Local Legion Will Open Cigarette Fund For Soldiers

At a recent meeting of the local branch of the Canadian Legion, it was decided to open a cigarette fund for local and district boys serving overseas. Any person desiring to contribute to the general fund, or donate a specified amount for the purchase of cigarettes to be sent to an individual relative or friend, may give their donation to any member of the Legion, and the cigarettes will be forwarded without delay.

As soon as sufficient funds are available, it is the Legion's intentions to send cigarettes to the boys on a systematic basis. Arrangements are being made to have money containers located in the different business places about town, for citizens to deposit coins in, whenever they desire. In the meantime, if you wish to contribute to the fund, leave your donation at the post-office or the banks, or hand it to any Legion member, and it will be turned in to the Legion Cigarette Committee.

Local N. C. O. Class Received Certificates at Complimentary Dinner

Capt. F. M. Cass, Officer Commanding No. 1 Company of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders (Reserves), tendered a complimentary dinner to members of his staff and a number of civic guests at Hotel Winchester on Friday evening, when the presentation of certificates was made to graduates of the N. C. O. class, held here last Fall.

Seated at the head table with Capt. Cass were Mr. Geo. H. Challies, M.L.A. for Grenville-Dundas; Reeve Fred H. Broder, of Morrisburg; Reeve T. O. Keyes, of Winchester; Dr. H. S. Gross, Company Physician, of Winchester; Lieut. G. C. Power and Mr. G. A. Foulds of Morrisburg, and Q. M. Sgt. J. H. Keyes, Winchester. The other tables were presided over by Lieut. S. G. K. Ault and Lieut. Carl Barriger, of Winchester.

The toasts to the King and to the S. D. and G. Highlanders were proposed by Capt. Cass, while community singing was led by Mr. Foulds, with L. Cpl. Jack Morris at the piano.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Franklin, M.C., officer commanding the battalion, was unable to attend, owing to a recruiting meeting being held in Lancaster, but sent a brief message which was presented to the gathering by Capt. Cass.

Mr. Challies, in a brief address, recalled the time when each township had a Militia with a store of arms ready for immediate use. He said he regretted that Dundas was the only county in this part of Canada that had no armouries to further the work of the Militia. Dundas has always been a Militia County, said Mr. Challies. He spoke of the war of 1812, and recalled the heroic deeds of Dundas men at that time, and also paid tribute to the men from this county who fought for their country in the last Great War. In closing, he emphasized the fact that No. 1 Company of the S. D. & G. Highlanders was the only active military unit in Dundas at the present time and urged all citizens to support it.

Certificates Presented.

Reeve Broder, of Morrisburg, gave a short speech on recruiting, and intimated that there should be little difficulty in keeping the unit up to full strength if the members and civilians co-operated.

Mr. Broder saw service in France with the 154th battalion during the war of 1914-18.

Following his address, Mr. Broder presented certificates of rank to the following members of the Company, in order of merit:

Cpl. Robt. C. Barkley, No. 7 platoon, Winchester.

Sgt. J. C. Fulton, No. 8 platoon, Chesterville.

C. Q. M. S. J. H. Keyes, Sgt. A. E. Barkley, Cpl. H. O. Summers, Cpl. G. D. Utman, L. Cpl. M. F. B. Summers, Pte. Geo. Elliott, all of Winchester; Cpl. J. L. Cross and Cpl. M. Rae, of Chesterville. These certificates were for the rank of Sergeant.

Corporal's Certificates were presented to Pte. R. L. Strader, Winchester; L. Cpl. J. A. Morris, Chesterville, and A. Sgt. I. D. Cochrane, Morrisburg.

Mr. G. A. Foulds, a former Company Sergeant-Major of the local unit, gave some reminiscences of the last war, which were heard with interest. He also was a member of the 154th battalion and served in France.

Offers Full Co-operation.

Reeve Keyes, of Winchester, offered the Company every co-operation, and said that the Municipal Council was behind the boys 100 per cent., and would do everything in its power to help them along.

Short speeches were also given by Lieut. S. G. K. Ault, Lieut. G. C. Power, Lieut. Carl Barriger, Sgt. J. C. Fulton and Cpl. H. A. Eamon.

During the dinner, Capt. Cass gave a very interesting resume of the Company

Rev. S. W. Blanchard Re-elected President of W. M. Conference

Rev. S. W. Blanchard, pastor of Sunnyside Wesleyan Methodist Church, Ottawa, was re-elected President of the Canada Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, at its 44th annual convention, which opened here on Wednesday and concluded on Sunday evening. Other officers named were: Vice president, Rev. J. A. Bain, of Cornwall; Secretary, Rev. E. A. Stephens, of Thornby, Que.; treasurer, Rev. J. H. Weaver, of Shawville, Que.; Sunday Schools' secretary, Rev. R. L. Leroy, of North Bay, Ont.; Tithing secretary, Rev. A. F. Howick, of Kemptville; President's Advisory Board, Rev. J. A. Bain and Mr. H. Vipond, of Hull, Que.; Missionary Board, Rev. Mr. Blanchard, Rev. E. W. Tokley, of Toronto; Rev. D. W. Summers, of Winchester; Rev. J. A. Bain, Mr. W. Spearman, of Waltham, Que.; Mr. H. Vipond, and the president of the Women's Missionary Society.

An invitation was extended by the pastor of Inkerman Wesleyan Methodist Church for the Conference to meet there in 1942. This was accepted and the date for the opening of the next annual Convention was set for April 21st, 1942.

Opening Sessions.

