Winchester High School Wins New Boyd Trophy In First O.N.D.A.A. Track Meet

When he crossed the finish line his lips were blue, and he was near faint. That was young Lorne Windsor winning the Junior Mile event, and although he didn't pick up any individual championship the young runner was a good example of the Winchester High School track crew which raced and jumped its way to the Boyd Memorial Trophy and the Osgoode North Dundas Athletic Association championship Friday afternoon at South Mountain.

The meet marked the first for the newly formed Athletic Association which was formed only a month ago, and which did an excellent job in running off its first annual track meet with schools from Chesterville, Mountain, Osgoode and Winchester competing for the honours.

In a see-saw battle all day, the crew from W. H. S. gradually pulled away in the afternoon events to beat out the new Osgoode High School from Metcalfe, giving the local athletes the first championship in a track meet which will undoubtedly become an inter-school sports classic in this area. Winchester piled up a total of 175 points, followed by Osgoode with 156 points, Mountain with 102 and Chesterville 29.

Trophy Winners

Graced with a host of new trophies, the Meet featured just about all the usual track events, a couple of open pole vault events, and a cheer-leading contest which was won by a smart aggregation of six girls from Mountain District High. Decked out in neat red and white uniforms and showing a lot of precision and spirit, the girls from Mountain who won the new J. Howard Fulton trophy, which will be competed for annually, were led by Marilyn Shook, and included Joyce and Betty Graham, Carrie Bothwell, Marilyn Shaver and Joan Robinson.

In addition to winning the Track Meet championship, Winchester High School athletes also came in for several other individual awards, including: Senior Boys championship: Bob Rennick, 20 points, who beat out a fellow student, Mac Steinburg, with 18 points, to win the Lyall M. Crowder trophy; Intermediate Boys' championship: George A. Holmes, who eked out a victory over Gerald Hyndman of Mountain for the Ralph S. Allison trophy; Junior Boys' championship: Keith Hutt, with 15 points, over Lorne Windsor, 13 points, also of Winchester, to win the Allison Bros. trophy (Inkerman); Junior Girls' championship: Marion Holmes with 13 points over Carolyn Alford, 7 points, to pick up the new Harry L. Flora trophy. Other individual awards were: Intermediate Girls: Pat McLelland, of Osgoode, the H. E. Biccum trophy; Senior Girls: Deanna Chartrand, of Mountain, with 24 points, the Dr. Lynn Morrow, Metcalfe, trophy. These trophies will remain the possession of the holders, and will be awarded to the respective winners each year.

Special Awards

In the total points championship Winchester again came out on top in the Junior and Senior division for both boys and girls events. The Juniors picked up 74 points and the Robert Armstrong Memorial Trophy, which will be awarded annually in this class by Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Armstrong in memory of their son, Private Robert Armstrong, a former South Mountain High School student, who was killed in action during the Second World War. In the Senior division Winchester picked up 64 points, which was high enough to win the Edward Annable Memorial trophy, which will be presented annually by Mrs. D. Edgerton, Mrs. D. Johnston, Mrs. E. Riddell and Mr. R. Annable in memory of their brother, Lieut. Edward Annable, who paid the supreme sacrifice in the second world conflict. Ed. was a graduate of Winchester High who later returned to his alma mater to teach. The Intermediate honours for total points went to Osgoode District High with 57 points. For their win they were awarded the Carl Barrigar Memorial trophy, and like the others, it will be up for competition each year. It is donated by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barrigar, Mrs. J. Carkner and Mr. and Mrs. Ken. Barrigar in memory of their son and brother, Lieut. Carl Barrigar, who was fatally wounded in the Italian campaign of the Second World War. Carl was also a graduate of the local high school.

The Boyd Memorial Trophy, this year won for the first time by Winchester High School, is perhaps the most significant of all because it has been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Boyd in memory of their two sons, Lieut. Nairn Boyd and Trooper Kendon Boyd, who each paid the supreme sacrifice following the Normandy invasion. Ken. and Nairn were two of the greatest athletes ever to come out of Winchester High School, and for that matter two of the greatest athletes ever to compete in this part of the province. Most people will remember these two boys for their tremendous feats in leading Winchester to the famed Meikle Cup on more than one occasion, and in many other sports fields including football and hockey. The Boyd Trophy will be awarded annually to the school winning the most points at this Track Meet.

The presentation of trophies and other awards was made following the events by the donors in many cases, and by Mr. William Servage. Principal J. H. Willard, of Winchester, the president of the association, addressed the large crowd of students, explaining the significance of the awards and the meet, announcing the winners, and extending the thanks of the other competing schools to South Mountain, hosts for the day. Principal Getz of Mountain District High replied. All school principals were in attendance at the meet, and together with members of the staffs of the respective schools looked after starting, judging and co-ordinating duties. The statisticians were Mr. Connerty of Chesterville, and Mr. E. Bowman of Winchester.

A picture of all the Trophies will be published at a later date in the Press.

Kenneth Ault And Daughter Improving At Civic Hospital

Because of the seriousness of their injuries sustained in a tragic highway accident near Williamsburg on Thanksgiving week-end, Mr. Kenneth Ault and his 19-year-old daughter, Carol, were removed from the District Memorial Hospital to the Ottawa Civic Hospital, where they are presently being treated.

According to latest word from hospital authorities, both patients are showing improvement, and are responding to treatment as well as can be expected. Mr. Ault, at first reported to be suffering from a fractured pelvis and possible internal injuries, has a severe and painful separation of the pelvis. It is not fractured, but in many ways is more serious. His daughter, Carol, has a fractured ankle, the other one is badly sprained, and several broken ribs near the spine. If her condition continues to improve she is expected to be released from hospital within the next three weeks. Mr. Ault will remain in hospital for an indefinite period while he is convalescing from the serious pelvis injury.

