, seven months old. Jamaican in descent, he is a big boy for his age, sturdy and solid, with lovely dark eyes, black tightly curled hair and medium brown skin.

Larry is in excellent health but he has an enzyme deficiency known as G6-PD. It is a fairly common condition among American Negro males and also affects Italians, Greeks and Middle Eastern, African and Oriental races with quite high frequency, ranging from 5 to 40 per cent. This is a benign condition through which the hemoglobin is affected by certain drugs — the sulfas, anti-malarial drugs, aspirin and Vitamin K. People with G6-PD have a normal life span and no treatment is needed except to avoid the prescribed drugs.

Larry is an alert, responsive baby, reaching all his milestones at appropriate times. He has an easy-going, cheerful disposition, chuckling and blowing bubbles at the slightest encouragement.

This baby's medical condition should not be a problem. He needs parents who will welcome a lovable little son and accept the drug situation calmly. To inquire about adopting Larry please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto. For general adoption information ask your Children's Aid Society.

COUNTRYMAN CONSOLATION WINNERS

Skip Jean Kenny got away to a poor start in the Countryman Bonspiel at Winchester Curling Club last week losing her first game to Ina Thompson. The Wednesday night setback may have supplied the spark that ignited a blazing determination for the balance of the spiel.

From that point on Skip Jean and her rink never looked back. Thursday night Amy Holmes was the victim; Saturday, at Noon, Marg Tullis bowed out and the Kenny four were in the consolation final.

Shirley Reed, meanwhile had also reached the final stage with wins over Stella MacGregor and Marg Anderson and the two rinks clashed at 7:00 p.m.

METCALFE JETS MOVE INTO FIRST SPOT

Metcalfe 'Jets', with two victories over the weekend, moved into first place in the North Division of St. Lawrence Junior 'B' Hockey League. Winchester 'Hawks' dropped two points behind despite a convincing win over Alexandria.

Jets had the advantage of two 'home' games and capitalized on both, edging Spencerville 2 to 1 on Friday night and then coming back Sunday afternoon to trounce Morrisburg, the South Division leaders, 8 to 2.

Jets' flashy right winter, Rupert MacDonald, added five points to his already impressive scoring record with one goal and four assists.

Friday night's contest was of the rugged variety with referees handing out a total of 32 penalties including 4 game misconducts, two to each team.

Peter Miller opened the scoring for the Jets at the 5-minute mark of the first period when he fired home a pass from MacDonald. Dennis Ouellette, on a pass from Jacques Regnier, put the home team two up at the 8-minute mark of the second frame. Reddick, Needo and Eeststrok combined half way through the final period to rob Wilson of shut-out Final score, Metcalfe 2; Spencerville, 1.

Jacquet Regnier

Sunday Afternoon

A determined Metcalfe crew returned to the arena Sunday afternoon and although the 'Lions' were able to contain the agressive 'Jets' for two periods they were literally 'skated into the ice' in the last twenty minutes.

Both teams played rugged but clean hockey and referees had a comparitively easy time handing out only 13 penalties, 8 to Metcalfe and 5 to Morrisburg.

The game was only seven minutes old when Dennis Ouellette scored on a pass from Peter Miller but the one-goal lead was short - lived. Three minutes later Hess, Morrell and McNairn combined to tie the score at 1-all. Greg Holmes, on a neat pass from Dennis Lamadelaine put the home team one up again late in the period but McNairn fired home a Whelan pass to even the score before the period ended.

Fans were treated to an exhibition of fast hard-checking hockey in the second period with neither teams able to score till the 18-minute mark when Greg Holmes swung around the Lions net and laid a beautiful pass on the stick of Hugh Doyle. Doyle made no mistake and the Jets moved in front to stay.

Morrisburg appeared to tire from the gruelling pace and the Jets hammered in five unanswered goals in the third period.

Earl Davidson netted the first on a pass from Bob Woods and MacDonald; MacDonald set up the next one also when he hoisted the puck from the corner to Bob Lowe in the slot; MacDonald scored the next one himself with help from Davidson and Ken Kelly; Kelly picked up the seventh goal when he teamed up with Dean Holmes and MacDonald; and with only 36 seconds remaining on the clock Peter Miller flipped another behind the bewildered Lions netminder on a pass from Dean Holmes.

RUSH-END VIEWS:

Jets appear stronger with each outing and it was difficult to pick stars in Sunday's game but the steady work of 'Butch' Wilson in the net saved the home team on several occasions. Morrisburg has a young aggressive team that plays fine positional hockey and only Wilson's agility kept them off the score-board on several occasions. Coach Linegar was the happiest man in the arena following the game and is already envisioning a league championship for 'his' boys, who will be 'at home' to Maxville next Sunday afternoon.

Hawks Take Impressive 7-4 Win Over Glens

Winchester Hawks evened the season's count with Alexandria Glens last Friday night, when they skated to an impressive 7-4 win over the Glengarry crew at the Kemptville District Community Centre. Each team has won both their home games and they have a home and home series left later in the schedule.

Nobody was in the holiday spirit as far as the Hawks were concerned as they dropped four in a row, first to the same Glens on December 19; then Morrisburg took a 5-3 home win over the Hawks' and the disastrous New Years weekend is now history, with the powerful Metcalfe Jets doing what they had to do by downing Winchester twice in two days.

So Joel Steele's charges were certainly due last Friday night and they dished it up in fine fashion. A brilliant first period of hockey saw the teams tied 1-1 at the end of twenty minutes. Hawks outscored the visitors 4-2 in the middle stanza and 2-1 in the third for their win.

A pair of number two's did the first period scoring as J.T. Hay got the Glens out in front after fifteen minutes of exciting hockey. Rae Armstrong replied in less than a minute to put Winchester on even terms before the period ended.

Bob McClintock put it on ice for the Hawks early in the second session with goals at 1.06 and 2.27. Alexandria never did catch up although they did come close and provided some thrills for the good crowd on hand.

Bill Moran and Dave Van Bridger added singles for the Hawks in the second period and M. Kelly along with R. Boisvenue tallied for the Glens.

