River rescuers are recognized

ALEXANDRIA – Four Mariatown area residents were recognized for outstanding life-saving awards by the Ontario Provincial Police at the 2006 East Region O.P.P. Awards Ceremony held at the Bonnie Glen Pavilion on Wednesday, September 6.

The four, Brian and Joan Foss, Rex Weegar and Tom Dawley, were recognized for their outstanding actions following a boating accident on the St. Lawrence on April 21, 2005.

The incident occurred when the occupants of a 6.3 metre flatboat were thrown into the frigid water after the boat struck a large wake.

Joan Foss, whose home is near the water, spotted the two men and notified her husband Brian. While he called 911, Mrs. Foss ran to alert Rex Weegar, a nearby neighbour who she knew had a boat in the water.

The two men proceeded to the scene of the mishap, where upon arrival, they saw only one head above water.

Not realizing it at the time, they passed by the second victim who by this time was almost completely submerged.

The man on the surface was incoherent and, in a severe state of hypothermia. He was unable to move his arms and legs.

Mr. Foss grabbed the victim and while he held him out of the water, Weegar reversed the boat to reach the second man, who was showing no signs of life.

The first man was pulled into the boat, but the second man could not be lifted from the water. As a result the rescuers secured a mooring line around the lifeless victim.

At this time Tom Dawley, accompanied by OPP Const. Josh Dorsey, arrived in a second boat into which they were able to lift the second victim. The two vessels then rushed to shore, each with one of the two rescued men.

On shore, Const. Dorsey and Const. Dawn Feguson, who had also responded to the call, administered CPR and first aid to the second man until paramedics arrived.

The first victim was transported to hospital in the rear of a police vehicle with a volunteer firefighter monitoring his vital signs. He was treated and later released.

The second victim was also transported to hospital, but, despite all of the heroic efforts, he could not be revived.

In addition to the four residents from South Dundas, Commissioner's Citations for lifesaving were presented to four Ottawa-area residents.

Six Ontario Provincial officers including Sgts. Dorsey and Ferguson also received citations.

The annual awards ceremony also honours OPP members (uniform and civilian) for years of service in law enforcement. This year's ceremony was emceed by East Region Commander, Larry Beechey.

SD&G officers receiving their 20 year service awards were: Sgt. Murray Bamber and Cst. Denis St. Pierre (retired). Jack Logan of the SD&G OPP Detachment also received his 20-year service award.

List of candidates keeps growing

SOUTH DUNDAS – As the nomination deadline for candidacy in this year's municipal election closes in, the slate of candidates has continued to grow.

2006 MUNICIPAL ELECTION

Vying for mayor

The race for mayor and deputy mayor have remained unchanged over the last week. Vying for the mayor's seat in South Dundas are Cam Martel, Lyle Van Allen, Charles Barkley and Ed Merkley.

In the running for deputy mayor

So far the race for deputy mayor will still be between Bill Ewing, Robert 'Rowdy' Gillard and Johnny Whitteker.

Since press time last week, the list of names filed for the position of councillor has more than doubled.

Long list of councillor candidates

Jim Graham, Sandra Bailey and Peter Swank were the only people who had put their names forward for the three councillor positions one week ago. Adding their names to that list over the last week were Mike Ault, Bill Dillabough, Steven Byvelds, Dale Lewis, Carol Fowler and Mary Anna Petre.

Michael Ault

Michael Ault is not new to municipal politics. He served on the former Matilda Township council for 12 years.

Having never been a member of South Dundas council, and having been away from the council table for a while, Ault says the position of councillor was the best fit for him right now. "Things have changed, and the atmosphere of politics have changed since I was on council."

Ault says he signed up because, "I've been on council before and I enjoyed it. I think I can contribute."

Over the years he says he has stayed in touch with municipal issues. In the engineering business he is always dealing with municipalities and the province.

"In the 12 years I was on council we seemed to do a fair job in Matilda on many projects," says Ault, who would like to have the opportunity to do the same for South Dundas. "The public has a right to have a choice."

Bill Dillabough

Former Morrisburg Reeve Bill Dillabough says he is retired and has lots of time to devote to working on his concerns, which include taxes, and the condition of roads in Morrisburg and Iroquois.

He filed his nomination papers last week for councillor but says as of yet he is undecided about whether or not he will run for the position.

Dillabough has until October 2, to decide whether he will leave his name on the ballot, and will make his final decision closer to the deadline.

Steven Byvelds

Steven Byvelds has been thinking for a long time about running for council.

Morrisburg school set on fire

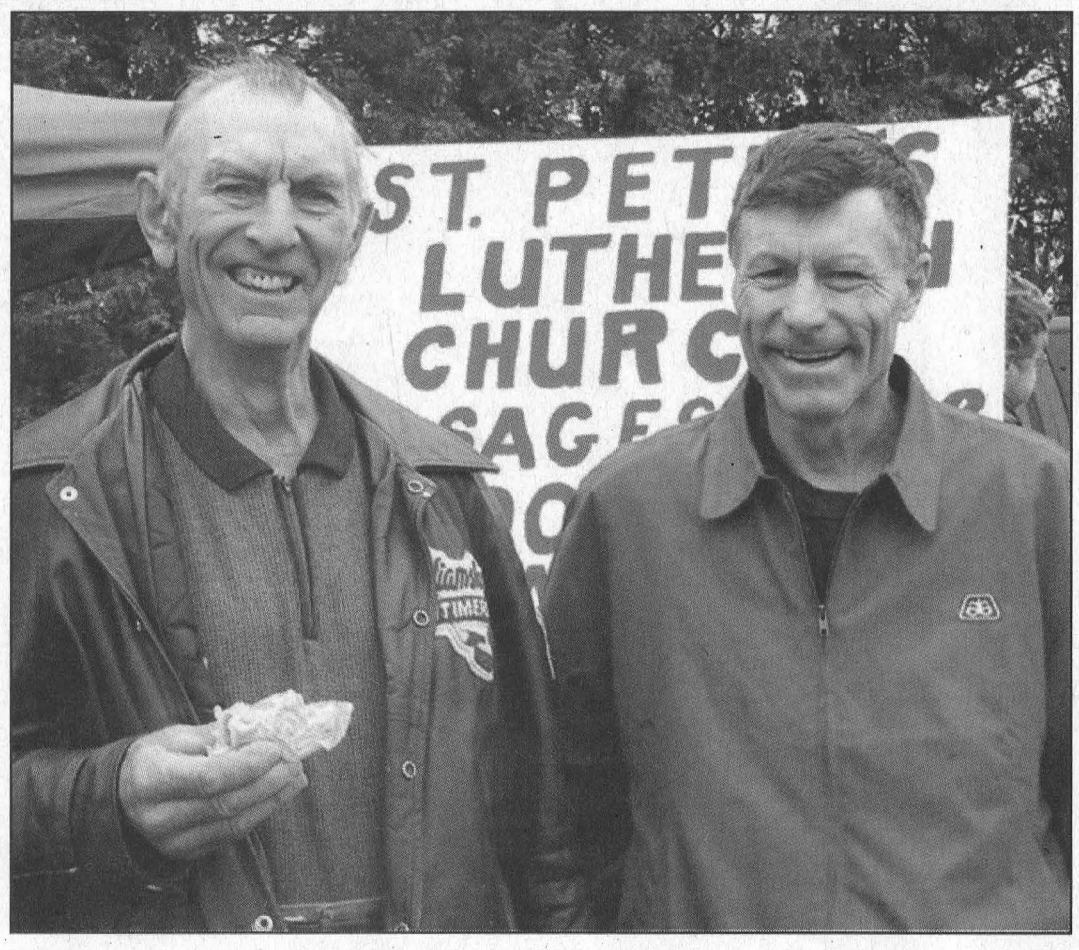
MORRISBURG – Two boys are facing charges of arson and mischief after eyewitnesses reported a fire at the Morrisburg Public School to police.

