"Community Relations" Subject Of Address Fred Dillon, Ottawa, Speaker At Rotary

The regular meeting of the Chesterville Rotary club was held in the Library last Monday night with President F. M. Cass in the chair. Present as a guest of the club was the father of member Milton Phillips of Smiths Falls.

The speaker of the evening was introduced by F. L. K. Marcellus. He was Fred Dillon of Ottawa. The subject that he spoke on was "Community Relations".

Opening his remarks, Mr. Dillon characterized a community as a gathering of persons, institutions and groups that have more or less common interests. As a community it has a responsibility for all phases of human welfare and we as members of the community have our part to play in it. "Every community has a personality of its own," said the speaker, "and all its interrelated interests are dependent on the surrounding economy." Pointing out that responsibility for the welfare of the community and country at large depends on the nature of the community, Mr. Dillon said that three areas of responsibility exist for community members. They are in the economic, political and social fields.

In discussing the relations of economics to the community welfare the speaker said main thing for the community to do was to show a continued interest in the way our tax money was spent, in the way local industries were encouraged and influenced and for everyone to accept as their responsibility the way in which the economy of the community was administered by the local municipal board.

The political field was marked these days by the apathy of the voters. The representatives of parliament should be helped by the individual voters all the time they are in office. "That is one of the reasons they are in public position", said Mr. Dillon, "to help the public and receive their advice."

Socially a community can do much to encourage studies in the arts, music and writing. The more time spent in pursuits of this nature will be sure to pay large dividends in gracious living.

The thanks of the club were expressed to Mr. Dillon by Gordon Lannin.

Bad Luck With Trailer Causes Damage To Car

Gordon Lannin took his car and boat trailer complete with boat for a four hundred mile jaunt last weekend. The only bad luck while away was that the fish didn't bite too well. He returned home and within two minutes drive of his service station, the trailer draw-bar broke and turned a speeding trailer loose, still equipped with boat, on Main Street in front of Gallagher's Grocery Store. The trailer bounded across the road and ended up nestling against the front of the parked car of Tom Servage with extensive damage done to the grill, hood and fenden of the car. Said boat had a dent in the side.

Lannin is at a loss to explain why the draw-bar broke as it is made of so'id steel, a drive shaft from a truck.

Evelyn Marcellus Becomes Bride Of John Albert Gillard

A pretty wedding of more than usual interest was solemnized in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Dunbar, Wednesday at 2 p.m. when Evelyn Irene, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myles Marcellus was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to John Albert only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gillard.

Rev. W. H. Heustin, B.A., performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and red, white and pink gladioli. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Charles Marcellus, aunt of the bride, while Mr. J. Frank Casselman sang "O Perfect Love" and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister Gladys, as maid of honour. Mr. Leon Marcellus, brother of the bride acted as best man.

The flower girls were the two little nieces of the bride, Marion and Lana Marcellus, while little Ronnie McMillan nephew of the groom was ring-bearer.

Mr. William Marcellus and Mr. Gerald McMillan acted as ushers.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with fitted bodice, long train, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves tapering to points over the hands and trimmed with chantilly lace. She wore a floor length veil and Queen Anne headdress and carried a cascade of red roses and white gladioli. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The maid of honour was attired in blue lace trimmed with tulle. She wore a shoulder length veil and carried a cascade of pink roses and pink gladioli.

The bride's mother wore black crepe trimmed with blue and a corsage of red roses and black accessories.

The groom's mother chose grey figured crepe with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with Mr. R. C. Dillabough acting as toastmaster.

The happy couple left by motor for the New England States and the Maritimes.

Going away the bride wore a glamour red gabardine suit with black accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

On their return they will take up residence in Chesterville.

58th Anniversary Celebrated By Morewood W.M. Society

On Friday, August 6th, the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, Morewood, celebrated the 58th anniversary of the organization of their society. Rev. and Mrs. Heustin had graciously offered the hospitality of their home for the occasion and the meeting was held on the Manse lawn.

