Town Holds Line On 1970 Budget

With the first instalment of 1970 taxes almost ready for the mails council has released pertinent figures as they apply to the current municipal budget brought down at a special meeting last week. Total taxes for municipal and county purposes will be just under $93,000. Total assessment in the village this year stands at $2,165,000.00.

On the expenditure side of the ledger council this year has allowed $23,000 for general government and administration as opposed to $21,000 last year. Protection services like fire, police, street lighting will account for $13,000, just over the 1969 figure. Sidewalks and roads, always a big item, will remain that way this year with $31,000 earmarked for this department. Last year $41,000 was budgeted but the real figure was only $23,000. Departmental subsidization of this amount comes to about 50%. Sewers and garbage collection will take $8400 against the 1969 allowance of $7000.

Welfare continues to be on a line of sharp increase. Last year payments were close to $4000 with the budget showing only $1000. This year council has budgeted for $1800. Of the total amount the provincial government pays 80%.

Parks and Recreation will cost an estimated $8000 this year. In 1969 the budgeted figure was $4000 but the actual cost was $10,700. Municipal costs at the ball diamond, swimming pool and other parks expenses accounted for the increase.

Council has budgeted this year for a deficit of $4500 for the water system, as opposed to an actual deficit last year of $4300. Aware of the need for a new town truck council has allowed a figure of $6500, although no price agreement with any firm has yet been reached. Total municipal expenditure has been set at just over $100,000. However, with the education levy added later in the year the grand total of operations will probably exceed the $263,000 mark of last year.

Council has introduced a hold the line budget this year. In 1969 the actual surplus was under $1500. United Counties' levy is up $6000 to $54,987.00 this year.

Present Payment Policy Remains

Although it had been previously explained that Winchester taxpayers would be asked to adopt a new quarterly system of taxation payment this year the present policy of payments in June and December will remain at least for this year. This is the word from Tax Collector and Clerk Raymond Annable this week who said that failure of the educational levy to arrive in sufficient time made it impossible to continue on with the new quarterly plan.

As it stands now the first tax bill for municipal purposes only is in the printing stage and will very likely go into the mails in another week or ten days. Taxes, as in previous years, will be due on June 30th. And if all of the first municipal instalment taxes are paid an allowance of four percent discount will be made on the second educational tax bill to follow later this year. The provision here is that the second or educational tax bill be paid within 30 days of receipt. Otherwise the final payment of 1970 taxes remains unchanged at December 2, 1970.

Taxes for municipal purposes will remain virtually the same as last year with less than a one mill increase.

Government Offers Loan Fund To Tourist Operators

Details of a $1 million loan fund for tourist operators were made known today in a joint announcement by Tourism and Information Minister, James A.C. Auld and Stanley J. Randall, Minister of Trade and Development.

The loan fund which is to be established with the approval of the legislature, will provide qualifying resort operators with loans of up to $50,000 at the Ontario Development Corporation rate of, currently, 9 1/2 per cent. Term of the loan is negotiable up to a maximum of 15 years. The loans will be made available to resort operators wishing to extend their operating season by winterizing their accommodations, providing year-round facilities, or by other means. Northern Ontario tourist operators, where fishing and hunting attracts visitors from outside the province, may also apply for loans. Applications will only be accepted from tourist resort operators located in areas where tourism is of major importance.

Applicants must also demonstrate the soundness of their proposal and indicate an ability to repay the loan. Loans will not be available for refinancing of existing mortgages or to companies insolvent or in bankruptcy.

Mr. Auld said he was pleased that a modest start had been made to assist resort owners, particularly those in Northern Ontario, to lengthen their operating season.

26,000 Teachers

TO BE TRAINED AS STUDENT DRIVING INSTRUCTORS

The Ontario Department of Transport announced today that one of the most important driver safety programs - the training of high school teachers as student driving instructors - will be expanded this year.

The training program will be extended to three weeks from the present two with 60 hours of in-car training (compared with the present nine hours) and 60 hours of classroom instruction (compared with the existing 40 hours).

The program will be administered by the Ontario Motor League in seven cities - Toronto, Hamilton, London, Windsor, Ottawa, Sudbury and Thunder Bay. Previously, the course was administered by the Ontario Safety League.

A Department official said the new regional system will enable more teachers to become driving instructors and, with seven training centres, will reduce the travelling costs for teachers.

Transport Minister Irwin Haskett said that officials in his Department and the teachers who have taken the course 'agreed for some time that there was a need to upgrade and expand this training program for high school teachers who volunteer for the important responsibility of instructing our young drivers on the proper attitudes and skills as motorists.'

Mr. Haskett said the 1969 Conference of Provincial Ministers responsible for motor vehicle administration accepted the principle of a standardized three-week training program for teachers with 50 percent of the time devoted to in-car instruction.

Spring Is Sprung!

"What is so rare as a day in June"? Well possibly a day in May. And where could one find more inspiration and encouragement than in the happy smiles of youngsters on a warm sunny May morning?

With age comes the ability to distinguish the lofty mum from the lowly daisy, the stately beauty of the tulip from the hideous dandelion; and the climbing rose from the dangerous ivy.

To children there is beauty in color, laughter in the spring air, and at the ages shown above, no past to think about, no future to worry over, and a handful of dandelions can hold as much beauty as a garden of tulips.

Tammy Armstrong and Jill Vasey resisted the great temptation to pluck one of the lovely blooms from the beautiful garden at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Duane Justus, while Keith and Wanda Moore ride merrily home with a very special "floral" gift for Mother.

South Mountain's 'Walkathon' was scheduled for last Saturday but due to poor weather those in charge postponed the event till Monday.

Ninety-seven completed the 20-mile hike and for their efforts earned nearly $1,500.00.

Walk co-ordinator, Greig Fowler, Mountain District High School Principal, said part of the money will be directed to Seaway District Youth Camp and the balance be donated to the Fellowship Fund for Community Service.

Mr. Fowler was pleased with the interest shown and expressed special admiration for the tiny ones who completed the long trek.

Centurians Prepare For Golf Day

Winchester Centurians are making preparations for their annual golf tournament scheduled this year for Wednesday, June 17th.

Service clubs always boast of having a few talented golfers in their ranks but the Winchester club has what its members like to call 'Depth'. 'Our club', says one member, 'does not have one or two pros - we're all pros'.

It follows the June tournament should be one of the major events at Upper Canada Course this season.

As a fitting climax, it is expected, the golfing Centurians will move over to Crysler Beach for a steak barbecue but complete details will reach all members in their regular monthly bulletin.

Those interested in helping this worthwhile cause and at the same time enjoy a leisurely walk along the historic St. Lawrence may pick up sponsor sheets at any time.

The sheets may be obtained at McNeely's Drug Store, Williamsburg; Iroquois Post Office, or at 268 Elizabeth Drive in Iroquois. Sponsor sheets will also be available at area schools and for those seeking additional information a call to 652-2256 will provide the answers.

Winchester Centurians Go Travelling

Thirty-seven members of Winchester 100 Club and several guests journeyed by Colonial Coach to Montreal last week for their annual 'tour meeting'.

The itinerary included a visit to Montreal Stock Exchange and a conducted tour of Place Ville Marie.

