Long May They Reign!

Many Canadians View Royal Pageant in London

700 Watch Procession From Canada House. — Hail Queen Mother and Little Princesses.

The King of Canada—for such he is by the new Oath of Coronation—was given a resounding ovation as he passed Canada House girt about with stands bearing more than 700 Canadians.

Just a few minutes earlier Canadians were made to realize their significant participation in the great day when Prime Minister Mackenzie King leaned out of the window of his splendid carriage, waving his white plumed Windsor hat and beaming at the enthusiastic recognition accorded him by the Canada House crowds.

Mr. King was obviously thrilled by Canadian shouts and the Canadians were thrilled by his appearing in the stately procession.

It was a great day for Canada House which enjoyed a commanding view over the massed tens of thousands which paved the adjoining Trafalgar Square, and Canadians had a perfect view of the returning procession.

Most notables gave a special bow to the Canada House massed stands. Queen Mary, who looked regally beautiful—unlike the stern pictures which often appear of her—was received with emotional shouts and replied by waving her hand as she smiled from her carriage.

In the same coach the little Princesses, Elizabeth and Margaret Rose, fresh, bright and cheery, moved across the seat to see to whom "Granny" was waving. The Canadians roared their applause.

The King and Queen, on the other hand, seemed all-conscious of the momentousness of the great occasion, and perhaps, somewhat nervous. They looked to neither side as they passed but their faces were set in a firm smile which manifested their happiness provoked by thunderous hurrahs of the Trafalgar Square throng.

Another Canada House favourite was Prime Minister Baldwin whose carriage momentarily halted opposite the stands owing to a jam in the crowd. As if by signal, the spectators roared "for he's a jolly good fellow," singing several verses of the old refrain.

Troops too roused the Canadians, particularly those of Canada and other Dominions and colonies. The New Zealanders in their immaculate ranks perhaps stole the show, although the Royal Canadian Mounted Police brought a great shout from the whole Trafalgar Square and Canada House crowd. But their scarlet coats were not so conspicuous or spectacular as usual against the Brilliant British uniforms and the gorgeous raiment of the Indian troops.

Aside from the stirring pageantry the Canadians found the 10-hour vigil one of unflagging excitement. Trafalgar Square lost its identity with the famous gray-stone centre buried in a mass of humanity.

Even pigeons found their perches on the base of the Nelson Column stolen by enthusiasts who had been there for 25 hours.

The four lions guarding the base were zealously protected by bobbies who permitted only a few tiny tots to squat on the lions' forelegs, thus avoiding a major accident should somebody slide off the slippery backs and fall 20 feet.

A PRAYER

FOR THE KING'S REIGN.

O GOD, the Ruler over Earth and Sea,
Grant us Thy guidance in the reign to be.

Grant, that our King may make this ancient land
A realm of brothers, working mind and hand

To make the life of man a fairer thing:
God, grant this living glory to the King.

Grant to our Queen, the strength that lifts and shares
The daily burden that a monarch bears:

Grant, to them both, Thy holy help to give
The hopeless, hope, the workless, means to live:

The light to see, and skill to make us see,
Where ways are bad, what better ways may be:

And grace, to give to working minds the zest
To reach excelling things beyond their best.

Grant to them peace, and thy diviner peace,
The joy of making human wars to cease:

Make wise the councils of the men who sway
The Britain here, the Britains far away:

And grant us all, that every rightness willed
In this beginning reign may be fulfilled.

Poet Laureate.

Brilliant Banquet Concludes Trinity United Y.P.U. Season

Rev. Mr. Tait Presented With Desk Set by Appreciative Young Folk. —Coronation Decorations.

On Tuesday evening, the Sunday School Hall of Trinity United church was the scene of a patriotic and very colourful banquet. Original and unique decorations were carried out in the Coronation colours with liberal use of flags, tri-coloured streamers and portraits of the Royal Family. The tables were gay with red candles and special Coronation glassware available through the courtesy of Fulton Bros. Another colourful feature of the table was the red and blue place cards to which special Coronation stamps were affixed.