At 7:30 p.m., Sunday, September 24, SD&G OPP officers and the Morrisburg Fire Department were dispatched to the scene. According to an eyewitness, the fire was on the roof of the school.

Morrisburg Fire Chief Robert Hamilton said that there was no damage done to the school. According to Hamilton, some bottles of gas and aerosol cans were used to set the fire, which was contained quickly.

Within minutes of the incident, a 13-year-old boy from South Dundas and a 15-year-old boy from North Dundas were arrested and charged with arson and mischief.

They were both released and are scheduled to appear in Cornwall Youth Court, November 23. The names of the boys will not be released due to provisions under the Youth Criminal Justice Act. Constable R. Latreille is investigating.



Food, fun and camaraderie

Fatal collision

IRENA – A late night collision claimed the life of a South Dundas man over the weekend.

The motor vehicle collision, along the Rusty Road, was reported to police, September 24, at 1:45 a.m.

Two members of the 4H Club, Josie Vanderlaan and Megan Dudley, clown around for the crowds taking in Festival events, while five-year-old Bronwyn Wallace (inset), who loves knitting, finds the perfect doll at one of the many craft tables set up in the big tent.

Gray but great Williamsburg Festival

WILLIAMSBURG – The streets were a little damp, and the skies were a little gray, but the many people and families who came out to the Williamsburg Harvest Festival were all smiles.

Held September 22, the Festival, now in its 15th year, drew large and enthusiastic crowds despite the threatening weather over head.

As President of the Williamsburg Community Association David Lapier put it, "We keep getting bad weather, but the people of this community really support us. This is a great turnout."

Although the occasional showers did affect some scheduled events such as the antique car and tractor shows, and may have caused the parade to be a little smaller this year than usual, the overall opinion of organizers and participants was that this was a terrific festival.

"Williamsburg is great for supporting our events," Lapier continued. "Kids and seniors particularly enjoy the parade. Families can take in displays, fun shows and good food. We see that there is really a lot of community involvement. That's what makes it nice to do this job, and run this event."

There were many crafters at this year's Festival. Some, like Christine Gaylor who brought A Touch of Pine from Grimsby, and Elaine Dillabough whose display Country 'n Lace came from Oxford Mills, were taking part in the fair for the first time.

"I'm really enjoying my visit here," said Gaylor. "People have been really friendly and interested."

From organic honey to baked goods to beautiful ragged quilts, there was something for everyone to admire. Renee's Creations and Jerry's Woodshed offered interesting and attractive wood crafts that caught attention.

Food was excellent. Several organizations had booths set up to serve hungry visitors.

In the afternoon, the Festival presented a popular Mad Science show on the stage, as well as the fun of Little Ray's Reptiles and Kids bands.

"Everyone can have a good time at the Harvest Festival," David Lapier concluded. "I especially want to thank all of our great sponsors. Without their support, Harvest Festival would not be possible."

Back to Nature

According to some reports, the first frost of the fall has already arrived. Frost makes it definite. Winter is on its way.

The Canadian Weather Service made its prediction for the upcoming winter this week. According to scientists, another El Nino is forming over the ocean, and should bring winter temperatures in North America down. How far down depends on how big El Nino gets.

Good news for those of us who heat with oil and gas, but not the best news for animals like polar bears, whose numbers are on the decline.

Closer to home, Sheila Scarbo has seen many signs that the heady days of summer are over.

Vees of geese flying south are visible over head daily. Monarchs are still around, but their numbers are rapidly shrinking.

A red-tailed hawk was seen in the vicinity of Cemetery Lane in Irena. These strong predators prefer to perch on poles and treetops, rarely hovering.

Finally Sheilah reports that there are lots of pesky starlings around the area. "It's not good news," she admits, "but they're here."

Candidates are beating a path to Williamsburg

It was just one week ago that the idea was out there that there might not need to be an election for councillor. Only one week ago, just three people had put their names forward for the position. If that had remained unchanged at the deadline, those three would have been acclaimed and filled the seats.

It seems that idea hasn't gone over so well. Since the last issue of the newspaper, seven more people have filed their nomination papers, and six of those were for councillors' seats. The other was for school board trustee. Since last week no one new has added his name to the list for mayor or deputy mayor.

But remember everything can change by 5 p.m. nomination day when the doors of the municipal office in Williamsburg are slammed shut.

It's now looking like some money will have to be put aside to fill in the ruts that are being warn into the road from all of the people rushing to Williamsburg to file their nomination papers.

The steady trickle has turned into feverish rush as the deadline looms.

There should be no complaints of a lack of choice among candidates for the upcoming election. The slate of councillor candidates, as of press time stands at nine.

Choosing three candidates from the long list may seem a little confusing and like a daunting task, but it is important to vote and to use your vote wisely.

The hope is that people will take the time to follow the campaigns of all of the candidates and to take a serious interest selecting the best candidates.

Keep in mind whoever is elected will be sitting at the council table for four years and will be responsible for making a number of million dollar decisions.

Seen 'n Heard

Around the Township

Coming up this Sunday, October 1 is the annual Waterfowl Day at the Upper Canada Migratory Bird Sanctuary. This is an absolutely wonderful event for all members of the family and one that we personally recommend. The activities begin at 11 a.m. and run until 5 p.m. Admission is $4 per person and children, 12 years and younger are free. It will take place rain, or shine, and we are keeping our fingers crossed for the shine. The events include a number of demonstrations including: Live Animals, Birds of Prey, Reptiles, and Wild Duck Banding.

The Live Animals shows are brought to you by the Muskoka Wildlife Centre's live-animal outreach program and enables visitors to get up close and personal with some of Ontario's most magnificent wildlife. You will see a beaver, opossum, skunk, porcupine and many more. The Birds of Prey demonstrations will feature a free flying live-bird program and will include hawks, falcons, vultures and owls. Little Ray's Travelling Reptile Show will bring you face to face with an alligator, snakes, lizards, turtles and more.

A highlight of Waterfowl Day is the wild duck banding presentation given by a conservation officer with the Ministry of Natural Resources. In addition to the various programs there are arts and crafts, children's activities, a silent auction and food and refreshments available on site.

This is a major fundraising event for the Friends of the Sanctuary, and, in addition to providing the public a wonderful day in the outdoors, it enables everyone to contribute to the wonderful work the friends do in protecting and enhancing the sanctuary area, its information centre and its nature trails.

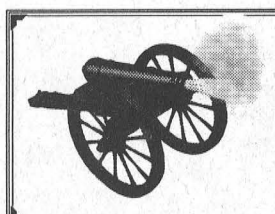
Oh my gosh. One day we seem to have the bare minimum running for council, and the next there is a foot race to the municipal office in Williamsburg to file papers. We now have four individuals running for mayor, three for deputy mayor and nine for council positions. Given the fact that it isn't over until the doors close at the municipal office Friday afternoon, there could still be more. Taxpayers in South Dundas are being given lots of choices, so keep informed, learn about the candidates and make a wise choice.



The Leader Blast from the Past

Compiled from The Leader's files

1996

The September 25 issue reported the United Counties Council was protesting the downloading of Highway 2 by the province. At the heart of the complaint was the fact that the Counties were inheriting the responsibility of a highway that needed work costing about $15 million just to bring it up to minimum standards.

Printed in the issue was the wedding picture of Kelly A. Tryon and Randy H. Buter who were united in marriage on August 10 at the Williamsburg Christian Reformed Church.

Also pictured were Dale and Donna Casselman of Williamsburg who were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary on September 25.

The Iroquois Golf Club was involved in litigation with the contractor involved with the golf course expansion to 18 holes. The club had paid about 80 percent of the contract price of $500,000 but was refusing to provide payment in full claiming there were many subsurface problems. In the litigation the contractor was claiming for full payment, while the club was demanding repayment of some of the monies already paid.

The September 24 issue reported the contract with Ottawa architect Doug Clancey for the building of a group home in Williamsburg had been signed. The new home was to be build at the east end of Williamsburg.

