$7500 ACCIDENT DAMAGE

OPP Kept Busy With Accidents, Thieves

"Could be spring fever", one O.P.P. officer remarked, after reporting a series of accidents in the area.

Damage estimated at approximately $75 00 resulted from seven separate mishaps but fortunately no serious injuries resulted.

First two on the list occured on March 17th, one at Silver Springs and the other on Highway 43 near North Dundas District High School. An icy stretch of highway most likely caused the mishap at Silver Springs when three cars were involved in a chain-reaction crash. Daniel Lenser, 27, of South Mountain, driving a 1964 Dodge apparently momentarily lost control and the car following, driven by Charles Hutchinson, 21, also of South Mountain was unable to stop before crashing into the Lenser auto. A third car, a 1966 Crysler, driven by 18-year-old Albert DeJong of Iroquois then piled into the Hutchinson car. Damage to the Lenser car was estimated at $200.00; Hutchinson fared the worse with $700.00 damage to his 1966 Chev while DeJong suffered $500.00. The accident was investiaged by Const. John Miller.

The same day, with fog reducing visibility, James Shadbolt, 18, of Winchester, apparently failed to see a stopped school bus near N.D.D.H.S. and damage to his 1966 Buick was estimated at $600.00 with the bus suffering minor damage. Constable Miller also investigated this mishap assisted by Corp. Graves.

NUMBER '3'

Early Saturday morning (12:25) Doug Poole, 26 of Vernon lost control of his 1968 Dodge, according to the police report, and struck both a utility pole and a tree after mounting a snowbank. Wet pavement was suggested as the possible cause with $700.00 damage to the automobile.

The same day, at 7:30 in the evening two cars collided near Harmony Corner. Barry Cinnamon, 22, of RR1, Winchester was driving a 1969 Plymouth and the other vehicle involved was driven by 52-year-old Leo Butler of Chesterville. This one was investigated by Const. Norm Sarault with total damage estimated at $1,100.00.

Ice patches were most likely the cause of another accident near Winchester Springs when Sherry McMillan, 16, of Williamsburg went off the road. Damage to the 1968 Chev was estimated at $700. and Constable Sarault was again the investigating officer.

Still another mishap occurred on County Road 7, south of Morewood early Sunday morning and again ice patches on the road were apparently the cause. Damage to a 1967 Mercury, driven by John Sanderson, 20 of Newington, was estimated at $500.00. Constable Langlotz of Morrisburg was the investigating officer.

Possibly the most spectacular of all mishaps was the Sunday afternoon pile-up west of Winchester approximately 300 feet east of the 31-43 intersection. Four cars were involved in this one when Stephen Porteous, 19, of RR1, Winchester slammed into the back end of a slow-moving 1965 Meteor driven by Eric Sayant, 16, of Vernon. The Sayant car in turn crashed into a 1971 Toyoto driven by Diane Benton, 26, of Cornwall and the Denton car was forced into a fourth, a 1971 Valiant, driven by Rev. Kevin Maloney, 26, also of Cornwall.

The mishap was investigated by Constable John Miller and Norm Sarault and the damage was estimated as follows: Porteous car, $400.00; Sayant car, $500.00, Benton auto, $700.00; and the one driven by Rev. Maloney, $200.00.

ACCIDENT AT RUSSELL

Seventeen-year-old Mike Connelly narrowly escaped serious injury on Monday evening when he was knocked down on the main street of Russell. No particulars were available at press time but it is understood the young man was rushed to hospital.

STOLEN CAR

A young Metcalfe hockey player, Bruce Reid, who plays with Nepean 'Raiders' had his car stolen last Thursday night but police found it the following night. Reid had left his car at the Merival arena while he was on a road trip and when he returned it was gone. It was found at St. Laurent Shopping Centre but no estimate of damage was available at press time. It is understood several locks were broken.

AND WINCHESTER CAR WASH

Vandals attempted to break into the coin box at Winchester coin wash over the weekend but were unsuccessful. Apparently angered by the defiant box they returned the following night and severed the hose. No estimate of damage has been released.

Waiting And Wondering

The two youngsters shown above most likely heard the official announcement that spring had arrived and immediately raced to the river bank.

The river, winding through the trees directly in front of the boys appears quiet and harmless on this first day of spring but the scene will be entirely different following break-up.

The noisy swelling tide will surge over the banks at this point and everything in view will most likely be submerged. No doubt the boys will be keeping a close watch.

Lemieux Residents Concerned

RIVER EXPERTS PREDICT HIGH WATER

Conservation authorities and residents of low-lying areas along the Nation River are understandably concerned. The river has created run-off problems for many years, but the land slide at Lemieux last year completely dammed the river at the point for many weeks. As spring approaches, the once-wide river bed is now only a narrow man-made trench.

"We really don't know," said one farmer in the area, "but we're gravely concerned."

Another man, whose land is adjacent to the river, points out that although there appears to be less snow than this time last year heavy rains, a quick thaw or a combination of both could prove disastrous.

In other years the river backed up causing flood conditions in the area south and west of Winchester and usually forced closure of Highway 31 at peak periods.

The new bridge over the river replacing the old Cass Bridge is much higher and the approaches to the bridge are also several feet higher than the old roadbed.

Bridge designers, however, did not take into account the possibility of a land-slide and those who live near the river in this area are already preparing for what they fear may be "the worst yet."

Conservation authorities are hopeful the first onslaught of the spring run-off will forceably widen the channel at Lemieux. and they feel, as the force of the surging water increase, the trench will widen and reduce the flood threat.

What do the "river people" expect? The answer is much the same all along the winding stream . . . "we'll just have to wait and see."

Hospital Receives $24,000 Bequest

Hospital administrator, H.P. Stel, commenting on the effective use of volunteers in Admitting, One East and Pediatrics, told Women's Auxiliary members volunteers in their cherry red smocks and the twelve N.D.D.H.S. students participating in the work Experience Program have made the hospital more lively and colourful than usual.

Mr. Stel was addressing the March meeting when members were in attendance from Golden Valley, Iroquois, Morewood, Morrisburg, Ormond, South Mountain, Chesterville and Winchester.

Reporting also on a very substantial $24,000 bequest from the Higgins estate, Mr. Stel confirmed that Intensive Care and Cardiac units had progressed to the blue-print stages.

Relevant to this project was a staff demonstration by Miss Tullis and Mrs. Baker of the Cardiac Monitor now in use in the operating room. More of these complex and expensive machines will be required for the projected intensive care and cardiac units.

It was reported the February blood donor's clinic netted 228 units, the second highest in the history of the local clinic and the auxiliary had words of praise for all who helped make the project so successful.

Miss Legris told the meeting occupancy remains at the high level of 102.7 per cent in the Medical and Surgical floors and Mrs. A. Butcher reported that twenty regular knitters are still in great demand for goods for the showcase.

Morrisburg's re-activated unit reported a partially completed membership drive and a projected food sale for the month of April and it was decided the June Garden Party will be a feature event again this year.

By a unanimous vote the time and date of future meetings was changed to the second Thursday of each month at 2:30 p.m. This change will accommodate the drivers and avoid the present conflict with community meetings during the first week of each month.

A happy innovation at the meeting was an intimate arrangement of tables over which president Mrs. F.M. Cass carried on the business and where, at the close of the meeting, Miss Legris, assisted by auxiliary members, served coffee and small cakes.

Area Farmer Receives Scholarship

Ken Murdock, a well known Winchester area farmer, will spend three months in Australia and New Zealand studying farming methods in those countries and at the same time offering valuable tips on Canadian agriculture.

The 'Travelling Scholarships' are awarded annually by Ontario Junior Farmers, in conjunction with the U.C.O. and fourteen applications were considered before the final selection was made.

Purpose of the scholarship is to recognize an outstanding Junior Farmer who has given effective leadership to youth programs; and to provide an opportunity to learn more about rural life, farming and youth organizations in countries visited.

Mr. Murdock, 27, lives with his wife, the former Elizabeth Savage and their two children on their beautiful rolling farm eight miles north of Winchester in Carleton County.

Since it is left to the discretion of the one selected to chose the time of the visit, Mr. Murdock says he will most likely be

Public School Singers Entertain At 100 Club

Eight lovely Winchester Public School students stole the spotlight at last week's meeting of Winchester 100 Club.

Since the meeting was on the eve of St. Patrick's day an Irish atmosphere prevailed and the visitors dug into their 'Green' music library to present an appropriate program.

The charming singers were Marjorie Moore, Beverly Haines, Julie Holmes, Mary Jane Holmes, Arlene Fife, Martha Justus, Darlene Summers and Kim Durst.