The busload departed from Alexandria's Lunch at 12:30 sharp and the happy group appeared confident they were about to learn the secret of 'making a fast buck'.

Arriving in the metropolis on schedule members agreed the Stock Exchange tour was exciting, interesting and informative.

Reassembling at the main branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, Place Ville Marie, the conducted tour of the 44-storey building provided an experience to be long remembered.

At a reception on the 41st floor, club president, Ray VanNoy expressed appreciation to Royal Bank hosts for the kind invitation to club members and generous hospitality shown.

Committee in charge of the May tour included Al Inglis, Harold Lannin and Jack Hatcher.

On arrival back in Winchester President Van Noy reminded members of the Chicken Barbecue at the Community Park on Sunday, June 7th.

Women's Auxiliary Makes Extensive Plans For Hospital Fair

Mrs. Colin MacGregor, the President, being ill, Mrs. K. Carkner, first vice, very capably chaired the May meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the District Memorial Hospital, held, as usual, in the Board Room of the hospital, in Winchester.

Representatives from Chesterville, Golden Valley, Melvin-Annable, Morewood, Ormond, Summers-Cass Bridge, South Mountain, Williamsburg and Winchester answered the Roll Call.

Minutes from the regular April meeting which had shown a bare quorum, because of the blizzard, confirmed the appointment of three delegates, Mrs. Colin MacGregor, Mrs. John Ellis, and Mrs. Jessie Summers, to the Spring meeting of District # 9 of the Ontario Hospital Auxiliary Association at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital in Ottawa. Mrs. Max Boyd, Winchester and Mrs. M. Smith, Morrisburg were also appointed to meet with the Ontario Hospital Association of Volunteer Workers in Toronto. Reports from these delegates were given at the May meeting.

At a special meeting of the auxiliary on April 16th with twenty-three in attendance, tentative plans were made for the Hospital Fair in June. These plans were discussed and adopted with few alterations by those attending the May meeting. While relevant details of these arrangements will appear later in the local press advertisements, the main highlights will inform the different areas of their responsibilities.

Grounds and Buildings Committee will be headed by Mrs. Carkner and Mr. Stel; Decorations by Mrs. R. Summers, Winchester; Publicity Mrs. J. Campbell, Golden Valley; Handicrafts, Books and Records by Chesterville and Morewood units.

Bake Table-convened by Mrs. Parker Locke of Williamsburg with the units of Melvin-Annable, Kenmore, Vernon and Morrisburg assisting.

Fish Pond, South Mountain; Touch and Take - Mrs. H. Lannin, Summers and Cass Bridge; Crafts Display, Rug-weaving, Mrs. Duance Justus, Candy, Mountain; Soft Drinks, Ormond; Tea Table, Mrs. H. Willard, convening the Winchester unit; Hospital In-Service volunteer Booth, Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Summers; Fortune Telling Booth, Golden Valley. It is hoped that the 100-club will give its usual generous assistance with games.

The exact date of the Fair will be announced in the county Press but it has been confirmed that Speaker Lucien Lamoureux will formally open the proceedings at two o'clock on that afternoon.

Entertainment will be provided by Glen Cochrane on an electric organ, on loan from Roy Fawcett.

A public address system will be set up by Gord Cumming.

Tickets for the draw on three valuable prizes are available from auxiliary members.

Following this lengthy business, reports from Miss Legris showed that the hospital was working to full capacity through handicapped by cramped quarters in the diagnostic area. This was confirmed by Mr. Stel's report. At present the physic therapy department is short-staffed with a student interne from Queen's University assisting Mrs. Sansoucy. Unfortunately there will be very few openings for summer jobs at the hospital owing to rigid budgetary controls.

Mrs. Max Boyd reported for the Long-Term Volunteer Service with these interesting statistics per unit; Morewood 67 hours; Morrisburg 16 hours; Chesterville 72 hours; Winchester 32 hours; Golden Valley 12 hours. The three co-ordinators put in long fruitful periods; Mrs. Max Boyd, Winchester 105 hours; Mrs. Jessie Summers, Winchester, 85 hours, and Mrs. M. Smith of Morrisburg 60 hours.

The Auxiliary voted to cater for the R.N.A.O. of Seaway Valley in June with the Winchester unit acting as the co-ordinating agency.

Wool is still available for volunteer knitters and baby things are in constant demand. Contact Mrs. Raymond Summers for supplies.

The Tuck Cart will be manned by Summers and Cass Bridge in May and by Golden Valley in June. Chesterville and Winchester will divide the summer months.

The usual social half hour was enjoyed in the cafeteria where coffee and small cakes were dispensed by Miss Legris and Miss Fennell.

Where Was The Crowd?

Capital City Chorus, entertaining at North Dundas District High School last Saturday night, proved a very enjoyable evening for music lovers.

The crowd, however, was not large - approximately 200.

All those present agreed this was one of the best music shows to be presented in the area for many years and urged the group to arrange a return engagement.

Most agreed those who heard Saturday's presentation would return if the singers came again and would undoubtedly bring many of their friends.

Mr. & Mrs. Henry Sheldrick Observe Golden Wedding

Bearbrook Centennial Centre was the setting for a happy celebration recently when friends gathered to honour Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheldrick on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The hall was tastefully decorated in white and gold with a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake centering the head table.

Afternoon tea was served to over 200 guests who returned with others for a social evening commencing at 8:20.

The happy couple were presented with many beautiful gifts including a money tree and a framed scroll from Premier Robarts on behalf of the government of Ontario. The scroll presentation was made by W. E. Burton since Albert Belanger, Prescott-Russell M.P.P., was unable to be present.

Mr. Burton gave a brief but humorous resume of the happy life of the honoured couple from the day 'young' Henry first met the 'pretty school teacher', Mary McGillvray.

Those who poured tea in the afternoon were Mrs. Allen Tanner, Vars; Mrs. Charles Wallace, Metcalfe; Mrs. R. McGillvray, Mrs. Chas. Sheldrick, Mrs. W.R. McLeod all of Ottawa; Mrs. Jas. Hamilton, Winchester; Mrs. Ian Kemlo, Vars; Mrs. Harold Sneath, Leonard.

The Press joins in extending greetings and a sincere wish the happy couple may enjoy many more happy anniversaries.

Eggs . . . Country Style

Members of Winchester Womens' Institute once again have proved they rate 'number 1' when it comes to cooking a genuine, appetizing, country-style breakfast.

If proof were needed that Winchester people like that type of cooking it was evident at every table last Friday morning at the annual W.I. Breakfast.

According to an Institute spokesman over a hundred were attracted by the pleasant aroma of 'bacon and eggs' and the Institute grossed nearly $140.00.

Dainty hands above gently add another fresh egg to the skillet while other willing helping are ready to serve the delicious dish.

ASK YOUR CHIROPRACTOR

BACKACHE

BACKACHE spells trouble . . . because backache, no matter how infrequent, seemingly inconsequential or fleeting, is cause for serious consideration. If backache is frequent or of long duration, it is cause for deep concern and immediate action. In every instance backache means trouble.

