Officiating the double-ring ceremony was Rev. Brian Gee. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli and mums, and the guest's pewes were marked with white bows.

Mrs. George Fowler played the processional "Wedding March" as the bride, given in marriage by her step-father, Mr. Robert McIntosh entered the Church.

The bride wore a full length gown of peau de soie over crepe styled with fitted bodice, high collar, long sheer sleeves and wide cuffs. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Keith Banford as best man and the guests were ushered in by Mr. Bill Pickering of Gananoque and Mr. Michael McGinn of Iroquois. Master Christopher Smith, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. The groom, ushers and ring bearer wore identical white jackets trimmed with black and black trousers. They all wore orange coloured boutonnieres.

A reception was held at the Iroquois Legion Hall where the bride's mother welcomed guests wearing a floor length coral gown of polyester double knit with silver accessories and a corsage of white roses. Assisting, the mother of the groom wore a floor length turquoise blue dress of crepe with white accessories and a white corsage.

In the first semi-final game, Domville edged Cardinal Pats 2-1. Bill Gilmore went 5 innings for Derby and was replaced by John Dineen. Between them they gave up 6 hits and 10 strike outs. Dwayne Lashomb homered in a losing cause.

This set Domville & Bob's Tavern up for the final game. Avery again hurled for Bob's giving up 7 runs on 6 hits, 4 walks and 5 strike outs in 5 innings. Aces Pete Onstein took the 7-0 win giving up 1 hit, this in the last inning, walked 1 and struck out 8.

Farewell to Mrs. John S. Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnstone's home was filled to overflowing last Monday evening, Aug. 7, with friends and neighbours gathered to say farewell to Mrs. John S. Thompson as she leaves this community to reside in Spencerville.

Donnie was completely surprised but in her own humorous manner made the best of the situation and everyone enjoyed a relaxing evening of fun and chatter.

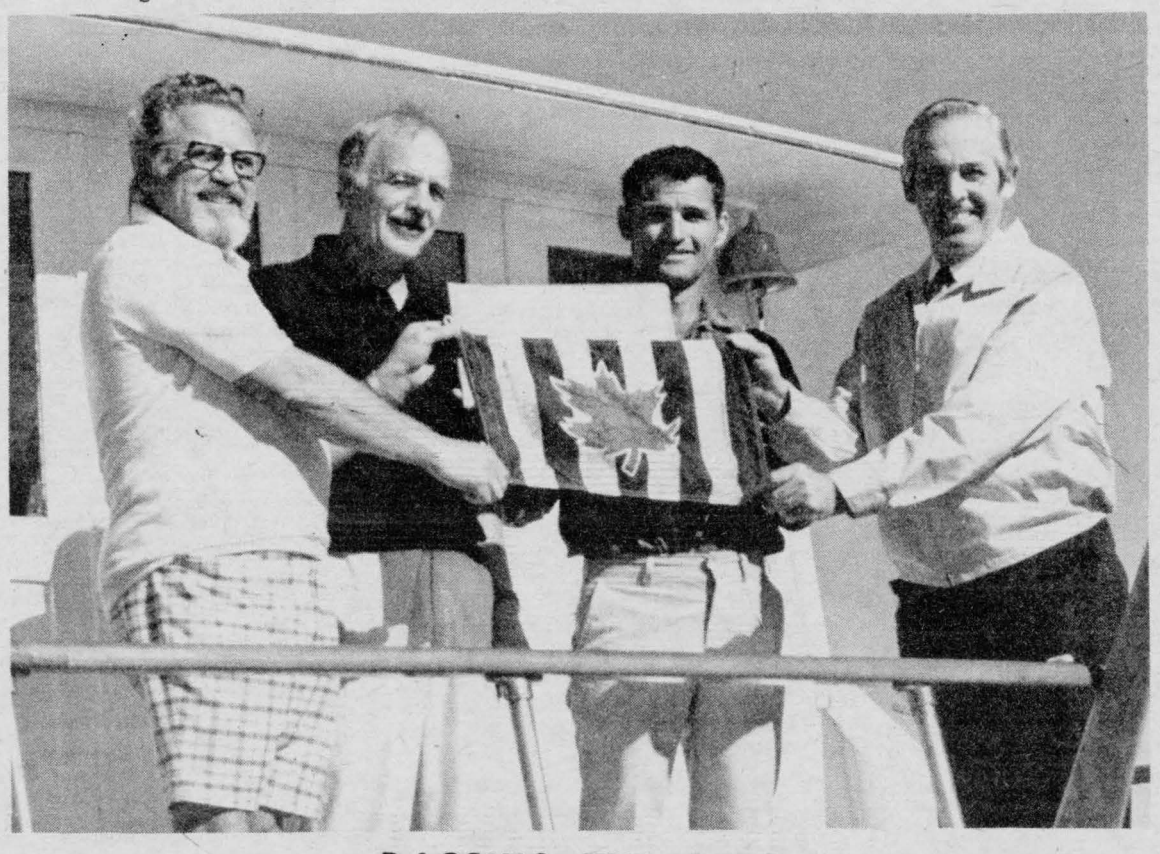

Mrs. Harold Copping, on behalf of Donnie's friends and neighbours, spoke very kindly of her as one who will be greatly missed in the community where she has resided for the past thirty-six years.

Mr. Ben Johnstone then presented Donnie with a picture-an exact replica of a chrome kitchen set, which will be delivered at her new home in Spencerville.

