Lions - Sponsored Trade Show A Success

To say that last weekend's Lions-sponsored Trade Show was a success is indeed an understatement. Hundreds of village and district residents turned out to view the displays which ranged from snowmobiling to banking, from what the best dressed man or woman is wearing to the handing out of dairy products, from beautiful artistic hand-made products to displays of manufacturing processes.

Behind the scenes it is well to remember that all afternoon on Friday, a team of Lions and trade show exhibitors worked feverishly to get the show ready and the cooperation that existed resulted in everyone being ready for the public when they started streaming in at 7:30 p.m.

Once the crowd had gathered, President Peter Swank called on Reeve Ken Kirkby to welcome and introduce Reeve Mahlon Zeron of Matilda Township and Don Irvine, MPP, for words leading up to the official start of the two-evening show.

Also attending the show in an official capacity was Miss Barbara Milne, Mountain, the Dundas County Dairy Princess who handed out dairy products during the show.

The participation of private citizens, businesses, organizations and industry had been immediate and all space was sold out within a short period of time, and while it was in a sense being run as a retailing show, many people did take advantage of making sales and of making contacts that will certainly later produce the desired results.

Perhaps the amazing part of the event was that even though it was the first such venture of its kind in the community, the planning and organization was done so well by the people in charge that it had a look of professionalism to everyone who attended.

The Post, both as a participant and as a newspaper reporting the event, gratefully acknowledges the many kind comments from the public on behalf of the exhibitors and the Lions Club.

Bible Society Executive Plans Canvass

A meeting of the Executive of the Canadian Bible Society, Iroquois Branch, was held at the home of the President, Mrs. K. Perry, on Oct. 19th with five members present. Minutes of the previous annual meeting were waived in their reading until the meeting of November 5th. The treasurer's report was given, showing that during the period of Nov. 1971 to Oct. 1972, total receipts amounted to $683.00 from last year's canvass and in-memoriam contributions. Plans for this year's Bible Society Appeal will include having the District Secretary, the Rev. T.H. Bridle speak in the four village churches on Sunday, November 5th, in the following schedule: St. Cecilia's R.C. Church, 10:10 a.m.; St. John's Anglican Church, 11 a.m.; Knox Presbyterian Church 11:20 a.m. and Iroquois United Church at 11:40 a.m., following which the annual canvassers' and branch meeting will be held in the United Church parlour with a sandwich-cake luncheon. The Iroquois Ministerial Association has endorsed this schedule for opening the annual appeal, and contributed to informing the public during the recent Trade Fair at which time Bible Society literature and pamphlets were distributed from the Ministerial Booth.

Mr. Ed Casentree, local Branch Secretary, presented an outline of canvassers' needs and the Rev. John Hibbs was appointed to assist in notifying the Ministerial Association of canvass requirements. Complete canvass lists will be ready for Oct. 29th and kits and receipt books handed out at the annual meeting luncheon in the United Church parlour, Nov. 5th. Church bulletins and pieces of Bible Society literature were ordered for the Sunday Services and the canvass.

Mr. Henry Sauve noted the excellent door response to last year's canvass and members looked forward to the continuing support of the local community toward this ecumenical appeal, on behalf of the Canadian Bible Society, to provide the churches with copies of the Scriptures, in whole or in part, for distribution in Canada and throughout the world, either gratis or "at a price that people can afford" for the continuing assistance to the churches in their missional outreach.

The community of Iroquois and the concessions is encouraged to respond to this annual appeal sponsored through the churches, the canvass beginning with the Sunday Services in the local congregations and through to November 18th.

- - - AS YOU WISH, BUT VOTE

No matter how much we seem to bellyache to others about some of the things we don't like going on in this country of ours, they are all forgotten when someone else attacks our freedoms.

With a general election facing us on October 30th, we Canadians have an opportunity to have a say in the running of Canada. Either we support those Members of Parliament now in power, or we don't!

It's really as simple as that!

During the past few weeks we have heard of the ills of the Trudeau government and of the great things they and the other parties are willing to do for us, with our own money we might add. But so far we personally haven't been able to find in any of them any great and significant change offered. They are all basically offering to give us good government with varying ways to get the job done.

So as far as we can see this election has been boiled down to battles on a more personal basis than on a general basis. In many ridings, and ours is one of them, the battle is between the two major parties - Conservative and Liberal, and the personal battle is between two exceptionally good men.

Gordon Blair has done a good job for the people he has represented and against that we have heard little argument from either party. Walter Baker is promising to do an equally good job should he get elected. The NDP, probably due to lack of sufficient funds, have been relatively quiet in our riding.

