WINCHESTER THEATRE NEWS

"The Gunfighter," now running at The Winchester, is an outstanding drama of the early South-West. It is a story of the most notorious gunman of his time, who seeks to abandon his lethal career and return to home life, but whose reputation has become so great that he finds it an impossible task. Gregory Peck has applied all his great talents to the portrayal of the role; and there are situations which rise to the very heights of suspense and excitement.

"The White Tower," starting on Monday, is an exceptionally fine adaptation of a "best seller" of five years ago. Six people, each of different nationality, of different temperaments and with different objectives, form a party to scale a hitherto unconquered peak of the Swiss Alps. The pictorial story of their endeavors gives drama, suspense and excitement, which grips one's emotions to a remarkable degree. Scenes of great beauty are filmed in technicolor, and the portrayal of the various characters is carried through by a cast of exceptional ability.

A truly delightful comedy for next week-end is "County Fair," There is a good, romantic story running through the picture and, filmed in Cinecolor,, you get all the life and the humorous situations of a series of county fairs. Lovers of the horses in a number of trotting races. It will have opportunity to see them go is a picture with beauty and color, song and music, comedy ,excitement and thrills—providing an entertainment which all should enjoy.

Elgin Bowman Heads Teachers' Institute

The Dundas Teacher's Institute was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall, South Mountain, on Friday, October 13th. The president, Mrs. Rae Helmer, presided.

The opening exercises were conducted by Rev. E. Larsen. A minute's silence was observed in memory of Mrs. Ethel Schwerdtfeger, a former teacher, who passed away in January.

An interesting address was given by the president, Mrs, Rae Helmer, entitled "Citizens of Tomorrow." Mrs. Helmer compared the school to a factory in which the pupils, as raw materials, are molded into desirable citizens. We stress academic work but should encourage the finer qualities by being patient and by sympathetic correction.

Mrs. Jane Graham gave a very informative talk on and a demonstration of two-part singing. The pupils taking part were from Patton School and from schools of Matilda Township Area.

The report of Winchester District Programme Committee on Mathematics Course of Study for Grades 7 and 8 was introduced by Mr. George V. Gibson, B.A., Principal of South Mountain Continuation School. The course of study is reasonable as outlined. It was noted that the Grade 8 text does not follow the course of study. The basic facts should be stressed using more and easier examples. There should be plenty of oral drill and there should be more of the practical problems which confront the child.

A sumptuous dinner was served in the United Church basement by the Women's Institute.

The report of the Chesterville-Morewood Committee on the English Course of Study for Grades 7 and 8 was given by Mr. R. C. Dillabough, Principal of the Chesterville Public School, on Composition and Grammar; Mrs. Catherine Edgerton on Reading and Spelling, and Mr. Graham Barkley on Literature.

The Men and Women Teachers Federation meetings were held.

A few instructive and timely remarks were presented by Mr. W. J. Stewart, M.A., B.Paed., I.P.S.

The report of the Resolutions Committee was given by Mr. Stanley Waddell, and of the Nominating Comittee by Mr. Gerald Droppo.

The new officers for the coming year are: Hon. President, Mr. W. J. Stewart; Past President, Mrs. Rae Helmer; President, Mr. Elgin Bowman; Vice President, Miss Kathleen Morgatroyd; Sec'y.-Treasurer, Mr. H. Hamilton; Executive Committee, Mr. Raymond Coligan, Mr. J. W. McMartin and Mrs. Eva Crowder.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

SOME MAPLE LEAF !

We have on display at this office a Maple Leaf that measures 12x14 inches. It was submitted by Mrs. (Rev.) G. S. Gervan, who informs us that it grew on a young Maple tree at the Gervan summer cottage at Jeffrey's Lake, near Haley Station. Rev. Mr. Gervan was a former pastor of the United Church at Inkerman, and and incidently the Maple tree that produced the huge leaf got its start at Inkerman, having been transplanted at the Upper Ottawa Valley site two years ago. Mrs. Gervan says "They grow 'em big in the Upper Ottawa Valley—could be because it got its start in life at Inkerman."

LOCAL CUBS HAD SUCCESSFUL APPLE DAY

Pictured above is a typical Cub Scout, and if you were in Winchester or any town or city throughout Canada last Saturday you were probaby the pleasing victim of an ardent Cub salesman from the Apple Company Unlimited. It was a big day for the Cub- Scout Troop in Winchester, who netted $118.00 from their sales of the annual Scout Apple Day.

Eighteen Cubs started early Saturday morning and continued selling until nine o'clock in the evening when they took stock of their sales and found that over ten bushels of rosy red McIntosh apples had been sold, giving them the above mentioned total for the day. Apples sold from 5c to $5.00 each.

This amount is in excess of previous years and will be used, as usual, for the welfare of the Cub-Scout organization in Winchester.

District Commissioner A. Dukelow said the Cubs preferred this method of supporting their funds rather than by gratuities.

Apple Day was in charge of Cub Master Gerald Droppo, of the Public School staff, with the assistance of J. H. Willard and R. Robinson, of the High School staff, and Rev. Leon B. G. Adams, Rector of the Anglican Church. Mr. Bob Woods handled the financial end for the day,

Billy Sherwood proved to be quite a persuasive salesman as he copped the prize for selling the most apples. However, credit goes to all the Cubs who took part and who did such a fine job in showing that this is truly an organization worthy of our support. Cubs who sold apples Saturday were: Garry Willard, Robert Clarke, Billy Sherwood, Gerald Scott, Allan Wylie, Jim Champion, James Churchill, Robert Levere, Lorne Windsor, Ernest Windsor, Danny Summers, Percy Dillabough, Keith Bezanson, Gerald Tansley, Garnet Bilow, Wesley Clark, Michael Dukelow, Lloyd Merkley.