At the opening session on Wednesday morning, Rev. R. S. Nicholson, Conventional Home Mission Secretary, and Dr. S. W. Payne, president of Houghton College, Houghton, N. Y., were introduced to the Conference. At the afternoon session the president's address was given by Rev. S. W. Blanchard, and was adopted as read. The theme of this session was "Christian Education," with Dr. Payne, of Houghton, as guest speaker. Reporting for Houghton College, Dr. Payne stated that at present there were 555 registered students in that instituion, and said that because of over-crowding in the college buildings, and desperate need of more space, plans have been completed and work already started on a three-storey stone structure at a cost of approximately $40,000. The new building is to be known as the Luckey Memorial Hall, in honour of the late James S. Luckey, president of the college for 29 years. It will house the administration offices, library, stock rooms and reading rooms.

Dr. Payne stressed the need of true Christian colleges in the educational field and urged wholehearted support of Houghton Wesleyan Methodist College.

Rev. and Mrs. Price Stark were also introduced to conference. Mr. Price, since his return from missionary work in Africa, has been a pastor of a W. M. Church in New York State.

Rev. Mr. Nicholson was the chief speaker at the Wednesday evening session. His subject was "The Church of the Living God." He emphasized the fact that the church was the greatest institution on earth, but that its conception of power was under-estimated by the peoples of the world today. He pleaded for a fuller understanding of the Church and God in the lives of this generation.

Thursday Sessions.

Reports on ministerial character were given by the committee of this department at the Thursday morning meeting. Several pastors took part in the discussion. The report of the committee on Itinerary and Orders was also heard, and the following motions were adopted:

1. That Rev. A. F. Howick, pastor of the Kemptvile Church, be ordained to the office of Elder at the Sunday morning service of the Conference.
2. That Mr. Wesley Nussey be received as a member of this Conference.
3. That Mr. David Leigh Summers, of Winchester, be received as a licentiate to travel under the direction of Conference.

Rev. Price Stark delivered the main address at this session. His topic was 'Earnestly Contending for the Faith." He urged that all Christians say, with the Apostle Paul, "I believe God," and in that belief, triumph in the Christian warfare.

The election of officers was the main item of business at the Thursday afternoon session. In the evening, a public service was held and the church was filled to capacity, with many out-of-town visitors present. Rev. Mr. Nicholson was the speaker and spoke on "The Church at Death's Door." In his message he outlined the existing conditions of the church today—not any one particular denomination, but the church as a whole. The fact that the Church and its membership today are asleep, was forcibly explained by the speaker, who urged that all Christian church members awake from their slumbers and become conscious of the dangers around us, and thus gain the first victory over the enemies of righteousness by being aware of their presence.

Friday Sessions.

"The debt that is seldom paid," was Rev. Mr. Nicholson's topic at Friday morning's session. During the business period, reports were received from the Missionary Board, the Statistical Committee and the Treasurer of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society. Pastoral reports, not pre-

RECRUITING MEETING

Thursday, May 8th, at 8 p. m.

Recruits Wanted For Active Service and For the Local Company of the S. D. & G. Highlanders (Reserve)

A recruiting officer of M. D. No. 3 will be in Winchester on Thursday, May 8th, for the purpose of obtaining Recruits for the Canadian Army.

As Mr. Ralston said in a recent speech, it is up to each community to get behind the recruiting campaign. Let each citizen of Winchester show his interest in this war by attending the meeting.

Recruits for the Reserve Battalion will be taken on at once and 50 men are needed to bring the local Company up to full strength. These men will go to camp at Connaught ranges June 29th to July 19th. Recruits for Active Service in all branches of the Army will be accepted at the meeting.

This is our war and we are all in the Front Line. Let's give this effort a boost now.

Military Parade To Be Held Here This Evening

As will be noticed by an advertisement in this issue, a recruiting meeting will be held in the local town hall this evening. Prior to the meeting, a parade will be held, headed by the S. D. & G. Highlanders Pipe Band from Cornwall. The parade will form at the school grounds at 7 p.m. Members of No. 1 Company of the S. D. & G. Highlanders (Reserve) and local and district Great War Veterans will take part. The latter are urged to attend.

This is the first public Recruiting meeting to be held in Winchester since the war started, and Reeve T. O. Keyes is anxious that all local citizens attend.

Recruits for Active Service in all branches of the Canadian Army will be accepted at this meeting, as well as recruits for the Reserve Battalion. Fifty men are needed to bring No. 1 Company of the latter up to strength.

Canada is calling for men to take up the fight for Democracy and for the defence of our shores—our country is threatened by a ruthless foe. Our priceless heritage is worth defending—what will our answer be to Hitler's challenge? Canada calls for young men to volunteer their services—she called before and her young men rallied to the colours, just as they will do during the present war.

Winchester and district have already provided several young men for Canada's Active and Reserve Forces. They are serving with credit and honour. We still have several eligible for enlistment—men who have little or no responsibility to keep them in civil life, when their country needs them for a more important purpose. How about it, boys—don't wait for Conscription—join the service of your choice now.

RETURNED MISSIONARY SPOKE AT AT PAUL'S CHURCH

Miss Alma Burdick, returned missionary from Formosa, China, delivered an interesting address in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening. She was introduced by the pastor, Mr. A. L. MacKay, who presided during the meeting.

Miss Burdick described Formosa as an island off the coast of China, 150 miles long and 80 miles wide, with a population of 60,000. The Mission was established there 69 years ago and at present there are 78 preaching stations. The speaker spent 13 years at Formosa and, during her address, explained the habits and customs of the natives, their schools and living conditions.

During the evening the choir, under the leadership of Miss Clara Irving, sang "Win One For Jesus," while Mesdames H. Wilson, C. Hay, W. Moffat and G. Wilson were heard in a quartette when they sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served in the Sunday School Hall by Mrs. C. Robinson, Mrs. G. Angus, Mrs. H. Wilson, Miss Ida Gardner and Miss Grace Irving.

REMEMBER YOUR MOTHER !

It seems fitting that closely after Eastertime, the symbolic season of re-birth, there should follow Mother's Day and Spring—alike symbolic of new life—birth and rebirth in an endless repetitional cycle down the ages, and each humanly enthroned with a diadem of eternal acknowledgement in the Palace of God's creation.