Leading 5-3 going into the final twenty minutes, Winchester applied the pressure and were rewarded with goals by Jacques Landry and Rae Armstrong to take a 7-3 lead. D.J. MacDonald scored the final goal for Alexandria and the game ended 7-4 Hawks.

Twenty three penalties were called in the game, including two majors. Winchester took fourteen of those called.

Blue Line Bits

Rae Armstrong still continues to impress . . . preventing goals is this guy's job and he does it scoring them. . . . two Friday night.

Hawks have a good combination in Duckie Swerdfeger and Nodukie Tom.

NOTE: Hawks management reports last week's winner of the 50-50 draw was Keith Forbes of Kemptville who picked up $50.25 David Baldwin of Mountain was the winner in the previous game and his prize was $68.50.

Bert Dobbie Edges Wayne Kenny By 17

Bert Dobbie, with a whopping 328 in the third game, upped his game total to 731 to edge Wayne Kenney by a slight margin of 14. Dobbie rolled 210 in the first game and 193 in game two.

Competition was exceptionally keen with thirteen scoring over the '600' mark.

Wayne Kenney, 717; Gerry St. Pierre, 711; Lyle Simzer 689; Donna Burley, 676; Bob Taylor, 675; Denzil Allen, 663; Marg Black, 657; Gord Richardson, 642; Don VanBridger, 627; Doug Durant, 619; Jim Scott, 616; Marion Graham, 609.

"Mr. Curling"

Should Winchester decide to name a 'Curler of the Year' there is little doubt veteran Ran Wylie would be the unanimous choice.

Ran prefers not to mention the date he began curling but admits having palyed (and won) when the rink was located beside the old arena.

Someone once said "experience teaches", and Ran continues to prove this every year. Already with this season only beginning, he has racked up two major wins-one in the mens' division and the other in the mixed.

The custom at the Winchester club is to divide the season into three individual schedules with each schedule being played in the form of a 'round-robin'.

Skip Wylie edged Howard Biccum for top honours in the mens' department and then promptly proceeded to also capture top honours with his mixed rink.

Competition was exceptionally keen where the men were concerned with 11 strong rinks participating and it was only after the final shot in the final game that the Wylie rink was declared a winner. Each rink had played ten games and utilizing the point system Wylie finished with 110, four more than Biccum and seven above third-ranking Jack Rennison.

In earning the ultimate victory Wylie received strong support from third, Charlie Anderson, second, Hugh Wilson and lead Don Erwin.

The Mixed Too

Enjoying the taste of victory Ran, with wife Norma, Art and Doris Folkard, competing against 22 rinks in the mixed schedule out-pointed all opposition for the double honour.

Runner-up in this division was a rink skipped by Doug Keys with wife Cathy, Earl Gray and Rose Derry.

Having brushed aside all local opponents Wylie is now setting his sights on the Christie Cups and the coveted Merkley.

Morrisburg Girls' Broomball Team Strong Contender

-By Lynne O'Brien-

The newly-formed Morrisburg Girls broomball team has played six games to date and have racked up five wins while suffering only one loss.

Prescott was the first victim when goals by Marilyn McLean and Rosie Casselman accounted for the 2-0 win. Prescott lost another to the strong Morrisburg squad three days later and Rosie Casselman netted the only goal of the game to give Morrisburg a 1-0 win.

The third game was also against Prescott and again the girls from the Fort town were unable to get on the scoreboard and Morrisburg made it three in a row on goals by Sandra Scott, Rosie Casselman with two and Angie Lafortune.

Game 'four' was another shutout for the 'red-hot' Morrisburg ladies and Osnabruck was the victim of a 5-0 shellacking. In this contest Angela Lafortune scored three times with singles added by Rosie Casselman and Sandra Scott.

Eamer's Corners was next on the schedule and for the first time a goal was scored on the Morrisburg team but the girls went on to win it 3-1 with Rosie Casselman scoring all three goals.

The balloon bursted when Cornwall invaded Morrisburg with a team coach by Reg. Campbell and went home with a 2-0 shut-out victory.

Debbie "Scooter" Scott played net for all Morrisburg games and her record is very impressive having allowed only three goals in six games.

Hockey Coaches and Hockey Mothers

Each year, at this time, the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association sets aside one week to emphasize "Minor Hockey" and remind everyone of the familiar slogan "DON'T SEND — TAKE YOUR BOY TO THE ARENA."

The area served by this newspaper is fortunate in having many enthusiastic, hard-working volunteers whose efforts on behalf of local youngsters cannot be measured in hours or dollars. They make it possible for hundreds of our youngsters to take part in Canada's National sport and, all too often, without any help from many parents.

The efforts of these dedicated men are even more commendable this season since neither Winchester nor Metcalfe has available ice facilities, yet all boys have an opportunity to play.

There are those who would minimize the efforts of the ones who give generously of time, talent and often dollars. For their benefit may we point out just a few of the obstacles encountered and eventually hurdled?

Consider, if you will, the costs of providing sweaters, skates, and other equipment (much safety equipment is now compulsory), the cost of ice rentals, meals after games, injury insurance and transportation. Now, obviously coaches are not expected to completely finance entire teams, but often they must "dream up" money-making ideas which usually fall short of their objectives.

Let us assume some community organization comes to the rescue with much needed funds. Such support is greatly appreciated, but ask any coach how many parents offer to help with the transportation chore.

The sequence comes into proper perspective only if you visit a dressing room and watch youngsters (10 and under for example) preparing for a big game. The boys invariably have their equipment in a suitable "hockey bag" which is immediately opened and contents dumped on the floor. (Contents that include such items as skates, hockey pants, shoulder pads, shin pads, elbow pads, extra socks, insoles, gloves and an assortment of other unmentionables). By now the picture is one of chaos — fifteen sets of equipment; fifteen young, eager boys; fifteen hockey sticks tossed at random and all in an area of approximately 120 square feet.

Possibly two "dads" found time to lace Junior's skates, but the monumental task of unravelling the hectic scene and producing a formidable team in fifteen minutes, lies almost entirely in the hands of the perspiring coach and manager.