Winner of the 'Boost' was Darlene Summers.

The April meeting is usually a 'Guest Night' and it is expected the same formula will be used this season with Clair Chamberlain and Bill McRoberts assisting Harold Lannin on the planning committee.

Pot-Hole Alley

Pot-holes and spring are synonomous in this mechanical age and because streets are kept clear of snow it is understandable road surfaces are subjected to fierce punishment.

The sewer installation program, completed late last fall in Winchester, has created an even grimmer situation, as a glimpse at this village street indicates.

Rather than criticize council for the deplorable condition of most village thoroughfares possibly the best idea is to drive with extreme caution till such time as the situation can be remedied.

Jill Knows Her History

Jill Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan and a Grade 9 student at North Dundas District High School, is a real student of history.

The pretty girl attended Winchester Public School and her history essay was judged best in the entire County.

Crysler Park Maple Sugar Camp Opens Season

During the past 8 years over 120,000 visitors to the Crysler Maple Sugar Bush have enjoyed the fun and excitement of one of Ontario's oldest industries.

A few decades ago maple sugar shanties were a familiar sight across the province however during recent years their numbers have sharply decreased.

For young visitors to the Sugar Bush it is an interesting new experience and for those who can look back a few years a very nostalgic one.

Crysler Maple Sugar Bush is located 6 miles east of Morrisburg just off Highway 2. Old and new methods of collecting and processing sap are illustrated and everyone enjoys the "sugaring off" taffy ladled on fresh snow.

2000 trees are tapped and weather permitting the operation will be underway after March 20th.

There is no charge for visiting the Sugar Bush, where maple sugar products are sold, and on weekends a horse-drawn vehicle carries visitors to and from the sugar camp. The camp is open every day throughout the sap run which usually ends around April 10th.

Films on making maple syrup and maple products will be shown during the operating season in the Upper Canada Cafeteria for groups of school children. Teachers intending to take groups of school children should write in advance to the St. Lawrence Parks Commission, Box 340, Morrisburg, stating the number in the group, date of visit and expected time of arrival.

At the Upper Canada Village Entrance Store Snack Bar maple Syrup with pancakes and sausages is available along with snacks and hot drinks.

Bring the children for an enjoyable and interesting family outing.

Latest Billy Graham Film To Be Shown At Edwards Sunday

The latest Billy Graham film, LOST GENERATION, features special appearances by Art Linkletter and "DRAGNET" star Jack Webb.

Linkletter, whose daughter Diane died as the result of the use of drugs, discusses drug usage in America, and points to what is being done voluntarily by many teen-agers to combat the problem. Webb states his views on the role of the police officer and his relationship to the laws of our society.

LOST GENERATION, filmed in Eastmancolour by World Wide Pictures, is a probing documentary which takes a close look at the attitudes and morals of the Nation. Location filming was done in Alaska, the Southern states, on the farms and in the small towns of mid-America, and in the dying Haight-Ashbury hippie district of San Francisco.

LOST GENERATION will be shown on Sunday, March 26 at the Pentecostal Church , Edwards. There will be no admission charge for the 7:30 p.m. showing, and Reverend R. MacDonald pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to the public.

South Mountain WI Gathers

Members of South Mountain W.I. met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Fisher.

President Mrs. Arnold Shaver opened the program with the 'Ten Commandments for W.I. Members" and the topic for the meeting was Agriculture. Mrs. Arnold Holmes gave an interesting reading on 'Ontario Farm Homes' and roll call was answered by "What Agricultural Product Does Your Family Like Best."

Miss Leeann Holmes gave an interesting talk on the work of 4-H calf clubs and lunch was served by Mrs. Arnold Holmes and Mrs. Matt Moore.

Receives R.N.A. Diploma At Civic

Miss Judy A. Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Hess of RR1, Williamsburg, recently received her R.N.A. diploma from Ottawa Civic Hospital.

Miss Hess is now employed at Winchester District Memorial Hospital.

New Restaurant Opens

A new restaurant opened at Metcalfe last week should prove a great asset to the community, as well as, hungry motorists travelling along Highway 31.

Capable of seating at least thirty-five people comfortably, the ultra-modern business is located on Highway 31 , approximately 1,000 feet north of the Metcalfe junction.

Operated by Don McIntosh, ample parking space is available, and later in the spring a service station and gas bar will become part of the complex.

The above photo was taken late Sunday afternoon only a few minutes before the place was filled to enjoy a delicious smorgasbord.

WI Meetings

GLEN OGILVIE

Agriculture was the theme of the Glen Ogilvie W.I. March meeting and convener Mrs. Donald Sorley presented an interesting view of new things in the field of agriculture.

Mrs. John Baird submitted an interesting report of the District Directors' meeting.

Members discussed the tax system and agreed to forward a letter to the Minister of Finance requesting increased exemption on Income Tax for those over 65 years of age.

RAMSAYVILLE

The subject for the last meeting of Ramsayville W.I. was Agriculture and roll call was answered by "One way in which changing Agriculture is changing our lives."

Plans were completed for the W.I. chocolate sale at the School Carnival.

The President, Mrs. L. E. Dayton was appointed to attend a conference at Guelph on May 3, 4, 5. Mrs. George Nicholson read a paper on the motto: "Act enthusiastically and you'll be enthusiastic."

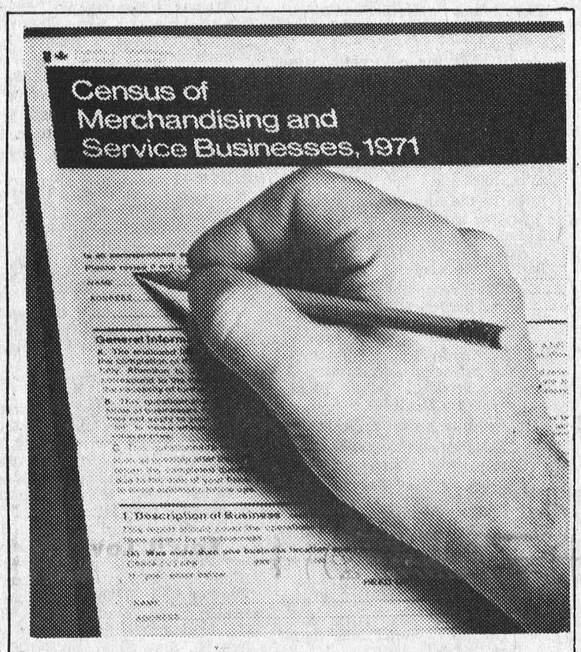
A display of wood-carving demonstrated by Mrs. A. Erwin of Winchester was enjoyed and the 4-H club books were on display.

In keeping with the 75th anniversary the refreshments included an attractive birthday cake.

Friendship Circle Formed At Russell

A new Community Friendship Circle was formed at Russell last week when 24 ventured out despite icy road conditions and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon at the United Church Hall.

Organizers are hopeful many more will join in future months. The next meeting will also be at the United Church Hall at 2:15 p.m., Wednesday, April 12th.



Give us your facts. We'll put you in the picture.

Merchandising and service businesses make a $50-billion contribution to the Canadian economy every year. They employ more people and produce more revenue than any other industry group.

Now, in the final phase of the 1971 Census of Canada, we're measuring the precise share of that activity generated by each business in these categories. The figures relating to your operation are vital to this measuring process.

If you are a wholesaler, retailer, or supplier of services, you will have received a census questionnaire to complete. Please fill it in and mail it back promptly.

When the Census of Merchandising and Service Businesses has been taken, we will be able to produce a clear picture of national trends in these fields, so you can see exactly where you fit in.

Whatever your sales volume may be, the 1971 census data will show you how your performance compares with others of similar size, nationally, provincially, or in your own county or census district. Sales, payrolls and number of employees are among the variables you can measure.

Your individual information will continue to be held in strictest confidence, as required by law. We won't publish figures in cases where there are fewer than three firms in a given category, so no one will be able to identify your specific results.

The Merchandising and Service Division of Statistics Canada is taking this census to produce accurate, up-to-date information to help in your business planning. To do this, it needs your up-to-date results. The breadth and thoroughness of the census is what makes it so important to so many people in business and government alike.

Wednesday Club To View Slides Of German Play

"The Wednesday Club", a group of Metcalfe and area senior citizens have planned an interesting evening for Wednesday, March 29th and have extended a cordial invitation to visitors.

The club has been active for several months and the able president, Z.M. Niblock, always has an interesting program.

A former Metcalfe man, W.H. Scrivens, visited Germany a few years ago, witnessed the world famous Oberrammergau Passion Play and brought back beautiful slides.

