WINCHESTER THEATRE NEWS

Playing for the balance of this week is that highly entertaining picture, "Pa and Ma Kettle At The Fair," starring Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride. It's a rural riot, a corn-fed comedy classic. Another laugh-laden callapaloose, starring the screen's most fantastically funny couple, Ma and Pa Kettle. If you have not already seen it, don't miss this great, new fun-fest.

Playing next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday is "The Great Caruso," starring Mario Lanza and Ann Blyth. This is a high-class Musicale with a fine story behind it. As a box office attraction it stands high among the best pictures of the year.

The male star, Mario Lanza, is rated as "The Hottest Singer in a Decade," by Time Magazine. For entertainment at its best, don't miss "The Great Caruso."

Re-surfacing of Highway 31 Moving Ahead

Re-surfacing of Highway No. 31 between Williamsburg and Winchester, by the Harvey Construction Company of Kingston, is well on the way and should be nearly completed this week. Headquarters for the operation is at Cass Bridge, where the necessary machinery, piles of stone and gravel, bunk houses, etc., have been set up. Last year the cenrte of activity for re-surfacing was south of Williamsburg. Each day there's a hustling crew working at Cass Bridge, and at first glance it looks like a big industry in produstion (and it is in a sense).

The new surface is a great improvement to the highway and, when completed, will make a first class road. It is expected that the re-surfacing will continue through to the Western limits of Winchester, thus assuring the municipality of two new smart thoroughfares—Main and St. Lawrence Streets—as the town is expected to have the resurfacing completed to the curb on the above mentioned streets.

Grows 12 Foot Hollyhocks

During his "Farmers' Note Book" broadcast one day this week, Frank Ryan, of CFRA, Ottawa, told of receiving a Hollyhock stock, 9 feet in length, and invited any listener who could beat that record to let him know. Ex-Constable Herbert Helmer, of town, heard Mr. Ryan tell about his 9-foot Hollyhock and decided to go out in his garden and measure one of his stately Hollyhocks. He brought a specimen to the Press Office. We measured it in the presence of Postmaster F. Erle Helmer, who happened to be in this office at the time, and it measured exactly 12 feet, and contained 142 buds. If Mr. Helmer's Hollyhock holds the present record, no doubt we'll be hearing from Mr. Ryan on the Valley Note Book at 12.15 on Sunday.

District Upper School Results

Following are the Upper School Results for South Mountain and Hallville. At time of going to press, the Upper School Results for Winchester could not be located, as they were sent to the principal, Mr. J. H. Willard, and he is out of town. Why the local results should be delayed longer than those of other centres is a good question for the students to ask the proper authorities. The Press has been besieged with phone calls all week by students and parents eager to get the Upper School Results, but we could do little about the delay. We did our best to have them in time for this issue, but could not contact the principal of the W. H. S. to find out if he had received them. We understand they were all mailed out from Toronto on Monday.

PLEASE, SIR!

There is a little matter that some of our subscribers have seemingly forgotten entirely. As we have stated before, the post office regulations require that all subscriptions must be paid in advance. To us it is a very important matter—it is necessary in our business. We don't like to continually speak about such remittances, however, we must take off our mailing list from time to time those who are delinquent in their payments. We don't like to do this as we believe this matter has been overlooked on the part of some of our subscribers, yet we must comply with the Post Office laws to keep our second class mailing permit. Check the date on the label of your paper to see how you stand on this matter. All Press subscriptions dated prior to August, 1952, are now due and payable. We would appreciate your remittance at once.

WEDDINGS

JOHNSTON—McINNIS

In a quiet ceremony in St. James' Anglican Church, Hull, Anna Lorna McInnis, daughter of Mrs. Ewart A. McInnis and the late Mr. McInnis, formerly of Iroquois, and Mr. Frederick Wesley Johnston, of Longueuil, son of Mrs. Fred Johnston and the late Mr. Jornston, were married by Rev. C. W. Earle on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Gladioli were used in decoration, and Mr. Donald C. Timmins, of Morrisburg, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Graham Ewart McInnis, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Beach McInnis, as maid of honour, and Miss Mary Johnston, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid. Mr. Carl Boucher, of Montreal, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Allan Barter and Mr. Emile Motard, of Montreal.

The bride chose a strapless ballerina gown with a three-tiered skirt of white nylon net with insertions of Chantilly lace over faille taffeta and an embroidered crinoline. Her jacket of Chantilly lace, buttoned down the front, was styled with a winged collar and long sleeves and lily-of-the-valley held her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion, and she carried a Colonial bouquet of pink Delight roses, stephanotis and Sweetheart roses.

Her attendants wore cocktail-length dresses in yellow and blue with matching hats and mittens of lace and tulle, and carried bouquets of yellow and flame gladioli.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston left by motor for the Catskills and Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside in Longueuil.

Going away, the bride wore a yellow silk shantung suit with a pleated peplum, a picture hat and black nylon accessories. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Timmins, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hitsman, Miss Marilyn Hitsman, of Winchester: Mrs. Hazel Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Preston I. Timmins, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Charlton McInnis, Miss Jean McInnis Cornwall; Mrs. Allan McInnis, Mrs. Wm. Hooke, Iroquois.

Shanly Cheese Factory Totally Destroyed By Fire

Damage totalling $10,000 was caused by fire which destroyed the Shanly cheese factory, six miles east of Spencerville. at 12.30 a.m. on Monday.

The fire forced farmers as far away as Spencerville to send their milk to the Hyndman factory. Arrangements rushed through that morning resulted in the owner of the factory, Lawrence Pelton, sending his truck out to pick up the milk.

Edwardsburg Fire Brigade, under Chief Morgan Barnard, got to the scene in short order, but the fire had gained too much headway for them to check it. They concentrated on saving the home and barns of James York, which caught fire several times. The firemen succeeded in stifling the blaze.

Lost in the fire was a truck owned by Cheesemaker Henry Hopkins, valued at $3,000. Mr. Hopkins, who also owned the factory, lost about 100 cheese, and all his machinery and equipment. The Shanly factory served about 30 farmers in that district.

