H. S. Lannin Limited To Open Warehouse Office at Ottawa

H. S. Lannin Limited, local manufacturers' of building materials, will establish a warehouse and office in the City of Ottawa in the near future, to give quicker and better service to their city trade, which has been increasing from year to year.

Mr. H. S. Lannin, president of the firm, announced last week that he had completed negotiations, whereby his company had acquired a tract of land, comprising seven acres, more or less, about one mile south of Billings Bridge. The site has a frontage on the west side of Highway 31 and is bounded on the north by the Wakely Road. It has excellent railroad facilities, as the C. P. R. lines run along the wesfern portion of the site.

On the north corner of the land is located a house and barns. This lot and the south corner lot were purchased personally by Mr. Lannin, more or less for speculation purposes. He will have the house moved from its present location to the corner lot further south.

Present plans of the company are to erect a warehouse on the site. It will be a 70x20 foot structure and will be serviced by a spur-line from the C. P. R. railroad which runs at the rear of the property. In addition, a residential type building, 28x52 feet, will be erected, to be utilized as a branch office of H. S. Lannin Limited. There will be a permanent staff at the warehouse, and the manager of the new branch is expected to be Mr. Allan VanAllen, of Mountain, at present a member of the office staff here. He has acquired much knowledge about lumber, building materials, estimates, etc., since joining the firm, and is well qualified to take charge of the company's Ottawa office.

The property was purchased from Mr. W. E. Steen through the D.V.A. It is ideally located and, according to the Greber plan, will adjoin the main artery of railroad lines and will be in close proximity to Ottawa's new Union Station, when the plan becomes a reality.

Excavating for the foundations of the new buildings on the site will be started in a few weeks and it is expected that the branch will be i operation by mid-summer.

H. S. Lannin Limited, successors to the M. F. Beach Company Limited, are one of the largest manufacturers of sash, doors, frames, trim, etc., in Eastern Ontario. Their plant here is equipped to handle any order for building material, whether large or small. In addition they carry in stock just about every item a building contractor requires. With the opening of their Ottawa Branch, they will be in a position to give a much speedier service to the trade in that area, and with an increased volume of business, the firm will be able to provide employment for additional hands.

Buys Farm Property

In an interview with the Press, Mr. Lannin informed us that he had purchased the Ezra Summers' farm on the Chesterville Road, just east of the Four Corners, from Mr. A. C. Casselman, of Prescott, and is making vast improvements to the farm buildings. Located on the farm is a good stone house, and the new owner is going to have it thoroughly modernized, and the spacious lawns that adjoin it, landscaped. He said he may make it his country home some day, depending on what the future holds forth.

Mr. Lannin, who at present is serving his second term as a member of the Winchester Municipal Council, has had a very colourful business career. With the acquisition of the Ottawa property and the Summers' farm, he is one of the largest property holders in Eastern Ontario.

His business career started when he rented the large garage, which he now owns, from his mother, and took over the Ford agency, following his father's death. Within a few years he purchased the building and still operates the garage. Later he built a beautiful home in Winchester, and purchased a cottage property along the Rideau, which he thoroughly renovated and transformed into one of the most picturesque spots to be seen anywhere in this district.

When the M. F. Beach Co. decided to sell their plant, Mr. Lannin, with his associate, Mr. Jack Rennison, formed a small company and purchased the property. Additional buildings were erected, new machinery purchased and the lumber yards fenced in. A modern front was erected at the entrance of the property and other improvements made. The business has been in continuous operation since acquired by the new owners.

A few years ago Mr. Lannin erected two double houses on Caleb Street, and converted a large building on Main Street into several apartments and a grocery store, which is operated by MacPherson & Summers. He also owns a double house at the east end of Victoria Street. All houses and apartments are occupied by tenants.

Interested in hunting and fishing, Mr. Lannin also owns a camp in the Rideau Lake District. He is also a shareholder of The Winchester Rink Company, Limited.

Floor space in his garage building is occupied by the Winchester Press and the plumbing business of J. M. Fader & Son. At present he intends to erect a storage building on the north-west corner of his garage property.

The above story serves to indicate what was accomplished by one man in the space of a few years.

Starting on a few dollars which he saved from dickering in used cars while attending school, Harold Lannin is a living example of what can be accomplished by one man who applies forethought and good judgment to his business ethics. A man who achieves outstanding success in his business ventures is to be commended rather than envied.

Inkerman Rockets-St. Pats Series Tied

The Inkerman Rockets opened their best of seven O.D.H.A. Junior A Finals with St. Pats, Ottawa City Champions, at the Auditorium in the Capital City last Friday evening, and were shaded by the college team 5-4. The game was witnessed by over 5000 fans. The Rockets outshot St. Pats, 21-18, and held an edge in the forechecking department, but on the whole it was a neck-to-neck struggle all the way with little to choose between the teams.

The second game of the series was played at the Auditorium on Saturday afternoon before over 4000 fans, with Rockets edging St. Pats 7-6 in a thrill-packed contest. The Rockets piled up a commanding lead of 6-2 in this game after St. Pats scored two quick goals in the first minute of play. Staging a terrific come-back, the Ottawa Champs succeeded in tying the score midway through the final frame, but Baldwin combined with Lunny and Romhild to score the winning goal about one minute before the final gong sounded.

The third game of the series was played at Smiths Falls Arena last evening. A special train was run for the accommodation of fans of this district.

The line-ups and summary of the first two games follow:

St. Pat's—Goal, McIntyre; def., Kelly and Dagenais; centre, Lomer; wings, Power and Young; alternates, Mosco, Fisher, McDonald, Finnigan, Chiarelli, Tompkins, Ogilvie, Cunningham.

Inkerman—Goal, Digner; def., G. Jamieson and J. McDonald; centre, L. MacDonald; wings, Lunny and Godwin; alternates, Romhild, Crowder, Baldwin, Hunter, McFarlane, Brown, Stewart, Swords.

Inkerman scorers were: L. McDonald 2, J. McDonald and Lunny.