But next Monday we have to make up our mind to vote for one person and that is the person we feel can do the job for us. Many feel that Trudeau is not doing the job for us that we want and many feel that Stanfield is just not the right leader for the Conservatives.

What a choice that leaves us!

And we do not say this about either men because they are not capable, either. But today's leaders seem to have to be able to present a Hollywood atmosphere to their people or we do not want them as our top leaders. That can, of course, sometimes lead to having the wrong people elected for the wrong reasons. But such is our way of doing things these days.

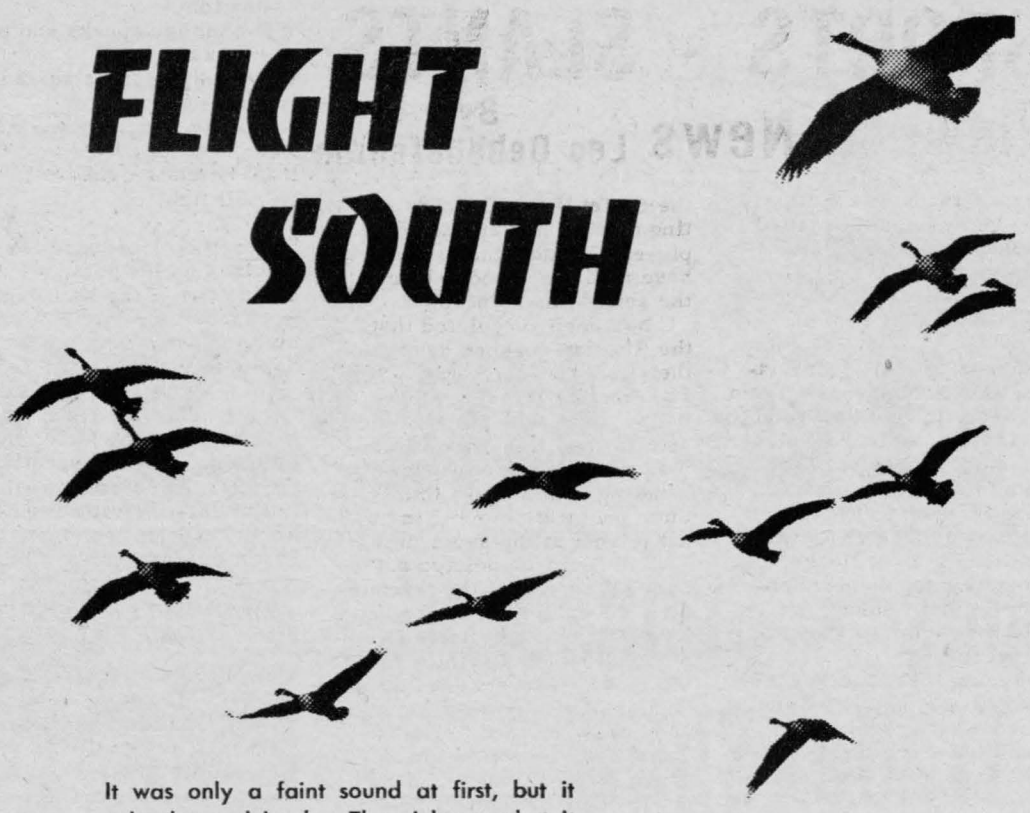
We have problems in this country and in this we are no different than any other generation. Let's see that the people we elect to represent us in Ottawa are the kind of people this country needs.

TRADE SHOW - A MASTERPIECE

Last weekend's Iroquois Lions sponsored Trade Show was a masterpiece in every respect. With a limited time for planning but with exceptional cooperation from all sides the show was no doubt the best event this community has seen in many years.

It would be impossible to name all those who worked so hard to make the event what it was so we'll just extend the largest THANK YOU we have to all - sponsors, participants, the school and the general public.

FLIGHT SOUTH



It was only a faint sound at first, but it grew louder and louder. Then I knew what it was and rushed from the house.

High overhead, dark against the bright autumn sky, a flight of geese winged instinctively toward the south. Large wings flapped in graceful rhythm, and raucous honks of conversation brought a nostalgic ache to my throat.

"Bon voyage," I called, saluting with my whole heart the brave creatures who flew so unswervingly through uncharted skies.

And I wondered at us humans. How we doubt and fear and flail about, worrying about tomorrow and a dozen other somethings! Our course is not unknown. God promises abundant life if we but follow Him.

Your church is your guidebook to God. Worship there and find the security that comes from within, the result of understanding God and one's relationship to Him.