It means that you are suffering from one or more of these conditions: muscle pain, pinched spinal nerves, disease in another part of the spine. And regardless of the conditions there are always associated subluxations (misalignment) in the spinal column.

The Doctor of Chiropractic studies the whole human being using X-ray photographs of the spine, clinical laboratory examinations and special Chiropractic spine and nerve tests before deciding what must be done. His object is to adjust the spine so that the body will have the nerve supply to heal itself.

Since your Chiropractor uses no drugs or surgical methods, when the pain is gone you know that the cause of the pain is gone.

The Chiropractor is the only doctor trained to determine precisely which vertebras are involved in the impingement of nerves . . . but more important . . . the Chiropractor is the only doctor trained and experienced in correcting spinal subluxations.

Winchester Safety Patrol Members Enjoy Outing

Thirteen members of Winchester Safety Patrol were among the throng touring the Nation's Capital last weekend.

Patrollers from all over Canada assembled for the annual event and those from Winchester reported not only an enjoyable but also very educational tour.

School Patrols play a very important role. A role that is too often taken for granted.

A trip of this nature helps show the youngsters their help is appreciated.

Church Groups Hold Meetings

Presbyterian W.M.S.

Mrs. Jennie Dow was the guest speaker Tuesday evening when St. Paul's Presbyterian W.M. Society held their monthly meeting in the Sunday School rooms. Twenty members and two guests answered the roll call 'Seek'.

Mrs. Ledgerwood opened the meeting with a welcome to all followed by prayer. An 'In Memoriam' was held in memory of Mrs. Sena Hay, a former devoted member of the W.M.S.

Further plans were made for the Bake Sale and gratitude was expressed to the Winchester Press for their featuring it in a recent edition.

Mrs. Nora Angus, Mrs. Earl Campbell, Mrs. Emmerson Stewart were in charge of the devotional. Mrs. Angus read a poem 'Seek Ye First The Kingdom of God'. Hymn 798, chosen by Mrs. W. Henderson, who was unable to be present, was sung followed by prayer, by Mrs. Angus. Mrs. Earl Campbell gave the report from a recent meeting at Spencerville. Message in song 'Life Is Like A Railraod' was rendered by Miss May Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Keitha Morrow.

Mrs. Campbell introduced the speaker Mrs. Jennie Dow. Her enlightening discourse was followed by a discussion period and Mrs. Angus thanked the speaker. Mrs. Ledgerwood thanked Miss Brown and Mrs. J. Dow and asked Mrs. Inglis to close with prayer.

A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Stewart, Miss Nora Leathene, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Angus.

Winchester U.C.W.

Mrs. C. Curtis opened the May meeting of the U.C.W. with a poem entitled 'Mother Love', followed with prayer and a hymn.

The theme of the Worship Service was 'The Sense of Belonging'. Mrs. W.H. Angus and Mrs. H. Moore of Unit Two carried out this theme with scripture readings and meditations. The new United Church creed was also read. A chorus of ladies from Mrs. Davidson's Unit sang 'The Urge to Grow' to the tune of the 'Old Gray Mare'. This was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Fetterly and Mrs Barton acted as pianists for the meeting.

Various reports were given. Mrs. Curtis read the highlights of the minutes of the Seaway Walley Presbyterial meeting held at Cornwall in February in which the word Presbyterial was distinguished from Presbytery.

Summer school at St. Anne de Bellevue will be held from August 17 - 19 inclusive. A letter of appeal was read from the Seaway Community Services and $25.00 was voted to this cause. Miss Aleitha Coons, corresponding secretary, was instructed to send a 'Thank You' letter to Mrs. Gerald Helmer for mending the Junior Choir gowns.

It was unanimously agreed the June meeting would be in the form of a picnic for all units at Rideau Hill Camp, June 17th at 2:30 p.m.

Russell United

Russell United Church held a 'Congregational Dinner' Sunday, May 3rd with over 80 members of the congregation in attendance.

'Let's Look at Ourselves' was the subject of a discussion which followed dinner.

Mrs. George Hay, Ken Graham, Mrs. Walter Kinkaid and Mrs. R. W. Gamble assisted Rev. Woolfrey in the discussion.

Mark Brownie Jubilee

May 12, 1970 First Williamsburg Brownie Pack took the opportunity to celebrate the Jubilee birthday of Guiding in Canada at the regular monthly meeting of the Williamsburg Women's Institute.

By means of a flannelgraph story they told of the history of Guides, Brownies, Scouts and Cubs; the origin in England, how this movement spread to Canada and other parts of the world. The first Canadian Girl Guide Company was formed in St. Catherines, Ontario, in 1910 with 21 girls as members. Today in Canada there are 300,000 in the Guide movement, and 8,000 in the Ottawa area alone.

The first Brownie Pack in Williamsburg was formed in 1953 with a membership of approximately 26 Brownies. After an absence of about 10 years the pack was revived in 1968. Today the membership is 13 Brownies. This Pack will celebrate its' second birthday during this Jubilee year.

Following the story the Brownies formed their Brownie Ring around the toadstool and sang three songs. The first song was composed by the pack for Jubilee year. A special birthday cake was decorated by Mrs. Janet Herriman for this occasion.

South Gower Baptist Church To Celebrate 129th Anniversary

The South Gower Baptist Church celebrates the 129th Anniversary services on Sunday, May 24th, with Rev. Percy G. Buck as special speaker. Mr. Buck's ministry in the South Gower district goes away back to the year 1916. Three years later he and his wife left as missionaries for Bolivia, and there they remained until 1951. At the present time they are attached to the Kipling Avenue Baptist Church, Toronto, where Rev. Buck is Visitation Pastor.

At the 11 a.m. service on May 24th the guest speaker will have as his subject, 'Effective Christian Witness;, and at 7:30 p.m. will speak on 'Bolivia, Then And Now'. Coloured slides will also be shown. In addition, the outstanding male quartette from Ottawa, 'The Master's Four', will provide inspirational music.

To friends of the church everywhere Rev. Mr. Cawfield extends a warm invitation to be present.

NIGHT DEPOSITORY SERVICE

Gone But Not Forgotten

John Kenneth Galbraith, during the days of the 1929 stock market crash, said that "while it is a time of great tragedy, nothing is being lost but money."

Unfortunately, few of us today can afford to lose money, regardless of the circumstances.

To avoid the problem in the first place, the Bank of Montreral has an uncomplicated way of safeguarding the money you can't afford to lose. The bank provides a night depository service that eliminates the danger of handling large amounts of cash while the bank is closed. Over long weekends especially, night depository service can play a vital role.

So, to make personal or business deposits any hour of the day or night, seven days a week, to depoit the day's receipts to make payments on loans — safely and conveniently — the Bank of Montreal's night depository service makes good sense.

Ed. Creaser, manager of the Winchester Bank of Montreal, has all the information you'll need about this vital service.

BIG RIDER
Now that we've got your attention:
Before you buy any new car, Value Drive a Chevy Impala!
Because with Impala, value is standard equipment — all the way! Things like computer-selected springs. Flush-and-dry rocker panels to fight rust. Side-guard door beams. For protection. The standard 350-cu.-in. V8 that uses regular gas.
The inside story of Impala is a big one. Plenty of head, leg, hip and shoulder room. Rich fabrics, supple vinyls and foam padding for big comfort. There's 18-cu.-ft. of trunk. These are just some of Impala's value features. We haven't even touched on Impala's high style or high resale value.
Now it's big trading time. The number one time to get the number one car. Take one big Value Drive at your Chevrolet dealer's today . . . and find out why.