Dusty Owens Show In Arena Saturday Night

DUSTY OWENS

This Saturday night the Winchester Rink Company brings to the Winchester Community Centre one of the top shows in the western world, "The Dusty Owens Show," starring Dusty Owens, famous Columbia recording artist and featured performer of the World's Original WWVA Jamboree of Wheeling, West Virginia.

Included in this great act will be The Rodeo Boys, Donna Darlene, Lazy Jim Day, Smoky Swan and many other great country and western artists.

Being known as a natural for his song writing ability, Dusty also shows good showmanship with his rich singing voice and ability to keep the show moving at a fast pace. His policy is to have top notch musicians and showmen. The ability to make friends with ease he sums it all up at the close of each performance when he says sincerely, "If you want to have a friend, you've got to be one yourself."

The show, according to the rink management, is one of the best ever to play in the district, and officials are looking for a big crowd when the curtain goes up at 8.30 o'clock. Doors will be open at seven to accommodate the large crowd expected.

Play It Safe!

Some of the many hazards which the public must guard against in its daily campaign for a safer existence are discussed by the CBC's safety panel on its program "Play It Safe," which is heard three days a week. Members of the panel are (left to right) Russell Buyers, former general-manager of the Ontario Safety League; Joan Fowler, well-known commentator; June Dennis, author and commentator; and Neil LeRoy, broadcaster and actor. Miss Dennis is heard every Monday with hints on health and home nursing. Mr. Buyers, one of Canada's leading traffic safety authorities, is heard with Miss Fowler and Mr. LeRoy Wednesday and Friday, discussing everything from safety measures around the home and child safety to crooked sales practises and household rackets. Reid Forcee is the producer.

Crysler Woman Fatally Injured

When the car in which she was riding left the rain-covered highway and plowed into a tree, Mrs. Pearl Inman, 27, of Crysler, was fatally injured on Tuesday morning. Mr. Inman, driver of the car, is in a Cornwall hospital with possible back injuries and facial abrasions, but his condition is not regarded as critical.

Police said Inman, who is a welding supplies salesman, was returning with his wife about 12.45 a.m. on Tuesday to their trailer home in Crysler. Apparently he lost control of the car rounding the abrupt turn on the suburban road at MacMillan's Corners and the car ran head-on into a large tree.

Mrs. Inman apparently died instantly from numerous body and head injuries. She was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. R. P. Randlett and Dr. J. M. Pollock, Avonmore coroner, who authorized removal of the body.

No decision has been reached yet concerning an inquest, pending completion of investigation by Cst. H. W. Berard, of District 11 headquarters, OPP.

Inman was taken to a Cornwall hospital by Miller's ambulance. The body of the victim, who was born in Vancouver, is resting at Miller's Funeral Home, Cornwall.

United Church Anniversary

Special services commemorating the anniversary of Winchester United Church were attended by capacity congregations Sunday morning and evening. Rev. T. N. Mitchell, local minister, was in charge of both services, and the guest preacher was the Rev. J. A. Pue-Gilchrist of Trinity United Church, Smiths Falls.

Rev. Gilchrist took as his subject at the morning service, "Gospel of the Second Chance." At the evening service he spoke on a "Debt of Honour." Special musical numbers at the two services were under the capable direction of the church organist and choir leader, Mrs. Howard Fetterly. At the morning service the choir rendered impressively three anthems, "O Worship The King," by Nichol, "Holy Art Thou," by Handel, and "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me, O Lord," by Pfueger. In the first two anthems the solo parts were taken by Mrs. Arthur Summers, while in the third anthem Mrs. F. M. Cass was the soloist, who also sang a duet part with Mr. Howard Biccum. Mrs. Cass and Mr. Biccum also united their voices with Mrs. Summers and Mr. Ronald Freeland to form a quartette which was also featured in the final anthem.

At the evening service Mrs. Arthur Summers and Miss Louise Summers sang as a duet "Love Divine," by Stainer.

The beautiful floral decorations which adorned the church auditorium were arranged by members of the Young Couples' Club.

Anniversary Supper and Program

On Monday evening the traditional Anniversary Supper was held in the Sunday School Hall and once again was largely attended. Members of the Women's Association catered to the dinner.

Following the servings an entertaining program was held in the church.

Mr. Howard Willard was the chairman of the program and the committee in charge consisted of Messrs. Willard, Charles Anderson and Lorne Isaac.

Musical selections included piano, organ, solovox and vocal. Those taking part in the program were Miss Annie Walker, Mrs. Howard Fetterly, Mr. Elgin Bowman, Miss Marjorie Black, Mr. Norman Blackler, a quartette composed of Mrs. F. M. Cass, Mrs. Arthur Summers, Messrs. Howard Biccum and Ronald Freeland; a quintette, Misses Kay Fennell, Joan Clark, Carolyn Alford, Norma Bailey and Louise Summers. Miss Summers and Miss Alford were also heard in a vocal duet.

POOR WEATHER LIMITS CROWD AT CURLING CLUB JAMBOREE

The week-end's rain and wind storm attributed to the small crowd which turned out to the Winchester Curling Club's Jamboree in the Community Centre last Friday night.

In spite of the crowd, however, President Howard Fetterly said the club stands to make a considerable sum from the advance sale of draw tickets on a calf. Lucky ticket number was 1826, and the holder is Elburn Little of Chesterville.

In addition to the draw the club had an entertaining program lined up Friday night including vocal duets by Louise Summers and Ron. Workman, Frank Morgan and Carolyn Alford, and dance numbers by Judy Coons and Bobby Sawyer. Featured performer was Connie Kippen, of Maxville, who gave several of her famous bagpipe renditions.

