WEDDINGS

ROBINSON—WOODS

A quiet wedding took place at Morewood United Church parsonage, on Saturday, April 11, at 2 p.m. when Eleanore Woods, only daughter of Mrs. Woods and the late W. J. W. Woods, of Metcalfe, Ont., was united in marriage to J. Wesley Robinson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson, of Leitrim. Rev. T. A. Woods performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives.

Given in marriage by her brother, Donald Woods, the bride was wearing a redingote costume of Eleanor blue rayon alpaca, in street length and fashioned with fitted bodice with Victorian neckline and knife-pleated skirt. Touches of silk tufting in blue were used in trimming. Her hat was a small blue model with shoulder length veil and a corsage of Talisman Roses was worn.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left on a motor trip to Montreal and Quebec City, the bride wearing a tailored coat of tweed in shades of blue over her wedding costume for travelling. On their return they will take up residence near Ottawa for the summer.

The bride's brother, Francis N. Woods, D Company, Royal Rifles of Canada, The Citadeel, Quebec City, was the only guest from a distance.

The engagement is announced of Miss Marion Friedman, B.H.L., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Friedman, of New York City, to Councillor Hyman Bessin, of Winchester, son of Mrs. R. Bessin and the late Moses Bessin.

Investigate Story Told By Victim

Leo Patenaude, who lives three miles east of Chesterville, was admitted to Hotel Dieu Hospital, Cornwall, early Sunday, following an ambulance trip from Morewood, at which point he was found pinned beneath the wreckage of his overturned automobile. The car had left the road at a sharp turn and was overturned in the ditch. Patenaude suffered a fractured left leg, badly bruised chest, injured hand, and head cuts. When found, his body was partly immersed in ice-cold water.

Somewhat skeptical, police at Chesterville are investigating a story by Patenaude to the effect he had been forced from the driver's seat by an intoxicated man in uniform to whom he had offered a lift—and that the soldier had "ditched" the car and robbed him while he lay helplessly pinned beneath the vehicle. Patenaude's rambling story of the mishap included a statement that $10.85 was taken from him by the man who escaped unhurt, allegedly taking the money from the injured man's pockets and promising to return with help.

Unable to locate any definite clues or facts to substantiate the story told by Patenaude, officials are inclined to the theory that while a part of his story may be based upon fact, the more lurid details may be predicated upon his condition which is severely shocked by the events of the mishap.

MUST RETURN MILK AND CREAM CANS

Due to the shortage of metals it will be necessary in future for milk and ice cream cans to be used only as containers for these products. In order to prevent the unauthorized use of such cans an Order in Council under the War Measures Act has just been passed, prescribing regulations with respect to the marking, return and use of milk and cream cans.

The Order states that all such cans used for the transportation of milk or cream shall be plainly and indelibly marked with the name of the owner; that such cans shall only be used for the transportation of milk and cream to or from the owner of the can and must be returned promptly to the owner. The penalty for violating this Order is a fine of $10 for the first offence and a minimum fine of $50 for the second offence.

EVENING AUXILIARY

The Easter Thank-Offering meeting of the Evening Auxiliary was held in the Sunday School Rooms on Wednesday evening, April 8th. Over fifty ladies were in attendance.

The president, Mrs. Kellogg, opened the meeting. The Lord's Prayer was repeated, then the minutes of the last meeting and the roll call were given by Mrs. K. Ault, the secretary. The coresponding secretary, Mrs. Helmer, and the community friendship secretary, Mrs. S. Lindsay, gave their reports. A short reading on Temperance was given by Miss B. Coons, and Miss Evelyn Fennell read the treasurer's report.

It was decided that Mrs. Kellogg and Mrs. K. Carlyle go as delegates to the Presbyterial meeting, May 7. Mrs. Carlyle, Mrs. H. Helmer and Miss B. Coons were appointed for the Red Cross Committee for May and June.

The worship service was conducted by Mrs. C. Rice, assisted by Mrs. Carlyle, Miss Hazel Gordon and Mrs. Kellogg. The theme of the service was: "The Call of the Risen Christ to Youth." Mrs. H. Lannin sang a lovely solo, "Alone," after which Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Halpenny led in prayer. Easter hymns were sung throughout the program.

A pageant, "Morning With The Master," in which Mrs. A. Hitsman, Mrs. R. Wylie, Mrs. J Crummy, Mrs. C. Rice, Mrs. H. Helmer, Mrs. E. Helmer, Miss Evelyn Fennell, Mrs. K. Carlyle and Mrs. S. Corry took part, was enjoyed by all.

The meeting closed with "God Save The King."

Urges Farmers To Speed Production Of Dairy Products

An urgent appeal to Canadian farmers to speed-up the production of bacon hogs, dairy products and eggs to meet the ever increasing requirements for overseas shipments and the domestic market, was voiced by Dr. G. H. Barton, of Ottawa, deputy minister of agriculture, at the 15th annual seed fair of the Ottawa Valley Seed Growers' Association, held at Chesterville last week.

A 25 per cent. increase in hog production was necessary to meet the requirements of the coming year, Dr. Barton said, speaking at a banquet on Thursday night. A greater quantity of cheese, butter and milk, both dried and fluid, was also needed. Canadians were really going to town in the egg production. Sixteen million dozens were shipped to the United Kingdom last year and 38 million dozens were promised this year.

Dr. Barton said he appreciated the farmers' problems, especially the shortage of manpower, which, he said, was today felt in every essential activity. He voiced the assurance, however, that the Canadian farmers will continue to contribute more and better products to help the war effort. He appealed to them to take special care of all pieces of farm machinery which will become harder to replace. The speaker was introduced by Dr. L. H. Newman, Dominion cerealist.

The trophies and other prizes were presented to winners of the major events of the fair. The Senator Haydon trophy was awarded to a team of junior agriculturalists from Renfrew county in the inter-county junior farm seed judging competition. The team was composed of George Bennett, Basil Bulmer and Jack Patterson, all of Forresters Falls. Glengarry county came second and Carleton county third.

Harold Nesbitt, Britannia Bay, was presented with the Ottawa Farm Journal trophy, awarded for outstanding achievement as a seed grower during the past year. Special congratulations were extended to Joseph Belanger, of Campbell's Bay, who won the W. H. Dwyer trophy for the best entry of red clover. It was the first time that the trophy went to a Quebec entry.

"A 1942 challenge to Canadian farmers" was the subject of an address delivered in the afternoon by W. P. Watson, of the Ontario livestock branch, Toronto. "There is too much of the Maginot Line complex as regards agriculture," Mr. Watson said. "We thought that our large surplus of wheat was an abundant supply for years to come. The Ontario farmer will have to become crop-minded and not depend on Western grains," the speaker said.

