Boy Scouts Concert.

Everyone interested in boys ought to be present at the Boy Scouts Entertainment to be held in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening of next week. The boys are getting up a first class programme, that only scout boys can get up, and a rare treat is promised. There will be lots of fun, and the boys will show you just what kind of scouts they are. The tickets are only 25c each, and the hall ought to be crowded.

Help Along The Rink.

The Winchester G. W. V. A. are determined that there shall be a rink of some kind in Winchester this winter, and with that purpose in view they will make a canvass of the business men for assistance. They cannot undertake it alone, but they are willing to do the heavy part, but they want assistance. And we don't think there is a business man in Winchester who will refuse to help along the little enterprise of the G. W. V. A. having in mind, do your bit by the boys who did their bit "over there".

Disbanded But Not Forgotten.

The Press does not know just what to suggest, but we do think it up to some one to take the initiative and in some public way, not only acknowledge but pay tribute to the band of splendid women who so loyally, faithfully, unselfishly and untiringly looked after and conducted the Red Cross work in Winchester. When the men made a canvass one year for Red Cross funds, the women were thoughtful enough to provide them a very nice supper in the evening. Now let the men do their part. We think it is up to the chairman of the Resources Committee to take the initiative in this matter, and give the Red Cross women something that will show that their splendid work is appreciated.

The Prince Passed By.

The Prince of Wales passed through Winchester on Sunday night about 8:30 o'clock, and that is as near as Winchester could get to show the Prince that the hearts of the people here beat true in their loyalty to that great Empire his Royal Highness represented. There was a good crowd at the station to see the Royal train pass through, and we feel sure had it been daylight the Prince could not have resisted the temptation to have his train stop for a few minutes at least. The Prince will never know what he missed by his failure to give the loyal people of this section an opportunity to show him just what a jolly good reception they could give him.

Was a Good Success

The Masquerade Ball which was held in the Opera House on Friday last, notwithstanding the weather was decided a success. About 60 couples were present in costumes most appropriate for the occasion.

The music which was furnished by the Winchester 6 piece Orchestra was first-class in every respect, and a very pleasant Halloween evening was spent. The prizes for best costumes were as follows:

Ladies—1st, $5.00 (Indian Maiden) Miss O'Brien, Merrickville.
2nd, $3.00 (American Nurse) Miss Ella Merkle, Nation Valley.
Gentlemen—1st, (Salier) Mr. L. Shaver, Winchester Springs.
2nd, (Gent) Mr. J. Braithwaite, Winchester.

Judges—Mr. H. Woods, of Toronto; Mr. Burrell, Inkerman and Mr. Whitaker, Williamsburg.

Obituary.

The vicinity of Ormond lost a really representative woman citizen last Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Donald, McGregor passed away, after a few weeks of illness, followed by a paralytic stroke. Mrs. McGregor (Catherine McArthur) was born in Perthshire, Scotland, seventy four years ago, but when a young girl came with her parents to Ontario, and found a home near Kenmore, Russell County. In 1871 she was married to Donald McGregor of Ormond, and never removed from the farm to where she came as a bride. She is survived by her husband and six children, Ella and Peter of Ormond, John of Winnipeg, and Daniel of Wheatley, Ont. Her qualities as wife, mother and neighbor constitute fragrant memories which will remain for many years.

The funeral was largely attended on Tuesday, the interment taking place at Woodlawn cemetery. Rev. R. J. M. Glasford of St. Paul's Church, Winchester conducted the service.

Lord's Day Alliance vs. Chester-ville Condesory.

There was quite a commotion about Hotel Winchester on Tuesday morning when M. P. P's, ex M. P. P's, lawyers from Toronto and Ottawa, together with the now well known Pat Kerby and other citizens of Chesterville, including the manager of the Condesory, gathered there in consultation.

The cause of the gathering was a case of the Lord's Day Alliance vs. the Milk Condesory Coy., of Chesterville for a violation of the Lord's Day Act. The L. D. Alliance was represented by lawyers R. M. McFarlan, K. C. of Toronto, A. O. Flemming of Ottawa, Mr. Henderson, K. C. of Ottawa was expected to be present but could not be. W. B. Lawson of Chesterville represented the Condesory Coy. Mr. Geo. Hart of Winchester was the Magistrate. The L. D. A. asked an adjournment because they were not ready to go on with the case. Lawyer Lawson for the Coy., was ready and anxious to proceed. The plea for adjournment prevailed and the case was therefore adjourned to be heard at Chesterville at a date yet to be fixed. There were between twenty and thirty witnesses present. It promises to be a somewhat expensive case before it is settled.

A Surprise Party At Mountain.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Larue of Mountain, on Saturday last when about 25 of their friends gathered to celebrate Mrs. Larue's birthday.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games and other amusements and Mr. and Mrs. Larue were presented with a china tea service. The presentation was made by Mrs. Fred Beckstead, and the following address was read by Mrs. Merrill.

Dear Mrs. Larue,—
We, the officers and members of the Ladies Aid of Mountain Methodist Church, and our good men have come to-night to celebrate in jolly fashion, this the anniversary of your birth.

We rejoice with you Mrs. Larue that you are still blessed with such a bountiful share of health and happiness and we trust that many more of these anniversaries will be yours.

In the past few years we have had many strenuous hours together but you were always ready with the willing hand, and even lived us up when our spirits lagged, with one or more of your jolly good stories.

We ask you to accept this small token of our esteem and affection. We wish you every good wish that Heaven can send and may you and Mr. Larue live to enjoy many years together here in our midst and as you 'sip your tea' think of the many warm friends you have in our Ladies Aid Society.

Signed,
Mrs. A. Bouck, Pres.
Mrs. W. S. L. Merrill, Secy.

Mountain, Nov. 1st, 1919.

Daity refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was brought to a close by all joining hands singing "Auld Lang Syne."

GERMAN MOTION PICTURE FILMS OF U-BOAT MURDERS FOUND

Camera Men on Submarine Took Views of Undersea Vessels Shelling British Ships—Were Designed For Exhibition in Germany.