Besides the show, several games were in operation including Bingo, and dancing was enjoyed to the music of Russ. Hay and his orchestra.

YOUNG WOMEN ESCAPE INJURY

Two young women escaped serious injury in a freak accident on their father's farm two miles south-west of Williamsburg last Saturday morning. The girls, Betty and Marjorie Shannette, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shannette, had been out ploughing the headland of the farm and were getting ready to return to the farm house when the accident occurred, near the noon hour.

Betty Shannette was driving the tractor and in attempting to back up, the hitch between the plough and tractor either broke or became unfastened, pinning the other sister, Marjorie, who had been standing at the back of the tractor, between the two machines. Meanwhile the sudden jolt threw Betty against the steering column, causing painful chest and head injuries, knocking her into unconsciousness for well over an hour. The other sister received a severely injured foot, but X-rays at the District Memorial Hospital revealed no broken bones. Both girls suffered from shock. They were treated by Dr. H. G. Barton of Winchester, and both are convalescing at their home.

FIRE HAZARD HOUSE WAS FEATURE OF LOCAL FIREMEN'S PARADE

A colourful float carrying a brightly painted house showing off the many fire hazards that can be found around the home and place of business featured the local Fire Department's parade here last Thursday night. The parade was held in conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week, and with the local brigade's week-long program.

Headed by Fire Chief Gilbert Raistrick, the parade consisted of the colourful float, drawn by a tractor donated for the occasion by Basil Dawley, the brightly polished fire engines and other equipment from the local department, and a colourfully decorated station wagon owned by Fireman Ron. Workman. Two clowns added humour to the parade, and another feature was Charlie Utman's rainbow coloured Model A Ford.

Touring almost every street in the village, the float was equipped with the Vice and Craig public address system, and the commentator was Wally Parks of the High School staff, who told of Fire Prevention Week, urging the citizens to be fire-conscious every day. He also outlined the musts of fire prevention, and quoted several facts pertaining to the national situation to give the residents along each street some idea of the grim picture drawn by tragic fires each year.

The parade wound up at Harold Levere's Fina service station where the float was on display through the week.

Distinguished English Visitor Addresses Local 100 Club

Alderman A. T. Edmunds, twice the mayor of the historic city of Winchester, England, was the distinguished visitor and guest speaker at the October luncheon-meeting of the Winchester 100 Club last Thursday evening in the Hotel Restaurant here.

Presently spending an extended vacation with his wife in Canada and the United States, Mr. Edmunds has toured most of this country where he has been the guest of Canadian mayors and other dignitaries in the cities he has visited. A close friend of Mr. W. A. Rowat, who was unable to attend the meeting, and Mr. F. M. Cass, who introduced him to the Club, the personable Mr. Edwards spoke briefly on some of the chief historic values of the mother city of Winchester, England, outlining in more detail such famous landmarks as the Winchester Cathedral, college and hospital. In addition he also attributed the city's success to former greats like King Alfred, who was chiefly responsible for the educational system used in England down through the years.

Mr. Edmunds was especially impressed with the hospitality he and his wife had received since coming to Canada and lauded it as the grounds for a closer linking of all English-speaking countries. In return he said that he would only be too pleased to entertain any members of the club if they ever decided to vacation in England. A successful business man, he owns and operates a dry goods store in Winchester, England, with his thirty-year-old son. His daughter is married and now resides in Ottawa.

Thanked by Centurian W. J. L. Boyd, Mr. Edmunds was presented with a Stilton cheese, an appropriate gift from this particular dairying section of the province, and one which, according to Mr. Edmunds, he would thoroughly enjoy to the utmost. As a small token Mr. Edmunds also presented the club with a Rotarian bannerette direct from the Rotary Club of Winchester, England, of which he is a staunch member. He also brought greetings from her worship, Councillor Thackery, the mayor of the famous English city.

President Eldon Davidson presided at the meeting, and he was assisted by Centurian Robert Ledgerwood.

Because of the tragic circumstances which existed in the village last week in the loss of a valued citizen, the usual sing song was deleted from the program. Only committee members to report were Centurians Howard Biccum for Welfare and Ernest Bradley for the Tractor Club which the club helped sponsor this year.

Centurian Percy Roberts opened the luncheon with prayer and the Creed was recited by Dr. S. W. Dawley.

For the meeting and in honour of the special guest, the flag of Winchester, England, which was presented to this town in 1936 following a visit by Mr. John Peart, then director of education in that city, was unfurled as an indication of the bond which exists between the two Winchesters. The flag, Mr. Edmunds said, was presented when he was mayor, and coincidentally was made by members of his firm. It was paid for in part by the Trustees of the city and by Mr. Peart.

It was announced at the luncheon that the November meeting would be the annual Ladies' Night, and the committee members in charge were asked to make the necessary arrangements.

Eastern Sectional Rally of W. M. S. At Williamsburg

Using the theme "Toward God's Greater Design," the Eastern Sectional Rally, Dundas-Grenville Presbyterial of the Woman's Missionary Society was held at Williamsburg United Church on Tuesday. Mrs. Eldon Fennell of Winchester presided over the 55 delegates in attendanc, and they were welcomed by Mrs. G. H. Dunlop of Williamsburg. Members of the Williamsburg Auxiliary served dinner. Mrs. M. Dillabough of Morewood was re-appointed secretary-treasurer.

Morning devotions were conducted by the Chesterville Auxiliary with Mrs. E. Forward, Mrs. R. A. Mitchell and Mrs. T. D. Ross taking special parts. A vivid account of the school for leaders, which she had attended at Macaulay Camp in August, was given by Miss Ellice Smith.