St. Pat's goals were scored by Power and Lomer with two each, and Mosco one.

In the second game on Saturday the scorers were: For St. Pat's: Young 3, Power, McDonald and Cunningham. For Inkerman, Romhild scored three, L. McDonald 2, Crowder and Baldwin one each.

Morrisburg Still Leads Russell

In a thrilling hockey game, played at the local arena on Monday evening and witnessed by the biggest crowd of the season, the Russell Juniors, Champions of the Russell-Dundos League, were defeated by Morrisburg, the St. Lawrence League Champs, 4-1. The win gave Morrisburg a one-game advantage in the O.D.H.A. Junior B Semi-Finals. In a previous game, played at Morrisburg on Friday, Russell scored a 6-4 victory over the St. Lawrence Champs, to tie the series. The first game ended in a 5-5 tie, Morrisburg won the second tilt 11-3, while the third game resulted in an 8-8 draw.

The game here on Monday night was played under protest by the Russell team, who challenged the rights of Morrisburg to use a goalie from the Cardinal team to replace their regular net-minder, who had to leave Morrisburg to report for duty as a member of a boat crew at a Great Lakes port.

The sixth game of the series was played at Morrisburg last night.

The line-ups were the same as in previous games. Summary of the last two games follow:

Looking Over The Bowling Scores

(By Uncle Ezra)

If there were any prizes given for such records as rolling the bowls down the gutter or "blowing" frames at Flora's Bowling Lanes, it would be a toss-up who would qualify for those honours, the local postmaster or editor. Of course, Al Beardsall or Les. Dixon could also put in an application, and there are some lady bowlers who could run the P.M. or Ed. a close second. Of course, both these bowlers aim the bowls with care, and have high hopes of getting a strike each time they start the bowl down the alley, but those gremlins change the course of the bowls and you know the result. But don't get downhearted boys, practice makes perfect—ask Mrs. Archie Rice. Now don't get peeved at your Uncle Ezra, he's just kidding you a bit.

Consisten bowlers are few. There's Jim Lennox, for instance. Last Thursday, while bowling with the Reynolds' Group, he was all set to beat his record of over 300, and ended up with a score of 93; and then there was a certain lady bowler who ended a string with 57 and was her face red! But now it's time to check last week's records:

In the Inkerman League on Monday, Lois Rennick won both the ladies' high single and high cross with scores of 163 and 424. Allan McIntosh's game of 238 was high single for the men, with Ben McEwen's cross of 555 being best.

Mrs. Eva Workman, bowling with the High School Staff Group, took both the ladies' honours with a high single of 185 and cross of 489. Adair Fisher's high single of 222 and Robert Robinson's cross of 565 were the best

Local Post Office To Re-open On Monday

On Monday morning next, citizens of Winchester will have their mail delivered from the regular Post Office Building on St. Lawrence Street. The transfer of postal equipment will be made during the week-end.

As new boxes have been installed at the Post Office, box holders will be given different numbers and will be obliged to exchange their present post-office keys for new ones.

Closed for over a year, during which time temporary Post-office quarters were set up at Hotel Winchester, the interior of the post office building has undergone a complete transformation. It provides more space for the office staff, a private office for the Postmaster, a make-up room for the rural mail couriers, and a back entrance for receiving and despatching the mail bags, etc. The lobby is smaller, but quite adequate. The interior is nicely finished and pleasing to the eye (sorry, we can't say that about the exterior front.)

The building was purchased by the government from Mrs. Faye Scott about two years ago. The post office has been located in it for the past 36 years. It had previously been used for a book store, tailor shop and Drug store.

Winchester's first Post Office was established in February 1855, with the late William Bow as Postmaster. He was succeeded in 1913 by the late Mr. T. A. Scott. Following Mr. Scott's death in 1937, his grandson, Melvin Scott, was acting Postmaster for nine months. The present Postmaster, Mr. F. Erle Helmer, received his appointment in 1938.

HIGH SCHOOL BOARD APPROVES SAFETY PATROL

Winchester High School Board gave approval to a plan for the setting up of a safety patrol during the hours when students of the Winchester High and Public Schools are leaving the institutions, at a meeting of the board held in the town hall on Thursday night.

Chief Gilbert Raistrick outlined the plan, which had been formulated by the town council at their meeting earlier in the week. Highway 31, with its heavy traffic, is also the outlet for students leaving both schools, and last year two serious accidents occurred, due to carelessness of students in crossing the highway. The constable said that it was planned to train several students, who would be selected by Mr. Howard Willard, High School Principal, and Mr. Harry Potter, Principal of the Public School. The Council had offered to purchase white belts and equipment for the patrol men, and students would be trained to use regular crossings. The provincial department of highways had offered to assist in the plan by erecting new signs where needed.

Messrs. J. K. Ault and Robt. Woods sponsored a motion for the purchase of a strip film projector, and a Babcock milk tester and other supplies. The secretary was instructed to ask departmental approval on the purchase of an adding machine for the commercial room, and a mitre saw for the shop.

Mr. Walter MacDonald was named to interview all of the teachers to ask their intentions with regard to re-engagement for the next term.

Mr. F. Erle Helmer, who presided in the absence of the chairman, Mr. W. J. Cass, K. C., reported that two townships and the Village of Winchester had petitioned Counties' Council for the setting up of a larger High School Area, to serve the same district now being served by the school. It was also noted that the Department of Education had increased the grant to area schools by another ten per cent.

FEED NEWS

FEED CONSUMPTION OF PIGS

The "Feeders' Guide," issued by the Quebec Provincial Feed Board, has some very valuable and interesting information about pig feeding.

"As a guide to the pig raiser, tables of normal growth and feed consumption to be expected with satisfactory feeding and breeding practice are given below":

Average Daily Gain and Feed Consumption of Yorkshire Pigs by Live Weight Groups.