A despatch from New York says:—Motion picture films taken from the archives of Grand Admiral von Tirpitz in the former Kaiser's admiralty, and showing allied vessels being torpedoed by German U-boats during the world war, have been brought here by J. H. Macksum, a Knights of Columbus secretary. The films, which were designed for exhibition by Germany on the day of its triumph, were made by camera men on a submarine which was commissioned to cruise about the Irish Coast and photograph merchant vessels after they had been attacked by undersea craft. This boat used more than 40,000 feet of film.

"It was largely through the influence of the present German Government that the films came into my possession," said Mr. Macksum, who had charge of the motion picture work for the Knights of Columbus in France and Germany. "During the revolution the mobs and the canisters containing the celluloid reels became scattered about. At Coblenz I made friends with a former high ranking army officer and he secured the films from a revolutionary leader whom he knew possessed them."

The pictures depict the U-boats shelling four British vessels while those on the ships were swimming for lifeboats and rafts. A torpedo leaving the tube of a submarine and speeding toward its victims is also shown.

SCOTLAND.

The Stirling County Council has decided that the proposed bridge over the Forth at Alloa, should be paid for by the Government.

Lieut. G. M. Jeffrey, R.A.F., of Stirling, was the observer in a British aeroplane, which made a record flight between London and Madrid.

Ex-Provost W. W. Hunter, J.P., Denny's "Grand Old Man," recently celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday.

Among the historic estates which have changed hands recently are Fin-gask and Kinnaird, in the Carse of Gowrie.

Mr. Peter Pollock, Gillies' Cottage, Whins of Milton, recently celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday.

The Laurels, Drymen, has been purchased by W. Watson Murray, of Cater House, factor to the Duke of Montrose.

The death has occurred at Lennox-town, of John Rodger, a sergeant in the Lennoxtown company of the 7th Argylls.

The Military Medal has been awarded to Duncan Stewart, eldest son of Peter Stewart, Callander.

Stirling's investment in war bonds and certificates since October, 1917, was £32 per head of population.

Kippen's war memorial will be a cross erected on a commanding site, and to cost not less than £1,000.

Major Lawson has sold his farm of Burnturk, Parish of Kettle, to William Angus, the present tenant.

British Manufacturers Plan To Increase Production

A despatch from London says:—The Midland manufacturers, in conference, are taking great interest in the problem of how best to increase production. One scheme submitted involves notifying employees of the decrease in output. If no improvement is noted after ten days the Board of Trade might be called upon to make an investigation. If in this event the employers are found responsible, it is suggested that a fine of £50 sterling be enforced. If, on the other hand, the decrease in output is due to slackness on the part of the employees, it is planned that a fair percentage, in accordance with the decrease, be deducted from their wages. The scheme also proposes that the employer reward employees substantially for any suggestion which may lead to production being increased.

High Prices For Canadian War Goods

A despatch from London says:—Dealers and the general public are very keen to get hold of surplus Canadian military stores. A five-day sale, including a varied assortment of 2,400 lots, realized £3,300. Some prices obtained were phenomenal. Canadian grey blankets, costing 29 shillings a pair new, sold for 19 shillings a pair after four years' wear. Tools brought higher prices than the original cost. New boots fetched 21 shillings a pair. Repaired pairs went at 11 shillings. Repaired boots, not guaranteed, made 5 shillings 9 pence. Much used typewriters—128 Underwoods—realized 20 per cent. over cost. The highest price obtained was £25.

CANADA SELLS SURPLUS WHEAT

Receives Cash For Every Bushel of Grain.

A despatch from London says:—With contracts with Britain, Belgium and Italy for the supply of wheat signed, and contracts with France, Poland and Portugal for wheat, barley and flour, now under negotiation, Canada sees her way clear to the disposal of the whole of the year's exportable grain surplus. So far over 800,000 tons of wheat are actually contracted for. It is expected there will shortly be an announcement of the sale of 200,000 tons of wheat to France, which will be paid for on a cash basis, and a sale of flour, which will probably be financed under the French credit of $25,000,000. It is understood Poland is dickering for wheat, but there is difficulty in the matter of payment, and Portugal has enquired for Canadian barley. Canada has not sold a bushel of wheat except for cash, as it is considered our foreign credits should not be used for the supply of such a necessity, wheat being almost legal tender in Europe these days. The Dominion's greatest difficulty has been to sell flour, and France may therefore be allowed to use her credit to pay for what she takes in that line.

PLAN TO BLOCK BELLE ISLE STRAIT

Make Winter Navigation in Gulf Practicable and Improve Climate.

A despatch from London says:—A line of fast steamers will shortly be running fortnightly from New York to Liverpool, which will call at St. John's, Newfoundland, and Halifax, says a statement by Sir Edgar Bowring, High Commissioner for Newfoundland, who has just returned to London. He added that Newfoundland was expecting help from the Imperial Government in the direction of more rapid and frequent communication with Britain. Newfoundland was considering a proposal, recently broached in Canada, for blocking the Straits of Belle Isle to make Winter navigation in the Gulf practicable and improve the climate of the eastern seaboard of Canada and Newfoundland.

French and Arab Troops To Replace British in Syria

A despatch from London says:—Andrew Bonar Law, Government leader in the House of Commons, announced that the Government was arranging with France and Prince Feisal, son of the King of the Hedjaz, for the immediate withdrawal of the British troops from Syria and the assumption of the duties of occupation by the French and Arabs, pending the conclusion of the peace treaty.

Payments Made Russia By Britain in Two Years

A despatch from London says:—Cecil Harmsworth, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in the House of Commons, said that Constantin Nabokoff, who represented Russia at London, had received from Great Britain, between March, 1917, and March, 1919, when payments ceased, more than $184,000,000.

Britain's Harvest Increase.

The corn harvest of 1918 in Britain was more than 2,000,000 tons larger than that of 1914, while potatoes also showed a big increase, in spite of shortage of labor and fertilizers.

