Lions Club Plans Trade Fair Here In October

by Lion Al Rogers

The Iroquois Lions Club held its first meeting of the Fall series on Monday evening, with President Peter Swank in the chair, and a 90% attendance. The meeting was held at the Legion Hall where the Lions enjoyed a good turkey dinner.

It was announced that the gross receipts for the summer events - a ball game, two pub nights and sales from a food booth - grossed almost $2000.

Plans are underway for a giant bingo with the Morrisburg Lions Club to be held in Morrisburg Arena on the 20th of September.

Life Member and Past District Governor, Charter President Lloyd C. Davis, made the presentation of perfect attendance pins to a number of Lions. A five-year perfect attendance pin was awarded to Lion Mahlon Zeron, a fifteen year pin to Lion Keith Beaupre and a 25-year pin to Lions Ed. Fitzsimmons, Harry Gilmer, Wilfred Hagarty and Lloyd Davis. President Peter Swank made the latter presentation.

A District School for Officers has been scheduled for Winchester on Wednesday, September 24th.

Iroquois' first Trade Fair (at least in recent history) has been scheduled for October 20 and 21 at Seaway District High School and much preparation is underway for its success.

Lion Ken Kirkby, the person delegated to be in charge of three special anniversary speakers, has arranged for the first address on September 25. For this first special anniversary speaker, the public is invited to sit in on that part of the program that will be scheduled promptly for 8.00 p.m. at the Civic Centre.

A Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Scrap Book is being kept by Charter Member and Tail Twister, Lion Ernie Jackson. We hope to provide adequate coverage with press and pictures both to Lion Ernie and the reading public via the Iroquois Post.

In several ways we hope to invite Iroquois and Community to help the Lions Club observe, celebrate and enjoy our twenty-fifth anniversary year, and we promise to keep you posted.

Successful Spin-in Originality At Its Best

Last Saturday the people of Iroquois and the area had an opportunity to see what can be done by a group of dedicated people who have mastered the art of weaving. While for many it is a part-time hobby, there are a number who are in weaving as a business.

The enjoyment that they get from this pastime was evident, as was their skill and the visit on Saturday was well worth the time and effort.

The Carman-Forward Weavers Guild has been in existence for a number of years and have been using the facilities at the Carman House for events such as this year's Spin-in. The event ties in well with the old home and the sight of weaving and such crafts enhances the beauty of the museum.

Ladies who belong to the Guild have been so pleased to have had the use of the home that they have offered to make hand-made curtains or drapes for a room in the newly finished museum. It is a fine gesture and one which the community accepts with thanks and deep gratitude.

This is the spirit that some years ago helped save the landmark from destruction for ages to come, and as a remembrance of our historic past

Letter Brings Thanks From Winnipeg School

Seven Oaks School Division No. 10 at Winnipeg, Manitoba, visited Iroquois earlier in the summer and enjoyed a visit to the swimming area here. To provide a measure of safety for the youngsters, Mrs. Bonnie Adair went to the beach to act as a lifeguard for the group.

Mrs. Adair received the following letter from the children of the school:

Dear Mrs. Adair:
I just wanted to drop a personal note to you to thank you for your thoughtfulness in supervising our children in swimming. It meant a lot to us. None of us had had your training and we would have been in difficulty had there been an emergency.

Enclosed is a small remembrance from us,
Yours sincerely,
Ruby Hanna.

One stormy night our lights went out. The blackness was total.

Little Mary screamed and grabbed me. The boys, trying to be brave, banged across the room.

I comforted them, trying to hold all against the terrors of the dark.

Then the back door banged, and there was Bob standing in the door holding a lighted candle.

"Daddy, Daddy," cried the children, their fears forgotten, as the room resumed its safe proportions in the light. Gaily they helped to light the candles and build a roaring fire.

How like that candle is my church. The spiritual resources it offers light my life with a sense of proportion and confidence, no matter how dark things seem.

Your church can brighten your life, if you give it a chance.