BUILDS TOOTHPICK MODEL OF FAMED EIFFEL TOWER

If you have passed by Roy Fawcett's Jewellery Store during the past two or three days, you have probably noticed the unusual window display, consisting of a tooth-pick model of the Eiffel Tower, mounted on a rotating circular base and spotted with diamonds and other jewellery. Mr. Fawcett arranged the display but credit for the model of the tower goes to Larry Justus, young son of Mrs. Clara Justus, of Winchester. According to Larry, it took two days' continuous work to complete the model, which stands 3½ feet in height with a base of 15 square inches. The only materials used in its make up were five tubes of airplane glue, 1 1-2 boxes of toothpicks (approximately 1500) and a few pieces of cardboard as a base. The construction of the model is accurate in every way, considering the fact that Larry had no plans for the model except from pictures he had seen. He said the show, "The Man on the Eiffel Tower," which currently played at The Winchester, inspired him to go ahead with the project.

The model of the famous Parisian Tower will be on display at Fawcett's Jewellery Store for at least another week or two, so drop around and see it—it's good!

Hon. G. H. Challies Was Guest Speaker At C. of C. Meeting

In an address to over 80 members and guests of the Winchester Chamber of Commerce, held last Friday evening in the dining room of the Golden Pheasant, Hon. George H. Challies, M.L.A. for Grenville-Dundas and 1st Vice Chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission, said foreign countries were now looking toward Canada as potentially the greatest country in the universe.

Recently delegated by the Ontario Government and the Ontario Hydro Commission, Mr. Challies, along with other high ranking Hydro officials, attended the World Power Conference held in London. England.

He explained that attending such a conference was not an easy task but rather a helpful one, not only in gaining valuable information and other countries' views, but in advertising Canada's possibilities to other members at the Conference.

Practically every country of the free nations was represented at the Power Conference, and after exchanging views and discussing new methods of improvement, Mr. Challies was quite aware that the Ontario Hydro Commission was highly respected by other members at the meeting. He said that England was further advanced in long distance power transmission as they carried 380,000 volts on their high tension lines as compared to 110 or 220 thousand in Canada. He went on to give other interesting features of the Conference and also to describe the latest developments of the Ontario Hydro Commission, which, he said, was now better equipped to supply power to industry than ever before.

While attending the Conference Mr. Challies was afforded much time to travel extensively throughout England and Scotland. He was quite impressed with the recovery England had made since the last world conflict and said if this trend is an indication of what is to come in the future, England's economic recovery seems a certainty.

He emphasized the fact that the defeat of Mr. Churchill immediately following the war was not a personal defeat to Mr. Churchill and his party. It was, instead a people who had been living under extreme adverse conditions for six years, grasping at the first possible opportunity for survival in the post-war era. The Labour Government at that time looked promising, and consequently was elected. To-day, after several years in office, the people in that country realize that promises alone are not enough and, as Mr. Challies well illustrated by several examples, including the apparent failure of the Health Nationalization Program, the Labour Government in England is now on its way out.

Mr. Challies believed that the death of President Roosevelt along with the defeat of Winston Churchill were possibly the two worst tragedies that occurred during and since the war. He paid high tribute to these two great statesmen and believed that if they were still heading their respective governments the world crisis would be far from the critical stage it is to-day.

Concluding his address, Mr. Challies showed several interesting coloured slides of various historic landmarks, beautiful flower gardens, and Buckingham Castle, where, with six others, he was presented to their Majesties at a garden party.

Mr. Challies was fittingly introduced by Reeve Walter Moffat, of Winchester, who commended Mr. Challies as a native son who had left home and found success.

Mr. Leon Marcellus, President of the Chesterville Chamber of Commerce, thanked Mr. Challies for the highly interesting address and also for showing the gathering the coloured slides.

President Herb. Meldrum, of the local Chamber, was in charge, and asked Mr. W. J. Cass to open the meeting with prayer. After a sumptuous turkey dinner Mr. Meldrum explained that although this was a regular meeting, the business session would be curtailed due to the importance of the address to be heard. However, Mr. Wm. Brown and Mr. Burt Hodgson, guests at the luncheon of the Chamber, were called forward and were presented with first and second prizes respectively by Mr. Chester Timmins, for the best improved homes during the summer. This beautification campaign, sponsored by the C. of C., was directed by Mr. Robert Vice.

Joining with the Winchester Chamber were twenty members of the Chesterville Chamber of Commerce who were heartily acclaimed when each one was introduced by their president, Mr. Leon Marcellus.

Other distinguished guests included Mr. George Barkley, Chesterville, third vice president of Eastern Ontario Boards of Trade; Reeve Howard Durant and Deputy Reeve E. B. McMillan, of Winchester Township, and Reeve Wm. Cameron, of Mountain Township.

Concluding the meeting President Meldrum again thanked Mr. Challies for his stirring address and also the members of Chesterville and Winchester for their fine turn-out.

The 7th Column

If you want to get a good "shaking-up," take a drive up the road leading west from the corner of Highway 31 and the Chesterville road—through the Holmes' settlement. This road is like a washboard at the present time and certainly is in need of repairs. The farmers living along that road have good reasons for complaining about its condition. We would suggest that the Township Road Superintendent inspect the road and take whatever action is necessary to have it made smoother. In its present condition the road is a disgrace to the Township of Winchester.

Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know. It means teaching them to behave as they do not behave. It is not teaching the youth the shapes of the letters and the tricks of numbers, and then leaving them to turn their arithmetic to roguery, and their literature to lust. It means, on the contrary, training them into the perfect exercise and kingly continence of their bodies and souls. It is a painful, continual, and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise; but above all, by example.

"I hope that's a nice book for you to read, darling," said the conscientious mother to her very young daughter.

"Oh yes, Mummy," replied the youngster. "It's a lovely book, but I don't think you would like it. It's so sad at the end."

"In what way, dear?"

"Well," the little girl sighed. "She dies—and he has to go back to his wife."