Papers were also read by Dr. Newman, Dominion cerealist, on "The present status of our varieties of cereals," and by Dr. P. O. Ripley, assistant field husbandman, Central Canada Experimental Farm, on: "Soil Tillage and Weed Eradication."

The banquet was served at the Chesterville United Church hall. S. W. Haydon, of Pakenham, president of the association, was in the chair. Guests, including George H. Challies, M.L.A. for Grenville-Dundas, were introduced by H. W. Graham, Morrisburg; seed fair manager. Visitors were welcomed by Reeve George H. Barkley, of Chesterville. W. M. Croskery, agricultural representative in Carleton county, is secretary-treasurer of the association.

Evangelistic Services To Be Held Next Week

Next week special Evangelistic Services will be held in the United Church, Winchester, from Monday to Friday inclusive, at 8 o'clock each evening.

Rev. H. S. Clugston, B.A. B.D., Minister of the First United Church, Ottawa, will be the speaker at all the above services. He has gained a splendid reputation as a forceful speaker, with a direct and challenging appeal.

The singing will, it is hoped, be a special feature of the services. Mr. Carmen Guest, a well known choir leader, of Ottawa and vicinity, will be in charge of the service of song.

Arrangements are also being made to have Mrs. Donald Nicoll, of Ottawa, with her Autoharp, present on two of the evenings to take part in the song service.

The public are cordially invited to attend. An offering will be taken each evening to defray expenses.

LANDLORDS MUST GIVE TENANTS PROPER NOTICE

In response to numerous enquiries, the Eastern Ontario regional office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board urges landlords to bear in mind that, while there are certain specified reasons which permit them to serve notice upon their tenants to vacate, such notices must be given in a written form approved under the rental regulations, and giving the reason, and unless that form is observed, the notice possesses no validity and may be legally ignored by the tenant. Full details concerning this aspect of the rentals regulations may be obtained from any office of the Board. Those for Easter Ontario are situated in Brockville, Ottawa, Kingston, Belleville, Cornwall and Renfrew.

ST. PAUL'S W. M. S.

Tribute to the memory of a valued member, Mrs. James McLaughlin, was paid at the Easter W. M. Society meeting of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Tuesday evening, held in the S. S. Hall. The President, Mrs. Geo. Wilson, conducted the worship service, and Miss Mary Empey was the pianist. The roll call was answered by each member giving the name of a missionary and where situated. Reports and correspondence of different secretaries were submitted and an interesting questionnaire on the April Glad Tidings was conducted by Mrs. Wm. Johnston. An announcement of the Presbyterial on May 27th to be held in Kemptville, was made.

The programme was in charge of Mrs. Albert Edgerton. Mrs. E. J. Spinks led in prayer, for soldiers, missionaries and the troubled world. Mrs. Colin Hay and Mrs. Hugh Wilson contributed a vocal duet entitled "Ivory Palaces."

Miss Nell Jamieson, Presbyterial Welcome and Welfare Secretary, was the guest speaker, and was introduced by the President. She gave a very inspiring talk on Missions and Missionary work. A vote of appreciation was proposed by Mrs. A. G. Suffel. The meeting closed with prayer and the National Anthem.

Apparently jute is in much the same position as rubber, so far as the raw material is concerned. Everyone will have to take care of our present supply of jute bags and make them last as long as possible.

We are allowing 10 cents each when a customer supplies his own bags for grain, ground feed, etc., and $3.00 per ton when bags are supplied for mixed feeds that we put up regularly in new bags.

The allowance of $3.00 per ton can be made only when the feed is mixed right into the used bags and taken in half-ton lots or more.

Bags should not be sold to go out of the district. They all will be needed. If you have a surplus, bring them in and we will try and handle them at their full value.

HIGHWAY SHOULD BE COMPLETED

Highway No. 31, one of the most travelled routes between Ottawa and the St. Lawrence River, should be completed this summer. The unfinished portion of the highway, north and south of Vernon, is a headache to all who drive their cars over it. Although the Highway Department is constantly grading the road and filling up the holes caused by the frost leaving the ground, the highway is always rough and discouraging to motor traffic.

We are aware of the fact that road construction is to be greatly curtailed this summer due to the war, but essential improvements to the main arteries of travel should not be overlooked.

With Cornwall and Ottawa both military training centres, travel on Highway 31 has increased greatly during the past few months. For a distance of about seven miles, north and south of Vernon, the road is in an unfinished state. Construction of this section of the highway started three years ago, but, for some reason or other, it has never been completed. Much money has been expended on temporary repairs, and still the road is in a deplorable condition.

In our opinion, the government would save money by putting a concrete surface on this portion of the highway as soon as weather conditions permit. With this section of the road completed, the highway would be in good condition from Ottawa to Morrisburg, and surely the highways leading to our Capital City should be given the preference over roads of less importance. We hesitate to think that the reason for not completing the portion of highway mentioned, is due to the fact that it runs through a traditionally Conservative County.

THOSE ANONYMOUS LETTERS

A local lady reports that she received an anonymous letter last week, and that she was "terribly upset about it. Well, madam, it would never do for you to be a newspaper editor. We get those unsigned letters quite often and they don't bother us one bit—they all find a resting place in the waste paper basket. Sometimes we get a kick out of some of the things that the anonymous writer says. For instance, here are a few phrases taken from a letter we received a few weeks ago: "Who is running this country anyhow, you fat-necked, pot-bellied newspapermen or the government elected by the public?" That's telling the scribes, isn't it? Here's another sentence from the same letter: "And this goes for all you fat heads as well—you'd better keep your mouths shut before someone shuts your big mouths for you and I am a tory myself." Boy, are our knees knocking! Evidently this writer doesn't like our stand on conscription, for he concludes his anonymous episode as follows: "As for conscription for overseas what do you want, a civil war in Canada? We, the people, refuse to be conscripted for over there and you old fat hogs will be the first to suffer in a civil war. You have called for it and if I ever read in your paper again, etc. etc." At this point the writer evidently lost control of his temper and we do not wish to contaminate our columns by printing his abuse of the English language.

Strange as it may seem to some people, editors are seldom perturbed over anything written in an anonymous way. They know that in every case the person who writes anonymous letters, hasn't got backbone enough to meet them face to face. Cowards, so to speak. If those who indulge in the practice only knew how little they accomplish by sending an unsigned letter to another party, they wouldn't waste the effort.

A TOXOID WEEK FOR CANADA

A Dominion-wide Toxoid Week has been planned to commence April 19th. During this week the Health League of Canada has managed to secure the co-operation of all Provincial Departments of Health with a view to conducting an educational campaign aimed at increasing the number of children toxoided in all parts of Canada.