With a few touching words in gratitude, Donnie thanked her friends for their many kindnesses of the past as well as their thoughtful manner of saying farewell. "The gift," she said "will certainly do its daily chore of reminiscence, as I hope to have my feet under my new table three times a day".

Another gracious gesture at this gathering was the observance of Mrs. Wilfred Cooper's birthday. Velma had the pleasant duty of blowing out several candles on her birthday cake.

The ladies served a delicious lunch and all left for home when even the elements joined in a whizz-bang shower display.

Decision Making Not Easy

Both provincial and federal government officials have been taking a hard look at the farmers' plight in Eastern Ontario but from where we sit, it doesn't look like any easy solutions are available.

Easing of farmers payments for a year, relaxing milk quota regulations a bit, and a back-tracking on crop insurance seem to be the only suggestions to date and from a farmers' point of view, these offer little in the way of assistance which he feels will help to tide him over.

What may perhaps be of prime importance in all this hassle is the fact that more than the farmer is involved. Certainly on the surface they are the hardest hit, but the repercussions of their plight will soon be spilling over into other aspects of community life and indeed, it has already started.

Events in the communities within the disaster area are already feeling the economic squeeze and attendance at these events has been reportedly down. As time goes on and the belt gets tightened, the effect will also be felt more severely.

If the industrial employment picture was brighter in our area, then many of these farmers hard hit could look for jobs in industry to tide them over. Prescott Manpower, however, reports over 800 looking for work, so this avenue of employment ceases to exist.

The small stores in the country and the villages within the area will soon feel the effects. Especially hit will be farm machinery firms and feed stores, none of whom will be available to advance credit. They will probably have a tough enough time seeing themselves through this period.

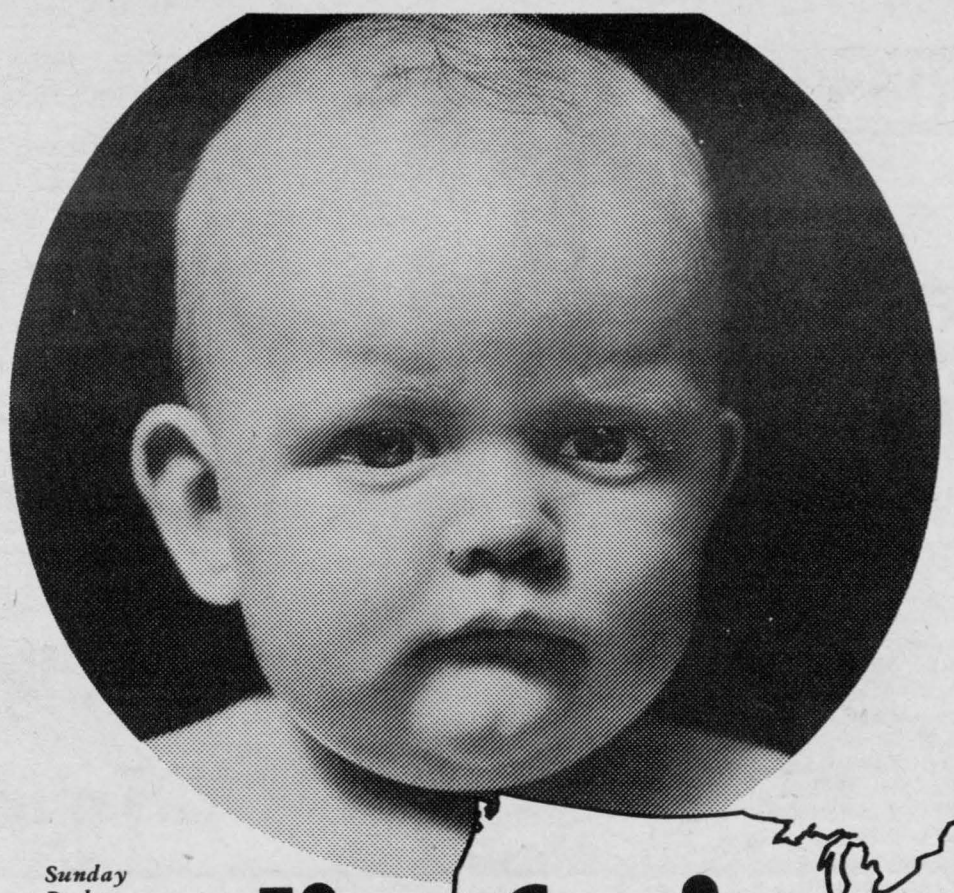

We feel sure that all concerned feel that help should be given; but to whom and in what measure and how to administer the help, without abuse is probably what is holding up both federal and provincial people.

But with all the brains in our civil service and within the elected representatives field, there must be answers and a formula that can work. And it must be a formula that stands little chance of abuse or the general public may lose the sympathy it now feels.

The problem is real and is now...not some time in the future. Before Fall sets in and cattle have to be taken indoors, and well before farmers have to start buying substitute feeds, some form of assistance will have to be forthcoming that they may survive until next year.

The move from the farm may take a giant leap forward in our area if this is not done. Dollar for dollar has been offered but what if a farmer already well into debt so that he may still be farming ten years from now cannot get that first dollar? Is he going to give up what he has spent years trying to build up?

The support must come from many directions in the farmers' support and we do not advocate political pressure except in the sense that we as rural people are just as dependent upon the farming community as they are on us.

Maybe you like smiling babies? Sorry to disappoint you, but I've got a lot on my mind.

There's something wrong in America . . . and I'm the chap who is getting hurt!