Seated at the head table were Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Tait, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Hewitt, and Messrs. Harry Allison, Jack Cross and Jack Fulton. Mr. Jack Cross made a witty and capable toastmaster. The National Anthem was sung in reply to a toast to the King proposed by Mr. Cross.

Mr. Bill Hanna's toast to Canada was responded to by Mr. Tait and the singing of "O Canada."

Miss Olive Gillard responded to the Church, proposed by Mr. A. Hewitt.

A break in this programme was provided by Mr. George Hosie who made his Chesterville debut as a soloist in his spirited rendition of "Three For Jack" and the timely "Land of Hope and Glory."

Mr. Pomeroy, an ex-superintendent of the Y.P.U., and an enthusiastic supporter of the Young People's, proposed a toast to the Sunday School, which was answered by Mr. W. N. Fulton. Miss Lillian Riddell gave two humourous monologues. The toast to the choir was proposed by Mr. Hubert Lloyd and responded to by Mr. P. G. Hewitt.

Mr. Don Moore, already popular with the young people as a pianist, gave two numbers, "September in the Rain," and "Where Are You?" The toast to "The Young People's Society," was proposed by Miss Olive Casselman and responded to by Mr. H. Allison. Mr. Hubert Lloyd, always a favourite, was in splendid voice for his two selections "Come to the Fair" and "Bells of St. Mary's." Miss Helen McMillan responded to the toast to the ladies proposed by Mr. George Hosie.

Another highlight of the evening was the presentation of a very fine desk set to Rev. Mr. Tait in recognition of his invaluable, though unobtrusive services through the year. The actual presentation was made by Mr. Jack Fulton, while Mr. Jack Cross read the appreciative address.

"Our Next Merrie Meeting" was toasted by Miss Lois Boyd and Mr. Harold Hummel. Miss Addie Campderros led in community singing with Miss Vivian LaSalle at the piano. A radio, loaned by Fulton Bros., furnished occasional music. The banquet closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Special mention should be made of Misses Dorothea Cross, Helen McMillan, Phoebe Graham, Grace Allison, Shirley King and Olive Casselman whose efforts promoted the success of the banquet. The thanks of the young people are due also to Mrs. Fred. K. Smith, Mrs. Geo. Cass and Mrs. Cross whose generous assistance was much appreciated.

Provincial Government Surplus Is Greater Than Anticipated

Published Financial Statement Shows $9,313,938 Over Expenditures In Spite of Increased Relief Cost.

Toronto, May 13. (Special).—The balance sheet of a business in which every person in Ontario is interested, noteworthy for a substantial surplus and an equally substantial debt reduction, is brought to the attention of the Province to-day with the publication of the Government's financial statement for the fiscal year just closed.

Subject to widespread favourable comment when Hon. Mitchell F. Hepburn, Prime Minister and Provincial Treasurer, presented his budget in the Legislature, Ontario's showing of an estimated surplus of $7,000,000 after paying a relief bill of $12,500,000, was considered remarkable inasmuch as it represented the first balanced budget in Canada since the depression. The complete picture, as revealed in the figure of the published statement, shows the actual surplus to be much larger than Mr. Hepburn indicated, namely $9,313,938; and this after taking care of a relief bill, not of $12,500,000 only, but of $13,270,000.

This more than justifies the comments which have already been made, not only in regard to the successful financing of the Province's business for a year, but also with respect to the resulting effect on Ontario's position in the financial markets of the world, as well as the substantial relief it becomes possible to give to taxpayers of all classes.

Action of the Treasury Department in publishing the statement in the press is a departure in government procedure and one which is designed to give promptly all the facts of the pay-as-you-go policy to the persons most interested—the taxpayers.

Unprecedented Surplus.

Examination of the statement now confirms the fact that the surplus is 12 times the surplus budgeted for a year ago and achieved while other provinces were striving to borrow to meet current expenditures. This is the largest surplus realized by any Canadian province since Confederation. It has also been noted that, in addition to realizing an unprecented surplus, the funded debt of the province has been reduced by $26,000,000 and the gross debt by $33,000,000—or three times the amount promised in the last budget address. It is the first reduction in the gross debt of the province that has been made in the present century.

