Sewers Flowing Uphill; Basements Being Flooded

Morrisburg is confronted with a unique problem. Storm sewers in the village are flowing uphill and drain into the Fifth Street sewer. Correspondence presented at the regular meeting of Council stated that the basement of the residence of Corporal George A. Clark at the corner of Victoria and Alice Streets has been badly flooded, causing property damage.

Denzil Phillips, superintendent of water and works departments of the village, explained that the flooding is due to a blockage to the south. The matter of damages will be turned over to the insurance company and the adjustor will be informed that the responsibility lies with Ontario Hydro. The spring run-off is resulting in flooded areas at old No. 2 Highway, Park Drive and south of Victoria and Church Streets.

Discussion followed relevant to rerouting the sewer at Allison street, which services Kingston-Dunbrik, the new Eccles building and the former tack factory.

An extension from the telephone at the fire hall to the Bruce Casselman answering service will be installed so that the emergency fire number on the plastic cover of the local phone book will be correct.

W. J. Demerah, regional supervisor Colonial Coach Lines, from Cornwall, and J. J. Lemmon, safety director, met with Council and reeves and representatives of Williamsburg and Matilda Townships to discuss the continuation of bus service along old No. 2 Highway. Mr. Demerah and Mr. Lemmon presented their opinion that no one suffered from discontinuation of the service, and they outlined the many advantages of using the better maintained route. It was finally decided that the representatives should place a recommendation before head office that the service be replaced on a rtial basis for the summer months.

Following the police report, Chief Constable Thomas Duval stated that stop signs will be erected at the intersection of Church and Maud Sts. for traffic control. Discussion followed regarding the merits of erecting further four-way stop signs at other intersections.

A letter of appreciation will accompany the cheque which was authorized to be forwarded to Williamsburg Council for use of the snow plow when Morrisburg was in "dire need".

Charles Crober was appointed to Morrisburg - Williamsburg Planning Board for a period of three years.

Council paissed a resolution recommending to the Board of Governors at Winchester Memorial Hospital that a wing for chronic or convalescent patients be erected. This recommendation carries no financial responsibility since money from an estate was left for this purpose.

Tenders will be called for a road extension to the Separate School property. Water works and sewer will also be installed.

A complaint was read from the secretary of Morrisburg Public School Board regarding dogs running at large in the playground. Steps have been taken to correct the situation.

Council will provide a grant of $400 for Morrisburg Horticultural So ciety to plant trees in the village. Councillor Trevor Allison supported the theory of "Plant a tree in '63".

Reeve J. Dain Connor and two representatives of Council will plan to attend the Conference of Reeves and Councils of Municipalities to be held at Cobourg May 10 and 11.

Daylight Saving Time will go into effect April 2t8h and will continue until October 27th.

April was proclaimed as Cancer Month at Morrisburg.

NEW PRINCIPAL AT HIGH SCHOOL

He is married to the former Helen Moore, an honors history graduate from the University of Toronto. The Armstrongs have three children, Judy, Peggy and Tim.

SPEAKER AT KNOX WOMEN'S CLUB

Miss Elizabeth Lyon of Morrisburg was guest speaker at the regular meeting of Knox Women's Club, held in the lecture room of the church. She presented interesting slides and tol dof her trip to the Eskimo and Indian country of Northern Canada. Mrs. Donald Merkley spoke on the subject "Our Country of Canada".

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Allard Reynolds, president, assisted by Mrs. A. N. Riley, secretary.

Reports of historical information regarding Knox Presbyterian Church gathered by representatives of various oragnizations was discussed. Representatives were: Rev. Everett Hawkes, Mrs. Edwin Jones, Mrs. G. Goorrell, Mrs. A. N. Riley, Mrs. Ralph Coulthart, Lois Hawkes and Gordon W. Thom.

Drive To Fight Cancer Opens Here April 19th

The Morrisburg and District Cancer Society will hold its annual Campaign for Funds on Friday, April 19th, 1963.

It is difficult to make the point, year after year, that the need is great that there is an urgency in this appeal to raise money to defeat cancer, but such is the case. One need only visit a hospital and talk to patients with cancer, or to their loved ones, to realize that cancer is a terrible disease and that its cost in terms of lives and unhappiness can scarcely be imagined.