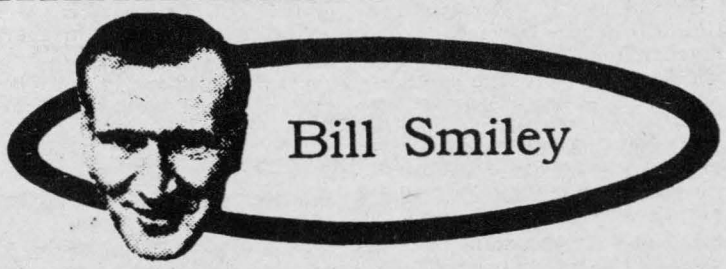

Our Constitution says that no one can be denied the right to worship God. I'm an American! According to the Constitution I have the right to learn about God, to hear the Bible Stories, to be taught the Christian Way of Life.

But here's the hitch. While the Government can't deny me the right to attend church school and church—MY PARENTS CAN. They can rob me of my most sacred right just by neglecting my spiritual needs.

Did you know that about half the children in America are growing up without religious training? And yet there's a church in every village!

Yes sir, I'm serious! Instead of talking about it, we ought to do something! And we ought to start Sunday!

MY BIG TOE AND WORLD HOCKEY

By Bill Smiley

Random notes this week. Could there be anything more silly than writing a column about your silly old wife breaking her silly old ankle, and four days later going out for a swim and breaking your own silly old big toe? Well, I did both.

And boy, it hurts, boy. Trouble is, there's not much the doctor can do about it. Had it X-rayed. He took a look at the plate, didn't even look at the toe, and cheerfully informed, "Yes, Bill, you've broken a chip of bone off it, but you can't put a cast on one toe, so just wear a comfortable shoe, wiggle the toe so it won't get stiff, and sweat it out." I'm sweating with every step. I didn't realize how many things you could bump your toe against. It hurts even when I kick the cat, which I don't do, but will, if she comes near my toe.

Enough about toes. Watch out for those bees. While waiting for the doc to talk about (guess what) my toe, two large and husky men came into emergency ward swelling like balloons from bee stings. One was the local veterinarian, six feet six and about 280. His right hand and arm were almost completely numb and it was spreading into his chest. He was disgusted. How could a silly little thing half an inch long do this to him?

And speaking of bees, how about those two headliners, Bobby Hull and Bobby Fischer, hockey player and chess master, in that order? Has ever so much media space been devoted to a couple of guys who are doing well what they enjoy, and getting rich at it?

And speaking of Bobby Hull, what do you think of the World Hockey Association? It has stolen Hull and another half-dozen top hockey players from that far-from-benevolent monopoly, the N.H.L. Good luck to the W.H.A. I love to see a big organization kicked in the groin, or the pocketbook, in this case. Particularly by its own slaves.

Why shouldn't a hockey player, a good one, make more money than a movie star? He's often a better actor.

And speaking about hockey, which is rather silly in this weather, have you ever read or heard anything more silly than the bleating of sports-writers, and even editorial writers, about the series with Russia?

The whole thing is getting rather sickening. It's just another symptom of our inferiority hang-up. We can't beat the U.S. at money. We can't beat the Chinese at ping-pong. We can't beat anybody at the Olympics, except maybe North Wales or West Tanzania. (With the notable exception of those horse-jumpers, who are pretty good.)

Why don't we just relax and enjoy it, as Confuscius did not say? Why don't we forget the years when other countries were wobbly-ankled on skates and every red-blooded Canadian boy had a Simpsons catalogue on one leg and an Eaton's catalogue on the other and could shoot a frozen horse-ball through a hairnet, and we won the world championship twenty-eight to one every year?

Except. Remember that dreadful year (about 1936) when the British, of all people, beat our team in the Olympics? Their team, of course, was made up of Canadians living in England. Or Englishmen who had grown up in Canada. One of them was an English kid I went to school with. Another, so he claimed, was an old friend of mine, Squire Tanner, attending Cambridge. Another was

Demonstrate Proper Handling Of A Canoe For Safety

The Hon. Leo Bernier, Ontario Minister of Natural Resources, recently visited the Ontario Safety League's Canoe/Camping Demonstration Unit in Algonquin Park's Lake of Two Rivers campground.

He took part in a demonstration with Janice Dawson, teacher from Parry Sound, showing how to rescue another canoeist who has capsized.

"Properly handled, the canoe is a very safe craft", says Omer Stringer, canoeing expert with the OSL unit. "But there are many unnecessary mishaps - some ending in tragedy - to people who do not know some of the most elementary things about using a canoe. Our demonstrations, and practical lessons, are helping hundreds of people every week to paddle with more confidence, more safety, more enjoyment."

The program is sponsored jointly by the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show and the Ministry of Natural Resources, and helped by a number of suppliers who have lent necessary equipment.

After a month in Algonquin Park, the Unit will be in Killarney Provincial Park until August 13. Then on August 15 and 16, the Unit will be demonstrating and teaching at the CNIB Lake Joseph Recreation Centre.

Several very happy people have reported back to the Ontario Safety League that they have rescued people clinging to swamped canoes, using the method they learned from the demonstration. Here's how it is done:

Paddle alongside the upset craft, on the windward side, and have the person(s) in the water hold on to the bow of your canoe, without attempting to get in. Take the bow of the waterfilled canoe with one hand and lift it slowly, so that the water begins to run out. Then use both hands to twist the canoe over slowly, bringing the keel uppermost while lifting the inverted bow on to the gunwale (edge) of your canoe, amidships. Slide it at right angles across both your gunwales until most, but not all, of the capsized craft is out of the water.