Weight of Pig	Av. Daily Gain	Av. Daily Feed	Gain per 100 lbs Feed
30	.5	1.6	34
40	.8	2.3
50	1.0	3.0
60	1.2	3.6
70	1.4	4.2	31
80	1.5	4.7
90	1.6	5.1
100	1.7	5.6
120	1.8	6.5	25
140	1.8	6.8
160	1.8	7.2
180	1.8	7.4
200	1.8	7.6

In the same section of "Feeders' Guide" the following shows the benefits of a balanced feed—

"It is significant that a survey of farms of Ontario revealed that feed had a greater influence on the quality of hogs produced than had the breed used. Farmers using balanced feeds obtained a much better grade than those using unbalanced feeds. Almost 40% of those using balanced feeds obtained grades of 50% select or better, while only 2.8% of those using unbalanced feeds were getting equally good results."

The above would confirm the opinion of best feeders that there is a fair profit in feeding pigs at present market prices providing a well balanced, reasonably priced feed is used.

The 7th Column

Last Wednesday afternoon a large cattle truck was parked across the street from the Press Office. A smaller truck, conveying a cow, backed up behind it. The ramp from the larger truck was lowered and the owners of the trucks proceeded to transfer the cow from the smaller truck. The animal slipped off the ramp and after some difficulty was finally loaded into the bigger truck. The men then swept the straw and manure off the back of the truck and left it deposited on the street. That is an occurrence that happens quite frequently on our Main Street. Just why these trucks do not make such transfers of cattle on some side road or in a farm barn-yard, we do not know. Both the trucks seen last week were from outside centres, and the odor from them was by no means pleasant.

Another practice of the owners of these cattle-trucks is to leave them parked for long periods in front of the local hotel or some other public building on our main thoroughfare. You can smell them long before you see them, and the offensive odor is more pronounced in warmer weather. We do not think that these vehicles should be allowed to park for long periods on the main streets of any municipality, and if it is within the power of a Municipal Council, there should be a By-Law prohibiting both the parking of cattle trucks and the transfer of cattle from one vehicle to another on village streets.

The heading of a column for women in a Toronto newspaper read "Need 100 Face Cloths For Undernourished Girls." The cause seems worthy enough, but the diet prescribed seems a trifle unusual.

The writer of the Seventh Column joins with his many friends in welcoming Mr. Frank Ryan, of CFRA, back on the air, after a five-weeks illness. We were pleased to hear his voice during the presentation of "Valley Note Book" on Sunday, and glad to know that, while still a bit shaky, he was making a satisfactory recovery from his recent illness.

Boss—Now what do you want? I thought I fired you two weeks ago?

Ex-Stenographer—Oh, I just came back to see if you were still in business.

The Post Office Inspector was in town last week. Wonder what he thought of our new Post Office front? We'll bet he didn't think it was in keeping with modern architecture. The editor of "The Mill Tattler" informs us that a farmer mistook it for the Egg-Grading Station the other day. Now that's something to crow about!

Too often, men performing a public service without remuneration, are taken for granted. We are thinking of the Directors of the Winchester District Memorial Hospital, some of which have been serving on the Board ever since the hospital project was first introduced. These men have

WINCHESTER THEATRE NEWS

"Lost Boundaries," coming to The Winchester on Monday next, has been voted on National Poll as one of the best ten pictures of 1949. All the critics gave it the same rating, "very good." It is a stirring, realistic film based on an actual happening. A young doctor with his wife, both negroes but so lightly colored as to pass for whites, settled in a New England town, and over the years built up a substantial and popular reputation. It was only when their children were growing up that it became apparent that they were negroes; and then came the impact of racial prejudice.

The tremendous appeal of this picture may be guaged by the fact that it ran fourteen weeks in Toronto and nine weeks in Vancouver on its initial engagements.

The capable and popular John Wayne as "The Fighting Kentuckian" provides the chief feature for this week-end's bill. It depicts a tale of romance and adventure in the deep south,—of the rough and ready Kentucky riflemen among the aristocratic and cultured French emigres who had fled to that region after the Napoleonic wars.

There is a double bill of mixed fare for net week-end—savage adventure and mirthful comedy. The main feature, "Davy Crockett, Indian Scout," is a story depicting the terrific hazards which the pioneers of the early West had to face in the Indian country—an epic of the journey of a wagon train with cavalry escort, subject of incessant attack and betrayed by a traitor in their camp. The second feature is "Who Killed Doc Robbin," a comedy of resounding mirth.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR PROSPECTIVE HOME-BUILDERS

As will be noticed by an advertisement appearing in this issue of the Press, the local Chamber of Commerce is endeavouring to determine how many citizens would be willing to build, or purchase a newly-erected house, providing they were given the same financial privileges that are available in other municipalities.

There is no denying that Winchester is badly in need of additional homes, and it is a known fact that there are several individuals ready and willing to build a home here, but have not sufficient funds on hand to finance the job. Moreover, they would be willing to go ahead if they could take advantage of the financial privileges offered to city home builders. It is because of this situation that the Winchester District Chamber of Commerce has become interested in the matter and anxious to take whatever steps are necessary to obtain those financial privileges.

If you want to build a house and would like some financial assistance, list your name with the local Chamber by filling out the questionnaire form available at the Press Office, Flora's Store, or from Mr. Jack Rennison, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Housing Committee. Any information you give will be kept in strict confidence, so don't be backward in expressing your desires for a home.

The only way the local Chamber can achieve success in procuring financial assistance for the home-builder in the smaller municipalities, such as Winchester, is to convince the proper authorities that there is a sufficient number of citizens needing such assistance, to warrant its privileges being extended here.

Remember—your Chamber of Commerce can help you if you lend your co-ooperation. Fill out that questionnaire at once, if you are a prospective home-builder. The questions are simple and leave you under no obligation whatsoever. The list must be compiled at once, so please do not hesitate. Your name and all information you give will be kept confidential. Read the advt. elsewhere in this issue of the Press.

GUEST EDITORIAL

"Christianity In The Home."