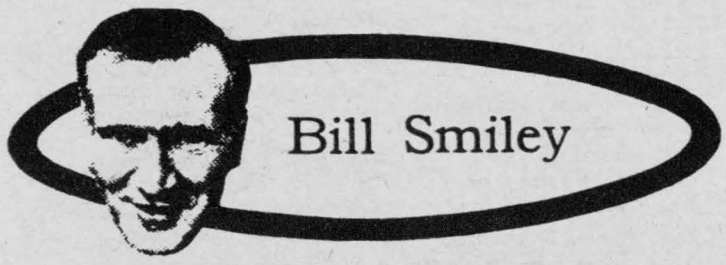
PIERRE'S DIFFERENT THIS TIME AROUND

By Bill Smiley



Canadians, fairly phlegmatic in most ways, are mercurial in their voting. They've shown that since confederation, swinging now behind one party, then turning it out for a while, then putting it back in power.

John Diefenbaker swept the country with his fire and vision at just the right moment. Not many years later, he couldn't even win a convention for leadership of his own party.

And I confess with a slight blush that I'm no exception. At one time or another, I have voted for candidates of all three major parties, and would probably have cast a vote for Social Credit if I'd ever had a chance and the right man had been running.

How about you? Have you made up your mind yet, or are you still looking over the field and wishing there were some other alternative, such as Mao-Tse-Tung or Guy Lombardo?

It's hard to choose. The present government has not exactly won wild plaudits in the last four years. It has achieved little in cutting expenses and taxes, in fighting inflation, in creating employment, and in buying Canada back from foreign investors. It is doubtful whether any other party would have done better.

How about the Prime Minister? Can he swing it virtually on his own, as he did last time? From my tiny vantage point, it looks as though he's running scared.

Last trip around, he had an enormously favorable press. He was something new and exciting, a swinger with a razor-sharp mind and a charming shrug. The women loved him.

But now he's an old married man with a family, the press has soured, and you don't hear that word "charisma" being tossed around. He's deadly serious in his commercials. He is resorting for the first time to the old backroom politics with what look suspiciously like election bribes to various parts of the country.

What would he do if he lost? I think he'd pick up his marbles and go home. He's always been a winner, and he has none of the parliamentary skill, the patience and the doggedness that make a good opposition leader.

Well, then there's honest Bob Stanfield. He's hard-working and oozes integrity and is intelligent. But lordy, lordy, if only he'd take a course in public speaking. He'd probably make a solid but uninspiring prime minister. But is it worth it to change the whole government for a fellow whose slogan is about as fatuous and feeble as you'd find: "We Can Do Better."? Better than what? Better than nothing, a good Tory might retort. Even that isn't good enough.

There's something I can't stand about David Lewis, head of the N.D.P. He's smarmy. He has only one tune. And he has that old-fashioned belief that there's a Big Business rapist forever hiding under the bed of that perennial spinster, the Canadian socialist party.

That leaves Real Caouette. There's a real firebrand for you. I'd rather listen to one of his speeches, even though I can barely follow it, than any given number by shrugging Pierre, bumbling Bob and I-can-give-it-to-you-wholesale David.

If I were a rural French-Canadian, I'd certainly say, "Dat Caouette is de bes' bet."

Well then, what in the world does one do? It's easy for the faithful of any party. They'd vote for an ape if he were running on the party ticket. Some of them are so rigid that they'd even vote for a woman.

But the rest of us are

Views & News

By Leo Debellefeuille

Team Canada was a clumsy name because our so-called National Team was really borrowed from the N.H.L. Hockey Canada should get back to the training of our young hopefuls and keep out of show business. Just imagine the money spent by Team Canada to find out how good the Russians are as hockey players, when most authorities have known this for over fifteen years. If Team Canada would have turned these costs to the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association for the development of Minor Hockey, we would have more to show for our investment.

One thing that concerns most Canadians is: why has Canada not had a better program of preparation since they removed themselves from world hockey? If we had a plan whereby a training program was invented some ten or twelve years ago to prepare ourselves for world hockey play, we could be much more competitive today!

Most people, in discussing the recent Russia-Canada hockey series, refer to the fact that the USSR train and play hockey on a year-long basis. However, in North America, professional and amateur hockey players play more hockey and do more training in eight months than the foreign countries do in a year. For example, the N.H.L. regular schedule and playoffs are almost three times the size of the schedule that is employed by the foreign teams. It is not thelength of time you play; it is how you play. The system for training by the Russians is much more extensive than that used by the N.H.L. or the C.A.H.A.

Harry Sinden and John Ferguson are currently reading several books published by the Soviet Union Coaches relating on how hockey should be played. Perhaps they should have read these books before the series commenced.

It has been speculated that the Russian coaches have their goal tenders warm up and practice by using rubber balls. When they practice the goal tender, the forward line players each move in stick-handling with a puck, thus three pucks are moving in on the net minder at the same time.