Friends Honour Mrs. M. Holmes

A miscellaneous shower, in honour of Mrs. Murray Holmes (nee Miss Peggy Grey), was held at her home at Nation Valley on Tuesday evening, July 29th. At approximately eleven o'clock the bride and groom were called forward when an address was read by Mrs. Harold W. Merkley, and a number of gifts were presented. The bride was also the recipient of a beautifully-designed bride's book.

Mrs. Holmes very fittingly replied, after which all sang "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." The bride then opened her gifts, which were numerous and beautiful. After the gifts were passed around and admired, a bounteous lunch was served to those present.

Following is the address:

Dear Margaret—It is with much pleasure and good will that we have assembled here in your natal home this evening to congratulate you and to wish you much luck and happiness as you sail through life on the good ship "Matrimony."

Marriage should be regarded as Life's crowning achievement, and it is our earnest wish that you will find this to be so.

Margaret (better known as Peggy), those of us in your neighbourhood have watched you grow up. For some time you have ably served the public for the Bell Telephone Company, a position which we all know requires unlimited patience, self-control, perseverance and consideration of others. Your kind nature and pleasant disposition have endeared you to many people.

We rejoice, however, in the fact that you have chosen for a helpmate one who is no stranger to us, and as Murray is not taking you far from us we will entertain the hope that you may both be among us frequently.

At this time we would ask you to accept these gifts, and as you use each may you have individual memories of its giver. Just remember to "Face the sunshine and your shadows will always fall behind you."

Hallville Leads Softball Finals

Classed as the under dogs of the Dundas County Softball League Finals, Hallville came through with its finest game of the season on Monday night to trim Williamsburg 10-9 and go out in front of the series, three games to two. The win was the second straight for the Mountain Township crew, and the third in the last four starts. The loss put the favourite Williamsburg squad on the spot, as they now have to win two in a row to take the Challies' Trophy.

Once again it was Stan. Berry, on the mound for Hallville, who led his team to victory,and who also collected his third win in the series. He was backed up by some outstanding field work on the part of his teammates, who played spectacular ball for most of the game.

Sonny Elliott, Williamsburg's ace hurler, was in trouble from the start, with Hallville collecting a single in the first and adding three more in the next inning. Williamsburg went down in order in the first two innings wth the exception of L. Casselman's drive into left field. Hallville continued the pace in their half of the third by adding another four runs off four hits. The Locketown nine retaliated in the bottom of the third with a trio, and the score read 8-3 for Hallville. Williamsburg's experience over the younger Hallville crew started to show in the fourth when they were held scoreless. Jack Salmon, a standout for Williamsburg, came across in the fourth for the inning's only score.

A do or die effort by Williamsburg in the fifth and sixth frames tied the score at 9-9 going into the final inning. Earl Roach and Ross Andrews teamed up for two solid blows in the seventh to earn what proved to be the winning run. Steady pitching by Kitch Berry in tne clinches and some smart infield work finished Williamsburg's bid to win the game when Bert McIntosh was tagged trying to steal third, for the final out.

The game was witnessed by the largest crowd of fans to attend a Dundas League game this year. The sixth game was played last night in Halllville.

Oher Games

In the third game of the series, played at Williamsburg last Wednesday night, Aug. 6th, Hallville was trimmed 11-1 by the Locketown crew. Errors were costly and, while Williamsburg was playing sound ball, Hallville was having a bad night at bat and in the field. Sonny Elliott was the winner for Williamsburg. Earl Roach was charged with the loss.

Friday night's encounter at the Consolidated School was a different story, with Hallvillle jumping back to even the series at 2-2 with a 7-6 victory. Stan. Berry won his second game of the series, with Sonny Elliott taking the loss. Although the game was flavoured with errors, it was exciting ball to watch. Down three runs and going into the first half of the final inning, Williamsburg started a rally that loaded the bases and produced two runs. It fell short when Art Flynn was tagged by Bun. Lunny for the third out.

FORMER PASTOR OCCUPIES LOCAL PULPIT

The guest preacher at the local Baptist Church on Sunday evening last was Rev. John Ostrom, of Clinton, Ont., a former pastor of the Winchester and South Gower Baptist Churches. During the service he and Mrs. Ostrom were heard in a sacred duet.

At the morning service in the Baptist Church, Pastor Ben. Richardson gave an interesting address on "Spiritual Life In Ireland." Having recently returned from the Emerald Isle, Mr. Richardson was in a position to speak intelligently on his topic.

Both services were well attended.

FEED NEWS

According to latest reports the U. S. will need a quantity of our Timothy Seed. With limited production in Western Ontario, prices should be a bit higher than last year.

The demand is for No. 1 Seed. Quality of seed coming in for cleaning is good, excepting some combined lots which are soft and inclined to heat.

The cleaner is running on Timothy all the time now and we will be glad to take care of any lots that are ready for cleaning.

Phone 136 when your seed is ready—we will pick it up, clean it and send samples for price. There is no obligation to sell. We will get the highest quotations from firms in the market for Timothy Seed. If you want to sell, we will pay you the price quoted and ship it out. If you want to hold it for a while, we will keep a sample and get prices from time to time as the market changes.

Our storage is limited, so we cannot promise to hold seed here too long after it is cleaned.

Give us a call about prices—or to arrange to pick up your seed for cleaning. We will do our best to make a good job of cleaning your seed and marketing it, if you want to sell.

THE PRACTICALLY USELESS CITIZEN

Every town, comments the Smiths Falls Record-News, has a sprinkling of those fellows who stand about on the streets and ridicule the folks who are doing things and draw attention to mistakes. Everyone indulges a little in such practice on public affairs and if the criticism is backed up by constructive helpfulness it is well for the cause of democracy and community betterment.

But the fellow who is practically useless to the community is that chap who criticizes only and never does anything to advance his day or generation. Usually, if you will examine that individual and his past record of life you will find his accomplishments have been negligible and often his private life unsuccessful. It is an old but true saying that "the man who never does anything never makes a mistake." History proves that the great of the past who made great accomplishments, also made mistakes. It is well that in later years we remember and glorify their great deeds which led to their greatness and forget their failures.

No doubt you have heard the story before, but it will bear repeating. An expert in business analysis and efficiency was endeavouring to sell his services to a hard boiled and not so young businessman. He made a good selling talk and his prospect seemed very receptive until the conclusion of the interview when the business man just asked one question that was unanswerable. "Young man," he said, "if you're so darn smart at telling me how to run my business, why haven't you a business of your own?"