The relationships are alike recognized with the best that is in us, but none perhaps is more to be revered than that of Mother's Day. To it, this season, let there be unusual zest applied to making it a fitting symbol, especially to those mothers whose sons are marching to the front line of battle, and on whose hearts the greatest of all sorrows weigh in the inevitable sacrifices awaiting.

Next Sunday, May 11th, will be observed as "Mother's Day." Show your devotion and love for your mother by remembering her in some special way on that day—buy her a gift—wear a flower in memory of her—visit her—attend church with her—and above all, be kind to her at all times. Remember, Mother is your greatest friend.

Who is it that shares your joys and troubles with a smile and a tear?—It's Mother !

Who is it that is most interested in your future career?—It's Mother !

Who is it that you come to for sincere sympathy in time of trouble?—It's Mother !

Who is it that sacrifices many of her personal comforts on your behalf?—It's Mother !

Who is it that has advised you most cautiously throughout life?—It's Mother !

Who is it that loves you when you are despised by others?—It's Mother !

Who is it that will always be your truest friend?—It's Mother !

Who is it that you should remember in some special way next Sunday?—It's your Mother !—God Bless Her !

We have always cherished that old familiar song, entitled: "Mother." The words have a definite meaning and we reproduce them here as a tribute to your mother and mine:

"M"—is for the many things she gave me,
"O"—means only that she's growing old;
"T"—is for the tears she shed to save me,
"H"—is for her heart of purest gold.
"E"—is for her eyes with love-light shining,
"R"—means right, and right she'll always be;
"Put them all together, they spell "Mother,"
the word that means the world to me."

VOLUME FIFTY-FOUR—NO. 1.

Another year is born in the publishing of The Press—another milestone passed. With this issue we enter our fifty-fourth year of service to this community, and with the largest circulation in the Press' history.

It was in May, 1888, that the late Mr. Byron Lane purchased the West Winchester Directory from a local printer, E. L. White. He enlarged the paper and re-named it "The Winchester Press." Since that time many changes have taken place in the make-up of the paper and four editors have directed its policy, namely: Mr. G. C. Lacey, now publisher of the Chesterville Record; the late Mr. James H. Ross; Mr. W. H. Agnew, and the present editor, who took over the position in July, 1939, and who has been a member of the staff for twenty-six years.

Throughout the years, the Press has constantly striven to present the news of this district to its readers in a clear and accurate manner. Rumours, scandal and unhappy incidents have been rigorously avoided. We trust that our efforts in this regard have been appreciated.

As we enter another year, we desire to express our appreciation to the merchants and business men of Winchester and district for their encouragement and support; to the national advertisers who use our columns; to our readers and correspondents, who submit news items from week to week, and to patrons of our job-printing department.

Our policy in the years to come will remain as ever—"Service to Winchester and district."

THE FUNCTIONS OF AN EDITOR

The title "editor" is sometimes misunderstood by newspaper readers, not because they want to misunderstand but because they have never been told just what the functions are of the person who holds this title. An editor, to explain it briefly, is one who superintends, revises or prepares literary matter for publication. The title does not necessarily mean that the policy of the newspaper is set or controlled by the editor. On large newspapers there are many editors, and policy is usually decided upon by the managing editor. The duties of the other editors, city, sport, suburban, women's page and others, is simply to carry out the duties prescribed in their particular spheres.

For our purpose, however, we must deal with the editor in a little different light, because in fully 90 per cent. of Canada's weekly newspapers, the editor is also the publisher. In other words he fills the dual role of preparing literary matter for publication, and of deciding upon policy as well. We want to deal with the functions of an editor from this standpoint.

Essentially the editor is a human being, writing and dealing with men, women and children. He may be young or old, lazy or energetic, bold or timid, superficial or deep, querulous or constructive, slovenly or business-like, grasping or generous. He is certain to be human. He reacts to praise and criticism, to good and evil in much the same way as those who share community life with him. The editor, and this is true of 99 per cent. of all weekly editors, recognizes the inherent decency of the countryside. He is still sufficiently old-fashioned to believe with his readers that the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule have neither been repealed, improved upon or modified by modern advances.

The editor is a student of community affairs. He has at his disposal records of public organizations in the community, and it is from his study of these records that he makes his editorial comment. He is not easily swayed by the hysterias which sway, and excite and mislead city people. Like the people he serves, he uses good common sense in his reasoning. The editors of Canada's weekly newspapers, serving the rural areas, are a greater power than most people suspect, for it is a political fact that more members of the House of Commons and more members of Provincial Legislature are elected from the rural areas than from the cities.

It is the editor who decides what is fit and what is not fit to print. It is he who differentiates between news and propaganda. It is he who can, if he will, give the leadership that every energetic community must have. He is not hard to get along with, but he has a code of ethics which often cause him to refuse business rather than accept it against well grounded principles. He is not a super-human. He is a hard-working individual doing an important job in the community to the best of his ability, and if at times he fails in his task, it must be remembered that he is like every other human being in the community, heir to the frailities with which all mankind is endowed.

ADOPT SPEED LIMIT

Motorists who speed through the streets of small towns and villages are a menace to the lives of pedestrians of all ages. Under an amendment to the Traffic Act passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature, municipalities are now permitted to pass by-laws restricting sections of their highways to speed limits between fifteen and thirty miles an hour, and in the opinion of this column some action might well be taken in this regard in this village.

With a provincial highway running through the centre of the business section, through-traffic is quite heavy at times and far too many motorists approach the intersection of Main and St. Lawrence Streets at a dangerous rate of speed. Cautionary signs erected by the Department of Highways are flagrantly disregarded and it appears as though some disciplinary action is the only cure. If a child playing on the sidewalk were to suddenly run out on the street, nothing short of a miracle could prevent an accident. Motorists should be obliged to drive carfully on our village streets.