The Canadian Cancer Society is doing all it can to bring about the final defeat of this human scourge. It is fighting cancer by means of research, which will one day solve the riddle of cancer and show us how to prevent it or cure it. It is fighting cancer by means of education, impressing upon all of us the importance of regular health check-ups and early treatment once cancer is diagnosed. And the Society is fighting cancer by means of welfare services which give the patient aid and comfort.

But to do all these things, the Canadian Cancer Society needs money. It is sincerely hoped that this community will once again do its part in this vital cause and see that our objective is attained. The cause is great and the need is great — let's all make our contribution great.

This year fully 86 percent of all funds used by the National Cancer Institute of Canada for its research projects will be provided from the campaign of the Canadian Cancer Society; almost half of whose budget is earmarked for research purposes.

The more we can make available for research, the more research projects can be undertaken .. and every one of them helps to fill a gap in the enormous cancer jig-saw puzzle.

The Campaign in this area is being conducted under the combined efforts of Mrs. J. Arthur Edgerton, vice president; Mrs. Parker Locke, chairman of women's services; Mrs. Robert Merkley, education chairman; Mrs. Gordon Walroth, secretary and Mr. Robert Smith, treasurer. Our Branch has been providing dressings locally to those who are suffering the ravages and far-reaching effects of cancer and a vast army of interested workers have made thousands and thousands of dressing srequired for our people.

Further details of the Blitz Campaign for Funds in this district will be forthcoming in the press during the next two weeks. Anyone wishing to canvass in their district for the Cancer Society is requested to attend a Daffodil Tea on Thursday afternoon April 18th, 1963, in the Morrisburg Civic Building at 3:30 a'clock, when all workers and anyone interested in the work of the Cancer Society will be welcomed.

The speaker outlined basic health rules as suggested by the Canada Food Guide, and presented recipes and ideas to help develop a "sense of taste color and texture" in cooking.

The two-day course covered presentation of slides and commentary entitled "How's Your Sense of Taste" preparation of a balanced, economical attractive low-calorie dinner. Salads, vegetable and fruit combinations and garnishes were stressed.

IT'S THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE

Monday is the Big Day for the Little Man. For that one day he is the boss. The vote of the working man counts as much as that of the millionaire. This is his day, when he exercises his most precious right — the right to vote. All citizens who can possibly get to the polls should do so and register a vote for the candidate and the party of their choice. This is their duty to their country, and their children. Leaders of every party and candidates from every riding have been busily expounding on what they consider the main issues for several weeks. Some of their talks had a smattering of facts. Much of it was based on over-active imaginations, visions,, and plain untruths. As we see it, the over-riding issue is the problem of Canada's unemployment. No country can be in a healthy state with more than 8 percent of her citizens unemployed. Don't be misled on Monday by these false promises and these good resolutions of which you have heard so much. Vote instead for the party which in your opinion, can make and keep Canada prosperous.

COFFEE PARTIES FOR BIG JOHN

George F. Jowett, chairman of Williamsburg Township Board of Planning and Development, supported John Palmer's claim that this is a distressed area of Ontario. He told of official correspondence from Mrs. Jean Casselman saying that total capital tax exemptions can be allowed by the board because of the classification of Williamsburg Township as such.

Three capacity crowds attended coffee parties, held by Grenville-Dundas Liberal Organization at the Pioneer Hotel, Williamsburg, where Dr. Gerry Rosenquist was host with Mrs. G. Raymond McIntosh presiding at the coffee table; at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Beckstead, Riverside Heights, and at Morrisburg Public School where Mrs. Jean Notman was official hostess.

Mr. Palmer spoke briefly and informally on each occasion and was supported by Mahlon Zeron, George E. Beavers, George F. Jowett, Dr. G. E. Rosenquist, Carlton F. McInnis and others.

WILLIAM BILLINGS

A well known area resident, William Billings, died recently at Winchester after a prolonged illness. He was in his 85th year.

Born at Mountain, September 16, 1878, he spent his entire life as a farm worker and a farmer in the area. Funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. J. MacDonald at the Vice & Craig Funeral Home. Interment was at Maple Ridge cemetery. Pall bearers were: Kenneth Summers, Willis McKercher, Keith Marquette, Joseph Marquette, Harvey McIntosh, Arne Watts.

He is survived by his wife, the former Rubena Bilow, three sons, Fred and Donald Billings at Winchester, James Billings at Ottawa, and five daughters: Mrs. Omer Rutherford (Millie), Morrisburg; Mrs. Henry Dillabough (Rachel) and Mrs. Mac Sergeant (Lillian) at Winchester; Mrs. Walter Craig (Della) at Kemptville, Mrs. Samuel Skuce (Mary) at South Mountain.