"Stripping cows between the thumb and finger tends to dry them up," says a young man in our neighborhood. "Take hold with your hand and milk," he says. "That is the only way to do a good job." Since I heard him say that I have been paying some attention, and I believe he is right.

Sugar Shortage May Become More Acute

A despatch from Ottawa says:—The sugar shortage in Canada promises to become more acute, owing to non-arrival of raw sugar, consequent on the longshoremen's strike at New York. The Canadian Trade Commission has taken a firm stand against further export of sugar, and also advises that as a temporary measure, the demand for sugar for domestic use should be met by the refiners before the manufacturers of products containing sugar are supplied.

Treaty Effective On Armistice Day

A despatch from London says:—The German Peace Treaty may come into effect on the anniversary of Armistice Day. It was announced by Cecil Harmsworth, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in the House of Commons, that the Government hoped the treaty would be formally ratified on November 11 and come into force the same day.

TRADE RESUMED WITH GERMANY

Britain and France Buying in Teuton Markets.

A despatch from London says:—Within the last few weeks a feeling has come over Europe that an understanding must be reached at once on a post-war policy regarding trade with Germany and Russia. In fact, there is almost daily evidence that this understanding has been practically reached already, and it means that Germany is back in the old commercial family again in as full membership as possible with her limited supplies and external credit handicaps.

There is no getting away from the actual facts, no matter how much the English and French public would like to avoid buying anything German, and the facts are that Germany has optical goods, machines, toys, chinaware and pianos that cannot be obtained elsewhere. Such goods are finding their way out of Germany in large quantities, although not with the old "Made in Germany" label.

America, England, France and Italy during the war labelled nearly everything with the name of the country in which it was made, with the result that nearly every article now purchased shows its nationality.

German manufacturers, noting this, have adopted a new policy, and one which arouses no animosity. They simply leave their goods without marks. France is carrying on a heavy trade with Germany, and in some cases even buying important commodities from her which she formerly bought in England. This is due to the exchange rate, francs being at a discount in London and at a big premium in Germany. French manufacturers are able to save from 50 to 75 per cent. on consignments of goods in which Germany specializes.

It is only recently that England would countenance any imports from Germany whatever, but it is now realized that Germany has not the large quantities of goods stored that she was reported to have for the purpose of flooding foreign markets after the war. So the policy toward Germany has taken more definite shape. She will have no opportunity for dumping either in France or England, but the goods she can advantageously supply without irksome competition with the home trade are already being imported. There is constant discussion among lawmakers, however, assuring the commercial world that if Germany begins a trade war by dumping, steps will be taken to stop it.

As regards Russia, British manufacturers are convinced that with that country's raw materials and their own manufacturing resources the two countries could work together to great mutual advantage. An economic mission to Russia has been suggested. Getting the railways of Russia in shape again is the present great problem, and it is not unlikely that when a semblance of calm is restored British capital will take an active hand in repairing and rebuilding the roads. This would solve the food problem in Russia, which is largely one of transportation, and clear the way for building up a great commercial future which leading Englishmen predict is in store for Russia.

British Warships to Carry Commercial Men

A despatch from London says:—British commercial travelers and the representatives of business houses are to be permitted passage aboard every British warship leaving the country for abroad. This, according to Sir Hamar Greenwood, Under-Secretary for Home Affairs, who made the announcement before the Association of British Chambers of Commerce, is "a move unique in the history of the Empire." Walter Hume Long, the First Lord of the Admiralty, has given his assent to this special service, Sir Hamar declared.

An Early Hint For Christmas.

Before very long we shall all be racking our brains what to give for Christmas presents, and few things are more acceptable to the house-proud woman than a charming bowl of bulbs just coming into flower.

Now is the time to plant them, and the bulb trade is quite busy again, so you are sure of getting what you want.

Roman hyacinths, daffodils, and early dwarf tulips are some of the best bulbs to grow in moss and fibre. Many of the narcissi struggle too much to look well in pots and bowls. You may use any suitable ornament for your gift. What could look more charming than an old-fashioned willow-patterned sauce-boat, or vegetable-dish filled with daffodils?

At the bottom of the bowl, or dish, place some clean stones, or small pieces of broken crocks, and on this arrange enough fibre, or other mixture, to be bought at all nurseries. To hold your bulbs firmly in place, their noses should be only just seen above the surface of whatever material you are using. After planting, leave the fibre nicely damp, and keep it in that condition; at no period of their growth must the bulbs be too wet or too dry.

Place the bulbs in a cupboard that is frequently opened, but dark. They like plenty of air, but must have darkness to induce plenty of root growth. This means good blooms.

When the top growth begins to make headway, the bowls must come into the light, but only by degrees. It is the greatest mistake to place them right away into a sunny window, or anywhere in a strong light. The corner of the room should be their first home for a few days; then the centre table, and finally the window. If you wish to hold back the bloom for a week or so, keep them in moderate light until you make your little gift.

Night time and day time the hearth fires are glowing,
Balm of the winter, November, is here.

Gasoline's Lost Energy.

Not more than 20 per cent. of the energy in Gasoline is delivered by the average automobile engine and only about 25 per cent. is attained under the best conditions.

Inventors of Perpetual Motion

Whenever an inventor of a perpetual motion contrivance seeks a patent, the Patent Office politely asks for a working model as a preliminary to its further consideration.

The working model is in due time presented. It falls to work. But, when this fact is shown, the inventor is by no means persuaded that his idea is not a good one. The machine merely needs some slight alteration in order to render it a practical success.

This sort of business is hard for the professional model maker. The perpetual motion man is confident that his idea represents a gigantic fortune. He is reluctant to trust the model maker with it, lest the latter be tempted to steal it. Sometimes he demands that the model maker shall take a solemn oath not to reveal the secret.

One of the least complex perpetual motion devices is that of a spring that winds up another spring while itself running down, and vice versa reciprocally without ceasing. When this idea has been reduced to really practical shape it will be possible to make clocks that will go forever without winding.