Queen Elizabeth, in a famous message, said: "I would like to add with my fullest conviction that it is on the strength of our spiritual life that the right rebuilding of our national life depends. Many have found in religion the source and mainspring of courage and selflessness that they need. On the other hand our precious Christian heritage is threatened by adverse influences." She said: "we must be deeply concerned with religion; and our homes are the very place where it should start. If our homes can be truly Christion, then the influence of that spirit will assuredly spread like leaven through all the aspects of our common life, industrial, social and political." Standing as it does at the foundation head of society, the home determines largely what the community, the nation and the world will be. Gibbon's opinion was that Rome declined and fell through the disintegration of family life within the home.

Jesus taught his disciples to pray, "Thy Kingdom come." But in His Kingdom the King is not only the Sovereign Lord but a Father. The members of the Kingdom are His children. The bond which unites them and which attains the ends of the Kingdom is love. Concerning the Kingdom, Jesus used the pattern of home life and thus He lays heavy demands on the Christian home. For Him the family was to be the nursery of the good life. Mothers generally recognize this truth and fathers should. The home must be saved from sensual living, and freed from materialistic aims, and become the agent for impregnating all of society with its purified life. The broadest scope is implied by the word Christian. "The church pleads for the rediscovery of the home as the cell-unit of world community and as the school of Christian nurture."

Many of the problems in the world and in our homes centre around wrong thinking concerning property and rights. "Love seeketh not her own, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law," is a guiding word from God about property in the home and beyond. Conflicts concerning rights can find their solution in the same virtue, love. The central thing about marriage should be love, which being toward each other as partners, and from each to God makes the foundation of a home sure and steadfast, and is a bond between those who dwell in the home which nothing can sever.

It is in the home that the attitudes toward property and rights are largely determined. There the individual learns to say mine and yours; learns to demand or to ask for things, to grab or to receive and give thanks; learns to love, to give, to worship, to pray, to work and to co-operate for the common good. There must be respect for each personality, and consideration for the rights of all. The degree to which the spirit of Christ is embodied in homes in things like these determines the degree to which that spirit shall rule in human society.

To teach children to read and love the Word of God by reading it with them every day, to make worship a part of life by making it a part of each day is Christianity in the home. The words of James Martineau are worthy of note, "When the mother calls her children to her knees to speak to them of God, she is herself the grandest object of their affections. It is by her power over them that God becomes venerable, by the purity of her eye that he becomes holy, and by the tenderness of her tones that he becomes dear."

The worship of the one living and true God through faith in Jesus Christ is the foundation of a Christian home. This is the prime essential. Thus the eternal worth of God is kept in mind, and thus all in the home are helped to keep the first and great commandment, in loving and adoring Him. Religion is indispensable in the Christian home and especially worship. The famous mother of many famous children said: "Parents should remember that their children are not likely to be any better than they are themselves." In the words of Dr. David MacLennan, "Why can we not make the home a jolly place and a harmonious workshop as well as a place to sleep and eat? We have to win the respect and love of our children. One significant way is to make Christianity a thing of beauty and joy, a loving relation of children to a heavenly Father, a friendship with Christ, a comradeship with the Spirit of truth and love. Make goodness a co-operative, adventurous, life-fulfilling quest and conquest."

The high principles of Christianity as set forth by Jesus, and as recorded in the Holy Scriptures of the New Covenant, are the principles for each one in their home to seek, and the principles for them to try to put into effect in relationship to worship, work and fellowship that the home in which the individual is a unit may be truly Christian, and thus, insofar as is possible through them, the world.

QUOTES FROM YESTERDAY

Hypocrisy, the only evil that walks
Invisible, except to God alone. —Milton

EDITORIAL NOTES

March came in like a Lion in this district and has been acting like one ever since. Better to get the blustery weather now than in April and May, so blow on gentle breezes, blow!

It is gratifying to note that there has been no great rush on the part of farmers to sacrifice either their hogs or their poultry (following price drops). This is commendable, as the dumping of either one on the market would only create a more serious situation.—Hagersville Press.

The hockey excitement is gradually reaching its fever height in this district. With the Inkerman Rockets currently engaged in their play-off series with St. Pats of Ottawa, and Russell Juniors matching wits with Morrisburg, the crowds are packing the rinks. At time of this comment, both of these series are tied up, and from the results of games played to date, calling the shot in either bracket would be difficult.

Consistent newspaper advertising will increase profits, Ontario Retail Hardware men were told at the 45th convention of the Ontario Retail Hardware Association in Toronto last week. Certain Toronto hardware stores, even without good locations, have built up high sales by constant advertising in Toronto newspapers. "Generally speaking, if you use your large newspapers or local weeklies, you will have a bigger profit at the end of the year," said one speaker.

For Parents Only

(By Nancy Cleaver)

FUN FOR THE KIDDIES

"What can I do that is fun? How often busy mothers are asking a question like this. Sometimes a child will say:

"I'm tired of my toys! Isn't there something new that I can do?" The interruption to mother's work may be unwelcome but if she will not take time to give the child who seeks it a little guidance in his leisure time, trouble is ahead for both of them. The child with nothing to do gets into mischief. The so-called "bad" child is often just a bored child bubbling over with physical energy and with no help in channeling it into interesting activity. The child who is convalescing or shut indoors with a cold is also greatly in need of fresh suggestions for ways to fill the long hours. Many parents do not realize that a child does not have to play with toys bought at a toy counter. In every home there is material which a child can use for satisfying creative activity. Every year all sorts of articles are discarded or thrown into the garbage which might well have been salvaged for fun indoors for little boys and girls. Here are some of the things which are found in the average house and suggestions and suggestions for ways they can be put to use to keep small minds and fingers busy.

Buttons are great fun for little folk providing they are oldenough not to put them in their mouths and risk swallowing them. A small child will enjoy picking out buttons, one by one, from a shallow dish and dropping them into a jar. If the child knows different colors he can use a muffin tin and sort the various shades, red, yellow, black, blue, etc., into the separate section. A four-year-old can thread himself a necklace of buttons and a slightly older child can sew buttons on a square of cardboard. If mother will draw a Button Man or a Button Woman with a big button face and small buttons down the front and button hands and feet, a child who is oldenough to sew will have a good time "dressing" the button people.

