Mrs Geo. M. Gallinger died on Monday at the home of her husband, second concession of Cornwall township, aged seventy years. She had been ill for the past eight years. She is survived by her husband, one son, John Gallinger, on the homestead, and one daughter, Mrs Andrew Carter, Toll Gate, Cornwall township.

Warner—Gore.

The marriage of Miss Nellie L. Gore, daughter of Mr. Gladstone Warner of North Valley, took place in St. David's Church, Wales on Wednesday, Sept. 6th, Rev. C. O. Carson officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, was unattended, and wore a tailored suit of navy blue with hat to match. During the ceremony Miss N. E. Conliff, cousin of the bride, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The groom's gift, to the bride was a gold sunburst and to the organist, a garnet ring. Mr. and Mrs. Warner are spending a week or two in Toronto, Niagara and Woodstock.

Epworth League Concert a Success.

The concert in the Music Hall, under the auspices of the Epworth League of Trinity Church, last Tuesday evening, was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Aptommas fully sustained the reputations gained in Europe and America as a Master of the Harp. Among the classical numbers possibly the opening "Prelude" was one of the best while the "Sailor's Hornpipe" was a marvel of fingering and execution. Miss Sweeney Soprano and Miss Harrison Reciter gave keen delight in their numbers both receiving encores.

The officers of the League are to be congratulated upon securing these artists to give a concert in Chesterville.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Mr. James Leitch, chairman of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, returned to his office in the Manning Chambers, yesterday, after spending the long vacation in the Old Country. He visited London, Manchester, Liverpool, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Belfast and Dublin, and studied the traction methods adopted in three cities and the devices in use for saving life and the prevention of accidents The surface street trams in all these cities are short, single truck and two storeys in height. Their fender equipment does not prevent people from getting under the cars.

McDonell—McIntosh.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Andrews on Sept. 4th, when Miss Cassie McIntosh was married to Mr. Philip McDonnell of Monkland. Rev. A. J. Injured at Cornwall.

A serious accident marked the second day of the Cornwall fair when A. N. Woodward, of Parrishville, New York, was injured in executing a baloon ascension and parachute drop. The high wind delayed the start till 6 p. m., and when Woodward finally rose it was seen that the baloon was insufficiently filled. Woodward attempted a drop, but his parachute did not open until he was within ten feet of the ground and he landed heavily He now lies in the general hospital there and the extent of his injuries has not been ascertained as yet.

Broke into Store which Recently was Fire-swept.

David Weiner, jeweller of Cornwall is certainly travelling in hard luck. A couple of months ago he was burned out, and Monday night his store was broken into and about $200 worth of watches, bracelets, rings, etc., were carried off. Entrance was effected through the rear door, a flimsy affair. The key was on the inside of the door and a pane of glass was smashed. It was a stormy night and the noise of breaking glass would not be noticed.

Liberal Committee Rooms in connection with the ensuing elections, will be opened To-morrow (Friday) Evening in Mr. J. T. Kearns' Hall. All favoring Reciprocity are cordially invited to be present.

FRIEND OF AMERICANS.

Crown Princess of Roumania, Who Enjoys Meeting Them.

Crown Princess Marie of Roumania, daughter of the late Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, is the friend of Americans. Recently society leaders in Bucharest let it be known that the American women in the Roumanian capital need not expect social recognition.

About this time invitations were sent out for a social at which it was expected Princess Marie herself was to be a guest of honor. According to custom, the names of the proposed guests to the function were submitted to the royal lady. She scanned the list and then remarked:

"I see the names of So-and-so are not here."

"They are Americans, your royal highness," was the reply.

"They are distinguished guests in our capital. If their names are not included in this list of guests I shall not attend the reception," declared the princess, returning the list with an air of finality that had its effect. Every American woman of any social standing at all was immediately invited to the affair, and the princess made a point of singling out the unpopular Americans for gracious attentions.

Like Queen Mary, the beautiful Roumanian crown princess is a woman of remarkable intelligence. Moreover, she is extremely tactful and clever. It is said if Ferdinand ever comes to the throne of Roumania she will be the power behind the throne. Her daughter, the Princess Elizabeth, who inherits much of her mother's beauty, is now seventeen, the same age as the heir to the English throne. A marriage between the two would not be unpleasing to the English people and would certainly be desirable for Roumania from a diplomatic standpoint. The suggestion that a match be arranged with Princess Maud Alexandra of Fife, second daughter of the king's sister, Louise, duchess of Fife, has not been received with much enthusiasm by the English people, with whom the Fife connection is not very popular. However, rumor now says that the lovely Princess Elizabeth is engaged to Prince George, eldest son of the crown prince of Greece.