Construction crews began ripping through the intersection of Ottawa Street and Fifth Street on September 22 as work continued on the $1.5 million village trunk sewer project.

High winds, most strongly felt at the Casselman Creek Causeway west of Morrisburg, made for an extremely difficult run for the participants in the annual Morrisburg Legion 10 and 20 km runs. This year's run attracted 23 runners.

For the second consecutive year, Lois Roberts and Janet Davis of Iroquois were the Jean Wadds Rose Bowl Trophy winners. The Iroquois Lawn Bowling Club hosted the district tournament this year.

There were three new faces in the Morrisburg Minor Hockey Association coaching lineup this year. They included Steve McCann and Steven Casselman at the peanut level and Ray Cinnamon who would be behind the Atom C bench.

Morrisburg Figure Skating club past-president Linda Bowers reported a drop in skaters, with just 51 registered for the season. It was the second consecutive year, the club was facing a drop in numbers.

The October 1 issue reported Ontario Minister of Agriculture and Food, William Newman, had officially opened the three-day, sixth annual Morrisburg Trade and Home show on Thursday night, September 30.

The Morrisburg Midget Softball team was taking on a Jordan team (St. Catharines area) in the Ontario Amateur Softball Association semi-final series. Thanks to the support of the community, $750 was raised to pay for their bus to the game, which was rained out. The series was to resume in Morrisburg. The local team had eliminated a Toronto based team in the quarter finals.

Gord McGregor, Administrator of Glen Stor Dun Lodge, was elected to the Board of Directors of the Ontario Association of Homes for the Aged. McGregor had been Administrator at Glen Stor Dun Lodge for 4.5 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Larmour celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at their home on Lakeshore Drive.

Linda Duval was elected president of the Morrisburg and District Pre-School, replacing Joyce Bowen. Wendy McGregor, teacher-director of the pre-school reported everything was running smoothly.

Prime rib beef roasts were $1.09 a pound at Heinz Foods.

1966

Headlines in the September 23 issue read: School Contract Let for $1,652,140. The general contract for the construction of additions and alterations to South Dundas District High School at Iroquois was awarded to M. Sullivan and Son Ltd. of Arnprior. Five firms submitted tenders for the big construction job.

The Williamsburg Pioneers won the Dundas Fastball League Championship, four games to three against Ingleside.

Morrisburg Combines, who were the Allan Cup semi-finalists in the spring, were honoured for their efforts at a banquet. Mel Tomalty was named most gentlemanly player and captain Ed. St. Louis, the most valuable player. Jim Forrest received silverware as the highest scorer.

1956

Citizens were reminded in the September 28 issue that Daylight Saving Time would end in the Village of Morrisburg on Saturday, September 29.

The Deeks Turkey Farm, located on Highway 2 west of Morrisburg, was advertising its birds for sale for Thanksgiving.

A new telephone building was being constructed that would house the custom-built equipment which would bring dial service to Morrisburg by the spring of 1967. In addition to the building construction, a new dial telephone had to be installed in every home, office and shop in town.

The September 25 issue reported an inquest would be held into the death of Hugh Mchaffie, 44, of Glen Becker, who sustained serious injuries when struck by a falling tree, while at work in a gravel pit 1.5 miles north of Williamsburg. At the time of the accident, McHaffie was one of five employees of Johnston-Clarke of Brockville who were engaged in taking down a large elm tree located at the edge of the pit.

The Williamsburg correspondent wrote that Miss Ella Foaks of Sydney, Australia, who had spent the last four months at Dr. Locke's Clinic, had left the area to sail to England. While in Williamsburg she had resided at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ora McIntosh.

Candidate list growing

In addition to constantly keeping track of local issues and happenings he says, "I always scout out the list of candidates at election time."

"This year I really felt that the time was right."

Byvelds never considered filing his nomination papers for anything other than councillor. "You should always start at the bottom and earn the respect of the others to move up to the other positions."

On the list of candidates Byvelds is one of the younger contenders, which he sees as a benefit.

Byvelds' aim is to be to be in a position to "make knowledgeable and fair decisions for the people of South Dundas."

Although this will be his first run at municipal politics Byvelds thinks he is well suited to the job having been involved in a number of organizations such as Dundas Soil and Crop, Dundas Federation of Agriculture, Dundas Milk Producers, the local curling club, St. Mary-St. Cecilia Church and Ontario Corn Producers Association. He is also a graduate of the Advanced Agricultural Leadership Program.

He is pleased that all members of council will be elected at large in the upcoming election.

"I feel that I could look after the needs of the villages and the rural community. We need each other and I think it's time we started thinking as a whole," says Byvelds.

Byvelds owns a farm north of Williamsburg and has been farming for 26 years.

Carol Fowler

Eight years ago, Carol Fowler. didn't know the first thing about running a general store, but she jumped in and took a chance. She now has a thriving business and says, "It's time to take another chance."

Fowler filed her nomination papers last week for a councillor position.

"I think I can do just as good as anyone else. We need changes and I would like to try it," she says.

She believes there are a lot of little issues that are important to people that are never brought up and she would like to work on what's important to people.

Fowler believes that recreation for kids and for adults is important and having worked for Odonto's recreation committee and Morrisburg's recreation committee, she thinks she can make a difference.

She says a lot of her customers at the Brinston General Store have been encouraging her to run, and even though she was a little skeptical at first, she has decided to give it a try.

Dale Lewis

Dale Lewis, who spent 30 years contributing to minor hockey, has decided to turn his attention to the field of municipal politics.

"I'm no longer with them, so I thought I'd try a different way to help people," says Lewis.

Last week he filed his nomination papers to announce his candidacy for councillor in the upcoming municipal election.

"I would like to see some changes," says Lewis. "There are some problems and I would like to help."

Lewis decided to try for councillor first. "I'm a rookie. I've been to some meetings but there's lots to learn and I have some learning to do."

Lewis is from Dundela and now lives in Morrisburg, so he thinks he knows enough about issues which are important to people both in the rural areas and in the towns.

Mary Anna Petre

As of press time, Mary Anna Petre had added her name to the list by filing her nomination papers for the position of councillor but she was unavailable for comment.

Incumbent would like to return as school board representative

Unlike the highly contested position of councillor, the position of Dundas County English Public School Board only has one candidate so far.

Greg Pietersma

Incumbent public school board trustee Greg Pietersma has signed on to return to his seat representing Dundas County with the Upper Canada District School Board.

He has now served one term as school board trustee and would like to return to the position .

"I have enjoyed representing the interests of Dundas County at the Board table. As a member of the board I have ensured that students of Dundas County have had equitable access to the board's resources. I have protected the interests of our students and parents during the board's attempt to deal with the funding short falls and the dropping birth rate," says Pietersma.

According to Pietersma, "Dundas County has a terrific tradition of very politically active school councils," and he has enjoyed working with the Dundas Association of School Councils.

During his term he helped draw attention to the need for additional funds in schools for textbooks and supplies and for the first time since amalgamation school budgets were raised twice.

Pietersma says there is still much work to be done and would like the opportunity to "continue to work on our students results, not only to allow them to achieve, but because we are going to need bright, inquisitive citizens to help us wrestle with challenges like global warming and languishing rural economies."

"We need to redefine what Public Education is going to look like in Dundas County. With fewer students and push to do more with less funding we face considerable challenges. We need to find a balance between the needs of communities and the needs of our children. We must have an honest, open discussion on matching our expectations of our schools and our willingness to fund them."

Pietersma sees communication as key to representing the particular needs of our students at the provincial level, especially when it comes to funding.

Nomination deadline this Friday

This Friday, September 29, is nomination day. Anyone who would like to run for council must file nomination papers at the township office in Williamsburg before 5 p.m. Anyone who has filed their papers by the September 29, deadline then has until Monday October 2, at 5 p.m., to withdraw his name from the ballot.