ITS SEPTEMBER SO LONG SNARLY!

by Bill Smiley

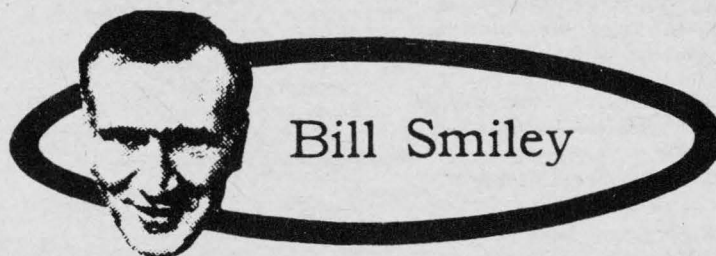

That great big "Who-o-o-sh" of air that is still reverberating across the nation, from coast to coast, is not caused by hurricane, typhoon or cyclone. It is the expulsion of breath from hundreds of thousands of mothers after their sigh of relief because school has started again.

There are many emotional reactions to the annual re-opening of school. Let's look at a few of them.

First, the mothers who have had three or four school-age kids on their hands for two of the longest, most dreary summer months in decades. During the past summer, the sun has been as elusive as medals are for the Canadian Olympic team. Rain, overcast, drizzle, downpour, humidity. You name it; we've had it.

So, mothers. You've had your brood underfoot most of the summer. Kids getting up at all hours, eating at all hours, whining, "There's nothing to do." You've been making peanut-butter-and-jelly sandwiches until you gag at the sight of a peanut. You've bandaged cuts and scrapes, invented games, planned picnics which had to be held at home, rained-out, and been driven to the point where the kids call you "Old Snarly."

For you, school opening

was euphoria. Sure, you love your children, but love, like most things, should be taken with moderation. Admit it. When you got them all off that first day, you made coffee, sat down, put feet up, lit a cigarette, sucked in your breath and let it out with a "Who-o-o-sh." You felt a deep love for teachers, however momentary. You secretly thought you wouldn't care if they doubled your education taxes.

Well, that's one reaction. What about your kids? Their obvious reaction is one of disgust and despair. "A-a-h, school! Who needs it? Back to jail." But how do they feel behind the complaining that is second nature to kids?

Secretly, they're delighted and excited. They are bored to the point of depression, whether they're in elementary or high school. They are sick of "Old Snarly". They've had enough of working, if they worked, or bumming, if they just bummed.

Despite the constant criticisms of the "unreal" life at school, in my opinion many young people have far more "real" life there than they do at home.

Opening day means seeing old friends, making new ones, exchanging lies about what they did all summer and sizing up, with a hard, cold stare, the new teachers for the year.

For high-school students, despite their attempt to be blasé, it means the end of that heart-breaking summer romance. But look! There are some new chicks, and some of last year's teenyboppers have turned into real birds. And that greasy obnoxious Grade 10 boy of last year is now a sophisticated Grade elevener, after a summer pumping gas. And he has a motor-bike!

Most of all, at school they are accepted by their peers. At home, they were children, were supposed to love and respect their parents, and had to obey orders, however grudgingly. At school, they don't have to even pretend to love or respect their teachers and disobeying orders becomes a game, as long as you're not tagged.

There's another species. These are the mothers who tearfully, with enough instructions and warnings to confound a Socrates, send

Spin-in Attracts Many

For those who took the time on Saturday to visit the Spin-in at the Carman House it was a really worthwhile experience. Weavers from a wide area of Ontario and the U.S. came to Iroquois on invitation from Carman-Forward Weavers Guild to show their wares and practice their skills before a live audience. Their craft was on display and for sale and exemplified some of the best weaving in the country.

This has become an annual affair and one looked forward to by the area.

Emergency Claims Office at Winchester

To provide prompt service for contract holders, the Crop Insurance Commission of Ontario has established an emergency claims office in Winchester, Ont. Adverse weather throughout the spring and summer months has resulted in a large number of claims. To date, nearly 2,000 insured have reported losses to the Commission.

