Chesterville Fair Promises To Be Bigger and Better

With the prize lists in the mails, the prospects for the Chesterville Fair being bigger and better than ever look good. The cattle showings alone promise to be more than usually interesting with three breed events slated. They are the Grenville-Dundas Red and White Day, the Guernsey Regional Show and the Jersey Parish Day. In addition to these Special events the regular classes will be well represented in all fields. The special prizes are in their usual generous number.

Tuesday, August 31st will be the annual Children's Day. A fine programme is planned by the committee and races, sports and games are on the book. The E. J. Casey Shows with their excellent midway will be on hand to provide thrills and rides for the brave and young.

Mrs. Walter Collingridge Has Interesting Trip Abroad

Mrs. Walter Collingridge returned home on Saturday aboard the Cunard White Star Liner Ascania, having gone to England to visit her children, two sons and four daughters also twelve grandchidren. The voyage out was rough, two days and night of dense fog, very rough seas in mid-Atlantic.

There was a tragedy on the fourth day out, a lady from London, England, had been visiting her daughter in Winnipeg, she became insane and was confined to hospital, it remains a mystery how she got out of the ward and over the side of the ship. The ship was stopped and every effort made to find her but of no avail and the ship had to sail on.

Mrs. Collingridge visited the grave of seventeen relations who were killed in the blitz on Coventry the 14th day of November 1940. Also visited the Canadian cemetery at Brookwood in Aldershot. When in Codicote, Hertfordshire, was presented with the last flag taken down in Palestine and will hang in Holy Trinity Church in Chesterville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collingridge (nee Hilda Latta) wish to be remembered to all old friends in Chesterville.

Miss Evelene Masterson Honoured

About sixty friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mrs. W. B. Hamilton last Friday evening to honour Miss Evelene Masterson, one of this month's brides-to-be.

Miss Joan Lynch played the wedding march, while Miss Sheila MacMillan escorted the bride-elect to a gaily decorated chair. Mrs. Hamilton presented Miss Masterson with a corsage and Miss Kay Barrett read the address, little Misses Helen Merkley and Karon Masterson presented the gifts in a decorated wagon.

Miss Masterson thanked her friends for their lovely gifts and Mrs. Hamilton for sponsoring the shower.

A program of musical numbers was given by Miss H. Merkley, Miss L. Manley, Miss V. Merkley, Miss A. Moriarty, Miss J. Kearns and Miss J. Lynch. A humourous reading, "Lovinsky at the wedding", was given by Mrs. Hugh Smith.

Following the signing of the bride's book a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

GOOD CROPS FOR FARMERS

Buldging barns and overflowing granaries record the bounty of nature to the farmers of this district. For the first time in years the crops are at their peak and farmers are finding joy in handling a bumper harves. Rain at the right time all through the season has spelled plenty and crops filled and ripened with nearly everything in their favour.. The overflow from the barns may be seen in the large stacks of hay and sprawling piles of yellow straw left from the hungry maws of the busy threshers.

McLEAN—HAMILTON

The marriage of Marjorie Grace Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hamilton, and Hubert Clayton McLean, took place at 3 o'clock on Wednesday on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents, Chesterville. The double ring ceremony performed by Rev. W. E. Wright, minister of the United Church, at Chesterville, was held before an arch covered with cedar boughs and summer flowers. Mrs. Dwight Marcellus, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music and the soloist, Mrs. Stanley Shay, aunt of the bride sang "Always" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Morley Munroe of Ottawa, as matron of honor and Miss Mary Munroe of Perth was her bridesmaid. Hilton McLean, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of brocaded mesh with a fitted bodice having a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a small coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses and maiden hair fern, tied with a white satin ribbon.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. McLean left for Cornwall where they were tendered a reception by Mr. and Mrs. C. Crites. On Thursday the happy couple left for Marine City and Detroit. Going away the bride wore a black and white checked gabardine suit with black accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. On their return they will reside in Cornwall.

Out-of-town guests were: Miss Joy Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Munroe, Miss Madge Allison, all of Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. W. Munroe, Miss Jean Munroe, Mr. Jack Scott, all of Perth; Mr. and Mrs. C. Crites, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Donihee, Mr. Bert McLean, all of Cornwall; Mrs. Bill Glasford of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Tom McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Norm Bickerstaff, all of Morrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Johnston, Mrs. B. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnston, all of Winchester.