EXCELLENT FIRE RECORD

No bush fires have been reported from the nine counties of the Rideau District since May.

Of course, the fire wardens, who are appointed by the municipal councils, are not obliged to report fires when they occur, and so there may have been fires during this period. However, the frequent thunder storms have dispersed rainfall throughout the district, to reduce the hazard below normal. Fields and woods which are usually dry and brown at this season are still green and moist. The streams are still carrying a good volume of water; water still lies in many swamps, and the trees, stripped by the caterpillars, have put out new leaves.

There is little fire danger right now, so it is an excellent time to prepare for bad conditions when they may arise. Here are some suggestions for individuals:

1. Practise care with fire.
2. Find out the best way to fight a fire in the bush or in grass. Have the simple tools required easily available.
3. Learn the name and phone number of the local forest fire warden. The reeve, councillors or clerk can give this information. In case of emergency, phone him at once.

School Boards interested in having their schools enter the School Forestry Competition should take action at once to acquire the necessary land—an acre or two near the school—and to order the trees required. The competition requires the school children to plant an acre of land with trees; to study tree identification; and to prepare a collection of leaves, twigs and bark.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

This is not newspaper week, or anything that has any connection with it. It is likely some other week, but at the moment we do not know just which. However, the following eight reasons for using newspaper advertising, which appeared in the current issue of a newspaper bulletin service, are well worth passing along to the public.

1. Newspaper advertising is a universal habit; newspaper advertising, therefore, reaches virtually all who buy.
2. Newspaper advertising is the lifeblood of local trade because it touches all consumer sources, offering every opportunity for complete consumer appeal in any locality.
3. Newspaper advertising cuts selling costs because it entails no waste in locality of circulation. Manufacturers use it to cover markets where it is profitable to do business.
4. Newspaper advertising assures quick, thorough and economical dealer-distribution and dealer good will, because retailers are willing to sell products advertised direct to their own customers.
5. Newspaper advertising enables manufacturers to tell where their products may be bought.
6. Newspaper advertising can be started or stopped overnight, can be prepared to meet sudden developments and to obtain immediate results.
7. Newspaper advertising enable manufacturers to check advertising results and costs in every market which they enter.
8. Newspaper advertising costs less than any other kind.

PRACTICAL AID TO PUBLIC HEALTH

The granting of Life Insurance Medical Fellowships to 13 scientists in Canadian medical schools to enable them to undertake specific research projects, draws attention to the tremendous contribution the life insurance companies operating in Canada are making to the work of improving the health of the nation.

For more than 25 years the life insurance companies have joined through the Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association in making contributions aggregating nearly $1,000,000 to such organizations as the Canadian Tuberculosis Association, the Canadian Dental Hygiene Council and the National Committee for School Health and to several medical research studies. This much-needed finncial help has permitted these public health bodies and numerous researchers to expand their work greatly for the Canadian people as a whole. Had it not been for this help it is doubtful if these organizations and workers would have accomplished so much. The joint contributions of these organizations are in addition to those made by many companies individually for public health, hospital and medical research purposes.

The sum total of the grants made by the life insurance companies in Canada to promote medical research and public health is often overlooked, but is a significant contribution to the welfare of the country.

EDITORIAL NOTES

"Freedom is so easily lost," says The Rural Scene. How true, how true! And weddings are on the increase.

Says one of our trade exchanges: If you get up earlier in the morning than your competitor, work harder, scheme more, and stay up later planning how to get ahead of him while he's snoozing, and cut out holidays, not only will you leave more money when you die than he will—but you'll leave it a lot sooner.

The average Canadian does not know enough about the United States to understand the problems of our neighbouring nation. The average American knows less about Canada than the average Canadian knows about the United States. Another 100 years will be required before real understanding can be implemented—observes the Elmwood (Man.) Herald.

Those people who talk glibly of 20 per cent. or 25 per cent. profits for industry will be interested in a survey just completed by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. This shows that for every dollar of sales in 1951, Canadian industry averaged only 5.8 cents in profit, a drop of 1.3 cents from the previous year despite an increase in total volume. Moreover, less than half of that 5.8 actually went into shareholders' pockets, as 3.5 cents was placed back into the business to keep it growing.

The Ontario Department of Highways is planning another super four-lane highway connecting Windsor and Toronto. In its report on this, a Toronto newspaper comments that the department also knows it will have to reconstruct 50 miles of the highway from Prescott to Cornwall when the seaway green light flashes. As the Brockville Recorder & Times says: "We hope it also knows that whether the seaway starts next year or in a decade, No. 2 Highway in this area is 20 years out of date and every year that passes increases the death and accident toll."

Letters to the Editor

CIVIL DEFENSE

Dear Editor:

I see by the Press that Winchester has taken the necessary steps to form committees and otherwise organize the people in case of an emergency.

This is a very commendable step and all the citizens of Winchester should get behind this movement and do all they can to be ready just in case. However, I think this is the wrong name to give to this movement. I think it should be called Civil Preparedness. Defense means defending your life, home and country.

I am interested in Defense, taking it at its true meaning.

During World War II recruiting statistics showed that from Winchester and ten miles around in every direction over twelve hundred men had joined the three armed services. This means at the present time, counting men who paid the supreme price and men who have moved away, that perhaps there is one thousand men who have had military training in rifle, machine gun, mortar and bazooka arms.

In the case of a National Emergency, that is, invasion by a foreign army, we have a thousand trained men who could be called together within one hour. Add to this perhaps two hundred old sweats from World War I (and don't forget these men haven't forgotten how to handle a Lee-Enfield) and we have a battalion of men willing to defend their homes and loved ones.

As I have stated, we have the men but where are the arms and ammunition? I suppose at the present moment Canada has more than a million rifles stored across the country in storehouses. These rifles are in perfect shape but they might as well be on the moon as far as our battalion of men, ready to fight, are concerned.

Transportation during an emergency would be at a standstill. Authority to draw these rifles would have to come from Ottawa or Kingston and either or both of these cities might be only holes in the ground by then if an atom bomb is used. It would take at least one-half hour to take the cosmoline off a rifle and get it ready for use, so, as I stated before, our battalon of men would be useless.