NATIONAL IMMUNIZATION WEEK

Children can be saved from the menace of diphtheria, whooping cough and smallpox through early immunization, states Hon. Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare, in a special National Immunization Week message to Canadian parents.

National Immunization Week, October 15th to 21st, sponsored by the Health League of Canada, has "the wholehearted support" of his department and provincial health departments, Mr. Martin said. Its purpose is to remind parents and guardians about the necessity for a simple, safe and effective step that will protect their children —immunization.

The federal health minister said there is nothing to lose by immunization, "but everything to gain—your child's health, possibly his very life. Medical science has done a truly wonderful job in developing and improving immunization. It's up to each and every parent to see that his child receives its benefits."

The best time to have a child immunized was in his very first year, Mr. Martin advocated. "Don't put it off," he said. "Don't gamble with the life of your little one. Take him to your doctor or health clinic now."

These preventable diseases annually took a needless toll of misery and tragedy.

FREEDOM'S SPARKPLUGS

Newspaper editors and preachers have a lot in common. No, we do not mean that they are liable to end up in the same sub-division of the hereafter when their work is done, but rather that their jobs are similar.

Preachers and publishers, good ones, are evangelists. They try by example, suggestion, and criticism to put across ideas. And they often practice their preaching with annoying consistency.

Of course, there are some preachers who condemn sin in general without making the application close enough to irritate their congregations.

And there are plenty of editors who can write vividly of events and issues which happen a hundred or a thousand miles away but who seldom, if ever, take a stand on a local question.

As a matter of fact there has been a tendency in recent years in the English-speaking world toward the growth of chain newspapers. Publishing has become such a costly business that the small operator has little chance of profit. Conversely the big publisher, with a chain of daily or weekly journals, or of magazines, has an opportunity for big dividends.

In many chain-operated journals, however, the editorial pages have taken second place to the advertising columns. The crusading editor, the local evangelist and leader, has largely disappeared.

Under centralized ownership and management, the personalized editorial page with its highly local flavor has too often been replaced by commonly expressed common-places which will offend no one and guide no one.

It is important that Canadians take note of this trend.

The freedom of enterprise and individual initiative of which we speak and write so freely depends for its spark in no small measure on crusading personalities within our own towns and villages, men who, be they preachers or editors, owe their first allegiance to truth and to welfare of their neighbour citizens.

RACIAL DISCRIMINATION OUT!

It couldn't have happened in a better place nor in a better game than it did recently at Lansdowne Park in Ottawa at a Big Four Football game between Toronto Argonauts and Ottawa Rough Riders. The park was jammed to capacity but very few people realized until after the game when they read it in the newspapers of the fine gesture on the part of Howie Turner, star player for Ottawa.

The week before, Ottawa and Toronto, traditional rivals, had played in Varsity Stadium in the Queen City. Both teams were out to win and the tension was high. Turner and Ulysses Curtis, a big negro half playing for Argos, got into a word duel and apparently Howie threw a few cutting remarks at the negro ace.

Last week before the game Turner approached Argos' coach before the game and asked to speak to Curtis. There, before 16000 fans, he apologized and hoped there were no hard feelings between he and the negro player. Curtis, a true sportsman and gentleman, accepted the apology and the fans saw one of the finest games of rugby played in Ottawa in many years.

We can't think of a better example to illustrate that racial discrimination is out in Canada especially in Canadian sport. Regardless of the outcome of the game it was a personal victory for Howie Turner and even a bigger one for the Big Four.

EDITORIAL NOTES

If you think is was cold last week . . . what are you going to do next January?

At least one government in one commonwealth country is recognizing the folly of permitting further industrial concentration in the major centres of population. The Victoria State government in Australia has introduced a ban on new industries in the Melbourne metropolitan area on recommendation of military authorities.

Winchester, along with other sections of Ontario and Canada, has recently not been enjoying a smog. We call it a smog but actually it is a form of smoke, some of which has travelled all the way from Alberta to the Eastern Coast. At present the weather is lovely, but due to this smoke we are not having a chance to take full advantage of these warm and sunny days.

October is probably one of the best months for sport enthusiasts. Last Saturday we heard and saw a basketball game, baseball game, a hockey game and a football match—not to mention lacrosse and a few others that we didn't have time to catch. Well, baseball is practically over —but there's still lots to pick from,—which leads us to wonder what Lloyd LaPorte and his Inkerman Rockets will come up with this year!

Last Saturday, October 14th, as previously announced in the Press, was Scout Apple Day. In Winchester the local Cubs were out in full force and were practising their salesmanship ability on practically everyone in the town including the staff of the Press. No less than four different Cubs visited the office on Saturday morning ready for a sale, and if our pocket book is any indication of the sale in general—the Cubs had more than a successful day.

The spirit of co-operation was in evidence last Friday evening at the luncheon meeting of the Winchester Chamber of Commerce when approximately twenty members of the Chesterville Chamber joined the local group to hear Hon. Geo. H. Challies speak.

The members from our neighbouring town were so impressed by our meeting and dinner that they decided to adopt the idea of having a dinner at each meeting. Previously, the Chesterville C. of C. had only the meeting and no luncheon, but after last Friday evening's lovely dinner they thought the food idea aimed to entice members to turn out in larger numbers.

Letters to the Editor

South Mountain, Ont.,
October 16th, 1950.

Editor of The Winchester Press:

Dear Sir:—As one who has occasion to travel frequently into the delightful village of South Mountain, which is situated on the banks of the turbulent Nation River, I should like to offer a few suggestions as to what might be done towards its improvement.

The name "South Mountain" itself is unfortunate, though I believe it has some historical significance. The name derives from one, Bishop Mountain, who was one of the early pioneers of this district. Needless to say, there is no connection between the name and the geographical setting of this village, a fact which is rather disappointing to anyone who has come to this part for the first time.