Marauding Fox Foiled One Chicken Thief Less

A hungry fox that had been preying on residents of the chicken houses and coops of the community on the Forward headline tried it once too often last week and for his pains got a charge of birdshot that sent him to a fox's Vallahalla in a hurry.

Stanley Shay had been missing some of his plump young pullets and decided that thief, either of the two- or four-legged variety was in the neighbourhood. On Friday the thirteenth, last week, the culprit resolved itself into a large red fox sneaking around the barn with a chicken victim in its mouth. Stan raised the shot-gun and at the blast Mr. Fox became a good fox. Friday the thirteenth was most unlucky for Reynard.

The United Counties clerk has instructed all clerks of Municipalities and Townships to pay a bounty of $2.00 for fox pelts presented to their offices. The only catch is that the fox must be killed after November 1st to collect the bounty. Seems a rather useless thing to offer a bounty and not pay it until after the outdoor poultry season is over when the farmers suffer the greatest losses from the red robbers. With long hair fur prices as they have been, in season fox pelts are practically worthless anyway.

Walton's Ardent Disciple Almost Attacked By Fish

Chesterville's wandering fisherman, Bill Dixon, took time off the other day, gathered up son Hubert and friend Angus Brownell and headed north. They had heard of outsize Northern pike in Sucker lake on the Quebec side near Pembroke, and were willing to walk a couple of bush miles on prospects of a nice catch.

Indian guides were hired and the party found the fishing good. Pike up to ten pounds were caught and things looked promising. Then all at once the guide in Bill's canoe let out a shout and the paddle started to wave widly in his hands. The fishermen looked over the side and there was a Northern "at least 25 pounds," Bill says, with the end of the new yellow paddle in his mouth and shaking it like a terrier shakes a rat. The boys decided it wasn't safe to dangle their fingers in the water.

Brownell hooked a small pickerel and was easing it up to the canoe when a hungry nine pound pike rose from the depths and nailed the struggling fish. That one ended up in the boat because it hung on until the guide reached it with a hefty clout of the paddle.

Then, as if that was not enough, the fishermen "snuk" up on a sleeping buck that had a set of horns like a rocking chair, and took photographs of it. The buck was hot and tired after being chased around the lake and had taken to the shallow water, found a convenient log to rest his tired chin, had gone to sleep and was photographed in that position. He didn't waken until the guide smacked the water with blade of the paddle, when the frightened buck was photographed splashing out of the water to the protection of the bush.

Where is this lake? Ask Bill Dixon.

Shirley Jean Shaw Mourned

The community of Dunbar and surrounding district was saddened to hear of the death of Shirley Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Shaw, which took place at the home of her parents on Wednesday, August 11th, after a lengthy illness of over a year, of which 5 months were spent in hospital. Shirley had a sweet and sunny disposition, never complaining in her illness, with a smile for everyone and will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

On July 30 she had a few of her little girl friends with her to celebrate her 10th birthday.

She leaves to mourn her sorrowing father and mother and brother Clair and a number of relatives. The funeral service was held at Dunbar Lutheran Church on Saturday, August 14, where Rev. Innes, pastor of the church spoke comforting words to the bereaved taken from 2 Kings, chapter 4, verse 26 "It is well with the child and she answered "It is well" ". Hymns sung were "There's a friend for little children", "Around the throne of God in heaven", "I am Jesus' little lamb" by the choir. A solo "Gathering Buds" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Innes. The high esteem in which Shirley was held was shown by the mass of flowers which surrounded the casket. Floral offering were:

Chesterville Streets Dirty In Deplorable Condition

Chesterville has possibly the dirtiest streets of any nearby town that we have been in this summer.

With grass growing in the accumulated dirt at the curbs of the street in town it is necessary, on occasion, to channel the mud so that surface water can find its way down the man-holes.

Glass can be found glittering at the curbs on any street at any time and those sharp, broken points make good work for the garages but short work of car and bicycle tires.

A few abortive efforts have been made by the street commissioners to have some of the mainstreets in the village swept once or twice this summer. The effort was alright but it has not been continued and when the wind blows it is necessary to keep the doors closed, to keep street dust out. In horse and buggy days the street sprinkler was on hand to flush off some of the drit, but now, that is old fashioned.

Council would be well advised to take more pains in keeping surface filth out of the sewers and sumps. Perhaps a recurrence of the usual plugged sewers and flooded cellars might be avoided in the spring if the streets are kept clean until freeze-up.