With uncanny patience the men go to work. Knotted laces are undone; stuck zippers are loosed; equipment sorted; sweaters distributed! skates tightened, sticks taped and, unbelievably, three minutes before game time a nattily dressed young team emerges from the dressing room.

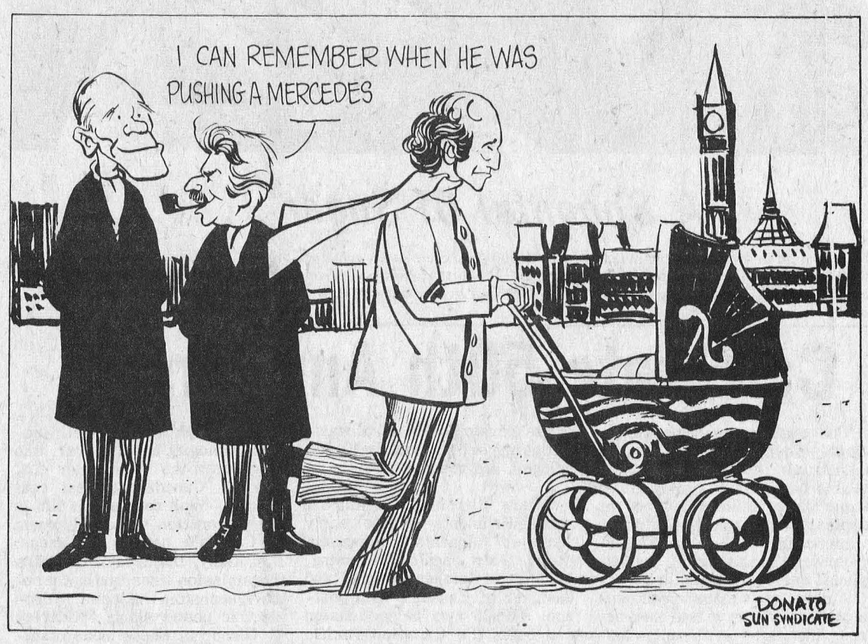
So you think the pre-game formalities were exhausting? Picture, then, the post-game scene.

The boys thunder back through the door. Win or lose the tumult of fifteen healthy, young voices raised in unison make the roar of the Boeing 707 sound like the ticking of a wrist watch. Again confusion reigns supreme and the ensuing scene resembles a movie reel being run backward at a high speed. Again the tolerance and understanding of the mentors is in evidence as the boys speedily pack up for the long trip home.

We think minor hockey builds better Canadians and salute those whose efforts make it all possible.

Often, however, we feel the ones who play the most important role are taken too much for granted. We're thinking of the "mothers" who rise early Saturday (and often Sunday) morning to prepare a hot breakfast, pack that bulging hockey bag, find all the misplaced necessities and have the budding young star ready when the coach honks his horn at the door.

Minor Hockey Week commences January 21st and we salute the youngsters, the coaches — and the mothers.



Real Freedom

by Rev. Gordon C. Smyth

Children are raised to consider the absorption of knowledge more important than the pursuit of wisdom. All one has to do to attract an audience is to wave another banner of emancipation.

Is this quite new? Jesus said, "If you continue in My word, you are truly My disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

Listeners at once thought out loud, "Who says we are in bondage? How could we surrender freedom and remain free? Isn't discipleship another name for slavery?" To this Jesus replied in effect, "Everything depends on the nature of freedom. You seem to think that it means following any leader at will and accepting no authority."

What is a free nation? Not one without law, . . . a land of the anarchist, . . . but a state where citizens respect institutions and statues fashioned by a general concensus of opinion. Real liberty involves the transfer of personal allegiance to a higher one.

Our descendents may be citizens of the world. Anything that steps over selfishness or parochialism is a move in the right direction. John Diefenbaker hit the election trail in 1958 with a "northern vision". A decade later Pierre Trudeau spoke across Canada about "the just society." They weren't tricksters with slogans. They endeavored to arouse what is psychologically essential to liberty. It is as the Bible says, "Without a vision the people perish."

Moreover, the contemporary cult with the creed, "Do Your Own Thing," threatens the ethical fabric of freedom. Morality is a matter of life and death for a nation. And this particular cult isn't even tribal; it's primeval. Shoot a visiting diplomat if you don't like his government. Bed down as many girls as possible to satisfy your ego as the great teenage lover.

Do whatever you want. Desert your wife on the slightest provocation. Refuse to allow the Children's Aid Society to find full emotional security for your fatherless child since he is your baby anyhow. Conjure up a way to draw unemployment insurance if you can't otherwise afford a winter holiday.

However, self-fulfilment requires self-discipline. Others have feelings and aspirations too. What if most everyone decided to do his own thing? Real liberty involves accepting a standard larger than inclination. The servant of this truth is actually a free man. When liberty is cheap, it's a relapse into slavery.

Further, suppose an individual asks, "What can Christianity do for me?" Suffice it to remind that person of what its influences did to shape the society into which he was born. Lord Action wrote a famous essay on "Freedom In Antiquity."

He came to this conclusion, "Our Lord not only delivered the precept, but created the force to execute it. The new law, the new spirit, the new authority, gave to liberty a meaning and a value it had not possessed in the philosophy or in the constitution of Greece or Rome before the knowledge of the truth that makes us free."

Suffice it to add that our Lord's touch has still its ancient power. Pray to God each night with a picture of Jesus Christ on the screen of your mind. Read about his encounters with all sorts and conditions of men. As you honestly try to react towards others as Christ is portrayed in the Gospel narrative, you will learn to cherish the perfect law, the law of perfect liberty.

The Seventh Column

One could easily be misled reading sports news in popular dailies. Headlines, pictures and elaborate accompanying copy leave the impression only the city can boast top-notch lady curlers. There is little doubt the rinks from Carleton Heights and the Granite club are worthy representatives of their district, but surely some small space might have been found to recognize other area winners. When the Ottawa rinks journey to Kingston's Cataraqui Curling Club on January 16th to do battle for the Eastern Ontario Ladies' Curling Association Championship they may be in for some kind of surprise. It seems only fair we should warn the big city rock-tossers that a Winchester rink has also earned the right to compete. Having watched Cathy, Marg. Sunny and Jean in action we can only advise the Ottawa girls that the "country lassies" are eyeing top honours.

