Why do people, talking of the higher things in life, always get around to the cost of living?

Local Man, John Ball Killed When Struck By Lightning At Crysler Memorial Park

Two of five men seeking storm protection under a tree, were struck and killed by lightning six miles east of Morrisburg on Thursday afternoon.

Found unconscious in Crysler Memorial Park, where they had been working, Douglas Burton Lynch, 30, and George John Ball, 51, were dead on arrival at Cornwall General Hospital.

Both men were employed by the Ontario-St. Lawrence Development Commission.

Lynch, who would have been 31 Sunday, was unmarried and lived at his home in Morrisburg with his mother, Mrs Catherine Lynch. His father, Bernard Lynch, died previously.

A farmer on RR2, Chesterville, Mr Ball is survived by his wife and mother. His father was the late Irwin Ball, of Dunbar.

After the accident, foreman for the five-man work party, Duncan Meyers, of Morrisburg, reported that he and the others had sought shelter from a sudden rain storm under the tree.

Deciding it would be too wet for further work before quitting time, he and two of the men, Robert Burns and Baden Empey, took advantage of a break in the downpour to find better cover.

As they ducked out from under the tree they looked back and saw the lightning bolt strike. It flashed down to Lynch and Ball who had stayed beside the trunk. It was about 4 p.m.

Dr E. H. N. Lambert and an ambulance were called to the scene immediately. Morrisburg Fire Chief Herb Clark rushed a resuscitator unit to the park. It was used to treat the stricken men there and during the run to Cornwall.

At Ottawa the Uplands Airport weather office reported the storm which produced the killing lightning bolt was brought on by a cold front sweeping southern Ontario from the northwest.

Douglas Lynch is survived by his mother, one brother, Dalton, at home, and three sisters, Mrs Harold Castleman, Brockville, Mrs Jack Cooper, Brockville, and Mrs Raoul Leroux, Alexandria.

John Ball was born in Morrisburg and educated in Williamsburg Township schools and at Chesterville High School. He is survived by his mother and his wife, the former Hilda Bogart, whom he married in 1930.

Other survivors are a daughter, Mrs George Hamilton (Betty), Ottawa, and a son, Blaine, at home. A brother, Grant Ball, lives in Ottawa.

Casselman Dam

Casselman village invested a large piece of folding money this summer in renovating the river area. Part of the money was well-spent on a new river dam to replace the old power structure that has fallen into disuse. The new dam is concrete, stretching nearly 100 yards across. It is four feet wide at the top and sits on a base 15 feet broad. In the top photo are shown the Hon. Louis P. Cecile, Minister of Public Welfare for Ontario, cutting the ribbon at the official opening. At his right is Rene Boileau, reeve of Casselman, and next to Peter Manley, MPP for Stormont, is the Conservation Authority's chief engineer, A. H. Richardson. In the bottom photo, Chesterville men are standing on the new dam pointing upstream. They are Al Butcher, Garnet McLean and G. W. Gilbert.—Record Photo.

Local Masons Hold Annual Banquet At Morewood

Rt. Wor. Bro. Frank T. Shaver, P.D.D.G.M., was guest speaker at the Masonic banquet held in Morewood United Church hall October 15.

W.M. Stuart Mattice, of Chesterville Lodge No. 320, A.F. & A.M., acted as chairman. The toast to the ladies was proposed by Bro. Jack Doering and responded to by Mrs B. W. Lapp.

Mr Shaver was introduced by Bro. Fay Shaver and thanked by Bro. Kenneth Hunter. Dr B. W. Lapp introduced the members seated at the head table.

Mrs Archie Coulthart entertained with two vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs Mack Thompson.

The banquet was well attended and the speaker most interesting, holding the attention of the audience for over half an hour and was heartily applauded.

Bro. Fay Shaver expressed the appreciation of the members to the ladies of the United Church W.A. who catered for the banquet.

Sage was used for medicinal purposes in former centuries.

BIGGEST BINGO OF ALL FRIDAY NIGHT

This Friday night will find Chesterville Legion members staging the biggest bingo of their season in Community Hall. It is also the night some lucky person will receive the keys to a brand new Pontiac car.

Chesterville Legion each year sells draw tickets on a new car. The tickets are limited in number and the chances of winning are thereby greater. The draw will be made during the regular bingo Friday night.