Allan Eagleson pointed out on a TV show that the revenue from the exhibition series between Canada and Russia is divided in such a fashion that the N.H.L. Players Pension Fund receive a portion, and another is provided to Hockey Canada for the promotion of Minor Hockey. Fine and dandy, but it would be interesting to see a statement released on the complete financial aspect of the series. e.i. Expenses vs Profits.

Jim Ward, President of the Upper St. Lawrence Minor Hockey, and Gerry Fulford, President of the Iroquois Minor Hockey Association, would be wise to inquire from Bill Dillabough, the prexy of the O.D.H.A., to seek out some of this Hockey Canada revenue to assist in the promotion of their respective hockey programs in this area.

Three cheers, three cheers for Canada.
We are the best,
Before the test,
But after stand in awe.
It is the end;
We can no longer pretend.
Let all witness our inferiority
At our national sport - hockey.
It's such a shame
Having no one to blame.
For here men are sold
For a pot of gold
And the bureaucrats deal in fame.
If you can score thirty goals or more
Don't you fret;
A high bid you'll get
On the market of flesh and sweat.
Then what of the team?
Yes, it is a dream
To expect co-operative hustle
Over individual muscle.
Discipline, determination and desire
No, they are not for hire.
Their price is cheap,
For that of a Superstar is steep.
And this talent our people flock to admire.
An extra push-up or two
Will make our men blue;
And they'll call a reunion
Of members of their union.
And its "Get off my back, Mr. Imlack"
Like a spoiled child,
Who's ego runs wild.
A player on the bench
Who for excitement does quench,
Cries out "Play me or trade me".
Yes, this is but one organization
Which reflects the mentality of a nation
Where money speaks and poverty reeks
Where impressions soars high
In thy neighbour's eye.
Of course, Canada, we stand on guard for thee;
If the price is right,
We will fight!

Former major league baseball umpire Charles F. Berry, regarded as one of the best umpires in baseball for over 20 years, died in Boston Sept 6th at the age of 69.

The Caldwell Linen's Bowling League held their annual meeting recently and elected the following capable executive for the 1972-73 season. President is Jim Blakely; Vice-President, Roger Coulter; Secretary, Clare Easter and Treasurer, Claudia Newman. The alley bowling season started Friday September 15th.

Mr. Coulter informed us that there will be further news on the Bowling League as well as reports on activities at the Iroquois Golf Club.

As Dean Martin would say, "Keep those letters coming".

Bruce Roundpoint, 19, a star lacrosse player with the St. Regis Braves junior team, has been charged with assault by two referees, Donald Greeham of Ottawa and Jimmy Bough of Cornwall. Mr. Greenham received eight stitches to close a cut above his eye and Mr. Bough a bruised jaw.

King Casselman, manager of the Cardinal Pats informs me that the game between his Pats and the Williamsburg Pioneers was the longest game he can ever recall. The playoff game was played Sept. 11 and started at 8 p.m. and at 1 a.m. the score after 23 innings was deadlocked at 3-3. It probably had a definite effect on the Pat's defeat the following evening in Oshawa in Ontario playdowns as they were licked 5 zip by the Motor City nine. Fellows, you can't burn the candle at both ends! Irregardless, the Pats had another fine season, as did all teams in the Metro Dundas League.

The Ottawa Nationals of the W.H.A. are near the 2,000 mark in season ticket sales.

Ralph Hurley will return as coach of the Brockville Braves of the C.J.H.L.

Pre-game ceremonies delayed the start of the Russia-Canada hockey games for so long, they could almost squeeze in an extra period.

Remember - If you play sports, be a good one!

'72 Christmas Issues

For the ninth consecutive year, the Canada Post Office is issuing special stamps for Christmas. This year's issues, comprising four stamps in six-cent, eight-cent, ten-cent and fifteen-cent denominations, will go on sale November 1, 1972. The designs for the four stamps were created from photographs by Ray Webber of Toronto. In each, Webber has imparted the season's spirit of peace and goodwill through one of the oldest and perhaps most universal symbols associated with Christmas-softly burning candles.

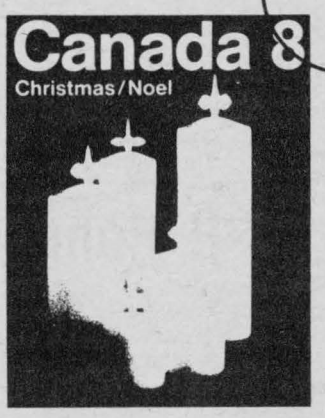
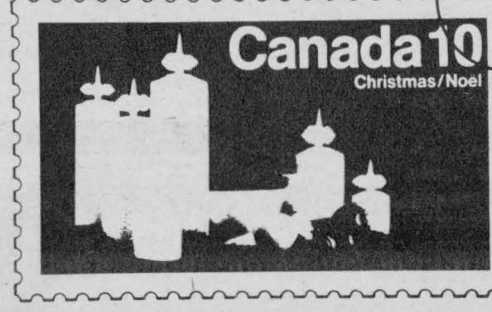
The candle, like several other familiar symbols of Christmas today, actually predates Christianity by several thousand years. It's obvious association with light and warmth and therefore life itself gave the candle a natural symbolic value in many different religious cults.