Among the guests present were representatives from Chesterville and Dunbar societies, and also from the Missionary Society of the United Church, at Morewood.

The president, Miss Lillian Feely conducted the meeting and Mrs. Thos. E. Coulthart, honorary president, extended a warm welcome to all present to which Mrs. D. A. Dillabough of Dunbar replied.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Lorne Feely and Mrs. George Crawford of Chesterville.

Mrs. Robert Raney, one of the two charter members, recalled being present at the organization meeting held at the home of Mrs. Thos. MacGregor, 58 years ago. She also paid a loving tribute to the memory of the many faithful members and workers, who through the years had been connected with the Society.

Mrs. Heustin introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Maitland, of the Manse, Morrisburg, whose splendid and inspirational talk will long be remembered.

Miss Jamieson of Chesterville, Mrs. Dillabough of Dunbar, Mrs. Copsey and Miss Ellice Smith of Morewood brought greetings and good wishes from their various societies.

The president expressed appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Heustin for their hospitality, and to all those who had in any way contributed to the success of the meeting.

Mr. Heustin closed the meeting with prayer, after which lunch was served on the lawn, and a social hour was enjoyed by all.

Fire Destroys Stables Driving Club Suffers Loss

The fine new racing stables of the Chesterville Driving Club were razed by fire last Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock.

Answering the warning blasts of the factory whistle in record time, the volunteer fire brigade were unable to check the raging fire that destroyed the stables at the race track last Wednesday morning. The fire had a head start when discovered and the buildings were a complete loss.

The stables were new this summer, having been constructed by volunteer labour, mostly, by members of the Club. The directors are at a loss to explain the cause of the fire.

50th Wedding Anniv'y Mr. and Mrs. G.L.Shay

On Tuesday evening, August 10th, a very limited number of close friends gathered to celebrate with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shay their fiftieth wedding anniversary. A goodly number had been invited but at Doctor's orders and due to Mr. Shay's recent illness a very quiet evening was spent.

The diningroom table was centred by a very beautiful three-tiered wedding cake flanked by golden tapers and beautiful golden cut flowers. After a short visitation brightened by happy reminiscences and an interchange of greetings a very lovely luncheon was served and the guests departed early after wishing the bride and bridegroom many more and happy anniversaries.

The following day Mr. Shay was taken to Kingston General Hospital where all his friends earnestly hope his stay will be brief but most beneficial to him.

Five Fine, Fat Fish Fan Fishermen's Feelings Send Scales Soaring To Seventy-nine Pounds

A couple of weeks ago W. O. "Bill" Dixon and son Hubert and son-in-law Doug McGee made a raid on the finny population of the South Nation and came home with some record breakers for the year.

On Saturday Bill and Joe opened the proceedings by boating two lunge that were 21 and 14 lbs. respectively. Then to top that Joe latched onto a lunker of a pickerel that had grown to an oversize nine and a half pounds.

The following Sunday Bill and Doug lit out for the same parts and again hit the jack pot. First into the boat was a matching pickerel of the day before that weighed nine pounds. Then Bill hooked something that acted like a young Holstein bull. Mr. Fish towed the row boat around at ease, in spite of Doug's efforts to get out to deep water. After about twenty minutes of careful effort the big fellow was alongside the boat. When the gaff hit his mouth, the fish didn't like it and took off again, gaff and all. That was discouraging for the sweating fishermen. Finally he was up to the boat again. There was the gaff hooked in his lips but bent and useless. Subdued and exhausted, the fish had only one hook of the plug in his cheek but he was quiet beside the boat. Bill reached beneath him, carefully slipped his finger into his gills and triumphantly flopped twenty-five and a half pound of fighting fish into the boat. The fishermen then came home. They were as tired as the fish.

FEED RESERVES ARE GOOD INSURANCE

Adequate feed reserve represent a form of livestock insurance that is indispensable for a successful livestock industry. The acute feed shortages that caused widespread livestock during the long winter of 1947-48 show the need of marketing adequate provision to prevent a repetition in future winters, says H. J. Hargrave, Dominion Experimental Station, Swift Current, Sask.

