Flames threaten 125-year-old hotel

An automatic sprinkler system has been credited with preventing injury and extensive damage following an early morning fire in a second floor bedroom of the Chesterville Hotel, last Saturday.

Owner and manager Alphonse Lauzon said the blaze broke out around 6.30 a.m. in the bedcovers in the second storey room. The heat triggered the sprinkler system which was installed last July and the flames were quickly doused. The cause was believed to be a carelessly placed cigarette.

The room was occupied by two Ottawa men, employed by Nixon Construction Co. of Ottawa who are working in the area. One man was still sleeping in one of the room's two single beds, when the blaze erupted. While Mr Lauzon said he was pretty well soaked when the sprinklers went off, he could have been seriously injured or killed.

A sprinkler alarm awoke Mr Lauzon's son, Pierre, who aroused the rest of the family. Mr Lauzon called Chesterville Fire Department but fortunately the fire was out when they arrived a few minutes later.

Damage was confined to only one of the hotel's 26 rooms. The owner said the mattress, bedcovers, headboard and wall of the room were damaged by flames with some smoke and water damage.

Mr Lauzon who has owned the 125-year-old wood frame hotel for the past eight years, said it was the first time it has been threatened by fire in recent times. He said without the sprinkler system the building might have been destroyed and perhaps some lives lost.

A memorial tribute to the late Frank Shaver was paid by the citizens of Ingleside Village and Osnabruck Township last Monday night at a dinner held in the Presbyterian Church Hall. F.M. Cass, Q.C., was guest speaker. Above, at left, Mr Cass chats with Mrs Frank Shaver. Also joining in the conversation were Rev. Wallace MacKinnon, master of ceremonies for the evening and Clarence Meyers, president of Ingleside Citizens' Association. — Staff Photo.

Late F. T. Shaver honored
Unveil plaque at memorial

INGLESIDE — A plaque in memory of the late Frank Shaver, one of Osnabruck Township's best known statesman and community leaders was unveiled here last Monday night at a memorial dinner held in the Presbyterian Church Hall.

More than 200 guests were on hand in the dining room as Rev. Wallace MacKinnon recalled the life of one-time Stormont Member of Parliament, from the early years as a school teacher at Bush Glen to the days of the Jarvis and Shaver General Store at Aultsville, to his five years on Parliament Hill in the 1930's, and finally his tireless community work which ended with his death in 1969.

Frank Thomas Shaver was born February 10, 1881, at Osnabruck Centre, the son of Simeon T. Shaver and the former Bertha Wiggins. Educated at Morrisburg Collegiate Institute, he taught school for a number of years at Bush Glen before becoming clerk in the I. R. Ault and Son General Store at Aultsville.

In 1922 he went into partnership with Doug Jarvis, being co-owner of the Jarvis & Shaver General Store. In 1930 he was elected to the House of Commons serving until 1935. He continued to operate the store until the Seaway went through and then moved to Ingleside.

When the Presbyterian Church was built in Ingleside Frank Shaver, assisted by h[is] wife, became the first superintendent of the Sunday School.

He was a member of the Canadian Bible Society, the Red Cross, the Morrisburg Canadian Club, serving as president in 1943, the IOOF and Masons.

"Because he was a man of the community and church," Mr MacKinnon said, "the Kirk Sessions asked the Ingleside Citizens' Association to assist in arranging this program tonight!"

He was a Conservative and Presbyterian. He has been remembered in the history books of our country . . . his name is great in the book of life," said Mr MacKinnon.

Following the Reverend's remarks, the head table gathered in the foyer of the church where Mrs Shaver unveiled the plaque. Mr MacK[innon] said a short prayer fo[llowed] by a hymn sung by the [Church] Choir and the benedict[ion] by Rev. M. D. Murcheson.

Osnabruck Township [Reeve] Edwin Waldroff expressed greetings to the audience and council. He said while his affiliations with Mr Shaver were few, he had always admired and respected the gentleman.

Guests speaker of the evening was Fred M. Cass, former member of the provincial government and Speaker of the Provincial Legislature.

Mr Cass, who knew Mr Shaver well in both political Masonry circles, likened him to a "diamond" found in his own back yard. He said in these troubled times when breakdowns in social standards, communities need leaders to speak and act for the silent majority . . . like Frank Shaver. He said Mr Shaver represented happiness and usefulness in his community until [his death].

Bits and Pieces

A trying session — better days ahead

Tuesday we had a devil of a time getting the baby to bed, it cried and cried all night. This is the first week that we've been "offset" and believe us, we're not understating the situation when we say we've had some problems. And while working in the wee hours of Wednesday morning, trying to pull this paper together we consoled ourselves with the thoughts that someday the snags will be gone, if they only die from old age. Bear with us . . . there may be a few things not just right but only practice makes perfect.

