Father Francis Foley Suffers Stroke In Critical Condition

Struck by a cerebral hemorrhage as he sang the High Mass in St. Martin of Tours Church, Glen Robertson, on Sunday, March 16, Rev Francis Foley, 43, lies critically ill in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall.

Minutes before he took ill, Father Foley had delivered a sermon on St. Patrick and there was no evidence that he was ailing until the Communion had been reached. Then he was seen to be troubled, and members of the congregation who had intended receiving Communion forbore approaching the railing.

Father Foley managed to get through to the final Gospel when Gerard Roy induced him to leave the altar. He lapsed into unconsciousness soon after being assisted into the vestry, and was rushed by ambulance to hospital where little hope is held for his recovery. Dr Robert Morel, of Alexandria, was called to attend him.

Rev Bernard Guindon, P.P., had said the Low Mass and was in his house when summoned to attend the stricken priest. Father Foley is on the teaching staff of Cornwall Classical College, and went to Glen Robertson on the weekends to assist Father Pion.

A native of the Finch area, Father Foley has served as curate or parish priest in many parishes of the diocese since his ordination in 1944.—Glengarry News.

Teachers Hold Meeting At Winchester

A joint meeting of Winchester and Mountain Township teachers was held on Thursday afternoon, March 20, at Winchester Public School. Mr Hutchison, Inspector of Public Schools, was chairman for the meeting.

Mrs Rae Helmer introduced the guest speaker, Miss Dorothy Dunn, of Ottawa Teachers' College. She spoke on "Social Studies Through the Grades."

The speaker pointed out that in the primary division personal attitudes were developed through home and school experiences, while in the junior division wider social attitudes become evident in the study of other lands. In the senior division, however, they revert back to personal development through the study of historical heroes.

The meeting was held with the approval of the boards, for which the teachers expressed their gratitude.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs Addie Purves, of Felton, was the recipient of many good wishes on Thursday, March 20, her 90th birthday. Friends, neighbours and relatives gathered at her home to extend congratulations.

Highlight of the day was the singing of "Happy Birthday" when candles, forming the figures "90," were lit. The Record joins her friends in their wish that she have many more birthdays to come.

GOOD FRIDAY HOLIDAY

A week from tomorrow will be the first of the season's holidays. Good Friday, April 4, will find the business places of the village closed all day. There will be no change in the regular hours of opening and closing. It would be well to bear in mind next week there will not be any evening when the stores will be open.

Easter Monday is not a regular holiday for the community with the exception of the Bank of Nova Scotia. That business will be closed on Monday, April 7, but will be open for half a day Saturday morning, April 5.

Record Editor On TV Again

The editor of the Record, Keith Graham, is slated to appear on CBOT television station again this coming Federal election. He, along with Dick Atkey, editor of the Arnprior Chronicle, and a city newspaperman are to help fill in the gaps between the national coverage periods on the night of March 31.

The weekly editors serve as commentators on the large rural ridings in the immediate Ottawa area and hope this year to be able to speed up the reporting of some of the local returns. Contacts are being made with key figures and returning officers in the ridings to allow better coverage locally than is provided by some of the wire services to CBOT.

The local commentators will appear on the screen at half-hour intervals starting about 7.30 p.m. the night of the election.

St. Patrick's Program Featured at Meeting Morewood W.I.

An interesting St. Patrick's program was presented at the Morewood W.I. meeting held recently in Presbyterian Hall. Mrs R. C. Dillabough and Mrs Walter Carlyle were social conveners.

Roll call was answered with ideas for home beautification. A short paper in the motto "A Good Neighbour is the Best Insurance Policy" was very interesting.

In the absence of the president, Mrs Ellis Thompson presided and conducted a quiz on the Handbook. As the next meeting is the annual, a full attendance was requested.

Mrs Halford Crump, convener of Agrictulture and Canadian Industries, gave a very fine paper on "Working With Flowers in Your Garden."