Be An Encourager

Perspectives

Rev. Duncan Perry

I expect, if we were asked, many of us would be able to give the names of those men whom Christ chose to be the first Church Fathers. We see them referred to in the New Testament. Among them were Matthew, John, Peter and James. These are the ones most often mentioned. Another apostle or Church Father that is probably the best known and the one who wrote some 13 or 14 books of the New Testament is Paul.

Paul was not an apostle when Jesus was on earth. As a matter of fact, he was a strong objector against the early church. He persecuted the first Christians, putting many of them in jail and was even instrumental in having some early Christians put to death. However, He had a wonderful conversion that changed his life.

You can read about his conversion in Acts, Chapter 9. His name before he was converted was Saul, but his name was changed to Paul.

I've said all this to make a point. In the beginning Paul was not accepted by many in the church. Because of his past and his strong stand against the church they were fearful of him. The early church wondered if he really had been changed or if it was merely a ruse so that he could find out who the Christians were and then be able to persecute them. Here is what I want to say.

There was a man, his name was Barnabas, he was an elder in the church. His name means one who encourages. He took Paul and brought him to the apostles and told them about Paul's conversion and how, since his conversion, Paul had been preaching the gospel.

Acts 9:27. Because of Barnabas' willingness to stand up for Paul, Paul was accepted and sent out to spread the good news of the gospel over much of the then known world. You'll find Paul's letters in the New Testament. For the most part, these letters are words of encouragement and directions to churches he started.

One can only imagine how different Paul's life might have been were it not for an encourager like Barnabas.

I'm writing this column on Monday, Sept. 18th, the day after the ball tournament in Williamsburg that Lyle Schell and his family organize in honor of Lyle's grandfather. I was at many of the games and I was amazed at the encouragement that each of the team members gave toward their fellow teammates, whether it was one team shouting the pitcher on or the other team encouraging the batter.

It was literally one continuous barrage of words to build up the one in the spotlight. It was all about teamwork. I wish you could have been there to hear it.

You know, that is exactly how Jesus meant the church to be. Over and over the Bible teaches us to help others, build them up, offer a helping hand, or give an encouraging word. That is what we as a church are to be, what we try to be. So today, maybe you're discouraged or cast down in your spirit. May I encourage you that God knows where you are and what you are experiencing. He has promised to be with you always! Why not pause for a moment, take your Bible and remind yourself of some of His promises. I know it will be a blessing and an encouragement to you. I've proven it for myself. May God bless you today and every day.

Waste Water Treatment Plant

TRG awarded engineering

WILLIAMSBURG – Last week Thompson Rosemount Group was selected by South Dundas council as design and construction engineers for the new waste water treatment plant in Morrisburg at a cost of $1.46 million.

At the regular council meeting (September 19) South Dundas council passed a motion to award the contract for engineering services to the Thompson Rosemount Group, conditional on the negotiation of a satisfactory agreement based on their proposal submission.

Council voted in favour of the motion, with no discussion or explanation at the meeting about their selection.

A day after the council meeting, South Dundas mayor Lyle Van Allen was contacted to explain the decision, which was agreed upon by a 4-1 majority.

Asked when the decision was made, Van Allen said that council met Monday evening in a closed session to go through the process of evaluating the proposals of the three short-listed candidates.

Evaluations of each proposal were completed by all five members of council, South Dundas CAO Steve McDonald, South Dundas Public Works manager Hugh Garlough, and three members of the Stidwell and Associates project management team working for the township on this sewage treatment project.

Van Allen said when the results of the evaluation were tallied, "the marks were very close, so it came down to price."

CAO McDonald confirmed last Friday that there were less than three points between the proposals, with JL Richards and XJC Partnership scoring the highest followed closely by Thompson Rosemount Group and then Totten Sims Hubicki.

However, it was JL Richards whose price was the highest at $1.75 million. Thompson Rosemount Group's price was $1.46 million and Toten Sims Hubicki's price was $1.24 million.

According to McDonald, the prices are all upset limits inclusive of disbursements and subconsulting.

Van Allen said that Richards which is an Ottawa firm and TRG which is a Cornwall firm, were more local than Toten Sims, of Whitby and that was also taken into account when the decision was made.

The COMRIF funding that South Dundas received to build a new sewage treatment plant in Morrisburg provides about $1.4 million to cover design and construction engineering costs.

The most patriotic riding

OTTAWA–On Monday, September 18, Guy Lauzon, MP for the riding of Stormont-Dundas-South Glengarry, delivered the following statement in the House of Commons:

"I stand in this House today as a Member of Parliament representing the most patriotic riding in this great Country called Canada.

On Canada's 137th birthday, celebrated this past July 1, the Riding of Stormont, Dundas and South Glengarry had 15,084 homes displaying the Canadian Flag.

More than one in every three homes located in my riding very proudly displayed our most treasured national emblem on Canada Day.

Virtually every one of these 15,084 flags was hand delivered by over 300 volunteers during our 'Proud to be Canadian' campaign.

That is why Mr. Speaker, I declare to this House and to every Member of Parliament, that the Riding of Stormont, Dundas and South Glengarry is the most patriotic riding in Canada, and I challenge all 307 of my colleagues to surpass our achievement in their respective ridings."

Seaway welcomes new teachers

The start of the 2006 school year brought new faces to the teaching staff of Seaway District High School as well as to the classrooms. Pictured above, from left to right, are Thomas Dodd, Kevin O'Farrell, Geoff Williamson, Laura Campbell, Sonya Wilson and Daniel Quick. Dodd is a business studies and coop teacher who will also be working with Seaway's transitions team. A graduate of McGill, O'Farrell is with the physical education department, and has taken on coaching duties with boys soccer and midget girls basketball. Williamson, whose degrees are from Brock, is teaching math, geography and technical subjects. Campbell graduated from Queens, and also studied in Scotland. She will be teaching civics and careers, and has joined the Prom and Global Issues teams. Wilson, whose degrees are from Ottawa University, is teaching in the English department. Quick, also a Brock graduate, is teaching civics and careers part-time. The new staff members are thoroughly enjoying the start of their careers at Seaway. Although all of them have taught at other schools, they find the students and their colleagues at Seaway welcoming and supportive. "It's great to be here", they agree as another school year begins. Missing from the photo is new French teacher Isabelle May, who will also be coaching senior boys volleyball.

Big raise for Counties Councillors

SD&G – After the next election those municipally elected officials serving as County Council members will be paid considerably more than their predecessors.

According to projected figures the increase in wages for councillors and the warden, which counties council agreed to at their September 18 meeting, will mean that $116,950 will be paid out to council next year - 46 percent more than this year's $80,000.

Currently, county councillors receive no annual salary, only a per diem of $185 for council meetings and $135 for committee meetings.

Using this method the average councillor receives about $5,000 for performing his county council duties.

Effective for the new term of council, counties councillors will be paid an annual salary of $8,000 and a per diem of $150 for meetings in excess of two meetings per month.

Among neighbouring counties, SD&G councillors are the second lowest paid next to Renfrew, whose average councillor receives remuneration of about $3,400.

The Warden for SD&G currently receives an annual salary of $15,000 and a per diem of $135 for meetings in excess of 10 per month.

Effective, December 1, the warden will seen an increase both in base salary and in per diems.

The warden's salary will be bumped up to $18,000 and he will receive a per diem of $150 for meetings in excess of two per month.

These increases would mean that the warden would average $35,900 in remuneration while the average councillor would make $9,100 per year.

The pay increases mean the counties will pay out 40 percent more money to the councillors in wages and 88 percent more money in wages to the warden.

In comparison to neighbouring counties, this increase will move county councillors from second lowest to third lowest paid, and would move the SD&G warden from lowest remuneration paid to third lowest paid.

The last raise in remuneration was in 2004 when the payment for attending council meetings and committee meetings went from the rate of $170 and $120 to the rate of $185 and $135.