Another is a wheel pivoted on a point at its centre, with a metal ball running around its periphery. According to all reason and common sense, the ball, once started, ought to keep on running for a million years; but somehow, owing to a slight defect in the working model, it doesn't.

On a pivoted board a little car runs back and forth. When it reaches one end it releases a spring that tilts the board the opposite way, so that the car runs back to the end from which it started, where it has another spring that tilts the board the other way, is sent back again and so on ad infinitum.

Here's another. Down an inclined plane six little cars run, furnishing energy whereby three little cars are hoisted to the same starting point. There are always six cars going down and only three going up, and it would seem as if the contrivance ought to keep the cars going until the wheels wore out.

What most of the perpetual motion inventors try to do is to harness in one way or another the power of the earth's attraction, the force of gravity. Thus one genius has an arrangement by which water, pouring out of a tank, turns a wheel, thus driving a pump which in turn forces the water back into the tank.

Another is a wheel with hollow spokes, each of which contains a small quantity of mercury. As it revolves, the quicksilver in each ascending spoke drops to the hub end, thus making it easier for that spoke to rise, while the mercury in the descending spokes falls to the rim end, assisting gravity. Accordingly, the wheel goes round forever: or it ought to.

An interesting device submitted to the Patent Office was composed of about 200 long sticks, each pivoted at the middle and an equal number of rubber bands connecting these together. It was merely necessary to start one stick revolving, the result being such a multiplication of energy by the action of this original force through the other sticks, which acted as levers, that the inventor refrained from putting in as many sticks as he might have done, fearing lest the apparatus fly to pieces and cause a terrific accident.

Imprisonment For Causing Fires.

Cooler weather demands the lighting of heaters and furnaces. Before this is done, however, chimneys, flues and stove-pipes should be thoroughly cleaned out and made safe. This is not a difficult matter, and is much preferable to being turned out of the house on a cold night by a fire caused by dirty pipes or chimneys.

Some surprise might be caused to the owner of a building damaged by fire from such a cause if the insurance company declined to pay the loss. This the company has a perfect right to do, as it is distinctly stated on all fire insurance policies that the company is not responsible for fires caused by negligence on the part of the assured.

The "Act to Amend the Criminal Code Respecting Prevention of Fire," passed at the last session of Parliament, distinctly states:

"Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to two years' imprisonment who by negligence causes any fire which occasions loss of life, or loss of property."

With the possible loss of insurance and two years' imprisonment as a penalty, it is not wise for the householder to neglect his stove-pipes and chimneys.

A Word of Caution.

"Lest we forget" were the words of caution which went far and wide about a year ago when the epidemic of influenza cut a swath through Canada and brought suffering and distress and carried away tens of thousands of our loved ones. A timely word or two may not be out of place to health authorities and the public generally.

The benefits of fresh air, healthy living and the early medical attention to colds and catarrhs should not be forgotten as some of the preventive measures which should claim our personal attention.

Let each one of us, like a good scout, "Be prepared" against what may happen and the worst may never materialize.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Prevention of Forest Fires.

Forest regions, in a new country, always present serious problems from the standpoint of fire prevention. The physical condition of the virgin forest with years of accumulated debris creates a serious fire hazard. Added to this natural condition the slash caused by timber, tie and pulp operators, and we find a fire hazard in some regions which is unsurpassed in magnitude.

Within the last decade enormous areas in northern Ontario have been opened up by new railway lines. These railways have passed through virgin forest regions, opening them to settlers, prospectors, and timber men, all carrying in their wake serious problems of forest fire prevention.

The protection of forest areas has made considerable advance in Canada during the past decade. Ontario now employs 1,000 rangers or patrol men during the maximum dry period.

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the ether discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lock-jaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

A TONIC FOR THE NERVES

The Only Real Nerve Tonic is a Good Supply of Rich, Red Blood.

"If people would only attend to their blood, instead of worrying themselves ill," said an eminent nerve specialist, "we doctors would not see our consulting rooms crowded with nervous wrecks. More people suffer from worry than anything else."

The sort of thing which the specialist spoke of is the nervous run-down condition caused by overwork and the many anxieties of to-day. Sufferers find themselves tired, morose, low-spirited and unable to keep their minds on anything. Any sudden noise hurts like a blow. They are full of groundless fears, and do not sleep well at night. Headaches, neuritis and other nerve pains are part of the misery, and it all comes from starved nerves.

Doctoring the nerves with poisonous sedatives is a terrible mistake. The only real nerve tonic is a good supply of rich, red blood. Therefore to cure nervousness and run-down health Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be taken. These pills actually make new, rich blood, which strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite, gives new strength and spirits, and makes hitherto despondent people bright and cheerful. If you are at all "out of sorts" you should begin curing yourself today by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

From News Boy to Hereford Breeder.

Frank Collicutt, in the Province of Alberta, rose from a newsboy to be Canada's foremost Hereford breeder. His boyhood days were spent in an atmosphere common to all other boys who have to make a living in cities. His ambition to make money had to be gratified by selling newspapers on the street corners. When the first newsboy's route was established in Calgary he got it, and his ability as a newspaper salesman became generally recognized. He applied for the position of newsagent when the Canadian Pacific Railway was being completed from Calgary to Edmonton, and he sold papers, magazines and books on the first passenger train over that railroad.

This environment brought him in touch with many ranchers and farmers in Alberta. He was ambitious, and big men took a personal interest in him. Among these was "Pat" Burns, a packer and rancher, who has been one of Alberta's most prominent citizens since the cowboys owned the ranges. Mr. Burns wanted young Collicutt to herd cattle for him, and the monetary inducements and future prospects appealed to him sufficiently to take him from newspaper salesmanship. He began the cattle business then, and the day he first sprang into the saddle marked a period of progress.

Mr. Collicutt saved his earnings and invested in grade cattle. He later became a buyer for Mr. Burns, and in these two enterprises, buying and investing, he was singularly successful.