Nursing Homes Play Important Role

Last week was recognized throughout Ontario as 'Nursing Home Week'.

Commencing, fittingly, on Mothers' Day, the week was set aside as a time to better acquaint the general public of the important role such homes play in society. Also most of the more than 450 nursing homes in the province welcomed visitors for guided tours.

'More than 17,000 patients are cared for in privately owned nursing homes in Ontario,' said Lloyd A. Stevenson, president of Associated Nursing Homes Incorporated, Ontario.

'Today's modern nursing homes', he said, 'provide long term care for all types of patients requiring chronic, convalescent and special care, as well as senior citizens who are ill or unable to care for themselves.'

Mr. Stevenson says even the most elaborate large new nursing homes maintain a homelike atmosphere for residents.

'We emphasize the home aspect and deemphasize the clinical and institutional aspects of nursing home care', he went on.

It is interesting to note that 8 per cent, or a total of over 1.8 million Canadians, are over 65, and one out of ten of these senior citizens require long term nursing care.

Dr. K. Wells Guest Speaker Ladies Aid

A meeting of the Vernon Ladies Aid followed, at the home of Mrs. Charles Wallace. Mrs. Harold Cowan, President chaired the meeting, with Mrs. Bruce Dow recording the minutes. An invitation was received from the Baptist Church Women to attend the Vernon Baptist Church May 18th, when Dr. Wells of Winchester, will be speaking of his trip to Africa.

A letter soliciting articles for the Gracefield Camp was read, and these can be left with Mrs. Ian Crerar by June 1st.

Financial assistance is to be given the Board of Managers in covering the church shed and painting the outside church windows.

It was agreed that the ladies would cater to the Bowling Banquet, May 9th, and two weddings in September. The President closed the meeting with a prayer.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Alex Campbell and Mrs. Charles Wallace. Mrs. Ian Crerar thanked the hostess and lunch committee. The next meeting will be held in the church auditorium, June 4th.

IN MEMORIAMS

BEEDIE—In loving memory of a dear brother, Charles Beedie, who passed away May 19th, 1968.
God saw you getting weary,
So He did what He thought best,
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered "come and rest."
You wished no one a last farewell,
Nor even said good-bye;
You had gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
What we would give if we could say
"Hello brother" in the same old way;
To hear your voice, to see your smile,
To sit with you and talk awhile.
—Sadly missed by Sister and Brothers. 3p

COOPER—In loving memory of a dear husband, William Cooper, who passed away May 20th, 1969.
When all is still and silent,
And sleep forsakes my eyes,
My thoughts are in the silent grave
Where my dear husband lies.
3c —Wife Stellla

COOPER—In loving memory of a dear uncle, William Cooper, who passed away May 20, 1969.
May the winds of love blow softly
On a quiet and peaceful spot,
Where the one we love lies sleeping
And will never be forgot.
—Floyd and Loucille Douglas, Ersol and Bessie Murdock. 3c

MEMORIAL GIFTS

Responding to requests, The Canadian Cancer Society has "In Memoriam" cards available from Mrs. Kay Beedie, or funeral parlors, for use at the time of bereavement of a friend or loved one. Such funds are used for research to find the ultimate cure of cancer. To make arrangements, telephone 774-2345.

IN MEMORIAMS

CASSELMAN—In loving memory of a beloved husband, father and grandfather, Arnold Casselman, who passed away two years ago, May 23rd, 1968.
It is sad to walk the road alone
Instead of side by side,
But to all there comes a moment
When the ways of life divide.
You gave me years of happiness,
Then came sorrow and tears,
But you left me beautiful memories
I will treasure through the years.
—Wife Aletha and family. 3p

SUMMERS—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Edgar Summers, who passed away May 19th, 1965.
Memory lane is a beautiful lane
Because it leads to you;
You're never more than a thought away,
Quietly remembered every day.
—Sadly missed by Edgar, Arthur, Jean and Clair. 3p

over the years of arranging these courses, felt that it did not have the resources to administer an expanded program. The Ontario Motor League has kindly agreed to take on this responsibility and offer the program on a regional basis,' the Minister said.

The course was initiated by the University of Toronto in 1947. Administrative responsibility in courses was assumed by the Ontario Safety League in 1955. The Insurance Bureau of Canada provides a financial grant to help defray the cost of the courses.

In 1960, 36 high schools were offering driver-education for students. Today 475 of Ontario's 555 high schools are enrolled in the program. Last year 21,000 students graduated from the program and this year 26,000 are expected to complete the course.

Lands & Forests Department Corrects Fishing Date Error

The following correction was received from R. Belanger, Senior Conservation Office this week:

On our weekly news release of May 5th, we erroneously printed the opening date of the bass season in Division 12 as June 27th. This should read JUNE 20th. These divisions refer to the Summary of Ontario Fishing Regulations. Division 12 refers to the Ottawa River and Lake St. Francis.

Bass season on the St. Lawrence River, west of the Robert H. Saunders dam (Division 11) also opens on June 20th.

Another C.C. Fund Donation

Seventy-five dollars, recently realized by joint efforts of Winchester Legion Auxiliary and the Community Centre Fund Raising Committee, have been turned over to the community centre fund.

The lunch was served at a recent meeting of the Fireman's Mutual Aid Association.

Is There An Alternative?

For many thousands of Canadians there is no such thing as home delivery of mails. This great privilege is afforded to the dwellers in our larger urban areas only. For the rest of us costly home delivery service does not receive much sympathy when postal workers seem to be continually on strike, or are threatening to strike for higher wages, higher fringe benefits, higher anything. Is there an alternative to this most costly of all postal services? The suggestion has been made on more than one occasion that urbanites use the same methods as their small town and rural cousins in receiving their letters and parcels. And that is a trip to the post office each day.

It is not such a bad idea. And if it works in a town of two or three thousand why could it not work in a city of two or three hundred thousand. Improve the facilities of handling and construct new subsidiary post offices.

Of course there would be problems of parking. But for some reason or other these same problems as well as others are worked out at mammoth shopping centres on any given Friday night. The post office would be no busier, and the problematical situation of satisfying the carriers would be at least partially eliminated.

The Financial Post recently asked: "Should the vast majority of Canadians who enjoy home delivery of mail continue to do so? This is a question seldom raised publicly by the government for the very good reason that it has all the ingredients of a political bombshell.

A group of independent consultants recently completed a critical analysis of the post office and pointed out that the issue cannot be avoided indefinitely. In its forecasts, which will probably be on the conservative side, the consultants explained that if the acceleration of wage demands continue, the post office will still face the inescapable fact of home delivery costs jumping from $500 million this year to $930 million in 1995.

The carriers, according to the forecasts, will absorb 25% of all post office expenditures in 25 years. The question arises: Can a post office crown corporation charged with running an efficient, economic enterprise justify a service which has no possible chance of paying for itself?