Mr. Scrivens generously offered to bring his prize collection to the March 29th meeting for the enjoyment of the group.

The drama which is staged every ten years, depicts the life, trial, crucifixion and asenction of Christ and is witnessed each time by tens of thousands who come from all parts of the world.

The 'Wednesday Club' alternates its meeting and this very special Holy Week gathering will be at the United Church Hall.

"Everyone," says Mr. Niblock "is invited."

Hawks' Player Moran Says Money Not Involved

-By Joe Rowan-

Bill Moran, who played with Winchester Hawks in St. Lawrence Junior 'B' Hockey League during the season, has flatly denied that any money exchanged hands when he decided to play with his home team (Morewood) rather than Winchester in an important play-off game.

The write-up of the important game, which was given to Winchester Press by Garry Tysick of Kemptville, implied but did not state definitely that money may have lured Moran and a team mate Jacques Landry, away from home on that occasion.

Mr. Tysick has been a dedicated Hawk fan during the entire season and his regular reports were read with great interest. Like many other sportsmen who had supported the team throughout the season the writer was understandably angry when he saw his team short-handed for such an important game. It is the aim of Winchester Press to report both sides of any controversial subject, and a letter from Moran is published below.

Sufficient to say it was an unfortunate situation and the reasoning behind the boys' decision is known only to the players, and possibly their coach.

Possibly the best way to handle such a delicate matter is to simply chalk it up to experience and start planning for better things next season.

Following is the note received at this office Monday morning from Bill Moran:

This statement is in reply to the article published in last week's Winchester Press.

I have played with the Winchester Hawks for three years. This past season I have missed one game. That game was Friday, March 10th. On Sunday, March 12th, I was at the game in Alexandria prepared to play, but under the circumstances this was impossible.

If threatened suspension and the forfeiting of due awards is the penalty I have to pay for having missed one game to play for my home town team, of Morewood - then so be it.

I have at no time accepted money for playing hockey. I play for the sport.

It is unfortunate when personal satisfaction takes priority over good sportsmanship and fair play. Every club plays to win, but win or lose the Hawks are a great bunch of guys.

I wish the Hawks the best of luck in the future. I consider it a privilege to have been a member of the team.

-Bill Moran-

ONE GAME UP ON BROCKVILLE

Loyalists Down Lanark Three Straight

-By Lynne O'Brien-

Still on his scoring rampage, 6 foot 2 inch Jack Duncan added 3 goals and 3 assists to his growing point total when the Morrisburg Loyalists outscored Lanark Merchants 10-5. This gave the Loyalists the best of 5 O.D.H.A. Intermediate B quarter finals 3 games to none.

The first period ended a 3-3 tie with Fred Harper giving the Loyalists a 4-3 lead in the only goal scored in the 2nd period.

In the 3rd period, Loyalists came alive and scored 6 straight goals before Jim Nolan picked up Lanarks last two. Loyalists scorers were: Mel Tomalty 2 goals, 4 assists, Bill Dillabough a pair and singles by Bill Lawlor and John Hutton. Lanark scorers were: John Renwick 2 and Mike Brazeau 1.

Brockville Stars were next to face Loyalists.

Stars opened the scoring at 13:24 on a goal by Wayne Ellis. Jack Duncan tied the game at 15:43. In the 2nd period goals by Ron Alguire, John Hutton and Jack Duncan gave the Loyalists a 4-1 boost. Former Morrisburg Combine and Syracuse star, Jim Forrest scored the Stars last goal before Mel Tomalty scored to end the 2nd period 5-2 in favour of the Loyalists.

The Loyalists hypnotized Metcalfe in the 3rd period, and slipped 5 unanswered goals past him. Duncan a hat trick and singles by Bill Lawlor and Little Doug Casselman. The Stars feature several ex Combines, Forrest, Bill Craig (who tried to put Lawlor through the boards 3 times), Morley Hunt, Lyle Ellis, Roy Pyke and ex Loyalists, Metcalfe and Don Snyder.

John Shepherd took an instant dislike to Loyalists Fred Harper and a feud was started, resulting in a minor and a major to each in the 2nd period. Tempers refused to stay in check and at 19:18 of the final period a battle royal resulted in Shepherd picking 2 minors, 1 major a 10 minute misconuct and a game misconduct. Harper received 1 major and a game misconduct.

These two teams meet again Morrisburg, Wednesday, March 22nd and will play at Brockville March 24th.

SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Embrun Panthers Win Citizen Shield

-By Wayne Reid-

Embrun Panthers wrapped up the O.D.H.A. Intermediate A crown on Sunday by downing Renfrew North Stars. The win gave Embrun their fourth win in five games to take the series.

League President Al Davis was on hand to present the Citizen Shield, symbolic of the Ottawa Valley Intermediate A championship and the Wilf Lebarr trophy representing the league championship.

This is the second time in as many seasons that Captain Terry Kelly has accepted the Shield on behalf of the Embrun Club. In the Shield's history which dates back to 1939, only two other clubs have picked up this in a row in the fifties and earlier, the old Maxville Millionaires collected the Citizen Shield for three consecutive seasons.

To summarize the games in the series which started on Friday, March 10th, John Kelly was the big gun for Embrun as he scored 3 of the 8 goals the Panthers piled up to defeat Renfrew 8-1. Other goal scorers for Embrun were Larry Mick, and Rich Larose with two apiece, while Les Rafter and John Goodman added one each. Renfrew's lone marker was notched by Jim Cotnam.

On Sunday, March 12th, John Kelly again proved to be Embrun's most effective player as he banged in three of the four Panther goals to earn his second new hat.

The scene shifted to Renfrew for the third and fourth game in the series.

Wednesday, March 15th, Panthers, down one goal after the first period, thundered back in second and third to squash the North-Stars 8-1. Wayne Reid and John Pinke each had two markers while Dave Hunt, Larry Mick, Les Rafter and John Bonnar had singles.

The fourth game, played in Renfrew, was a must game for the North-Stars. A loss for them meant elimination.

Each team scored a goal in the first and one more in the second to set the stage for the third, when Renfrew defense proved too sturdy to penetrate and allowed only two goals while at the Embrun end Renfrew banged in four to make the final score 6-4 in favour of the North Stars.

On Sunday, March 19th, the same two clubs squared off again in the fifth game.

Renfrew had nothing to lose so they threw everything but the kitchen sink at Wayne Hughes, and he stopped it all. Hughes turned in a superb performance to earn the shut-out while the rest of the club piled up a nine goal lead. John Kelly and Rich Larose accounted for four while Terry Kelly, Wayne Reid, Bill McNeil, Les Rafter and John Pinke each added one.

In the five games the Panthers scored 33 goals while having only 10 scored against them.

John Kelly and Larry Mick proved most powerful around Renfrew's net. In the five games, Kelly had nine goals and five assists while linemate Mick chalked up four goals and ten assists. Other top point getters were Wayne Reid with 3 goals and 6 assists, Rich Larose had 6 goals and 1 assist, and Terry Kelly with 2 goals, 6 assists.

Embrun Panthers will represent the O.D.H.A. in the All Canadian play-downs. Their next opponents will be from New Brunswick. The Easterners will be playing in Embrun in a best of three on March 31st, April 1st, and 2nd. The winners of this series will play against Nova Scotia before going west for the Canadian Championship.

Watch for times of the games on Easter weekend.

At a later date Embrun Panthers will play a benefit game with Renfrew for North Stars goalie Rick Lavalee who had his leg broken in the third game of the final series when he collided with Wayne Reid.

Dundas Junior Farmers Play In Tournament

Dundas Junior Farmers broomball team competed in a tournament at Stittsville but failed to bring home any prize money.

Losing the first game to Lanark County the team qualified for consolation play. Despite a win over Frontenac County they dropped their third game to Russell County.

Metcalfe Pee Wees Must Win

Metcalfe Pee Wee hockey team, currently engaged in Grenville-Carleton League play-offs, have set an impressive season record.

During regular season play the young boys piled up a string of 23 wins, losing only 2 and tieing one, for 41 points, one more than Kemptville.

Richmond finished third; Osgoode, fourth; Manotick, fifth and Stittsville in the cellar.

Metcalfe and Osgoode met in one segment of the semi-final play-downs while Kemptville and Richmond tangled in the other half. Metcalfe eliminated Osgoode in four games and Kemptville earned a berth in the finals following a 5-game series with Richmond.

The first game of the final was a real thriller and ended in a 3-all tie. The game was played at Kemptville, and to-night (Thursday) the teams will meet again on Metcalfe's home ice (Embrun). Game time 8:00 p.m.