Casselman Dam Opened Thursday Last

A week ago Casselman dam, in the village, was officially opened by the Hon. Louis P. Cecile, Minister of Welfare in the Frost government and member in Toronto for Prescott county.

The opening climaxed a meeting of the South Nation Authority board, held in the new Community Centre building at Casselman. Chesterville representatives included reeve Chas. McMillan and councillors Carl Merkley and Al Butcher.

One of the most interesting items of business was an engineering report given by county engineer Jean Morin. He had prepared a rough engineering study of the dam structure suggested for the river here in Chesterville. The estimated cost comes to about $50,000.

The type of dam here would include a 14-foot high catwalk over the multiple pier structure with timber stoplogs about 12 inches square and 24 feet long. There would be six of these gate structures that could be completely raised at flood time to allow free passage of the river.

Casselman Dam

Following a dinner tendered by Casselman village in the new public school, the meeting moved down to the river and the dam site. The new dam, wedge shaped with a 15-foot base and a 4-foot top, is over 600 feet long. It is solid concrete and impounds a head of a little over four feet of water. There is a gap at one end with removable stoplogs to control the water level.

Weather for the opening was unsettled. Rain fell more or less steadily during the first part of the dam ceremonies.

Interested members of Chesterville community present as guests of the Authority included Messrs G. W. Gilbert and Garnet McLean, of Nestlé's, and the editor of the "Record."

Women's Liberal Assoc. Formed at Spencerville

A Women's Liberal Association for Grenville-Dundas was organized Wednesday, October 15, at a meeting held in Spencerville Town Hall. Mrs O'Donnell O'Higgins acted as chairman and introduced Mark Salmon who spoke briefly.

The main speaker was Mrs Douglas Blair, of Ottawa, who is secretary of the National Liberal Federation. Mrs Blair told of the work of Liberal Women's organizations and then took charge of the meeting during election of officers.

Mrs Lillian Allison, Chesterville, was chosen as president. Other officers elected were: 1st vice president, Mrs O'D. O'Higgins, Prescott; 2nd vice president, Mrs Jean Notman, Morrisburg; 3rd vice president, Mrs Mark Salmon, Prescott; secretary-treasurer, Mrs H. K. Graham, Chesterville. Regional directors: Mrs J. Frank Casselman, Winchester Township; Mrs D. L. McLean, Prescott; Mrs Leo Stephenson, Kemptville; Mrs Leonard Rooke, Cardinal.

A second meeting is being planned for late in November.

Mr and Mrs Thomas Flood and family, Peterborough, spent the weekend with Mr and Mrs Donald MacIntyre and Mr and Mrs Carl Waldroff, Finch.

Anniversary Services At St. Andrew's Church

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church observed anniversary services on Sunday last. The guest minister on this occasion was the Rev John Bell, B.A., of St. Luke's Church, Finch. Mr Bell delivered two challenging sermons to the large congregation that was present at both services.

There were visitors present from Dunbar, Morewood, Finch, Winchester and the local churches. The Mountain Quartette sang three sacred selections at the morning worship which were especially enjoyed.

Special music in the evening was provided by Mrs Douglas Fry, who sang the solo "Just for Today," and by a combined choir from Morewood and Chesterville in the anthem "Abide with Me." The music was directed by Mrs Harold Greer, organist.

The Kirk Session are deeply grateful to all who made the Anniversary Sunday a day of blessing.

Alex MacMillan, son of Mr and Mrs Gordon MacMillan, left on Saturday night for Camp Shilo, Man., to commence training in the Canadian Army.

Miss Christine Malcolm, of Ottawa, spent Sunday with Miss Addie Campderros here.

Slow Time Sunday

Time turns backward in its flight come Sunday morning. This Saturday night when we retire will be the time to set back the clocks and gain the hour we lost in the spring. From now until warmer weather we will be back to Eastern Standard Time.

Remember to turn back the clock Saturday night after midnight—otherwise you may find it lonely at church for an hour.

Chesterville A.F. & A.M. members and wives held their annual ladies' night banquet last Thursday in Morewood United Church hall. Wor. Master Stuart Mattice was chairman for the evening and the main speaker was Frank Shaver, of Ingleside. Seated from left to right above are Fay and Mrs Shaver, the speaker and Mrs Shaver, the worshipful master and Mrs Mattice, DDGM Kenneth McDermid and Mrs McDermid, Martintown, W.M. S. Besauzen and Mrs Besauzen, Winchester, Mrs Jack Doering and Mr Doering.—Record Photo.