In pre-Christian days, candles and evergreens were used to decorate homes during mid-winter festivals celebrating the rebirth of the sun. Through the coincidence of the winter solstice festival and the feast of the Nativity the symbolism of the evergreen as survival and the candle as life endured in the traditions of Christmas.





Beaupre-Robertson

Wed at United Church

With a background of baskets of gladioli and carnations, a pretty autumn wedding was solemnized in Iroquois United Church September 30, 1972, when Miss Sharon Robertson became the bride of Jeffery Charles Beaupre. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Robertson of Iroquois. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Beaupre of Iroquois are the parents of the bridegroom.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. W. Brian Gee, BA, BD, ThM., minister of Iroquois United Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor-length gown of white silk featuring camelot sleeves, high neckline and Venise guipure lace and daintily trimmed with green petals and white flowers on a tiny white bow, long built-in train of cathedral silk and lace. A matching crown held a three tiered illusion veil held by lacets. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby white carnations.

Bridal attendants were her two sister-in-laws and one cousin and a niece for flower girl.

Mrs. Carl Robertson was maid of honour, and Mrs. Glenn Robertson and Miss Dianah Smail as bridesmaids. Miss Nancy Robertson was flower girl. They wore floor length gowns of pastel colours of sheer nylons of floral prints over pastel colours. The maid of honour wore pale pink, and the bridesmaids wore pale blue and yellow. They carried nosegays of white carnations and matching colours and ribbons in their nosegays to correspond with their gowns. They wore floppy brim hats with no crowns. The flower girl wore a long white gown similar to the bride's and was trimmed delicately with pink buds and green petals. She carried a bouquet of multiple colours and ribbons.

Miss Nancy Drennan was the guest book attendant.

Mr. Carl Robertson of Iroquois was best man. Ushers were Ronald Beaupre and Gorden Summers. The bridegroom wore a navy suit and white rose boutonniere. The ushers wore navy blazers and grey pants and boutonnieres to match the girls'. The ring bearer, David Daisley wore the same outfit as the bridegroom and he wore a white rose boutonniere and carried a heart shaped pillow trimmed with lace.

The bride's mother wore a floor length sleeveless gown of blue silk covered with sheer pastel nylon, gathered at the waist and semi-full skirt with wide frill at the bottom. The neckline was V-shaped trimmed with a delicate ruffle and navy velvet ribbon trim with matching navy accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown with three-quarter length sleeves of blue lace fabric, scooped neckline, and wore a corsage of white roses, and silver matching accessories.

The organist was Miss Julie Fawcett and Mr. Gary Gates was soloist.

Following the reception at the Iroquois Legion, the couple left for a trip around Ontario for their honeymoon, and will reside in Iroquois.

Women's Auxiliary Annual meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Winchester District Memorial Hospital stressed the two-fold objectives of the Society: personal volunteer service to the hospital and the raising of funds to supply extra equipment and comforts for the patients.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Elizabeth Burns of Arnprior, the dynamic president of District # 9, who enlarged on the qualifications of the good volunteer. She must keep in perspective her service in relation to the regular staff; she must be reliable and responsible, imaginative and well-informed as to the scope of her area of service as outlined in her "job sheet"; and, above all, she must keep in mind that, to the patient, she is an important liason between the hospital and the community - the visible evidence that the community cares.

Mrs. Parker Locke, in thanking Mrs. Burns for her challenging address, commented that our present ever-expanding staff of volunteers must be inspired by this description of the 'ideal' volunteer.

Mrs. F.M. Cass, in accepting, with regret, Mrs. Max Boyd's resignation as Director of In-service Volunteers, praised her for the magnificant job she had done in fostering the service from a small number of interested members in One East to the present thirty volunteers who service Admitting, Peadiatrics, Physiotherapy and One East. Mrs. Boyd, who had initiated the summer program, in which seventeen teenagers last summer clocked 1,122 hours, agreed to keep on with the teenagers.

Mrs. Midge Smith of Morrisburg undertook to set up the elaborate schedule for adults and it was hoped to extend this service to include Medical and Surgical floors.