Mrs. F. L. Shonkwiler, of Montreal, conference branch secretary of Mission Circles, addressed both the morning and afternoon sessions, telling of highlights of the Dominion Board meetings.

Mrs. Merrill, of Morrisburg, led the afternoon worship service, and the organist was Mrs. Maefred Merkley. The book review, stressing the need of missionary reading, was given by Mrs. M. D. Fetterly of Iroquois.

Mrs. R. Leizert, of Cardinal, Presbyterial president, brought a timely message on price and efficiency referring to the life and example of Nehemiah. A highlight of the afternoon session was the presentation of a skit by the Winchester Springs Auxiliary. The skit emphasized the importance of submitting accurate annual reports at the end of each year. The afternoon program featured two songs by Williamsburg Mission Band under the direction of Mrs. G. H. Dunlop.

The 1956 Rally will be held in Morewood United Church at the invitation of the Auxiliary from that village.

Service With A Smile

Winchester District Memorial Hospital in its short span of life has thus far been recognized as a place where every comfort possible is afforded the patient. During recent emergencies many favourable comments have been mentioned concerning the courtesy, efficiency and kindness of the entire staff.

This is indeed gratifying to a small hospital which today has such a large area to serve, and is still maintaining an excellent plus rating in the eyes of patients and their loved ones. The efforts of the staff have been greatly appreciated by many people, and it is a source of satisfaction to note that the District Memorial Hospital's reputation of giving "Service with a smile" is being maintained from day to day in spite of busier times and other characteristics of a small hospital which sometimes prove detrimental to an efficient working system.

The Good Citizen

The following qualifications for a "good citizen" were contained in a recent issue of the Rotary magazine. These are the marks of a good citizen. Here is your chance to rate yourself, to determine how you measure up to your citizenship responsibilities. Score yourself from one to ten on each:

1. He is well informed on local and world affairs.
2. He is courteous, unselfish, friendly —gets along well with others—is a good neighbour.
3. He is sincere, dependable, and takes an active part in the church or religious community of his choice..
4. He appreciates what others have done for him and accepts responsibility for the future betterment of his community.
5. He is fair and just in his relations with others.
6. He obeys the laws of his community and nation.
7. He votes regularly and intelligently at election times.
8. He is interested in the freedom and welfare of all the world's peoples and does his part to secure them.
9. He is productive—renders a worthwhile service to his fellow man.
10. He sets a good example to the youth of his community.

The Art Of Making Friends

We know a man—we can scarcely say we know, for few people do—who had the Midas touch. Everything he touched turned to gold. He found himself with prosperous enterprises, a lavish home—several of them in fact, an ocean-going yacht, a retinue of servants—but no friends.

He hungered for friends, laid traps for them, only to find that friends and friendships were things his money could not buy.

Of all the arts, the art of making friends is at once the simplest, the most satisfying and most rewarding. The reward is in the art itself, in the process rather than its fruit.

The art defines definition. There is but one rule that we are sure of, and that is this: The only way to make friends is to be one.

The essence of the art is guilelessness. You say you will try to make a friend out of this one—in the very trying you lose the touch of friendliness!

Synthetic friendliness is like fool's gold. It fools nobody. We knew another man—a man with a wonderful smile. He turned his smile on and off like water from a spigot. In time you became more aware of the spigot than you were of the smile.

Perhaps there is another rule. You are loved, if loved at all, for what you are rather than for what you strive to be that you are not. If in being yourself you fail in the art of making friends, it argues that you must first make friends with yourself. Thus you will furnish yourself with friendliness to pass on to others.

Friends are made to be used. Friendships, like everything else, languish with disuse. If you enjoy being a friend you must accord your friend an equal pleasure. If you would keep a friendship—accept its tokens cheerfully and gratefully.

The art of making friends is never to be mastered. Rather it assumes a gentle mastery over him who has it. He counts that day lost in which he has not made a new friend or watered some old friendship.

Editorial Notes

The changing of times. It used to be you could see forty or fifty bicycles parked at the High School during the day. Now, it's twenty or so cars, and four or five school busses.

If you didn't know, members of the Senate receive a sessional indemnity of $8,000 plus a $2,000 tax-free expense allowance. The expression of approval is probably best summed up in the immortal words of the senator "Hear, Hear!"

Williamsburg plans ahead. A newly formed planning board is taking the initiative to go ahead and lay plans for the eventual expansion of this small police village of 300 persons, which is expected to gain much from the development of the St. Lawrence River. It's an ambitious program which might well stand as an example to larger municipalities in the area.

The Fire department's parade here last week is worthy of praise. It proved the point of Fire Prevention Week well, and fitted in with a well organized Fire Prevention Week program which the local Department sponsored. It is to be hoped that the Fire Departments' plea for ridding homes and business places of all potential fire hazards will be carried out by every Winchester citizen.

Sports car racing has been banned at Carp until suitable safety precautions have been erected. The decision to ban this type of racing came last week, following an accident at the raceway in Carp earlier in the year which claimed two lives and injured several other people. This is the sensible decision, and is one that should be carried out at every track where there are still improper facilities for holding these races.

The bouquet this week goes to members of the Winchester High School Track Team who last Friday became the first winners of the first annual Osgoode-North Dundas Athletic Association Track Meet. Held at South Mountain, the meet saw schools from Chesterville, Osgoode District, Mountain and Winchester in keen competition. The formation of this new athletic association, it is hoped, will stimulate interest in athletic training and may pave the way towards a return of pre-war days when these schools, particularly Winchester, seemed to produce more high calibre athletes than they do now. In any case, an annual track meet for the smaller secondary schools in this area should be a good thing in creating interest among different municipalities, and its an event that will undoubtedly gain in popularity in the years to come.