The study group, by the way, does not provide an answer but suggests "this area warrants examination for either a reduction in service or a rationale for rate increases or subsidies from the federal government." The government could, of course, opt in favour of subsidization at tremendous costs to the Canadian taxpayer, and particularly to those who do not receive such a service. On the other hand rates could continue to climb to almost prohibitive highs much to the consternation of all Canadians.

At the same time it must be considered that the electronic method of communications is being used more and more, and there is a chance that the demand for postal carriers will drop off.

It seems that Canadians will have to decide whether picking up their own mail is more economically feasible than having it delivered. And if they want to continue costly home delivery they will then have to decide if they are prepared to pay for the very high costs involved with such a service.

As the Financial Post again points out, "Canadians will have to decide whether they want to pay to keep the carriers dropping wildly expensive letters into little slots in individual homes. The only comparable custom service of this kind to-day is probably the newspaper home delivery, and, in the main, only children do that."

Youth And The News Media

Attended a political meeting recently and was deeply impressed with the wisdom and understanding displayed by young members of the organization. Listening to the radio, watching television or reading most dailies one gets almost brain-washed with unending tales of a young Canada steeped in rebellion, vandalism and utter disregard for law and order.

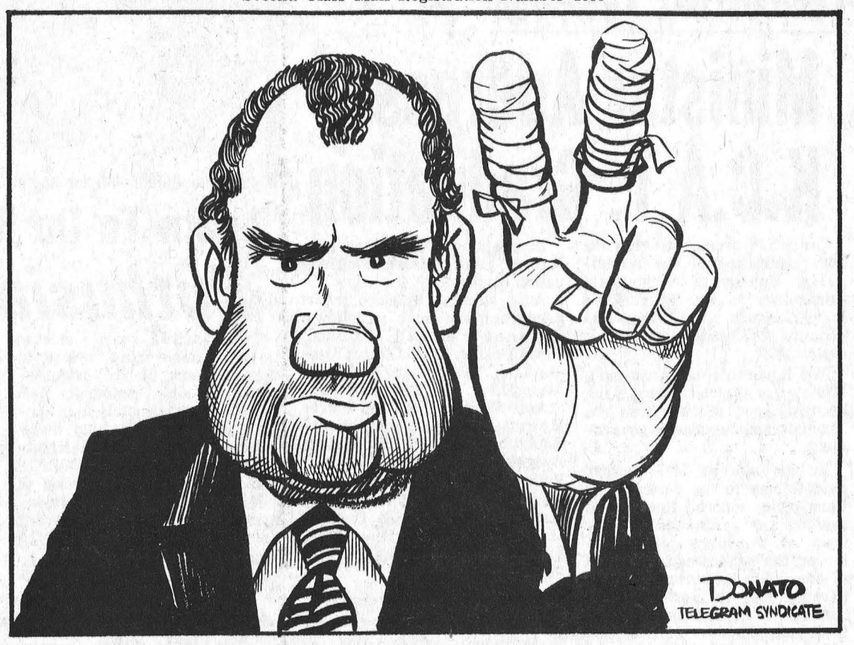
This was brought vividly to mind by a young speaker at the above-mentioned gathering when he levelled a blast at the news media and said the minority radical group thrived on such publicity.

We, I guess, belong to the "older generation" and it was inspirational to hear from a young spokesman who suggested the majority of young people see a definite need for many changes but seek out counsel and advice from those who have learned by experience.

Let's not jump on the bandwagon and condemn the generation that will eventually take over the controls. Those who cry out in protest have nothing to offer — and they are the vast minority.

The great majority of young Canadians are, in our opinion, intelligent, dedicated boys and girls and just as patriotic as past generations.

We suggest all news media give more "space" to those who deserve it and less to those who desire it.



Sugar and Spice

by Bill Smiley

A Life Of Troubles

This may be cheating, but somebody else is going to write my column this week. I received a 12-page letter from a Prairie wife that made me sick of my own petty whining. With a minimum of editing, and changing only names, here it is.

"Dear Smiley: We've read your column for a long time. I enjoy it. When you told of your daughter's illness, I wasn't able to read the column because my husband was seriously ill with cancer of the lung. I was with him most of the time. I read the one later where you thanked everyone for their prayers . . .

"Anyway, I wanted to tell you how so many people prayed for my poor husband. He died March 9th. I really believe all the prayers helped him accept it. He got pneumonia suddenly, had the last rites, went into a coma and died. He was quite thin, but could have lived down to skin and bones, because he had a strong heart, and was only 51.

"He was taken prisoner at Dieppe. The first year they had their hands tied. When the Russians began getting closer, they (the Germans) moved them on boxcars and on foot, with very little food. He once said he thought he should always carry a piece of bread in his pocket the rest of his days so he'd never have to go hungry again. (Ed. note: Me too.)

"He came home in '45 and quite a few of his chums died of lung conditions soon after the war. Anyway, his nerves were really bad, and with trying to farm and father four boys he was an alcoholic for six years.

Then he went to an A. A. centre. It was terribly hard on him, but he quit for six years. Then he ended up with cancer.

"He used to tell of all the close calls he had had as a prisoner. Then, one day, he was riding a tractor, standing up and looking for a new calf. The big wheel hit a hole and then another, and threw him over the front and the tractor ran over him.

"It broke his right hip and his pelvic bones. He turned over on his stomach and crawled a quarter-mile to the road. He had our faithful dog with him and sent him for help. The dog came back and licked his face, and Jack told him again to get help. He went south to the edge of some neighbor's trees and barked and barked. The farmer was just going with his tractor to work again after supper. He told his wife, who thought it was a coyote, that it was Jack's dog and something must be wrong.

"When he saw Jack lying there on the road, he thought it was a clump of old rags. Anyway, Jack told us how he prayed and thanked God for the neighbor paying attention to the dog.

"In the hospital, the doctor operated on his bladder. The pelvic bones had busted through, and the blood was taking urine all through his system.

"Our neighbors had a bee for him and put the crop in. He got home on crutches. That fall, our crop got hailed out. So he sure had his hard knocks in life as well as close calls.

"He used to talk about his accidents so he could say, 'I'll likely die a mean death.'

"So when he found out it was cancer in his lung, he seemed to expect it. He had his operation, and lost his voice all summer and got really thin. Then he gained weight up to 147 pounds and got his voice back, with all our prayers.

(But, to summarize, large lump on neck going to brain; loss of control of right hand, burning bedclothes when cigarette dropped; mixed up mentally.)

"So I think the prayers helped him to come to his death sooner than he could have. He felt very bad about being a prisoner and being through so much and people didn't appreciate what they went through to save our country for us. He was very sad about Vietnam.

"He would just cry when he'd see the Bob Hope show at Christmas, all those young boys going through so much and the big-shots making millions on their deaths and crippled lives.

"Thanks, Smiley, for listening. I have four boys."

Rest in peace, old kriegie. Be of good faith, noble woman. Be good to her, four boys.

The Seventh Column

The new village signs look bright and fresh but one wonders if possibly they could be better located. Both the one at the west end of town and the one on St. Lawrence Street are placed within the village limits. The thought here is that tourists should be advised what town they are approaching rather than what town they are already in. Possibly Chamber of Commerce might give this some serious consideration.