While I would not go so far as to say we ought to be like Switzerland (there every able-bodied man is issued a rifle and 200 rounds of ammunition and keeps it at home to be used in a National emergency), I do believe that a supply of rifles and machine guns with ammunition should be stored in Winchester.

I have in mind a place where these arms could be stored and kept in perfect condition for years, with competent men to take care of them and account to the Government for them.

I think a committee of Veterans should approach the proper authorities and see what could be done about this at once. Then in case of an invasion (which I hope never happens) we would be in a position to give a good account of ourselves.

J. H. KEYES.

Gospel Gleanings....

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, you shall privily bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bringing upon themselves swift destruction."—(II Pet. 2:1).

Many today are loudly denying the Lord that bought them, while they hasten to honour the Lord that taught them. They teach that salvation is through Christ; not because He purchased our redemption by His death on the Cross, but because He gave to the world its most perfect set of teachings, ideals and philosophies.

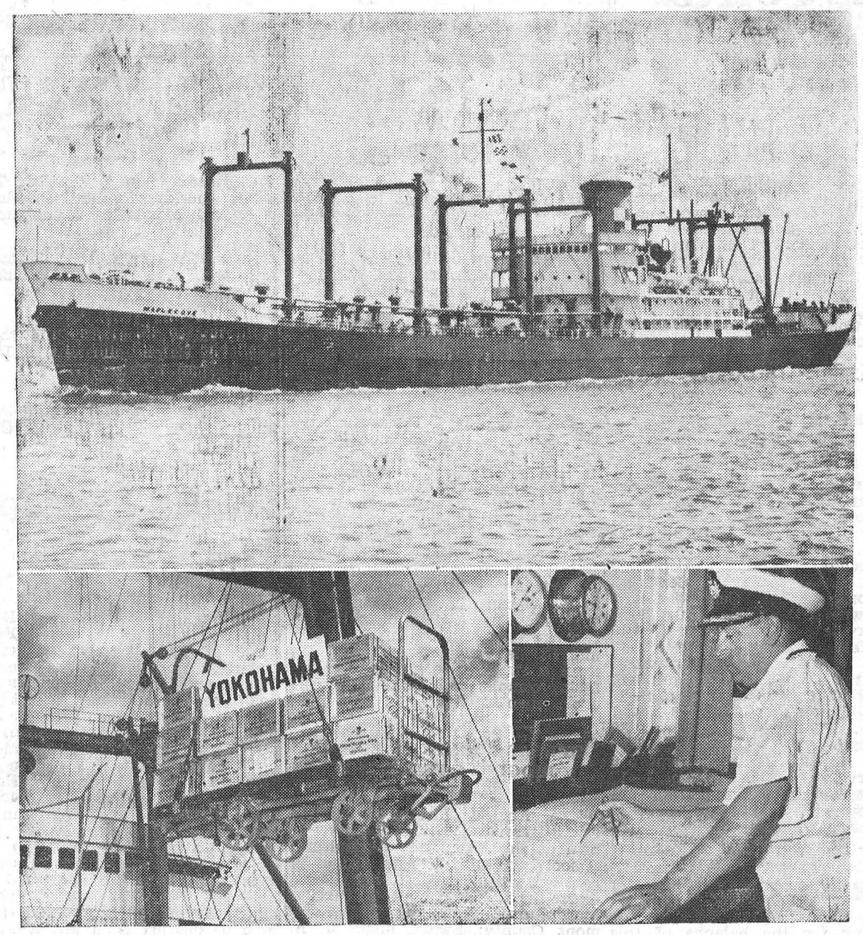
"I don't like your preaching about the death of Christ" said one listener to an evangelist. "I prefer hearing about Jesus, the great teacher and example. We need more preaching about following in His steps, and that is what I intend doing." "Very well," said the preacher. "Christ did not sin, neither was guile found in His mouth."—(I Pet. 2:22). "How can you take the first step?"

The man admitted he sinned in thought, word and deed and could therefore not take the first step.

It is true the Scriptures urge believers to take Christ as their example and follow His steps; but in every case such following is associated with self sacrifice, and nowhere is it taught that even the most sacrificial living or service will bring forgiveness of sin. The gospel is not lessons from the life of Christ; but life through the death of Christ.

In Rev. 5 we read of the hosts of heaven singing a new song, saying that Christ is worthy to take the book and to open the seals thereof; not because of His marvellous teaching or perfect example, but "Because thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by Thy Blood (meaning by His death at Calvary) out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation."

C. P. R. Ship Returns To Pacific Service



FAR EAST BOUND—To the Canadian Pacific's Steamships' 10,000-ton cargo vessel Maplecove goes the honour of being the first company ship to return to Pacific service since World War II. The ship, which sailed from Montreal recently, is headed for Vancouver, where she will take on the balance of her cargo. The route for the new service will be between Tacoma, Seattle, Vancouver, Yokohama, Kobe, Manila, Cebu, Hong Kong and Nagoya, and late in September the Maplecove will be joined by her sister ship Mapledell, to offer a monthly service between these ports. Formerly the Beaverdell and Beavercove, both these vessels were on regular C. P. S. Atlantic service before the changeover. Lower right shows Maplecove's skipper, Captain R. A. Leicester, of Vancouver, in the chartroom of his ship, studying the route the vessel will sail, while lower left shows a cargo sling with a load of Canadian produce bound for Yokohama, Japan, being loaded on the ship at Montreal. All-Canadian crews will staff the two ships.

Stories about how educated the kids are becoming nowadays continue to pop up in the magazines. Here's one:

The Sunday School teacher asked her pupils to name their favorite hymns. All wrote busily for a few minutes and handed in their slips of paper. All except Jane.

"Come, Jane," the teacher said, "write the name of your favourite hymn and bring me the paper."

Jane wrote and, with downcast eyes and flaming cheeks, handed the teacher the paper. It read: "Willie Smith."

"It's the Nile, ma'am," Willie said.

"That's right. Now, can you tell me the names of some of the smaller tributaries?"

Willie hesitated, then smiled. "The Juveniles!"

"That's too bad," the father said, patting her head. "But maybe Mommy had to do it."