Since it is now possible to assess the full extent of damage to crops, extra adjusters have been moved into Eastern Ontario to process claims. The work of the adjusters and the distribution of claim cheques are being coordinated at the emergency claims headquarters, located at the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food office in Winchester.

Early claims paid are averaging over $2,650 per farmer. Several larger farmers in Eastern Ontario have already received Crop Insurance cheques for over $10,000 each. In addition, insured farmers, like others in the designated area, may qualify for the $400 grant recently announced by the Federal Government.

Because of the high investment involved in growing the crop, some of the most severe losses are in corn. Of the total acreage grown in each county, 28% was insured in Carleton County, Dundas 20%, Glengarry 22%, Grenville 21%, Prescott 33%, Russell 66% and Stormont 51%. It is expected that claims will be paid on a great deal of acreage this year.

Insured farmers who have not yet reported their losses are urged to do so immediately by contacting their agents or reporting directly to the emergency claims office at the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food office in Winchester; phone: 774-2313.

The rest is up to you.

Delivering a constant flow of power, dependably and safely—that's your Hydro's round-the-clock responsibility. And because electricity provides so many services so dependably, most homeowners can take it for granted.

And yet, in many homes over ten years old, the quality of service is severely restricted—simply because the wiring is outdated and inadequate.

Rewiring can make a world of difference: In convenience, by providing ample outlets and switches where you want them. In performance, by bringing full power to your appliances so that they can operate at peak efficiency. In safety, by eliminating the hazards of an overburdened wiring system. Good reasons for giving top priority to your home wiring when you consider making improvements.

To find out what rewiring can do for your home, call a qualified Electrical Modernization contractor. And ask him about the Hydro Finance Plan—an easy way to fit the work into your budget.

Begin Fall Season

The opening fall meeting of the Knox P.Y.P.S. was held in the church-hall on Monday evening, September 11th, with 17 members answering the roll-call. Three new members were welcomed by the President, Renee Barnhardt, who also convened the meeting and opening response of worship. Miss Gail Smollett gave leadership in the Scriptures and Miss Joan Ladouceur in the Prayers. The Offering was received by Norman Ladouceur and dedicated with group prayer. Spirit Songs were sung in keeping with the study theme.

The Rev. John Hibbs and Miss Renee Barnhardt conducted the study portion of the meeting, entitled, "Christian Responsibility". A chalk-board discussion was held, and was related to the decisions made by church-youth in regards to their corporate responsibility, as contrasted to decisions made out of self-interests. Tied-in with the study was the showing of a recent "outing" to Toronto by the young people captured on film slides.

During the business portion of the meeting, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the treasurer's report given, by Miss Gwenn Smollett and Norman Ladouceur. The Strawberry Social report was given, and a report on the first sales of the new Crabapple Jelly Project, the young people having picked 7 bushels of crabapples for this project in August. Sales of this excellent jelly will continue in the church-hall with members being appointed for responsibilities in this regard.

It was agreed to appoint two representatives to the Presbytery Y.P.S. Council at the next meeting; that members of the Y.P.S. would baby-sit for parents who required this service to attend the annual Church School Teachers-Parents supper-night, Sept. 12th; that a decision to have an outing at Queen's St. Presbyterian Church, Toronto, in October, would be finalized on Sunday, Sept. 24th, following worship service; and that the annual Date Calendar project would see new 1973 calendars purchased depicting the local congregation and of The Presbyterian Church in Canada for sale in the congregation and community.

The format of study sessions at meetings was revised, and Miss Anne Yee and Gary Lockhart appointed to conduct same at the next meeting. A new study book will also be used. Assignments were also made for food and refreshments at the next meeting, and this meeting adjourned, with refreshments being served by Gwenn Smollett, Mrs. Lorraine Norton, and the Rev. Hibbs. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Give hunting a Hollywood ending

By Wayne Mutton, B.J.
Too many hunting stories don't have Hollywood endings: hunter driving home into the sunset with his limit and his friends.

Most of them start out all right, but too many end: "Funeral services to be held Wednesday."