After several years of experience in handling a grade herd and feeding steers in thousands, Mr. Collicutt had an ambition to own pure-breds.

His opportunity came when the pure-bred Hereford stock of the Baxter-Reed Ranching Co., in Alberta, was offered for sale in 1908. This herd had been imported direct from Herefordshire, England, after having been selected by one of Britain's most competent Hereford breeders. In 1908 pure-bred cattle were not so expensive as they are to-day, and his investment for the 100 cows and young stock was not so formidable a consideration as it would be now. In the following year Mr. Collicutt bought the herd of Simon Downie & Sons, of Alberta, including the cow, Sally, and the bull, Beau Perfection 11th, both imported from the herd of Warren T. McCray in Indiana.

Like the Baxter-Reed people he did not fully appreciate the merit of imported English cows, and was backward in paying the price necessary to purchase a bull that would give best results on such high-class females.

Importations were made from time to time from Mr. McCray's herd. Fair-fax Perfection and Governor Hadley produced the best results in his herd up to the spring of 1916, when Mr. Collicutt bought Gay Lad 40th, by Gay Lad 6th, from O. Harris & Sons, for $11,900. This bull was only a yearling when brought to Canada, but he had been a junior champion in the United States the previous season. To-day he has justified his purchase price many times over through his progeny, which now ramble about in large numbers at Willow Springs Ranch, Mr. Collicutt's chief ranch, 30 miles north of Calgary.

Gay Lad blood has proved such a happy nick with imported cows that Mr. Collicutt readily bought another Gay Lad, also by Gay Lad 6th, from the Gleggery Ranch, in Alberta, in 1918. The Gleggery Ranch purchased 30 Herefords at the 1917 sale of O. Harris & Sons and among these was Gay Lad 16th, which sold for $20,000. He was sold in 1918 to Mr. Collicutt, together with 30 females, and their increase at the same price, $20,000. Not only has Gay Lad 16th got a lot of beautiful calves for Mr. Collicutt, but he was champion of Canada in 1918, and stood third in a strong class at the 1918 International, in Chicago. The 1919 Canadian show circuit will see group after group of Gay Lad calves from Willow Springs Ranch. Anyone who is inclined to question the advisability of buying a bull of acknowledged superiority would no longer doubt if he were to see these calves. Their character, smoothness and uniformity are unusual.

A visit to this herd at Willow Springs Ranch reveals one of the most inspiring undertakings in Alberta's livestock industry. One would think that in locating a ranch Mr. Collicutt had sought in all Alberta for the ideal location, and had found it. Nestled in a great coulee are found the most modern barns and practical house imaginable. Up and down this coulee the breeding herd rambles in comfort, winter and summer, night and day, with nothing but blue sky for a roof, and the wooded banks of the ravine for walls. In summer they wade in luxuriant grasses and drink at will from a stream of spring water that originates in the banks of the coulee. In winter they pick at hay and oat sheaves. The bulls and young things, together with the matrons sucking their babies, and shelter in the well-bedded boxstalls in the barns. All others welcome the freedom and unconventionalities of the outdoors. There is satisfaction in the uniformity of Herefords properly bred and cared for—Canadian, in Breeders' Gazette.

Toronto University Memorial.

A rally for the Blue and White as well as a test of the loyalty of the Alumni of the University of Toronto is the campaign for half a million dollars which is now being carried on by the Varsity Memorial Committee, the desire being to perpetuate in a Memorial Tower and Gateway and the establishment of scholarships the record set up in the Great War by nearly six thousand graduates and former students of the big Canadian institution. For the past two weeks a spirited canvass has been carried on in Toronto, and until the entire amount is raised the "drive" will continue throughout the entire world.

But the campaign has more ambitious motives than the creation even of scholarships for famed heroes and the dependants of gallant Varsity men who fell, for when the money has been collected thousands of Alumni will have been got in touch with and the ties binding them to the old school will be of a durability hitherto unthought of.

The campaign to raise a half-million-dollar fund with which to perpetuate the memory of the graduates and students of the University of Toronto who made the supreme sacrifice in the Great War will commend itself to all Alumni of this great educational institution," declares Mr. R. A. Cassidy, an old U. of T. graduate, who is in charge of the campaign, adding: "The amount is small in the light of the huge sum subscribed or asked for other leading universities in North America. Harvard is in the midst of a canvass of its graduates and friends for an endowment fund of fifteen and a half millions. Princeton is seeking fourteen millions from its Alumni and well-wishers. Cornell has launched a systematic solicitation for five millions. McGill secured a million and a half within a week, although the initial objective was but one million. The citizens of Halifax thought enough of Dalhousie University to over-subscribe a fund of four hundred thousand dollars within a week, and when Mount Ellison, in New Brunswick, needed endowment, a quarter of a million was easily obtained from a small constituency.

"But in none of these sacred efforts," went on Mr. Cassidy, "was there the inspiration that should be in the sacred cause undertaken by the Alumni Association of the University of Toronto. The desire to honor the heroic dead here is spontaneous and general. It was at first but a matter of deciding how it should be done. Opinion throughout Canada was canvassed and the outcome was the decision to have the bulk of the fund used for scholarships for soldier-sons or their dependants and the erection of a Tower and Gateway between the east wing and Hart House, including a structure in which the names of those who fell are to be recorded."

A Memorial Committee, going still further into a review of the campaign, was appointed at a general meeting of Alumni last Spring and it was finally decided that local and special scholarships can be provided by any community or individual and be devoted to specific purposes indicated by the donors. This, it was agreed, would permit wide latitude to the Alumni Associations scattered throughout the Dominion and provide ample opportunity to graduates of means to help returned soldiers of ability in their efforts to obtain a college training.

A partial canvass for subscriptions was carried on in Toronto last May, but local conditions compelled suspension until the Fall. Solicitation in the city during the past fortnight has been attended by success, and still the fight goes on to reach every graduate and former student throughout the world. Campaign committees, organized in counties, throughout Ontario, in every large city in Canada outside of Ontario, in a number of centres in the United States, and in London for the British Isles, have done and are doing excellent work, and it is now practically assured that the larger objective of the drive—to lay the foundations for Alumni Associations wherever University of Toronto men and women are found in groups—will be attained.