Now, acting as an outrigger, the other canoe stabilizes yours, and anyone in the water can be hauled aboard without danger of upsetting (note Mr. Bernier is standing, securely, in the 14-ft. canoe in the small picture).

When everyone is safely seated, or kneeling, on the bottom of the canoe - not on the seats - pull the other canoe right up out of the water across yours, to let the remaining water drip out. Then turn it over on its keel, slip it back into the water and hold it alongside while the person rescued gets back in - as Janice is doing in the picture.

Janice's husband Bob Dawson, Phys Ed teacher, is the second canoeing expert with the OSL unit.

SPORTS - SLANTS

Views & News

By Leo Debellefeuille

Sports fans, here it is August 16th. It is that time of year again in the athletic field when all sports are hitting the limelight. With this in mind, it was felt that perhaps we should present to you each week some views and news on the sports scene both locally, nationally and internationally. Before we commence this weekly column, allow us to invite you to submit any newsworthy article or story you may have, to promote any local or area event your organization is cheduling in the future.

Simply send your message care of this column to The Iroquois Post - attention of the writer.

During the latter part of 1971 and early in 1972, we featured a column called "Hockey Gossip". However, it was considered to be slanted only to the die hard hockey buffs and therefore people with other interests in sports perhaps were not interested in a regular coverage of hockey.

Therefore, with this new column, we will endeaver to touch off on a series of many and varied athletic activity and summary.

In the local scene, it would be appreciated if any local sports group who would like to have weekly coverage of their events contact me in regards to their activity.

Ottawa Rough Rider coach Jack Gotta has his charges flying after two successive victories at the mercy of the Saskatchewan Rough Riders and the Montreal Als.

The next game for the Ottawa Club with Leo Cahill's Toronto Argos should be the battle of giants in the early season.

At long last, it was good news to see the Mark Howe issue finally settled. Mark was picked up from London Knights of the O.H.A., thus he will now join forces with his brother Marty as members of the Toronto Marlies under new coach George Armstrong. Do you think honestly that Cordon had anything to do with the uniting of the two lads? Mark will wear number 9.

To refresh your memory, Harry Sinden's Team Canada will be playing their Canadian games Sept. 2-4-6-8 in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver respectively.

It would be great if some thought would be given to have a Minor Basketball League organized for both girls and boys next summer during the recess period.

If you are interested, get it touch.

The Ottawa Nationals of the World Hockey League have an exhibition game scheduled for Oct. 1st against the Philadelphia Blazers at the Civic Centre in Ottawa.

They have another booked for Oct. 3rd against New England Whalers, also Oct 5th against Philadelphia in Sherbrooke, then return to Hull against the Whalers on Oct 6th.

Their regular season opens in Ottawa on Oct. 11th against Alberta Oilers. The Nationals will play in the Eastern Section against Quebec, New York, New England, Philadelphia and Cleveland.

Perhaps some local organization might be interested in organizing at regular intervals a chartered bus for local citizens to take in a few of these W.H.A. games and also make a few bucks to aid their local projects.

For that matter, the same idea could apply to taking in some C.F.L. games in Ottawa or Montreal as well to plan a tour to see pro baseball in Montreal with the Expos.

Many people travel to Rideau Carleton, why not one of the above?

Garry Jarrett of California Golden Seals of the N.H.L. has signed to play with Cleveland Crusaders of the W.H.A.

In addition to Jarrett, here are list of other N.H.L. players who have left the N.H.L. or have left their former teams due to either the draft - trades- retirement or deflection to the W.H.A.

Toronto: Bernie Parent, Rick Ley, Brad Selwood, Jim Harrison Billy MacMillan, Brian Spencer, Don Marshall.

Montreal: Denis Dejordy, Phil Myre, J.C. Tremblay and Larry Pleau.

Vancouver: George Gardiner, Pat Quinn, John Schella, Ron Ward, Wayne Connelly, Rosaire Paiement and Ted Taylor.

Buffalo: Al Hamilton, Ray McCay, Jim Watson, Mike Byers, Danny Lawson and George Morrison.

Detroit: Joe Oaley, Ron Harris, Gerry Hart, Bob Wall, Doug Valmar and Danny Johnson.

Boston: Gerry Cheevers, Ted Green, Derek Sanderson, John McKenzie and Ed Westfall.

New York: Gary Doak, Jim Dorey and Phil Goyette.

Chicago: Cerry Desjardins, Bryan Campbell, Andre Lacroix, Eric Nesterenko and Bobby Hull.

St. Louis: Peter McDuffe, Ernie Wakely, John Arbour, Carl Brewer, Larry Hornung, Bill Player, Terry Crisp, Curt Bennet and Gerry Odrowski.

Philadelphia: Bruce Camble, Larry Hale, Brent Hughes, Eddie Joyal, Lew Morrison, Jean Guy Gendron and Mike Parizeau.

Pittsburg: Tim Horton, Bobby Leiter and Keith McCreary.

California: Carry Kurt, Norm Ferguson, Tom Webster and Ernie Hicke.

Minnesota: Ted Hampson, C. Labossiere and Craig Cameron.

Los Angeles: Billy Smith, Doug Barrie, Bob Yaytorwich, Brian Carlin, Luc Grenier, Bob Pufford and Jimmy Johnson.

Yes folks, the National Hockey League has certainly taken a major face-lifting as they prepare for the up coming 1972-73 season. In summary, the changes look like this - 11 goalies, 21 defencemen, 11 centres, 16 right wingers, 14 left wingers - for a grand total of 73 player changes as of time of writing.