Quailfies for 'President's Club'

James Moran has again qualified for membership in the 1973 President's Club of the Great-West Life Assurance Company. The President's Club is composed of leading representatives of the company who, in 1972, distinguished themselves through the maintainance of high standards in the conduct of their business. This is the fifth time Mr Moran has qualified for the club. It is the highest award offered by the company.

Cpl. Nottell makes short stop-over

Corp. John Nottell of Germany is back in Canada for a short time while working on a special mission. It's not any of that top secret stuff and thre are no spies involved; his bowling team in Germany won a tournament and they've come to Canada to compete on the alleys in Vancouver. Corp. Nottell notified his father, Harold Nottell, of the Nation Valley area, that he was back in the homeland again, while on a stop-over in Trenton.

OFA Office to serve Eastern Ontario

An Ontario Federation of Agriculture office serving the five counties of Eastern Ontario will soon be opened, it was announced this week. Representatives from Prescott, Russell, Dundas, Stormont and Glengarry Counties met with membership co-ordinator Gerry Carey recently to discuss the matter and the idea was approved by the Toronto office. The representatives asked for a bi-lingual fieldman and his office will probably be located in the Moose Creek area.

Tuesday 3 p.m. closing hour

You could probably say that the recent change in our printing process has both good and bad points and one thing it has done is forced us to make some regulations. Starting this coming week all advertisements, classified and display, must be in our hands no later than 3 p.m. Tuesday. We regret there can be no exceptions made. Our pages have to be made up earlier in order for us to meet our scheduled press-run time early Wednesday morning.

Municipal Drain clean-up planned
Winchester Twp. approves by-law

Improvements on at least five municipal drains in Winchester Township will get underway this summer following the approval of engineer's reports at a recent meeting of council.

Provisional by-laws were passed by councillors calling for work on the Fawcett, the Dagenais, the Short, the Clement and the Curran Drains. Landowners affected by these improvements will have an opportunity to appeal their assesment when the Court of Revision meets March 1. It is estimated that the average cost per drain will be $20,000. Reports on the Cinnamon and Moriarty drains will be considered February 19.

In other council business, a petition was received from ratepayers interested in obtaining sewage service. Clerk Glenn MacGregor said two property owners, just at the west side of Winchester, had asked that council approach the Ontario Water Resources Commission about extending sewage services from the village out into the township.

About a dozen property owners would be affected and council will meet with them to obtain a consensus before any action is taken.

Council has proposed to sepnd $135,600 on road work this year and although funds are short of this objective, an application will be made to the Ministry of Transportation for a supplementary subsidy allocation to enable the council to meet its road needs. Study.

The study shows that the $135,600 should be spent to keep the township on its schedule of improvements and construction. This is approximately $3,000 more than last year and represents an increase of one half mill to taxpayers. ouncil will be requesting an extra $13,000 to go along with the already $71,400 allocation.

There won't be any construction traffic on Gypsy Lane this summer during the erection of the new Highway 31 overpass at Winchester. The gravel road which runs west along the railway tracks at Winchester would be destroyed by heavy construction machinery and the Ministry of Transportation and Communication suggested that it be closed to such equipment. In approving the motion council noted that it would remain open to local traffic.

Needed — a 'check rein' for our galloping economy

While Prime Minister Trudeau is offering a solution to the problem of soaring food costs in next Monday's budget release it would appear there is really only one answer to curb inflation . . . wage and price controls.

It's a hard line to take and that's perhaps why the government is saving it only as a last resort. The controls generate both good and bad points and its obvious there will be lengthy debate before any definite decision is made.

At one point in economic strategy a simple equation was used to control unemployment and inflation — more employment, more inflation; less employment, less inflation.

But today this no longer adds up the same way, two and two no longer make four.

Where the blame lies in creating the rocketing cost of living is no easy matter to determine. No one party is directly responsible, it's a cumulative effort.

If the government raises taxes to pay for increasing social costs, business people and industries have to increase the cost of their goods to maintain profit levels. goods cost the retailer more he has to increase the selling . Then the laborer comes al- s to have more income he amount of goods up. It's a vicious keeps rotating.

type of xious an. e y in-wisdom matter to hich is com- patible to the majority. But being in the 20th century we would suggest that they join us — if only for a day — to see that the era of federal commissions died along with the pony express.

The famous Royal Commissions and other study groups take so long to investigate a matter that by the time a report is made the initial problem has been overcome and a new breed has been developed.

An investigation has recently been launched into the sharp hike in food prices in January. Probably by the time we have any definite conclusions, everyone will be concerned about the rising costs of socks, or fingernail polish, or some other totally unrelated matter.

Prices and conditions increase and change so rapidly that we even heard of a newspaper publisher who was three weeks late in putting new price lists in his paper supply catalogue, and by the time he had them in another new set had been issued.