President Roosevelt has proclaimed May 1st as Child Health Day in the United States and has urged the citizens of the United States to complete the immunization of all children against both diphtheria and smallpox before this date. Similarly in Canada the week of April 19th will be given semi-official status in that public health leaders will devote their attention to a drive against diphtheria during this period.

It is an amazing thing to public health leaders of Canada that although Toxoid has been available since 1926, its use throughout the Dominion has been scattered. Various cities in Canada, especially by virtue of the leadership of public-spirited Medical Officers of Health, have proven that diphtheria can be eliminated altogether from local areas if Toxoid is administered generally. As a matter of fact if all children were given Toxoid, diphtheria could be made to disappear from the whole of Canada.

But the application of science is slow, keeping pace with the progress of public education. In some areas little effort has been made to educate the public, with the result that there are many cases and many deaths. In one city there have been no deaths from diphtheria in ten years and no cases for eight years. In another city, smaller than the first, within the last year or so there have been 670 cases in a single year, with many deaths.

Public health is not parochial and unless all communities work together to achieve health as a national ideal, communicable disease is likely to crop up anywhere, spreading from the areas where public health is neglected even to those areas where public health organization is perfect.

During the last three years there have been, in spite of the existence of a life-saving preventive, 8,071 cases of diphtheria in Canada and more than 850 deaths. None of these cases need have occurred. No child need have died of diphtheria. All of these tragedies were the result of our failure to fully inform the Canadian people that diphtheria may be prevented by Toxoid.

Commencing on Sunday, April 19th, with a radio broadcast over a national hook-up of stations by His Excellency the Governor General, a sustained educational campaign will be carried out throughout the whole of the Dominion. The Honourable Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Pensions and National Health, will speak in a moving-picture newsreel which will be shown in every theatre in Canada. Newspapers, radio, churches and schools will all co-operate with health authorities to the end that no Canadian parent shall remain uninformed of the fact that he may play his part in a campaign, which neglected, will mean unnecessary illness and death. The Press urges its readers and all Canadians to help make this educational effort a success.

RED CROSS DRIVE COMING

In the month of May, the people of Ontario are going to have an opportunity to give their money and not to lend. Faced with an ever increasing appeal for help, the Canadian Red Cross is asking the people of Canada to provide at least $9,000,000 for the relief of suffering and the provision of some comfort for tens of thousands of soldiers and civilians who have been caught up by the whirlpool of war.

Ontario's share of the national objective will be a large one, but there is no doubt in the minds of Red Cross officials about the response from the people of this banner province. Throughout the experience of the Canadian Red Cross it has become more and more obvious that the residents of rural areas are particularly aware of the importance of Red Cross work.

PARENTS SHOULD CO-OPERATE WITH TEACHER

We read the other day where two parents in a U. S. state were convicted for an attack on a teacher. This brought to our attention the old problem of co-operation between home and school in maintaining discipline.

Not long ago the sternness of some educators caused a revulsion against corporal punishment which in certain localities placed statutory limits on the authority of teachers. If to do this is added a disposition on the part of an indulgent parent to "thrash the teacher" for any severity to "little Johnny," a difficult situation is created.

In the overwhelming majority of cases the teacher deserves parental support rather than interference. Home and School Associations have helped to foster this co-operation in many respects beyond the mere question of discipline. In general, if a parent has any doubt as to the fairness of punishment meted out to his child he will do better to discuss the matter in friendly fashion with the instructor without allowing the child to know that any difference of opinion exists. Parents should co-operate with teacher in school discipline.

EDITORIAL NOTES

It is understood that the old saying about locking the stable door after the horse is stolen, has given place to the new one—locking the garage door after the gasoline or tires are stolen, comments the Almonte Gazette.

We cannot help being anxious when those we love are ill or unhappy. But if we express that anxiety by endless moaning and irritating questions, we shall merely add another weight to the burden which those we worry about have already to carry.

Parents would do well to advise their children that there is a by-law prohibiting the riding of bicycles on the sidewalks in Winchester. This practice is being indulged in altogether too freely by some bicycle-riders at the present time. Sidewalks are for the use of pedestrians, whose safety shouldn't be threatened by careless boys on bicycles.

Living apartments in Ottawa must be scarce. In two classified advts. in the Ottawa Citizen recently, two different parties were offering $25.00 and $5.00 reward to anyone who would locate apartments for them. Even at that, it is doubtful if they succeeded in getting what they wanted. Apartments in Ottawa are about as scarce as automobile tires today.

Last week officials from the Children's Aid Society visited a local home and took three small children to an institution at Cornwall to be cared for. The mother, who is the wife of one of our young men on active service overseas, had temporarily deserted her family, and, according to authorities, had abused the children on several occasions. To say the least, she lacks the decency and respect that a good mother should possess. Probably the authorities will catch up with her and put her where she belongs. If all the stories that are being told about her are true (and many of them are), punishment of some nature is long overdue.

Regardless of what you think of the Government's Plebiscite, it is your duty to turn out and record your vote on Monday, April 27th—and, of course, the only intelligent way to mark your ballot is with an "X" opposite the word "Yes." But, if you can't conscientiously vote that way, come out to the polls and vote the way you feel you should. The main thing is to vote. By voting "Yes," you give the government unrestricted power to mobilize Canada's manpower. To vote "No," means you do not wish the government to use all the power available for protecting Canada from the forces of aggression, which are lurking at our very gates.

Now that housecleaning time has arrived for the housewives of the village and surrounding community, it is well to bear in mind the dangers of using inflammable liquids for cleaning purposes about the house. Every year fatalities occur because individuals insist on cleaning hardwood floors with gasoline or some other highly explosive liquid. Such a practice is merely courting disaster, and should be avoided. If inflammable liquids are to be kept about the house, they shoud be kept in safety containers and used in small quantities remote from any open fire. We urge citizens to take the utmost precaution if using these liquids and thus avoid serious consequences.

Other Editors' Opinions

PROPAGANDA
(Ottawa Citizen)

"The dark meat of a chicken contains about twice as much vitamin B as the light meat." Slick bit of propaganda by father, who doesn't go for vitamins himself, to make the rest of the family take a leg and lay off the breast.

THAT'S OUR GUESS
(Smiths Falls Record-News)

In several United States newspapers there appears news despatches credited to DNB service. It is really a Nazi news agency. Frankly we know not what the abbreviated letters represent, but they could mean "Do Not Believe."

STICK TO YOUR KNITTING
(Stirling News-Argus)

If you ever get to feeling blue about things, stop and think what it will mean if you keep it up, and then pin your mind so hard on your daily task that there isn't room for another thing in your head. That's the way to keep pessimism and despondency out of your heart.

A MAN'S QUALITIES
(Toronto Star)

When a man dies, it is qualities like these—if he possessed them—which his fellow-men delight to praise: Sincerity, honesty, courage, goodness, kindliness, helpfulness to others, unselfishness—and, above all, concern for the welfare of humankind, for "the man underneath."