"It is hoped," says Mr. Cassidy, "that the time will soon come when distance from Toronto will mean as little to U. of T. men and women as distance from Cambridge does to Harvardites. A Harvard graduate is a Harvard graduate wherever he is found and the same can be said of Yale, Princeton and other great Universities."

Nowadays.

After a courtship of some months the young man had mustered sufficient courage to tell the adored one of his great love.

"To-night," said he, "I am going to your father and ask for your hand in marriage."

"That is very fine, Harry," the pretty one replied, "but don't be so old-fashioned."

"Old-fashioned?" returned the lover thoughtfully. "I don't quite understand."

"Don't ask him," was the prompt explanation of the girl. "Tell him!"

There is no man so ignorant that you cannot learn something from him.

WINCHESTER, ONTARIO NOV 6 1919.

Its very fortunate the name of the new Premier for Ontario begins with a 'D' instead of a 'B.'

"Sir William Hearst went down to death, but the Prohibition remains as a monument to him," says the Toronto Star. And prohibition was also a tomb for Sir William. A sort of two-in-one "In Memoriam."

Speaking of artichokes the Press was a few days ago presented with a basket full of artichokes, the gift of our friend, mail driver Purchaseon. We also notice in a published menu of the Ritz Carlton of Montreal, that creamed artichokes was served when the Prince was there. We therefore conclude that Mr. Purchaseon's gift was a princely gift, and when we can afford the cream—my what a treat we will enjoy.

Men chosen by E. C. Drury for Cabinet positions, who are members of the House already, will have to resign their seats and seek re-election. In order to have seats when the Legislature holds its first session, these members will have to place their resignations in the hands of two member-elect who will then address the warrant to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery for the issue of an election writ. This procedure is similar to that to be followed in making an opening in the House for the Premier-elect.

The Brockville Recorder—Times is working overtime to persuade itself that the U. F. O. platform is identical to the Liberal platform, therefore the U. F. O. party ought to come over to the side of the Liberal party. On the other hand there are Conservative papers declaring that the U. F. O. in the purpose and aim of their policy have but adopted the Conservative platform. In the meantime the U. F. O. are working out their own policy and constructing their own platform with what assistance they can get from the Labour party. As the Press has more than once remarked, "It's a great game."

The editor of the Orillia Packet was the subject of some bitter attacks by the political speakers and aspirants in the late election, whose views he opposed. The editor came back with the declaration that he prefers to have views and the courage to express them even though he is pelted with the vituperative bricks of the budding politicians of the new order, rather do that than to be classed among the mushy-mushy, mealy-mouthed so-called editors who deceive themselves by thinking cowardice is discretion and stupidity a mark of wisdom. An editor may not always be right in his opinions (although generally speaking he is not far astray) and he may be knocked and buffeted about by platform orators, but if he has the courage of his convictions and fights for his principles he will not suffer either morally or financially.

Writing to the Toronto Star a correspondent says: One thing in the election displeased me very much. It is the display of ingratitude on the part of many temperance people, and especially women, to-ward those who have served us. Sir William Hearst's Government gave us prohibition and also gave the women the franchise. Yet Sir William Hearst and his friends were defeated at the polls by the same voters who sustained the Ontario Temperance Act. It was like accepting a great benefit from a friend and then turning that friend out of doors. Or, on the part of the women, it was like accepting a weapon from a friend and then making use of that very weapon to do that friend an injury. The very first use the women made of the ballot was to bring about the overthrow of the very men who had put it into their hands. It is difficult to understand thoughtless ingratitude such as this. I am not a partizan. I have voted Liberal as often as Conservative in the past. Yet I did think Sir William Hearst and his followers deserved better at the hands of temperance women than they received.

Ontario's New Premier.

E. C. Drury, Premier elect of Ontario, has been asked by the Lieut.-Governor to form a government, and undertaken the task. His new cabinet will be announced in a few days. Sir William Hearst will continue to act until the new Cabinet is chosen. In his first public address, the new Premier spoke on the Victory Loan, and he advises everyone who can to buy Victory Bonds. Following are a few extracts from his address: "In raising our Victory Loan at home the money comes out of the current expenditures of the citizens, who, instead of spending are retrenching and saving. "The safest investment that can be made by any Canadian at the present time is of lending that money to the nation. It is good business for the individual, it assists to maintain the credit of the nation, and it provides work for the national industries."

"A dollar invested by you in Victory Bonds to day will be worth two, possibly three dollars in a few years. There is no doubt in the world we are on the edge of a time of depression, and for this depression no Government is responsible. I speak feelingly because you know the position I am in at the present moment, and you know the tendency to blame hard times on the Government. The time will come not very far off when wages will drop and the value of a bushel of wheat will have dropped to one half the value it is now. That day your bonds will have twice the present value. It will be worth while in those years to own $1,000 worth of Victory Bonds."

"I give to you my sincere conviction that the best thing we can do at present for ourselves and for our country is to lend our money to the nation. It is urgently needed. The Government must have it."

The Anniversary services in the Methodist Church last Sunday were very well attended. The preachers, Revs. Mr. Glassford and Mr. Curtis, and the special singers, Mr. and Mrs. Flett and Mrs. L. The day was, in spite of the mud, a happy one with very large and appreciative congregations.

The New Motor Car

The Greatest Improvement In Riding Comfort Since the Introduction of Pneumatic Tires

HERE is a brand new type of car, built in Canada by Canadians, for Canadians. It solves the problem which has baffled automotive engineers—how to combine riding comfort with light weight and economy.

Our new Three-Point Cantilever Springs make this possible.

These are the first springs of their kind and they are made of chrome vanadium steel. They are exclusive with Overland.