But nobody likes sad endings or morbid warnings about hunting safety. Perhaps the best reminder that hunting can be dangerous is in a simple review of the regulations and steps to be taken before you can legally carry arms and join in one of autumn's popular recreation activities.

After all, someone went to a lot of trouble to regulate hunting.

There must have been a good reason.

For experienced hunters who held licences last year, the procedure is simple. Take your old licence to a licensing outlet and pay the required fee which for general hunting is $3.00 and for deer, $10.00.

For those who have never been licenced, there are tests to be taken and applications to be made out, and if you're under 20 years of age, a Hunter Safety Training Course to take.

Under 20's must take the course, usually given over three consecutive nights from instructors in communities all over Eastern Ontario: at Kemptville, Toledo, Lanark, Hawkesbury, Osgoode, Lansdowne, Oxford Mills, Smiths Falls, Perth, Embrun, Delta, Maxville, Carleton Place, Cornwall, Prescott, Morrisburg, Pakenham, Russell, Brockville, Stittsville, Alfred and Ottawa.

Instructors are available through Sportsmen's Clubs, Service Clubs, Military establishments and individuals who have proved their competency in handling firearms. Average cost of the course is $2.50.

After the course and a test, the would-be hunter is issued a card certifying he was successful and can then make a formal application for a licence. His application is forwarded to the Ministry of Natural Resources and by return mail he is notified of the date and place of the examination.

After successfully completing the four-page objective written test involving hunting regulations, safe gun handling, basic knowledge of guns and proper conduct in hunting situations, he will be tested orally by the examiner and asked to demonstrate his knowledge with his gun.

After passing this, the next step is the licence outlet, where he presents his test certification and money.

For previously unlicensed hunters over 20, a course in hunter safety is not required but is definitely recommended. The over 20's must still take a test under the Ministry of Natural Resources examiner. These examiners test on the average of 1700 people each year in Eastern Ontario.

Application forms for licences and copies of the 1972 Hunting Regulations are available at Ministry offices, Licence Issuers and from qualified instructors.

The saddest aspect of the hunting accidents is probably not the fact 95 percent stem from ignorance or of carelessness. It's the in-

Views & News

By Leo Debellefeuille

Many thanks are to be bestowed to Miss Debbie Dele-garde for the above average work she performed this summer in her role as park supervisor at Central Park. In very close observation of her direction on a day by day basis, her dealings with the children were of the highest standards. One suggestion which could be submitted for next season's playground programme would be to have the Summer Playground Programme extended to have a supervisor at three locations. In name, a trained supervisor at Central Park, East End Park and the Beach Area.

Prior to the conclusion of the school term, applications could be distributed from the three local schools whereby children could register for the summer programme with a fee of $1.00 or $2.00 per child for an eight week period. The curriculum could consist of Arts and Crafts that would be taught to the children; many types of sports, including ball and swimming, track and field events - anything to make the summer most enjoyable for all local youngsters.

This summer, "Fun Summer", a pilot project for teenagers of today, was a programme sponsored by the Youth and Recreation Branch of the Province of Ontario. It is a programme aimed to interest the individuals at their convenience. The purpose of "Fun Summer" is a hope to reach the medium point between an organized summer programme and a free, open, unorganized atmosphere. The park counselors would be in attendance as guides. The choice of activities from the registration form is left to the individual at their leisure. Elementary school aged children and teenagers would be free to choose from different categories: sports, arts, crafts, cultural and special events.

As an example of some of the events that could be organized in the sports area are: baseball, tennis, slow pitch ball, swimming, soccer, lacrosse, track, golf, gymnastics, volleyball and table tennis. In the art area: charcoal sketching, oil painting, water colour and pastels. In the crafts area: ceramics, weaving, sculpture, candle making, copper tooling, knitting and rug hooking. In the culture area: dancing, baton, nature study and music.