Counting Out Rhymes.

Here are some counting out rhymes familiar to old as well as young:

Intra, mintra, coutra corn,
Apple seeds and apple thorn;
Fire, brier, limber-lock,
Three geese in one flock.
One flew east; one flew west;
One flew over the cuckoo's nest.

The one who was touched at the last word was "it" and had to catch the others in the game of "tag."

Another rhyme is as follows:

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven,
All good children go to heaven.

Still another:

Eni, meni, mini, mo,
Catch an Indian by the toe.
If he hollers let him go,
Eni, meni, mini, mo.

The Duckbill.

When English travelers brought home from Australia descriptions of the duckbill no one believed them, but the story was true all the same. It has the body of an animal covered with glossy hair, and it has the bill of a duck. Its feet are made for swimming and burrowing. Although its ears do not show, it can hear perfectly. Its voice resembles the growl of a small puppy. When asleep it rolls itself into a ball.

Preserving Plants.

In order to preserve the colors of plants it is necessary to kill the specimens quickly, and this can be effected by plunging them for a few seconds in boiling water. If a plant is allowed to die slowly the colors of its leaves and flowers will gradually fade.

America's First White Child.

The first white child born on United States soil was the granddaughter of White, the governor of Roanoke island. She was christened by the name of Virginia Dare, and her birthday was on Aug. 18, 1587.

Mrs Mary Reed, wife of a prosperous farmer of Maidstone, was found murdered in the house of her son. Her husband is missing and suspicion points to him.

The "SHADOW TEST" has been so perfected by this Specialist that the correction of imperfect sight has been reduced to an exact science.

Cross eyes can in many cases be straightened.

Children's eyes can be accurately examined without asking questions.

Many cases of Chronic Headache due to Eye Strain can be cured by wearing glasses fitted by this System.

The visit of Professor Graham to Chesterville is a rare opportunity to those who are unable to visit these Specialists in their City offices, and who suffer from eye trouble or believe they need a change of glasses.

A Strange Sleep.

Montreal Sept. 5—Looking none the worse for her prolonged sleep, from which she awakened after being unconscious for more than a week, Blanche David was at home to callers yesterday.

Her last recollection previous to Wednesday, August 23, she said, was that she got ready to visit her sister in a street not far away and started off on Grande avenue (where she lives) and then on to St. Lawrence street. After that all was a blank until she came to herself on Friday in the hospital. On the night in question she declared she took a simple supper, and she further asserted that she spoke to no one on the street, that her friends were very few and were confined to her own sex. She could not account for the creosote, which the doctors say she had used.

"I still feel rather sleepy and feeble," she said in answer to a query as to how she now felt. "I went to bed early last night and slept on till nine o'clock this morning. Of course, I have had these sleeping attacks before, eight times this year, but not for more than two or three days previously.

Undertakers Must Report.

The effects of the recent order-in-council passed by the Ontario government with a view to a better regulation of undertaking concerns and their methods will be far-reaching.

In future, undertakers must report on forms which will be furnished them to the Board of Health in Toronto every interment and every embalmment done by him. Also he cannot inter a body without a permit obtained from the registrar of the city or town to which he belongs. To obtain this permit he must furnish full particulars to the registrar of the name, sex, age, cause of death and other details and a death certificate from a doctor or the coroner of the district. This permit must be obtained each time, otherwise the undertaker will be subject to a heavy fine.

It is also enacted that every undertaker must pass examinations set by a government commission to be appointed before he can qualify for a license as embalmer. Any man may under the existing regulations do business as an undertaker, but until he has passed the qualifying examinations he must not do undertaking.

The act will benefit the public materially, and will also furnish the provincial Board of Health with an efficient check on the number and causes of death within the province.

Regulations will also be passed to lessen the danger of contagion in handling the bodies. At the present time such regulation is left to the discretion of the undertaker.

The passing of this order-in council has been due mainly to the efforts of the Canadian Embalmers' Association, which met recently in Toronto.

For the Children

Chinese Sunday School Scholars.

© 1911, by American Press Association.