Well, the major baseball leagues appear to be going to the wire in a battle royal to determine the pennant winner to enter into World Series play.

Next Wednesday we will have more sports ramblings for you. Remember - if you play sports, be a good one!

Bell Canada News

There are times when success causes problems, and Sunday around noon seems to be one of them when it comes to calling long distance from Iroquois.

According to Bell Canada's local manager B. Mason, the company's Sunday bargain calling rates that were introduced last November have been so popular that people are calling more and talking longer, with the result that circuits are often overloaded and calls can't be completed.

The rate for calls dialed direct from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday is three-quarters off the regular day rates.

The overload problem is most apparent during Sunday lunch-time - noon until about 2 p.m. - when some callers have been experiencing difficulties.

"It's a frustrating experience when you try to call someone and can't" said Mr. Mason. "The way to overcome the problem is to place your calls either earlier or later in the day, avoiding the lunchtime peak period. The three-quarter discount is in effect from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Sundays."

4-H Homemaking Club Achievement

Let's grow a garden! These were words spoken by seventy-five Stormont and Dundas 4-H Homemaking Club members early in the Spring. On August 10, 1972, these same girls displayed the products of their hard work, at Achievement Day in Chesterville Town Hall. All clubs present attractively exhibited many varieties of vegetables and flowers from their gardens, as well as jars of pickles, Record Books and Reference Files made by each girl during the project.

During the morning the girls practised judging vegetables, identified and evaluated several vegetables for table use, and answered a quiz on gardening and preservation techniques.

Many visitors to the afternoon program were able to brush up on their own techniques when each club presented a lesson on topics from the project - "Carden Club - Preservation of Fruit and Vegetables". Those participating were: an exhibit by Marilyn Cibson, Mountain Club; a demonstration by Bonnie Henderson and Karen Delaney, Avonmore Club; an exhibit by Debbie Bongers, South Mountain all members of Ingleside West Club in a skit, "Let's Can Tomatoes!"; and an exhibit by Evonne Kolff, Matilda Club. Finch Club presented a skit; Karen Mackler, Chesterville, an exhibit; Jean Sirvage and Connie Crump, Morewood, a demonstration; Rosemary Lyons, Cornwall Centre, an exhibit; and Winchester Club, a skit on "Let's Grow A Garden".

Highlights of the afternoon was the presentation of several awards. For completion of six projects, County Honours pin and certificates were presented to Dawn Wert, Avonmore Club Cheryl Alguire, Cornwall Centre; Joanne Vingerhoeds, Finch; Debbie Bongers and Rosemary Van Adrichem, South Mountain Club.

Provincial Honours for completing twelve projects, were received by Bonnie Henderson, Avonmore Club; Margaret MacLean, Finch; Thea Croniger, Matilda; Lorna Crump, Morewood; and Cynthia Gray, Winchester Club.

Janice Kolff, Matilda Club, was recipient of the Advanced Honours Certificate and Silver Pie Server for completion of eighteen 4-H Homemaking Club projects.

Mrs. Eleanore McClelland, Home Economist for Russell and Prescott Counties, assisted Miss Lorraine Holding during the day.

Upholds Milk Jug Regulation

The Cabinet has rejected a request to delay implementation of Ontario's regulation banning disposable three-quart polyethylene milk jugs, Environment Minister James Auld announced recently.

The decision came August 8 after Dominion Dairies Ltd., the major dairy now using the one-way jugs, presented a proposal to the Cabinet. It involved Dominion's stated intention to reclaim their non-returnable containers with a five-cent deposit and sell them to a plastics firm at the going rate - two or three cents a pound - as bulk plastic to be recycled into other products.

It also involved a proposed industry-government program to encourage the recovery and disposal of other plastic containers by volunteer groups.

"Cabinet has decided the regulation and its timing should remain unchanged," Mr. Auld said. "It is scheduled to be published August 12."

He said the dairy's submission has been forwarded to a Task Force on Solid Waste Disposal which is soon to be assembled. "There is not enough detail in the submission to decide on its feasibility. It needs further study."

High Water Levels

Due to excessive run-off from the upper lakes and local basin, the water level in Lake Ontario has reached a 246.6-foot elevation with an outflow into the St. Lawrence River of 310,000 c.f.s. Flows of this order are expected to last a few months after which a return of normal conditions should follow. The high levels currently being experienced on the St. Lawrence should be receding as well. Similarly, water levels of Lake Ontario should commence seasonal decline shortly.

REPORT FROM QUEEN'S PARK

DONALD IRVINE M.P.P

Last week I discussed some of the complexities of the problem of economic and cultural nationalism. In the past few months our Provincial Covernment has taken many measures to protect and encourage specific industries where the national interest is best served by a Canadian presence. Various studies and conferences have been concerned with policy development in this area and one of the most important of these is the Select Committee on Economic and Cultural Nationalism which is holding its meetings this summer and may be expected to report sometime later this year or in early 1973. The Covernment has at hand the reports, among others, of the Interdepartmental Task Force on Foreign Investment, The Royal Commission on Book Publishing, and the Ontario Conference on Cultural and Economic Nationalism.

It might be of interest to highlight briefly some of the measures that have already been taken largely as a result of the above mentioned reports.

A venture capital fund has been established within the Ontario Development Corporation to provide necessary seed capital for innovative Canadian enterprises which cannot obtain the necessary financing through normal channels.