This programme could be staged in the morning, afternoon and evening. The Youth and Recreation Branch of Ontario have experts who are available to train local senior high school students as counselors in such a programme. A fee of $2.00 per child would not seem too steep for such a well organized eight week project. At the conclusion of the season, a Penny Arcade could be held whereby all the local citizens could attend and view the results of the programme and the efforts of the youngsters after their completion of "Fun Summer".

What is your opinion? Several local talented parents would be most welcome to assist in such a project.

Another suggestion worth some thought would be to install playground equipment at the beach area. There are several hundred adults and children alike patronizing this recreation spot and when not employed with the swimming programme, they could use the facilities of the playground equipment.

For mom and dad, a few Bar-B-Que pits and picnic tables would help to make a family outing complete at the Iroquois Beach.

The final suggestion would be to have a mass public meeting scheduled to revitalize interest in the promotion of Brownies, Guides, Cubs and Scouts in our community. Are you interested? One would assume the children are interested! It can be done. Will you volunteer to assist? Lets jointly give it a college try!

From the rumor vine, speculation has it that Bobby Orr of the Boston Bruins has financial interests in the Hughes Motel chain. Imagine registering at a motel and receiving a token gift of a Bob Orr puck!

Bob Woolf, lawyer for hockey star Derek Sanderson, suggests the colourful centre could possibly draw two salaries next hockey season if the National Hockey League's reserve clause is upheld in court.

Remember when? Bill Barilko Toronto Maple Leaf defenceman, was reported missing on a flight from James Bay in 1951? His body was found 11 years later in 1962!

With great interest, many Canadians are happy to hear that Edmonton, Alberta was chosen as the site of the 1978 Commonwealth Games. It will mark only the third time in the history of the Games that they have been held in Canada. The other Canadian cities which have hosted the historical event were Hamilton Ontario and Vancouver B.C.

The Q. J. H. L. recently held their Annual Golf Tournament in Sorel, Que. Gerry Teeple and Richard Brodeur were each given two medallions. Bob Murray, Royals team captain, and former coach of the Cornwall team Orval Tessier, each received one award.

In Quebec City there is a strong battle brewing over the subscription of hockey fans. At present, the Nordiques of W.H.L. have sold 4000 season tickets while the junior Rem-parts have sold 5000.

Dave Johnson of the Royals is off to St. Louis Blues training camp. Gerry Teeple will report to New York Rangers in September at Kitchener.

Seattle Totems of the Western Hockey League have entered a bid for an N.H.L. franchise. The N.H.L. is aiming for 24 teams by 1980. Cincinnati have been assured of an expansion entry.

The television rights in the Hockey Canada-Russia series belongs to Bobby Orr Enterprises and not to Bobby Hull Enterprises. If you wish to secure tickets Question: We are very proud of the new barbecue we bought in the spring. However, our repeated use and enjoyment of it this summer has burned off most of the paint, and now we have an eyesore.

Is there an easily applied paint I can use that will improve the appearance, protect it from rust and not burn off when we put the unit back in use next summer?

Answer: There is a new line of Tremco Heat Resistant Enamels that are packaged in convenient aerosol cans for easy application. The enamel has been especially formulated for use on any metal surface that is subject to temperatures of up to 650°F, but not to direct flame. It would be ideal for the hood and the exterior of your barbecue. In fact, any surface that is not heated to more than 650°F. This does not include the grille itself. It can also be used to protect and beautify the heat-subject metal surfaces of camping equipment or home

So if you play sports - be a good one!

SEAWAY NEWS

On Friday, Sept. 8, the Student Council of Seaway District High School held its first assembly. The Head Girl, (Judy Gurnhill) and Head Boy (Kevin Keyes) emphasized the importance of student power and also introduced the many changes to be made on the structure of the council. There will be two delegates from each level (grade) which will keep the class delegates and class sub-delegates of his level informed of the proposed activities of the council. The delegates will, in turn, pass the information to the remainder of the students.

The Athletic Association Presidents, Vicki Beckstead and Max Barr spoke about the necessity of both inter-school and intramural sports and urged student participation. The structure of the Athletic Association will be similar to the Student Council's but will involve fewer people.