A PRAYER FOR THE HOME

Give unto us, O Lord, the spirit of brightness and courage. Help us to play the man and so to help others to face courageously whatsoever tomorrow may bring to meet them. Let not these shadows oppress our spirits, lest our gloom should darken the light by which others have to live. Say unto our souls, "Be of good courage; fear not, for I am with Thee." Say unto our land, 'Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice, for the Lord will do great things.' Amen.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Plough a little—plant a little—grow a little—and help maintain Canada's food supply. No vacant acre should be allowed to grow up in weeds during war time. We can't produce too much in this country—any surplus we have can be shipped to Britain.

The Christian Science Monitor tells of a Brooklyn, (Mass.) boy who walked a mile and a half to return a wallet containing $28 which he found on the street. Then, failing to find the owner, he walked back and turned over the money to a patrolman. "That's active honesty," says the Monitor.

The Municipal Council is to be commended for its action in extending the local Garbage Collection System to all householders, without making a special charge or levying additional taxes to cover the expense. The cost of collecting the garbage in Winchester may cut down the Council's surplus at the end of the year, but this service is in the interests of the public health and most citizens will appreciate the Council's decision in the matter.

There is not much use in finding fault with Canada's new war budget. The ever-increasing cost of Canada's war effort must be met—and the people pay and pay. If money will bring about Hitler's ultimate defeat and restore peace to the world, we, as Canadians, should be willing to sacrifice our dollars for that purpose. True, the increase of taxes on incomes is going to hurt in many cases, create certain hardships, but they will have to be paid. One way to meet them is to budget for them each month. In order to do this you may have to curtail your spending on unnecessary things, and cancel that summer vacation trip you had planned— but cheer up, the sun will shine again some day.

The Ontario Court of Appeal has ruled that a motor car owner who permits another to drive his automobile while intoxicated is equally party to an offence. This judgment, which was handed down recently is believed to have established a precedent in Canadian jurisprudence. In this particular case three of the persons in the car were killed and only the owner, a Windsor jeweller, who was riding in the back seat, escaped. The judge ruled that he was equally guilty with the drunken man at the wheel and sentenced him to one year determinate and six months indeterminate together with a fine of $500, or an additional five months in event of the fine not being paid.

"The Voice of the Press"

A NEW SLOGAN.

(Almonte Gazette)

Grandparents used to admonish the young to make their heads save their heels. As a result of the increase in the tax on gasoline the slogan will be "walk and make your heels save your overhead."

FALSE TRUSTS !

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

From all spheres we hear this: Canadians are too complacent about the present war. To which we cannot refrain from commenting that the people of France trusted in the Maginot Line, as too many Canadians trust in the Atlantic Ocean.

SHREWD OPTIMISM !

(Cornwall Standard-Freeholder)

Tailors in Germany are predicting every Nazi will be well dressed when this war is over. The new suit will come, no doubt, at the same time as that family automobile of which the Germans talked so much a couple of years ago.

DEBUNKERS BUSY

(Renfrew Mercury)

Debunkers are forever taking the joy out of life. Now they briefly inform us that St. George was not only not an Englishman but that he never even set foot on English soil. They will be telling us next that St. Andrew was a Dago and that St. Patrick never saw a snake in his life.

REAL CRIMINALS

(Toronto Globe and Mail)

The hit-and-run driver is recognized as among the most contemptible of criminals. Citizens are aroused by his deprodations. He cares nothing about his victim, and his first and only thought is his own safety; so he runs away. In any circumstances good citizens will assist the police in apprehending law-breakers; but in the case of hit-and-run offenders there is additional obligation.

PERTH'S BIG EGG !

(Perth Courier)

A monster egg, the largest produced by a hen, and shown to the Courier, was brought to this office on Monday by Master Glenn Henry Crain, son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Crain, of Clarendon. The egg weighed five and a half ounces, had an endover circumference of eight and three-quarter inches and a circumference of seven and a quarter inches around its largest central point.

A PROBLEM FOR SCIENCE

(Ottawa Citizen)

Science has definitely announced— although everyone else has been aware of it since feminine fashions got to be what they are—that women want room temperature considerably higher than is comfortable for men. If Science will now invent a compromise between mother's bare back and father's fleece-lined underwear, there will be paths beaten to Science's door from all points of the compass.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

Here's something to remember: We did not have control of the Dardanelles during the Great War, the Turks saw to that. And yet we won that war. The Aussies were given quite a set-back at the Dardanelles then, losing heavily when attempting to make a landing. And yet what was left of them avenged their defeat in France and Flanders later on. History has a habit of repeating itself.

DISPLAY THE FLAG

(Brockville Recorder & Times)

Premier Hepburn is asking Ontario mayors to issue proclamations requesting people to display flags during the Dominion war loan campaign. They might do so more frequently than that. Except for the flags flown from public buildings, few, if any, are displayed in many Ontario towns and cities unless it be some patriotic occasion. American and other visitors must think we regard our flag very lightly when we hide it most of the time, even when our country is at war.

CONSCRIPTION IS COMING?

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

When asked if the Government were satisfied they can get all the men needed for the army by voluntary enlistment, Prime Minister King replied with "we are at the present time." We think Mr. King is suffering under an illusion and would suggest that he get the opinions of recruiting officers on the matter—perhaps his viewpoint would be changed. It seems to us that the Prime Minister's attitude is governed too much by Quebec politicians, who are opposed to conscription.

HOW TO START AN ARGUMENT

(Fergus News-Record)

There seems to be one sure way to stir up controversy between towns in Ontario, and that is to advocate the route of some new provincial highway across country. Every town not on the new route can be counted on to rise up and protest, for every town has some favorite route which it hopes to see used in future. And woe betide anybody who suggests an alternative. The sponsors of highway routes guard their favorites as carefully as the family cat keeps all intruders out of its master's backyard.