Encouraging to note the unified efforts of village organizations in planning the giant February Winter Carnival. We understand Ottawa Rough Riders will tangle with our local Lions in a knock-em-down-drag-em-out broomball game. Being a strong supporter of Ottawa's football team we're a bit concerned. There are rumours the Lions will centre their "burly" President against Marshall Shirk — and without Shirk Rough Riders could be in trouble come next Fall.

The Countryman Bonspiel at Winchester Curling Club last Saurday was a thriller. Following the games a Winchester skip approached us seeking information concerning the whereabouts of the elusive Christie Cups. He seems quite confident, if given the opportunity, he could bring them "home" to Winchester. When advised they were conspicuously displayed on a shelf in the Russell Curling Club he smiled knowingly and set out in search of highly-qualified personnel. (Incidently we haven't noticed his name on many club trophies this season).

Read an interesting article over the week-end. The writer had travelled extensively and interviewed several families who had come to Canada from a foreign land, spent years in our country and then returned to their homeland. Their reasons for leaving Canada varied, but one that appeared most common was the severity of our winters. Many Canadians extol the crisp clear air; the beautiful sparkling snow; exhilirating winter sports, and then spend the winter months in Florida.

"Salt" is the topic of the day. Hundreds of tons of it are poured on our highways each winter. Yet, despite the advances of modern science automobiles are still manufactured with material that invariably succumbs to the salt-blasting of winter driving. One Winchester businessman claims the solution is quite simple. With $ signs reflecting from both eyes he suggests daily washing at the local coin-operated car wash.

We wonder if the unemployment situation is as grave as some pessimists would have us believe. We can't vouch for the authenticity of this one but according to circulating rumours a personnel manager recently received the following reply from a job applicant: "Now listen to me, bud — I came around here looking for a job, not to answer a flock of stupid questions on the history of my life."

Some stormy night when television programs are lousy (as usual) why not gather the family around and give some thought to the following questionnaire? "In What Relationship To Yourself Do The Following Persons Stand?"

1. Your father's uncle's brother's wife?
2. Your aunt's mother's father's wife?
3. Your mother's nephew's daughter's son?
4. Your brother's son's sister's mother?
5. Your sister-in-law's father-in-law's grandson?
6. Your sister's father's stepson's mother?
7. Your uncle's father's only granddaughter?
8. Your brother-in-law's wife's grandmother's husband?
9. Your father's father's daughter's daughter?
10. The granddaughter of the only son of your mother's mother-in-law?

We feel confident we'll come up with the answers since we're enlisting help from a local school principal.

BILL SMILEY WRITES

...and you can be part of all this

This is the time when pundits across the land speculate in type about what the coming year will bring forth. If there is one thing we don't need more of in this country, it is pundits.

We have political pundits, economic pundits, sports pundits. Most of them spend most of their verbiage disagreeing with other pundits in the same field.

What is a pundit? It is a person who knows a little more about practically nothing than we non-pundits.

Having unburdened myself of those sour sentiments, I now propose to leap into some punditry (pundineering?) concerning 1972. Read carefully, now, so that you'll have a clear picture of what we shall face this year.

Most parts of Canada will have lots of snow. I hope nobody will give me an argument on that one. Right now, outside my window, it looks like plucking day at the chicken factory.

The population, taxes, and your fuel bill will increase. This statement is not based on fact but on pure intuition. Especially the part about taxes. According to some of the rosy statements in the new tax reform bill hustled through parliament, I will pay less taxes this year, about enough less to buy an overcoat from the Salvation Army.

But they can't fool an old tax-payer like me. I know with sickening clarity that if one level of government hands me a few bucks, some other level will be digging three times as much out of my back pocket.

The wage-price spiral will continue, though perhaps not as rapidly. The reason? We're all greedy as pigs at a trough. And the biggest pigs – the strongest unions and the most firmly entrenched capitalists – will get more out of the trough than the runts, the ordinary Joes.

There will be a federal election, and whoever wins, there will be promises galore, new brooms being waved in all directions, and the country, according to the pundits, will still be going straight to the dogs.

The churches will continue to be one-third filled and scrambling for enough money to stay alive. But there will be a continuing search for some sort of spiritual experience by our youth.

Thousands who are now merely a gleam in somebody's eye will be born. And good luck to them when they enter a mighty complex world. Thousands will die, and let's just hope you and I are not among them. I don't want to go until I get my mortgage paid off. Isn't that the supreme purpose of living?

Thousands of kids will experiment with drugs and some of them will end up tragic figures, shattered human beings. But thousands of others will ignore the chance of becoming vegetables, and will lead happy, healthy, useful lives, loving and learning, sad and happy.

Unemployment will continue to be a fairly desparate situation. And the schools will again be jammed to the rafters with students who shouldn't be there and don't want to be there, but for whom there is nothing else to do.

There will be thousands of broken homes and marriages turned to dust. But there will be thousands of dreamy-eyed brides and proud young grooms, positive that nothing could ever happen to their love, which is something special.

There will be wars that have no victories, and peace conferences that go on interminably proceeding from nowhere to nowhere. The United Nations will again announce that it is going broke, but nobody will ante up enough to pay the bills.

Thousands of bright young people will emerge from college, spilling over with knowledge, and come face to face with that brutal edict: you can't get a job with no experience, and you can't get experience until you get a job. But thousands of others will break their backs to get into college, where they will learn all about Life and find the mate of their choice.

Does this all sound sort of familiar to you? It should. Does it all sound rather depressing? It shouldn't. You'll have your downs, but you'll have your ups, too, those glorious and fleeting times when you wouldn't be anyone else or anywhere else.

Your children will change; preferably for the better, but don't count on it. The year will fly by. Make it a good one by thinking positively.

WINTER FOLIAGE

Letters to the Editor

Applauds Christmas Edition

January 4th, 1972.