Empty spools should always be saved. They can be painted with water colours or ordinary paint. They make an excellent rolling toy and mother can mark with chalk on the kitchen linoleum a circle "home base" for a child to aim his spool at. Buttons can also be threaded and can be made into dolls. A dolly bed can be made from a box or fruit basket and can have spool legs.

Plain clean clothes pegs can provide many absorbing building play periods. Fences, houses and barns can all be constructed with skill. A small child will enjoy fitting clothes pegs all around the edge of a large honey pail.

Tins with food in them come in various sizes. An efficient can opener leaves no rough edges and two children can "Play Store" with these cans. If the labels have been torn off, they can search an old magazine for pictures of fruit and vegetables and paste a new label on each can. A nest of cans of assorted sizes fascinates a little tot who can practice fitting them together or try building a can tower.

Did you ever think of toothpicks as play material for a four, five or six-year-old? They can have all kinds of fun with a pile of toothpicks drawing a picture using them instead of lines for a house, fence, walk, trees, etc. Interesting designs with toothpicks on a colored surface can be made up by an older child.

Odds and ends of coloured wool are attractive to children. They can sort the colours, use them for threading in and out the holes mother has punched on a cardboard to make a wool picture. A school age child can make wool dolls with just a little help from mother.

Clean milk tops can be used for play coins and used for shopping at the "store." If a slit two inches wide is made in the cover of an empty baking powder can, a little child will enjoy dropping the tops through the slit.

Once mother has become aware of how much unused play material is in the house she will make some discoveries of her own—half walnut shells or corks can be turned into a tiny set of boats, a dolly tea set can be made out of acorns. Keep this list and add your own original ideas to it. Then you are prepared to give your youngster a choice of a couple of possible activities next time he asks, "What can I do?"

and are still devoting much time and energy in the interests of the hospital, and are deserving of public appreciation for their splendid efforts. Some people think that being appointed or elected as a reeve, councillor hospital director, school trustee, etc., is an honour extended to the candidates for these offices. That is a false impression. These men only accept these offices because they are public-spirited citizens, interested in the welfare of the community, and realize by so doing that they are subject to criticism and fault-finding on the part of other fellow-citizens who would not accept such responsibilities at any cost. Constructive criticism from the proper sources is often beneficial and serves a good purpose, but at all times, a word of praise and commendation will go a long way towards showing our appreciation to the men who are holding positions of trust in our behalf.

So, to those faithful directors of the District Memorial Hospital, who have accepted office for another term, the Press would like to extend a word of praise and a sincere "thank you" for a job well done. We know the administration of our hospital is still in good hands, with such men serving on the Board.

Take time to work—it is the price of success,
Take time to think—it is the secret of perpetual youth,
Take time to read—it is the fountain of wisdom,
Take time to be friendly—it is the road to happiness,

Take time to love and be loved—it is the privilege of the gods,
Take time to look around—it is too short a day to be selfish.

During a local Bantam hockey game 23 penalties were handed out, most of them to the Winchester team. Two of the players were in the penalty box four times. That is not a record to be proud of, and our advice to these young hockeyists is to pay more attention to the puck and forget about the opposing player who likes to rough it up. The referee will penalize the guilty players sooner or later. A hockey player has to control his temper. Getting even with the other fellow is not always the best policy. A hockey player is of little use to his team if he loses his head and spends too much time sitting out penalties.

A young Scotsman went to the telegraph office one morning and wired a proposal of marriage to his sweetheart. After spending the entire day and part of the night waiting, he was finally rewarded with an affirmative reply.

"If I were you," suggested the operator, who delivered the message, "I'd think twice before I'd marry a girl who kept me waiting all day for my answer."

"Na, na," replied the young Scot. "The lass who waits for the right rate is the lass for me."

The series will be completed at Cornwall on March 18th.

The visitors piled it on in the first two periods, stepping out 5-1 in the first and adding seven more in the second, before they tapered off in the slow final stanza.

Behind Rowe in the quest for individual scoring honours were Ron Riley and Albert Dalbec, each with three goals, while singletons were provided by Alex Kalil and Maurice Groulx.

The line-ups were:

Cornwall—Goal, Primeau; def., St. Germain and Ammond; centre, Villeneuve; wings, Rowe and Riley; alternates, Hawn, Grant, Kalil, Groulx, Dalbec, Martel, McAter, Dewar.

Winchester—Goal, Duncan; def., A. Hutchinson and Steinburg; centre, Kerr; wings, M. Saunders and Desjardin; subs., J. Saunders, MacLean, Bilow, Bellinger, Guy, Helmer, McRoberts, Wyatt, Thomas, Raistrick.

Officials: Anderson and Graham.

LOCAL FIRE BRIGADE HOLDS MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Winchester Fire Department was held in the town hall at Winchester on Tuesday evening of last week, with the president, Chief Gilbert Raistrick, in the chair, and fifteen members present.

Fireman Steve Corry, of number one crew, reported for the firemen who attended the demonstration at Chesterville recently in regards to a resuscitator that was effective in reviving victims of all types of asphyxia.

Fire Chief Raistrick explained to the members a proposed fire alarm system that could be attached to the siren at the top of the hall. He said that the cost of operation would be about $4.00 per month and was to be considered by the village council.

A motion was passed, and secretary Harvey McIntosh was instructed to invite Reeve Walter Moffat, and Councillors Howard Fetterly and Hugh Wilson, of the Winchester Council, to attend the next meeting of the fire department, to discuss additional equipment that was needed for fire protection.