Mrs Millen Smirl and Mrs Donald Runions are the new leaders for the Girls' 4-H Summer Club and will attend the training school at Winchester.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs Millen Smirl, Mrs Donald Runions, Mrs Kenneth Hillis. Mrs Calvin Wagner will be hostess for the next meeting.

Close to 40 percent of immigrants entering Canada during 1957 were in the manufacturing, mechanical and contruction trades.

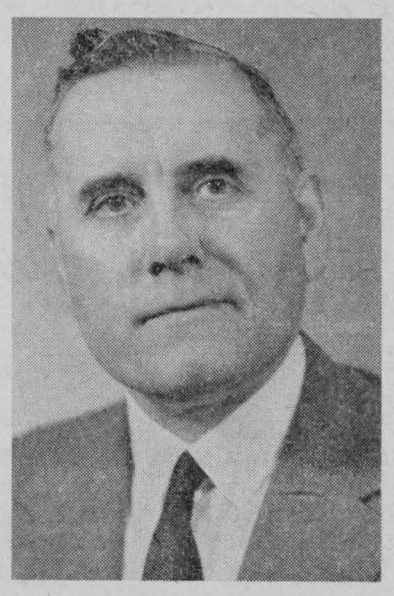

Hot Box

One day, not so long ago, Walter Burd, Goldfield, was idly watching a freight train rumble east past his farm. The train was long and had a dead-head engine linked in among the freight cars. As the dead engine slid by, Burd saw trouble in the form of smoke and flame in one of the bearings of an axle. He rushed to the phone, called Finch station and told them of the approaching trouble. The train was stopped, the cranky engine unhooked and later repaired.

Mr Burd received a note of thanks from A. W. Harris, C.P.R. superintendent at Smiths Falls, commending him for his quick thinking and prompt action.

Polls Changed a Bit For March 31 Election

This year for the first time, Chesterville will be divided into three geographic divisions for setting up election polls. Rather than having a division of one large poll at the letters L and M on the lists, it has been decedid to divide the poll for those living north and south of the river on the west side of Main.

Poll No. 9A, in the clerk's office, will be for those living west of Main and north of the river; the deputy returning officer is Bert Gillard, with Wm. Fetterly as poll clerk. Poll No. 9B, west of Main and south of the river, held in the theatre, will be headed by DRO Gordon Lannin, poll clerk, P. G. Hewitt. Poll No. 10, east of Main, north and south, will be in the library. DRO is Jack Doering, poll clerk, Weston Lee.