Discussing the decrease in funded debt, experts agree that it has been accompanied by a change in carrying charges even more revolutionary than the turning over from a 1936 deficit of $13,000,000 to a staggering surplus. It is pointed out that in the fiscal year ending in 1934, 42.2 cents out of every dollar of revenue was required to meet the interest account. Now, less than 26 cents out of the revenue dollar is necessary for this purpose, which means that instead of 57 cents remaining for the benefit of the people, there is available a sum of 74 cents.

Attention is directed to the fact that the Treasury Bill debt has been lowered by $12,000,000 and that the average rate of interest is half that standing on the books in July, 1934.

Another fact which is stressed is that 15-year money was obtained at home at the most favourable rate received by any province in a quarter of a century. Bonds with an average maturity of 16½ years, it is pointed out, were sold at a cost of about 3½ per cent, the two issues reflecting the high credit enjoyed by the Province.

Social Legislation Acclaimed.

Many of the budget announcements have been enthusiastically acclaimed throughout the Province by reason of the widespread benefits they represent. The highest commendation has been forthcoming from municipal councils as a result of the granting of a provincial subsidy to municipalities equal to one mill on the tax rate. At the same time, these councils have been enabled to reduce taxation as a result of the Province having relieved them from contributing to the cost of old age pensions and mothers' allowances. The government's sympathetic attitude, so far as social legislation is concerned, is also reflected in the Dominion Government'c decision to grant pensions to the blind at the age of 40.

Farmers Will Benefit.

It is pointed out also that, in addition to abolishing the amusement tax representing a sacifice of $1,900,000 a year, there have been other drastic cuts in taxation which have been greeted with enthusiasm on every hand. In the case of licenses for farmers' trucks and commercial vehicles, there was a reduction in cost of 25 per cent, which means a saving of over $1,000,000 a year to some 80,000 of these commercial operators, and a corresponding loss in revenue to the government.

At the same time, there has been considerable rejoicing over the additional relief to rural municipalities in the reduction from 5 to 4 per cent in the interest rate charged under the Municipal Drainage Act and the Tile Drainage Act, and the lowering of service charges for Hydro to farmers.

Political observers recall that even during its period of careful retrenchment, the government did much to ease conditions, one of the first steps having been to abolish the tax on school children's examination papers.

Sound Public Finance.

During the coming year, it was estimated, there will be capital expendtures of $31,935,000 to provide employment, $14,587,000 going into highway extensions and $2,650,000 for public buildings. At the same time, the government is budgeting for a surplus of $2,282,000 after allowing $11,000,000 for relief.

The budget has been generally acclaimed as "an honest and sound public accounting," it being pointed out that the Province could have recorded a surplus of twenty millions instead of seven if direct relief costs had been capitalized.

A year ago, it is recalled, Mr. Hepburn made the following statement:—"With the saving of interest and a consequent reduction in the cost of government, we shall be able to carry the blessings of good government into the homes of the humblest man and woman in this province." And in delivering his budget address in March, he remarked: "We turn our faces, not toward the shadows, but toward the sun, and view in that direction a brighter and happier day for this great land."

A substantial reduction in passenger motor car license fees will be announced before October 15 next.

LICENSE FEES ON COMMERCIAL VEHICLES

Effective on November 1, 1937, when the 1938 permits will be available, there will be a reduction of 25 per cent. in the fees to be charged for the registration of all farm trucks and all other commercial motor vehicles and commercial trailers.

The approximate annual saving will be $1,000,000.00 to the operators of commercial vehicles.

PROVINCIAL SUBSIDY

The Provincial Government will pay, by way of a grant, to every city, town, village and township of the Province a sum representing the equivalent of one mill on the dollar of their respective assessments for general municipal purposes. This grant is made unconditionally but in the expectation and with the intent that the amount shall be passed on to the taxpayers of every community by a reduction of one mill in the general municipal tax rate. This subsidy will amount, in the aggregate, to the sum of approximately $3,000,000.00.

ROAD SUBSIDIES TO TOWNSHIPS

The 313 Townships which have in the past received subsidies of less than 50 per cent. will enjoy an increase to 50 per cent.

The annual benefit to the 313 Townships will be approximately —$300,000.00.