DON'T LIKE THEM
(Perth Courier)

Secretary of the C. C. F. in Ontario said a few days ago that that party expects to have a candidate in every riding at the next general election and his party hopes to elect fifteen. He need not look at Lanark; this county has not shown any marked liking for third parties in the past and is old enough now to know better.

A HOUSEWIFE'S DREAM
(St. Mary's Journal-Argus)

The housewife's dream, to say nothing of the husband: Dishes washed without dishcloths and dried without tea towels. In British war factories, the kitchens which serve the factory "commons" wash the dishes with sprays of hot and cold water and dry them with a hot spray. After the hot spray, the dishes dry when they hit the cold air. Also, it is a cleaner drying.

A WARNING!
(Brockville Recorder & Times)

The warning of the Oil Controller that gasoline ration books should always be carried by motorists instead of being left in the pockets or compartments of their cars is most timely. People who have their books stolen will experience considerable difficulty in having them replaced and for them there will be no gasoline until such replacement has been made.

NOT THE HAPPY FAMILY IT USED TO BE
(Brampton Conservator)

While Mr. King and the English speaking members of his government are urging citizens to vote "yes" in the plebiscite, French-speaking members of the party are rioting against conscription in Montreal. Following a speech by the veteran firebrand, Henri Bourassa, eight policemen were injured and damage to property inflicted. As a result, action against the city is threatened. Mr. King's following is not the happy family it once was.

WRONG JUST THE SAME
(Tweed News)

We learn from The Grimsby Independent that the term M.P.P. is not correct. There is no such thing as a Provincial Parliament in Canada. There are nine Legislative Assemblies but only one parliament, that at Ottawa. Only Dominion representatives rate the letters M. P. after their names, while a member of the Legislative Assembly is entitled to use M.L.A. However, we will probably continue to use the term M.P.P., since it is useless to attempt teaching an old dog new tricks. We have been accustomed to M.P.P.

PARTS OF A DESIGN
(New York Times)

The charges which Foreign Minister Anthony Eden made against the conduct of the Japanese army in Hong Kong take added weight from the circumstances under which they were uttered. They were addressed to the House of Commons, in which a misstatement of fact for whatever purpose, is considered to be a breach of faith. The charges are shocking. They are not surprising. Like Germany, Japan has started an atrocious war for an atrocious purpose. For Japan, as for Nazi Germany, atrocities are never accidents. They are parts of a design.

SHOULD ALSO SIGN THEIR NAMES
(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

An anonymous letter which could have been written in Trenton and posted in Toronto or which could have been written and posted in Toronto, reached our desk last week. This is not the first anonymous letter to reach this desk, but it was a bit different to the type which usually follows some person's distorted conception of things as they are and probably deserve to be. This letter, written in lead pencil on a sheet of paper, ended in the middle of a sentence which is not good form. We wish our anonymous contributors would be more careful in this regard in future.

DEFINING A CAPITALIST
(Petrolia Advertiser-Topic)

There seems to be as many definitions of what a capitalist is as there are as to what constitutes a democracy. A man with small savings is an embryo capitalist but as a rule he doesn't get very far. Usually he invests his savings in a business in which he has no voice or is outvoted by a larger capitalist. Often these large capitalists combine and vote themselves huge salaries and fat directors' fees and otherwise ride high, wide and handsome. When threatened by an investigation or legal action their grief for the poor widows and orphans who are shareholders is piteous to behold. There are, it seems, capitalists and just—capitalists.

GET AFTER THE SOCK, SCROOGE
(Almonte Gazette)

Donald Gordon, head of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, keeps making speeches about the "spending spree" in Canada. He says if it doesn't stop there will be ration cards for many more commodities than gasoline. To what does he refer? So far as can be seen in the towns, there is no one throwing money to the winds. If the spending is in legitimate channels, on the other hand, it will be kept in circulation and it cannot get out of the country. The Government, therefore, will get a crack—or successive cracks.

Like the poker game where there is a rake-off, if the boys keep playing long enough the house will have everything. And so it is with the Government. The man who hides his money in a sock is the real rascal Mr. Gordon should seek out. If this reasoning isn't right, why doesn't the retrenchment mogul speak out and say exactly what is on his mind.

COURAGE DOES IT!
(The Picton Gazette)

Much talent is lost for want of a little courage. Thousands of men have died in obscurity because timidity prevented them from making a first effort. Many of them had real talent, if they could have been induced to begin. To do anything worth doing, we must not stand back shivering and thinking of the cold and danger, but jump in and scramble through as well as we can. It will not do to be perpetually calculating risks and adjusting nice chances!

Courage, not luck, contributes most to success;—the kind of courage that carried Walter P. Chrysler from a mechanic's job to head of one of the world's great automobile concerns; that made Edison face up to the stupendous task of examining over 3,000 different theories before he developed the incandescent lamp. Most of us have latent abilities sufficient to carry us to the pinnacles of successful achievement if we but have the will. The hidden pathway unfolds to the determined explorer, the elusive formula to the chemist who tries and tries again. Honor, prosperity and happiness, in every field of endeavor are within reach of the courageous.

SPRING HOUSECLEANING

Hello Homemakers! The return of spring's delightful days reminds us again of our 'Spring Housecleaning' duties. It is practical patriotism to do a thorough job of keeping everything we have in good condition—not only the electric cleaner, mops, brushes, metal utensils, polishing cloths, etc. Let's do everything we can to make them last longer because many materials used by war industries will not be available in future for our civilian needs. So plan your day's work and cheerfully 'carry on'!

Keeping the house clean is only part of the homemaker's responsibility—there are also nourishing meals to be planned for the family because our health is of paramount importance these trying days. Canada's homemakers are to be congratulated upon their untiring efforts to do their share—keep it up and we'll win through.

Menu Suggestions

BREAKFAST — Tomato Juice, Cooked Cereal (one cup of milk for each over cereal), Toast, Wholewheat Bread and Butter, Coffee for adults, Milk for children.

DINNER—Meat Loaf, Escalloped Potatoes, Cooked Parsnips, Stewed Canned Tomatoes, Whole Grain Bread and Butter, Indian Pudding.

SUPPER—Lima Bean Soup, Cottage Cheese Salad, Wholewheat Biscuits, Cherry Jello, Coffee for adults, Milk for children.

Cleaning Equipment Can Last Ever So Much Longer—Read This.

VACUUM CLEANER — (1) Use attachments for every room. (2) Operate slowly in a straight line lengthwise of the rug, going over each section twice. (3) Hold the cord in your free hand to avoid any possible damage. (4) Be sure to pick up any small sharp objects, (e. g., pins) before use using the cleaner, as they may puncture the dust bag. (5) Empty dust bag after each use. Turn inside out and brush (four times a year). Do not wash. (6) Remove all threads from brush cleaner. (7) Wind the cord loosely to avoid damaging the fine wires inside. (8) Replace worn belt, brush, or cord immediately. (9) Dust motor housing and attachments. (10) Follow manufacturer's directions for lubrication.