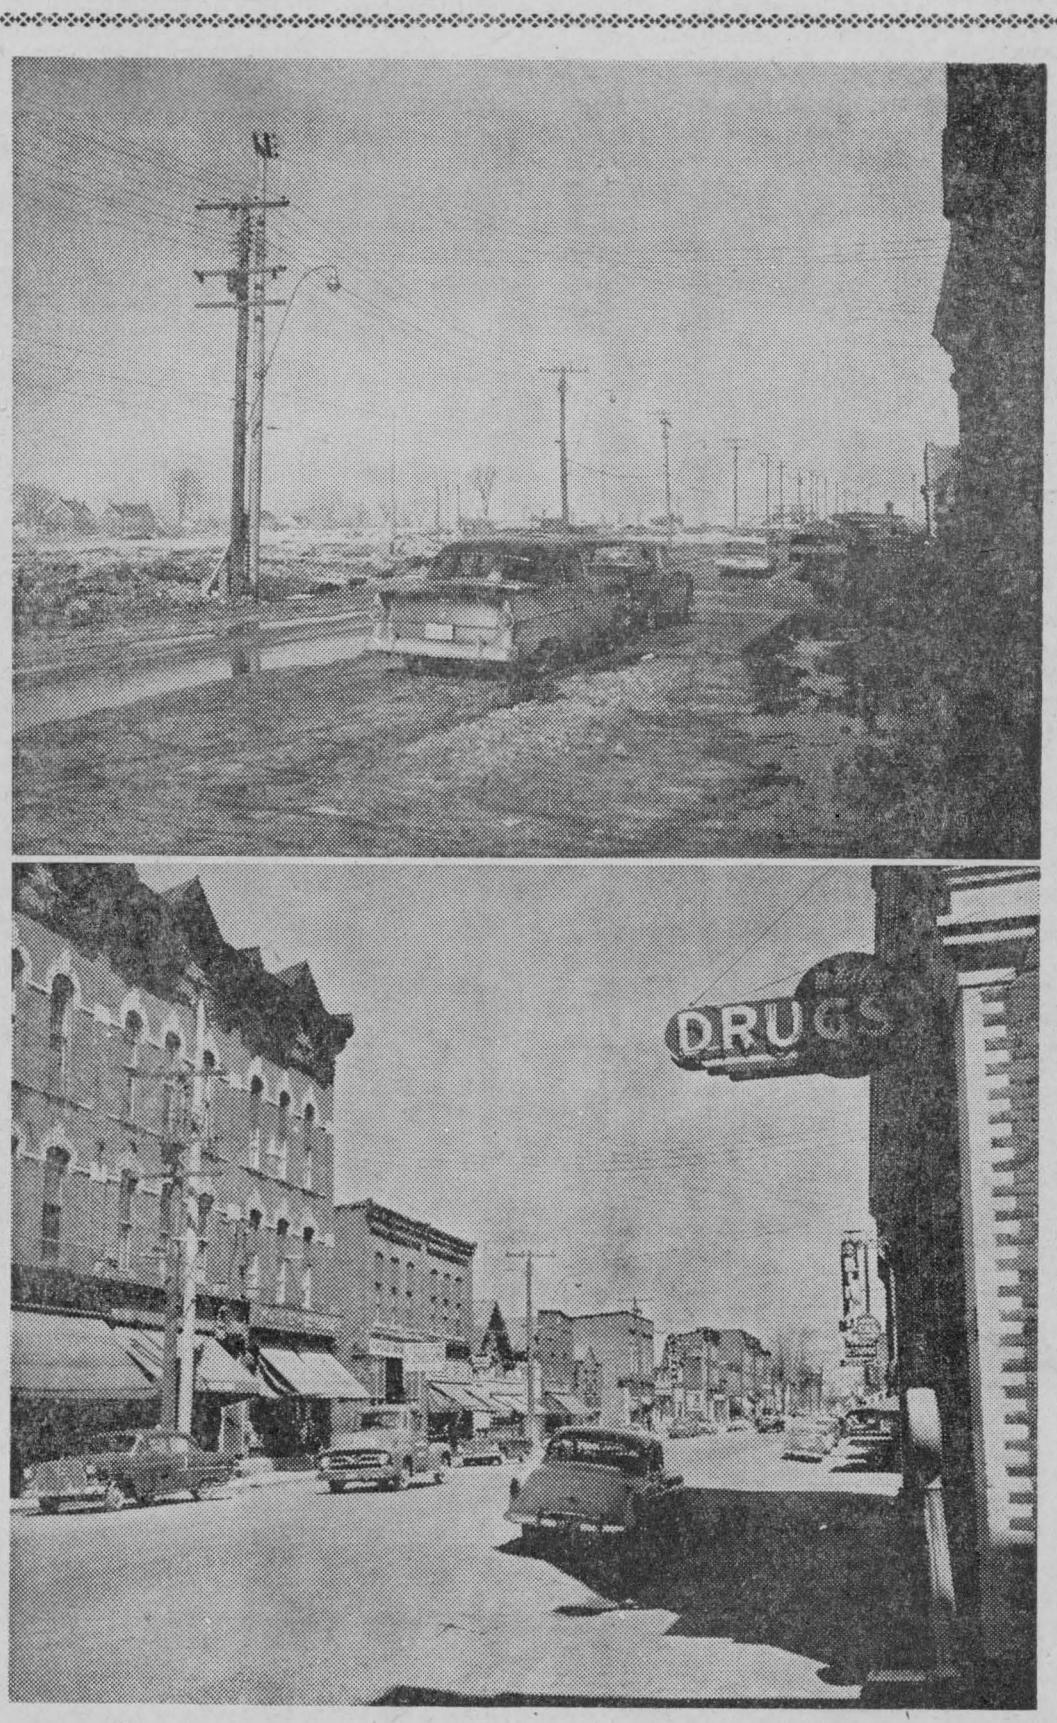

ICE OUT MONDAY

The river ice rotted itself loose in the village pool and slipped away down river over a week behind schedule this Monday. There is practically no flood, with water today, Thursday, about a foot below the dam wall tops at the Casselman farm corner.

Ice from upriver has been coming down in spurts and rushes but because of the low water and slow thaw, danger of heavy flooding is fortunately over. There is still considerable snow on the fields but with the ditches open the melted snow is rapidly carried away.

There has been practically no rain this Spring to wash things up in a hurry.

More than 30,000 new jobs were created in the construction industry in Canada in 1957.

MORRISBURG MAIN STREET, 1958—As demolition work progresses, the Main Street of Morrisburg presents a gaunt appearance, as can be readily seen in the top photo. The entire business blocks along the north side have been completely removed and work is in progress dismantling the buildings on the south side of the street. Virtually every business block has been removed and merchants are now established in the modern new shopping centre in the north-east sector of the town. In contrast, the bottom photo shows Main Street as it appeared last year. —Ontario Hydro Photos.

Hockey Star John Durant To Try Out With Hamilton Cubs

John Durant has received notice he is to try out next Fall with Hamilton Cubs hockey team in Hamilton for a two-week period. The Hamilton club is a farm team of Detroit Red Wings.

John has been the high scorer the past couple of years with local teams. He is the son of Mr and Mrs Haldane Durant, Chesterville.

NEW BOOKS AT LIBRARY

The following new books have been added to the library this week:

Boys' and girls' books: Six Anytime Series, 12 Easy to Read Series, "The Mystery of the Secret Room," by Enid Blyton. In the adult non-fiction department has been added "Cry for Happy" by George Campbell and "Tomorrow to Live" by William Herber. Fiction additions are "The Long Skeleton," Francis Lockridge, ',A Stir of Echoes," Richard Matheson, and "Murder on My Street" by Edwin Lanham.

OPERATION A SUCCESS

Just 30 days after a delicate five hour operation was performed to repair a hole in her heart, seven-year-old Betty Darlene Hunt was playing with some week-old lambs on the farm of her grandfather, Elmer Hunt, of Calgary. Betty will return April 1 to northern Manitoba with her father, Edgar Hunt, "The Flying Preacher."

Edgar Hunt was the cause of much concern last December when papers carried the report of his disappearance during a blizzard. He was lost in the bush for four days. Betty is a niece of Mrs Orville Bailey, of Chesterville.

Presbyterian Groups Make Plans For Thankoffering

The March meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs Lorne Marcellus. The meeting opened with a poem, "God Needs Us," by the president, Mrs George Crawford, followed by Hymn 419.

Scripture was read by Mrs Douglas Fry, after which Mrs Harold Loughridge led in the Glad Tidings prayer.

A reading was given by Mrs Lorne Marcellus entitled "The Nightingale of the Psalms." Hymn 19 was sung, followed by a Bible study paper, "The History of Joseph," by Mrs Milton Shay.

Minutes were read and approved and roll call was answered by 14 members reading a verse of Scripture containing the word "Faith."

The business period followed. Plans were made for the Easter Thankoffering to be held in the church on April 17 at 8 p.m.

The meeting closed with Hymn 677, followed with prayer by the president.