OLD AGE PENSIONS AND MOTHERS' ALLOWANCES

To further take the burden off real estate, the Provincial Government will assume the municipalities' share of Old Age Pensions and Mothers' Allowances.

This will enable the municipal councils to reduce their taxation by approximately $3,500,000.00 per annum.

PENSIONS FOR THE BLIND

The Province will assume the municipalities' share of the cost of this social legislation. It is estimated that the municipalities will therefore save approximately $100,000.00 per annum.

AMUSEMENTS TAX

Effective June 1, 1937, the Amusements Tax will be totally abolished. As over 80 per cent. of the amusements tax is collected from admissions of 25 cents or under, the benefit, largely to citizens of lesser means, will amount to $1,500,000.00 for the year 1937.

The following text had to be omitted from the last issue of The Record as the copy was late and was held over along with several other items of news.

Our Flag, The Union Jack.

This is indeed a most appropriate subject for the month of May at any time, but especially more so this year. Around us on every side in every part of the British Empire we see the Union Jack floating proudly on the breeze; a silent reminder of the coronation festivities which are to take place on the twelfth of this month; when George VI. will be crowned king of the British people.

How many of us when we see the flag realize just how it has come to us and what it stands for?

A flag is something more than a patch of colour on an old bit of bunting. Its design and colouring have a history; and perhaps in all the world there is no flag which bears upon its fair folds so interesting a story as our own Union Jack.

The original English flag was the banner of St. George, a red cross on a white ground.

In 1603 when England and Scotland were united, the cross of St. Andrew, a white diagonal cross on a dark blue ground was added.

Nearly one hundred years later, in 1801, the Irish parliament was merged into this Union and the cross of St. Patrick, a red diagonal cross on a white ground was added, and there we have the Union Jack as it is to-day.

The Union Jack, therefore, has become the emblem of the British race; and wherever it is displayed it indicates British liberties and British law.

Our flag has come to us, then, not by bloody strife but by union and cooperation. The colours of the Union Jack are red—the emblem of courage; white—the emblem of purity, and blue, the emblem of truth. It is red with the blood of our heroes; it is blue with the blueness of the sea; it is white as the stainless soul of justice which it represents wherever it flies.

North and south, east and west, it flies over wide untenanted spaces and over crowded cities; over lands just emerging from barbarism and over ancient civilizations. On every continent it floats over hundreds of tribes and races. Not a church faith is there without worship under the British flag; not a language among men which is not spoken somewhere beneath its shadow. Above the broad desert of South Africa, through the spacious bushlands of Australia, across the young provinces of Canada, over the forests of Newfoundland and above the templed cities of India our flag floats, and wherever it floats it is loved and cherished.

Why is this? We need not ask if we but remember what the flag flies for. It flies for the government of the people, by the people, and for the people. It flies for liberty to all who will use it and not abuse it; it flies for the spread of peace and truth throughout the world.

The Union Jack, I have said, is the outward emblem of the British Empire. Our soldiers and sailors salute it; our regiments have carried it into battle, and many a brave man has died to save it from falling into the enemy's hands.

Such is the flag we honour to-day, and these are the things that it stands for.

Surely as we gaze on its fair folds with its three crosses spelling duty, service and sacrifice we do well to believe that it is not only worthy of our love and reverence but it is beyond any doubt the best of the flags on earth.

And though:
You may say it's an old bit of bunting,
You may call it an old coloured rag,
But "Freedom" has made it majestic
And time has ennobled the flag.

HOME FOR FROST-BITE VICTIM.

After having spent several months in the General hospital, Brockville, suffering from frost-bite of both feet, contracted while he slept in a barn near Cornwall last November, Edward Gallagher, an aged transient, of no fixed address, has now been transferred to the old people's home at Cornwall. One leg was amputated above the knee, and Gallagher has now fully recovered.

The young wife was heartbroken.

"What's the matter?" asked a friend.

"Oh, my husband is so absent-minded. After breakfast he left tip on the table, and when I handed him his hat he handed me another tip."

"Well, that's nothing to worry about. It's just force of habit."

"That's what worries me. He kissed me when I gave him his coat."