There is more than one way to accumulate reserves of feed for the dry summers and hard winters that are sure to come. Providing hay or straw in the stockyard along with grain and concentrates in the granary is one way. Another method that does not receive the attention it should is that of providing for reserve pastures. Many a stockman has been well repaid for his foresight in establishing reserve grass areas, but a great many more have suffered avoidable losses through lack of such reserves.

Big hay stacks and well dressed fields do not seem important when conditions are favourable. But if the heavy hand of drought is on the land or when winter rules with a vengeance, the outlook is changed. At such times an abundant reserve of feed of all kinds gives a stockman cause for satisfaction. Foresight and energy are the chief requirements for such favourable conditions.

Feed reserves for livestock are much the same as other forms of insurance. So long as everything goes smoothly and there is no hail, fire, accident or death, the need for insurance is not apparent. But, if one of these misfortunes strikes unexpectedly, the result is often disastrous to those who are not insured. The same is true of reserve feed on a farm or ranch. When nature is kind little need is evident for adequate reserves, but when conditions are reversed, near disaster can result if a feed stockpile is not available.

The annual premium for such feed insurance is not high if it is allowed for every year, and it has a stabilizing influence on the livestock business which cannot be secured in any other way.

MY SYMPHONY
By William H. Channing

TO LIVE content with small means;
To seek elegance rather than luxury, and refinement rather than fashion;
To study hard, think quietly, talk gently, act frankly.
To listen to stars and birds, to babes and sages, with open heart;
To bear all cheerfully, do all bravely, await occasions, hurry never;
In a word, to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious, grow up through the common;
This is my symphony.

He that eats does not know how much is consumed; but he that carves knows very well.

Bert Newton, Cornwall Former C.P. Operator Dies

Following a serious illness of two days, W. Bert Newton, for 30 years city ticket agent for the CPR, died at Cornwall General Hospital early Thursday evening. He was active up to a month ago.

A native of Birmingham, England, he was a son of William Newton and Mary Higgins. His parents came to Canada when he was seven and took up residence in Smiths Falls.

After receiving his education at the public school and collegiate, he took up the study of telegraphy in the office of the CPR. Later he became despatcher. While in Smiths Falls, Mr. Newton was a member of town council.

He took up residence in Ottawa on being appointed travelling auditor from Ottawa to Fort William.

In 1916, the CPR opened its branch in Cornwall and Mr. Newton was sent there as agent, a position he occupied until his retirement two and a half years ago.

He was prominent in Cornwall affairs for a long time, serving on the public school board for 10 years, being chairman for two years during the time the large addition was built to the school.

Superintendent of St. Paul's Sunday School for several years, he was also an elder, a steward and a member of the choir.

He was a member of the Cornwall Curling Club and Whitham Lawn Bowling Club and of Cornwall Lodge No. 125, AF and AM. For many years he was active in affairs of the Cornwall Board of Trade and of the Children's Aid Society.

HELEN HOOPLE WEDS AT FINCH

The marriage of Miss Helen Audrey Hoople, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Hoople, to Mr. Myles Forsyth Nephew, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nephew, all of Finch, took place at two o'clock Saturday afternoon in St. Luke's Presbyterian Church, Finch.

Rev. E. G. Moore officiated at the wedding. Miss Phyllis Rutley was soloist, and Mrs. Bessie Carr played the organ music. The church was decorated with gladioli and other Summer flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Gwennie MacIntosh, as maid-of-honor, and by Miss Irene MacKinnon, as bridesmaid. Best man was Mr. Stuart MacIntosh, and Mr. Harold Shaver and Mr. William Forsyth ushered.

The bride's gown was of blush slipper satin, with a pleated Bertha collar, fitted bodice and wide peplum. The full skirt extended into a train, and the fingertip-length veil was held by a Queen Anne headdress. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white gladioli.