Seeing golfers and "duffers" back at their old haunts reminds us of the gallantry of an ardent golfer who stood, hat in hand, on a fairway near a country road and silently watched a funeral procession go by. When complimented later at the "19th hole" for such a public act of respect he replied: "It was the least I could do, she'd been a good wife for the past thirty years."

A Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company executive predicts "SPARES ON THE WAY OUT." In a recent conversation with the Financial Post Fred J. Kovac put it this way: "By 1980 tires will be so reliable that new cars won't need to be equipped with spares; by 1984 tires that are totally puncture-resistant, and by 1985 tires guaranteed for speeds up to 200 mph." Just one question: Why wait another ten years, why not do it NOW!

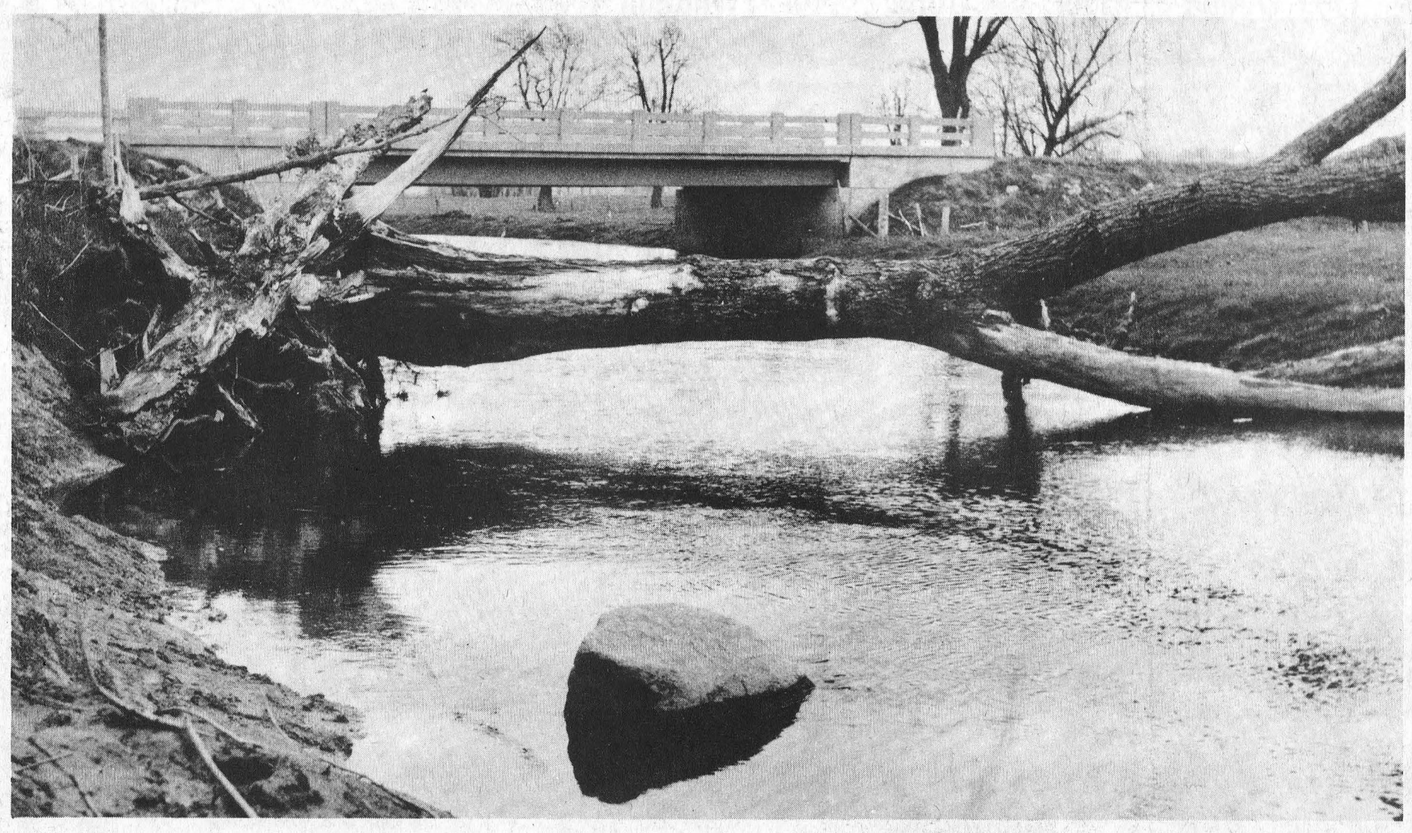
"Dusty" Dostaller, Bell Canada lecturer, was guest speaker at a Metcalfe Lions dinner meeting last week and amazed members with slides portraying some of the good things Bell Canada promises for the future. He spoke of the day when a completed call will not only bring the voice into your room but also a projected image of the person to whom you are speaking. Imagine the complications arising from an urgent call to your private secretary who happens to be in the bathtub.

Faulty proof-reading on a page 1 article last week resulted in Upper Canada Golf Course being described as offering "lush greens and challenging FREEWAYS." Our boss insists golfers do not play on freeways, but Jack McIntosh says our boss has never seen him play.

If and when summer does come, Winchester will possibly have more ball players per capita than any other community in the country. With the senior boys competing in Dundas League, four Pee Wee teams, a junior team, a girls' team and a town league, one might suggest this was an ideal time to open a sports shop in town.

A little indepth thinking brings to light the wisdom of installing lights and providing a new, modern park. We're second to none on summer recreation facilities but one has to remember also the seven-odd months of winter. Will we, or will we not, have a rink that is? ? ?

Our own high school student came home recently looking for suggestions regarding a brief composition. "Why I Would Like To Go To The Moon" was the topic, and we offered one idea which didn't take too well with our teenager. We hinted she might elaborate on the possibility of finding a good deep crater, obtaining a 99-year lease, and sending all the rock and roll bands on the next flight.



Natural And Man-Made

Meditations...

by REV. CECIL W. TUININGA

1 Corinthians 15:55 - 'O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?'

What a challenge! At first sight it seems ridiculous. Who in his right mind would challenge the forces of death and the grave? Who is there that can meet these forces and hope to conquer over them? Death that grim reaper, mows down the generations. Man's best skills and inventions stand totally helpless before its onward march. In due time each one of us must die and return to dust. Here is a fact that is fearfully evident. It needs no proof.

We might be inclined to dismiss this challenge if it were not made by Scripture. The Lord speaks through the apostle. His words are God-breathed. What is more, we are expected to repeat them after him. They must be our words too, and that changes things. Then we are faced with the question: Can we meaningfully make this challenge? Will death not take us too, like all other man?

No, this challenge is not made by an idealist, much less a dreamer. The apostle understood fully the implications of this challenge. He knew that both death and the grave were vanquished. He knew that in Christ he was victor over these fearful powers.

We are now pressed to answer a question: Just wherein is it evident that death and the grave have been vanquished? Doesn't everyday experience contradict it? Do not the facts compel us to acknowledge that death is still victor, since men are dying daily all around us? What has really changed? On what grounds can we challenge it?