TWIN COLTS BORN.

A rural rarity, twin colts that are apparently thriving after four days of life, are being shown to numerous visitors to the farm of Stanley Leeder, Ballycanoe, near Brockville. They are the offspring of a pure bred Clydesdale mare, are black with almost identical markings and are of average size. The mare has given birth to eight colts in her lifetime and three years ago foaled twins which failed to reach maturity.

AN OMISSION.

In the obituary of the late Hugh Robinson published recently, the following names were omitted from the list of floral tributes: Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert Cross.

A lady had a favourite pet dog she called "Perchance."

"What a singular name for your beautiful pet," said a visitor, "and I would like to ask how you came to choose it."

Two actors, both exceedingly jealous of each other, met.

"Hullo," said one. "How are you getting along?"

"Not so badly," said the other; "keeping alive."

The first man eyed his rival for a moment, then, as he turned away, he asked, casually, "What's your motive?

The class in a London school had just been given a talk on fairies, and at the end of it, to find out how much they knew, the teacher asked:

"What is a gnome?"

One bright child answered:

"Please, teacher, an 'ouse."

"These biscuits are just like mother used to make."

"Oh, darling, really?"

"Yes, that's why father left her!"

There was once an Irishman, a Scotsman and a Jew who panned a picnic and each was to bring something. When the day arrived the Jew brouhgt sausages, the Irishman arrived with the buns, and the Scotsman brought his family.

Many of them don't even know you but they're interested nevertheless because of what your telephone means to their service. Too few telephones curtails service and the value of each individual instrument as well. The more telephones in service, the greater the value to each user. From the viewpoints of both service cost and service scope, every farmer is interested in seeing that every other farmer has a telephone.

THE ROYAL FISH.

Interesting Facts About Our Dominion of Canada.

AN Act of Parliament of Edward II. constituted the sturgeon a "royal fish," belonging to the sovereign of England, although the Lord Mayor of London claimed such sturgeon as were taken above London Bridge.

The sturgeon is a native of both sides of the North Atlantic. There are about twenty species and these vary in length up to over twenty feet. The largest occur in the Caspian Sea, the Black Sea, the Danube, etc. It is a bottom fish, and obtains its food by grubbing with its snout in the mud and sand.

There are fresh water and sea water sturgeon. Most of those caught in Canada are the fresh water type. Years ago, when the Ottawa River was a great fishing ground, the sturgeon was a common sight on the local market of a morning.

The catch of sturgeon in Canada has a considerable value. It is worth almost $90,000. It is usually marketed fresh. The roe makes caviare and the air-bladder is made into isinglass.

CHICKEN CROP TO BE SMALLER.

According to F. H. Buker, poultry promoter for Eastern Ontario of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, the crop of chickens in this area this year will be from 15 to 25 per cent below normal. Due to the high price of feed and the low selling-price of eggs last fall, many farmers disposed of their hens. While there is an increase of from 10 to 15 per cent in Glengarry and Stormont counties, where feed has been plentiful, counties to the west report a less satisfactory condition with increases noticeable in only a few districts.

Local Family Bereaved By Son's Death at Dundalk

John Lyman Perkins Was in His 43rd Year.—Died Following Long Illness, April 29th.

After a lingering illness of almost two years' duration, John Lyman Perkins passed peacefully to rest on Thursday, April 29th, at 10.45 pm. A year and a half ago he was forced to give up his work as electrical engineer in Detroit, owing to a rheumatic heart, and moved to Dunalk about 13 months ago in hopes of regaining his health. He grew steadily worse, however, and three weeks ago little hope was held for his recovery. Last Thursday evening the end came peacefully during his sleep.

The son of William and Robena Perkins, he was born May 2nd, 1894, at Maxville where he grew to manhood. After spending some years in Western Canada and prospecting in Northern Ontario he went in 1925 to Detroit, where he was employed as refrigeration engineer at the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company.