Mike Saver, the Social Convenor, assured the students that plans are underway for a dance to be held Friday, Sept. 29. He also spoke briefly about the functions of the social committee and the method by which positions on the committee will be filled.

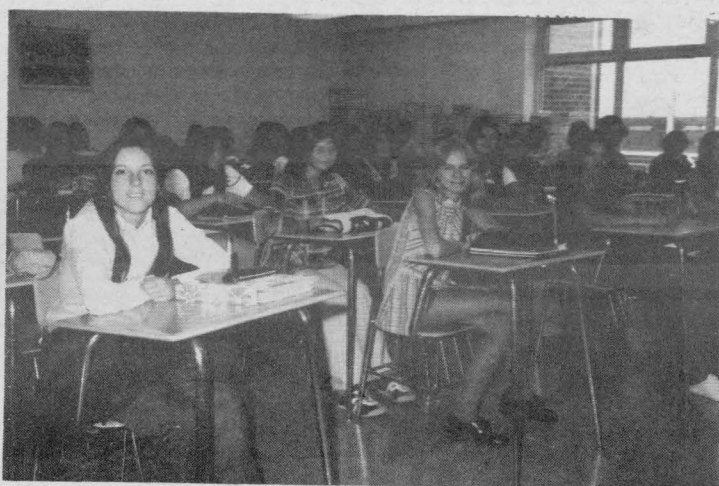

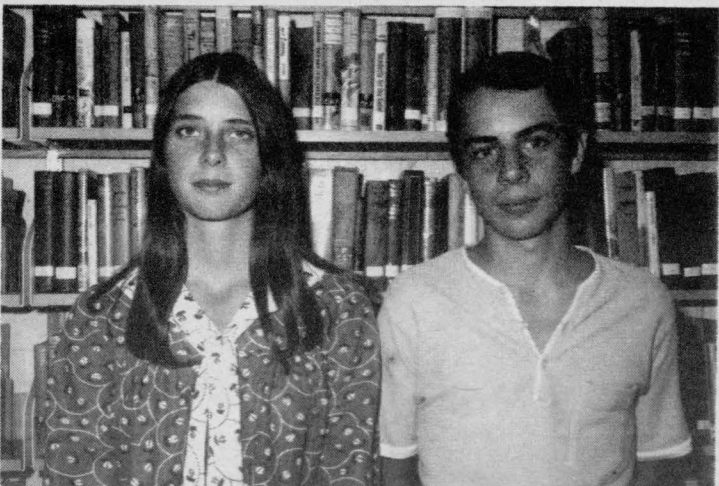

All nominations for positions on the Student Council, Athletic Association or Social Committee will be on Sept. 13. Elections will be held on Sept. 15.

Miss Cheryl Ann Coleman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eardley Coleman of RR 1, Iroquois, graduated from the Ottawa Civic School of Nursing. The E. Norman Smith prize of a gold medal and $100 was awarded to Miss Coleman. The award goes to the student "who seems best to have the makings of an all-round nurse". Miss Coleman is presently employed at the Ottawa Civic Hospital.

St. John's Church Notes

Rev. Allan Rogers has returned from a 12-day vacation in Bermuda.

On Sunday, September 17th, the Rector will be the Special Anniversary Speaker at Addison United Church. Mr. Eber Dobson a Lay reader from Kemptville will be in charge of Sunday's 9.30 Service at St. Peter's and 11.00 a.m. Service at St. John's. Mr. Rogers will be the Celebrant at the 8.00 Eucharist previous to his leaving for Addison.

Mrs. Walter Johnston, of Dixon's Corners, President of St. John's Ladies Guild, has announced that the annual Harvest Dinner will take place at the Civic Centre on Wednesday, September 27th.

Superintendent to St. John's Church School, Hazel Ace, is pleased to have on staff two day school teachers in the persons of Ruth Styles and Muriel Robertson. Our Church School begins this Sunday, September 17th at 11.00 a.m. The beginner's class will be cared for by Ann Casentree.