He also leaves two brothers: Alfred Billings at Kemptville and Chas. Billings at Brockville, 23 grandchildren and 32 great grandchildren.

The following night, the final game was played between Schell and Casselman with Schell's rink winning by a score of 14—6. The following players participated: Skip, V. Schell; vice skip, G. Eadie; second, B. Lyons; lead, R. Thornbury. Skip, L. Casselman; vice skip, G. Arthurs; second, A. Bolton; lead, D. Connor.

Congratulations to Vane Schell and his rink for winning the Pat Lid Trophy and to Lorne Casselman and his rink we say, keep your spirits up, for there is always another year.

Farm Power Use Doubles In Decade

Ontario farmers more than doubled their use of electricity within a decade, Robert Boyer, 2nd vice chairman of Ontario Hydro, said today.

In a report to the Ontario Legislature, Mr. Boyer, the member for Muskoka, outlined the importance of electric service on the farm.

"While the number of farm customers rose by 12.5 per cent between 1951 and 1961, total energy consumption of this group more than doubled", he said.

"While the price index of services and commodities used by farmers rose by 19 per cent in the same period, the cost per kilowatt-hour actually declined by 3.5 per cent".

Mr. Boyer said results of higher electrical consumption are apparent in greater output her farm worker and a higher cash income for the farmer.

A total of 138,000 farms in the province, more than 91 per cent, are now electrified and service is available to another four per cent, he continued. About 500 miles of new rural distribution lines were added in 1962, bringing the total operated by Ontario Hydro to 48,500, enough to girdle the globe twice.

Turning to rates, Mr. Boyer told the Legislature that Hydro's intensive sales promotion campaign is of paramount importance in keeping rates low.

". . . . it is essential to keep our equipment working at capacity in as many of the 24 hours of the day as possible if the Commission and the municipal utilities are to keep their costs down. Only through ths more efficient use can rates for power be maintained at the low levels to which we have become accustomed", Mr. Boyer explained.

In his remarks, Mr. Boyer also reported on 1962 operations and construction of Ontario Hydro.

"Through the first half of 1962, there seemed little reason for optimistic expectations about the year. There occurred, however, an upturn in August, followed by the sharp upward turn in the economy that develoeped in November and December.

"These betterments in the economy ultimately resulted in December peak loads reaching 6,292,951 kilowatts, which surpassed 1961 by 5.8 per cent".

The worth of Hydro's large thermal electric generating stations was proven during low water conditions in many parts of the province and severe ice ams in the Niagara River, which restricted hydro-electric output. The coal-fired plants supplied up to one third of power requirements in South ern and Northeastern Ontario during these periods.

Hydro's expenditures for construction of new power installations totalled about $114,600,000 in 1962 and will probably be slightly higher this year, Mr. Boyer said.

LETTER FROM OTTAWA

OTTAWA MARCH 1963

HON. PAUL MARTIN

SOCIAL PROGRESS

Dear Friends:

The Liberal Party has always stood for social progress. All social security measures that Canadians enjoy today were introduced by Liberal governments.

If the people of Canada choose the Liberal Party for their government on April 8, the new government will continue to move forward in the field of social progress for our people.

A new Liberal Government would introduce a contributory old-age pension plan and a national health plan.

People will soon be able to choose when, between the ages of 65 and 70, they wish to start drawing the pension based on their contributions, plus the existing Federal pension (if the Federal pension begins at age 65 the amount will be about one-third less than it would be if it began at age 70).

For a man of about average earnings — $360.00 per month — the total pension (including the Federal pension) available at 65 for himself and his wife, will be $180.00 per month. If he continues to work after 65, the pension available will rise to $250.00 per month at age 70. The pension rates will be reached in 10 years. The rates for people who retire in the interval will be steadily raised towards new levels.

To help people already retired, who have not had the chance to contribute under the new Liberal Plan. minimum supplementary pension of $10.00 per month will be paid, from the start, out of the pension funds established by contributions. This will raise the total old-age pension to $75.00 for a single or widowed person, and $140.00 for a married couple.

The new plan will not be financed from taxes but from contributions of a small percentage of earnings from all employers and employees and from self-employed people who choose to join.