The program and lunch committee, consisting of Mrs Lorne Marcellus, Mrs Stuart Allan and Mrs Robert Barrie, served delicious refreshments, and were thanked by Mrs Douglas Fry, seconded by Mrs Wallace Carruthers.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my many friends, and my good neighbours of Albert Street for their many acts of kindness, their visits, flowers, treats and cards while I was a patient in hospital. I give special thanks to Dr H. Justus, Dr Duane Justus and the nurses on the staff of Winchester District Memorial Hospital for the wonderful care I received.

OPINIONS . . .
OURS AND OTHERS

Will You Vote?

It seems rather strange to be approaching the matter of voting in a Federal election twice in less than three years; especially strange when less than one year has elapsed. But here it is again the week before the fateful day and we must arrange to exhort the public to get out and vote.

Does it ever seem that about the only people who want to see the voters exercise their franchise are the newspapers or the Charlotte Whittons? Every time there is an election for any office, from dog catcher to prime minister, it seems to be the bounden duty of the papers to sound the call. Or in an occasional riding there is a vast quantity of superheated air in circulation that inflames folks in spite of their slothful intentions.

The right to vote is a delicious nugget just made for any righteous editor to wax and wane over. He can point with pride, make with metaphors, swell with indignation or preen with satisfaction; he can exhort, praise, chastise or, just plain bellow and because it is all for the noble "right to vote" it will be looked on and read with a certain amount of agreement from most quarters.

The riding of Grenville-Dundas might just as well have a nominating committee of the whole, call the whole thing a foregone conclusion and not bother the voters on March 31. Of course it would sweeten the deal a bit if a special by-law could be slipped through that would amend the business of forfeit of the deposit—it would be much more gentlemanly to allow each candidate keep his deposit to pay for the heavy election expenses of the winning candidate and the equally heavy debts of the losers.

We offer the usual thoughts about getting out to vote but in this riding that is about as thrilling as shooting fish in a barrel. The Progressive Conservative candidate has had some 37 years of experience on the Ottawa scene. While occasionally he was unable to see the bush for Forresters, at least his actions never raised so much argument that his seat was threatened. There seems to be little doubt he will be returned with the usual comfortable majority for what will probably be the last session for the redoubtable colonel.

The Grit ranks were wide open for new blood willing to enter the lists; when the convention was called the word was out that now was the time to head up the hill if ambition was in the blood. As usual nothing happened; those called ducked and that left the old familiar faces to go through the motions again rather than leave the field clear to the Conservative candidate; the Social Credit candidate was expected to be present but not in much strength. School teacher Arthur C. Casselman of Cardinal took on the job once more and Liberal voters will see the familiar pattern woven again on March 31.

Last election the riding voted just over 50% strong. It is not apt to do any better this time if political activity is any criterion. There has not been a single public meeting called by either Conservative or Liberal candidate; there has been a minimum of advertising done on either side in any medium; there has been no call for support from MLA members either in the riding or outside at public gatherings other than nomination or convention times.

These matters are some of the reasons it is difficult to "cry havoc" from the editorial page and urge voters to get out and vote here in the old riding of Grenville-Dundas. Bluntly and plainly, the whole affair is merely a pause in the political life and it is not even too refreshing. But lest you lose the habit, vote on Monday anyway; at least the walk in the spring air will be healthful.

Some Action Needed

Chesterville has some vacant office space available and now is a good time to try renting it. We refer to the hall formerly occupied by Community Theatre, out of operation now for quite some time.

The theatre room has become vacant, a victim to the one-eyed monsters we all have in our livingrooms. The story is the same all across the countryside and small theatres have closed their doors in droves. There is practically no chance of the theatre being used again for picture showings.

It would be well if a campaign was undertaken by council to have that valuable space rented out to some reputable concern, especially when it is in such an ideal location. There is little chance the space will be taken if nothing is done except hopeful talk.

All around us we see expansion in government departments such as the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Lands and Forests and other groups that have to do with rural living. Surely it would be a matter of policy to see that our MLA and MP are presented with an outline of the advantages of the available space in Community Hall and their good offices solicited on the town's behalf.

We are poor property owners if we do not make our available space produce revenue.