Weighted voting is a thing of the past for next Counties Council

SD&G – Since amalgamation nine years ago, counties councillors voted based on a weighted system, but last week, it was decided that five of the six municipalities will lose some weight.

A review of the allocation of votes for each municipality was prompted by counties staff at the September 18, meeting. There has been no such review since amalgamation nine years ago.

The system which has been used for the last nine years gives South Dundas, North Dundas, North Glengarry, South Glengarry and South Stormont four votes each when a recorded vote takes place on any issue. North Stormont only has two votes.

When the next term of Counties Council gets underway that will change.

According to the report from staff, the method in use was derived at the time of amalgamation, based on the best information at hand to reflect the weighted assessment of each area municipality.

Staff recommended that the method should be changed to better reflect the changes that have occurred within the six municipalities over the last nine years.

Their recommendation was to go with a more accurate weighted assessment method which would see South Dundas, North Dundas and South Stormont keep four votes each, while South Glengarry would have five votes, North Glengarry three votes and North Stormont would continue to have two votes.

South Dundas goes from four votes to two

The other options given were population weighted voting, equal voting privileges and status quo.

The population weighted vote would give South Glengarry and South Stormont four votes each, South Dundas, North Dundas and North Glengarry three votes each and North Stormont two votes.

The members of Counties Council voted overwhelmingly in favour of the equal voting option.

"Under the weighted options, three municipalities could completely control what happens in the other three municipalities," said South Dundas Mayor Lyle Van Allen. "I understand the weighting, but it doesn't seem right. I think we should all have the same vote."

Effective next term, all municipalities will be allocated two votes each, one for each of their representatives to counties council.

Of the three United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, the largest municipality is South Glengarry which has 20 percent of the population and houses 22 percent of the assessment based funds that the Counties receive through property taxes. North Stormont is the smallest municipality making up 11 percent of the Counties population and housing only nine percent of the assessment base.

South Dundas is the second smallest municipality population-wise, making up 16 percent of the population of the Counties and has the fourth largest assessment base, housing 18 percent of the assessment.

Passports made easy

CORNWALL – The Passport Clinic held by MP Guy Lauzon and his Staff at Cornwall's Eastcourt Mall, September 16, was a huge success. Between 400 and 450 people attended the three-hour Saturday morning Clinic.

Lauzon, along with staff and volunteers and a professional photographer, set up a production line process that ensured everyone had access to the documentation and information required to acquire a passport.

People from across the riding arrived as early as 7 a.m. for the 8:30 start time. Lauzon was very impressed with the number of people who attended.

"We usually process between 250 and 300 applications per month at our constituency office. So this is a bit of a surprise for 3 hours," said Lauzon.

The Stormont, Dundas and South Glengarry M.P. is conducting passport clinics throughout the riding, with the next one planned for the Lancaster Legion on September 30 from 9 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Future Clinics are planned for Morrisburg, Winchester and Cornwall.

Lauzon seeks age change

OTTAWA–Guy Lauzon, Member of Parliament for Stormont–Dundas–South Glengarry, this week presented in the House of Commons a petition signed by constituents calling on Parliament to increase the age of sexual consent from 14 to 16 years.

The petition, bearing 128 signatures, echoed the sentiments of several others that Lauzon has tabled in the past.

Last year, Lauzon surveyed every household in his riding on the issue of increasing the age of consent, and found that over three quarters of respondents were in favour of such a move.

The new Conservative government has already introduced a bill to increase the age of sexual consent from 14 to 16 years. The bill will also maintain the existing age of protection of 18 years where there is a relationship of trust, authority or dependency that might lead to exploitation of a young person.

To help ensure that teenagers who engage in consensual sexual activity are not criminalized, the legislation includes a close-in-age exception, which would permit 14 and 15 year old youth to engage in sexual activity with a partner who is less than five years older.

Several other MPs also presented petitions supporting the government's bill Monday.

Lauzon, who has long advocated increasing the age of sexual consent, stated, "Protecting our kids from sexual exploitation is a major priority for the Conservative Government, and obviously it is strongly supported by Canadians."

"It's good to see so many Canadians speaking out and urging MPs of all parties to support the government's plan to increase the age of consent.

Obituaries

Keith M. Casselman

A resident of the Wellington House Nursing Home, Prescott, for the past year Keith Casselman passed away there on Thursday, September 14, 2006, following a lengthy illness. He was 95.

Keith was born in Osnabruck Centre on June 9, 1911, the son of the late Grant and Emma Casselman (nee McIntosh). He was the oldest child and had three brothers Ralph, Carl, and Lloyd, and one sister Hilda. In 1927, the family moved to the farm in Williamsburg.

In his early years there was not a lot of money, but Keith decided that he was going to get a good education and he did, earning his Bachelor of Arts diploma from both Queen's University in Kingston and Carleton University in Ottawa.

Keith served his country as an armourer with the Air Force during W.W.II. After the war he worked as a proof reader for over 30 years for the government in Ottawa, where he made many friends.

Keith enjoyed telling jokes, reciting poems, traveling, playing euchre, dancing and wood working. He loved photography and captured many family memories on slides. He was an intelligent man and he never stopped learning. After he retired, he took organ lessons and bought a double keyboard electric organ and every so often would play a little tune.

He was a member of the United Empire Loyalists and held different positions in this organization. He was a very religious man and he lived his life accordingly. He never uttered a swear word throughout his entire life, and he belonged to the Lutheran Churches in Ottawa, Williamsburg and Morrisburg.

Keith enjoyed working on family trees and assisted with the Casselman reunion. He kept a daily journal for years, recording everything from weather, birthdays or special events to the cost of batteries. He kept scrap books and clipped many articles from local newspapers.

He enjoyed spending time with his good friend Mabel Prieur and the two of them attended many square dances and parties together. He also attended plays and church functions with another dear friend, Marie Barkley.

Keith is survived by his brothers Lloyd (Norma) of Iroquois and Carl (Pat) of Riverside Heights. He was predeceased by a sister Hilda McMillan and a brother Ralph. He is also survived by nieces and nephews.

Friends called at the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home, Williamsburg, on Saturday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Funeral service was held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Morrisburg, on Sunday, September 17th at 3 p.m.

Interment followed at Dundela Cemetery. Pallbearers were D'Arcy St. Pierre, Gary McMillan, Grant McMillan, and Allan Brown. Donations to St. Paul's Lutheran Church would be gratefully acknowledged by the family.

Thomas Francis Duval

After a brief illness, Thomas Francis Duval, of Morrisburg, passed away at the Ottawa Heart Institute, Sunday, September 10, 2006. He was 80 years old.

Born February 3, 1926, in Toronto, Ontario, Tom was the son of the late David James Duval and Mary Rodgerson.

He married Elsie Elizabeth (nee Floyd) in Toronto, December 23, 1944.

Tom worked for the Toronto Police Force (1951-1958) until he moved to Morrisburg where he was police chief until the O.P.P. took over in 1966.

Tom was the beloved husband of the late Elsie, and loving father of Judith (Arnold) Lawlor of Dorchester, Sandra (Bob) Kettlewell of Plano, Texas, Charles (Mary) of Long Sault, Debbie Cook and Lori (Brian) Hanson, both of Kingston.

He is sadly missed by grandchildren Michael and Jeff Lawlor, David and Billy Kettlewell, Chris and Erin Duval, Shalon, Allison and Cori-Lyn Cook, Lisa and Jon Hanson, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his wife Elsie in 1998 and by his siblings Bernice, Olive, Lil, Norma, Charlie, Gerald and a son-in-law Edd Cook.

Tom had a heart-of-gold and would do anything for anybody. He told his grandchildren about the Great Depression that he lived through and they felt he was still living in those times with the endless supply of food he kept in the house.

Family was of prime importance to him.

He loved to hold his little grandchildren and converse with the older grandchildren about politics, education and world events.

At Christmas time he was known to show up at work in his Santa suit to see his neighbours and close friends around the town.