The word "South", in common with such places as East Ottawa, East Toronto, etc., suggests that this village must be a suburb, or some sort of an ajunct, of some other more important place. These double-barrelled names are also unfortunate in the sense that they suggest that such places are not of sufficient importance to have a name of their own. Besides, there must always be confusion between Mountain and South Mountain with regard to mail and such like. I dare say that few people who have come to South Mountain for the first time have not first landed up at Mountain.

There are other reasons why South Mountain is incorrectly named. This long name takes up a lot of space on one's letterhead, and it takes a sizeable time to write and pronounce, a fact which makes it distinctly cumbersome. In practice all these double-barrelled names peter out in the course of time. For example, there is no such place as North Hampton. Whatever it was originally, it is now Northampton. Therefore, there is no good reason why everyone in this district should be tied to this cumbersome and inconvenient name, if in the course of time, say a hundred years from now, it is going to be called "Southmount" or some other more convenient name.

Besides changing the name of South Mountain, and I have no hope that this will be done for some time to come, as another improvement I would suggest that the main street be resurfaced as soon as possible. From my enquiries, I am under the impression that this has never been asked for by anyone living in the village. The condition of Main Street is now approaching something of a disgrace. I would also suggest that a little paint be used on many business places, especially on the main street. The numerous telephone poles in this narrow street can scarcely be considered to be an ornament. However, if they must be there, and my guess is that they are going to be there for some time to come, perhaps the Bell Telephone Company, who have recently raised their rates, could be prevailed upon to paint the lower six feet of each pole a white color. I believe that this would immensely improve the appearance of Main Street, as well as serve a landmark for fast motorists driving through the village.

The Nation River is not a beautiful spectacle during the summer months, when one sees nothing but stones with a little water seeping between them. Some day, let us hope, it may be dammed at South Mountain, as was the case seventy years ago, when this village, as the old timers remember, was a centre of considerable importance, with its several hotels and its bustling business places. I believe this would immensely improve the setting of South Mountain, and would, as it were, put this village on the map.

Now I have one more suggestion to make, and that has to do with the question of beverage rooms. I made some enquiries as to why the streets of this village on certain nights of the week were strangely still and deserted. The answer was that all the younger and more pleasure seeking members of the community had gone off to Morrisburg, or to some other neighboring town, where there was a beverage room and a picture show. Now I am a teetotaler myself, but I could never see the argument that it was perfectly alright to drink a dozen bottles of pop, but that one must be eternally damned if one took a glass of beer. I still think that beer is the better of the two. It seems that pop, so called, usually contains a certain amount of caffeine, which gives one a temporary uplift. I do not think that either are harmful, if taken in moderate amounts.

I am prepared to admit that the beverage rooms in most of the small towns in Ontario are something of a disgrace. In our larger cities, however, many of the beverage rooms are pleasant and attractive places, where one can have a visit with a friend, and whether one drinks beer or pop is beside the point. In the small villages, beverage rooms are something of a monopoly, and for this reason they are very noisy and crowded. The fact is that there are too few of them, and hence, the element of competition does not enter into the picture. The remedy for a noisy and boisterous beverage room, then, is to build another one. If there were a well-conducted beverage room in South Mountain, the young people of the village would, to a greater extent, be under the eyes of their parents and friends. Most people, in a final analysis, act and do as they are taught to do at their mothers' knees, whether they be in South Mountain or in one of the surrounding towns. The question of whether one drinks beer or pop would appear to have little to do with the matter. The point is that there should be some place where all and sundry may fraternize. If one does not like a beverage room, it is up to him to find something else to take its place. Instead of closing our beverage rooms, the cure might be to make more and better ones.

smallpox, etc. Some parents still refuse to give their consent to have their children protected from these diseases. Just why they display this indifference, is hard to understand. In the interests of the nation's health, every child should be immunized against these dread diseases, regardless of the parents' attitude.

A young French girl visiting the United States was introduced one day to an elderly bishop who, she was informed, was about to celebrate his golden wedding.

"What is a 'golden wedding'?" she said. "We do not have it in France."

"That," replied the bishop, "means that this woman and I have lived together 50 years."

"Ah, that is beautiful!" thrilled the young woman. "So now you are getting married."

The reason By-laws in the smaller municipalities are not respected is because there is too much laxity in their enforcement. If a by-law is worth passing, it should be strictly enforced or erased from the books. Locally there have been few convictions for infractions of by-laws, yet there is hardly a day passes that some of these municipal laws are not broken. To wit: Dogs running at large and children riding their bicycles on the sidewalks.

The Canadian Dollar may be on the loose, but our American cousins still hang a discount on it, anywhere from 5 per cent. up. In Canada, however, the 10 per cent. premium has been discontinued and it is accepted, generally, at par—and that's the way it should be in the U. S. A. too.

DON'T WANT CHARITY

(Kamloops (B.C.) Sentinel)

If we are to have a national old age pension scheme, it should be removed entirely from the category of charity. Taxation, through payroll levities, should not be misnamed "contributions."

CORD OR NECK?

(Brockville Recorder & Times)

Veterans of World War II who are members of Canada's Special Force, will be glad to hear that a beaded chain of strong metal is to replace the piece of string on the ever-present "dog tags." It was always a source of wonderment to a man whether his neck was dirty because of the cord, or whether the cord was dirty because of his neck.

ARE YOU A HANDYMAN?

(Almonte Gazette)

The upward trend in artisans' wages puts the householder who has no mechanical aptitude in a bad spot. There was a day when it didn't cost much to call a plumber, tinsmith, painter or carpenter to do small jobs, but things have changed. Apropros of this, technical education in our schools should be encouraged not only because it could fit a boy for a trade but because it might make him capable of being a handyman around his own house.

EVENS THE SCORE

(Prescott Journal)

There's been a bit of international cross-fire between Prescott and Ogdensburg of late. Last week an American came over to tell a local service club that Canadians were delaying the building of a bridge here by their inactivity on that score. So by way of retaliation, Hon. George H. Challies, our M.L.A., told an Ogdensburg service club that U. S. interests were delaying the St. Lawrence Power Project. That leaves the score even and no blood shed.