BROOMS — (1) Sweep evenly in one direction only, overlapping each stroke. Do not raise broom at end of each stroke to raise dust. (2) Dust off and hang broom up after use. (3) Fibre brooms should be washed once a week in clear warm water. Hang up to dry.

SCRUB BRUSHES—(1) Wash in soapsuds until bristles are clean; rinse, and let dry in air with bristles down—after each use.

DUST CLOTHS—(1) Soiled cloths are washed in soapsuds, rinsed in warm water and when dry are treated with oil solution and stored in a closed container. Treated dusters: Mix 1-4 cup lemon oil and 2 cups hot water and sprinkle on cloth. Roll up tightly.

DUST MOPS—(1) The preliminary use of the electric cleaner over a bare floor keeps your dust mops clean. (2) Clean after each use. The best way is by the suction attachment of the vaccum cleaner or by shaking out-of-doors. (3) Always hang up the mop after using.

WET MOPS—Wash in hot soapy water; rinse and shake outside. Comb string mop with a clothespin. Dry in the sun if possible.

CELLULOSE SPONGES—Wash in warm soapy water, rinse thoroughly; squeeze—do not wring. Cellulose sponges may be sterilized in boiling water.

STORAGE PLACE—A shelf or shelves and clips on the wall, for all the cleaning materials in one place saves hundreds of unnecessary steps. Clean out and air the storage closet frequently.

QUESTION BOX

Mrs. J. C. asks: "Is it true that an oil dust mop causes a self-polishing wax to become sticky?"

ANSWER: We suggest using the electric cleaner and then an untreated mop, dampened slightly if necessary.

Mrs. C. J. J. asks: Recipe for white rolls that will not require kneading?

ANSWER: Unkneaded Feather Rolls

1 pint milk, 6 tbs. baking fat, 2 tbs. sugar, 1 yeast cake dissolved in 1-4 cup lukewarm water, 5 cups of bread flour, 1 tsp. salt.

Scald the milk, stir in the baking fat and sugar, and put aside to cool. When cool, add dissolved yeast cake, flour and salt. Beat well for 3-5 minutes, cover and put to rise in a place out of any draughts. Stir down after 1 1-2 hours. Cover again. When double in bulk stir down again and then drop by spoonfuls in greased muffin tins. Cover and let rise again until double in size. Bake in electric oven at 425 degrees. They will be tender but not as fine in texture.

WINCHESTER SPRINGS W. A.

The Women's Auxiliary of the United Church and the Daisy Mission Band held their Easter Thankoffering Service on Tuesday, April 7th at the home of Mrs. A. Bailey, with a splendid attendance. The meeting opened with a hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," followed with prayer by Mrs. C. Thompson. Mrs. Orren Casselman had charge of the Devotional period, during which the members of the Mission Band gave an Easter number.

Mrs. Bailey had charge of the Mission Study. It was very interesting to see how the meetings in China brought about the introduction of women to the different executives.

A musical number by Miss Evelyn Thompson was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Myers, the Christian Stewardship Sec'y., gave an interesting article on the importance of our Easter Thankoffering.

The Temperance Secretary, Mrs. Adams, read a letter from "Faith, Hope and Charity." It was a challenge from our young people to the mothers of today who spend so much time in the beverage rooms.

A duet, "Bright As A Button," was then sung by Misses Sybil Morrow and Orian McIntosh.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Sam Rice. A social hour followed.

OLD LAWS AND CUSTOMS

There are a lot of funny laws in the land, in all lands, some of which have been passed longer than can be remembered and never repealed.

For instance, there is an unwritten law in the United States that shipbuilders shall place pennies, nickels and dimes under the foremast and mainmast before a vessel is christened.

A Kansas law reads: "When two trains approach each other at a crossing they shall both come to a full stop, and neither shall start up again until the other has gone." We are turning this one over to Joe Gray to deal with. It is too intricate for us.

An unrepealed law in North Dakota says that a person selling beef who fails to exhibit to the purchaser, on demand, the hide of the animal, is punishable with a fine.

And in Alderson, West Virginia, an ordinance says: No "lions shall be allowed to run wild on the streets of this city." Possibly the council that passed that one was seeing pink elephants at the time.

From Waterloo, Nebraska, comes this one: "It shall be illegal for any barber in this town to eat onions between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m." We hope local barbers read this one although the hours should read "between 8 a.m. and 11 p.m." And onions and witch hazel are no attar of roses, either. Perhaps this ordinance is not so foolish as it reads at first.

ORMOND B. Y. P. U.

The weekly Young People's meeting was held in the church Friday night. The president, Mrs. Hubert Carkner, presided and led in the opening song service, with Miss Marion Carkner as pianist. Following the hymn, "Under His Wings," Mrs. Augustine led in prayer. The Campbell twins, Dannie and Donnie, received the offering.

Mr. Ormond Carkner assumed leadership. "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" was sung, and a portion of Scripture from St. John 21 was read by Miss Catherine MacGregor. After a season of prayer, a solo was contributed by Mr. Stanley Wallace, "There Were Ninety and Nine."

The guest speaker of the evening was Dr. J. J. McKendry, of Winchester, who delivered a very fine address from Jesus' words: "It is finished." Jesus was glad—it was not a cry of despair but a cry of triumph. It was not his life that was finished but the power of God was released.

The meeting was closed by singing "Take My Life" and Benediction pronounced by the pastor.

Next Friday night the Young People of Ormond are journeying to Winchester to hear the message by the returned missionary, Miss Jean Piper.

LATE GEORGE KENNETH WAYNE YOUNGE

There passed away at the Ottawa Civic Hospital on Sunday, March 29th, 1942, George Kenneth Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Younge, aged 10 months and 19 days, after a sudden illness of only two days. He was born at Winchester Springs on May 10th, 1941, and was a dearly loved little lad. The funeral was held March 31st at 2 p.m. at Winchester Springs United Church, the pastor being Rev. R. S. Smith. The pall bearers were Elmor McIntosh, Beverly Casselman, Allen Davidson and Lawrence Holmes. The flowerbearers were Cyril Holmes, Ronald McIntosh, Eric Steele and Donald McIntosh.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Young; one sister, Joyce, and one brother, Gary; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hummel and Mr. and Mrs. John Younge, and a number of aunts and uncles.

The floral tributes were: Sprays—Parents, sister and brother; Grandparents; Uncles and Aunts.

Dear little angel of mine
Why did God call you so soon;
You were just a bit of sunshine
To brighten our hearts and room.