"No, she didn't," little Jessica sobbed. "She promised me I could."

HOW TO SELECT A SHOW CALF

The start of any race is always important. So the success—or failure—of the club calf in the show ring depends very much on the animal selected. If you want to win the Purple Ribbon when you lead your calf into the show ring, the judge must see a smooth, well-fitted calf that shows the results of excellent feeding and painstaking care.

It is always well for a club boy or girl to enlist the aid of the club agent or a reliable breeder in selecting a satisfactory calf. Then be sure to choose a calf with good breeding. Learn as much as possible about the parent stock. If possible, take a look at the mother cow and herd bull. Make sure they have good size, regular features, a smooth level back line, broad girth and short legs.

After assuring yourself that the parent stock is good, look for a calf that is a good individual in its own right—one that is growthy and well-developed for its age. Choose a calf with a good feeder head—one that is wide, short with a broad muzzle and a full, prominent eye.

Look for short, straight legs with a medium amount of bone. You must make sure the calf is built close to the ground. Select a calf with a short, deep body and plenty of constitution.

The calf should have a full hindquarter with depth in the twist and a smooth tailhead. Choose a calf with a wide, short back carrying good uniform width from front to rear.

Select this kind of calf for your show ring entry and you have the incentive to make you do a topnotch feeding and fitting job.

Hello Homemakers! If Peter Piper picked a peck of peppers, what did he do with them? Perhaps like many of us, there was little time for pickling! Yet there are short cuts which will help, and here are pertinent ideas.

TAKE A TIP

1. Cucumbers may be left for 5 or 6 weeks before pickling, if clean, fresh ones are kept in brine in a crock.

2. Storage brine should be 2 cups of common salt in 1 gallon of cold water.

3. Common salt or refined dairy salt should be used. The idoized and free-running salt makes a cloudy brine.

4. There is a standard for bottled vinegars, yet some kinds are more effective than others. Weak vinegar produces greyish pickles while a strong homemade vinegar may cause cucumbers to wither.

5. As a general rule, whole spices are preferred for most whole pickles. Tie whole spices in two thicknesses of cheesecloth.

6. Do not use iron or copper utensils for cooking pickles.

Gherkins

Wipe 4 quarts small green cucumbers. Put in a stone jar and add 1 cup salt dissolved in 2 quarts of boiling water, and let stand 3 days. Drain cucumbers from brine, bringing brine to boiling point, pour over cucumbers, and again let stand 3 days; repeat. Drain, wipe cucumbers, and pour on 1 gallon boiling water in which 1 tablespoon alum has been dissolved. Let stand 6 hours, then drain from alum water. Cook cucumbers 10 minutes, a few at a time, in 1-4 the following mixture heated to the boiling point and boiled 10 minutes:

1 gallon vinegar, 4 red peppers, 2 sticks cinnamon, 2 tbsps. allspice berries, 2 tbsps. cloves.

Tomato Catsup

8 quarts ripe tomatoes, 1-4 cup salt, 2 cups sugar, 1 tbsp. cayenne, 1 tbsp. mace, 1 tbsp. celery seed, 2 tbsps. cinnamon, 2 quarts vinegar.

Cut tomatoes in pieces, add other ingredients, and cook slowly, stirring frequently until reduced 1-2 (about 2 hours). Strain, reheat, and seal. If desired, add 6 clove garlic with spices.

Corn Relish

1 1-2 dozen ears corn, 1 small cabbage, 1 bunch celery, 4 onions, 2 green peppers, 2 quarts vinegar, 2 cups sugar, 1 cup flour, 1-2 cup salt, 1-2 tsp. mustard, 1-4 tsp. cayenne, 1-2 tsp. turmeric.

Cut corn from cob. Force cabbage through a food chopper. Separate celery stalks, remove leaves, and chop. Peel onions and cut in thin slices. Wipe peppers and chop. Put vegetables in preserving kettle and pour over half the vinegar. Mix sugar, flour, salt, mustard, cayenne and turmeric, and add remaining vinegar. Combine mixtures, bring to boiling point, and simmer 40 minutes. Fill glass jars and seal.

Tutti-Frutti

(Requested)

Put 1 pint brandy in stone jar. Add various fruits as in season. To each quart of fruit, add same quantity of sugar. Stir mixture daily until all fruit has been added. Use raspberries, strawberries, apricots, peaches and cherries. Bottle and seal.

THE QUESTION BOX

Mrs. A. M. asks: Is it necessary to sterilize bottles for pickles?

Answer: It is wise to sterilize containers for storing any food. However, if you clean jars using a stiff brush and sudsy water, then roll in a strong solution of chloride of lime and scald them, the brined pickles will keep successfully.

Miss R. T. asks: Is it necessary to coat chili sauce and other pickles with melted wax?

Answer: Unless the containers have a glass lid and sealing ring, all pickles should have a thin coating of melted paraffin poured gently on top when mixture is cool.

Mrs. J. Mc. asks: Why does wax shrink on top of jars of preserves?

Answer: Reason for wax floating may be:

1. The syrup is not wiped off the edge.

2. The lid presses the wax down.

3. The temperature of storage room is very warm, or

4. The jar was too hot when wax was added.

Mrs. C. D. asks: What can be done with chili sauce that has been scorched?

Answer: Rarely is a burnt product worth saving. If only scorched, add 2 cups of minced raw apples for 1 1-2 quarts of sauce, and cook in another utensil, stirring constantly.

If the water in which vegetables are cooked is saved and used in gravies, soups or vegetable drinks, vitamins and minerals which would otherwise be wasted are saved. When cooked in water, most vegetables lose much of their food value, but this may be salvaged by not wasting the liquid in which they are canned or cooked

LARRY HENDERSON

After the Second Great War, Larry Henderson set out to see the world as a foreign correspondent, with a passport to adventure. He travelled through 30 countries in Europe, the Middle East, and the Far East. His object was to observe all aspects of life and to record conversations, interviews, folk songs, dances and music. His wife, Joan, formerly of the CBC engineering division, who accompanied him on most of these travels, made the recordings possible. The result is a series of travel diaries called Passport To Adventure, which Henderson broadcasts Tuesday nights on the CBC Trans-Canada network at 8.00. RUG-MAKING DEMONSTRATION AT OTTAWA FAIR

Demonstrations of rug-making will be a feature of the Central Canada Exhibition to be held at Lansdowne Park, Ottawa, August 18 to 23. One of the most popular displays at last year's fair, the rug-making will be featured upstairs in the Grandstand building, and will be handled by H. N. Racicot and Mrs. Walter McLintock, instructors in rug-making at Nepean High School. They will demonstrate new methods of hooking and answer questions on hooking technique and dyeing and design.