Because of these springs, Overland 4 combines the riding qualities of large, heavy, expensive, long wheelbase cars, together with the advantages and economy of small, light cars.

With 100-inch wheelbase, Overland has the luxurious riding ease of 130-inch Springbase.

The exclusive, Three-Point Cantilever Springs cushion the car so that it rides well on all roads; they reduce jumpy rebounds and side swaying, protect the car from road shocks and prolong its life, minimize twisting or racking of frame and body, enable the car to hold the road better.

The car and passengers ride smoothly as though floating, free from road shocks.

But this new riding comfort, possible only with these Three-Point Cantilever Springs, is but one of the advantages of Overland 4.

Its light weight makes possible great economy of gasoline and tires.

High quality materials insure durability. All vital parts of the front axle and steering gear and all highly stressed driving gears and shafts are made of alloy steel.

The equipment list of Overland 4 is like that of expensive cars: Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System, Electric Horn—Specially Resilient Upholstery Springs—Demountable Rims—Three Speed Transmission—Slanting Rain Vision Windshield—Tillotson Carburetor, and many other high quality conveniences.

In every respect Overland 4 is a quality car. The body is all steel, all enamel, the brightest, hardest, most lasting finish.

Overland 4 has been tested for two years and more than 250,000 miles over the Rocky Mountains, prairies, through deep mud and scorching deserts—through quick, sharp climatic changes. As a result of these tests we were able to judge the car's performance under every condition and to perfect it before offering it to the public.

There is no previous car of any size or price to adequately compare with the character of service Overland 4 introduces.

The farther you ride in it the more you will appreciate it. Come in and get a Booklet. The demand for Overland 4 will be greater than the supply for some time. Overland 4 Touring, $1195; Roadster, $1195; Coupe, $1845; Sedan, $1995. Prices f. o. b. Toronto, War Tax included.

Farewell at Inkerman.

At the regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society held at Inkerman the following address and presentation was made to Mrs. W. D. Christie and Mrs. A. H. Barclay before leaving for their new home in Bloomfield, N. Y.

Dear Sisters:

On behalf of Women's Missionary Society.

Never before in the world's history have women held so many important positions nor been so widely recognized. Centuries ago when women held a prominent place at the foot of the cross the first step of her importance was gained.

Our Christian churches have long seen and felt the influence of consecrated women and gradually our government and municipalities have given her her rightful position until today we are dealing with one of the greatest moral issues the Temperance Cause.

Twenty three years ago a number of women in this village joined themselves together for Mission work, you Mrs. Barclay were among the first members, we love to linger over the names on the first "Roll Call" many have gone from us, some to greater fields of usefulness and some very dear ones to the "Better Land."

We are feeling lonely to day at your removal, we shall miss your helpful influence and interest in our Society, we know some of your very happiest days and some of the very saddest have been spent in our midst.

We do not see how we can afford to lose you but we know your sympathy and helpfulness will find expression in the great missionary work wherever you go.

After years of membership we were pleased when you became a Life Member and so to day we ask you to accept our Society pin as a small token of our love to you, hoping in the great home coming we shall become members of His family.

To you Mrs. Christie we felt you would be one of us for years to come, from a little girl you have grown up with us in our Sunday School, church and Missionary Society until we feel as though you belonged to us.

We have listened many times with pleasure to your voice in song and shall miss your face among us, your vacant chair shall recall you when you are far away.

As a remembrance from your friends we ask you to accept this Bag as an appreciation from us.

As a Society we say farewell to you to-day. We commend you both to the study of "God's Word" May God bless you with his presence, health and prosperity and "may the God of Israel who neither slumbers nor sleeps" unite us again as an unbroken Society around his "Throne in Heaven."

Signed on behalf of the Inkerman, W. M. S.

Toy's Hill

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Peterson on Friday evening, Oct. 31st, when they entertained the Hy-Sky-By Club of Toys Hill. Guests arrived at eight o'clock in full mask. All typical disguises were to be seen even to the ever famous Witch and Ghosts. Various games were indulged in to the delight of all. A very pleasant feature of the evening was an address and presentation to Miss Margaret McLaren who leaves to reside in Winchester. Following is the address,—

Dear Margaret,—

It is with deep regret that we, the Young Ladies Organized Class of Toy's Hill Union Sunday School learn of your departure from our midst.

True, you came to us only a short while ago, but you were never to us as a stranger, for we felt from the first that you were one with us in our endeavors in the upbuilding of the Master's Kingdom, and your highest ambitions always pointed to that end.

During our connection with you, you have endeared yourself to us by your kind and affectionate disposition and your ability to think first of others. We found you always ready to assist in every undertaking and shall find a place made vacant in our class which cannot easily be filled.

We all join in wishing you every success and happiness in the future, and as a slight remembrance, we ask you to accept this fountain pen—

Signed on behalf of the Class.

Lunch was served and a vote thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Peterson for the enjoyable evening provided and the gathering was brought to a close by the singing of, "Auld Lang Syne."

THE ROYAL BANK.
An event of great financial importance transpired on the 18th inst. in the celebration by the Royal Bank of the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation.
The history of the institution is one of the financial romances of Canada,
a remarkable growth in a comparatively short period from humble beginnings to a great banking business, covering not only the Dominion, but extending to many foreign countries.
The expansion of its business in recent years has been remarkable.
Four other institutions with established clienteles in as many provinces were absorbed, an energetic policy was pursued, and to-day the Royal Bank ranks well up among the big financial concerns of the Continent. Its operations in Cuba and the West Indies, a field early exploited, have given it a leading place in those countries, with the result that it has now 615 branches, and 42 sub-branches, giving it premier place among Canadian banks in this respect. Capital has grown to upwards of $16,000,000, the reserve fund
to $16,400,000, deposits to $381,307,000,
and assets to $470,870,000.
An accomplishment of this kind is the highest tribute that can be given the vigorous and progressive character of the management and in that tribute
the vice-president and managing director, Mr. E. L. Pease, has a large share, for he it was who thirty-two years ago blazed the trail of success.
The Royal Bank has in its president,
Sir Herbert Holt, and its General Manager, Mr. C. E. Neill, men of energy, capacity, and wide experience in business and banking affairs. The prosperity of the bank is a reflection of the prosperity and growing commerce of Canada, in which the institution has materially aided by encouraging domestic and promoting foreign trade.