Fans should plan to arrive at the arena an hour earlier, however, since Metcalfe Bantams will meet Kemptville at 7:00 p.m.

Kemptville holds a lead in this final series and Metcalfe must win to remain in contention and force a fifth and deciding game.

Metcalfe Jets Take Commanding Lead

Metcalfe 'Jets', despite a long lay-off made necessary by virtue of a play-down bye, have taken a commanding lead in St. Lawrence Junior 'B' Hockey League semi-finals.

The fast-skating Metcalfe-based team skated to an easy victory on their home ice (Embrun arena) last Thursday and then journeyed to Cardinal on Sunday night where they edged the Broncos 3 to 2.

Cardinal showed some signs of fatigue in Thursday night's encounter which came on the heels of their gruelling five-game series with Spencerville. Metcalfe appeared to take full advantage of the lull and hammered home five unanswered goals in the first period.

Ken Kelly teamed up with Bob Woods to net the first one; Peter Miller capitalized on a neat passing play by Kelly and Woods for number 'two'; Greg Holmes made it 3 to 0 when he stormed in all alone; Bob Woods fired home a Mark Bordeau pass for number 4 and before the period ended it was Miller again, this time on a neat pass from Dennis Ouellette.

Coach Jim Knudson may have given his boys a fiery pep talk between periods as his boys looked like a different club in the opening minutes of the second frame quickly closing the gap with two fast goals one by Jim Henry and the other by Mark Slater. In the dying minutes of the period, however, Miller picked up his third of the night when Dennis Ouellette scooped one out of the corner and when the gong sounded it was 6 to 2 - Metcalfe.

Early in the final period Dennis Ouellette added one more for the home team and Brian Clifford, unassisted picked up Cardinal's third goal. Final score, Metcalfe 7; Cardinal 3.

Game 'two' of the best-of-five series was played before a packed gallery on Sunday evening at Cardinal's plush new arena and fans were treated to one of the best games of the season.

Although the first period ended scoreless it was only the thrilling performance of Jets' netminder Glen Wilson that kept Broncos off the score board.

Jets lit the red light for the first time early in the second when Earl Davidson scored on a play set up by Greg Holmes and Hugh Doyle. Both teams played rugged hockey for the balance of the second period but both netminders proved unbeatable.

At the two-minute mark of the last period Dennis Ouellette put Jets two up when he, Peter Miller and Dean Holmes outmanoeuvered the Broncos defence.

Cardinal fans were on their feet five minutes later when Art Sinfield finally clipped one past Wilson to narrow the margin. Broncos continued to apply the pressure but the Metcalfe defence held up and Dean Holmes scored what proved to be the winning goal at the 13-minute mark.

Three minutes later Sinfield picked up his second goal much to the delight of the packed arena, but the strong Jets defence held on till the final bell.

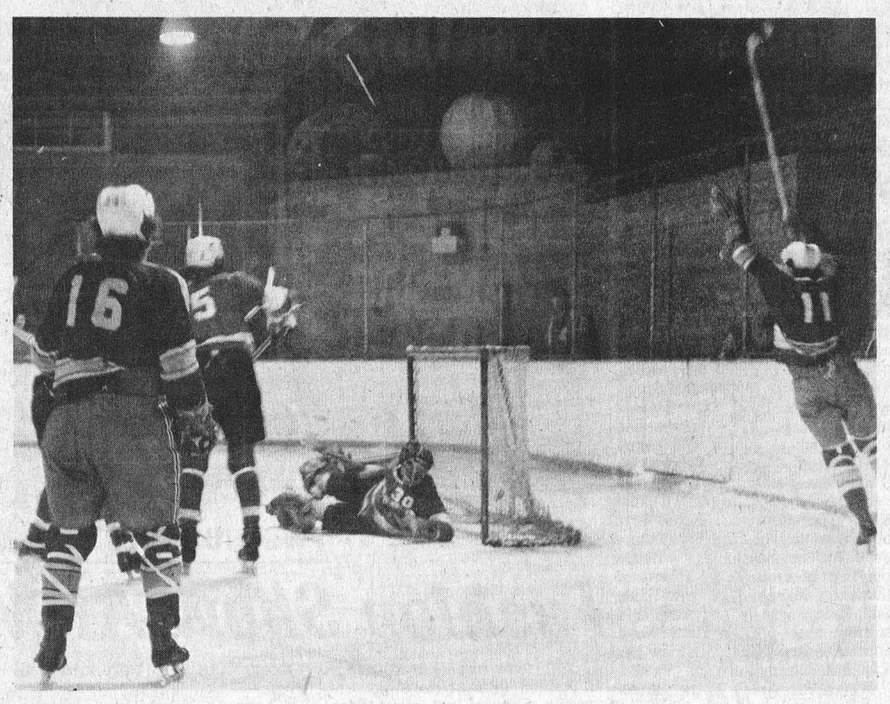
Jets need only one more win to advance into the final round against either Alexandria or Prescott.

The third game, was played on Tuesday night at Embrun and a brief report of this encounter appears on page '1' of this edition.

PRESS BOX VIEWS:

Cardinal's speedy number '12' Mack Slater, has to be one of the finest young hockey players appearing in the league this season. We understand he hails from Renfrew and is attending college across the border.

Slater is the type of player who delights fans. He and Metcalfe's Woods, if they were team mates would make a tough combination to stop . . . Making a 3-star selection could have created a problem although there is little doubt both netminders earned special recognition . . . The teams are evenly matched but Jets appear to have a little more depth. . . Steve Morris, Metcalfe's rugged defence ace, made it clear early in the game he had a 'claim' staked in front of his net and 'poachers' moved in at their own risk. Jets will have to be their best Tuesday night if they hope to take the series in three straight.



The Clincher

Seconds before the above photo was taken Cardinal Broncos were threatening to know the score and Metcalfe's 1-goal lead was obviously not going to be enough.

A quick wrist shot by Dennis Ouellette brightened the picture for Jets and Bronco netminder can be seen sprawling desperately, but too, late. A jubilant Peter Miller (11) circles the net while Dean Holmes (16), who started the scoring play completely hides Ouellette.

Cardinal team captain, Al Trewaitha (5) made a desperate attempt to tie up Ouellette but failed.

Jets went on to win the contest 3 to 2.

Winchester Midgets Advance

Winchester Midgets eliminated Embrun in a total-point 2-game series 7 to 6 and now advance in O.D.H.A. play-downs against Cardinal.

First game of this series will be played at Cardinal at 8:00 on Monday evening, and the return match is scheduled for Kemptville arena at 7:00 on Wednesday evening.

Front: Danny Hogaboam, Mike Carr, John Elliott.

NOTE: Keith McRoberts wrapped up the series in the second game when he scored the winner with only 30 seconds remaining.

A Far Far Better Way

"For homework class, read Chapter XVIII and write a note."

If, like this writer, you attended school in the late twenties or early thirties, this quote may have a familiar ring. Time has marched a long way since those happy, carefree days, but the chapter mentioned may well have had to do with the "War of 1812-14." Again, if, like the writer, you had a million things to do that night you most likely read fast, wrote faster, and a day later remembered very very little.

Not being completely sold on many facets of modern educational techniques, we enjoyed a pleasant surprise last week. Visited an area school and watched a history class that not only learned in a manner that made remembering easy, but also enjoyed doing it.

Before going further, we must emphasize that this system is only possible where a truly dedicated teacher is on the staff.

Would you believe the class actually watched the fighting of that war on a movie screen? Well they did — and Sir Isaac Brock was a Grade 8 student; so was Laura Secord, so was Tecumseh, and also the gallant soldiers on both sides of the line.

The teacher had actually directed his class as they re-enacted the dramatic scenes, and at the same time filmed it in living colour. It taxes the imagination to estimate the number of hours this patient school master must have spent cutting and splicing film before he was ready for the first showing. We're betting the War of 1812-14 will never be forgotten by this class, and strangely enough humour was unknowingly injected into the stellar performance.

For example, the boys and girls will carry with them into the future a new image of Laura Secord. If they choose, they may some day tell their children they watched the gallant lady lead her cow past a long crib heaped with golden corn, and then turn sharply to the right to avoid a giant Hydro pole carrying a high-voltage transformer.

As we've said, the humour was not intended but it served a useful purpose and that chapter is firmly etched in the minds of all class members.

It's been said a picture is worth a thousand words. This film is worth a thousand "notes."

Are Prisons Getting Too Soft?