This interesting group of little Chinese children was photographed at the recent meeting in San Francisco of the national Sunday school convention. There was a large number in the group, but only a portion can be seen in the picture. It is ample, though, to give a good idea of their unique appearance in a gathering of Christian children. They assembled to do honor to the national organization, of which they are proud to be a part. They are students at a school established by the Presbyterian church for their benefit and are said to be diligent and obedient scholars.

A Trick Game.

Jennie loved to spring new games on her friends when they came to see her, so she eagerly awaited a little crowd the other day, all members of her class, who invited themselves up after school. This time the new game was called "it," and "it" was a mystery to all the guests but three. These three were allowed to remain in the room with Jennie, while the others were sent into the next room.

In the game of "it" each one is called in in turn and is allowed to ask questions, and as soon as one catches on to "it" she becomes one of the inner circle, and the next one is called in.

"It" is really the person who sits on your left, but before "it" is discovered much fun is experienced.

All in the playroom must sit in a circle and must not change their positions during the progress of the game. When the player is called in he is told to ask a question of whomsoever he may please, and the person must answer correctly.

For example, "Is 'it' white?"

As everybody present is white, the answer is necessarily "Yes."

The questioner then asks any question, such as "Is 'it' thin?" If the one on the left of the questioner is thin the answer is in the affirmative. The questioner then asks another, "Do you also think 'it' is thin?" And if the one seated on her left is stout she answers "No." And thus the questioner is mystified and must continue until he guesses "It."

"It" should be announced as a trick game.

DUAL PURPOSE CATTLE.

Points of Excellence Claimed For the Red Polls.

The Red Polls are the supposed farmer's cow—first, because the great bulk of farmers live by diversities. It is often "catch as catch can." Often it is too wet or too dry, too hot or too cold, for a crop to mature perfectly or sufficiently for food or reproduction. Stock the farmer must have for labor, food and fertility. There are successful specialists among farmers, and there are special breeds worthy of all honor bestowed by enthusiasts, but

Red Poll cattle are advocated especially for their combination milk and beef value, says C. S. Plumb of the Ohio Agricultural college. In England Red Poll herds have made much better showings in milk production than in America. The best Red Poll record in England that the writer is aware of is 13,126 pounds for 347 days. The best record of Red Poll cattle under test in America in 1909 was of the cow Gold Drop, with a record for the year of 11,889½ pounds of milk and 510.62 pounds of butter fat. Frankly speaking, Red Poll cattle are not recognized as the equals of either the Shorthorn or Angus in beef production. The Red Poll cow shown here was champion at the Suffolk show in England.

the average farmer is by necessity required to "average up" at the end of the year, and those things that meet his environments best he soon learns are his standbys, writes John E. Hinshaw in Rural New Yorker.

Therefore we claim the dual cow and especially the Red Polls are best suited to the conditions on the great majority of farms east, west, north and south. We are proving this every year by records in milk, butter and beef. It has been proved by public test over and over again, both here and in England, that the dual cow often ranks first with any competing breed. The dual cow will often thrive where a dairy bred one would sicken and die. They (the Red Polls) eat brush, weeds, coarse fodders and damaged and overripe hay that would go to waste if fed to the more delicate dairy cow. The elements of the weather and insufficient shelter do not shrink the dual cow to a shadow like her dairy sister, though care and feed are appreciated by these cattle, and profitable returns are often the result of care and proper nourishment.

Cows average from 6,000 to 10,000 pounds of milk per year, with butter variations from 300 to 500 pounds annually. Many cows with special care are capable of going far beyond this; but, as a rule, they are supposed to hustle much of their own living and help keep the family on the wastes of the farm. The dual steer properly handled often tops the market side by side with the beef bred brother and is a valuable asset over the dairy steer in the farmer's feed lot. Last but not least of the good merits of the Red Polls, nature has been kind to them and us in giving them a beautiful hornless head.

Alfalfa For Hogs.

When fattening hogs for market some Colorado experimenters found that a ration consisting of three parts of corn and one part of alfalfa was very satisfactory. For young hogs which were being kept for growth one part of corn and three parts of alfalfa seemed to give best results. It will thus be seen that alfalfa can be made the principal ration for hogs that are not being prepared for market. Even when put in the feed lots it is profitable to feed a little alfalfa in connection with the grain. It enables the animals to assimilate more freely the feeds that are given for laying on flesh.

Horses Fashionable.

Fashionable folks are taking up horses again, the automobile having become too common for them. And farmers are buying automobiles to save their horses.

Dairy Notes.

It is not possible by any known method to make dirty milk into clean butter.

A separator in the dairy business is almost equal to the thrasher in wheat growing.