He enjoyed playing euchre at the Legion and was an avid fan of television watching the news, police stories and movies.

He was a member of St. James Anglican Church in Morrisburg and last year began going to Martha's Kitchen.

Friends called at the Parker Funeral Home in Morrisburg, September 18 and a memorial service was held in the chapel, September 19, with Rev. Craig Bowers officiating. A private inurnment was held at the St. Lawrence Valley Cemetery in Long Sault.

Memorial donations to the Winchester Hospital or the Heart and Stroke Foundation are gratefully acknowledged by the family. Condolences and donations can be made at parkerfh@personainternet.com

Jr. B Lions split opening games

MORRISBURG – The Morrisburg Junior B Lions opened their season on home ice Friday night with a 9-6 win over the Akwesasne Wolves, but fell victim to the Kemptville 73s in Kemptville Sunday night, 6-4.

Friday night's game against the Wolves was a Chad Galipeau affair. Galipeau was a menace to Wolves' goaltender Gage Gonyou. He beat Gonyou for six of the nine Lions' goals and helped to set up a seventh.

Pat Mainville, Justin Elliott and Cory Gove all counted singles for the Lions. Brent Van Loon answered for the Wolves with two, and Mike Rourke, Aaron Moore, Tristan Awashish and Trent Thomas had singles.

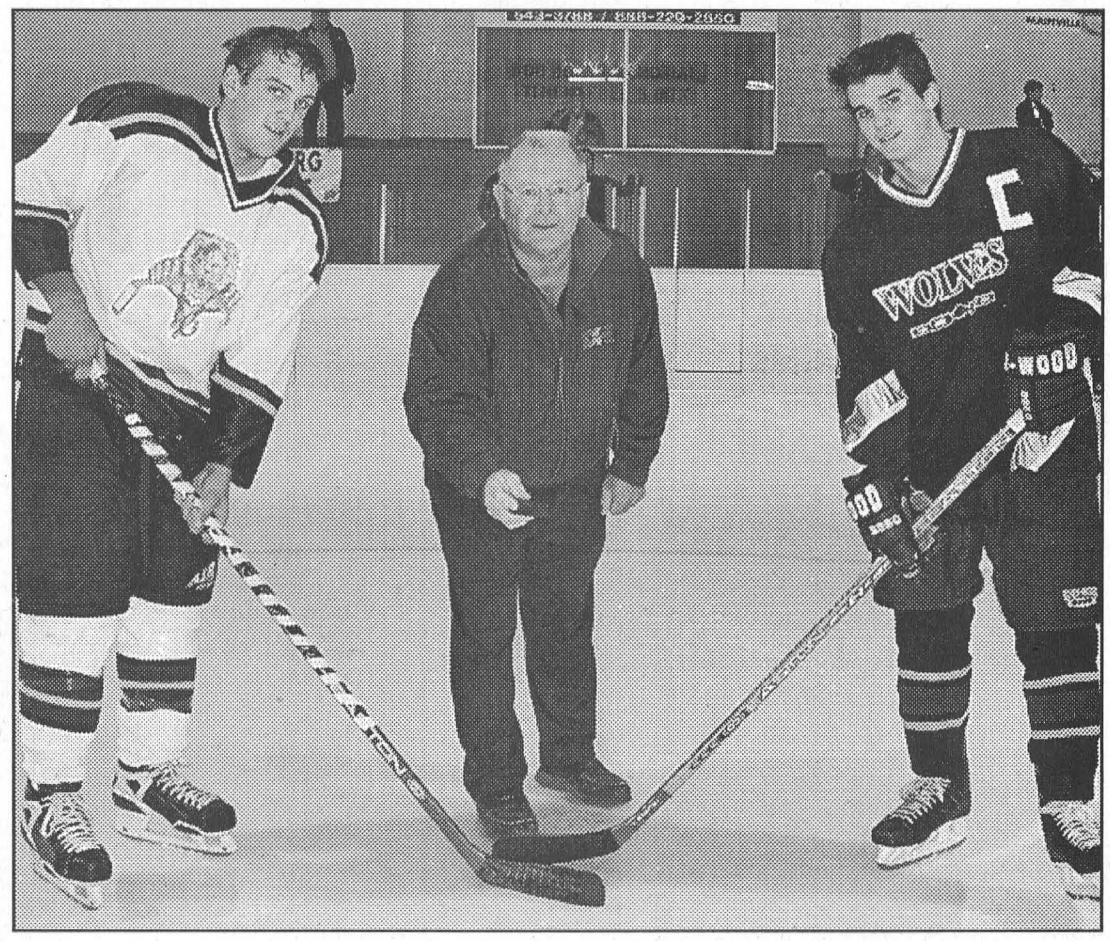
The Lions led the Wolves 3-2 after the first period and carried an 8-3 advantage into the third period.

The Wolves came back strong in the first half of the third with three unanswered goals to cut the gap to 8-6, but the Lions hung on and Pat Mainville counted their final tally with 3:54 left in the game.

Lions' team captain Justin Elliott had a big game adding five assists to his single goal, and Cory Gove assisted on four goals. Devin Brunet had four assists and Pat Mainville picked up three.

The Lions were assessed 20 minor penalties, a double minor, a misconduct to Matt Thompson, and a fighting (5 minutes) and game misconduct to Travis Baldwin. The Wolves drew 15 minors, a misconduct, and the corresponding fighting and game misconduct to Aronhiaies Herne.

The Lions travelled to Kemptville, Sunday night with two players joining the roster, Ryne Gove and Tyler Maxwell. Gove becomes the third overage Lions' player.



Let the Season Begin

South Dundas mayor Lyle Van Allen drops the puck to officially open the 2006/07 Junior B Lions season at the home opener played Friday night. Lions team captain, Justin Elliott and the Awkwesasne Wolves captain Pat Sauve take the face off.

Lions Open Season with 9-6 Win

Action in front of the Morrisburg Junior B Lions net during Friday night's hockey game. Michel Bouchard was in the Lion's net for the opening game 9-6 win over the Akwesasne Wolves.

The 73s went up 2-0 in the first period before the Lions got on board with a Justin Elliott power-play goal.

In the second period, the Lions recharged for a pair of counters from Cory Gove (power play) and Tyler Lafortune. The 73s counted one against Lions' goaltender Michel Bouchard to hold the game to a 3-3 tie heading into the third period.

A pair of goals were traded early in the third period, and at 7:26 the 73s' Ryan Workman scored what would turn out to be the winner. Codie Grant counted a power-play goal for the insurance at 12:40.

The Lions were assessed 19 minor penalties, a misconduct to Justin Elliott and a game misconduct to Travis Baldwin.

The 73s drew 15 minors and a misconduct to Mike Mohere.