The apostle is concerned to spell this out for us. He does not deny the fact that men still are dying, and that they will continue to do so until Christ returns. What he is concerned to tell us is that death no longer can destroy us. It is powerless to touch us. Fact is, that it has been so completely vanquished that it has become a servant. For those who die in the Lord death is a dying to sin and an entrance into life eternal. Indeed, the body enters the grave, but even of the body Scripture says that it is a sleeping in the dust. Some day that body will awake. When the trumpet of God will sound those who are Christ's will hear it with the physical ear. God will call them from their resting places, to enter eternal glory. (1 Cor. 15:15-54).

How is this possible? Christ has made it possible. He has disarmed this mighty foe, taken away its sting (dart), for '...the wages of sin is death.' (Romans 6:23). Sin is the cause of death. Sin separates men from God, the source of life, and sin brings with it also bodily death. (Ps. 90:7). But Christ has come, and He has removed our sins from us. He came and nailed our sins to His cross. He has taken away death's power, for He brought that perfect sacrifice for our sins, and we are free. That is why the apostle can, and we with him, challenge death, even taunt it, for its power is gone completely. That is true for all who believe in the Saviour, Christ Jesus. Only they are victors.

From The Farm To The City

feature to introduce Dairy Month

The Russell County Milk Committee sponsors of an annual Dairy Cow Milking Competition recently decided that its Dairy Product Promotion campaign might just as well be done in the midst of its urban consumer population....bringing THE FARM TO THE CITY.

It will thus hold its first Dairy Princess Milking Competition in the city of Ottawa on the spacious parking lot of the St. Laurent Shopping Centre on June 25th, 1970 at 7 p.m. The event which has received full approval of the St-Laurent Merchants Association will fit in with the National Dairy Foods Bureau - 'June is Dairy Month' campaign. It will also introduce the 3-Day Special holiday sale of dairy products.

All girls from Russell County between the ages of 17 and 26 whose parents maintain a dairy herd are eligible to participate in this contest; entry forms may be obtained from the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food Office, Rockland. The deadline for entries is June 1st, 1970.

The contest itself should prove to be quite an attraction for city residents as prominent dairy breeds will be represented. The contestants will each milk a cow by machine, demonstrating the modern milking routine used on today's dairy farm. The 'dairy maids' will also give a short talk on the dairy industry in general to the public.

All participants will receive a cash award, the winner receiving an all-expense trip to Toronto to participate in the major competition at the C.N.E. in August.

A wide variety of dairy recipes will be available for visitors courtesy of the Russell County Milk Producers.

AGRICULTURE AND FOOD

Minister Addresses K.C.A.T. Graduation

Over 500 people attended the 50th graduation of the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology to see 55 students in Agriculture and 43 Home Economics graduates receive their diplomas.

The Honorable Wm. A. Stewart, Minister of Agriculture and Food, brought good wishes from the Premier and the Ontario government.

In his address Mr. Stewart paid tribute to the parents who were being honored in a special way on the graduation of their sons or daughters. He challenged the graduates to continue to exemplify the virtues of their parents and to work for the betterment of their great province and country. Mr. Stewart was introduced by Dr. D.N. Huntley, Executive Director of Education and Research, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food.

Dr. Ford Stinson, Principal of the College, recognized two students for their special achievements. Tim Catteau of Guelph received the United Co-operatives of Ontario award as well as the Ottawa Journal prize. These were received in recognition of high academic achievement and his tireless efforts for his fellow students and the College. Miss Betty Murray of Peterborough, for her contribution to student activities combined with a high academic standing in Home Economics, received the Ottawa Citizen award.

An added feature to the program was the presentation of a plaque by Year President Gerry Cornish to J.A. Dalrymple in recognition of 25 years of faithful service to the Kemptville College before his recent promotion to the Head Office in Toronto.

"Learn To Do By Doing"

Carleton 4-H Clubs

Enthusiastic About New Philosophy

Two hundred rural Carleton young people from twelve to twenty years of age have enrolled in nine community 4-H clubs. Approximately four hundred projects will keep these members practicing the 4-H motto 'LEARN TO DO BY DOING.' The extent and distribution of 4-H Agricultural Club involvement is as follows, including the Number of Clubs and the Number of Projects:

West Carleton (Kinburn & Antrim) 24, 62.
Carp Area - 12, 18.
Gloucester Area - 20, 30.
Metcalfe Area - 27, 47.
Richmond Area - 35, 70.
East Rideau Valley (Manotick & Osgoode) - 16, 26.
West Rideau Valley (North Gower) - 23, 35.
Stittsville Area - 18, 35.
Vernon Area - 26, 32.

A new philosophy, resulting from two years intensive dialogue between 4-H members, 4-H leaders and Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food Extension Branch 4-H Coordinators and provincial supervision will benefit this rural youth program in its attempt to meet the needs and desires of rural young people.

A spokesman for Carleton County Extension Personnel explains this new philosophy this way:

'Basic needs and desires of young people do not change significantly through time. The worthwhile needs or desires - to identify or belong to a group, to be involved in a fulfilling activity, to develop citizenship characteristics such as leadership, responsibility, personality, self-confidence, decision, making, self expression and self enjoyment are being met to a degree in the 4-H program.

Also, since 4-H in Ontario is a rural youth program, the opportunity is available to learn more about the basic industry of farming.

The 4-H Agricultural Clubs are now completely organized in Carleton for 1970. However, next year we expect interest to develop in such clubs as snowmobile clubs and light horse or pony clubs. In keeping with the new philosophy, the responsibility for the formation of these clubs rests with the local community. This is very logical since the local community knows and appreciates the interests and desires of young people in the community better than anyone else.

We look forward to an excellent year in 4-H. We also are most willing to discuss the 4-H rural youth program with anyone.'

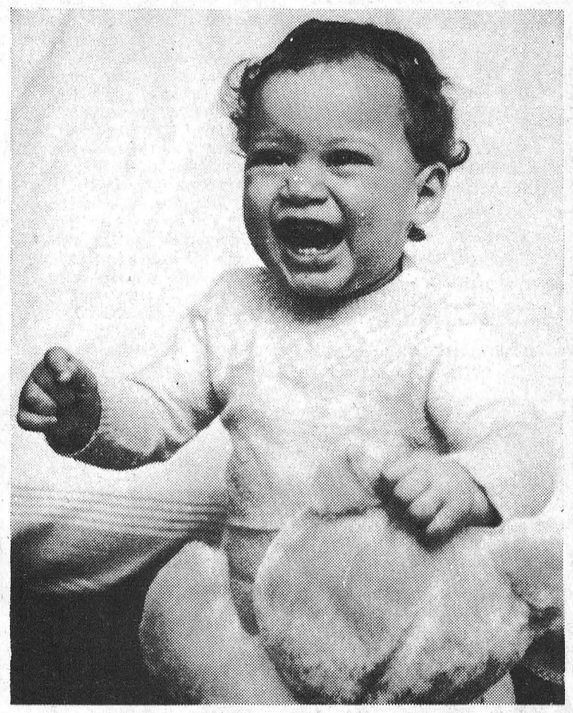
TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Toronto Telegram Syndicate



Reg is only 14 months old, but when this baby wants something he says a polite please. This habit is so endearing no one can refuse him anything, and his foster mother thinks Reg may be a bit spoiled.