Restrictions have been placed on non-resident equity participation in the loan and trust company field. This policy is based on the proposition that the backbone of our economic system should remain entirely in Canadian hands.

In a similar move, the Ontario government has imposed restrictions on non-resident ownership of our securities and investment firms. A major portion of the Canadian securities industry is in Canadian hands and these regulations will ensure that this situation does not change.

Following the report of the Royal Commission on Book Publishing, the Covernment moved quickly to restrict foreign ownership and prevent monopoly control of the distribution of paperbacks and periodicals. In the area of book publishing, the Government provided the necessary financial assistance to McClelland and Stewart which prevented the takeover of that company by a major U. S. publishing firm.

Recent ammendments to the Mining Act have provided incentives for the processing and refining in Ontario of minerals mined here. Surveys are presently underway by various Canadian companies to study the economic advantages of setting up smelting facilities in this province. Should they decide to do so, there will be a substantial number of jobs thereby created.

U. S. firms in particular have for some years enjoyed a substantial advantage over their Canadian competitors in the acquisition of other companies in that the interest payable on funds borrowed to take over firms has been tax deductible. Due to the provinces initiatives in this area, Canadian companies can compete on the same basis as their U. S. competitors.

A bill introduced during the last session which is scheduled to be debated this coming fall would ensure that a majority of the directors of all Ontario incorporated companies will be Canadian citizens resident in Canada. While this does not of itself result in the re-purchase of control of Canadian firms, it does ensure a Canadian presence at the board of directors level.

Recently the Minister of Industry and Tourism who is responsible for the Ontario Development Corporation announced that there would be no further forgiveable loans granted foreign-controlled corporations. I have some misgivings because I believe such a position may hamper our long-term economic policies. While you and I would undoubtedly prefer purely Canadian development of our resources and industry such may not always be possible and I would like to see us keep our options open. I have spoken to the Minister regarding this policy as it might apply to Grenville Dundas and the matter will be considered further when the Ministry completes a review of its industrial incentives activities.

In response to the rather lukewarm reception by the Canadian people of the recent enactments in Ottawa regarding foreign take-over of domestic companies, the Prime Minister of Canada has suggested that if the provinces would prefer stronger legislation, they are free to enact it themselves. While I have said I would not support any programme which is antagonistic to increased investment, foreign or otherwise, I do believe that Mr. Trudeau is not being entirely frank in advocating such a position. What he is really asking is for some provinces to take unilateral steps which would deprive themselves of job making industry and in effect force that industry into other provinces. It is a totally unrealistic and unacceptable alternative. As Mr. Davis has said on many occasions, there is a very real limit on what any one province can do as far as this very important question is concerned.

I believe that the Ontario Covernment has and will continue to put forward constructive and responsible initiatives in this area but if there is ever to be a reasonable and acceptable solution to the dilemma of foreign investment in this country, the lead must clearly come from the Federal Covernment.

Williamsburg to celebrate 150th Anniversary

While details are still a bit sketchy, plans are advancing rapidly for the 150th anniversary celebrations of the founding of Williamsburg and a good start has been made for the September 8-9-10 affair.

Friday night will see a senior ball game, street dance and the choosing of Miss Williamsburg at a beauty contest.

Saturday's programme so far includes a best decorated bicycle contest at 10:30 a.m., a large parade at 2 p.m. and a 3 p.m. official ceremony, as well as special sports programme. At 4 p.m. a beef Bar-B-Q at the park and in the evening a dance at the township garage is planned.

Sunday will see an inter-denominational church service at 1 p.m. at the park; a midget ball game at 2:30 and a chicken Bar-B-Q at 4 p.m. Further details will be published as the programme develops.

Prescott Manpower Centre

The Prescott Canada Manpower Centre, which covers the county of Grenville and half of Dundas, reports the following statistics, which are not a reflection of the unemployment situation.

The Prescott Canada Manpower Centre reports that the number of unemployed clients looking for work increased to 109 over the month of June. The total unemployed increased from 693 in June to 802 in July with the majority of the increase centred on the male categories, principally in structural work and processing category.

The continuing wet weather has slowed down construction in the area. This factor reflects the increase of registrations for the construction category.

DuPont of Canada, Maitland, Ontario, is still on strike, which factor is also reflected in the increase of registrations for temporary employment by these workers.

R.C.A. Ltd., Prescott, has increased their staff considerably over the past few months. At present there is an urgent need for female assembly line workers and numerous openings are available.

A cold, wet spring followed by a continuing wet summer has proven disastrous to farmers in both the Grenville and Dundas Counties. At present the effect on employment is only marginal.

During July several of the main industries were closed for annual vacation and employment activity in other areas were minimal during that period. The Canada Manpower Centre office located at Kemptville, on a two day a week basis, reports openings available and in particular, for both auto and diesel machanics.

Brockville Speedway

Brockville Speedway's points race has turned into a three-way fight between veteran drivers Tony Blake and Pat O'Brien of Kingston and Howard Shaw of Brockville.

For the third time in three weeks, the points leadership at the Brockville Speedway changed hands.

Blake drove to a first place finish in the 25-lap feature race to move into the lead with 105 points. Shaw is right behind however with 104 points. O'Brien, who led a week ago, is third with 100 points.

Only 10 of the 20 starters in the feature race managed to finish. Rough driving forced at least half of the competitors into the pits before the finish. Other drivers developed motor trouble trying to keep up with the fast pace set by the leaders.