Mrs. Cass forecast the immediate 1972-73 projects for the financial area: completion of the Cardiac Care equipment $4,000; continuing replacement of cubicle curtains as needed; extra wheel chair for outpatient use; further equipment needed by physiotherapy department and the eventual setting up of a Tuck Shop and Meals-on-Wheels service.

Ten units responded to the roll call with the names of their 1972-73 Directors and Convenors of Volunteers.

Mrs. Lancaster, convenor of the Nominating committee, reported the 1972-73 slate of officers to be: President, Mrs. F.M. Cass; 1st vice-president, vacant; 2nd vice, Mrs. Don Badger; Secretary, Mrs. G. Fuke; treasurer, Mrs. R. Summers.

All unit convenors, with their present and prospective volunteers, were urged to be present at the Orientation meeting on Nov. 1 at 2:30 p.m. in the old Hospital Board Room.

The Tuck Cart is under the care of Williamsburg for November and Winchester for December.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO OWN THE FARM TO BE A SUCCESSFUL FARMER AND TO HAVE A GOOD LIFE

BUT YOU NEED TRAINING

Farming is big business today.

On large Ontario farms there's a constant need for agricultural workers. But it's not the old-fashioned "Hired-Hand" life anymore. It's a well-paying lifetime career with rich benefits for the person who enjoys working with livestock, crops and machinery. And it's a healthy life -- especially for a growing family who can count on accommodation, food and a less frustrating pace of life.

To train men for this career, a ten week course to upgrade agricultural knowledge and skills is being offered at the KEMPTVILLE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL TECHNOLOGY beginning January 8, 1973.

To qualify you must be at least 18 years of age; 1 year out of school with a functional Grade 8 education, and be approved by a selection committee.

Also available are training allowances which can total up to $113 weekly for a man with 4 dependants, if approved by ARDA and Canada Manpower.

MP Gordon Blair has won many friends and a great deal of respect in Grenville-Carleton through his hard work and devotion to his constituents and to the House of Commons. His selection by the cabinet as chairman of the Commons committee on procedure and organization and his recent appointment as the House of Commons' representative on the Canadian delegation to the United Nations attest to the respect his fellow parliamentarians have for him.

A May issue of "The Financial Post" describes Gordon Blair, Grenville Carleton Member of Parliament as a "Man to Watch".

When an MP gets to be chairman of the powerful procedure and organization committee it can be said automatically that he has made his mark, at least on the government, says the article written by John Bird.

At the Offertory and during the signing of the register, Miss Marilyn Pitt sang "Song of Joy" and "Bridge Over Troubled Waters". During Communion, Mrs. Earl Pitt played "Amazing Grace" and during the Recessional, "Everything is Beautiful".

She was assisted by Mrs. Ron Helmer, Brockville, sister-in-law of the groom, wearing a floor length dress of blue crimpoline, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A dance was held at the Legion Hall at 8 p.m.

Local Hospital Representatives At Provincial Convention

Health Care Co-Ordinated, the interlocking of health services from intensive to home care, is the theme of the 48th Convention of the Ontario Hospital Association, taking place at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, October 23, 24, 25.

Of the more than 8,000 hospital personnel expected to attend from all parts of Ontario will be a representative group from Winchester District Memorial Hospital. In addition to hospital staff members, this group will include Mr. W. Reg. Workman, President, Board of Governors, Mr. George Elliott, Vice-President of the Board, and Dr. G. N. Houze, President of the Medical Staff.

The general sessions for hospital trustees and administrators will focus on the delivery of health care through hospital-sponsored programs, as well as the effects of recent health care legislation and the role of district health councils.

Meetings for specialized health personnel who belong to the twenty sections of the Ontario Hospital Association will run at the same time as general sessions. The DHA sections range from nursing administration, medical technology, physic and occupational therapy, housekeeping and purchasing to engineering, accounting and pharmacy

Two newcomers, the Speech Pathology and Audiology section and Hospital Ambulance Services group, will be meeting for the first time at the convention. Speech Pathology and Audiology delegates will participate in a panel discussion on "Partners in Communication". The hospital Ambulance Service program highlights a discussion on Hospital Based Ambulance Services.

The largest OHA section, The Hospital Auxiliaries Association of Ontario, with a membership of more than 60,000 will be hdding its own annual conference in conjuction with the OHA meetings. Keynote speaker is The Hon. Robert Welch, Ontario Provincial Secretary for Social Development.

Delegates from the Auxiliary of Winchester District Hospital include Mrs. Jean LaRose and Mrs. Ruth McCullough.

The OHA, which is a non-profit, voluntary organization representing all hospitals in Ontario, plus many related health institutions, is also making a special effort to encourage a closer understanding between physicians and community hospitals. There will be a joint session for hospital trustees and medical staff on "Appointment Procedures and Medical Staff Privileges".