A reception was held at Edgehill, Morrisburg. The couple then left for Toronto and points West, the bride wearing a golden beige suit of wool crepe with navy blue accessories, and a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Nephew will live in Finch.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Foley and Miss Mary Foley of Picton, Ont.; Miss Eleanor MacDougall of Ottawa; Mrs. H. McMonagle and Mr. and Mrs. K. A. MacKinnon of Cornwall.

Church News

MOREWOOD UNITED CHURCH

The services at Morewood United Church were conducted on Sunday by the minister, Rev. W. J. Copsey. The Scripture lesson in the morning was the 73rd Psalm. the text the 28th verse. "It is a good thing for me to draw near to God. I have put my trust in the Lord God. that I may declare all His works." In drawing near to God one is delivered from self-centredness. one gets away from oneself, gets nearer in understanding to others and comes to know God better. The windows of the soul are opend toward the heavenlies for the reception of any gifts of grace which perfect communion between the soul and God. The anthem was, "Jesus is a friend of Mine."

The theme of the evening service was the Parable of the tares. Matt. 13: 24-25. "The Kingdom of Heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept an enemy came and sowed tares and went away." The seed stands for people living in the field of the world. There are tares and there are wheat. The wheat the children of the Kingdom; the tares the children of the wicked one. Every good thought, impulse and deed comes from God; every evil though word or action comes from the evil one. While tares can never become wheat, sinners may be converted. Be careful in rooting up the tares—those who may have failed—that is work for God and not for man. There is judgment for the evil and reward for the good. Miss Ellice Smith presided at the organ.

HANDS AT WORK... for ONTARIO

ONTARIO'S products are desired and purchased by people all over the world and the capacity to produce such goods largely determines the economic welfare of every man, woman and child within her borders. Because the sale of every article produced in Ontario brings valuable dollars into this Province, we all are more assured of job security . . . and we and our children can have more of the better things in life. To produce such goods in sufficient quantities, skilled labour is vital. That is why every single one of us should be glad that war veterans are constantly being trained to provide the skilled hands so needed by Ontario industry. They receive ON THE JOB training under expert instructors in our Ontario factories.

This training, provided through the co-operation of the Department of Veterans' Affairs, the Federal Department of Labour and the Ontario Department of Education, starts veterans on the road to skilled craftsmanship. Taught to use their hands in such jobs as routing, etching, stripping, burnishing and finishing, they will eventually become photo engraving craftsmen. Because of the increasing importance of this trade, every effort of these newly-skilled workers helps to make Ontario a finer place in which to live and contributes to the welfare and happiness of all her citizens.

GARDEN CHATS:

By Lillian Allison

Hello Neighbours: Some folks keep asking me all the time, "Why don't you make your column rhyme? We like to read that stuff," they say. "Why don't you do it every day?" Well, here's an answer I could give them. My brain won't always work in rhythm. But if you promise to do as I ask, rhyming this won't be such a task.

Now I am sure you very well know about the Annual Flower Show. I told you once it was coming soon and so it is—Thursday afternoon. The nineteenth of August is the date and I'll bet you can hardly wait. It's in the Community Hall, it's true. The doors will open at half past two. The Institute, as you shall see, will serve a dainty cup of tea, all kinds of sandwiches, cookies and cakes. You can eat until your tummy aches. We hope you'll come to see the flowers. You can even stay for a couple of hours and see your friends, the good old dears, the ones you haven't seen for years. So make it a holiday and come and bring the kids and the little one. "The more the merrier," they always say so let us make it a happy day.

But here's the problem and you'll agree it's a difficult one for the Show Committee. For unless you bring your flowers, you know, there just can't be a Flower Show. So, on your shoulders really rests the job of making the Show a success. We know that we can count on you, so here's the thing for you to do.

Go to the sideboard and get your glasses and find the Prize List with all it's classes. It's in this Record, you will see. I think, perhaps, it's on page two or three. Read it over and study it hard, then think of the flowers you have in your yard. You may not have Class 26, but I'll bet my buttons that you can fix a table centre, the very size, to win that coveted First Prize.