WHY MR. BEE STINGS

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

It is claimed by bee experts that if a queen bee has a bad-tempered mate all their offspring will be bad-tempered and will go around stinging people for no reason at all. According to the experts a bee-keeper in England solved this problem by importing male bees from Italy. It seems being born in a sunny place makes a bee good-tempered. That may apply to bees, but from our observation human beings born in sunny places are no more good-natured than those born in cold climates.

IROQUOIS POWER STATION

(Iroquois Post)

A letter from the Department of Transport requesting Council to view films taken of the retaining walls behind the power house, with a request that these same retaining walls and tail races be repaired, brought considerable comment from Council members. The pictures showed widespread deterioration in all sections of the retaining walls and tailraces; the lease calls for the maintenance of buildings, structures, fumes, headraces and tailraces in good repair so that no obstruction shall occur. At the present time there is a possibility that the walls might give way causing an obstruction in the water channel.

Decision to take immediate action on the matter until a report can be filed by the village solicitor, A. C. Casselman, holds up extensive repair work. In the meantime Council ordered that the weakened areas be supported with heavy beams.

Ed. Note—If our memory serves us right, Canada's first two vertical generators were installed in this power station many years ago. These same two units are still generating power as well as when they were installed.

TOO MUCH REGULATIONS

(Leamington Post)

This nonsense of municipalities limiting the hours of sale of essential goods and services has gone too far, declares The Financial Post. All sorts of places are shut down for long hours, with the result that many customers who can't always shop before five, are unable to get goods or services when they need them. It is bad enough with groceries, hair cuts or ice cream, but when early closing prevents us from getting gasoline, it just doesn't make sense. We antagonize the tourist trade we are trying to build up and we make things difficult for our own motorists and truckers.

But worst of all we put a penalty on the enterprising individual who is trying to build up his own business. In effect these regulations tell him that he must reduce his pace to the level of his most inefficient competitors within the municipality, and let those outside it get all the extra sales.

EARLY MENTAL HEALTH

Milk is well-protected by Aluminum

1. The nourishing glass of milk from Grandma is the happy ending to this story. It started when Nature put aluminum in the earth itself. That is why this important mineral is right in the milk we drink.

2. And Nature gave aluminum qualities that make it ideal in contact with food. Many milk pails . . . many parts of modern milking machines are made of aluminum.

3. From farm to dairy . . . from country to city . . . rich, wholesome Canadian milk is being increasingly carried in aluminum containers to reach you fresh and pure.

4. And to cap it all, many bottles of milk are protection-sealed with shining aluminum foil tops. Aluminum assures cleanliness for this most sensitive of all foods.

No other material is more "food-friendly" than aluminum. Whenever you see aluminum on the outside of a food or a drink, there's an "inside story" of perfectly protected flavour, quality and purity.

Hello Homemakers! The colour of fall fashions should send us spinning and twirling to vie with nature's coloured leaves as they dance into nooks and crannies. Such colours as polka orange, minuet grey and ballet purple seem to make us happy and proud.

While preparing meals we should be pleased with our colourful fall vegetables, too—the orange pumpkin, the green-grey squash and the purple grapes. These and other fall vegetables are economical in price yet high in food value.

CAUTION IN COOKING

To bring all the beauty and goodness of vegetables to the table they should be cooked only until tender. Cook them in a covered pan in the smallest possible amount of water in the shortest possible time. Vegetables should be prepared immediately before cooking as exposure to the air and long cooking destroys the valuable vitamin C content.

UNNECESSARY EYESTRAIN

Protect your eyes against unnecessary strain and possible injury by making sure the light is always bright enough and properly positioned. The light should be strong enough to give adequate seeing without casting stark shadows or creating a glare. Reading too much fine print is another way to cause serious damage to the eyes.

THIS MAN IS getting Somewhere!

He started as a junior in a local branch bank . . . just as his manager did before him. Now he's on his way up, too.

He's learning banking skill right on the job, helped by more experienced men on the bank's staff. He is taking special banking courses . . .

Like most bankers, during his career, he will learn to know many parts of Canada, various communities. He will develop the human understanding and the business judgment you expect of your banker.

Starting from the branch that serves you he may rise to the very top. The general manager of his bank started just the way he did.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Sweaters

The shoulders of sweaters will not sag if a piece of ribbon, the length of the shoulder of the person from neck to armhole, is attached at each end of the ribbon to the sweater.

Drying A Wet Book

Do not dry a wet book by the fire, or it will warp. If water has been spilled on a cherished book, place some blotting paper on each side of the wet leaves and press with a moderately warm iron, treating each leaf separately. The leaves will neither warp nor wrinkle.

Dyed Garments

If the dye of dyed garments runs on other articles in the washtub, place the stained garments in cold water and boil them. If the marks are not removed boil them again, but do not use soap.

OBITUARY

LATE ROBERT N. WOODS

After only a few hours' illness, Mr. Robert N. Woods, a lifelong resident of Metcalfe district, died at his home on Tuesday, October 10th.

Born in 1878, he was a son of the late Samuel Woods and his wife, Mary Nelson, descendants of one of the earliest pioneer families of the Township, who settled on Crown lands near Metcalfe well over one hundred years ago.

Of a quiet, unassuming nature, Mr. Woods took little part in public life and he was best known in his immediate community where he was respected as a kindly and considerate neighbour. His deepest interest was centered in his home and in the church where he had been elected to eldership, many years ago. He had also served several years as a member of the Public School Board of S. S. 13, Yorks Corners.

In addition to his wife, formerly Margaret Young, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. D. Carlson (Elizabeth), of Toronto, and Mrs. C. Pidgeon (Grace), of Kingston, and one grandchild. He also leaves three sisters, Misses Annie, Grace and Myrtle Woods, of Ottawa, and two brothers, James, of Metcalfe, and John, of Winchester. A brother, Rev. T. A. Woods, of Iroquois, predeceased him a few months ago.