IT'S UP TO MR. KING

(Carleton Place Canadian)

It has been a cause for wonder that the Premier of this, the largest of Britain's dominions beyond the seas, has never been called to England for consultation, if all the reports coming out of Ottawa are correct of the amount of supplies being manufactured and sent forward. Perhaps the call has come but departure delayed. The Toronto Globe and Mail on Saturday carried clippings from a considerable number of papers, both daily and weekly, across Canada, urging the need for the presence of this dominion's premier at Mr. Churchill's side for consultation and closer co-operation. One of the quoted papers finishes its comment with the following significant words: "Surely Mr. King would rather be the leader of a united nation than of a party. He has the choice in his own hands."

SUPPORT YOUR TOWN !

(Stirling News-Argus)

It is high time all of us paid more attention to the building up of the small town and less to making the overgrown city larger. The little town or village is home—or should be. It needs our support and we are the people who must give it life and power if it is to have either. The big city cares nothing for us. It will, if it can, pull our dollars away, but that is the only use it has for us. The little town needs us and we need it. Stirling may not make as large a dent on the map as Toronto, but it really means more to us, and we ought to help make it something to be proud of. Why not get over the idea that the bright future of Canada lies in its cities? It does not. The future which lies in the cities is shopworn, smoked, dirty and unclean. The true future lies in the country and the little towns. Back them up and make them grow. When you buy goods or services other than through men who have their stake in Stirling, you are tearing down the foundation on which your town rests by just that much.

THE POET'S CORNER

MOTHER'S DAY

Dreaming, wistful, tender, true;
Musing o'er the needle's gleam;
Weaving hope and prayer into
Dainty tuck and silken seam.

Bending o'er the cradle's side,
Softly crooning lullaby
Till the weary lashes droop
O'er the sleep-beleagured eye.

Mending little rips and rents;
Soothing childish hurts the while;
Balming little woes that smart;
Healing sorrows with her smile.

Angel court as years go on;
Merciful to little sins;
Teaching that the road of right
Feels the feet of him who wins.

Grieving if the shadows come;
Loyal if misfortunes fall;
Enraptured when the fates are kind;
Yielding heart and soul and all.

Mother, sweetheart, fragrant flame
Shining on my altar—See:
Kneeling at thy shrine I come,
Lifting heart and lips to thee.

—Ralph Watson.

A MOTHER SPEAKS TO HER CHILDREN—ON MOTHER'S DAY

"Oh place me not aloof upon a throne,
A throne is for a Queen,
"Her Majesty can do no wrong," the people say,
Would that I were a Queen !
"Mother knows best," your baby lips
have said,
But you have surely learned;—
A mother's judgment may be swayed at times
When Family is concerned.
I try to understand and follow through,
Oh set me not apart;
Much more I'm one for you than you
may know
In hand and mind and heart.

—Bertha McFadyen.

THE ONE THAT GOT AWAY

What's the thrill you best remember
'Round the fire, late at night,
Was it netting that big rainbow
After you had won the fight?
Is that story you are telling
The important thing today?
Say—I'll bet what you'll remember
Is the one that got away.

In the evening, after sundown,
When the daily hunt is o'er,
When you're cleaning up your shotgun
And are adding up the score,
When your limit quail or ringneck,
You so proudly do display—
Is it "limits" you'll remember
Or the one that got away?

Honest, what's your favorite story?
Not the grandpa of them all,
Not the shooting of that partridge,
Nor the head there on the wall;
Not some tale of your own prowess
In your memory there to stay,
But a battle won against you
By the one that got away!

There's a glow of admiration

IN LIGHTER VEIN

"You'd better go home, George; your wife has presented you with a rebate off your income tax."

* * * *

John: I've got a beastly cold in my head.

Susie: Never mind, John. Don't grumble. Even if it's only a cold, it's something.

* * * *

Mrs. Blank: Do you want employment?

Tramp: Lady, you mean well, but you can't make work sound any better by using a big word for it.

* * * *

Robert: Very few women have any knowledge of Parliamentary law.

Harold: You don't know my wife. She's been speaker of the house for twenty-five years.

For the foe who tests your steel,
You appreciate raw courage
Even though defeat you feel;
Deep down under you're not sorry
That you lost the fight today,
Why it's ten-to-one you'll brag
About—that one that got away!

HIS MAJESTY—THE KING

Hail ! King and Emperor of the British Throne,
Honour: your Christ-like motto as its base;
You hold the trust of Britain in your hands,
King George the Sixth, custodian of our race.

Your royal Father's mantle falls on you,
The honour and the glory of the past,
Though whirlwinds, wars, and tremors, shake the world,
The House of Windsor ever will stand fast.

Close at your side, there blooms a Scottish Rose,
Elizabeth, your help-mate and your Queen,
All hearts proclaim her loveliness and worth,
Regnant in beauty—modesty in mien.

You hold the trust, your Kingly Father left,
To build a fairer world than we have known,
A Leader, marching 'mid the storms of war,
A wise successor to the British Throne.

We all acclaim you our beloved King,
And look to you in this our time of need,
To hold the flaming torch of freedom high,
Your subjects follow, where you choose to lead.

—Dorothy Sproule.

W. M. Conference

viously given, were also heard at this session. The report of the committee on Pastoral Relations was given its first and second readings, after which session adjourned for committee work.

On Friday afternoon the report of the Conference Statistical Committee was given, showing that the total raised for all purposes was $23,109. All books had been audited and found to be in good order, according to the auditors' report, which was also presented to Conference at this session. Other reports given were from the Budget Committee, Sunday School Board and Conference Treasurer, Rev. J. H. Weaver.

The special speaker for the afternoon was Rev. R. S. Nicholson, Connectional Representative. The topic of his address was: "Why am I a Wesleyan Methodist?" In answer to this, the speaker presented nine clear and pointed reasons for his membership in the Wesleyan denomination.

The Friday evening meeting was in charge of the Women's Missionary Society, with Mrs. Price Stark, returned missionary from Africa, as guest speaker. Taking her text from Romans 1:14-16, Mrs. Stark presented an earnest appeal for the fullest support of the Conference's foreign missionary efforts.