Time was that "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" was the guiding principle for punishment. Most people conveniently overlook the fact that a careful reading of that passage in the Bible shows it means an eye for an eye is the maximum punishment that can morally be sought. The message of the Bible surely is that mercy (not to mention common-sense) should prevail.

This should be remembered when considering the extensive penal system reforms being introduced by Canada's Solicitor-General, Jean-Pierre Goyer. He is trying to change the system from punishment to rehabilitation.

In his short term of office he has moved to allow payment of a basic wage to some prisoners, provided them with ordinary civilian clothing, allowed them normal haircuts, eliminated censorship of their letters and allowed thousands of them to leave jail on weekends.

Canada has probably jailed more people, proportionately, than any other civilized country. It is something that every thinking Canadian must face.

And it hasn't worked. The crime rate has continued to go up. What's more, it's expensive. It costs more than $10,000 yearly to keep a man in prison; only $400 a year to keep him on parole.

Society's treatment of prisoners works much the same way as its treatment of youth, the aged, dissenters, policemen, and in fact, any group you want to mention. Members of all those groups will tend to behave the way they're expected to — be that good or bad.

We have to help people to their feet if we expect them to walk.

The Imitation Of Christ

Few people go far without asking pointed questions about the nature of religious experience and the validity of much what they were taught as youngsters. The result is often disenchantment, if not abandonment of the ordinances and customs of the Church.

For those who are so inclined, here is a short creed of three articles, "I want to be like Jesus Christ. I want to help others to be like him. I want to believe in a Christ-like God." Although a simple creed, this is not for simpletons or weaklings.

Christianity is Christ. The primary records about him have been subjected to the most rigid examination. Not only do they bear scrutiny, but out of their pages emerges a figure who invites us both to learn from him and to imitate his life.

Would that people knew these primary sources! I mean the Gospels. The personality whom they depict has often been as much concealed as revealed by later biographers. Readers are left with a misleading impression.

I remember reading, "The Call of the Carpenter", about thirty years ago. It was written by Bouck White, an American social worker. Perhaps I remember this book because its thesis is more widespread today.

Mr. White maintained that our Lord was a class agitator. He had been a carpenter for many years. He became the champion of the proletariat. He went about trying to arouse the oppressed masses. Palm Sunday augured well for the coup that he had in mind. However, capitalistic clergy and politicians out-manoeuvered him. The "establishment" had to be swift and ruthless now. It managed his crucifixion.

There can be no doubt that Christ was incensed over corruption and injustice. There can be no doubt that he condemned cruelty and selfishness. There can be no doubt that democracy owes more to the power that went forth from Galilee than to the elite who previously coined and used the term in Greece.

But to argue that our Lord was a martyred revolutionary is tantamount to saying that facts should not be allowed to interfere with theories. Christ came to reveal inclusive secrets for abundant living. The words that he spoke, the friends that he made, and the shrines that he honored indicate that his mission was not to destroy but to fulfill.

I commend to you a book entitled, "Violence", by Jacques Ellul, published by the Seabury Press. For instance, Mr. Ellul says, "I would have all Christians take to hear this word of Gandhi's: 'Do not fear. He who fears, hates; he who hates kills. Break your sword and throw it away, and fear will not touch you. I have been delivered from desire and from fear so that I know the power of God."

The Ellul muses, "Will it be said that the Christians are absent from the world? Curious that 'presence in the world' should mean accepting the world's ways, means, objectives; should mean helping hate and evil to proliferate! Christians will be completely present in the world if they suffer with those who suffer, if they seek out with those sufferers the one way of salvation, if they bear witness before God and man to the consequences of injustice and the proclamation of love."

That is the Gospel truth. Our Lord said, "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake will save it."

Take Calvary's message to heart at home, on the campus, at work, at the bargaining table, and in legislative debate. The cruellest taunt that could be hurled at you is the highest compliment that you could receive, "Who do you think you are . . . . Jesus Christ?"

Bill Smiley

OLD FRIENDS THE PUREST GOLD

Like most people who have one foot in the grave and the other foot butting out the cigarette that's putting them there, I become increasingly averse to change.

Why can't my wife be the way she was when I married her: sweet, dumb, innocent and believing that my opinion was more important than hers? Why can't my daughter say, "Yes, dad", instead of, "Lood, Dad"? Why can't my son do something besides shake his head in agony when I expound on the virtues of hard work, meeting your payments, and all that crud?

It seems that the only people with whom I am still on the same wave-length are old friends.

Now, I'm not going to give you an analogy comparing old friends to old wine. Although I do think they should be kept in the same place: a cool, dry spot, to be brought out at the exact moment.

I have brought out some of my old friends at the wrong moment. One in particular, can wreak havoc with my domestic relations. We're having a lovely barbecue, for example. His kids are drifting in and out. And then he says something like, "Smiler, remember the night we picked up those two . . . " And I leap smartly into the breach and holler, "Oh, yeah, those two unusual clam-shells at the beach", while his and my wife exchange looks and make mental notes and prepare future third-degrees.

However, as they say when they don't know any other way of getting back on the track, some old friends preserve not only their sanity, but their sense of humour.

Recently had a letter from such. Dave McIntosh, a toiler in the bleached vineyards of journalism. He says he has been writing politics in Ottawa for the Canadian Press for two centuries. This is known as understatement, or litotes, if you are taking English from me, and aren't you glad you aren't?

We went to University together, "fought" (mostly our way into the Regent Palace in London) together, and he set me up with the coldest woman I have ever met, when he couldn't keep a date and had me fill in.

Dave was the only non-freak in North House, which sounds like something out of Dickens, and was. A "residence". It sounds like a modern euphemism meaning someplace you are put away. Many of the inhabitants of the men's residence should have been put away then, and some have been since. Which proves nothing.

The "jocks" didn't like him, because he laughed at them. If you are not up on the latest slang, jocks were the, in those days, crew-cut boys who knew that the way to get ahead was to be on the team, marry the right girl, and kick the right people in the face as you climbed the ladder. They, unfortunately, are still with us. The only difference is the ferocity of their sideburns, as compared with the shortness of their crew-cut.

The aesthetes didn't like him, because he laughed at them. If you are not up on aesthetes, they are the people who chuckle over the latest vicious review of a play, who parrot anyone who has ever uttered a bon mot, who are seen at all the right places, but couldn't write a paragraph or a scene, or a poem. They are the flies who buzz around a carcass. It must be dead. If it shows signs of life, they shriek with alarm and retreat into generalities like, "Well, after all, he's only doing his own thing." If his "thing" is vomiting on the carpet, that's fine.

Sorry, chaps. Didn't mean to get mean. I have a toothache. Mac and I became friendly because I was the only non-freak in Middle House.

We were talking about old friends. And in his letter, Dave said something that struck me. He said, "Weeklies are a gold mine." He's right.

And that brings me to another old friend – my favourite weekly. Naturally, it's the weekly of which I used to be editor. It was with great delight that I read recently a letter to the editor in said weekly. It stated, "The former editors (that's me) were gentlemen." I agree.

Latest issue states that Bill Smiley is "a fine man and a great writer." I think the writer of the letter thus proclaiming has either a drinking or a mental problem, but I don't even care. Although I think it might have been a fine writer and a great man.

Another gem, same issue. Classified ad: "Notice: Would the person who got my gloves from my car Thursday evening and left me two pounds of butter please phone . . . "

A local correspondent begins, "Hi, dears, let's see what's on the old swizzle stick this week . . . " A lady who has never even licked a swizzle stick, I swear. It's gold, all right.

The Seventh Column

Communities along the winding Nation river have been known to conduct successful lotteries based on the unpredictable antics of the spring run-off. With the main channel greatly reduced following a cave-in last year at Lemieux, guessing the peak at Cass Bridge should prove a real challenge this Spring.

Parliament's special constitutional committee's proposal that the National Capital area become a federal district has been met with mixed emotions. The proposal would not affect Winchester, but Metcalfe, a little to the north, is already a part of the National Capital area. One Metcalfe official, when asked for his views on the controversial subject, was unable to give a definite opinion. "I'm not sure," he said, "if we want to accept Ottawa as a part of our thriving community."

We'll miss Gordon Stewart. So will a host of friends from the entire district. Mr. Stewart, who lived the greater part of his life on his Ramsayville farm, made regular contributions to this newspaper, and his friendly philosophy was usually in verse. When the wheels of progress transformed his farm into a part of the "Green Belt," he moved to Metcalfe where he made new friends but retaind cherished memories of the ones he left behind: "So if we get new neighbours, though they be good and kind; they won't be any better than the ones we left behind." Gordon loved life and he loved people, and he often said so — in verse. Only a short while ago he penned a priceless tribute to his dear friend, Rev. C. H. Dawes. We apologize for changing one line but feel, by doing so, the final verse expresses the feeling of all who had the privilege to know Mr. Stewart:

So as you climb the Golden Stair,
There's one thing we all can say,
Metcalfe was made a better place
Because you passed this way.