Wage and price controls appear to be the only answer. The U. S. tried it and it seemed to work. The people who really suffer from inflation are those on fixed incomes, they have no avenue open to increase their earnings along with the cost of living. Laborers can simply srike or negotiate for more pay and manufacturers can simply increase the costs of goods.

Controls would prevent any further hardship to the fixed incomes but it would cramp the free enterprize style of the rest of society.

What Mr. Trudeau has up his 'budget sleeve' is not yet known, but effective action will have to be taken shortly, before the demand for wheelbarrows, needed to lug money to the grocery store, prices them right out of the market.

Ann Landers . . .

Dear Ann Landers: I would like to borrow your pulpit today, Ann, since I consider you a preacher. If just a dozen of your millions of readers listen - and half of them take the advice - I will feel amply rewarded. Here's my sermon:

If you cannot refrain from drinking, start a saloon in your own home. Purchase a generous supply of your favourite whiskey or wine. Be the only paying customer and you will not need to buy a license. A gallon of good whiskey or wine will cost about $24. There are 128 shots in a gallon. Buy all your drinks from your wife at 80c a shot. In four days, when the gallon is gone, your wife will have made a profit of $78 to put in the bank and $24 to buy another gallon.

If you live another ten years and buy all your booze from your wife and then die with snakes in your boots and pink elephants on the ceiling, she will have about $71,000 on deposit. This is enough for her to give you a respectable funeral, send the kids to college and marry a decent man and forget she ever knew you. — Canadian Fan

Dear Fan: Thanks for the sermon. Your arithmetic is right but your logic is faulty. While many boozers will drink alone, a large number go to bars for the companionship they do not find at home. If your husband belongs to the second category, you can help by supplying him with what he looks for elsewhere.

Dear Ann Landers: You've mentioned "funny uncles" and other male relatives, especially stepfathers, who molest young children. In my book, you are very courageous for doing this. But you failed to instruct mothers on how to warn their children against these sick people.

There's a "funny uncle" in our family, but my husband is afraid if I warn our two young daughters (6 and 9 years old) they might tell him and I'd be in real trouble. How about some further guidance, Ann? — Mid-Stream

Dear Mid: All young children, boys as well as girls, should be told early (four years of age is not too soon) that they must not accept candy, money or rides with strangers and that they must never allow anyone, a stranger or a member of the family, to touch the private parts of their bodies. Children should be instructed to tell the parents at once if anyone suggests 'games' of this nature.

I agree with your husband that your daughters should not be warned against any particular member of the family, but they should receive explicit briefing so they will be alert to ALL funny uncles, whoever they may be.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I have been married for five years and we get along fine, but I'm frozen with fear that he will walk out on me.

The problem is my parents. Every few weeks we get a call from the road - they are on the way. We have a guest room, so of course they stay with us. My husband has a full-time job and is also working on his Ph.D. He resents the intrusions and I don't blame him.

Don't suggest that we tell my parents straight away that they give us notice. We did it two years ago and they refused to speak to us for 11 months. Quo Vadis? — Sitting Ducks

Dear Ducks: My advice costs money but it will be worth it. The next time your parents call from the road tell them you were just leaving and to please give you some notice next time. Then pack an overnight bag and spend the night in a nearby motel. If you do this two or three times you won't be such sitting ducks.

Is alcoholism ruining your life? Know the danger signals and what to do. Read the booklet "Alcoholism - Hope And Help," by Ann Landers. Enclose 35c in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to this newspaper.

Mainly About People

Reporting From Toronto . . .

Donald R. Irvine, MPP Grenville-Dundas

Last week I had something to say about the rationale behind the regional government programme. Today I'd like to apply the philosophy to show how regional government works to benefit the greatest number.

Let's take municipal financing -we all know we have to pay for every service that is introduced in our municipality. Payment for these services is based on our proportionate share of property tax. In addition the provincial government makes transfer payments or grants to the municipalities for a host of various purposes from maintenance of roads to school costs. These grants range up to 75 percent of total costs in some cases, for example public transit. What happens when a municipality decides to embark on the construction of a significant capital project such as a school, a water system or new civic building? Large capital projects which cannot be paid for from a single year's tax revenue have to be financed through municipal borrowing usually in the form of debentures which are offered for investment to the general public. Is strictly a business prospectus? Is his selection on the basis of a municipality's ability to maintain interest payments and ultimately to repay the loan. The principal measure of this financial stability is the assessment base. Other factors being equal, the broader this tax base, the lower the risk and the more attractive the investment. This results in a lower interest rate. The smaller the tax base, the more difficult it is to place the debentures with investors and a higher interest rate is required to make them appealing. In some cases the tax base may be so small as to make financing by this method impossible. In such cases the people generally will have to do without the services that they need and that their neighbours may take for granted. The introduction of regional government has resulted in lower financing costs to the taxpayers.