Messrs. Reg and Ron Workman
Winchester Press
Winchester, Ontario

Dear Reg and Ron:

There is hardly an issue of your paper that does not have some outstanding feature and there have been times previously, when I thought of writing a letter to congratulate you for the service which you provide for the public in your area. After reading your Christmas issue I decided that I would certainly write to you.

The centre section was outstanding with the art work of the children at various grade levels and all of the other features made interesting reading and was a delight to have in the home. I hope you will always have the energy to put together a paper of this quality, particularly your Christmas issue.

Yours truly,
Roy H. Wilson,
Principal.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Many congratulatory letters and telephone calls have been received since our Christmas Edition reached subscribers. Such favourable comments are greatly appreciated and it is very gratifying to hear from Mr. Wilson, a former N.D.D.H.S. Principal.

Gordon Blair Clarifies Basic Herd Position

Gordon Blair, Member of Parliament for Grenville-Carleton, announced today that the Minister of National Revenue, The Honourable Herb Gray, had made an important statement about the position of basic herds. Applications to establish or increase basic herds up to the end of the 1971 tax year will be considered by the Department if they are received by the date required for filing the 1971 income tax return, which for individual taxpayers is April 30th, 1972. Any applications received after that date will not be considered.

Mr. Blair stated that it was important for this information to be known because some advice given earlier by agricultural commentators had stated that applications to establish or increase basic herds had to be made fore December 31st, 1971. Mr. Blair further stated that he would be glad to supply further information for anyone interested or having particular problems. Mr. Gray also said that about the middle of February 1972, 4 bulletins will be mailed to taxpayers whose main income has been from farming. These bulletins will provide detailed information about the application of the new Income Tax Act to farmers. One of the bulletins will deal specifically with basic herds.

Twelve Persons Nominated As C.C.E.A. Board Directors

At the close of nominations at noon today, (Wednesday), twelve persons, including one woman, had been nominated for the eight vacancies occurring this year on the Board of Directors of the Central Canada Exhibition Association.

Any of the twelve had until noon Wednesday, January 12, to withdraw prior to the elections scheduled for the Annual Meeting of the Association on Wednesday, January 19.

The Board of Directors of the Central Canada Exhibition Association comprises 24 members of which sixteen are elected from the more than 1,100 members of the Association, and eight, including the Mayor Fogarty, represents the City of Ottawa.

The sixteen elected members are equally divided between two classifications, eight from the Agricultural Section and eight from the Merchants, Manufacturers and General Section. Half of the total is elected each year for a two year term.

Nominated this year to represent the Agricultural Section are four present members of the Board and one non-member; W. E. Burton of Russell, Dr. Donald R. Cherry of Ottawa, Sr. Sydney G. Pickett of Manotick, and William Vanden Bosch, all present members of the Board, and Richard Barbeau of Navan.

Nominees from the Merchants, Manufacturers and General Section include three present members of the Board, W. Dan Chilcott, Q.C., lawyer; Controller Ernie W. Jones, life underwriter; and George H. Nelms, optician. The other four nominees are Mrs. Gwendoline Bower-Binns, an Ottawa housewife; Ronald M. "Ron" Craig, sales executive; Yinnie Lim, Ottawa restauranteur; and John Powers, business administrator and former city alderman.

The Central Canada Exhibition Association operates Lansdowne Park on a year round basis as a community, sports, entertainment and recreational centre under lease from the City of Ottawa.

IT PAYS TO Farm Safely

Emphasizes Carleton County Agricultural Extension Personnel

We all occasionally become rather concerned about farmers lack of enthusiasm about safety. It is, therefore, most pleasing to hear of some organization or individual accomplishing something with safety features in mind.

A report came to us recently about the Farm Progress Show held in the State of Iowa. An excerpt from that report stated: "A growing concern for safety was evident in almost every line and type of machine shown. A side view of big combines, once a jumble of pulleys and belts, was a smooth sweep of metal protecting the drive components and protecting us from them. Auger elevators, which were nearly void of protective devices just a few years ago, were all equipped with intake guards and PTO shields. The no-rider rule was enforced 100% by the management of this Show. Such concern for safety could only have helped to impress the visitors that they too should keep extra riders off their equipment."

This kind of attitude is being carried over into Ontario by machinery manufacturers. With their present and forthcoming co-operation in safety, farm accidents can be reduced. However, the final act of safety is in the hands of the farmer. Will he adjust?

Harness Racing Horsemen To Honour Herve Filion

The Ottawa Valley Harness Horsemen are planning a big party in honour of "Herve Filion" -- world champion harness racing driver.

The Renfrew horsemen are hosts for the evening which is being held in the "Paddock Lounge" of the White House Motor Hotel in Renfrew, on the evening of January 25th.

This will be a night of fun - with dancing and entertainment provided by the "Honey West Group" - well known country and western entertainers.

Herve has a remarkable record with 535 wins out of 2100 drives in 1971 and with earnings in 1971 far in excess of anyone else in the sports world. He was also presented with the "Lou Marsh Trophy" as outstanding athlete of 1971 in Canada.

Tickets are available at either Churchill Arms Motel, Ottawa or White House Motor Hotel, Renfrew.

Engineers Celebrate 50th Anniversary

The engineering profession is closely identified with Canada's industrial development, and it seems particularly timely to list some of the achievements of the profession during this year's 50th anniversary of the 32,000-member Association of Professional Engineers of Ontario.

Among the more prominent engineers who have marched across the pages of Canadian history is Sir Casimir Gzowski who pioneered the development of engineering as a profession in this country through his contributions in the development of railways, navigation and harbour facilities, bridges, and roads.

Others who made significant accomplishments in the early years of Canada's development were: Sir Sandford Fleming, "father of standard time" and designer of Canada's first postage stamp, who helped design and build the Canadian Pacific Railway; W.R. Turnbull, inventor and developer of the controllable-pitch propeller and builder of Canada's first wind tunnel in 1902; Joseph Burr Tyrrell, pioneer geologist and explorer, who discovered the Drumheller coal seam - Canada's largest coal deposit - and devoted his life to the exploration and development of Canada's natural resources; F.A. Gaby, the creator of Hydro transmission lines, and builder of the Queenston-Chippewa hydro-electric power plant; Frederick N. Gisborne, whose ideas resulted in the submarine cable from Newfoundland to Ireland.