In September of 1926 he married Mary Alice Seeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Seeely, of Dundalk, to whom two children were born: Evelyn 9 and Donald 6. Also surviving are his father, Wm. Perkins, of Chesterville, and three sisters, namely: Mrs. Harry Craig, Detroit; Mrs. Alfred Daniels, Maxville, and Mrs. Medause Marsolais, of Cornwall, also a half-sster, Melba, at home, and one brother, James Perkins, Detroit. A sister, Ethel, Mrs. Ted Gingrass, died in 1928.

Though a resident here but a short time Mr. Perkins had won the friendship and esteem of anyone with whom he came in contact, and much sympathy is expressed for the wife and children and other bereft relatives.

The funeral was held on Sunday, May 2nd, service being held in Erskine Presbyterian church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Mackintosh, who gave a comforting message from the Book of Revelations, chapter 7, verses 13 and 14: "And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they that came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." Miss Nellie Gardiner gave a beautifully rendered solo, "Face to Face." The remains were escorted to the mortuary chapel in Dundalk cemetery by the brethren of the Orange Order in a body, and the last rites of the order were conducted. The flower bearers were brethren of the Orange Order. The pall bearers were six brothers-in-law: D. E. Seeley, Wm. Seeley, Leonard Seeley, Selby Seeley, and Wm. Atchison.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful and were from his wife and children, Seeley family, Mrs. E. Scilley and family, Erskine Presbyterian church, Evelyn's Chums, L.O.L. No. 797, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cabell, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parks, Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cabell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Craig, James Perkins, Erwin and Wallace Cummings, all of Detroit; Mrs. Geo. Pursley and daughter, Marjory Campbell and Miss Dorothy Bemrose, Toronto; Wm. Perkins, Chesterville; James Sproule, New Liskeard; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Minke, Desboro. —Dundalk Herald.

Scouting in an Indian Reformatory.

Another story of the notable success of Scouting for boys and young men in Indian penal institutions was related by an Indian Scouter before a Rotary Club in India. Twelve years ago he had suggested to the head of a large reformatory for boys that a Scout troop might help solve their disciplinary problem. He was told that the idea was impracticable, as armed guards were necessary to keep order, and discipline was only maintained by public floggings. He was, however, permitted to visit the institution once a week to introduce Scouting games, and before long he was permitted to live on the premises. A Scout troop was eventually started. three years after his departure. Recently he had returned, to find an amazing transformation. The armed guards were gone, floggings were things of the past. The boys were even permitted, upon "Scout's Honour," to visit their homes, and return at an appointed time. And to date not a single boy had failed to keep his promise.

"You advise a man to attend to his business?"

"Certainly," answered Mr. Dustin Stax.

"Suppose he is making a business of stock speculation?"

"That isn't attending to his business. That's trying to guess other people's business."

"Are you and your wife on speaking terms?"

"Well, I'm listening again."

Wife: "Oh, darling, one of the goldfish is in a dreadful way—almost dead. Can it be cured, do you think?

Husband: "H'm—I don't see why not. They cure herring, don't they?"

"Oh," she drawled languidly, "it was named after Lord Byron's dog. You remember what he speaks of it and says, 'Perchance my dog will howl."

OLD MAN FOUND DROWNED.

Brockville.—Following an investigation conducted by Dr. F. S. Young, coroner, Seeleys Bay, an inquest was dispensed with in the case of Joseph Dorway, aged 86, whose body was found floating in Rideau Lake, near Portland. It is believed that the aged man, missing from his home overnight, wandered into the woods and, in going down a steep hill, slipped and fell into the lake.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

- By -

MISS HELEN LACEY, B.H.Sc.

SPRING TONIC FROM THE GARDEN.

THE DAYS of blood medicines for flagging appetites are gone. The tonics you need are fresh vegetables from your garden, from the market, or vegetables previously canned. Eat them every day for they mean better health for your body.

Vegetables are most valuable for their bulk, for minerals, for vitamins and for the water which they supply. The cellulose structure of vegetables gives them their bulk and thus aids digestion. The minerals of vegetables provide one of the most important sources of three essential minerals: phosphorus, calciu um and iron. Phosphorus forms a part of every cell of your body; calcium helps to give rigidity to bones and teeth; iron is important in blood formation.

With even such a brief outline of the value of vegetables we see how important and necessary they are to the body.

CREAM OF SPINACH SOUP.