When a man begins to keep records of his herd he is a good long step toward success.

If farm dairying pays under ordinary conditions the better the method the better the profit.

Milk is made up of a variety of elements, and therefore a variety of feeds is necessary for its production.

Murderer Dragged Victim by Heels.

Emo, Ont. September 11—Seeking a lost colt about six p. m. on Saturday, Roland Tibbs, son of a farmer of this district, stumbled across a dead body about five miles east of here, which proved to be that of a young man. Examination by the coroner revealed the cause of death to have been a shot from a heavy calibre revolver at close range. A search by the police resulted in a letter being found in his coat pocket, bearing the address of Andrew Saman, 21 Foak Street Virginia Mine, together with a Socialist emblem and a number of 32 cartridges wrapped in a handkerchief.

Later investigation showed that the dead man had been shot in a place some fifty feet from where the body had been found, and had been dragged along the ground by the heels until it had become wedged between two trees, where it had been left. The train thus made was in direct line with a nearby swamp where it evidently had been the intention to conceal the body. Two boys of a nearby village testified to hearing two shots in rapid succession earlier in the day.

The Fair at Winchester

Despite the unfavorable weather the Winchester fair held on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week proved a decided success.

All the classes were exceptionally well filled and competition ruled keen. Winchester fair always puts up a good show of light horses. This year's exhibit was much better than any previous one. The riding and driving was very much admired by the spectators.

Heavy horses were not as numerous as in past years, but the quality of the animal showed improvement. Dairy cattle were out in large numbers, several herds of the leading breeds being represented, and the prize money was pretty evenly divided. Sheep and swine made a good showing.

Nature Stops.

When the Kidneys Give Out.

Do you feel that you simply can't go any farther—that you must have rest for that lame and aching back—relief from that constant dead-tired feeling—freedom from those stabbing, darting pains?

It is nature's warning that the kidneys are giving out and you need the help of Booth's Kidney Pills, the guaranteed kidney remedy.

In every machine there is one part that works the hardest and gives out first. The kidneys work night and day, and naturally a life of unusual activity doubles the duties of the kidneys and in time the strain tells. The kidneys out and nature cries "stop." Booth's Kidney Pills are sold by all dealers, 50c., postpaid from the R. T. Booth Co. Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. There is no pill just as good. Send for a free box. MANURE SPREADER!

MR. FARMER:

Are you interested in a Spreader. If so, let us show you the latest and most up-to-date Spreader on the market, equipped with the reversible self-sharpening graded flat tooth which will handle all kinds of material with one-third less power than is used on other spreaders. Read the testimonial of one of our most progressive farmers:

F. W. Merkley, Agent, Chesterville.

Copy of Testimonial.

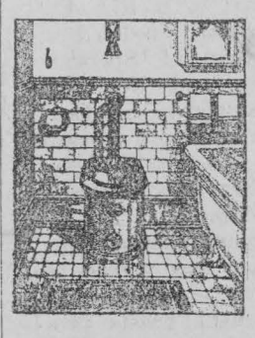

DUNBAR, ONT., Sept. 24th, 1910.

THE FROST & WOOD COMPANY, LTD.

Gentlemen,—Your agent, Mr. F. W. Merkley, of Chesterville, sold me one of your Kemp Spreaders, 70 bushels capacity, on conditions that it worked satisfactorily. I feel, therefore, that it is my duty to let you know how I found the Spreader to work. I may say we took out 140 loads of manure, some coarse and some fine, and after using it to put out those 140 loads I will freely say that your Spreader is a marvellous piece of machinery. We used one team weighing about 2400 lbs., no more, and they did it easily. I consider the Spreader one of the most up-to-date machines on the market, and I would most cheerfully recommend the Kemp Spreader to anyone who wants a first-class article in every respect, and I furthermore give this testimonial unsolicited, and anyone wanting any further information can call and I will freely give them my opinion on it.

Yours very truly,

District Meeting.