OPINIONS . . .
OURS AND OTHERS

Apple Day Again

One of the good projects of the village is the continued support given to Scouts and Cubs. The troops and packs thrive under continued good leadership and example.

This Friday and Saturday the boys will be calling on their annual Apple Day campaign. The sale of the big red apples is one of the few ways they have of replenishing the bankroll; without the funds the Scout and Cub program cannot go forward.

This weekend buy an apple. It will do more than keep the doctor away—it will help a boy have fun and learn at the same time.

Danger of Playing in Leaves

Our daily contemporary, the Cornwall Standard-Freeholder, this week remarked about some of the dangers of playing in the fallen leaves. They go on to say that although the new hula hoop fad has scored a big hit with the young fry—and even with adults courageous enough to keep the hoops spinning about their not-so-youthful bodies—many of the traditional playtime activities of children still retain a high degree of popularity. One of these is playing in leaves.

But there is an element of real danger for kiddies, particularly those residing in cities and towns, in covering themselves over with leaves, which have accumulated on boulevards or along the curbs. Uunsuspecting motorists could easily run over the children who are thus hidden from view. Each fall traffic safety authorities make it a point to warn car drivers about the hazards created by fallen leaves. They frequently point out how leaves on the highway following a rainstorm create an extremely slippery surface which is filled with hazards for automobiles.

Children buried in leaves along the sides of streets help to create another hazard which we feel should be emphasized for the sake of all concerned. Parents should warn the youngsters of the danger involved and should make certain such activity be restricted to the backyard or some place well removed from traffic. When they see leaves piled along the curb, motorists should make it a point to keep clear of them on the chance some kiddie is lying beneath them. A little precaution could well be the means of averting a possible tragedy or serious accident.

Hunting Safety Hints

Never point a loaded firearm at anything you don't want to shoot.

Unload idle guns—keep hunting a safe sport.

Accidents have no closed season.

Never discharge guns across roads or trails—it is both unlawful and dangerous.

Don't stand up in boats to discharge firearms—you may end in the lake.

There's no open season on humans—don't shoot them.

Keep guns and ammunition safely away from children.

Don't carry loaded guns in cars—it's dangerous as well as unlawful.

Check your gun for safety—you may not have another chance.

Make sure you're sure where your bullets are going. A .22 is dangerous for more than a mile, a high-powered rifle for several miles.

Don't pull that trigger until you have identified your target—remember that everything that moves is not legal game.

Don't use unprotected birds and animals for target practice—you can prove your accuracy much better on an established target.

FRENDLEE FARM CHATS

By Lillian Allison

Remember the story about how the camel gradually eased himself into the Arab's tent one night and crowded the poor Arab out into the cold? Well the story of how we happened to have six people staying with us during the Plowing Match reads much the same as the Arab and camel fable.

Soon after I wrote the appeal for beds for plowmen and exhibitors last June a man from town 'phoned me. An exhibitor from Richmond Hill, whom he knew, was wondering where he could make reservations for rooms for three men for the week. Could I offer any suggestions? I had a double bed and a single bed available so replied that the three men could stay with us.

Later the Richmond Hill gentleman wrote me. Would I give the three men their breakfasts and suppers as well as the beds This was considerably more than I had bargained for but finally I replied that I would.

When the Plowing Match week drew near I wrote the gentleman to inquire when the men would arrive and when they would leave, etc. The reply stated that the three men would be with us from Monday evening until Saturday morning and that he, the boss, would like accommodation too for Wednesday and Thursday. Quickly I assessed the situation. By giving up our bed that could be arranged easily. Then I read the P.S. They would like all single beds, please. The men found it very uncomfortable to sleep two in a bed.

A friend solved that problem by loaning me her folding cot to use the two nights the boss would be with us. And Monday evening when the three men arrived I had the three beds and cot made up ready for sleeping and a bed set up in an unfurnished room across the hall for Harry and me.

The boss' son was one of the three who came on Monday evening. His father was coming sometime Tuesday evening, he explained, and bringing his mother for the two days. Would I have room for her too? I thought it could be arranged. After all I had two double beds, one single bed and a cot.