Saturday's Sessions.

The Saturday morning devotional service was conducted by the president, Rev. S. W. Blanchard, followed by the Conference communion service.

The business of the session consisted mainly of the receiving of final reports, as follows: Missionary Board, Committee on Defining, President's Duties, and Postoral Relations Committee report which was given its third reading and finaly adopted.

The Committee on Thanks read its report, and Conference ordered it to be re-read at the Sunday morning service.

The Committee on Resolutions' report was read and adopted. A resolution, urging the Dominion Government to act in regard to the evils of the liquor question, was passed and copies are to be sent to the Federal Government and each member of the Conference is to bring the resolution to the attention of the M. P. in his district.

Plans were adopted and a Board appointed to set up and govern a Ministers' Superannuation Fund. Those named on the Board were: Rev. J. A. Bain, Rev. S. W. Blanchard and Rev. L. M. McCorriston.

Visitors introduced to Conference at the Saturday morning session were: Rev. W. B. Nussey, newly received Conference preacher; Rev. S. Moon, Wesleyan Minister of New York; Rev. W. H. Shadbolt, of the Standard Church.

The Saturday afternoon session was devoted to young people of the Conference, with the vice president presiding. Following the devotional period, the following officers were elected: Arthur Summers, president, Rev. Wesley Nussey, Brockville, vice president; Miss Muriel Deeks, secretary; Mrs. D. L. Deeks, Newington, treasurer.

There were four addresses given during the afternoon, which were received with profit to all.

Miss Velma Burleigh, of Ottawa, spoke on "Money and Missions." The greatest investment possible, she said, is to have done something to make people Christians. Miss Willa Craig, also of Ottawa, chose as her topic, "Prayer and Missions," while Miss Irene Strutt, of Inkerman ,spoke on "W. Y. P. S. and Service," and Miss Beulah Summers, of Winchester, discussed "W. Y. P. S. in Evangelism." In closing her address, she said: "We, as a Young People's Society, have been much benefitted and are encouraged to go back to our respective places of abode to be better examples as Christians, and to imbibe the Spirit of Sacrifice so as to help reach others."

The evening meeting took the form of a Young People's Evangelistic Service. After a joyous song period and season of prayer, Rev. Mr. Nussey, of Brockville, presented a timely message from John's Gospel, Chap. 11, verse 9. He spoke of the brevity of this life, and explained "how we should do all in our power now, for our day may be a short day."

For winning the highest number of points, according to certain standards set for Young People's Societies by the Conference a year ago, the W. Y. P. S. of Winchester was awarded the Conference Banner.

Sunday Services.

Rev. A. F. Howick, of Kemptville, was ordained as an Elder in the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Canada, at the morning session on Sunday. The sermon was preached by Rev. Roy Nicholson, from the text II Cor. 6:3, "That the Ministry be not blamed." He emphasized the responsibility to live as examples of Godliness and "that we should perform our office work without favour or fear."

Rev. Price Stark and Mrs. Stark, returned missionaries from Africa, were in charge of the afternoon service. In his sermon, Mr. Stark emphasized the importance of people standing by the mission work with their prayers and money.

At the evening meeting, Rev. Roy Nicholson was the preacher and spoke of Christ as an eternal conqueror over death and sin and hell.

Special music during the Sunday meetings was provided by the Sunnyside Male Quartette of Ottawa, and local talent.

The Conference was largely attended and the various sessions were most interesting.

Following the Sunday evening service, Conference adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

MR. AND MRS. STERLING COONS AND FAMILY HONOURED

On Friday evening, May 3, the friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Coons and family, of Toyes Hill, gathered at the Hall to spend a few hours together before their departure for their new home in Winchester.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Coons were presented with four dining room chairs and a rocker, by Mrs. K. Houlahan and Mr. Chas. Kirkwood, on behalf of the community. The following address was read by Mr. Erwin Haggerty:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Coons, Bertha and Aleitha:—It is with a deep sense of regret that we, your neighbours and friends, have gathered tonight to say farewell before leaving for your new home in Winchester, but we are glad that you are not too far from us and will be able to keep in close touch with us all.

You have lived long in our midst and the ties of love and friendship which bind us are, indeed, firm and fast. As a family, you have been a vital asset to our community, ever willing to lend the helping hand, rejoicing with us in our joys and pleasures, helping us share our sorrows. Your co-operation and thoughtfulness in all our activities have always asserted themselves.

We feel we cannot let you go without an expression of our feelings and the hope and prayer that God will continue to direct and bless you for many years to come.

We ask you to accept this gift as a small token of remembrance of your many friends of Toyes Hill.

Signed on behalf of the community, Mrs. K. Houlahan, Charles Kirkwood, Erwin Haggerty.

Mr. and Mrs. Coons thanked their many friends for their kindness and invited them to visit them at their new home.

Mrs. Harold Millar, on behalf of the Hy Shy Ny Club and Sunday School, presented Bertha and Aleitha with an electric table lamp. The following address was read by Mrs. R. S. Peterson:

Dear Bertha and Aleitha:—Though you have shared in the words of appreciation and good will, given to you as a family from the community, we, the members of the Club and Sunday School, felt we wanted you to know, in some distinct way, how much we have appreciated your loyal support in all our work.

We realize now, as we look back over the years the Club has been running, there has been times that you, Bertha, have given of your time and energy beyond your strength. You have filled almost every office on the executive and was always zealous that the ideals for which our "Hy-Shy-Ny" Club stands, should be maintained. If there was a vacancy you were always willing to step into the gap and carry on, putting the good of the Society before personal feelings.

Your faith in the Sunday School and your love for the children, who came to you Sunday after Sunday, has been the greatest stay to keep the Sunday School going. When the rest of us faltered, your faith spurred us to renewed effort and we are sure that the seed thus sown will bear fruit in the years that are to come.