It's YOUR HOSPITAL

by

G. HARVEY AGNEW, M.D.
PRESIDENT, ONTARIO HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

In Canada today there is a trade organization or association for most businesses of any size or consequence. Our hospital system, having grown and developed to its present stature and importance to our way of life, is no exception. Set up to help hospitals operate more efficiently and more economically, the Ontario Hospital Association was founded in 1924, some 31 years ago.

The Association, in its present form, actually came into being in December, 1923, at a meeting held in the old Toronto Academy of Medicine. However, the first general meeting was not held until the following February.

This organization was founded primarily to enable the hospitals of Ontario to work together in province-wide co-operation in solving the many hospital problems which were multiplying as medical knowledge grew and hospitals took on more responsibilities.

Oddly enough, some people in the province think that our hospitals founded the Ontario Hospital Association simply to inaugurate its well-known prepaid plan of hospital care (Blue Cross). This is quite erroneous, for the Ontario Hospital Association was founded nearly twenty years before this prepaid plan of hospital care was conceived.

In the initial stages there were only 39 member hospitals in the O. H. A., and at the Association's first convention only 106 delegates registered.

But that early group were not to be daunted. Gradually, year after year, the Association has grown and expanded. Now it boasts a membership of 172 hospitals plus 23 Red Cross outposts. Actually every public general hospital in the Province is a member.

Its annual convention, which will be held this year in Toronto for three days commencing October 24, will again be one of Canada's most impressive hospital conferences and will probably attract well over 2,500 delegates.

To meet the educational interests and needs of its many delegates, the Association now convenes in seven different sections, with programs beamed for trustees, nurse administrators and supervisors, hospital accountants, dietitians, medical record librarians, women's hospital auxiliaries and hospital pharmacists. Of course there are general sessions, too, but when the sectional groups are meeting simultaneously there looms up the perennial decision as to what to attend and what must be missed.

At these meetings we see the same people every year—from the Lakehead, Windsor, the Ottawa Valley, many of them busy business men, too. Why are they so faithful in attendance?

The answer is simple. This meeting has become a "must" with them. One reason is obvious: they get enough new ideas to keep them going until the next meeting. And not only new ideas, of which there are plenty, but the consolation, and it is a supporting one, too, of finding out that other people are facing similar problems and often evolving the same solutions. Often the high spot is a half-hour tete-a-tete with one's opposite number in another hospital.

And people who are interested in hospitals are nice people to know. Trustees and workers in women's auxiliaries are genuinely interested in others less fortunate than themselves. People who make hospital work a career do not do so because of the income alone; they are interested in the suffering, or in advancing scientific knowledge. In the hospital and medical fields there are no closely guarded trade secrets to be put to commercial advantage. If a procedure or an idea proves successful it is made available to all. It is the breath of life to hospital people to have something to share with others.

Hospitals are not and cannot remain static. Medical science is constantly making new demands on hospital facilities, improving this technique, streamlining that, designing new machines, outmoding others, discovering new drugs, utilizing existing facilities to a greater extent . . . and forever on, all for the benefit of patients.

Meetings and conventions, therefore, are vitally important to the welfare and progress of our hospitals. This Association has set up regional councils all over the Province and these permit much interchange of ideas on a more local basis. Then, too, at the annual meeting there is the large display of hospital equipment which brings to the attention of the delegates the very latest developments for the improvement, simplification, and economy of hospital operation. This part of the convention never fails to prove its worth and alone makes the trip rewarding.

So this October, when representatives of your local hospital convene in Toronto, it is for a good cause. This year, as in the past, the O.H.A.'s annual convention will help to maintain and improve the high standard of care which the hospitals are privileged to render to the people of Ontario.

Student's Code

The Boston school board has drawn up a list of commandments for students from grades 7 to 12. The list will be read twice a week to the students, and will be posted in each classroom.

Perhaps it is a sad commentary that the schools, rather than the homes, have to bring these ordinary rules of decency and common sense to the attention of young people. But if it has to be done, it is a good list. Here it is:

1. Don't let your parents down. They've brought you up.
2. Stop and think before you drink.
3. Be smart, obey. You'll give orders yourself, some day.
4. Ditch dirty thoughts fast or they'll ditch you.
5. Show-off driving is juvenile. Don't act your age.
6. Pick the right friends to be picked for a friend.
7. Choose a date fit for a mate.
8. Don't go steady unless you're ready.
9. Love God and neighbour.
10. Live carefully. The soul you save may be your own.

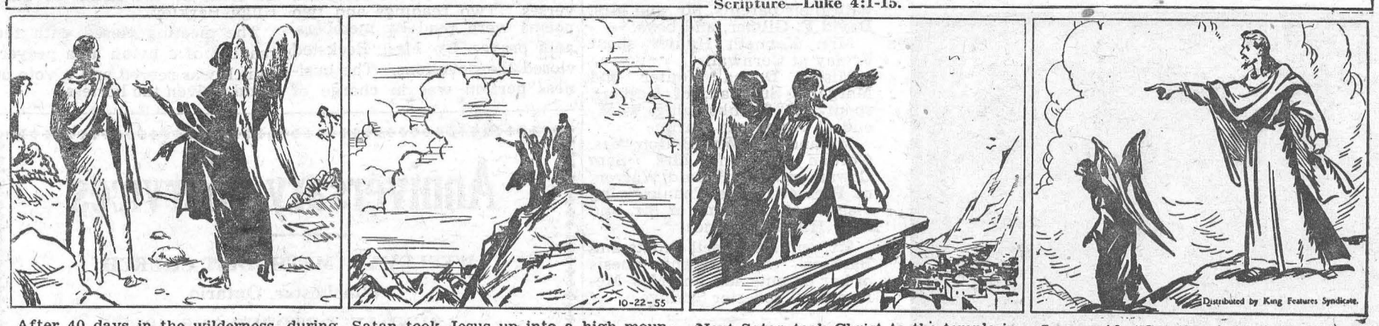
Struggle in the Wilderness — ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON — By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Luke 4:1-15.