Tuesday night when the three men came home for supper the boss and his wife were with them. They had arrived earlier than they had expected but would go somewhere for supper and come back later. I had plenty of food for their suppers so after I had assured them that they were not inconveniencing me they stayed and ate with us.

Thursday night the one salesman unveiled his plans. He was going to phone his wife in Toronto to come to Cornwall on the fast train on Friday night and they would spend the weekend driving back to Toronto. Would I be able to accommodate her for the night?

Well it happened that by Friday night all the others had gone and it was merely a matter of transferring the gentleman from the single room to the double one so I agreed that I would do it. It was only one more night as they would be leaving on Saturday morning.

But when Saturday morning came we persuaded the couple to stay until Sunday as our guests. We were enjoying them so much we hated to see them leave.

As I said at the beginning, the story of how we happened to become so involved with guests during the Plowing Match parallels the tale of the Arab and camel except for one thing. We didn't get crowded out. And I'm so glad we didn't.

We had the most interesting guests, the most welcome guests, we could have found anywhere. The boss and his wife had come to Canada twenty years ago from Czechoslavakia. Their son was born here. One salesman was a young Frenchman who had immigrated from France four or five years ago. The other salesman and his wife came to Canada six or seven years ago after escaping Czechoslavakia.

They were all such charming, interesting people I found we hadn't nearly enough time to visit with them. There are so many things we hadn't time to discuss. I feel that we made six new friends the week of the Plowing Match and I hope that all of them will come back to see us again.

SOME CRUST

It might be said that Benjamin Bezdsiecki, 25, gave his wife a pizza of his mind.

In court on an assult and battery charge, Bezdsiecki, Detroit, testified that his wife kept telling him what a good pizza pie she was eating.

"I told her 'if you say it's a good pizza one more time, I'll stick it in your face'."

"She did and I did."

Mrs Gladstone MacLean Made Life Member St. Luke's W.M.S.

The October meeting of St. Luke's Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society, Finch, was held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. The president, Mrs Gladstone MacLean, was in the chair, assisted by Mrs Alex McDougall.

The meeting opened with a hymn followed with prayer by Mrs Hugh McDougall. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the roll call was answered with a verse of scripture containing the word "Thanksgiving."

Correspondence was read by Mrs Glen McIntyre. The study book on the theme "The Equality of the Sexes" was taken by Mrs Walter Scotland. Glad Tidings was reviewed by Mrs John Bell.

Final arrangements were made for the 75th anniversary of the Society, Friday October 17 in the church.

An invitation was received from Chalmer's W.M.S. to attend their Thankoffering. The secretary was instructed to send greetings and regrets that they could not attend.

It was decided to have the Autumn Thankoffering some Sunday evening in November in the form of a sacred musical evening with Dr Keyser, of Ottawa.

A ballot was taken and it was decided to make Mrs Gladstone MacLean a Life Member. Mrs MacLean thanked the members for the high honour bestowed on her.

The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer by the president.

Lunch was served by the committee, Mrs Geo. Rupert, Mrs Tom Rutley, Mrs Keith MacMillan and Mrs Dan J. MacMillan and a social hour enjoyed.

Elma W.I. Members See Slides Of St. Lawrence Project

Elma Women's Institute held the October meeting in Dunbar Lutheran Hall, with a good attendance. The president, Mrs Bernice Froats, presided and welcomed among the guests members from the newly-organized branch at Riverside Heights.

Roll call was answered by naming the emblem of a country members would like to visit.

The president was named the delegate to attend the Ottawa area convention, with Mrs Alfred Carkner as alternate.

Mrs Froats reported that the C.N.I.B. canvass in the surrounding district netted $103.70.

Elma branch was asked to donate 10 dozen cookies for the W.I. tent at the International Plowing Match. Several members were asked to help serve tea on Thursday.

It was decided to hold a rummage and food sale on November 8 in the library, Chesterville.

The topic of the program for the meeting was International Day and the committee in charge was Mrs Wendell Harper, Mrs Egerton Barkley and Mrs D. A. Dillabough.

Mrs Harper acted as chairman for the program which opened with the singing of O' Canada, ater which she introduced Mr and Mrs Percy Allison, Morrisburg, who showed very interesting coloured pictures of the St. Lawrence Seaway before, during and after construction, as well as some from Florida and California. The pictures were enjoyed by all present and were very educational.