Brake rods or other rods beneath the

cate this trouble have one person drive the car while another sits on one of the forward fenders and listens for the noises. If the horn is gripped tightly and the rattles cease it is reasonable to blame the horn.

When Hunting Time Comes.

Every year there are a certain number of little tragedies which occur in the country during the hunting season. With variations they run something like this: Act 1. Happy young farmer boy completes his morning work and starts for the woods for a holiday with the trusty shotgun.
Act 2: He decides to climb a fence and pokes the gun through the rails with the muzzle pointed toward him. Act 3: The trigger strikes and the gun is fired and the hunter receives the charge, with disastrous results.

Here is another. Act 1: Two hunters start out together and then separate. Act 2: The first hunter soon spots a strange movement in the brush and thinks it may be a rabbit or a deer and figures that he had better shoot quick before it is gone. Act 3: He shoots his friend.

The gun that is not loaded is also a common cause of tragedy as the accounts in the newspapers at intervals will bear testimony. Act 1: The farm boy decides to scare his sister by picking up father's shotgun and snapping the trigger while pointing the gun in her direction. Of course, he did not know that father had been looking for a hawk and had forgotten to remove the shell when placing the gun back in the corner. Act 2: The sister is shot and killed. Act 3: One boy has something very sad to remember for life.

Most all accidents with guns are due to carelessness on the part of the hunter. When climbing a fence with a gun it pays to lay it through the fence
on the ground with the muzzle pointing away and toward the ground. Even if the gun is stood up against the fence it may be jarred and fall over and an explosion result.

It is best to keep a gun unloaded until about ready to fire and also keep the finger away from the trigger until the time for aiming has arrived. Walking with a gun and carelessly fingering the trigger caused one accident. A farmer walked along last year with a loaded shotgun and his finger on the trigger. He was pointing it at the ground and considered himself safe.
However, a little nervous pressure on the trigger when he was thinking of other things caused the gun to fire and part of the charge struck him in the heel, causing a serious injury.

When boating and hunting it pays to be very careful and watch the companion in the boat before firing. He may stand up at an unexpected time or the boat may shift in the wind while the hunter is watching his aim and it may cause the lead to fly un-comfortably close to hunters in some other boat or on the shore. When climbing in and out of a boat with a gun, keep it pointed in a safe direction. It is also advisable not to load until safely in position in the boat and ready to shoot.

Hunting is considered a very pleasant occupation and often a relief from the farm work and if a man obeys the game laws and is careful of his firearms he can enjoy the sport and eliminate the tragedy.

What Kind of Worker Are You?
There are two kinds of work on a farm—that which is necessary and well worth while, and that which is unnecessary and from which there is no gain.

Which kind of a worker are you?
The fact that you are busy twelve or fifteen hours a day does not always mean that you are a good farmer.
Perhaps it would be better for you to spend just half that time at real labor, and the other half, which is thrown away in aimless or ill-planned work, in saving up your vitality and fitting yourself mentally not only to do better work, but to enjoy your farm and work.

There are men and women who believe that in order to be a good farmer, they must make work animals of themselves. They have no time for their family or friends, are blind and deaf to the wonderful outdoor life which it is their privilege to live.

These folks do not own their farms,
but rather the farms own them. There are other folks who use brain as well as brawn, are masters of their work instead of slaves to it, and make more from one acre of ground than another makes from five acres with five times
the amount of work.

The trouble with a great many folks is that they practically loaf from November to April, and then wear themselves to the bone during crop season in doing a thousand and one jobs that should have been done in the winter. On a properly conducted farm when seed planting time arrives, there are no fences to build, no sheds
to cover, no farm machinery to repair, no ground to turn that could have been turned earlier, no ditches to cut, no dams to build.

"There is a time for all things," is an old adage that many of our farmers would do well to make their slogan. That a great amount of hard labor is necessary no one who has lived on a farm will deny; but with proper management and judgment we can be masters of work that really counts, instead of slaves to an endless line of drudgery that "wears the soul,
and wastes the body."

Secrets Brides May Keep.
That the age of bride and bridegroom need no longer be inscribed on the marriage certificate is a new rule in regard to French marriages. It is sufficient if they are declared of age, or over thirty, a statement of specific age being unnecessary.

Hitherto it has been necessary to have the banns posted up on the door of the Town Hall for ten days, including two Sundays. The latter clause in the rule has been abolished, while, if desired at the house of either the bride or bridegroom, two witnesses, instead of four, will also in future be sufficient.

The names of the respective parents will no longer appear in the official publications. The mother of one of the contracting parties will in future have the right to oppose the marriage, a right which before was only attributed to the father.

WARNING!

We wish to draw the attention of the public to the fact that there is being put on the market, at random, several different makes of Talking Machines, with the "Ola" applied to the name. But there is only one Edison Diamond Amberola, the Genuine Musical Instrument, that has and can defeat easily any Disc Talking Machine on the market to-day, regardless of size, price, or make. If you are seeking a genuine musical instrument, we will gladly make a test in your home against any other Talking Machine made, at our expense, remember. The Edison Diamond Amberola is not a talking, but a genuine Musical Instrument playing the longest record in the world, the Blue Amberol record, which plays longer than the both sides of the best ten inch disc record. This means you get the full selection, while the disc record gives you half. Bear in mind that the Edison Diamond Amberola is the family's friend as there are no needles to change, or records to break, or ware out. Let us send one to your home. We want you to test the Amberola against any instrument, and judge for yourself. Don't buy a Talking Machine at any price, till you have heard the Amberola in your own home. There will be no obligations to buy unless you want the instrument. We want good live agents to place, these wonderful entertainers in every home. We are at your service with the best.