A total of more than 75 speakers and panelists will participate in the three-day convention, the largest for hospital personnel in Canada. Active participation by 136 suppliers and manufacturers makes the OHA convention Canada's largest exhibition of modern hospital equipment.

Presiding over the convention will be Gordon R. Cunningham of Sault Ste. Marie, who will be completing his one-year term as OHA President.

The OHA President-Elect is Charles E. Boyd, member and past president of the Board of Directors of York County Hospital, Newmarket.

GORDON BLAIR M.P. GRENVILLE-CARLETON

Room 532c, Centre Block Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, Ontario, 992-0511

As the campaign ends, I wish to restate my priorities for Grenville-Carleton. Because of my experience and because I can see the problems lying ahead for this country for the next few years, I am not a person who can make extravagant promises. Despite all that has been said in this campaign, no one really believes there are any easy or quick solutions for these problems.

But, our priorities must be to find acceptable, if not perfect, solutions to the problems. On a national scale, we face the continual problem of maintaining Canadian unity. We must develop our economy and combat the twin evils of unemployment and inflation. Unquestionable, our tangled welfare systems must be overhauled. The upgrading of farm income and the provision of better security for small farmers are both major challenges. The problems arising from urbanization including housing, public transport and proper planning must be tackled more positively than in the past. The attack on pollution has only begun.

Specifically in Grenville-Carleton I see the following priorities: Encouragement of industrial development especially in high technology industries such as electronics and chemicals; Elimination of pollution in the St. Lawrence and the Rideau Rivers; Improvement of farm income by support of more aggressive farmer bargaining in the market place and expanded financial assistance for development through Small Farms Improvement and other programs; in the capital region, strong Federal leadership, co-operation and support for proper planning, satellite-type new cities, adequate public transport, encouragement of housing, especially for aged and low-income earners. In the Public Service, fairness in the bilingual program, more humanity in administration and improved labour relations.

As your Member for the past 4 years, I have developed my own concepts of the independent role of a private member of parliament. I have tried to live by those concepts and have spoken up for the things I believe are in the best interests of this constituency and against those which were not. It is on this record that I stand, realizing, as you do, that the national objectives which I have stated can only be achieved by the co-operation of all provinces and all political parties and the full understanding and support of the people of Canada.

Knox Explorer-Jets

Twenty-four pre-teen youth attended the opening meeting of the Knox Church Explorer-Jets Wed. evening, Oct. 18th, held in the church-hall.

The newly-elected President Dale Easter opened the meeting with a call for response to the Motto, following which the Lord's Prayer was shared. The spirit song "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands" was sung, and the film "Faith for the Space-Age" shown.

Miss Cathy McKee, newly elected Secretary read the minutes of a previous preparatory meeting and Mary Lynn Waddell, newly elected Treasurer gave the treasurer's report It was noted that all the chocolate bars had been sold for the outing project, with the realization of $42.00 profit.

Plans outlined by the Executive will include a hockey game outing in the future; a Christmas candle-making and toy-making project and a decision to give support to some civic need.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, November 1st, with a Halloween Party, members being assigned duties in this regard. Masks will be worn as the only costuming.

With the closing ritual, refreshments were served by Miss A. Yee, co-leader, Miss Jane Barnhardt, and Melvin Yee.

Adult leaders of this co-education group are Miss A. Yee, Mr. Neville Tompkins and the Rev. Hibbs.

faced with the same old spectacle: the government desperately shoring up the old levee, and the others all howling that they will do this and that and thus, if only.

That makes us get down to the local level and take a look at the candidates, trying to disassociate them from their leaders. In my riding, we have three. There's the incumbent, a Tory, a doctor, an elderly man who is a master at politicking and never misses a fiftieth anniversary or a ninetieth birthday in the riding.

We have a handsome, youngish lawyer who has done a lot of work in municipal and service club affairs, and sings at weddings. And we have a university student, full of ideals and somewhat blinkered when it comes to reality. Three generations.

And do you know who is going to win? The elderly doctor, who has been years in parliament and should have retired gracefully, after making a mark on the face of our history that could be wiped off with a kleenex. Because this is a Tory riding, and that's it.

The student will get his lumps, the lawyer will get some experience, and the old gentleman will get the gold ring.

Well, that's elections, and I can't even tell my wife how to vote, because she thinks Trudeau is still sorta cute and Margaret is beautiful.

My guess? Liberals back in with a minority government.

GOOD RESPONSE

The Apple Days on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 20 and 21, sponsored by 1st Iroquois Cubs and Scouts were very successful due to the wonderful response of all citizens of Iroquois and district.

We would like to especially thank the apple growers who donated apples, the people who provided transportation and the generous citizens.