The funeral was held on Thursday from the family home to Metcalfe United Church where service was conducted by Rev. Thos. McNaught, of Russell. Favourite hymns were rendered by the choir, and a duet: "Under His Wings" was sung by Mrs. L. E. Jackson and Mrs. Don. Cameron. The pall-bearers were members of the Session which attended the service in a body, and interment was in Spring Hill Cemetery.

WOLF CUB NEWS

On behalf of the Cubs, Akela, Baloo and Bagheera would like to thank the public for their fine support given to them on Apple Day. Special thanks to Mr. Dukelow and Rev. B. G. Adams for their assistance.

The Pack welcomed three "New Chums" or "Recruits"—Jimmy MacLean, Tommy Beardsall and Reginald Harper.

Second of the Red Six, Allan Wylie, was awarded his second "Service Star" for being with the Pack for two years. Congratulations!

Cub enrolment now stands at 21. Have you a son between the ages of 8 to 12 that could join the Cubs? Three more chums are needed to make 24—four groups of six.

EARLY MENTAL HEALTH

Your child's training at home is a potent factor in his development of a healthy mental attitude in later life. Every child needs to be loved and wanted and when he feels that this love is not forthcoming his mental development may be impaired or distorted. Mental health begins at home.

The monthly meeting of St. Paul's W. M. S. was held Tuesday evening, October 16th, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Moffat, with the president and secretary, presiding. During the business session it was decided to accept an invitation from Kemptville Auxiliary to attend their meeting October 24th The treasurer's report and Agnes Glassford Auxiliary report were given by Mrs. Hugh Wilson. Mrs. R. D. Ledgerwood reported for the Goforth Group, while Mrs. A. G. Suffel and Mrs. R. Kennedy gave reports on the Mission Band and Welfare Work of the Society.

THERE'S A BIG DIFFERENCE IN TRUCKS

No other truck comes close to these 12 features you get in a GMC

Before you buy a new truck, study the chart above. It lists twelve important facts about the trucks offered by GMC and other makers in Canada. You'll find yourself drawing two main conclusions from it:

1. No matter what you want in a truck, GMC offers it . . . there's no need to look beyond GMC, for GMC and GMC alone offers every style, every capacity, every feature you can require.

2. You can't afford to buy any other make, if real truck value is what you're after! For time after time as you go through the list you'll find a feature you want—important to your profits or comfort or safety—that's offered by none of the other makers listed! No other maker offers more than 2 of the 12 features that the GMC line, up to and including the three ton, gives you.

GMC's many plus values help to explain why a GMC will give you years longer service—with lower maintenance cost. It's a real truck—built by the world's largest exclusive maker of commercial vehicles.

Your GMC dealer will be glad to show you the ruggedly handsome new 1950 models—in a wide range of types and sizes to fill every need. Measured in years of extra service, a GMC is your most economical buy.

UNITED CHURCH W .M. S. HOLDS THANKOFFERING MEETING

Mrs. A. B. Allison presided over the October Thank-Offering meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society, held in the United Church Sunday School Hall on Thursday afternoon. Following prayer, the reports of the previous meetings were read by Mrs. O. Wallace, secretary pro-tem, and the musical accompaniments were provided by Mrs. E. R. Steele.

The programme for the meeting was under the leadership of Mrs. A. Christie and her committee. The guest speaker was Mrs. Arthur Adams, of Winchester Springs, who was the W. M. S. official delegate from this Eastern Sectional to the School For Leaders, held at L'Orignal in August. She gave a most enjoyable and graphic account of that conference. Then, Mrs. Allison added further inspiration to the meeting by telling some of her impressions of the World Convention on Christian Education held at Toronto recently.

It was announced during the business period that Mrs. Geo. McIntosh would go as delegate to the Sectional meeting to be held at Williamsburg. It was decided also that the November meeting would be followed by a social hour and held in the evening.

Dedicatory prayer and the theme hymn were used in closing the meeting.

PASTOR HONOURED

On Friday evening, October 13th, the Hallville Y. P. U. met to bid farewell to their pastor, Rev. N. T. Holmes. The address was read by Miss Jean Kelso and a lamp was presented to Mr. Holmes by Miss Donalda Lawrence. Mr. Holmes made a very fitting reply. The address was as follows:

Dear Mr. Holmes:

The daylight's short, the wind is chill
It makes you shiver, it makes you ill;
The birds have flown, the bees are still,
Autumn has come, and winter will.

Our spirits are low, but it's not the fall;
Christmas is coming to cheer us all.
We've heard bad news about a call
Our minister had, and he's leaving us all.

Now, Mr. Holmes, it's pretty grim
To leave us thusly—out on a limb
You were our pal and not too prim,
We're going to miss you with a vim!

We'll often think of the fun we had,
At playing the mouth organ, you weren't so bad;
And you never spied upon a lad
And his girl going home—it's quite a fad!

For three years now you've helped us along,
Mac's in the city, he's going strong;
Donalda, too, but they both belong
To our group, so they won't go wrong.

The rest of us, we wait our turn
For an open door. We feel concern
That you're going, but we'll have to learn
To do our best, though the lesson's stern.

Please think of us as you go your way,
Will you use this lamp, it's bright as day!
Come back to see us, we'll always say
Three cheers for Mr. Holmes ! ! !
And a tiger !

DALMENY B. Y. P. U. MEETING

The meeting of the Dalmeny B. Y. P. U. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Robinson on Tuesday, October 3rd, when the members met to honour Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kennedy. Mrs. Kennedy was the former Evelyn Campbell. The devotional part of the meeting was in charge of Dick Linton. A very inspiring message was brought to the young people by Mr. James Stuart, a former member of the local B. Y. P. U., now preaching in the U. S. A. At the close of the devotional part, Evelyn and Gordon were called forward, and Lorna Carkner read a suitable address and James Robinson presented them with a clothes hamper. Evelyn replied to the address, thanking the Union for the gift, and said she would be sorry to miss the meetings when she moves to her new home in Ottawa. Gordon added a few words of thanks too.