FILA LOANS MADE FOR FARM HOMES

With present day competition from other industries, farm help is scarce, and it is often quite a problem to get suitable hired help, whether for seasonal or permanent employment on farms.

The farmer who can offer comfortable and attractive living quarters to a prospective hired man, especially if he is married, has a distinct advantage and can generally attract the more efficient worker.

Building a small home for a helper on the farm is not a difficult job, and many farmers could do the work themselves or perhaps remodel an existing building.

An attractive pamphlet, 6 Sound Steps to Farm Building and ImProvement has been prepared which give particulars of the method of obtaining loans for the construction, alteration and repair of farm buildings under the Farm Improvement Loans Act. One of the sections is devoted to separate houses for farm help.

Farm Improvement Loans not in excess of $3,000 may be obtained for building purposes up to 90 per cent of the estimated cost of the building with an interest charge of five per cent simple interest, with repayment periods of from one to ten years depending on the amount borrowed. Loans are made through the branches of the chartered banks in Canada and are guaranteed in part by the Dominion Government.

This legislation is being taken advantage of by an increasing number of farmers and it is probable that loans for building this year made under the Act will greatly exceed those of last year.

The pamphlet giving particulars of the loans may be obtained from any branch of a chartered bank in Canada, or by writing to the Supervisor, Farm Improvement Loans Act, Ottawa.

"THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING" IN SOCIALIST AUSTRALIA

(The Canadian Statesman)

An Australian woman went from Brisbane to Melbourne to visit her son. She took with her, and banked in Melbourne, £1,000—roughly $4,000.

Then the State reached in and took all but four dollars of it. To be exact, the Commonwealth rifled her bank account of nine hundred and ninety-nine pounds and four shillings —leaving her exactly 16 shillings!

It happened—in Socialist Australia —a couple of years or so ago.

Newspaper clippings say the woman "was flabbergasted." We'll bet she was—for nobody on behalf of the State had said a word to her. There was no process of law—no court action, no judgment, no garnishee.

It happened she hadn't made an income tax return—maybe —she hadn't income enough to require a return. There was no proof she owed a shilling. She said she had saved the money over a period of years. But snooper-state officials learned she had a thousand pounds in the bank and a Socialist tax department under premier Chiefley simply took it nearly all.

Nobody has any use for a tax-dodger, but you must prove him a tax-dodger first. As the Sydney Daily Telegraph said, the Socialist government's attitude was:

"Just grab what she's got. No—not all of it—leave her sixteen bob Then if she wants to set up a squeal, she can."

Now if a Socialist will do that kind of snooping and grabbing while banks are in private hands and snooping can only be done the hard way—what on earth will it not do if the banks are nationalized and every bank employee—from junior clerk to manager—becomes a State official?

Of course, the money may have been in the Commonwealth Bank—which is government owned—since the Commonwealth Bank is the only savings bank operating in the States of New South Wales and Queensland. If so, then the object-lesson takes on sharper point.

Premier Chifley is now trying to nationalize all the trading banks in Australia; his legislation is before the High Court of the Commonwealth and will likely go to the Privy Council in a test of its validity. Australians are showing great hostility because they feel that with one nationalized bank the accounts of individual customers would be under control of the government of the day—with all sorts of abuses possible.

When we wrote our recent editorial saying we didn't want our bank manager to be a government officer, we had no idea that within a couple of weeks we'd get such clinching "proof of the pudding", nor did we expect the C.C.F. to stick its neck out the way they have. A friend in Australia sent it to us in a letter—with clippings of the row it raised.

Some Beach

The Arab met an American tourist clad only in bathing trunks, plodding through the Sahara.

"Where are you going, effendi?" asked the Arab.

"For a swim," the American answered.

"A swim!" echoed the Arab in astonishment. "But the ocean is a thousand miles from here."

"A thousand miles!" gasped the American tourist. "Gee, this is sure some beach!"

Elma Women's Institute Holds Interesting Meeting

The Elma Women's Institute met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bessie McMillan with an attendance of 23 members and 1 visitor. Roll call was "How to be a better Canadian."

It was voted, by ballot, to increase the donation to the Winchester and District Memorial Hospital to $300.

Mrs. Melvin Dillabough moved and Mrs. Oscar Beckstead seconded that the secretary send a letter to the secretary of the Women's Association thanking the members who helped with the W.I. social.