The financial district meeting of the Matilda District convention at South Mountain on Wednesday, Aug. 23rd, 1911. As a prelude to the business part of the meeting an evangelistic service was held in the church on Tuesday afternoon at which Rev. F. H. Sproule, B. A., of Winchester, was the preacher. The district meeting was called to order at 9.30 a. m. Wednesday, by the chairman, Rev. Wm. Philip, B, A. B. D. Iroquois. The business of the district was disposed of by 2.30 p. m., after which a session of the district Sabbath School Association was held, at which the Rev. A. S. Cleland, of Shanly, gave a splendid address on "Childhood the time for Evangelization." A very profitable discussion followed in which a number of members, lay and clerical, took part. The evening was given over to the District Epworth League, when Rev. R. Stillwell, of Aultsville, gave a very thought. ful topic, "Sympathy and Salvation." The election of officers resulted as follows Hon. President, Rev. Wm. Philip, B. D., Iroquois; President, Rev. D. Mick, S. T. L., Brinston; Vice-Pres., D. L. Collison, Winchester Springs; 2nd Vice-Pres., I. Hilliard, K. C., Morrisburg; 3rd Vice-Pres., Rev. A. S. Cleland, Shanly; 4th Vice-Pres. Wm. Robb, Lunenburg; 5th Vice-Pres., Chesterville; Representative on Conference Epworth League, Rev. S. F. Newton, Elma; Secretary, Miss Pearl Durant, Winchester; Treasurer, Samuel Durant, Mountain Station. Instead of the usual Ministerial Association for the District it was decided to hold a series' of Christian workers' conferences under the auspices of the association of local preachers, class leaders and other lay agencies. These meetings are sure to create a deep interest throughout the District and ought to result in much good. The first meeting or conference is to be held in Brinston on Oct. 2nd.

Douglas—McDonald.

The marriage of Miss Flo Ness McDonaid, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs W. J. McDonald, of Ormond, to Mr. John Watson Douglas of Seattle, Wash. took place at Smith's Falls, Ont., Wednesday, at the home of Mrs G. S. Snyder, aunt of the bride. Rev. Dr. Stobo, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiated. The bride was gowned in a handsome robe of ivory charmeuse satin with bolero of Irish lace studded with pearls and trimmed with crystal and pearl fringe. She wore a tulle veil and carried a shower boquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs Dr. J. A. Anderson, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor and Dr Anderson was groomsman. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs Douglas left for a wedding trip to Montreal and Quebec.

Surveying New Line.

The work of surveying the Ottawa, Smith's Falls and Kingston electric railway is being rapidly pushed ahead and for days one of the survey parties has been working between Merrickville and Smith's Falls. Mr. Upson, an expert electric railway builder, is in charge of the work, and is at Smith's Falls this week in advance of the surveyors, to figure out the best way of getting across the town He states that the line is the most promising he has ever prospected. The promoters have already had three offers of the money required and there is no doubt now that the road will be built.

Mr. John W. Hummell who went to Montreal a couple of weeks ago to undergo an operation, was successfully operated on and he is progressing nicely.

A Court of Revision of the Voters' List for Winchester Township will be held at Winchester on Tuesday, Sept. 19th, at 1 o'clock.

Gormully—Allen.

On Wednesday morning, Sept. 13th, 1911, at 10 o'clock, at St. Mary's Church, Chesterville, a very beautiful and interesting marriage ceremony took place when Miss Estella Beatrice Allen of Chesterville, was united in marriage to Dr. Joseph Gormully of Crysler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Gormully, formerly of Morrisburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Fleming in the presence of a large congregation of friends and relatives, which completely filled the church.

The altar and sanctuary were fragrant with cut flowers and greenery, which were the gift of the choir to the bride, and being artistically set with varied lights, presented a most charming picture as the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by the organist.

The bride was given away by her father and looked a perfect picture of sweetness as she entered the sanctuary in a rich gown of duchesse satin, trimmed with silk applique, a tulle veil and a wreath of orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of cream roses and lillies of the valley. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Cashion of Crysler, who was dressed in pale blue nerion over blue satin with black picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with pink satin ribbon. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. A. Gormully of Alexandia. A solemn high mass followed with Rev. Fr. Fleming as celebrant, assisted by Rev. Fr. O'Gorman of Spencervillea as Deacon, and Rev. Fr. Keeley of Morrisburg, as sub-Deacon. During the offertory a beautiful arc marial was rendered by Mrs. Shiels in her usual artistic taste and expression.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the charming home of the bride's parents and the usual toasts proposed and responded to, wishing the married couple every happiness in their life's long journey.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen left by 4.30 express for New York and Washington, D.C., returning to their beautiful home at Crysler by way of Niagara Falls. The bride travelled in a tailored suit of blue cloth with hat of white felt trimmed with blue.

The presents from friends and relatives were numerous and beautiful, consisting in a great measure of solid silver, cut glassware, and mahogany and oak sets.