The young people also took the opportunity to honour Rev. and Mrs. Bee, it being the 22nd anniversary of their wedding. Mrs. Clinton Lewis read a short address and Eric Ferguson presented them with a small gift of china. Both the honoured ladies were presented with corsages and the gentlemen with boutonnieres by Beverley McDiarmid and Isabel Park.

Following games and contests, conducted by Lorna Carkner, a dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Maynard McDiarmid and Mrs. Erskine Robertson presided at the tea table, which was centred with autumn flowers. Clarence McDiarmid, president, expressed the thanks of the B. Y. P. U. to Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and James for their hospitality.

Other winners were: Lorne Cooke, 2; Harold Buckland, Earl Gray, Lloyd Gray and Ken McIntosh, one each.

W. H. S. NEWS NOTES

(By Ronald McIntosh)

Rugby

Under cold gray skies on last Friday afternoon, the visiting Cardinal team overwhelmed the local gridiron club by a 21-6 score. Two touchdowns by St. Louis and a Patterson converted touchdown by O'Brien led the victors. Rounding out the score were two rouges by O'Hara and another by O'Brien. The lone Winchester touchdown was accounted for by Murray. Porteous caught a pass and went over for the extra point. A standout for the local team was Kennedy, who time and time again swept around the end for impressive gains and his tackling left nothing to be desired.

Meikle Cup

At the annual Gerald Meikle Track and Field Meet for the Secondary Schools of the United Counties in competition for the Memorial Trophy donated by J. H. Meikle, held on the Cornwall Athletic Grounds last Wednesday, Morrisburg carried off top honours by gaining the three first places in the high jump to defeat Cornwall C. C. & V. S. by a single point. Contestants were from Alexdria, Cornwall C. C. & V. S., Morrisburg, Cornwall-St. Lawrence, Winchester, Chesterville and Finch High Schools. The school bodies of all these schools journeyed to Cornwall to support their team.

The local team wound up in third place with 11 points, compared to Morrisburg with 21 and Cornwall with 20.

Your Hydro is growing fast - but

In 10 years your Hydro has increased the power supply to Southern Ontario by 952,940 horsepower, over twice the combined power requirements of the cities of Windsor, London, Hamilton, Peterborough, Kingston and Ottawa . . . and there will be more power within the next few months.

Ontario's growth has been amazing. Since 1947 the population has increased by 323,000, over 70,000 new homes have been constructed, approximately 700 new industries have been established and the value of production has risen an estimated 1½ billion dollars, 88,541 new rural consumers have been supplied with Hydro and the value of agricultural production has increased by some 400 million dollars . . . all of which called for power in greater quantities than at any previous time.

BUT—in addition to this tremendous growth, the recent step-up in industrial activity due to defence rearmament contracts has brought about a sharp increase in the use of electricity. In the past few weeks the maximum primary demand in Southern Ontario has been as much as 400,000 horsepower (298,000 kilowatts) higher than a year ago . . . an increase 5 times greater than the long term average rate of growth. For this reason your Hydro urges everyone to co-operate in the conservation of electricity.

A SURE CURE!

(Petrolia Advertiser-Topic)

Ontario has been endeavoring to find ways and means to effectively check car drivers from operating their vehicles while under the influence of liquor. Perhaps Johannesburg, South Africa, has the solution. We have just read a dispatch stating that in the matter of tossing the book at motorists found guilty of drunk driving, that that South African city leads the world. The penalty there for driving a motor vehicle while inebriated is a $2,800 fine, or ten years in jail—or both. Should be effective!

Don't take that crossing Blindfolded!

DON'T TAKE THAT CROSSING BLINDFOLDED!

Impaired visibility, due to clouded or frosted windshields and side windows is blamed for a considerable number of the 443 railway crossing accidents reported to the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada for the 12-month period ended June 30. These accidents took 140 lives and brought injuries to 549 others. A railway crossing, whether protected by special signals or otherwise, is an admitted hazard to the motorist, and under the best conditions—full daylight and clear vision the operator of a motor vehicle should approach every crossing with proper caution. Keeping windshield and front side windows clean and free of frost or mist is one thing the motorist can do to reduce the toll of crossing accidents. Other safe practices: Don't race the train, it is probably moving faster than you think; if you have to take the crossing slowly, change into second gear to prevent stalling; make sure when you see one train clearing a crossing that there is not another train behind it moving in the opposite direction.

For Parents Only

(By Nancy Cleaver)

A CHILD'S SUCCESS AND FAILURE

"Tommy is a terrible little slowpoke. He dawdles and dawdles, and no matter how often I speak to him, he just won't hurry."

"Helen doesn't seem able to play happily with the children in our neighbourhood. She will not take turns or share her playthings with other little girls. I am so ashamed of her when she snatches her doll from her little chums."

"John just won't keep clean. I dress him in fresh clothes every morning and every afternoon after he sleeps, and still he seems to be dirty all the time."

Have you listened to remarks like these, They are often made by parents who expect perfect behaviour of their children—sometimes far beyond the child's ability at the stage he is at. These "perfectionist parents" are more apt to be mothers than fathers and they are very hard to live with (both for the child and the other parent) because they create a discontented, upset family atmosphere. They would likely be surprised if they were told that it is a mistake for a parent to set up a standard of perfection for a child.

Children go through various stages of development. Habits of thumb sucking or dawdling are outgrown in time by most children. It takes time and patience for a little child to learn how to get along with other children, and share possessions happily. An active child is not naturally concerned about cleanliness, and a mother who expects her son to keep his hands and clothes clean while he plays is doomed to disappointment.