To give you some idea of how important this can be, the average cost of debt service in Ontario municipalities in 1972 was 13.1 percent of the annual budget. Quite obviously if we can lower the cost of interest we can save a significant amount of tax money. This is only one way in which we can benefit from local government reform.

Parents invited to co-operate in intermediate curriculum review

During 1972 the Ministry of Education, Ontario, has been reviewing the Curriculum in the Primary and Junior Divisions, grades 1-6. Over 7,000 briefs have been submitted to the Ministry by schools and parents' groups from across the province. These reports have provided valuable input to the Committee responsible for the revision of the Primary and Junior Division Guidelines.

Over 100 briefs were submitted to the Ministry of Education from schools and interested community groups in the Ottawa Valley area regarding the curriculum in the Primary and Junior Divisions. Ministry of Education officials made presentations about the curriculum guidelines to over 2,000 teachers and parents at 75 different meetings.

The Ministry of Education will be reviewing the Curriculum in the Intermediate Division during 1973, grades 7-10. The views, reactions and recommendations of teachers and parents regarding the Intermediate student and the type of curriculum he should experience will again be encouraged. This phase of the curriculum review is considered vitally important as it gives the Ministry as complete and representative a sampling of provincial opinion as possible.

Cyclic review of curriculum in Ontario is a process designed to ensure that the Curriculum Guidelines are re-examined and revised to meet current and future needs. The Ministry of Education Curriculum Guidelines form the legal basis for the programs in the public and separate schools of Ontario. The local school is then free to develop a curriculum to meet the needs of its students within these curriculum parameters.

The school has as its chief purpose the development of young people for living and learning in a dynamic, changing world. Never before has knowledge and the value systems that support the aims of our schools been challenged so strongly or changed so rapidly. At the centre of the school program is the curriculum. The best preparation for an uncertain tomorrow is a curriculum which helps the learner to live and learn fully today.

Teachers, parents, and interested community groups may make their views known regarding the Intermediate Curriculum Review by writing the local Regional Office. A position paper and questionnaire re the Review are available upon request from the Regional Office. Address all inquiries to Mr K. D. Johnson, Chairman, Intermediate Curriculum Review, Region 10, Ministry of Education, Ottawa Ontario, K2C 0R2.

FARM NEWS

CHEAPER PROTEIN SOURCE

Everyone is well aware of the agricultural meetings which have been advertised for February. The subject that will be discussed at these meetings are major areas of concern. This week, in Brinston, the subject will be 'Silage Additives and Protein Supplements.'

New products have come on the market lately which may be of interest to you. They may be able to provide you with a protein source far cheaper than what you are using now. Protein is the most expensive supplement to buy. This year the price is very high due to the lack of supply, plus livestock and humans are in competition for the same protein.

So, the question is what alternative do you, the livestock producer, have to find out? You should attend this meeting! If you don't know what meeting I am talking about and your neighbour doesn't know either, contact the Agricultural Office before the 15th or else you'll be too late.

The products that will be discussed are Urea, Pro-Sil, Propionic Acid, Chemstor, and Urea-Sil. These are all commercial products on the market today which are available to you as a protein supplement or silage preservative.

All Ontario scholars to be awarded $100 by Ont. Government

Education Minister Thomas Wells announced last week that the Ontario Government will this year award $100 to all Ontario Scholars.

In re-instituting the monetary award for Ontario Scholarship winners, Mr Wells said that the Government had originally intended to divert these funds into programs which would provide more financial aid for the general student awards program.

Speaking to the Ontario Secondary School Headmasters Council, he said it had become evident that the full significance of the financial part of the Ontario Scholarship awards had been underestimated both as a recognition of achievement and excellence, and as an incentive to our young people.

"The Ontario scholarships will retain the significance which they have always had for our high school students, and assist them in launching their post-secondary studies."

Ontario Scholarships are awarded to those secondary school students who attain their Honour Graduation diploma with an average of 80 per cent or better.

Missionary Society plans rally for Moose Creek in May

CORNWALL — Mrs Frank Stewart presided at the annual meeting of the Glengarry Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, which was held in St. Johns' Church, Cornwall, recently.

The morning worship service was conducted by Dunvegan Auxiliary and the afternoon worship was under the direction of Kirkhill-St. Columbans group.

It was noted that the 99th Annual Spring Rally will be held in Moose Creek in May and that the Quebec and Eastern Ontario Synodical meeting will be in Upper Melbourne, Quebec, April 10 and 11. The annual council meeting will be held in Toronto the week of May 23th.

Delegates appointed to attend the Synodical in May are Mrs D. H. Gilmour, Mrs Clark Cain, Mrs E. L. Blair, Mrs J. A. MacGowan and Miss Olive Ferguson; also to attend are Mrs Frank Stewart and Mrs Harold Shaver.