Everyone has to be "arena conscious" this winter. With our Winchester Community Centre nearing completion plans are under way for the official opening of the hall on April 7th. On the same pleasant note friends at Metcalfe are watching their beautiful new building which will most likely be in use by late spring. Those whose tireless efforts have made these centres possible will better understand the feeling of frustration that must prevail at both Russell and Bell's Corners. Russell's 20-year-old community centre, condemned last spring when an overload of snow weakened the framework, has since been completely demolished. The situation at Bell's Corners is even more heart-breaking. Only five years old, the modern arena caved in last week. Surely there's a lesson to be learned here. After all, snow shovels come comparatively cheap.

Without disputing the merits of the Local Incentive Grants program one has to wonder about administration of the scheme. Someone may have a logical explanation that would validify large sums of taxpayers' money being handed out for ridiculous purposes, while legitimate projects such as Winchester and Metcalfe community centres were rejected. We were pleased to learn that many of our neighbouring municipaliities benefited but can't help but feel we got what hockey players refer to as a "bum call" from the "referee."

Wondering when the CBC technicians strike is going to end? Well here's some inside information that slipped through to this columnist's desk:

Absolute knowledge have I none
But my aunt's washerwoman's sister's son
Heard a policeman on his beat
Tell a labourer on the street
That he had a letter just last week
Written in the finest Greek
From a Chinese coolie in Timbucktoo
Who said a negro in Cuba knew
Of a coloured man in a Texas town
Who got it straight from a circus clown
That a man in Klondike got the dope
From a bunch of South American folk
About somebody in Borneo
Who heard a man who claimed to know
Of a swell society Canadian guy
Whose mother-in-law will start to try
To prove that her husband's sister's niece
Had stated in a printed piece
That she has a son who has a friend
Who knows when the strike is going to end.

Demand And Prices Strong In World Cattle-Beef Industry

The world's cattle and beef industry is in a more favourable position than it was in late 1970, according to a report in a recent issue of Foreign Agriculture. World beef demand is increasing, production continues to expand and prices despite rising output, have been strong.

Australian beef and veal output the past four years has risen steadily. However, with this year's production at record high of 2.6 billion pounds, this is still just 1/10 of U.S. output.

Austrialia is the world's leading beef exporting country, shipping out over half of its production. Cattle prices are at near record levels, largely due to the keen demand on the export market but for the Australian people, high prices have resulted in a slackening of per capita beef consumption as consumers turn to some extent to other meats. In general, the New Zealand trend picture is quite similar, except that per capita consumpton has gained slightly in recent years.

The world's second largest exporter of beef, Argentina, has not produced in recent years, sufficient beef to meet both domestic demand and export requirements. Consumption declined in 1971 as the Government banned retail beef sales on an alternate weekly basis for much of the year as a menas of increasing export availabilities. However, a comeback in 1972 is indicated and production may be as much as one-fifth above a year earlier.

Cattle numbers are increasing in Mexico and Central America, important suppliers to the U.S. Prices have been strong, reflecting the strength of the U.S. market. Mexico is the major supplier of feeder cattle to the U.S.

The major importing areas are the European Community and the U.K. In the Community, the people are willing to consume more beef but with limited supplies, prices have risen. Hence in recent years consumption has been virtually stationary at about 54 pounds per capita. The U.K. still imports about one-third of the beef it consumes and so is a major factor in the world beef trade.

The "Foreign Agriculture" report concludes with statements such as, "The demand factor is pulling world beef supplies into new market areas . . . Australia and New Zealand have had considerable success in exploiting new market opportunities, including opportunities in Communist areas . . . But the most impressive factor of the current situation by far is the price strength we are seeing. Record beef production is being marketed at attractive prices almost everywhere."

Cost Per Serving Best Guide When Buying Easter Hams

The best guide to economy when buying Easter ham is cost per serving, not cost per pound, say food specialists at the Ontario Food Council, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food.

Boneless hams are generally the most expensive, per pound. Bone-in hams are least costly in terms of price per pound, but actual cost per serving may be comparable to, or greater than, cost per serving of other cuts. Quick calculation before buying is the best guide. To find cost per serving, divide cost per pound by the number of servings in a pound (2, 3, or 4 depending on the cut).

Boneless hams generally yield 4 servings per pound. Semi-boneless hams have the shank (or hock bone) and the aitchbone (at the butt end) removed. These provide about 3 servings per pound. Bone-in hams will provide about 2 1/2 servings per pound.

Economy, of course, is not always the only factor to consider. Many homemakers find several uses for left over ham bones - in soups, stews, casseroles, or baked beans.

TAX TIPS

TYPICAL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

QUESTION:

I am a commission salesman operating out of my house. I have a room set up as an office. Can I claim any expenses for this "office" when figuring my income tax?

ANSWER:

If the room is used soley for the purpose of earning your income, you may be entitled to deduct a portion of the cost of maintaining your house, as a business expense. Unfortunately, more information would be required before you could be advised on how to calculate the amount of your deduction. Your District Taxation Office would be pleased to help you.

QUESTION:

My wife has a small income in the form of dividends from a Canadian taxable corporation. As her income is less than $1,100 she does not file an income tax return. May I claim the 20% tax credit on the amount of dividends my wife received?

ANSWER:

If you bought the shares for your wife and are reporting the dividends as your income, you are entitled to claim the 20% dividend tax credit. If your wife bought the shares from her own earnings or they were inherited by her, you will not have to report the dividends as your income and will not be allowed the tax credit.

QUESTION:

During the year I worked for two employers and each employer paid me more than $5,400 in the year. Consequently I have paid double Canada Pension Plan contributions. Can I get this money back?

ANSWER:

An employee may claim a refund of any overdeductions or contributions when he files his tax return. Be sure to complete the Canada Pension Plan overpayment section of the T1 Return.

QUESTION:

Last year my nephew attended university and I paid his tuition fees. Can I claim any of these when I am filing my income tax return?

ANSWER:

No. Only the student may claim tuition fees against his own income.

QUESTION:

What may I claim on my income tax form as wages to my children for work on the farm?

ANSWER:

Basically, you may claim an amount that was paid to your child if the child performed work which would have otherwise required the employment of hired help. Also, the amount paid must be in line with what would have been paid to a stranger, the work done must be related to farm income, and the payments to your children must be properly vouchered.

WHY ESTABLISH A BASIC HERD?

as explained by J. W. McCullough

Much has been said and written over the past year about "Basic Herds". The flood of recent applications at the District Taxation Office is evidence this has been heeded. Yet from day-to-day conversations with farmers, we are concerned that some eligible people may not realize there is still a chance and that it might be to their advantage.

While the new tax legislation does away with the basic herd principle, it is still possible up till April 30th to establish a basic herd under certain conditions when you file your 1971 income tax returns.

What is so good about having a basic herd? What is so good about saving money on future income tax payments? The amount you can save will be in direct proportion to the number of animals in your basic herd. Don't forget this only applies to people who keep livestock for breeding purposes and can't be used for livestock being fed for slaughter.

As an illustration, let's say you have a herd of 80 head of which 40 are mature and 40 are young cattle. The number of animal units in your herd is calculated as one for each mature animal and one-half for each immature one. In this case, you would have 60 animal units. Let's say, too, you have established a basic herd of 50 animal units.

It now becomes important that your herd has been valued on Valuation Day. You set up the value of your basic herd on the average value of the animal units in your herd on Valuation Day. If you go only by the sales from your herd in 1971, you might only be reflecting the value of cows that were sold for beef. So we are suggesting you list each animal in your herd with date of birth, estimated fair market value, and a record of production, classification, and anything else that serves to say why any particular one might be above average. Of course, if you have a very commercial herd of average value, you can use an across-the-board figure the same for each one. For someone with some really valuable production records, it is better to list them individually and support your claims with evidence.

The idea is to come up with a total fair market value of the total herd, and to divide this figure by the total number of animal units on the farm to get an average Valuation Day of your herd.

Let's now say for our purposes, you arrive at a $500 average figure. Suppose you sell the herd of 80 head (60 animal units) a year later and come up with an average sale price of $500 per animal unit. Your total livestock returns of 60 x $500 or $30,000 becomes income for tax purposes that year. If you had a basic herd of 50 animal units, you could deduct their Valuation Day value of 50 x $500 or $25,000 from this and pay income tax on $5,000 instead of $30,000.