Sometimes a child does not experience success in simple endeavours because his mother is too eager to help him, too impatient to let him do things slowly and often imperfectly himself. The son or daughter of the too-dominant or too efficient mother finds it hard to learn by trying one thing at a time, over and over again, until mastery is gained.

A child needs encouragement in order to succeed in the formation of habits which are possible and desirable for him at his age. Praise is a great stimulus for successful effort. If provision is made for the basic needs of a child, he is likely to be successful in learning new ideas and skills and in developing a happy relationship with his playmates and older people.

Failure is part of life as well as success for a child as well as for an adult and both young and old can learn from their mistakes if they are willing to do so. A child who accepts the fact that he cannot always be the winner in the game, that he will not always come first in his class, that he will not always succeed in what he attempts, will not be crushed by disappointments and failures in later life. A good parent can help his boy who has attempted to build an airplane model which is of too intricate a design, by showing him where he made his mistakes, suggesting that he try a simpler plan and giving him sufficient direction to succeed in his second attempt. A good parent does not expect perfection in his child's behaviour and helps his child learn from his mistakes.

MAN! WHAT A BASS!

(Carleton Place Canadian)

A monster small mouth black bass was caught in the Mississippi river last Sunday evening by John E. Tullis, R. R. 1, Lanark. The bass weighed six pounds, 3 ounces, and was 22 inches long by 16 inches in girth. He was still fishing and using a live minnow.

The catch is entered in the James' Bros., Perth, big fish contest, Smiths Falls contests, and the Toronto Daily Star contests. Allan James weighed the fish and it was later taken to Nichols' Taxidermy, Smiths Falls, for mounting in a glass case.

Mr. Tullis wrote The Canadian through K. B. Findlay, requesting that the fish be entered in the local Mississippi Fish and Game Protective Association contests. He is having a sample of scabs sent to Dr. Curran,head of the biological department at Queen's University to attempt-learning the age of the fish.

THE SILENT KILLER

Carbon monoxide is a deadly and silent killer. It is found in lethal quantities where internal combustion engines are operated in enclosed spaces, where furnaces and stove flues and chimneys are faulty and in various industrial processes. Don't take any chances with carbon monoxide. It gives absolutely no warning.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Scorch Stains

Scorch stains which resist other means will usually yield when rubbed with peroxide.

Dysentery

An excellent remedy for dysentery is to take whisked white of an egg two or three times daily.

Hot Grease

The spattering of hot grease can be avoided many times by placing a little salt in the frying pan.

Fats

All cooking fats and drippings should be kept in the refrigerator to prevent their becoming rancid.

Shaping House Plants

Plants growing in the house may be kept in shape by pinching the end buds of the shoots that grow too vigorously.

An Economical Dessert

An inexpensive and delicious dessert can be made by pouring hot lemon sauce over stale cake that has been heated in the oven.

Marshmallows

If it is necessary to cut marshmallows, dip the kitchen scissors into powdered sugar before each cutting and there will be no stickiness.

Pantry Shelves

When paper is used to protect the pantry shelves, try using three thicknesses. They can be removed one layer at a time as they become soiled.

Cleaning Furs

Fur collars and cuffs may be successfully cleaned if rubbed thoroughly with cornmeal soaked in gasoline. Keep away from heat while cleaning.

Cheese

Try cutting the cheese into chunks, putting it in a covered fruit jar and then placing in the refrigerator. This will keep the cheese fresh for a long time.

Silver Polish

For polishing silver, mix equal parts of whiting, ammonia, and alcohol. Apply with a flannel, allow it to dry, and then polish with tissue paper.

Medicine Stains

When medicine has stained white fabric, it can be removed by painting the stains with tincture of iodine, then soak in a strong solution of ammonia for thirty minutes, and wash thoroughly.

Lemons

Lemons may be kept nicely for a long time by placing them in a tight container and covering with cold water, which should be changed weekly.

The Refrigerator.

All food should be cool before it is placed in the refrigerator. Warm food causes the ice to melt faster and also destroys the keeping qualities of the food.

Deodorize Fresh Paint

The smell of fresh paint gives many people a headache, and to none is it an especially pleasant odor. Place a paper bag containing several pieces of charcoal in the room and close the door tightly. Another effective remedy is an onion sliced into small pieces and put into a pail of water in the room. The water and onions will absorb the odor.

Hot Water Bottle

To mend a leak or torn place in the rubber hot water bottle, apply a gasoline patch, such as is used for repairing the inner tubes of an automobile.

Smoke Stains on Brick

A simple method recommended for removing smoke stains from bricks is to use wood ashes. Moisten them with water and rub the bricks with a rag dipped in the ashes.

Hot Food

Keep food hot by covering securely with the lid or a tin pan, and placing the vessel over a basin of hot water. When vegetables are cooked, drain and cover securely, then wrap in paper and set in oven without fire. They will keep hot for a long time.

Yes, Oldsmobile brings you the benefits of its extra experience in such revolutionary advancements as Hydra-Matic Drive*—the pioneer no-shift drive that's finest because it was first in the field, and has been proved and improved through actual billions of miles of driving in the past ten years!

The great new Oldsmobile "Rocket" Engine is another first from the continent's most experienced car maker. Pioneered two years ago, it has already started a major automotive trend toward valve-in-head engines of much higher compression—but the "Rocket" is by far the greatest because it's first, it's backed by many more years of research, development and perfecting!

And all through every model of the 1950 Oldsmobile "88" and the "76", powered by its improved "Big Six" Engine, there's example after example of Oldsmobile quality leadership . . . advantages that come to Oldsmobile owners because Oldsmobile, the car that was first in the field of all cars made on this continent today, has the good habit of keeping the lead!

So, go ahead—go years ahead—with an Oldsmobile!

HYDRA-MATIC DRIVE . . . The truly automatic drive that outmodes the clutch pedal entirely! Proved by billions of miles of driving since Olds pioneered it more than 10 years ago.