Mrs. Wilfrid McMillan, Citizenship convener, introduced the guest speaker, Rev. G. Innes of Williamsburg, who gave an address on "Christian Citizenship". The speaker stressed the influence of the church on citizenship in any community and any country, and in our community and our country. The church and the state need each other and must work together. We can be better citizens by being generous and kind in our judgments.

Mrs. George Armstrong thanked Rev. Innes for his interesting address.

A poem "What Makes A Nation Great?" was read by Mrs. Hyndman McMillan.

BREW—MONTGOMERY

Baskets of mixed Summer flowers formed the setting in Hulbert United Church on Tuesday, August 10th, at 2 p.m. for the marriage of Dulcie Lois, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Montgomery of South Mountain, and George William, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brew of Iroquois. Rev. G. D. Empey of Brinston, officiated at the ceremony and the music was played by Isabel Lindsay, Iroquois, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Rufus Keyes, wore a floor-length gown of ivory satin with high neckline. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of white velvet orange blossoms.

Her only ornament was a diamond and platinum pendant, which was worn by the bridegroom's mother on her wedding day, and she carried a cascade bouquet of Briarcliffe roses and bridal roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Freda Montgomery, sister of the bride.

The bridegroom was supported by William Mitchell of Port Hope, Ont., and the ushers were Clifford Berry, of South Mountain and Harold Montgomery, brother of the bride.

Following the wedding a reception at Edgehill was attended by 30 guests.

Following the reception, the couple left by motor for Niagara Falls and Algonquin Park and later will take up residence at Campbellford, where the bridegroom is employed by the Ontario Hydro Power Commission.

Youth Service Rotary Talk

The Chesterville Rotary club held its weekly meeting in the library last Monday night with President F. M. Cass in the chair. The speaker of the evening was Russell Agnew of Ottawa. Present as guests of the club were Rotarian Cy Washington of Walkerton, Ont., and Leo Gallagher of Chesterville.

Past President L. H. Doering extended an invitation to all the Rotarians and their wives to be present at the opening of the Rotary camp for Crippled Children on the Rideau, "Merrywood on-the-Rideau". A large number signified their intention of going.

The speaker, Mr. Agnew, was introduced by Charles McMillan and thanked by Walter J. Carr. In his remarks Mr. Agnew stressed the need for supervised playgrounds for young people. He made the point that it was the healthy and active young people that need supervised recreation to keep them out of possible mischief. "We have a duty to perform to the healthy children in sports and games in our country," said the speaker. "Organized play and competition is one good solution."

Strictly Cash Basis

WHY IS THERE NO PLACE FOR CREDIT IN A CO-OPERATIVE?

(1) Credit in the long run eventually produces some uncollectible accounts.

(2) Credit ties up more of the Co-Op's Capital and forces it to resort to Bank borrowing and expensive interest charges.

(3) Credit costs heavily in excessive bookkeeping expenses.

(4) Credit often encourages patrons to stay in debt.

(5) Credit is unfair to the cash patron, and deprives him of his rightful share in the Co-Op's maximum possible savings.

Church News

MOREWOOD UNITED CHURCH

The Sunday services at Morewood United Church were conducted by the minister. The Scripture Lesson at the morning service was Hebrews chapter 4, the text taken from the twelfth verse, "For the Word of God is quick and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword." The Word of God which may be taken as the Commandments, the Gospel or even as God Himself is living and active and comes with the utmost rapidity, the utmost authority, the utmost severity to chastise and destroy and the utmost mercy and love. The solo "His Eye Is On the Sparrow," was sung by Miss Dorothy Marquettee of Russell. Mrs. Sam Barrington was at the organ.

The evening sermon was from the parable of the mustard seed. Mat. 13; 31-32 "The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field: which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown it is the greatest among herbs and becometh a tree so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof". The commonwealth of Christ in its beginnings seemed insignificant yet it was a seed with the vitality to grow and it has become a mighty tree the leaves of which are for the healing of the nations.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN

Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! You wouldn't dare say "Same old thing" in reference to the vegetables this month. There are many that can be stored by the brining process which will provide variety later on. Salt and liquid in the correct proportion preserves the colour and texture of many perishable vegetables. You will enjoy using grandmother's crock or odd jars for relishes and think of the pleasure of dipping into them round about Thanksgiving. No one will say "Same old thing."

TAKE A TIP

1. Use a good, clear vinegar, free from sediment. To retain the aroma and full strength, vinegar should not be allowed to boil more than five minutes. A good method is to bring the vinegar and spices to the boiling point in a covered pan and allow to stand an hour.