During the past 50 years, the professional engineer has provided the technological know-how that has changed the physical and social pattern of Canada . . . a trans-Canada highway system, and international waterway which provides Canada with a third sea-coast - the St. Lawrence Seaway - . . . the development of cheap hydro-electric power and more recently, the building of nuclear power plants at Douglas Point and Pickering in Ontario . . . the development of major mines and oil wells . . . . aviation and aerospace . . . hydraulics and electronics . . . conservation projects . . . agricultural technology . . . medical engineering . . . new techniques in steelmaking, subway construction, sewage disposal.

Thus, one can readily see that these are few facets of every-day life which have not been affected by the accomplishments of the professional engineer.

Need Grows For "Medic-Alert"

Membership in Canadian Medic-Alert climbs like a fever thermometer. 1,000 per month was the mark set in 1969 but in 1970 the same figure was reached in seven months. Last July was the first 2,000 new member month and the total Canadian membership is now somewhere over 60,000.

The tiny arm bracelet has been responsible for saving many lives and is proving more valuable with each succeeding year.

A mini-pamphlet issued by the Canadian Medic-Alert Foundation sums up the importance of the movement in the following brief paragraph which simply asks, "DO YOU KNOW THAT. ."

Reactions to PENICILLION reportedly killed one American every week for a recorded 13 years. 10% of all persons innoculated with TETANUS ANTITOXIN develop some type of allergy to the serum. ARTHRITIC and RHEUMATIC patients, if deprived of their CORTISONE or ACTH after shock or injury could develop serious, painful and perhaps FATAL complications. DIABETICS and EPILEPTICS face an equally dangerous threat. CONTACT LENSES when the wearer is unconscious can cause a marked impairment in the vision, or even BLINDNESS if undetected too long. BLOOD TRANSFUSIONS are life-saving measures in cases of accident. A MEDIC-ALERT EMBLEM showing your correct blood type or other hidden MEDICAL PROBLEM COULD SAVE YOUR LIFE.

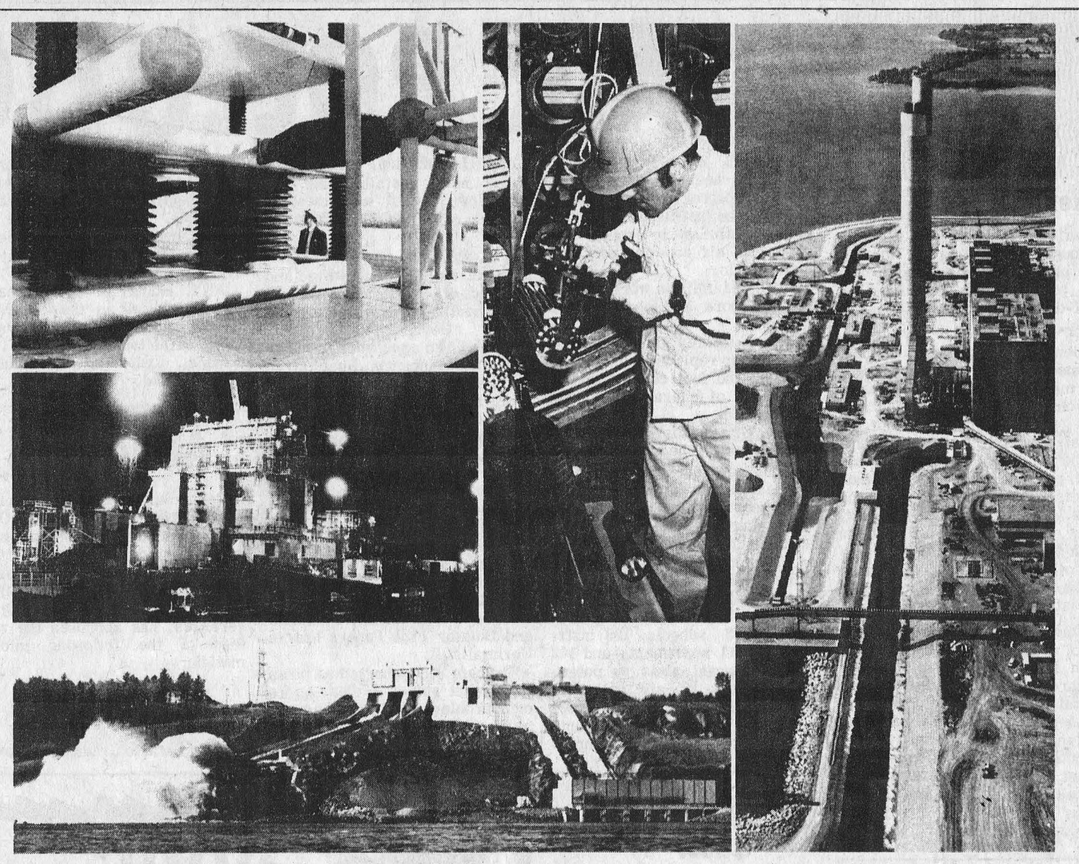
Deer Kill Indicates Loss Of Yearlings And Fawns

Each deer season department of lands and forests' conservation officers become part-time "dentists" determining the age of bucks and does by the amount of wear on their teeth.

Deer age information issued by the department to determine the age structure, reproductive success and general condition of a herd. Lindsay District wildlife biologist A. J. Stewart points to the age data collected in his district, during this past deer hunt compared to last fall's hunt, as an example.

Yearlings or 1 1/2 year old deer made up 25 per cent of the total shot, while last fall they made up 38 per cent. This shows quite a decrease in yearlings this fall. Deer which are one-and- a half this year were fawns last winter so it appears as if a large percentage of fawns didn't make it through the cold season. The total number of 2 1/2 year old deer was nine per cent of the kill while last fall it was 19 percent. Another large decrease this year. Animals which were 2 1/2 years old this fall were only yearlings last winter. It therefore appears as if yearlings also suffered significant losses. Fawns made up 28 per cent of the total kill compared to 29 per cent last fall. Once again a decrease is evident indicating that fewer fawns were born this spring.