Reports given by the officers and departmental secretaries were encouraging and showed continued interest in all phases of the WMS work. Treasurer Mrs Bernie Grant reported a substantial sum sent to the Synodical Treasurer.

Mrs M. H. Shaver was named delegate to attend the Biennial Evening Department Conference in Montreal May 4, 5, and 6, with Mrs John Fourney as alternate.

Mrs M. H. Shaver read letters of thanks received from the young men who had received gifts from the Bursary fund.

A buffet luncheon was served by the WMS women of St. Johns Church at noon. An excellent film was shown during the afternoon session entitled "What's Nice? Rice!" This was one of the resource materials available for use with the study packet on India. An interesting discussion period followed.

The nominating committee presented the slate of officers for 1973. They were installed by Miss Margaret Boyd of Ottawa, educational research person for the Synodical. The officers are: Mrs Malcolm MacLeod, Mrs W. M. Boyd, Mrs G. S. Lloyd and Mrs Bertha Ferguson, honourary presidents; Mrs Boyd, past president; Mrs Frank Stewart, president; Miss Olive Ferguson, first vice president; Mrs Alpin MacGregor, seond vice president; Mrs Stuart Blackadder, Corresponding secretary; Mrs Harold Shaver, recording secretary; Mrs Bernie Grant, treasurer; Mrs John Fourney, adult secretary; Mrs J. A. MacGowan, girls and children's groups; Mrs Archie MacRae, associate members; Mrs George Rupert friendship and service; Mrs Ian Kennedy, and Mrs Wm. Johnston, literature and library; Mrs MacGregor, glad tidings; Mrs Donald Cummings press; Mrs George Adams, supply; Mrs Neil Bush, life membership; Mrs David Ross, historian; and Mrs W. L. Morewood U.C.W. holds Feb. meeting

MOREWOOD — On Wednesday evening, February 7th, the regular meeting of the Morewood UCW was held in the church hall with the president, Mrs M. Thompson, in charge. The meeting opened with all members repeating the Purpose, after which Mrs M. Dillabough led in devotions. Two hymns were sung and scripture was read from Luke II; verses 9-13. The meditation was taken by Mrs M. Smirle, whose theme centred on the Week of Prayer. This was usually held the first week in January but at present seems to be almost discontinued. What is the reason and how many people pray today. The bible tells us how to pray, for prayer is vital. The question was left with us, "What is the prayer life of our church and of each individual?"

The Lord's Prayer closed devotions.

Members were reminded that subscriptions to the Observer must be given to Mrs M. Dillabough before March 16. A letter of thanks was read from Mrs Hector Carruthers Sr.

Mrs Thompson introduced the new magazine 'Combo', which replaces the Clip Sheet and which offers more help to our organization.

A report of the Presbyterial Executive meeting held in Chesterville, was given by Mrs H. Crump. This meeting opened with the reading of the poem 'The Perfect Church', found in the Combo magazine and was read to the members by Mrs Thompson. Mrs Crump announced that the annual Presbyterial meeting is to be held in Long SCault on May 9. An address was given to which old Christmas cards could be sent. An important conference is to be held in Kemptville on May 1 and 2 at which all were urged to attend.

It was announced that the World Day of Prayer would be held in the Morewood United Church beginning at 3 p.m.

Items of business were discussed after which Mrs A. Coulthart introduced the new study book on India. The purpose of this book is to give out more information about the country and the work of our missionaries there. India covers one-sixth of the world's land surface and has a hot climate and a heavy rainfall. There are 25 Canadians working in India, serving a population of 550 million, of whom two percent are Christians. Of the fifteen languages used there, seventy-five dialects are spoken and 70 percent of the people are illiterate. The average yearly income in India is $76.00. Malaria, T.B., and malnutrition take the lives of many in India and there is an average of one doctor per five thousand people. Attention was called to an article on India, published in Chatelaine magazine which is well worth reading.

The Mizpah benediction closed the meeting and a social half hour was enjoyed under Mrs Gerald Carruthers' committee.

Guindon announces $5,100 study of Nation River dam at Crysler

The Honourable Leo Bernier Minister of Natural Resources, and the Honourable Fernand Guidon, MPP for Stormont, announce the aproval of a provincial grant of $5,175.00 to the South Nation River Conservation Authority for a preliminary engineering study of the Crysler Mill Dam.

The Crysler dam is located on the South Nation River in the Village of Crysler in the Township of Finch, County of Stormont. Water impounded by the dam has maintained the water level in the river and wells upstream of the dam provided a water supply for fire protection for the Village of Crysler and a pond for boating, fishing and other recreational activities.

The Authority wishes to undertake a preliminary engineering study to determine remedial measures necessary to ensure the maintainance of present benefits.