A lengthy discussion followed in regards to raising funds for the club, and a motion was passed that the sports committee, Harold Helmer, Steve Corry, Harvey McIntosh and Harold Levere, arrange to have a social evening in March at the town hall.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST RALLY WELL ATTENDED

A Youth For Christ Rally was held in the Winchester Theatre on Sunday night, following the regular church services, with the largest attendance since the movement first started in Winchester. Seven from Ottawa contributed to the programme, with Mr. John Murs as guest speaker. Mr. H. W. Beach, of the Christian Business Men's Club, and Mr. James Lepine, also spoke. Mr. Ray Wilson, president of the movement in Winchester, presided, with Rev. B. Richardson, of the local Baptist Church, as song leader. Mrs. H. P. Marsh gave two vocal solos, with Mr. Marsh as pianist, and Mr. Arthur Beck gave two trumpet numbers, accompanied on the piano by Miss Winnifred Deeks. Mr. Rowat Deeks contributed two vocal solos and assisted as song leader. Scripture lesson was read by Miss Mary McPherson, of Winchester, and the usherettes were Misses McPherson and Isabella Hay. Taking for his text John 10:9: "I am the door, by me, if any man enter in, he shall be saved," the speaker made an ardent appeal in support of the Y. F. C. movement.

Following the offering, Mr. Wilson, the president, thanked the management for the use of the theatre for the meeting, stating that all contributors to the programme gave their services free; that the proceeds of the collection were used solely for publicity expenses, and were sent to the headquarters of the movement at Brantford, Ont.—ten per cent. being used for missionary work in spreading the Gospel.

OBITUARY

LATE THOMAS B. LUNNY

Death came suddenly to Mr. Thos. Bernard Lunny, Merchant, of South Mountain, on Saturday evening, March 4th. Mr. Lunny was unaware of any serious illness and was about his duties to the end.

Deceased was born in Fitzroy Township, Carleton County, the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lunny, and celebrated his 63rd birthday two days before his death. He was educated in that community, farmed awhile, and later kept store in Detroit. In 1925 he came to Dixons Corners and five years later to South Mountain. In 1926 he married Miss Mary Grace, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Grace, of Huntley, who survives, with a family of seven, Margaret, Jack and Bernard, of Ottawa; Grace, teaching at Pendleton; Mary, Vincent and Billy, at home. Mr. Lunny is also survived by two brothers and two sisters, James, of Pakenham; Alex, of Ottawa, Mrs. T. A. Nugent, of Pakenham, and Miss Fonsie Lunny, of Toronto.

Mr. Lunny was an active member of St. Daniel's Church, South Mountain, where his funeral took place on Tuesday morning. Solemn requiem mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. Father Trainor, with Rev. Father O'Neill, of Merrickville and Father Agnew, of Spencerville, in the sanctuary. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Ben Barry, Jim Hall, Gordon Cumming, Henry Wilson, Lucien Benoit and Justin Morrow. The funeral cortege proceeded to Pakenham for Libera service and interment in the family plot. Rt. Rev. John O'Neill, of Ottawa, sang the Libera. Other clergy present were Rev. J. L. Lesage of South March; Rev. John Burke, of Fallowfield; Rev. Roger Lariviere, of Pendleton; Revs. Alphonse O'Neill, Geo. Larose and Maurice Egan, of Ottawa.

At both South Mountain and Pakenham, numerous friends paid tribute. Deceased will be missed by many, but particularly by his family to whom he was a most devoted husband and father.

REV. T. A. WOODS PASSED AWAY AT IROQUOIS

Rev. Thomas Andrew Wood, noted minister and evangelist, passed away at his home at Iroquois early Monday morning, March 6th, following a lingering illness.

The late Mr. Woods was born near Metcalfe, Ont., and received his early education in the Public School there. He later entered the Moody Bible Institute at Chicago where he received his ministerial training. He was ordained as a Presbyterian minister in the Fitzroy Harbour Presbyterian Church in 1914. After ministering to this charge for some time, he went to the Beachburg, Ont., charge. In 1920 he took up evangelistic work and conducted evangelistic campaigns in every province in Canada except Prince Edward Island. He also did evangelistic work in Newfoundland. He was a gifted speaker and met with great success in this work.

At the time of Church Union he entered the United Church ministry. For a time he acted as supply pastor in Ottawa and district, then going to Ashton, Ont. His last charge was at Morewood, where he suffered a stroke in October, 1943, forcing him to retire from the ministry. Shortly after he moved to Iroquois where he had since resided. During the past few years his health rapidly declined.

He was twice married, his first wife being Mary Loney, of Stratford. His second wife was Mary A. Bell, of Brinston, who survives, together with one son, Earl, of Ottawa. He is also survived by one grandson, Ian Woods, of Ottawa; three sisters, Annie, Grace, and Myrtle Woods, of Ottawa, and three brothers, James and Robert, of Metcalfe, and John, of Winchester.

The funeral was held at W. E. Fitzsimmons Funeral Home, Iroquois, on Wednesday, March 8th, at 2.30 p.m. The service was conducted by Rev. W. E. Wright, of Chesterville, assisted by Rev. J. A. Payton, of Prescott; Rev. L. M. Somerville, of Spencerville, and Rev. G. F. Dangerfield, of Iroquois.

The remains were placed in the vault at Point Iroquois to await burial in the cemetery there in the Spring.

Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which deceased was held.

THE LATE WILLIAM DUNCAN KENNEDY

The Osgoode Church, Vernon, suffered loss in the passing of the senior member of the Diaconate, Mr. William Duncan Kennedy, in his 86th year, on March 9th, 1950.

Born at Vernonview Farm, in Mountain, Township, a son of the late John Kennedy and Eliza Montgomery, he received his early education at No. 15 Mountain, known as Poole's School. Later he attended the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph.

He then settled on a farm in the Vernon district prior to his marriage in 1899 to Minnie Moses, of Osgoode, and during that time he served on the Municipal Board. Upon the sale of this property in 1914 he moved to the village of Osgoode where he had since resided. Over the years he dealt etensively in cattle and farm property. He became a member of the Osgoode Church in early youth and served on the board of deacons for a goodly number of years.

The funeral service was held in the Osgoode Baptist Church, Vernon, with the pastor, Rev. J. W. Bee, officiating. His text was taken from 1st Corinthians, Chapter 13, verse 12.

Interment was made at Springhill Cemetery. The pall bearers were three of the church deacons, Messrs. Harrison McDiarmid, Harold Ferguson and Bert Campbell, and Messrs. Wilfred Porteous, Archie Stewart and Harold Cleland.