In the Apsley area 22 per cent of deer shot were fawns while the Haliburton area had 30 per cent. Does in the Haliburton area had more fawns this spring than the Apsley deer. The higher reproductive success in the north is probably due to the department's extensive deer range work. Low reproductive success in the Apsley area can be blamed on the lack of adequate food during the winter.



THE YEAR OF THE ATOM: apt description of Ontario Hydro's 1971 activities. At Pickering nuclear power station east of Toronto, initial fuel loading was done by hand (top centre). Two of its four 540,000-kilowatt units are now operating — Unit one went on line in April and Unit two in October, making this the world's second largest single source of nuclear power. In mid-summer, foundation work started on 3,200,000-kilowatt Bruce nuclear power station, (centre left), part of the billion-dollar Bruce Nuclear Power Development on Lake Huron.

A new plant on the Montreal River increased provincial capacity. Lower Notch generating station (bottom) in northern Ontario is Hydro's latest and perhaps last hydro-electric source.

Power from the first unit at fossil-fueled Nanticoke generating station (right) on Lake Erie began to flow as the year closed.

Transmission line research is under way using an impulse generator (top left) which produces power surges of up to 2,800,000 volts — the voltage of lightning. Insulation strengths of various components are studied in the outdoor laboratory setting at Kleinburg, north-west of Toronto.

NEW ART MEDIUM

Plexiglass Art to be on display at Morrisburg Library Branch

A completely new art medium will be displayed in the Morrisburg branch of Seaway Valley Libraries, starting January 15. The artist is William B. Fleming of Ingleside; his medium is plexiglass.

Mr. Fleming started with drawing and painting in oils. He likes the traditional art forms but sought to find a contemporary way of presenting these forms. As an employee of the Morrisburg plant of Rohm and Haas, makers of plexiglass, he came across some pieces of this material that had been badly scratched.

Holding them up to the light he noticed a refraction effect and this gave him the idea that the translucent material could be used as a basis for drawing, or etching. He took home some pieces of plexiglass that had treated with flourescent color and with a nail and an old file made his first "Pletching". Mounted on a dark background, the result was such that the artist turned away from his oils and started producing pictures on the new material.

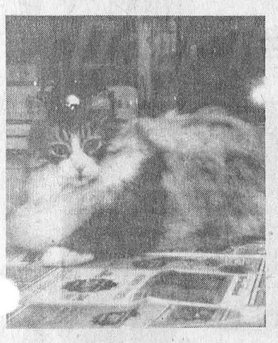
Aside from the striking results he achieved, as shown by the items of the exhibit, his wife Doreen, applauds the new turn her husband's hobby has taken, because the plexiglass dust is so much easier to clean up than the mess an oil painter makes on occasion. His sons, Peter (10) and Bruce (7) are too busy bowling and playing hockey to care one way or the other and baby Sandra at two is too young. Mr. Fleming uses a variety of tools for his pletching. Most of the work is done with an electric vibrating tool, but any sharp metal object will do. Emry paper comes in handy for shading.

The result is a range of striking wall decorations. Some care has to be taken that no light is beamed directly on the pletching, as this destroys the effect. Side-lighting and indirect lighting bring out the drawings to greatest advantage.

The exhibition will be opened Saturday, January 15th, at 2:30 p.m. in the Morrisburg library It will remain on display for two weeks and then will be moved to other branches of Seaway Valley Libraries.

36 Pounds Of Cat

Jimmie Casselman of Brockville and formerly of Winchester Springs is justly proud of his 36 1/2 - pound Persian Cat.



Tippy

Mr. Casselman raised the huge silver-grey animal from a kitten and a recent measurement makes interesting reading. 36 inches long, 27 1/2 inches around the body and according to his owner 10-year-old Tippy's leg is 'the size of your wrist'.

Tippy loves people and delights in having his picture taken. In the accompanying photo he is watching television and this is one of the cat's favourite pastimes.

"He's very fond of candy", says Mr. Casselman, "but refuses to touch the sticky variety. He will however, lick it with great pleasure, if someone holds the other portion in his mouth.

A study of his diet and care may explain his size. Included on his daily menu is ice cream and a pound of steak. Tippy insists, however, that the steak be cut in tiny portions and fed to him.

He also delights in car drives. Although he has his own seat he often prefers to ride with his front feet resting on the dash.

Both Mr. Casselman and his Veterinarian Dr. Peter Wang are confident Tippy must be one of the largest felines in Canada.

4-H Horse Club Enjoys Sleigh Ride

Receives Appointment

Mr. H. D. (Des) Simpson, formerly Supervisor of Public Relations, has been appointed Supervisor of Communications for the Ontario Society for Crippled Children.

In his re-alignment of duties, Mr. Simpson will be responsible for all areas of media and public information services. In this new position his primary concern will centre on the year-round activities of the Society's annual Easter Seal Campaign which, this year, commences March 2.

Mr. Simpson began his association with the Ontario Society for Crippled Children in January, 1962 as Public Relations Officer for the Ontario Crippled Children's Centre. In March, 1966, he became Supervisor of Public Relations for both the Centre and the Society.

Mr. Simpson is a member of the National Public Relations Council of Health and Welfare Services and a past chairman of the Metropolitan Toronto Chapter of Mensa Canada.

NDDHS Students Plan Ski Trip

(By Sheila Coyne)

All the students and staff at North Dundas are busy reorganizing activities and generally getting back into the swing of things.

The Ski Club is already planning an excursion to Eidelweiss on January 22. The trip should be a welcome change after the exams.

The examinations will be the main concern of all students for the next two weeks and all activities will grind to a halt. There will not be much news so we will not be reporting until January 27.

Teacher's View

The Role Of Student Services

-By Brian Lynch, General Vanier Secondary School Cornwall, Ontario-

Student Services (formerly called Guidance) has been defined as all those activities which assist the individual towards better self-understanding, leading to a continuing process of adjustment to a constantly changing environment. In other words, assistance in the never ending process of optimal maturation.