2 cups spinach stock and pulp
4 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons butter
2 cups milk

Canned or fresh spinach may be used. Press through a sieve or potato ricer until you have two cups of pulp and stock combined. Melt butter, blend in flour and seasonings. Add vegetable stock gradually to prevent lumping. Stir and cook until thick. Add hot milk. Serve piping hot.

It is always best to make cream soups in a double boiler.

Asparagus Soup may be made in the same way as Cream of Spinach Soup.

CREAMED ASPARAGUS.

Wash asparagus stalks and cut in inch lengths. If the ends of the stalks are tough, they may be peeled and made fit for use. Cover with boiling water and cook covered until tender—15 to 20 minutes. Pour off part of the water, reserving it for soup. Thicken the remaining liquid with flour and add salt, pepper and butter to taste.

If preferred, the asparagus may be drained completely and a white sauce made with milk poured over it just before serving.

SPINACH, EGG AND CHEESE.

Put a layer of cooked spinach (chopped fine) in individual buttered baking dishes. Add a litte melted butter. Break a raw egg into each dish; sprinkle with salt and pepper and grated cheese. Bake in a slow oven until the cheese is melted and eggs are set. This may also be made in one large casserole.

ESCALLOPED SPINACH.

2 cups cooked spinach
1 cup grated cheese
1 cup bread crumbs
Salt and pepper

Chop spinach very fine. Grease a baking dish and cover with a layer of crumbs. Add a layer of spinach; sprinkle with cheese. Repeat until the dish is filled, finishing with a layer of crumbs. Dot with butter and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.

GREEN ONIONS ON TOAST.

Cook green onions until tender in salted water. Arrange on toast and pour over them a white sauce.

VEGETABLE SALAD.

A substantial vegetable salad makes an excellent main dish for luncheon or supper.

Great variety can be had in making vegetable salads. Some appetizing combinations are as follows:

1. Diced carrots, diced celery, peas, diced beets.

2. Sliced cucumbers, sliced tomatoes, radish roses, diced cooked potatoes.

3 Shredded cabbage, diced celery, diced cucumber, chopped pimento, chopped green pepper and chopped olives.

4. Cucumber, celery, cabbage, tomato, radishes, onion, pimento.

The ingredients of a vegetable salad may be all mixed together and salad dressing added, or each vegetable may be mixed separately with the dressing and placed in mounds on a lettuce leaf. The latter method lends itself to individual salads, the former to the salad bowl from which each person is helped.

* * * *

If vegetables are allowed to stand in salad dressing for a few hours before combining, the flavour will be improved.

* * * *

The flavour of boiled spinach is improved by the addition of a little lemon juice or vinegar before serving. If desired, the lemon may be cut in slices and arranged around the dish of spinach.

* * * *

Spinch is one of the most valuable of vegetables as it contains vitamins A. B and C in abundance and is also an important source of iron.

* * * *

Spinach chopped very fine or pressed through a sieve is one of the first vegetables to be given to very small children.

HEALTH

A HEALTH SERVICE OF THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN CANADA

PERIODICAL HEALTH EXAMINATION.

MARY SMITH, Canadian nurse, with a wealth of golden hair, clear blue intelligent eyes and handsome features, served the needs of soldiers in the hospital at Etaples, France, during the period of the War. She met her fate there in the person of Lieutenant Sanders, of the United States Navy. They were married and went to live in Philadelphia in 1920. The husband was promoted and had a comfortable position in the Navy Pay Office. They were very happy and in the course of five years two very fine children, a boy and a girl, arrived to cheer the household of the pair. (Names are, of course, fictitious.)

One day, chatting with a young woman friend, the subject of periodical medical examination came up for discussion. The personnel of navies are required to present themselves at regular intervals for physical examination in order that the authorities may know whether their men are fit. This privilege is extended to the members of the families of those employed in the Navy.

Although there was apparently nothing wrong with these young women, they decided to have the examination thus conveniently provided. Thinking it a bit of a jojke, they went up for examination whereupon it was discovered that the wife of Lieutenant (now Captain) Sanders had a small cancer of the neck of the womb. She had, as was advised, prompt treatment by radium in the clinic of the hospital and had supervision at regular short intervals for three years and subsequently every six months. It is now eight years since treatment was initiated, there has been no return of the condition discovered and the young woman has remained perfectly well. There is no doubt that in this case periodical examination saved the life of this bright young woman.