Mr. Kennedy practised what he believed: "that the seventh day is the day of the Lord." Until age and illness prevented, he and Mrs. Kennedy were in their pew every Sunday morning.

There are left to mourn the passing of a godly man, his beloved wife, and one brother (the last of a family of nine), namely Major Hector Kennedy, D.S.O., of Edmonton, Alta., as well as several nieces and nephews.

THE MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan
HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello Homemakers! One story holds that Sir John Hawkins introduced the potato into Ireland and another that Sir Walter Raleigh first grew it there in 1585. In any case, it seems that the white man took the potato home to Ireland from South America. Our modern varieties are evidently much more productive and far superior to this less cultured potato. It was not until after a blight epidemic in 1847 that much thought was given to improving the "patatas" as they were called. Today the best varieties grown in Ontario are Katahdin, Sebago and Irish Cobbler—renowned for production as well as ideal for cooking.

Potatoes are one of our most economical nutritious foods. Recently an economist stated that for an average hour's work in urban centres, one can buy 41 lbs. of potatoes. Back in 1918 the hourly wages of the working man in Canada would buy only 18 lbs. of potatoes. Like all vegetables, potatoes should be peeled thin; or just scrubbed with a ring peeled around them for boiling. Baked potatoes should be on the menu at least three times every week if you realize the value of the nutrients stored under the skin. Cook only until tender whether boiled, scalloped, or baked. As a guide you may check the quantities you cook according to this table:

Boiled Potatoes—25 to 30 minutes.

Scalloped Potatoes—1 hour at 350 degrees.

Baked Potatoes—1 1-4 hours at 350 degrees.

TAKE A TIP

1. Do not peel potatoes in the morning and leave them in water because the starch containing nutrients soaks out.

2. Do not cook potatoes too long prior to meal hour as they will lose the vitamin value.

3. Do not home-fry leftover potatoes unless in an emergency. Heat left-overs in cream sauce, beef gravy, can of soup or brown in oven with dripping.

4. Potatoes, our most favoured vegetable, may be served in such a variety of ways to encourage eating this valuable budget food that it is wise to review the serving of a boiled potato: Diced, Whole Ringed, Riced, Cubed with vegetable cutter, Mashed, Whipped (with milk added), Creamed or Sliced.

PADDY POTATOES

2 cups mashed potatoes, 1-2 tsp. of salt, 1-4 tsp. pepper, 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce, 1-2 tsp. caraway seed, 1-4 cup cream, 4 tbsps. grated cheese, 1 egg, slightly beaten.

Season mashed potatoes, mix in cheese and cream. When well mixed, drop on greased baking sheet. Brush tops with beaten egg. Bake for 10 to 15 minutes in 450 degree electric oven.

GREEN APPLE HONEY SALAD

4 Greening apples, 4 cooked potatoes, 1 grated carrot, 1-2 tsp. salt, honey salad dressing.

Core apples and dice (with skin on). Dice potatoes. Put apple, potatoes, carrot in bowl and toss with honey dressing and salt.

HONEY SALAD DRESSING

Heat 2 cups cereal cream in double boiler. When hot, add 1 cup honey, then 1 cup vinegar. Meanwhile beat 2 eggs and mix in 1 tbsp. flour and 1-2 tsp. salt, then stir in the hot liquid thoroughly. Return mix to double boiler and cook until clear. Cool before using; it thickens as it cools.

THE QUESTION BOX

IRISH STEW WITH DUMPLINGS

3 lbs. lamb, cut in pieces, 1-2 cup carrots, in 1-2 inch slices, 1-2 cup turnip, in 1-2 inch slices, 1 onion, sliced; 4 cups potatoes, in 1 inch cubes; 1-4 cup flour, salt and pepper, dumplings.

Put meat in kettle, cover with boiling water, and cook slowly 2 hours or until tender. After cooking 1 hour add carrot, turnip, and onion. Half an hour before serving add potatoes. Thicken with flour, mixed with 1-4 cup cold water. Season with salt and pepper. Serve with dumplings. Serve 8 generously.

Mrs. C. J. asks for casserole dish made with creamed mushrooms and potatoes:

SCALLOPED POTATOES

1 can mushroom soup, 2-3 cup milk, 6 peeled, sliced potatoes, 1 peeled chopped onion, 1-4 cup minced parsley or green pepper.

Put layer of potato in bottom of greased casserole and add one-third of onion and parsley and dash of salt and pepper. Repeat two more layers. Mix soup and milk and pour into casserole. Dot the top with butter and bake in electric oven at 350 degs. for 1 1-4 hours.

GOLDEN VALLEY FARM FORUM

The Golden Valley Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. John Hughes on March 6th with ten present. A short but interesting discussion followed in which it was decided that a farmer hasn't very much free time; labor unions are not to the farmer's disadvantage, and farm marketing schemes are a help to keeping prices within consumers' purchasing power.

SCHOOLS DONATE GENEROUSLY TO JUNIOR RED CROSS

The recent appeal in the schools of Dundas County on behalf of the Junior Red Cross has met with a most gratifying response. The sum realized exceeds $500.00. Below is a detailed statement of the amounts contributed by the various schools. I know that the officers of the Junior Red Cross would desire me to express their thanks to pupils, parents and the teachers for the money contributed, and for the interest shown in the campaign. My personal thanks are hereby tendered to all the children and adults whose work and generosity have enable me to send to the Red Cross in Toronto such a large contribution.

A. C. BLAIR ELECTED PRESIDENT METCALFE RURAL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Mr. A. Carman Blair was elected President of The Metcalfe Rural Telephone Company, at the annual business meeting held on Tuesday afternoon of last week.

Mr. J. A. Waddell presided, and in an opening address, covered the activities of the past year, showing that considerable renewal and replacement work had been done on the lines as well as the general maintenance requirements, that working conditions in Central Office had been improved and that every effort was being made to give better service to subscribers by the switch-board operators. In closing Mr. Waddell paid tribute to the late Mr. W. E. R. Stanley, who had been a valued member of the Board of Directors for many years.