2. Ordinary fine or even coarse salt is recommended for pickles in preference to iodized sifting salt.

3. In general, use pure whole spices in pickling as they retain their flavour longer and can be lifted out of the liquid before pickles are packed. If spices are canned along with the pickles they will turn dark. When using a spice bag, use a clean thin white cheese cloth bag large enough to allow the liquid to circulate through the spices. The use of dill is very popular. While the stalks add some flavour to the pickles, it is the seeds which are most useful. Leaves and seeds may be used green, dried or brined.

4. Never use a copper or galvanized kettle as the acid in vinegar reacts with these metals to form harmful substances.

5. You may be farily sure of crisp pickles if you measure the salt solution accurately. This brine should be strong enough to float a fresh egg —1 pound (1½ cups) salt to nine pints (wine measure) water.

CORN RELISH

12 cobs of corn, niblets cut off
4 large onions cut fine
1 head cabbage
1 red pepper
1 green pepper
2 cups white sugar
4 tbsps. vinegar
1 tbsp. salt

Mix well and boil ten minutes.

WATERMELON PICKLE

2 pounds prepared watermelon rind
Salt water (made with 1 quart cold water and ¼ cup salt
1 tbsp. whole allspice
1 tbsp. whole cloves
5 two-inch pieces stick cinnamon
3 cups vinegar
2 cups water
2 pounds sugar

Select thick rind from firm melon. Trim off the green skin and pink flesh. Weigh two pounds of the prepared rind and cut into inch pieces. Soak overnight in salt water. Next morning, drain off the brine, cover with fresh water and cook for 1½ hours or until tender. Add more water as needed. Let stand several hours or overnight. Drain. Put spices loosely in clean, thin white cloth; tie top tightly. Bring to boiling point the spices, vinegar, 2 cups water and sugar. Add cooked watermelon rind and boil slowly for about 1½ hours or until the syrup is fairly thick. Remove spice bag; pack watermelon in hot, sterilized jars. Pour syrup over rind, filling jars to top. Seal. Store in cool place.

(1½ teaspoons ground cinnamon may be used in place of the cinnamon sticks.)

RIPE CUCUMBER RELISH

3 large ripe cucumbers (3 qts. chopped)
½ cup sugar
2 large onions (1½ cups chopped)
¼ cup dry mustard
1 pint vinegar
1 teaspoon turmeric
¼ cup flour

Peel and remove seeds from cucumbers. Cut in cubes (about 1 inch). Chop onions, add to cucumber with three tablespoons salt. Let stand ½ hour. Drain. Mix flour, sugar, turmeric and mustard to a smooth paste with vinegar. Add vegetables and cook slowly until tender—about 20 minutes. (Stir to prevent burning). Seal in hot sterilized jars. Yield: four pints.

MUSTARD PICKLES

2 quarts sliced green cucumbers
2 quarts chopped green tomatoes
2 quarts small white pearl onions
2 heads cauliflower (separate into flowers)

Sprinkle with salt and allow to stand overnight. Drain and rinse. Combine the following ingredients.

1½ ounces turmeric
2 cups brown sugar
3 tbsps. mustard seed
3 tbsps. celery seed
¾ tbsps. whole cloves
1½ tbsps. all spice
¾ cup dry mustard
3 cups vinegar

Boil vegetables with above mixture on "High" for fifteen minutes. Add four tablespoons flour mixed to a smooth paste with water and continue cooking for five minutes. Pack in sterilized jars and seal. Yields four quarts.

IN MEMORIAM

SMITH—In fond and loving memory of Pte. Bertram Rene Smith, who lost his life in Italy, August 22nd, 1944.

We think of him in silence,
No eyes can see us weep;
But still within our aching hearts
His memory we keep.

—Uncle Lyle, Aunt Anna and brother Roy.

MERKLEY—In loving memory of my dear little granddaughter, Marjorie Joan Merkley, who left us so suddenly on August 16, 1947.

The memory of her dear wee ways.
Will linger with us all our days.
Sweetest flower, too sweet to stay
God took her home to show us the way.

—Ever remembered, Grandma Blair.

MERKLEY—In fond and cherished memory of our darling daughter, Marjorie Joan Merkley, who died so suddenly on August 16th, 1947.

No stain was on her little heart,
Sin had not entered there,
And innocence was written on
Her little face so fair.
She was too pure for this cold earth
And perhaps not meant to stay
And so God's Holy Angel took
Our darling girl away.

—Sadly missed by Mother and Dad.