After 40 days in the wilderness, during which time Jesus ate nothing, He was tempted by Satan saying: "If Thou be the Son of God command this stone be made into bread."

Satan took Jesus up into a high mountain from whence they could see all the kingdoms of the world. He would give Christ all that power, he said if He would worship only Satan.

Next Satan took Christ to the temple in Jersualem and set Him on the pinnacle thereof, saying, "If Thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down," and God's angels would save Him.

Jesus said: "Get thee behind Me, Satan, for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve." Satan then left Him.

MEMORY VERSE—Luke 4:8.

UNITED CHURCH W. M. S.

The Autumn Thank Offering meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary was held last Thursday and took the form of a pot-luck supper. The president, Mrs. T. N. Mitchell, presided over this well-attended gathering, and Mrs. E. Fennell was the recording secretary.

The committee in charge had Mrs. Mitchell as convener, assisted by Mrs. F. E. Helmer, Miss M. Coons, Mrs. H. Patterson, Mrs. F. Hutt, Mrs. O. Wallace, Mrs. R. Merkley and Mrs. S. McLean.

Mrs. O. Wallace conducted a deeply impressive worship service based on II Kings 4:8-12. A minute of silent prayer was observed as a tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. Kenneth Ault. The Missionary study period was presented by Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Hutt. It dealt with the welcome extended to immigrants to our country by the United Church.

The various reports given showed much activity in the Society. Delegates were asked to attend the Sectional meeting. A bale of clothing is to be packed on October 22nd—this is to be for children aged one to nine years.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

CHESTERVILLE WINS LAWN BOWLING TITLE

For the second consecutive year the Chesterville Lawn Bowling Club has won the Caldwell Trophy. The final 21-end game played at Iroquois recently gave the Chesterville rink a 27-14 win over Cornwall.

This playoff game was necessary, due to a tie at the season's end. Chesterville and Cornwall were tied for first place, forcing a sudden-death tilt.

The three-man Chesterville rink was skipped by Eric Casselman, and the other bowlers were Haldane Durant and Stan. David. Cornwall was represented by Alex Cameron, Harry Moffatt and skipped by Frank Eastwood.

FEED NEWS

MARKETS AND PRICE TRENDS

Wheat—The Wheat Board is releasing feed grades of wheat at slightly lower prices. This should help the feed situation. Recent reports indicate overseas shipments of milling wheat so far this year at 37 million bushels compared with 46 million bushels last year.

Oats—Very little change in price. Marketings of oats in the West so far this year total only 6.7 million bushels compared with 19.8 million bushels during the same period last year. Shipments to the lakehead have been only 4.5 million bushels compared with 22.3 million bushels one year ago.

Barley—An improvement in export demand for Canadian Barley has reduced lakehead stocks to 7.1 million bushels compared with 19.5 million bushels a year ago. Barley prices have been fairly strong.

Corn—A large crop of corn in Ontario as well as in the U. S. A. has brought prices down to lowest levels for some time.

Millfeed—Limited export demand for flour keeps production of millfeed down and the price up. Lower feed wheat prices should keep mill feed prices within bounds.

Timothy Seed—Prices off about half a cent last week. We have been able to keep Timothy Seed moving out so far. Give us a call—we will try and place any lots for sale.

Red Clover—English Red is being offered at low prices and keeping our market down

Alfalfa—Very little Alfalfa seed in this area—most people will have to buy. Prices are low—might be a good time to buy some.

PICK UP SEED LOTS

It will be appreciated if any lots of seed that have been cleaned and not sold, are picked up as soon as possible. Storage space is limited

STABLE-PHOS and BEET PULP

This is the time to book Stable-Phos and Beet Pulp. We have cars of each coming in toward the end of October. For best price, take delivery right from the car. Phone orders in for delivery when the cars arrive.

PACK LUNCHES THAT PLEASE YOUR YOUNGSTER

"Oh boy . . . tomato soup!"

Is that your Teddy talking . . . that cute little tyke who's getting such a "kick" out of his lunchbox? Tomato soup, garnished with sausages. Cheese sandwiches. Carrot sticks poked through olives. A bunch of grapes. And marshmallow cereal candy to satisfy his sweet tooth! No wonder he's so happy!

Yessirree, Mom, you can put a smile on your son's face even when you're miles away! Fill up his lunchbox with body-building foods, fixed so he'll find them appealing. Hot soups, tasty and nourishing. Made with milk, they put dairy into his day. And there are literally dozens of condensed soups to choose from. Mixing and matching opens up more exciting possibilities. Soup-mate suggestions . . .

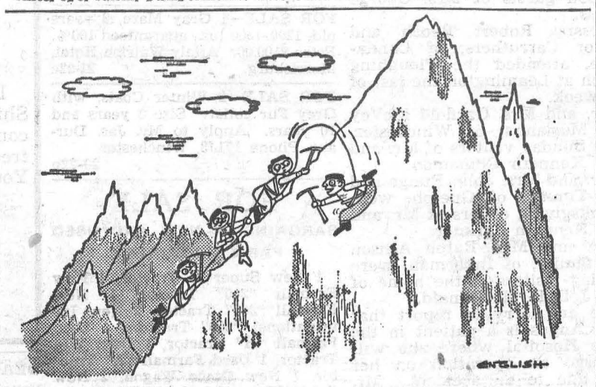
Cream of chicken and green pea
Chicken gumbo and cream of asparagus
Cream of mushroom and onion
Beef and beef noodle
Vegetarian vegetable and bouillon
Pepper pot and consommé

Let your imagination "run wild" in the sandwich department. Choose from a galaxy of breadstuffs . . . whole wheat, white, rye, raisin, pumpernickle, date-nut, honeybread, fruit roll, frankfurter bun, and poppyseed roll.