Mrs Egerton Barkley thanked Mr and Mrs Allison for showing their interesting and picturesque slides.

With the singing of the National Anthem, the meeting was brought to a close. Lunch was served by the committee in charge and a social hour was enjoyed.

The November meeting will be held in Elma Church Hall and will be a social evening. Several of the neighbouring branches will be guests. The committee in charge is Mrs Alfred Carkner, Mrs Burton Beckstead and Mrs Wray McPherson.

EVERYBODY EATS- TRY THESE!

OCTOBER IS CHEESE FESTIVAL MONTH

IN HONOUR of our good Canadian cheese here are a few extra special recipes and some interesting facts about cheese. Did you know that Canadians eat 6.6 pounds of cheese a year? This seems a lot but when compared with some European countries whose people consume 16 or more pounds per person per year it doesn't seem like much. The cheese producers are trying to raise the 6.6 pounds per person to at least seven. We can help the dairy industry by using more cheese.

Best Macaroni and Cheese

If you have been using ready-made or quick methods for macaroni and cheese, try this one next time and compare the flavour. You can get it ready in the morning and pop it in the oven for a half hour to brown and heat for supper.

1 cup macaroni
4 tbsps. flour
1 tsp. salt
Few grains pepper
2 tbsps. butter
2 cups milk
¾ cup buttered crumbs

Wash macaroni; drain and cook in large amount of boiling salted water. When tender, drain in a sieve and rinse with cold water to remove excess starch. If you do not do this the macaroni may be sticky. Make a white sauce with flour, salt, pepper, butter and milk. Add cheese and macaroni. Turn into buttered casserole; top with buttered crumbs. Heat in oven at 300 degrees for half an hour.

Cheese Souffle

3 tbsps. flour
½ tsp. salt
3 tbsps. butter
1 cup milk
3 eggs
¾ cup grated cheese

Make a thick white sauce of the first four ingredients. Remove from heat; add well-beaten egg yolks and cheese. Chill; fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into buttered casserole; set in pan of hot water and bake 50 minutes with oven temperature 300. Serve at once.

Cheese Straws

Delicious to serve with a salad.

1 cup grated cheese
½ cup butter
¾ cup flour
1 tsp. mustard
4 tsps. cold water

Mix and roll like a pie crust. Cut into strips ½-inch broad and five inches long. Bake in hot oven until light brown.

Tuna Cheese Buns

1 cup cubed cheese
3 hard cooked eggs, chopped
1 can tuna, flaked
2 tbsps. chopped green pepper
2 tbsps. chopped onion
2 tbsps. chopped sweet pickles
½ cup salad dressing
6 hot dog buns or hamburg buns

Combine ingredients, except buns. Mix lightly. Split buns and fill. Heat buns in a slow oven at 250 degrees for thirty minutes. Serve hot.

* * * * *

Store cheese in the refrigerator, well wrapped.

* * * * *

Serve cheese at room temperature to secure maximum flavour. Take it out of the refrigerator one hour before meal time.

* * * * *

One-half pound of cheese will yield two cups of grated cheese.

* * * * *

Always cook cheese at a low temperature. This will mean using a double boiler for cheese sauces and oven dishes containing cheese should be placed in a pan of water.

Armed Bandit Takes Cash and Till At Winchester

A two-gun bandit held up an all-night service station at Winchester early Saturday and made off with a $500 cash register containing $250 cash.

Roadblocks were thrown up throughout the area in an effort to halt a getaway car believed used by the masked bandit.

Jack Krowin, 30, of Mountain, was on night duty at Hugh Slater's service station when the robbery occurred.

Krowin told Police Chief Gilbert Raistrick who had visited the station 15 minutes before the robbery that he was working in the shop at 2.45 a.m. He heard the office door open and went to investigate.

A man, wearing a dark jacket, blue jeans, white painter's cap and dark-coloured handkerchief over his mouth and nose, stepped from behind a soft drink machine.

The bandit carried a nickel-plated revolver in each hand.

"Put up your hands, buddy," he ordered, then, "Turn around." Krowin complied.

The bandit ordered Krowin to leave the service station, walk up the street and make no attempt to summon help.