NON-PAYING GUEST

A sign on the night depository chute of a branch of the Lincoln Bank and Trust Company, Louisville, Ky., read: "Out of order; leave deposit with porter."

Three after-hours depositors followed the instructions.

Now the FBI are looking for the porter and $1,100.

The chute wasn't out of order. Charles E. Weeks, special agent of the FBI gave this account:

The porter, Oliver Thomas Guest, 31, put up the sign while he was waxing floors at the bank.

Three persons gave him deposits. He left two at the bank and departed with one amounting to $1,100.

The FBI list Guest as a fugitive and have a warrant charging him with violation of the Federal Reserve Bank Act.

NO SALE

Home owners on a street in a subdivision of Alhambra, California, have asked for correction of a typographical error.

They told the city commission that the roadway past their homes was supposed to be called Viscount Street. But when maps were recorded and street signs went up it came out Discount Street.

Danger

A woman motorist was driving along a country road when she noticed repair men climbing a telephone pole.

"Whatever are they doing that for?" she asked her husband. "Surely my driving isn't that bad!"

FRENDLEE FARM CHATS

By Lillian Allison

If you live on a farm in one of the Three United Counties you've probably received a big letter recently containing some gaily coloured pages of typewriting. Perhaps you simply threw it in the waste basket. Well you shouldn't have. That letter explained how you could win a trophy, some cash and probably other prizes as well.

As the International Plowing Match is being held in Crysler this year, it was decided that it would be a good thing if farmers in Eastern Ontario would put forth some extra effort and dress up their farmsteads for the occasion. Thousands of strangers will be visiting our area this fall and we ought to spruce up the farms the way women shine up their houses when they're expecting company. To encourage people to work a little harder at making their farm homes more attractive, the Farmstead Improvement Competition was instigated last fall. County and township committees were set up and the planning commenced.

Now I know you haven't got time to enter some silly contest. You've got far more to do now than any three people should attempt. But take a look around your place—a critical look. It doesn't look too attractive, now does it? From where I'm sitting now I can see a lot of things to improve at our place. So let's enter the contest and make a game of it.

There was a pink page in that letter that was the entry form. If you've lost your's call your Federation president or a member of your township committee. They'll be glad to send you another one. Then fill in the blanks by April 1st and send it to the committee or the Agricultural Representative.

Very soon a judge will visit your farm and look things over. Probably he'll take pictures. Then sometime about the end of August he will return and see how much improvement you have made. You see the prize doesn't go to the person who has the most beautiful farm in the county but to the one who has made the most improvement.

You can get a maximum of 30 points merely for cleaning up. That includes removing weeds, brush, wood piles, stone piles, old fences, fallen-down buildings, machinery and junk that litters many, many farms.

You can score 20 points more for painting the buildings, the fence posts, the pump, etc. There are 20 points given for repairing lanes, fences, doors, roofs, foundations and the like. Fifteen points are possible for planting trees, shrubs, flowers, for good lawns and hedge. Then another 15 points are given for general improvement in the appearance of the place. How much better it looks as the judge drives up the lane.

Now the amount of money you spend isn't important. You could score 80 points and never apply one drop of paint, for instance. The farmer who wins this competition will be the one who has made the greatest change in the appearance of his house, barns, sheds and the ground that surrounds them.

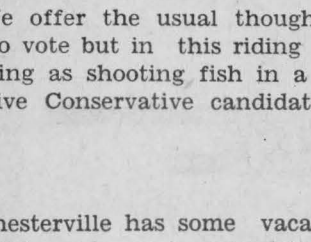

There will be a trophy gi[ven] in each county but I cannot tell you how much money and other prizes will be distributed in your township. However, if you didn't get a cent out of it you would be well paid for your efforts in satisfaction. It is a wonderful feeling to live in a place you are proud of. There is great reward in knowing that you yourself transformed your farm home from a down-at-the-heel, crumby-looking collection of buildings into a place folks will notice and applaud as they drive along the road.