All member municipalities have been designated as benefiting, but the Township of Finch, as the main benefiting municipality, will bear the major portion of the Authority's share of the cost.

in the second the Springs defeated Chesterville by the same score.

Friday night a large crowd was on hand for the various scheduled events. In the 10-year and under costume contest, the youngest skater was Sandra Barkley, 5, daughter Mr and Mrs Carl Barkley. The most original costume was worn by Debbie Dillabough, 6, daughter of Mr and Mrs Ray Dillabough.

Dunbar Atoms proved victoriuos later that evening when they defeated Chesterville Atoms 5-1.

In skating races the winners were: 6-10 years - Girls, Carol Droppo and Chris Barkley. 10-12 years - Girls', Patricia Martel and Shelly Shaver. Boys, Curtis McMillan and Gary Beckstead. 10-13 years, Girls', Rita Luimes and Sharye Martel. Boys', David Phifer and Jerry Whitteveen. 14 - 16 years, Girls', Chris Witteveen and Charlene Beckstead. Boys' Lyle Servage and Harry Witteveen.

Log Sawing was the next event with Isabel Harper and Cassie Dillabough first with 74 second and Marlene Droppo and Erma House second with 80 seconds for the ladies. In the men's division, Francis Beckstead and Louis Moriarty were first with 35 seconds and Loran Brooks and nie Kelly second with 45 seconds and Loren Brooks and Ray Dillabough third, with 70 seconds.

John Witteveen was named the oldest participant in the Costume Skating Contest and Faye Symonds had the funniest costume. Most Original costume award went to Jerry Witteveen and the best couple were Bryan Elliott and Sharon Shaver.

UNLICENSED DRIVERS CHECKED

In spite of the seriousness of the offense, a substantial proportion of drivers whose permits have been suspended, continue to drive. Normally, police do not check to ensure that a no-driving order has been obeyed, and offenders get away with it unless and until they are checked for some other reason.

In Bedfordshire, England, there is a special police squad established to survey and apprehend those who drive after their licenses are suspended. The nOtario Safety League says that squad members are given information as to the residence, place of work, habits and vehicles of individual drivers under suspension.

An automatic transmission should always be placed in Neutral or Park when taking on or discharging passengers. If it is left in the Drive position, says the Ontario Safety League, the driver may reach for a door latch, or move his position, and his foot could slip from brake to accelerator. Many tragedies have resulted from inadvertent gunning of automatic transmission cars.

The possibilities of accidents multiply when your attention is divided says the Ontario Safety League.

He said the people of Ingleside had rebuilt their community showing great foresight and courage.

Every community has to have a man like Frank Shaver, he remarked. A person of greatness to work for the community. He said greatness was accomplishing great things with little means. Mr Cass philosophized that it was "Better to be nobly remembered than nobly born", and Frank Shaver is nobly remembered.

The guest speaker was introduced by Glenn Dafoe and thanked by Ernie Gillard.

Following the address, guest soloist was William Vipond.

The Grace for dinner was said by Rev. Harold Giffin and I.C.A. president Clarence Meyers told the audience what an honour it was for the I.C.A. to be able to play such an important role in the commemoration of this community leader.

Problems with Municipal Drains probed by Ministy of Agriculture

Have you ever had problems with municipal drains? Like being frustrated with the procedures to follow in getting one established. Perhaps you have wondered why it takes so long to get action. And maybe the ones that were dug a few years ago haven't been kept clean enough to let water flow. Maybe you don't understand how costs are divided among those who benefit, or who decides these things anyway.
If these are or have been a problem for you in the past, you should plan to attend one of the three drainage meetings scheduled for Eastern Ontario later this month. The dates, times and places of these meetings are as follows:
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20 — at the Winchester Community Centre at 1 p.m. for the counties of Grenville and Dundas.
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21 — at Newington United Church Hall commencing at 1.30 p.m. for Glengarry and Stormont.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22 — at the South Plantagenet Township Hall, Fournier, at 1.30 p.m. for Prescott and Russell.
Now it isn't likely that there will be an answer that will correct all mistakes of the past. But farmers, township councils, contractors, engineers and any interested parties are invited to attend. There will be some knowledgeable people there to present information to you and to answer the questions that you want to ask.
It has been a rough year in Eastern Ontario and the record rainfall of 1972 brought home very dramatically the need for greater emphasis on drainage. Requests for the drainage surveys in the six counties are at an all time high.
Ralph Clayton, Agricultural Engineer from Ridgetown, long associated with the extensive municipal drainage programs in Kent and Essex Counties, will be one of the speakers. Doug Wiseman, MPP for Lanark County and a member of the Ontario Select Committee on Drainage is also expected to take part. Local Agricultural Engineers - Bob Kelly, Kemptville; Glen Slater, Alexandria; and Colin Lovegrove, Rockland - will also be assisting. The meetings are sponsored by the local offices of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food. Everyone is welcome.