Basic herds are being phased out over the next ten years. You will be able to reduce your basic herd by up to 10% per year without actually reducing the number of animal units in your herd. There are conditions attached to this voluntary privilege but it could mean starting in 1972, you could reduce your taxable income in this case by the value of 5 animal units or $2,500 if it was to your advantage to do so.

Now, for some people there is a lot of confusion as to whether they do in fact have a basic herd. If you have a letter from your District Taxation office on hand granting you a basic herd of a certain number of animal units, it is certain. If someone told you they would apply for one for you in the past and you have seen no visible written evidence, you should check it out. You could place a telephone call to the District Taxation Office at 360 Lisgar Street in Ottawa (telephone 922-2976) to inquire.

If you haven't got one and might wonder if you are eligible, your County Agricultural Representative's office should be able to advise you how to find out. Remember, too, if this is a year in which your business provides no taxable income, it could be a real advantage to increase your basic herd, if you already have one.

. . . and the Carleton County version

Farmers have until April 30th, 1972 to apply for a Basic Herd. Those who have not acquired a Basic Herd to date should apply immediately. Applications can be obtained from your District Taxation Office.

Fathers wishing to transfer Basic Herds to sons can do so in the following way. Sell the Basic Herd to the son at fair market value. The proceeds from the sale will not be taxable. The son must not claim the purchases as operating expenses and should submit an application for a Basic Herd.

VALUATION OF BASIC HERD

Under the new tax legislation Basic Herds must be valued as of December 31st, 1971. The following example may assist you in establishing the fair market value of your Basic Herd:

Cows - 40 @ $500.00 equals $20,000.00

Heifers - 2 yrs. - 20 @ $300.00 equals $6,000.00

Heifers - 1 yrs. - 20 @ $150.00 equals, $3,000.00.

Calves - 20 @ $75.00 equals $1,500.00.

Total 100 - $30,500.00

Mature Animals 80 - Therefore, average fair market value of Basic Herd is $381.00.

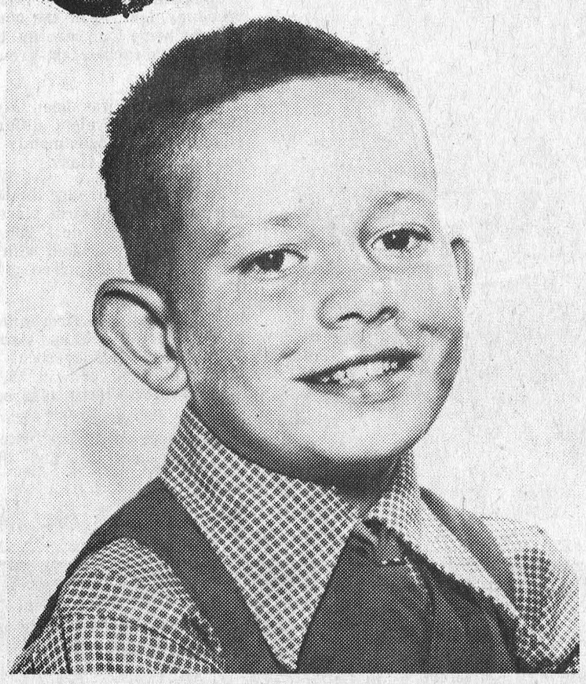
TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN



HAPPY PERSONALITY

Peter is a lovable 10-year-old with an outgoing, friendly disposition. He seems younger than his age, perhaps because he comes from an extremely deprived background. It was the sort of situation where a child is left lying in his crib with nobody paying any attention to him.

This young boy was four before he learned to walk. Not that he had any physical disability, but he had no opportunity or encouragement to try. There were many other skills he did not learn and things he did not know, so he has never scored well in intelligence tests. Now in a good foster home and in the stimulating atmosphere of a special school he has shown marked improvement both physically and mentally. The psychologist who has tested him is impressed with his personality and feels he has not yet reached his potential.

Peter is a healthy, good-looking boy of Anglo-Saxon descent, with brown eyes and dark hair. Adults find him good company with his easy conversation. He visits many families in the vicinity of his foster home and he loves to help the neighbors do chores around the house or garden. He gets on well with children of all ages.

A sensitive boy, Peter needs a warm, relaxed home where there are no academic pressures. He can fit into a family with children either older or younger than himself. To inquire about adopting Peter, please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto. For general adoption information ask your Children's Aid Society.

GORDON BLAIR REPORTS

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL

Last summer's Opportunities for Youth and other federal programs employed more than 69,000 students. This winter, the Local Initiatives Program provided employment for 90,000 people. Federal Summer '72 programs are expected to create 75,000 student jobs of which approximately 29,000 will be in Opportunities for Youth projects.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS RAISE QUESTIONS

Provincial governments, notably Ontario, have established parallel projects for winter works and summer student employment. Serious questions are raised and people are disturbed when they read of a handful of hare-brained or wasteful projects even though it is generally agreed that these programs have been useful and successful. After consultation with many responsible people I feel that the program of last summer and this winter did achieve their purpose of providing employment in this riding to almost all able-bodied people registered for it. But beyond the irritation of specific projects, serious questions arise. Why do we have these programs? Are they necessary? Are they doing a proper job for the community?

SPECIAL PROGRAMS NECESSARY IN CANADA

Ever since the depression there has been a built-in prejudice against government "make work" projects. The Government has acted to provide employment on a broad economic plane, namely by fiscal, monetary and other economic policies designed to keep the economy running in high gear. But, these broad economic policies are not totally effective in maintaining unemployment in any western country. We face special problems of unemployment in Canada. The most obvious type is the cyclical increase in unemployment, such as has occurred in the last year arising from general economic conditions. In addition, because of our climate many industries are seasonal and traditionally we have had a seasonal unemployment. There is a tremendous surge into the work force each summer as students are released from school and university. Because of our population the problem of student employment will be important for some years. The factors which create year to year and seasonal variations in employment are now too well known to be treated as if they were unexpected emergencies to be dealt with by special programs. We need a permanent policy designed to level out employment opportunities and available to be implemented as required each year or each season to meet employment problems as they develop.

COORDINATED CONTINUING PROGRAM REQUIRED

While the emergency programs of the past year have been generally successful, they now show signs of strain and cannot endure much longer in their present unstructured and relatively uncoordinated form. Public policy must recognize that emergency employment measures are going to be with us for some time to come. This being so, we must realize that they can only be successful if they are based on plans worked out for several years in advance in considerable detail, both as to their immediate physical object and their method of financing. Such programs have to be of a "stop and go" character, capable of being activated fully in times of emergency and withdrawn or slowed down in times of full employment. They need not be stodgy, bureaucratically-designed projects and they can relate to all aspects of our life. One correspondent more than a year ago provided a list of such projects as follows:

"roads, bridges, parks, jails, public galleries, art studios, sports arenas, playing fields, public beaches, community centres, camping sites, youth hostels, tourist trails, game reserves, zoos, canoe routes, ski hills, hospitals, nursing homes, health clinics, day care centres, city housing, Indian housing, Eskimo housing, schools, university buildings, court houses, fish hatcheries, fish ladders, canal improvements, forest planting, sewage treatment plans, air strips, historical monuments, industries for the handicapped, scientific research laboratories."

Pre-eminently such programs should be aimed at improving the quality of life - this is the ultimate justification for the expenditures involved. Beyond this, properly conceived, these plans could make tremendous appeal to our national pride and patriotism.

There are many straws in the wind indicating the adoption of these policies. The recent meeting of federal and provincial ministers of finance at Jasper discussed long range plans for coordination of these programs. The Prime Minister in a recent address broadly hinted that new plans were afoot for putting such programs on a permanent basis. There is increasing evidence of public understanding of the problem. Such programs properly developed should not serve only one age group or part of the population. They should apply to benefit all parts of Canada and all age groups and provide "opportunities for all".

SPEED is the name of their game

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Empey of Winchester are lovers of the great outdoors and one of their favourite winter sports is snowmobiling.

They like to travel fast but wisely 'open up' their machines only on a relatively safe course. Drag racing is a sport that requires nerves of steel, a well marked strip and powerful machines.

Competing at Easy Valley Speedway last week the couple brought home four beautiful trophies to add to their fast-growing collection.

Competition was keen at the speedway with eight different classes and approximately ten machines in each class.

Mrs. Empey, driving the Rupp machine captured first place in the B Stock (251 cc - 295 cc) class and her husband, with his Skiroule RTX 440, picked up two firsts and a second.