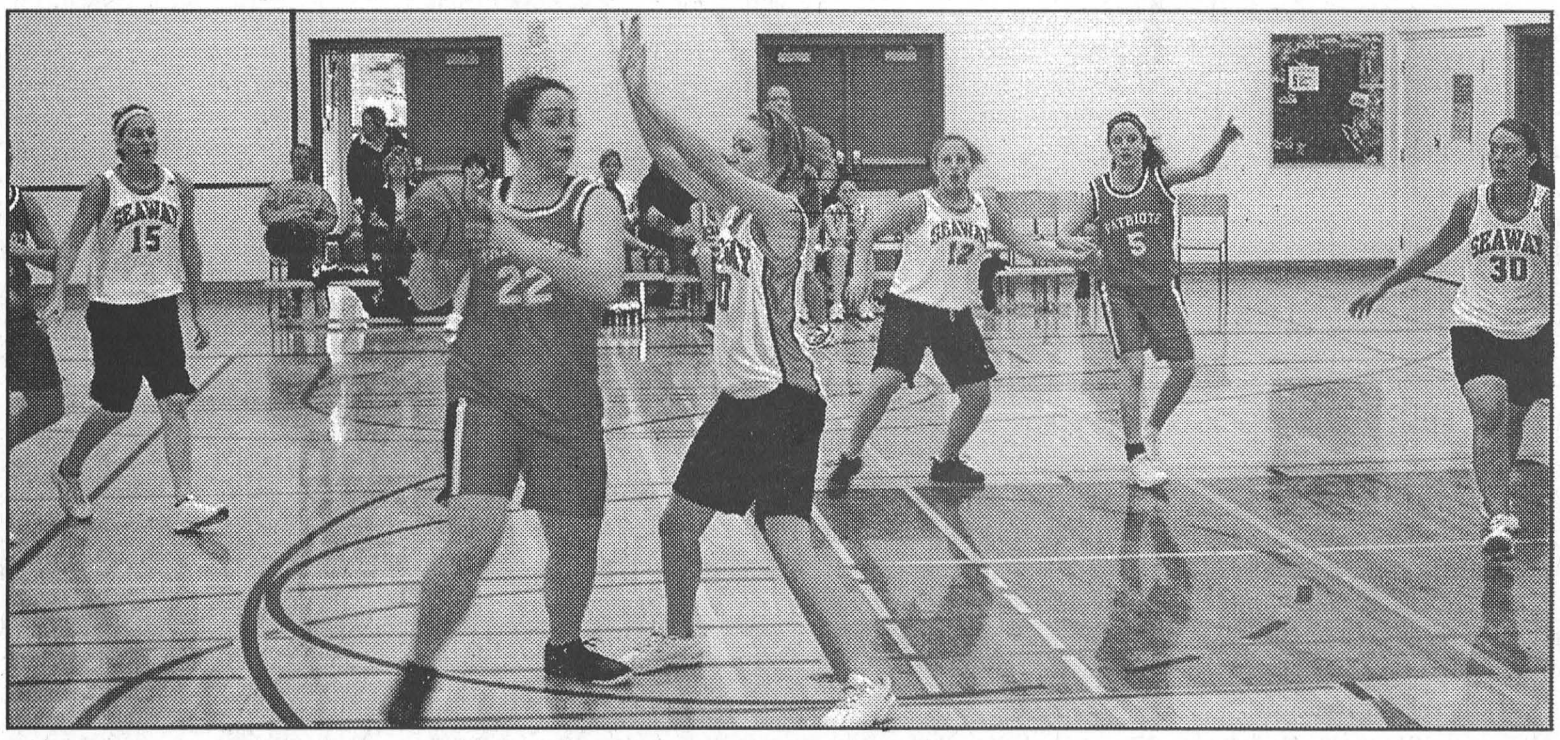
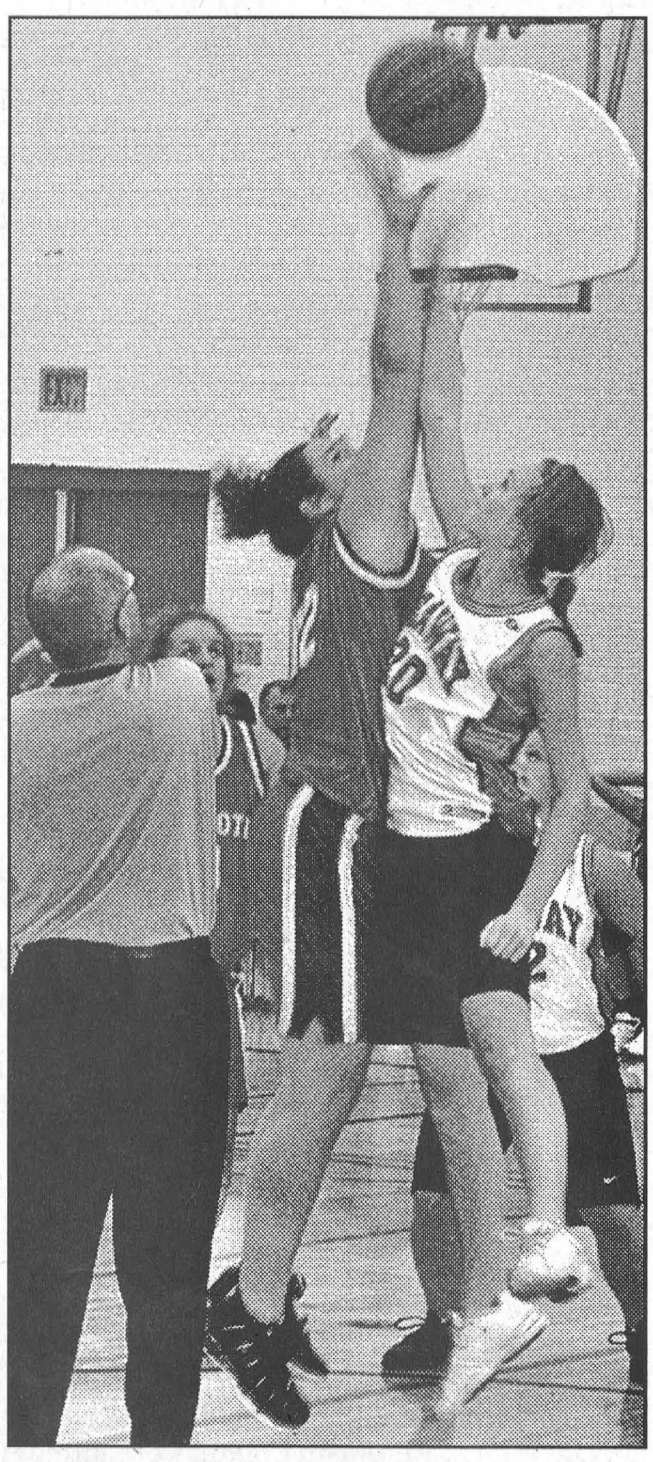
Spartans open season with losses





AA school division a new challenge for Spartans

IROQUOIS – The Seaway District High School junior and senior girls basketball teams opened their season Thursday on their home court, and both gave up a loss to La Citadelle Patriotes.

The Junior Spartans put up a valiant effort holding tough right through the half, which ended with the Patriotes claiming a slim 10-9 lead. The Spartans were still there at the third quarter, trailing 22-17, but the Patriotes pulled away in the final for the 34-23 win.

Morgan Brown was the top Patriotes shooters dropping 12 points and Rachelle Leger backed her with 10.

Bailey Hollister led the Seaway scoring with nine points, while Hilary Prowse produced six. Taylore Mattice and Aaron Mabo had four points each.

"We hung in there with them for the most part," says coach Kevin Kennedy, who this year is running with 14 players on the bench, including just two veterans, Hollister and Mabo.

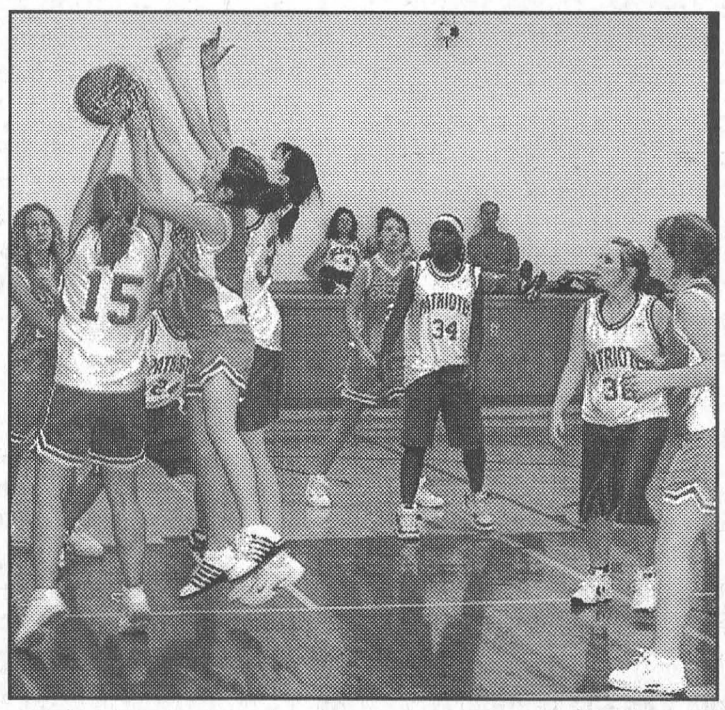
"Today was our first experience with AA ball, and we are obviously going to have to play our best in all four quarters. There aren't going to be any games on this schedule that are going to be easy."