Everyone's pension will be fully portable; an advantage over most private plans now in effect. However, no one would lose the benefits of private plans in which he is enrolled.

Everyone will be eligible for the Liberal plan, but it is not designed to help those who can easily afford to provide for their own retirement, so contributions will be based on top earnings of $500.00 per month.

A national health plan is another Liberal goal. When a Canadian economy is once more growing and prospering, a new Liberal government will move immediately to insure our people against heavy medical bills by establishing such a plan.

The Liberal health care plan would provide all medical and diagnostic services free of cost to children up to the time they leave school, and for people over 65 years of age.

All other Canadians would pay a maximum of $25.00 per person each year (or a somewhat higher figure for those with large incomes) if they have medical bills equal to or more than that amount.

The plan would not interfere with the doctor-patient relationship which is such an important and integral aspect of treatment. Patients would have complete freedom to choose the doctor they preferred, and doctors, would have complete freedom to recommend the treatment they considered necessary.

The Liberal Party is concerned with the welfare of all Canadians. It is concerned that the country should once again be prosperous and should once again enjoy full employment. It is concerned that no Canadian should suffer want or privation.

Thank you for this opportunity to tell you about the Liberal Party's policy for social progress.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Martin

No matter what the weather is like in Canada on Election Day, it is certain members of the Canadian Army voting in the Congo will have it hot and humid. Canadian Army soldiers in various parts of the world will cast their ballots between April 1 and 6. Balloting will take place at several detachments in the interior of the Congo, on the Sinai Desert and in West Germany. Discussing the election notice at the Leopoldville headquarters of No. 57 Canadian Signals Unit are, from the left, Sergeant R. A. QUICK CANADIAN FACTS—

In the 1951-61 decade the proportion of Canadian households equipped with automobiles increased from 43 to 61 percent.

About 12 per cent of the Canadian labor force is employed in agriculture, compared with nearly 2 5percent in France and 33 percent in Italy.

courageous leadership

"Canadian people hunger for things like international respect, a sound and expanding economy, brave decisions and strong direction at the seat of government. There are impressive indications today that these are the things Canadians do feel starved of. Not pie in the sky or pie on a plate but the dignity of a national character that reflects courage and resolve. This is what Liberal leader Lester B. Pearson is offering the voters he talks to in the opening stages of the federal election campaign. In doing so he is showing courage and, yes, just plain guts."

—Toronto Telegram

the most complete team

"There will be a government, and it must be made up of men of government stature; a team of political leaders and administrators capable of assuming ministerial responsibilities. On this basis, the most complete team seems to be the Liberals. Mr. Pearson has already held an important ministry with success. He is surrounded by a number of men with a feeling for public affairs, realistic ideas and administrative experience."—Le Devoir

Mr. Pearson makes it plain

"Mr. Pearson has made it plain that he has no intention of getting down into the gutter with Mr. Douglas or, for that matter, with Mr. Diefenbaker, whose attacks on the Liberal leader have been equally despicable. But the campaign of mud-slinging goes on. In the end, the result will be a serious loss of respect for the NDP among people who have felt this party stood for honour in politics."

—Ottawa Citizen

"Mr. Pearson mentioned as first on the list of Liberal welfare priorities the establishment of a contributory pension plan for Canadians. Then would come a national health plan; but first the economy must be expanded to the point where the national economy could pay for such measures without going further into debt. He added that the government should spend not a nickel on anything that would not increase production and reduce unemployment."—Winnipeg Free Press

All entrants received an encyclopedia year book as a memento of their participation in the zone finals. Prizes were presented by W.. J. FRED CASS REPORTS FROM THE ONT. LEGISLATURE

CASS .....

As is usual when a Session of the Legislature appears to be nearing its end, debates lose their sparkle, legislation is processeid with a minimum of debate. Committees despatch their work quickly and Members of all Parties begin looking todwards prorogation. The past week followed this pattern. However, although almost all departmental estimates had been debated and approved, there was still a great deal of legislation to be introduced and debateid and at the time of writing it appears to your Member that the Ontario Legislature will still be in session after Easter.

The Minister of Energy Resources, Hon. R. W. Macaulay, maide his first appearance in the House following his recent heart attack when he presented the estimates of his Department. The Minister appeared well and dealt with his estimates of the Depart ments of Public Welfare and Highways were debated and approved, the former passing very quickly and the latter after prolonged discussion. The Minister of Education, Hon. W. G. Davis, presented his first estimates and showed that Prime Minister Robarts' choice of successor to himself as Minister of Education was an exceptionally good one.