The gunman stayed behind, and as he left, Krowin saw him pocket his revolvers in his jacket.

Krowin walked about a block away, then ducked in behind the Melvin auto shop and grabbed the nearest telephone.

When police arrived at the station minutes later it was empty and the cash register and about $250 had been stolen.

Baby Band Holds Annual Party

The Baby Band held its annual party at 3 p.m. on Friday, October 17, in the dining hall of Trinity United Church, with Mrs Bugden and Mrs Emerson Johnston receiving.

The worship service was conducted by the superintendent, Mrs Carl G. Merkley, assisted by Mrs Mansel Brownlee.

A story of much interest was told to the children by Mrs G. Gilbert.

The graduating class, consisting of Elaine Merkley, Bobby Stevens, Stephen Durant, Marilyn Smith, Tommy Hutt, Cheryl Fyke, Sharon Fyke, Jacqueline Hummel and Kevin Darling, sang "Little Lost Lamb," accompanied by Mrs James Fyke, after which Mrs Carl Merkley presented them with their graduating diplomas.

Allan Doering, a Mission Band member, recited a poem of welcome to the graduating class.

Life membership certificates were presented to David Bruce Lapp and Linda Jordan.

Rev Mr Bugden closed the service with prayer. Lunch was served by members of the Afternoon and Evening Auxiliaries of the W.M.S.

MR, MRS R. HOLMES HONOURED AT RECEPTION

Mr and Mrs Ray Holmes, who were married recently, were guests of honour at a reception held in Toyes Hill Orange Hall. Music for dancing was provided by Morgan's Orchestra, Winchester.

The young couple were called to the platform and June Hunter read an address of congratulations.

On behalf of all present Fred Link and Lawrence Holmes presented the newlyweds with gifts including a floor lamp, table lamp, smoker and hassock.

Mr Holmes expressed his thanks and, after lunch, dancing was resumed.

Flag Pole Moved Behind Cenotaph

This week the flag pole on Community Hall grounds was moved once again. This time, it will probably be permanent.

The pole now stands just back of the new war cenotaph just south of the library room door. It is firmly anchored in concrete and held by steel standards and bolts. The fastenings now allow the pole to be lowered to the ground for painting or repair which was not possible before the last move.

The original site of the pole is covered by the end of the river bridge and highway. In 1950 when the bridge was built, the pole was moved to the front of the community building with the help of the big derrick. This time the move was made by willing hands of Legion members and other helpers.

Hutchinson–Evasiuk

First United Church, Dauphin, Man., was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Theresa Evasiuk, daughter of Mr and Mrs Dan Evasiuk, of Dauphin, and Glendon Hutchinson, son of Mr and Mrs Harry Hutchinson, of Morewood, were united in marriage.

Rev Donald Ray performed the double-ring ceremony. Miss Lorraine Marsh was soloist and Miss I. O. Winters was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Amie Evasiuk, of Winnipeg. Ring bearer was Barry Evasiuk.

Len Myers was best man and ushers were Carl Hutchinson, brother of the groom, of Morewood, and Wm. Marsh, of Dauphin.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white brocaded taffeta designed on princess lines with scalloped neckline. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a tiara of sequins and pearls. She carried a white Bible from which were streamers with red roses.

The maid of honour wore a ballerina-length gown of white emroidered Swiss sheer over rose taffeta.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Dauphin Hotel. Later, the happy couple left on a trip to Calgary. For travelling the bride wore a suit of royal blue with white carnations.

Mr and Mrs Hutchinson will reside in Dauphin.

St. Andrew's W.M.S. Meets at Cross Home

The October meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs Irvin Cross. Mrs Crawford, president, was in charge of the meeting which opened with the singing of Hymn 315.

Scripture was read by Miss T. MacIntosh and Mrs Lorne Marcellus led in prayer.

Mrs George Crawford gave a Thanksgiving reading. Mrs Irvin Cross and Doreen sang "Jesus Whispers Peace," accompanied on the piano by the latter.

Minutes were read and approved and the offering was received and dedicated. Business followed.

Mrs Harry Gore, Mrs Alfred Carkner and Mrs Wilfred Jones are on the nominating committee for the December meeting.

Hymn 685, "Through the Day Thy Love Has Spared Us," was sung. The meeting closed with prayer by the president.