Mr. Empey took first in the F Stock (441cc-690cc) and also the D Modified (441cc-690cc) and also placed second in the E Stock (401cc-440cc) classes.

McIntyre-Johnston Wedding

Mavis Eleanor Johnston and Ronald Kenneth McIntyre were married on Saturday, March 18th, 1972, at two o'clock in the afternoon, in Winchester United Church, Winchester, by Rev. A. J. MacDonald. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Johnston, RR3, Winchester; Mr. McIntyre is the son of Mrs. Hector McIntyre, London, Ontario, and the late Mr. McIntyre.

Mrs. Howard Fetterly, organist for the occasion, accompanied the guest soloist, Warren Ross, of Harriston. Wedding guests were seated by David McIntyre, Woodstock, and Donald Johnston, Winchester. The groom was assisted by John McIntyre, of London.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length empire gown of white peau de soie. Lace applique, in miniature leaf motif, panelled the front of her gown and edged the wedding ring high neckline and the deep cuffs. A pill box headdress, encrusted with leaf design and seed pearls, complemented her waist length bridal veil of silk illusion, edged in lace motifs. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty Roses and white carnations.

Matron of honour, Mrs. Warren Ross, sister of the bride, wore an empire gown of lilac polyester satin, styled as to that of the bride's and carried a hand bouquet of yellow tulips.

Guests attended the wedding and the reception, following The Country Kitchen, from London, Woodstock, Harriston, Toronto, Ottawa, Charlottetown, PEI, and Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre will reside at 99 Sunnylea Crescent, Guelph, Ontario.

Missionary Special Guest At St. Paul's W.M.S. Gathering

Miss Jill Watts of New Market, Ontario, a Missionary with the Overseas Missionary Fellowship, addressed last week's meeting of Winchester St. Paul's W.M.S.

Guests from Mountain were present to hear the interesting message and Miss Watts, who is presently enjoying a furlough from her Singapore posting, explained how she used her special training to help the financial situation in that land. She also told of having trained a native girl to carry on with the work making it possible for her to carry on her work in Taiwan following her holiday.

Using beautiful coloured slides Miss Watts presented an interesting travelogue on conditions in Singapore.

Miss Watts was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Harry Anderson of Ormond.

A very sincere 'Thank you' was extended to the guest and the meeting concluded with lunch and a social hour.

Drama Director Pleased With Public Response

Osgoode Township High School Drama Club director, D.J. Herbertson, who is also the school vice-principal, was not only greatly pleased with the performance of his players but also with the generous response of those whose financial assistance made it possible for the club to participate in the Lindsay Drama Festival recently.

"I have nothing but praise and admiration", said Mr. Herbertson, "for the young people who accompanied me on the trip. In the past twelve years I have worked with professionals and amateurs in both the U.S. and Canada and I am completely honest when I say no group with whom I have been associated has performed and behaved in a more 'professional' manner than the O.T.H.S. drama club".

"I only wish", the vice principal went on, "I had room to report everything that was said about our group by the people of Lindsay, the E.O.D.L. committee members and the adjudicator, Alan Nunn."

The trip to Lindsay was a valuable experience for the young performers and the production, "The Miracle Worker", received three honourable mentions (2nd place) and two awards. The honourable mentions were for (1) Best set design; (2) Best actress (Shirley Anne Scharf); (3) Best play. The awards were for (1) Best supporting actress (Karen McLaughlin) and (2) Best director.

"On behalf of the entire group", the director concluded, "I sincerely thank all for the interest and encouragement offered us on his venture. It is partly because of this interest by the community that we were able to bring home these awards and honours to O.T.H.S., to Osgoode Township and to the Carleton Board of Education.

Hulbert UCW Meet At Mellan Home

The March meeting of Hulbert U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Mellan with eleven members and two visitors present.

Those taking part in the program included Mrs. Marjorie Keyes, Mrs. Margaret Roberts, Mrs. Scharf, Mrs. Fred Mellan and a trio, Mrs. M. Roberts, N. Sullivan and Mrs. M. Keyes with Marie Roberts at the piano sang 'Have you counted the cost'.

An invitation from Hainsville asking the group to attend a Thankoffering Service was much appreciated and the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

WITH MARCH OF DIMES HELP

From Helplessness To A Purposeful Life

In 1951, Dorothy Clark of Stratford requested assistance from the Ability Fund (March of Dimes) for physical rehabilitation. After a severe bout of polio at the age of eleven, which left her almost totally paralyzed, Dorothy spent the next twenty-eight years being carried from bed to chair mainly because rehabilitation facilities were not then available.

The road to self independence started at Lyndhurst Lodge in Toronto. Two and a half years of intensive physiotherapy there and corrective surgery at the Toronto General Hospital . . . all financed by the March of Dimes . . . prepared Dorothy for her return to Stratford and eventual self employment she has been successfully operating out of her apartment as a Publisher's Agent since that time and, in 1960, became Secretary for the Ability Fund's Central Western Ontario campaigns. Over one and a half million dollars for handicapped adults has been raised through her efforts.

Commenting on the Ability Fund, Dorothy said, "It laid the groundwork for my independence in living and for pride and fulfillment in work. I hope we can continue to offer this to the handicapped who want to help themselves."

Winchester area campaigners are hopeful they will find the public generous when asked to contribute to this very worth while cause.

Mrs. H.F. Droppo Dies Following Brief Illness

Mrs. Harold Francis Droppo the former Minnie Geneva Earle, died at Winchester District Memorial Hospital on March 16th following a brief illness. She was in her 64th year.

A daughter of Mrs. George Earle and the late Mr. Earle, she married Harold Francis Droppo at Winchester in 1929. Mr. Droppo died in 1966.

The late Mrs. Droppo is survived by one son, Earle of Kingston, her mother who resides at Iroquois and one sister Emma (Mrs. Harvey Barkley), also of Iroquois.

Two sisters, Greta Earle and Adrienne French predeceased her.

A member of Winchester United Church funeral service at the church was conducted by Rev. A. MacDonald at 2:30 p.m. March 18th.

Pall bearers were Larry Barkley, Charles French Jr., Donald Barkley, David French, Gordon Barkley and Douglas Scott.

Interment was at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Prejudice

An Educational TV Program

An educational television program filmed in Ottawa and Hull this week will eventually provide millions of Canadian and American youngsters with a better understanding of prejudice.

The program appropriately entitled "Prejudice", is being produced by the Ontario Educational Communications Authority, in co-operation with the National Instructional Television Centre based at Bloomington Indiana.

NITC is a consortium of 30 educational television agencies dedicated to tackling production projects that would be too large for any one of the members. OECA, the Ontario Crown Corporation responsible for coordinating the development of educational media in the province, is the lone member from outside the U.S.

The prejuidice experienced by an English-speaking boy called Bill (played by 11-year-old Marc Weller of Toronto) and a little French boy named Francois (played by 10-year-old Jean Pierre Thivierge of Hull) in the program, is probably one of the most common.

With OECA producer-director Carol Armstrong guiding their every move, the youngsters become involved in a minor scuffle during a game of shinny on the Rideau Canal rink adjacent the National Arts Centre.

"You're lying you dirty French frog," claiming he was intentionally knocked down by Francois.

"What'd you call me that for?" asks a sobbing Francois, shaken by his first encounter with prejudice.

The program follows a simple story line with the youngsters meeting again in Hull, Quebec and at Billy's home in Ottawa's Alta Vista area. Slowly the youngsters realize what has happened and become close friends.

"It's not designed to be a documentary on prejudice," Miss Armstrong says, "our aim is to help students identify situations in their own experience where people were called names or discriminated against and then to tell how they felt in the situation."

Prejudice is one of five, 15-minute programs the Authority will produce as its share of a new, 30-part health education series for children in Grades 4 to 6. Total budget for the series entitled "Inside Out" is $500,000.

The Authority's involvement with NITC dates back a few years, but this is the first time it has actually produced programs for the largely U.S. consortium. Miss Armstrong says the series will be shown throughout Canada and the U.S. when it is completed in about a year.

"It represents the first really new health education TV series in a long time," Miss Armstrong says.

Inkerman UCW Meets

Fourteen members of Inkerman U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. George McIntosh for their pre-Easter meeting.

During the meeting Mrs. Lyle Barkely exhibited a lovely painting of the 'Last Supper' and gave a vivid explanation of the story the picture revealed.

The Mission study was continued and Mrs. Dawson Levere told of the problems facing the people of Biafra and Mrs. Cecil McIntosh spoke of the work of Sydney Gilchrist.

The finance committee reported the kitchen in the church is being remodelled and preparations are already under way for the April Smorgasboard.