So let's get into this competition and make the farmsteads of the United Counties so attractive that next fall when folks return to the United States, the Maritimes, the Prairies and so on they will say, "Eastern [On]tario is certainly an attractive, prosperous-looking part of the country."

P.S.: And there is no reason why improving your farm should increase your taxes. So don't worry about that.

Overdrawn

Neighbour to small dirty boy: "I've heard of the soil bank, but aren't you overdrawn?"

TORONTO REPORTS

By
F. M. Cass, Q.C., M.L.A.

With the seventh week of the 1958 Session the business of the Legislature began to show signs of prorogation in time for all Members to be home for the Federal election on March 31. Fewer bills were introduced, many were given third reading, and most passed the Standing Committee and Committee of the whole House stages and were ready for third reading. Standing Committees met incessantly in the mornings—as many as five in one morning, to consider and process proposed new legislation. Fewer delegations appeared before committees and visited private members, and generally the business of the Session was being carefully tailored to the time remaining so that none would be abridged or slighted.

Departmental estimates for Highways, Travel and Publicity, Health and Lands and Forests were considered and passed. The Highways Departmental estimates indicated a general increase—in Provincial road work, in normal municipal road subsidies and in development road grants. In Grenville-Dundas a considerable amount of work on Highway 401 is planned with some 11 miles east of No. 16 Highway at Johnstown to Iroquois to be graded; likewise Highway No. 43 from Winchester to Chesterville is to be graded and a proper base laid; Highway No. 2, as re-located, is scheduled to be completed from Iroquois east to Aultsville. And it is hoped that the roads, both county and township, in the riding will receive their fair allocation of development road capital grants.

Two private bills received much consideration and publicity during the week. The one, which would authorize the town council of Eastview to issue debentures to cover some half million dollars expended by the town fathers for capital and other expenditures, was approved after some bitter denunciations by C.C.F. Leader MacDonald. The other, being a bill for certain amendments to the Metropolitan Toronto Act, provided much talk and publicity in the big city dailies, but providing no new principles, concerned the rural Members very little.

During the Session there have been many more visitors in the public galleries than in past years and many parties of new Canadians have attended evening Sessions to see Canadian democratic government in action. In addition many large parties of school children have been given guided tours of the Parliament Buildings and have sat in the galleries for part of a Session. It is heartening to see our new citizens of today, and our citizens of tomorrow, taking such interest in the processes of government.

For every worker in Canada there is a harnessed hydro-electric capacity of three horse power.

Many things make good telephone service possible, but none is more vital than good telephone people.

Jean Mailer is a typical example. As a skilled telephone operator, courteous and efficient, Jean symbolizes the thousands of people who help to make telephoning more enjoyable for countless Canadians in communities large and small.

Whenever you require assistance, friendly telephone people like Jean Mailer are there to help you—at any hour of the day or night.

This assurance, that there is a capable alert operator always as near as your telephone, is one of the many little things that make your telephone service such a truly good value.

BANG THE DOOR?

The doorstop in Mrs Blanche Thompson's home, Middletown, Ohio, has taken the usual amount of raps and bangs in the last 38 years of use—but never the big one.

Mrs Thompson said the other day she found that the doorstop, a First World War German artillery shell given her husband by a brother, contained the equivalent of five pounds of TNT.

The National Guard found the shell very much alive—and at last it gave off with the big bang when they destroyed it.

Since 1946 Canadian consumption of crude oil has tripled.

EVERYBODY EATS-- TRY THESE!

HOT CROSS BUNS FOR EASTER

HOT CROSS BUNS are as much a part of the Easter menu as turkey and cranberry sauce at Christmas time. Here are several reliable recipes for rolls for you to try this Easter season.