HAD A CHECKUP LATELY?

A regular medical checkup helps to ensure good health. Through early discovery, it is usually possible to cure or alleviate such ailments as tuberculosis, diabetes, cancer or heart disease which, if neglected, could develop to a point where intensive treatment or possibly surgery is necessary. In their earliest stages, most of these diseases show symptoms which only the doctor can diagnose; it is good sense to take steps to ensure that none of them becomes established without warning.

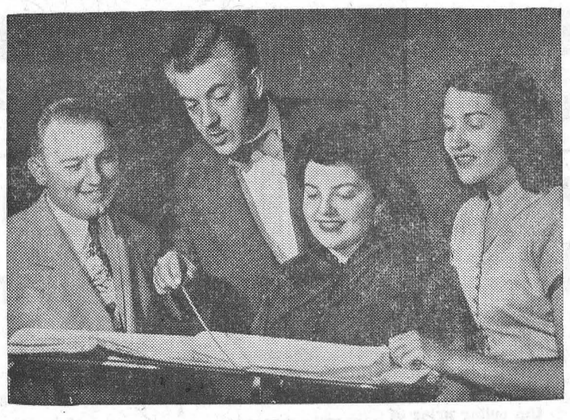
OPPORTUNITY WINNERS



The camera man dropped into a rehearsal for the radio show Opportunity Winners, heard Monday nights at 8.30 on the CBC Dominion network and caught the three stars of the show as they listened to some words of advice from conductor-emcee John Adaskin. That's William B. Williams on the left, a baritone from Hamilton; next is Adaskin; and the girls are Angela Antonelli (left), a coloratura soprano from Guelph, Ont.; and Sylvia Grant, a mezzo-soprano from Calgary. All three are studying at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto. They got their chance to star in a network show of their own by winning first place in the three Opportunity Knocks series broadcast last winter. Starting on August 22nd they'll be featured with Adaskin and the Opportunity Winners orchestra in the grandstand show at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.

Open Deer Hunting Season In This Area

Announcement of the deer hunting season in this district has been received with great interest. The whole Rideau District, which includes the Counties of Leeds, Grenville, Dundas, Stormont, Glengarry, Prescott, Russell, Carleton and Lanark will have an open season for deer hunting for the four days, November 3rd to November 6th inclusive, and this appears to be a very satisfactory arrangement, as it is a reasonable compromise between those who want a long open season, and the group who want a closed season.

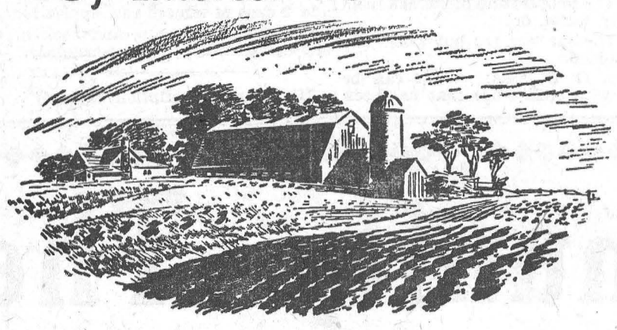
There are parts of the district in which deer are comparatively scarce, and there are other local areas where the deer population is great. In past years, efforts to close one county or township where deer are scarce, and open the neighbouring areas have resulted in confusion and disagreeable consequences. Hunters have been apprehended because they were in closed areas for township boundaries are not well known; open areas have had too many hunters who poured in from nearby closed areas, and regrettable accidents have occurred because there were too many. With the whole district open at the same time, hunters will be able to work their home territory, and avoid being targets for others. Farmers are being given a special $2.00 license, valid only in their home county, to encourage local hunting. Reeves and councils are pleased that the back roads will have fewer travellers, and so will not suffer so much damage in the shorter season.

With the prospect of an open season, the landowners have more incentive to take strong action against jacklighters. Every deer taken out before the season opens is stolen from the local hunters. Deer and cattle are so valuable that the owners cannot afford to let thieves take them. These thieves have started their work already, in the Lombardy area, so everyone should be on the lookout now.

For the hunters who want a longer season, there is plenty of room in the County of Renfrew and the parts of Frontenac, Hastings, Lennox and Addington, where a two-week season extends from November 3rd to November 15th.

The fee for a resident deer license is $5.00 and for the restricted farmer license it is only $2.00.

Of Interest To Farmers



NEW BOAR PREMIUM POLICY

A new Boar Premium Policy, under which Ontario farmers will receive Government assistance in the purchase of approved Boars, has been announced by Col. the Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Ontario Minister of Agriculture. The new policy provides that under certain conditions an Ontario farmer can receive a premium amounting to 20 per cent. purchase price of the boar, up to a maximum premium of $25. An additional $10 premium will be paid where the boar is out of a dam qualified in Advanced Registry.

To qualify for these premiums there are several conditions which must be met. To begin with, the animals must be purchased at a consignment sale held under the auspices of the Ontario Swine Breeders Association or of a District Swine Breeders' Association, approved by the Minister of Agriculture. To be approved the boar must be inspected at the sale by a committee of two persons—one named by the Ontario Livestock Commissioner and the other by the Ontario Swine Breeders' Association. The animals must be not less than six months old nor more than twelve months of age, be well developed for its age, typical of its breed and in good condition. Further, it is provided that no boar rejected by the committee may be included in the auction.

When these conditions are met, and the buyer has not received a premium on a boar within the previous 12 months, application for the premium should be made to the Livestock Commissioner, and must be accompanied by the pedigree of the boar recorded in the name of the buyer.

UNITED CHURCH W. M. S.

The August meeting of the United Church W. M. S. was held last Thursday afternoon in the Sunday School Hall and was well attended. The president, Mrs. G. McIntosh, presided over the business part, and Mrs. Karl Helmer, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and also of an executive meeting held in July. Miss Barbara Fennell gave the treasurer's report in the absence of her mother. The various secretaries gave very interestng and encouraging reports.