In senior action, the Spartans were up against a team with a lot of depth and great ball handling skills, and the result was a 63-21 La Patriote win.

Again the stronger AA school division is going to make for a very challenging season for the senior Spartans.

Melanie Glover and Melissa Billard had 12 point games for La Citadelle. Krista Seguin dropped 11 points and Melanie Richer eight.

Stephenie Cochrane led the Seaway effort with 11 points, and Sarah Myers and Tracy Byker scored four points each.



Patriotes Strong in Season Openers

Both the junior and senior Spartans opened the 2006 basketball season on their home Seaway court on Thursday afternoon, and both gave up losses to La Citadelle Patriotes. In the top photo, Seaway players, l-r are Stephenie Cochrane (#15), Melissa MacLeod (#20), Lisa Hey (#12) and Tracy Byker (#30). Junior action is captured in the centre photo, and at the right Melissa MacLeod takes the opening jump ball of the season for Seaway.

Cross Country

Seaway coach is impressed

PORT HOPE–Three Seaway District High School athletes represented the school at the Trinity College School Harriers Cross Country Meet here on Wednesday, September 20.

The three, who travelled to Port Hope with their coach Lilace McIntyre, were among cross country runners representing 78 schools from across Ontario at this especially large meet with featured some very strong competition.

The Seaway athletes included Nick Thomas, Sarah Bowers and Kierra Bellinger. Thomas has been actively training over the summer, while Bowers and Bellinger had only two weeks to prepare.

"I am impressed these kids can run the distances in the time they did," says coach McIntyre. "They clearly have stamina, determination and commitment."

Thomas had a very strong showing in the junior boys six kilometer run, placing fifth out of 148 runners with a time of 20.10.

Bowers, who ran in the junior girls four kilometer, placed 86th out of 147 runners with a time of 21.24, and Bellinger ran the midget girls three kilometre in a time of 24.27 to place 70th out of 180 competitors.

McIntyre is hoping that the ministry's (Ontario Ministry of Education) requirement that there must be 30 minutes of quality daily physical activity at the elementary school level will have a long term effect in future high school programs.

"Hopefully, this ministry initiative will create fitter kids who are more ready to take part in track events. Physical education has to become a real part of children's lives."

Morrisburg Minor Baseball Team Wins Upper Canada Little League Championship

Morrisburg #2 wins championship

PRESCOTT – Going into the championship tournament in Prescott last month, the Morrisburg #2 Minor Baseball team was the top team in the division and they played to their full potential in the tournament to claim the championship.

Having lost only one game all season long the team had high hopes for the tournament.

They played Prescott #2 first in tournament action and won the game 11-1.

Their next game featured both the Morrisburg #1 and Morrisburg #2. Morrisburg #2 shutout Morrisburg #1, and the win moved them on to the final against Prescott #1.

Morrisburg #2 scored another shutout in the final winning the game over Prescott #1 by a score of 6-0.

First time coach Andy Brown was very pleased with his team's season. "The kids played really well. They were fun to coach because they were really willing to learn."

Brown appreciates the help of the parents, assistant coaches, Joe Hummel and Matt Hummel, with practices all season long.

Minnow Catches Salmon in St. Lawrence

Doug Byers, also known as Minnow, was fishing in the St. Lawrence near Iroquois early last week when he reeled in this unexpected catch, a 20 pound Chinook Salmon. Byers says, the salmon is male and 35" long. It took about 10 minutes to reel in the fish. This catch is going on the wall. Byers has been fishing on the St. Lawrence for 40 years and he has never heard of a salmon being caught in this area, let alone one this size. "I never dreamed I would catch such a thing on the St. Lawrence." Byers says there are salmon in Lake Ontario and they can be up to 40 pounds. He has caught salmon before, but they were caught on a charter trip in Lake Ontario and they weren't as big as this one. This fish was caught on eight pound test line and he won't say what he was using for a lure. Comfort photo

Card of Thanks

The family of Garnet "Sage" Barkley wishes to express their sincere thanks to everyone. First of all, a big special thank you to the staff at Dundas Manor for your care in looking after him. Marsden & McLaughlin Funeral Home – Dave you went above and beyond your duty. From the bottom of our hearts, thanks to all the Firemen from Williamsburg, Morrisburg, Iroquois and Ingleside Fire Departments that attended the wake and funeral. For the use of the Fire Engine in the funeral procession to the church, his last ride past his birthplace and on to his final resting place. Words cannot adequately express our heartfelt thanks for such a wonderful tribute. Special thanks to Reverend Noreen Gullons at St. Peter's Lutheran Church for your words and prayers, and to the ladies of the Church for a wonderful luncheon after. Thank you to the Pallbearers and the Honorary Pallbearers, Buster's Backhoe Service, Crowder Monuments, and Kevin and Patricia from Eastern Memorials. Thank you to Michael next door, you are always there for me when needed. Special thanks to my granddaughters, Crystal Barkley for emailing her letter, and to Amanda Smart for reading it at the service. Great big thanks to Glen Cunningham for his eulogy on Garnet's life. From the bottom of my heart a huge hug and thank you to my children, grandchildren and extended family for standing by me through thick and thin in our loss. God Bless you all.

Iroquois Golf News

IROQUOIS–Members of the Iroquois Golf Club are heading down the final fairway of the 2006 season as they prepare for their Closing Members Event this Saturday, September 30. The closing tournament will feature a captain and crew format with a 1 p.m. shotgun start. Participants are asked to call Steve at the club at 652-4367 to register.

On Saturday, September 23 the Ladies Wednesday Evening Twilight League held their wrap-up tournament which was sponsored by Swank Construction, Iroquois. Many thanks to Swank Construction and all of this year's sponsors.

The day's play resulted in the following wins: Flight 1–Dianne Fawcett low gross, Shirley Belanger low net; Flight 2–Karen Cooke (gross), Mary Jean Craig (net); Flight 3–Nelly Leightizer (gross), Sylvia Gladstone (net); Flight 4–Jane McLaughlin (gross), Betty Styles (net).

The day included the presentations of the various awards won by the ladies during the season. Placing first in the RCGA Pin Rounds was Evonne Delegarde with a 65.75 net average (four best of 10 designated pin rounds). Second place went to Helen Robichaud with a 66 average.

Mary Jean Craig was rewarded for having the club championship two-day low net score of 131, and Carole Brouse and Grace Patterson were recognized for their holes-in-one. Three golfers established personal bests during the season and they were Cheryl Elliott, Cathy Marston and Sue Sloan, all of whom broke 90 for the first time to receive their RCGA Break 90 pins.

Evonne Delegarde won the year producing the most birdies and Betty Styles won for the most pars recorded in D flight. Mary Jean Craig and Gail McCallam were rewarded for their eagles.

The top 10 Twilight Ladies for 2006 were Betty Locke, Mary Jean Craig, Marge Lapier, Jan Mustard, Karen Cooke, Betty Styles, Betty McDermid, Jane McLaughlin, Deb Lidster and Helen Roberts.

The men's Twilight closing was sponsored by Strader Motor Sales, Morrisburg and featured a two-player net best ball hidden partner format. Claiming the win, with a 62 net were Brent Lapier and Jody Somers, while Don O'Brien and Mike Tobin finished second. Closest to the hole shots were made by Brent Lapier and Les Craig. Garry Barkey won for the least putts (25) and the low net (61).