Cinnamon Hot Cross Buns

1¾ cups white flour
2 cups graham flour
1 pkg. granular yeast
½ cup warm water
1 tsp. sugar
¾ cup scalded milk
¼ cup sugar
1½ tsps. salt
1 egg
1½ tsps. fat
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 cup currants

Pour scalded milk over ¼ cup sugar, salt and fat. When luke warm add yeast which has been allowed to stand ten minutes in ½ cup warm water to which 1 tsp. sugar has been added. Add one cup white flour. Beat with rotary beater, add egg and graham flour mixed with cinnamon. Beat five to ten minutes. Remove beaters. Add currants and white flour to make a soft dough. Knead well. Set in a warm place until double in bulk. Knead enough to remove air bubbles and shape into rolls. Let rise until light and just before baking cut a cross in the top of each roll with a sharp knife. Bake in a 350 degree oven for 15 minutes. Glaze with two tablespoons milk to which 1 tablespoon of sugar has been added. When cool fill crosses with plain vanilla frosting.

Ice Box Rolls

These are the easiest of all to make.

1 cup boiling water
½ cup sugar
1 tsp. salt
2 tbsps. shortening

Mix above ingredients in a large mixing bowl and let stand till luke warm. At the same time soften 2 yeast cakes or two pkgs. of granular yeast in half cup luke warm water and 1 tsp. sugar. When dissolved and foamy add to the first mixture. Both mixtures should be luke warm. Add two beaten eggs and stir in 4 cups flour thoroughly. Add 4 more cups flour, stirring thoroughly. Do not knead. Cover and put in a cold place overnight. In the morning shape rolls and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in 350 degree oven.

Butterscotch Rolls

Use one half the mixture for ice box rolls. Roll on a lightly floured board to form an oblong ¼-inch thick. Brush with melted butter and sprinkle with brown sugar and 1 tsp. cinnamon. Roll as for a jelly roll. Cut in one-inch slices. Combine 1 cup brown sugar, 2 tbsps. corn syrup and 1 tbsp. butter. Heat slowly in greased pan. Place rolls cut side down over mixture. Cover and let rise till double in bulk. Bake in 350 degree oven 25 minutes. Remove from pan at once before butterscotch sauce hardens and cool, bottom side up.

TESTIMONIAL

The first grader who sent in his letter to the Washington Post's "favourite teacher" essay contest readily admitted liking Miss Davis.

In fact, he scrawled:

"I wish she was smart enough to teach second grade too next year."

Osnabruck Centre W.A. Hears Talk On Pakistan

The March meeting of Osnabruck Centre W.I. was held at the home of Mrs John Grandaw on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs Delbert Flintoff, first vice president, conducted the meeting, assisted by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs Lloyd Gallinger.

All present signed a get-well card to be sent to the president, Mrs George Ferguson, who is convalescing at her home, following an operation.

Mrs Fred C. Gallinger gave a most interesting reading, prepared by Mrs C. Gallinger who, with her husband and son, live in Pakistan. She described the way of living in that country and many of the customs.

Roll call was answered by 11 members, with a custom of another country or an Irish joke. A large number of articles to make up a layette for the Unitarian Relief project were handed in, and 10 pairs of boys' pants and 10 quilts were ready for delivery to "Canadian Save the Children."

Mrs J. T. Flegg, district director, was appointed to attend the officers' conference to be held at Guelph May 8 and 9.

It was decided to dress a doll for exhibit at Newington Fair in September and plans were made for the convener to look after it.

The branch executive and nominating committee will meet at Mrs Ober Beckstead's on April 1 at 1 p.m. for drafting plans for next year's program and preparing the annual report and slate of officers.

Mrs Delbert Flintoff read an address and Mrs Lloyd Gallinger made a presentation of a gift to Mrs John Wylie who had recently moved into her new home.

Mrs S. Chersna, beauty counselor, gave a demonstration of a facial and a beauty make-up, with members acting as models. She was thanked by Mrs Flintoff.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs Lloyd Galinger and Mrs Flintoff.

The April meeting will be held in the Hall on April 16 at 2 p.m. for annual reports and election of officers. There will be an exchange of seeds, bulbs and plants.