How we miss you so, my darling,
Miss your smile and little ways;
For the time is, oh, so long now
In these sad and dreary days.

A Patriotic Pudding

By Frances Lee Barton

THERE is very likely to be a decided change in our eating habits before long. Certain foods from enemy countries will not be obtainable, and we shall have to depend upon foods from our own and friendly lands.

Why not get the habit of serving patriotic dishes now? Here's a pudding recipe for a starter — and I am sure you will agree that this particular pudding is just as delicious as anything made from unobtainable foods.

Orange Sponge Pudding

⅓ cup quick-cooking tapioca; ⅔ cup sugar; ¼ teaspoon salt; 1⅓ cups water; 2 tablespoons butter; 2 tablespoons lemon juice; ½ cup orange juice; 2 teaspoons grated orange rind; 3 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored; 3 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Combine tapioca, sugar, salt, and water in saucepan and mix well. Bring mixture quickly to a full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. (Mixture will be thin. Do not overcook.) Add butter, lemon juice, orange juice, and orange rind. Cool mixture 10 to 15 minutes while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 to 60 minutes, or until firm. Serve hot or cold. Serves 8 to 10.

MUST CUT PRICES ON GROCERIES

Manufacturers of a number of grocery items are required to reduce their prices on and after next Monday, to not more than the highest prices charged during the month of June, 1941, under an order of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, issued last week.

"Manufacturers' prices of these goods had increased between June and October and thus created a considerable 'squeeze' on wholesalers and retailers, a substantial number of whom had based their selling prices on the cost of purchases made some time prior to the basic period and were not able to pay the highest prices established by manufacturers during the basic period," a board statement said.

Provision has been made for payment of a subsidy to manufacturers by the commodity prices stabilization corporation to compensate them where necessary for the enforced reduction in lawful selling prices.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brooks:—

We, the members of Hallville Women's Association, feel we cannot allow you to depart from our midst without, in some measure, expressing the feeling of esteem and deep regard we have for you both. Since coming here twelve years ago, you have shown your loyalty to the church and community by devoting your time and energy to the success of all its undertakings. We shall miss you very much, but we wish you God-speed in the new sphere of work which you have undertaken, and we hope that there also you may make many warm friends.

Mrs. Brooks, you have given generously of your time and talents to the various interests of our Society, and we ask you to accept this gift as a souvenir of the time you spent in our Hallville Women's Association, and as you peruse the pages, may you experience that peace and comfort which passeth all understanding, and may God supply all your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Mr. Brooks, we shall miss you from our midst, miss your jokes, your visits to the basement as we work, your little deeds of kindness and helpfulness. You have truly been to us a "bearer of burdens," and a "carrier of water." If you ever felt irritated, you never showed it by either word or deed.

As a small appreciation of the services you have rendered, we ask you to accept this gift as a slight token of our goodwill, and our earnest desire is that God's richest blessing may rest upon you wherever you may be. We hope that in the future you may both return to renew acquaintances and again enjoy social times together, so we do not say good-bye, but au revoir.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Enlarged Pores.

One remedy for enlarged pores around the chin and nose is bathing with a little lukewarm water and borax.

Cut Roses

Salt is very good for putting in a vase of roses. It nourishes the stems and keeps the roses fresh a much longer time.

Puddings

To prevent the flour from lumping when making pudding, mix the flour and sugar well together before adding the milk.

Milky Water.

When water has a milky appearance ,it can be quickly cleared by dissolving a small piece of rock alum in a pint of boiling water and using this much to a tub of water.

A More Secure Package

To tie a package more securely, dampen the cord before wrapping it around the package. The cord will shrink and draw tight as it dries.

Brass Fixtures.

Outdoor brass fixtures can be cleaned very nicely if the scouring soap is mixed with kerosene. Apply with a flannel cloth and rub thoroughly.

Mending Kid Gloves.

Kid gloves should always be mended with cotton thread, as this does not tear the leather when you are sewing, and it also makes the gloves wear better.

Hash Balls.

Mince some corn beef and potatoes very fine. Make into flat cakes and brown on both sides on a buttered griddle. The taste is improved if the potatoes have been boiled with the corn beef.

Croquettes.

Croquettes will keep their shape much better if they are formed about two or three hours ahead of time, and are thoroughly chilled before they are cooked.

Paint Spots on Hardwood

To remove paint spots from hardwood floors, apply some kerosene and rub briskly. Follow this by rubbing the floor with a soft cloth wrung from lukewarm water.

Laundry Hint

When laundering many small fine articles, it is wiser to place them all in a pillowcase before putting them into the washing machine. Then there will be no danger of their tearing.

The Bath Tub.

One effective way to clean a white enamel bath tub is to put a little turpentine in a saucer, get a small cloth, and rub the bath all over with the turpentine. Then scrub well with soap and warm water.

Cake Icing.

To prevent icing from running off the cake, double a piece of stiff paper and pin closely around the cake, letting the paper extend about an inch above the top of the cake. Spread the icing and do not remove the paper until the icing has set.

The Silver Teapot.

Always empty the silver teapot after using and rinse with boiling water. Every two weeks fill the teapot with boiling water, to which a large lump of soda has been added, and allow to remain overnight. Next morning scrub well with a brush.

Cleaning Steel Knives.

Powdered bath brick applied with a large cork dipped in water and then in the powder is the best abrasive. Lay the knife flat on the drainboard, or some other solid surface, when scouring. For obstinate stains, rub with a cut potato dipped in scouring powder.

Vaseline Stains.

If goods with vaseline stains on them are boiled, the stains will be permanently set. The stains should be removed from clothing or bedding before it is laundered. This may be done by saturating the stains with turpentine and letting it stand for at least half an hour before washing.

Dustless Duster.

To make a dust cloth that will really hold the dust and not take it up in one place only to scatter it in another, soak a large square of cheesecloth in kerosene oil until thoroughly saturated. Hang in the open air all day until well dried. It holds the dirt splendidly. When soiled, the process may be repeated after the cloth has been washed.

THE UNITED CHURCH

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered on Sunday morning by Dr. T. A. Halpenny, who gave a solemn challenge to his hearers from John 13:4. This, he said, was a wonderful scene—the best prelude to the Sacrament. With all the dignity of the Messiah, He turned to do a very humble thing, seeking to wash from their hearts the proud, hard feelings so uncongenial for this scene. He couldnt talk with them as He wanted to with those feelings in their hearts, so He washed their feet and they became changed men. The spirit of humility and of willingness to serve one another is the background of this sacrament. Anyone can do an humble service. A plea was given for the spirit of Jesus Christ in the heart in these terrible days.

The evening message dealt with the words: "Peter followed afar off." Why? Because of fear, although his heart loved his Lord. Far too many put their religion last. Peter was safe only when his Lord was the centre in his life.