The panorama of student services embraces all dimensions of life adjustments and its variations, and is therefore not exclusive to the limited spheres of educational and vocational choices.

Student Services counsellors are concerning themselves more and more today with the personal and social aspect of guidance.

This involves greater use of the individual counsellor - counsellee interview where the counsellor demonstrates the attitude of unconditional acceptance and concern for the student while at the same time assisting the counsellee to arrive at a satisfactory solution to his or her problem through the viewing and working out of possible alternatives and the provision of guidelines for self-direction and self-adjustment.

Generally speaking, school counsellors are dealing with the normal adjustment problems which adolescents experience in the process of growing up, the most common of which appears to be the failure to communicate with parents, teachers, and other adults. At times, however, and this is becoming more frequent, it is necessary to refer students with serious emotional problems to other qualified professional personnel for more specialized assistance and treatment.

Students Services departments also, of course, provide students with the necessary information regarding educational and vocational choices through individual counseling, provision of written and audio-visual material in Student Service Information centres, guest speakers, career days, university information days, field trips, and work experience programs etc.

AIR POLLUTION

Progress Being Made With District Air Control Program

By 1975, close to $5 million will have been spent on equipment to control industrial, commercial and institutional sources of air pollution in greater Ottawa and six counties in Eastern Ontario.

About $1 million worth of this control work has already been done.

These figures do not include incinerator replacement and renovation and fuel conversions to a number of federal government buildings.

The Ottawa district office of Department of the Environment's Air Management Branch has investigated 916 complaints in the past year. About half of these were corrected by simple measures such as stopping open burning and making minor changes.

The Branch's Abatement Section men have surveyed 315 industries, 228 commercial buildings, 133 schools, 28 institutions, 111 apartments and 142 waste disposal sites as potential sources of air pollution.

Abatement programs have been completed at 11 asphalt plants and two more are near completion. In addition, three foundries have installed air air pollution control equipment to comply with provincial regulations.

All hospitals in the Ottawa District have been surveyed and advised of pollution problems from heating plants or incinerators. Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, installed two approved incinerators, St. Vincent's Hospital in Ottawa has replaced an incinerator, and Ottawa General Hospital is completing installation of a new incinerator. Ottawa Civic Hospital has converted its main boiler to natural gas and is replacing its pathological incinerator.

Control orders have been issued to the following companies: Canada Veneers in Pembroke, Dament and Charles Manufacturing Ltd. in Pembroke, Graham Creamery Limited in Alexandria, and Domtar Fine Papers Ltd. in Cornwall.

Graham Creamery has taken significant steps to clear up its odor problem and is now in compliance. Domtar, one of the district's three pulp and paper mills, is expected to complete its program in stages, meeting provincial specifications by December 31, 1975. Another mill is in compliance with the regulations and the third is being surveyed by abatement personnel.

All industrial sources have been surveyed in the Cornwall area and abatement programs are being established with T.C.F. of Canada, Ltd. and Courtaulds (Canada) Ltd.

Abatement staff have also been working with farmers in the district, reducing the annoyances that go with intensive livestock agricultural operations. A Suggested Code of Practice for farmers has been worked out by the Department of the Environment with the co-operation of the Department of Agriculture and Food as a guideline to reduce offensive farm odors.

Through the activities of the Air Management Branch, open burning has ceased at dumps operated by Cornwall, the villages of Morrisburg and Rockland, and Cornwall, Osnabruck, Gloucester and Nepean Townships.

Air Management Branch staff were involved in issuing 363 certificates of approval for pollution controls on new or altered potential pollution sources.

The provincial requirement that all new sources of pollution must be inspected and approved by the Air Management Branch means in effect that no new sources of air pollution are operating without effective controls.

This allows the Branch to deal with existing problems and a steady improvement in air quality in the district is expected over the next few years.

Announce Information On Fellowships And Grants

Recognizing the need for giving early notice with respect to Ontario graduate fellowships and grants-in-aid of research for 1972-73, for planning purposes, the Honourable John White, Minister of Colleges and Universities, has approved the release of the following information:

ONTARIO GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS

1. The Ontario Graduate Fellowship Program will be continued in 1972-73. This will provide an opportunity for those studying the whole question of graduate support to complete their deliberations and to prepare appropriate recommendations.

2. The terms and conditions under which these awards will be given in 1972-73 will be essentially the same as in 1971-72, pending a complete review, and on the understanding that a major change in graduate student support may be anticipated by 1973. A brochure explaining application procedures will be distributed in the near future.

3. The number of awards to be granted in 1972-73 will be determined at a later date when more details are known of the total requirements of the universities of Ontario and the amount of financial support which the Government can provide. It is understood, however, that the total amount of money to be expended for this purpose will not exceed that granted in 1971-72, namely $3.5 million.

GRANTS-IN-AID OF RESEARCH

The Grants-in-Aid of Research Program will not be continued in 1972-73 in the same form as in 1971-72. Funds will be available for specific studies related to post-secondary education but the total amount to be appropriated for this purpose and the terms under which the money will be expended will be announced at a later date.

NDDHS Christmas Show '71

-By Steve Durant-

On December 22, the students and staff at North Dundas were treated to a special Christmas show.

This year's Christmas Show '71 incorporated about 75 students involved in both "on stage" entertainment and "back stage" personnel.

Various clubs provided the bulk of the entertainment. The French club sang some French carols; the Folk dance troupe danced some traditional dances of various countries. The theatre Arts classes provided most of the humour with three short skits. There was also a Staff-sponsored skit. The Band provided some Christmas Music, and the School Choir was interrupted during their "Jingle Bells' number by a gentleman in red, accompanied by eight dancing reindeer, and two tiny elves throwing goodies into the audience."

It is difficult to thank all those involved, but the Program Committee of the student council should be mentioned as they got the ball rolling and kept it rolling.

And of course, the audience was very active, appreciative, (and full of Christmas spirit) which helps the show.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The N.D. D.H.S. reporter, apparently the modest type, failed to mention his own important role in the show. According to C. Cornwall Steve, along with Len Trillo, the staff advisor, co-ordinated the show and Steve's polished performance as M.C. kept everyone entertained.