Now don't get foolish and think your flowers aren't as pretty as some of our's. I'm sure they're better—or just as fine for there aren't any blossoms on some of mine. So just get busy and read each rule—the way you used to do in school and take a tip—just one—from me. If the Class says two flowers, don't bring three. Except in an ornamental case, you needn't worry about the vase. You can put your blooms in a sealer small or in a catsup bottle tall.

Pick your flowers with the setting sun and when you have that carefully done, place them in some water, they say, and leave them there until Thursday. In the morning arrange them all and bring them to the Community Hall. Twelve o'clock is the dead-line so you must have them there on time.

Mr. Gammon's our judge once more. He'll judge them wisely as before.

And say, I'd like to mention here the vegetable class we have this year. Bring all the vegetables you can grow and fix them so they'll make a show. There's a nice prize that you could use—one you can't afford to loose.

Now I guess that's all I have to say, so don't forget the place and day. Surely we need never fear that you will let us down this year. We need your flowers—yes more and more—to make this Show better than before.

Phone me morning, noon or night. I'll try to answer your questions right. The world is full of nice surprises. You might get all the big First Prizes.

See you Thursday.

CLAIRE WALLACE RETURNS TO AIR

Globe-trotting Claire Wallace has "hit the road" again—she's paid a visit to Bermuda to gather material for her 1948-49 broadcast season of They Tell Me. There she investigated all the out-of-the-way places most tourists miss, sought out picturesque local "characters" to interview, and kept her eyes peeled for unusual Bermudan handicraft and other products she felt Canadians would like to hear her describe.

Claire has all kinds of lively stories to relate about the colorful people and places she saw and the amusing things she did on her holidays, which listeners can hear beginning Monday, August 16th, when she returns to the air for another season of Monday-to-Friday broadcasts at 1.45 p.m. on the Trans-Canada network.

For her first broadcast Claire Wallace has lined up an interview with Mrs. Irving Berlin, wife of the popular American song-writer, whom she met on her visit to Bermuda.

Claire has still more plans for summer travel. Later on this month she'll be off again, headed for the West Coast, where she'll attend a number of interesting events and describe them in her program. On August 20th listeners will hear all about Vancouver's beautiful gladiolus show. And in the broadccasts for August 25th and 27th she'll tell what she saw and heard at the Pacific Northwest Exhibition, one of Vancouver's most colorful and intriguing events.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN

Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! "The sky is the limit" when our folks talk about a picnic. (And I often wish it were literally so when a tribe of ants attack the lunch and me!) But a picnic is no picnic if you try to serve a three course meal in the park. Plain fare such as hearty sandwiches and saladburgers with whole fruit and cookies is a convenient handout. This type of informal outdoor meal creates a carefree attitude for the day.

TAKE A TIP

1. Provide man-sized sandwiches of chopped or minced ingredients. Salmon, egg, cucumber, ground meat, relish spread, creamed cheese or various combinations of these are suggestions.
2. Small raw tomatoes, hardcooked eggs, trimmed radishes and cucumber wedges go well with plain buttered bread and a tiny package of salt and pepper.
3. For a special lawn picnic cold cooked chicken and tossed green salad with soft rolls will please your guests.
4. It is easy to take along chilled fruit juice in one thermos and either cold milk or flavoured tea in another.
5. Those who use the park tables require a paper cloth, paper plates, serviettes, paper cups and spoons.
6. Leave the park area as you would like to see it on your return.

MR. & MRS. HUBERT SHAY HONOURED BY FRIENDS

On the evening of August 3rd, a happy crowd numbering almost two hundred gathered at Chesterville Community Hall to show honor and bring greetings to a popular young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Shay.

Dancing was enjoyed to the music of Elma Serenaders for a few hours, then the young couple was brought forward, when a nicely worded address was read and a very substantial purse was presented to them.

Hubert in a few words, expressed their thanks and dancing was resumed. Deep gratitude is expressed to Messrs. Wm. Barber, Dwayne Munroe, Leonard Shane, Lyall Munro and Donald Shane for their efforts in bringing the happy crowd together.