Mrs. W. H. Angus convened the programme and was assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. Elizabeth Scott, Mrs. Morley Shortt, Mrs. E. Fowler, Mrs. Orval Christie, Mrs. John Barrett, Mrs. Wm. McRoberts, Mrs. Ken. Annable and Mrs. Willis Robinson. Mrs. Angus conducted the worship service and Mrs. Percy Durant rendered a solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Ernest Steele.

After the meeting, a social time of games and contests was enjoyed and the group served dainty refreshments. Mrs. Oscar Wallace moved a very gracious vote of thanks to the hostesses for their pleasant entertainment.

LAUNCH NEW TB CAMPAIGN IN DISTRICT

A concentrated drive to ferret out tuberculosis among residents of Dundas county and the southern half of Stormont will begin in late August.

Plans for the mass TB survey were announced last week by Dr. R. S. Peat, medical officer of health for the United Counties. The survey area includes Cornwall, which has not had a general chest X-ray clinic since 1949.

Groundwork for the mass screening has already been started by many organizations, particularly Women's Institutes in the rural areas and the Canadian Legion in Cornwall. Their job will be to publicize the survey and try to make the canvass as tight as possible by getting everyone over 12 years of age to the clinics.

The first clinic will be held at Iroquois on August 26th. X-ray machinery will be set up in a central place and residents of the area will be X-rayed at the rate of 120 an hour. Hours of the clinic are 10 a.m. to 12 noon, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and later if people are still coming.

The mobile unit, supplied by the Provincial Department of Health, Division of Tuberculosis Prevention, will move to Brinston Aug. 27 and then to: South Mountain, Aug 28 and 29; Winchester, Sept. 2 and morning and afternoon of Sept. 3; Chesterville, evening of Sept 3 and all day Sept. 4; Williamsburg, Sept. 5; Morrisburg, Sept. 8 and 9; Aultsville, Sept. 10; Newington, Sept. 11; Cornwall Island Reservation, Sept. 12.

Portable Unit

A portable unit will be used to survey Cornwall industries which have 50 employees and more. When the industries have been screened, the public clinic will open and probably continue for three weeks.

The chest examination is free to the public. Costs are borne by the Department of Health and the St. Lawrence Tuberculosis Association, which is supported in its work by the sale of Christmas seals.

Nineteen Women's Institutes in Dundas county and Osnabruck and Cornwall townships have volunteered their help to make the survey successful. The same type of thing is being done by Junior Farmers in the Cornwall township and the Lions Clubs at Morrisburg and Iroquois. As each clinic comes to the various centres, members of the W. I. or of these other organizations will help the technical staff put the residents through for examination.

The Medical Officer of Health urges residents of the survey area to take advantage of the opportunity for a free X-ray examination—an examination which would cost them anywhere from $6 to $10 in a hospital.

"The value of the survey depends entirely on every individual doing his duty, that is appearing for his X-ray examination when it is at his local centre," said Dr. Peat. "The procedure is simple: there is no removal of clothes and it takes only a few seconds."

"The tuberculosis death rate in the United Counties has been falling steadily in recent years. In 1935, the death rate by tuberculosis in this area was almost twice as high as it was in the rest of the province. Today it is just slightly higher than the provincial average.

BRIDE-ELECT HONOURED

Mrs. K. McCallum, Mrs. R. Wyatt and Mrs. Earl Wynn were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower on July 31st at Mrs. McCallum's home in Kenmore, in honour of Miss Doreen Cochrane, of Russell, whose marriage to Mr. Erroll McKeown, of Kenmore, took place on August 9th.

The house was decorated with pink and white streamers, white bells and summer flowers. The feature of the evening was a mock wedding, with Doris Warren as bride, Thyra Carkner as bridesmaid, Phyllis Wynn as groom, and Shirley McCallum as best man, with Mrs. Earl Wynn as officiating clergyman. Miss Marilyn Carkner sang, "I'll Walk Beside You." A preview of the McKeown-Cochrane wedding was read by Mrs. Earl Wynn.

Mrs. McCallum read an address, and the gifts were presented to the bride-elect, who thanked all present.

"A Present Help"

A British peer lay tossing on his bed worrying about the empire's critical problems. Long after midnight, his solicitous servant, having noted his master's insomnia, came to the door. "My lord," he said, when told that worry was keeping the statesman awake, "Do you believe that before you were born God took care of our nation?" "Yes, I do," replied the peer. "And do you believe that after you die He will do likewise?" "Yes," was the admission from the bed. "Then, don't you suppose, my lord, that He is able to take care of it while you are alive?"

It is often easier to trust for the past and for the future than to believe now that God will solve a present problem.

PRAIRIE SCHOONER

Here are four of the Winnipeg musicians who board an imaginary covered wagon every Saturday night and put themselves through a spirited half-hour session of old-time dances calculated to make the rafters ring wherever a radio is tuned to their broadcast. Prairie Schooner goes on the air at 10.00 on the CBC Trans-Canada network. In the picture, left to right, are: Emil Magnacca, violinist; Jimmy Gowler, conductor; Pete Couture, violinist; and Ted Komar, accordionist. Couture is a descendant of one of the Red River Settlement's most famous musicians. Gowler's forefathers were Selkirk settlers who moved to the Prairies through York Factory on Hudson Bay in 1836. His vast collection of folk and dance music enables him to go through the year without repeating a number.

CANADA'S health

MILK'S A CINDERELLA

By adding a little glamour in the way of flavor and color, milk may be made a more attractive drink for those who do not care for it in its plain state. Chocolate or other cooking flavors and pure vegetable colouring will help to give it variety. Used in soups, desserts or sauces, milk will still supply its food values.

MENACE OF CHILDHOOD

Whooping cough should never be considered merely a childhood disease that is inevitable or simple. It is a potential killer, particularly in babies. At the same time as the child is being inoculated against whooping cough and diphtheria, he may also receive protection against tetanus (lock jaw) which, while not contagious, is an agonizing ailment that can cause the death of a child or adult.