To say that we shall miss you both in Sunday School and Club does not nearly express our feelings, as we realize your places will be vacant, and we must carry on without your help and the inspiration your willingness to serve has been to us.

We know that same spirit will find for you both a place in the community and church life where ever you may be.

We ask you to accept this small gift, that in the days that are to come it may remind you of old associations and the many friends who wish for you all that is best and lovely in your new home.

We trust you will often find your way back to the old haunts where we assure you a warm welcome will always await you. Some one has truly said,

We live in deeds, not years,
In feelings, not in figures on a dial,
We should count time by heart throbs.
The most lives who thinks the most
Feels the noblest, acts the best.

Signed on behalf of the Hy Shy Ny Club and Sunday School.

Bertha and Aleitha both replied to this address, thanking their friends for the beautiful gift. All joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," after which lunch was served by the ladies.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Prevent Dust.

Empty the carpet sweeper on a dampened newspaper to prevent dust from flying about.

Preserves Color.

A teaspoonful of strong vinegar in the last rinse water will prevent black socks from losing their color.

Tortoise Shell.

Alcohol should be used for cleaning tortoise shell. Then polish with a chamois dipped in dry borax.

Boiled Fish.

A tablespoonful of vinegar added to the water in which fish is boiled whitens the meat and renders it more firm.

Improved Flavor.

A little sugar added to oatmeal when it is cooking, instead of putting it on at the table, improves the flavor greatly.

Washing Chiffon.

Wash chiffon in a pure soap solution. Rubbing is not required, just rinsing up and down in water that is not too hot.

Carpet Cleaning.

Discolored spots on the carpet can frequently be restored by rubbing with a sponge dipped in ammonia diluted with water.

To Soften Hard Water.

Soften hard water by adding to a boiler 2-3 full of water sal-soda the size of a large egg. This will not injure the clothes, will whiten, and save rubbing.

Metal Teapot.

A musty flavor will be imparted to the tea if made in a metal teapot that has not been used for some time. This can be prevented if a lump of sugar is placed in the teapot before putting it away.

Bluing Stains.

If bluing leaves a stain on a white material, soak it in a strong ammonia and water solution, or in kerosene, and then wash with naphtha soap in lukewarm water, rinsing thoroughly afterward.

After Fertilizing.

After having applied fertilizer to the lawn, go over the lawn with the back of the rake so as to remove the fertilizer from the leaves or blades of grass. Then wet thoroughly so that it will get down to the roots.

ST. PAUL'S LADIES' AID

The May meeting of St. Paul's Ladies' Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Greer, Church Street, on Thursday afternoon, with a good attendance. Mrs. L. Bouchard, the president, presided. After the singing of two verses of Hymn No. 606, the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Interesting reports were given by the treasurer and the corresponding and recording secretaries. It was decided to canvass members of the church for money donations instead of holding an anniversary supper this year.

Mrs. Margaret Moffatt voiced the appreciation of the Society to Mrs. Greer for the use of her home and to her committee who served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jas. H. Ross.

AN 18TH CENTURY PROPHECY

The time will come, when thou shall lift thine eyes
To watch a long-drawn battle in the skies,
While aged peasants, too amazed for words,
Stare at the flying fleets of wond'rous birds.
England, so long the mistress of the sea,
Where winds and waves confess her sovereignty,
Her ancient triumphs yet on high shall bear,
And reign, the sovereign of the conquered air.

(Translated from Gray's 'Luna Habitabilis,' Cambridge 1737).

Two hundred and four years ago this remarkable vision of the war in the air was written down in Latin verse by the great English poet who composed the famous "Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard." Thomas Gray was born in London, in 1716 and died at Cambridge in 1771.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

1. How far in advance should a man telephone a girl to ask her for a dinner date?
2. When it is necessary to discharge a servant, shouldn't one give this servant a good reference, if possible?

Sunday Services In Local Churches

"Do we need a Revival?" was Mr. A. L. MacKay's topic at the morning service in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church on Sunday. His text was taken from Habakukk, 3:2: "O Lord, I have heard Thy speech, and was afraid: O Lord, revive Thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy."

During his sermon, the pastor said that the reason for much of the world's strife was because the people had forgotten God. He charged that God was being left out of politics and out of foreign relations policies. He also pointed out that God does not forsake man, but men forsake God. As a result, evil influences were crowding out the elements of good in the world today, and for this reason the church was losing its power. He urged the people to do the things that were pleasing to God, and said that if God was given the proper place in our lives, the church could be a dynamic force in fighting the enemies of Christianity—sin and evil. These influences, said Mr. MacKay, are dominating all forms of society, and in many cases, the church itself. He said when he referred to the church, he wasn't thinking of a building with a spire reaching up into the skies, but of the people who "are" the church. We need a revival, he said, not only in the church, but in all forms of society, and most important of all—in our own individual lives. Not a revival which comes in one big spurt, when people are stirred by emotional appeals and forget all about it shortly after the campaign is over, but rather a conscientious revival of the human mind—a revival whereby people take God into their hearts after some deep thinking. These personal revivals are lasting, said Mr. MacKay, and the sooner we, as individuals, renew our faith in God and give Christianity a higher place in our lives, the better it will be for ourselves and the church.

Under the direction of Miss Clara Irving, the choir rendered "We Are Loyal Comrades," as a special number.

At the evening service, Mr. MacKay took his text from Matthew 20:6: "And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here idle all the day?" Christ calls at all ages, said the pastor, how many of us have answered the call? There is much to do for the extension of God's Kingdom but the labourers are few—why are we standing idle? These were questions the pastor dealt with during his sermon, and pointed out that God expects us to do what we are able to do, but no less. Even at the eleventh hour of life, we can be of service to God and He will magnify it enormously. We can all be of service to God, whether at the third, sixth, ninth or eleventh hour, but God is no bargainer—he will reward every person for their service in a just and equal manner. Referring to church members, Mr. MacKay said that those who attend church regularly, but who will not take an active part in church work, are standing idle. He urged all to accept Christ and become active workers in God's Kingdom.