The choir, with Mrs. Scobie at the organ, contributed appropriate anthems both morning and evening.

THE WESTERN FIVE WARMS UP

The Western Five provide Canadian radio with one of its most interesting anomalies. The programme is devoted to the songs of the wide open spaces. The music comes out at break-neck speed and is played by as smooth a pack of sophisticates as ever steered clear of a rodeo steer. The shrine of their activities is swank studio "A" at CBC's handsome emporium in the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa. Featured, left to right: Oral Scheer, vocalist; Woody Hill, guitarist; Cammie Howard, leader-arranger-clarinetist; Gene Cloutier, violinist, and Red Calloway, the trumpet player who triples in xylophone and string bass. The Western Five go into sessions Tuesday and Thursdays, at 6.00 p.m. EDT, 7.00 p.m. ADT.

THE POET'S CORNER

NIGHT FLIGHT

Somewhere in the skies tonight
Our sons are riding high,
O keep their souls we pray thee Lord
Forever 'neath Thine eye.

We ask Thee, Lord, to be their guide,
And guard their shining wings,
Because they are so dear to us,
We ask of Thee these things.

So young, so gay, they've gone to meet
That menace riding there,
When only yesterday it seems,
They played without a care.

Where have they gone bright souls who rode
Those skies so unafraid?
What rendezvous has now been kept?
What summons now obeyed?

We cannot see the bright stars shine,
Our eyes are dimmed with tears,
But they still glow serenely on,
Silent, immune, and clear.

We would not ask that this cup pass,
Though silently we yearned,
When dawn at last comes stealing o'er,
To hear—"They all returned."

Dear Lord we thank Thee for Thy care,
Keep them from sun to sun,
And when that last call comes for them,
Then Lord—"Thy Will be Done."

—Isabel Todd Howell,
Montreal South.

THE SUN STILL SHINES

Why should we grieve because the sun goes down?
How else could clouds their brilliant colours wear?
Or stars make entry to the dome of sky?
Night's silence brings surcease from fear and care.

The flowers, the trees, the grasses multiply
While men are sleeping wrapped in night's repose;
All life would wither in a constant sun,
The dews of night bring colour to the rose.

In these dark times, when war and horror rage,
Let us not doubt, or from the tempest quail;
There is a Light that shines for evermore,
Though dark the night,—evil shall not prevail.

—Dorothy Sproule.

PULPIT AND PEW

I

"It's the divinest Easter Sunday
Within our recollection,
Glad we got our new spring hats
Oh—we forgot to bring collection!"
"Sorry but your pew is filled."
"Hush, cut out the chat
I was ready, don't blame me,
Stuck here, can't see a hat."

II

"Sing hymn 100 and 15
Omit stanzas 2 and 8."
"Someone ought to tell her
Big hats are out of date."
"The choir will sing an anthem
"Don't look now, she'll see you,
Called 'Lilies of the Field'."
Pink cloche, the straw is peeled."

III

"My text you'll find in St. Mark
Chap. 16 and verse 6."
"No, the other one with the sailor
Aren't those poor shades to mix?"
"The things of this world pass away"
"Where? why that's the very latest,"
"No, the yellow mushroom, bonnet shape,"
"But charity is the greatest!"
"That's a sports hat, Parisian,"
"In conclusion let me say—"
"The flowers don't match the ribbon"
"Amen! Let us pray!"

—Florence Gould, R. N., Perth.

THE BANDITS OF THE CROOKED CROSS

Since life appeared upon the earth,
An evolution has progressed
From simple, crude unloveliness
To things that savor of the best.

Sometimes a species disappoints.
Just when we think that it is ripe
For beauty or utility,
It suddenly reverts to type.

At times a nation shows the same
Reversion to things primitive,
And, cultivated people ask
If, nationally, it should live.

The Huns, a savage, fighting tribe,
And took their place among the ones
Proceeded on to nationhood,
Who stood for things both wise and good.

But sometimes, on their upward way,
Ungodly leaders would emerge
To cultivate the baser things,
At length the old combativeness

And follow out the Martial urge.
Became so thoroughly awake,
It smothered culture, learning, truth,
And led them to the great mistake.

Of setting demagogues to rule
By dictatorial decree,
While all the people bowed the neck
To wear the yoke of slavery.

So, under cunning leadership,
They forged a mighty war machine,
Controlled by morons, who have placed
Swastikas where the cross had been.

Thus Germans have reverted to
The type they were as savage Huns.
Of all the bandits who have lived,
They have become the fiercest ones.

So, Europe, and the world, is now
Confronted by uncounted loss
Because the Huns are governed by
The bandits of the crooked cross.

—D. N. Coburn.

Clerk at Meat Counter (holding aloft a piece of steak): "Now, madam, wouldn't that look lovely with some onions?"

Skeptical Housewife: "Show me something that would look lovely by itself."

MODERN ETIQUETTE

1. What should one take into consideration when planning the centrepiece of the dinner table?
2. How long before the scheduled time of the wedding should the ushers appear at the church?
3. Is it permissible to use business or office stationery for social correspondence?
4. What are some things that a well-bred person never does while playing bridge?
5. When you are talking with someone whose name you cannot remember readily, and a friend joins you, should you attempt an introduction?
6. Is it necessary that a chaperon be a married woman?

Answers.

1. That tall ornaments which obstruct the view are not in good taste, as the guests naturally like to see each other across the table. It is far better to have a simple flat bowl of of flowers or fruit, flanked perhaps by a pair of candlesticks.
2. They should be on hand at least an hour beforehand. It is part of their duty to welcome the guests and conduct them to their places.
3. No. Neither the man nor the woman of good taste is ever guilty of this breach of etiquette.
4. He does not argue with his opponents about the rules, does not attempt to inform a partner how his hand should have been played, does not talk incessantly, drum on the table, snap the cards, hum nor whistle.
5. Yes. Say "I am very sorry, but for the moment I cannot remember your name."
6. No. Any woman of mature years may serve in this capacity.

EASTER MESSAGE SEES DEATH AS "EVENT IN LIFE"

"Easter comes this year with a whole world at war" writes Dorothy Sproule, associate editor of "The Crucible," Toronto, and "The Notebook," Cleveland, in an Easter message sent to the Herald.

"Sometimes we find it difficult to believe that out of the grave fear of conditions, we should make our decisions on a higher plane" she continues. "In this way we come to the Resurrection of Life which we celebrate at this time.

"Even in Spring, when those white blooms I see, I vision, too, the risen Christ, who trod the fields, where lilies bloomed in Galilee.

"Through the tumult and sadness, we win our way to the consciousness of our oneness with the Author of life, and the witness that man is eternal, that death is merely an "event in life," the opportunity for a larger life, since this existence is simply a segment of the cycle of eternity.

