MORRISBURG SPOTLIGHT

BY TEE-PEE

GREETINGS—As there will be no Morrisburg Leader next week, may I wish all our readers a Very Prosperous and Healthy New Year.

PUBLIC SERVICE— The Shopping Centre is very well decorated for the Holidays. A sincere vote of thanks is due to Mr. E. Rice and his gang for their wonderful work in placing the lights and the Christmas trees. Eddy, as he is known to almost every on ein town is a man who is at the service of the sitizens of the village whenever he is called upon. We have yet to see the time when he did not go out of his way to do a good turn to anyone in need. This village is indeed fortunate to have employees of the calibre and chaaracter of our own Eddy.

GOOD WILL— All the Churches will have celebrations of the Blessed Birth. Your first duty is to attend the for all the blessings that have been Church of your choice, giv ethanks yours during the past year. Make your holidays happy ones for you and your family by practicing safety. Have a thought for the paper delivery boys and girls, not forgetting others who serve you in any capacity.

The Editor is waiting for this epistle, and as he is the most overwork ed individual I know, I wish him all th ebest for him and his family.

Almost every day from early in the spring until freeze-up, Sid could be seen heading for the river, and he seldom came back empty handed.

THEY FELL BY THE ROADSIDE

ESSEX, JORDAN, DURANT ...more than 2,400 different cars have been made in North America. Of these less than thirty still make new appearances each year on Canadian roads.

The reasons for failure were many, but the underlying factor was the inability to make annual profits sufficient for survival and progress.

This is a dramatic example in just one industry of the role of profits in helping a company survive and grow. Without profits, only one road faces any company. It must lay off its its employees, close its doors and go out of business.

Whatever the industry, whateve rits size, steady profits mean steady jobs.

Christmas

List how church bells' ringing enchants the winter air,
Burdened hearts uplifting to music everywhere,
While heads are bent so humbly in fervent, silent prayer.

Hear the children's laughter, see the magic play
Upon their merry faces; before you turn away.
Reflections pass of Christmases that seem but yesterday.

Walk in streets of sunshine, look into the blue,
Feel the kiss of snowflakes that gently fall on you.

All thankful let us be, as we kneel to pray,
That Jesus Christ was born, on blessed Christmas Day