SPEAKING OF OPERATIONS

Discussing painful dental experiences in the presence of children may instill in them a fear of the dentist that will prove difficult to overcome. It is equally unwise to assure a child that his dental treatment will never cause him pain. By making his first visit, preferably at the age of three, a matter of having his teeth inspected and cleaned by his dentist, the child will form a happier attitude towards future visits.

HIDDEN TREASURE

To make the best use of foods and to discover the values in proteins, minerals and vitamins, it is a good idea to learn the nutrients supplied by various foods.. Some foods supply a little of each, while others are rich in one mineral or vitamin. Information on this subject will be found in the booklet entitled "Healthful Eating," available free of charge from provincial health departments. It should be at hand when planning the family meal.

REACTION

An allergy is a reaction on the part of the skin or other parts of the body to some ordinary substance. The condition may involve the skin in painful or itchy rash or it may cause an asthmatic reaction. If it is in the "hay fever" group, the allergy may take the form of running eyes and nose. Medical science has developed ways of identifying the offending substances and, if treated, the patient may be desensitized or his symptoms alleviated.

HOME REMEDY

There are a few minor ailments that may be treated by proper home methods but most illnesses should receive medical attention in their earliest stages. No one should ever attempt home treatment of a pain in the side, that might indicate appendicitis, or repeated attacks of indigestion. "Curing" symptoms may be a convenient way of stopping pain but it may mean that the warning of a serious disease is being driven under cover.

FASCINATING FLAMES

Matches, lighters and fire in general hold a great fascination for children which, if not controlled, may lead them into danger. If the child is old enough, he may be taught how to light the lamp and stove at the summer cottage and how to burn fallen leaves safely in autumn. By providing him with an outlet for making fire, he will not be so likely to try experiments on his own. Every child should also be taught the danger of starting fires in wooded areas. Unless properly managed, these may lead to forest fires, with consequent loss of wild life and trees.

SOUTH MOUNTAIN PASTOR AND WIFE AT CLERGY SCHOOL

Among the forty-four rural clergy who attended the School for Rural Clergy at the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph recently were Rev. and Mrs. Eric Larsen, of South Mountain.

The purpose of the school was to emphasize the relationship of technical agriculture to human welfare, and to give the rural clergymen a broader understanding of the principles of modern agriculture.

The week-long activities consisted of lectures on the various fields of agriculture by members of the O.A.C. stag, and field trips to experimental plots and nearby farms to study latest varieties and methods. An innovation this year was a series of discussions on "Rural Life and Institutions" conducted by Dr. N. H. High, Director of the O.A.C. Diploma Course.

Weed of the Week!

"WHITE COCKLE"

White Cockle, like many other weeds, goes under several names, among them are White Campion and White Robin. C. H. Kingsbury, Fieldman for the Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, says that it is one of the most difficult weeds to control, once it has become established on a farm.

It is a biennial or short-lived perennial with large fleshy roots and branching stems two to three feet high. In some ways it resembles the Bladder Campion but the oval leaves are narrower and both the leaves and stems are sticky and covered with hair. The seed pod too, is different, in that it has ten notches at the top instead of the five as are on Bladder Campion.

clean seed as the weed is most often

Mr. Kingsbury advises the use of introduced to a farm as an impurity in Clover seed. Also, it is in new clover and alfalfa seedings that it is most troublesome.

Unfortunately, White Cockle is quite resistant to 2-4-D. In this case, he recommends cultural control as the only effective method of eradicating this pest from our Ontario farms. Black fallow for one year will destroy most of the plants. However, the roots will continue to grow if there is any soil covering them. Other means of eradication are mowing to prevent seed from setting, discing in late summer, short rotation and thick seedings to smother the weed. Mr. Kingsbury states that the important thing is to control it before it takes over a field, and the use of clean seed will prevent it from getting another foothold.

Remove heavy brown stains from aluminum and enameled cooking utensils by using steel wool and a good mild cleansing powder.

Sticky Paper

If paper has stuck to the top of a table, put a few drops of sweet oil on the paper and rub lightly with a soft cloth. Then polish with furniture polish.

A Substitute

It is well to remember that two teaspoons of cream of tartar and one scant teaspoon of baking soda are equal to three teaspoons of baking powder.

Uneven Curtains

If the curtains tend to hang unevenly after laundering, run a curtain rod through the bottom hem and let hang for several days. This usually straightens them out.

Grease Spots

Do not use hot water for washing grease spots on linoleum or wood floors, as this will set the grease. Wash with soap powder and cold water until the grease comes out.

Porch Chairs

If the newly painted porch chairs seem to get sticky in the damp weather, try rubbing over the painted surface with a cloth dampened in gasoline. It will remove that stickiness.

Glasses

Glasses should not be put into hot water bottom first as the sudden expansion might cause them to crack. Slip them into the water edgewise, and even the most delicate type will be safe.

Freshly-Cut Peaches

Freshly-cut peaches will not lose their light colour if wrapped in waxed paper and placed in the refrigerator until ready to be served. This allows the housewife to prepare them further in advance if she wishes.

Cement For Mending

A cement for mending stone jars, wash boilers, etc., and which will resist the action of hot or cold water, acids, and almost any degree of heat, can be mixed from litharge and glycerin. Mix together to the consistency of very thick cream, or even soft putty, and apply. The article should not be used until the cement has hardened, which will require from one day to a week, according to amount used. Make this only as required.

THE ZIEGFIELD OF CANADA

Jack Arthur, producer of the C. N. E. grandstand show, has weathered almost every kind of crisis show business can offer—and loved it. You will enjoy reading about the fabulous career of Canada's leading showman in the August 16th issue of the Toronto Star Weekly, as Jack Karr gives a behind-the-scenes account of the producer's tremendous job in arranging lavish entertainment to draw 300,000 spectators to each of fourteen performances.

U.N. Films TV Program for Latin America

Wife of Chilean President Visits U.N.

Mrs. Rosa M. de González-Videla, wife of the President of Chile, visited United Nations Headquarters while in New York City. She came to N. Y. to receive the "Mother of the World" award for 1952, for which she was selected, as a tribute to her social work. Here she is seen in one of the United Nations Radio studios, recording a broadcast to the women of Chile. Seated at her right is Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Representative of the United States on the United Nations Commission on Human Rights.