Blake and rookie driver Norm Davies battled each other for the win throughout the whole race. Davies held the lead for 16 laps but had to settle for second after Blake squeezed past him on the inside. Davies crossed the finish line about ten feet behind Blake.

Following the leaders were Glen Box, Don Billings, Howard Shaw, Bob Shannon, Joe Hughes, George Holmes, Gil Elliott, and Tom Shannon.

The Billings brothers, Don and Denzil were the winners of the semi-final races and Shaw took first in the consolation dash. Heat winners were Bob Shannon, Merv Winters and Walt Pennock.

Next Saturday's program at the Brockville Speedway will include the first powder puff derby of the season. At least ten ladies have indicated that they will be taking part in the big race.

Flood Assistance

Cordon Blair, Member of Parliament for Grenville-Carleton released Friday the following statement by The Honourable Bud O'son, Minister of Agriculture on the measures being taken and considered by the Federal Government to assist Eastern Ontario farmers.

The federal government will offer several forms of assistance, effective immediately, to flood-stricken farmers in Ontario and Quebec, Agriculture Minister H. A. (Bud) O'son announced today.

1. The Canadian Dairy Commission will guarantee that no dairy farmer will lose subsidy eligibility quota due to production cuts forced by catastrophic weather conditions
2. The Farm Credit Corporation will, on an idividual basis, allow flood-stricken farmers to defer repayment of loans to the FCC.
3. The Canadian Livestock Feed Board has already taken and will continue to take steps to ensure that an adequate supply of feed grains is available to farmers in the flood-stricken areas.
4. A special group has been assembled within the Canada Department of Agriculture and associated boards, commissions crown corporations and agencies to deal with the developing situation.
5. Information on the relative merits of various alternative livestock feeds is being gathered from research projects and will be made available to farmers in the area.

"We will maintain a close watch on the situation as it develops throughout the remainder of the crop year and into the winter and early spring," Mr. Olson said.

The assurances from the Canadian Dairy Commission are important to dairy farmers caught with little or no farm-produced forage.

Normally they would stand to lose part of their subsidy eligibility quota if production falls below 75 per cent of their quota level.

The no-loss guarantee by the Commission means that dairy farmers need not fear the loss of quota, should production drop, due to excess moisture conditions.

The Farm Credit Corporation's offer to defer repayment of loans will free cash to be used to buy grain or forage, or to finance planting a new crop next year.

The Canadian Livestock Feed Board has already notified the Canadian Wheat Board of the situation in Eastern Canada. The Wheat Board is taking steps to accelerate the movement of grains from the Prairies to the Lakehead to ensure an adequate inventory for the area.

The Livestock Feed Board is also taking steps to ensure the availability of adequate storage space for feed grains. The elevator at Prescott has a large volume of high quality wheat which will be moved out to make room for feed grains.

The Canadian Livestock Feed Board is taking steps to ensure the availability of rail cars and to co-ordinate the direct rail shipment of feed grains from the Lakehead to the flood-stricken areas.

The same Board has also offered to work closely with farmers' representatives to

Canadian Power Squadron Flag

The story of the Canadian Power Squadron Flag began 25 years ago and in 1972, to help celebrate the silver anniversary of the flag, it is being flown on members' boats from coast to coast.

Starting in Vancouver Island District in March and being passed from district to district, it will hopefully arrive in the Atlantic District on August 15, 1972.

The flag and the ships' log which will be accompanying it will be returned to Toronto in time for the CPS annual conference.

On Friday, August 4th, the flag and ship's log was carried aboard the "Blue Sal" from Brockville to Iroquois by District Commander Tom Stubbs, Commander of Rideau-St. Lawrence District.

D/C Stubbs was accompanied by a flotilla of four boats: Glen-Ell of Cornwall; Kathy of Laval, Mini-Seas and Cooko II both of Brockville. The flag and log were handed over to Squadron Commander Keith Beaupre of the Iroquois Squadron who flew the flag aboard the "Beauzark" and led the flotilla to Upper Canada Village and Crysler Marina where they were greeted by two boats from the Cornwall Squadron.

Friday evening a shore cook-out and social get-together was enjoyed by members of the Brockville, Iroquois and Cornwall Power Squadrons.

On Saturday morning, August 5th, the flag and ship's log were then handed over from Squadron Commander Beaupre to Squadron Commander Bill Huffey of the Cornwall Squadron. "Bill" Huffey flew the flag from the "Dolphin" and carried it down the Seaway to Valleyfield.

The Canadian Power Squadron is a nation-wide association of Canadians interested or active in safe boating and sailing. The national organization is a confederation of local squadrons from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Everywhere in between where boating is popular, you will find a power squadron promoting safety afloat and good fellowship among enthusiasts of both power and sail.

The Canadian Power Squadron flag is the emblem of safe boating in Canada.

The Iroquois Squadron will be conducting courses this winter free of charge, except the cost of required study material, to any person interested in safe boating in Dundas and Grenville Counties.

Some of the courses available are: Piloting, Seamanship, Advanced Piloting, Junior navigator, Navigator, Weather, Engine Maintenance, Sailing and Marine Electronics.

If you are interested in taking any of these many courses this winter, contact either Keith Beaupre, Iroquois, Doug McGillis, Morrisburg, Bob Ceggie, Winchester Allan Newson of Cardinal, or Lee McCurdy of Prescott.

Many lives are lost each year in Canada through lack of knowledge of the limitations and safety requirements of pleasure boats.

The loading of a 14 foot boat with 12 people and a week's camping supplies this summer on Georgian Bay which claimed 10 lives might have been avoided if the boaters had taken the power squadron course. Why not take time to acquaint yourself with regulations and safety suggestions which may some day save your life?