Fillings range from the salad types . . . egg, tuna fish, chicken, and ham, to cooked meat . . . roast beef, minced ham, bologna, salami, meat loaf, and others. In between come "kid favorites", such as peanut butter, cheese spread . . . even scrambled egg!

If you're overwhelmed with the thought of preparing lunches every day, here's an idea, Mom. Put aside an hour each week and make up a supply of sandwiches. Label them for each school day, and pop them into the freezer. A word of caution . . . sandwiches with ham, cream cheese, lettuce, mayonnaise, or raw celery don't take to freezing. Most others will pass the test. And freezing a week's supply at a time is so time-saving!

When lunch foods are assembled, tuck in something to surprise your youngster. A decorated napkin. Cheerful greeting scribbled on the shell of a hard-cooked egg. Colorful printed waxed paper wrapping for his sandwich. Shiny new pencil. Or a lollipop. And don't be surprised if your Teddy turns out to be the happiest kid in the class!



"Must go back . . . I've forgotten to buy my Canada Savings Bonds."

HEALTH NOTE

SWALLOWING SUNSHINE

Vitamin D is necessary in order that the body may use calcium and phosphorus to form good strong bones and teeth. Called the "sunshine vitamin" because it does the job the sunshine would do if we could obtain it in sufficient and regular amounts, it is essential to the growth of all children from birth to the age of sixteen. The substitute for the natural sun-produced vitamin is the chemically produced vitamin D, which is available in tablet, liquid or capsule forms, whch, unlike the old-style oil from fish liver, is tasteless and acceptable to youngsters.

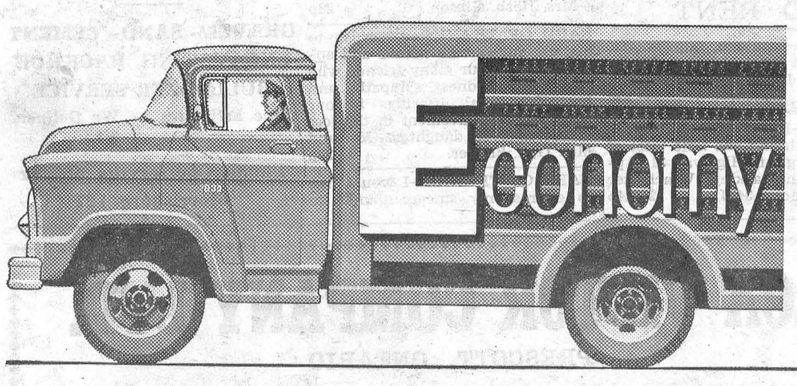
CHOICE OF V8 OR 6
With your new Chevrolet truck you can choose a short stroke V8 or the famous 6 cylinder engine to do your hauling job better with more power and economy.

LONG WEARING PISTONS
New alloy pistons and ring design, plus Pressure Lubrication, add new life to pistons — in both the famous 6 and the new short stroke V8's.

COMPRESSION RATIO
New highs in compression ratio give more instant response to power demands and squeeze far more power from every drop of fuel.

AXLES AND TRANSMISSIONS
Chevrolet's power carrying units can be tailored to your individual needs. In the rough, or on the road, there's a choice of transmissions, drive lines and axles for you.

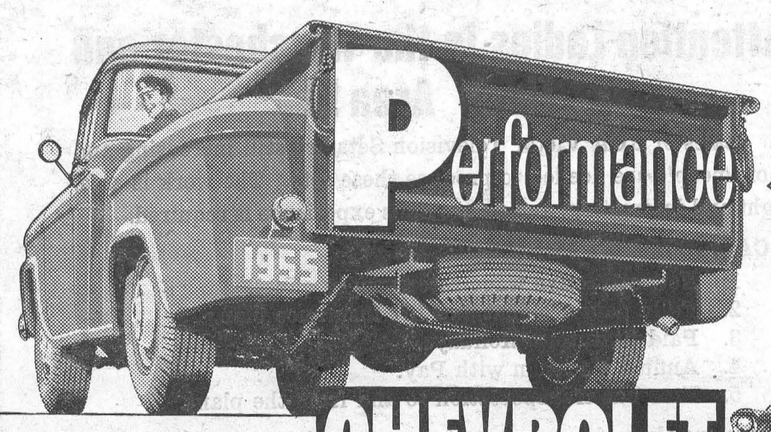


12-VOLT SYSTEM
Chevrolet's new 12-volt ignition system ensures faster starts, even during the coldest weather. Its hotter spark means more thorough combustion for greater economy, too.

STRONGER FRAMES
With Chevrolet, you get the added strength and full length support of new parallel-design frames, ensuring greater alignment strength.

TUBELESS TIRES
Greater traction, quieter running and increased protection from blowouts — these are just three of many reasons for the superiority of tubeless tires on the light duty models.

SMALL TURNING RADIUS
Now you can make tighter turning circles, get into smaller spaces with Chevrolet's smaller turning radius.



POSITIVE STEERING
Recirculating Ball Steering has been improved to give even greater ease. Power steering is available at extra cost on the heavy duty models.

IMPROVED VISIBILITY
Now you can see all round — with Chevrolet's wrap around windows front and rear (rear wrap around is optional at extra cost).

AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS
These great transmissions make driving easier, automatically. They cut delivery times — and reduce wear and tear on the truck by always being geared right for the load and the road.