A man, 39 years of age, called to see his doctor because of a touch of what he called lumbago. He looked the picture of health. He had never had any illness. Routine examination included an analysis of the urine. Sugar was found in the man's urine and further investigation proved that he had an early case of diabetes. He was put on a proper diabetic diet and now, 10 years later, is in good health. If he had waited until the diabetic condition showed marked symptoms, he would have had his health seriously undermined by the disease. He would, if alive, be taking insulin every day. Even with this care he would be fortunate to be alive. Periodical examination has served to save his life.

The ordinary citizen, the thrifty farmer, the mechanic, find it important to have an annual overhaul of their machinery, be it an automobile, a reaper or the tools of work. Yet the health of one's body is a thousand times more important than the maintained quality of any machine.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company found that a large group of its policy-holders who were regularly re-examined reduced their average mortality by 23 per cent. Industrial concerns find it pays to check the health of their employees. In one plant during a period of 12 months, 11 cases of diabetes and 19 cases of Bright's disease (a kidney disease) were discovered at these examinations. Pulmonary tuberculosis may be found in time to save the patient and prevent infection in his family. The discovery of infected teeth and tonsils results in the cure and prevention of much disease. What is regarded by the person as a simple indigestion may prove to be an ulcer of the stomach, appendicitis or disease of the gall-bladder. Ask yourself the question. Can I afford to neglect to have a periodical health examination? Have it on your birthday!

Questions concerning Health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College street, Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.

Mr. Jesse Bigelow, of McGill University, Montreal, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bigelow, this week before going to Beachburg where he will be in charge of the Presbyterian congregation for the summer months.

Miss Eileen Campbell, who has been at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Campbell, has returned to the Hotel Dieu hospital, Kingston, to resume her studies for her R.N. and prepare for graduation which takes place early in June.

Misses Rae Dixon and Jean Fulton and Mrs. W. O. Dixon motored to Kingston on Friday last to attend the Convocation at Queen's University where Mr. Hubert Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dixon, received his degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Many local people will be interested to hear of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Doering who some time ago went to the Jersey Islands to make their home. This week a letter received tells of Charles making quite a name for himself at the Prep school which he is attending in St. Hellier. Among ninety boys he won the championship in boxing and wrestling as well as receiving a medal for the high jump. Little Norma Jean, the 15-months-old daughter, was less fortunate when she accidentally pulled over an ironing board, causing the hot iron to strike her face, burning her quite seriously. However, it is believed no scar will be noticeable.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. George Cross and family wish to thank their friends and neighbours for many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy on the death of the wife and mother, also to thank Rev. R. C. Tait and Choir of Trinity United Church. 29

John Helmer, John Wardell, Alex. J. Barrie and J. Howard Fulton.

CORONATION DAY QUIET ONE FOR CHESTERVILLE FOLK

Chesterville's celebration of the Coronation was left for individual choice yesterday, there being no organized effort marking the event although the holiday was generally observed, with interest probably divided between listening to the proceedings in London as broadcast over the radio and an effort to get some little start in the garden. Many flags were flown throughout town, the most conspicuous being those at the tops of the new flag poles at the Community Hall and Public school, and that at the Separate school.

The dance sponsored by Chesterville Boy Scouts in the Community Hall proved an outstanding attraction for a very large crowd, the largest to attend a dance in the new hall, 410 being in attendance.

HUGE THRONG ATTENDS CORONATION DAY BALL

The largest crowd yet to attend a function in Chesterville's Community Hall celebrated the coronation of Their Majesties Wednesday evening in a grand Coronation Ball sponsored by the 1st Chesterville Troop of Boy Scouts. Two hundred and six couples danced to the music of Johnson Brother's Orchestra and taxed the spacious dance floor to the limit. Balloons, novelties and favours were given out generously following the intermission and a grand time was enjoyed. The proceeds are in aid of the summer camp fund of the troop.