French-Canadian, Scottish and Barbadian in descent, Reg is a handsome, sturdy boy with blue-grey eyes, dark-brown wavy hair and light-tan skin. You can tell from his expression that he is a most happy fellow. He loves children and welcomes attention from adults, though if he doesn't know them he looks them over carefully before deciding to be friends.

Reg loves music and he's trying to sing. He can say a few words. He's almost ready to walk.

This baby needs parents who will enjoy a healthy, lively young son with a racially-mixed background. To inquire about adopting Reg please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182. In the event of a postal strike, contact your Children's Aid Society.

Speaker Tells Of Estimates, Equality, Strikes

Following the adoption late last month of new Rules and Procedures, known as 'Standing Orders' of the House, the Standing Committee on Supply was set up and began examination of the Estimates of the Department of Trades and Development. This Committee consisting of 25 Members with Party representation similar to that of the Legislature sits concurrently (afternoon and evening) with the House to examine departmental estimates; in addition, three regular Standing Committees of the House will sit as Committees on Supply to examine estimates of departments which are the responsibility of each such Committee. Since the new Standing Orders place a limit on the time to be devoted by Members each Session to consideration of estimates, the new Committee set up will be most useful in enabling Members to examine adequately the estimates. The one drawback is that a Member cannot be in two places at once and so he must choose whether he wishes to engage in debates in the House or in consideration of estimates in Committee.

The Highways Estimates were finally passed after a long debate on the role in this modern age of the motor vehicle road and the increasing congestion of our roads with attendant air pollution effects. Included in this year's highway program in our area is resurfacing of Highway #43 from Finch to Winchester and of Highway #31 from Morrisburg to Williamsburg and from Winchester north to the Metcalfe Road, the delayed resurfacing of Highway #43 from Kemptville to Merrickville as well as completion of the Spencerville Bypass of #416, with work on this new freeway north of Johnstown and at the Kemptville Bypass.

The introduction by the Minister of Labour of a Bill to provide equal opportunity and treatment of the sexes will require a very considerable amount of sympathetic and tolerant experimentation before the real aims of this most reasonable legislation can be achieved. While no man today seriously questions the right of woman to equality of pay for similar work, and similar matters, he can and often does question the special privileges by law and by custom accorded woman in the days when there was no such equality of the sexes but which still exist and persist. In addition, the public generally does not seem to be impressed by some recent demonstrations and actions of sections of our so-called 'weaker' sex.

Should the much publicized postal strike come to pass, then not only will it be impossible for my notes from Queen's Park to reach the newspaper, but the newspaper itself will not reach you. It appears to a great many ordinary citizens of our land that certain essential public services affecting the health and well being of citizens generally should be maintained without interruption and that means, other than strike action, must be found to deal with the regularly occurring management-labour disputes within these industries and service organizations.

POLLUTION PART ONE
The Citizen's Concern

No recent development has been more heartening than the sudden concern and determination of Canadians to control pollution. This is a reversal of our national attitude to development and preservation of the richness of our environment. Until now Canadians have been prodigal in the use of their resources. We have always assumed that we have had lots of water, land and air which we could pollute and destroy with almost reckless abandon in the course of building industries and cities. As a notion, we have been dedicated to the god of growth and we have been unwilling to consider, let alone pay the price, of controlling pollution.

CONSTITUTIONAL WRANGLES

To the extent that people have been interested in anti-pollution controls, they have been put off by buck-passing between the three levels of government - federal, provincial and municipal - each level trying to place legal responsibility and the financing costs on another. But we have to recognize also that underlying the attitude of governments, has been the apathy of the public and its positive resistance until now to the increased taxes necessary to pay for anti-pollution controls.

PUBLIC OPINION

Fortunately, all is changing. It is obvious that all levels of government are not only concerned about pollution but are now taking active steps to control it. Moreover, their efforts are supported by organized citizens groups which have had the beneficial effect of mobilizing public opinion and informing the public of the dangers to our future life if the present reckless pollution of the environment continues.

ACTION IN GRENVILLE-CARLETON

An example of this citizen concern has been provided by residents of Nepean Township. My young people's organization for the past few weekends has called on people in Nepean to discuss pollution and leave some material with them. As a result, I have received over seven hundred replies, many of them most thoughtfully written, expressing concern and demanding action. The people in Prescott have formed an anti-pollution committee and there are many other voluntary groups consisting of both old and young, notably Pollution Probe, at work in this area.

ALL ASPECTS

The concern of citizens is with every aspect of pollution - water, air, noise and land. In particular, people emphasize the necessity of clamping down on pollution by industrial plants, the proper treatment of municipal sewage, the elimination of phosphate detergents, airport and highway noise and the provision of workable systems of urban transport to eliminate air pollution from massive use of automobiles.

TIME AND PLANNING

The attack on pollution calls for a great and continuous national effort. The fear I have is that many people will mistakenly think that the effects of a hundred years or more of the despoilation of our environment can be cleared up over night. This, unfortunately, cannot be. In almost every part of the country new and expensive plants for the treatment of sewage will have to be planned and built; many important industries will have to change their processes and at a more personal level, people will have to react, as for example in using cars and gasoline which will not pollute the atmosphere. The major control works will in many instances have to be jointly planned by all the levels of government and continuous citizen pressure will be required to insure that none of them fail in their responsibilities.

ROLE OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

As I see it, the role of the Federal Government is to give leadership in the national drive against pollution. This it can do in areas clearly within its responsibility such as fisheries where important new restrictions on pollution are being put into effect leading to the somewhat cynical observation made by someone that the government apparently has more power to protect fish than people from pollution. The new Canada Water Act will give leadership, coordination and strength to the control of water pollution and the proposed Act to control air pollution will have the same effect.

North Dundas Hosts Successful First Invitational Track Relays

The first invitational track relays staged at North Dundas District High School last week proved very successful.

In the final tabulation North Dundas and Perth tied for top honours' with 33 points each. Cornwall C.V.S. was a close runner-up with 28 points.

The final standing was as follows: N.D.D.H.S., 33; Perth, 33; Cornwall C.V.S., 28; General Vanier, 20; Glengarry, 18; Osgoode, 17; South Carleton, 14; Osnabruck, 11; South Grenville, 10; Seaway, 9; and Thousand Islands, 5.

The point system was set up awarding 5 points for 1st place; 3 points for 2nd place; 2 points for 3rd place and 1 point for a 4th.

In the final breakdown North Dundas boys outscored all opposition with 28 points. Perth scored 23; Cornwall 22; General Vanier, 16 and Osgoode 5.

Records indicate female runners at the local school are not as proficient as the males.

North Dundas amassed only 5 points in the girls' division and all of these were scored by midget girls.

South Carleton proved to have the fastest female runners with 14 points. Glengarry had 18; Perth, 10; Cornwall, 6; and Osnabruck, 5.

Midget boys at North Dundas were responsible for 8 points, Juniors, 12 and Seniors also 8.

Mr. Taylor of the teaching staff at the local school had words of congratulations for all athletes competing and expressed sincere thanks to coaches and teachers who assisted in making the meet such a great success.