"Life, like love, is unconquerable, unconfined, either by birth or death—its path is vaster than the stars."

Dorothy Sproule writes the following poem as a holiday message:

"Twas in an olive garden, long ago,
A lovely Mary sat, with head bent low,
White lilies, dew wet, silvered by the dawn,
Like candles 'round a bier, shone pale and wan,
While she sat facing Life's great mortal blow.
"Heaven's trumpets sound for Him, her son, today,
For Death is vanquished, only life holds sway,
His step is heard, in every wind that blows.
We touch, as through a veil, the fadeless Rose.
Its fragrant incense falling as we pray."

The author has published seven books of poetry, three of which are in the second edition. In addition to war activity, she is now principally occupied with the Essay Group of the Canadian Authors' Association, which meets monthly in the Themis Club.

It may be remembered that she was the recipient of the Coronation Medal and also of the World's Fair Gold Medal for Canadian poets.—Montreal Herald.

One day she was telling some of her experiences.

"How do the foreign dishes compare with English ones?" asked the cook.

"Oh," replied the maid, airily, they break just the same."

"Why not take a week's vacation from worrying?" asks a psychologist. We'd be glad to, if only we could find something not to worry about.

Beauty for YOU

The Secrets of Good Looks by Barbara Lynn.

THE A. B. C. OF SKIN CARE

Few of us possess naturally lovely skins, and even these must take precautions lest they suddenly lose so priceless a heritage. The task of nurturing your skin will be simplified if you know something of its functions.

Besides being a covering for the body, the skin acts an outlet for certain secretions (perspiration, for instance, if a natural one). There are countless pores in the skin, and any impurities that lurk in the bloodstream may escape through these pores—resulting in spots.

If the system is functioning properly, there is far less likelihood of skin blemishes. Interior cleanliness is thus essential. Go easy on rich foods like pastries and sweets; eat more fresh fruits and vegetables. Drink lots of water.

Exterior cleanliness is also most important. The skin is composed of two main sections—the outer and the inner skin. The outer skin is continually being changed, so it is necessary to thoroughly cleanse the skin to remove tiny particles of dead cuticle, as well as to wash away the dirt and grime.

The main rule of exterior cleansing is: Wash thoroughly. Lukewarm water is best, and soft water is preferable to hard. If the water is too hard, soften it by adding a dash of bran. Frequent washing with a good soap is important. I advise regular use of soothing palmolive soap, which cleanses thoroughly and helps to beautify the skin.

After thoroughly rinsing the skin, cleanse with Three-Purpose cream, a delightful cream that is a treat for the skin.

Write me for confidential advice, and enclose four one-cent stamps for my Beauty Care booklet. Address: Miss Barbara Lynn, Box 75, Station B., Montreal, Que.

R.C.A.F. HEROES DECORATED BY KING

Four courageous Canadians received decorations from the hands of His Majesty the King at an investiture at Buckingham Palace. Pilot Officer Larry Robillard of Ottawa, (left) was decorated with the distinguished Flying Medal. He has a score of four aircraft destroyed and one "probable." The Distinguished Flying Cross was presented to Flight Sergeant B. C. Paige, of Bridgeport, Ont., (2) after he safely navigated a Hudson bomber and its crew to its base. The aircraft flew so low in an attack on enemy shipping that one wing-tip clipped a projecting rock, disabling the starboard engine, rendering all instruments and turret unserviceable, and extinguishing the lights. To Wing Commander Thomas C. Weir, of Toronto and Winnipeg, (3) went the Distinguished Flying Cross for bringing a disabled bomber and its crew to its base despite his own serious wounds. For risking his life to recue a comrade from the wreckage of a burning plane after a take-off crash, Flying Officer Alexander J. Nicholson of Windsor (right) received the George Medal. Nicholson braved exploding ammunition and was blown 60 feet by the force of a blast, but both men survived.

The cablegram revealed that he had been on a secret mission for some time and was unable to divulge his whereabouts. Needless to say, the mother was overjoyed to receive the cabled message.

First Electric Storm.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning, Winchester and district was visited by the first electrical storm of the season. It was a real mid-summer storm, producing a heavy downpour of rain, an abundance of sharp lightning and an unusual amount of thunder. So far as can be learned, the storm caused no damage other than blowing out some fuses on the Hydro lines. As is the general rule, a storm of this nature usually follows a period of real hot weather—but in this case the hot weather was missing. As the saying goes, "April Showers Bring May Flowers," and that's what we need in this gloomy old world today.

The local enumerators are Mr. Floyd Armstrong for the North Side of the Village, and Mr. Charles Cross for the south side.

An April Snow Storm.

This district was covered with a four-inch fall of snow last Friday night and Saturday morning, much to the surprise of local citizens, who had hoped that a warmer, drier season was here. However, the snow didn't remain long and little trace of it is evident today, due to the milder weather. Probably the robins were also surprised to see this spell of winter-like weather. But, cheer up, with that snow out of the atmosphere, maybe warmer and brighter days are in the offing.

Local Boy Is Medical Graduate.

Desmond Hampden Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon, of Winchester, was among 42 graduates of the Faculty of Medicine who received degrees at the annual medical convocation at Queen's University, Kingston, on Monday afternoon. The convocation marked the close of the 89th session of Queen's University Medical College.

Graduating ceremonies were held in Convocation Hall at the university. Convocation was held five weeks earlier than usual because of the wartime speeding up of the medical course.

COCKERELS

A few hundred heavy breed Cockerels one month old at a bargain. Five weeks more makes them ready for market as broilers. We need the space they are occupying for our Pullets and out they go at 10c each.

BOYS and GIRLS

Our offer of 25 Day Old Heavy Breed Cockerels for the return of one mature bird in Fall applies to April Hatches only. Hurry and send in your order at once as the supply is becoming very limited.

To Our Old Customers

To those who depend on us from year to year for chicks we advise sending in your order at once. The Egg prices are set at a price which will allow exceptionally good profits for the next year at least and this in turn is making the demand for chicks very heavy. Make your decision now if it is going to be a heavy breed, a light breed, a cross bred, if pullets, cockerels or mixed as hatched, if day old, week old, two weeks old.

Winchester ICE Service

I have fifty good ice boxes ready for service and any citizen in Winchester wanting one for the season should notify me before the ice season starts. There is no extra charge for the use of these, providing I supply the ice. As there is no ice-dealer in Winchester this year, I will supply local homes and business places with ice four times each week at a cost of $2.50 per month. I guarantee to give you the best service possible and to fill your ice box to the limit every trip. I expect to make a canvass for customers next week. Ice deliveries will start as soon as the weather demands it. I am also in a position to supply you regularly with good quality pasteurized milk at 8 cents per quart.