Connell - Moran

Baskets of pink roses and white pom-poms formed a setting at St. Mary's Church on Saturday, January 13 for the double ring ceremony that united in marriage Sheila Anne Moran, daughter of Mr and Mrs Francis Moran of Morewood, and Mr Lundy Miller Connell, son of Mr and Mrs Merton Lake of Ottawa. Reverend Father Nugent officiated at the three p.m. ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a two piece ensemble for her wedding day. The long white crepe gown styled on empire lines, highlighted by a pale blue ribbon, featured rows of white applique down the front with pale blue trim and touches of seed pearls. Over this, a sleeveless coat with applique-trimmed hood completed the outfit. She carried a cascade of pink roses and white pom-poms.

The Matron of Honour was her sister, Mrs Ted Burgess, while her cousin, Mrs Loran Summers, attended as bridesmaid. They wore identical floor length gowns of shocking pink velvet on empire lines and carried nosegays of pink carnations and white pom-poms with white streamers. In their hair they wore seed pearl combs to complement the bride's outfit.

Mr Dave Wallace, friend of the groom, acted as best man. Mr Bob Williamson and Mr Bill Moran, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length gown of midnight blue chiffon styled on empire lines. A sleeveless coat of brocaded material in emerald green was worn over the gown. A corsage of miniature pink roses was worn.

The groom's mother wore a floor length sleeveless gown of pale pink crepe with a matching long sleeved jacket. Her accessories were gold and she also wore roses as a corsage.

Following the wedding a dinner and reception were held in the Legion Hall. Guests were from Montreal, St. Catherines, Russell, Ottawa Chesterville, Morewood and Crysler.

For her departure, the bride chose a cream silk jersey dress with a rust suede coat toned in with her matching shoes and purse. She wore a corsage of bronze roses.

The young couple will reside in Montreal where they are both employees of the Toronto Dominion Bank.

KITCHEN CORNER

DOUGHNUTS — A TREAT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

The secret of good doughnuts is in the dough and how you fry them. The dough should be as soft as can be handled. Chilling a soft dough makes it easier to handle. Fry in deep hot fat at 375° F. If fat is too hot, only the outside of the doughnuts will cook; if too cool, they will become fat-soaked. Don't cook too many at one time or fat will cool. Turn doughnuts only once during frying. When ready they will rise to the top. It takes 1 to 2 minutes on each side.

Doughnuts

3 eggs
1 cup sugar
2 tbsp. shortening
3 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. nutmeg
3½ cups sifted flour
1 cup milk
½ tsp. lemon extract

Beat eggs until very light add sugar and beat, then add melted shortening. Sift together dry ingredients and stir into first mixture alternately with milk. Add flavouring. Chill. Roll out to ¾" thick on lightly floured board. A soft dough makes light, tender doughnuts. Fry in deep fat and drain on unglazed paper. Makes 2 dozen.

Yeast Filled Doughnuts

1 pkg. dry yeast
¼ cup lukewarm water
1 cup scalded milk
1 tsp. salt
¾ cup sugar
2 tbsp. shortening
3½-4 cups flour
1 egg
½ tsp. nutmeg

Soften yeast in water. Add milk to salt, sugar and shortening. When lukewarm, add yeast. Add 1½ cups flour. Allow to stand in warm place until it is so light it will fall at the slightest touch. Add egg, nutmeg and remainder of flour, knead. Cover and let rise. Knead lightly and roll to ¾" thick. Cut as for ordinary doughnuts without making the hole in the centre, let rise. Fry in deep fat approximately 2-3 minutes. When frying put raised side of doughnut down in the fat. Drain and allow to cool.

Cut a hole in the doughnut from the side. Fill with whipped cream and raspberry pie filling. Sprinkle with icing sugar.

Potato Doughnuts

2¾ cups all-purpose flour
4 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
2 tbsp. shortening
1 cup sugar
1 cup mashed potatoes
1 egg
¾ cup milk
Oil for frying

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cream shortening, beat in half the sugar and mix with mashed potatoes. Beat eggs until light, gradually beat in remaining sugar and combine with potato mixture. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk Chill. Roll dough to thickness of ¼-inch. Cut with doughnut cutter. Fry in heated fat until golden, drain and cool. Leave plain or sprinkle with icing sugar.

North Stor. Branch Canadian Cancer Society reports successful year

BERWICK — Reports indicating a successful year were heard here last Monday night at the annual meeting of the North Stormont Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society held in the Finch Township Hall.

Mrs Clair Robertson, chairman, welcomed the members from Crysler, Berwick, Finch, Dixon, Avonmore, and Newington. Mrs Lois Montgomery was recording secretary.