One of the most widely publicized events of the Session so far as Metropolitan Toronto newspapers were concerned, namely, the debate on the Roach Report on organized crime in Ontario, fell flat on its face when called by Prime Minister Robarts. Despite demands for the debate from Opposition benches, Liberal spokesmen were so fearful of entering the debate when called that it almost did not take place. The NDP spokesmen endeavoured to prove that Mr. Justice Roach did not do the job assigned to him and was most biased in his report. On their part Liberal speakers endeavoured to assert that the Roach Report was a vindication of their Leader's charges of over a year ago. For the government, Prime Minister Robarts pointed out that the Commissioner had found no evidence of improper relations between criminal elements in Ontario and government officials and that the government would most certainly introduce legislation to deal with such matters as the Com missioner had criticized in certain departments. The lack of comment in Metro Toronto papers after the debate ndicated how little interest there was now in an issue so adequately investigated and reported upon by Mr. Justice Roach and so properly being dealt with by the Robarts government.

Of great interest to everyone was the announcement by the Minister of Highways that provincial subsidies for connecting link portions of King's Highways were being raised, and that a new formula based on road needs and municipal ability to pay was to be used by the Department in setting annual subsidies for municipalities. In both these areas it would appear that rural municipalities, villaages, towns and smaller cities will benefit substantially.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?

High taxes, limitless debts and socialistic sentimentality have toppled more empires than all the armies who have marched across the pages of human history.

LETTER FROM OTTAWA

OTTAWA APRIL 1963

HON. LESTER B. PEARSON

THE ISSUES

Dear Friends,

Canada's greatest need is stable and effective government. A Liberal Government, I believe, will provide that effective, decisive government.

If it receives a clear mandate from the Canadian people, a Liberal Government headed by me will move immediately to ensure a steadily growing economy and create the jobs and job security which are the right of every Canadian. It will also see that all Canadians share fairly the benefits of that economic growth.

These are our goals. To achieve them, it will be necessary to take hard decisions. I will not hesitate to make such decision in the interests of Canada. I will form a government composed of competent and experienced men. We will set out our programme and do it in terms of priorities. One million new jobs in four years — this is our first priority and we know how we will achieve it.

For one thing, a Liberal Government will immediately establish a new Federal Department of Industry. This Department will use tax incentives, loans and grants to encourage industry to produce more for Canada and create more jobs for Canadians. A municipal development and loan fund will encourage our towns and cities to build hospitals, schools, roads and low cost housing, — the important social capital of a prosperous people.

Expanded and improved educational training and retraining is high on our list of priorities. A Liberal Government will invest in Canada's future through scholarships and loans to university students and an extension of the family allowance for high school students. This is the kind of investment Canada cannot afford not to make.

When Canada's economy is growing again, we will see that the benefits of this expansion are shared fairly among all Canadians.

One programme we will undertake immediately will cost the treasury nothing, but will bring increased security to our older citizens. I refer to a national contributory pension plan which will be completely portable. From the revenue of initial contributions, the pensions of these people now retired who have not had an opportunity to contribute to the plan will be raised immediately to $75.00 per month for single people and $140.00 per month for married couples. Pension levels will increase steadily over a 10 year period until the plan is in full operation. A national health plan will be introduced within the first four years of a Liberal Government. Our citizens must be able to guard their health without suffering from the fear of excessive medical bills. Care will be free for children in school, for people over 65, and for the unemployed. For all others, the plan will pay doctors' bills over $25.00 per person per year.

Improvement in Canada's economic affairs must be matched by improvements in our external affairs. Canada must regain her reputation as a nation which keeps its word. In 1959 the present government, in consultation with our NATO allies, made a commitment to accept defensive nuclear weapons. By the end of 1962, these weapons were in the hands of our armed forces. But the government has refused to take the ammunition to make them effective.

These weapons stand useless, symbols of our failure to honour our promises to our friends, symbols of a gap in the shield of freedom.

The Liberal Government will close that gap, honour this nation's commitments to our allies and take the ammunition with the weapons.

These are national pledges, not campaign promises. We mean to redeem our pledges. I ask you, the voters of Canada, to give us the opportunities in parliament to do the job.

Yours sincerely,

L. B. Pearson