NEW DRIVE LINES
New Hotchkiss drive lines, now on all models, absorb drive and braking shock, and promote longer truck life.

SHUR-GAIN FEED SERVICE

YOUR HOME-GROWN GRAIN SUPPLY CAN LAST LONGER

The grain you grow at home for feeding your livestock and poultry is a pretty important commodity. It has taken a lot of time and money to produce that grain crop and you don't want to waste any. You can waste a lot of grain if you don't feed it properly.

BEFORE you feed your grain, BALANCE IT with SHUR-GAIN

Grain supplies energy in a livestock or poultry feed but it does not supply sufficient protein, minerals and vitamins to meet proper requirements. That's why it takes about 1100 lbs. of straight grain to put a hog to market compared to just 600 to 700 lbs. of a mixture of grain and Shur-Gain Hog Concentrate.

DON'T WASTE GRAIN

Come in and see us about a Shur-Gain custom mixing service for livestock and poultry that will save your grain and make you money.

Over 100 friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Fawcett on Friday evening, October 7th, to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. William McVey, who will be moving shortly to their new home in Kemptville.

The evening was spent in games, cards and visiting. About 10.30 o'clock they were called to the floor and an address was read by Mr. Jas. Fawcett from a book designed by Mrs. Earle Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. McVey were each presented with a wrist watch, and Marion and Barbara each with a cake plate, by Donald Findlay, Earle Hamilton, Mrs. Jas. Fawcett and Mrs. Alfred Findlay.

The recipients thanked their friends and neighbours for their kindness and invited everyone to visit them in their new home.

School. A brief address of welcome was given by the Principal, A. M. Barr, to over 80 students who represented 25 counties in Ontario and distant Mexico and South America.

Mr. Barr stressed the importance of the students conducting themselves as ladies and gentlemen at all times. He pointed out the advantages of the Agricultural Course for the boys and of the Home Economics Course for the girls.

Carleton County takes first place this year in sending seven students to the School to learn the most recent developments of agricultural science and of home economics. Stormont follows with three new students. Many of the counties are represented by the senior students, Carleton and Peterborough taking the lead.

BABY AND THE CIGARETTE

When holding or lifting a child, never smoke. Ashes falling on the baby's face could cause him a painful burn or injury to his eyes. Smoking in a room where a very small child is lying may cause the youngster to have a painful fit of coughing.

SKIN CARE

The skin covers a larger area of the human body than any other organ, protecting the inner parts of the body from germs and injury. Waste matter from the body is exuded through the pores on to the skin and this, together with accumulated dirt, flakes of dead skin and bacteria, forms a breeding place for germs and, if not kept scrupulously clean, also for parasites. The skin requires regular bathing with soap and water. To prevent the unpleasant odor of perspiration, a good deodorant should be used under the arms and wherever perspiration is profuse.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS

Many accidents that occur in industry could be prevented by care on the part of the employee. Devices to protect him from typical accidents in the shop or plant have usually been developed by authorities in the field and should be used whenever available.

WINTER HOBBY

Most people plan to take up some hobby or study during the winter in their spare time. The best type of hobby is one which will not only prove interesting but will also be of value. Swimming, first aid, home nursing and the various skills taught in Civil Defence training will provide the ability to save lives—the student's own or another person's. All the various subjects that are included in Civil Defence are valuable, not only in time of war but also in peace-time emergencies—often in the everyday emergencies that happen around the home.

STAIRS MAKE DANGEROUS SHELVES

The basement stairs often become temporary shelves for articles that should be placed elsewhere. Such obstacles may cause dangerous falls, especially when the stairs are not well lighted. It is never safe to leave any articles on steps or stairs. Every flight, especially those to the basement, should be well lighted.

EUCHRE AND CROKINOLE PARTY HELD

A very successful Euchre and Crokinole Party was held in the Orange Hall last week, under the auspices of L.O.B.A. No. 817, Winchester, with a good attendance. Prize winners were as follows: Euchre: Mrs. Chester Robinson and George Barclay; consolation, Mrs. Churchill and Earl Wylie; Crokinole, Mrs. Colin Hay and Keith Renwick; consolation, Mrs. Wilson Hoy and Wm. McConkey.

Following the games, a delightful lunch was served.

She: "Oh, you men are all alike. You went to that show last night just to see the pretty girls."

He: "That isn't so. Pretty girls don't mean a thing to me—it's you I love."

One secret of successful pressing is to have the pressing cloth just damp enough to give good steam, neither too wet nor too dry.

COURT AWARDS DANIEL BLAIR AND SONS $11,000.00 DAMAGES

An $11,000 court settlement arising from a traffic accident last fall which claimed two lives will be awarded to Daniel Blair, well-known cattle shipper and trucker of Spencerville, and his two young sons.

Blair's 31-year-old wife, Catherine, and daughter, Margo, age 12, died from injuries when their car plowed into an army-type truck parked on No. 16 highway approximately two miles north of Johnstown, about one year ago.

The settlement was announced at Brockville Friday at the close of the fall assizes of the Supreme Court of Ontario. Mr. Justice Wilfred Judson, of Toronto, presided.

Blair will receive $9,000 and his sons, Bernard, nine, and David, two, the sum of $1,000 each.

The settlement was agreed upon in an action for damages against Blais Garage, of St. Paul, Que. Police, at the time of the accident, said the army-type vehicle was being towed backwards behind another vehicle driven by Paul Blais, who was enroute to Montreal.

The vehicles were parked in the southbound lane while the load was checked, police determined at the investigation. It was also believed Mrs. Blair was blinded by the lights of a northbound truck which was parked opposite or near Blais' caravan with the lights facing oncoming traffic.