Leak In Confidential Report

Walter Baker, Progressive Conservative candidate in Grenville-Carleton, stated that the leak of a confidential reprot which warns the Federal Government that it's programme on bilingualism is not working may just be the tip of the iceburg. "Public Servants have told me that the programme has failed andhave made it pretty clear that it is useless to attempt to "force-feed" 40 and 50 year old Public Servants in a second language", stated Mr. Baker.

It is reported that the leaked report contends that there is no way that the programme can reach it's objective by 1975, and I feel that it's true because it's beyond belief that we can successfully remake 105 years of Canadian history in 5 years. Mr. Baker said that if the programme has failed, as the report seems to indicate that it has, it seems obvious that the whole manner of the method and approach of implementation ought to be at least reconsidered. One can sympathize with the Public Servant who has had the door to advancement slamed in his face by the implementation of a programme which is now an obvious failure. Whether or not the report is complete, it's contents ought to be releleased immediately and not hidden away in a Minister's drawer or behind a bland press statement. The Public Servants of Canada ought to be dealt with honestly in this matter, which goes to the root policy which has been described by the Prime Minister as "going to the core of the Liberal Party policy".

ADELAIDE DANIELS SAYS

MEN HAVE WEIGHT PROBLEMS

Many men have their own special weight control problems. For instance, there is the junior executive who gets to the airport only to find that his flight has been delayed for a couple of hours. To kill time, he goes into a snack bar for a bite to eat or perhaps to the bar for a liquid interlude.

To the weight-conscious man, business lunches can be a bombshell — whether he is being entertained or doing the entertaining. Another danger is the ever present banquet round where there is no choice of the menu.

The results are pounds, bulges and in some cases a career that reaches a dead end plateau. Let's face it, some companies are prejudiced against fat people. I know of men who received long awaited promotions only after they had lost on a planned weight reduction program.

In one instance a young man of 28, who was a dock worker, lost 100 pounds and was promoted to the sales desk. His whole life has changed.

Men join classes for weight watchers because they realize they will follow a liveable diet for people on the go. They know that weight loss increases their life expectancy.

When I visit a class, I am always so pleased to hear and see the successes of the many male members. They are so pleased with their losses that they volunteer information.

It usually goes something like this: "I used to wear a size 50 but now it's a 40 slim," or, "My wife really loves the guy she married," or, "I'm no longer rated on my life insurance and I just received a cheque for $400.00." Overweight men really want to do something about it and that's what matters.

Men want to lose weight for the same reasons women do. They usually start by saying, "I don't care about my suit size. I just want to lose weight."

But after they have shed a few pounds the first thing they will tell you is: "I've lost 4 inches on my waist, 2 inches on my neck; I'm now wearing a size 15 collar when I used to wear a 17 and I'm wearing a size 42 trousers when I used to wear a size 46."

Vanity is a gift given to both sexes.

There's Increased Feeding Efficiency for You in Shur-Gain Bulk Feed Service from Us

You need hardly be reminded that livestock farming is a highly competitive business . . . that to succeed today, production costs have to be controlled today, in every way possible.

Feed costs, labour, time . . . these are all costs of production that you can probably reduce even more. If your herd or flock is large now, and likely to expand further, start calculating the production savings made possible by bulk feeds handling.

Behind SHUR-GAIN BULK FEED SERVICE is years of experience in feeding herds and flocks that number in the thousands. That experience is yours for the asking. Would you like to talk it over?

St. John's News

To honour the Rt. Rev. Tom Greenwood, who will visit the Parish of Iroquois on Sunday, November 12th, there will be a parish supper party in the Parish Hall at 5:30 p.m., to be followed by Bishop Greenwood's film and story about the Yukon. For some years Bishop Greenwood was the Anglican Bishop of the Yukon, and now in his retirement, he is a much-loved and highly respected figure in the life of the Diocese of Ottawa.

Taking part in the planning of the supper party will be the Ladies Guild and the Congregational Councils of St. John's and St. Peter's, South Mountain. It is planned that each family will bring supper for themselves and share it as a family with our guest.

This Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29th, the Choir and Church School at St. John's will join forces to have a Costume Party at 2:30 p.m. sharp, and all kiddies, teenagers and adults in the choir and church school are invited to come in costume. Parents may call for their children at approximately 4 p.m. Cookies will be welcome at the 11 a.m. service for the afternoon party.

On Monday morning, Mr. Rogers visited Dixon Corner's Public School where he talked with the Assembly about the word 'obedience'. At Hulbert School, Mr. Rogers visited each of the three classrooms to renew old friendships, meet the new pupils and share a happy hour with our very special children there. One can never speak highly enough of the sustained teaching and loving care offered by Mrs. Rumble and her staff.