Mrs. Hugh Wilson and the Misses Sybil Empey, Jessie Gordon and Mary Brown were heard in a pleasing quartette at the evening service when they sang: "In the Memory of Life."

THE UNITED CHURCH

"The power of a great tradition," was the subject chosen by Rev. W. S. Atchison on Sunday morning when he delivered a very earnest message from I Kings, 21:3. Naboth, in refusing to sell the inheritance of his fathers, showed loyalty to his God, and we have that today. We find ourselves either defending the faith of our fathers or abandoning it. Some of the things Ahab is trying to buy today were named as the old-fashioned Christian home and our moral persuasion. May we stand on Christ, the solid rock, and lend ourselves to carry on the traditions of years gone by.

The choir, with Mrs. Scobie at the organ, sang: "Rejoice the Lord is King," with solo part by Mr. J. D. Stewart.

At the evening service a pageant: "The Keepers of the Cross," was impressively put on by the following members of the Evening Auxiliary: Miss Craig, who took the leading part; Mrs. C. Rice, representing Martha; Mrs. Arnold Dukelow, as Mary; Mrs. Munro, the Mother of Jesus, and with her were Helene Munro and Marjorie Crummy; Mrs. E. Kellogg, as Dorcas, and Mrs. Clark, Lydia the seller of purple.

Mrs. K. Carlyle, the President of the Auxiliary, gave the introduction to the Pageant, and the choir sang suitable hymns at intervals. Rev. W. S. Atchison presided for the opening service and the closing.

The loose offering is to be given to the fund for bombed-out churches in England, for which Winchester United Church is asked to contribute $100.

WEDDINGS

BURLEY—FROATS

A spring wedding ceremony of widespread interest was solemnized at the parsonage, Brinston, on Saturday afternoon, April 26th, when Luella Grace Froats, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Froats, of Matilda, was united in marriage to Ivan Warren Burley, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Burley, of South Gower. The Rev. F. W. Taylor officiated.

The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. W. Cedric Coleman, of Heckston. The bride was charming in her dress of dusty rose crepe, with hat to match, and coat and accessories in black.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple left by motor for a trip to Toronto. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, South Gower.

BARKLEY—HUNTER

The marriage of Miss Audrey Almeda, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hunter, of South Mountain, to Bruce Mahlon, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam A. Barkley, of Elma, took place Saturday morning, May 3rd, at 10.30 at the Presbyterian Manse, Spencerville. Rev. H. P. Maitland officated.

Miss Lou Hunter, aunt of the bride, assisted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Brock Barkley, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride wore a street length bolero effect dress of Royal blue crepe with navy accessories, and the bridesmaid wore a dress of British navy crepe with matching accessories.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a leather purse, and to the best man a pair of gloves.

After the ceremony the happy couple left by motor for Montreal, Quebec City, St. Anne de Beaupre and other eastern points. On their return they will reside at Dundela.

MORRISON—DEMPSEY

Early Spring flowers adorned the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dempsey, at Vernon, for the wedding at 2.30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon of Doris Elizabeth Dempsey, to William Robert Morrison, of St. Catherines, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrison, of Edwards, Ont.

Rev. W. S. Atchison, of Winchester, United Church, uncle of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony. The wedding music was played by Miss Betty Bolster and the bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Miss Betty Morrison, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid. Mr. Edward McMahon was best man, and Master Bruce Edward MacMillan was ring-bearer.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered silk jersey, the long bridal veil held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Talisman roses.

The bridesmaid wore a floor-length gown of pink silk chiffon, with tiny covered buttons down the back, and a silk net jacket. She carried an arm bouquet of Token roses. The young ringbearer wore a Lord Fauntleroy suit of blue and white.

The opening song service of the Young People's meeting was under the leadership of Rev. Augustine. A Scripture reference was read by Mrs. Augustine. All joined in singing a hymn, which was followed by a season of prayer.

The Devotional Group took charge with Mrs. Fred Gibbons as leader. "Will Your Anchor Hold?" was sung, and response was made to roll call by each repeating a verse of Scripture. Following the business period, Biblical passages were read by Mrs. N. J. Porteous, Miss Isabel MacGregor and Miss Lillian Jorgensen.

A continuation of the last presentation of "Basic Baptist Beliefs," was ably given by Rev. Augustine on "Ordinances,"—baptism, the emblem of what grace has done, and The Lord's Supper—a memorial feast. The closing number, "Now None but Christ can Satisfy," was followed by the Benediction by Mr. J. C. MacGregor.

On Monday evening, April 25th, Miss Erratt was presented with a set of Crystal (Service for 8) by members of the United Church Y. P. S. The presentation was made by Miss Ruth McInnis, while the address was read by Miss Laura Dukelow. Miss Erratt replied and expressed her appreciation to the Society for their kind remembrance. She has been secretary-treasurer of the Y. P. S. for several years.

On Tuesday evening, about 60 friends and neighbours honoured Miss Erratt at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Erratt, Melvins. The hostesses were Mrs. D. Edgerton, Miss Ethel Annable, Mrs. H. Gibson, assisted by Mr. Willis Robinson.

After the bride-to-be was seated on a chair under a cluster of balloons filled with confetti, she was presented with a bouquet of cut flowers by Master Billie Gibson. As the balloons were released, Miss Erratt was showered with confetti.

The address to the guest of honour was read by Mrs. H. Gibson, while the presentation of a Console Table and Mirror, and other miscellaneous gifts, was presented by the other hostesses. Following Miss Erratt's reply, all joined in singing "For Shes A Jolly Good Fellow."

Oral contests and music were enjoyed after the presentation, and at the close of the program dainty refreshments were served.

A bride's book, designed in the shape of a bell, containing the address and names of all present at the shower, was presented to the bride-elect by Miss Melba Barrett.