The financial statement showed an expenditure of $15,829.80 during the year, and a brief report from the Lineman included the installation of twenty-one telephones during 1949.

Following is the Board of Officers for 1950:—President, A. C. Blair; vice president, J. A. Waddell; directors: P. E. Booth, J. A. Coombs, G. M. Jeacle, F. W. Fitzpatrick, H. C. Latimer, A. J. Scrivens, A. R. York; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. J. W. Woods; lineman, A. R. Sheldrick.

An appreciation to Mr. J. A. Waddell, past president, for his splendid leadership during the past five years, was expressed by several members of the Board of Directors.

DIETING FOR MENTAL HEALTH

A woman wanted to kill herself. A man wanted to attack a nurse with a razor. They were cured by dieting. Read "Dieting for Mental Health," an absorbing story about an amazing new treatment for diseased minds, in The American Weekly, with this Sunday's (March 19) issue of The Detroit Times.

EVENING AUXILIARY

The March meeting of the Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Miss Eleanor Hitsman on Tuesday evening of last week, and was well attended.

Miss Ruth McInnis, Mrs. Raymond Earl and Mrs. Byron Dawson had charge of the worship service, the theme of which was "What can I give to my Church—ye are not your own." The sixth chapter of the Study Book, "Growing With The Years," was very well presented, with questions being asked by Miss McInnis, and answered by Mrs. Earl, Mrs. N. J. Thomas and Mrs. Dawson.

Mrs. Carlyle heard the various reports. The Presbyterial is to be held here on April 25th. For the reading course, the members are to read the gospel of St. Luke and familiarize themselves with the 55th chapter of Isaiah. This part of the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and the Mizpah Benection, after which a dainty lunch was served by the committee in charge. A vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. K. Ault.

CANADA'S health

THE MAGIC WORD

Immunization is the magic word that every year saves hundreds of Canadian children from diphtheria and whooping cough. Immunization is simple and painless and in most cases there is no reaction whatever. And immunization offers almost 100 per cent. protection from these diseases. Make sure your baby is protected in his first year of life.

DAYLIGHT DOES IT

Nothing brightens and cheers a home like plenty of natural sunlight. It is superior in almost every way to artificial light. Make the most of your natural lighting arrangements by using light-colored wall decorations and well-chosen curtains and drapes. You can avoid glare by turning your furniture approximately 30 degrees away from the windows.

THE PRICE TO PAY

Are some of your teeth crowded, crooked and awkward? It may be the result of the premature loss of the "baby" teeth. If these first teeth are lost, the jaw frequently does not develop normally and there is not enough room for the permanent teeth when they come in. Make sure your child keeps his first teeth as long as he can. His permanent teeth will have a better chance of being straight and even.

A COLD COMING ON

When you feel a cold coming on it is often the wise thing to take a day or so off and stay in bed. This way you not only spare yourself some of the misery of the early days of a cold, but you protect the people you work with during the days when your illness is most infectious. Nobody wants to share your cold. People will like you better if you keep it to yourself.

BATTENING DOWN THE HATCHES

When the March winds blow cold it is a natural reaction to batten down the hatches to shut out the elements. But no matter how cold it is outside, it's always wise to allow plenty of ventilation in the bedroom at night. It's better to get up to a cool bedroom feeling healthy than to get up to a warm bedroom with a case of the sniffles. Hot, stuffy rooms may help to bring on colds.

NO EXERCISE

A daily Donnybrook on a crowded bus or streetcar is no way to keep in good physical condition, but for many factory and office workers that is about the only exercise regularly taken. On the other hand, walking a few blocks each day is a fine way to help keep an expanding waistline under control. Try walking the last few blocks to work for a month or so and see if you don't feel, eat and sleep better.

WOLF CUB PACK MEETING

The regular weekly meeting of the 1st Winchester Wolf Cub Pack was held on Tuesday evening, March 7th, at the Public School, with all the boys present for an hour's period of instruction and fun with Akela, Bagheera and Baloo.

After the opening Grand Howl and a game of Tossing the Bean Bag, the Red Six assisted Bagheera in constructing a big yellow moon to be used during Cub meetings, and the White Six plus Baloo helped to build an imitation camp fire.

At the end of the meeting, Akela told the Cubs that Baloo (George Gibbons) was leaving the Pack to go to Pembroke. On behalf of the Pack Akela thanked Baloo for the many hours he had spent with the Cubs and wished him well in his new hunting ground. Red Fang, the Senior Sixer, presented Baloo with a "Thank you" gift from the Pack, a gold-coloured key chain. Baloo expressed his appreciation for the gift.

The meeting closed with the Mouse Howl, prayers, and the Wolf Cub Promise.

The Pack meets every Tuesday evening at 6.30 p.m., under the leadership of Rev. L. B. G. Adams (Akela) and Mr. Gerald Droppo (Bagheera). The Pack is open to any boy between the ages of 8 and 12 years. Weekly dues are 5 cents. With the transfer of George Gibbons (Baloo) to Pembroke, the Pack needs another Assistant-Cubmaster. WANTED
SEVERAL MEN WHO WANT THE BEST IN PANTS
We handle Superior, which we are proud of, and have handled the same since we started in business.

When a firm has gone through over forty years of trade conditions brought about by world wars, periods of inflation and depression, there must be a good reason.

There are 8 good reasons and here they are:

1. Not a yard of fabric goes through the plant without being shrunk.
2. Use no fabric seconds, all firsts.
3. Plant operated under amalgamated union terms.
4. Operators work under ideal factory conditions.
5. Employees are guaranteed absolute security.
6. Skilled union workers ensure quality workmanship.
7. Make a study of clothing and pant styling.
8. Every garment bears the amalgamater union label.

When you buy Superior, which we are proud to sell, you buy the best.

Order your Suit soon if you want it for Easter, as it takes at least 2 to 3 weeks for any individual made-to-measure.