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Charles has two absorbing interests — horses and fishing. He seizes every opportunity to go riding and he loves to go camping near a lake or river where there might be fish.

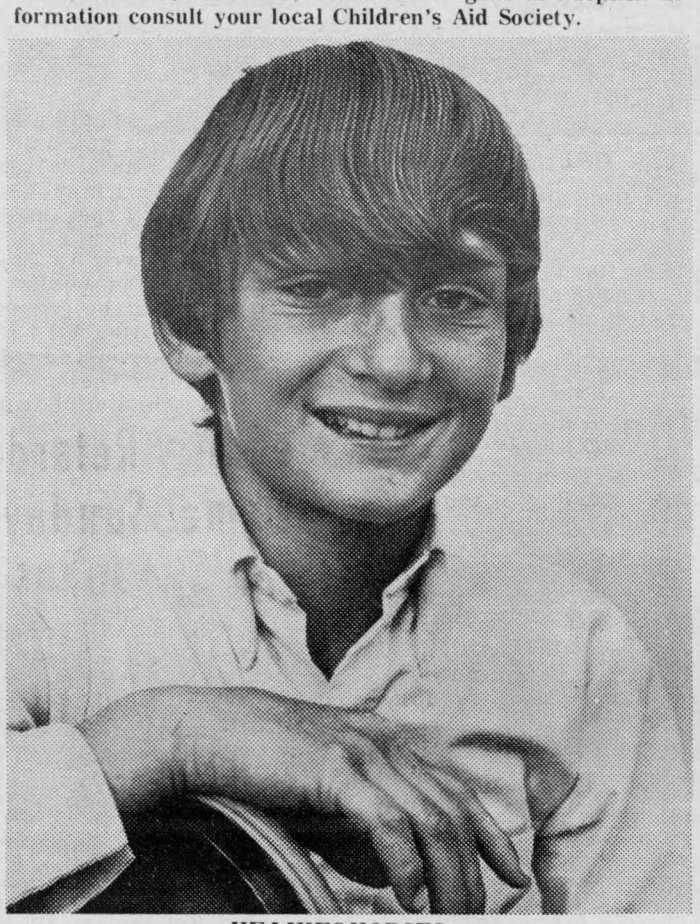

Charles is 13, slightly built, with blue eyes, brown hair and fair skin. He has just finished Grade seven and did well in school last year.

This boy was moved many times before he came into the care of the Children's Aid Society. He is left with the insecure feeling that perhaps he does not belong anywhere. He very much needs a home where he knows he will stay.

Charles is cheerful and outgoing but somewhat immature. He has difficulty following through on projects he undertakes. A healthy, active boy, he likes sports, especially baseball.

Charles needs a mother and father who will welcome, encourage and love him for himself and who will understand it will probably take him some time to realize that finally, after all those unsettled years, he really has a home and parents.

To inquire about adopting Charles, please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto. For general adoption information consult your local Children's Aid Society.

The footbone's connected to the headbone.

Think about it.

When you play tennis, you wear tennis shoes. When you walk, you wear good walking shoes. And when you work you wear proper footwear for comfort and protection.

Take a good look at your shoes. Make sure they're not getting run down at the heel. Change fraying laces. And check the soles to see that they're in good condition.

Sure footwork begins with proper footwear.

The sure way to safety is Self-Defence.

Card of Thanks

To Dr. Diemert and the nursing staff of second floor of Winchester Memorial Hospital, my sincere thanks, and the cards, letters, flowers and visits from friends and neighbours were much appreciated. Thank you so much.

1p Mrs. John Banford

In utter amazement I was greeted Monday evening by some of the best neighbours in Canada. It was a delight indeed to chat with everyone present, to enjoy the sumptuous lunch; yet, now I was humbled. In no way do I feel worthy of the kind words spoken of me or the presentation made to me. All I can say is "Thank you and God bless you every one".

The relative nutritive values of hay and corn silage substitutes, such as mixed feed oats, screenings, beet pulp, corn cobs, straw, etc., are being worked out by scientists in the Research Branch of the Canada Department of Agriculture and will be made available to the feed industry, agricultural representatives and farmers as soon as possible.

"We realize that other special credit may be required for winter feed, for planting next spring or for other reasons," Mr. Olson said. "This need will be studied and considered as requirements become known."

George Hees, doing much the same, before he got into politics. But, oh, the shame of it!

All this, of course, is prelude and masquerade to a secret hunch of mine that the Russians are going to lick us in the forthcoming series, if it ever forthcomes.

My hunch is based on the fact that the games will be played under international rules. Take away the body-checking, high-sticking, elbowing, slashing, boarding and gouging from the game, and your average Canadian player is lost. I can visualize clearly five Russians descending on some hapless Canadian goalie, with all the other Canadians in the penalty box.

Enough. This column is about summer silliness. How's this? An aunt of my wife, who was born and reared near Belfast, but has lived for a number of years in Canada, went back to Northern Ireland for a visit this summer. We're watching the obituary columns.

My kid brother, who is a colonel in the air force, is being posted to Germany in a few weeks. What, in the name of all that is silly, are Canadians doing in Germany? Who are they guarding? Against what? And with what?

I know I've come a long way from my broken toe, but somewhere, in some secret little niche in my mind, there is a connection linking all these summer sillinesses. Or maybe I just got too much sun when I went to the beach the other day with Kim and her husband. And broke my toe.