St. John's has asked God-speed for Eric Banford who has gone to work at the Ontario Hospital, Smiths Falls; Chris Styles and Keith Dalton who are attending Waterloo

University and Kathy Cornell who is training as a Child Care Specialist at Ottawa.

For the next several Sundays, the organist at St. John's will be Roger Johnston, and in his absence Barbara Watson.

At Thanksgiving, St. John's will have a "Festival of Canned Goods" as a special Harvest Thankoffering and they will be given to Captain Ron Dicks of the Church Army in Ottawa for his Social Service emergency pantry.

Ed. Casentree, Frank Bueley and Allan Bueley have been busy at St. John's giving the trim of the church and rectory a coat of paint.

The Rector and Wardens ask the Anglican community of Iroquois and District to begin now a regular pattern of Church School and Sunday Worship for the fall and winter season. Those who do not have a habitual place of worship are welcome too. Iroquois has four lovely churches, but the Church is the people of God who are practising, living and sharing the Christian faith. It is strengthened by each member's contribution, or weakened by their failure. Make a firm resolve and keep it, regularly.

Canada Starch was the winner of the trophy this year.

There was a play-off for low gross for the day between Jim O'Brien, Floyd Workman and Robin McIntosh. Jim O'Brien was the winner. Gordon Markell was the low net winner for the day.

The ladies division served a very delicious dinner at the end of the day and we would like to congratulate them. Also the people who worked so hard in organizing this tournament.

Top Student Writer To Win $1000

Creative writing at the high school level gets a shot in the arm this Fall when one of Canada's major trust companies will award a prize of $1,000 to the student producing the best, open subject, short story. This is believed to be the highest cash prize available to students for creative writing and is on a par with amounts earned by many professional writers. Over $6,000 will be awarded to the top three submissions from each province and specially designed award certificates will be given to all other outstanding entries.

Rules and regulations have been sent to the Heads of English Departments of all Canadian High Schools and copies are also available from branch offices of the sponsoring company, Canada Permanent Trust. "Young people today tend to think of financial companies as being pretty unemotional places," says Den Sinclair, Canada Permanent's Public Relations Manager, "and a trust company is the last place they'd think would be interested in encouraging them to express their feelings through writing. Our company has made thousands of new young friends across Canada in the six years we have been sponsoring these awards. Well over 2,000 stories are received each year and some first rate material has come to light."

The company publishes the provincial first prize winners in book form. This is made available to high school libraries and is also used by teachers for class room instruction.

Deadline for submission of entries is December 31, 1972.

Experience is the only sure-fire cure for inexperience.

In Memoriam

FADER - In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arnold Fader, who passed away September 28, 1970. A heart of gold stopped beating, Hard working hands at rest; God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best. Ever remembered by his loving wife Maud, loving sons Johnson, Clifford and Leona.

off the first-born to the first day at school. Don't worry, ladies. Next fall you'll be so glad to see little Tim or Kathy off you'll think there must be something hard and cruel underneath your love of the brat.

And what is the reaction of that fine, dedicated, altruistic group - the teachers? A few of them dread it. They are the realists who know what it's going to be like in February. They probably should not be teaching.

But, despite the fact that they moan and groan just like the kids, from my observations, 98 per cent of them are happy to get back into harness. And I do mean harness.

They've had a long holiday. Theoretically, they have "recharged their batteries." They, too, have become bored. They have spent too much money, as everyone does on holidays. They will have new students, and there might even be a few bright ones. They are going to teach better this year. They have new ideas they want to try. They've forgotten how wilted they were last June. They've forgotten how ghastly it all is in February.

Personally, my battery has run down during the summer, and I'll have to recharge it at school. This will be easy. Just attach your cables to 150 kids, and the sparks will fly.

Spring is supposed to be the time of rebirth, reawakening and such. But in Canada, we don't have any spring. Just some rain and mud between the misery of March and lushness of June.

In this country, we all seem to come alive in September. And getting back to school is like getting back to reality after the dream-like quality of summer holidays. Let's go, gang!