Mrs Jean Benoit, in charge of Service to Patients, requested donations from the members for the Gift Cupboard. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs Clem Rushford while Mrs Murray Doyle in charge of Commemoration, noted that contributions from In Memoriam cards totalled $618.95. Campaign Chairman, Mrs Glendon Casselman, reported that $2,460.69 had been collected in the 1972 canvass. She extended thanks to team captains and canvassers and to all who donated so generously to a worthy cause. An excellent review of the Toronto Conference was also given. It was noted that the 1973 theme will be "Hope Through Research."

G. J. Dobbe, Chesterville, chairman of the Dundas Unit, announced that a forum will be held in Dundas in the near future and told of the new Lodge for treatment of cancer patients which will be opened in Ottawa, March 9.

Plans for an 'Educational Fun Fest to be held in Berwick and area during March were discussed. The Berwick Public School, Womens Institute and Cancer Society will jointly be sponsoring this program.

Winchester hits Junior B basement

Winchester has fallen into the basement of the North Division of the St. Lawrence Junior B Hockey League following three defeats in play this past weekend. Embrun has moved up into third place in that division while Spencerville holds onto its last place corner in the Southern Division.

In action last Friday night, Embrun downed Alexandria 9 - 2, Metcalfe blanked Winchester 5 - 0, Prescott dropped Spencerville 6 - 2 and Morrisburg defated Cardinal 6 - 4.

Plans for '73 discussed by Avonmore Ladies' Aid

The February meeting of Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, was held in the Sunday School Room on Tuesday night. Mrs Neil Bush, president, assisted by the secretary Mrs James Tinkess, presided for the meeting. Mrs Orland Kyle, Convenor, gave the devotions.

Minutes were read and the roll call answered by 19 members. Forty-one sick calls were reported.

A motion was made that the secretary order Scripture cards, booklets and 'Praying Hands' pencils to be sent to shut-ins and sick. Under new business, several activities for the year were discussed. A tea, sale and demonstration and display of rugs will be held in May. A booking for a fashion show in September was arranged and a bazaar at a later date.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison and a lunch was served. A social hour was enjoyed by everyone.

To The Blind

O can there be a heavier burden
Than this the blind man bears
A blind mans lot is heavy enough
Without a poor man's cares
His path is hard to travel
Tho' his feet are on the ground
Where there is no light to guide him
And it is darkness all around
Gently lead his weary footsteps
As he journeys on his way
In thy kind and loving mercy
Would thou change his night to day
Soon his eyes shall close forever
And on earth he is no more
Heaven's light may gently guide him
Over on the other shore.
Where the angels wait to greet him
In that home so far away
Where there is no light or darkness
In that land of endless day.

Cancer Society plans 'Fun Fest'

BERWICK — April is Cancer month but the North Stormont Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society will be getting a head start on the annual promotion of care and research information this year with an Educational Fun Fest running from March 4-12.

Mrs Glendon Casselman, Campaign Chairman, explained that three organizations from this community will be sponsoring the events with proceeds directed to their individual projects.

The North Stormont Branch the Berwick Women's Institute and Berwick Public School children will stage a Tupperware Party, Pancake Feed, a skating party, a euchre and contests with guest speakers, film strips and literature during the week, in an attempt to increase public awareness of this dreaded disease. The Fun Fest will be based around the Cancer Campaign theme, "Hope Through Research."

The activities will get underway March 4 with a Tupperware Party in the Finch Township Community Centre. Orders are now being taken by all students at Berwick Public School or by Women's Institute members.

Then, on March 7 there will be a skating party at the public school followed by a Pancake feed in the Community Centre. There will be films shown at the school and awards made to students creating the best promotional poster, poem or jingle, etc.

The festivities will end on March 12 with a Euchre in the Township Community Centre. A draw will also be made on a cookware raffle.

While the WI and Public School will use returns from Fun Fest for their own worthwhile projects, the North Stormont Branch of the Society will use their's to kick-off the annual fund raising drive in April.

Mrs Casselman said during all activities Cancer education and the work done by the Cancer Society will be stressed. It is the first time a promotion of this type has been organized and a good community attendance is expected at all functions.

Clay soils made up of fine particles hold more moisture than sands which are made up of larger grains.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear uncle, Clarke McElheran, who passed away Feb. 18, 1972.
He had a nature you could not help loving
And a heart that was purer than gold
And to those who knew him and loved him
His memory will never grow cold.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of our dear mother, Catherine Merkley, who departed this life February 12, 1970.
What would we give if we could say
Hello Mother, in the same old way
To hear your voice, to see you smile
Then to sit with you and chat a while.
To be together in the same old way,
Would be our greatest wish today.
So Father in heaven, hear our prayers,
Watch over her with tender care.
Be a good Shepherd, don't leave her alone,
Love her as we did when she was at home.
Deeply missed and remembered by her children in Ottawa and Chesterville

He always takes the best.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Burnice Ouderkirk, who passed away February 5, 1972.
